

1932

Sport Potshots
A new daily comment on sports and sports happenings will be found on page 4.

FIVE CENTS

IOWA CITY, IOWA TUESDAY, AUGUST 23, 1932

VOL. XXXII NUMBER 73

The Daily Iowan

What Shall
I Serve in Hot Weather? See Daily
Feature on Page 3.

GOVERNMENT MAY CURB FARM WAR

Flying Housewives Down After 196 Hours in Air

Mrs. Thaden Collapses as Partner Jokes

Both Deaf After Setting World's Endurance Record

VALLEY STREAM, N. Y., Aug. 22 (AP) — Appearings trim and fresh as when they took the air, even to manicured fingernails, two 24 year old housewives brought down their "flying boudoir" late today with a new women's refueling flight endurance record of 196 hours, five minutes and 45 seconds.

Appearances were deceiving, however, for Mrs. Louise Thaden, ominously silent while her companion, Mrs. Frances Marsalis, laughed and joked with the crowd, suddenly collapsed. She was removed to a nearby home and her condition later was reported as not serious.

Perfect Landing

After more than eight days of monotonous wheeling over the Curtiss airport, they made a perfect landing a few minutes after 5 p.m. (E.S.T.) Their flying time was checked by four watches and was expected to be accepted as an official record in about one week.

"We enjoyed every minute of it, but we got too much oatmeal. Believe me, Stewart and Johnnie were sure a big help," said Mrs. Marsalis.

Stewart Reese and John Rungar were the crew of their refueling plane.

Kiss Crew Member

Large bouquets of flowers were presented to them and Mrs. Marsalis obliged cameramen by kissing Reese three times. The last time, she said, "I have to kiss this man again? My husband might see this."

About this time attendants became aware that Mrs. Thaden had not uttered a word. She was unable to walk and had to be carried to a home nearby. She was given a sedative and it was announced she would remain there overnight.

Both Deaf

Both women were quite deaf from their long flight.

"I'm going to stay an hour and a half in a bath tub," declared Mrs. Marsalis. She wanted a bath and a good meal most. After that, she said, she would sleep till noon tomorrow.

"Every time we tried to sponge off up there some plane would come along and we would have to run away from it," she said.

"We had it about decided there was no such thing in the world as a bath."

Too Strenuous

Casey Jones, manager of the airport, ordered the women to descend late today because he said "it was becoming too strenuous for them."

They passed the previous women's record of 123 hours late last Friday. It was held by Edna May Cooper and Bobby Trout, who sent congratulations to the new champions.

The women were sent up a new supply of cold cream today which enabled them to "pretty up" for their landing.

Man of Many Aliases Sought in Pennsylvania

William Bowen, alias Pat Regan, alias William Regan, alias Donald Snyder, alias A. Fullerton, has received, through the agency of the local police, an invitation to visit in Harrisburg, Pa.

He held here on a charge of cheating by false pretenses, Bowen, who was arrested in Cedar Rapids, is wanted by Harrisburg detectives on five forgery charges. Three warrants were sent to local police.

Mercury Steps Up in Steady Return to Summer Heat

Determined once more before the summer's end to bring respect from seekers after comfort, Iowa City mercury continued its steady climb yesterday. In mid afternoon it reached the highest for the day, 85 degrees.

Once again the clouds were few and not very interesting. They came slowly from the west, lazily, and were of no particular shape.

The night was clear and medium cool. But for all the clearness, the stars were dim and far apart. At 7 p.m. the temperature had dropped to 70 degrees.

Report Japanese in Preparation for New Invasion Into China

TOKYO, Aug. 22 (AP) — Expectations that Japanese troops will be moving against Chinese armies again this fall received semi-official confirmation today on the heels of dispatches telling of a sharp battle near Peiping in Jehol, the Chinese province which lies west of Manchuria.

A foreign office spokesman intimated that the favorable autumn weather probably will see a determined Japanese military action in Manchuria.

The purpose of this expedition would be to establish Jehol unquestionably as part of the newly created state of Manchoukuo, which was set up by power of Japanese arms to rule Manchuria.

Appearances were deceiving, however, for Mrs. Louise Thaden, ominously silent while her companion, Mrs. Frances Marsalis, laughed and joked with the crowd, suddenly collapsed. She was removed to a nearby home and her condition later was reported as not serious.

Perfect Landing

After more than eight days of monotonous wheeling over the Curtiss airport, they made a perfect landing a few minutes after 5 p.m. (E.S.T.) Their flying time was checked by four watches and was expected to be accepted as an official record in about one week.

"We enjoyed every minute of it, but we got too much oatmeal. Believe me, Stewart and Johnnie were sure a big help," said Mrs. Marsalis.

Stewart Reese and John Rungar were the crew of their refueling plane.

Large bouquets of flowers were presented to them and Mrs. Marsalis obliged cameramen by kissing Reese three times. The last time, she said, "I have to kiss this man again? My husband might see this."

About this time attendants became aware that Mrs. Thaden had not uttered a word. She was unable to walk and had to be carried to a home nearby. She was given a sedative and it was announced she would remain there overnight.

Both Deaf

Both women were quite deaf from their long flight.

"I'm going to stay an hour and a half in a bath tub," declared Mrs. Marsalis. She wanted a bath and a good meal most. After that, she said, she would sleep till noon tomorrow.

"Every time we tried to sponge off up there some plane would come along and we would have to run away from it," she said.

"We had it about decided there was no such thing in the world as a bath."

Too Strenuous

Casey Jones, manager of the airport, ordered the women to descend late today because he said "it was becoming too strenuous for them."

They passed the previous women's record of 123 hours late last Friday. It was held by Edna May Cooper and Bobby Trout, who sent congratulations to the new champions.

The women were sent up a new supply of cold cream today which enabled them to "pretty up" for their landing.

Man of Many Aliases Sought in Pennsylvania

William Bowen, alias Pat Regan, alias William Regan, alias Donald Snyder, alias A. Fullerton, has received, through the agency of the local police, an invitation to visit in Harrisburg, Pa.

He held here on a charge of cheating by false pretenses, Bowen, who was arrested in Cedar Rapids, is wanted by Harrisburg detectives on five forgery charges. Three warrants were sent to local police.

Mercury Steps Up in Steady Return to Summer Heat

Determined once more before the summer's end to bring respect from seekers after comfort, Iowa City mercury continued its steady climb yesterday. In mid afternoon it reached the highest for the day, 85 degrees.

Once again the clouds were few and not very interesting. They came slowly from the west, lazily, and were of no particular shape.

The night was clear and medium cool. But for all the clearness, the stars were dim and far apart. At 7 p.m. the temperature had dropped to 70 degrees.

WEATHER

IOWA—Partly cloudy Tuesdays and Wednesdays; not much change in temperature.

Beat Woman in Protest to Wage Scales

Arrest 11 in Abduction of Floyd County Relief Worker

BULLETIN
CHARLES CITY, Aug. 22 (Special to The Daily Iowan by long distance telephone)—Following the arrest of 11 men and their incarceration in the Floyd county jail here, in connection with the abduction of Marion Stull, county overseer of the poor, it was feared tonight that a jail delivery might be attempted.

Sheriff B. F. Atherton ordered seven deputies and 56 vigilantes to the jail yard to frustrate such an attempt. A crowd of several hundred persons was massed about the building at 11 p.m.

CHARLES CITY, Aug. 22 (AP)—Indignation over varied wages paid by the city from its unemployment relief fund led workers today to abduct Marion Stull, Floyd county overseer of the poor, and hold her prisoner for several hours.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

PICKET OF STRIKING FARMERS

Having pledged themselves to sell no produce for 30 days, in the hope that their action will increase prices, these striking farmers of Sioux City are keeping watch to see that none in the vicinity breaks the pact. The agrarians do not admit that their action is a strike, but insist it is a "farmer's holiday." The picket shown here keeps vigil on a main highway to bar produce-laden trucks of backsliders who would sell produce in defiance of the farmers' pact.

CHARLES CITY, Aug. 22 (AP)—Indignation over varied wages paid by the city from its unemployment relief fund led workers today to abduct Marion Stull, Floyd county overseer of the poor, and hold her prisoner for several hours.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

She was released near New Hampton, 30 miles east of here, with an order to stay out of Charles City.

Open Conflict May Result in Walker Probe

Hinted That Mayor Will Hold Office Despite Roosevelt

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, Albany, N. Y., Aug. 22 (AP)—John C. Curtin, chief of counsel for Mayor James J. Walker, recording with the state supreme court today the mayor's objection to Governor Roosevelt removing him from office, hinted indirectly that Walker might attempt to retain his office, in any event until the courts have passed upon the governor's powers.

"Since he (the governor) feels that he is above the law and that there is no appeal," said Curtin, "you will see that we can only go to the courts for an order to avoid physical conflict that might well ensue if an order were made by the governor without jurisdiction."

Asked for Explanation

Asked afterward for an explanation of his reference to "physical conflict," Mr. Curtin remarked:

"An illegal act, without jurisdiction, is a nullity, and consequently there might be some dispute about its enforcement. In other words, if I told you to get out of your house, and you said, 'you have no power to put me out,' what would happen? That's as far as I'll go."

After arguing before Supreme Court Justice Staley that the governor was without power to pass upon the mayor's fitness to retain his position, Curtin hurried from the court house to the "hall of governors" to interrogate the first of the mayor's witnesses.

Curtin's contentions were three:

First—that under the state constitution, the mayor is removable from office by the governor.

Second—that the governor has denied the mayor his full rights by accepting the Hofstader legislative committee testimony as evidence and not permitting Walker to face his accusers.

Third—that 10 of the 15 charges against Mr. Walker are outlawed because they post-date his present term.

