Cuban Government Announces Seven-Point Plan of Reorganization

'Benevolent' Dictatorship Is Promised

Heavier Guard Placed Around Stronghold of Ousted Officers

HAVANA, Sept. 14—The government of President Ramon Grau San Martin tonight announced a seven-point plan of administration for Cuba which contained promise of a virtual although benevolent dictatorship. Simultaneously it threw the heavier guard yet placed around Havana's Hotel Nacional, where 500 Cuban army officers ousted in last week's enlisted men's coup were defiantly demanding restoration of former President de Cespedes. Machine guns were trained on four sides of the huge, high-set hotel.

Harassed by Unrest
Harassed by labor unrest in the interior which grew more serious hourly, not recognized by the United States, facing food shortage in the nation's capital and hearing on every side the report that revolt against it is imminent, the administration set forth its plan of operations.

The governments told Cuba flatly it will make individual rights secondary to what it considers the nation's good, phrasing the fifth point of the government plan:

"Would Be At Fault"
"Since the provisional government truly would be at fault if it abandoned the guarantees that (possession of) the power carries with it dangerous aspirations, temporarily it will make individual rights secondary to a regime of government fiscalization."

The first point of the program embodied a pledge to carry out to the fullest the regime's announced policy of intense nationalism.

Independence
The provisional government will maintain above all else absolute independence and national sovereignty, the principle of free determination of the people in its interior conflicts and the principal of judicial equality of states," the government declared.

Elections
2.—Call elections as soon as possible for the constitutional convention which will have power to supervise procedure of the provisional government, and make preparations for the choice of its successor.

Probe of Reichstag Fire Shows Nazis May Have Started Blaze

LONDON, Sept. 14 (AP)—The suggestion that Nazis themselves might have set the fire in the German Reichstag building last March was placed today before an international legal commission investigating the affair.

The commission, of which Arthur Garfield Hays of the United States is a member, is considering evidence in an attempt to determine whether the Nazis themselves are responsible rather than the Communists charged by German authorities. Intense interest was aroused before adjournment of the day's session by a description of the Reichstag premises by Dr. Paul Herz a former member of the body, who expressed his belief the blaze started in a part of the building from which visitors and the staff always were barred.

Harrison, After Parley With Roosevelt, Hints Executive Plans Early Inflation Moves

Refuses Prediction on Definite Steps to Be Taken

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14 (AP)—Chairman Harrison of the senate finance committee, in a talk with newspapermen today, strongly indicated that the administration was contemplating some monetary inflation at an early date to help raise commodity prices.

Two Day Conference
The Mississippian, who has been urging such a step in conferences the last two days with President Roosevelt, Budget Director Lewis Douglas and Governor Eugene Black of the federal reserve board, refused to predict what specific steps the administration had in mind, but said flatly it would be in addition to the existing currency expansion through open market operations of the reserve system.

The Harrison interview came just before Chairman Jones of the Reconstruction corporation announced a move liberal federal credit policy to help NRA industries—a move which Jones interpreted as inflation to the extent of new credit used.

But Harrison hinted something else was in the making if the new credit plan does not get money into circulation as quickly as desired.

"More Drastically"
"Inflation should be carried out more drastically than it has been," he told the newspapermen in his office at the capitol.

"My belief, from those conferences I have had, is that something will be done and is being done," he said. "They might decide to go ahead and try to get results without notifying the world what they are doing, but I have faith they are going to utilize every agency to do more than open market operations to get higher commodity prices.

"If some action to inflate doesn't come quickly, he said, "you can just kiss the baby good bye."

"I contemplate some action pretty quick whether you call it inflation or not," he said.

Kenyon Rites Set for Today

FT. DODGE, Sept. 14 (AP)—City and county offices here will be closed tomorrow during the funeral service for Judge William S. Kenyon, who died last Saturday at his summer home in Sebago, Me.

The service will be held at 2 p.m. at the Congregational church and will be conducted by the Rev. Peter Young. Tributes to the late jurist will be paid by former Gov. N. E. Kendall of Des Moines and D. M. Kelleher of Ft. Dodge.

