

Orchestra Makes Ready for Trips

Washington and Cedar Rapids Concerts Arranged

During the past months, the University orchestra has been devoting most of the time at rehearsals to the perfection of a very difficult, as well as pleasing, program, which will be given in a series of concerts throughout the state.

The orchestra will appear in the first home concert of the year on April 15, on April 24 will journey to Cedar Rapids, and on the following evening will render the same program in Washington.

Other concerts are being arranged for the future.

Mississippi Can Not Carry Liners

Trowbridge Gives 3 Reasons Against Proposed Plan

"The Mississippi river can never carry ocean liners enroute to Chicago no matter how much money is spent on improving its channel," was the emphatic statement of Prof. Arthur C. Trowbridge, who has studied the river carefully at many places.

The question of the navigability of the Mississippi has recently been brought up in congressional circles, and the plan has for some time been seriously considered by commercial and economic experts.

"A canal alongside the Mississippi would be simpler to construct and maintain if an inland waterway ever becomes absolutely necessary; but with present knowledge, engineers can never bridle this river, I am convinced," he said.

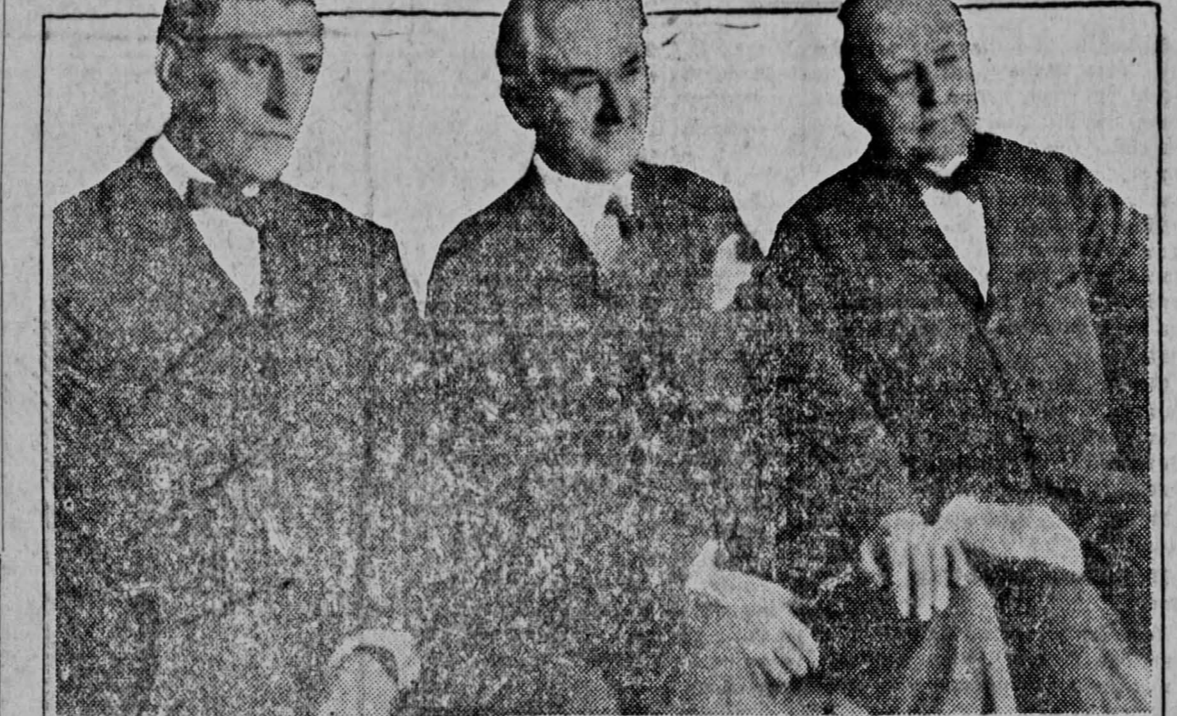

Three things would prevent deep sea navigation, Professor Trowbridge claims.