Led by Edmund Heines, a Fascist member of the Reichstag, sympathizers with the defendants instigated an uproar in the court room and were quelled only by the action of police to stamp out political violence.

Although the men were defended by the personal attorney of the National Socialist chieftain, they were convicted and received the first death sentences meted out by Germany's new "speedy" courts operating under an emergency decree designed to stamp out political violence.

Touches on Question

Department commander Robert D. Flory of Albion, in his annual report touched on the bonus question, saying:

The Daily Iowan

Published every morning except Monday by Student Publications Incorporated, at 128-130 Iowa Avenue, Iowa City, Iowa. Fred M. Pownall, Director.

Board of Trustees: Frank L. Mott, E. M. MacSwen, R. B. Kiltedge, Sidney G. Winter, Shirley A. Webster, Bailey C. Webber, Jack R. Vollerison, Alfred W. Kahl, Robert J. Gordon.

Harry S. Bunker, General Manager
William T. Hageboeck, Assistant General Manager

Entered as second class mail matter at the post office at Iowa City, Iowa, under the act of Congress of March 2, 1879. Subscription rates—By mail, $5 per year; by carrier, 15 cents weekly; $5 per year.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein. All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT

Frank Jaffe	Managing Editor
Alfred Mitchell	Editor
Philip Newson	News Editor
Donald J. Prout	City Editor
George Kahl	Campus Editor
R. Eugene Thorne	Sports Editor
Ronald Tallman	Assistant Sports Editor
Cells Goldberg	Society Editor

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

Charles L. Johnston	Business Manager
Francis O. Wilcox	Circulation Manager
Agnes W. Schmidt	Accountant

DIAL 4191

Branch exchange connecting all departments

TUESDAY, AUGUST 23, 1932

No Complaints

SUNDAY AFTERNOON, around the door way of a local business house, a group of people were gathered. They were listening to a band playing lively march tunes. Occasionally someone would step forward and drop some change in a battered hat. They were helping support a family of six persons.

The band, "Truin's Melody Makers," consisted of Mr. Truin and his five children, ranging in age from seven to 18. A carpenter by trade, the father was working in Utah when times began to get hard. He had a mammoth job on his hands, keeping his family together. He might have applied to charity, but he didn't.

Instead, he hunted up some band music, collected drums, an alto and a bass horn, two trumpets and a saxophone and took his family on the road. An old Ford, rigged up into a travelling home serves as a means of conveyance.

And he is making a living, well satisfied to carry on until things come back. He isn't complaining. He's making the best of things, taking life as it comes.

Pinch Hitting Diplomacy

INTRICATE are the ways of diplomacy and often hard to understand. Statesmen are shifted like puppets back and forth—puppets who speak guardedly and with great caution through the mouths of their ventriloquist chiefs.

So it is with Dino Grandi, Italy's premier diplomat, who was recently removed as chief of the foreign office and sent to Great Britain in the role of ambassador.

Grandi's name ranks high on the list of the world's statesmen. He is surely, in the matter of foreign affairs, the Duke's right hand man.

So it is not without reason that one wonders what purpose his talents have been dedicated to the English post. One thing is sure. For one reason or another, Italy's relation to the Empire is a matter of supreme importance in Mussolini's eyes.

Great Britain, even now, yields tremendous power and the voice of her ministers is never unheeded in the matter of armaments. Italy is hard at work on a new program of armament. Already she has discarded her battleships and is concentrating on the building of light and heavy cruisers. She has tried, with not very great success, to win other nations to the new standard.

All official notices to the contrary, Italy's prime motive is naval parity with France. And that precisely is what she has repeatedly failed to attain.

It might be that Dino Grandi will be able to convince the kingdom of the advisability of light sea forces and also to obtain valuable support for the Duke's program at the next session of the League. That would be an accomplishment worthy of a right hand man.

The Depression and Germany

FORGETTING politics, for the moment at least, Germany has again brought her economic troubles into the world spotlight. In a statement issued Saturday, Prof. Hermann Warmbold, minister of economics, said that barriers hindering the exportation of German goods must be removed if Germany is to meet her foreign debt payments.

He denied emphatically that Germany had any intention of reducing private debts or of sending a special debt commission to the United States.

Germany has long been asking that the Versailles treaty be modified. And she does it with a right. That treaty was drawn up and signed during the intensely cold aftermath of the World war. As could have been seen from experiences gained in the history of wars before, it was unjust. It not only sought to put the burden of the damages on the vanquished nation, as in that particular case was right, but it also sought to forever cripple that nation, which was wrong.

Almost a decade and a half has gone by since the end of the war. During that time it has come to be realized that the German people were no more responsible for it than were the citizens of the United States. And it has come to be seen that the people of Germany are not those who should suffer for wrongs, brought about by those who at the time controlled them.

Those things are admitted now by most of the world. And yet when economists of the world over are saying that the whole world must cooperate if recovery from the current depression is to be had, neither the time nor the trouble is taken for the step which would, because of the market it would open up, be at least one definite move for recovery. That step is the removal of barriers to German trade.

Nations the world over are seeking buyers for their goods. But they still refuse to recognize that without a trade of her own with which to bring money in, Germany will have no money to pay out.

Injurious Publicity

(From the Philadelphia Ledger)

Decision by Mr. Trimble, clerk of the house of representatives, to make public the details of Reconstruction Finance Corporation loans is distinctly against sound policy. It also conflicts with President Hoover's understanding of the law when he gave it his approval. He said at the time that while the corporation was required to report all loans to the clerk of the house, they were to be regarded as confidential and "must be so held unless otherwise ordered by this congress when in session."

Instead, Mr. Trimble has taken it upon himself, after receiving what he considers to be good legal advice, to institute the opposite procedure. Mr. Hoover had spoken of the "possible destructive effect upon credit institutions of the so-called publicity clause," but signed the law in the belief that it had been "neutralized" by the assurances from "senate leaders of both parties" that the records would not be open to public inspection.

The abuses and injustices to which this subordinate's action may give rise are obvious. Mr. Garner, as the speaker of the house, is Mr. Trimble's official superior, but his attitude when this measure was under discussion removes any hope that he will now intervene to prevent what the directors of the corporation regard as a most dangerous departure.

When we read that 20,000 natives of India die of snake-bite every year, we picture the country as a terribly unsafe country to live in until we are reminded that America's automobiles are more deadly than India's snakes and kill 30,000 persons out of a population much smaller than India's.

—Boston Transcript

The government can raise our income tax, but we can't. —New York Tribune

TODAY'S TOPICS

BY FRANK JAFFE

What the well dressed man will wear is ordinarily a matter of record but how to be a well dressed man is not so generally known. That is, there are experts on that branch of masculine vanity as on others. This time it's Adolph Menjou, former matinee idol of thousands and thousands of American women, and now appearing from time to time in unstarred minor films.

But Menjou's decline as a film favorite does not detract from his attractiveness as a fashion expert, and so his suggestions are herewith accorded the prominence they deserve, for several reasons.

Here are his seven rules for good dressing:

1—Always wear suspenders whenever a coat is worn, for only suspenders drape trousers correctly.

2—Never allow shoes to run down at the heels, for a man is judged by the shoes he keeps.

3—Have care for the condition of your hat, for there is no more distasteful sight than that of a man with a fine suit, and a misshapen, dirty head-piece.

4—Never crease the sleeves of a coat.

5—Never crease the trousers of knickers or golf clothes.

6—Dirty finger nails are excusable only when working at manual labor.

7—Never appear unshaven except when in your own bedroom.

All good suggestions, certainly, and well stated. But there is nothing to imply for whom they were meant. Did Mr. Menjou have reference to bankers, professors, matinee idols, clerks, congressmen? Or was he thinking of the "forgotten man"? Needless to say, there is a distinction.

Upon closer examination, however, it might be discovered that no two of the rules apply to the same individual or class of men. For example, there is only one type of male that worries about the drape of his trousers, one type that is concerned with his finger nails, another about appearing in public with unshorn facial adornment. And so, unlike women, who are moved in their dress by mass approval of some certain style, men must make their own regulations to suit their own particular needs.

There are rules of dress, however, that might be applied to all men. And such rules cannot be granted that all men are well suited, that is, fitted with morning, afternoon, and evening clothes, hats, shoes, and other appurtenances to match, as well as shirts, ties, and handkerchiefs of matched colors. To be universal in scope such regulations must consider that there are working men and non-working men, business men and bricklayers, well-to-do and middle class, golfers and fishermen, taxi-drivers and chauffeur corporation presidents, as well as just ordinary men.

There are rules of cleanliness, neatness, and general health safeguards that apply to everyone. What is perhaps more important than all of Menjou's rules and anyone else's put together is making the most of one's resources notwithstanding what is stylish and what isn't. If you don't have a different pair of shoes to go with every suit—unless you have just one suit—there's nothing to worry about.

After all, it isn't what you wear that counts; it's how you wear it. A cheerful smile, for example, can make up for all the patches and tatters in the world. So don't worry, men, for with all of his good ideas about dress, look where Mr. Menjou is today.

Book Bits

(From How to Write Short Stories, by Ring Lardner)

"Aunt Mary!" he exclaimed. And to the clerk: "How much are your medium prayer books?"

"What denomination?" asked the clerk, whose name was Freda Swanson.

"One or two dollars," said Tommy.

"What church, I mean?" inquired Freda.

"How would I know?" said Tommy. "Are there different books for different churches?"

"Sure. Catholic, Presbyterian, Episcopal, Lutheran..."

"Let's see. McDonald, Carey. How much are the Catholic ones?"

"Here's one at a dollar and a half. In Latin, too."

"That's it. That'll give her something to work on."