The body will arrive tomorrow morning and will be met by an escort from the Webster County Bar association.

Among those from out of town who will attend the funeral are Judges M. M. Joyce of Minneapolis, Judge John Sanborn of St. Paul and Judge Wilbur Booth of Minneapolis. Judge Kenyon served with the two latter on the federal circuit court of appeals.

Milk Strike in Chicago Area Gains Violence

Pickets Line Highways, Dump Milk, Seeking Price Change

CHICAGO, Sept. 14 (AP)—A strike of dairy farmers supplying Chicago with milk broke out today. Picketing farmers lined highways and surrounded milk depots of the big Chicago distributors, a few cans of milk were destroyed, and a number of farmers forced by means stronger than threats to return home.

Officials of the Pure Milk association, organization of 18,000 dairy farmers in the Chicago milkshed, said the city's milk supply was in no danger and that the strike was sponsored by politically ambitious men.

Seeks Authority
Don N. Geyer, general manager of the Cooperative association, left for Washington, D. C., by airplane today seeking authorization by the agricultural adjustment administration of a change in the recently enacted milk marketing agreement.

"We are hopeful of increasing the retail price in Chicago one cent a quart to 11 cents," Geyer said. "The advance would be passed along to the farmers and result in a price to them of about $2.20 a hundred pounds, instead of $1.75 price as at present."

Shortly before Geyer left, notice of a suit for $50,000 damages by the association was handed to E. L. Bost, dairy farmer of Woodstock, Ill., center of the strike area.

Harms Cooperation
Attorney Martin Burns declared Bost's sponsorship of the strike had harmed the cooperative to that extent, and that Bost's activities were in direct violation of the national recovery and cooperative agricultural acts.

Bost declared that 90 per cent of the dairy farmers selling their product to Chicago would have joined in the strike by tomorrow. He declared farmers were obtaining as little as $1.10 for their milk under the base surplus price of $1.75 now in effect, while the fluid sold in quart bottles for four times as much in Chicago.

"Regardless of whether the price is increased to $2.20, we shall continue to strike for abolition of the basic surplus plan," Bost said. "We insist every farmer meeting health requirements with his product has the right to sell all of it in Chicago, and not a part as now provided."

New Plans for Milk Marketing

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14 (AP)—An about face on its policy toward milk marketing agreements was taken today by the farm administration with the announcement that henceforth a 30 day trial period for future pacts would be established.

During that time only the price to the producers and maximum retail milk prices will be fixed, with a thorough study of the books of distributors, dealers and stores being made to determine price spreads.

The milk marketing agreements already approved, particularly that for Philadelphia, have caused the farm administration continuous trouble. Farmers shouted they weren't getting enough and the consumers yelled just as vociferously they were being gouged.

The Philadelphia agreement already has been reopened and George Peek, farm administrator, who made the announcement today said pacts now in effect would be reviewed also if that was found necessary.

"In effect," he said, "the administration is preparing to apply to all pending agreements and licenses the scrutiny now being given the Philadelphia agreement."

Wireless Messages Anywhere—It's Part of Club's Service!

Anyone in Iowa City may now send a wireless message to anyone anywhere in the world, free of charge.

It can be done by placing the message in a box at Whetstone's drug store No. 1 or dialing 5338 between 2 and 4 p.m. This is a new service inaugurated by the Iowa City Amateur Radio club. The offer was made last night after a meeting of the club in the American Legion Community building.

A PRESIDENT AND HIS WARWICK

The first to congratulate Dr. Ramon Grau San Martin on his elevation to the presidency of turbulent Cuba is Fulgencio Batista, the sergeant who became head of Cuba's army and who did more than any other man to make Grau San Martin president. They are shown embracing at the presidential palace after the new ruler of Cuba had been inaugurated.

Claire Windsor 'Pretty Boy' Loses in Suit

Actress Ordered to Pay $75,000 for Stealing Broker's Love

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 14 (AP)—A verdict of the stage and screen stole the love of Alfred C. Read, Jr., handsome former Oakland broker, was returned late today by a jury trying the damage suit of his divorced wife, Marian Young Read, who was awarded $75,000 of the $100,000 damages she asked.

