Five Add Weight to Neglect Charge of Colonel Mitchell

Oldys States Officers Misdread Congress by Information

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 — Five witnesses added today to the evidence the defense is placing before the general court martial trying Col. William Mitchell, in an effort to prove the truth of his published charges that the war and navy departments are incompetent, negligent and almost treasonable in their administration of the national defense. Each of the first five contributed statements Representative Frank R. Reid, chief counsel for the air officer tonight characterized as "most helpful to the defense."

Captain Robert Oldys of the war plans section, army air service, testified in support of Colonel Mitchell's statement that high ranking army and navy officers had given congress misleading information about aerodynamics and cited an instance where an army pilot, Major Harley Wheeler, had been killed because he "tried to save his ship rather than himself."

Train Kills Man of Des Moines in Fall Under Train

DES MOINES, Nov. 10 (AP)—Ward G. Freeman, 29, brakeman on the Chicago Great Western railroad was virtually cut to pieces late yesterday when he fell between moving freight cars here. He died on his way to the hospital. The brakeman was switching cars when the accident occurred. He had coupled two freight cars together and had signalled the switch engine to go ahead. In hopping on to the car he lost his grip and was thrown between the wheels.

To Thaw Out Iowan Chills at Pep Meet

Iowa fans will meet in the gym tomorrow night at 7:15 to thaw out the chills that settled in Iowa's hopes for an undefeated conference championship last Saturday. Plans have not yet been compiled for the pep meeting but Bill Baird, king cheerleader, and his henchmen are planning to make it the biggest and most enthusiastic of the year. The Automatic Electric Washing Machine company of Newton, Iowa, has offered to furnish a thousand small articles for producing a terrific din. These noise makers are constructed on the order of a tick-tack and make a disturbance like a flock of geese all afflicted with sore throat. Notice of the complete program of festivities in both Iowa City and Minneapolis will appear in Wednesday's Iowan.

"Candida" Tryouts to Begin November 17

Tryouts for parts in the play "Candida" given by University Players will begin Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 17, at 4:00 p. m. in the Stuebel studio, according to announcement made by Prof. E. C. Mable, head of the department of speech, yesterday. Copies of the book are on reserve at the main library desk. All parts are open for try-outs with the exception of Candida which will be played by Mrs. Alice M. Mills.

Errand Boy Rises to Bank President

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 (AP)—Robert V. Fleming, who entered the service of the Riggs National bank, as a runner, today became president of the institution, one of the largest in the east, at the age of 35 years. He succeeds Milton E. Allen, who died here several days ago, and who rose from the position of a janitor in the treasury to that of a financial leader in the capital.

Olga Petrova Pays Roberts $7,500; Plagiarizing Suit

NEW YORK, Nov. 10 (AP)—A verdict of $7,500 was returned today in favor of William H. Roberts by the jury which heard his suit for damages against Madame Olga Petrova, Russian actress, based on charges she plagiarized from his play "The Red Wig," in her production of "The White Peacock."

Fitch Comes Here for Next Vespers

Carleton College Professor Has Written Five Books

The Reverend Mr. Albert Parker Fitch, called by Dean Charles R. Brown of Yale "one of the three best men in the ministry in the United States," will deliver an address at the monthly University vespers services Sunday afternoon, November 22.

Lectures at Yale

A graduate of Harvard and Union Theological seminary, the Rev. Mr. Fitch was ordained as a Congregational minister in 1903. He accepted a pastorate at the First Congregational church at Flushing, Long Island, and two years later took a similar position at Mount Vernon church, Boston.

Religious Works

He has twice been honored with the degree of doctor of divinity, at Amherst college in 1909, and at Williams college in 1914. He is a Phi Beta Kappa, and is affiliated with Delta Upsilon fraternity. He holds membership in the Academy of Political Science and in the National Institute of Social Sciences.

Yanks-Italians Busy Ironing Debt Troubles

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 (AP)—Members of the American and Italian debt commissions put in three hours today in another effort to iron out disputed points which thus far have held off an agreement for funding Italy's war debt.

Anti-Booze League Launches Plans of Work for Future

Discuss Dry Extension in Europe; Johnson Aims at Austria

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Nov. 10—Intensive organization plans to put the law enforcement activities of the Anti-saloon league on the same thorough local basis as the legislative activities were launched today at the conference of several hundred workers following the five day convention. Efforts of the county and state groups, heretofore concentrated on election of dry state and national officials, will be turned to local officers, both elected and candidates.

Town and Gown to Merge in Annual Patriotic Service

Talks at Men's Gym, Parade, Races, on Program

With the city and University organizations in cooperation for a one hundred per cent Armistice Day observance, plans are now completed for the Armistice Day activities. Entertaining events will occupy the day, beginning with the brief exercises at the men's gymnasium at 10:45. The speaker will be Judge C. B. Robbins of Cedar Rapids. The rest of the program will consist of numbers given by the University musical organizations and novelty features.

Experts Question Sanity of Blazer

Hold Court Armistice Day to Complete New Witnesses

(By The Associated Press) LITTLETON, Colo., Nov. 10—Although the defense has rested its case in the trial of Dr. Harold Elmer Blazer, who is charged with the murder of his 34 year old imbecile daughter, Hazel, the presentation of expert testimony on the questioned insanity of the defendant continued throughout the day with the examination of alienists offered in rebuttal by the state.

Coolidge to Honor Unknown Soldier

Tribute of Silence Will be Paid to Nation's War Heroes

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 10—Leading the nation in observance of the seventh anniversary of the World War Armistice, President Coolidge will make a pilgrimage tomorrow to Arlington cemetery to lay a wreath on the unknown soldier's tomb.

First Rendezvous of Iowa Athletes, Ham Hall, Falls as Landlord Knocks

Budding university athletes did not always have a spacious, polished gymnasium floor upon which to work off superfluous energy and build up brawn and gristle. The husky Apollos of the early days of the school met in Ham's hall, which was sort of a second Narodni Sin occupying the building on the southeast corner of Dubuque and Iowa avenue.

First Gym Class
It was here that the first gymnasium class was organized in 1888 by one Julius Lischer, a senior. Membership was voluntary and Lischer, after collecting three dollars as dues for the school year from some thirty students, rented the hall. The organization bought one "horse," a set of horizontal bars, several trapezes and a set of rings to hang from the ceiling. Each man bought his own Indian club, and thus equipped classes met regularly under Lischer's instruction.

