

Today's Topics
A Daily Column of Pertinent Editorial Comment on Page 8.

The Daily Iowan

Shatter Records
Marks Broken in Big Ten Track
Meet; Iowa Takes Sixth
See Page 4

FIVE CENTS IOWA CITY, IOWA SUNDAY, MARCH 13, 1932 VOL. XXXI NUMBER 268

SOLEM WILL COACH AT IOWA

Undercover Agent Says Lindy Baby Safe

Johnson County Republicans Support Hoover; Democrats Choose 113 Local Delegates

G.O.P. Picks Delegates to State Meeting

Judge Evans Presides at Convention of Republicans

"Vote for Hoover" was the instruction given to 18 delegates chosen yesterday morning at the county Republican convention to represent Johnson county at the state convention in Des Moines March 22. The meeting was held in the American Legion Community building.

The convention, attended by approximately 200 precinct delegates chosen last week, was presided over by Judge Harold D. Evans, who was first named temporary and then permanent chairman. Mrs. James C. Kessler acted as secretary.

Delegates to the state convention are: Mrs. J. E. Switzer, first ward; Mrs. Stella Putnam, fourth ward; H. J. Rice, second ward; K. M. Dunlop, fourth ward; Henry Worthman, Oxford; E. E. Shipley, Freedom township;

F. F. Rogers, fourth ward; Ed. W. Wilson, fourth ward; Mrs. William Weber, fifth ward; Roscoe Ayres, fifth ward; Mrs. Mabel Volland, second ward; Mrs. Frank Stromsten, second ward; Mrs. Carrie Karnes, third ward; Morgan Davis, West Lucas township;

L. L. Stoner, Penn township; George Clearman, Oxford; Dean Wilber J. Teeters, first ward; Kirk H. Porter, second ward. Alternates are Mrs. Margaret Evans, and Mrs. W. F. Bolter.

They were instructed to be in Des Moines by 10 a.m. March 22 to attend the new first district caucus, of which Johnson county is a part.

Chosen by Eight
The 18 delegates were chosen by eight persons selected by Judge Evans. They were: Kenneth M. Dunlop, chairman of the county central committee, Prof. Benj. F. Shambaugh, Herbert Ries, Mrs. W. F. Bolter, Mrs. C. E. Seashore, Mrs. Stella Putnam, Henry Negus, and Dewey Worthman.

Judge Evans, in the opening address, went back into the political history of Johnson county and

(Turn to page 3)

E. W. Zeigler Plans Spring Band Concert

The Iowa City municipal band will present its spring concert April 29, according to tentative plans of E. W. Zeigler, director.

Plans are underway for the formation of an Iowa City municipal band association. Business firms and individuals will be given opportunity to buy memberships in the association.

"A municipal band is almost a necessity for a town the size of Iowa City," Director Zeigler said yesterday. "Young persons who have played instruments in their high school band and who wish to continue with their music are at a loss for a further opportunity to do so, unless they enter the university. A municipal band provides this opportunity as well as it gives a great deal of entertainment to the townpeople," continued Mr. Zeigler.

Mr. Zeigler reported progress with the Junior band, which is also under his direction.

WEATHER
IOWA: Somewhat unsettled Sunday and probably Monday; not quite so cold Sunday and in west and south portions Monday.

Edward Dolly Wed to Betty Hoffman at Rock Island Friday

Betty Hoffman of Moline, Ill., became the bride of Edward L. Dolly, A3 of Rock Island, Ill., Friday afternoon. The marriage service was read in the court house at Rock Island.

Miss Hoffman attended Stevens college at Columbia, Mo. Mr. Dolly is a member of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. He was regular center on the University of Iowa football team for two years, and was awarded a major I. Before coming to the university, he was a member of the Rock Island football team for four years, and was all-state center.

Republicans Back Hoover at Meetings

County Conventions of Iowa Support President

(By The Associated Press)
Eulogy of President Hoover echoed in convention halls today as Iowa Republicans in county gatherings elected delegates to the state convention.

Action in the county conventions assured instructed delegations for the president to the party convention in Des Moines March 22.

Wheels of the Democratic party machinery also started turning in the state Saturday, the date set for precinct caucuses to elect delegates to the county conventions is March 19.

In the Linn county Republican convention in Cedar Rapids, Harrison E. Spangler, chairman of the party's state central committee, predicted public sentiment will swing strongly in favor of the president before November.

Issues Challenge
Similar views were expressed in the Scott county gathering in Davenport where John A. Hornby challenged anyone to produce a man who had borne his problems with a greater fortitude than President Hoover.

Polk county Republicans in Des Moines applauded references to the party and adopted a motion for an instructed delegation.

Hoover delegates were chosen by the Monona county convention in Onawa after the gathering had adopted resolutions indorsing the president and the state and national Republican administrations.

Hardin county Republicans in Eldora also took a stand for renomination of the president, who was praised by Mayor Charles O. Ryan. Republicans of Bremer county, meeting in Waverly indorsed the Hoover administration and pledged fealty.

Warfare Among Massachusetts Demos

BOSTON, March 12 (AP)—Open warfare broke out in the Massachusetts Democratic camp today as supporters of Franklin D. Roosevelt announced their decision to place a Roosevelt-pledged slate in the primary field.

A series of conferences during the past week between the leaders

(Turn to page 3)

Court Acquits Davis on Contract Charge

Albert Davis, who was being sued by Gus S. Fink on charges of breaking a contract, was acquitted yesterday morning in district court with a sealed verdict returned by a petit jury. The case went to the jury Friday.

Demos Plan County Meet on Saturday

Make No Mention of Policy at Precinct Caucuses

One hundred and thirteen Iowa City Democrats were named delegates to the county convention March 19 by precinct caucuses last night.

The county convention will be held at the American Legion Community building Saturday. It will be started with a banquet at 12 a.m., after which delegates to the state convention at Davenport March 26 will be named.

Without Policy
No mention of party policy was made at any of the five caucuses in Iowa City. Each meeting consumed less than one half hour in naming delegates from their precinct and chairmen for the meeting.

Reports submitted at several of the caucuses showed that subscriptions to the county fund were willingly given by those called on.

Attendance varied from nine persons at one gathering to approximately 20 at a second. The first ward caucus was the only one to name a committee chairman or a school committee member.

First Ward
First ward—W. J. Jackson, chairman and secretary; delegates: M. J. McGuan, Charles Kennett, F. J. Belger, W. J. Jackson, D. W. Crum, Bruce Mahan, J. W. White, Frank Smith, Allen Wallen, Walter Barrow, Mrs. A. G. Denson, Mrs. L. H. Billick, Marcella McInerney, W. J. Weber.

Nora Donohoe, Fred Liblin, D. W. Collins, W. O. O'Connell, John Grady, F. G. Reddick, J. J. Hanlon, James Burke, Mrs. D. W. Crum, M. J. McGuan was named committee chairman. J. J. Hanlon was chosen school committee member from the first ward.

Second ward: G. A. Kenderdine, chairman; E. C. Houser, secretary; delegates: Dr. W. L. Bywater, chairman; D. J. Peters, G. A. Kenderdine, J. M. Otto, Leo C. Slezak, Nellie A. Kennedy, M. F. Carpenter, John M. Leonard, Dr. W. E. Spence, P. A.

(Turn to page 3)

Kuever Opens Annual Badge Motif Contest

Opening of the annual Homecoming badge contest was made yesterday by Prof. Rudolph A. Kuever of the college of pharmacy. "Not only will the winner receive a $10 prize but will also be honored by having thousands of Homecoming celebrators wear his design," he said. All designs must be submitted to Ruth L. Wilkinson of the school of fine arts at room 314 physics building before May 15.

The designs must be drawn with India ink on white Bristol board to fill a circle six inches in diameter. They should pertain to University of Iowa and Homecoming and have "Iowa Homecoming, Oct. 22" in evidence. The masses and lines should be large enough to carry well when reproduced one-fourth size, Miss Wilkinson advised. "It would be interesting if designs also included Minnesota. I shall be glad to advise any contestant," she said.

Judges for the contest are: Miss Wilkinson, Professor Kuever, Prof. Forest C. Ensign of the college of education, and Prof. Rollin M. Perkins of the college of law.

The badge has been a Homecoming tradition. Although the cost is only 10 cents, the sale is so large that it finances all Homecoming activities. Designs of other years include drawings of football players, Old Capitol, entrance to the stadium, football, and cowbells.

16 Months Old Child Dies of Pneumonia

George Albert Suetpel, 16 months old son of J. F. Suetpel, 602 Dearborn street, died at 4:30 p.m. yesterday. Death was caused by pneumonia.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Suetpel, and two sisters, Margaret Mary and Patricia Ann. The funeral service has not been arranged.

"Match King" Found Dead in Apartment

PARIS, March 12 (AP)—Ivar Kreuger, 52 year old Swedish "match king," international banker and one of the world's leading industrialists, was found dead in his apartment here today with a bullet through his heart.

He left three letters indicating he had committed suicide. They stated he was tired of life and of financial difficulties in which he had found himself for some months.

Bad Health
A member of his entourage said the health of the match magnate, whose great industrial and financial enterprises heached into other fields, had been bad and had been made worse by overwork.

He returned only yesterday from a long stay in the United States. He had planned a luncheon with prominent French and American business men. When he failed to appear his secretary telephoned to his apartment, where a chambermaid said he was sleeping fully clothed.

Death Great Shock
News that the man who had loaned millions to European governments and in return received match monopolies which his company holds was dead was a great shock to industrial circles.

Sweden Acts to Call Moratorium

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, March 12 (AP)—The government, following the death of Ivar Kreuger, match magnate, at Paris today, introduced a bill in parliament tonight for a moratorium on Swedish debts abroad.

The government would be authorized to suspend payment of Sweden's foreign debts for one month under the bill, which will be considered in an extra session of parliament tomorrow.

Enforcement of the measure, intended to protect the vast Kreuger industrial and financial interests in event of a panic, would be left to the discretion of the government.

(Turn to page 3)

Band Concert Will Feature Famous Sousa Compositions

Organization to Include Liszt Rhapsody in Program Today

"The Golden Star" and "The Stars and Stripes Forever," compositions of the late John Phillip Sousa, will be featured presentations of the university band's spring concert to be given under the direction of Dr. O. E. Van Doren at 3:30 this afternoon at Iowa Union.

Played in memory of Sousa, who died March 5, the audience will be asked to stand during the close of "The Stars and Stripes Forever," when the trombones and cornets appear in fanfare.

"Rhapsodie Hongroise No. 1" by Franz Liszt will be presented for the first time in concert by the university band. The number is known as the "fourteenth rhapsody in the original edition written for piano."

Dr. Van Doren has directed the band for more than 20 years. He entered the university in 1903 and two years later became student director.

The program for this afternoon's concert follows:
Ruy Blas Overture.....Mendelssohn
Liebestraume.....Franz Liszt

Interview of "Fixer" Stirs Few Denials

NEWARK, N. J., March 12 (AP)—Henry (Red) Johnson, sailor suitor of the Lindbergh nursemaid, was described as cleared of participation in the baby kidnapping by Deputy Police Chief Brex tonight and permitted to talk to reporters.

Abductors Will Return Child to Parents, Says Agent

(Copyright, 1932, by The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, March 12 (AP)—Because it "speeds the Lindbergh baby's return" to its parents, Morris Rosner, undercover man, announced today that he had definite knowledge the child is "alive and safe."

He said that he was not able to reveal whether he had actual conversation or other direct communication with the kidnapers, but that his statement that the baby was safe and well and would be returned was not in any way a mere matter of opinion.

He indicated that police were in no way concerned with his activities in the case.

Confusing Statements
In Trenton, N. J., and Hopewell, N. J., Rosner's interview stirred a series of inquiries and confusing police statements and denials. These finally simmered down late in the night to a formal pronouncement by Col. Norman Schwarzkopf, head of state police, that he had not intended to deny the fact that the interview was given, but that the police position was that they had no "official" knowledge of Rosner's statements.

On the specific point of whether Rosner was an agent of Col. Lindbergh there was no police answer.

At his apartment as he returned from one of his frequent visits to Hopewell, N. J., after 103 hours "on his feet," to bathe and relax before undertaking a "very delicate task," Rosner made it plain that "to talk" was to break a rule of a lifetime.

"Need Not Fear"
On the basis that it might be to the interest of the missing baby, he used the interview to assure the kidnapers that they need not fear to rush negotiations.

"I am guaranteeing that nothing will be done to harm them," he said. "Behind that guarantee is my life—after this is all over they know where they can find me."

"Family Made Mistake"
"That family made a mistake," he said, "they'll never make another one. We all make mistakes. "All we want is to get our baby

(Turn to page 3)

Sorority House Fire Causes $10,000 Loss

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., March 12 (AP)—Chi Omega sorority house at Westminster college was destroyed by fire today. Three co-eds escaped, lightly clad.

Twenty-one girls were quartered in the building, but they had gone to classes. The loss was estimated at about $10,000.

Chicago Reds Stage Bloody "Protest" Riot

CHICAGO, March 12 (AP)—Communist banners waving on broad Michigan boulevard today signalled a riot in which four policemen were shot and beaten, 30 demonstrators arrested, and traffic on Chicago's busiest artery demoralized for hours.

The occasion was a "protest" meeting in front of the Japanese consulate against the fighting in China. It was broken up by 200 police on foot, horseback, motorcycle and automobiles who substituted billies and rubber hose for gunfire.

Much Confusion
The Tribune tower, home of the consulate, and the Wrigley building across the avenue looked down upon a scene of utter confusion from a dramatic beginning, with both sides fully prepared, it involved combatants with hundreds of shoppers, office workers and curious pedestrians in a howling mob.

Even after police had seized more than a score of agitators, driven off the rest, and forced the curious crowd to move along, several hours were required to straighten out traffic across the big boulevard link bridge and along Chicago's main north-south avenue.

Officer Near Death
Nearby on the sidewalk lay Sergeant Charles Kiefer and Policemen Ray Eddy and Grank Breslin, Eddy with a bullet in the groin and feared near death.

Patrolman John Fogarty was nursing cuts and bruises. Mrs. Anna Rejba, 38, and her son Edward, 17, had fresh wounds, apparently from bullets ricocheting off the walk and the stone walls of the big office buildings.

Child Drinks Poison, Dies

Lois D. Woode, 15 months old daughter of Walter Woode, who lives about four miles south of Iowa City on U. S. highway 161, died at 2:30 p.m. yesterday after drinking a quantity of carbolic acid from a bottle which had been left unguarded on the floor.

While making preparations for moving, the family had gone outside and left the baby on the floor. Mrs. Woode discovered her with the partly empty bottle in her hand, but was too late to save the child's life. In the struggle over the bottle, acid was spilt over the baby, burning her face.

Dr. George H. Scanlon was summoned immediately, but the child died before he arrived at the Woode home. County Coroner George Maresh was then called and took charge.

The body was taken to the Oath-out funeral home. The family is expected to come to Iowa City tomorrow, when funeral arrangements will be made.

Abandon Vessel

NEW YORK, March 12 (AP)—The crew of the wrecking tug Reindeer abandoned the vessel late today, it was said in a message intercepted by the Radio Marine corporation. The message did not say definitely if the Canadian rescue vessels had reached its side but it was assumed that at least one had.

Pioneer Florist Dies

DAVENPORT (AP)—Charles F. Hummel, 87, pioneer Davenport florist, died from heart trouble.

Drake Mentor Agrees to Direct Iowa Gridders as Board Ends Long Search

President Jessup Approves Appointment of New Coach with Three Year Contract; Salary Not Disclosed

A three month search for a head football coach for the University of Iowa came to an end late yesterday afternoon when the board in control of athletics succeeded in completing negotiations with Ossie Solem, Drake university mentor.

The appointee, who was approved by President Walter A. Jessup, has been tendered a contract for three years, with a free hand as to the appointment of assistant coaches.

Contract Difficulties
Contract difficulties with Drake arose last night, an Associated Press dispatch from Des Moines indicated. Bulldog officials said that Solem had not yet asked to be released from his present contract which has four years more to run.

They declared that Solem's contract contains a provision which prevents him from negotiating for a position with another college. They declined to comment on possible action of the board of trustees should Solem request a release.

Salary Not Known
Although E. H. Lauer, director of athletics who announced the appointment at 6:30 p.m., refused to disclose the salary to be paid Solem, it is understood that it at least equals the $8,000 or $8,500 which he now receives.

CHICAGO, March 12 (AP)—Ossie Solem, head football coach at Drake university, tonight said he was "glad and sorry to leave Drake."

"I felt that I had been at Drake long enough," he said. "Eleven years in one spot is a long time. But I shall be sorry to leave Drake anyway."

"They say I am stepping into a tough job, but that is the kind of a job I like to tackle. I have signed for three years at Iowa, which should be long enough to show whether I can build a successful team."

Solem heard of his appointment at Iowa tonight while in Chicago to attend the Western conference indoor track and field championships. He appeared to be surprised.

Amos Alonzo Stagg of the University of Chicago, dean of American football coaches, praised the selection of Solem. He predicted success for him at Iowa.

"The Hawkeyes are to be congratulated in getting Solem," Stagg said. "He is a fine chap and an excellent coach. We are glad to have him in the Western conference."

None of Solem's staff has been picked yet, Mr. Lauer said. He added that Solem would visit Iowa City in a few days to talk over this and other details. Solem has already indicated that he will conduct spring football, although it is not certain when he will come here permanently because of his position as director of the Drake Relays at Des Moines in April.

One of Original Six
Solem was one of an original list of six men who the board announced it would bring to Iowa City for interviews shortly after the resignation of Burton A. Ingwersen Dec. 10. During the ensuing three months, the board has discussed more than 50 prospects, although making a definite offer to but one man, James Crowley, Michigan State mentor, who refused it.

Shortly after the announcement late yesterday of Ossie Solem's appointment as head football coach at Iowa, the following telegram of support was sent to the mentor by Pi Epsilon Pi, pep fraternity:

"Welcome Ossie Solem, and congratulations. Iowa students will give you every support. Success and good luck."
Pi Epsilon Pi

CARROLL (AP)—Hudson Carpenter, 22, farmer near Coon Rapids, shot himself to death. The reason has not been determined. His widow survives.

May Seek School Support
LOGAN (AP)—In a dedicatory speech at the opening of a $75,000 addition to the Logan school, Agnes Samuelson, state superintendent of public instruction, said the state legislature may have to find a new method of supporting public schools. She said "there is a limit beyond which further drastic reductions cannot be made without denying the children the right to an education."

(Turn to page 8)

O. E. VAN DOREN
—20 Years Director

Society and Clubs

Musicians to Entertain Club

Plan Supper Program With Variety of Selections

At the University club Sunday night supper and musical program at 6 o'clock this evening in the club rooms at Iowa Union a variety of musical numbers will be presented by Anne Pierce, soprano, and Ralph W. Young, violinist.

Miss Pierce is an associate in public school music and head of music at the University elementary school. Mr. Young is an assistant in the music department of the university.

The program will be:

- Widmung ..... Schumann
- Volkliedchen ..... Schumann
- Face in Spring ..... Schubert
- Ave Maria ..... Schubert
- Miss Pierce
- Slow movement from Concerto No. 7 ..... de Berlioz
- Mr. Young
- O Mio Babbino Caro ..... Puccini
- The Dove ..... Tuscany folk song
- The Slumber Song ..... Gretchaninow
- The Snow Drop ..... Gretchaninow
- Miss Pierce
- Meditation from Thais ..... Massenet
- Viennoise Popular Song ..... Kreisler
- Mr. Young
- A May Day Carol

arr. by Deems Taylor
Ghosts ..... Lang
Animal Crackers ..... Hageman
The Poet Sings ..... Watts
Spring Song ..... Well with violin obligato by Mr. Young
Miss Pierce
The committee in charge of arrangements for the supper and program are: Beth Wellman, chairman; Bertha Gardner; and Zada Cooper. Another party by the club, to be held March 17, will be entitled "When we were green."

Lampe Will Talk at Annual Palm Sunday Devotions, Breakfast

The annual Palm Sunday devotion and breakfast for university students will be given at 7 a. m. next Sunday at the Presbyterian church. Prof. M. Willard Lampe will lead the devotion service, with pastors of the various churches assisting. The ceremony will be given under the auspices of the Inter-Church council, with Vivian Rockwood, A3 of Renwick, president of the council, in general charge.

Women of the Presbyterian church will serve the breakfast immediately after the service. Tickets for the breakfast will go on sale at the participating churches today.

Dr. Woods to Address Club

Dr. Andrew H. Woods, director of psychopathic hospital, will read a paper on "The philosophy of the physician" at a meeting of the Philosophical club at 8 p. m. Tuesday.

Prof. and Mrs. James C. Manry will be hosts to the club at their home, 508 Melrose court.

Currier Notes

Currier residents who are spending the week end at their homes are: Harriet Brown, C4 of Marengo; Marie Kelly, A3 of Cedar Rapids; Natalie Schoen, A4 of Cedar Rapids; Imogene Conley, A2 of Muscatine; Margaret Austin, A4 of Cedar Rapids; Bessie Day, A2 of Indianola; Margaret Dewees, A1 of Keokuk; Ruth Gulser, A1 of Davenport; Alberta Kemmann, A2 of Clarence; Evelyn Montgomery, A1 of Rock Island, Ill.; Amelia Pavlovsky, A4 of Cedar Rapids; and Carma Wagner, A4 of Reinbeck.
Cleoma Schneider, A3 of Waukon, is spending the week end in Cedar Rapids. Lola Steelsmith, A3 of Des Moines, is visiting in North English, and Earlene Smith, A2 of George, is visiting in Keokuk.
Ina Lonning, A1 of Thor, has re-

PERSONALS

Mrs. A. W. Stearns visited her son Alexander B. Stearns, A1 of Manchester, yesterday.

Mrs. William Larrabee, Jr., of Clermont, president of the Iowa Federation of Women's clubs, returned with Mrs. R. H. Volland, yesterday, from the convention of Women's clubs in Des Moines.

Mrs. R. H. Volland and Mrs. Alexander Ellett returned Friday night from the annual spring board meeting of the Iowa Federation of Women's clubs.

Homer Gillilan, A2 of Cantril, left for home yesterday where he will spend the week end.

Paul Casady, E3 of Milton, is spending the week end with his parents.

Dale Slaymaker, E1 of Marengo, is spending the week end at home.

Mrs. Pearl Bennett Broxam, of the extension division and Mrs. D. J. Burke, 32 E. Bloomington street, are spending the week end in Davenport.

Mary Lagomarcino, A3 of Burlington, is spending the week end at her home.

Miriam Ingraham, A1 of Mason City, is spending the week end in Chicago.

Elizabeth Rouse, A4 of Rock Island, Ill., is spending the week end at her home.

Kenneth M. Lawrence, L1 of Ottumwa, left yesterday to visit over the week end at the home of his parents. He was accompanied by Earl Fisher, L1 of Rock Rapids, who will be a week end guest at the Lawrence home.

Ione Postal, A3 of Tipton, is spending the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Postal of Tipton.

T. E. Battey, C4 of Rockford, visited Friday evening at the home of his parents.

Everett Curl of Montgomery Ward's stores is ill at his home in Wellman.

Carl E. Brown, 407 S. Madison street, has recovered from several days' illness.

Vern Powers of Davenport arrived yesterday to spend the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Powers, 510 N. Dodge street.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shupitar, 607 Grant street, motored to Oxford yesterday to visit over the week end at the home of Mr. Shupitar's mother, Mrs. Joseph Shupitar of Oxford.

Mrs. William Darby, 720 Walnut street, has been confined to her home for the last two weeks because of illness.

Virginia Maxson, A3 of Tipton, left yesterday to spend the week end at home.

Mrs. H. B. Newcomb, 314 S. Summit street, has been visiting friends and relatives in Newton for several days.

Dr. A. E. Ady of West Liberty was a business caller in Iowa City Friday.

Francis R. Fleming, L3 of Delhi, left yesterday to spend the week end at the home of his parents in Delhi.

Gilbert Mains, L3 of Cedar Rapids, is visiting friends in Marshalltown over the week end.

Evelyn Kanak of Waterloo is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kanak, 931 N. Summit street, over the week end.

Helen Richardson and Eya Adams, both teachers in West Waterloo high school, Waterloo, are visiting friends in Iowa City over the week end.

Ina Lonning, A1 of Thor, has re-

New Band at Mecca Dance

Manhattan Serenaders Will Play for Party

An extension of his engagement in Arkansas caused Slatz Randall to cancel his engagement for the Mecca Ball next Friday. Fritz Miller and his Manhattan Serenaders were announced yesterday as the orchestra for the annual engineer's dance by Robert K. Vierck, E4 of Avoca, chairman of the committee in charge.

Miller and his band have played at the Drake hotel, and the Aragon and Trianon ballrooms in Chicago. While fulfilling these engagements, the orchestra played over radio station WGN. The band originated in New York city and has played at several of the larger eastern cafes and hotels.

Tickets for the Mecca Ball go on general sale at Iowa Union Tuesday. The identity of the Mecca queen is still a matter of conjecture and her name will not be revealed until March 13, at the Mecca Ball. This year, as last year, there will be two attendants for the queen and they will be presented before her identity is announced.

covered from a three weeks attack of rheumatism. She will return to her home for the remainder of the term.