"It is outrageous," the actress said, her face flushed. "I don't see how I ever could pay it."

Miss Windsor's attorneys said they would appeal, asserting evidence was insufficient and the award excessive.

Mrs. Read received the verdict with both smiles and tears. Spectators applauded.

Nine of the 12 jurors voted for the verdict. A vote of 9 to 3 is required for a decision.

Tammany Set for Battle in Tuesday Poll

NEW YORK, Sept. 14 (AP)—In an atmosphere complicated by city financial distress, tax fights and internal differences, Tammany hall is approaching Tuesday's primary election confident that Mayor John P. O'Brien will be re-nominated by the Democrats.

Adhering to its policy of keeping O'Brien out of direct conflict with his opponents, Tammany has virtually ignored Representative Loring M. Black and Assemblyman Jerome G. Ambro, independent Democrats seeking the nomination.

With the booming of Mayor O'Brien by the stock exchange NRA paraders yesterday ringing in their ears, Tammany leaders and their allies are quietly striving to bring out organization votes in sufficient numbers to offset any defections to the independent candidates.

After the unexpected boing and hissing that greeted him at the Sharkey-Carnera championship fight a few weeks ago, Mayor O'Brien has avoided public functions whenever possible. He did not attend the Ross-Canzoneri fight Tuesday.

Truckers Given Privilege Cuts Electric Light Rates More Than Half

DES MOINES (AP)—Lew Wallace, superintendent of the state motor vehicle department, said that South Dakota truckers moving live stock into Sioux City will be permitted until Oct. 1 to enter the state without having an Iowa license.

Coal Operators Agree With Roosevelt to Complete New Agreement Before Tonight

State Police Will Patrol Strike Area

Pinchot Sets Guard in Region Where 16 Were Shot

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 14 (AP)—Governor Pinchot tonight cancelled orders which would have sent about 350 Pennsylvania national guardsmen into the Fayette county soft coal strike fields, and instead ordered 50 state police into the field tomorrow.

"Not Needed"
The governor after a conference with state officials on his return from Washington and Philadelphia said that information he had received led him to believe "at this time the troops are not necessary."

The state police ordered into the field, where 16 men were shot and many more beaten and stoned in fights between mine guards of the H. C. Frick Coke company and pickets, will be from the Butler and Greensburg troops. They include 15 normally stationed at Uniontown.

"Governor Is Supreme"
A recent ruling of Attorney General William A. Schnader held that the governor is supreme, over the sheriff and his officers, in cases of this sort.

The governor's orders sent back to their homes the guardsmen awaiting orders to move.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Sept. 14 (AP)—Fifteen striking miners and a deputy sheriff were wounded by gunfire and more than a score were beaten today as violence flared for the second time within a month in the southwestern Pennsylvania soft coal fields.

"Holiday"
The outbreak signaled the official start of a "holiday" voted by leaders of more than 30,000 miners to protest against delay in completion of the NRA coal code, and to demand recognition of the United Mine Workers of America by the operators.

Rioting broke out at three mines of the H. C. Frick company, United States Steel subsidiary and leading producer in the field. Eight of its mines were closed tonight and eight were reported operating.

At Gates Mine
All the shooting was at the Gates mine, about 15 miles west of Uniontown. Pickets stoned miners en route to work. Company officials said only pumpmen, necessary to keep the mines from flooding, were reporting for duty.

Iowa Circles Busy Planning Farm Relief

(By The Associated Press)
Farm commodity prices, mortgage refinancing and related agricultural problems received additional attention in Iowa official circles Thursday.

In Des Moines Iowa congressmen who appeared before the state recovery board declared speeding up of bank credit, liberalization of farm mortgage refinancing and boosting of farm prices is necessary.

Senator Louis Murphy, in Washington, said he found the president sympathetic with his own views on mortgage refinancing and predicted higher appraisal values on Iowa land.

Iowa's senior senator, L. J. Dickinson, in a speech in Des Moines, asserted that the NRA program has not helped the farm and urged telegrams to the president "in regard to the present disparity between farm prices and the general commodity price level."

