BROOKHART OUT OF G. O. P. RANKS

Dawes Wrecked Campaign Says Brookhart

Coolidge Not To Have His Support He Tells Farmers

"To Remain in Party," Senator Declares At Emmetsburg

Had No Intention of Leaving Republican Party

(By the Associated Press)

EMMETSBURG, Iowa, Oct. 3.—Senator Smith W. Brookhart, who earlier in the week denounced Charles G. Dawes, republican vice presidential candidate, today made it plain to Iowa republicans that President Coolidge also would not have his support in the forthcoming election.

The address before a farmer's gathering here, had been widely heralded as a complete break between the Iowa senator and the republican national ticket and was made in the face of warning received by the senator that denunciation by the "regular" republican organization of Iowa.

Disregard Warning

Senator Brookhart not only disregarded this warning but told his audience that the state central committee chairman, B. B. Burnquist, had agreed with him that "Dawes has wrecked the campaign in the west."

No advocacy of the presidential candidacy of Senator Robert M. LaFollette was included in the address.

When governor Davis differed with Senator Brookhart n a detail of the post-war deflation he was interrupted by a number of his listeners who stated that they refused to accept his interpretation of the incident. The presiding officer, State Representative W. E. G. Saunders finally restored order.

Senator Did Not Devide

Senator Brookhart did not deviate from his prepared address relating to his difference with President Coolidge. He declared he had no intention of leaving the republican party.

"I have been accused of political dishonesty," he asserted. "You framed my platform for me and sent me to Washington and my political honesty is attested by the fact that I am fighting and will continue to remain in the party and fight to put that platform into effect."

To the suggestion that a new party be formed shouted from the crowd, the senator declared again that the best effective work could be done by cleaning the repeblican party."

Unversity Mixer Attended by 2,000

Pumpkin Pies, Apples, Complete Evening's Refreshments

Adverse weather conditions did not dampen the spirit of "Hello Day" yesterday, when more than 2,000 University students gathered at the armory last evening for the all-University mixer.

First on the program at the armroy were selections by the University Band followed by the grand march to the south side of the armory where Elsie Ruste Cm4 of Charles City, and Russell Hunter, A3 of Iowa City, were kept busy handing out 125 dozen individual pumpkin pies and sixteen bushels of apples.

Chairman Gordon Johnson, A4 of Des Moines, introduced the evening's entertainers among whom were: Margaret Sayers, A4 of Jefferson; Bruce Potter, A4 of Harlan; Adela Hanson, A4 of Forrest City; William Edmondson, A3 of Milton, and Prof. E. H. Lauer, head of the extension division.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct 3. (A. P.)—Fine pitching by Howard Merritt, a left hander, enabled St. Paul to beat Baltimore today 6 6to 0 and evened the count in the "little world series." Score: St. Paul 6; 12; 2. Baltimore 0; 3; 5.

Punchers' Hats Knocks Out Prince of Wales Headgear

Is the "Prince of Wales" influence in men's clothing waning to give way to the reg'lar wild and woolly west mode? Two large gray, formidable sombreros, fairly reeking of cow-boy atmosphere, were seen on the campus yesterday. Wotta life! Wotta life!

"I Respect Debs For Courage," Says Dawes at Ft. Wayne

Snarls at Republican Straddlers While in Debs' Home Town

(By the Associated Press)

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct. 3.—Charles G. Dawes, republican candidate for vice president, closed his Indiana tour and his third mid-western trip with an address here tonight in which he characterized the LaFollette independent candidacy as an endeavor to drive the ship of state from its constitutional moorings.

The vice presidential nominee at Terre Haute paid tribute to the courage of Mr. Debs as he did last week in the case of Senator LaFollette in the latter's home city of Madison. In so doing Mr. Dawes took occasion to condemn "those in his own party who were straddling issues."

"I highly respect Mr. Debs' courage," he said. "I respect the courage of those fellows who fight for something they believe in. The trouble with the politics of today is that on my side of it, we have had too many fellows straddling issues and trying to please all sides on all questions.

"Now with this amalgamation behind a government leadership of all hte principles that you can get opposed to the existing order of things the people know there is a real fight; they know that the form of their government, the constitution of the United States is attacked."

Intends Return to Iowa

Mr. Dawes while enroute from La Fayette to Washington was shown a statement issued today in Emmetsburg, Iowa, by Senator Smith W. Brookhart who renewed his demand that the republican national committee ask Mr. Dawes to resign from the ticket and challenged him to visit Iowa again.

The only comment Mr. Dawes had to make was that he expected to visit Iowa next week.

English Chemist Explains Process Which He Devised

"Photosynthesis of Naturally occurring compounds" was the subject of a lecture delivered by Professor E. C. C. Baly of the University of Liverpool last night.

In his talk he described step by step his methods of synthesizing activated formaldehyde, which later was converted into dextrose, a kind of sugar. His conception was based upon the ability of plants to make starches and sugars from carbon dioxide and water.

The lecture was given under the auspices of the graduate college. Next month the president of the American Chemical society, L. H. Bakeland, will lecture here. This will be under the auspices of the chemistry department.

Harold Phelps Elected to Lead Engineerng Seniors

The senior class of the college of applied science in a meeting Thursday evening, elected for officers: H. R. Phelps, president; L. L. Fry, vice-president; Alfred Sidwell, secretary; and P. G. Jones, treasurer.

The same evening the junior class also elected officers for the year. They are: A. W. Tolander, president; C. E. Woolridge, vice-president; and L. E. Fry, secretary-treasurer.

Hawkeyes Open Football Season With Oklahomans

Full-Blooded Indians To Participate in Today's Game

Yesterday's Drizzle May Leave Field Slippery

Iowa formally opens the 1924 grid season this afternoon when Coach Burt E. Ingwersen lines his men up against Southeastern Teachers' College of Oklahoma. The game will start promptly at 2 o'clock.

The Old Gold men took a light work-out yesterday afternoon and are in good condition with exception of Hines and Fisher. Hines will not get into the game as he has an injured leg and Fisher has been out for more than a week.

