State Cannot Sell
Bonds For Endowment
Bonus At Auction

Not a single bid was offered yesterday morning when the State Board of Control met at the Capitol to sell the $50,000 bond issue for endowment as provided by the measure passed by the legislature.
Representatives of all leading banks in the state and the judicial officers of the state were present but none of them were willing to offer a bid. Congressmen E. B. Trickett and the state auditor and the attorney general were present but the state auditor will sell the bonds as soon as the legislature adjourns as provided in the law.

OLD TRADITION OF
SENIORS TO BE ALTERED

Single Senior Seat To Be Substituted For Single Events

The seniors' seat to break up one of the oldest traditions on the campus this year. It was voted that the seniors' seat be split into eight individual seats. Each of these seats will be won by the owner of the se-ting which the seniors seat will represent from the time of the incoming of the freshman students on Aug. 13 until the Baccalaureate procession leaves the old capitol for the service at the University.

Berkon Rosenberg, Reveals Sum Germany is Ready To Pay

(Chicago News) Berlin, April 16—Germany is willingly paying thirty million marks—less than fourth of the sum originally promised against her by the superinten-tent and the allies. This was revealed in Berlin.

The foreign minister stated that the

FAVILLE SPEAKS ON BIBLICAL LAW

Close Similarity Between Statutes Of Maine And Iowa Codes Shown By Judge

Judge Faville's lecture "The Law Of Moses" which was delivered Thursday afternoon at the Law building was attended by about a hundred students and friends. The lecturer was the United States District Judge of the Northern District of Iowa. Judge Faville is the son of the late Hon. Judge Edward Faville of the United States District Court of Iowa, who died recently. Judge Faville's lecture was illustrated with slides and charts and was delivered in the college law library.

The lecture dealt with many aspects of the law of Moses, and was of particular interest to students and friends of the late Judge Faville. The lecturer pointed out that there are many similarities between the statutes of the Bible and those of the modern world. He also pointed out that the Bible is a legal code which is still in use today.

The lecture was well attended, and was enjoyed by all who attended. The lecturer was well received, and was given a standing ovation at the conclusion of his lecture.

On Friday, April 19, the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity will hold their annual dinner. The dinner will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the college law library. The dinner will feature a toast program, and will be attended by alumni and friends of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

Society

The Delta Iota Delta society, Alpha Xi Delta fraternity, and the Alpha Delta Phi sorority will hold their annual dinner meeting on Saturday evening, April 11.

Minnesota University & Engineers on Inventiveness

About 55 members of the school of engineering, and students of the university of Minnesota recently met under the guidance of the middle western section of the electrical engineers of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, which was organized to promote the study of electrical engineering.

At the meeting, a number of students were present, and a number of the more prominent members of the university were present. The meeting was held in the chemical engineering building.

Student Tables Learn Man Linkage By Playing Host And Hostess

The students of the University Elementary School are learning how to link up by playing host and hostess. They are being taught to do this in order to prepare them for their future careers. The students are learning the principles of etiquette, and are being taught to treat others with respect.

Professor C. A. Hand and Prof. W. C. Schafer of the University of Minnesota, and Prof. W. C. Schafer of the University of Iowa, were present at the meeting of the school of engineering.

Theodore B. Ackermann, President of the University of Iowa, was present at the meeting, and was given a standing ovation by the students.