All went well until mid-winter. Came the landlord. The coffers were empty, with the result that the gymnasts reluctantly stopped swinging Indian clubs. One member of the organization, however, later reported that "we had to take military training, so we managed to keep exercised enough to prevent ankylosis of the joints."

History of Hall
Ham's hall, built by Dan Ham in the late sixties, had a rather hectic career, and "old timers" of Iowa City agree that from 1875 to about 1900 it was the most active amusement center in town. John Figg, an old resident, remembers the place well. "I tried my first roller skates there," he commented, "and nearly needed a crutch to get home." This place was first a trading post and Mr. Figg states that he still recollects the huge sled loads of prairie chickens which were trundled in and the huge piles of furs lying on the floor of the little store.

Rink, Chapel, Auditorium
Upstairs was the recreation hall. Shrewd old Dan Ham "ashed in" on the prevalent craze of those days, roller skating, and laid a steel floor for the accommodation of the devotees of the fad. The streets echoed with the roar of steel on steel for several blocks.

But when the old time political fever began to run rampant, the hall was used as an auditorium, and occasionally, when the university chapel needed redecoration students were herded in the hall for the 8 o'clock morning exercises.

Ho Hum. 'Nother White Hot Iron, S'il Vous Plait

LOS ANGELES, Cal.—There are a few extraordinary persons in this world immune to certain types of pain. Aberrations in their nervous systems are the reason.

HARRY HAIG

One of them is Harry Haig. Several years ago Haig accidentally stepped on a white hot piece of metal and discovered that the contact did not cause him any pain. Curious, he tried it again. The bottom of his feet scar when placed in juxtaposition with a red hot object, but he does not, he declares, feel any discomfort. Convincing proof of the fact was given to newspaper men in a demonstration a few days ago. Other parts of his body are not immune.

Psychologist to Snap Emotions of Singing Darkeys

Metfessel Attempts to Solve Question With New Apparatus

Does the negro, when he chants the weird, minor cadences of his spirituals, express greater emotion than the white person in his singing? This is a question that Mr. Milton Metfessel, of the psychology department, will attempt to solve in his experimental work at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. By means of a sound photography camera, Mr. Metfessel will actually photograph the natural expressions of emotions of twelve negro singers as portrayed through the voice and body movements. The project will require about three weeks' work, during which time Mr. Metfessel expects to take about 5,000 feet of film.

Aids Investigation
The primary contributions of the new apparatus, the invention of Dr. Metfessel and Dean Carl E. Seashore of the graduate college, to former cameras of its kind are that it is portable and can be transported without deranging or disturbing its parts. Pictures are taken by means of a small mirror which picks up sound waves, repeats and enlarges them and in so doing reflects light to a moving picture film. A moving picture will record every slight tinge of facial and bodily expressions of the singer at the same time the voice is being photographed.

To Record All Types
In this work the two psychologists have secured the cooperation of Professor Howard Odum of the University of North Carolina, who selected the twelve songsters. The headquarters of the operation will be at Chapel Hill with trips out to negro schools at Hampton, Normal School at Durham and the Shaw University at Raleigh. General secular songs, varied types of work songs, religious or spirituals, and the cornfield "yodels" or "hollers" will be types of songs recorded.

A late addition to the sound photography camera is an extremely sensitive optical lever called the undiaphragm, a recent invention of Prof. Claude Lapp of the physics department.

College Boys "Just Darling" Says Topsy

White Sisters, Musical Comedy, "Crazy About Iowa City"

By ALICE REIDY
"College boys are just darling, and I'm just crazy about Iowa City," remarked Thelma White, "Topsy" of "Topsy and Eva" fame, as she flung her hat on the table and closed the door of her dressing room at the Englert theatre last night.

"We've just been out to a fraternity house—what was the name of it, Pat?" addressing her sister. "And," she went on without waiting for a reply "we showed them how to do the Charleston and everything, and I sang—and oh—I'm just crazy about it!"

"That Football Player"
"Oh, it was just wonderful," added Pat, who is better known as Marvel White, "we met that football player, too—Kutsch—isn't that his name, Nick Kutsch?"

The White sisters—they really are sisters—so Thelma says—are very young, and very striking in appearance. Both were in georgette dinner dresses made alike, except that Marvel's was blue, and Thelma's pink.

New in Company
"We haven't been with this company very long," Thelma rambled on, "only about two weeks. You know the Lee sisters had the parts of Topsy and Eva, and they went broke, so now we have them. But we're making good, and we are just crazy about it all, aren't we Pat?"

She turned to the girl who had accompanied the reporter. "Is your hair naturally curly? Why it is! Pat, isn't it just beautiful? Why I'd just give anything if I had hair like that! But I have a terrible time with it, and this make-up, you know. I have to rub black grease all over my face and neck, and it gets up in my hair. I never can keep it nice."

She went to answer a knock on the door. In a moment she was back doing a few steps of the Charleston.

"Oh," she exclaimed, "all the seats have been sold already! Pat, isn't that marvelous?"

"No Thanks"
"No thanks," she said in answer to the reporter's offer. "We don't smoke." Then she laughed. "And we don't roll our socks either."

Just then the door opened and a black curly head peeped around the corner.

"Oh," exclaimed Marvel, "Come in Josie. This is Josie Walton. She's the most perfect dancer. Wait till you see her do the Charleston!"

"And is it a quarter of eight already?" queried Thelma as the reporter rose to go. "I'm so glad you came—we love being interviewed. And please stop after the show."

The Why of The Rah

This is the reason for the "Rah." Investigation made by Dr. Irving Bell and C. F. Sachs of the Bell telephone laboratories indicate that men ordinarily speak this sound louder than any other vowel. The value of fifty is given to the amount of energy delivered by a man's voice on this particular sound its nearest rival, the sound of "a" as in "tap" comes next at forty-four, and "a" as in "talk" at thirty-seven.

Women's voices present quite a contrast in that there are four vowel sounds of practically the same loudness. These are the vowels in "tone," "talk," and "rah." "Ah" is the easiest sound to produce because fewer throat and mouth muscles are tensed; hence it is the basic vowel sound in most languages.

Thud of Axes Marks Birth of Huge Dam

KANSAS CITY, Missouri (AP)—The thud of axes and the crash of 90,000 trees on the banks of the Osage river near Bagnell, Mo., will herald the construction of a dam that will impound a lake more than 100 miles long and have 970 miles of shore.

Through the sluices will rush the tawny waters of the Osage river to turn five turbines each generating 25,000 horsepower of electricity to vitalize factories, light towns and speed transportation in Missouri.