Line-up For Today

Coach Ingwersen announced that te following men would start the game in the line: "Tubby" Griffen, center; Lowell, Otte and John Hancock, ends; "Dick" Romey and Paul Krasuski, tackles; Forrest Olson and "Bill' Fleckenstein, guards. It is not certain just what men will start in the backfield, probably the following: Captain Parkin at quarterback, Graham and Scantlebury, halves; and Dauber at full-back. However any of these men may get the call; Hogan, quarter; Boydston, fullback; Brookins, quarter; Schirmer, half; Fry, half.

A drizzle which lasted most of the afternoon yesterday threatened to leave the field in a slippery condition unless the sun gets in some good rays this morning.

Oklahomans Arrive

Southeastern arrived at ten o'clock yesterday morning. Coach Godfrey and twenty men are putting up a the Burkley hotel. The squad took a light work-out on the field Friday afternoon and are ready for the Hawkeyes. Coach Godfrey said that tey were determined to give Iowa a real battle in spite of their weight handicap. The Savage line averages only 167 pounds. The backs weigh 170 pounds on the average. The Savages have a good record and the game promises to be an exciting one. Captain Farmer of the Oklahoma team, who will pit his 138 pounds against "Tubby" Griffen 235 pounds of brawn, declared that they were going to do their best to make the game interesting.

Coach Godfrey left two men at home; Lewis, a half-back wo is suffering from a sprained ankle and J. C. Wright, a guard. Wright has abad shoulder. Phillips, another guard missed the train at McAlester, Oklahoma but is expected to get here in time for the game.

Au Lightest Team

The Southeastern team is reputed to be the lightest team in the state from which they come but have won the state championship for two years straight. They are also the state's champions in basket-ball and last season boasted o a team not a man of whom was under six feet one inch.

All of the men are in good condition except Wright, full-back, who has been sick since the trip began. He will probably start the game though. Coach Grodfrey announced last night that he would send the following men into the game. Pinkerton, left end; Strickler, left tackle; Beams, left guard; Farmer center; Gladney, right guard; Boyet, right tackle; Harris end; Witt, quarterback; Elkins, left-half; Fannin, right half and Wright, furrback.

Besides the first eleven men, Cleveland, a center, Smoyer, half; Denisto, guard; Zion, tackle; Wright, end; Hacer, half; Gibson, guard; Roberts, half, and E. M. Haggard, business manager made the trip.

Kenneth Griffen Chosen as President of Freshmen Laws

Kenneth C. Griffin of Sioux City was elected president of the freshman law class yesterday.

Elections for the other offices resulted in ties so that the election for these positions can not be completed until a later date.

Oklahoma Savages Invade Hawkeyeland for Scalps

Haskellite Backfield Player Included In Twenty

By Oakley Davidson

With something of the spirit and glamor that is supposed nowadays to exist only in novels of the olden days and in the western movies, the Indians are here and do not seem to care who knows it. With a gay insignia on their neckties as the remnant of the traditional warpaint, two of the southland's twenty strolled into a local pool hall to avoid the afternoon drizzle and incidentally exhibited their talents as collegians by a variety of fancy shots. After a three day's journey, the Oklahomans took a light limbering up yesterday and then followed the trail of the scouts to the tables and rounded off their training with a workout at the cue sport.

Bedecked with a huge "H," a most conspicuous figure was Elkins who is expected to shine in the Savage backfield today. Just a little reserved, he left his "H" to tell his record, and a teammate was ready to explain that it all came about because he played the game for the Haskell Indians last year.

That ninety yard run on the kick-off at the beginning of the second half against Minnesota by the great Levi, and Elkin's run for the second touchdown a few minutes later will not soon be forgotten by the men who lost to Minnesota by a single point after a tragic beginning. With a big reputation to live up to, the former Haskellite saw nothing, not even our moist climate, to prevent him from enjoying his stay here regardless of the outcome of the battle on Iowa field.

Coming from the southwest into the corn belt revealed but a single disappointment to the enemy. After all it was quite natural for the invaders to feel just a little out of luck. At last the word was given out that they had searched and found little, that after all these years they had come to Iowa and run down the myth. The trouble?—why the tall corn of course.

Haskell will have another great year. So say our other Savages. Their kinsmen have the same lineup as last year except that Elkins has cast his lot with the Choctaws. He and his teammates look to the Haskells as one of football's best bets, but the Oklahomans will have a chance to write history in their own right today. The boys from Durant have already played a game with the Arkansas Aggies and so are not entirely untried.

Wheat Hits $1-53 For Record Mark

Resist Higher Prices At Market's Close Yesterday

CHICAGO, Oct. 3—Stonewall resistance against higher prices which developed in the grain markets today achieved at least temporary success. Selling expanded in a manner seldom equalled and forced wheat back to below $1.50 a bushel, May delivery, but only after a new record of 1.53 7-8 had been attained.

There were indications that much o. the pressure was due to traders who believed themselves justified in anticipating a reaction from such extraordinary upward swings as the markets have shown of late.

Closing prices, which ended the day's wild flurries, were in general described as unsettled.

What finished 1-2 to 1 1-2c net lower, December 1.45 5-8 to 1.45 3-4, and May 1.49 7-8 to 1.50.

Revise Education Is Coffman's Plea

200 Is Enrollment at Supervision Conference

"Men must be educated recreatively and wisely" was a statement made by L. D. Coffman, president of the University of Minnesota who gave an address last night in the natural science auditorium, his speech being a part of the Supervision Conference now in session here.

He urged that American children be trained for freemen, not slaves. Our schools are the foundation of integrity existing for the purpose of fitting men and women for useful lives. The high cost of living, money's depreciation, the national unrest, class hatred, and international suspicions and selfishness, were among the problems confronting the world today, which, President Coffman declared, were in the scope of education to relieve.

The number registered for the supervision conference increased to 200 yesterday. A. L. Threlkeld, deputy superindent of schools of Denver, Colorado, was a principle speaker of the day. His address on the "Problem of Curriculum Making in the Secondary Field" gave specific details on the general conditions of the high schools.

Steck Denounces Brookhart Stand

Declares Bolt to Bob A Fraud Upon G. O. P.

(By the Associated Press)

MEDIAPOLIS, Ia., Oct. 3—Dan F. Steck, democratic candidate for United States senator, opened his campaign here today with a denunciation of the presidential stand of Senator Smith W. Brookhart, in his Emmetsburg address as "dishonest and a fraud upon the republican party."

