Senator Smith W. Brookhart Outlines Plan for Economic Recovery at Legion Building

500 Hear Iowan's Talk as Campaign Gets Under Way

By H. BERNARD HOOK
"Once before that sang tried to keep me out of office. They got out a candidate for the labor vote. They got a candidate for the farmer vote. They got out a candidate for the soldier vote. They got out a candidate for the stand pat vote. They got out a candidate for the merchant vote. They didn't leave any vote for me, but I got 20,000 more than the 35 per cent required by law. This year I want to get 50,000 or 60,000 more."
Calm and confident, Senator Smith W. Brookhart outlined to more than 500 "friends and fellow citizens" at the American Legion Community building last night why he thinks he should be returned to the United States senate.

Answers Field's Charges

First he answered the charges of putting his family on the government payroll made yesterday by Henry Field and lending too much interest to the "bear" raids on Wall street. "Yes, I have two sons working for the government," said the senator, "but I'm proud that they won their positions through civil service examinations. Goodness knows that I haven't got enough prestige with the administration to get anybody a job."

Government in Business

Declaring that it was time to put the government in business, even as 1932 had seen the entry of business into government, the Iowa senator outlined a three-point program of economic recovery. "I maintain that Uncle Sam is the only one who can and will help us out of this depression," he asserted, "and this is how it must be done."

The buying power of agriculture must be restored by giving farmers cost of production prices plus a reasonable profit.

(2) Unemployed labor must be given employment to uphold the standard of living for themselves and their families.
(3) The money standard of this country must be organized so that debts can be paid on the same standard on which the money was borrowed.

Government Must Help

"Such a reorganization must be brought about if this civilization is to survive," added Brookhart, as he explained in detail the proposed mechanics in each step.
"Agriculture will have to do it again," said the senator, "but unless the government steps in to help, that recovery will be impossible."
He advocated establishment of the war time federal grain corporation, which would be equipped to control all exports and thus fix prices.
"The recovery of agriculture would relieve one-third of the unemployment problem," said Brookhart. "The other two-thirds should be employed on a nation-wide public improvement program."

Economic Laws at Fault

"Irregular economic laws, promoted by the wizards of Wall street, and not the World war, are responsible for this depression," insisted Iowa's senior Republican senator. He explained that whereas the United States had been a debtor nation before the war, it had emerged from it with a profit of 10 billion dollars after all debts had been paid, becoming the creditor nation. "How can war cause depression when it brings a profit of 10 billion dollars?" asked Brookhart.
The senator was introduced by Kenneth Dunlop, Republican chairman of Johnson county. At a dinner given by the local Republican committee at 6:15 p.m., Brookhart was introduced by Judge Harold D. Evans. One hundred twenty-five persons attended the dinner.

Minister Suffers Injury

TAMA, May 3 (AP)—The Rev. J. F. Coleman, Algonka, was injured seriously today when his automobile collided with one driven by F. W. H. Hardenbrook of Cleveland, Ohio, on the Lincoln highway here. Coleman was thrown from his car and suffered concussion of the brain and severe shock. Hardenbrook was unhurt.

NO SUIT Only the Pants

PEORIA, Ill., May 3 (AP)—It took just 11 minutes and one wisecrack to acquit Jasper Blotto on a liquor charge in federal court today. The jury was selected in one minute. Prosecution evidence was presented in 10 minutes. The evidence included a pair of trousers found at a liquor still and identified as belonging to Blotto, by papers in his pockets.
Defense Attorney John Dougherty asked Judge Charles F. Briggle for a directed verdict of not guilty. The judge deliberated over whether the pants were sufficient evidence to connect Blotto with the still.
"You now, your honor," Attorney Dougherty said, "It takes more than a pair of pants to make a suit."
The judge smiled, nodded, and Blotto was dismissed.

Council Sets Election Date

Students Will Vote on Class Officers May 17

Annual spring student elections of class officers will occur May 17, it was announced last night following a meeting of the student council, and all nominations for office must be in by May 10.
"Although this does not conform with the provisions of the newly adopted constitution," explained Robert A. Knudson, L2 of Ft. Dodge, president of the council, "it was unanimously decided by the council to use these dates because of the shortage of time until school closes for the summer."
Voting Committee
It was also decided at council meeting to add two members to the committee on voting, who will be appointed by the president before the elections occur.
Nominations blanks may be obtained from Robert W. Brown, A3 of Sioux City, and all candidates must comply with the rules as set forth in Section 2 of the constitution, as follows:
Rules
All candidates for election to student council from all colleges shall at least two weeks before the election notify the secretary of the student council, in writing, of their intention to stand for election. With such notification, each candidate must include a statement, signed by himself, stating that he is a bona fide student in the university, his class; that he has a grade point average, maintained throughout his attendance at the university, of at least 2.00; and to the best of his knowledge and belief, his expectations of remaining a student in his university, and for how long. Appropriate forms shall be issued by the student council for this purpose. Each statement shall be countersigned by 25 qualified voters of the candidate's college.

Hold Clinton Man for Violation of Drug Act

DAVENPORT, May 3 (AP)—Probable federal prosecution of Lester Tilton of Clinton in United States district court here for violating the food and drug act was indicated today by Ross Mowry, federal attorney for southern Iowa.
Tilton is now under arrest in Chicago for alleged administration of cancer cures. His medicine, according to Mowry's information, violates the federal law.
The case will come up here at the fall court term.

Opinions Conflict as Senate Committee Reports on Beer

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP)—Sharply conflicting views on the effect of legalizing beer were presented to the senate today as its manufacturers committee reported adversely a bill to permit manufacture of four per cent brew.
A committee majority of seven asserted in a report prepared by Senator Hatfield (R., W. Va.) that it would "add to enforcement difficulties" and retard rather than accelerate economic recovery.
A minority of four, in a statement presented by Senator Motcalf (R., R. I.), said beer would promote temperance and provide revenue and employment. It decreed prohibition, saying its effect "seems to have been the driving of people to hard liquors with a resultant increase in drunkenness, deaths from alcoholism and general lawlessness."

Garner Piles Heavy Vote in City Districts

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3 (AP)—Alfred E. Smith and Franklin D. Roosevelt were running neck and neck in the first complete returns from scattered precincts in today's California Democratic presidential primary while John N. Garner piled up a big lead in Los Angeles county.
Returns from 141 complete precincts scattered over 33 counties gave: Roosevelt 2,457; Garner 2,172; Smith 2,401. There are 10,271 precincts in the state.
Garner Leads
Incomplete returns from 947 precincts all but 47 of them in Los Angeles county, gave: Roosevelt 16,256; Garner 31,101; Smith 15,454.
The uncontested Republican delegation pledged to President Hoover received 7,362 votes in 141 complete precincts and 75,671 in 947 incomplete precincts, 900 of which were in Los Angeles county.
Predict Strong Show
These returns bore out predictions that the Texan would run strong in the heavily populated districts of Los Angeles county where he was aided by the active support of William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury.

Norbeck, Green Lead in S. Dakota

SIoux FALLS, S. D., May 3 (AP)—Probable victory for Senator Peter Norbeck and Gov. Warren E. Green on the Republican ticket was indicated tonight as both continued to pile up leads in unofficial returns from today's primary election, but the Democratic contests developed close races and uncertain outcomes.
Decision as to the presidential choice of the Republican party's 11 delegates from this state, also was in doubt with returns too meager to forecast the final outcome, although the "regular" slate, announced as favorable to President Hoover, held a slight lead.

Roosevelt Piles Up Lead in Alabama

MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 3 (AP)—Delegates-at-large pledged to vote for Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt for the Democratic nomination for president at the national convention piled up nearly a three to one lead tonight as returns from today's primary trickled in.
While the Roosevelt delegates in the state-at-large race, commanding four of the state's 24 votes, piled up a lead, in the districts the New York governor's supporters also pulled to the front.
Roosevelt is assured of eight of the district votes.

