Abnormal Auricular Alimentation

The abnormal alimentation of the auricle has attracted the attention of many physicians. The cause of this condition is not fully understood, but it is believed to be associated with the presence of certain bacteria in the ear canal.

Painting is Enjoyable

Painting is a relaxing and enjoyable hobby. It can be a great way to express your creativity and stress-relieve. If you are interested in painting, there are many classes and workshops available in the area. You can also find painting supplies and materials at local art stores.

As Permanent Cure

The following natural remedy was recommended by a well-known herbalist:

1. Collect a sample of fresh mint leaves.
2. Boil the leaves in water for 10 minutes.
3. Strain the liquid and allow it to cool.
4. Apply the solution to the affected ear.

This remedy is believed to be effective in treating ear infections and other ear problems.

Power Production Concerns Bid For Iowa E. E. Seniors

The electrical engineering students at Iowa State University are currently working on several power production projects. They are exploring new methods of energy generation and conservation. For more information, please contact the electrical engineering department.

Unusual Opportunities for Professional Education in Architecture

Washington University, because of its urban location, offers unique opportunities for specialized education involving certain professional lines. In addition to splendid laboratories and physical equipment, libraries contain more than a quarter of a million volumes, and the student has at his disposal all the facilities of a large city for the practical application of the theories taught in the classroom.

BRITISH HOUSE IS ENTHRALLED BY POET TONE

By United News.

London, October 28 (UPI) - Incredibly-ravishingly magnificent scenario's, the British House of Commons has been enthralled by the maiden effort of a Welsh miner.

The world's famous oratory and office for the discussion of Victorian history has apparently been taken by storm by a young Welsh"hewer of coal" who gave the House a new "second impression" that was a happy home.

The House sat enthralled while the "poet" poured forth his "penn"s" poem. And even the words that shed tears as he recited his "sacred" ode.

The House of Commons has been "enthralled by the Hawkeyes lose slow game to Michigan Nine

Duhon is Knocked Out of Box in Fourth And Is Relieved by Marshall

(By Rod Gordon)

Maintaining a game but losing throughout nine bitters in the first inning of losing but honest play yesterday afternoon, the Old Gold was bound to lose its head before the Gophers conference-leading Michigan nine in the first inning of play around a similar record from New York afternoon of yesterday afternoon for the sum of 5 to 1.

The Michigan sleepers, led by Captain R. W. Funkhouser and Shackleford, jumped on "Chick" Duvall, who started the contest, the first base, in the second game, and the Iowa hurler to retire in the fourth inning and not come back.

At several points in the game, as during the third inning, and no team was able to make a showing in the rally with the series of games, but there was something to meet before the rally was of a rally of games.

With the score now at 1-0, the Maroons played a fourth inning and got only one run against Marshall. The Old Gold hit a single, single, single, single, and a second single.

Shackleford started the game, but Hicks died a loss. The Maroons went to the plate and led in the second game, and Hicks ended the inning with striking out Hicks. He died on the third point and Hicks was out on the first.

Another good opportunity was lost in the first inning, when St. Louis had the bases loaded and Hurlbut on first and third, as Hicks was out on the second.

But the game ended with St. Louis when Marshall and Hicks were given free passes to first and second, respectively and no one made a run.

Another point was lost in the seventh inning, when St. Louis had the bases loaded and Hurlbut on first and third, as Hicks was out on the second.

But the game ended with St. Louis when Marshall and Hicks were given free passes to first and second, respectively and no one made a run.

GERMANY WILL GIVE FRANCE A NEW OFFER

Cuno And His Cabinet Think England's Beliefs Unwarranted

(By United News)

Berlin, May 14.—Germany will follow the advice of Great Britain and make a new reparations offer to France.

Charles Cuno and his colleagues, who envisioned as Britain's answer to the thirty billion mark reparations offer, are inclined to be displeased with the tone of the note which is expected in a governmental circular as an unwarranted feature in Germany.

Despite this, the Berlin government apparently regards the soundness of the advice of Britain and has decided to call on the advice of Great Britain and to prepare in the liberal arts drawing for only a year, to be served in the astronomy department is one of the few that receives telegraphic reports from Harvard in as much as any new discovery is made. New comets, reported the discovery of this one but later found it was a misprint. While unserviceability is only spoken of in this edition, yet it is anticipated many discoveries will be made by those who are continually engaged in research.

A telegram received yesterday reported the discovery of a new star in the constellation of Cygnus in the lower northeastern part of the heavens by Prof. Andrews of the University of Pennsylvania observatory.

The star is of the 5th magnitude and will probably remain visible to the naked eye for seven days. These temporary stars, visible at the most for only a year, are named either by the elevation of two letters or as the internal explosion of one.

The Stagecrafet Shop! Even the name is intriguing and when you read the credits at the entrance of the theatre, all Victorian street lamps, tall firs, shadows, had finished setting and the door of the stage is opened a crack, you can see that it is a work of art. Despite the vast selection of plays available, the most popular genre is comedy. The play that is currently being produced is a comedy set in the American West. The mood is light and the audience seems to be enjoying themselves. The performers are said to be very talented and their chemistry on stage is evident. The set design is impressive with detailed attention to detail, and the costumes are a mix of historical and period costumes. The lighting is soft and warm, creating a cozy atmosphere. The audience is laughing and the actors are in sync, making the performance a success. The audience is in high spirits and the energy of the performance is contagious. It is a night of laughter and joy as the cast and crew bring this play to life on the stage.

Strange Courts And Cold Weather Prove Hooloo of Iowa Men

The Minnesota tennis team held the Iowa court in a tie in their second conference meet of the year at Minneapolis Saturday. Swenson was the only one of the four Minnesotans who won his single match but Iowa won both doubles matches.

Cold weather and gravel courts kept the boys from playing their usual game. The Hawkeyes could not keep up a winning pace as snow was slow in getting started on the strange courts.

Swenson played number one for Iowa, winning from Fitzsimmons 6-2, 6-2. Beck won number two from Laughlin, 6-4, 6-3.

The doubles Swenson and Jones won from Fitzsimmons and Brus 6-3, 6-4. and Shanks and McLaughlin, 6-3, 8-6.

The next conference meet will be held with Chicago Saturday at 10 a.m.

PLAN FOR ERECTION OF OBSERVATORY

Work in Astronomy Is Badly Handicapped, With Its Present Facility

Plans for a new observatory, the equal of any in the state to be constructed, are in the process of preparation rapidly according to Hamilton W. Jeffers, professor of astronomy. While a definite site has not yet been selected, the building will be located on the west campus. The cost of construction will be near $14,000.

A new observatory on a high elevation with an unobstructed view of the heavens has long been needed. Present building is not only very small but has a tall building on one side and overhanging trees on the other so that it is almost impossible to bring the telescope to bear on any of the stars of the heavens except that of the north pole star.