After asking what "this man Brookhart, who declares himself supreme political dictator of Iowa, has ever done that Iowa should blindly follow his lead. Mr. Steck declared that "after playing fast and loose since the primary in June, Mr. Brookhart has at last taken his stand with La Follette and Wheeler."

"Mr. Brookhart knew at the time he asked for the republican nomination at the primary that President Coolidge would be the republican nominee for president," Mr. Steck asserted. "He knew then as much about President Coolidge as he knows now and his action in seeking the nomination for senator as a republican, when he did not agree with the republican party, was not in sympathy with its policies and aims and he knew that he would not support Mr. Coolidge as the republican nominee, was dishonest and a fraud upon the republican party to which he claimed to belong."

$50 Dillon Prize Awarded to Kelly At First Law Mixer

The program at the first law school mixer held Thursday night consisted of speeches by President Walter A. Jessup, faculty members and students.

Dean Henry C. Jones presented the Dillon prize of $50 to Edward D. Kelley, L3 of Emmetsburg, for the highest scholastic standing last year.

The address of welcome to the new students was given by Erwin C. Hartwig, L3 of Waveryl, president of hte Students' Law Association, and Edward L. Vollers of Fort Madison responded for the freshman class.

Odis K. Patton, a new member of the faculty this year, mentioned the changes which have taken place since he was a student on the Iowa City campus.

Some Series Tickets for Opener Sell for $50 Each

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3. (A. P.)—World series tickets in the hands of speculators, who did a thriving business despite a vigorous drive against them by federal and city authorities, tonight were selling at a higher premium than for any baseball championship in years.

Single pasteboards for the opening tomorrow were reported to be selling in some instances for as high as $50 and $75 while three game strips brought as high as $150, depending upon their location.

Senator Breaks Bonds By Denouncing Leaders

Makes Attack on Coolidge and Charles Dawes Before Iowa Audiences; G. O. P. Claim Bob Directing Him

(By the Associated Press)

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 3.—The Iowa republican central committee today decided that Senator Smith W. Brookhart ruled himself out of the republican ranks when he denounced President Coolidge and Charles G. Dawes, republican nominees for president and vice president.

The committee itself did not directly declare Senator Brookhart out of the party, but said that his statements of the last few days "is a repudiation of, and a bolt from, the republican party."

Senator Brookhart, who opened his campaign for re-election at Emmetsburg today with a vigorous attack upon President Coolidge declared that because he "was nominated by 200,000 republican voters," it was he who represented the republicans of Iowa rather than the present republican organization which, he said, was controlled by "a small group of crooked and irresponsible dictators set up by the non-partisan league of Wall Street."

Committee Proud of Coolidge

The committee declared that the heads of the LaFollette party inspired Sen. Brookhart's actions "for the malicious purpose of attempting to turn the attention of the voters from the real issues of this campaign" and defeat the right of the people to elect a president at the polls," thereby throwing the election into congress.

The state central committee, in its statement, reaffirms its confidence in the heads of the national ticket and declares, "we are proud to stand on the life and record of Calvin Coolidge against the attacks of any man."

Simultaneously with the committee's pronouncement, Mrs. Miriam Stewart Hollowell, the Iowa national committee woman, issued a statement in which she declared that Senator Brookhart's "attack on my candidates, which comes like a slap in the ace, leaves me with no other choice than to feel that he hasforfeited the right to my endorcement."

Instruct Delegates for Cal.

The committee's statement, after setting out at considerable length the achievements of President Coolidge and Mr. Dawes, concludes:

"The republican party in Iowa without a dissenting vote, instructed its delegates to the national convention to vote for Calvin Coolidge and made this instruction a part of their platform.

"We, as the representatives of the republican party in Iowa, elected through te medium of the primary submit to the republican voters of the state that the repudiation of the republican nominees by Senator Brookhart is a repudiation and a bolt from the republican party.

"It is our belief that this action on the part of Senator Brookhart has been inspired by the heads of the LaFollette party for te malicious purpose of attempting to turn the attention of the voters from the real issues of this campaign.

"The self impelled bolt from republican ranks by Senator Brookhart is the result of a conspiracy to defeat the right of the people to elect a president at the polls and to force such an election by a congress selected two to six years ago.

"We, as republicans, who believe in the constitution of the United States and who believe in construction rather than destruction will continue our campaign for President Coolidge and Mr. Dawes and all republicans on the ticket.

"On any issue of honesty, integrity and interest in the welfare of all the people, we are proud to stand on the life and record of Calvin Coolidge against the attacks of any man".

Burnquist Gives Views

B. B. Burnquist, state chairman in a statement issued tonight says that the statement adopted this afternoon by the state committee and concurred in the Iowa members of the national committee, fully covers the position of the committee, but that he desires to make known his own views.

"I wish to call the attention of the voters of Iowa to the fact", he says, "that Senator Brookhart himself gives as his only purpose in bolting the head of the ticket the intention of making himself the director of Iowa politics. The state committee has always maintained the position that a candidate nominated by the voters at the primary is entitled to the support of the voters within his party. In the campaign two years ago the only contest was that of Senator Brookhart against

League Tables Bid To United States

Adopt Resolutions For Next Disarmament Conference

GENEVA, Oct. 3—(AP)— Before adjourning this evening the council of the league of nations adopted resolutions whereby in preparation for next year's conference on the reduction of armaments, the league's commission will be transformed into a commission of coordination. It will simultaneously be revised and enlarged so as to include all the representative groups fundamentally interested in the success of the conference.

Although no plans were adopted whereby the United States will be invited to participate in the work of of the new commission, league officials said tonight that the question of collaboration of non-member states would be decided at the next meeting of the council, which will be held in Rome in December.

Johnson Refuses to Attend Series

Still Protesting Landis' Decision, Favored By Heydler

CHICAGO, Oct. 3—President Ban Johnson of the American league tonight telegraphed Clark Griffith, president of the Washington club, refusing to attend the world's series games starting at Washington tomorrow. He said he had no desire to see the Giants as representatives of the National league because of "the intolerable condition that has permeated the club" and that the Brooklyn club should have been selected to represent the National league.

The Giants, he said, should have been disqualified.

Green Caps

GOOD morning frosh, we're glad to see you. Those green caps look mighty good on this autumn campus." That's the silent greeting of every upper classman as Iowa's perennial green dots begin to appear.