Eula McKinley of Waterloo is spending the week end with her mother, Mrs. Mary McKinley, 526 N. Linn street.

Charlotte Craig and Esther Veach, both of Guthrie Center, are visiting Jessica Milligan, G of Guthrie Center, over the week end.

Mrs. O. H. Carpenter, 1 Bloom Terrace, will return today from Carbondale, Ill., where she has been visiting her daughter for the last week.

Frances Edwards of Indianapolis, Ind., is making a several days visit with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Edwards, 108 McLean street.

Dorothea Costelloe of Ft. Madison, attended the music conference yesterday in Iowa City.

Jack Rotman of Dubuque returned home yesterday, after spending several days in Iowa City.

Lillian Birndorf of Dubuque is spending the week end in the city.

J. F. McNamara, 530 E. Davenport street, is visiting at Dundon, Springfield, and Columbus, Ohio. He will return to Iowa City in two weeks.

Carrie Willenbrock, who is teaching this year in the Belle Plaine schools, is spending the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Willenbrock, 1112 Muscatine avenue.

Mrs. Pearl Bennett Broxam of Maquoketa and Mrs. Dan J. Burke, 32 E. Bloomington street, are going to Cedar Rapids tomorrow night to see "The Merchant of Venice."

Mrs. Meardon Addresses D.A.R.

"George Washington, the president and builder of a nation" was the subject of a paper read by Mrs. Fred W. Meardon at a meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution last night at the home of Mrs. W. F. Boller, 1016 E. College street.

The program was completed by a dance given by Shirley Hegg and Dorothy Smith.

Make This Model at Home

The Daily Iowan's Daily Pattern

Well-Planned Lingerie Pattern 2152

STEP-BY-STEP INSTRUCTION DIAGRAMS GIVEN WITH THIS PATTERN

By ANNE ADAMS

A most becoming neckline with the new square effect has a smart scarf collar that pulls through slashes in the bodice, forming a pet bow. It is the very best word in fashion. The sleeves, too, are lovely, and may be worn above or below the elbow as sketched. Elastic holds them in place. This model is charming in printed flat or sheer crepe, with contrasting trimming.

Pattern 2303 is obtainable only in sizes 14 to 20 and 32 to 42. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards of 39-inch fabric, 7-8 yard 39-inch contrasting, or 1 7/8 yards of ribbon.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred), for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE WANTED.

SEND FOR THE SPRING FASHION CATALOG. This beautiful, colorful book offers 32 pages of chic, authentic Anne Adams styles for adults and children. The newest frocks for afternoon, evening and sports wear, exquisite lingerie, attractive house dresses and adorable kiddie models are featured—all personally chosen by Anne Adams and all fashionable, practical and easy and inexpensive to make. PRICE OF CATALOG, FIFTEEN CENTS. CATALOG AND PATTERN TOGETHER, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS. Address all mail and orders to The Daily Iowan Pattern Department, 243 West 17th Street, New York City.

Strolling Through Fashion Lane

By CELIA GOLDBERG
Society Editor The Daily Iowan

Milady shows more interest in footwear this spring than ever before. In addition to different leathers and colors, there is now the interest of fabric and leather used together. All this is in addition to countless fascinating new models in pumps and cut-out sandals.

The new fabric shoes are made of an imported Jersey. Their sudden popularity is in accord with the vogue for sheer wools, for stitched fabric hats and fabric bags. They come in all the colors of spring costumes; beige, navy, red, black and in contrasting stripes.

It seems that pointed toes on Oxford and walking pumps are a bit outmoded, particularly with the current trend toward the boyishly-tailored silhouette.

New coiffures will be free and plastic, with a fullness at the front and sides, and the back short, but not closely cropped.

The fancy for bright printed squares has gone to milady's head.

short course. One of the major questions under discussion will be the landscaping of the highway between Iowa City and Cedar Rapids.

Members of the committee arranging the program: Mrs. R. H. Volland, Mrs. C. E. Seashore, Mrs. W. E. Spence, all from the Iowa City club; and Mrs. E. W. Spence and Mrs. W. H. Dunshee of Cedar Rapids; and Mrs. Gordon of North Liberty.

Hiking Club Meets Tomorrow

Coach and Mrs. Rollie F. Williams will lead the weekly hike of the Hiking club to be held tomorrow. Members will meet at Red Ball Inn at 5:30 p. m.

The Cedar Rapids Garden club and county agents from Linn and Johnson counties will cooperate in the studies to be taken up in the

See These Newest Kodaks
—The Six-16 and the Six-20—small, compact, unusual in design, easier to use. Even the film spools are special—smaller, all-metal, and carrying eight exposures instead of six. They're on display here. Stop in soon.

Henry Louis, Druggist
124 East College
The Rexall & Kodak Store

Couple Takes Marital Vow

LeVack, Colson Wed in Noon Ceremony by Rev. Henry

The marriage of Olive LeVack of Iowa City and DeVer Colson, G of Milan, Ind., took place yesterday at high noon at the home of Dr. Zella White Stewart, 11 N. Evans street. The Rev. H. D. Henry officiated at a single ring service. Doris E. Smith of Iowa City, and Lewis Larick, G of Iowa City, were the only attendants.

The bride was attired in a gown of Berlin blue, ankle length, and trimmed in silver. She carried an arm bouquet of pink rosebuds and white fuchsias. Miss Smith wore a beige crepe gown trimmed in beige lace. Immediate friends and relatives were guests.

Following the ceremony, a three course wedding luncheon was served to the guests. Decorations at the bride's table were a miniature bride and groom, pink and white sweet peas, and tall pink tapers tied with white tulle bows.

After a brief wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Colson will be at home at 11 N. Evans street.

The bride graduated from high school at Perry, and is a graduate of William Woods college at Fulton, Mo. She taught public school music in Iowa and Colorado for four years, and has since then been assistant to Dr. Zella White Stewart of Iowa City.

Mr. Colson is a graduate from De Pauw university, and received his M.S. degree from the University of Iowa in 1930. He is now studying for his Ph.D. degree in the physics department of the university of Iowa. He is a member of Gamma Alpha, Phi Beta Kappa, and Sigma Xi honorary fraternities.

Theta Epsilon Will Entertain at Student Center From 3 to 5

Theta Epsilon will entertain Kappa Phi and Kappa Beta at a tea from 3 to 5 o'clock this afternoon at the Baptist student center. Mrs. Bohumil Shimek will pour.

The program will consist of readings by Vivian Rockwood, A3 of Renwick, and a duet by Mrs. H. C. Burdick and Lucille Hoefflin, C4 of Muscatine.

The committee in charge is composed of Merle Jahnke, A2 of Iowa City; Florence Andrews, A3 of Camanche; and Harriet Stull, A1 of Ferguson, Mo.

A green and white color scheme will be used in decoration.

Guests Entertained at Phi Beta Delta "Club Iowa" Party

"Club Iowa" was presented to guests at the Phi Beta Delta house last night at an informal dance. The house was transformed into a night club . . . six foot bar, sawdust on the floor, pretzels, and beer. By Golly and his Iowa Blues played for dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. David Nathanson of Clinton, and Dr. and Mrs. William Malamud chaperoned.

In charge of the "club" were Emanuel Brotman, A4 of Cedar Rapids; Sidney Waldbaum, A3 of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Bennie Golob, A3 of Toledo; Sall Kronick, E4 of Sioux City; and Jack Lubin, P4 of Iowa City.

Phi Alpha Delta

Phi Alpha Delta, professional law fraternity, announces the initiation of the following men: Donald R. Hankens, L3 of Cherokee; John R. Cronin, L1 of Des Moines; F. A. Daum, L1 of Buffalo Center; William C. Hahle, L2 of Algona; Jesse H. Leonard, L1 of Holstein; Roy O. Ladwig, L2 of Hampton.

League to Hear Williams

R. C. Williams, Iowa research director in the department of public instruction, will give an illustrated lecture on "Public school finance" at a meeting of Iowa City League of Women Voters tomorrow. The meeting will be held at Youdes inn with luncheon at noon preceding the lecture. Members may bring guests.

Hart to Address Sigma Delta Chi

Prof. Clyde W. Hart will speak on "The newspaper as a social institution" at a meeting of Sigma Delta Chi, journalism fraternity, tonight at 6 o'clock at Iowa Union.

Following the dinner a short business meeting will be held. All members of the fraternity are asked to be present at Kadish's studio for the Hawkeye picture at noon.

Veteran Dies of Burns

DAVENPORT (AP)—Alfred Snyder, 38, a World War veteran, died of burns received when he is believed to have started a fire with kerosene.

Spring Fashions in a Style Show—

The Englert theatre and "OSBORN'S" cooperating announce a FASHION SHOW OF SPRING STYLES for Thursday and Friday nights

ON LIVING MODELS

The regular Englert attractions and a style show combined.

C. O. D. Not in its accepted Meaning BUT--

Color-- Originality-- Detail--

in New Spring Dresses

IT IS these three items which make our dresses so popular-- there is a distinctive color and style for every type--not a detail to accentuate your charm has been overlooked--dozens of styles and every style as smart as the next--at $10. $15.

Home of Distinctive Dresses

WILLARD'S A STYLE INSTITUTION

Just a Minute!

But what might it mean if your watch is just a minute slow? It means that it is out of adjustment or needs cleaning. A watch is considered a necessity but what good is it if your watch does not keep the right time?

Bring us your watch for expert repair work.

J. Hands and Son

Day or Night YOUR COIFFURE Is Most IMPORTANT

NESTLE PERMANENTS $5 - $7.50 - $10 All Original Nestle Supplies Used.

CO-ED BEAUTY SHOP

Phone 808 for appointment 128 1/2 East Washington St.

Music Holds World Hope, Says Singer

Fine Arts Will Solve Problems, Says Proschowski

The field of fine arts offers the solution to the problems of the world, believes Frantz Proschowski, guest speaker at the conference of teachers and supervisors of vocal music held yesterday at Iowa Union. Proschowski of the Chicago musical college, told a conference audience of more than 200 yesterday morning that in music, the only universal language worthy of the name, lay power in solving the world's difficulties which exceeded by far that of industrial and capital forces.

Informal discussion centered about men's and women's vocal groups composed the bulk of the morning session. Conducted after the manner of a rehearsal, under the leadership of Louis H. Dieckels of the music department, actual "laboratory practice" was made available to the tutors by groups of university-singers.

Kay Opens Meet

Selections which will be required in the annual state high school music contest formed the basis of the music studied in the session.

Dean George F. Kay of the college of liberal arts, opening the meeting with a welcome from the university, pointed out the value of the fine arts school, the pioneering of the University of Iowa in the field, and asked the cooperation of teachers throughout the state in furthering its development.

"Nature Places Voice"

The voice is placed by nature, Proschowski said, and one either uses it right or wrong. Incorrect use of the voice is due to misunderstanding. The physical placing of the voice must be eliminated, he stated.

In the round table discussion, Proschowski declared that there was so much music of cultural quality that it should not be put on the shelf in favor of inferior stuff.

Seashore Speaks

Speaking at the luncheon session, Alice Inskip, supervisor of music at Cedar Rapids, compared the public school music of today with yesterday. Miss Inskip declared that the opportunities of today were much greater, and that those of tomorrow must be built on the stepping stones of yesterday and today.

Dean Carl E. Seashore of the graduate college, speaking on "The voice vibrato," defined it, gave the means by which it could be recorded and measured; told of the relations of the vibrato to the tremolo; discussed the development of the vibrato through age and training; its variance through musical mode and emotion, register, loudness, and tempo; and told of the musical significance of the knowledge of the vibrato.

Clapp Plays Sonata

In a lecture demonstration on voice building, aided by eight students and winners in solo event contests of last year's musical festival, Proschowski offered suggestions for improvement in the various cases.

Entertainment at the dinner session was provided by Prof. Philip G. Clapp, head of the music department, who played a musical interlude including the first movement from Beethoven's Sonata, opus 31, no. 2; Irish Tune from County Derry, arranged by Grainger; Debussy's "Heather"; Brahms' Ballade, opus 118, no. 3; and Chopin's Nocturne, opus 69, no. 1.

Closed Banks May Receive Federal Aid

WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP)—Closed Iowa banks may receive aid from the Reconstruction Finance corporation, Pres. Charles G. Dawes informed Senator Smith W. Brookhart of Iowa today.

Dawes said the corporation is "ready and willing" to lend money to legally constituted liquidating agencies of closed state banks to permit the depositors to receive some of their money.

"It would seem advisable," Dawes wrote the Iowa senator, "that since the attorney general of the state of Iowa is of the opinion that your state banking commissioner can legally qualify, that every effort should be made to encourage him to make application to this corporation for loans, the proceeds of which would benefit the depositors of closed state banks."

The Iowa attorney general's opinion, Dawes said, was that the state banking commissioner could borrow from the corporation, pledging the assets of the closed bank.

CORRECTION

In announcement of the $200 prize award for the best original poem submitted to the school of letters by April 15. The Daily Iowan stated yesterday that the competition was open to an undergraduate student. The competition is also open to graduate students, with the exception of graduate assistants.

Salaries Biggest Item

DES MOINES (AP)—The cost of auditing accounts of institutions under the state board of education so far has cost $37,862.41. Salaries form the largest expense item in the audit.

Muscantine Ministers Group Meets in Old Capitol for Session

The Ministerial association of Muscatine county met yesterday in the senate chamber of Old Capitol under the auspices of the school of religion.

Dean George F. Kay of the college of liberal arts gave an address of welcome. Prof. Charles E. Hawley of the school of religion lead the morning discussion on "The religious approach to individuals."

The Rev. William P. Lemon, rector of the First Presbyterian church, talked on religious books of use to the pastor during a noon luncheon at Iowa Union.

The Rev. Richard E. McEvoy, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, opened the afternoon meeting, speaking on "Making God real in worship." The remainder of the afternoon was spent in a general discussion on the subject of worship, with Prof. M. Willard Lampe of the school of religion presiding. The conference closed with a talk by Prof. William H. Morgan of the school of religion.

The meeting was attended by men of 15 different denominations. Plans were made to appoint a committee which will have charge of another similar meeting.

Officers Find New Clues in Boone Killing

BOONE, March 12 (AP)—Reports of fingerprints were awaited by officers here as clues in the slaying of Tom N. Lewis, 55, by a supposed burglar.

Lewis died early today from an abdominal bullet wound inflicted Thursday night when the assailant entered the Boone high school building, where Lewis was watchman, ostensibly to steal receipts of a basketball tournament.

The masked man, surprised at seeing Lewis, ordered the watchman to "put 'em up," but did not wait for compliance before he shot twice. Lewis fired one bullet at the fleeing intruder.

The widow and two sons, Harry, a student in John Fletcher college, and Charles, Boone high school student, survive. Lewis served a congregation in the local reorganized church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

Iowa Speech Meet Closes

CEDAR FALLS, March 12 (AP)—Simpson college today won first in the men's division and John Fletcher college first in the women's division in the all-events class in the state wide public speaking tournament of the Forensic Association of Iowa colleges.

Announcement of awards tonight ended the four day tourney. State Teachers college won second and Dubuque university third in the men's division in the all-events class with Morningside college winning second in the women's division.

Two Enter Legislative Ring

DES MOINES (AAP)—O. T. Roe of Waukon, Democrat, and H. E. Carroll of Keosauqua, Republican, obtained nomination papers for state representative and senator, respectively.

SKIPPY—"Food" for Thought

Percy L. Crosby, Great Britain rights reserved. © 1932, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

3.14

Local G.O.P.

(Continued from page 1)

pointed out that the last time the county went Republican before 1920 was the election of Gen. U. S. Grant to the presidency.

Republican Since 1920

"Since 1920," he said, "the county has voted Republican for every president, and not only that, it is going to vote that way this election."

Mrs. Mabel Volland said that the reason for the change in party power was the advent of women voters in 1920. She placed emphasis on the belief that the women voters would again elect Hoover to the presidency.

Henry G. Walker, in speaking before the assembly, stated that the party was going to be under fire during the coming campaign, and that each and every one would have to work for the party.

"It would be a misfortune," he said, "if the people of this country should ever lose faith in the national leader, President Hoover. He has been the best and most capable president the country has ever had, and it is our place to re-elect him."

Mrs. Putnam suggested that the entire county Republican organization hold a series of good will meetings and parties for the furthering of Republican popularity.

Local Demo

(Continued from page 1)

Korab, G. W. Schmidt, Clara M. Daley, F. J. Seeman, Alma B. Hovey, Mrs. Albert F. Vogt, S. E. Sloan, Robert H. Lorenz, E. C. Houser, J. E. Holub.

Third Ward

Third ward: Joseph Kanak, chairman; Patrick Dooley, secretary; delegates: Charles Slavata, chairman, Edward Sybil, W. J. Hayek, Leo Kohl, William Vitosh, R. P. White, Charles Chansky, Joseph Kanak, Charles Chudek, Frank Burger, Mrs. Anna Bittner.

Arthur Parizek, W. J. White, Frank Shimitz, Charles Beckman, P. A. Dooley, William Kanak, Mrs. Thomas Walsh, Mrs. Sam Whiting, J. J. Meyers, Clara Patter, George Grandner, W. P. Sheridan, and James Sullivan.

Fourth ward: D. F. Fitzpatrick, chairman; F. B. Volkringer, secretary; delegates: C. K. Hurd, C. A. Bauer, D. F. Fitzpatrick, F. B. Volkringer, Mrs. Glenn Lantz, Nell Murphy, M. F. Lumsden, Chris Seiner, W. F. Murphy, Paul Schmidt, W. R. Hart, Mrs. M. D. Malone, Mrs. W. H. Donovan, C. R. Sherck, George Dohrer, A. J. Huff, Mrs. Al Horabin, W. R. Livingston, Harry Shulman, Mrs. Frank Unrath, Miss Edith Koontz, J. M. Tobin, Grover

State G.O.P.

(Continued from page 1)

of each faction came to a climax yesterday when the state committee announced the state of delegates to the party's national convention. It was composed entirely of candidates pledged to Smith.

The leaders of the Roosevelt forces were hastily summoned and they finally offered to withhold the filing of an opposition slate if the state committee would agree to send the Massachusetts delegates to the convention pledged to Smith unless released and thereafter pledged to Roosevelt. They gave the committee until 5 p.m. today to accept the offer.

Then the Roosevelt supporters, gathered in Mayor Curley's office, announced it had been decided, in view of the action of the state committee in ignoring their proposal, to file a slate of Roosevelt-pledged candidates. They said Governor Roosevelt had wired his consent to such an action earlier in the day in anticipation of the state committee's failure to entertain their offer.

Kidnaping

(Continued from page 1)

back, America's baby. Colonel Lindbergh will do nothing to prosecute them. I guarantee they will not be prosecuted—and as I said before my life is behind that guarantee."

Rosner said he was formerly a government agent and that he was recommended to the Lindberghs by Senator Elmer Thomas of Oklahoma and "others high in the political life of the nation."

Uses Limousine

He arrived at his apartment in a

Iowa Schools Attend Seals Club Tourney

Seals club members were hostesses to 120 persons yesterday at a water playday for high school students from Iowa City and nearby towns and cities. Sixty of those attending swam in the meet which took place in the morning.

Representatives of high schools in Muscatine, Wapello, Grinnell, Clinton, Ottumwa, Davenport, Cedar Rapids and Iowa City were placed on color teams, and these teams competed in the various events, instead of the groups from each school acting as units.

The blue team, with 35 points, won the meet, with the red team second; the white, third; and the green, fourth. Events were: for advanced swimmers—20 yard free style; crawl for form; and diving; for intermediates—side stroke for form and dog paddle; for both groups—medley balloon relay.

Luncheon was served the visitors at Youde's inn at noon, with recreation hour afterward at the women's gymnasium.

A water program by members of the Seals club was given in the afternoon. Floating, stunts, form swimming, diving, and racing events were demonstrated. Races were: 20 yard free style; dog paddle; and medley—breast stroke, back crawl, and free style.

Helen Fabricius, A4 of Davenport, was in charge of the meet.

Japan Court to Punish Beater

Consulate Announces Penalty for Attack on Teacher

SHANGHAI, March 12 (AP)—The Japanese consulate announced today that a 15-day jail sentence had been imposed on a Japanese civilian responsible for the beating administered a week ago to Rose Marlowe, an American missionary teacher.

In a letter to the United States consulate, the Japanese authorities expressed regret about the incident and asserted they had warned their nationals against any repetition.

Reports from the front indicated everything was quiet but the Japanese were moving in large reinforcement units with great quantities of war material.

The troop movement was impeded by a torrential rainstorm, the first of the spring downpours on which the Chinese had depended for assistance in their defense action.

Coach

(Continued from page 1)

He started his coaching career in Minneapolis, his home, and later came to Des Moines as coach at East High.

After a period of service at Luther college he was signed by Grinnell, but the World war prevented his serving there, as he joined the United States army.

At Drake Since 1921

He came to Drake in the fall of 1921 as head football and basketball coach. Three years later, when Kenneth L. Wilson went to Northwestern, Solem was named director of athletics, and relinquished his basketball duties.

Teams coached by Solem were Missouri Valley conference champions in 1928, 1929, and 1931, and tied with Oklahoma A. & M. in 1930. No other Missouri Valley conference team has won the football championship.

Against Missouri Valley and Big Six conference opponents, Solem's teams won 36, lost 15 and tied two for a percentage of .706. Total points were 697 and 347.

Solem always scheduled stiff competition for his teams. Drake in those eleven years met 35 different institutions, among them such teams as Notre Dame, Pittsburgh, Southern Methodist, Navy, Minnesota, Oregon, Florida, Fordham, and Hawaii. Drake has been on the Notre Dame schedule for the last six years.

Solem is known to have refused offers to become head coach at three Big Ten universities within the last ten years. He preferred to remain at Drake because of the expansion

Bridge Club to Meet

(Continued from page 1)

The 4-in-hand Bridge club will meet tomorrow at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Rex Day, 727 Rundell street. Four tables of bridge will be played.

Would You Pay $40.00 for a Hamilton Watch That Formerly Sold for $57.00? If So—It Is Yours.

New prices on many wrist and pocket Hamiltons.

FUIKS' JEWELER AND OPTICIAN

Use the Want Ads

DON'T FORGET . . .

Easter is only two weeks away. Come in now while our stock is complete for your inspection.

"Go to Wieneke's First"

WIENEKE'S

ARCADE BOOKSTORE

114 E. Washington

ROAST CHICKEN—INDIVIDUAL
ROAST PORK DINNERS TODAY!
 Dinners delivered at no extra charge. Phone 551.

IOWA DRUG STORE
 Phone 551      Opposite Post Office

NOTICE
Iowa City Merchants

It is impossible for Booth Committee on Better Homes Show to contact all merchants.

Therefore we hereby notify you that there are 12 $15.00 Booths left, and we will have to adopt the plan of first come first served.

If interested get in touch with Dave Crum immediately—Phone 40.

BOOTH COMMITTEE.

When The Sun Sets--

That's the time for you to start for the UNION SUNPORCH—Your Sunday evening meal is there ready for you.

Sunday noon dinner in the main dining room down stairs. Sunday evening meals on Sunporch only.

IOWA UNION DINING SERVICE

ON THE BANKS OF THE IOWA

We Apologize—

Due to an extended engagement at Hot Springs, Arkansas, Slatz Randall and his Orchestra will not be available for the Mecca Ball, next Friday night.

★ ★ ★ ★

The Committee has made every possible effort to secure a good band for this party and, has, on the basis of high recommendations, selected

Fritz Miller
 and his
MANHATTAN SERENADERS

Here are the recommendations—they've played extended engagements at:

THE DRAKE HOTEL—CHICAGO
 TRIANON AND ARAGON BALLROOMS—CHICAGO
 GRAYSTONE HOTEL—CINCINNATI

Tickets Go On Sale Tuesday
 For The
MECCA BALL
 (Informal)

TICKETS—$1.50      UNION

Indiana Wins Big Ten Track Title; Michigan Takes Swim Meet, Iowa Third

Iowa Counts Eight Points to Get Sixth

Brocksmith of Indiana Shatters Marks in Mile, 2 Mile

CHICAGO, March 12 (AP)—Five records went tumbling as Indiana, by the slim margin of five-sixths of a point, won the Western conference indoor track and field championships tonight for the first time in the history of the Big Ten.

The Hoosiers amassed a total of 27 5-6 points to triumph over Michigan, which finished second with 27. Minnesota was third with 12, Illinois fourth with 10 2-3, and Wisconsin fifth with 10. The balance of the points were divided as follows: Iowa, 8; Ohio State, 7; Purdue, 4 1-2; Chicago, 3. Northwestern failed to score.

The triumphant Hoosiers scored in six of the ten events, with their amazing young distance runner, Henry Brocksmith, winning two—the mile and two mile runs, and establishing records, one that stood for six years, in both races.

Brocksmith became a leading contender for Olympic honors by reeling off the mile in 4:12 5-10, setting a new conference indoor record, and then winning the two mile in record-smashing time of 9:18 4-10. Beecher was the other Hoosier star to capture a first place by his victory in the vault.

