STORM THREAT RETRACES COURSE

Stone Thinks Farm Measure Will Benefit

Federal Board Member Expresses Belief in Senate

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26 (AP)—The opinion that the farm relief act, intelligently administered to develop a comprehensive cooperative marketing system, will prove a boon to the farmers was expressed before the senate agriculture committee today by James C. Stone of Kentucky, vice chairman of the farm board.

It may be too much to expect, he said, that all the farmers of the country will participate in the cooperative movement. He believes that enough of them will come to appreciate its great benefits, however, and be eager to share in the larger profits it seems to him bound to bring.

Stone Answers Question
Stone, who represents tobacco on the board, answered an avalanche of questions designed to elicit information on his ability—with a view of reporting to the senate regarding his confirmation. At the conclusion of his examination several committee members expressed pleasure at the fashion in which he had submitted his testimony.

The only flurry during Stone's examination was provided by Senator Brookhart, republican, Iowa, who read from testimony presented by John L. Buckley, once a business partner of Stone, in the Sapiro-Pond libel case dealing with a transaction with the Burley Tobacco Growers Cooperative association, of which Stone was president until appointed to the farm board.

Read Testimony
The testimony as read said Stone went into the Burley association for private gain and specified that he sold some warehouse property, which he had purchased for $185,000 in 1916, to the association for $225,000 in 1921. Stone told the committee the association was in need of warehouses and that he had disposed of its as a purely business proposition. He said the property was appraised by officials of the association at $282,000, but that he offered it to the agency for $250,000, and subsequently cut the price down to $225,000.

Law Students Give Smoker for Professors

With the Iowa Law Students' association as hosts, 300 persons attended a mixer-smoker in honor of the faculty of the college of law Wednesday from 7:30 to 9:30 at Iowa Union.

The smoker was for the purpose of welcoming the return to the faculty of Prof. H. C. Horack, who, for the last two years, has been on a leave of absence, acting as adviser to the council on legal education for the Iowa Bar association.

Prof. Mason Ladd, formerly of Ladd and Ladd of Des Moines, was also welcomed to the staff, and farewell toasts were given Prof. Wayne G. Cook, who has accepted an appointment to the firm of Lane and Waterman of Davenport.

Following an informal reception, a program was given by members of the faculty and student body, Charles E. Nutting, L4 of Iowa City, presiding. Addresses were made by Prof. Walter A. Jessup, professor of Horack; and a brief case was presented to Professor Cook by Richard C. Davis, L4 of Iowa City. After Professor Cook's response Professor Ladd spoke and Ernest E. Stowe, L1 of Council Bluffs, replied.

John A. Beard, L2 of Mt. Airy, played a group of selections on the piano, and the entire group sang "The Law Set" and "Go Rolling Along" and "On Iowa."

The committee in charge was composed of the officers of the organization: William L. Mooty, L4 of Grundy Center; William M. Dallas, L4 of Mechanicsville; and Daniel E. Goodykoontz, L4 of Boone.

Coeds Reject Cages Erected at Grinnell at False Fire Call

GRINNELL, Sept. 26 (AP)—The iron fences which surround the fire escapes at the women's quadrangle at Grinnell college came near being put to a test when fire broke out in one of the ventilators. The fire chief, the chief of police and one fire truck responded to the alarm only to find that the blaze had been extinguished.

None of the girls had become frightened enough to seek safety within the confines of a 30-foot square enclosure formed by brick walls on three sides and a 12-foot tall picket fence on the other. Meanwhile, college officials and Fire Chief E. G. Wheeler sought a solution to the safety problem created by the erection of the fences, the purpose of which has been declared both to prevent "peeping Toms" from looking into the windows of the coeds' rooms and to prevent naughty girls from staying out beyond the hour set for their retirement to study halls or beds.

It was said both fire and college officials hoped to make some sort of exit from the enclosures that would eliminate the danger of the girls getting trapped in event of a serious fire.

Bandits Make Haul at Turin

TURIN, Sept. 26 (AP)—The Turin Savings bank was robbed of between $2,000 and $4,000 this morning by two unmasked men after two bank officials and a customer were locked in the vault.

The men escaped in an automobile, in which a companion had waited and were believed to have headed toward Sioux City. They changed cars five miles from Turin it was learned. A sheriff's posse has been searching for the men.

The bandits entered the bank about 10:30 o'clock and producing revolvers ordered Ralph Dorward, president, and C. C. Johnson, cashier, to lie on the floor. Walter Croy, a customer, walked in at that moment and with the two officials was forced into the vault.

Dorward said the men were between 30 and 35 years old. He believed one was six feet tall, and described the other as wearing a red sweater. The bandits' first car is believed to have been stolen Sunday from Mrs. Fred Daniels of Aurelia. The men were said to have been passing through Grant Center this afternoon.

Borah Attacks Retention of Flexible Bill

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26 (AP)—Party lines crossed in the senate today and made the issue so close over retention of the flexible principle in the pending tariff bill as to set party leaders feverishly to work in an effort to round up the "doubtfuls."

Senator Borah of Idaho, a campaigner for President Hoover last year, raged against the policy as an unwarranted delegation of congressional power and demanded that the president, now that he has entered the tariff dispute on the side of the flexible clause, "go through to the end and assume full responsibility" for other sections of the republican measure.

The Idahoan voted against the flexible provisions when they were incorporated in the senate into existing law in 1922. He is one of the leaders of the republican independent group, which is expected to line up with many democrats against the principle in the Hawley-Smoot bill, which empowers the executive to change customs duties commission.

Borah drew a brief reply from Senator Reed, republican, Pennsylvania, who said there was no question about the constitutionality or the wisdom of the flexible provisions. A surprise came when Senator Fletcher, a Florida democrat, took the floor and said the president's statement not only appealed to him as "convincing," but that he favored the finance committee amendment to make the section substantially as it is in existing law.

"After all these months of study and labor," Senator Fletcher said, "you now have before you a bill which is seriously denounced as an 'iniquitous bill,' a 'monstrosity,' an 'abomination.'"

"This is the work of congress," he added, "Could the president do worse if he tried?"

Borah emphasized that he was not assailing the president for issuing his statement on the flexible principle, but he thought it was Hoover's duty now to "advise this body and the country in the same plain and specific way whether the industrial schedules in this bill meet with his approval."