Perhaps when you freshman first tried on that cap and saw a more daring brother wear it, you shuddered and wanted to spurn the emblem then and there. But now, after you have given that solemn pledge of loyalty beneath the campus elms, aren't you proud of it?

You have a right to be. You are the new spirit of this institution. You may have to carry more than your share of laundry cases and you may have to open too many doors, but fifty years from now that will be one of your pet college yarns.

We're expecting a lot from you or we wouldn't have given you a chance to wear those caps. You are our young brothers and to you we are entrusting the traditions and honor of this family. Be so faithful to this apprenticeship that your green cap may always hang on the hall-tree of your memory.

Frost—on the Bumpkins

"B. L. T.," erstwhile columnist, would have had sport with them; he would have captioned them celeverly or done a last line upon them,—these pathetic housewives who cover their cherished geranium plants, their one anaemic fern, with copies of the evening paper or bits of spare toweling. Nature is an adamant visitor and frost does things to their geranium. After tonight it will come intermittently, and finally in a week or two, the white film will penetrate the thin paper, the cloth, and wrap its cold fingers about the heart of the geranium, shrivelling it up in death.

It is a frost of a different ilk which has bitten some families. Money is tight during election year,—and rain and drought have wrought havoc with the wallets of the pater. One boy didn't return. He had a promising future, had he capitalized his brains rather than his feet. He was, last year, a member of a recognized fraternity, an excellent dancer, rated a "keen date," a slick dresser, and a good spender. He scattered money profligately. Shortly before the fall opening his father was driven to the wall, and was utterly ruined, partly because of the severe drain of the previous year. A second boy who had been backed for two years by his grandparents found himself abruptly cut off from his sustenance. The old people..... owed it to themself to put a little money by, for their "winter"..... he was young, and might help a little. He will return second semester.

That is the way the frost works. Stealthily, silently it gives no warning of its coming, but rips the plant of its posies. The father, the mother, patiently hold to the bit, until the cancerous drain on the capital drives them to let it sag.

This year, even more than last, there should be no excuse for a pace which rifles recklessly the plethoric bank account,—plethoric as compared with that of the plodder who is working his way through school. The veneer spread by money, when it is given at the cost of a family's comfort, is little else than the filmy paper which tries vainly to shield the geranium from frost. Ruin, money exhaustion, crop failure, unless one has jogged along prudently, is as inexorable and devastating as the frost.

Seven full-blooded Indians play on the Southeastern Teachers' team—and none of our sport writers have though of pepping up their stories with "tomahawks" or "scalps," or even "out for blood!"

Several girls who took part in the recent induction march have suggested that it be counted as a three-mile W. A. A. hike.

Hello Day comes once a year as a change from the rest of the year when "hello" is spoken mostly with the syllables reversed.

With the Senators in New York and the would-be senator in Iowa it is easy to find a banner now days.

"Hello is the accepted greetings for university students on "Hello Day" says the Iowan. We wonder what their usual methods of greeting is.

A prize of three tarnished goldfish is offered for anyone who will tell us just what Mr. Gaston B. Means means to do twenty-four hours from now. Mr. Means is the most self-denying person we know of.

We wonder how much credit Republican campaign managers will claim for the recent frost. It is certain that they will claim that the resultant rise in grain prices, which is sure to come, is due solely to the wise and sagacious administration of President Coolidge.

In the bombardment of campaign oratory a significant news item is almost overlooked. The holy city of Mecca, one of the most ancient in the world, is about to fall before the attack of 25,000 Waihibis (whatever Waihibis may be.)

There are two ways to win a woman. One is to spend money on her. So is the other.

The Prince of Wales went a'fishing and caught a long string of trout over in Alberta, Canada. Of course they were curious.

The world flyers will be feted at another luncheon today. We'll say they had more difficulties to face than Columbus when he made his famous voyage to America.

A famous actress shot herself in Vienna on the eve of her fourth marriage. Guess she thought her fiance would live too long.

Lovely Labors Lost

THE INTERPRETATION OF VERSE

Editor's note. It has often been impressed upon us that the Iowan should improve the literary tastes of its readers as well as supply them with news. With this admonition in mind, we have prevailed upon one of the campus literati to interpret a poem for us.

"Not a leaf but held its place"

(Line I. The leaf referred to is of a common garden variety, a hard maple. There are other leaves on the tree, but this particular one, with a streak of yellow down its midrib, is held in place by a petiole. The petiole need not be mentioned, only implied, but a verse should be informational as well as recreational. The petiole will fall with the leaf. Isn't that TOO bad?)

"Not a bird but stilled its call"

(Line II. At first glimpse the bird seems to be a grosbeek. No, Claude, is is not a grosbeek; it is a scarlet tanager. The vivid scarlet of the tanager, also implied, is to lend color to this little jewel. Here an element of suspense enters. We all wonder what the bird will do with the leaf. We leave that to the reader. The bird stops broadcasting to his frau and is still. Now we shall see what the next line has in store for us.)

'Only a star that dared to speak"

(Line III approches a climax and gives hint of dialogue. We shall guess what the star is doing in the verse. Oh, yes, it is to speak. For more information, clip attached coupon and mail to Prof. Charles Heald Weller, who handles all our explanatory University bulletins.)

"And I could not hear it at all"

(Line IV is decidedly weak; it is too readily understood. Line IV should tell what the star said, when interviewed on induction service, and the world series; but it doesn't. The verse, may be improved by anyone who wishes. We have supplied the fundamentals.

Sir:-

I am not disposed to criticise the illustrious name of M. Quad, or Em Quad as you so modestly put it, but the shades of Bertrand Lewis, when you announce it is of a little moment I must ask a question.

Why the modesty?

Why not sign your name among the greater immortals—Marc Twain, Ugene Field, B. L. T., E. Bod Burdette, Joshe Billings, Bille Nye, etc? I ask to inform you.

Yours truly,
Harp O' Tara

We'll tell you how 'tis, Harp old girl. We talked it over with Chris Morely, Keith Preston, Jay House, and F. P. A. We have decided to remain incog until there are half a dozen of us. The all six will emerge from our respective anonymities and emblazon our names with those you have so kindly listed.

Incidentally, you are sort of an anonymous old chap yourself, Harp. Why don't you sign a name we'll recognize one of the "greater immortals"—such as Pro Bono Publico or Constant Reader.