This disc is revolving upon a turn-table, and as the sound of the voice

OFFICIAL DAILY BULLETIN

All general notices for the official daily bulletin must be in the hands of the managing editor of The Daily Iowan by 4 p.m. on the day preceding first publication. Items for the university calendar must be reported to the summer session office, 117 university hall, as far as possible in advance of the event. No notices will be accepted unless typed or legibly written. Notices will

Vol. VIII, No. 66

August 23, 1932

University Calendar

Wednesday, August 24

4:00 p.m. Campus excursion through the university hospitals.

8:00 p.m. Concert: All-state high school band—east approach to Old Capitol; Iowa Union lounge if weather is unfavorable.

Thursday, August 25

8:00 p.m. University convocation, west approach to Old Capitol. Second term ends.

General Notices

Ph.D. Candidates

The French reading examination for Ph.D. candidates will be given Wednesday, Aug. 24, from 4 to 6 p.m., room 213 liberal arts building. Candidates are requested to bring material along the lines of their major subject. Please make application for that examination to Miss Knease, before Monday, Aug. 22. Room 310 liberal arts building, daily 10-10:30 a.m.

ROMANCE LANGUAGES DEPARTMENT

Housing Service Office Making Up Lists of Rooms

for First Semester, 1932-33

The housing service, located in Iowa Union, under the direction of Prof. F. E. Holmes, has started to make out its list of rooms for unmarried students, and rooms and apartments for married students for the first semester of 1932-3. It is necessary to do this at this time as the office gets many calls for rooms and apartments during the summer months.

This office urges all householders who have rooms and apartments to rent in the fall to advise them early so that their names may be placed on the lists.

The housing service is also making the yearly inspection of rooms at the present time. If there are any householders who have not been on the approved list, and care to take students, they are urged to get in touch with this office, so that the necessary inspection may be made.

August Convocation

The August convocation will be held Thursday, Aug. 25, at 8 p.m. on the west approach to Old Capitol. In case of unfavorable weather, the exercises will be held in Iowa Union lounge.

Campus Excursion

Persons interested in an excursion to the university hospitals are invited to participate in a tour on Wednesday, Aug. 24, at 4 p.m. Since the university hospitals staff can accommodate only a limited number at a time, it is requested that people who wish to join the party call the summer session office, university extension 8362, for reservations. Meet at the main entrance (tower) of university hospital.

SUMMER SESSION OFFICE

Band Concert

The all-state high school band will give a concert Wednesday, Aug. 24, at 8 p.m. on the east approach to Old Capitol. In case of rain, it will be held in Iowa Union.

Candidates for Degrees

The August convocation will be held Thursday, Aug. 25, at 8 p.m., west approach to Old Capitol. In case of unfavorable weather, the exercises will be held in Iowa Union lounge.

Preceding the exercises, the graduates' dinner will be held in Iowa Union at 6 p.m.

Candidates are reminded to:

1. Make arrangements for academic costume.
2. Secure tickets at the alumni office, northwest room, Old Capitol, for the graduates' dinner, between 8 a.m., Aug. 22, and noon, Aug. 25.
3. Report promptly following the graduates' dinner in academic dress at Iowa Union for the academic procession.
4. Personally return their scroll together with address cards immediately following the exercises.

Information about convocation may be secured at the alumni office, Old Capitol.

Library Hours

Library reading rooms in the natural science building and library annex will close at 6 p.m., Thursday, Aug. 25.

Library hours from Aug. 26 through Sept. 24 will be 8:30-12 a.m. and 1-5 p.m. Departmental libraries will be closed during this period, with the exception of chemistry, education, engineering, and medical libraries. Special hours will be posted on the doors.

GRACE WORMER, acting director

By Ripley

TUESDAY, AUGUST 23, 1932

THE DAILY IOWAN, IOWA CITY

PAGE THREE

Commencement Dinner to Take Place Thursday Night

Final Social Function of Candidates for Degrees

Candidates for degrees and certificates at the August convocation will sing their swan song to the social life of the University of Iowa at the annual Commencement dinner, to be given in the river room of Iowa Union Thursday evening. Three hundred and fifty persons, including faculty members, candidates for degrees and their guests, are expected to attend.

Bowls of early autumn flowers and tall ivory tapers will decorate the small tables at which the guests will be seated. Prof. Paul C. Packer, dean of the college of education, will preside at the dinner, and President Walter A. Jessup will speak.

Seated at the speakers' table will be President and Mrs. Jessup; Prof. and Mrs. G. W. Stewart; Prof. and Mrs. George D. Stoddard; Prof. Charles A. Hawley; Dean and Mrs. George F. Kay; Dean and Mrs. C. A. Phillips.

Dean C. C. Williams; Dean Wilber J. Teeters; Dean and Mrs. Eugene A. Gilmore; Prof. Benj. F. Shambough; Dean and Mrs. Packer; Prof. Frederic G. Higbee; Prof. and Mrs. J. E. Briggs, and Prof. and Mrs. Vance Morton.

Tickets for the affair are available at the Alumni office in the northwest room of Old Capitol. Each graduate will be allotted one ticket, and tickets for guests may be purchased until Thursday noon.

Couple Tells of Wedding Plans

Des Moines Luncheon Honors Nuptials of Iowa Graduate

The engagement and approaching marriage on Oct. 1 of Beatrice Irene Fletter to Robert Anderson, both of Des Moines, was announced at a luncheon given by Mrs. Palmer C. Fletter at Younker's tea room in Des Moines Saturday.

Guests attending from the local chapter of Delta Delta Delta sorority, of which Miss Fletter is a member, were Mrs. Mildred Giffen, chaperon of the sorority, Avis Wadell, and Lorraine Thomas.

A color scheme of lavender and yellow was used to decorate the table.

Miss Fletter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer C. Fletter of Des Moines and also a graduate of Roosevelt high school there. She attended Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., and was a graduate in the class of 1931 of the University of Iowa.

Mr. Anderson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Anderson of Des Moines, and was a member of Psi Omega fraternity at the University of Iowa which he attended for three years. He is now employed by the Harter motor company in Des Moines.

Entertain Whites at Farewell Dinner Party

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ralph White, who plan to move to Clinton about Sept. 1, members of their bridge club entertained at a farewell dinner on the sun porch of Iowa Union last night. A bouquet of lilies and baby breath decorated the table, which was arranged in the fountain room.

Games of bridge were played at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Welt, 711 N. Gilbert street, following the dinner. Mr. and Mrs. George Walker of Cedar Rapids, formerly of Iowa City, were out-of-town guests.

Indicted Senator

Indicted by the federal grand jury for the part he is alleged to have played as director general of the Loyal Order of Moose in operating two lotteries, United States Senator James J. Davis of Pennsylvania, former secretary of labor, has appealed to the people of his state to withhold judgment until the trial. It is charged that Senator Davis received over $100,000 as his share of the lottery profits.

Tea Will Do Honor to Members, Alumnae of Kappa Kappa Gamma

A tea honoring rusheens will be given by active members and alumnae of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority in Cedar Rapids at the home of Mrs. Stewart G. Holmes, 369 Forest drive, at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Guests from here who will attend are Mary Marjorie Acock, Lois Beckman, Mary Ellen Coast, Louise Coast, Ellen Ford, Eunice Howell, Alice Lampe, Georgia McCollister, Margaret and Janet Woods, Dorothy Spencer, and Betty Kuhl.

Ruth Boyson, rushing chairman, with Katharine Smith, Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. S. R. Meek are in charge of the affair.

Bowls of early autumn flowers and tall ivory tapers will decorate the small tables at which the guests will be seated. Prof. Paul C. Packer, dean of the college of education, will preside at the dinner, and President Walter A. Jessup will speak.

Seated at the speakers' table will be President and Mrs. Jessup; Prof. and Mrs. G. W. Stewart; Prof. and Mrs. George D. Stoddard; Prof. Charles A. Hawley; Dean and Mrs. George F. Kay; Dean and Mrs. C. A. Phillips.

Dean C. C. Williams; Dean Wilber J. Teeters; Dean and Mrs. Eugene A. Gilmore; Prof. Benj. F. Shambough; Dean and Mrs. Packer; Prof. Frederic G. Higbee; Prof. and Mrs. J. E. Briggs, and Prof. and Mrs. Vance Morton.

Tickets for the affair are available at the Alumni office in the northwest room of Old Capitol. Each graduate will be allotted one ticket, and tickets for guests may be purchased until Thursday noon.

Couple Weds in Church at Rock Island

Nuptials of Nellie Argo, Darrell Williams Performed

The marriage of Nellie Argo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis H. Argo, 415 Bowery street, and Darrell N. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Williams of Tipton, was solemnized at the First Methodist Episcopal church at Rock Island, Ill., Saturday afternoon. The Rev. E. G. Sandmeyer officiated at the ceremony.

Mrs. Williams graduated from Iowa City high school in 1930, and attended the college of commerce at the University of Iowa for two years, affiliating with Zeta Tau Alpha sorority.

Mr. Williams graduated from Tipton high school in 1931 and attended Iowa Wesleyan college at Mt. Pleasant last year. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Williams plan to attend the University of Iowa in September. Mr. Williams entering the college of liberal arts, and Mrs. Williams continuing in the college of commerce.

After Sept. 1 the couple will be at home at 316 E. Burlington street.

Make This Model at Home

The Iowan's Daily Pattern

Lovely of Cotton

Pattern 2319

STEP-BY-STEP INSTRUCTION DIAGRAMS GIVEN WITH THIS PATTERN

By ANNE ADAMS

Even junior Miss frocks have their novel yoke and sleeve treatments and we especially like the lines of this one. Contrasting binding accents the pointed seaming of the frock to the very best advantage. It is ideal for school days when warm weather still necessitates frequent changes of dresses. Gay inexpensive cotton prints will assure lovely results.