Americans to Ask Retrial in Honolulu Case

HONOLULU, May 3 (AP)—Developments in Washington today held the attention of the four Americans found guilty of manslaughter in the slaying of Joseph Kahahual, asserted attacker of Mrs. Thalia Massie. These developments included moves for congressional pardon.
Honolulu, although still buzzing with comment on the sensational case, had settled into outward calm while awaiting the sentencing Friday of Lieut. Thomas H. Massie, Mrs. Granville Fortescue, mother of Mrs. Massie, and E. J. Lord and Albert O. Jones, enlisted men of the navy.
The first step toward escaping the penalty on the manslaughter verdict returned by the racially mixed jury will be a motion for a new trial.
The defense, headed by Clarence Darrow, admit, however, this will be little more than a technical step for the sake of the record, with little hope it will succeed.

Methodist Bishops Ask for Stronger Enforcement of National Prohibition Laws

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 3 (AP)—A "more vigorous" continuation of national prohibition and an immediate reconstruction of existing relations between industry and the worker were called for today by the board of bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church in an episcopal letter to the general conference. Substitutes and modification plans for the eighteenth amendment were waived aside in the message.
Rally Slogan
As a rallying cry against state liquor control, the following slogan was put forward:
"We can no more have a nation half drunk and half sober than the days of Lincoln it was possible to have a nation half slave and half free."

Capital and Labor

The message, read to the quadrennial conference by the elderly Bishop William P. Anderson of Boston, on behalf of the board, was equally forceful in its indictment of the present relationship between capital and labor.
The document warned that an ever increasing monopoly on the part of "favored owners of the resources of production" was making for the eventual destruction of all business, as well as of both society and state. It urged an abandonment of a "might-make-right" system of business.

Atlanta Will House Capone for 11 Years

CHICAGO, May 3 (AP)—Closely flanked by half a dozen federal agents, Al Capone was hurried from his county jail cell late tonight and started on his way to the federal penitentiary at Atlanta.
The gang leader, who must serve an 11 year sentence for income tax violation, was escorted from the jail entrance to one of a caravan of police cars waiting at the curb.
Speeds Through Loop
The convoy sped swiftly through loop streets to the Dearborn station, arriving a full hour before the departure of the Atlanta-bound C. & E. I. train.
Capone, smiling broadly, was whisked into the Atlanta car.
"I am glad to get started," were the gang leader's only words as he boarded the train.
Capone was permitted to take only $10 with him and a limited supply of his $30 shirts and $10 neckties, as prisoners are not permitted to carry hampering luggage.
Made All Preparations
He had made all preparations for his departure earlier in the day. His mother, Mrs. Teresa Capone, his wife, Mae; his son, Alphonse, Jr., 12; his sister, Mrs. Mafalda Maritote, and a younger brother, Matthew, said goodbye to him in a brief farewell in his cell.
As on all his public appearances, Capone was impeccably attired. His dark blue overcoat reflected the tailor's iron, and a wide brimmed hat framed his broad face.
Appears Cheerful
In contrast to a sullen, savage mood just before being taken from his county jail cell, the massive de-throned gang leader appeared cheerful as he began his journey to 11 years of confinement.
He posed for photographers cheerfully, and the station rounda boomed as a battery of flashlights were exploded.
Federal officials were so successful in shrouding the departure of the gangster with secrecy, that few persons were on hand when he arrived at the station.
Escort Rehearsed Roles
Rehearsed in their roles to prevent any last minute efforts to free Capone, the police and federal officers swung swiftly into an impregnable escort.
He entered the police car in company with Victor Morici, alleged automobile thief, who was being taken to Tampa, Fla., for trial.
On the train with Capone was United States Marshal H. C. W. Laubenheimer, Deputy Marshals Thompson, Nordsek, Glasser, O'Neill and Clark, and two railroad detectives. The party had reserved six lower berths and a separate bedroom.

Board Members Resigns

WATERLOO, May 3 (AP)—Elected to the East Waterloo school board on a platform opposing continuance of Supt. C. W. Kline, superintendent, Dr. J. Cecil Bickley resigned from the board after it had fixed Kline's salary at $4,200 annually by a four to two vote. No action was taken on the resignation.

William Allen White Declares in Favor of Dry Law Referendum

EMPORIA, Kan., May 3 (AP)—Comparing the prohibition situation to that which precipitated the Civil war, William Allen White, noted Kansas editor and a supporter of prohibition, today declared in favor of a referendum on the question.
"I believe that the American constitution should be amended to provide against such a crisis as this one where the pent-up wrath of a minority menaces all our institutions," White, a Republican, announced today.

Farmers of Eight States Favor Strike

DES MOINES, May 3 (AP)—Farmers from eight states decided at a mass meeting here today that a buying and selling strike would be the best means of obtaining equitable prices for their products.
About 2,000 men and women came from Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin, Montana, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Minnesota, and Missouri to hear John A. Simpson of Oklahoma, president of the National Farmers union, and other leaders of industry and agriculture, express their views on economic conditions.
Holiday Association
They formed an organization to be called the Farmers Holiday association and recommended that July 4, 1932, be set for calling the strike "if in the opinion of the officers, this movement can be accomplished in no other way."
Briefly, the proposal is that farmers neither buy articles nor sell their own products, except among themselves. In this way, speakers at the all day session declared, congress can be compelled to enact legislation the farmers have desired and the prices of farm goods will be raised to a parity with manufactured items, and prosperity will result.

Frazier Bill

Other resolutions called "upon the congress of the United States to take immediate action leading to the passage of the Frazier bill, the Wheeler bill, the Swank-Thomas bill, and the Patman bill for the full payment of soldiers adjusted compensation certificates, if they desire to avert drastic action on the part of our citizens," and urged immediate organization of county and township groups to carry out the proposals of the holiday plan.

Sophomores to Take Last Exams Today

The final session of the national sophomore objective tests will be held this morning at the fieldhouse, from 9 to 11 o'clock. Then follows a half day of rest until the sophomores resume their studies tomorrow morning after the two-day suspension of classwork allowed during the tests.
Students' examination papers will be compiled with those of other universities, by the American Council on Education, into a series of statistical tables which will be used to demonstrate student achievement.

Four Events Fill Program for Today; Mason City Leads With Number of Contestants

Winners Will Qualify for National Meet; Massed Chorus Concert Has Special Prominence in Festival This Year

Forty-five champions!
That will be the outcome of four days of music, vocal and instrumental, with which the best of more than 3,000 Iowa high school students will show their abilities for the seventh time in the annual state music festival.
The zest of competition will first be felt at 7:30 tonight when brass, woodwind, and string groups will meet in natural science auditorium and liberal arts assembly. Participating schools include Mason City, which will send representatives to 18 of the possible 33 events, Abraham Lincoln of Council Bluffs, Roosevelt of Des Moines, Burlington, and Central of Sioux City.
Mason City Largest Entry
Mason City will have the largest number of title-seekers, while the Council Bluffs school will be represented in 14 branches of competition. Roosevelt, Burlington, and Central each will compete in 11 divisions.
Judges for tonight's section of the festival will be Oscar W. Anderson, supervisor of music in Chicago public schools; Jacob A. Evanson, Western Reserve university, Cleveland.

Sharps and Flats

By GEORGE KALBACH
Just before the battle mother... and everything's being prepared for lots of action and lots of participants in the University of Iowa's four-day state high school music festival, with Prof. Phillip G. Clapp, head of the music department, and Bruce E. Mahan, director of the extension division, each backed by a staff of assistants, as general overseers of the contest.