Illinois Farmhand Killed

When He Falls Upon an Axe

DECATUR, Ill., March 18 (AP)—Louis David, farm hand, is dead at Newman, near here, as the result of an accident which occurred when he was chopping some frozen straw on the top of a stack. David slipped, and in falling the axe which he had been using severed his jugular vein. He bled to death in a few minutes.

The name is all you need to know!

A good name and the high standard which it invariably stands for are inseparable. So it is that, to well-dressed men, "Cheney", in the neckband of a cravat, has come to mean correctness of style and pattern, craftsmanship of weave, and excellence of materials.

Mythicals Defeat Farcists 12-2

In Startling, Breathless Game

Exhibiting the very latest for girl's basketball, and the newest regulation attire, the Faculty Farcists closed the season here by being downed 12-2 by a mythless Mythical team. Led on by Gladys Brooker, the Mythicals were able to "defeat" their more experienced opponents. However, due to excellent team work with the referee in the first half, the faculty sextet were allowed to score two free throws—via their balcony star, Juno Garner.

That they might always be remembered, and as a fit trophy, the Faculty presented a home grown onion to the winners. Singing—they were glad to leave the floor—the entertainers disappeared. Forever???

Sideline appearances:
Faculty Mythicals
"Don Quixote" Riggs G. Ingle R. P.
"Buster Brown" Saum E. Crane L. F.
"Soozie Jumping Jack" Bollin G. Dyke

"Brookins" Lukens T. Whimpey S. C.
"Silas" Bockstruck G. Brooker R. G.
"Mars" Taylor H. Springer L. G.
"Juno" Garner, sub and balcony inspiration.

WHY we chose the name Campus Togs for our clothes

Despite the fact that for twenty-five years we made our clothes and sold them under the label, Chas. Kaufman & Bros., we chose the name Campus Togs as significant of the new spirit in clothes for men of all ages.

For the past ten years we have featured Campus Togs as the trade label for our clothes. It seemed to us significant as a name that would indicate clothes designed and proportioned to please discriminating men. It also signifies in dress the breeze and smartness that the young man or college boy who travels the campus has, and which puts him in the envied class, at least from the standpoint of being youthful and making the most of his age in his appearance.

To also put youthful appearance into clothes for older men, was the new feature for our designing department to work out successfully, and in its achievement we confidently present clothes to the world, for all men, which measure up to the significance of the trade name we have chosen.

"A-B-C-stuff"

In college a fellow is handed a mass of facts—some of them simple and fundamental, others complex, intricate and hard to remember. Get your fundamentals fixed and it won't often be serious later if you have to seek a reference book for the complexities.

For instance, it is easy to grasp once and for all time the fundamental of good paving—THE "ABC" PAVEMENT—

- Asphalt for Filler
- Brick for Surface
- Crushed rock, gravel, crushed slag or concrete for Base

Why the "ABC" pavement is right for city streets, country highways, railroad yards and factory floors and drives is told briefly and pointedly in the side panel.

VITRIFIED Brick

PAVEMENTS Outlast the Bonds

ASPHALT for Filler because it makes the traffic-bearing surface a water-proof, flexible armor not subject to the cracks which follow rigid slab construction, and because repair costs are insignificant where each brick is an easily removable unit.

BRICK for Surface because it furnishes the best surface for traffic; hard, but not brittle—tough, but not rough—dense, and non-absorbent—smooth, but not "slick;" because its fire-hardened toughness resists wear and tear so sturdily that upkeep expense is squeezed to a minimum and because any margin of higher first-cost is speedily offset by low maintenance, long life and uninterrupted service.

CONCRETE, CRUSHED ROCK, CRUSHED SLAG OR GRAVEL for Base because some one of these bases meets any conceivable sub-soil condition, and with a bedding course of sand or screenings makes the best sub-structure yet developed for modern street or highway traffic.