Forty-Second Annual Medic Meeting Opens

After welcoming the society on the behalf of the college of medicine of his university, Doctor Houghton launched into the main topic. In this he stressed two points. First, an organization of opportunities so that the post-graduate who really has interest will be able to build up a knowledge of associated branches of learning around his medical training. Second, that a closer union between those of the medical profession and health projects, now directed by the city, is desirable.

Dr. Fred Moore of Des Moines, who addressed the meeting at 10 a. m., talked on "The responsibility of the medical profession in the health program of the public school."

Dr. Moore referred to the World War as the beginning of health instruction in the schools. The environment in which children grew up was inspected, new methods of health instruction were introduced, and periodical health examinations were started.

He wore a pair of hip high boots and was hatless and vestless. He had only five cents in his pocket.

Alienists State Peacock Insane

Say Emotional Cyclone Urged His Action

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Sept. 26 (AP)—With talk ranging from erudite discussions of the finer points of psychiatry to blunt remarks on such homey matters as old-fashioned spanking, testimony was concluded today at the trial of Earle F. Peacock for the murder of his wife, whose body he soaked in oil and burned.

There were only three witnesses today. They were all noted alienists called by the prosecution to refute previous expert testimony for the defense that Peacock was possessed of what the doctors termed a "psychopathic personality."

When Peacock's wife referred to the home he was trying to persuade her to return to as a "dump," and slapped his face on the first anniversary of their marriage, the defense brain doctors maintained, a "marked emotional impetus was superimposed on his psychopathic personality," with the result that he was subject to an "emotional storm" during which they said, he could not tell right from wrong, could not "appreciate either the nature or the quality of his acts," and so was not responsible when he felled the girl with his pistol, punched her in the face, and choked out her life with his hands.

Peacock himself had given much the same explanation of his act when he was on the witness stand, although he had phrased it more simply.

"Begging by Auto Too Modern," Says Judge; Man Nabbed

Gehrike called at the home of Robert Ristow yesterday. When Ristow answered the doorbell Gehrike presented a card reading, "I am paralyzed and unable to work. Please help me."

Ristow, being a police sergeant, is somewhat skeptical. So when the beggar left the door Ristow followed him. At a corner the beggar got into a car and was about to drive away when Ristow arrested him.

Naval Experts With Shearer

Anti-British Viewpoint, Pearson Declares

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26 (AP)—Some of the American naval experts at the unsuccessful Geneva naval limitations conference of 1927 were named today to the senate investigating committee as associates in the Swiss city of William B. Shearer, the $25,000 "observer" sent there by American shipbuilders.

Drew Pearson, who reported the Geneva fiasco for several news papers, told the committee that four of the naval experts lounged frequently with Shearer in the hotel lobbies at Geneva—and that one of them, Read Admiral J. M. Reeves, "frequently expressed the hope that the conference would not succeed."

Read Admiral Frank H. Schofield, Commander H. H. Frost and Commander H. C. Train were the others named by Pearson as among those he saw "frequently" with Shearer.

"They and Shearer expressed common views," Pearson related. "That is, anti-British views and against the success of the conference. In other words, the cards were stacked against success of the conference from the start."

Hawaiians Wait in Fear of Follow-up After Severe Shock

HILO, Island of Hawaii, Sept. 26 (AP)—From Kohala through Kona, the people of the western side of this island waited today in fear lest another earthquake follow upon the severe shock of late yesterday, which caused damage to buildings and highways estimated at $100,000.

Reports from Kealakekua said residents along the coast were near panic, particularly since Dr. Thomas A. Jaggard, Jr., director of the Kilauea volcano laboratory and internationally known volcanologist asserted today that the long quiet Hualalai volcano might prove the center for further severe earth vibrations.

Woman Plans Law School Observance

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 26 (AP)—Plans for a keep law league, designed to teach law observance "from the mother's knee," were submitted to the annual convention of American war mothers here today by Mrs. Mary Bennett Little of Wadesboro, N. C., chairman of the organization's committee on prisons.

Mrs. Little's plans include the organization of chapters in every school throughout the country, the giving of badges and the awarding of grade cards for law observance, including laws of the school, home state and nation. She described her plan as the first organized response to President Hoover's plea for law observance.

Cyclone Veers Southward to Menace Cuba

Wind Increases Around Havana; Waves Lash at Sea Walls

HAVANA, Sept. 26 (AP)—A storm of possibly hurricane strength, which today swerved from the east coast of Florida after arousing grave fears among the people there, was this afternoon returning toward Cuba from Andros Island, Bahamas, according to reports of the Cuban national observatory and the Belen Jesuit college observatory in Havana.

Barometers in both observatories showed abnormal readings of 29-30 this afternoon, which indicated that the storm was steadily advancing southward. The wind was rising over Havana and waves were lashing at the sea walls.

The storm was located late this morning in the northwestern part of the Andros Island area, but information about it was meagre. Its exact force and direction were not known, but Dr. Gutierrez Lanza at the Belen observatory told the Associated Press that Cuba was at present approximately in its path.

He thought the storm might pass between Cuba and Florida without great damage to either. Rain, strong winds, and heavy seas were certain, however.

The latest advisory storm warnings from the national observatory said the movement of the disturbance was very slow, and of unknown intensity. It was moving west southwest from the Bahamas. Navigation in the Straits and in Bahamas water was extremely dangerous.

On the basis of their reports tonight the bureau officials were unable to plot definitely the course of the storm, which is now centered near the Bahama Islands, but said no rapid movement in any direction is indicated within the next 24 hours.

The hope was held out, however, that information tomorrow morning may give further assurance that Florida will not feel the full strength of a tropical hurricane.

Hope that the storm might not hit the Florida coast at all was derived from the language of the bureau's latest storm warning which said it was impossible "to predict future course of storm but no rapid movement in any direction indicated in next 24 hours."

New Iowa Song to Make Debut Homecoming

"Iowa Fights!" That is the title of a new song written by Robert Law, '04 of Waterloo. The song within a year is expected to take the place of "On Iowa," another of Mr. Law's songs.

The words for the new song are as follows: Come now, you sons of old Iowa. And come, you daughters true. We love you, Alma Mater. And we praise the things you do. When there is need for the mighty.