Women Must Swim To Gain Honor Of Seals Membership

Annual Tryouts to Come Oct. 12 and 19 For Aspirants

Shirley Kinney is New Seals Member of W. A. A. Board

To women who are interested in membership in the seal's club comes the announcement of the annual tryouts.

At a business meeting Thursday night, the final dates for the tryouts were set for the last two Mondays in October. The first date will be Monday, October 12, from 4:30 to 6 o'clock in the women's gym. The final one will be held a week from that date, October 19, at the same time and place.

The tests to be used consist of plunge for distance, speed of swimming, and comparative excellence in at least three strokes and dives.

Women who are able to swim but are not sure that their ability is great enough to pass the entrance requirements have been urgd to try out anyway. The judges will be able to tell them of their defects, and if they fail in only one thing, they will be notified of their trouble nad may be able to practice on this and try out again in the spring.

Other business matters were transacted by the club at this time, including the election of Shirley Kinney, A4 of Mason City, to be the representative from the Seals to the W. A. A. board. Miss Elizabeth Halsey, the new head of the physical education department, and Miss Lillian Lawler of the French department, were made honorary members of the seals club.

What is a Khana? That's Just What We Were Thinking

What is a gym Khana? The answer to this puzzling question can be found at the women's gym on Halloween when the women's athletic association will give an affair by this puzzling name. Any woman in the University may attend and an exciting time is promised to all.

Beg Your Pardon

In an account of the W. A. A. party in the Iowan of yesterday morning, the name of Genevieve Harter, A3 of Keokuk, should have appeared in the account of the hockey match instead of the name of Alpha Hanson.

Co-Eds Wonder And Frat Men Hope After Showers of Hello's Cease

"Hello," "Hello your own self."

Were you one of those who wondered, "What do they mean Hello Day?" until you walked by that fraternity house where the porch seems to be always full?

And then when you went into your Spanish class there was that handsome fellow you've been wanting to speak to every since the first day, and did you speak?

And so began a wonderful friendship? Let's hope.

At least you've a date for varsity and there can't anybody tell where the end of that will be.

How about that lab assistant with the "come hither" lips and the sarcastic grouch? You got a chance to make him speak, didn't you? How he glowered.

Now you are wondering if that keen little girl you pass every day going to liberal arts will speak today when you both aren't wearing yellow tags. What do you bet she will? She smiled mighty sweetly yesterday but you couldn't read her your fun. Let's make a motion that all acquaintances thus begun be continued indefinitely. Who seconds the motion? The motion is made and seconded unanimously.

And then it rained and spoiled all tag.

GIANTS AND SENATORS GIRD FOR OPENING SERIES GAME

Bribery Charges Die Down on Eve Of Initial Tilt

President Will Start Baseball's Classic By Tossing Ball

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3—The 1924 world serise between the Washington Senators, pennant winners for the first time in the American league and the New York Giants, National league champions for the past four years, will start tomorrow under circumstances which have had no parallel on the eve of the game's greatest classic.

The eleventh hour cloud of scandal that has thrown the baseball world into turmoil and threatened to set a match to the whole framework of the game had not entirely vanished.

Coolidge Starts Game

The national's capital was preparig to come into its own for the first time in its hisotry and from President Coolidge who will throw out the first ball, down to the youngest hero worshipper of "Bucky" Harris and Walter Johnson, Washington's most gallant diamond figures, the city's population will pay its tribute to their champions.

The hope apparently uppermost in the minds of Washington's fans tonight was that Walter Johnson, their pitching idol would reach the summit of his remarkable career, of 18 years in major league baseball by twirling the Senators to victory.

Giant Morale Shaken

The Giant morale it is believed has been shaken, although the players, after their brisk workout in the Senator's park declared they would take the field ready to cast aside all thought of the scandal and fight unhampered for the game's major crown.

Groh, who twisted a knee several weeks ago, wasstill hobbling about on a cane today and Captain Frank Frisch, who himself has just returned to the lineup after an absence forced by a finger injury, announced that the regular third sacker would be out of the entire series.

In Groh's place will be Freddy Lindstrom, 18 year old Chicago school boy, playing his first year in the majors.

High School Squad Primed for Marion Clash This Morning

Links Active With Golfers Out for Team

Although football holds the spotlight of sportdom at the present time, the golf links are the scene of activity these days.

During the past few days the aspirants for the varsity and freshman golf squads have been turning in their scores and as soon as handicaps have been awarded, competition will begin to determine who the members of the squad will be. Later on Coach Kennett will give the men plenty of action in matches between the varsity and freshman squads.

Since this is only the second year for golf as a sport at Iowa its popularity is still on the increase. Students are present on the links at all times. Coach Kennett is much pleased with the advance of the game and is optimistic over its progress in the future.

He wishes, however, to caution players as to carelessness in observance of the rules of the course. Unnecessary neglect of golf etiquette by a few is annoying to others and a distinct hindrance to full enjoyment of the game.

Hard Work Brings Up Red And White Form For Battle

Schrader Field Scene Of Encounter With Marion

Center, Forwald.
ight guard, Dolezal.
Right end, Slemons, captain.
Quarterback, Koza.
Fullback, Lindsley.
Officials: Dr. W. R. Fiesler, "Stub" Barron, and Godon Locke.

This morning at ten o'clock the Iowa City high school eleven meets Marion on Shrader Field. The past week has been spent in earnest effort and the Red and White men will enter into the battle as a well organized machine.

The backs have been combined well directed, efforts of all the men in forming srong intereference. Koza, quarterback is a clever dodger, and when following Strickler the two have made repeatedly long gains.

Line is Heavy

The line equals the backfield in its capacity. "Chick" Forwald is a heavy center and holds his position firmly to the ground. He also kicks off for the Red and White The guards, Goldman and Dolezal, get down on their knees and feature in every play. Adrian and Vestermark are tackles.

The ends, Idema and Slemons captain, have strengthened up much in the past week on passing.

Sponsorees Get Sponsors Monday

Names of Freshmen to Go Into Lottery For Party

Upperclass women will draw their freshman sponsoree for the sponsor-sponsoree party Monday. A table will be placed in the hall in front of the liberal arts drawing room with the name and address and telephone number of some freshman woman.