TODAY'S PROGRAM

Evening
7:30—Brass, woodwind groups, natural science auditorium.
—String trio, quartet, liberal arts assembly.
9:45—Presentation of awards, natural science auditorium.
Ohio; and Dean James T. Quarles of the school of fine arts, University of Missouri, all of whom will decide on the quality of the sections in brass and woodwind groups in natural science auditorium.
Awards by Bruce Mahan
Richard Czerwonky of Buah conservatory, Chicago; Prof. Howard C. Davis, Villa Maria college, Erie, Pa.; and N. DeRubertis, director of the Kansas City orchestral training school, Kansas City, Mo., will judge the string trio and string quartet events in the liberal arts building tonight. Prize awards will be made by Bruce E. Mahan, director of the extension division.
A dozen groups will defend championships this year, and 13 schools which won second places in the 1931 competition will return to make a bid for first honors. At the top of the roster are three defending concert and marching champions and two of three title holding orchestras.
Qualify for National Meet
Chance for honors will not end with the conclusion of the music festival. In 19 instrumental solo and small ensemble events, the first and second place winners automatically qualify for the national championship contest at Marion, Ind., May 20 and 21.
Changes in festival practice, outlined by Prof. Charles B. Righter of the music department yesterday, as compared with previous festivals, are headed by the additional prominence given the massed chorus concert event, in which 450 high school students will take part Friday evening. The event will be held at the fieldhouse and will be under the direction of four festival judges: Mr. Davis, Mr. Quarles, Mr. Evanson, and Glenn C. Balm of Northwestern university.
Czerwonky Soloist
Soloist for the Friday evening concert will be Mr. Czerwonky, violinist, who will be assisted by Prof. Phillip G. Clapp, head of the music department.
Of special interest will be the marching band contest at Iowa field Saturday afternoon, Professor Righter said yesterday. The arrangements call for formation of the 17 participants at Iowa Union, a march to the field, and a massed concert at the conclusion of the contest. In which the bands will be directed by Prof. A. A. Harding of the University of Illinois, festival judge.
Inauguration of the new fine arts annex, located on Gilbert street between Jefferson street and Iowa avenue, will be the honor of class C orchestras when they meet Friday afternoon for their competition.
Moffitts Have Son
Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Moffitt, 913 Second avenue, are the parents of a seven pound boy, John Steuart, born yesterday at 6:30 p.m. at Mercy hospital.
moved, though, and history does not record any nose-punching.
And speaking of motion pictures, the complete story of this year's contest will be recorded in movies by the visual education department of the extension division.

Director Mahan has been playing the game of "Blanket, blanket, who's got a blanket?" these last few days... in fact, he had to make a trip to the Amana colonies yesterday to get 100 more.

These blankets, together with others which Mr. Mahan and his staff have been able to secure up around Iowa City, will be used on some 1,500 cots which are set up in various university and civic buildings, ready for the contestants as they arrive today. The use of 73 private homes has also been arranged for.

Remember how pleased a certain high school musician was with his stay in a fraternity house at a previous festival, the quite innocently remarked that he had stayed in such a nice hotel, the extension division has again called upon fraternities and sororities to cooperate by sharing their spare suites, parlor floors, davenport, bath- tubs and other sleeping quar- ters, with the visitors.

The only trouble with this seems to be that some of the organizations want to get in a little high-powered spring rushing on the side and, finding that some home town prospect is on the festival list, they have been raising havoc with the plans of the extension division by asking at the last minute to have some unknown guest changed for one upon whom they may profitably use some good Greek arguments.

Statistics show that the smallest entering band is that of Redfield, class C high school, with 28 members, and the smallest orchestra is that of Whiting high school, class C, with 23 musicians who will have to travel nearly across the state to Iowa City, since Whiting is just 10 miles from the Missouri river.

At the other extreme in size of groups are found several class A orchestras and bands whose memberships reach the maximum limit of 80.
"Well, this is the seventh annual contest, and I've seen 'em all," is Lee Cochran's claim for recognition. Mr. Cochran is storekeeper for the extension division. Incidentally, he was ready last year to defend himself and the time schedule for the marching band contest, by fistcuffs if necessary. It seems that a representative of a news reel offered to punch Lee's nose if he didn't keep the hands from moving away from their point of assembly near Iowa Union until the photographer had completed his shots. The bands were

Sons of Union Veterans Will Have Meeting

Sons of Union Veterans will hold a regular business meeting Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the court house.

Garden Clubs Will Gather at North Liberty

Members Cooperate in Drive to Beautify Route 161

Plans have been made for another meeting of the combined garden clubs which are promoting the scenic highway project to beautify U. S. highway 161 between Iowa City and Cedar Rapids.

Associate members are property owners along the highway, either farmers or proprietors of business establishments, such as lunch stands or filling stations, who have shown an interest in the project and have enrolled in the combined clubs for the purpose of participating in the plant exchange. These members are not required to pay dues.

The purpose of the exchange is to procure for each member a greater variety of plants, trees, flowers, and shrubs than he would otherwise have. By this method, town dwellers can secure wild flowers and plants for their gardens, and those living in the country will be able to have cultivated plants, all without expense to either party of the exchange.

The Daily Iowan's Daily Pattern

Youthful and Smart

Pattern 2337

STEP-BY-STEP INSTRUCTION DIAGRAMS GIVEN WITH THIS PATTERN

By ANNE ADAMS

Why worry about budgets when a frock as simple as this can be stunning and terribly inexpensive to make. Not only is the yardage small, but the frock is just as smart in cotton as in silk. The model was developed in printed dimity, but you might use lawn, voile, shantung, linen or silk crepe in plain color or print. The capelets cross back and front and are held with buttons.

Pattern 2337 is obtainable only in sizes 14 to 20 and 32 to 42. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards of 36-inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred), for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE WANTED. SEND FOR OUR CURRENT FASHION CATALOG. This beautiful, colorful book offers 32 pages of chic, authentic Anne Adams styles for adults and children. The newest frocks for afternoon, evening and sports wear, exquisite lingerie, attractive house dresses and adorable kiddie models are featured—all personally chosen by Anne Adams and all fashionable, practical and easy and inexpensive to make. PRICE OF CATALOG, FIFTEEN CENTS. CATALOG AND PATTERN TOGETHER, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS. Address all mail and orders to The Daily Iowan Pattern Department, 243 West 17th Street, New York City.

Albert Fall to Leave Prison in Five Days

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP)—Barring unforeseen delays, Albert Bacon Fall, one time secretary of the interior, will be freed from prison within five days.

Justice department officials said today that, with time for good behavior, May 8 is the date for the expiration of the sentence imposed upon Fall for accepting a bribe while a member of President Harding's cabinet.

The only cabinet officer ever to be convicted on a felony charge, Fall was also the only person indicted in connection with the leasing of naval oil reserves to be sent to the penitentiary.

McComas Up for Re-Election

Present Sheriff Born in County; Promises Economy

Sheriff Don McComas placed his name before the voters of Johnson county yesterday for re-election when he filed nomination papers in the office of County Auditor Ed Sulek.

Born and reared in Johnson county, Don McComas has been a resident of Iowa City for the last 11 years. He has held the office of sheriff since Jan. 1, 1921. Filing of nomination papers yesterday assures his name being placed on the ballot for the June primaries, June 6. He will run on the Democratic ticket.

Economy in the operation of his office was stressed in a statement made yesterday. "I have endeavored to perform the duties of my office efficiently and economically, without fear or favor," he said. "If re-elected, I will continue this policy."

"I have been conducting my office with only two deputies in spite of the increased work brought on when the handling of the drivers' licenses was added to the duties of the sheriff's office. By this means, a saving of the salaries of any additional help was realized."

Passengers in automobiles entering California the last year totaled 2,274,748, an increase of 63,338 over 1929.

