There was this vast difference in the amount of money that could be paid to the conductor, who was a white man, and the amount that could be paid to the colored employees, who were black. This inequality was a result of the strong influence of the labor unions and the demands for equal pay for equal work.

A UNIONIST CRIPPLED AT WISCONSIN

The question has often been asked, "What is the solution to the problem of inequality in wages?" One possible solution is to establish a minimum wage law that would ensure a fair compensation for all workers. This would help to level the playing field and eliminate the disparities that exist in the current system.

A small group of men who had been assembling for a meeting, were interrupted by a call for order from Mr. Scrymgeour, a representative of the dry goods firm. He requested that the meeting be adjourned until such time as the matter could be heard in court.

PAN-HELLENIC REVIEWS RULES FOR RUSHING

New Rules To Prohibit Men In Sorority Houses Until 5:00 P.M.

Rushing for the sororities is now restricted so that men cannot enter their houses after 5:00 P.M. The women's pan-Hellenic council has made this rule to keep the houses suggestive of their regular meeting, In revising the constitution one of the natural science auditoriums in September 19 at three until Saturday night will be used for the new concert to be held at the pan-Hellenic fraternity club. The concert will also be on sale at the concert. Rushing for the sororities in Dubuque. September 13, 1924:

"It's A Harpichord"

"Oh, I always thought a harp and a harpichord were the same thing," said a sophomore to her friend, "but I came to the concert today, and I was so surprised!"

The concert will be held on the 20th of September, and it will be the last concert of the year. The concert will feature the harpichord, which is a keyboard instrument that produces a unique sound. The harpichord is smaller and more portable than a harp, and it is said to be easier to play. It is also a key instrument in the baroque period, and it is said to be the ancestor of the modern harpsichord.

The University of Engineering

Of all the things that go to make the successful engineer, none is more important, nor more in step with the spirits of the profession, than a studious attitude. One man says about another—"He is always willing to learn,"—he doesn’t think he knows it all—and he intends to pay a high compliment when he says it.

The great engineers are always at school, always learning, always seeking for more knowledge. They begin with this desire for fuller understanding, and they keep it up to the end.

Any engineering operation, over and above the primary purpose for which it is carried out, is an active and post-graduated class in engineering, also. So that Westinghouse, or any other great business, is, of its very nature, a University where theory and practice combine to make big, broader, and more practical engineers.

The courses in this University are not limited to prescribed subjects nor terms—the subjects are almost infinite, and the semesters are endless. Men with the weight of years on their shoulders work and learn side-by-side with those whose day has just dawned.

This post-graduate school fits men for almost anything. Fits them for it, and makes them continually fitter. Out of this continuing fitness growth has been the engineering accomplishments on which this institution has grown. It is, perhaps, one of the greatest educational institutions of its day.

Ultimate Collapse Of German Resistance Policy Predicted Soon

(St. Louis News)

Paris, April 23.—Empty streetcars have started the Hôtel meeting with demonstrations again which are the forerunners of the ultimate collapse of German resistance because morale is low. While the German mark is crumbling and bodies of unexploded German bombs are choking in vicious conflict with the police throughout the occupied zone, French officials declare that there is no "peace" play and the German industries in business increasing volume. Transportation has improved very little and the "litter" reverts to well under way."

The new outlook reported is based on widespread police activity since Dusseldorf came after confident prediction of high French officials that such is the cost to Germany of her war that there may be an outbreak before the seasonable dresses. Our newest models, according to the reports from Paris, are a taste of the coming season.