The sponsor is to invite her freshman sponsoree to the party. She will call for her on Wednesday evening and escort her to the woman's gymnasium for the big "get acquainted" party of the women's association.

The sponsors will continue to look after their wards throughout the school year.

Iowa Grid Record Has Rest of Big Ten Shaded

Coach Alonzo Stagg's Maroons Press Hawks Closely for Conference Leadership Over Five Year Span

For the five year period from 1919 to 1923 inclusive, the Iowa football team has won a higher percentage of their games than any other of the Big Ten teams. Second place goes to Chicago, with Michigan third.

The standings which have just been compiled take into account only games played with other conference rivals. In 1919 the University of Illinois led the conference schools with a percentage of .857. In 1920, Ohio State was unbeaten, giving her a clear claim to the title. Iowa came to the front in 1921 with a clean slate and remained at the top until she was beaten in 1923, although the Hawks were forced to share the honor in 1922 with Michigan. Last year, Illinois and Michigan tied for the lead.

Iowa and Illinois also have the distinction of having one unqualified championship and a tie for another, while Michigan has finished in a tie for the honor on two occasions. The complete percentages for the past five years are given below.

Teams	Games	Won	Lost	Tied	Pct.
Iowa	25	18	7	0	.720
Chicago	28	19	8	1	.704
Michigan	21	13	7	1	.650
Illinois	29	18	11	0	.621
Wisconsin	25	13	9	3	.591
Ohio State	24	14	10	0	.583
Indiana	16	6	9	1	.400
Minnesota	27	9	16	2	.360
No'west'n	26	4	21	1	.160
Purdue	21	2	18	1	.100

Big Ten Football Lid Tilted Today

Nebraska-Illinois Go With Grange Claims Attention

CHICAGO, Oct. 3—(AP)—Western conference football lid pried open a week ago will be tilted to its full height tomorrow when every team in the "Big Ten" will go into action. Purdue and Ohio State clash at Columbus in the only western conference game affecting the championship race.

The Nebraska - Illinois contest is the most interesting on tomorrow's schedule. The game will be the first 1924 start for Red Grange, a sensational figure in the game last season.

Northwestern will get its first test, meeting South Dakota at Evanston, while Wisconsin, after showing a strong attack by beating North Dakota last Saturday, takes on Ames at Madison. North Dakota after taking a trouncing from the Badgers, faces Minnesota.

Iowa under the guidance of Burt Ingwersen faces a formidable opponent in the Southeastern Teachers college of Oklahoma. Indiana plays DePauw eleven.

Michigan will meet Miami at Ann Arbor, while Notre Dame will play Lombard at South Bend.

We'll Win I'm Sure Says Bucky Harris

Walter Johnson Looks For Full Series With Excitement

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3—Manager "Bucky" Harris of the Senators, expressed confidence tonight that his team would win out in the world series which opens here tomorrow with the New York Giants, but added that he wouldn't be surprised if it took seven games to tell the story.

Coupled with Harris' "statement" came an announcement from Walter Johnson, pride of the Washington team, that an eighteen year old desire to win a world series game would be back of his efforts tomorrow.

Harris said: "It's foolish for people to talk of the series being decided in four games. When two strong teams like the Giants and the Senators hook up in a series," he added, "neither can win out in four games unless aided with an unprecedented number of breaks."

"The Senators are expecting a long hard series," Harris continued, "and the team realizes it must go to the limit to win but we feel confident that we can do it."

Guards Against Flustration

Johnson said he realized tomorrow's game would be the biggest of his life. "I know Washington is looking for me to win." he said, "and I am going to try to deliver. Many times in big games like tomorrow when you know everybody is rooting for you it gets you excited and things go bad.

Frosh Dash Men Will Show Wares

Class Meet Scheduled Between Halves of Today's game

Aspiring Frosh dash men will have a chance to display their wares before the crowd at the Iowa-Southeastern game on Saturday.

Assistant track Coach Eric C. Wilson has selected four Freshmen half mile relay teams who will compete against teams representing the Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors, one team representing each of the upper classes. The race will be run between the halves of the football game.

Since no time has been taken on the yearling candidates, the race Saturday will afford track fans an opportunity to size up Freshmen prospects in the dash events.

The teams that will represent the upper classes have not been definitely selected but the captains and personnel of the first teams are as follows: Team number one, D. Foster captain. L. C. White, C. I. Joy and C. S. Grusonik; Team number two, A. H. Bronson, captain, H. H. Nelson, F. W. Edwards and G. H. Baughman; Team number three, P. Taxman, captain, F. J. Miller, H. L. Beal and D. Bolton; team No. four, H. P. Butterfield, captain, W. W. Crissman, C. O. Estes and H. H. Rathje.

"RED" FABER LETS CUBS DOWN SIX TO THREE IN CHICAGO SERIES

Sox Make It Two Straight In Third Game

15,000 Persons See Game; Receipts $14,000

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—The White Sox made it two straight from their Cub rivals today by winning the third game, 6 to 3.

"Red" Faber, star spitball twirler of the American leaguers, had his opponents baffled most of the way and only in the late innings did he become steady. The White Sox got the jump on their foe in the sixth frame after two were out. Collins worked Jacobs for a pass and Sheely drove the ball to the right field wall. It struck the fence and rolled under the stand for a some run. This unnerved Jacobs and Falk followed with a hit and Kamm walked. W. Barrett smashed one for two bases and two more runs scored. Two more runs were added to the White Sox total at the expense of Vic Keen. He hit Schalk and walked Hooper and both scored on Collin's triple.

Grigsby started the rally for the Cubs in the eight which netted three runs. He singled and Hollocher, who came from his home in St. Louis to help his mates after being absent because of illness most of the season, batted for R. Barrett and walked. Cotter shot a double to center sending two runs home and registered later on Adams hit to center.

The Cubs threatened to score again in the ninth but Hollocher hit into a double ply killing, Collins to Sheeley, Collins making a great play.

Attendance 15,101; gross receipts $13,940.10; commissioner's share $2,091.01; players' share $7,109.45; each club's share $1,369.82. Score:

White Sox	000 004 002	6	8 1
Cubs	000 000 030	3	9 0

Pothier Admits to Callahan He Killed Maj. Cronkhite

TACOMA, Oct. 3—(AP)—Raymond T. Pothier on trial in federal court here, on charge of having murdered Major Alexander Cronkhite at Camp Lewis in 1918, told Thomas J. Callahan of Province, R. I., that he killed the officer, Callahan testified today.