When the days of life have turned to bitter nights, When the weak are asking courage, We know you Iowa, IOWA FIGHTS! Chorus: Iowa fights for the strength of our nation.

Iowa fights with the brave and true, Iowa fights for this great university, Iowa fights for her sons and daughters, too, Iowa fights when the wrong is prevailing, Iowa fights when she must preserve her rights, And when we hear the call, We will answer one and all, IOWA FIGHTS! IOWA FIGHTS! IOWA FIGHTS!

Second verse: Iowa, you've stood for honor; For right, you've fought so true, You have given faith and vision So all who love and would praise you, Will continue with the battle for the rights, And will raise our voice with Iowa's: Now come on, Iowa, IOWA FIGHTS! Repeat Chorus.

Dr. O. E. Van Doren urges that students clip these words and learn them, since the song will be formally introduced at Homecoming. The university band is at the present time practicing the music of the song.

BLUE BLOOD AND RED

By Robert Terry Shannon

CHAPTER LIIH.

"But everything is wonderful for us," she declared smiling eagerly. "You have a home all furnished and waiting. I've always said that house needed a woman, and she smiled with a little domestic quirk in her eyes.

"But the curtains in it are all terrible," he told her.

She seemed to him, now, like a child incapable of appreciating the gravity of their problems.

"I don't know how to go about straightening things out," he admitted, his face set and his eyes staring straight ahead.

"But, darling, there is no need to do all that at once—or worry about it either. You're to take me down to my gate now and then go along home yourself. There's nothing to worry about—everything is bound to come out all right."

Freeman was one of the finest men he had ever known. Not every guy would go to battle for his rival.

"The trouble is," he objected, "that you are a stranger to her. She's not used to men like you, Freeman, and she might not get you—like I do."

They walked back to the house, discussing the problem.

Unexpectedly, a new complication presented itself; the arrival of Mike Arno. He was waiting for them, his smart New York luggage piled up on the veranda. Tall, buoyant, with expansive manner, he sprang down the step and pumped Eddie's hand.

"Did you get my letter that I was coming?" he demanded, beaming. "Cripes, it's nice out here, kid. It's nice in the country, ain't it?"

"Yes, it's nice," Eddie admitted, with a tired smile. "I'm glad you're here, Mike—but things don't look so good for me right now. Bernice is in town and she's playing Old Nick with me. Meet Mr. Freeman, Mr. Arno."

"You mean she came down here?" he asked. "Is she causing any trouble, kid?"

Eddie explained to Tom Freeman, "Mr. Arno's a friend of Bernice's."

He turned to Mike with bitter frankness.

"She's here," he said, "and she's getting me in wrong with the whole county. My friend, Mr. Freeman, here thought something of trying to persuade her to go back to New York. She won't listen to me."

"Did you come right out and give her the air?" Arno demanded.

"I did."

"Where is she now?"

"In town."

Arno looked at Tom Freeman's car. "That yours?"

"Yes."

Arno girded an affectionate arm around Eddie's shoulder.

"Listen, kid," he said, emotionally. "Bernice is a good kid at heart. I don't think Mr. Freeman could handle her alone, but if I join up with him it ought to be a cinch. He could put up the local angle of the situation to her—and I could tell her in her own language that she was making a lot of trouble. You know, Eddie, I got a gift that way."

It came back to Eddie's mind that by profession he was a confidence man—a glib persuader, but back of all that, too, a guy with a keen idea of friendship.

"Mike," he said, tensely, "you don't know what this means to me. I'm engaged to be married and if you can get Bernice off my hands, you'll save my life."

Chicago Grains

CHICAGO, Sept. 26 (AP)—Run of cash wheat picked up perceptibly this morning with estimated arrivals of 75 cars on track. Spot market prices reflected the full upturn in the basic future, from 1 1/2c higher for the day. Shipping demand was quiet and sales amounted to only 4,000 bushel with nothing booked to arrive.

Receipts of cash corn were about the same as yesterday with about 175 cars estimated on track. Trading basis was inclined to be a trifle easier with discounts from unchanged to 1/2c wider than yesterday. Substantial upturn of September delivery, however, more than offset slight weakness in the basis.

Oats receipts were but average in size and estimated at 50 cars. There was a sharp improvement in the trading basis with discounts shaded from 1/2c. Sales were from 10,216 higher than yesterday. Sales were liberal and totaled 121,000.

University Museum Gets New Species of Florida Rattlers

Several rattlesnakes were recently received by Homer R. Dill, director of the university museum. The snakes which are of different species, are still alive and will be mounted and placed on exhibition in the near future.

Mr. Dill believes the diamond-back rattler from Florida to be an unusually fine specimen. The snake measures more than six feet in length and is the most active of the snakes. The whirring of its rattles may be heard through the lower floor of the natural science building.

Several Florida rattlesnakes of another species were obtained for the museum by a former student, Mr. C. M. Pyle, who is connected with the Kent museum in Grand Rapids, Mich.

Zopf Teaches New Course in Pharmacy

Window decorating a one hour course in connection with the college of pharmacy, is being offered this year for the first time. Lewis C. Zopf, who has been with the college for two years in charge of the drug service station, will direct the class which meets every Tuesday at 8 a. m. in the pharmacy building. Thirty students were enrolled in the class Tuesday.

Each student in the course will be required to decorate one window during the semester. A portable practice window will be used to demonstrate the proper methods of decorating a retail drug store window.

Mr. Zopf, who graduated from the college of pharmacy in 1925, was employed in R. R. Lent's drug store at Vinton previous to his employment in the college drug service station. He plans to conduct the course by lectures and demonstrations.

The course was introduced because statistics show that 75 per cent of the graduates from the college of pharmacy go into retail drug work. The course for the first semester is elective, to allow the upper classmen to take it if they wish. If the course proves a success it will be repeated the second semester and made a requirement for freshman students.

The college of pharmacy is one of very few members of the American association of colleges of pharmacy to introduce a course in window decorating into its curriculum.

Enrollment Division to Give Radio Courses

Two classes for absent students are being conducted over W.S.U.I. by the extension division of the university this year. Prof. C. C. Wylie has charge of the general astronomy course offered at 1 a. m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and Prof. Sam E. Sloan, will broadcast a course on English novel at the same hour on Thursdays and Fridays.

