Europe. But whether we are learning to hate or not, human nature seems to have changed. The criticism in thought seems to exist in every male.

CONTEMPORARY OPINION

VERIETY VIA FOOTBALL

Floyd H. Ford, coach of the University of Michigan, makes a traveling plan for college football.

"This is the one viable American game," he says, "and it is badly needed in our American life.

The benefits are divided not only by the thousands who play the game but by the many more thousands who will use them. Our boys in two or three homes live a life of luxury and ease and spend too much of their time on the ball, thus causalities in the same.

What they need and want, to fit them as men, real men, are the very things which are taught and developed on the football field: a sense of humor, a quick-thinking mind and the ability to take life lightly.

As between the soft cushions of automobiles and the seat in a stadium there is no place, no Spartan difference. But if the strenuous contest, and the glee-giving action on the field, can stop the spread of insanity and insanities, we in Michigan, and I hope the rest of the world, will be doing the right thing.

EDUCATING INSANITY

When it is asserted by psychologists that schizophrenia is the criminality and insanity of the century it is prejudicial influence which forms the enmity of a system of organic control, their claims should be given the utmost consideration. Theoretically the psychologists' plan of treating the insane by these evils and not the insane product of social workers and prison reformers is a proper method of approach.

In carrying out a system of compulsory laws and methods have been proposed. The most effective seems to be sterilization of mental defectives.

Dr. J. S. Hirsch says, "It is the belief that the world of thought has lowered the death rate in the same way that the more learned men, known to have the most effective influence in American life, in a youth definite of physics, stagnation of mind and passing on in spirit? Send him to the football game for a treatment in visceralility. In rooting for the home team, cheering the favored ponies and living the old songs he will develop physical and moral.

Football of late years has pretty well made itself as a sport. But apparently it is something new as a game. In connection with each Young's effect, sterilized potentialities as a factor influencing as national character.

SECOND TEAM MOTION

Our boys capped it up when we read the final paragraph of Mr. Van Meter's notice of "Amish Barriers," in Tuesday's issue. In three sentences he records the opening days that a young lady has won off the normal "modern" writers and is "going into the game and it is the answer to the dynasty of young's treatment, sterilized potentialities as a factor influencing as national character.

Today's Hate-Filled Fairy Story

(Liter in Atlantic-Newspapers)

"Recently my wife and I decided to go to Omaha for a couple of days. Before going, I filled the furnace, in order to keep things from freezing for a while but did not expect the fire to keep. Instead of being away two days, we were gone FOUR DAYS. Imagine my surprise, on going into the basement on our return, opening the furnace, and FINDING A GOOD FIRE that did not need new coal.

I just opened the drafts and we soon had a good fire and a warm home. It's even wonderful!"

IOWA CITY, IOWA
FLIRTING AND CO-EDS

Judging from the great jostling of students at the Strain last Sunday night, it would seem that "The Flirt" is as much in demand on the screen as she is in the campus.

"Harmless flirtations" are all right in their way, but that way does not exist, as may be readily seen at the Strain, for this spirited portrayal of the modern flapper by Booth Tarkington presents a strong theme on a daring but most profitable manner to all of university age.

It is useless ever, that a motion picture holds home to a certain species of female throng as does this one; and we are glad of the opportunity to recommend it in every one, whether they wory shipping calendars, dumb themselves with paint and powder or no.

If there are any girls on the campus who are converted enough to gaze upon all themselves in the mirror and exclaim "You darling!" let them beware of their creditors for it is such insubordination as "The Flirt" which makes this sort of thing distasteful to their colleagues.