Clarence Munn, the big Minnesota guard of all-American football fame, joined in the record breaking by tossing the 16 pound shot out into the atmosphere for a distance of 43 feet, 9 1-2 inches. This eclipsed the previous record established by Sammy Behr of Wisconsin by a quarter of an inch.

Any chance for a new record in the 70 yard hurdles was eliminated when Jack Keller, blonde Ohio State star, regarded as the best collegiate hurdler in the country, was disqualified in the semifinals for knocking over two hurdles. George Saling of Iowa won the event in :08 7-10, breaking the tape a foot ahead of Jack Black of Ohio State.

Not to be outdone in the record breaking, Captain Edwin Russell of Michigan, defending 440 yard champion, clipped a tenth of a second off the quarter mile mark of :50 1-10 hung up by Baird of Iowa in 1928. The Wolverine trailed Fuqua of Indiana throughout the first lap, then cut loose with a burst of speed which carried him 70 yards ahead of the field. Indiana's chances of winning the meet went glimmering when De Baker of Michigan fought his way into second place to beat out Fuqua. Russell's time was 50 seconds flat.

440 yard run—won by Russell, Michigan; second, De Baker, Michigan; third, Fuqua, Indiana; fourth, Teitelbaum, Ohio State. Time :50 (new conference indoor record; former record of :50 1-10 made in Iowa 1931).

Two mile run—won by Brocksmith, Indiana; second, Watson, Indiana; third, Wright, Wisconsin; fourth, Howell, Michigan. Time 9:18 4-10 (new conference indoor record; former record of 9:26 4-10 made by Chapman, Wisconsin in 1926).

60 yard dash—won by Renwick, Michigan; second, Thompson, Minnesota; third, Campbell, Michigan; fourth, Keller, Ohio State. Time :08 2-10 (the world's and conference indoor record).

Shot put—won by Munn, Minnesota (48 feet 9 1-2 inches); second, Cook, Illinois (46 feet 8 1-2 inches); third, Brooks, Michigan, (44 feet 2 3-4 inches); fourth, Purma, Illinois, (44 feet 1 3-4 inches); (new conference indoor record; former record of 48 feet 9 1-4 inches made by Behr, Wisconsin in 1931).

70 yard high hurdles—won by Saling, Iowa; second, Jack Black, Ohio State; third, Roy Black, Chicago; fourth, Eggleston, Michigan. Time :08 7-10.

One mile run—won by Brocksmith, Indiana; second, Woolsey, Illinois; third, Popejoy, Purdue; fourth, Neese, Indiana. Time 4:12 5-10 (new conference indoor record; former record of 4:21 6-10 made by Letts, Chicago, in 1931).

Half mile run—won by Hornbostel, Indiana; second, Turner, Michigan; third, Brown, Ohio State; fourth, Smith, Illinois. Time 1:57 1-10.

One mile relay—won by Michigan (Lemen, Ellerby, De Baker, Russell); second, Iowa; third, Illinois; fourth, Chicago. Time 3:23 1-10. (New conference record; former record of 3:24 2-10 made by Iowa in 1928).

High Jump—won by Murphy, Wisconsin (6 feet 2 1-4 inches); second, Shaw, Wisconsin (6 feet 1 1-4 inches); Hackle, Minnesota and Beecher, Indiana, tied for third at 6 feet 1 1-4 inch.

Pole vault—won by Beecher, Indiana (13 feet, 8 inches); Hess, Minnesota and Hollingsworth, Purdue, tied for second and third. (13 feet, 4 inches); Divich, Indiana, Lemington and Schiansker, Illinois, tied for fourth (13 feet).

Easy Day for Phils
WINTERHAVEN, Fla., March 12 (AP)—Forced by rain to give up two exhibition skirmishes in as many days, the Phils passed the time with mild exercises today.

Sportively Speaking

By Bill Rulledge

The prospect of places on the United States Olympic track team this summer is probably the incentive that spurred on track stars in the Big Ten, Big Six, and Central indoor meets last night. Old Man Record took some awful batterings in the meets, especially in the Western conference carnival. The hardest blow was delivered by Alex Wilson of Notre Dame, when he cracked the world 440 yard dash mark.

On the basis of last night's track results, the following nominations for Uncle Sam's cinder squad are made:
From Iowa: Capt. George Saling, who took first in the high hurdles.

From Indiana: This country's squad wouldn't be complete without Harry Brocksmith, Indiana's sensational distance runner, who cuts time off Big Ten records in nine and eight full seconds slices.

From Michigan: Jim Renwick, soph speedster who equaled the world 60 yard dash mark last night. Renwick is making fans forget all about George Simpson and Eddie Tolan. Also include the Wolverines' mile relay quartet, which manifested a fondness for snipping records.

That's not all for Michigan. One mustn't overlook Capt. Edwin Russell, who erased the 440 yard mark for the Big Ten established in 1928 by George Baird.

From Minnesota: Clarence Munn, the conference's best shot putter and creator of new record.

The Big Ten basketball season just closed was about the roughest in the history of the conference. A total of 1,377 fouls were called during the campaign. The highest single game number was called in the Iowa-Chicago game at Chicago, when 42 persons were assessed and four players ejected.

The most important week of the year is just ahead of the local St. Mary's basketball team. The chance for national prominence is theirs as the national parochial tourney opens at Loyola university, Chicago.

Phi Chi Six Loses First in Volleyball

In winning over the strong Phi Chi six yesterday afternoon, the Gamma Alpha's showed promise that they are going to be among the strong contenders of the interfraternity volleyball league. This was the Gamma Alpha's third consecutive victory and the first setback for Phi Chi. The score was 7-15, 15-7 and 15-10.

The Theta Tau's have been losing some close battles, and finally came through with a win, setting the Delta Chi's down 15-10, 9-15 and 15-7.

Like the other two victors Delta Tau Delta was forced to go three games before turning back the Sigma Alpha Epsilon men. These two teams were the closest; matched of the afternoon. The score was 15-6, 10-15 and 15-11.

Two games were forfeited. Phi Epsilon Kappa walking to Sigma Nu and Phi Beta Delta and Alpha Tau Omega both failed to show up.

Only two fraternities have entered the water polo tourney to date. Managers have until tomorrow night to get their entry blanks in to "Dad" Schroeder. The water game will start shortly after the spring vacation.

Quad Volleyball Loop Enters Second Round Tomorrow; 2 Tilts

The second round of the Quadrangle volleyball league will be run off tomorrow night at the field house with Sections A and C vying for wins and the crack Section B lowers mixing it with Section D. The games are slated to begin at 7:30 sharp.

The rough edges of most of the Quad volleyball aspirants were rounded off in the games last Friday night and with a little practice there will be some smooth working sides in action in these forthcoming contests. Substitutions were frequent in the opening round in an attempt by various coaches to ascertain the respective merits of the players but regular teams are on deck as the season progresses.

Illini Win Fencing
CHICAGO, March 12 (AP)—Illini, by taking first in the foil, sabre and epee, won the Western conference fencing meet at the University of Chicago tonight with 15 points.

St. Mary's Accepts Invitation to National Meet

Gaulocher to Make Second Trip to Meet

Eight Ramblers Leave Wednesday to Play at Loyola

By RON TALLMAN
Their second national basketball tournament in three seasons of competition was definitely assured the St. Mary's high school basketball team when the invitation given it to compete in the national Catholic tourney at Loyola university was accepted.

In a long distance telephone conversation with tournament officials yesterday noon, the Rev. Rev. Msgr. A. J. Schulte accepted the bid which will send Coach Francis Suenkel, Rev. Walter Boeckmann and eight Rambler players to Chicago to participate in the meet which is scheduled to open Wednesday evening.

When the Ramblers came through to finish as runner-up in state parochial finals at Ft. Dodge the first of last week, they earned the right to enter the national competition as one of the 32 teams representing the nation.

Leave Wednesday
While there is some doubt as to when they play their first round game and as to what team will be their opponent, it is generally believed that the Ramblers will meet Bishop England high of Charleston, S. C., Thursday evening at 7 o'clock and that St. Ambrose of Davenport, Iowa champions, will play Father Ryan high of Nashville, Tenn., in the 9 o'clock game Wednesday night.

The St. Mary's outfit will move into the Windy City early Wednesday morning. Free living accommodations for the team is provided by the tournament headquarters, but local support will be needed to obtain transportation to and from Chicago for the Ramblers.

Four Freshmen
The squad that Coach Suenkel will take with him is made up of Capt. Leo Gaulocher, Ralph Lumsden, Bob Bradley, Joe Maher, Vic Belger, Jerry Pooler, Dick Lumsden, and John Vogt. Four members of the team—Maher, Belger, Pooler and Dick Lumsden—are freshmen.

For Captain Gaulocher, it will be his second trip to Chicago with Coach Suenkel, having been a member of the St. Mary's team that two years ago went into Stage's invitation tournament at the University of Chicago.

Hoosiers Get 4 Conference Mat Crowns

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., March 12 (AP)—Indiana university tonight captured its second successive Big Ten wrestling championship by winning four individual conference titles, compared with three for Illinois, the only other undefeated team.

Northwestern's defending champion, Brown, in the 175-pound class, won the remaining division to be the only 1931 champion to repeat.

In the semi-finals Johnson of Iowa won a decision over Reichbauer of Ohio State in an overtime period. Parmenter, Hawkeye 126 pounder, was thrown by Emmons of Illinois in nine minutes 30 seconds.

Iowans Take Seventh Area Rifle Crown

With a total of 7,681 out of a possible 8,000 points, University of Iowa rifle men took the 1932 seventh corps area postal championship, according to an announcement received here yesterday from the corps area commander.

Hawk shooters not only took the team championship, but also four out of the five first places in the individual ratings, with Robert C. Ellis, Mark W. Heskett, Vincent Allison, and Wayne Eckhardt taking first, second, third, and fifth places respectively.

By virtue of its victory the Iowa squad will be one of the six teams to represent the seventh corps area at the national intercollegiate matches to be held at Urbana, Ill., Feb. 19. The University of Minnesota, University of Nebraska, University of Missouri, South Dakota State, and North Dakota Agricultural college will also be entered from this area.

Another cage star, Mike Riegert, is expected to report for practice tomorrow. Riegert will try out for the center field position, although last season he played at shortstop where he batted .240.

Coach Vogel has been correcting the pitching faults of Wayne Hein, a senior from Erie, Ill. Hein has terrific speed for a few innings and it may be that he is being groomed for a relief hurler's job.

Giants Even Series; Nip Cubs, 8 to 6

Hammer Root, Malone for Dozen Hits in Exhibition

LOS ANGELES, March 12 (AP)—New York's Giants evened their exhibition series with the Chicago Cubs at two all today by pouncing the veteran Charles Root and Pat Malone for a dozen hits to win, 8 to 6.

Fred Fitzsimmons, Jim Mooney and Clarence Hubbell held the Cubs to eight hits, with Mooney getting credit for the victory. The Giants hit three home runs, Bill Terry, Johnny Vergez and Francis Healy being the heavy batsmen.

Card Regulars Ready
BRADENTON, Fla., March 12 (AP)—Bill Hallahan, Sylvester Johnson and Paul Derringer, three first line pitchers who scored 43 victories for the Cardinals in their 1931 pennant drive, will make their first appearance of the new season on the hurling hill tomorrow when they face the Phillies at Winterhaven.

Pirates Take Road
SAN FRANCISCO, March 12 (AP)—Pittsburgh's frisky Pirates came to town tonight from their training camp at Paso Robles, all set for a 10 days barnstorming campaign. They will meet Oak's, the Seals and the Missions, all of the Pacific Coast league, and the Chicago Cubs of the National.

Play Basketball
CLEARWATER, Fla., March 12 (AP)—Except for a few who took a rainy day workout by playing basketball, the Brooklyn Dodgers had nothing much to do today.

Cards Fail to Hit Stride of Last Season
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 12 (AP)—Aside from the unexpected blow the weather dealt this week to all the major league baseball clubs training in the south, the outstanding wallops appear so far to have been absorbed by the world champion Cardinals.

It was embarrassing enough when Pepper Martin struck out three times in his first game of 1932. Likewise, it was disconcerting when Dizzy Dean, of whose pitching prowess so much has been broadcast, fell a victim to the Athletic's barrage of home runs, and the A's wound up with two triumphs in the first three exhibition games of the spring work series.

The situation became actually mortifying, however, when St. Louis was handed the whitewash brush by Cincinnati, the cellar club of the National league.

On top of all this, Charley Gelbert, the shortstop that the Cardinals need no more than their right eyes, has remained the most stubborn of holdouts. So has Chick Hafey, the league batting champion.

Washington U. Wins Valley Swimming Title; Gets 5 Firsts

ST. LOUIS, March 12 (AP)—Doubling the score of its nearest opponent, Washington university today won its second successive Missouri Valley conference swimming championship, scoring firsts in five of the nine events. Washington scored 58 points. The Oklahoma Aggies were second with 29 points while Grinnell scored 20 and Creighton 10. Drake, the other conference member, did not compete in the meet.

Henry's Win A.A.U. Cage Title for Third Season in Succession
KANSAS CITY, March 12 (AP)—The Wichita, Kans., Henry's won their third consecutive A.A.U. national basketball title by defeating the Northwest Missouri Teachers of Maryville 15 to 14 in the finals of the annual tournament here tonight.

In winning tonight the Henry's established a new A.A.U. record for consecutive championships.

Weather Slows Yanks
WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., March 12 (AP)—Except for the illness of Sam Gray and a sore arm reported by George Blasholder, the Browns pitching staff is far advanced in its spring development.

Another day or two of hot weather and they will all be curving the ball, said Manager Bill Killefer as he watched today's brief practice.

Tigers Win, 7-6
SAN FRANCISCO, March 12 (AP)—Coming from behind in the eighth inning with a two-run rally, the Detroit Tigers defeated the San Francisco Missions 7-6 today in an exhibition game.

Vic Sorrell, regular right hander, went into the game in the eighth and blanked the Coast league team for two frames.

Prep District Tourney Results

(Note: Class A is represented (A) and class B (B).)

AT MARSHALLTOWN
Marshalltown 22; Iowa Falls 12 (A).
Wellsburg 32; Lehigh 21 (B).

AT BOONE
Roosevelt (Des Moines) 21; Boone 11 (A).
Dexter 19; Boxholm 13 (B).

AT SIOUX CITY
Central high (Sioux City) 23; Holstein 15 (A).
Bronson 26; Sulphur Springs 13 (B).

SEMI-FINALS
AT OTTUMWA
Liberty Center 22; Bondurant 20. Olds 18; Kalona 15.

AT COUNCIL BLUFFS
Diagonal 27; Prescott 24.
Treyner 27; Elk Horn 18.

AT SIOUX CITY
Bronson 36; Biencoe 15.
Sulphur Springs 30; Boyden 16.

Roosevelt Hi, Des Moines, Upsets Boone
DES MOINES, March 12 (AP)—Roosevelt high of Des Moines stamped itself as leading contender for the prep cage championship of Iowa tonight, eliminating the defending titleholder, Boone, by a 21 to 11 score in the sixth district final.

Leading 12 to 3 at the half, the Roughriders easily avenged their one-point defeat by the Treadors in the semi-finals of the state tournament last year. The battle was purely defensive, the losers scoring only four baskets during the fray.

Davenport high, twice state champions, figure to be one of Roosevelt's chief rivals, easily disposing of Williamsburg on the home floor, 36 to 23.

Washington high of Cedar Rapids earned the right to compete in the state tournament by upsetting West Waterloo in a sensational game, 29 to 24. Schneider caged 10 points for the winners.

A powerful team from the northwest, Central high of Sioux City, won a 23 to 15 contest from the fighting Holstein quintet in the class A final at Sioux City.

The state high school basketball championship will be decided March 17-19 at the Drake field house here when 18 schools, survivors of the eight district meets, clash in the final test.

Washington U. Wins Valley Swimming Title; Gets 5 Firsts
ST. LOUIS, March 12 (AP)—Doubling the score of its nearest opponent, Washington university today won its second successive Missouri Valley conference swimming championship, scoring firsts in five of the nine events. Washington scored 58 points. The Oklahoma Aggies were second with 29 points while Grinnell scored 20 and Creighton 10. Drake, the other conference member, did not compete in the meet.

Henry's Win A.A.U. Cage Title for Third Season in Succession
KANSAS CITY, March 12 (AP)—The Wichita, Kans., Henry's won their third consecutive A.A.U. national basketball title by defeating the Northwest Missouri Teachers of Maryville 15 to 14 in the finals of the annual tournament here tonight.

In winning tonight the Henry's established a new A.A.U. record for consecutive championships.

Weather Slows Yanks
WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., March 12 (AP)—Except for the illness of Sam Gray and a sore arm reported by George Blasholder, the Browns pitching staff is far advanced in its spring development.

Another day or two of hot weather and they will all be curving the ball, said Manager Bill Killefer as he watched today's brief practice.

Tigers Win, 7-6
SAN FRANCISCO, March 12 (AP)—Coming from behind in the eighth inning with a two-run rally, the Detroit Tigers defeated the San Francisco Missions 7-6 today in an exhibition game.

Vic Sorrell, regular right hander, went into the game in the eighth and blanked the Coast league team for two frames.

Lobdell Gets Diving Title Third Time

Capt. McGuire Fourth in 100 Yard Free Style Race

COLUMBUS, O., March 12 (AP)—A well balanced university of Michigan swimming team placed men in every event of the program and successfully defended its Big Ten championship tonight by piling up a total of 42 points. Northwestern finished second with 29 and Iowa third with 13.

Three Western conference marks went by the boards, including that of the 100 yard free style, the oldest record on the books in the league. Wilcox of Northwestern clipped eight tenths of a second off the time made by Darnell of Michigan in 1927 when he finished in 53 seconds flat.

Relay Mark Shattered
Johnny Schmeller, of Michigan, shattered his own Big Ten mark in 220 yard free style by one tenth of a second, making the distance in 2:17.3.

The Michigan medley relay team, composed of Drysdale, Lemak, and Kennedy accounted for the other cracked record, swimming the distance in 3:10.4. The old time was 3:12.8 made by Michigan in 1931.

Wentworth Lobdell of Iowa, set two new marks in the fancy diving event, one by winning the championship for the third successive year and secondly by piling up the amazing total of 119.9 points, edging out Dick Degener of Michigan by a little more than seven points.

Won Five Firsts
The Wolverines won five first places in the eight event program to have clear sailing; Northwestern took two firsts and Iowa one. By virtue of several seconds and thirds, Minnesota finished fourth with 12 points and Ohio and Illinois tied for fifth with five each. Purdue, Chicago and Indiana failed to score while Wisconsin was not represented.

The final summaries:
400 yard relay: won by Northwestern (Collet, Troup, Highland and Wilcox; second, Iowa; third, Michigan; fourth, Minnesota. Time 3:44.7.

440 yard free style—Won by Christy, Michigan; second, Kennedy, Michigan; third, Brock, Illinois; fourth, Wilson, Northwestern. Time 5:08.

100 yard free style—Won by Wilcox, Northwestern; second, Highland, Northwestern; third, Schmeller, Michigan; fourth, McGuire, Iowa. Time 53 seconds. (New Western conference record. Old record, 53.8 seconds, set by Darnell, Michigan, in 1927).

220-yard free style—Won by Schmeller, Michigan; second, Brock, Illinois; third, Wilson, Northwestern; fourth, Wilcox, Northwestern; time 2:17.3. (New Western conference record. Old record 2:17.4, made by Schmeller in 1931).

300-yard medley relay—Won by Michigan (Drysdale, Lemak and Kennedy); second, Northwestern; time 3:14.4. (New Western conference record. Old record 3:12.6 made by Michigan in 1931).

150 yard back stroke—Won by Drysdale, Michigan; second, Moulton, Minnesota; third, Sela, Ohio State; fourth, Murphy, Northwestern. Time 1:44.

Fancy diving—Won by Lobdell, defending champion, Iowa; 119.9 points; second, Degener, Michigan, 111.65 points; third, Willard, Northwestern, 109.25 points; fourth, McCloy, Iowa, 102.1 points.

220-yard free style—Won by Schmeller, Michigan; second, Brock, Illinois; third, Wilson, Northwestern; fourth, Wilcox, Northwestern; time 2:17.3. (New Western conference record. Old record 2:17.4, made by Schmeller in 1931).

300-yard medley relay—Won by Michigan (Drysdale, Lemak and Kennedy); second, Northwestern; time 3:14.4. (New Western conference record. Old record 3:12.6 made by Michigan in 1931).

150 yard back stroke—Won by Drysdale, Michigan; second, Moulton, Minnesota; third, Sela, Ohio State; fourth, Murphy, Northwestern. Time 1:44.

Fancy diving—Won by Lobdell,

Alex Wilson Breaks 440 Yard Mark

Notre Dame Triumphs in Central Indoor Track Meet

SOUTH BEND, Ind., March 12 (AP)—Led by Alex Wilson's record breaking performance in the 440 yard dash, Notre Dame today won the annual Central Intercollegiate conference indoor track meet, nosing out the well balanced Michigan Normal team, 26.7 to 22.6. Marquette finished third, Kansas State Teachers fourth, and Drake university fifth.

Wilson, member of the 1928 Canadian Olympic team, ran away from a fast field in the quarter mile to break the existing world's indoor record by three-tenths of a second. His time was 49.3. Tom Halprin's record time at Buffalo, N. Y. in 1913 was 49.6 seconds.

Wilson, grabbing the lead from the start, led Arnold of Michigan Normal who finished second, by 15 yards at the finish.

Ralph Metcalfe, Marquette sprinter, equaled the world's mark of 6.2 seconds for the 60 yard dash. He nosed out Captain Bill McCormick of Notre Dame.

Charlie Dues, giant Negro from City College of Detroit, broke the meet record in the shot put with a heave of 47 feet, 9 7-8 inches.

Wilson shattered the conference half mile record by winning the event in 1:57, two seconds faster than the mark he established last year.

Nelson of Butler and Schroeder of Kansas State Teachers tied for a new conference mark in the high jump, both clearing the bar at 6 feet, 4 7-8 inches.

One of the biggest upsets of the meet was the defeat of Clark Chamberlain in the two mile race. Dick Pilbrow, Grinnell, made a great sprint on the final lap to beat out Michigan State's national champion by four yards.

Twins Play Game
BOONE (AP)—Scott and Watt Keister, twins, starred in a basketball game, even though their brother George had died shortly before from burns received in an oil explosion.

Will be on display of the home in the home in natural to 4 p.m. to the exhibit of art pottery to a large number of china ware.

The collection of the home of the Iowa Peaches.

Mrs. J. W. curator of a lecture to room 102 of ing.

Following picture will manufacture with explanation of company, S. Y. is invited.

Martin T. Botan

"Lakeside is the subject given by Prof. the botany Botany club pan.

Professor courses incl. zoology which graduate student year of either lecture will

CO

9:5

10:4

Fift

Cho

6:30

"How

Would You Believe It?
This New Hat Costs But $3.50

Besides fitting your head, this hat fits the plans that are being made and carried out by Iowa men.

You are asking more change back from every dollar . . . and this hat knows it. You were, for awhile there, thinking of getting along with your old hat . . . and this hat knew that too.

It's a value that was built to MAKE YOU BUY.

Styleparks at $5, too.

COASTS'

Visitors Will See Ancient, Odd Motors

Mecca Exhibit Includes Edison's First Motor Generator

An electrical wizard named Edison started the manufacture of motor generators in the '90s. Electricity began to come into more or less general use at the turn of the century and by 1905, Edison's invention, the electric light, had found its way into many homes.

Reminiscent of this period in the development of one of the greatest industries of today, are the old electrical machines that electrical engineers will show to visitors at the Mecca exhibition, in the electrical engineering building, Saturday, March 19, 1 to 5 p.m.

The prize of the lot of ancient machinery is one of Edison's first motor generators which bears the number 129 and was one of the first turned out in the old Edison Machine Works. It dates back to the early '90s.

An old Westinghouse generator, now of only historical significance, but of real value in its day, is in a somewhat battered but still serviceable condition. Early days in the electrical industry were noted for the rivalry between the various makers of electrical equipment and this makes a comparison of these two types of generators of even more interest.

The collection is rounded out by various meters of antique design but each representing a milestone in electrical progress. Besides the generators and meters, there are also a number of old motors which will be shown to the visitors.

In addition, there will be shown in operation, series-burning street lights which represent another step in the historical development of the electric light. This collection will be set up and placarded for the convenience of the public, under the direction of Ira P. Piercy, E4 of Adel, who is in charge of exhibits in the electrical engineering building.

Mecca Exhibition to Show Experiment of Sound Conduction

That sound can actually be transmitted over a beam of light will be proved in the electrical engineering building when visitors at the Mecca exhibition will see an experiment performed by Edwin J. O'Brien, E4 of Iowa City.

A phonograph record is set into action and the sound transmitted through an amplifier into a neon lamp which varies in intensity just as the sound does. The light impulses emitted by the tiny neon bulb are then picked up by a photo-electric cell which is very sensitive to light. The light received is amplified by the action of the photo-electric cell.

Variations in the beam of light received by the photo-electric cell are transformed back into sound by the action of the cell and when amplified can be easily heard.