Tuition rates are $4 for each semester hour credit. The enrollment for the two sections is not yet complete.

Enrollment of Greek, Latin Students Grows

Prof. Roy C. Flickinger, head of the Latin and Greek department, declares that the enrollment in his department shows an increase of about five per cent over last year. The increase is largely in the graduate classes.

Prof. Flickinger is anticipating a successful year for the Classical club. Helen Streib, A4 of Clinton, is president. The first meeting is planned for the second Thursday in October.

Physical Education Graduates Teach in Out of State Schools

Women who graduated in the class of '29 from the physical education department have positions in eight states, is the word received by Majorie Camp, of that department. Graduate students are accepting positions all over the United States, bringing considerable prestige to the university education department.

Graduate women accepting positions out of the state are: Mary Chestre, assistant instructor of physical education at the University of New Mexico at Albuquerque, N. M.; Loretta Cusack, instructor of dancing and physical education in the junior high and elementary grades at Minneapolis, Minn.; Lillie Duncan, instructor of physical education at Oak Park, Ill.; Maxine Humston, instructor of physical education at St. Clara's Academy at Sinsinawa, Wis.; Bernice Reed, instructor of physical education at Vermilion, S. D.; Marguerite Schmidt, instructor of physical education at Denver, Colo.; Velma Threlkeld, instructor of physical education at Port Arthur, Texas; Thelma Shomler, instructor of physical education at Northrup Private school, St. Paul, Minn.; and Aileen Carpenter, instructor of physical education at Carbondale, Ill.

Three women are instructors in their home states. They are Frances Keefe at the State University of Iowa, Rose Miller, in West High school at Waterloo, and Dorothy Weekes, at Cherokee.

Southern California Appoints Metfessel as Laboratory Head

Prof. Milton F. Metfessel was recently appointed head of the experimental phonetic laboratories in the University of Southern California. He will continue work with the strobograph, a machine of his own invention, which graphs the melody of speech and sound, and will also continue the elaborate series of experiments with the vocal vibrato, which he has been undertaking here.

Professor Metfessel received his doctorate from the University of Iowa in 1925. For the next three years he was made a national research counsel fellow in order that he might go on with his phonetic research experiments. Last year he was employed as full time professor of experimental phonetics in the speech department. Prof. and Mrs. Metfessel left for Los Angeles yesterday morning.

Iowa Students Get Rifle Team Honors

Three Iowa students were members of the 7th corps area R.O.T.C. team in the national rifle team matches, held at Camp Perry, O., during the early part of September. C. C. Voss, E4 of Williamsburg, was captain of the team, making the second successive year in which an S.U.I. man has held that honor. Walter G. Aageson, M4 of Coulter, having been captain in 1928.

Voss also stood well up in several of the individual matches, including a second place in the R.O.T.C. match, and placed well up in the president's and marine corps' matches. The other Iowa members of the team were Stewart E. Wilson, A4 of Iowa City, and R. A. Engelmann, A4 of What Cheer.

Voss and Wilson are members of the university rifle team. Engelmann attended the R.O.T.C. camp at Ft. Crook, Neb., this summer.

Sharkey Wins by Technical Knockout Over Loughran in Third Round

Boston Tar Stops Tom's Title Hopes

Heeney Wins Shade Over Hoffman in Comeback

By EDWARD J. NEIL
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

YANKEE STADIUM, NEW YORK, Sept. 26 (AP)—In a comeback that was swift and stunning, Jack Sharkey, bombastic sailor from Boston, swept back to the top of the heavyweight brigade to-night while a crowd of 45,000, drawn to the spacious American league ball park by the lure of the final heavyweight spectacle of the outdoor season, sat astonished and silent as the temperamental tar, at times the most gifted of the present crop of heavyweights, suddenly turned tiger again and crushed Loughran from the picture in just 27 seconds of the third session.

The crowd that paid approximately $300,000 for the evening's entertainment saw one of the most amazing endings of modern fistic battle as Loughran, rendered helpless by a vicious left hook to the body and right that crashed full on his chin, took a count of five, rose to his feet, and stood dazed in a neutral corner as Referee Lou Magnolia counted him out.

Seldom, in all his varied career of success and disappointment, has Sharkey appeared to better advantage. From the opening gong, Loughran, a slight favorite, was well nigh helpless before the vicious gob's power and confidence.

With startling suddenness, the fast, careful milling of the first two rounds turned into a slaughter in the third. The echoes of the gong still were echoing in the huge ball yard when Sharkey, as though fially loosed from a leash drove across the ring, rammed his left to Loughran's body and before Tom could raise his guard, smashed home a winging right to the chin. The blow caught the surprised Philadelphia a glancing crack on the chin and he toppled backwards to the floor, his head resting across the lower rope in his own corner, his face lifted to the ring lights.

Tommy didn't seem to be greatly hurt for he looked about him, climbed to his feet at the count of five as 45,000 of the faithful rose with him in one mighty roar.

There, while the audience looked on amazed, the referee jumped about excitedly, and Sharkey hopped gleefully across the ring. Loughran turned his back to his foe and gazed serenely out into the audience, oblivious of his surroundings.

In the first preliminary Tom Heeney, New Zealand veteran who closed the 1928 season with an unsuccessful bid for Gene Tunney's title, stopped down many noses to win George Hoffman, New York youngster, in the first 10 round ago. Heeney scaled 207, Hoffman 133 1/2.

The youngster finished strong, cutting Heeney's eye in the final round, but the Hard Rock's experience proved too much for him. The crowd booted the decision after several times showing their displeasure of the rough, close, slow milling during the bout.

George Wells Has Record Coaching Champion Teams

Championship teams seem to be the forte of Coach Wells, head coach of the Iowa City high school, who is back after an absence of a year.

The Red and White mentor has good material as shown by the defeat last Saturday of West Liberty with a score of 27 to 0. The result of last week's game gave him confidence in the team with possibility of having an undefeated season.

Last year Wells coached the Parsons, Kan., football team to a state championship, and later they played a post season game against the championship team of Texas at Texarkana, Tex.

His teams in basketball and track were runners up in the state conferences last year. He coached there before in 1922 and 1923 when his teams held second place for two consecutive years in football and basketball against state competition.