The lake to be created will have 1,880,000 acre-feet of storage capacity, much more than the Elephant Butte reservoir. The turbines will produce almost as much primary power as does Muscle Shoals.

"As Ithers See Us"

"They certainly can eat—especially the men."

Here is a judgment passed upon campus folk by one who sees them sans their conventional veneer—said individual being a restaurant cook.

"Of course I only see them only at meal time," she commented, "and not much then, because I'm busy dishing up food for them. Plenty of girls come in and order a sandwich, a salad, and a cup of tea, but never a man. He always wants meat, potatoes and gravy—something that will 'stick to his ribs.'"

"The boys like their steaks rare while a girl is more likely to want it well. Men invariably order coffee, varied tastes in the beverage line are revealed by orders from the girls."

"Most of them like the old standbys best. They seem afraid to try something a little different. Roast beef and 'ham and' are still as popular as ever."

Editor of Famed Blue Books Would Close Mails to Digest

(By The Associated Press)
GIRARD, Kan.,—E. Halde-mann-Jullus, publisher of books and weekly and monthly magazines, today demanded, in a telegram to the postoffice department, that the Literary Digest, New York weekly publication, be barred from the mails. He alleged violation of the department's rule that premiums to subscribers shall not exceed 50 per cent of the yearly subscription rate of the publication.

Physics Student Gets Lowdown on Radio Waves With Greatest Accuracy Yet Known

Winfield Salisbury, A4 of Iowa City, has invented a wave meter that will measure radio waves about ten times more accurately than they have ever been measured before. He is now working to calibrate the meter and for that purpose has erected two wires attached to cross beams of poles west of the physics building.

New Meter Supersensitive
An ordinary type of wave meter must be operated so close to the wave source that it changes the length of the waves and an accurate measurement is impossible. The new meter is so sensitive that it will measure waves from the WSUT broadcasting station at the physics building without alteration.

After the wave meter was invented another difficult problem presented itself. It was necessary to get a steady wave for accurate calibration. The ordinary broadcasting station like WSUT does not operate on one steady length but on a small band of wave lengths. This is due to the fact that voice modulations actually change the wave length. In the laboratory Salisbury set up an oscillating system that tunes very sharply when excited by a generator that supplies a carefully filtered current. By these means waves steady enough for the necessary exactness of the calibration are produced. The calibration is now going on for wave lengths of three to 100 meters.

Accurate Measurement
Standing waves are produced on the wires west of the physics building that correspond in length to the radio waves that the meter will measure. These standing waves are actually measured with a steel tape. The scale for reading wave lengths is checked by the corresponding wave lengths on the wire and an accurate reading scale is obtained. This allows the meter to measure waves with the same accuracy that they could be measured with a steel tape. That accuracy is about one in 10,000.

Invented in Nineteenth Century
An entirely new method is required for locating the ends of the

Waves Hide Past of Ancient City on Russian Coast

MOSCOW.—The discovery of an ancient submerged city near Shiklov, a sandy bank of the Caspian sea, has been made by Alexis Atayeff, a captain in the soviet mercantile fleet. Atayeff's ship, bound from Persia to Baku, accidentally changed her course, and, while soundings were being made, he noticed buildings on the sea floor.

Atayeff asserts that under the bright sunshine he was enabled to distinguish streets and buildings of ancient Asiatic architecture. A further investigation revealed a well preserved roadway leading to the Baku fortress.

Archaeologists are of the opinion that the discovery reveals the lost city of Khardasheger, which is believed to have been submerged centuries ago by an earthquake that altered the whole coast line. There is a tradition that several other cities were destroyed by the earthquake.

Steal Live Decoy Ducks; Men Land in Justice Court
SIOUX CITY, Nov. 10 (AP)—Duck hunters should stick to wild ducks, two men and a 15 year old boy learned today when they appeared in a justice of peace court here to answer charges of stealing eighteen live decoy ducks which had been "planted" by A. Harigan of this city near his "blind" on the Missouri river.

The men, Jess Pauley and Willis Guffey, were sentenced to pay fines of $100 each or spend sixty days in the county jail. The boy, not knowing that charges against him had been dropped on account of his extreme youth, listened with tears trickling down his cheeks to the arraignment of the two men. When informed by the judge that mercy had been shown him, the youth gave a solemn oath that he never again would steal other peoples property.

Rail Authority Declares Proposed Union Timely

DES MOINES, Nov. 10 (AP)—Although the proposed consolidation of trunk line railways of the country into ten or twelve systems would not affect the economies its most ardent advocates hope for, such consolidation would likely afford a more equitable distribution of returns among the various roads, in the opinion of H. E. Byram, former president and now one of the receivers for the Chicago, Milwaukee, and St. Paul Railway.

Mr. Byram gave this opinion in addressing the Traffic club here today on the various obstacles to rail progress and problems of the railroads.

Keeps Your Hair Neat—Rich-looking and Orderly

If your hair lacks natural gloss and lustre, or is difficult to keep in place, it is very easy to give it that rich, glossy, refined and orderly appearance, so essential to well-groomed men.

Just rub a little Glostora through your hair once or twice a week, or after shampooing, and your hair will then stay, each day, just as you comb it.

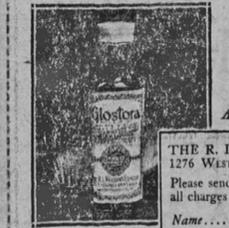

Glostora softens the hair and makes it pliable. Then, even stubborn hair will stay in place of its own accord. It gives your hair that natural, rich, well-groomed effect, instead of leaving it stiff and artificial looking as waxy pastes and creams do.

Glostora also keeps the scalp soft, and the hair healthy by restoring the natural oils from which the hair derives its health, life, gloss and lustre.

Try it! See how easy it is to keep your hair combed any style you like, whether brushed lightly or combed down flat.

If you want your hair to lie down particularly smooth and tight, after applying Glostora, simply moisten your hair with water before brushing it.

A large bottle of Glostora costs but a trifle at any drug store.

A generous Sample FREE upon request.

Change Cambridge Iowa Debate Topic

To Parry Words Over "American English Governments"

The question for the Cambridge-Iowa debate Nov. 19, has been changed, according to A. C. Baird, advisor of debate. "Resolved that the American system of government is better than the English form," is the new question which will replace "We pity our Grandchildren." The new resolution was debated last year by Oxford against Washington. At the first of the season when Cambridge presented four questions she was willing to debate, Iowa selected the one which seemed to offer the best opportunity for discussion. "Resolved: that this house pities its grandchildren." Recently, however, Cambridge signified her willingness to argue over governments and the question was changed in order to provide for a more practical and concrete discussion.