Pattern 2319 may be ordered only in sizes 4 to 12. Size 8 requires 1 7-8 yards 36 inch fabric and 3 3-8 yards binding.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted.

Out beautiful 32-page fashion catalog offers you an opportunity to choose delightful morning, afternoon and evening models suitable for wear right now and all through the summer. Featuring styles personally chosen by Anne Adams, this catalog is an accurate guide to summer chic. Lovely lingerie and pajama patterns and adorable kidlike models are included in this fascinating book. Send for your copy today. Price of catalog, fifteen cents. Catalog and pattern together, 25 cents. Address all mail orders to

The Daily Iowan Pattern Department, 243 West 17th Street, New York City.

What Shall I Serve--?

A Daily Hint to Hostesses on Tempting Appetites While It's Hot

Use the Whole Egg

In these days of economic stringency, hard times, and depression, an egg yolk saved is an egg yolk saved. Here are two recipes that go hand-in-hand, because when the cake is made, the egg yolks shouldn't be discarded, but stirred into a mayonnaise, all in the same visit to the kitchen.

Mrs. George Speaks, 335 S. Clinton street, furnished two recipes today that use the egg "to the last drop."

White Nut Cake

4 egg whites
1 c. sugar
½ c. milk
½ c. butter
2 c. flour
2 teasp. baking powder
1 c. nuts

Pinch of salt

Cream the butter and sugar until white. Sift the flour, baking powder and salt five or six times. Add to the creamed mixture, alternating with the milk. Add the nuts, which have been rolled in flour and the vanilla. Lastly, fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites. Do not mix after the egg whites have been added. Bake in a moderate oven.

Salad Dressing

4 egg yolks
½ c. sugar
1 c. vinegar
1 c. cream
½ teasp. salt
1 teasp. prepared mustard
2 teasp. flour

AT END OF ATLANTIC FLIGHT

Capt. James A. Mollison, young Scottish aviator, is shown beside his ship "Hearts Content" at Pennfield Ridge, New Brunswick, after flying the Atlantic.

Attempt to Identify Body of Man Found in Mississippi River

KEOUK, Aug. 22 (AP)—Efforts were being made to establish the identity of a man, believed to have been slain, whose body was found in the Mississippi river near Warsaw, Ill., Sunday. The only clue was a piece of paper, bearing the name of Dick Kulp of Fruitland, which was found in a pocket. The Muscatine sheriff said Kulp told him a man answering the slain man's description had applied to him for work some time ago.

The sheriff of Hancock county, Ill., said he believed the man had been slain. The victim was about 60 years old, 5 feet 6 inches tall and weighing about 175 pounds.

Nursing Graduate to Take Stewardess Post on Boeing Air Lines

Harriet Bauer of Holstein, who graduated from the school of nursing in 1931, was yesterday appointed to serve as stewardess on the Boeing Air Transport lines between Cheyenne, Wyo., and Omaha, Neb. Her headquarters will be in Cheyenne.

Miss Bauer was chosen by K. K. Knickerbocker, Omaha official of the lines, and Jack Curtis, manager of the local airport, from a number of applicants in the university school of nursing.

Her duties will begin immediately, and she is leaving Iowa City today for Omaha.

Florence Williams to Entertain Division 6

Florence Williams, 108 N. Johnson street, will entertain the sixth division of the Methodist Ladies Aid society at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow at her home. The business session will be followed by a social hour.

Members are requested to note the change in the place of the meeting. Visitors are welcome to attend.

To Serve Dinner at Bethel M. E. Church

A chicken dinner will be served at 5 p.m., Aug. 30 at the Bethel Methodist Episcopal church.

Indicted Eagle

Disinherited Family Not to Break Will

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. 22 (AP)—The five disinherited children of Mrs. Jennie E. Hubinger, who left the bulk of a $750,000 estate to her husband's former real estate manager, offered no objection today when her will was admitted to probate.

Four of the children live here while the fifth, Jane Hubinger Clarke, is a resident of Los Angeles. They now will receive most of the estate of their father, Nicholas Hubinger, who with his brother operated starch factories here and at Keokuk, Iowa.

Early Action for Idaho

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP)—Though the university doesn't open until Sept. 20, Idaho's football squad will begin practice—without aid of a coach—10 days earlier to get in condition by the time practice opens in all Pacific coast conference schools. Idaho opens in Los Angeles against U. C. L. A. in a night game.

To Chicago only

$2.75 Round Trip coaches only

Good on No. 6 10:50 p.m., Aug. 27, and No. 14 1:37 a.m., Aug. 28, 1932. Good returning on all trains to and including No. 9 12:30 a.m., Aug. 29, 1932, except No. 23 8:45 p.m.

Half fare for children between 5 and 12 years of age.

No stopovers. No baggage will be checked. Tickets now on sale.

F. E. Meacham, Ticket Agt. Dial 6515

C. C. Gardner, Ass't Gen. Pass. Agt., 614 Valley Nat'l. Bank Bldg., Des Moines, Ia.

You Should Have Your ORIENTAL RUGS

CLEANED and REPAIRED

ONCE EVERY YEAR

In order to give tone to the vegetable dyes and to free them of injurious grit, oriental rugs should be washed every year. We use a vegetable compound in their cleaning which preserves the wool in the rugs.

IN REPAIRING

We use Persian imported wool in all colors and we can repair any oriental rug. Each rug will receive the greatest personal care—all work done by hand and by oriental rug specialist.

All Work Guaranteed

At this time prices are very low—

For Estimates and Appointments

Dial 3138

Floyd Nassif, Oriental Expert

PARIS CLEANERS

WASHINGTON DC BI-CENTENNIAL

February 22nd to November 4th 1932

Stop at

The Capital's Famous Moderate Price Hotel Conveniently located just across from Union Station Plaza

HOTEL CONTINENTAL

ALL OUTSIDE ROOMS

RATES WITH BATH
$2.50 to $5. single
$4. to $7. double

WITHOUT BATH
$2.25 single
$3.50 double

Write for "Program of Events."

C. J. COOK Manager

A Vacation You CAN Afford

AUTO RACES Aug. 26 Sept. 2

TRAIN WRECK SATURDAY Aug. 27

Open Air CIRCUS Twice Daily

GORGEOUS WORLD ON PARADE

In the City Park

Iowa State Fair Sept. 2

Admission 50c.

Take a bargain vacation for 50c at the State Fair. New thrills and amusements from every corner of the world, every hour of the day, for eight days and nights. Over five million dollars in gorgious features packed into Iowa's great 300 acre pleasureland. Come and bring the family.

SPORT
Potshots

by EUGENE THORNE

Cubs Thump Phils Third Time to Increase Lead in Pennant RaceBud Tinning Credited With 8-4 Triumph*Relieved by Grimes in Eighth; Cubs Get 13 Hits

PROFESSIONAL wrestling may get a lot of razzing from those bitten by the bug, but it certainly serves well for one purpose—it hordes of athletes from joining army of the unemployed. When man gets too old for anything else, he grunts and groans for a living.

The latest to enter the pro-wrestling fold is Bert Colins, former mid-weight boxing headliner in the days of the old California four-and-main events. "Carnation" Lou Durso, Los Angeles promoter, recently decided to ploy to the Mexican trade when he introduced his "find" into his semi-monthly shows. So we'll probably see another champion touring a country before long.

THE way these promoters bring their rasslers along now days, a man can know nothing of the game when he starts, but in a 'tis time whip anybody in the love say, business. But just for I'd like to see someone like Mike Ward, Iowa's wrestling coach, or Otto Palka, Iowa State mentor, into the ring with some of these red-chested champions of the world.

Pirates Get Even Break With Giants

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 22 (AP)—The Pirates could not do better than an even break with the New York Giants today, winning the first, 6 to 1, as Meine held the visitors to five hits, but dropping the nightcap, 4 to 3, and falling a half-game further behind the Cubs.

With Meine turning in one of his finest performances of the year, the opener was a simple matter for the Pirates. Three Giant pitchers were hammered for 14 hits, Mooney being driven from the box under a four-run barrage in the fifth. Comoroski put the finishing touches on the big left-hander by hitting a home run with two on base.

Hoyt went the route for the Giants in the second game, and, although he gave up nine hits, was tight in the pinches and held the Bucs scoreless after he had been given his winning margin in the sixth inning. Chagnon went seven frames for the Pirates and was charged with the defeat.

For five innings it was a see-saw affair, with the Pirates nursing a 3-2 lead into the sixth. Lindstrom started the Giants' winning rally with a single to right after Ott had drawn a pass. Leslie was inserted to pinch hit for O'Farrell and he came through with a single to put Ott across with the tying run. Eddie Marshall then beat out his hit to Piet, sending Lindstrom in with the winner.

First Game

Score by innings: R. H. E. New York 000 000 100-1 5 1 Pittsburgh 000 040 020-6 14 0 Batteries—Mooney, Gibson, Schumacher and Hogan; Meine and Padanen.

Second Game

Score by innings: R. H. E. New York 010 020 000-4 9 1 Pittsburgh 020 010 000-3 9 0 Batteries—Hoyt and O'Farrell; Chagnon, Harris and Grace.

Cards Lose, Then Blank Boston Braves

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 22 (AP)—The Boston Braves won a slugfest from the St. Louis Cardinals today 7 to 2 and then the Cards took the second game of a doubleheader 3 to 0 when Carleton pitched his second victory of the series.

The Braves garnered 16 hits off Derringer and Haines in the first game. The Cards bunched hits in the second game while Carleton held the visitors to six scattered hits.