In the setup employed, everyone will be permitted to hear the actual reproduction which has undergone the above process. A telephone receiver will be set up at one end of the room and the sound as transmitted by the beam of light will be picked up and made clearly audible.

Author Will Speak Here

Maurice Hindus Will Tell Experiences in Russia

Maurice Hindus, Russian writer, will lecture on "Russia and the World" March 21 at 8 p.m. in natural science auditorium.

In the lecture, Mr. Hindus will relate his recent experiences in Soviet Russia. For seven months, beginning last June, Mr. Hindus was in Russia checking on the progress of the five-year industrial plan, as well as the scheme of the Russian government to put agriculture on a big business basis.

Although born in Russia, Mr. Hindus is an American citizen, having come to this country at the age of 14. He holds degrees from Colgate and Harvard universities. Last June Colgate conferred upon him an honorary degree.

Mr. Hindus is the author of four books, "The Russian Peasant and the Revolution," and "Broken Earth," deal with the peasants of Russia and their reaction to the revolution. "Humanity Uprooted" deals with the anti-Soviet experiment, and "Red Bread," published last spring, describes the fruits of the revolution so far.

Connoisseurs Disagree on Yardstick of Beauty

NEW YORK—What is beauty—the kind of beauty that makes stage producers fall over each other to secure the services of its fortunate possessor?

Opinion is divided. But the three acknowledged connoisseurs of feminine pulchritude, who stand head and shoulders above their contemporaries, are agreed on one point. Legs.

Time was when decorum forbade allusion to a lady's underpinnings as anything but limbs, but my, what a difference there is between a leg and a limb! The latter merely reaches the ground and supports its owner. Whereas the former pulls the masculine eye like a magnet pulls a needle. Not only that, it extracts from one to six dollars from the masculine pocket for the privilege of feasting his eyes thereon. It is, in fact, the producers' main weapon for breaking down sales resistance.

But shapely legs are not all that is necessary to make a producer pick one girl out of two or three hundred. Florenz Ziegfeld, high priest of pulchritude, whose follies are famous all the world over, demands that the legs he glorifies must support a figure to match. Five feet, five inches, according to the impresario, is the ideal height for aspirants to the ranks of the beautiful belles he has made famous, and who, incidentally, have helped to make him equally famous.

Not do the perfect figure and legs complete the qualifications. Mr. Ziegfeld also demands, and usually gets, a flawless set of features, as he believes that the body of a Venus could not compensate for an unattractive face. Besides physical perfection the candidate who would be glorified must have personality. The phrase "beautiful but dumb" has no place in the Ziegfeld program.

On the other hand, George White, producer of the "Scandals," which are not half as naughty as the name leads one to believe, does not share Mr. Ziegfeld's mania for beauty. Although beauty is desirable, thinks Mr. White, it is nothing without that indefinable something which, for want of a better name, is called charm.

But for all his protestations, Mr. White is also an expert at differentiating between a leg and a mere limb; for all the charm and magnetism in the world would be powerless to entice a single male into his theaters if his lineup of femininity were composed of scrawny, knock-kneed women, charm and magnetism notwithstanding. However, Mr. White saves himself with the cryptic remark that beauty is in the eye of the beholder. The problem then appears to boil down to getting an audience of beholders with the third viewpoint.

The high priest of pulchritude is Earl Carroll, who display of perfect showgirls make up an aggregation called the "Vanities." Mr. Carroll is a firm advocate of beauty unadorned, believing that the cluttering up of the divine feminine form with a lot of draperies is something closely approaching sacrilege. This belief of Mr. Carroll's has caused him no little inconvenience on divers occasions, as certain minions of officialdom do not see eye to eye with the producer in the matter.

Carroll has a rigid standard of beauty. In fact, it would not be an exaggeration to say that he is a fanatic upon the subject of figures—not the mathematical kind. Personality and charm have no place in his list of qualifications for glorification. Perfect legs, perfect face to match, that is what counts even though the owner of all these perfections does not possess a single brain cell.

Auto Breaks Through Ice on North Dakota River; Three Drown

LISBON, N. D., March 12 (AP)—Three young persons drowned early today as an automobile with six occupants, returning from a dance, broke through ice on the Sheyenne river near here.

The three who escaped did so by breaking their way out of the sedan, which fell into seven feet of water.

The victims were Lillian Harné, John Miller and Clinton Seegig, ranging in age from 17 to 29 years. The car fell through on a route in use all winter as a short cut making use of a bridge unnecessary.

Five Faculty Men to Attend Dental Meet

Five members of the University of Iowa faculty will be represented on the program of the American Association of Dental Schools which is scheduled to meet March 21-23 at Columbus, Ohio.

Dean Carl E. Seashore of the graduate college will give a paper, "Sectioning students according to abilities," before the general session March 21.

Dr. Charles L. Drain of the college of dentistry will read a paper March 22 before the preventive and operative dentistry section. His subject will be "Research on control and prevention of dental caries." Before the Prosthetics, crown and bridge section, which meets the same day, Dr. Earl S. Smith of the college of dentistry will present a paper on "Minimal requirements in practical prosthesis preparatory to graduation."

Dr. Alvin W. Bryan, junior dean of the college of dentistry, will give the report of the committee on cost of medical care. Dr. Erling Thoen of that college is chairman of the committee on teaching exhibits.

Alpha Chi Omegas, Pi Phi Leaders in Shuffleboard Games

Leaders in the women's intramural shuffleboard tournament were announced yesterday, following games played last week. Eight teams are undefeated.

Of the first teams, Pi Beta Phi is leading in group one and Alpha Chi Omega in group two. Second team leaders are: group one—Kappa Delta; group two—Sigma Kappa and Chi Omega. Pi Beta Phi is ahead of the other third teams, and Delta Zeta ranks first among both fourth and fifth team groups.

Results Friday were: Kappa Delta second, 60-55; Alpha Chi Omega second, 60-55; Alpha Chi Omega second, 60-55; Alpha Chi Omega second, 60-55.

Art Potteries on Exhibition

200 Pieces, Illustrations in Science Building Display

An exhibition of American pottery will be on display under the auspices of the home economics department in the home economics dining room in natural science building from 9 to 4 p.m. tomorrow.

The exhibit will include 200 pieces of art pottery, representing several state potteries. There will also be a large number of illustrations of china ware.

The collection is being loaned to the home economics department by the Iowa Federation of Women's clubs.

Mrs. J. W. Dixon of Burlington, curator of pottery for the Iowa Federation of Women's clubs, will give a lecture tomorrow at 4 p.m. in room 102 of natural science building.

Following the lecture a moving picture will be given showing the manufacture of pottery in detail with explanatory remarks by J. B. Klaborne of the Onondaga Pottery company, Syracuse, N. Y. The public is invited to attend.

Schantz, Bickley Top Bridge Tourney Play for Thursday Section

Winners in the Thursday-Saturday section of the individual bridge tourney at Iowa Union, who will play the high scores of the Wednesday-Friday group, for the championship are:

Gilbert Schantz, Edward Bickley, 12,730.

Josephine Ball, Anne Spensely, 12,310.

Jimmie McCollister, Charles Oblinger, 10,875.

Dorothy Jane Fluke, Lillian Hall, 10,570.

Scores are based on a total of six games.

The play-off games will be held next Wednesday at 7 p.m. in the women's lounge of Iowa Union. Prizes as announced by the Union Board committee are: first, $7.50; second, $5; third, $4; fourth, $3.

Seven Teams Lead Badminton Tourney

Seven teams are undefeated in the women's intramural badminton tournament which began last week, and will continue throughout this week. Leaders in the various groups, as announced yesterday, are as follows:

First teams, group A—Alpha Delta Pi and Zeta Tau Alpha; group B—Delta Zeta and Delta Delta Delta. Second teams—Delta Delta Delta; third teams—Pi Beta Phi.

Results in Friday's games were: Delta Delta Delta, 21; Pi Beta Phi, 20 (second teams); and Delta Zeta 2, Alpha Delta Pi, 0 (default).

Martin to Address Botanists Wednesday

"Lakeside biological laboratory" is the subject of a lecture to be given by Prof. George W. Martin of the botany department before the Botany club next Wednesday at 4:10 p.m.

Professor Martin will tell of courses including field trips and practical application of botany and zoology which are opened to undergraduate students who have had a year of either biological course. The lecture will be illustrated by slides.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

9:50 A.M.—Student Class

10:45 A.M.—Morning Worship

"The Home as a Life Builder"

Fifth in the series—"The Gospel and Modern Problems"

Chorus Choir and Solo by Mr. Leonard Folkers

6:30 P.M.—Young People's Meeting

"How Far Can We Take the Consequences?"

Mr. Hugh Calderwood, leader

PASTIME THEATRE

COMING Tuesday 25c BARGAIN MATINEE

A Thrilling Gangster Picture With Two Great Stars

Helen Twelvrees

—and—

Recardo Cortez

—in—

"BAD COMPANY"

If you like thrills and action, here 'tis.

—also—

PATHE NEWS

A GOOD COMEDY

EDDIE BUZZELL

In Bedtime Stories

PASTIME THEATRE

TODAY Tomorrow

35c Matinee Today

Constance BENNETT

LADY WITH A PAST

BEN LYON

DAVID MANNERS

Comedy "Wide Open Spaces"

Funny Fables Cartoon Comedy

LENTE SERVICES

St. Paul's Lutheran Chapel
St. Joseph and Gilbert Streets
Julius A. Friedrich, Pastor.
Sunday, March 13
7:30 P.M.

The Person, Office, and Work of Christ.
5. Christ the Savior
Luke 19:10

The Lutheran Church teaches that Jesus Christ, the God-Man, was appointed by God to be the Redeemer, the Savior of all sinners. That is His glorious work. He did not come to give new laws. He is not a social reformer. He did not teach men how to work out their own salvation by works of their own. He came to seek and to save that which was lost. He died for all sinners. He redeemed all sinners. He by His meritorious work of vicarious obedience, suffering and death procured forgiveness of sin, life and salvation for all sinners. For "God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto Himself." This is the Lutheran Church believes and teaches. It is the foundation of her faith. She confesses in her Small Catechism: "I believe that Jesus Christ, true God, begotten of the Father from eternity, and also true man, born of the Virgin Mary, is my Lord, who has redeemed me, a lost and condemned creature, purchased and won me from all sins, from death, and from the power of the devil, not with gold or silver, but with His holy precious blood and with His innocent suffering and death, that I may be His own, and live under Him in His Kingdom, and serve Him in everlasting righteousness, innocence, and blessedness, even as He is risen from the dead, lives and reigns to all eternity. This is most certainly true.

MURDERS IN THE RUE MORGUE

Based on the classic by EDGAR ALLAN POE

BELA LUGOSI (DRACULA)
SIDNEY FOX (STAR OF STRIPES)
ROBERT FLOREY (FRANKENSTEIN)

more weird than DRACULA!
more terrifying than FRANKENSTEIN!

Lloyd Hamilton

"Robinson Crusoe, Jr."

Eddie Buzzell
"Call of the North"

Babe Ruth
"Playing With Babe"

"Idle Roomers"
Comedy

Fox Movietone News

COMING TUESDAY

Long on Stature and Laughs

Charlotte Greenwood

in "Cheaters At Play"

Use the Want Ads

Fletcher Sets Bar Examination Dates

Dates for the state bar examination to be held here were set by Attorney General John Fletcher yesterday for June 13, 14 and 15. Fletcher, ex-officio chairman of the examining board, set the dates back a day from the date set by statute to accommodate university students applying for admission to the bar.

Bar examinations will be conducted in Des Moines June 7, 8 and 9.

STRAND NOW!

Bargain Matinee 25c TODAY Up To 6 P.M.

The Horror Classic Of American Literature!

You've Seen "Dracula," "Jekyll and Hyde," "Frankenstein"

Now Compare Those Hits With—

Read the Book! See the Universal Super-Shocker!

LEADERS IN THE WOMEN'S INTRAMURAL SHUFFLEBOARD TOURNAMENT WERE ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY, FOLLOWING GAMES PLAYED LAST WEEK. EIGHT TEAMS ARE UNDEFEATED.

OF THE FIRST TEAMS, PI BETA PHI IS LEADING IN GROUP ONE AND ALPHA CHI OMEGA IN GROUP TWO. SECOND TEAM LEADERS ARE: GROUP ONE—KAPPA DELTA; GROUP TWO—SIGMA KAPPA AND CHI OMEGA. PI BETA PHI IS AHEAD OF THE OTHER THIRD TEAMS, AND DELTA ZETA RANKS FIRST AMONG BOTH FOURTH AND FIFTH TEAM GROUPS.

RESULTS FRIDAY WERE: KAPPA DELTA SECOND, 60-55; ALPHA CHI OMEGA SECOND, 60-55; ALPHA CHI OMEGA SECOND, 60-55; ALPHA CHI OMEGA SECOND, 60-55.

Read the Book! See the Universal Super-Shocker!

LEADERS IN THE WOMEN'S INTRAMURAL SHUFFLEBOARD TOURNAMENT WERE ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY, FOLLOWING GAMES PLAYED LAST WEEK. EIGHT TEAMS ARE UNDEFEATED.

OF THE FIRST TEAMS, PI BETA PHI IS LEADING IN GROUP ONE AND ALPHA CHI OMEGA IN GROUP TWO. SECOND TEAM LEADERS ARE: GROUP ONE—KAPPA DELTA; GROUP TWO—SIGMA KAPPA AND CHI OMEGA. PI BETA PHI IS AHEAD OF THE OTHER THIRD TEAMS, AND DELTA ZETA RANKS FIRST AMONG BOTH FOURTH AND FIFTH TEAM GROUPS.

RESULTS FRIDAY WERE: KAPPA DELTA SECOND, 60-55; ALPHA CHI OMEGA SECOND, 60-55; ALPHA CHI OMEGA SECOND, 60-55; ALPHA CHI OMEGA SECOND, 60-55.

Morrissey to Report WORCESTER, Mass., March 11 (AP)—Joe Morrissey, who was sold to Cincinnati by St. Paul of the American association last year, and who returned his contract unsigned this year, left Worcester today to join the Reds for spring training at Tampa, Fla. Morrissey still is holding out but will talk salary differences with Manager Dan Howley at the Reds training camp.

TODAY is the naughty day! ... TODAY is the Racy Day!

ENGLERT

First Times Today Last Times Wednesday

"Continuous Shows Today"

★They'll Tell You What They Know of the "Broad" Way on Broadway!

NO METAL COULD TOUCH THEM ... BUT GOLD!

CHARGE! was their BATTLE-CRY! "Cover-Charge" at the Night Clubs—"Counter-Charge" at the stores—

Here's To Our Men Long May They Give!

A matchless, unbelievable howl is this wild moving story of three girls who came to Broadway to have their "breaks" refined. How the men took to them—and how they took the men—these three gorgeous Gold-Diggers ...

WHAT GOWN! Designed and Created by CHANEL of Paris

GREEKS HAD A WORD FOR THEM!

with INA CLAIRE

JOAN BLONDELL MADGE EVANS

Three Grand Girls Who Meet Easily ... Love Lightly ... and Forget Early!

And An Exceptional Musical Skit—SUBWAY SYMPHONY—Ripley's "Believe It Or Not"—Late News

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY "OSBORN'S"

—ENGLERT THEATRE—

"Advance" Showing "Spring Styles" Live Models ... On Stage ... Display—"Nite Show Only"

The Daily Iowan

Published every morning except Monday by Student Publications Incorporated, at 126-130 Iowa avenue, Iowa City, Iowa. Fred M. Fowall, Director.

Board of Trustees: Frank L. Mott, E. M. MacEwen, R. B. Kittredge, Sidney G. Winter, Shirley A. Wolcott, Bailey C. Webber, Jack R. Vollersten, Alfred W. Kahl, Robert J. Gordon.

Harry S. Bunker, General Manager; William T. Hageboeck, Assistant General Manager.

Entered as second class mail matter at the post office at Iowa City, Iowa, under the act of Congress of March 2, 1879. Subscription rates—By mail, $5 per year; by carrier, 15 cents weekly, $5 per year.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of publication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT: Editor John W. Henderson; Managing Editor Frank Jaffe; Assistant Editor H. Bernard Hook; Assistant Editor Philip S. Newsum; City Editor Bennett Burke; Assistant City Editor Frank R. Brownell; Sports Editor William A. Rutledge; Assistant Sports Editor Eugene Thorne; Assistant Sports Editor Colin Goldberg; Campus Editor Alfred Mitchell; Magazine Editor Dorothy Rubenstein.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT: Business Manager Charles L. Johnston; Circulation Manager Francis G. Wilcox; Accountant Agnes W. Schmidt.

TELEPHONE 290; Branch exchange connecting all departments.

SUNDAY, MARCH 13, 1932

Getting Out the Vote

IT'S MORE THAN Sunday in Germany today. Forty-four million voters of the fatherland must choose between Paul von Hindenburg and Adolf Hitler. Election day in Germany is an extra-legal holiday and the Germans have designated Sunday as the time for casting ballots because it is a time when the populace of the nation can best afford to take time out to cast their votes.

Any criticism that the outside world may make on the Sunday election idea will be deflected by Germany on the strength that 80 per cent of the electorate, or about 35,000,000 voters are expected to march to the polls today. At the last presidential election in the United States only about 50 per cent of all eligible voters turned out to signify their interest in the administration of their country.

It may not be necessary to conduct the election on Sunday in order to get the voters to the polls, but Germany and France have learned that it does pay to call a legal holiday.

Other countries might well take a lesson from the holiday election system. The decreasing percentage of eligible voters at recent elections has emphasized the fact that there has been far too little interest manifested in such a serious act of patriotism. The citizens have not always been to blame. Many times their activities have made it impossible to take advantage of their voting privilege. By declaring election day as a legal holiday, Germany is making every effort to get out the popular vote. The United States should take every means to achieve the same end.

Make Them Pay

WHILE IOWA and other states are taking definite forward steps in a citizen's reconstruction drive to stop hoarding, there is a group, a powerful and a large one, whose savings and profits will not be reached by the campaign. Its savings are not in the banks, nor its net income recorded on the revenue books.

This group is not worried about confidence in banks, it robs them in its leisure moments and borrows them into weakness, as has happened in Chicago. It knows how to spend money and does it lavishly, usually so that it goes into the pockets of a subordinate group like itself. It buys huge sparklers for the fingers of its "femmes" and earloads of flowers for fallen comrades.

The constituency of this group is composed of bootlegger-gangsters, whose untold wealth is safely hidden out of the reach of tax assessors, prohibition officers, and far beyond the appeal to stop hoarding. The activities of this class were exposed to some extent in the Capone trial, but they need not be exposed to give knowledge of their existence. The gangster menace is an established fact in Chicago, and every city in the United States has its one or many bootleggers.

Possibly some idea of the extent of the riches of this group could be learned by looking back into the revenue books for the years before prohibition, but that would show only a relative part of the money the bootleggers are making today. These hoodlums are careful to have none of their incomes registered on bank deposit slips.

There is no practical way of getting any revenue for the government from these large incomes, or of shaking loose gang purse strings to help business recovery. The answer is that they must be choked off by force. Heavy fines, relentless persecution, long jail sentences directed at the heart of gangdom will kill two birds with one stone by aiding business and eliminating the growing menace of the racket.

Music in Distress

INKLINGS OF music's sad plight have come through news sources from time to time, yet not until last week did the situation really strike home. Opera and symphony in cities from coast to coast have flown distress signals. Chicago's recent hoisting of the white flag brought the situation clearly before the public.

The Chicago symphony, one of the oldest and supposedly firmest in the country, must fail unless it receives further aid in the form of a financial guarantee. It is reported that this year's deficit will wipe out the symphony's entire surplus.

The last few years were lean ones for the organization. It is true that the opera and symphony have failed to place themselves upon a sound financial basis. They have found themselves unable to follow the simple formula of placing the amount of expenditures below the amount of income. They explain that theory and fact are two widely different things. The simple formula in this case is unworkable.

However, other of the older arts and amusements have met the situation. They have cut wages and expenses. In the case of the Chicago symphony at least this does not appear so simple. The 97 artists of the symphony receive an average wage of slightly more than $2,700. This situation is true in other cities, and a cut in view of the services rendered can hardly be considered. Yet a cut in expenses must be considered in a reconstruction plan.

It is hardly conceivable that the opera and symphony will soon reach the point where public performances will be infrequent affairs. Yet the public is now receiving its warning of this danger. To survive, the organization of the opera must undergo a thorough overhauling. Less of artistic temperament and more of business acumen must be injected into its system, if it is to maintain the place which it deserves.

Higher Education in the Amanas

(From the Des Moines Register)

Educators at the Amanas colonies hope that higher education will gradually come into favor as a concomitant of the structural changes the communities are now experiencing.

In the past, no high schools have been maintained in the colony school system. It has been necessary to select outstanding candidates from among those of school age and to send them elsewhere to obtain high school, college and university training, in order to provide the essential technicians and professional men. For ordinary students, education terminated with completion of the grade school course.

Disapproval of higher education appears to be more general among agrarians of foreign descent than in other groups. It used to be quite conventional among our native farmers to regard education above the grades—particularly in college—as the inevitable ruination of farm youths. This opinion is today less common in those circles, but in many communities of predominantly foreign origin it is still rather generally held.

Even there, though a gradual infiltration of the newer idea is coming about. Establishment of parochial institutions of higher learning is in part responsible; in part it has been a growing realization that abandonment by a farm boy of his father's occupation is not necessarily tragic, in a period of agricultural overproduction.

One of life's ironies is found in the fact that Japanese troops have died in China to capture big guns which China bought in Japan. —Boston Transcript

TODAY'S TOPICS

By FRANK JAFFE

While there seems to be a temporary lull in far eastern battle activities, enough is happening in the orient to worry the U. S. state department. Not only perplexing to the U. S. but to the League of Nations are numerous activities in China, Japan, and Manchuria. Here are listed some of them:

1—Renewed raids in Manchuria by roving Chinese bandits, held together by a spirit of nationalism, directed against the feeble "dictatorship" of Henry Puyi.

2—Odd movements in the Sea of Japan of the Japanese battle fleet, as reported by officers of European navies in the orient.

3—The massing on the Asiatic mainland of divisions classified as "brigades" for an obscure reason which cannot be a reassuring one.

4—What one European government informed its ambassador is "heavy fresh troop movements into Manchuria."

5—Finally, growing tenseness on Russia's "Manchurian grass," which Japan is now occupying, and reported riots and other disorders in Japan itself.

Far from peace moves, these latest revelations of Japanese activities are decidedly contrary to Japan's own promise of contraction of expeditionary forces and withdrawal of unnecessary troops. Her actions bear out Senator Borah's recent declaration that Japan is going through with large annexation designs on the mainland. Certain that it means trouble but not absolutely sure in what direction, U. S. officials and diplomatic representatives of other nations are focusing their attention on Russia and Stalin's interpretation of the movements.

But Stalin is too busily occupied with his five year plan to be overly concerned with another war. The Soviet government, however, has asserted that it will not stand for the loss of one inch of territory to the Japs or any other power.

Even the loss the Chinese Eastern railway may not serve as enough incentive to bring Russia into the conflict, especially since there may be a famine in Russia before the winter ends, and war will only augment the suffering. It has been reported that 40,000,000 Russians will be faced with starvation this winter unless outside intervention is forthcoming.

In the event of an open attack upon Russia by Japan there is little doubt but that the nations of Europe would form a solid support behind the U. S. S. R. Few nations, if any, are now in sympathy with Japan, and the persistence of any of her present policies can only antagonize the entire world.

One theory has been advanced that Japan will attempt to annex Manchuria by a series of manipulations, similar to the case of Korea. The setting up of a weak government and a weak constitution in Manchuria by the Japanese points only toward a possible attempt to win over that territory by control of its administration.

But there are 30,000,000 persons in Manchuria who are steadfastly opposed to Japanese rule. Of a high cultural ratio, this nation presents a formidable opposition to Japanese imperialistic policies. In any event, if the rest of the world were not entirely convinced that it ought to interfere in the Chinese controversy, there will be no doubt of its material interest if either of the above theories becomes fact.

OFFICIAL DAILY BULLETIN

All notices for the official daily bulletin must be in the hands of the managing editor of The Daily Iowan by 4 p.m. Items for the university calendar must be reported at the president's office, Old Capitol, as far as possible in advance of the event. No notices will be accepted unless typed or legibly written. Notices will not be accepted by telephone. Vol. VII, No. 133 March 13, 1932

University Calendar: Sunday, March 13; Monday, March 14; Tuesday, March 15; Wednesday, March 16; Thursday, March 17; Friday, March 18; Saturday, March 19.

General Notices

TO ALL STUDENTS WHO EXPECT TO GRADUATE AT THE CLOSE OF THE PRESENT SEMESTER, JUNE 6, 1932. EACH STUDENT WHO EXPECTS TO RECEIVE A DEGREE OR CERTIFICATE AT THE UNIVERSITY CONVOCATION TO BE HELD JUNE 6, 1932 MUST HAVE MADE HIS FORMAL APPLICATION, ON A CARD PROVIDED FOR THE PURPOSE IN THE REGISTRAR'S OFFICE, IN UNIVERSITY HALL, ON OR BEFORE SATURDAY, MARCH 26, 1932.

