PRESERVING IOWA HISTORY
By HUT SUDIBACH

The State Historical Society has been busily engaged in an extensive program of preparing, rescuing, and publishing documents, books, and records of Iowa's past for several years. The Society has been successful in rescuing the political, economic, social, military, religious, and educational history of Iowa. One series is devoted to the biographies of prominent Iowa leaders. The Society has published some of the most important and popular publications of any state in the country. The present project is to produce a comprehensive history of Iowa's past.

ITALIAN ORGANIZATION

This project is known as the "Italian Organization." The Society has been successful in rescuing the political, economic, social, military, religious, and educational history of Iowa. One series is devoted to the biographies of prominent Iowa leaders. The Society has published some of the most important and popular publications of any state in the country. The present project is to produce a comprehensive history of Iowa's past.

THE SOUTHERN BOARD

The Southern Board is a historical organization that focuses on preserving and documenting the history of the South. The organization is engaged in various activities, including research, publishing, and public education. The Southern Board is committed to preserving the history of the South for future generations.

SOAKING THE MANNERS

Soaking the manners of the people is a historical practice that involves the preservation and documentation of the history of manners. The practice is conducted by the Southern Board and other historical organizations. The purpose of soaking the manners is to ensure that the history of manners is recorded and preserved for future generations.

CONTRALTO WAS EDUCATED AT MILAN, ITALY

Lazzari With St. Louis Symphony Orchestra Has Had Rapid Rise

Carolina Lazzari, contralto, who is to appear here as soloist with the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra Monday evening, May 7th, in the fall of 1917 she has sung leading roles with three opera companies, the Chicago, the Metropolitan, and the Colón, of Buenos Aires, and made an enviable reputation for herself as a concert artist as well. Of French and Italian ancestry, Miss Lazzari is a beauty rival of American heroines, having been born on Christmas Day, 1891, in a small town in Massachusetts. Her parents were cultural minded and Miss Lazzari's early education was received in this country and she went to Italy spending three years in study in the Conservatories of Milan and Genoa. Here her gifts as a result were appreciated and developed. Her father, a lawyer and her mother, a music student, both died in the latter part of which they else were constantly urging professional efforts, as she felt that she did not wish to make a public appearance until she was fully prepared. Her training was completed in the United States and she made a concert tour which closed her of a large group of engagements in the fall of 1917 and was so well pleased with the work that he gave her important parts in the Chicago Opera that some women.

At Rush To See Big Football Game

(Louis, April 25) A thousand persons were injured and delayed in traffic conditions, not because of the huge crowd, but because the fans, who were not able to gain admission, went through police carriages when the game was at its height. Many fans who were not able to gain admission had to leave the game. The police cars were driven through the congestion, and many fans were injured. Many were injured, and others were taken to the hospital. Many fans who were not able to gain admission had to leave the game.