Callahan, who is the agent of the federal department of justice, said that Pothier declared: "I am the man who shot Major Cronkhite."

Marathon Race to Lead Water Events Planned by Coach

A series of home meets culminating in an all University swim shortly before the Christmas holidays, is scheduled for swimmers by Dave Armbruster, swimming coach.

Innovation and variety is promised in a ten mile marathon swim for time to be taken, and a medley relay race to be held sometime during the ensuing month.

Besides these swims a water penthalon consisting of a hundred yards crawl, back and breast stroke, four required dives and a distance free style swim will be given. Indications point to keen competition for the medals to be offered for this event.

On Other Football Fields

Missouri

The varsity is working hard for the Chicago game this week. The practice all week consisted in intensive passing, kicking, and signal drills together with a hard scrimmage every night The freshman are being used against the varsity every night. With the exception of a few minor injuries the varsity is in fine shape,

Cornell

The varsity, under the able supervision of Gill Dobie, is fast rounding into shape for the hard season ahead of them. Noticeable features of their recent workouts are the lack of fumbling, the ability of some of the kickers, and speed. The backs handle the ball very well and the line, except for being a little ragged, due to their being constantly shifted around, is working in fine shape.

Kansas U.

One hundred and twenty-five men answered Coach Schlademan's first call for varsity track and are working out in preparation for the all-University interorganization track and field meet winter schedule.

A monstrous pep meeting was held Thursday to generate pep for the Oklahoma Aggie game Saturday.

Kansas Aggies

The first scrimmage of the season between the varsity and the freshman teams resulted in two casualties for the varsity. Stone, a regular guard, received a broken leg, and Brion, a first string halfback had three ribs broken. Both men will be out of the game all season. The team is composed, for the most part, of new men whose success will depend on the amount of football they can absorb in a short time.

Welterweight Champ Barred Temporarily

(By the Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 3—Carrying out a threat of suspension of Mickey Walker, world's welterweight champion, if engaged in a match before meeting Dave Shade, coast welterweight, in a title match, the New York state athletic commissioner today barred the title holder from further matches in the state because of his meeting with Bobby Barrett at Philadelphia on Wednesday night. The suspension is indefinite and also includes Barrett, his manager, Jimmy Dougherty and his entire stable of fighters.

Tennis Tourney Starts Monday

Marks Opening of Intramural Program

The annual all-University tennis tournament, beginning Monday afternoon, marks the opening of the 1924-25 program of intramural sport contests, announces E. G. Schroeder.

The program is divided into twenty-two groups of contests, including a great variety of sports. The following is a list of the intramural sport events for the year, as given out by Mr. Schroeder.

1. All-University tennis tournament.
2. Fall track and field meets.
3. Thanksgiving day cross country run.
4. Fraternity relay swimming meet.
5. Fraternity swimming meet.
6. Freshman - sophomore swimming meat.
7. Sorority indoor relay carnival.
8. Intramural basketball, a. Fraternity league, b. Dormitory league, c. Class, college and boarding clubs.
9. Novice gymnastic meet.
10. Boxing tournament.
11. Skating tournament.
12. Wrestling tournament.
13. Spring tennis tournament.
14. Pantathlon track and field meet.
15. River swimming and canoe race.
16. Golf tournament.
17. Horseshoe tournament.
18. Fraternity track and field meet.
19. Foul-throwing contest.
20. Play ground ball.
21. Spring baseball tournament.
22. Fencing tournament.

Last year 2,500 students or over one-third of the total number of men enrolled ni college, took part in intramural contests, Schroeder stated. It is hoped that a greater number will compete this year.

The participation trophy, a beautiful cup. is given each year, by the interfraternity conference, to the frat getting the highest record in intramural sports. The trophy was awarded Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity last year.

The purpose of the intramural games is to give men and women who have had no opportunity a chance to compete with each other; to give them athletic training and exercise; it also aids the coaches in finding material for varsity teams. Many of the intramural sports handled by the coaches, themselves, while the instructors handle the others.

Committee Has not Changed

"Senator Brookhart througout his time and effort n inducing republican who refused to vote for him as a bolter from the republican party and applauded the committee in its activity in this regard.

"The state committee has not in any way changed. It is Senator Brookhart who has changed, and I do not believe that the voters of Iowa are going to permit the great issues of the campaign to be set aside to satisfy the personal likes, or dislikes of the senator.

"The senator's charges against the president are as ridiculous as his assertion regarding my statements with reference to General Dawes. I have always personally admired, and I now continue to support General Dawes. Any statements to the contrary by Senator Brookhart, or any one else are maliciously untrue."

Republicans Approve Bouncing of Brookhart

Harold D. Evans Endorses Action State Committee

"Wild Bull of Iowa" to Come as Supporter Of LaFollette

Third Party Organizer Now Active in County

By FRED MORSE

Condemned by the republican party yesterday afternoon by the state central committee, Smith W. Brookhart will come here Monday night as an avowed supporter of LaFollette and Wheeler.

When informed of the action of the state committee, Harold D. Evans, chairman of the republican county central committeefi heartily endorsed the action of the state organization and termed it "the proper thing to do." Ousting of LaFollette followed Brookhart's speech at Emmetsburg yesterday afternoon, and his denunciation of Coolidge and Dawes.

Plans for the Brookhart speech here were made without consulting local republican headquarters and have been viewed with disfavor.

An organizer for Brookhart has been active here for several days laying plans for the organization of LaFollette-Wheeler clubs after the speech in the natural science auditorium on Monday night.

Lowden To Air Campaign Bunk

WOC Will Broadcast Address Monday Evening

Frank O. Lowden, of Illinois, prominent republican, will address a meeting next Monday night at Davenport on campaign issues. He will speak at 8 o'clock in the Palmer school auditorium. Several local republicans have expressed their intention to attend.

The address will also be broadcast from WOC at Davenport.

BULLETIN

Heavy rains and unfavorable atmospheric conditions forced the westbound air mail plane down at Dixon, at 8:40 o'clock last night. Telephonic advices from Dixon at 12:10 o'clock this morning informed Smith field officials that the pilot was warming up his motor and would take off for Iowa City before 1 o'clock. Both searchlights at Smith field were sweeping the sky at 1 o'clock this morning to guide the westbound ship.