Alienist Says Dentist Sane While Killing

Father, Iowa Farmer, Testifies in Son's Defense

SEATTLE, May 3 (AP)—Dr. D. A. Nicholson, alienist, testifying for the state, late today said Dr. Albert G. McKeown, Seattle dentist charged with second degree murder for the beating to death of his mother, Mrs. Rhoda McKeown, 81, of Musactine, Ia., was sane.

Dr. Nicholson, first rebuttal witness after the defense rested its case today, said he had been unable to find any trace of insanity in the dentist, either from a personal examination or from the defense testimony.

Pleads Temporary Insanity

Dr. McKeown based his defense on a plea of temporary insanity. The defense rested its case following the testimony of M. P. McKeown, 78 year old Iowa farmer, who came here to aid his son and after the jury had visited the dentist's home where the slaying occurred.

The elder McKeown expressed the opinion his wife was mentally deranged and that she had never acted as a mother toward her elder son, Dr. A. Royal McKeown, a Seattle physician, but "had liked Albert."

Defunct Bank Pays Dividend to Depositors

A 10 per cent dividend, totaling approximately $252,000, was authorized for depositors in the Johnson County bank by a court order signed yesterday by District Judge Harold D. Evans.

This, the second 10 per cent dividend to be paid by the Johnson County Savings bank, will bring the total amount paid to depositors in the defunct bank to $575,000.

On May 1, according to the second quarterly report of Ben S. Summerfield, examiner in charge, the bank had $254,000 on hand. $252,000 was named as the amount needed for the payment of a dividend.

The Music Festival

IOWA CITY and the University of Iowa will play host, beginning today, to more than 3,000 high school students, who will come here for the seventh annual music contest.

It is rather a far cry from the efficiently handled music contest of today back to the first contests held in this state. Musical history must go back to the early 1920's and to the city of Cedar Rapids for the first actual contest worthy of the name.

It was through the obvious necessity for more space that the festival finally came to Iowa City. Interest grew by leaps and bounds after the first state meetings, the participants increased to the thousands, and the university became the logical center for such a contest.

It was only a matter of routine to determine the procedure of district contests, adapted as another measure to cut down the huge volume of contestants that would have taxed any state meet if they had come to one center.

It seems that Mr. Bennett built better than he knew when he wrote the first letters to two other superintendents of school regarding the first state music contests in the early 1920's. It might be well this year to pay homage, not only to the man who first had the dream of a huge state music festival, perhaps as he led his 50 piece orchestra at Rockford, but to those members of the festival committee, past and present, who have made this mammoth contest what it is today.

The Pulitzer Drama Prize

FOR THE FIRST time in history the Pulitzer prize for drama has been awarded to a musical comedy. Doubtless the prize winning production deserved special recognition, but the fact that it was awarded the more or less staid Pulitzer honor may have a special significance.

The award would tend to suggest, at least, that America is in truth discrediting the time-honored drama in favor of the lighter, more pleasurable entertainment of sound sensations. The talking picture, long the sworn enemy of the legitimate stage, seems to have trained the public to hold a greater appreciation for musical effects, singing, dancing, comedy skits, and jazz bands.

Although the prize was, of course, not given to a talking picture presentation, the musical comedy is apparently one of the few types of legitimate production that can still draw popular favor, can successfully tour the provinces. And the drama award clinches the growing realization that a new taste has been created in the American public by the advent of sound reproduction.

The talkies have many critics, but even the most severe of these must admit that the sound films have, in a very short life span, founded a new art, have exerted considerable social influence. And those who defend the talking picture would not be far wrong if they pointed to the Pulitzer award as the first public recognition of that influence.

A Threat to Justice

AN ANTI-CLIMAX to the world-famous Massie case was a petition to Gov. Lawrence M. Judd of the Hawaiian islands to pardon Lient. Thomas Massie and his associates, circulated among members of the house of representatives by Representative Thatcher of Kentucky.

There is considerable sentiment in this country that the naval officer was justified in his attack upon the man who had accorred Mrs. Massie such brutal treatment, and there is little doubt that most men in a similar situation would have acted as Lientenant Massie did, when a court had acquitted the known assailant of his wife.

But, a jury, selected according to the regulations of the American court system, decided that the officer and his companions were guilty of a crime which they had confessed. Apparently, unwritten laws and insanity pleas are not bases for requital to Hawaiians. Should the four Americans be pardoned now, the foundation of all the United States has tried to build up in Hawaii would be threatened.

Law must be enforced, not by the man-to-man contact of savagery, but by courts and official edicts, the United States has impressed upon Hawaiians. That the court decides how justice shall be administered and the people must abide with the court's decision, is the edict laid down in Hawaii by American rule.

Should the four Americans concerned in the Massie case be pardoned, it is apparent that the effect would be on the natives. "American rule is a one-way rule," they will say. "It is only for Hawaiians—when it hurts Americans, then they can ignore it; the national government will set it aside."

The United States has made it a policy to teach the Hawaiians self-government, to impart upon them the principles of democracy and justice that characterize the federal government. It has happened that the teacher must recite the lesson he taught, that the doctor now must take his own medicine.

Justice has spoken in Hawaii—the people of the United States may disagree with that justice, even as it may doubt the right justice has to keep Tom Mooney locked up in prison. But justice, having spoken, cannot be set aside. The government should do everything possible to improve conditions in Hawaii to prevent a repetition of the Massie tragedy, but the Massie verdict must stand: justice has decreed it, and justice would disappear as a power if an alien influence were permitted to discredit her in Hawaii.

Pugilist announces he was once a baker. So now they call him the Dough Boy. Most pugilists like their dough.

TODAY'S TOPICS

By FRANK JAFFE

Varying slightly from a fixed policy of adhering to the wishes of those closely concerned in the Lindbergh kidnaping case, press associations carried, the other day, a more clarifying account of the "inside dope" than has appeared within the last few weeks, at least. As the case enters its sixtieth day with no apparent success yet in sight, the justification for hushing it into oblivion becomes more and more slim.

The latest version concerns three kidnapers who hurried the child from the Lindbergh Sourdland mountain estate to the Delaware river, close by, there to board a boat, sail down the river, round the southern tip of New Jersey, and then sail along the coast to Martha's Vineyard, off the Massachusetts's coast.

The three men entered negotiations with the Lindberghs and two of them went ashore to arrange the $50,000 ransom paid by the flying colonel to the supposed kidnaper in a Bronx cemetery. These men never returned to the boat. The one remaining in possession of the child became suspicious at failure to hear from his two cohorts and contacted Colonel Lindbergh with a demand for money for himself.

Meanwhile a new underworld unit, supposedly one of the Capone interests in the east, has offered to aid the colonel in restoring his child to him, with the understanding that if its efforts are successful, much credit must publicly be given to the gang leader, who by that time, will be safe behind some penitentiary walls.

But 64 days seem a bit too long for public sentiment to last. Time, in some instances, taxes public opinion, especially when it realizes that forces beyond its ability to battle are at work against it. And so, as editorials become fewer and news stories become scarce, America's most famous flyer and his wife, the idols of three continents, must fight their battle alone, for the forces of law and order have long since displayed their inability to be of assistance.

If, and when, the Lindbergh heir is returned to his parents, the know-it-alls will nod and say "I told you so. They couldn't get away with that in America." And if the search is fruitless, and newspapers withdraw their offers of reward, the Lindberghs will thank the people for their cooperation—but I wonder what the people will reply?

The little island of Sicily suggests a striking example of law enforcement in a big way. For years the sinister hand of the Mafia gangs that infested Sicily and the mainland of Italy has reached into every home. Bombings, assassinations, kidnapings, cattle thefts, and illegal tax levies are only a few of the crimes attributed to them.

No one who was marked for doom by the Mafia, though he pulled up his stakes and settled in some foreign land, ever escaped. Books have been written about them, mystery stories based on their crimes, but until recently they flourished, defying government, police, and revengeful victims.