University Lecture: Maurice Hindus will deliver a lecture on "Russia and the world" in the natural science auditorium, Monday, March 21 at 8 p.m. under the auspices of the senate board on university lectures. BENJ. F. SHAMBAUGH, chairman.

Ph.D. Reading Examination: The reading examination for Ph.D. candidates will be given March 14, in Room 4 liberal arts, at 5 p.m. Candidates are requested to bring material along line of their major subject. DEPARTMENT OF ROMANCE LANGUAGES

Baconian lecture committee: Dr. William Malamud, assistant director of psychiatry, will speak to Philo club on "The last of the prophets," Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in the river room of Iowa Union. DOROTHY RUBENSTEIN, secretary

To All Women Students Registered for Physical Education: Sections of physical education 2 and 4 will not meet March 14 to 23 inclusive. Every woman taking physical education class work is required to have a physical examination during this period. If you have not made an appointment for an examination, or if you find it unnecessary to change the hour of your appointment, call Miss Cox at 540. ELIZABETH HALSEY

Sigma Delta Chi: The weekly meeting of Sigma Delta Chi will be held at Iowa Union at 6 p.m. Sunday. Prof. Clyde W. Hart will speak on "The newspaper as a social institution." All men affiliated with the fraternity are expected to be at Kadghin's studio for the Hawkeye picture at 12 noon Sunday. GILBERT SCHANTZ, secretary

Philosophical Club: Prof. and Mrs. Manry will be hosts to the club Tuesday, March 15, at 8 p.m. at their home, 509 Meador street. Dr. A. H. Woods will read a paper on "The philosophy of the physician."

Avukak Club: A meeting of the club will be held Sunday, March 13, at 1:45 p.m. on the sun porch of Iowa Union. A paper "On the intellectualism of the Jew, an interpretation of causes and effects" will be presented by Nathan Strowmats. A discussion on the topics will follow. All interested are invited to attend. SYLVIA KOFF, secretary

Hesperia: Hesperia will hold a dinner and initiation service, Wednesday, March 16, at the sun porch of Iowa Union. All who plan to be present phone reservations to Mary Remley, 3441, by Monday noon. All initiates bring dues. HILDA HARTMAN, president

Pershing Rifles: All members of Pershing Rifles company please assemble on the west steps of Old Capitol, Monday, March 14, at 4 p.m. for Hawkeye picture. All Pershing Riflemen are urged to be present. CADET COLONEL WILLIAM S. McCULLEY, Captain of Pershing Rifles

Student Council: There will be a regular meeting of student council Tuesday, March 15 at Iowa Union at 8 p.m. MARIAM FRAHM, secretary

Erodelphian: Initiation of Erodelphian pledges will be held at Iowa Union, Tuesday, March 15 at 7:15 p.m. All actives and pledges attend. MARION FRAHM, president

Baconian Lecture: The eleventh Baconian lecture will be given by Prof. E. C. Mable of the speech department at 7 p.m., Friday, March 18 in the chemistry auditorium on "Speech training and individual needs." The address will be broadcast over WSUI. W. F. LOEWING, chairman Baconian lecture committee.

Cosmopolitan Club: Our club has been invited to be the guest of the Cosmopolitan club of Coe college at Cedar Rapids, Friday, March 18. All members who can are urged to take advantage of the fellowship of the Cedar Rapids group again. Will those who are able to furnish cars for the trip please get in touch with one of the officers, as soon as possible? MARJORIE HENDERSON, president

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

COMMON SENSE IS UNCOMMON. The STEEL MEAL EARL LONFORD of Charlotte, N.C. SWALLOWS A ONE-INCH METAL BALL TIED TO A STRING. SIGNATURE OF EARL SHOWERS - THE RAIN MAN - of Stockton, Cal.

BIBLICAL TIMES: THE QUOTATION UNDER THE CLOCK OF OLD ST. MARY'S CHURCH IN SAN FRANCISCO. THE 3-TAILED DOG - of Marion, Ohio HAS TWO TAILS IN BACK AND ONE IN FRONT.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

THE LOCAL CHECKER CHAMPS ARE HAVING THEIR TROUBLES FINDING A PLACE TO PLAY OFF THE 10 REMAINING GAMES OF THE WINTER TOURNAMENT.

Behind the Scenes to Hollywood

By HARRISON CARROLL. HOLLYWOOD, Cal., March 11—Whatever befalls other "baby stars" of 1931, Sidney Fox is soon to have her name in big letters on the screen. The pretty young actress who made such a hit, with me at least, in "Strictly Dishonorable" is to have full stellar credit in her next picture for Universal. For the moment, the studio isn't ready to discuss the vehicle, except to say it will be a screen original and that Edward Luddy is writing it. Without wishing to start an argument, I think Sidney Fox will be the tiniest star in Hollywood. She is only 4 feet, 11 inches tall. Before coming to the coast a year ago last December, Sidney was on the New York stage. Her last Broadway role was in "Lost Sheep." She is not, as many people believe, a southern girl, but was born in New York city. Her most recent picture is "The Mouthpiece," for which she was loaned to Warners. A MAN'S MAN. Now that Eddie Cantor has thrown his hat into the ring for the presidency, someone tells him he must have a platform. "Very well," says Eddie, "let it be: 'A job for every man's wife.'"

Bob (respect border) inflect Moral Bob's enter and D know rales v motion laves b asks h his bea (Bob at a large Moral Back in Ted w him, th iard en accomp leaves. Downs at ing w ward, w The in the Ted w Adela s Jales a Together speak. The h Ted. " here to Are you Ted direct have ne made se "And (the prie your yourself love." "Tho "Why have in hurt us could no of the p Adela priest's to you. He an of your easier for children that Go His do His h That rec to see a and rest a half-h tried out Adela row wo "If all pos, the ary or at him each oth about he ories are so small high and seemed Ted d eyes rose of glass soft ribb floor. At of candle where ca birds. T filled an spoke it regret. "All m like this, and when failed." "And h Ted Rad very caln the cool

The Gay Bandit of the Border

By TOM GILL Copyright 1931, by International Magazine Co., Inc. Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

SYNOPSIS

Bob Harkness, one of the most respected ranchers on the Mexican border, is "El Coyote," the masked bandit, who has avenged the wrongs inflicted upon the peons by Paco Morales. Ted Radcliffe, the son of Bob's dead friend, Ann Reed, an entertainer at a disreputable resort, and Dr. Price are the only ones who know "El Coyote's" identity. Morales would pay well for this information and, not knowing that Ann loves "El Coyote" and is his spy, asks her to secure it. He also employs her to entangle Ted and kill his beautiful niece, Adela's, love for the American. Ann goes to warn Bob and brings Ted the news that a large tract of land controlled by Morales rightfully belongs to him. Back in her room, as Ann informs Ted of Morales' proposed trap for him, the door opens and the Spaniard enters with Adela. His purpose accomplished, he apologizes and leaves with his disillusioned niece. Downstairs, Ted receives an insinuating message from Jito, Morales' ward, who is insanely jealous of him. The inevitable clash has come and in the ensuing life-or-death battle, Ted wins but spares Jito's life. Adela visits Ann, who explains Morales' scheme. Adela goes to Ted. Together they visit the chapel and speak with the padre.

"I would rather that Jito had beaten me a hundred times than lose the right to look into your eyes—or to hope," said Ted.

CHAPTER XLVII

He looked long and earnestly at Ted. "They tell me you have come here to make your home, my son. Are you happy among us?"

Ted flushed a little beneath the direct look, and the questioning. "I have never been so happy. I have made some good friends and—"

"And some good enemies," added the priest, with a little smile. "Well, your enemies cannot hurt you. Only yourself can do that and—those you love."

He gave a short laugh. "You see I have found peace. In a few months here in Verdú I have bruised and battered a man, made an enemy of your uncle, and beyond all this I may yet lose something I value more than anything in the world."

"And that?"

"You!"

The word seemed to hesitate upon the air, as if reluctant to die. It charged the little church with a new meaning. He had spoken a word and suddenly everything was changed, and he waited, fearful, yet exalted.

"Those I love?"

"Why certainly. The ones we love have in them the greatest power to hurt us, and yet without love we could not be happy either. It is one of the paradoxes of the dear God."

Adela laid a folded bill in the old priest's hand. "Use it as seems best to you, father."

He smiled. "Those generous gifts of yours, Adela, have made the way easier for many of my parish. Like children they believe quite literally that God will provide, and usually He does provide, although it keeps His humble representative busy. That reminds me of one I promised to see at noon. Wait for me here and rest. I will not be more than a half-hour."

Adela seated herself on the narrow wooden bench beside the door. "If all men were like Padre Campos, there would be no need of cavalry or bandits or—"

He smiled up at him—"of young men plucking each other's ribs out."

She looked about her. "Almost my first memories are of this church when I was so small the pews looked mountain high and the yellow sunlight up there seemed to come straight from God."

Ted did not answer. Instead his eyes rose to where the colored panes of glass before the Virgin filtered soft ribbons of light down upon the floor. At the far end a little cluster of candles twinkled, and from somewhere came the drowsy chirping of birds. The spell, the peace of it, filled and held him, and when he spoke it was with a kind of half-regret.

"All my life I had hoped for peace like this, to make it a part of me, and whenever the need comes I have failed."

"And have you never found peace?"

Ted Radcliffe? Her voice sounded very calm and close beside him in the cool gloom.

cloud floated slowly before the sun and deepened the dusk within the church, where those two stood rapt and silent before the eternal majesty of love. He looked up toward the bowed head of the Virgin, then, bowing his own head, raised the girl's hand to his lips.

In the pulse beneath his fingers he felt the blood throb, and soft fingers touched his hair. And a voice, softer still, whispered through the church's gloom. "Whether we should love one another—whether we have the right to love one another, only the dear God knows. I only know, Ted Radcliffe, that with all my heart I do love you—I always have."

Then again those eager, caressing fingers moved through his hair, passing softly, lingeringly across his cheek, and at last came to rest upon his lips. So for a time they stood, silent, radiantly silent, in the presence of this imperishable age-old wonder that had come upon them.

"We are of different races, you and I," the girl's voice whispered in the gloom, "and our ways have been different ways. It may be that love will bring more of pain than of joy. Yet even if I knew, oh, if I knew beyond all doubt, that I only sorrow and pain awaited, I would not change in any smallest way this love I have for you."

Again silence. Her hands still lay against his cheek. Her eyes, like stars in the gathering dusk, looked up at him. He kissed her lips.

And it was so the padre found them. The little priest's disreputable cough came as from another world. Adela turned. She looked into his understanding eyes. "We love each other, father," she said simply, and her voice sounded loud and exultant through the dimness of the quiet chapel. "I have given him my lips here in your church, padre mio. Have I done wrong?"

The wrinkled hands touched the rosary. Wrong? What can there be of wrong when love comes to two children of God? That is the highest of His benedictions. And because I know you, Adela, I know you to be worthy of all the happiness this world can give."

(To Be Continued)

COURT HOUSE PIGEON HOLES

Kennard Gets $75

J. E. Kennard was granted a judgment for $75 from James Lacinia for services rendered. W. J. Hayek was attorney for Kennard, J. M. Otto for Lacinia.

Release Merchant's Lien

A $300 merchant's lien against Julia and F. J. McCollister was released by the Eclipse Lumber company of Minnesota.

Aldridge Suit Settled

The $300 suit of Martha Aldridge against C. J. Burch and the Mecca studio for services rendered and damages resulting from accusations of maltreatment was settled. Mrs. Aldridge is to receive $150. Will J. Hayek represented Mrs. Aldridge, and Ed L. O'Connor was counsel for Burch and the studio.

Solon Bank—Dividend

L. A. Andrew, superintendent of state banking, was authorized to pay a 10 per cent dividend on all deposit claims of the Uch Brothers State bank of Solon.

Ryerson Estate

L. A. Andrews, receiver of the Iowa City Savings bank, was authorized to deliver all personal property, except cash, held in the C. H. Ryerson estate guardianship to W. W. Mercer as administrator with will annexed.

Driver's Licenses

Application for driver's license was filed with the sheriff by A. J. Westphal, F. O. West, Mrs. D. J. Gatens, Dale Fletch, William F. White, Delbert Akers, Isabel Struve, Mrs. Jennie Kanak, Dr. T. R. Thorn.

$710 in One Pile

On the desk of Walter J. Barrow, clerk of the district court, was a two inch stack of paper that caused normal eyes to grow big, slow hearts to beat fast, and smooth fingers to grow sticky. The stack was $710 in bills composed of $1, $5, $10, and $20 denominations.

Three Buy New Cars

Three new cars were sold in Johnson county during the last week. Those buying cars were Frederick J. Lazell, 404 Grant street, Chevrolet; Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Peterson, Iowa Ais., Chevrolet; Flava L. Hamburg, University hall, Ford.

WSUI PROGRAM

- For Today
3:30 p.m.—University band concert.
6 p.m.—Dinner hour program.
9:15 p.m.—Familiar hymns program. St. Patrick's church choir, William J. Holland, director.
- For Tomorrow
9 a.m.—News, markets, weather, music, and daily smile.
11 a.m.—Within the classroom, England and the British empire, Prof. Harry G. Plum.
12 a.m.—Luncheon hour program, Ramona Jorgenson.
2 p.m.—Within the classroom, Music of the romantic period, Prof. Philip G. Clapp.
3 p.m.—The book rack, University library.
3:30 p.m.—Illustrated musical chats, Addison Alspach, music department.
3:40 p.m.—Sidelights on astronomy, Prof. Charles C. Wylie.
6 p.m.—Dinner hour program.
7 p.m.—Late news flashes, The Daily Iowan.
8 p.m.—Understanding your child, Iowa Child Welfare Research station.
8:20 p.m.—Musical program, Tuesday Morning Music club.
9 p.m.—Late news flashes, The Daily Iowan.
9:10 p.m.—Speech department.

Union Board Makes Known Winners in Bridge Tourney

League winners of the inter-fraternity, sorority bridge tourney, with the average score made after seven rounds of matches, are announced by the Union Board committee as follows:

Complete Averages
Complete league averages for all teams entered in the tourney are: Alpha league, Phi Beta Pi, 2,540; Beta league, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 2,213.
Gamma league, Delta Chi, 2,213. Delta league, Nu Sigma Nu, 2,787. Epsilon league, Alpha Sigma Phi, 2,123.
Zeta league, Phi Delta Phi, 2,586.

Will Give Prizes
Prizes, which will be given by the Union Board at the close of the round robin play-off among the six league winners, are: first, $17; second, $12; third, $10; fourth, $7.50; fifth, $5; sixth, $3.

Opponents in the play-off matches, which begin tomorrow at 4:15 p. m. at Iowa Union are scheduled as follows:

Phi Beta Pi vs. Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Delta Chi vs. Nu Sigma Nu.
Alpha Sigma Phi vs. Phi Delta Phi.

Gamma League
Gamma league, Delta Chi, 2,213; Phi Kappa Sigma, 2,181; Phi Epsilon Pi, 2,183; Gamma Eta Gamma, 2,054; Gamma Theta Phi, 1,518; Phi Kappa Alpha, 1,390; Delta Zeta, 1,335; Phi Omega Pi, 893.
Delta league, Nu Sigma Nu, 2,787; Alpha Tau Omega, 2,532; Sigma Phi Epsilon, 2,314; Delta Delta Delta, 1,988; Kappa Kappa Gamma, 2,119;

Alpha Kappa Psi, 1,788; Kappa Alpha Theta, 1,534; Triangle, 1,435.

Epsilon League
Epsilon league, Alpha Sigma Phi, 2,123; Phi Delta Theta, 1,913; Alpha Kappa Kappa, 1,816; Phi Gamma Delta, 1,793; Delta Gamma, 1,699; Acacia, 1,585; Phi Mu, 1,481; Chi Omega, 1,473.
Zeta league, Phi Delta Phi, 2,586; Sigma Chi, 2,324; Beta Theta Pi, 2,314; Phi Rho Sigma, 2,065; Theta Phi Alpha, 1,834; Delta Upsilon, 1,728; Gamma Phi Beta, 1,319; Alpha Xi Delta, 1,285.

300 Persons Attend Annual Gathering of 4-H Club Members

More than 300 leaders, members, and parents attended the annual mixer of Johnson county 4-H club boys and girls yesterday afternoon at the American Legion Community building.

Everyone present was assigned to one of 10 groups by a system of colored name cards. Each group was concluded by a leader who instructed them in various games and stunts under the direction of

Suicide, Says Jury in Death of Salesman

CHICAGO, March 11 (AP)—A coroner's jury decided today that R. T. French, 26, a salesman, had killed himself by smashing a heavy barricade with his car and plunging 35 feet off the end of Lake Shore drive.

The verdict was given after Nathaniel Davidson, Negro watchman, told of seeing French drive his car to the blind end of the street, turn it around, and back it repeatedly into the barricade. Thrice, the watchman said, the car splintered the heavy timbers until an opening was made. Then, he said, French drove through the opening.

Phone 290 READ THESE CLASSIFIED ADS

Classified Advertising Rates

SPECIAL CASH RATES—A special discount for cash will be allowed on all Classified Advertising accounts paid within six days from expiration date of the ad.

Table:

No. of Words	Lines	One Day		Two Days		Three Days		Four Days		Five Days		Six Days
		Charge	Cash	Charge	Cash	Charge	Cash	Charge	Cash	Charge	Cash	Charge	Cash
Up to 10	3	.20	.15	.30	.20	.45	.30	.51	.46	.59	.54	.68	.62
10 to 15	3	.25	.20	.35	.25	.50	.35	.60	.55	.70	.65	.80	.75
15 to 20	4	.30	.25	.40	.30	.60	.45	.75	.70	.85	.80	1.00	.95
20 to 25	5	.35	.30	.45	.35	.65	.50	.80	.75	.90	.85	1.10	1.05
25 to 30	6	.40	.35	.50	.40	.70	.55	.90	.85	1.05	1.00	1.25	1.20
30 to 35	7	.45	.40	.55	.45	.75	.60	.95	.90	1.10	1.05	1.35	1.30
35 to 40	8	.50	.45	.60	.50	.80	.65	1.00	.95	1.15	1.10	1.45	1.40
40 to 45	9	.55	.50	.65	.55	.85	.70	1.05	1.00	1.20	1.15	1.55	1.50
45 to 50	10	.60	.55	.70	.60	.90	.75	1.10	1.05	1.25	1.20	1.65	1.60
50 to 55	11	.65	.60	.75	.65	.95	.80	1.15	1.10	1.30	1.25	1.75	1.70
55 to 60	12	.70	.65	.80	.70	1.00	.85	1.20	1.15	1.35	1.30	1.85	1.80
60 to 65	13	.75	.70	.85	.75	1.05	.90	1.25	1.20	1.40	1.35	1.95	1.90
65 to 70	14	.80	.75	.90	.80	1.10	.95	1.30	1.25	1.45	1.40	2.05	2.00

Minimum charge $5. Special long term rates furnished on request. Each word in the advertisement must be counted. The prefix "For Sale," "For Rent," "Lost," and similar ones at the beginning of ads are to be counted in the total number of words in the ad. The number and letter in a blind ad are to be counted as one word.

Special display, 50¢ per inch. Business cards per column inch, $5.00 per month.

Classified advertising in 5 p. m. will be published the following morning.

Special Notices 6
FOR RENT—WASHINGTON COTTAGE, Phone 1291-W.
WANTED—CATERING. PHONE 2625-J.
TEACHERS—ENROLL FREE. Central Teachers Agency, Cedar Rapids.
WANTED—TO USE PIANO FOR storage or rent reasonably. Call $51. (daytime).

For Sale Miscellaneous 47
FOR SALE—USED BATTERY radio set. Phone 4829.
FOR SALE OR TRADE ON AUTOMOBILE—3-piece overstuffed living room suite, 5x12 administer rug. Phone 3648.

Wanted Hauling
WANTED—HAULING $1.00 PER load. Phone 3195 or 1411.

Employment Wanted 34
POSITION WANTED—EXPERIENCED cook, now employed, desires position in fraternity immediately, or at beginning of fall term. P. O. Box 724.
FOR SALE—MISCELLANEOUS 47
A BARGAIN—8 TUBE MAJESTIC radio, excellent condition, $100 off. Phone 3084-J.

Auto Supplies 11
FOR SALE—1926 FORD RADIATOR, 2 generators, 30x3 1-2 Ford tires, Ford Rear Ends. Phone 3195 or 1411.
Wanted—to Rent 74
WANTED!
2 room furnished apartment. Must state price and location in first letter. Write XX Daily Iowan.
WANTED—TWO ROOM APARTMENT, modern, close in. State price. Write SS Daily Iowan.

Housekeeping Rooms 64
FOR RENT—MODERN FRONT light housekeeping rooms. Reasonable. 505 E. Washington.

Business Service Offered 16
KEYS MADE, GUNS REPAIRED Russell Repair Shop, 23 E. College.
EXPERT SHOE REPAIRING Chriz Lutz, East College
Female Help Wanted 30
WANTED—GIRL TO WORK FOR board. Phone 3984.

Wearing Apparel 60
FOR SALE—FUR COAT, $10.00. Call 142-W.
FOR SALE—TUXEDO. CHEAP. Size 36. Phone 22.
Wanted—Laundry 83
WANTED—LAUNDRY. 60c DOZ garments. Washed and ironed. We call for and deliver. Phone 1351-W.

Transfer—Storage 24
LONG DISTANCE AND GENERAL hauling. Furniture moved, crated and shipped. Pool cars for California and Seattle. Thompson Transfer Co.
IT DOESN'T HAVE TO BE A BIG advertisement to be seen. You saw this one, didn't you?
Musical—Radio 87
PIANO TUNING. W. L. MORGAN. Phone 1475.
Musical and Dancing 40
DANCING SCHOOL—BALLROOM tap and step dancing. Phone 114 Burkley Hotel, Prof. Houghton.
PRIVATE LESSONS—BALLROOM dancing. Phone 3628. Mrs. Walter E. Schwob.
Housekeeping Rooms 64
FOR RENT—HOUSEKEEPING rooms. 428 S. Clinton.
FOR RENT—HOUSEKEEPING room. Close in. Phone 3166-J.
Heating—Plumbing—Roofing
WANTED—PLUMBING AND heating. Larew Co. 110 So. Gilbert. Phone 280.
Houses for Sale 78
WILL SELL—MODERN 8 ROOM home, close to university. Hot water heat etc. Write to the following address for further description: "E", Globe-Gazette Apts., Mason City, Ia.
AN AD THIS SIZE COSTS LITTLE but will bring results. Phone 290.

Directory of Nationally Known Products and Services and Where to Purchase Them in Iowa City

Below you will find listed America's most famous brands of merchandise and well known services and the names of the Iowa City merchants that are able and willing to serve you. Read the list. Read it often. You will be happily surprised to learn that many articles you did not know were sold in Iowa City can be obtained without difficulty and without delay.

HOME APPLIANCES

Refrigerators
NORGE ELECTRIC refrigerators Strubs—second floor. Phone 88

Washers
VOSS WASHERS I. C. Light & Power Co., 311 E. Wash., Phone 121
MAYTAG WASHERS Strubs, South Clinton St., Phone 88

RADIO SALES & SERVICES
CROSLLEY radios McNamara Furniture Co., 239 E. Wash., Phone 208
MAJESTIC-GE-Victor & Philco radios Spencer's Harmony Hall, 15 S. Dubuque, Phone 367

HOME FURNISHINGS
WHITTALL RUGS Strubs, South Clinton St. Phone 88
ARMSTRONG LINOLEUMS Strubs, South Clinton St. Phone 88
MARSHALL FIELD & SCHUMACHER Drapery Fabrics, Strubs (second floor)
KIRSCH Drapery Hardware Strubs (second floor) S. Clinton street. Phone 88
DU PONT Tintone window shades Strubs (second floor) S. Clinton street. Phone 88

MEN'S WEAR
HART SCHAFFNER & MARK clothes Coats, 10 S. Clinton, Phone 48

BE SURE TO READ THE DAILY IOWAN WANT ADS EACH DAY; YOU WILL FIND THEM WORTH WHILE.