The debate will be a duel of tongues, each speaker defending that form of government with which he is familiar, and in which he has the most faith.

Last night the team, composed of Harry Stevenson, John Denman, and Frank Horack, took their first real workout when they met the "scrub" team. The Britishers are scheduled to make their first appearance in the state at Cedar Rapids next Monday night. They come to Iowa Thursday.

"Beat Minnesota" Battle Cry as Hawks Train for Gopher Team

Kutsch, Smith Back in Form in Workout

Pounding the freshmen eleven long and hard last night Coach Ingwersen's eleven proved the idea that they have forgotten the Wisconsin encounter and are figuring on taking the Gophers into camp when they invade the Northland next Saturday.

There was hardly a time that the varsity failed to function. The backs were taking the men out without any trouble and Kutsch showed his old form in warding off tacklers as he sailed through. From all appearances the said Cowboy will be in shape to give the Gophers no little amount of worry.

Another grinder who was back in the lineup last night was Paul Smith, end, who has been out for the past few weeks nursing an injury. He alternated with Rice and Roney and snagged passes in his old form.

With the two regulars, Kutsch and Smith, back in the lineup the Old Gold machine should function better than ever next week. True enough the Hawks are not over estimating the strength of the Gophers for they consider them the strongest eleven that they meet. Consequently the Hawks are working long and hard this week in an effort to get in shape and close the season at the top of the list.

The long practice last night played on a rather dry portion of Iowa field consisted of a passing drill, both offensive and defensive. Then the varsity was sent against the freshmen in one of the longest and hardest scrimmages that they have had for some time.

The freshmen efforts were without avail when they tried to hold the varsity. Through the tackles and around the ends Kutsch eluded tacklers time and time again. Smith and Cabel were given a chance to tote the pill but were not as effective in getting by the first year men as the regulars.

Following the offensive and defensive scrimmage the team was sent through its regular signal drill and "beat Minnesota" again prevailed as the pass word in the Old Gold stronghold as the hardest practice of the week was brought to a close.

Roscoe Hall Will Meet Jones Again

Schedule Third Battle Between Two Men for Next Week

"Rusty" Jones, plucky St. Paul fighter hasn't had enough of Roscoe Hall yet so the two are scheduled for another battle at St. Paul, on Friday, Nov. 20. This will be the third time in six weeks that these two lightweights have met. The University of Iowa boxing instructor and pre-medic student took their first battle when he got the decision at the end of a ten round scrap in Sioux City.

When they met for their second battle last week Hall put the St. Paul boy to sleep in the second round of a scheduled six round battle at Minneapolis. The Twin Cities lightweight still wants another chance at the Hawkeye fighter, however, and will get it in an eight round bout at the St. Paul auditorium next week.

This will make the third fight in two weeks for Hall. The scrapping university coach met Jones on Friday of last week on Nov. 16 he meets Buddy Chambers in a ten round mill at Atlantic, Iowa; and four days later, on the twentieth he will meet the Minnesota boy again at St. Paul.

U High Harriers End Successful Season

The University high school cross country team closed its 1932 season a week ago when it took third place in the tri-state high school meet.

Besides ranking among the best in this classic the local preps easily won their two dual meets, Iowa City high and LaPorte high being the victors. The work of Captain Conine was the outstanding feature of the season. In all three meets his long easy stride enabled him to break the tape as the victor with yards to spare. Although less spectacular the work of Alt and Stover was far better than average.

It seems inevitable that the local school will have another good team next year as every member of this year's team with the exception of Alt will be back.

The U. high cross country squad is coached by M. F. Carpenter, who is a former Chicago University cross country captain.

Postpone Tank Meet

The novice woman's swimming meet which was to have been held Thursday night of this week will be postponed until next Thursday, November 19 at 4 p. m. instead of 7 p. m. This postponement will give a chance for more entries to be made.

California Game Will Keep Hawks Busy Eight Days

Iowa Eleven Will Take Two Drills on Trip to West Coast

Eight days from Iowa City to Los Angeles and return will be the time consumed by the University of Iowa football party when it makes the trip to the Pacific Coast for the Southern California game next week.

The Hawkeye party, in two special coaches, will leave Iowa City on the Rock Island Golden State Limited, on Tuesday evening, November 17 at 7:55. On Wednesday afternoon, a half hour's drill will be held at Hutchinson, Kansas on a field near the station. Then they will ride until Thursday afternoon when another stop will be made, this time at El Paso, Texas, where a drill of one hour will be conducted.

The Iowans will arrive in Los Angeles at 2:15 Friday afternoon and will take a final light limbering up drill on the Coliseum field, where the battle will be held on Saturday. The kick-off is scheduled for 2:30 p. m. Pacific standard time on Saturday afternoon, which is 4:30 p. m. Central standard time.

Returning, Coach Ingwersen will march his men on the train at 10:50 Sunday morning, taking the Union Pacific cut-off to Salt Lake City and the same line to Denver. Leaving Denver on Tuesday on the Rocky Mountain Limited, the party will arrive in Iowa City at 10:12 a. m. on Wednesday—in time to attend most of the classes of the day preceding Thanksgiving.

Little Hawks Card 11 Cage Contests

Local Basketball Men Face Tough List of Contests

Eleven games comprise the schedule that Coach Henry Soucek's Red and White cage men will play this winter. They will open their season on the local floor on December 18 with Lone Tree furnishing the opposition. The next night they will tackle the Newton cagers here and that will close their schedule until after the Christmas vacation.

Burger May Help. But two of last year's veterans remain to furnish the nucleus for this year's team. One of these, Koza, will become ineligible at the end of the first semester. The other, Captain Prentiss, received an injury to his knee last spring and it is doubtful whether he will start.

Coach Soucek may find a valuable addition to his squad in Burger, former St. Patrick's star. He is a fast man with a good eye for the basket and good at either forward or guard. All the members of last year's second team are back and it is out of these that the Little Hawk mentor must find material to fill the other vacancies.

The Schedule. December 18—Lone Tree here. December 19—Newton here. January 1—Wilton Junction here. January 8—Clinton here. January 15—Grinnell here. January 22—Newton here. January 29—Davenport here. February 5—University High here. February 12—University High here. February 19—Grinnell here. February 26-27—Tournament.