But the other day 244 men and women were sentenced in one batch to a total of 1,200 years in prison, ending the criminal career of one of Sicily's greatest Mafia gangs. They had been preceded in court by more than 1,000 others who had been rounded up in one of the greatest criminal hunts of all time.

Yet over in Sicily, they think that isn't such a big coup for the law because it was just something they had planned on doing and succeeded in. They plan still greater coups. Over here, there is great rejoicing and unbounded enthusiasm over the sentencing of one gangster chieftain. In Sicily they get the leaders and all their followers. In Chicago, they get one leader and create a new position for someone from the ranks to step up and fill.

EXAMINATION SCHEDULE

Second Semester, 1931-1932. Wednesday, May 25, 8 a.m. to Thursday, June 2, 4 p.m. The regular program of class work will be suspended, and the following semester-examination program substituted for it. Classes will meet for examination in the rooms in which they have been regularly meeting (except classes in SPECIAL GROUPS A, B, C, D and E, as shown in the form below; and Speech (2), (3), and (4) as shown at "N.B." below).

The Program Committee directs the attention of both students and instructors and professors, to the regulation that there is to be no deviation, in the case of any examination, from this schedule, except as authorized by the Committee on Admission and Classification, on the student's written petition, filed in ample time, supported by the recommendation of the department concerned,—to provide relief from an excessive number of examinations within a single day. Deviation for the purpose of getting through earlier will not be permitted.

In the case of conflicts (within the SPECIAL GROUPS A, B, C, D and E) the schedule itself, as presented below, provides a general method of making adjustments.

All classes whose first weekly meetings have occurred as indicated in the rectangles below, meet for examination during the periods noted at the tops of these three columns, and on the days noted in the rectangles directly opposite at the left of the double vertical line.

Table with columns for Examination Period (Wednesday May 25, Thursday May 26, Friday May 27, Saturday May 28, Tuesday May 31, Wednesday June 1, Thursday June 2) and rows for SPECIAL GROUP A through E, listing subjects like Acct., Geol., Math, Phys., Chem., etc.

CONFLICTS: In case of conflicting examinations the student should report to the instructor in charge of the first of the two conflicting subjects as listed (Read by columns, and alphabetically) within the particular group, who will arrange a special examination. Report to him, or her, not later than regular class hour on May 9 and 10.

The first meeting of the class means the first lecture or recitation period in courses having both lectures and recitations, and laboratory periods; or, in the case of courses involving only laboratory periods, the first recitation of the first weekly meeting. For example, chemistry 22 meets for lectures T, Th, F at 8. The first meeting is, consequently, Tuesday at 8,—and the class will meet for examination Thursday, May 26, 8 a.m., according to the tabular form above. Again, physics 126 meets twice each week, T, F, for a three-hour laboratory exercise, 1-4. The period for the examination is, therefore, Wednesday, June 1, 8 a.m.

N.B. All sections of freshman speech (2), (3), and (4) will meet in the buildings and rooms and on the days and at the periods designated below:

- 1. Wednesday, May 25, 8-10 (Course 2): Sections AA LA 15 Sections CA LA 6 Sections EA LA 14 AB LA 7 CB LA 105 EB LA 118
- 2. Thursday, May 26, 2-4 (Course 2): Sections BA LA 6 Sections BD LA 13 Sections DC LA 118 BE LA 15 DA LA 7 DD M.U.Stu. BC LA Aud. DE LA 14
- 3. Friday, May 27, 2-4 (Course 2): Sections FA LA 15 Sections GA LA 6 Sections ZA LA 7 FB LA 4 GB LA 118 ZB LA 14
- 4. Saturday, May 28, 2-4 (Course 2): Sections GC LA 118 Sections HC LA 14 Sections IB LA 7 HB LA 16 HE NS Aud. IC LA 15

- 6. Wednesday, June 1, 10-12 (Course 2): Sections JA LA 6 Sections JC LA 15 Sections KB LA 7 JB LA 16 KA LA 4 KC LA 14
- 7. Wednesday, June 1, 2-4 (Course 2): Sections JD NS Aud. Sections LC LA 7 Sections LE LA 4 LD LA 16 LF M.U.Stu. LB LA 15

"ODD" classes,—namely those whose first or only weekly meetings occur on Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays, or Saturdays, or which meet "as arranged," will be assigned for examination, as announced to each such class by the instructor in charge of the class, at one or another of the following periods:

- 1. From 4 to 6 on any day from May 25 to June 2, inclusive.
- 2. Any one of the examination periods assigned, as indicated above, for the examinations in the SPECIAL GROUPS, A, B, C, D and E, since for such "odd" classes, these five examination periods will be found quite available.

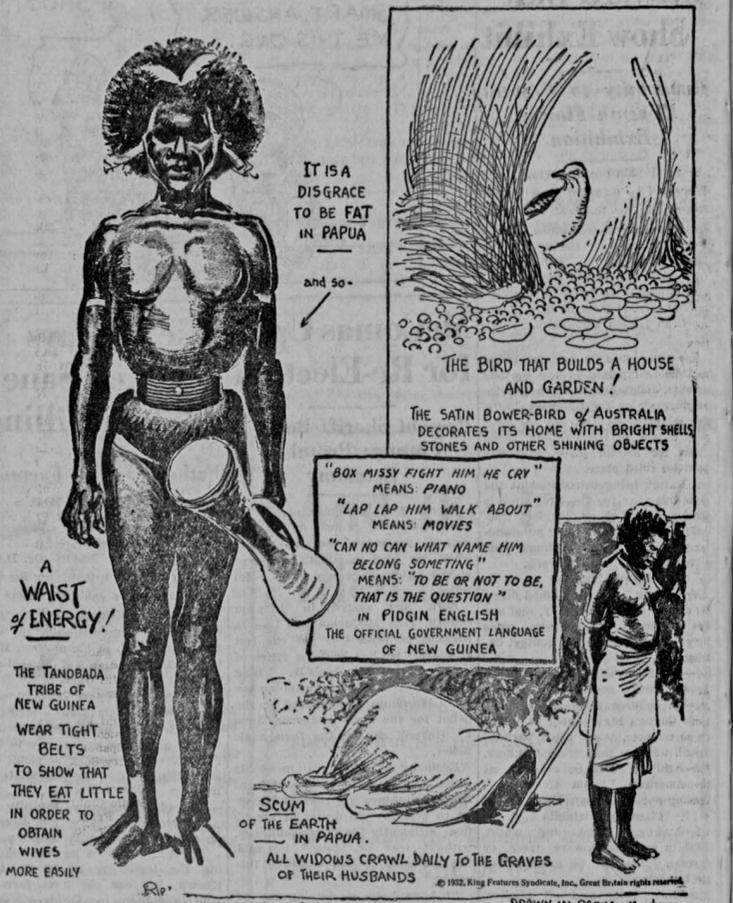

In connection with any such announcement it would doubtless be well for the instructor making the announcement to ascertain whether any member of his class is already under appointment for examination in some other class for the proposed period. To be sure, it is possible to have examinations in more than one class at any of these times,—if no student is a member of more than one of these classes.

According to one clause in the formal faculty action providing for a special semester-examination program, "the instructor may use the examination period as he sees fit provided he holds the class for the full period. He may have an oral or a written examination, or both, or neither. He may continue regular work or he may use the time for review, or for any phase of his work which may seem to him desirable at this time."

According to another faculty regulation, which is on record as adopted by the faculty, a student absent from the final examination should be reported "Abs.," unless the instructor recognizes that his work up to this examination has been a failure, in which case the final report should be "Fd."—even though the student may have been absent from the final examination. No examination should be given, subsequently, to such a student until after the absence has been excused by the Committee on Admission and Classification, as shown by a partially filled special report card, signed by the Secretary of the Committee, as indicating that the absence has been excused and that the student is authorized, subject to the consent and at the convenience of the instructor concerned, to take the final examination.