MICKEY—I'M NOT GOING TO GIVE UP OUR TEA ROOM.—I'M NOT GOING TO LET THOSE PEOPLE DRIVE US OUT!—I'M GOING TO FIGHT 'EM—FIGHT 'EM!—I'LL RAISE THE MONEY SOMEWHERE

DIXIE GIRL—IT'S BEEN BREAKIN' MY HEART—SEEMIN' YOU TRY TO SAVE YOUR LITTLE SHOP HERE—AND I—WELL, YOU KNOW, I'M A POOR MAN—I'M IN DEBT MYSELF—AND IT'D COST A HEAP O' MONEY TO FIGHT THIS IN THE COURTS

BUT STICK IT OUT GIRLIE—I'LL TRY MY BEST—MAYBE MY FRIENDS'LL LET ME HAVE THE MONEY YOU NEED

DEAR OLD DADDY.—IF HE'D HAVE TOLD ME TO QUIT, I GUESS I'D HAVE GONE ON FIGHTING—BUT NOW—OH, MICKEY—I CAN'T DO IT!—I CAN'T LET PA GET DOWN ON HIS HANDS AND KNEES TO SCRAPE UP MONEY FOR ME

I MIGHT AS WELL TAKE IT ON THE CHIN AND ADMIT I'M LICKED—

LOST! use the CLASSIFIED

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

LOANS
$50 to $300
Families living in Iowa City and immediate vicinity can secure financial assistance on short notice. We make loans of $50 to $300 on very reasonable terms. Repay us with one small, uniform payment each month; if desired you have 20 months to pay.
We accept furniture, autos, live stock, diamonds, etc., as security.
FARMERS—Inquire about our special Farm Loan Plan.
If you wish a loan, see our local representative—
J. R. Baschnagel & Son
217 J. C. Bank Bldg. Phone 195 Representing
Alber and Company
Equitable Bldg. Des Moines

BARRY TRANSFER
Moving—Baggage
Storage
Freight
Cross Country Hauling
Phone 123

for RESULTS use the CLASSIFIED ADS

Church Notices

Iowa City Churches Offer Special Services, Cantatas, Lectures as Easter Nears

Special Lenten programs have been announced by several of the Iowa City churches for this Sunday and the remainder of the week.

The choirs of the Christian and Baptist churches, composing 35 voices, will combine to give the Easter cantata "Gallia" in the Baptist church during the morning worship hour beginning at 10:45.

A two-weeks pre-Easter evangelistic meeting will begin during the morning worship hour at the Christian church and continue daily throughout the period.

The services conducted by the Rev. Caspar C. Garrigues, will be held both morning and evening on Sundays, March 13, 20, and 27, and at 7:30 p.m. each evening of the two weeks except Saturdays.

The sermon subjects for the week at the Congregational church are: tomorrow night "Unforgettable question"; Tuesday, "Highest contact"; Wednesday, "Supreme victory"; Thursday, "Why a Christian?"; Friday, "What wilt thou have me do?"; and Sunday, at 10:45 a.m., "Thy king cometh"; evening service, "Gallia" by Gounod, sung by Baptist-Christian choir.

On Sunday, March 20, a communion and Palm Sunday breakfast will be held at the Presbyterian church at 7 a.m. The communion service will be in charge of Prof. M. W. Lampe of the school of religion.

The breakfast will be given under the auspices of the inter-church council and is to be served by the Presbyterian student women's group.

Baptist

227 S. Clinton
Elmer E. Diercks, pastor, 9:30 a. m., the church school, 10:45 a. m., morning worship hour during which an Easter cantata "Gallia" by Gounod will be presented by the combined choirs of the Christian and Baptist churches under the direction of Hugh Tudor, 6:30 p. m., junior and high school B.Y.P.U.'s at the church 6:30 p. m., Roger Williams club at the student center with John Yarborough leading on the subject, "What does it mean to be a Christian?" 7:45 p. m., evening worship with sermon, "On Christian wholeness," from the series on "Questions and answers from the gospels." Preceding the service Ben F. Garner will give a short organ recital.

Christian

221 Iowa Avenue
Caspar C. Garrigues, pastor, 9:30 a. m., Bible school, George R. Gay, superintendent, 10:40 a. m., worship and communion with sermon by the minister on "Fishers of men" 10:40 a. m., junior church in church parlors under the direction of Mrs. A. J. Page, 10:40 a. m., nursery for tiny tots supervised by the girls' high school class, 6:30 p. m., Fidelity Christian Endeavor in the church parlors, 6:30 p. m., high school Christian Endeavor at the church center, 7:30 p. m., sermon by the Rev. Mr. Garrigues, "The call to youth." Special pre-Easter meetings March 13 to 27, every night except Saturday.

Christian Science

720 E. College
"Substance" will be the subject of the lesson sermon. The Golden text is from Hebrews 11, "Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." Bible citations: Matt. 17:14, 15, 18. Selection from the Christian Science textbook, page 388.

Congregational

Ira J. Houston, pastor, 9:30 a. m., Sunday school, 9:50 a. m., adult Bible class and student class, 10:45 a. m., morning worship and sermon by the pastor, "The home as a life builder," fifth in the series on "The gospel and modern problems." Junior sermon, "What the monument says." The chorus choir will sing, "O Saviour of the World" by Goss, and Leonard Folkers, "Hear O Father" by Handel, 6:30 p. m., Young Peoples meeting with Hugh Calderwood leading the discussion on the topic, "How far can we take the consequences?"

English Lutheran

Dubuque and Market
Wendell S. Dyingier, pastor, 9:30 a. m., the church school, 10:45 a. m., morning worship service with sermon by the minister on "The reverse side of consecration" Choir will sing, "King of Love My Shepherd Is," followed by solo by Karl Benson, 5:30 p. m., Lutheran Student association luncheon and social hour, 6:30 p. m., Lutheran Student association devotional hour with Elena Oldis and Gertrude Njus leading the discussion on "The place of public worship," 6:30 p. m., intermediate league meeting, Wednesday, 7 p. m., Lenten half-hour devotion for students, Thursday, 4:50 p. m., review confirmation class, 7:45 p. m., mid-week Lenten service for the congregation.

Methodist

204 E. Jefferson
Harry D. Henry, pastor, Glenn McMichael, student pastor, 9:30 a. m., church school, 10:45 a. m., morning worship with sermon by the minister on "The divine joy over returning prodigals." An offertory solo, "Into the Woods My Master Went," will be sung by Mr. Maxwell, 5:30 a. m., Wesley league social hour, 6:30 p. m., Wesley league devotional service, 6:30 p. m., high school league devotional hour, 7:30 p. m., Wesley players present religious drama entitled, "For He Had Great Possessions." Monday, 7:30 p. m., the church school board will meet in the board room to complete plans for Decision Day, Thursday, 7:30 p. m., Lenten devotional service with the Rev. Mr. Henry returning on "Personal participation in the spirit."

Presbyterian

26 E. Market
William P. Lemon, pastor, 9:30 a. m., church school, Prof. E. B. Kurtz, superintendent, 9:30 a. m., men's forum with address by Dean George F. Kay, 10:45 a. m., primary and beginners department of the church school, 10:45 a. m., morning worship and sermon by the minister, fourth of the series on "Parables of Jesus," "About certain women, young and old," 5:30 p. m., Westminster fellowship hour and supper, 6:30 p. m., vesper with the theme, "A Christian symposium on men and women relations."

St. Patrick's

224 E. Court
Msgr. William P. Shannahan, pastor, Assistants: Rev. T. J. Lew and Rev. G. A. Lillis, First mass, 7 a. m.; children's mass, 8 a. m.; students' mass, 9 a. m.; high mass, 10:30 a. m.; vesper and benediction, 2:30 p. m.

St. Paul's Lutheran

Jefferson and Gilbert
Julius A. Friedrich, pastor, Fifth Sunday in Lent, Judica, 9:30 a. m., Sunday school, 10:30 a. m., divine service, Text, John 8:46-59. Subject of the sermon, "The impeccability of Christ," 7 p. m., Lenten service and lecture by the Rev. Mr. Friedrich, fifth of a series of sermons on the general topic, "The person, office, and work of Christ," entitled "Christ the savior." Text, Luke 19:10.

Trinity Episcopal

320 E. College
Richard E. McEvoy, rector, 8 a. m., the holy communion, 9:30 a. m., children's church and school of religion, 10:45 a. m., morning prayer and sermon by the rector, 3:30 p. m., adult confirmation class, 5 p. m., evensong, 6 p. m., Morrison club meeting in the parish house, Thursday, 7 a. m., the holy communion, Friday, 10 a. m., the holy communion; 4:30 p. m., personal devotion hour.

Unitarian

Gilbert and Iowa avenue
Evans A. Worthley, pastor, 9:55 a. m., the church school, 10:45 a. m., church service with sermon by the minister on "Perhaps women," 6 p. m., Fireside club supper followed by a discussion of American and English universities by Dean Packard of the college of education, Thursday, 6 p. m., Men's club supper at the church at which time Prof. Kirk H. Porter will speak on the topic, "The difference between the Republican and Democratic parties." Zion Lutheran Johnson and Bloomington Arthur C. Proehl, pastor, 9 a. m.,

Gotham Claims Loveliest Salesgirls

MARION SULLIVAN CATHERINE KANE GERTRUDE AARONSON.

NEW YORK, March 9.—The war is on! No, no, keep your seat. The United States is not embroiled in any conflict of arms. The situation is not quite that serious. But London's claim to its having the most beautiful shopgirls in the world threatens to precipitate an international pulchritude crisis. The claim is vigorously disputed by gay Paree, the chic and vivacious midwestern of which has long been the proud boast of La Belle France. If the French and English were permitted to fight the battle of the well-turned ankle, the sharply-defined eyebrow, the nicely-chiselled contours of the features and other prime factors that go to make up a general loveliness, everything would be all right. But, in open defiance of the United States policy of isolation, New York shoppers have issued an ultimatum to France and England, challenging the claims of both and putting the Gotham salesgirl at the pinnacle of pulchritude. Although the challenge has put these United States in the precarious position of being embroiled in the "foreign entanglements" against which we have often warned, it has served one useful purpose in making us use our eyes as we go on a "See America First" tour through the labyrinths of our giant department stores. Heretofore the purchase of a tie or a pair of socks was a colorless, routine matter of necessity. But since the claim has been put forward that nearly every department store counter harbors a Venus—under a bushel as it were—the rather dry business of shopping has taken on a glamour akin to that of one's first visit to the "follies." Henceforth, when a visit to a department store becomes necessary, mere man will go forth on his quest for socks and suspenders with the glorious prospect of being waited upon by a goddess with the dimples of a Janet Gaynor, the eyes of a Garbo, the tender mouth of a Loretta Young and, maybe, the legs of a Dietrich. No longer will he appear like a condemned soul marching the last mile through the little green door, as he meanders into the doll department to purchase a talking baby for his niece. The anticipation of being catered to by a beauteous creature, the living embodiment of Helen of Troy, Cleopatra and Ninon de Lenclos all rolled into one, will give a new zip to his step, a brilliant gleam to his beauty-loving eye and a disastrous blow to his sales-resistance. Too long the unsung heroines of the department store have been regarded as automatons, to fetch and carry. America has awakened to the fact that she has an unexplored mine of beauty in the army of salesgirls that day after day engage in the Herculean task of trying to please everybody and listen to the monotone of the lordly shopwalker informing them that the customer is always right. They have won a place in the international spotlight and the Marines will hardly be necessary to make good their claim to world supremacy in pulchritude. A trip through a few of the metropolitan department stores ought to convince the most skeptical that New York has it all over Paris and London when it comes to downright eye-pleasing femininity. Take Gertrude Aaronson, for example, whose exotic Castilian type of beauty is a magnet that drags customers into the Brooklyn store where she works. Could one ask for a better advertisement for the cosmetic counter, where she is in attendance? In the same store is Marion Sullivan, whose smile speaks for itself. Catherine Kane is the shining light of a Manhattan store. She supplies a million dollars of decoration to the millinery department. Just a block farther one Ethel Kane, petite, chic and winsome, packs the customers in in droves. Yes, it's worth international complications to have our eyes opened to what we've been missing.

Bureau Plans Car Show at Legion Gym

With 90 booths already sold, it was announced yesterday that an auto show will be held in the gymnasium of the American Legion Community building in conjunction with the Better Homes show and Merchants' Exposition planned by the Iowa City Merchants' bureau. All three floors of the American Legion Community building will be used for exhibits during the event. At a meeting yesterday of the Merchants' bureau committee in charge of the show, a dinner was planned for tomorrow at 6:30 p. m. Merchants who have subscribed for booths will be invited. Allotments of booth space will be made by the committee at that time, D. W. Crum, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, said yesterday. A definite date for the show has not yet been decided upon, but preference has been expressed by the committee for the second week in April. Work proceeded yesterday on plans for the three day merchandising event, "Iowa City days and spring opening," to be held March 17, 18, and 19. Commenting on the response of local merchants, Mr. Crum said "More enthusiasm has been shown for this sale than for any like event ever attempted in Iowa City."

POLICE NEWS

Leo F. Balluff, using the street for storage; fined $1 and costs. Joseph Dabey; using the street for storage; fined $1 and costs.

WICKS' SPECIALS

MONDAY AND TUESDAY

Sani-Flush	CAN	17c
Lima Beans Large	3 LBS.	27c
Peeled Peaches	Blue Ribbon 2 LBS.	20c
Tea	Gold Cup 1/2 LB. PKG.	24c
Soap Flakes Electric	2 LBS.	19c
Onion Sets Red	3 LBS.	17c

WICKS' Kash and Karry

Formerly Glassman Grocery
116 South Dubuque St.

Voters Pick School Men Tomorrow

City Hall Polling Place for All Wards in City

Two school directors will be chosen by Iowa City voters for three year terms when they cast their votes in the annual school election at the city hall tomorrow. The two directors will be chosen from five names appearing on the ballot.

THE BALLOT

O. H. Brainerd, George H. Frohwein, Jr., Dr. Harry R. Jenkinson, Charles G. Sample, William L. Zager.

City Hall

The council chambers of the city hall will be the polling place for all wards and for voters living outside the city limits but inside the school district. Polls will be open from 7 a. m. until 7 p. m.

The registry board will be in session in the city hall during the election to register persons who have never before voted in Iowa City or have changed their residence since the last general election. All fully qualified voters are eligible to vote in the school election.

Members of the school board whose terms expire this year and must be replaced are George H. Frohwein, Jr., and Sam T. Morrison. Mr. Frohwein has been president of the school board for the last year.

Frohwein, Jenkinson

Mr. Frohwein and Dr. Jenkinson were nominated and endorsed by the bi-partisan school committee for election to the new board. Officials who will be in charge of the election are: Mrs. Mildred S. Taylor, Mrs. Anna M. White, Mrs. Bertha D. Sidwell, judges; Mrs. Stella C. Putman, and Mrs. Winifred Derkson, clerks; Mrs. Clara Vogt, Mrs. Mary Louise Lawyer, Miss Ella Shimek, Miss Nell Murphy, and Mrs. Regina Hogan, registrars.

Loan Forms Available for Local Farms

Forms are now available in the office of County Agent S. Lysle Duncan to make application for loans on crops as provided for in the act creating the Reconstruction Finance corporation.

Authorization was given to the secretary of agriculture by congressional action in January to make loans to farmers in the several states for crop production in 1932 where he shall find that an emer-

Stock Market Tips Upward to Slight Gain

Sees Better Tone as Gains Average One Half Point

NEW YORK, March 12 (AP)—The stock market tilted slightly upward in a quiet half-day session today.

Trading was apathetic and the list made little headway, but at least the emphatic heaviness of the previous session was overcome. Week end retirement of short contracts apparently provided much of the buying.

Gains Small

The net advance for the day, as measured by the averages, was little more than half a point. The turnover was 649,015 shares.

Wall street was keenly interested in tomorrow's election in Germany, in view of the possible effects upon European stability or any marked extremist gains.

While the mercantile reviews were again guardedly cheerful, definite signs of a pickup in heavy industries was still lacking. Week end estimates of steel operations in the Youngstown area next week indicated virtually no change in the aggregate.

Chemicals Rise

Among the few issues which managed to come through the session with gains of about a point were Allied Chemical, American Can, Dupont, Eastman, Monsanto Chemical, National Steel, Real Silk Hosiery, and Safeway Stores. Fractional gains appeared in many prominent issues, including U. S. Steel, General Motors, General Electric, New York Central and Union Pacific. Santa Fe and Continental Baking preferred registered exceptional gains of 1 3/4 points.

gency exists, as a result of which farmers are unable to obtain loans from any other source.

Such loans will be made upon such terms and subject to such regulations as he prescribes, including an agreement by each farmer to use the funds thus obtained for crop production.

AT LAST—ENHALET
Use on Handkerchief
Head Colds—Headache
35c For Sale at all Drug Stores 60c

Burial Service for Ocheltree to Take Place Tomorrow

Funeral service for Mrs. R. A. Ocheltree, 34, who died Thursday in a hospital in Davenport, will be held at 9 a. m. tomorrow at St. Patrick's church. Burial will be in St. Joseph cemetery.

Mrs. Ocheltree was a former resident of Solon but was a resident of Dixon, Ia., at the time of her death.

She is survived by her husband, R. A. Ocheltree; two sons, Duane Edward, 6, and Keith Raymond, 3; father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bowers of West Branch; one sister, Mrs. Thomas Stafford of West Branch; two brothers, Cecil Bowers of West Branch, and George Bowers of Iowa City.

The body will be brought to Henschuh mortuary this afternoon.

Fordyce to Attend Scout Head Meeting

One of five Iowa men forming a commission on organization and operation of troops, Glen G. Fordyce, executive of the Iowa City Boy Scout area council, will participate in the regional conference of scout executives at St. Louis, April 17 to 21.

The other Iowa executives forming the commission are: V. V. Allen, Waterloo; C. A. Knouse, Mason City; Lyman Osam, Marshalltown; and H. R. Heath, Ft. Dodge.

Griffith's Milk

A Trial is a Test

YOU'LL USE IT DAILY—NO DENIAL—WHEN ONCE YOU'VE GIVEN IT A TRIAL

DAIRY
Phone 11-F-3 or Tell the Driver

POLITICAL ADV. POLITICAL ADV.

Vote Monday for

A Man Who Is For a Strict Economy Program

Wm. L. Zager

Candidate for SCHOOL DIRECTOR
for 3 year term

DISGUISE IT AS YOU WILL... it's

WASHDAY

just the same

Buy all the expensive home-washing equipment on the market! Order all the soaps and powders and preparations your grocer carries, but washday will still be washday... Same old bother... Same old burden.

The truly modern way is to forget all this expense—simply step to the telephone and call us for service. It costs less. It saves your clothes. And it saves YOURSELF! Start this week!

Phone 294

New Process Laundry

"Our Red Cars Go Everywhere"
Soft Water Used Exclusively

New!

RCA Victor Radio

Model R-12

$79.50 COMPLETE
8-TUBE Superheterodyne

RCA Victor Radio With PENTODE

Just received from Radio Headquarters, a new RCA Victor Triumph. Equipped with the new RCA Pentode Radiotron that increases the output, eliminates distortion and greatly improves the sensitivity. Also equipped with the RCA Victor 10 Point Synchronized Tone System. Automatic Volume Control... Super Control Radiotrons... Micro Tone Control... Rubber Mounted Chassis.

Don't miss the big showing at our store. See this value you've been waiting for. Hear its surpassing performance... and see the reasons why...

Look into the Back!

Payments as low as $5. A Month

McNamara Furniture Co.

Across from the New Postoffice

Graphic Outlines of History

By CHARLES A. BECKMAN

The "Lost Colony of Roanoke"

An English colony was founded at Roanoke, Virginia, but supply ships were long delayed. When they finally reached the settlement, all was deserted. On a tree trunk was found "Croatan," a distant island. To this day, this "Lost Colony" remains a mystery.

Our sincere desire to serve at times of need, our professional ability, and proper equiptage are at your disposal when the occasion arises.

Beckman Funeral Home

PROGRESSIVE FUNERAL SERVICE
216 E. COLLEGE ST. TEL. 278

Voters Pick School Men Tomorrow

City Hall Polling Place for All Wards in City

Two school directors will be chosen by Iowa City voters for three-year terms when they cast their ballots in the annual school election at the city hall tomorrow. The two directors will be chosen from five names appearing on the ballot.

THE BALLOT

J. H. Brainerd,
George H. Frohwein, Jr.
Dr. Harry R. Jenkinson,
Charles G. Sample,
William L. Zager,

City Hall

The council chambers of the city hall will be the polling place for all wards and for voters living outside city limits but inside the school district. Polls will be open from 7 a. m. until 7 p. m.

The registry board will be in session in the city hall during the election to register persons who have never before voted in Iowa City or who have changed their residence since the last general election. All fully qualified voters are eligible to vote at the school election.

Members of the school board whose terms expire this year and who are to be replaced are George H. Frohwein, Jr., and Sam T. Morrison. Frohwein has been president of the school board for the last year.

Frohwein, Jenkinson

Dr. Frohwein and Dr. Jenkinson were nominated and endorsed by the partisan school committee for election to the new board.

Officials who will be in charge of the election are: Mrs. Mildred S. Taylor, Mrs. Anna M. White, Mrs. Thelma D. Sidwell, judges; Mrs. Clara C. Putman, and Mrs. Winifred Derksen, clerks; Mrs. Clara St. Mary, Mrs. Mary Louise Lawyer, Mrs. Ella Shimek, Miss Nell Murray, and Mrs. Regina Hogan, registrars.

Loan Forms Available for Local Farms

Forms are now available in the office of County Agent S. Lysle Duncan to make application for loans on crops as provided for in the act creating the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

Authorization was given to the secretary of agriculture by congressional action in January to make loans to farmers in the several states for crop production in 1932 where he shall find that an emergency exists, as a result of which farmers are unable to obtain loans from any other source.

Such loans will be made upon such terms and subject to such regulations as he prescribes, including an agreement by each farmer to use the funds thus obtained for crop production.

AT LAST—ENHALET

Use on Handkerchief Head Colds—Headache
35c For Sale at all Drug Stores 60c

POLITICAL ADV.

Day for Strict Economy

W. L. Zager
DIRECTOR

ASHDAY at the same

expensive home-washing the market! Order all the washers and preparations your but washday will still be the same old bother... Same modern way is to forget all simply step to the telephone for service. It costs our clothes. And it saves start this week!

294
Laundry everywhere" exclusively

Stock Market Tips Upward to Slight Gain

Sees Better Tone as Gains Average One Half Point

NEW YORK, March 12 (AP)—The stock market tilted slightly upward in a quiet half-day session today.

Trading was apathetic and the list made little headway, but at least the emphatic heaviness of the previous session was overcome. Week end retirement of short contracts apparently provided much of the buying.

Gains Small

The net advance for the day, as measured by the averages, was little more than half a point. The turnover was 649,015 shares.

Wall street was keenly interested in tomorrow's election in Germany, in view of the possible effects upon European stability or any marked extremist gains.

While the mercantile reviews were again guardedly cheerful, definite signs of a pickup in heavy industries was still lacking. Week end estimates of steel operations in the Youngstown area next week indicated virtually no change in the aggregate.

Chemicals Rise

Among the few issues which managed to come through the session with gains of about a point were Allied Chemical, American Can, Dupont, Eastman, Monsanto Chemical, National Steel, Real Silk Hosiery, and Safeway Stores. Fractional gains appeared in many prominent issues, including U. S. Steel, General Motors, General Electric, New York Central and Union Pacific. Santa Fe and Continental Baking preferred registered exceptional gains of 1 3/4 points.

Agency exists, as a result of which farmers are unable to obtain loans from any other source.

Such loans will be made upon such terms and subject to such regulations as he prescribes, including an agreement by each farmer to use the funds thus obtained for crop production.

AT LAST—ENHALET

Use on Handkerchief Head Colds—Headache
35c For Sale at all Drug Stores 60c

NEW! RCA Victor RADIO

$79.50 COMPLETE
8-TUBE Superheterodyne Model R-12

RCA Victor Radio With PENTODE

Just received from Radio Headquarters, a new RCA Victor Triumph. Equipped with the new RCA Pentode Radiotron that increases the output, eliminates distortion and greatly improves the sensitivity. Also equipped with the RCA Victor 10 Point Synchronized Tone System. Automatic Volume Control... Super Control Radiotrons... Micro Tone Control... Rubber Mounted Chassis.

Don't miss the big showing at our store. See this value you've been waiting for. Hear its surpassing performance... and see the reasons why...

Look into the Back!

Payments as low as $5. A Month

McNamara Furniture Co.

Across from the New Postoffice

Burial Service for Ocheltree to Take Place Tomorrow

Funeral service for Mrs. R. A. Ocheltree, 34, who died Thursday in a hospital in Davenport, will be held at 9 a. m. tomorrow at St. Patrick's church. Burial will be in St. Joseph cemetery.

Mrs. Ocheltree was a former resident of Solon but was a resident of Dixon, Ia., at the time of her death.

She is survived by her husband, R. A. Ocheltree; two sons, Duane Edward, 6, and Keith Raymond, 3; father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bowers of West Branch; one sister, Mrs. Thomas Stafford of West Branch; two brothers, Cecil Bowers of West Branch, and George Bowers of Iowa City.

The body will be brought to Henschel mortuary this afternoon.

Fordyce to Attend Scout Head Meeting

One of five Iowa men forming a commission on organization and operation of troops, Glen G. Fordyce, executive of the Iowa City Boy Scout area council, will participate in the regional conference of scout executives at St. Louis, April 17 to 21.

The other Iowa executives forming the commission are: V. V. Allen, Waterloo; C. A. Knouse, Mason City; Lyman Osam, Marshalltown; and H. R. Heath, Ft. Dodge.

YOU'LL USE IT DAILY—NO DENIAL. WHEN ONCE YOU'VE GIVEN IT A TRIAL!