Conz. E. C. Eicher prepared to leave today for Washington to urge speedier mortgage refinancing and inflation as agricultural aids.

Cashier Says Bandits Robbed Him of $3,000

BARTLETT, Ill., Sept. 14 (AP)—H. E. Schnadt, cashier of the Bartlett State bank, today reported to authorities that five men forced him to drive to a lonely spot between Bartlett and Elgin and robbed him of $3,000 which he was taking from a bank at Elgin to the Bartlett bank.

Grand Jury Fails to Act on Parties in Cedar Rapids
CEDAR RAPIDS, Sept. 14 (AP)—The Linn county grand jury which reported to Judge H. C. Ring today took no action on stag parties held here last winter, one of which was used as a basis in unsuccessful ouster proceedings against Dan Krudener, commissioner of public safety. The jury's report said that since charges had been filed by the county attorney's office against men allegedly responsible for promoting the parties it felt no further action necessary.

The jury also failed to indict Thomas Eldred, 71, accused of manslaughter in connection with the death last June 13 of William Malek, struck by Eldred in an argument over proposed incorporation of a roadhouse area west of the city.

Five indictments, two of them secret, were returned by the jury.

'Ike' Hoover, Chief Usher at White House 40 Years, Dies

Heart Attack Fatal to Unique Personage Last Night

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14 (AP)—Irwin H. Hoover, 62, White House chief usher, died of a heart attack at his home tonight a short while after leaving his little office beside the front door of the executive mansion.

More than 40 years ago, he went into the White House with the first electric lights, and he remained to become a major domo extraordinary, a personage unique in all the land.

New Fangled Buttons
They needed "Ike" Hoover to press the buttons on a then "new-fangled" lighting system, and he had been pressing buttons to make White House machinery, the dinners of state, the visits of diplomats, and the million-and-one front door demands, run smoothly ever since.

All the presidents and their wives since Cleveland have been his friends. Only today, in reminiscent mood, he was talking of them all, as he sat in his friendly little office. His eyes shone, and over his thin face a rare smile played as he thought back over 40 years.

Knew Cleveland
He spoke of Cleveland and his pretty young bride. He recalled how McKinley dressed formally on all occasions, with long coat-tails full as skirts. And Theodore Roosevelt, he said, usually appeared as well-turned-out as in the John Singer Sargent portrait in the hall.

He told of how he himself used to wear the spiked tails all day long, until Taft brought a business-coated era into the White House.

With a humorous laugh, he admitted that back in 1909, just before Taft was inaugurated, he had purchased a brand new formal tailed coat which he had never worn.

Had Coat Ever Since
He said he'd had that coat ever since, never got any use out of it, couldn't use it now except for a fancy dress ball.

He had told his wife, he said that he was going to be buried in it.

Whether or not that whimsical wish of his is carried out, Ike Hoover will go down as a man who might have collected huge sums for his memoirs, but who valued his friendships more than money.

He was talking of that today, too, when that old question was put, "Ike, why don't you write your memoirs?"

Write of Romances
He recalled how he had been asked to write of White House romances, particularly that of President Wilson. There were those who would have paid a fabulous sum for the "inside story" of how a president conducted a courtship.

But Hoover preferred to remain the trusted friend of beautiful Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, who still lives in her "S" street home.

All the furors that arose about the Harding administration, he conceded, would have made it very profitable to him to write a "behind the scene" tale. But even after the principal characters in that drama were dead, he continued to refuse.

Grain Firm Despite Fall at Winnipeg

CHICAGO, Sept. 14 (AP)—Despite severe downturns in prices at Winnipeg, the Chicago grain market showed exceptional strength at times today, and wheat finished with gains.

Fresh upturns in Chicago grain values, 2 1-2 cents maximum for wheat, were coupled with assertions in some quarters that agricultural products had definitely turned the corner on the way to permanently higher prices. It was also contended that wheat selling here because of removal of an artificial fixed minimum on wheat prices at Winnipeg was most illogical, especially in view of Washington measures for 33 percent advance in values of agricultural commodities to bring back the 1914 level.