Coach Wells is a graduate of the State Teachers college at Pittsburg, Kan. He has been coaching since 1921 when he first coached at Minneapolis, Kan. From 1921 to 1924 he was at Parsons and from 1924 to 1926 he was director of athletics at Chanute, Kan. In 1927 he attended the university here, taking graduate work and acting as assistant to Coach Knox who is at present coaching at Texas Christian college.

Coach Wells is pinning much of his hopes on Howard Moffitt, who has been playing a good game at quarterback. Don Lucky and Horace Redman seem to have won the positions of halfbacks. Isensee as center, Soucek at guard, Wright as fullback, and Hall left end, complete the list around which the team expects to pin its greatest hopes.

With these men Coach Wells expects to keep his football coaching record. His time this week has been spent correcting the few mistakes of last Saturday's game, and also drill in offensive plays.

Jensvold Twins Meet Rivals in Seny Pair

Leo and Lloyd Jensvold will have to share their claim of being the only set of twins in university athletics. Frank and Fred Seny, P1 of Buffalo, Wyo., are two who spoil the Jensvold claim to that honor. They are members of the freshman cross-country squad.

U. HIGH CAFETERIA OPENS

The University high school cafeteria opened at noon Sept. 25. Approximately 125 persons were served, which is a greater number than on any previous opening day.

Hundreds Pay Silent Tribute to Dead Pilot

Body of Huggins to Rest in Ohio Cemetery

NEW YORK, Sept. 26 (AP)—Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon for Miller Huggins, biggest little man in baseball and immediately after the last prayers are said, the body of the Yankees' manager will start "back home" to Cincinnati. Huggins was born in the Ohio city and won his first measure of major league baseball fame there.

The body of the great baseball leader was taken this afternoon to the Church of the Transfiguration, better known as the "Little church around the corner, 1 E. Twenty-ninth street, where several hundred persons were waiting. One by one they filed through the mortuary chapel to pay a final tribute. The chapel was open to the public until 9 o'clock tonight and will remain open until the funeral services at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Acting as pallbearers at the services tomorrow will be members of the Yankees, who, with Huggins at the helm, twice won three straight American league championships.

The two coaches who played with him, Arthur Fletcher and Charles O'Leary, and four active players, Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Tony Lazzeri and Earle Combs will be the pallbearers. The baseball game scheduled for tomorrow between the Yankees and Senators at Washington, was postponed to permit the players to pay their last tribute.

Iowa Baseball Crew Engages in First Tilt

Coach "Tommy" Thompson took advantage of another day of perfect baseball weather yesterday to have his proteges engage in the first practice game of the season. "Tommy" lined up two picked teams in the following positions: Scrubs, right field, Welch; left field, Atwood; center field, Rath; first base, Waringa; second base, Flala; third base, Barnes; shortstop, Cochran, and Ziffern, pitcher. For the Dubs Ingraham was at right field; Heiserman, at center field; left field, Lee; first base, Hahne, second base, Haug; third base, Jepson; shortstop, Hildreth, and pitcher, Schwartz. Thompson was at his old varsity position of catcher as he caught for both teams.

New men to report include Alford Ziffern, A3 of Rock Island, Ill., a hurler on last year's varsity squad; Giffard Atwood, A3 of Des Moines; Ray Cochran, A2 of Michigan City, Ind., and Clem Cusack, A2 of Oxford. It was reported that Joe Mowry, A3 of St. Louis, Mo., leading hitter on last year's team, would be unable to report for fall practice as he has an equipment job with the football squad.

Mrs. Hands Wins Woman's Golf at I. C. Country Club

Mrs. H. L. Hands won the woman's championship flight of the September tournament of the Iowa city country club yesterday by defeating Mrs. George Koser 7 up and 5 to play. In the men's flight, Prof. Charles L. Robbins won the Class B championship.

The consolation round of Class B will be played by J. B. Van Horn and Kirk Yerkes.

In the finals of Class A, Glenn Griffith and Kenneth Dunlop will match clubs either Sunday or Monday evening. The consolation round will be played by W. J. Harter and Jimmy Burns.

The champion of Class C will be determined by the winner of a round between Dick Horiban and Frank Messer playing Prof. Edward W. Chittenden.

Tom Harris, professional at the country club, who has been enlarging the course, states that everything will be in playing order by May 1, 1930.

By BRIAN BELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26 (AP)—Robert Moses Grove, whose sinewy left arm may carry the fate of the Athletics in the world's series, is the most taciturn of the team as well as its leading pitcher.

However, the south paw of the tall, thin pitcher speaks an eloquent language. For three seasons in succession he has won 20 or more ball games for Connie Mack. For three months of 1929 he seemed well on the way to 30.

When the A's had played 77 ball games Grove had won 15 games and lost two. In the second half of the season his momentum was considerably slowed.

Grove's contract was sold by Baltimore to the Athletics at the close of the 1924 season.

The lanky left-hander did not declare dividends in his first two years but he made up for lost time later. For three years there has been little dispute to his friends' claim that he is "the best of the cockeyes."

Grove rings up his quota of strikeouts, leading the league by a comfortable margin, but he does not try to throw every ball past the batsman.

An American leaguer, who has seen Lefty's sizzling fast ones shoot by for third strikes, and has connected for solid smacks from his delivery, sized him up:

"When Grove has a good day, nobody can beat him. When he has a bad day he can't beat anybody."

WATT PREPARES TEAM

GRINNELL, Sept. 26 (AP)—Indications that Ruff will be absent from the starting lineup for Grinnell college next Saturday were shown strongly today when Coach Fuzz Watt kept Hank Thomas calling numbers, Ernie McIntire and Ben Couglas at the halves and Captain Rose at fullback during the entire period of signal drill.

Evidently satisfied with the men as they showed up against Central college last Saturday, Coach Watt has not given them any scrimmage.

Burt Ingwersen Sends Hawkeye Gridmen Through Easy Drill Session

Work Passes, Punts After General Drill

Ends, Backfield Men on Receiving End of Pass Attack

BURT set about to perfect further his forward pass attack and defense yesterday. After giving the Hawk recruits a general drill on blocking, snagging passes and fundamentals, the Old Gold mentor sent them through a short scrimmage session, only allowing them to punt and kick. The Carroll tilt is but one practice period away.

Mike Parroh did the booting for the regulars and was quite successful, while Randall Hickman kicked for the second string men.

