What constitutes a GOOD RESTAURANT?

1 Of course the food counts most of all, and at Jerry's that is the thing that you need to eat for 35 cents, and in the evening don't forget the small steak for forty cents. And you can get $5.00 meal tickets for $4.50. Isn't that economy?

2 Next comes the real college atmosphere that one gets here at Jerry's. There is the feeling of good-fellowship and ease that makes one feel at home. And the service is such that one can't help but notice the efficient wait-

Remains Of Ancient Giant Race
Found By Scientist In Patagonia

By Morgan Kaufman
(United Press Field Correspondent)

Buenos Aires (AP) -- The usual course of a peace-keeping shell in Patagonia by Dr. Frank E. Wailes, of the New York University, has directed attention to other treasures in the possession of Dr. Wailes. Among them, the specimen of an ancient giant, which tends to prove that a race akin to those of the days or thousands of years lived in South America.

The specimen, directed for study and photography--would,nearly make the man in the street to believe that the figure is the remnant of a lost civilization.

Dr. Wailes has virtually discovered a city that had been forgotten in the days of a hundred years ago, and has not been the habit of the Indians, the same has been discovered be it known to an eye of energy, men, and small animals, or the writer of the specimen.

The discovery is of great interest.

By W. E. N."If we only poorer over the social root of the history and the mystery of the human species. Forced man in to the belief that it was only one and one of the animal, and arcs of our ancestors, and aid us to yet different from us at the same time."

We can only poorer over the social root of the history and the mystery of the human species. Forced man in to the belief that it was only one and one of the animal, and arcs of our ancestors, and aid us to yet different from us at the same time."

An article of proven merit removes all the gamble from a purchase, and makes it an investment of established value. The certainty of satisfaction is worth a price in itself.

CO-EDS TO LEARN HORSEBACK RIDING

Instructress Will Instill Western, Advanced Class To Take Long Rides

The instructors in horseback riding will be given for women, beginning this week. Twenty-five horses will be saddled, and the instructor on the instructor will take them in the intervals of proper riding. More than 200 women took the rides last fall, many of whom had never ridden a horse. Lessons in posture, putting on the saddle, and riding the most common gait will be given. For the advanced class there will be long rides over the country on Saturday mornings. About fifteen women make the advance class last fall and expected will be held this spring for those who signify their desire to make it.

Instruction will be in charge of the riding school established last fall through the efforts of Lydia M. O'Harrow, assistant in the department of student health. Registration and payment of fees will take place at the women's gymnasium tomorrow morning from 8 to 12 o'clock.

Cardinals “Farm-Out” Holm To Syracuse

For More Experience

Benson “Waddie” Holm who was a member of the fresh men's baseball team here last spring, an athlete who was disqualified for varsity athletics account of having played professional baseball during the season, is "farmed out" to Syracuse of the International league to be in the interest of the Cardinals whose ranks he joined shortly after leaving the University last fall.

While Holm was in the University he proved to be a star short-stop. He is now only 21 years old, and realizing that he still has time in which to learn was in planning in having the opportunity to gain the season's work under Frank Shaughnessy of the International league.

Holm's transfer was made last Monday and he is in the office of the Cardinal prospects to be sent away. He had not yet signed a Cardinal contract, and in order to be playing some time in the International league except with that club in the second in the second year of the Cardinals.

RUSSELL MAKES JAPANESE TRADE FROM JAPAN

Tokyo, April 16—Japanese trade with Siberia has dropped down almost nothing.

Since the Japanese occupation of Vladivostok, the administration of that port, as well as all others, is entirely by Soviet authority, with the real power wielded in Moscow.

The Soviet authorities of Vladivostok recently established very high import taxes and complicated licenses and permit requirements for all foreign trade. Two Japanese steamships were unable to discharge their cargoes or to land their passengers at Vladivostok, because the Soviet regulations upon trade and travel could not be complied with.

Japanese steamship companies operating ships in Vladivostok have announced that they will probably suspend such service. Business men are abandoning hope of trading with Siberia for the present.

It is believed here that the Soviet government trade quotas for Japanese trade regulations as part of the program to isolate Japan to either another conference.

DEAN RUSSELL WILL TALK ON CHINA MONDAY

To Discuss Needs Of Chinese People And Their Problems

The last public address of Prof. William P. Russell, dean of the college of education, before he leaves to take up his new duties at Columbia University, will be a lecture which he will deliver Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Student Assembly hall. The title of the lecture will be "Founding Leaders in China."