GRIFFITH'S DAIRY Phone 11-F-3 or Tell the Driver

MAGAZINE SECTION

The Daily Iowan

IOWA CITY, IOWA, SUNDAY, MARCH 13, 1932

Mecca -- Yesterday and Today

By Edgar C. Steinbrenner

ENGINEERING efficiency transformed the field of domestic science: a concrete mixer run by a gas engine, a wheelbarrow, a mortar board and hoe, grouped and described as "newest developments in the field of engineering for biscuit-making" composed the most interesting float of the first Mecca day, March 17, 1910.

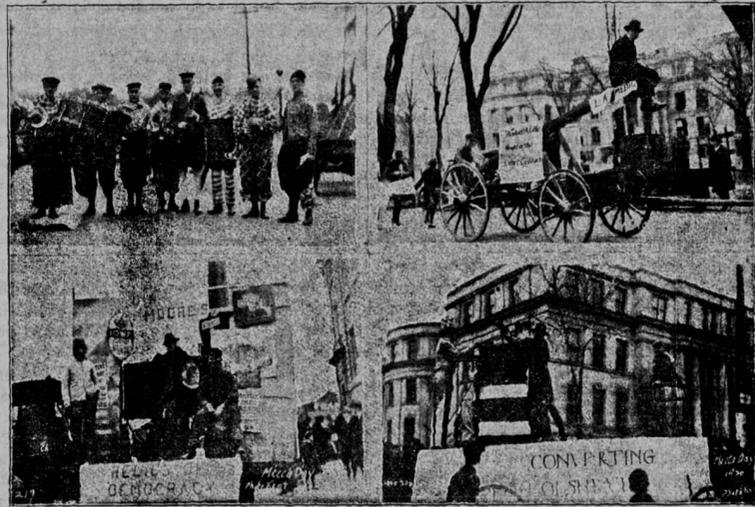

Floats similar to this one were constructed on the first Iowa engineering day, held on that St. Patrick's day 22 years ago. Hammers beat a merry tattoo as the sun rose, for engineers had worked all night to prepare floats and decorations for this forerunner of Mecca week. Green and white streamers stretched across the engineering building and down below, members of a new organization, the Associated Students of Applied Science, were busy putting together a heterogeneous collection of floats.

The big parade at 1 p. m. caused much laughter and comment from the 5,000 spectators. The university band and bugle corps followed a mounted marshal in armor. Descriptions of the band number its members with "a factor of safety or two," according to the best engineering nomenclature.

The route for the parade had to be accurately determined. Therefore, a group of engineers, under the direction of "Fat" Johnson, took levels, transits, and tape measures, to hurriedly lay out a course for the parade. Accounts say it was "one of the most rapid transit runs in history."

Uniformed cadets guarded the "Blarney stone," mysterious symbol of engineering tradition, and fixed bayonets frightened away would-be despoilers. There were two "tube" bands. A huge "atom" was borne by eight quaintly dressed "ions" from the chemistry department. A huge calculus "text," and a physics "text" were sponsored by students of those departments. Perhaps the queerest things in the parade from the present day point of view, were the "real" automobiles the members of the faculty rode in.

Later in the afternoon, seniors were dubbed Knights of St. Patrick and allowed to kiss the Blarney stone on the steps of Old Capitol. Then

THE MECCA PARADE IN 1920—When the enrollment of the college of engineering had been restored to normalcy by the return of the men from "over there."

The old guard hid the stone and gave the directions for its finding to the dean, who kept them until the next year, when the newly-selected guard had to find the stone from these instructions.

The climax to the day came with the "big, free show" in the evening. A parody on "School Days" proved to be a caricature of a country school interwoven with university incidents. A large audience acclaimed the efforts of the engineers as actors, dancers and singers.

The eighth annual engineering banquet was held in 1910 and it was at the suggestion of Dean William G. Raymond that the new features of engineering activity were combined with it to make a series of events. In 1913, the name "St. Patrick's day" was abandoned because of protests by Iowa City citizens and the name "Mecca," formed by taking the first letters of the five branches of engineering: mechanical, electrical, civil, chemical, architectural, was adopted. In the same year, the annual dance and exhibition were added.

The Knights of Meccasacius, a continuation of the Knights of St. Patrick, was an organization that really stood for something in 1913. For agitation to move the college of engineering to Ames was then at its height. Mecca symbolized the spirit of the "engineering-at-Iowa" movement headed by Dean Raymond. Agitation and work by engineers, particularly the Knights of Meccasacius, was instrumental in finally preventing the consolidation of the two schools and in keeping the college of engineering at Iowa.

Before the parade of 1911, it was reported that the Blarney stone had been confiscated by the law students. Much anxiety prevailed around the engineering building until a brawny escort finally appeared, bearing the symbolic stone. "The goat we've permanently borrowed from Ames," while one of the big attractions of the parade, almost held up the proceedings when it became balky and refused to move.

A stray Iowa City-Muscatine interurban car appeared in the parade of 1913. How it got there no one seemed to know but it was captured from its rightful owners and featured the process-

sion amid the cheers of spectators. In 1916, the Mecca play, "It Might Be the Truth," was dedicated to Jesse B. Hawley, football coach, by the author and manager, Lloyd A. White. It was in this year that the show was first considered pretentious enough to be held in the Englert theater. The plots for these first Mecca shows were written by students in the college of engineering, but recently rights to comedies that are outstanding on the American stage have been purchased and the plays adapted to local needs.

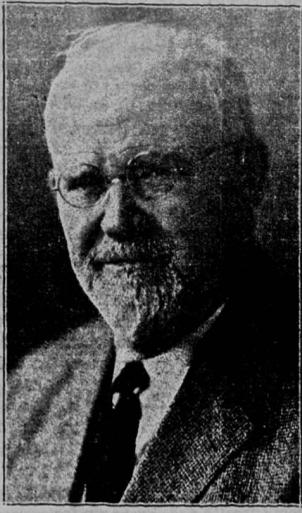

Warlike floats predominated in the parades of 1917-19. Although the enrollment of the college was cut in half during these years, Mecca continued and became "bigger and better." In 1917, when the floats in the parade were of a historical military character, an edict went forth from the authorities that there were to be no more floats that "knocked Ames." The play of 1918, "Old Iowa," was a story of the World war and Iowa's campus. The hero was a second lieutenant in the R.O.T.C., and the heroine,—but why describe "her" — accounts say that "she" was "wonderful."

Engineers can learn to act and sing but when it comes to learning how chorus girls act, dance, makeup, and dress (if they do), help is needed. So the directors in 1920 decided to select two girls, preferably sorority girls with directing experience, to help train these "ladies" of the traditional Mecca chorus, always a part of the show.

"Will It Come to This?" was the name of the play given in that year, which had to be given twice for by this time the whole university was Mecca-conscious. The exhibition had become a more important part of Mecca week by this time, also.

Too much time had to be expended in the construction of the floats for the parade, decided the powers behind the Mecca of 1926. So more effort was put on the exhibition, more of the college of engineering was revealed, while guides saw that what was shown and accomplished was explained to the public.

Rivalry had been keen between the Mecca show and the Law Jubilee up to 1926 when the (Continued on page 4)

WILLIAM C. RAYMOND—Who, as dean of the college of engineering, in 1913 led the "engineering-at-Iowa" movement.

Book Reviews

Edited by Harriet I. Mahnke

WEST OF THE GREAT WATER, by 46 Iowa poets; Athens Press. Reviewed by ROLAND WHITE.

Six blind men once got their ideas of an elephant from six approaches to his external anatomy. His trunk a writhing snake, one tusk a curved spear, one ear a thick, vast leaf, one leg a tree trunk, one flank a wall, his tail a swinging rope — the pachyderm defied such casual examination.

To critics without poetic insight, an analogy like "West of the Great Water" is even more difficult to inspect. When six poetically blind critics are inferior to one with creative vision, one such is bewildered at material ranging from simple four line filler bits to the intricate five and one-half pages of Harold Cooper's "Miner's Wife." Humor and tragedy, satire and pathos all mingle in a diverse volume that needs only 11 more poets to be labeled, facetiously, "Fifty-seven varieties."

But there is no need of X-ray literary vision to appreciate many of the selections, even if the fine but subtle Cooper poem may be impressive chiefly because it resembles dimly remembered sophomore "English lit." assignments in being beyond the student's ken. Knowing the writer, knowing the material used, knowing through similar experience the emotional inspiration — factors like these may explain the favorites of the unpoetic.

Addiction to humor columns would lay the welcome mat for Walter Edwin Peck's clever, satirical "Monkey in a Cage" or John Wray Young's 11 lines of wonder whether trees in winter "miss their green petticoats" or the anonymous four line "A Small Child Praying." Love's bittersweet experiences might pave the approach for Myrl Alspach's "Neither Sleep," Rex Fogarty's "Convention," Marion Davis' "Circumstance," and Margaret Mary Young's "To Her New Love."

The kindred spirit of a fellow scribbler should warm to Genevieve Fuller's "On Writing Poetry" or Gabriel Newburger's "Poetry."

Controversial interest in birth control or a yen for philosophy might awaken interest for Rhody Fisher's "Cry of the Unborn."

Impressive with new experiences that come to seem like the reader's own, four others have for me an open sesame that is theirs alone. Into the five lines of "Incident" Mark Bock has compressed industry's ruthless impersonality. Walter McGrath's "Land and Sea" conceives a convincing poetic oneness for wavy ocean and rolling prairie. Richly fitting the "Mass for a Tenant Farmer" are the figures of soil and sun and song of bird that the more experienced Jay G. Sigmund employs. And most appealing of all was the quiet depth of Ruth Messenger's "A Fear" that

"... cherry bloom shall only mean to me
Another canning season, and the deep Untrodden snow a sidewalk to be swept. . ."

None of the poems is wholly lacking in charm, and some have quality sufficient for the professional stamp of inclusion in publications like Poetry, The Midland, and Saturday Review of Literature. But more important, as Norman Foerster suggests in his introduction, is that there should be "diverse personalities seeking to make first-hand reports upon life" — and that their poetic expression should receive encouragement as if, after all, it does matter whether anybody in Iowa writes or reads poetry.

GOOD TIMES by ETHEL HUESTON; Bobbs-Merrill, $2.00.

An entertaining novel, written in an entirely light vein, "Good Times" affords several hours of pleasant reading.

Darcy was broke, or practically so. Mrs. Maloney, her kindhearted landlady had to ask her to pay up her $45 back rent or move out, because Mr. Maloney was out of work, and the landlord was pressing them.

So Darcy decided to hitch-hike west. When she told her friends what she was going to do, they asked to go along, for they also were hungry and jobless. The four of them, Darcy, Elena, Bernadine, and Bertie, scraped together as much money as they could, amounting to about $200, and made ready to move.

Through Mr. Maloney they got a ride as far as Philadelphia before they had even set foot to the road. But it happened the obliging truckman was a bootlegger and the three girls and Bertie spent the night in jail.

The next day included such exciting adventures as buying a high-powered armored car for $1, and other valuable considerations. And so they journeyed west, bickering, seeking work, but always pushing on until they came to the Black Hills where they stopped—partly because of the beauty of the region; partly because they thought it would be a profitable country in which to live.

Darcy found a ranch, property of a sick Californian who declared it was worthless, and the story of the little band's efforts to make the property pay is amusing, although it was not all good times for them.

"Good Times" is just a story to read for fun, but after all isn't that as good a reason to read a book as any?

If you make the author of "These Restless Heads" rhyme with well, you're sunk; if with babel, you're guilty of a confusion of tongues; if with rabble, you belong to the intelligentsia. When speaking of Branch Cabell or James Branch Cabell, stress the cab not the ell.

Mason Deal the author of "The Rumble Murders," to be published this spring by Houghton Mifflin, is the pseudonym of a member of a well known literary family. Having lived for 12 years in Chicago, he has been connected with publishing and advertising houses in Boston and Chicago, and more recently in New York. The scene of "The Rumble Murders" takes place to some extent in Winnetka, Ill.

March publications of the Bobbs-Merrill company include: "Way of the Lancer" by Richard Boleslavski in collaboration with Helen Woodward; "High and Low Financiers" by Watson Washburn and Edmund S. De Long; "Lee of Virginia" by William E. Brooks.

"Whispering Gate" by Anne Jerrymore; "Ice Cold Marriage" by Christine Jope-Slade; "Little Aleck" by E. Ramsay Richardson; and "Deep Street" by Benedict Thielen.

Dillwyn Parrish, brother of Anne Parrish, is author of a new novel, "Praise the Lord," which Harper's will publish this month. The author lived in the vicinity of the Evangelical temple in Los Angeles. He says the book is the result of living in the story until it had to be written.

Another Harper March publication is the "Memoirs of Gluckel of Hameln," a seventeenth century classic and the outstanding autobiography in Jewish literature, translated for the first time into English by Marvin Lowenthal, 213 years after the manuscript was completed. Gluckel's memoirs were written for her children. Two copies of the book were made by her descendants and both copies remained for a century in the possession of her family. The original manuscript has been lost, but both copies are intact. Two hundred years after the book was written, it was published in the original German.

"Schools are not meant to make boys happy, Cecile, but to teach them to do without happiness."

—Willa Cather

Campus Jogs

By Virginia Maxson

PROFESSOR Charles Gray Shaw of New York university, who once made the statement that all whistlers are morons, recently announced that a Phi Beta Kappa key is useless and that pants are a sign of patriotism. Mahatma Gandhi, where is your patriotism?

A LEAP year translation of "Arma virumque cano" was given not long ago by a coed at the University of Chicago. She wrote it, "I cry for the arms of a man."

AN annual scholarship of $600 given at Yale university has been vacant for 13 years. Qualifications specified by the donor provide that the holder must be a young man of good character and promise, and his surname must be Leavenworth. Affiliations with Leavenworth may have their desirable aspects after all.

SURVEY number 9,999 made to determine "The ideal man," and "The ideal woman" has been conducted at Barnard college and Columbia university. Results of questionnaires answered by 482 students of both colleges reveal the following choices for each sex: The ideal woman is cultured, clever, sensitive, with a conversation combining both gentleness and wit, and an aptitude for business and sports. Old fashioned home girls, housewives, and competent cooks stand conspicuously at the bottom of the list. The ideal man has money, culture, good looks, and a sense of humor. It takes more (or less) than a big, handsome gridiron brute to set feminine hearts a-flutter these days, it seems.

SOME Notre Dame student's face is going to be his fortune instead of his misfortune. The senior class of that university is offering a prize of $25 to the ugliest man on the campus. Ugliness must have its compensations.

BALLET dancing for men is now an accredited physical education activity at Columbia university. Probably military training will soon be put into the women's curriculum.

COLLEGIATE convicts are the latest wrinkle at the state penitentiary of Minnesota. Forty prisoners are taking correspondence courses from the university. The Swarthmore Phoenix states that they include psychology, harmony, law, and Esperanto.

AND now gold-digging coeds have resorted to "hush money." A sweet young thing at the University of Minnesota took a pair of worthless brown suede shoes to the repair shop. After being fixed, they were accidentally given to the wrong customer. The indignant miss wept and screamed and stormed, so the story goes, until the distraught proprietors gave her $9.50 to keep her quiet.

ANTIOCH college has installed special telephone service between the men's and women's dormitories to promote more intimate social contact. Wouldn't television apparatus help things along?

WHEN is a break not a break? Because the professor announced that a fractured neck would be the only acceptable excuse for absence, a woman at the University of Oklahoma came to class one day on a stretcher. She had influenza. Upon arriving there she found that the class had been excused because the professor had a headache.

UNIVERSITY of Minnesota coeds found wearing fraternity pins are subject to fines of $50 or six days in jail. Dear, dear, what will become of the sweet young things who blossom out with a different pin for every night of the week—and change the program each week?

What is Your Op

F. R. B. Wishes Good Luck to Pi Epsilon Pi

Three weeks ago I wrote to The Daily Iowan bemoaning the complete degeneration of Pi Epsilon Pi, pep fraternity. However, that letter was directed to P. E. P. as it was then, not as it is now.

A week following the appearance of my letter, I was challenged by a P. E. P. committee and asked to submit a plan whereby the pep fraternity could once more instigate good old college spirit into the University of Iowa.

Such a move was unnecessary on my part. The fraternity came to itself, replaced certain of its leaders with more competent men, got "hot" over the idea of pep and found that the seat of their trouble centered within themselves, not within the student body.

If Pi Epsilon Pi continues as it is now, it is my honest belief that the University of Iowa will be one of the highest spirited universities in the country instead of the deadest.

My charge still stands against the Pi Epsilon Pi of a month ago. The pep fraternity was dead, college spirit had become a thing of the past, the idea of team work among students had not been heard of for a decade.

The members of the fraternity have improved and are still improving. All they need is student cooperation, without which they will fail. That cooperation will be more than willingly submitted. All it takes is the seed of an idea, and that seed has been planted, the seed of PEP.

Good luck and congratulations, Pi Epsilon Pi.
—F. R. B.

A Gentleman Objects

To the Editor:

Last Sunday's letter to you bore the title "What price a man?" and in an obstreperous manner upheld the woman's point of view on the "dating" question.

Has D. M., the contributor, conscientiously considered the topic or has her mind become contaminated with baseless prejudices? Does she realize that it is, indeed, the mercenary woman who gauges her peder in sous and centimes? Does she mean to intimate that the women are actually contributing dollars and cents in order to spend a more perfect evening? Does she really believe men are laughing up their sleeve while they are dating? My dear sir, the woman must be mentally deranged.

Money should not be the determining factor while youth is courting and Cupid is tossing his poisonous arrows into the hearts of helpless boys and girls. Love or infatuation should not be guided by father's pocketbook. It seems that a couple can sit before a fireplace without the lady feeling she is doing the boy friend a favor.

I agree that this should not be overdone because as I see this, women "just adore" stepping out. And if they do, it is the place of the gentleman to suffer the constant jabbing of a tuxedo shirt if it will afford his companion a pleasant evening.

So, why can't we get together? Let us strike a happy medium. The man should date no oftener than his purse affords and perhaps it is wrong for the lady to expect this. On the other hand, the gentleman should condescend to entertain his lady friend once in a while.

Fellows and girls, let's bury the old hatchet. Let's create a new feeling toward one another, one that is congenial and based on a logical decision. Don't pass the buck. Do the best you can, and let's all have a good time. —C. C.

The number of divisions in Hell is important, when you believe in Hell; the number of electrons in an atom, when you believe in the atom.

—Waldo Frank

Your opinions are solicited.

Each Sunday this page of The Daily Iowan will be devoted to articles of controversy and opinion.

The best examples of college thought selected from campus publications all over the country, together with the opinions of the Daily Iowan will appear each week. Write what you think and send it to Forum Editor, The Daily Iowan. anonymous material will be printed. names will be withheld upon request.

Doctor, Doctor, Here's A Chance for Undying Fame

To the Editor:

There is a mild form of disease previously known as departmental exams, and the one who finds a cure would earn the undying fame of a great many of the students, whether or not he won great financial success.

The departmental exam is unfair, it seems to me. Since there are at least half a dozen professors teaching any class in which the exam is given, it is unreasonable to suppose that the material covered in an examination has been thoroughly discussed in all the lecture and recitation periods.

The exam is made up by some member of the department, and is too impersonal. If a student is writing a paper for some professor who has all the time, he has some idea of what the teacher expects. Not only that, the professor in grading the paper, can take into account difficulties that a student may have in explaining an idea which he has thoroughly explained but which he has no way of making clear to a professor who is not familiar with the student's abilities.

The student knows what his particular professor has stressed in class, but too often is writing a paper for some professor who has not even mentioned in the departmental exam, and some phase of the material which has only been glossed over in class amount to a considerable proportion of the examination.

All this would not be so important if it were not for the fact that a great many of the students base the entire grade for the semester on these departmental exams. I, for one, am in favor of departmental examination abolished. —M.

A Modren College Man: Too Cute for Words

(From the Daily Illini)

College men are too serious and gullible according to one Arlene Miller of Earl College. "Vanities," who was interviewed recently by a reporter from the Brown Daily Herald.

"College men are too cute for words," she said. "but oh, so dumb. Show girls usually pick a college man for a sucker and I have met one nice chorus girl in my experience."

The genus chorus girl is too rare around here for us to be sure that the Vanities' is correct in her assumption. Of course there are many women at coeducational universities who would qualify as gold-digging frauleins, both in looks and gold-digging tendencies. Suffice it to say, however, that looks are less abundant than the itching desire for money.

Their technique is different than that of the show-girl, however. And that is about the only difference. Instead of orchids and coverlets at night clubs, the coed makes it a shindance in one evening. Sunday tea dates are other reason than getting a man to pay for a date.

There is ample opportunity for gold-digging at a state university. It all depends on the young man is to stand for it.

Reviews

Ernest I. Mahnke

So Darcy decided to hitch-hike west. When she told her friends what she was going to do, they asked to go along, for they also were hungry and jobless. The four of them, Darcy, Elena, Bernadine, and Bertie, scraped together as much money as they could, amounting to about $200, and made ready to move.

Through Mr. Maloney they got a ride as far as Philadelphia before they had even set foot to the road. But it happened the obliging truckman was a bootlegger and the three girls and Bertie spent the night in jail.

The next day included such exciting adventures as buying a high-powered armored car for $1, and other valuable considerations. And so they journeyed west, bickering, seeking work, but always pushing on until they came to the Black Hills where they stopped—partly because of the beauty of the region; partly because they thought it would be a profitable country in which to live.

Darcy found a ranch, property of a sick Californian who declared it was worthless, and the story of the little band's efforts to make the property pay is amusing, although it was not all good times for them.

"Good Times" is just a story to read for fun, but after all isn't that as good a reason to read a book as any?

If you make the author of "These Restless Heads" rhyme with well, you're sunk; if with babel, you're guilty of a confusion of tongues; if with rabble, you belong to the intelligentsia. When speaking of Branch Cabell or James Branch Cabell, stress the cab not the ell.

Mason Deal the author of "The Rumble Murders," to be published this spring by Houghton Mifflin, is the pseudonym of a member of a well known literary family. Having lived for 12 years in Chicago, he has been connected with publishing and advertising houses in Boston and Chicago, and more recently in New York. The scene of "The Rumble Murders" takes place to some extent in Winnetka, Ill.

March publications of the Bobbs-Merrill company include: "Way of the Lancer" by Richard Boleslavski in collaboration with Helen Woodward; "High and Low Financiers" by Watson Washburn and Edmund S. De Long; "Lee of Virginia" by William E. Brooks.

"Whispering Gate" by Anne Jerrymore; "Ice Cold Marriage" by Christine Jope-Slade; "Little Aleck" by E. Ramsay Richardson; and "Deep Street" by Benedict Thielien.

Dillwyn Parrish, brother of Anne Parrish, is author of a new novel, "Praise the Lord," which Harper's will publish this month. The author lived in the vicinity of the Evangelical temple in Los Angeles. He says the book is the result of living in the story until it had to be written.

Another Harper March publication is the "Memoirs of Gluckel of Hameln," a seventeenth century classic and the outstanding autobiography in Jewish literature, translated for the first time into English by Marvin Lowenthal, 213 years after the manuscript was completed. Gluckel's memoirs were written for her children. Two copies of the book were made by her descendants and both copies remained for a century in the possession of her family. The original manuscript has been lost, but both copies are intact. Two hundred years after the book was written, it was published in the original German.

"Schools are not meant to make boys happy, Cecile, but to teach them to do without happiness." —Willa Cather

Campus Jogs

By Virginia Maxson

PROFESSOR Charles Gray Shaw of New York university, who once made the statement that all whistlers are morons, recently announced that a Phi Beta Kappa key is useless and that pants are a sign of patriotism. Mahatma Gandhi, where is your patriotism?

A LEAP year translation of "Arma virumque cano" was given not long ago by a coed at the University of Chicago. She wrote it, "I cry for the arms of a man."

AN annual scholarship of $600 given at Yale university has been vacant for 13 years. Qualifications specified by the donor provide that the holder must be a young man of good character and promise, and his surname must be Leavenworth. Affiliations with Leavenworth may have their desirable aspects after all.

SURVEY number 9,999 made to determine "The ideal man," and "The ideal woman" has been conducted at Barnard college and Columbia university. Results of questionnaires answered by 482 students of both colleges reveal the following choices for each sex: The ideal woman is cultured, clever, sensitive, with a conversation combining both gentleness and wit, and an aptitude for business and sports. Old fashioned home girls, housewives, and competent cooks stand conspicuously at the bottom of the list. The ideal man has money, culture, good looks, and a sense of humor. It takes more (or less) than a big, handsome gridiron brute to set feminine hearts a-flutter these days, it seems.

SOME Notre Dame student's face is going to be his fortune instead of his misfortune. The senior class of that university is offering a prize of $25 to the ugliest man on the campus. Ugliness must have its compensations.

BALLET dancing for men is now an accredited physical education activity at Columbia university. Probably military training will soon be put into the women's curriculum.

COLLEGIATE convicts are the latest wrinkle at the state penitentiary of Minnesota. Forty prisoners are taking correspondence courses from the university. The Swarthmore Phoenix states that they include psychology, harmony, law, and Esperanto.

AND now gold-digging coeds have resorted to "hush money." A sweet young thing at the University of Minnesota took a pair of worthless brown suede shoes to the repair shop. After being fixed, they were accidentally given to the wrong customer. The indignant miss wept and screamed and stormed, so the story goes, until the distraught proprietors gave her $9.50 to keep her quiet.