Wheat closed nervous, 1-8-1-2 above yesterday's finish, corn unchanged at 1-4 lower, oats unchanged to 3-8 up, and provisions at 10 to 35 cents advance.

Most of the day, the Chicago market was dominated by stimulating reports from Washington, including administration announcements that every effort would be made to increase bank loans for expansion purposes, and that money would be made available to finance export of Pacific coast wheat from the United States to the Orient. Bullish sentiment was also assisted by a comprehensive trade report indicating that although 1933 European wheat production is larger than last year the aggregate European production of all grains is smaller, Russia not included.

Corn and oats advanced with wheat, but rural holders of corn took advantage of upturns and were liberal sellers, leading to reactions. Provisions were helped upward by reported likelihood of enlarged official limits for emergency pig slaughter.

Don't Forget Scrip

THE $1,641 worth of scrip issued by the Chamber of Commerce last spring to give needy work to 100 unemployed citizens of Iowa City has completed about half of its journey. In other words, about 25 more stamps must be placed on the back of every piece before it has fulfilled its purpose and can be redeemed.

Although a whole year is allowed for this scrip to run, the proper degree of public interest and cooperation should cause it to be redeemed long before the year is over. The fact that it has not reached a more advanced stage by this time can undoubtedly be ascribed to a lack of interest and to too little appreciation of its worth.

Frankly, many of us had forgotten about scrip altogether. But it is still very much with us, as officials of the Chamber of Commerce hastened to assure the other day. This renewed realization brings up the question of the community's responsibility in using it and seeing the project through.

Not that there is any present danger that the scheme will fail and someone will be left with unredeemed scrip on his hands. Its distribution so far has kept pace with the schedule set for it in the beginning. But there is danger of its failure unless all of us remain conscious that scrip is still being used and do our part in using it.

No one should hesitate to accept scrip when it is offered. It is taken by nearly every merchant in Iowa City and can be easily disposed of.

The fact that it already has done the good for which it was intended by providing 5,000 hours of work for men who were sadly in need of it is all the more reason why each citizen of the community still has a civic responsibility in accepting and using it.

Roosevelt Grabs Another Bull's Horn

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT will be entitled to unstinted commendation if his projected consolidation of army posts which, according to an announcement by the Associated Press Wednesday, would eliminate 50 of these useless relics of pioneer days, is carried through in spite of political opposition.

Such an organization and consolidation has been advocated by every secretary of war for several decades and by army experts during every session of congress. These posts, scattered through the interior after the Civil war, to fight Indians, have been zealously maintained because of the porkish attitude of congressmen, and for no other reason.

It was heartening to hear that the $50,000,000 allotted to the army out of the public work fund is to be spent in the improvement and expansion of 50 centrally located camps which are planned to be permanent and that the remainder are to be abandoned.

It is certain that opposition to the move will be heated and aggressive. Secretary of War Patrick J. Hurley tried the same thing in 1931 under President Hoover, but the resultant clamor from congressmen and local potentates was too overwhelming and the posts were left intact.

But President Roosevelt has a reputation for disregarding the unwarranted objections of private interests. His record on that score already is formidable. This will prove a test worthy of his reputation.

The Atom Deceives Us

(From The Kansas City Star)
The Atom Deceives Us.
The process of debunking has now been extended to the atom. According to Lord Rutherford in his address before the British Association for the Advancement of Science, the energy that may be produced by breaking down the atom is "a very poor kind of a thing." For years the world has been led to expect that if science could once succeed in breaking down the atom, practically all of its problems would be solved, and now it is informed that "anyone who expects a source of power from the transformation of these atoms is talking moonshine!"

No picture of the future painted by the popularizers of science has been more alluring to the layman than that of the world after the breakdown of the atom, for then untold stores of energy would be released, to perform unimaginable miracles. But if Lord Rutherford is right, our trust in the atom has been misplaced, and we shall have to get along as well as we can on our present sources of energy. It is a hard blow, and one for which the noble lord might well have prepared us more gently. The simile of the future, according to Lord Rutherford, will be "as little energy as a broken-down atom."

GOOD MORNING

Few persons in the United States appreciate the extent to which Mexico has transformed herself during the last few years from a disorganized and backward assortment of loosely knit states into one of the most enlightened and progressive nations on this continent.