First Game

Score by innings: R. H. E. Boston 002 020 300-7 16 1 St. Louis 000 002 000-2 7 1 Batteries—Frankhouse and Spohrer; Derringer, Haines and Wilson.

Second Game

Score by innings: R. H. E. Boston 000 000 000-0 6 1 St. Louis 001 200 000-3 7 1 Batteries—Pruett and Schulte; Carleton and Mancuso.

Tickets on Sale Early

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—Season football tickets were put on sale the day University of California opened for the fall semester. They were good for all but two games of the Golden Bears. As usual the Stanford-California game was not included and season holders will have to buy separate tickets for the St. Mary's and Georgia Tech games.

Identically, the new Hawk-mentor is very different from the accepted idea of how a successful coach gets his men to work.

A very close friend declared never had he heard "Salem" come out, but his "gee whiz" and "gosh" work as effectively as most blistering tongue in the

Ioweston Park Struck by Hurricane Disaster

LIVESTON, Tex. (AP)—Moody farm, home park of the Galveston club of the Texas League, was nearly hit by the recent hurricane which took nearly two score lives on the gulf coast, but not irreversibly damaged.

The entire fence around the outside was blown down and half of grandstand wrecked. Work of repairing the fence was started at the fence was started at

JOHNSTON COAL CO.

Dial 2410

COAL

Business is black but we treat you white.

Winter is coming—better coal in the bin than cold in the head.

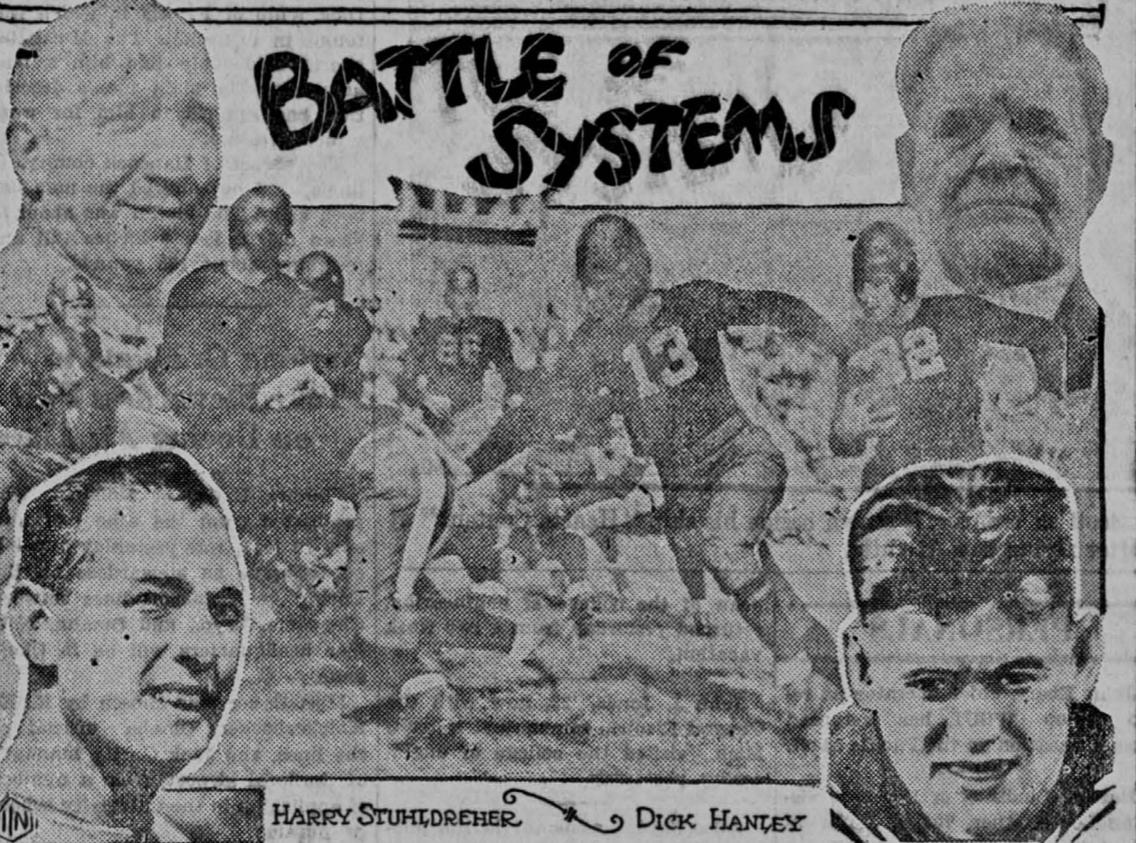

We can't sell all the coal, so we sell the best!

SPECIAL PRICE FOR THIS DATE CHILDREN... 25¢

FOR THIS DATE CHILDREN... 25¢

Browns Trim Yanks, 5 to 1, Behind Hadley; Senators Blank Indians

TO TEST RIVAL BRANDS OF GRID STRATEGY

BATTLE OF SYSTEMS

HARRY STUHLDRREHER DICK HANLEY

Allows Loop Leaders But 4 Safe HitsCombs' Cheap Triple Prevents First Shutout

NEW YORK, Aug. 22 (AP)—Bump Hadley, St. Louis Brown right-hander, set the slugging Yankees down, 5 to 1, on four scattered hits today and but for a bad break would have gained the distinction of being the first pitcher to shut out the leaders this year.

Combs opened the game with a smash to center that got away from Schulte and rolled for a triple, a moment later to score on Joe Sewell's infield out. But for that, Hadley had the McCarthymen stopped cold.

In the last eight frames the Yanks collected only three hits, all of them by Ben Chapman, and seven went down swinging at Hadley's curves. The veteran issued eight passes, but they did him no damage. Ruth struck out thrice.

MacFayden gave up 11 hits, every man in the St. Louis lineup hitting safely and Goslin punching a home run.

Score by Innings: R. H. E. St. Louis 020 100 120-5 11 1 New York 100 004 03*-8 13 1 Batteries—Hadley and Ferrell; MacFayden and Dickey.

Red Sox Rally to Nip Tigers, 6 to 5

BOSTON, Aug. 22 (AP)—A two-bagger by Tom Oliver with two on and two out in the last of the ninth scored two runs and gave the Red Sox a 6 to 5 victory over Detroit today.

Gerald Walker, pinch-hitting for Stone in the eighth, put his team in the lead with a home run over the left field fence. Alexander hit one for the Sox with a man on base in the fifth.

Score by Innings: R. H. E. Detroit 020 100 110-5 8 2 New York 100 000 000-1 4 1 Batteries—Hadley and Ferrell; MacFayden and Dickey.

Pippins Brothers May Meet in World Series

NEW YORK (AP)—A "brother act" looms for the 1932 world's series providing the Brooklyn Dodgers beat out their rivals in the race down the stretch in the National league.

The club recently obtained Ed Pippins, Jersey City hurler who is the brother of George Pippins of the New York Yankees. The Yanks virtually are conceded the pennant in the American league.

Grove Tames Sox With Arm, Bat

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 22 (AP)—Lefty Grove slumped a homer and added a masterful exhibition of hurling today to give the Athletics an 8 to 1 victory over the Chicago White Sox and chalk up his nineteenth win of the season.

The lefthander pounded the ball over the right field wall in the fourth inning to send in two runners ahead of him and then scored another run in the eighth after he had singled. The Mack's combed Gallivan for 16 hits.

Score by Innings: R. H. E. Chicago 100 000 000-1 9 1 Philadelphia 000 400 13*-8 16 0 Batteries—Gallivan and Berry; Grove and Cochrane.

They LaughBut Columbus Ace Cures Fans

(Special to The Daily Iowan)

URBANA, Ill., Aug. 22—Hard as nails after a summer in the open at Muskegon, Mich., Bob Zuppke will soon pack his golf clubs and hurry home to tackle one of the toughest tasks in his coaching career—the starting of the Illini upward on the football ladder.

Zuppke has no illusions about the magnitude of this job but he is full of fire and zest just as if the pendulum of time had swung back to the year 1913 when he appeared at Illinois for the first time and paved the way for the first unshared championship the Illini ever won, 1914.

Will Make No Predictions

The veteran coach will make no predictions about the probable strength of the Illini. He says frankly that he does not know what kind of a team Illinois will have. Asked about the large squad of sophomores from which reinforcements must be drawn, he replies that they are yet to be tested and that it is a mistake to play any one as a star until he has accomplished something in real action.

Zuppke will readily concede that Illinois should be better than last season, when the Illini for the first time in his regime, lost every conference game they played. How much better is another thing, the coach points out.

In Good Condition

Zuppke will return to the university early in September. This summer he refused all offers to lecture in summer coaching courses. His one idea was to keep in the best possible physical condition and he is in fine trim for the work he loves.

Bliss Also Has Trouble

Another victim of the twelfth hole was 19 year old Rodney Bliss of Omaha, who dethroned Johnny Goodman in the Nebraska state amateur last week. Bliss took an eight on the inopportune hole but even then posted a 74.

Dawn of the Twentieth Century

Bliss was riding behind with par 78, while a large brigade came charging in with 72s.

Dawn of the Twentieth Century

Dawn was the victim of the 428 yard twelfth hole, an uphill stretch that took a heavy toll of shots today. His round read 34-77.

Lehman, Dawson Close Behind

Lehman, 1930 champion, had a pair of deuces on his card, finishing with the smartest backward nine of the day, a 33.

Bliss Also Has Trouble

Edselberger's margin in the medalist fight was too close for comfort, according to his Bill Lee's version of it. And he's it, more often than not.

Fans Around the Country

Fans around the American association circuit have been inclined to voice amusement, during the early innings, at the way Bill, a hurler for George Dawson, was riding behind with par 78, while a large brigade came charging in with 72s.