Explanation of Yesterday's Cartoon: The Belt of Death: In 1909 the non-magnetic ship "Carnegie," built entirely without iron to make it impervious to magnetic interference, discovered that there is an area in the South Pacific ocean completely devoid of oxygen. This area, about 160 miles wide, called the Belt of Death, was located at a depth of 300 feet, extending downward at least 1,000 feet. No living organism depending on oxygen for life can exist in the Belt of Death. It bars the creatures of the deep sea as effectively as though it were constructed out of some impenetrable and indestructible metal. The Philippine Slapping Sport: Two lithe and muscular Igorots step forward. One of them squats on a wooden bench and grasps his right thigh so as to tighten the muscles. The aggressor steps back, rises on his toes and delivers a powerful stroke upon the rigid thigh of the slappee with the flat of his hand. It blood shows beneath the skin of him who got slapped the blow is considered to have carried the proper amount of dynamite, and the aggressor is declared to have won the game, with-out fear of reprisals. Otherwise he must take his turn on the bench and be slapped by his victim to the "first blood."

Smith Hurls Entire Game for Winners

Billy Herman Connects for 4 Hits in 5 Times Up

PITTSBURGH, May 3 (AP)—The Chicago Cubs sneaked up from the rear with five runs in the seventh inning today and tripped the Pittsburgh Pirates 8 to 6.

Bob Smith pitched the entire game for the visitors, although he was nicked for 13 hits. The Cubs got a like number from Swift, Spencer and Brame. Barbee, recruit outfielder, batted for Spencer and poked a long home run.

Billy Herman, Bruins' second sacker, led both teams at bat by clouting out three singles and a double in five times at the plate. Danny Taylor was replaced by Gudat in right field by Manager Rogers Hornsby in the sixth when he misjudged three consecutive fly balls that fell for two triples and a double.

The lower end of the Cub lineup furnished most of their batting punch with Capt. Charley Grimm, Bill Jurges, and Bob Smith each connecting for two hits and between them scoring three runs and driving in four others.

Phils Fall Before Braves by 9 to 4

PHILADELPHIA, May 3 (AP)—The league leading Boston Braves evened the series with the Phils today by the score of 9 to 4.

Excellent relief work by Tom Zachary after the Phils had knocked Seibold from the mound gave the Braves their victory. Bengie, who started for the Phils was not only hit hard but accorded poor support. Hal Lee hit his first homer of the season in the third inning.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Boston.....111 400 020-9 10 4 Philadelphia.....003 010 000-4 10 3 Batteries—Seibold, Zachary and Hargrave; Bengie, Nichols and McCurdy, V. Davis.

Dizzy Dean Hurls Cards to 8-0 Victory

ST. LOUIS, May 3 (AP)—The Cardinals talkative hurler, Jerome Herman "Dizzy" Dean, who won 26 games last season for Houston, won his first game this year when he pitched St. Louis to a 9 to 0 victory over the Cincinnati Reds today.

Dean allowed eight safeties, but Cincinnati's hits were well scattered and he never allowed the visitors to get him in an uncomfortable spot. Owen Carroll was pounded by the Cards for five innings with Wyszog, relief pitcher, faring better. But the champions were off to too good a start.

The Cardinals made it two in a row from Cincinnati by winning today and narrowed the margin separating the two in the standing column, with St. Louis still below the Reds.

The Cards were responsible for what little extra base hitting was done, Pepper knocking a triple, Watkins two doubles and Blades a two bagger.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Cincinnati.....000 000 000-0 8 2 St. Louis.....022 311 000-9 11 0 Batteries—Carroll, Wyszog and Manion, Asby; Dean and Wilson.

Washington has been playing the brand of baseball that causes fans to gurggle. "You've got to hand it to those Senators. They're playing real ball." In their 18 games thus far, the Walter Johnson outfit has lost only four for the enviable average of .778. As might be expected under the management of one of baseball's greatest pitchers, the Senator's forte is hurling.

Last season the Senators fought their way up to within a game of the league topping Philadelphia Athletics. Their mid-summer drive was cut short and they were eventually beaten down into third place by the Yankees late in the campaign. Doped to finish third this year, the Nats have been performing like champs.

The Chicago White Sox, the trading-est club in the American league, is negotiating for its third deal since the season opened with the Yankees. The New Yorkers, blessed with a wealth of sluggers, are maneuvering to strengthen their pitching corps. It is reported that they have eyes on either Ted Lyons or Tommy Thomas or both.

Woefully weak at bat, the Chicagoans are easily led in a deal that promises to make for harder hitting. But if they are not careful the Chicagoans will have a flock of sluggers and no pitchers.

The Bruins' chief weakness, it was predicted, would be at the plate. It was feared that the rookies would be erratic and undependable in clouting. Quite to the contrary some of the fellows labelled as the poorest scorers have been slugging the ball around—fellows like Bill Jurges, Stanley Hack, and Billy Herman.

Loop Leading Nines Tangle Here Friday

Michigan, Iowa to Risk Records; Hurlers Not Steady

Michigan and Iowa baseball players, when they meet here Friday afternoon, will concentrate upon the task of remaining unbeaten in the Western conference, forgetting the unceremonious whippings administered by non-conference teams within the last 10 days.

Each team has won a Big Ten game, and, with Wisconsin, the Hawkeyes and Wolverines are the only nines undefeated in the circuit race. Michigan upset the title-defending Illinois team, and Iowa downed Northwestern in mid-April.

The similarity between the rivals continues in the matter of pitching. In general, the caliber of the hurling has been unreliable. Iowa, with three veterans, has not had the sort of pitching expected at the start of the season, and Michigan's woes are caused by three inexperienced sophomores.

News from Ann Arbor indicates that the Wolverines will use any or all of the sophomores against Iowa, saving Harley McNeal, the only veteran, for the game at Chicago Saturday. McKay, Travers and Westert are the youngsters likely to face the Hawkeyes.

Veterans stud the Wolverine infield with Norman Daniels, the basketball star, at second base. Stanley Kracht at shortstop and Arthur Superko on third base complete the trio. Eugene Braendle and Jack Tompkins are outfielders from last year's team.

Despite the fact that Michigan college teams last week inflicted three defeats upon their team, Coach Otto Vogel does not contemplate important shifts in lineup. In the last five games, he has averaged 10 hits per game, but the error average, five has been costly. Opponents have cracked out an average of 13 hits off Old Gold pitchers.

Four University of Iowa boxers, the first Hawkeyes to ever battle in intercollegiate competition, are being pointed for the intercollegiate championships, sponsored by the Chicago American Legion, this week end at the Chicago stadium.

The men who will trade punches with the boxers from 10 mid-western schools are Elliot Draine, 112 pounds, of Cedar Rapids; Fred Graeber of Aberdeen, S. Dak. 135-pounder; Alford Bell of Casper, Wyo., 147 pounds; and Dave Elderk of Cedar Rapids, 160 pounds.

Seven Big Ten schools have entered teams in the meet: Purdue, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois, Michigan, Ohio, and Iowa. Creighton, Armour, and Loyola are the other schools entered, and Notre Dame may send a scrapper or two.

The meet will take place Friday and Saturday night, with 16 bouts scheduled for each night. Each man will fight twice to determine first, second, third, and fourth places, with total points deciding team honors.

The Iowa squad is limiting its work to stepping through five or six three minute bouts on the wrestling canvas. Although the mat slows the men up considerably, Coach Carl Kaufman believes that they will be better able to stand the pace in the Windy city meet.

The Iowa team will report for their last drill in Iowa City this afternoon, and plan to start for Chicago tomorrow, arriving in time to take a light workout.

This was the last section winner to be decided, the delay being because of a three-way tie in which these two teams, along with Alpha Tau Omega, were engaged.