Emergency fields west of here reported fair atmospheric conditions at midnight and the eastbound mail was expected to arrive here on time at 5:35 o'clock this morning.

Sheriff Martin On Trail Of Marmon Bandit Gang

To Trace Robbers by Kolterman's Marmon

Sheriff James Martin believes that he is on the trail of the Marmon car stolen from T. L. Kolterman at Tiffin a month ago. Through a letter received from the St. Louis, Mo., authorities, he is assured that the robbers who escaped with $45,000 lot from a suburban bank in a Marmon car, are the gang who stole Kolterman's Marmon.

Mr. Kolterman plans to go to Omaha, Nebraska, today to secure the motor number of his car, which he purchased there. With this information, and other information withheld, Sheriff Martin hopes to capture the bandits.

Business Men to Elect Six Officers

Chamber of Commerce Will Send Out Ballots Soon

The end of the Chamber of Commerce fiscal year is October 15. Election of officers for the coming year will be held in a short time. Those whose time expired this year are: H. D. Breene, president; Ira J. Houston; W. G. Raymond; J. L. Records; C. H. Weller, Christian Yetter.

Members holding over for one year are: James Aldous, Carl Cone, Thomas Farrel, C. A. Phillips, A. B. Sidwell, James E. Stronks.

Nominations for the board are secured by sending out a primary ballot on which the name of every member of the chamber is printed. Members are asked to vote for twelve and the twelve names receiving the highest vote are declared nominees for the board and are placed on the final ballot, sent out one week later. Each member votes for six on the final ballot and the six receiving the highest vote are declared elected. The board elects its own officers.

Wassam Will Talk At Noon Luncheon

Chamber of Commerce Holds First Meeting Tuesday

Members of the Chamber of Commerce will attend the first weekly noon luncheon of the fall season on October 6 at 12:10 o'clock.

Dr. C. W. Wassam, an Iowa City man famed as a Chautauqua headliner but has seldom been heard in Iowa City, has been secured to speak. It is said of him that he as a fund of humor, is a rapid fire speaker and entertainer but beneath all is extremely practical.

During the past summer Dr. Wassam visited Europe and he will probably tell something of this trip.

Moving Vans Collide On Washington Street

A collision between two moving vans belonging to Carlton Brothers and the Thompson Transfer company occured at the corner of Gilbert and Washington streets at about 5:30 yesterday afternoon. No one was injured in the collision.

Roads Greasy After Storm Yesterday

Will Dry Rapidly if No More Rain Falls

The main primary roads leading into Iowa City, the Red Ball highway and White Way No. 7, were reported slippery last night following yesterday afternoon's heavy downpour.

One man ocming to Iowa City last evening on No. 7 said it was impossible to get through without chains. One traveler came through, from Cedar Rapids, over the Red Fall route, without chains, but reported poor road. He reported one car in the ditch.

"Greasiness" of the roads last night was only a surface condition, it was thought by most tourists. If no more rain falls the roads should be in good shape by this afternoon.

One Day Late Costs $16.70 In Court

Abramsohn Loses a $6.50 Suit by Time Limit

Sueing for $6.50, paying $16.70 for court costs, and receiving nothing in return, was the fate of A. Abramsohn, Iowa City shoe dealer, when he sued L. J. and Mrs. L. J. Belger in justice of the peace T. E. Murphy's court Thursday.

Mr. Abramsohn claimed that he sold the party a pair of shoes in 1919, a statement which the defendants deny. The defendants called for a jury trial, supported their testimony with this denial of the purchase, and won the case. The defendants could have also claimed that the charge was outlawed, for it was five years and one day when the notice was served on them, one day in excess of the time alloted by law.

Ed Rate was the attorney for the plaintiff, and W. J. Baldwin was the counsel for the defendants.

Controversy Over Promissory Note In Circuit Court

Controversy over whether the principal of a promissory note is $5,000 or $4,600 is the cause of the contesting yesterday in circuit court by one of the defendents, D. H. Black, in the suit of C. S. Lucas vs. G. F. Gallagher.

Black, through his attorney, claims that he did not receive the full amount of the note, but minus $400 as a year's interest at eight per cent. Black asserts that the interest he should pay, should be on the amount actually received, $4,600, and not on the amount of the note. He also asserts that the interest asked by the plaintiff, if considering the amount received, is unlawful for it would exceed the eight per cent limit fixed by the Iowa statutes. The matter was taken under advisement by Judge R. G. Popham.

In the suit of C. M. Timm vs. Joseph J. Zahner et al., the plaintiff asked for a receiver and his request was granted. Judge Popham will make the appointment.

Council Considers Petitions Against Taxes on Paving

Koser Brothers and Engineer Young Complain

Petition Incorporates Morningside Into Iowa City

A large number of petitions were read and acted upon at the city council meeting last evening.

The petition complaining of the assessments as made by the city engineer F. E. Young on the paving on North Dodge street was presented by Attorney Joe Motto, who stated that the signers of the petition did not object against the paving, but against the assessments. After referring the petition to the city attorney and the city engineer, it was again brought before the council and all objections were overruled and assessments approved.

A city ordinance was passed providing for the vacation of the blind alley in Summit Hill addition.

The petition by Koser Bros. on the assessment on lot 23, Ridgeway, was placed on file. The protest on the condition of the paving at the south end of Johnson street was referred to the city engineer and the street and alley commissioner.

Approve Incorporation.

The petition to incorporate into the city that part of Morningside, that is not already in, was granted. Other petitions passed on and granted were: sidewalk grade on McGowan avenue; that alley be graded and cindered between Dodge and Johnson streets and Ronnell and Brown; for sidewalk grade on Runnel street east of Dubuque; to pave alley north of Currier Hall, paving to be done and paid for by the University; and for changing the name of the road running west from the city park bridge to the junction with Rock Shore drive to Park road.

Dane Asks Damages

The petition to vacate part of Des Moines street, between Madison street and the interurban tracks was referred to the streets and alleys commission. The petition that the city waterworks extend the sewer on Koontz avenue was referred to the waterworks commission. H. J. Dane's plea for damages was referred to the claims committee.