Redquist, the two Jenstved boys, Jim Hagerty, Mike Farroh, and Rogge were on the receiving end of Capt. Glasgow's passes. Aside from a few bobbles, the passing attack was an improvement over the last scrimmage. The reserves are adept at "knocking 'em down" though and accounted for several of the failures to grab passes.

When the varsity men were on the defense, the reserves, too, found that Burt had not been spending his time on defensive pass attack for naught. They completed but few passes. However, Oakley Carlson snatched one mean one and raced about 40 yards for a touchdown against the first team men.

Coach Ingwersen varied his line but slightly. Redquist and Rogge handled the wing positions, Westra and Ely were at tackles, Myers and Roberts were at the guard posts, while Magnusson was at the pivot.

Although the Hawkeyes will outweigh the Carroll aggregation one pound, as a team, the Carroll line will average five pounds more than Iowa's. Coach Gordon Armstrong, former Center college star center, will bring his squad to Iowa City Saturday with the idea of showing Burt a good fight.

The game will be the last on the historic Iowa field and is the first of a pair of test contests designed to educate the Old Gold gang for the long conference card. The next contest, with Monmouth Oct. 5, will be played in the new Hawkeye stadium. The new bowl, however, will not be dedicated until the Homecoming game with Bob Zuppke's Illinois Oct. 19.

Professor Starbuck, Philosopher, Rates "Hole in One" Club

Prof. Edwin D. Starbuck of the philosophy department, joined the ranks of the hole in one club Thursday afternoon when he made hole No. 3 in one stroke. He is the first person to make No. 3 in one on the country club course this year, and has only one predecessor in the records of the club, George Frohwein, who accomplished the feat last year. The hole is 150 yards long.

Professor Starbuck is considered one of the best players of the club, having a handicap of eight. He was playing with Prof. Herbert Martin of the philosophy department.

Frosh Natators Show Promise

41 Freshmen Vie for Berths on Squad

That several university swimming records are endangered by the 41 swimmers who reported for the freshman team was the conclusion of those who watched the yearling workout yesterday afternoon.

Coach David A. Armbruster put his men through a stiff workout, giving time trials to all splashes who reported. Although record-breaking times cannot be expected this early in the season, several freshmen looked like future championship material. One of the outstanding freshman tanksters, Dan Hockstadt of St. Louis will be forced to leave school this semester on account of illness in his family, but will return for the second semester. Hockstadt turned in some good times in the time trials yesterday and should be a big help in the telegraphic meets next winter. Other crawl strokers who looked good were R. I. Bodine, C. W. Donnelly, R. Tompkins, I. W. Hunt, James K. Ouch, E. W. Meyer, and Paul A. Anneberg. Anneberg is a nephew of Walt Anneberg, who is a former captain of the swimming team.

Frank Conway made the best time in the breast stroke, while Ned R. Blades of St. Louis seems to be the best of the back stroke men.

This afternoon at 5:30 there will be a meeting for swimmers in the field house lecture room and all who did not report yesterday are asked to be present.

Groves May Carry Fate of A's Against Cubs in Classic

Many fans on the Pacific Coast feel enthusiastically sure they have two uncrowned champions among the neighbors' children in the form of a coming welterweight, Young Corbett III, of Fresno, Cal., and in the football team of San Francisco's famous Olympic Club.

Young Corbett III is a newcomer to West Coast popularity but the Olympic Club's football fame extends back almost to the introduction of the grid game in California. Olympic Club teams are composed chiefly of amateur ex-college stars—the pick of the Far West as a rule with stellar native sons predominating. For years the Olympics have beaten most of their opponents. So strenuous is their characteristic play that rival coaches usually play their second teams against the all-stars with an eye to early season casualty lists.

Such grueling gridsters as Brick Marcus, Mort Kaer, Leo Rooney and Red Crouch lend all-American flavor to the Olympics' play. Few professional teams and still fewer varsity elevens could hope to hold the Olympic Club even.

As to that fast-hitting Fresno Italian, who would further glorify the name of Corbett, friends swear that Champion Jackie Fields is actually ducking their idol's south-

New City Hall May Become Reality Soon

Committee Composed of Bywater, Mercer, Van der Zee

Iowa City's proposed new city hall will become a reality in the near future if the recommendation of the special committee, appointed by the city council at its meeting on Sept. 13, is found feasible.

The committee, of which Dr. W. L. Bywater is chairman, and Jacob Van der Zee and Leroy S. Mercer are members, met Wednesday evening with a committee from the Iowa City chamber of commerce to consider the matter and to make tentative plans. The commerce chamber committee is composed of Chester A. Phillips, chairman; Harry D. Breene, and the Rev. Ira J. Houston.

Mr. Breene was appointed a committee of one to take up with the Rock Island railroad, joint owners with the city, of land at Burlington and Gilbert streets, the matter of the surrendering of rights by the railroad company.

Must Sell Present Site

Dr. Bywater said yesterday that the building depends now, more than anything else, on the sale of the old city hall. Being centrally located and of a type that would easily lend itself to remodeling, it is thought that the building, which at present houses the administrative offices of the city, will be quickly disposed of, once it is announced for sale.

The present city hall, located at Washington and Linn streets, was constructed in 1881 and other than the redecorating work done on its interior two years ago and the repairs last spring to the section on the first floor which houses the fire department, it remains unchanged.

Hall 48 Years Old

In the 48 years which have passed since the building of the hall, the population of Iowa City has shown a pronounced increase. New industries have been founded here and the increase in enrollment of the university has tended to aid in the growth of the town until the old building is no longer adequate in size or facilities.

The motion to start action on the matter of a new municipal building came from Dr. Bywater at the last meeting of the council, but it was really the voicing of the sentiment of many of the city's leading business and professional men. The action of the committee Wednesday will be reported to council at the next meeting on Oct. 4.

Girl Reserves Hold First Fall Meeting; New Officers Chosen

The Girl Reserves, the branch of the Y.M.C.A. organized in the Iowa City high school several years ago, held their first fall meeting Wednesday afternoon in the assembly of the high school, with Charlotte Belswanger as sponsor.