We have been in the habit of looking upon ourselves as the only really progressive and active people in this part of the world. We admire Canada and even, at times, wonder how the Canadians have achieved so much. And when we have noticed that they are really just as far ahead as we, and in some respects far beyond us, we answer that they are really Americans anyway.

But with Mexico it has been different. We pride ourselves here, as to the north, that we are separated from a foreign country only by an imaginary and unprotected border line which is seldom violated. But we really have not expected the Mexicans to demonstrate a great deal of the progressiveness for which we pride ourselves.

The transformation which is becoming so strikingly evident began several years ago with the assumption of power by former president Elias Calles, the "Iron Man" of Mexico. Though he is no longer president, he retains his power in all but name and the works which he began continue to go forward under leaders of his choosing.

Of all nations Mexico was the first to fall in behind the United States in President Roosevelt's vast recovery program. Calles caught the mighty appeal of the movement almost at the outset and pledged unlimited support of his country without hesitation.

At that time, before it became evident that the London Economic conference would fail, Calles displayed the vision of a real statesman by offering to the United States Mexico's unstinting aid in what he visioned as an intercontinental war for economic supremacy.

Recently, during the early days of the Cuban trouble, Mexico again brought herself to the favorable attention of the United States by her timely and diplomatic pledge that she would concur in any action which America might see fit to take in Cuba for the preservation of peace and stable government.

But these are only minor matters, however important they have been in bringing the new Mexico into the eyes of American citizens. The basic program of the Mexican government is the thing of interest.

When Calles first took office he instituted reforms almost immediately designed to lift the miserable peon out of the rut of poverty and dirt to which he had been relegated from time immemorial. The most important single unit in this system of reform was a modern program of education upon which he placed prime emphasis. This program is beginning to bear worthwhile fruit.

Only recently he announced the formulation of a five year plan for the economic, social, and cultural rehabilitation of the whole of Mexico. This scheme is to go into effect upon the election of the next president.

Meanwhile, under President Rodriguez, an equally sensational program for the mobilization of the nation under the "New Deal" is getting under way. In this the twin "forgotten men"—the little fellow in business and in industry—will be the principal beneficiaries.

For the first, a "Fund of Popular Credit" is to be established in the national bank to be loaned to cooperative organizations of small operators who cannot furnish sufficient collateral to meet the strict requirements of the privately operated banks. This plan is primarily to loosen credit and start it flowing to the little merchants through this unique cooperative scheme upon which the Mexican government has been concentrating its efforts. The idea might well commend itself to the United States, which today is faced with the same problem of supplying credit to the smaller operators. Indeed, this is perhaps the major problem facing the recovery administration at the present time.

For the second, a system of minimum wages is to be established in every section of the country, under order from a President Rodriguez. According to the amended labor law passed by the Mexican congress, minimum wages must be fixed throughout Mexico before 1934. A bill probably will be presented in the near future to make these minimum wages adjustable to varying conditions. This, it must be admitted, is a progressive move of the first rank.

These two measures alone provide a machinery of recovery for Mexico which very nearly equals the efforts of the NRA in the United States. When the contemplated five year plan gets under way Mexico will be well worth watching. She probably will have something to offer even us. —Don Pryor.

(From Tristram Shandy, by Laurence Sterne)
"We'll go, brother Toby," said my father, "whilst dinner is cooking—to the Abbey of Saint Germain, if it be only to see these bodies, of which Monsieur Sequier has given such a recommendation."

"I'll go see anybody," quoth my uncle Toby; for he was all compliance through every step of the journey.
"Defend me!" said my father—"they are all mummies."
"Then one need not shave," quoth my uncle Toby.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD — Everybody has been wondering whether Vince Barnett would have the nerve to rib Max Baer. He did and it was a pip. Max went out to Vince's house and Hollywood's champion insulter had a faked radio all prepared for him. (The announcer came on with a news flash that Carnera had knocked Baer out during their fake fight for the movies, and that Max had been unconscious for 15 minutes. Did he burn! And, better and better, when they went to the Montmartre cafe later on, Vince had people tipped at the door to come over and tell Baer they'd listened in.