Shipping Board Asks Bids for Pan-American Line

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP)—The Shipping board voted today to invite the Munson steamship line and Moore and McCormack, both of New York, to have representatives appear before it Thursday to submit new bids for the Pan-American steamship line.

Both companies have already made offers for the line, which is operated by the Munson company for the Fleet corporation from New York to the east coast of South America, and the proceedings contemplated for Thursday were described as being in the nature of an auction.

The Munson line has offered $4,104,000 and Moore and McCormack $4,101,100 for the line with its four fast passenger-cargo vessels.

Study Inmates' Welfare. JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 10 (AP)—The American Prison Congress opens tomorrow evening for consideration of a number of matters relating to the welfare of inmates of the various state and federal prisons. Among a number of notable persons on the program for addresses is Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson of Texas.

Norman Brown's Column on the Why and How of Football Rules

By NORMAN E. BROWN
The Linesman in a football game does not draw the attention accorded the referee and umpires, but he plays a vital part in the conduct of the game. Upon his measurements may depend the outcome of the contest. An inch one way or the other in his measurements may deprive the team of the ball with the goal line near and but one play needed to put over the last great "punch" and a touchdown.

The Linesman operates under the supervision of the referee. Aided by two assistants he marks the distances gained and lost in play. These measurements are kept with the aid of a 10-foot chain or rope, to which are fastened poles to assist the aides in their work and indicate to the other officials and players the distances gained or lost and to be gained.

The Linesman, in addition to the duty named, must mark the spot where the ball goes out of bounds—indicating that spot on the side of the field occupied by him and his aides.

The Linesman is given jurisdiction over and ordered to report to the referee any off-side play in the line, any tripping of ends after a kick, and violations of the neutral zone rules. The referee must enforce the penalty.

The Linesman also acts in the capacity of an assistant to the referee and umpires in enforcing other rules, reporting infractions of such to them.

Iowa Team to Get Big Welcome From Los Angeles Fans

A tremendous welcome for the Iowa football party is being planned by the University of Southern California when the Iowans arrive in Los Angeles on Friday afternoon, November 20.

News from the Trojan institution indicated that the entire student body will turn out en masse to greet the invaders from the middle west. Such a welcome will be unique in the history of the Southern California university is the statement of the student paper.

Ascher Returns to Minnesota Gridiron Workouts Again

Gopher Captain, Out With Injury May Play Iowa

(By The Associated Press)
MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 10 (AP)—Captain Harmon Ascher, disabled veteran of the Minnesota football team who has been nursing a leg injury for the past week rejoined the Gopher forces today and watched his mates undergo another intensive drilling in ways and means of checking Iowa's flashy backfield.

The return of Ascher to the field, although his most strenuous endeavors today was a "jog around the track" raised the hope that the Gopher leader may be fit to render some service in the all important Homecoming clash Saturday, particularly in defensive maneuvers against Iowa's anticipated overhead attack.

Cage Candidates in Another Long Drill

Coach Janse sent his varsity basketball candidates through another long scrimmage last night in the men's gym.

The men that Coach Janse used on the first squad were forwards Van Duesen, Boysen, Gamble and Harrison, Lawson, McConnell, and Swanney worked as the guards and Miller held down the center position. On the second team Slaven and Urdangen played the forwards, Paris jumped center and Voltmer, Criswell and Palmer handled the guard positions.

Although the first string men seemed to get baskets with little effort their play was far from good. The handling of the ball and timing in execution of floor plays was a bit ragged. Time and again Coach Janse stopped the scrimmage in order to make corrections in the individual as well as the team play. One fundamental that the men seem to be mastering is the art of laying the ball through the front ring. The shooting of every member of the squad seems to be good con-

Hines to Meet Former Mate at Minneapolis

Don Hines, regular tackle on the Iowa football team is being accustomed to seeing his former team-mates from Cedar Rapids battling on an opposing conference team. At Ohio State he faced Urdill at tackle and also played his fellow townsman and also helped stop the sallies of Marek, halfback.

On Saturday at Minneapolis, Murrell, Gopher fullback will be one of the targets for the tackles of Hines. Murrell was one of the stars in the Minnesota defeat of Butler last Saturday, and learned his football under Novak at Cedar Rapids.

Hill and Leave Muc

The recent rains and thaws have played havoc with the cross country course on Finkbine field and the team has transferred its activities to the river road. The course at Minneapolis is mainly on a macadam road and Coach George T. Greenham is accustomed to his men to hard surface going.

The practices this week have been the best of the year, and the chance for a conference championship in the hill and dale sport are not as dull as they appeared at the beginning of the season. Among the men to show improvement during the week are Montgomery and Elliott, who have been pushing the leaders all week. Another sophomore showing better form is Coffie, who will probably rank high at the Minnesota dual.

Included in the squad who will make the Minnesota trip are Harold and Albert Vestermark. Harold is handicapped by the loss of his arms but has been a member of the

Hill and Dale Men Leave Muddy Course

The recent rains and thaws have played havoc with the cross country course on Finkbine field and the team has transferred its activities to the river road. The course at Minneapolis is mainly on a macadam road and Coach George T. Greenham is accustoming his men to hard surface going.

The practices this week have been the best of the year, and the chance for a conference championship in the hill and dale sport are not as dull as they appeared at the beginning of the season. Among the men to show improvement during the week are Montgomery and Elliott, who have been pushing the leaders all week. Another sophomore showing better form is Corfio, who will probably rank high at the Minnesota dual.

Included in the squad who will make the Minnesota trip are Harold and Albert Vestermark. Harold is handicapped by the loss of his arm but has been a member of the cross country squad ever since his matriculation in the University. Albert is the official mascot of the team. He has been with the squad every evening all fall and the team thought a victory impossible Saturday without his presence. To do the thing up brown he will also be a guest of the varsity and freshman squads at the Minnesota-Iowa game in the afternoon. The remaining members of the team are not yet definitely chosen.

U High Gridders Prepare for Last Battle of Season

With the last game of the season coming when they meet Lobe Tree here Saturday University high graders will get no rest this week. The Blue and White coach drove his team through the snow and slush on the west side field last night for their first workout of an intensive week of practice before Saturday's game.

Engeseth is out to win this final game of the season and made wholesale changes in his lineup last night in an attempt to develop an offensive attack that will deliver. Saunders, one of the University high cross country men who is out for the grid game now, showed up well in practice yesterday.