Dawn of the Twentieth Century

Dawn was the victim of the 428 yard twelfth hole, an uphill stretch that took a heavy toll of shots today. His round read 34-77.

Lehman, Dawson Close Behind

Lehman, 1930 champion, had a pair of deuces on his card, finishing with the smartest backward nine of the day, a 33.

Bliss Also Has Trouble

Edselberger's margin in the medalist fight was too close for comfort, according to his Bill Lee's version of it. And he's it, more often than not.

Dawn of the Twentieth Century

Dawn was the victim of the 428 yard twelfth hole, an uphill stretch that took a heavy toll of shots today. His round read 34-77.

Lehman, Dawson Close Behind

Lehman, 1930 champion, had a pair of deuces on his card, finishing with the smartest backward nine of the day, a 33.

Bliss Also Has Trouble

Edselberger's margin in the medalist fight was too close for comfort, according to his Bill Lee's version of it. And he's it, more often than not.

Dawn of the Twentieth Century

Dawn was the victim of the 428 yard twelfth hole, an uphill stretch that took a heavy toll of shots today. His round read 34-77.

Lehman, Dawson Close Behind

Lehman, 1930 champion, had a pair of deuces on his card, finishing with the smartest backward nine of the day, a 33.

Bliss Also Has Trouble

Edselberger's margin in the medalist fight was too close for comfort, according to his Bill Lee's version of it. And he's it, more often than not.

Dawn of the Twentieth Century

Dawn was the victim of the 428 yard twelfth hole, an uphill stretch that took a heavy toll of shots today. His round read 34-77.

Lehman, Dawson Close Behind

Lehman, 1930 champion, had a pair of deuces on his card, finishing with the smartest backward nine of the day, a 33.

Bliss Also Has Trouble

Edselberger's margin in the medalist fight was too close for comfort, according to his Bill Lee's version of it. And he's it, more often than not.

Dawn of the Twentieth Century

Dawn was the victim of the 428 yard twelfth hole, an uphill stretch that took a heavy toll of shots today. His round read 34-77.

Lehman, Dawson Close Behind

Lehman, 1930 champion, had a pair of deuces on his card, finishing with the smartest backward nine of the day, a 33.

Bliss Also Has Trouble

Edselberger's margin in the medalist fight was too close for comfort, according to his Bill Lee's version of it. And he's it, more often than not.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 23, 1932

"MURDER of the NIGHT CLUB LADY"

THE NEW THATCHER COLT DETECTIVE MYSTERY
BY ANTHONY ABBOT

COPYRIGHT, 1932, BY CECIL-FRIEDRICH INC., DISTRIBUTED BY KING FEATURES SYNDICATE, INC.

SYNOPSIS

Despite the police guard placed in her home by Commissioner Thatcher Colt, Lola Carewe, suspected "higher-up" of a jewel thief ring, is mysteriously murdered. Dr. Hugh Baldwin gives heart failure at the cause of death. Those present at the time, besides Colt and his aides, were Lola's mother, Mrs. Carewe; the butler, maid, and Vincent Rowland, an attorney. Colt feels the young man whose photograph adorns Lola's dresser — and whose identity she refused to reveal beyond his first name, "Basil" — is connected with the mystery. At the mention of his name, Mrs. Carewe becomes hysterical, saying Lola was a cruel beast and never loved Basil. Christine Quires, Lola's guest, cannot be located, although the elevator boy claims she returned around midnight with her escort, Guy Everett, and Colt found the bag she carried. Colt phones Everett's apartment after 3 a.m. and learns Everett has not arrived. A clue in the form of a small wooden box is picked up under Lola's window. Chung, the butler, reveals that Everett had threatened Lola and that Rowland, the lawyer, warned her she was playing a dangerous game and would be caught. Eunice, the maid, discloses that Christine quarreled with Mrs. Carewe about money the afternoon of the murder. Mrs. Carewe told Christine to see Lola about it and the latter replied, "All right if Lola lives that long." The maid further states that both Lola and Christine were afraid of Guy Everett. Lola had induced him to make poor investments. And Eunice also adds that Dr. Baldwin told Lola his life would be ruined if Lola told what she knew. Guy Everett arrives. He asserts that he and Christine went out about 9:15 p.m.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

AND where did you go?" To a perfectly dreadful place, the Lion's Paw. Just opened. The whole place is in very bad taste."

"And what time did you get there?"

"About quarter to eleven."

"Out to Rockville Center?" said Flynn. "You were certainly breaking the speed laws."

"Oh no, positively nothing like that! It only happened that my car is a fast car," explained Guy Everett. "Now won't you gentlemen tell me why you have me here, dragged out on a fiendish night like this? Where is Miss Quires and why may I not talk with her?"

Instead of replying, Thatcher Colt walked to the mantel and picked up the purse of seed pearls. Holding it extended, he walked back to Everett.

"Ever seen that before?"

"Why, yes—it's her purse—Christine's?"

"Yes—she had it with her to-night—say, what is all this?"

"Don't you know?" asked Colt.

"I do not."

"Don't you realize that she has disappeared—after the death of Lola Carewe?"

Guy Everett was an actor. One might have fancied that he had rehearsed the histrionic exhibition which followed Colt's curt announcement. With sweep of his graceful arm, Everett clapped his hand against his forehead. His eyes distended and his words came in gasps.

"Disappeared—and Lola dead?"

"Murdered," followed up Colt.

The actor staggered to a chair. He sat down and buried his face in his hands, and through his fingers he gasped:

"Murdered! Who would murder poor Lola?"

"What time did you leave the Lion's Paw?" Colt hastened on.

Still with his face muffled in his palms, Everett replied:

"About ten minutes past eleven."

"Why did you leave so soon?"

STRIKERS

Stop Trains Headed for Sioux City

(Continued from page 1)

cage headquarters that a freight train, bearing livestock, was stopped at Moline, Ia. Rail officials said stopping it was an interference with interstate commerce.

Declaring his sympathy with the strikers, Governor Olson, only farmland governor in the nation, said: "I would be willing to join with the governors of the other agricultural states in any plan, however arbitrary, which would tend to raise the prices of farm commodities."

Governors Approve

Gov. Warren Green of South Dakota, said, however, that he saw no possibility of aiding the cause by use of martial law, although he approved any peaceful attempts by farmers to force up prices. Governor Turner of Iowa could not be reached for a statement.

Picket Boone Roads

Farmers near Boone continued for the fourth day their pickets of highways near there. One man declared he would file suit against the strikers for alleged damage to his automobile and injuries to his wife.

More than 100 farmers are touring northern Keokuk county, in eastern Iowa, and asking produce dealers to close during the holiday.

Trucking Stopped

Sheriff John A. Davenport of Woodbury county has had only one request from farmers for deputies. All but two produce houses, they said, would cease business.

Nearly 200 farmers gathered at

"It was a wretched place, a great disappointment to both of us, and Christine felt ill."

"Had she been drinking?"

"Only slightly."

"You returned by automobile?"

"Yes. I came into the lobby downstairs, but Christine wouldn't let me come up here."

"And then you went home?"

"Yes!"

"Now, Mr. Everett, you arrived here around twelve-fifteen. You left here, let me say, at twelve-twenty. You arrived at the Axton Club some time after three o'clock. Where were you during that intervening time?"

Guy Everett dropped his hands to his knees and looked at Colt haggardly.

"Look here," he said, "you don't think I had anything to do with this, did you?"

" Didn't you hear what the Commissioner asked you?" roared Dougherty, beating Flynn to it.

"Answer the question! What did you do during those three hours?"

"Well," replied the actor thoughtfully, "I don't suppose you gentlemen will understand, but I am an artist, a sensitive person, and I enjoy romantic impressions. When I got into my car tonight I had not the slightest idea of where I was going or what I should do. It was a beauty night, wet, snowy, falling, a night for witches. I suddenly got the idea that I would like to spend the night alone driving around the country. So I drove back over the Queensborough Bridge and down through Jamaica to the Motor Parkway. The roads are pretty well deserted tonight. I don't think I passed two cars, and after I got as far as Hicksville, I turned around and came back."

Blank silence followed this report. Four pairs of eyes were fixed upon Mr. Guy Everett.

"Finally, Dougherty exploded.

"Is that the best story you could make up?" he barked. "Why, you confound you, Everett, you insult the intelligence of every man in this room. Do you expect us to believe a cock-and-bull story like that?"

"Excuse me, Mr. Dougherty," interrupted Flynn, "but there are some boys downtown who would like to have a session in the back room with Mr. Everett."

Everett gave a straight look at the Inspector.

"I suppose by that you mean that you are going to attack me physically," he said, with a sudden and gratifying dignity. "I have told you nothing more nor less than the truth. I do not think I shall be afraid of your third degree. I served my country four years in the war."

"Our boys were over there too," Flynn grimly returned.

"Never mind that," decided Thatcher Colt. "For the moment, at least, we shall accept Mr. Everett's fantastic recital. It is not altogether unbelievable, but there are ways by which it can be substantiated."

"Substantiated?" repeated Everett, with a glance of astonishment.

"You know, of course," continued Everett. "To watch what went on in this house and tell him," wailed Eunice, unhappy in her betrayal of her idol.

"And what did you tell him?"

"Everything I told him when Christine and Lola fought, and what they said."

"Did you ever hear Mr. Everett threaten Lola?"

"Never—oh, Mr. Everett didn't do it. Mr. Everett is always the perfect gent—please believe that."

"For what?" barked Dougherty.

"To watch what went on in this house and tell him," wailed Eunice, unhappy in her betrayal of her idol.

"Sentiment here was predominantly bearish, but the market resisted selling on the declines. Liverpool closed slightly lower, traders there being more inclined to heed the small world's shipments of 6,288,000 bushels and the small supplies afloat than were United States operators.

