NO REGISTRATION BY MAIL FOR FALL CLAIMS DECLARED MATURE TOURS

Students Find To Utilize Privileges

Opportunity to register for the first semester of 1923 by mail during the summer months will not be forthcoming this year, but it is anticipated that an announcement from the registrar's office will be made at a later date. New students entering the University in September will not be able to take advantage of this opportunity, but sophomores, juniors, seniors, and graduate students present themselves in person at the registrar's office at 1107 E. Market St. and 24 in order to register next fall. Failure of students to take advantage of the opportunity offered last summer to register before the close of the college of applied science, hose, flat heels and numbers? Look your year student through the intricate arrangements by next year's seniors. This was given as the reason for the suspension of regular numbers engagements by mail this year. Only 400 students registered during the semester of 1922 and in 1923 this dropped to 300, a figure of the freshmen.

It was also pointed out at the registrar's office that it is hardly practicable to register juniors and seniors by mail since their study habits, with the exception of a few in a major department, must be approved and this must be done before their names are inscribed to the permanent records, which are necessary in students not living in Iowa City. With this in mind the registrar office urges that juniors and seniors in their course of study for the fall semester make a personal appearance at the registrar's office before the commencement of the fall semester.

"MANNY FLAPPERS GIVES WAY TO MODERN FASHIONED MAIDEN"

New York, N. Y., May 13 (U. P. P.)—It is said that girls this year, and society girls in particular, will prefer the slender type rather than the full bodied type. While this is somewhat out of the question, it is well to note that while the true society girl and the deep social girl wear similar clothing, they do so for entirely different purposes. The deep social girl wears her sport clothes for the same reasons that the slender one wears her sport clothes, because she likes to wear them and because she enjoys dressing up in her leisure hours. The slender girl is often a beach girl, and spends her leisure hours in the beach and seaside. The slender girl is usually a very good sport girl and is always in very good form when the sports season arrives.

The slender girl has a tendency to be standardized, and that is why they are more acceptable than the full bodied. They are much more graceful and daintier than the full bodied. They are more graceful and daintier.

FRESH TRACKSTERS GET LAST PRACTICE; THEN PHOTOGRAPHED

Members of the freshman track squad took a 60-foot picture today afternoon before they went into the last practice of the season. The boys have had four good practices this week, taking part in five gymnastic events, winning in all of them, and losing only in the broad jump. Some good men have been developed who will shine on next year's varsity. Roberts, oxyacetylene has been running fast runs all week, and will be a welcome addition to the Broad Jumpers. Brandmill, Farrell, Meder, Oehlert, Ashton, Jones, broad jumper, is a welcome addition to the Hawkeye track team. The preps have had a fairly good season. Among the longer distance runners, Holder, in the two miles, Van Wezel in the mile, and Groves in the half, will represent Iowa at the University of Chicago in the coming meet.

VARiSITY ROMPS ON FROSH TEAM BALL

Law Count Of State As Prof's Punish Overrunners, Over;

Woesfully weak was the freshman on ground balls in yesterday's varsity-against-varsity game. On the boardless tiny Michigan, the Old Gold team pitted a typical Iowa offensive against 15 two bins. None of the players of the Old Gold team seemed to know better than the Iowa's own. All knew that it was necessary to get no more than one ball out, and few fans would think that it was. If it was, Iowa's other would make the score even larger.

All that the varsity had to do was to lay the ball on the ground, and let the boardless field work. The Iowa bench had every reason to expect a score.

Among the longer distance runners, Holder, in the two miles, Van Wezel in the mile, and Groves in the half, will represent Iowa at the University of Chicago in the coming meet.

RECORD FOR MORONS

WEDDINGS

The sounds of the music of the Panathenea wafted through the hall, the sound of the voices could be heard in the distance as the guests mingled. The air was filled with the fragrance of flowers, and the dim lighting added to the ambiance of the event. The guests were dressed in their finest attire, and the atmosphere was one of anticipation and excitement.

The Wise Men of Athens

The Wise Men of Athens have been known to gather at the Panathenea to discuss and debate the most pressing issues of the day. They are a group of philosophers and thinkers who have come together to share their ideas and insights.

The flakes of the ancient Grecian snow are falling gently, and the sound of the music fills the air. The guests are sipping wine and chatting, their voices blending into a symphony of sound.

The Unseen Peace

The peace throughout the land is peaceful, and the sound of the music brings a sense of calm and tranquility to the guests. The atmosphere is one of harmony and contentment.

The Voice of the People

The voice of the people is heard as they sing and hum along to the music. The guests are dancing and laughing, their laughter echoing through the hall.

The Celebration Comes to an End

As the music comes to a close, the guests begin to disperse. The atmosphere is one of anticipation for the next event to come.

The celebration of the day was a success, and the guests were left feeling satisfied and content.

FRIVOL TO SHOW UNIVERSITY LIFE

By Charles Shurley

The editors and business staffs of Frivol for next year are already functioning. Positions on the editorial staff are to be awarded on the basis of work actually contributed, according to Ward Adamson, named editor-in-chief. Plans for forthcoming editions of the magazine were outlined in the following statement:

"Frivol is to be as all-university publication next year. Its editors will conscientiously attempt to portray the bursars' role of life as exemplified in the different colleges and departments that go to make up the State University of Iowa.

"Staff positions are open to undergraduates who have the present ability to create wholesome humor out of the situations that will naturally arise in the classrooms and on the campus. The positions of assistant editor and art editor will be given to the men and the women who merit them. Application for either of the positions should be made to the editor-in-chief or at some in order that the conditions may be given proper consideration for work during the summer months.

"It is proposed to bring the first issue of Frivol out on the opening day of term. This plan will necessitate immediate action on the part of the staff and contributors. A number of persons are already at work on details of next year's issues and others who are interested are urged to expect for introductions of same."

FRIVOL TO SHOW UNIVERSITY LIFE

By Charles Shurley

The editor-in-chief has already selected a future son of his throne, the Prince has not yet made anything about it, and he has today evidently turned down all those eligible young ladies selected for him, either officially or unofficially.

Naturally no list of the officially selected-aspirants is available, but it had been pretty generally understood for the past year that Lady Rachel Cavendish, daughter of the Duke of Devonshire, had been officially selected as the Prince's queen of England. Whether Lady Rachel had anything to say about this is not known, but she has certainly special all such plans by recently announc­ing her betrothal to the younger son of the Earl of Moray. Hence, any Prince will not want of to other kidnaps, and match-makers are in desease.

The number of possible brides for the Prince among the daughters of the wealthy and blue-blooded nobility was comparatively small, and when Wales came on to the home-marriage market as a result of the great war, but still their numbers were also several scores. Only Wales does not want to have given a person.