Following are the five sectional winners who will compete for the large trophy starting tomorrow: Phi Epsilon Kappa, winner of section one; Delta Chi, section two winner; Theta Tau, winner of the third section; Sigma Phi Epsilon, fourth section winner; and Phi Beta Delta, fifth section winner.

Drawings for the championship flight, which will be a round robin affair, are:

Frosh Wins Annual Iowa Steeplechase

Schlaser Leads Field; Varsity Runner in Third Place

The favorite, Verne Schlaser, scratched and covered with mud from jumping brush piles and ditches, stepped ahead of a large field of freshman and varsity runners yesterday afternoon to cop the annual cross country steeplechase run at Iowa field.

Schlaser, a freshman, will receive the frosh traveling trophy as well as a medal for his first place. His time because of the wet conditions was slower than last year's, being 7:03 minutes. Another freshman, Earl Taylor, came in second to Schlaser to take the runner-up medal while Dick Mityalsky of the varsity copied the bronze medal for third place and the varsity trophy. Ribbons will be given to the next ten place winners.

The race was a mile and a quarter long and was over Iowa field and under the base ball bleachers. At intervals hazards had been placed consisting of brush piles and regulation hurdles. Harold Klewin, physical education practice teacher and last year's varsity winner was in charge of the affair.

The other ribbon winners in the order of finish were: Rosenberg (V), Thurston (V), Anderson (F), McElroy (F), Barnard (F), Fladland (F), Oslan (F), James (F), Tabb (F), Spezio (F).

Devoiting most of his attention to the linemen, Coach Ossie Solem sent 45 University of Iowa gridders through a stiff two hour workout on Iowa field yesterday afternoon.

White Rolfe Williams worked with one set of linemen and two sets of backs on signals, Coach Solem drilled the remainder of the squad on blocking and tackling. Two lines were pitted against each other with one on offense and the other on defense, and three sets of backs alternated galloping through the holes opened by the offensive linemen.

In a scrimmage that followed the blocking and tackling practice, the offensive work of several of the backs served notice that the Old Gold attack will be as strong this fall as it was weak during the past season. "Wisp" Wallace, dusky signal barker, side stepped and threw his hips around would be tacklers for consistent gains.

Jerry Kriz, playing fullback in the same set of backs as Wallace, battered his way through the defense in his characteristic bruising fashion. Howard Masden, reserve fullback last fall, who is being converted into a quarterback, also performed well with the pigskin, displaying power on off-tackle smash.

In a short talk given to the squad before leaving the field, Coach Solem promised the men stiffer workouts every day until the spring drills are concluded in about three weeks.

Although several of the cage prospects are still too husky with track to engage in the workouts, the attendance last night was large enough to justify Coach Connor's hopes that he would be able to get the team smoothed into shape for next season. Those present were: Finney, Glenn, Ray Floerhinger, McMahon, Burger, Smith, Boyd, Hanlon, and Dvorsky.

Decathlon Winner

By virtue of three victories out of the 10 events and a tie for first in a fourth, George Munger of the University of Pennsylvania won the decathlon title in the Penn relays at Philadelphia, Pa. Munger is shown with the decathlon cup. J. C. Hall of the 10-event feature.

The game was filled with free passes to first. Each team was able to gather in only six hits. New York used four pitchers and Washington three. Penneck, Allen, Rhodes and Andrews for the Yankees granted seven free passes. Burke, Weaver and Crowder for Washington allowed 16.

The Senators fell upon the veteran Herb Penneck in the first inning for four hits, including a double by Cronin to drive in three runs. The superb pitching of a rookie, Allen, held the Senators hitless for the next five and two thirds innings. Then he gave way to a pinch hitter. The first tally for New York came in the fourth. Lazzosi tripled and scored on Jorgens single.

Thereafter both went scoreless until the eighth. Sewell and Ruth were walked by Weaver, who had relieved Burke. Gehrig grounded to Weaver, and was safe at first when Judge had to jump right for the throw.

Yanks Take Lead
Crowder relieved Weaver and walked Chapman to force in Sewell. Crossett sent a sacrifice fly into right field and Ruth scored. Lazzosi hit to Cronin who tried for a double play but failed and Gehrig scored, putting the Yankees into a one run lead.

In the Washington turn at bat, West walked, but was forced out at second by Cronin's hunt. Reynolds singled over third and Judge walked to fill the bases. There was a change of both pitchers and batters. Andrews went in to relieve Rhodes and Rice to relieve Bluge at-bat. Rice drove a double into deep right field to score Cronin and Reynolds with the tying and winning runs. It was his knock that gave the Ramblers the win.

Ralph Lumsden had near perfect control on the mound and struck out eight men, walked none and allowed only three hits. Anciaux gave up a like number of singles, but a walk, hit batsman and error in the third allowed St. Mary's to tie the score at three all. The muddy diamond accounted for the Ramblers' errors.

The Ramblers will go to Oxford this Friday for their first regular game. Coach Francis Suplee and Ray Belger's proteges will open the home season on the following Friday, May 13, when Cosgrove comes here.

Adobe Post Wins
LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 3 (AP)—Adobe Post beat a field of likely western Kentucky derby candidates in the fifth race at Churchill Downs here this afternoon. Prince Hotspur was second and Cold Check third. The winner covered the mile in 1:28 4-5.

Iowa, Iowa State Tennis Teams Will Resume Old Feud
Iowa State college, and the University of Iowa will meet in tennis for the first time in more than a decade when the Old Gold team plays at Ames Saturday.

The Hawkeyes have won three non-conference meets but lost all three road contests to Big Ten teams last week. Rain caused the postponement of the Grinnell dual from Tuesday to an undetermined date.

Captain Ronald Reddig, Walter Theiss, John Beckner, and John Kinemann will play for the Hawkeyes at Ames.

Rice's Double in Eighth Gets Winning Runs

16 Free Passes Feature Loose Hurling as Yanks Falter

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP)—A two bagger by the veteran Sam Rice in the eighth inning gave the Senators their third straight victory over the New York Yankees, 5 to 4 today, after erratic Washington pitching had seemingly tossed away the game.

The game was filled with free passes to first. Each team was able to gather in only six hits. New York used four pitchers and Washington three. Penneck, Allen, Rhodes and Andrews for the Yankees granted seven free passes. Burke, Weaver and Crowder for Washington allowed 16.

The Senators fell upon the veteran Herb Penneck in the first inning for four hits, including a double by Cronin to drive in three runs. The superb pitching of a rookie, Allen, held the Senators hitless for the next five and two thirds innings. Then he gave way to a pinch hitter. The first tally for New York came in the fourth. Lazzosi tripled and scored on Jorgens single.

Thereafter both went scoreless until the eighth. Sewell and Ruth were walked by Weaver, who had relieved Burke. Gehrig grounded to Weaver, and was safe at first when Judge had to jump right for the throw.

Yanks Take Lead
Crowder relieved Weaver and walked Chapman to force in Sewell. Crossett sent a sacrifice fly into right field and Ruth scored. Lazzosi hit to Cronin who tried for a double play but failed and Gehrig scored, putting the Yankees into a one run lead.

In the Washington turn at bat, West walked, but was forced out at second by Cronin's hunt. Reynolds singled over third and Judge walked to fill the bases. There was a change of both pitchers and batters. Andrews went in to relieve Rhodes and Rice to relieve Bluge at-bat. Rice drove a double into deep right field to score Cronin and Reynolds with the tying and winning runs. It was his knock that gave the Ramblers the win.

Patman Hints Mills to Gain by Bonus Bill

Assertion Withdrawn Immediately at Protests

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP)—A charge, quickly withdrawn, that Secretary Mills "will profit by many millions" through a provision of the tax bill he helped frame today wrote a melodramatic finish to over three weeks testimony on cash payment of the soldiers bonus.