In this lecture he will take up some of the results of China both of the problems that the Chinese are meeting, and some of the problems that we are meeting. "They are not all wrong and right, and we are not all wrong," he will point out.

Closing Event Of China Week

This is also the closing event of the China Week activities which has been an observance by the Y. W. C. A. to arouse interest in the work being done by the representatives in China.

Dean Russell is well qualified to give this lecture as he has recently returned from visiting educational problems in China, having been seen there by the Rockefeller Foundation.

He is leaving April 20 to go to Columbia where he will be professor of international education at Columbia University and associate director of the International Institute of Teachers College, Columbia University. Here he will take up the broader field of educational work, in this institute which was recently founded, and of which Dean Paul Morse will be the director.

The problems of this culture in making America familiar with the best foreign educational practices and give foreign countries the benefits of America's experience in trying to make a democratic system of schools.

This is how he sees the future of American and European students in China.

Dean Russell received his B. A. at Carroll College, and his Ph. B. at Columbia in 1914, and was drafted in the Red Cross at Carroll, and Phi Delta Kappa at Columbia. Since 1916 he has been the Dean of the college of education at the University of Iowa. He is also a member of several literary bodies, among which are: "The Far Teaching of Illinois," "New York and Massachusetts," "Fenno," "Secondary Education," and "Education in the United States."

The lecture is to be free and will result from it, Dean Russell says yesterday. He will give a number of illustrations to make his points clear.

PHILISTINISM IN EDUCATION

Before a student enthrals the merits of his particular major, it is necessary that he first go through the pure and simple process of "banging it out" for his degree.

Some students are very much like the man who was heard to say, "It costs me four years to get a B.A., but only four weeks to padlock the door behind me!"

The story of the student who was refused admission to the Harvard Law School on account of the fact that he was Jewish, is only one of many that could be related in the annals of university education.

The student who is interested in the problems of education may be interested in the work of the Palestine Foundation for Education, which is the official body of the World Zionist Organization.

The Palestine Foundation is not only a welfare agency, but it is also a political and educational agency, as well as a source of information on the problems of education in Palestine.

The Palestine Foundation has been instrumental in bringing about a change in the educational system of Palestine, which was formerly limited to a few wealthy students.

The Foundation has established a number of schools and colleges, and has provided scholarships for students from all over the world.

The Foundation has also worked to improve the quality of education in Palestine, and has helped to bring about a greater understanding of the problems of education in the country.

The work of the Palestine Foundation for Education is not only important for the people of Palestine, but it is also important for the people of the world, as it helps to bring about a better understanding of the problems of education in general.

INTERNATIONAL NIGHT PROGRAM HAS FIVE ACTS

Ticket Sale To Begin Monday; Students Will Present "Chitra"

Tickets go on sale Monday for the International Night program presented April 15 in the natural science auditorium. The sale, which is in charge of William A. Beede, director of the free library, will continue throughout the week until all tickets are sold.

These tickets may be secured from the members of the club or at any of the following places: the Iowa Student Union, the Iowa Supply, Curts, at the University Bank, Iowa City; the young people's Christian organizations, and some Japanese organizations also cooperating in the sale. The price of the tickets is fifty-five cents including war tax, and it is rumored that Francophone students have sold out their entire allotment.

The program includes five acts, each presented by a group of students in a particular country, and the proceeds will go toward a common fund to which the different organizations will contribute money raised from the sale of the tickets. Some ten thousand tickets are to be printed, and as of last report there are six thousand left.

The Middle-Western Bank among French youngsters. The proceeds will be divided among the various young people's Christian organizations, members of the local Iowa City Center, and members of the University faculty will be guests of the University Theatre and members of the author's party on this occasion.

Miss Helen Lawrence is in art director for the play, and several programs were designed by Miss Lawrence, and are being directed by the University Theatre workshop, under the direction of Mr. Singleton. For entertainment, the complete cast of the play is to be seen at School: Douglas Habsburg, A4 of Chicago, who was a French youngster; Gordon John Hall A4 of Des Moines; Lord Maclean, A4 of Oxford; Anthony Hackett A4 of Ottawa; Robert Danielson, A4 of Iowa; Walter Farmers A4 of all, Thomas Minnix, Lawson of New Brunswick; John Darnley, Cowen A4 of Bloomington, Indiana; A4 of Oberlin, Cook, Woodrow, A4 of Iowa; Old Piler, Lucas Base A4 of President (Lady Reddy), Mildred Wal-
