Cincinnati Bats Carlson From Mound to Beat Iowa 7 to 6

Old Gold Team Loses First Tilt of Eastern Trip

Bearcats Smear Iowa Hurler by Big Inning, 7-6

CINCINNATI, June 4 (AP)—The Hawkeye baseball team met its first setback on its barnstorming tour here today, when the University of Cincinnati tossed out the Old Gold aggregation by a 7 to 6 score.

The Bearcats, champions of the Buckeye association, swarmed all over Oakley Carlson in the sixth inning, and drove him from the hill, after counting six runs.

Starting the scoring in the second frame, largely the result of three of Cincinnati's five errors, the Hawks were able to garner five scores. Langevin, pitcher for the Bearcats, went the remainder of the game without a trouble.

Golf Tragedy

ROLAND HANCOCK The tragedy of Roland Hancock is that his game broke down when the national open was within easy reach of his two great hands.

It happened at Olympia fields in 1928 when Bob Jones and Johnny Farrell were in and tied. The tall Carolinian came to the seventeenth with 10 strokes for the title on two not difficult holes with gross par of nine. "The Duke" had a shaky, silly advice cracked in the air.

Senators Smash Out Six Runs in Ninth to Win, 8-7

WASHINGTON, June 4 (AP)—After trailing for eight innings, Washington drove over six runs in the last frame to defeat St. Louis 8 to 7, today, and even the series.