The president for the coming year will be Bessie Soucek, and the vice president and program chairman, Goldie Sexton. Members of the cabinet include Helen Kadlec, music chairman; Elma Fullerton, financial chairman; Phyllis Martin, publicity; Audrey Peters, social work; Priscilla Keeler, social chairman, and Mildred Mott, secretary and treasurer.

At the meeting Miss Soucek told of the combined Girl Reserve camp and conference at Lake Geneva which she, with 246 other girls of Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota, and Minnesota, attended this summer. The talk was followed by Girl Reserve songs, after which plans were made for the making of a patch-work quilt, each block to represent a meeting. Plans for social work and activities for the coming year were discussed.

In preparation for a membership drive, the girls assembled as the blue and white triangle. The cabinet members have chosen sides, Miss Soucek as the leader of the whites, and Miss Peters as leader of the blues. A hallowe'en party given by the losers to the winning team, will close the contest.

New Asphalt Paving Open on S. Dubuque

Construction work on the paving on S. Dubuque street, between College and Burlington streets is being completed and the street will probably be opened to traffic today, according to Allen Walton, city engineer.

The paving is of brick laid on a concrete base, asphalt covered. A layer of sand has been put over the asphalt to make a harder and smoother surface. New sidewalks will be laid along the street wherever necessary.

The contract for this stretch of paving was let by the city council to the William Horrabin contracting company of Iowa City, early in the summer and called for the work to be completed by Oct. 1.

Trustees Making Legion Building Real Community Center

The board of trustees of the American legion building, which meets every Tuesday, is working on an intensive program to make its building more of a community center.

With a fully equipped gymnasium, many men will be able to partake of golf, basketball, volleyball, baseball and handball. To meet the requirements of the sportsman, shower rooms and private lockers have also been added.

Besides being a building which will interest the sportsman, it houses three of Iowa City's civic organizations. It is the headquarters of the chamber of commerce, Iowa City credit bureau, and the Boy Scouts of America.

Holland Files Suit Here for Divorce

With the first case of the September term of the district court just under way, case No. 8 was filed for the November court session. It was filed by Thomas M. Holland who seeks divorce from his wife, Viola Holland. He alleges improper conduct on the part of the defendant.

The couple were married June 8 of this year, but separated Aug. 12. W. P. Murphy is the plaintiff's attorney.

Havard Rites to Be Saturday

William L. Havard, 74 years old, a resident of Iowa City for more than two score years, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. V. O. Louis, in Peoria, Ill., Tuesday. The body has been brought here for burial and funeral services will be at 10 a.m. tomorrow from the Outhout chapel. The Rev. Ira J. Houston will officiate and interment will be in Oakland cemetery.

Mr. Havard was a native of Pennsylvania, being born there in 1855 and attending the Friends Central school in Philadelphia. He came here in 1879, living on a farm near south of town, and 10 years later moved into Iowa City. He married Anna Switzer and was engaged in the stock buying business until a few years ago.

He has been in ill health three years and last November went to his sister's home. A month ago he fell and broke his hip. This and his poor health was partly responsible for his death.

Surviving Mr. Havard are his wife, one daughter, at whose home he died; two sons, Claire, of Detroit, and Lawrence, 528 S. Van Buren street, Iowa City; one sister, Ella Evenson of Philadelphia, and four grandchildren.

The couple were married June 8 of this year, but separated Aug. 12. W. P. Murphy is the plaintiff's attorney.

German Classes, Staff Shows large Increase

An increase of 26 per cent over last year's enrollment in the department of German has been estimated.

Other changes are the appointment of A. J. F. Zieglschmid as assistant professor, and John A. Kelley as instructor, in the German department. Professor Zieglschmid comes to the university from Northwestern University, where he was a member of the staff in the German department. Professor Zieglschmid has published several articles in America and Germany, and is now preparing a textbook for the use of American students of German.

Mr. Kelley was a member of the German staff at the University of Wisconsin, where he took his master's degree. He is now working on his doctor of philosophy degree.

C. R. I. P. Offers Fans Chicago Excursion

Iowa City baseball fans who have closely followed the standing of the Cubs during the last season will have an opportunity to see the National league champions play in their last home stand before the opening of the world series.

The Rock Island railway is offering an excursion Sunday to Chicago with direct connections to Wrigley field, the Cub's home, for the Cincinnati game.

Iowa Team Debates British Universities

Last summer three fraternity men from the University of Iowa toured England, debating with men from the leading British universities. They were: Herschel Langdon, Lt. of Gilmore City; Louis Carroll, G of Davenport, and Burton Miller, G of Newton.

All three men are well-known on the Iowa campus. Louis Carroll, now with a law firm in New York city, is a member of Delta Upsilon; Burton Miller wears the pin of Delta Chi, and Herschel Langdon is now president of Acadia.

Six Yearlings Join Gridders

Freshmen Engage in Fundamentals

The freshman football squad, with six more men reporting, topped a busy afternoon yesterday with a brief scrimmage. The squad was split into four groups for practice, Coach Skein giving emphasis to fundamentals.
 With gridiron warfare scheduled to break out in earnest next week, the board of strategy consisting of Skein, Irvin, and Vogel, is making every effort to teach the squad as much advanced football as possible.

The backfield men were given lessons covering all phases of ball carrying by Skein, while another detachment of backs drilled with Irvin. Coach Vogel and "Spike" Nelson, aided by a varsity man, kept at the job of training linemen.
 Among the individuals who showed up well yesterday was a pair of Bushes, H. R. Bush, towering back from Colesburg, and A. R. Bush, Negro lad from Clinton. E. L. Dolly, Rock Island. G. F. Hoefing, Manson, and R. C. Loufek, of Davenport, also came in for their share of attention.

The six men who reported yesterday were: T. E. Perry, Williamsburg; G. N. McQuern, Osceola; J. E. Dwyer, Des Moines; R. W. Brown, Sioux City; M. K. James, Wagner, S. D., and A. E. Lindquist, of Gowrie.

U. High Gridmen Show Improvement

University high gridmen are beginning to show improvement and are lessening Coach Handy's worries. However the coach is none too optimistic about his team's chances when they meet Marion.
 Still seeking to iron out the rough spots evident in the methods of tackling used by some of the men, assistant Coach Pollock drilled the linemen in tackling, while Coach Handy sent Moore, Cannon, Fairchild, and Rowe through backfield work with Rowe kicking.

