BRITISH RHINE TROOPS LIKELY TO WITHDRAW

Collapse of Ruhr Peace Increases Strain Between England and France

London, Feb. 16—The collapse of the 18,000-man French garrison has increased the strain of the eastern front and made the withdrawal of British troops from the Ruhr more likely.

M. Le Trocque, French minister of public safety, and General Poincaré of the French foreign office, were reported to have developed plans for the withdrawal of the British forces from the Ruhr. A French official stated: "These plans are in the making."

The French effort represents the second blow to the German peace, the first being the break with the Belgian government.

The strain on the eastern front is widespread, and the withdrawal of the British forces is expected to ease the situation. The French are reported to have made preparations for the withdrawal of the British forces, and the British are expected to follow suit.

Rich Treasures Found in Tomb of Tutankhamun's Father

(London, Feb. 15) Luxor, Egypt, Feb. 15—The Court of Justice of Tu-tankhamun's tomb has been opened and the stone coffin in which he was placed has been removed for further examination.

The sarcophagus of Tutankhamun was revealed when Lord Carnarvon said that the coffin was so heavy that it could not be lifted. The coffin is of the innermost chamber of Tutankhamun. The scent of the ancient anointing oil which is said to have been used in the burial is said to be preserved in the coffin. PLAY IS STAGED FOR LOCAL KIDS

Tom Thumb Theatre Planning On Packed Auditions For Today's Program

The Tom Thumb Theatre, located by the University dormitory, will set up this after-noon in natural science auditorium for the children of Iowa City. The Town Cryer story is being told by Prof. E. C. Made of the speech department, and the story-boards will present two of world's greatest stories.

Tom Thumb theatre is composed in the style of the real theatre and is a make-believe world of kings and queens, and the girl who becomes a prince. It is the nature of every child to want to act and these plays are typical of the games that children play daily. They are especially well-written by Stuart Walker's whimsical and slightly moralistic style. The cast which is composed for the repertory is consisted of the University students who have been working on the plays as class work all year and are capable of giving their parts with real ability. It is in stage craft is to be used the colors in costume, the makeup.

Tickets for these plays which are on sale now at the public library and the Bank and Craft Shop will also be sold at the door before the performance, which will begin at 2:00 sharp.

GROUNDED PLEA

A band of public speakers at the University of Wisconsin have organized a "Soociety for the Welfare of Home-breakers." The great and anxiety of discouraging marriages among students, they allege to have made a necessary study of women and to have found that to make up for home building. A woman, they say, is no less necessary to the home than the doctor and the lawyer are.

Although they repeatedly complained at the Iowa University, the speakers in the "Soociety for the Welfare of Home-breakers" ascribe the fact that they do the man may be sure of their delight.

A good man must be broad-minded, but only in his intellect and his heart. If a man is travesty, he must choose the side he believes right, then define it. It is all very well to be ever so broad-minded, but only so long as he to heed them, but the significant fact remains that the number of the broad-minded is in a action, and, believing that they were right, identified all classes.

FAMOUS LECTURER TO SPEAK SUNDAY

President Kurtz of McPherson College Will Deliver Philosophical Address

"The only way to appreciate free ideas is to discuss them," warns Kurtz. "Either to be serious and defend them, or to be foolish and denounce them."

The campus is expected to be packed Sunday afternoon when Kurtz will speak on "The Theory of Knowledge" in Old Main.

Kurtz, who has been described as a philosopher as well as a popular lecturer, will be seen by many as an inspiration to the students of McPherson College.

The lecture will start at 4 p.m. in Old Main and is free and open to the public.

GIMME A HAND

The German trade union movement, which is one of the most powerful in the world, is facing a new challenge from the German government. The government has passed a law that will make it illegal for trade unions to strike.

The law, which was passed in the Bundestag on Monday, was condemned by the trade union leaders as a violation of their right to collective bargaining.

The trade union leaders have vowed to challenge the law in court, but they face a difficult battle. The government is expected to appeal the decision and the case could be heard by the European Court of Justice.