The Blue and White line was shifted all around in last night's

Iowa Takes Great Eleven to Coast Called Greatest Team From East to Play in West

That Iowa will present the greatest team ever to come to the Pacific Coast for an intersectional football game when the Hawkeyes meet Southern California on Nov. 21, is the opinion of Ralph N. McCord, former Illinois man who has officiated at conference games this fall. McCord made that statement to the Los Angeles Times upon his return to California from the middle west. "I might say that the Notre Dame team of last year was as strong as the present Hawkeyes since that will help some people to realize the tremendous strength of Ingwersen's team," McCord is quoted as saying last week.

practice session. Brown was changed from end to tackle and second string players were substituted in many positions for the regulars. Bowers was taken from his tackle position and placed at full where he gives promise of being a real backfield star.

Get Ready for Military Ball. The plans for the military ball at the University of Minnesota assumed definite shape with the recent appointment of 50 party committee members. The ball is to be held December 4, and with its elaborate military promenade is supposed to excel all University parties.

Boxing Classes to Start December 1

Two hundred athletes are expected to attend the boxing classes that will start about Dec. 1, according to Roscoe Hall, young Iowa boxing mentor. As in past years, the classes will continue until some time in April, when a tournament will be held to determine the university champion in each weight.

Due to a "Big Ten" ruling, no intercollegiate matches can be scheduled, but already a number of "leather pushers" are working out daily in preparation for the spring meet.

Many of the contestants have made a name for themselves in university boxing circles. Some of those who have signified their intention of turning out for the ring battles are, Jimmy Flannagin of Sioux City, Quinlan Collins of Fair-burg, university welterweight champion last year and R. O. T. C. title holder at Fort Snelling last summer, Clare J. Palmatier of Thornier, Russell Wilson of Des Moines, John Ball of Fairfield, Dwight Uyeno, bantamweight champion of the university for the past three years, Carl Bradshaw of Oelwein, featherweight champ last year, and William C. Hearst of Cedar Falls.

Use Chess for Tonic

LONDON, Nov. 10 (AP)—Chess as a standing influence for girls who seek the excitement of a hectic life is urged by Mrs. Arthur Rawson, president of the Imperial Chess club, in furthering her contention that teaching of the game should not alone be confined to boys.

Many English secondary schools are teaching boys to play chess on the ground that it is a splendid exercise in logic and mental training.

Upperclass Team Wins in First Set Girls' Volley Ball

The first round of the volleyball tournament was played yesterday afternoon. Each team must play two out of three sets with every other team in the tournament. A set must consist of two out of three games of fifteen points each. The results of the first round are as follows: Freshman, 10 vs. Sophomores, 15; Upperclassmen (Juniors and Seniors), 16 vs. Freshmen, 14; Upperclassmen, 15 vs. Freshmen, 6.

Next Monday at 4 p. m., November 16, the sophomores will play the upperclassmen and also the freshmen. The finals will be played Wednesday night, November 18, at 7:30 p. m.

The captains of the teams are

Clare Cotton, freshmen; Helen Andrews, sophomores; and Evelyn Rokody, Upperclassmen.

Though the upperclassmen won the freshmen promise to develop into winners. As the freshmen won the volleyball tournament last year this knowledge will act as an incentive to them this year.

Sixteen Enroll for Wrestling Classes

Sixteen grapplers have enrolled in the sophomore wrestling classes in order to get in trim for the university tournament that will be held Dec. 10. Ten of these men appeared in the freshmen matches last year, four of them receiving numerical sweaters.

The incoming class of varsity wrestlers is not only large in numbers but several of the men may be called upon to hold down regular varsity positions, according to Coach Mike Howard. The men are required to attend at least two classes a week to receive their physical training credit.

Those who are trying out for the varsity for the first time are, Robt. Bell, M. J. Brown, E. C. Kelly, H. C. Mains, M. D. Toll, M. C. Wheelock, T. C. Ressler, H. A. Maley, J. J. Mealey, B. E. Warden, J. W. Blackburn, W. M. West, B. L. Beers, E. C. Cellies, C. Erwin and W. M. Logan.

Shut Out U. S. Flour

WARSAW, Nov. 10 (AP)—Poland also has had an unusually good harvest this year, and there is no longer any necessity to import foreign flour, of which last year America sent over $20,000,000 worth. To make further importation impossible the government has placed an import tax of $1.50 per hundred kilos on flour.

P. T. A. Convention Draws 250 Persons; Expect 300 More

Dr. Baldwin Speaks at Dinner in Evening

Convention Will Join in Armistice Observance

Two hundred and fifty people have registered at the thirteenth biennial convention of the Iowa branch of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, and 300 more are expected today.

The convention was officially opened yesterday morning by the delegates followed by Mrs. A. C. Moyer, president of the council at Iowa City, I. A. Opstadt, superintendent of the public schools, and W. A. Jessup, president of the university.

Miss Laird responds. Miss Adelaide Laird, second vice-president of Oak Park school at Des Moines, responded to the greetings, setting forth the value of a parent-teacher's association from the standpoint of a teacher.

A strong plea was issued by Mrs. F. W. Beckman, president of Ames, for financial and moral support in the organization.

After the opening speeches, the following committees were elected: Resolutions committee, composed of Mrs. T. H. Jones, of Boone, chairman, Mrs. E. C. Eastland, of Clinton, and Mrs. F. W. Trader, of Dubuque; nominating committee, Mrs. A. C. Moyer, of Iowa City, chairman, Mrs. E. A. Richardson, of

Program for Today

The convention of parents and teachers will be dismissed for the Armistice Day services this morning, at 10:45 o'clock. Mrs. Robbins Gilman, executive secretary of the Woman's Cooperative Alliance, of Minneapolis, will speak at 11:45 o'clock on the motion pictures and the Upshaw Bill.

Conference luncheons will be held during the noon recess from 1 until 2 o'clock instead of 12:30 until 2, as the announcement was made.

At 3:30 o'clock George Finch, of Sioux City, will lead the discussion on the problem of the magazines containing salacious literature. The Parent-Teacher's association is making a drive against the selling of such periodicals.

This evening Judge Harry Olson, chief justice of the municipal court of Chicago, will speak.

Council Bluffs, and Mrs. E. Kolb of Davenport.

Urges Fitness

Dr. Amy Daniels, research professor nutrition, child welfare research station, who was scheduled to give the opening address of the afternoon session was unable to attend. Mrs. C. F. Curtis, of Ames, gave an impromptu speech, telling of the student loan committee, or student efficiency committee, as she prefers to

Business Houses to Close for Armistice Celebration

Armistice Day will be observed by city and university today with appropriate ceremonies. Banks will close all day; clothing, dry-goods, millinery and shoe stores will not open until 12:30 o'clock, grocery stores will be open during the morning only, making two deliveries, at 8 and 10 o'clock, while all university classes will be suspended.