Representative Patman (D., Tex.), a leading bonus sponsor, made the assertion shortly before the house ways and means committee ended its hearings and prepared to consider in closed session the plan for making the bonus payment with $2,000,000,000 of new currency issued for that purpose.

Storm of Protests
Patman's statement drew such a storm of protests from both Democratic and Republican committee members that it was withdrawn almost immediately. The Texas said: "On the statement of the acting chairman, I shall be very glad to exonerate the secretary of the treasury."

Declines Comment
Representative Crisp (D., Ga.), who presided, had advised Patman that Mills declined any comment on the tax section referred to which authorizes the revaluation of estates left between Sept. 1, 1928, and Jan. 1, 1932.

"Secretary Mills said he did not care to comment because he would be a beneficiary," Crisp said.

Representative Treadway (R., Mass.) told Patman he was "slapping this committee very unfairly when he says we have been influenced by government officials."

Theater Members to Present "Cinderella" Saturday Afternoon

The coach made from a pumpkin and drawn by four mice will ride across the stage of the children's theater Saturday afternoon when the theater members will present an adaptation of the famous fairy story, "Cinderella," under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Mary Young. No More Pencils, No More Books for Boys of Iowa City Scout Area Who Will Attend Summer Camp

When 120 boys of the Iowa City Boy Scout area council throw their school books in a closet and don khaki breeches for three one week periods at camp, this summer, they will be under the guidance of an instructing staff schooled in all branches of scout and camp craft.

The staff for this year's summer camp, to be located at the John B. Snow Rotary cabin, was announced recently by Dean Wilber J. Teeters, chairman of the area council camping committee.

In charge of all activities will be Glen G. Fordyce, executive of the area, who has been certified by the national scout council as an approved camp director, a commission held by 52 of 75 executives in the middle west.

Camp Doctor
To provide remedies for real aches and pains as well as to give instruction in their cures is the work assigned Herbert H. Thomas, M.D. of Iowa City, who will be health and safety director, first aid instructor, and instructor in nature study and hikes.

Young amphibians may learn to swim, receive instruction in life-saving, or take tests for Red Cross badges under W. Keith Weeber, G. of Iowa City, who will direct water activities. Weeber will also give instruction in marksmanship and map-making. With Don W. Paden, El of Iowa City, instructing, scouts may engage in archery and scoutcraft.

Crafts Advantages
Orville L. Roderick, A4 of Arcola, Ill., will teach handicraft, including leatherwork and basketry. The cuisine, or in Scout vernacular, "grub," will be entrusted to O. A. Hunter, who was "cookie" at last year's encampment.

The summer outing begins June 28 for three periods of one week each. July 4 terminates the first period. Second period dates are July 5 to 11; and third period, July 12 to 18. Each week is limited to 40 boys.

For the seven days in camp, the charge is seven dollars. However, by registering early at Boy Scout headquarters in the American Legion Community building, the price may be reduced to $6.50.

Wheat Prices Tumble After Early Gains

CHICAGO, May 3 (AP)—Evidence that bullish unofficial crop estimates had been largely discounted beforehand whirled the wheat market downward rapidly today after an early advance.

Price breaks tumbled wheat to the lowest level in over a month as to more than 9 cents a bushel under the recent top. The crop estimates were bullish but they brought in so little new buying that owners turned wholesale to the selling side.

Corn Down
Wheat closed shaky, 1-1/2 under yesterday's finish, corn 1-1/4 down, oats 1/2 off to 1/2 up, and provisions unchanged to 1/2 cents decline.

In the face of bearish behavior of corn, however, wheat scored a transient gain of more than a cent a bushel, with the private crop estimates of 1932 domestic wheat production averaging only 463,000,000 whereas the general expectation had been for an average of 470,000,000, and this contrasted with 787,000,000 harvested last year.

Provisions Firm Early
Provisions were firm early, but later sympathized with grain weakness.

Closing Indemities: wheat—May 52 1-4, 54 1/2; July 54 5/8, 56 1/2; Sept. 56 1-4 to 1/2, 58 7/8 to 59; Dec. 60, bids. Corn—July 40 7-8, 31 1/2 to 7-8; Sept. 33 1-4 to 1/2, 34 1-4.

Blames Maladjustment
The maladjustment due to the laws of the government, Senator Brookhart blamed as a partial cause of deflated conditions. The transportation act of 1920 gave the railroads nine per cent profit while the returns on American products for one year was only four per cent. Hence the farmer must pay higher freight rates, cutting down his returns.

As to the banking situation, Senator Brookhart said that New York banks have taken it over. They have loaded other banks with long time bonds, bought on a high market and now selling at a greatly reduced price. This has caused many cases of frozen assets.

Deflation Caused Panic
"The deflation in 1920 caused the greatest panic in the history of agriculture," he said, referring to the policy of the federal reserve banks in regard to farm loans. "The price of land has gone down and has not come back to normal."

In the last 50 years the United States has gone through eight major depressions and seven minor ones. In each instance, the senator emphasized, agriculture recovered first and succeeded in maintaining a new credit. Other industries were pulled from their business slump by the re-establishment of agriculture.

Since 1920, changed land prices have prevented any aid being given to industries.

Farmer Floods Markets
The farmer must buy on a high level in local markets and sell at much lower level on the free markets of the world. He is not financed to separate and segregate his products, and is forced to flood the markets with his surplus, getting low returns, Brookhart said.

As a cure for financial ills, Senator Brookhart advised a government setup with financial backing to bid for surplus farm products and to pay four per cent to the farmers on their investment; the building of public works to furnish employment which, in turn, would start the wheels of industry; and a change in the money policy whereby the government would loan money to

IT'S FASHIONABLE TO WORK!

Senator Brookhart Speaks to Kiwanis Club; Does Not Blame Economics on War

Firing the second gun of his campaign in Iowa City for re-election, United States Senator Smith W. Brookhart spoke on "Depression; its causes and cures" before 96 members and guests of the Kiwanis club at a luncheon yesterday noon in the Jefferson hotel.

"It is a common belief," said the senator, "that the depression was caused by the World war. Financial writers trace it back to that, as do financial managers who are only looking for an alibi. It was, however, not caused by the World war."

Debtor Becomes Creditor
Before the war the United States was a debtor nation and owed billions of dollars, he explained. As a result of the war profits secured, this country ceased to be a debtor nation and became the creditor nation to a large number of countries.

The war no doubt caused the depression in Europe, but not in the United States.

"Being profiteers as the result of war certainly should not cause a depression," he maintained. "It is our loans to foreign countries which will probably not be returned that caused it."

Banking Head Confers With Finance Men

DES MOINES, May 3 (AP)—Supervisor L. A. Andrew of the state banking department returned from Washington today after a week conferring with attorneys and officers of the Reconstruction Finance corporation.

He said the corporation was taking a more favorable attitude regarding loans to closed Iowa banks and that a request for a $4,000,000 loan to the American Savings Bank and Trust company has been approved by the Chicago committee of the corporation. It is now being checked by Washington officials.

Another application, for the closed closed banks so that they might pay dividends.

Round Table Discussion

Bank Bandits Escape With $2,500 in Car

RED CLOUD, Neb., May 3 (AP)—Three men robbed the Peoples bank of Red Cloud at 4 p. m. and escaped in the direction of the Kansas State line with an amount estimated at $2,500.

Witnesses of the holdup said the robbers were riding in a large automobile which bore Colorado license plates and carried a trunk on the rear. The men were dark complexioned.

Just last Saturday the Nebraska supreme court denied a rehearing of Harry and Theodore Ebsen, brothers, convicted of the $4,000 robbery of the Webster County bank of Red Cloud July 2, 1931.

Three men participated in that holdup. The Ebsen brothers were sentenced to 20 years each in the state penitentiary.

Peace officers along the Kansas border were asked to keep a lookout for the fleeing robbers of the Peoples bank.
