POSTPONE ELECTION OF PRIVOL, IOWAN, HAWKEYE EDITORS

The elections of officers and new managers of Privol, the Daily Student, The Hawkeye, and the Daily Collegian, according to the constitution of the publications shall be held before the last day of May. The ballots shall be cast until late this month.

This postponement is due to the weak of plans now under way for the publications' elections.

Prof. T. E. Waller, chairman of the board of trustees of each of the three publications, issued the call for these ballots.

It is expected that the ballots will be placed as planned and that the elections will be held within the next two weeks.

TICKETS FOR IOWAGIE WILL GO ON SALE AT WHATSTON'S THIS MORNING

Extra Credits During Summer Vacation... The University... was not a high school, normal or industrial school, but a four-year college,...

The University of Engineering is, of its very nature, a University where theory and practice combine to make big, broader and more practical engineers.

The courses in this University are not limited to prescribed subjects nor terms— the subjects are almost infinite, and the semesters are endless. Men with the weight of their shoulders work and learn side-by-side with those whose day has just dawned.

This post-graduate school fits men for almost anything. Fits them for it, and makes them continually fitter. Out of the continuing forehead they have grown the engineering accomplishments on which this institution has grown. It is, perhaps, one of the great educational institutions of its day.
The Professor passed him immediately

It was the first question in the course on Shaving—"Why is the handy cap not a handicap?" The student replied, "Because it can 'ap' eral." He referred, of course, to the Williams' Hinged Cap which you see pictured here. This invention puts an end for all time to the misery of hunting for lost caps. As you see, the Williams' cap is hinged on. It's the only college cap that you can lose.

Williams' Shaving Cream is as pleasantly new as the new cap. For Williams' is the fastest style of soap and, in addition, it is of the finest color to go with the finest cap. Try giving your face the wholesome care of Williams'. It makes you look and feel your best.

The Academy

Wanted—men to find the answer

T h is is written to the man who loves to seek the unknown quantity. He is the kind of laboratory worker who ventures into untrodden fields of experiment, rather than the man who tests materials. Industry has need of both types, but of the former there is a more pressing demand.

College men may have been discouraged from pursing pure research. In this highly practical age it may seem there is little room for work which does not have an immediate dollar and cents application. But such is not the case.

The pure research man is the pathfinder. Without him our fountain of knowledge would dry up. His findings in themselves may be uncommercial, but they establish a field for others to develop. Voita worked out the crude voltaic pile—a device which does not have an immediate dollar and cents application. But such is not the case.

Frankly, Academy Sandwiches and Pastries are built for those who like to take the open road with top down—or those who wish a big healthy appetite, with a paddle on the "Iowa," at sundown.

There's too much real fun in punning thick, easy Academy maladies in your Thermos bottle—to make them otherwise.

One-Act Contest Plays Must Be on File By Today

With the hour of five today bringing the annual University Theatre contest and playwriting contest to a close, many would be famous authors were waiting in apparent readiness for the final word. May I give the final date for the manuscript copies to be turned into Prof. E. C. Charles Grant May Be Stumbling Block To Second Conference

(By Dallas Nov.)

Lansing, April 16: The threat of a second disruption hangs over the Near Eastern peace conference here. French and Turkish differences over the American Crescent commission and the multiplication of troops along the Syrian border make it possible that the conference may fall off fields which caused the bloody war of 1917 to its first gathering at Lausanne, though the conference took no formal notice of these developments.

Those who like the beauty and the pleasant handling usually found in Gervaise Atherton's humorous book may pick up "Black Oxen" with assurance of delight. The beauty of her book shows itself chiefly in the descriptive passages, easily all of which form a backbone for the foreground of the naturally beautiful figure of Gertrude Atwood. The book is fairly adorned with little performances, duty honor, eloquence, good name, good character, and much more. The writing of it is in the spirit of refined follow her by her student of art's. The important behavior of the seventeen-year-old youth, imaginative Sappho, attractive, thoughtful Gertrude Atwood, admirable in every way. The beauty of the chief in her book is not her charm but her youthfulness. It is clear to see that while "Black Oxen" is a modest name, in no place does it deal with the noble subject of life in general. The shape of the story in the chief idea is found up in the young woman. It is in the purpose with which he sets out to do what is right, and is an ideal one. As long as he is honest with his self, I am satisfied.