ANTIOCH college has installed special telephone service between the men's and women's dormitories to promote more intimate social contact. Wouldn't television apparatus help things along?

WHEN is a break not a break? Because the professor announced that a fractured neck would be the only acceptable excuse for absence, a woman at the University of Oklahoma came to class one day on a stretcher. She had influenza. Upon arriving there she found that the class had been excused because the professor had a headache.

UNIVERSITY of Minnesota coeds found wearing fraternity pins are subject to fines of $50 or six days in jail." Dear, dear, what will become of the sweet young things who blossom out with a different pin for every night of the week—and change the program each week?

What is Your Opinion?

F. R. B. Wishes Good Luck to Pi Epsilon Pi

Three weeks ago I wrote to The Daily Iowan bemoaning the complete degeneration of Pi Epsilon Pi, pep fraternity. However, that letter was directed to P. E. P. as it was then, not as it is now.

A week following the appearance of my letter, I was challenged by a P. E. P. committee and asked to submit a plan whereby the pep fraternity could once more instigate good old college spirit into the University of Iowa.

Such a move was unnecessary on my part. The fraternity came to itself, replaced certain of its leaders with more competent men, got "hot" over the idea of pep and found that the seat of their trouble centered within themselves, not within the student body.

If Pi Epsilon Pi continues as it is now, it is my honest belief that the University of Iowa will be one of the highest spirited universities in the country instead of the deadest.

My charge still stands against the Pi Epsilon Pi of a month ago. The pep fraternity was dead, college spirit had become a thing of the past, the idea of team work among students had not been heard of for a decade.

The members of the fraternity have improved and are still improving. All they need is student cooperation, without which they will fail. That cooperation will be more than willingly submitted. All it takes is the seed of an idea, and that seed has been planted, the seed of PEP. Good luck and congratulations, Pi Epsilon Pi.

—F. R. B.

A Gentleman Objects

To the Editor:

Last Sunday's letter to you bore the title "What price a man?" and in an obstreperous manner upheld the woman's point of view on the "dating" question.

Has D. M., the contributor, conscientiously considered the topic or has her mind become contaminated with baseless prejudices? Does she realize that it is, indeed, the mercenary woman who gauges her pederger in sous and centimes? Does she mean to intimate that the women are actually contributing dollars and cents in order to spend a more perfect evening? Does she really believe men are laughing up their sleeve while they are dating? My dear sir, the woman must be mentally deranged.

Money should not be the determining factor while youth is courting and Cupid is tossing his poisonous arrows into the hearts of helpless boys and girls. Love or infatuation should not be guided by father's pocketbook. It seems that a couple can sit before a fireplace without the lady feeling she is doing the boy friend a favor.

I agree that this should not be overdone because as I see this, women "just adore" stepping out. And if they do, it is the place of the gentleman to suffer the constant jabbing of a tuxedo shirt if it will afford his companion a pleasant evening.

So, why can't we get together? Let us strike a happy medium. The man should date no oftener than his purse affords and perhaps it is wrong for the lady to expect this. On the other hand, the gentleman should condescend to entertain his lady friend once in a while.

Fellows and girls, let's bury the old hatchet. Let's create a new feeling toward one another, one that is congenial and based on a logical decision. Don't pass the buck. Do the best you can, and let's all have a good time. —C. C.

The number of divisions in Hell is important, when you believe in Hell; the number of electrons in an atom, when you believe in the atom.

—Waldo Frank

Your opinions are solicited. Each Sunday this page of The Daily Iowan will be devoted to articles of controversy and opinion. The best examples of college thought, selected from campus publications all over the country, together with the opinions of the Daily Iowan will appear each week. Write what you think and send it to Forum Editor, The Daily Iowan. No anonymous material will be printed but names will be withheld upon request.

Doctor, Doctor, Here's A Chance for Undying Fame

To the Editor:

There is a mild form of disease prevalent known as departmental exams, and the doctor who finds a cure, would earn the undying affection of a great many of the students, whether or not he won great financial success.

The departmental exam is unfair, it seems to me. Since there are at least half a dozen professors teaching any class in which this type of exam is given, it is unreasonable to suppose that the material covered in an examination has been thoroughly discussed in all the lectures and recitation periods.

The exam is made up by some member of the department, and is too impersonal. If a student is writing a paper for some professor whom he has all the time, he has some idea of what the teacher expects. Not only that, the professor, in grading the paper, can take into account the difficulties that a student may have in expressing an idea which he has thoroughly in mind, but which he has no way of making clear to a professor who is not familiar with the student or his abilities.

The student knows what his particular professor has stressed in class, but too often this material is not even mentioned in the departmental exam, and some phase of the subject which has only been glossed over in class may amount to a considerable proportion of the examination.

All this would not be so important if it were not for the fact that a great many of the professors base the entire grade for the semester on these departmental exams. I, for one, am firmly in favor of departmental examinations being abolished.

—M. H. S.

A Modren College Man: "Too Cute for Words!"

(From the Daily Illini)

College men are too serious and gullible, according to one Arlene Miller of Earl Carroll's "Vanities," who was interviewed recently by a reporter from the Brown Daily Herald.

"College men are too cute for words," she said, "but oh, so dumb. Show girls usually play the college man for a sucker and I have met only one nice chorus girl in my experience."

The genus chorus girl is too rare around these parts for us to be sure that the Vanities' beauty is correct in her assumption. Of course, there are many women at coeducational universities who would qualify as gold-digging chorus frauleins, both in looks and gold-digging tendencies. Suffice it to say, however, that the looks are less abundant than the itching palms.

Their technique is different than that of the show-girl, however. And that is about the only difference. Instead of orchids and cover charges at night clubs, the coed makes it a show and dance in one evening. Sunday tea dates for no other reason than getting a man to pay for it.

There is ample opportunity for gold-digging, even at a state university. It all depends on how willing the young man is to stand for it.

Cinderella Once Went to a Ball, "Stepchild!"

To the Editor:

There is a $2.50 school dance at the Union as I write this—one of the regular university functions—one of the functions this "big family" has in its program of entertainment for university students. How many of the "big family" are going? Perhaps 800 persons out of the family of 5,000. Perhaps the same 800 go to all these high-priced dances.

What a fine thing for the heads of the "big family" to do—set up a program of dances and then put on a prohibitive price which allows only the same (or nearly same) group to attend. Thousands of others sit around and twiddle their thumbs—or worse, step out on a 75 cent drinking party. "Gotta do something as a let down after a week of school."

Fellows like to wear good clothes, I dare say, contrary to public opinion. They like to don the "soup and fish" or the "claw-hammer" and step out with a sparkling, gayly-dressed girl on their arm. It is good for a fellow to step out like this. He'll have to do it later on, so why spoil his practice by making the prohibitive tariff. Why couldn't the Union run a formal once a month at about a dollar a couple, and an informal every week end at a 50 cent admission. Make the informals stag dances so that the bashful fellows and girls can meet each other. A student band could play, or all the bands could play in turn.

It might be difficult for the university to put on such a regular program, but I believe it would help students let off some steam without getting intoxicated to do it, and will give also many of the "big family's" stepchildren a little wholesome fun.

—T. J.

Wanted: A Wisecracker

(From the Daily Kansan)

What has become of "Faith, Hope and Charity?" The good old cardinal virtues are slipping, and according to a recent survey conducted at Barnard college and among the men undergraduates of Columbia university, they are being replaced by the modern virtues of culture and a sense of humor. At least, these are what the 500 college men and women expect of their future wives and husbands.

It present, culture and refinement will always crop out, and so will a lot of other characteristics, during the wedded life. But to refused to consider an individual as a future mate because he spears his peas, or doesn't care for grand opera, is a bit extreme.

This new development of the value of a sense of humor, however is a sign of real progress. Think where the world would be without a sense of humor! Think where some wives would be if there husbands didn't possess an overdose of a humorous outlook on life! Think where most husbands would be without a laughing wife! Yes, one can easily get along without a full meal if one is so fortunate as to have a "wise-cracker" in the house.

WHAT should have been the psychological moment in a demonstration of hypnotism, given recently before members of a psychology class at Allegheny college, turned out to be the psychological 45 moments. It took the professor three quarters of an hour to bring his coed subject out of the trance. The dean of women has put a ban on further exhibitions.

PEDAGOGY hath charms for the males, it seems. For the first time in its history, there are more men than women enrolled in Arizona State Teachers college.

FIVE CENTS

Three Meals a Day

For Quails, Squirrels, and a Chipmunk

A UNIQUE restaurant is being conducted in Manville Heights. It serves three meals a day to its customers and charges them nothing. The food is served, as in Parisian cafes, out-of-doors, and the patrons wear no wraps when they eat, even in the dead of winter. But they never suffer from cold, for nature has provided them with permanent overcoats. They are animals—the patrons—10 wild quails, three squirrels, and a chipmunk. Proprietors of the restaurant at Otto Boarts, 116 Ferson avenue, his sisters Edith Boarts and Minnie Boarts, and his mother, Mrs. Mary L. Boarts.

They have operated their eating place for five years, catering formerly to quail customers exclusively. The squirrel and chipmunk customers have been only recently acquired.

"It isn't a profitable business," Mr. Boarts affirms, "but it is an interesting one."

Trade was hard to get at first, for the quails are skittish creatures, easily frightened. For years they have roamed the woody sections of Manville Heights, free and untamed. It took the most tempting delicacies of crumbs, wheat, and crusts to lure them into the Boarts backyard. Once aware, however, that here a banquet awaited them every day, they established the custom of coming regularly to dine.

Their meal hours are eccentric. Breakfast at 7 a.m. Lunch, 10:30 a.m. Dinner, 4:30 p.m. On Sundays dinner is at 11 in the morning and supper is served at 4:30 p.m.

Every morning at 6:30, Edith Boarts arises to prepare their breakfast. It consists of wheat. She scatters it on the walk and grass behind her home. At quarter of seven they begin to gather, marching into the yard, Indian file, behind a leader who struts at the head of the long winding line. If any person is in sight, they take flight. But no one is. Knowing their temperamental habits, the Boarts family remains discreetly out of sight, hidden, perhaps, behind the dining room curtains, from where they can witness the feast of these wild birds whose ancestors peopled Iowa when it was virgin prairie land.

At 7:15 they leave, filing away, as they came, in a single line. They go—no one knows where. Back to the woods near the river, probably, or to the hills and ravines outlying Manville Heights. When lunch time comes, they return in their long procession.

"You can't get near them at all," said Mrs. Boarts. "If they see even a shadow, they run. We don't dare get close to the window to watch them eat, or off they fly. Mrs. Emma Watkins, who lives next door, has tried and tried but she has never caught a glimpse of them."

Mr. Boarts has bought and fed four bushels of wheat to the birds thus far this winter. The quails don't get it all, however, for sparrows and bluejays hover in the trees until one of the Boarts family sets out the food; then they swoop down upon it before the more timid quails screw up courage to approach. The chipmunk and squirrels who live there in the yard also demand their share.

Mr. Chipmunk dwells in a hole near the sidewalk. He's a greedier fellow than the quails, but not so discriminating in his choice of food. In addition to wheat, he condescends to eat watermelon seeds, providing they are properly dried, and, on occasion, crusty heels of bread—if it is whole wheat. After finishing his meals, he hides all left-overs in small burrows under the grass, to keep them from the squirrels.

Dining, for the squirrels, is a more laborious business. Wheat is small pickings for clumsy squirrel claws, especially when it sinks far down into grass entanglements. The squirrels flatten themselves against the ground, and by slithering along on their tummies, manage to burrow themselves enough grains for luncheon. Crusts, however, are much more to their liking.

The animal restaurant business has fallen off considerably during the present depression, ac-

ording to Minnie Boarts. Four years ago the quail customers numbered 40. They came in great processions then, bringing in their train their flock of baby quails. Recently the ranks have thinned. Until a week ago, only 11 of the birds regularly frequented the Boarts establishment this winter. Since then, another has disappeared. The family hopes it doesn't have indigestion.

—Virginia Maxson

Mecca - - Yesterday and Today

(Continued from page 1)

latter was discontinued because of the battles royal between engineering and law students. The Law Jubilee came annually during Mecca week and the bitter rivalry did much to promote the success of the events of the week. A Mecca show was as apt as not to end up in a free-for-all or at least a threat of one. But now the engineers prance up and down the stage on safer and much less exciting Mecca show nights.

It was in 1926 also that the Mecca Ball first became a distinctly all-university party held in Iowa Union. Now, the presentation of the Mecca queen and the suspicion that there might be trouble with laws in the years following the suspension of the Law Jubilee, make this one of the most interesting parties of the school year.

Engineers have their own ideas of beauty and other attributes that make university women popular. In 1929, it was decided to voice this opinion and select a queen to preside over the Mecca Ball. Women's organizations on the campus are asked to submit names of their candidates, which are selected on a basis of scholarship, activities, and beauty. The names submitted are voted upon by the engineers. Not until the night of the Mecca Ball is the ballot box opened and the votes counted.

For the last three years laws have prepared handbills that were distributed on the afternoon of the Mecca Ball. On these handbills is a picture of "the girl" that "the laws announce will be Mecca Queen." They guessed right on Dorothy Gillis, Alpha Chi Omega, 1929 queen, and on Allaire Fleming, Delta Gamma, queen in 1930, but last year they missed on the selection of Jayne Shover, Pi Beta Phi. Kathryn Datesman, Delta Gamma, was the selection favored by the laws last year.

Again Mecca week is approaching and again speculation is rife as to whether the laws will or will not guess the identity of the queen in spite of engineers' efforts to keep her name a secret until the night of the Mecca Ball. The exhibition, the show with another chorus of engineers, and the banquet, will again bring home to engineering students the traditions of previous years.

He was a huge creature, with arms that looked as though they had gone on a long search for his hands and at last found them, big but ineffectual, somewhere near his knees.

—John Peale Bishop

And now, Abbie's love was divided between two babies. No, that is not true. There is no division or subtraction in the heart arithmetic of a good mother. There are only addition and multiplication.

—Bess Streeter Aldrich

Bray, and many other men and women, go west, interpreted the inner flame that made John America had men like Washington and Lincoln. The one had made the country and the other had come and set all the slaves free. God Himself could scarcely have done better even if He had been here.

—O. E. Rolvaag.

My Pal Tex

HE was the dangdest pup one ever lay eyes on. He was so short and fat that his clumsy legs scarcely kept his bulging stomach from scraping the ground.

When he was taken from the crate in which he had been shipped from Texas his stump of a tail wagged so that his hind legs skidded out from under him. But that didn't bother him.

His papers said that he was an Airdale of the bluest blue bloods.

His new master called him "Tex" for short. What a dog he turned out to be. Perhaps he couldn't think, but it didn't take that three months old dog more than a week to learn the art of successfully dodging mother's broom.

In another two weeks he could sneak under the dining room table without being caught by mother and worry a shoe string until the owner passed out a liberal helping of food.

He grew like a weed. Between the "hand-outs" and the dog diet that mother forced on him he couldn't help growing.

Grandmother swore that she "hated the thing" and hoped that we'd get rid of it by throwing it in the river; but many the time we saw her slipping out the back door with a heaping plate of "leavings" for the dog which she called until he appeared.

As the weeks slipped by every member of the family grew to love Tex. He had grown into a big husky Airdale, playful and rough, always ready to pick a scrap with any one who wanted to take the risk.

Tables, chairs, lamps, and rugs were in constant danger of being demolished for no one knew when Tex was going to start a fox hunt in the kitchen and end up in the front room or parlor leaping tables seeking the imaginary fox.

One hot summer afternoon Tex wandered up to the stock yards to watch the loading of cattle. He chose for a point of observation the shady side of a large gas tank situated a short distance south of the "yards." There he lay for some time watching until some sixth sense caused him to turn his head.

He barely moved when his head and shoulders were covered with flaming gasoline thrown from a nearby tank which had exploded when it was ignited by a carelessly thrown cigaret. The tank by which he had been laying exploded next, throwing Tex clear of the following flames. The dog was berserk with pain. His eyes were blistered shut and his head and flank raw.

His only thought was home. Blindly he raced through the streets. Three or four times he crashed into parked cars, ripping open his sides and flanks. He was desperate; he knew where home was but somehow he couldn't get there.

He raced all over that small country town until, completely exhausted, he fell senseless on the street. A passerby recognized him and called father who hurried like mad to the dog.

He ran at full speed with the twitching dog in his arms to the one and only mortuary. He must have been shouting all the way for the ambulance was in the street when he got there.

He jumped into the ambulance and told the driver to drive like hell to the neighboring city where one of the best dog hospitals was located.

Everything that money could buy was done for that dog. The dog doctors slaved three long nights and days to bring him out of it.

The fourth morning Tex opened one red stained eye, gave the faintest bark, and whimpered a little as he left me for the last time.

—Bob Brownell.

... the great matters are often as worthless as astronomical distances, and the trifles dear as the heart's blood.

—Willa Cather

"Time," said George, "why I can give you a definition of time. It's what keeps everything from happening at once."

—Ray Cummings

Everybody is ignorant, only on different subjects.

—Will Rogers.

G. E. FROHWEIL

Solem Will Settle

New Coach to Establish Here May 2

Will Spend Week Ends in Iowa City Until After Relays

Ossie Solem, newly appointed Iowa football coach, will confer with Prof. Edward H. Lauer, director of athletics, in Des Moines today to settle final details of the grid mentor's contract.

The conference, scheduled for yesterday, was postponed when business matters detained Professor Lauer in Iowa City.

Solem informed the Associated Press in Des Moines late yesterday that he will start spring football at Iowa May 2, and that drill from that date on will be intensive because of the delay occasioned by his work with the Drake relays.

He indicated that most of his week ends until May 1 will be spent in Iowa City in order to become better acquainted with the men with whom he will work.

Iowa men will be used as assistant coaches as much as possible, Solem declared, but added that he had no opportunity to consider who they might be.

He has the permission of Iowa officials to select his own assistants, and will bring at least one who is familiar with his system. It is believed he will bring one of his present assistants at Drake but he has declined to name the man.

Plans for a reception for the new Hawkeye grid mentor were being made by the Iowa chapter of Pi Epsilon Pi, national pep fraternity. The tentative date has been set for March 23. Prominent alumni and newspaper men throughout the state, as well as students will be issued invitations.

Drake Accepts Solem's Resignation

DES MOINES, March 14 (AP)—The executive committee of the Drake university board of trustees today unanimously accepted the resignation of Ossie Solem as athletic director and football coach, clearing his path to acceptance of the State University of Iowa football mentorship.

The resignation becomes effective May 1. It was presented to the committee by President D. W. Morehouse, who in a communication to Solem, said his act was performed "with genuine regret."

"The committee unanimously voted to accept your resignation," Dr. Morehouse said, "and at the same time expressed unreserved appreciation for the services you have rendered to Drake university during 11 successful and happy years. Each member of the executive committee expressed his personal

(Turn to page 8)

Hoovers Pay Respects to Late Cousin

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP)—The President and Mrs. Hoover late today attended funeral services in the little Quaker church here for the chief executive's second cousin, George C. Hoover, an attorney at the interstate commerce commission.

Hoover died late Saturday of cerebral hemorrhage. He will be buried at West Branch, Ia., his birthplace as well as that of the president.

The President and Mrs. Hoover were among the last to leave the church. They sat while others filed past the open casket, and then departed.

Boy Scouts Plan Training Course

A spring training course in advanced scout leadership will open here Monday night under the auspices of the Iowa City Boy Scout area council, Glen G. Fordyce announced tentatively yesterday.

Present plans are for the sessions to start at 9 p.m. on Mondays, following regular troop meetings.

St. Mary's Receives $93.25 to Send Boys to National Tourney

Contributions ranging from 25 cents to $10 from Iowa City merchants and townspeople totaled $93.25 at 11 o'clock last night toward the $150 which is needed to pay the expenses of St. Mary's high school basketball squad to Chicago where it will compete in the national Catholic tournament at Loyola university.

The Ramblers, Coach Francis W. Suelpp, and the Rev. Walter E. Boeckmann, athletic director, all of whom will leave by automobile early tomorrow morning, have expressed their appreciation of the manner in which the merchants and people of Iowa City have aided them thus far.

Further contributions may be left at the business office of The Daily Iowan where they will be properly handled.

"If You Asked Me, I'd Say--"

What do you think of the dutch date idea as introduced on a few campuses this Leap Year?

"As a general rule I am opposed to such an idea. If a man has enough interest in a woman to provide her entertainment, he should be willing to afford the expense. The dutch date will work on occasions, but as a general practice, I don't believe that the men would even appreciate it."

—Robert A. Dreyer, P2 of Aplington.

"I believe that the idea of a woman sharing the expense of entertainment with a man is justifiable under limited conditions, depending on the financial position of both parties, and their regard for each other. The practice is not common and in most cases the man's pride will not tolerate it. If at all within his means, I think he should bear the entire expense."

—Naomi Grettenberg, A1 of Coon Rapids.

"Sure I favor dutch dating. Ever since Adam and Eve were in the Garden man has had to pay for both. Why not give him a break, and let woman pay for her own. It might help solve the depression."

—L. Louis Loria, A1 of Boone.

"No, in the first place it puts the woman in an awkward position with the feeling that the man would rather have gone with someone else if he had the money. I don't think a woman or man with real self respect could combat convention enough to make a practice of it, and until human nature changes, dutch dates will be out."

—Lorrain Harrington, A1 of Wyoming.

"In cases where men and women are dating regularly, I am in favor of letting the woman share part of the entertainment expense on certain occasions. This should be the case in other years as well as in leap year. The dutch date plan as introduced on some campuses this year may be appreciated by men to a limited extent but to make it a rule for a time seems frivolous and bound to be accepted by the men as somewhat of a gag."

—Frances Sebern, A4 of Iowa City.

Man Fatally Wounds Mother; Shoots Self

KANKAKEE, Ill., March 14 (AP)—Failing to induce his 83 year old mother to enter a suicide pact with him, Sherman M. Hawk, 63, an official in the Kankakee Tile and Brick company, today shot and fatally wounded her and then killed himself.

The double tragedy took place in a ward of the Kankakee state hospital where Mrs. Hawk had been a patient for several years.

Test Police Radio
DES MOINES (AP)—The new Iowa police radio system is to undergo further tests to eliminate a few "blind spots" discovered by radio equipped cars which toured the state last week. The station was heard in Pittsburgh and at Memphis, Tenn.

Mystery Still Covers Clue to Abductors

Sheriff Parker Insists on Investigator From East

SANDUSKY, O., March 14 (AP)—Two investigations here in connection with the Lindbergh kidnaping tonight were almost as mysterious as the kidnaping itself.

Sheriff John W. Parker of Erie county, who yesterday said he had a "hot tip" continued to refuse any information about it. He asked Hopewell, N. J., police to send a special investigator, but Colonel H. Norman Schwarzkopf, telegraphed Prosecutor Alvin F. Weichel here to assign an investigator.

Refuses to Reveal "Clue"

Prosecutor Weichel today said the sheriff refused to reveal the "clue." Parker insisted he wanted a special investigator from the east because his own deputies were too well known here.

Police Chief A. C. Weingates, who Saturday said he had a man under surveillance who had provided valuable information, likewise continued silent. The chief returned today from a mysterious trip yesterday, but declined to discuss his activities.

Frank Berg Located

"It was reported in a previous bulletin," said Schwarzkopf, "that the police were looking for Frank Berg, who was involved in the attempted kidnaping of Max Phillips of Eatontown, N. J. Frank Berg has been located by police and arrangements are being made to question him tomorrow."

Exonerated of "Roma"

Colonel Schwarzkopf was asked to clarify statements regarding inquiry into Denver, Colo., gangsters and the subsequent exoneration of "Roma" and associates.

Police Chief Advances Theory

HOPEWELL, N. J., March 14 (AP)—Police Chief Snek of Hopewell township, a community to the east of this town, contributes a theory about the Lindbergh kidnaping.

As he expressed it tonight, he feels that the kidnap plot could not have been carried out without the assistance of some of the people living in the vicinity of the Lindbergh estate.

Someone, he reasons, must have had detailed knowledge about the hilly terrain or a speedy getaway could not have been accomplished. He believes, too, he said, that a car familiar to this area was used, for a foreign car would have been spotted immediately.

Hindenburg to Battle Again

Agrees to Formality of Running; Hitler Issues Appeal

BERLIN, March 14 (AP)—President von Hindenburg, still first in the hearts of the Reich, agreed today to the formality of running again for re-election and the opposition parties began dicker for advantage on the second vote April 10.

Satisfied

The venerable former field marshal expressed satisfaction over the seven million vote margin he rolled up in Sunday's election over Adolf Hitler, his nearest competitor, and informed a delegation he would continue to stand as a candidate in the compulsory re-election.

While his re-election is considered certain, the maneuvering of political leaders indicated that he would fight his major battle with Hitler, head of the national socialists (fascists) who already has announced he would run again in an effort to increase his eleven million votes.

Hitler Speaks

Hitler issued a fervent appeal to his followers from Munich to "resume the fight in the fiercest form. We can no longer show indulgence. I expect the party, to the last man to increase its efforts without hesitation. I will take the lead myself."