Prices showed a little strength at the outset but operations were limited and fluctuations narrow. A selling wave about noon broke wheat about a cent a bushel, but this was quickly checked by nervous buying and wheat closed fairly strong, 3-8 to 5-8 cent higher than Saturday's finish, corn steady to 1-8 lower, oats 1-8-14 higher, and provisions mixed 3 cents lower to 5 cents higher.

Sentiment here was predominantly bearish, but the market resisted selling on the declines. Liverpool closed slightly lower, traders there being more inclined to heed the small world's shipments of 6,288,000 bushels and the small supplies afloat than were United States operators.

Russian advices were favorable. A report dated Aug. 10 said that only 111,000,000 acres of small grains had been cut as compared to 141,000,000 acres on that date in 1931.

Corn prices held within a moderate range. Some liquidation appeared in the September delivery, but trade was generally small. Oats were slightly traded.

Provisions were quiet.

Closing indemnities: Wheat—Sept.

14, 49 7-8, 52; December 53 1-8-

14, 55 7-8-56; May 57 7-8, 60 14-

38. Corn—September 30 1-8, 30 34;

December 32, 32 1-2-5-8; May 40-

37 (bid).

(To Be Continued Tomorrow)

Copyright 1932, by Cecil-Friedrich, Inc.

Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

MISSOURI VALLEY, to picket roads. They hope within 48 hours all highways into Omaha will be blocked and they said that will try to enlist large numbers of Nebraska farmers in their cause.

The milk strike, which seemed to have been settled last week with the announcement that the producers and distributors had agreed on a price of $1.80 a hundredweight, still today was awaiting ratification by farmers of the pact.

Give Milk Free

Producers continued to distribute free milk at a dozen stations and will continue to do so, they said, until the agreement is signed.

This milk strike, affiliated with the farmers' holiday strike, today was extended to LeMars. A dairy there was picketed throughout the night. Only one truck tried to force passage through the blockades; picketers hurled rocks at it.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kloos of Cedar Rapids, formerly of Iowa City, spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Dever.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Lingelbach and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Buss of Holman, spent Monday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Conklin.

Doris Zimmerli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Zimmerli, has returned to her home after being confined to the Mercy hospital where she underwent a major operation.

The Illinois Central railroad rushed 40 section men to Remsen, near LeMars, to assure safe loading of cattle, but the picketers frustrated the attempt by forcing farmers to ship to the west.

Meanwhile in Sioux City, as investigations by railroad executives were getting under way, the striking farmers were planning to increase the effectiveness of their embargo by picketing all railroad loading docks throughout the territory.

Trucking Stopped

Farmers near Boone continued for the fourth day their pickets of highways near there. One man declared he would file suit against the strikers for alleged damage to his automobile and injuries to his wife.

More than 100 farmers are touring northern Keokuk county, in eastern Iowa, and asking produce dealers to close during the holiday.

All but two produce houses, they said, would cease business.

Nearly 200 farmers gathered at

Stock Market Rises to New High Levels

Crashes Through Upper Resistance Levels to Good Gains

NEW YORK, Aug. 22 (AP)—The stock market crashed through its upper resistance levels of the past fortnight to new high ground for the summer recovery today.

Over his shoulder the actor looked at the police chief. It was a dignified posture of lofty and well-bred disdain, too well done to be real.

"I beg your pardon, sir?"

"We know about those investments," snapped Col.

A pale cloud of fear swept across Guy Everett's face.

"Then you must know that I am broke, as you say?"

"Do you blame Miss Carewe for that?"

"I took her advice and bought the stocks she recommended. She knows Vincent Rowland so well—she ought to have straight tips, but I couldn't blame her. It was my money and I spent it."

Guy Everett dropped somberly.

"Do you know Miss Carewe any resentfully?"

"Thanks, Mr. Everett. Hold yourself in readiness—I may call you again at any time during the next few weeks."

"Good-night, gentlemen!"

"Thanks, Mr. Everett. Hold yourself in readiness—I may call you again at any time during the next few weeks."

"Good-night, gentlemen!"

"Thanks, Mr. Everett. Hold yourself in readiness—I may call you again at any time during the next few weeks."

"Good-night, gentlemen!"

"Thanks, Mr. Everett. Hold yourself in readiness—I may call you again at any time during the next few weeks."

"Good-night, gentlemen!"

"Thanks, Mr. Everett. Hold yourself in readiness—I may call you again at any time during the next few weeks."

"Good-night, gentlemen!"

"Thanks, Mr. Everett. Hold yourself in readiness—I may call you again at any time during the next few weeks."

"Good-night, gentlemen!"

"Thanks, Mr. Everett. Hold yourself in readiness—I may call you again at any time during the next few weeks."

"Good-night, gentlemen!"

"Thanks, Mr. Everett. Hold yourself in readiness—I may call you again at any time during the next few weeks."

"Good-night, gentlemen!"

"Thanks, Mr. Everett. Hold yourself in readiness—I may call you again at any time during the next few weeks."

"Good-night, gentlemen!"

"Thanks, Mr. Everett. Hold yourself in readiness—I may call you again at any time during the next few weeks."

"Good-night, gentlemen!"

"Thanks, Mr. Everett. Hold yourself in readiness—I may call you again at any time during the next few weeks."

"Good-night, gentlemen!"

"Thanks, Mr. Everett. Hold yourself in readiness—I may call you again at any time during the next few weeks."

Elaborate Program Planned for Circus Here Tomorrow

Snarling big cats and lumbering elephants, Cleopatra in her gorgeous, made in America, trapping, cloths and acrobats and ballyhooers.

All these and a thousand other oddities of the circus world will arrive in Iowa City early tomorrow morning over the Rock Island railroad from Burlington.

Through the still of the early morning, creaking wagons drawn by horses and other curious beasts will transport the equipment of the Hagenback-Wallace circus from the railroad siding to the Rate show grounds on S. Clinton street.

At 2 p.m. "Cleopatra, queen of Egypt," will open the show with a performance in which, says the advance man, hundreds of people and animals take part.

An hour before the main show begins the menagerie will open and customers will be allowed to see what is advertised as a superlative collection of wild animals.

At 11 a.m. a steam calliope will begin wheezing music. The calliope, too, comes in for a share of publicity, since it is said to be one of the few steam calliopes left in America.

The performances of the show, according to the press notices, will be at 2 and 8 p.m. Tickets will be on sale tomorrow at Whetstone's No. 1. The circus will entrain for Clinton immediately after the last show.

Iowans Will Commemorate Early Education in Iowa

DES MOINES, Aug. 22 (AP) — A caravan of cars Thursday will travel to several Iowa historical points in a celebration commemorating the early days of education in Iowa.

E. F. Pittman, director of the newspaper division of the state historical department, will have charge of the celebration, which marks the observance of the seventieth anniversary of the beginning of the teaching career of his mother, Nancy J. Douglass.

The caravan will assemble at the Elm school a mile west of Carroll in Van Buren county. Points of historical interest will be visited and a speaking program held at the site of the first school house, established at Monroe in 1834.

Agnes Samuelson, state superintendent of public instruction, will deliver the principal address. Mrs. Cornelius Hodges, superintendent of schools for Van Buren county, will preside.

The program will be held at a monument marking the site of the first school, a log cabin which stood four miles south of Monroe. Other points to be visited include the state penitentiary at Ft. Madison, a monument to Chief Keokuk, the Jasper conglomerate boulder, the Keokuk dam, and the old plank road between Keokuk and Oskaloosa.

Persons travelling in the caravan will include teachers who have taught in the Elm district school for five decades, and former pupils and patrons of the school district, Pittman said.

Agnes Samuelson, state superin-

BEAT WOMAN

In Protest to City Wage Variations

(Continued from Page 1)

the men who struck her. Others arrested whom she identified as members of the abducting party were Don Dodd, John Bauer, Joe Slevers and Elwood Mohring.

Employed by City

Arrested with them were Henry Ness, said to be the president of the county unemployed association; Kenneth Emerson, James Smith, Glynn Hutton, Martin Hallberg and Russell O'Connell. A warrant was also issued for a twelfth man, Wayne Chapman.

Miss Stull said all of the arrested men had been employed on the city's relief works. They had first worked on the road and garden projects, but when that work ran out they were shifted to the woodcutting at the reduced pay.

Maximum Wage $1.25

She said that, while the maximum cash wage per day for woodcutters was $1.25, groceries and other food supplies could be earned by cutting more than one cord. She added that the number of days of work provided per week depended upon the size of the worker's family.

The workers denied that they had an opportunity to earn groceries in addition to their pay and claimed that Miss Stull had not treated them with proper respect. The county board of supervisors administers the relief funds but Miss Stull was directly in charge of the employment.

Nationally Known Will Speak at Ames College

AMES, Aug. 22 (AP) — Nationally known figures in a wide variety of fields will appear on the lecture platform at Iowa State college this winter, according to Prof. B. S. Pickett, chairman of the college lecture course committee.

Irving Fisher, noted economist; Representative Ruth Bryan Owen of Florida; Ruth Page, Metropolitan ballerina dancing star; Major Francis Yeats-Brown, soldier and adventurer; Frederick Moore, journalist and former foreign adviser to the Japanese government; John Langdon-Davies, Philip Guedalla, Maurice Hindus, and Sidney Thompson, writers, and Col. Willard T. Chevalier, New York engineer, are among those already selected.

WSUI PROGRAM

For Today
9 a.m.—Within the classroom, Contemporary literature, Prof. Harlan Hatcher.

11 a.m.—Within the classroom, English commonwealth of nations since 1900, Prof. W. R. Livingston.
12 m.—Luncheon hour program, Mrs. Pearl Bane.