The program for the day includes a parade, to form at Iowa avenue and Clinton street at 10 o'clock, followed by ceremonies at the men's gymnasium, at which Judge C. B. Robbins, of Cedar Rapids, will speak and a program of races on Jefferson street between Clinton and Capitol, at 2 p. m.

have it known. She impressed upon the group the importance of having every child physically fit, mentally awake and morally straight.

Miss Eva Fillmore, assistant to Dr. Ben T. Baldwin, gave a talk on the habits formed by the pre-school child. She stressed the ease with which children acquire and form habits, and encouraged parents and teachers to see that they formed the right kind of habits.

Explains Plans

An explanation of the organization and study plans for parental training groups was next given by Mrs. May Pardee Youtz, field director of parental groups at the university. She told of the work done in university laboratories, of the children examined and the fact that the majority of defects found were a direct result of tonsils, adenoids or mal-nutrition. She spoke of the work performed by the Child Study association of America and various other organizations which have as their purpose the study and care of the child.

Mrs. Youtz concluded her talk by saying that affection tempered with justice, insight, freedom, and stability, should be the background of every home.

Dr. Baldwin Speaks

Following a dinner at the Red Ball Inn, attended by 300 parents and teachers, Dr. Bird T. Baldwin, director of the child welfare research station of Iowa discussed his study of pre-school children.

"We can already predict a child's physical makeup, and with a trifle less certainty we can foretell his

"Topsy and Eva" Makes Hit With Englert Patrons

Josie, Jules Walton, Prove Ability at Charleston

By LAWRENCE EVANS.

"Topsy and Eva," The Duncan Sisters' tuneful and sprightly musical comedy, with the White Sisters filling the leads, made a decided hit at the Englert last evening.

The show exhibited class from the opening selection to the curtain, with the clever work of the Whites and the dancing of The Waltons and the pickaninny chorus outstanding. Clean and artistic costumes together with unusually good sets completed what was probably one of the best musicals to play Iowa City in recent years.

"Do-Re-Mi," by Topsy, Eva and Ophelia, was especially well received. The strains of "Remembering," which carried through the play, were introduced in catching fashion by Mariette, George and Mrs. Shelby, and kept delightfully alive by Topsy and Eva.

Josie and Jules Walton, playing Eliza and Gee Gee, the slave dancers, were enthusiastically applauded on their tango and Charleston numbers. Judging from the spirited manner in which they put over the Charleston, it will be a long time before Blue Goose and Varsity couples take up the newest dances.

In taking a second encore, Josie Walton turned her ankle but appeared in the finale with the ankle taped. She will be able to continue with the company.

"Of the Topsy and Eva songs, 'Sweet Old Time in Bermuda' and 'I Never Had a Mammy' scored high; while the plantation serenades were called back for three encores.

The show was well attended. Persons who have attended the original show with the Duncan Sisters stated that the company last evening compared favorably with the Chicago presentation.

adult intellectual capacity," said Dr. Bird T. Baldwin.

"We are today in a position to determine with a fair degree of accuracy the capacity of a child at any point in his development from six months to sixteen years of age. We can determine his physical status, his intelligence, rating, and probable mental growth.

"We have found that little children's personalities can be tremendously modified and improved through modern methods of observation if the task is undertaken sufficiently early in their development," said Dr. Baldwin.

The child expert told the delegates of the eighteen room house which has been fitted for a pre-school home laboratory, where the child in attendance may be born to six years old, attending from 9 in the morning until 3 in the afternoon.

New Field. Everything in the laboratory is designed for the benefit of the child. It offers a new field of investigation in the needs and training of infancy and childhood, especially in the more complicated problems of behavior.

In the study of the rural child, it has been found that children from country districts are equal, if not superior, in development to those in cities, but it is not true of the older child.

Drops After Six. After the age of six the rural child begins to drop back in physical growth, mental ability, educational accomplishments, and social development. That the rural schools are not doing as much as they should to awaken and train the native abilities of the children, is the belief of Dr. Baldwin.

The investigation has shown that the most important factors in the child's life and educational life is the attitude of the parent toward the child in an intelligent interest in his growth and training.

Post Office Closes

The post office windows will be closed today from 9 until 12 o'clock in observance of Armistice Day. No residence deliveries will be made until this afternoon.

Issue Thirty More Hunting Licenses This Year Than Last

Hunting licenses, issued so far this year, have exceeded the total of last year's licenses by thirty, according to figures furnished by J. M. Kadlec, county recorder.

Thirteen licenses were issued Saturday, sixteen Monday, and ten Tuesday. These bring the total for this year up to 1,791 while last year but 1,761 permits were issued.

The great number of licenses issued this year is responsible for the small number of eighty-one issued this month, Mr. Kadlec says.

U. Grad Returns in Show Troupe

Irwin Moynihan, '22, Pianist for "Topsy and Eva"

Irwin Moynihan, an alumnus of the university, returned to Iowa City yesterday as pianist for the Topsy and Eva musical comedy which played at the Englert last night.

Mr. Moynihan was graduated from the college of liberal arts in 1922, coming to the university from Marengo, which he still considers his home town. He was a member of the glee club for two years, and played for two years with the Varsity dance orchestra, the Hotel Jefferson orchestra, and the Englert theatre orchestra.

Upon graduating, Mr. Moynihan went to Chicago where he was connected with the Greenbaum Investment company for two years. During this time he continued to play with various orchestras in Chicago, and joined the American Federation of Musicians there. After two years of this work with the investment company his eyes began to bother him and he began to think seriously of trying some other occupation.

Then one day a member of a vaudeville team, after hearing him play, offered him a job on an Australian vaudeville circuit, and though he refused the position, it set him thinking of theatrical work.

Then when union headquarters in Chicago received a call for a piano player from the manager of the Topsy and Eva company Moynihan applied for the job, and got it. He played his first job with the company in St. Paul.

The company has been playing throughout the middle west, being now on its way south for the winter and Mr. Moynihan expects to go to Europe with the original company in the near future.

Construction Work Continued Despite Adverse Weather

Iowa Avenue Bridge Paving Repairs Completed

Construction work has been progressing well in Iowa City in spite of bad weather and adverse conditions. Paving repairs at the west end of the Iowa avenue bridge have been completed and a free passage is open for traffic.