University High Cross Country Men Begin Drill

Coach Wells Hands Men Light Work

Coach M. C. Carpenter's university high cross country men are working out every afternoon on Finkbine field at 4 o'clock.
 With four veterans from last year's team reporting daily, prospects of the blue and white are bright for the two dual meets that the coach has lined up for his hill and dale men. The squad, however, is substantially weakened by the loss of the flashy Cozine, who accidentally shot himself while cleaning a rifle last week. The veterans reporting are Herbert and Homer Dill, Van Epps, and Van Phillips.
 Oct. 25 the men will participate in a dual with Muscatine while the date of the meet with Keokuk has not been definitely settled.

Health Bureau Aids University Students

The student health department is located on the first floor of University hospital in a suite of 11 rooms. The staff consists of Drs. C. I. Miller, L. B. Sedlacek, and A. S. Fourt, one nurse, and a secretary.
 The service given to students includes four office calls for 50 cents and house calls with an initial charge of one dollar. If the illness is serious enough to require hospital treatment, the patient will be required to pay room and board with no fee for operation.
 Six thousand students took advantage of this service last year. It is open to persons enrolled in the university.

Selph's Single Lets Cards Win
 ST. LOUIS, Sept. 26 (AP)—Selph's single scoring Hafey in the last of the ninth, broke up a tie and gave the Cardinals their first game with the Pittsburgh Pirates 2 to 1, here today. Paul Waner's homer in the ninth accounted for the only Pirate score.

Coach Wells Hands Men Light Work

After Giving His Red and White Gridders a Long Chalk Talk at Which Two New Plays Were Dished Out and the Old Ones Reviewed, Coach Wells Sent His Men Through a Long, Easy Drill in Preparation for the Fairfield Game Here Saturday Morning.

Coach Wells feels that his Little Hawks are ready for the invasion of the men from downstate. While nursing a few bruises and strained muscles from two weeks of stiff rehearsals, the men are in good shape. A fast charging line has been developed and the backfield is in readiness for the promised hard game. Horace Redman is still limping slightly, but Howard Moffitt, Captain Don Lucky and Bud Wright are in fine shape. Christensen has been taken from his position at guard and is working out in the backfield as a fullback. Callahan is now working out in the position left vacant by Christensen. The personnel of the line is Shorty Hull, Taylor, Callahan, Isemsee, Soucek, Vestermark and Mathes.
 The game between the Little Hawks and Fairfield, Saturday will start at 10:30 in the morning so it will not conflict with the Iowa-Carroll game.

Interscholastic Cross Country Run to Be Held Nov. 9

The eighth annual invitation interscholastic cross-country run of the University of Iowa will be held on Finkbine Field, Saturday, Nov. 9. Invitations are being sent to high school coaches in Iowa and other neighboring states.

The distance to be run is approximately two miles. Glen Carpenter, Decatur high school, Decatur, Ill., set the course record of 10 minutes, 20 8-10 seconds in 1927. A statue will be awarded the high school whose team wins the championship. Three gold medals will be awarded the three members of the winning team. Gold, silver, and 13 bronze medals will be awarded the first fifteen individuals to finish.

Rotary Club Completes Boy Scout Camp and Cabin Here With Snow's Gift of $5,000

Faculty and Business Men Approve of Project; Col. Lewis Heads Committee to Keep Cabin in Perfect Condition

The completion of the Rotary Boy Scout camp and cabin is an epoch in the scouting movement of Iowa City. It is not the result of any recent plan; but the result of years of effort on the part of local men. In the words of Clarence Knutson, international district governor of Rotary in Iowa it is one of the outstanding accomplishments for boys among the Iowa Rotary clubs.

Six years ago, through the work of Dr. Samuel T. Orton head of the psychopathic hospital until 1927, Col. Morton C. Mumma, then commandant of military training at the university, and Samuel Mercer, a business man, a suitable site for the camp was chosen. The Rotary club then purchased the land with acknowledgment to the contributions of Pres. W. A. Jessup, M. C. Speidel, the late S. M. Mercer, J. L. Records, and A. J. Cox.

A board of trustees consisting of Mr. Speidel, president; Mr. Records, vice president; W. H. Stewart, secretary; T. Farrell, treasurer; and C. M. Dutcher, counsel, they held the property in trust until the Rotary club was ready to turn it over to the Iowa City Council Area Boy Scouts of America.

Snow Gives $5,000
It was not, however, until the contribution of $5,000 by John B. Snow that the building of the cabin on the camp site was made possible. Mr. Snow has been a friend of Mr. Speidel for more than 25 years and through his relations with Mr. Speidel, came to visit Iowa City. He said that it was one of the most beautiful and attractive cities under 25,000 that he had ever seen. He also remarked on the art and cultural advantages of Iowa City which many larger cities lacked.

Snow Worked Way
Mr. Snow was born in a small town in New York state about 45 years ago. After finishing elementary and high school there, he entered New York university in New York city. He worked his way through, and he worked hard.

On graduating from college, he became connected with The American Banking Association when Col. Sprague was its president. Snow's outstanding work while employed by the association was the computing of the interest and valuations of foreign bonds. At present he represents the Woolworth stores on the continent.

During the World War he championed the American cause in London and took vital interest in the selling of liberty bonds. He was also one of the founders of the present American club in London, a prominent member of the Pilgrim's Society in London, and a member of the Masonic Order.

Men who know him say that he has a charming, remarkable personality, and is a devout church worker. We know him as a philanthropist. A bronze plaque, already ordered, expressing the thanks of the Rotary club to Mr. Snow for making possible the building of the cabin, will be placed over the large stone fire-place in the cabin.

Deans Approve Project
The completion of the cabin means much to the men who strived for it. All the men interviewed expressed confidence in the scout movement and saw in it great future possibilities. Dean C. A. Phillips of the college of commerce says, "I believe that the new Boy Scout camp will be a factor for scouting extensively and intensively. It is a boon conferred on the boyhood of Iowa City, one that will become greater and greater with the passing of the years."

Dean Wilber J. Teeters of the college of pharmacy says, "The scout movement is one of the greatest movements ever started in building character and keeping young folks interested in things worth while."

The Rev. Ira J. Houston, pastor of the Congregational church, who has been active in the scout movement for the last 11 years says, "The cabin will take a large place