2 p.m.—Within the classroom. The teaching of English, Prof. M. F. Carpenter.

3 p.m.—Illustrated musical chats, Addison Alspach, music department.
6 p.m.—Dinner hour program.

7 p.m.—Late news flashes, The Daily Iowan.

8 p.m.—Book review, school of journalism.

8:20 p.m.—Musical program, Robert Manley.

8:40 p.m.—Musical program, Catharine Smith.

9 p.m.—Late news flashes, The Daily Iowan.

9:10 p.m.—Musical program, Elmer Gladwin.

DIXIE DUGAN—Suspicious is a Mild Word!

By J. P. McEvoy and J. H. Striebel

SKIPPY—A Voice That is Missed

By PERCY L. CROSBY

Farm Board Head, Turner to Feature Farm Bureau Day

DES MOINES, Aug. 22 (AP) — James C. Stone, chairman of the federal farm board, and Gov. Dan Turner will be the principal speakers on the Farm Bureau day program at the Iowa State fair Monday, Aug. 29.

The meeting of Farm Bureau members and all others interested will be opened at 10 a.m. by J. H. Jones of Ainsworth, vice president of the Iowa federation. They will be welcomed by J. P. Mullen of Fonda, president of the state fair board.

Stone's address is expected to deal with the work of the farm board in assisting the cooperative marketing movement.

Special Farm Bureau activities are planned for every day of the fair, most of them in the women's division. Extension workers from Iowa State College will assist state committee women in presenting the program.

Road Building Increase, Rising Cost of Cement Will Provide 250 Jobs

DAVENPORT, Aug. 22 (AP) — Increased prices for cement and an increase in road building in Iowa, Minnesota, and Illinois will mean approximately three months work for 250 employees of the Dewey Portland Cement company plant at Lincoln, officials have announced.

When the mills started up last March it was estimated that they could continue operation until about Sept. 1, before the annual shutting down. The increased demand, however, has changed original plans and it now appears that the plant can continue at its present rate of production until Dec. 1 before shutting down for several months.

The paving increase, caused by federal aid under a bill passed by the last congress, has caused some additional activity, but officials said some stimulation in general building had been noted.

Field Extends Speaking Engagement Program

SHENANDOAH, Aug. 22 (AP) — Henry Field, Republican candidate for United States senator, has extended his program of speaking engagements into this week. He was scheduled to speak at the Monroe county fair at Albion and the Keokuk county fair at What Cheer. He will return home Wednesday, Aug. 24, to welcome Arthur M. Hyde, secretary of agriculture, who will be the next speaker on Field's series of discussions by prominent farm leaders on the farm situation.

Ames Society May Bid for Convention

AMES, Aug. 22 (AP) — An invitation may be extended by the Ames Gladious society to the Iowa Gladious society to hold the state gladious show here next year.

A letter from R. S. Herrick of Des Moines, secretary of the society, indicated that an invitation from Ames would be considered.

Masons Confer Degrees

The Masonic lodge will meet to confer the second degree on two candidates at the Masonic temple at 7:30 this evening.

Odd Fellows Meet

Eureka Lodge No. 44, I.O.O.F., will meet in regular session tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the Odd Fellow hall. Routine business will be transacted.

marry Clarice Holmes. Both are from River Falls, Wis.

Naughty

Four persons paid fines to Police Judge Charles L. Zager for overtime parking over the week end yesterday, and two appeared in court on intoxication charges. Edwin Rypins, Ralph E. Siler, C. E. Johnson, and Dorothy Starbuck were those who paid $1 apiece for overtime parking. A man giving the name Ed Sherman went to jail for five days for intoxication, and Tom Brogan paid $5 and costs on a similar charge.

Heat Does Burn

How long does it take for an iron to burn through an ironing board? Ask Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Amrine, 427 S. Johnson street. Firemen were called to their home early Sunday morning to put out a small blaze starting from a hot iron which seared its way through the board on which it stood.

We'll Soon Be Registered

L. B. Thompson, representative of Matt Parrott and Sons company, the concern that sold the new permanent registration system to the city, is hard at work in the council chamber of the city hall completing the records of the recent registration.

Four assistants are working with him, typing information in the blank spaces of the cards.

For the Rent

C. O. Parks filed a petition in district court yesterday asking for $160 from Harry W. and Bertha J. Mount for rent claimed to be due on Iowa City property. Wilson, Clearman, and Brant are the attorneys.

On the Way

Harry Wenger of Johnson county applied at the office of Clerk of Court Walter J. Barrow yesterday for a license to marry Ruth McCorle of Dallas county.

More Rent

Owen McCabe, guardian of Margaret Ford, asks the court to grant judgment of $278.93 against James and Mary M. Donohue for rent due on a Johnson county farm.

And Still More

William James (not the cowboy) wants the aid of the court in his attempt to collect $300 rent which he says Mrs. Eva Stover owes him for an apartment at 527 E. College street. W. F. Murphy is his attorney.

Going, Going, Gone

The auction hammer will pound today as 26 head of livestock owned by Johnson county 4-H club members are sold in the Chicago markets. The purebred beef heifers, and baby calves, were prize winners at the show here last week.

How Thoughtful

When a robber entered the Schillig grocery store, 818 E. Market street Sunday night he took $13.49 from the cash register, thoughtfully leaving $3 for carfare. Nothing else was disturbed by the man, who forced an entrance through the rear door.

MASONIC LODGE WORK

Special meeting of Iowa City Lodge, No. 4, at the Temple this Tuesday evening, August 23rd, at 7:30, for work in the Second Degree. Members and visitors cordially invited.

Well, Well, Well

Robert C. Smith applied at the office of Clerk of Court Walter J. Barrow yesterday for a license to

Board of Supervisors Announces Cost Cuts

WAVERLY, Aug. 22 (AP) — The Bremer county board of supervisors has announced a reduction of $46,550 in the 1933 budget estimated as compared with the 1932 estimate. The figure for next year is $59,779 under that for 1932.

Court expenses and the levy for the county school fund, each estimated at one mill, were eliminated. The levy for bovine tuberculosis eradication was lowered from three to two mills. The optional levy for secondary road construction, 2 1/2 mills, was eliminated and the mandatory assessment for maintenance of secondary roads was cut from 2 1/2 to 1 1/2 mills. The budget estimates totaled $245,300.

4-H Club Members to Exhibit at West Liberty

After winning prizes and honorable mentions and awards of various kinds at the recent stock show here, the members of the Johnson county 4-H club will take three carloads of their prize livestock to West Liberty where they will be shown at the West Liberty fair this week. Judging of the stock will start this morning as a feature of Farm bureau day at the fair.

Announce Purchase

CEDAR RAPIDS (AP) — The Nash Finch company of Minneapolis announced purchase of the Cedar Rapids Commission company. It will be merged with the Nash Finch company of Cedar Rapids.

"So Easy to Make!"

SEWING LESSON FOR PATTERN 2216

Consists of 3 parts:
1-Bodice
2-Skirt
3-Bash

Compare parts of pattern with cutting guide. Be sure you mark each part of the garment exactly like the pattern.

Marks Used For Cutting & Making
✓ Notch — to match in seams etc.
The natural waistline is indicated by double notches.

Sizes 36" Material Blazing
Small 1 3/4 Yds. 5 Yards
Medium 1 3/4 " 5 :
Large 1 3/4 " 5 :

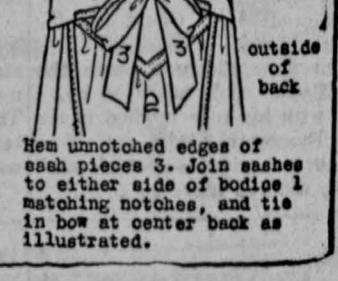

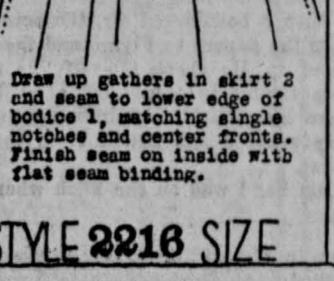

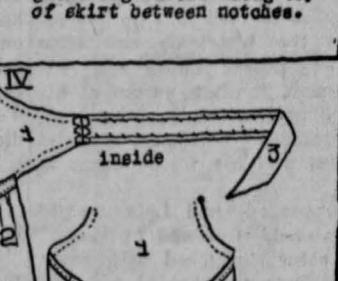

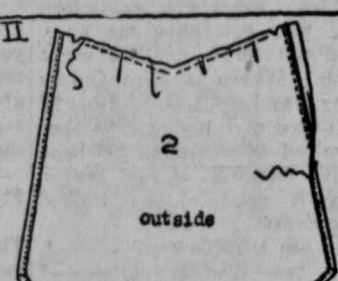

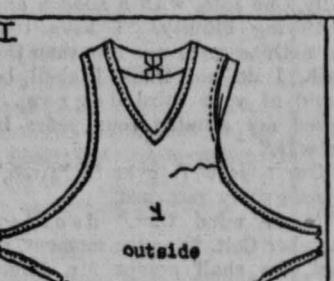

1/2" ALLOWED FOR ALL SEAMS UNLESS OTHERWISE STATED

Cutting guide shows small size laid on 36 inch material folded in half lengthwise. Medium and large sizes to be laid in same way. Other widths of material may require a slightly different lay.

Draw up gathers in skirt and seam to lower edge of bodice 1, matching single notches and center front. Pull seam inside with flat seam binding.

Hem unnotched edges of each pieces 3. Join seahs to either side of bodice 1, matching double notches, and tie in bow at center back as illustrated.

STYLE 2216 SIZE

ANNE ADAMS PATTERNS