The tractor-shovel which is digging the trench for the new university heating tunnel on Burlington and South Madison streets has progressed to the foot of West Clinton on Madison. The concrete tunnel itself has been completed almost to Madison street on Burlington street.

Work has been temporarily suspended on the new Rock Island viaduct over South Capitol street. The part for the extra track of solid reinforced concrete has been finished though the rails have not yet been laid. The proposed strengthening of the old bridge will probably not be done until spring.

The grist mill, which is being built for W. H. Green just south of the Iowa City Poultry and Egg company's new plant on South Capitol street, has not yet risen above the first floor. The heavy floor beams have been put in place and the flooring will be put down this week.

A steam shovel is busy widening the cut through which the spur line of the Iowa City and Cedar Rapids railway runs to the poultry plant and to the site of the grist mill.

Debate on World Court at Meeting

Mumma Calls Delegates From Civic Organizations

Col. M. C. Mumma, head of the University R. O. T. C. corps will conduct a preliminary discussion of the World Court in the Chamber of Commerce rooms this evening. The purpose of the meeting will be to attack the discussion from a local angle and to crystallize Iowa City opinion. The question of a World Court will be debated in the house of representatives Dec. 17, and the action taken here is similar to that taken in other communities.

Possibilities of a World Court will be discussed with a view to obtaining an opinion from representative persons here to be presented to the legislature with the idea of giving them the benefit of public opinion throughout the country. The preliminary meeting this evening will determine further action in this community prior to Dec. 17.

Representatives at the meeting tonight will be: Mrs. C. E. Seashore, Harry Terrell of the Y. M. C. A., Dr. A. W. Bennett, commander of the American Legion, Henry G. Walker of the Johnson county bar, S. W. Mercer, Prof. B. F. Shambaugh of the political science department, the Very Rev. W. P. Shannahan of St. Patrick's church, Rev. R. R. Reed of the Presbyterian church.

Hon. Ray Yetter, Johnson county representative in the state legislature, Harry D. Breen, president of the Chamber of Commerce, Carl Cone, president of Rotarians, L. G. Lawyer, president of Kiwanis, J. E. Stronks, president of Lions, M. C.

Sub-Zero Record of Thirty Years Falls on Sunday

When the thermometer slipped down to zero early Sunday morning an early season low temperature record was established for Iowa City, according to Prof. John F. Reilly, government observer. This was the lowest temperature so early in the season recorded for the past thirty years.

During this time zero weather or below in November was recorded only three times, Nov. 30, 1896, with 1 below, Nov. 26, 1898, with 6 below, and Nov. 29, 1911, with 1 below zero. The latest time that zero temperature or below came to Iowa City in the season during this same period was Jan. 24, 1908, with 8 below.

Johnson Farmers Hold Corn for $1

Many Take Advantage of Warehouse Act

Farmers of Johnson county are taking advantage of the warehousing plan of storing their corn at a rate of two a day, according to Harley Hunt, county agent. The plan is to hold the corn until a market price of $1 prevails and many more are expected to store their corn as soon as additional cribs can be built.

Local banks are lending their aid to the farmers taking advantage of the plan and are advancing loans of $50 on each bushel of corn that is stored.

But twenty per cent of the corn in Johnson county has been husked due to unfavorable weather conditions, Mr. Hunt reports. No great damage has been inflicted on the crop yet and the yield will be satisfactory if the weather permits husking soon.

Many farmers were unable to sow winter wheat this fall because of the rains but that which was sowed has not been harmed, thinks Mr. Hunt.

Girl Scouts to March

Girl scouts will march in the Armistice day parade today. They will meet at scout headquarters and be ready to fall in line at 10 o'clock. In the afternoon, the girls will participate in the games scheduled for the day.

President Takes Part in Services at Arlington

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—In striking contrast with the delicious rejoicing seven years ago over cessation of World war hostilities, the capital today quietly observed Armistice day with impressive ceremonies at the Unknown soldier's tomb in Arlington cemetery and at Washington cathedral, burial place of Woodrow Wilson, the wartime president.

At 11 o'clock as President Coolidge was placing a wreath on the sarcophagus at Arlington, governmental activity was suspended for a minute or two while officials and clerks joined in a tribute of silence. In the city generally, however, little attention was paid to the period of silence and in business houses there was practically no lull in activities.

Goes to Arlington

On his motor trip to Arlington cemetery, the president was accompanied by Mrs. Coolidge, Secretary Davis of the War department, and Secretary Wilbur. Coolidge advanced on foot to the tomb promptly at 11 o'clock, the hour the Armistice became effective, placed a large wreath on the tomb and then stood for a moment in silence with head bowed.

Mrs. Coolidge Participates. A moment later Mrs. Coolidge went to the marble tomb, placing upon it a long stemmed white rose. The entire ceremony occupied not more than three minutes and was devoid of speech making. As the automobiles in the presidential party drew near the tomb, a twenty-one gun salute was fired by a Fort Meyer artillery battery and a Band played "The Star Spangled Banner" just before the wreath laying ceremony took place.

DES MOINES, Nov. 11.—Seven years ago today the Armistice was signed. Today in many cities of Iowa business ceased in commemoration of the sacrifice made by Iowa men and the manhood of the nation, that this day might be celebrated in peace.

Des Moines, the capital of Iowa, followed the national capital and the capitals of the countries of the world, who were engaged in the World war, in quietly and solemnly celebrating the anniversary of the ending of that struggle.

At Creston, a football game, to be followed by a torchlight parade and a ball for veterans furnished the features of the celebration in that city.

Unveil Tablet. At Davenport, a tablet was unveiled to the memory of Marion Crandall, the first American to die in service in France. She was a Davenport girl.

At eleven o'clock, the hour of the signing of the Armistice, business halted, telegraph wires were stilled and citizens paused for two minutes in most of the cities of the state.

At Council Bluffs, an address by Dr. Fred Bellinger, followed by a quiet celebration marked the observance of the day.

Commemorate Fort. Pupils of Webster school at Cherokee, placed a monument at the site of the old fort near there, built in 1862 after the New Ulm, Minn., massacre, and held brief exercises at their school in commemoration of the re-establishment of peace.

Turmoil Ceases for Armistice in France

PARIS, Nov. 11 (AP)—From war-torn Syria and Morocco to the Arc de Triomphe in Paris, France, and Frenchmen everywhere honored the memory of the unknown soldier to day.