One of our better known character actors was waxing enthusiastically the other evening about a certain director. "That fellow can direct a scene with his back to you!" he exclaimed. Ted Healy sniffed. "Yeah? I saw his last picture—the other day. He must have directed that one from his office."

Washington Close-Up

Prohibition Repeal and Its Tax Possibilities Cheer Those in Charge of Expenditures

WASHINGTON—But for the prohibition repeal victories in more than two dozen states, President Roosevelt's budget conference with Secretary Woodin and Budget Director Lewis Douglas would have been much more of a news item.

It would have been up to the White House news corps to smoke out some idea as to where the administration proposed to find the money to foot a lot of regular expenditure bills next year. As it is, however, with many observers predicting that Mr. Roosevelt will find repeal and its added tax revenue possibilities in his Christmas stocking, the Hyde Park conference perhaps was a cheerful affair.

The President and his fiscal advisers could contemplate presenting a tax program to congress in January that would meet Speaker Rainey's celebrated formula for art of tax levying; to get the most feathers with the fewest squawks from the goose.

Enlightening The World
It seems impossible that the question of prohibition ever can be fought out strictly on its own merits.

Dr. O. C. Kiep, veteran German diplomat who served long as counselor of embassy in Washington, used to say that this country had conferred a favor on the world by making the great experiment of national prohibition. If it did nothing else, he said, it would settle once and for all for the world whether a nation could go dry.

He also, basing his views on extensive first hand observation of liquor control in many lands where he had served, felt that the United States alone, economically and politically speaking, could have risked the experiment.

Keeping Up With the New Books

By JOHN SELBY

"Kingdom Coming," by Roark Bradford; Harper & Brothers, New York.

NEW YORK—The basis of Marc Connelly's play "The Green Pastures" was Roark Bradford's book "Ol' Man Adam an' His Chillun," it will be remembered. Besides that Mr. Bradford has written a great deal about Negroes, and what he has written has proved very popular.

Now there is a new novel, "Kingdom Coming," which not only tells an extremely affecting story of Negro life before and during the Civil war, but reviews a whole section of history from an angle that very seldom has been considered seriously; perhaps never as effectively as in this book.

The skeleton of the book is the story of the slave and his wife sent from their New Orleans home to their master's Red River plantation because of certain peccadilloes on the part of the master's son. Grammy goes with his father and mother; soon after the arrival at the plantation Grammy has a little sister—

Legal, Medical Practices Claim Recent S. U. I. Graduates

Recent Weeks Witness Many New Offices

Several 1933 Alumni Included in List Compiled

Legal and medical practice will claim many of the University of Iowa's recent graduates. Reports received here show that many new lawyers, physicians, and dentists have opened offices in all parts of the state in the last few weeks.

Among the new professional practitioners are several 1933 graduates in all fields, as well as many who received degrees last year.

A partial list of the new doctors and attorneys includes the following:

Willis Glasgow of Shenandoah opened a law office there this week. Glasgow, who was a university football star and all-American player, received his law degree here this summer.

G. P. Sargood of Iowa City has taken over the law office of N. S. Carpenter at Eldora, and will begin practice there soon. Mr. Sargood is a graduate of the Iowa college of law, and passed the state bar examinations given here last June.

Appointment of J. R. Leary of Ft. Madison to the position of deputy county attorney of Lee county was announced recently by County Attorney D. J. McNamara. Since his graduation from the college of law here, Mr. Leary has been practicing at Ft. Madison, where he was a member of the firm of Pollard and Leary.

Theodore Hutchison of Algonia, who received his law degree this summer, has joined his father's firm in Algonia. The new firm will be called Hutchison and Hutchison.

Another new law firm in Algonia is that of Harrington and Lowe, which succeeded the old firm of Harrington and Dickinson. Robert J. Harrington, son of T. P. Harrington, who with Senator Dickinson founded the original firm in 1899, graduated from the University of Iowa college of law last June.

Albert Hass of Chariton, who was granted a bachelor's degree here several years ago, has become associated with George C. Stuart, Chariton attorney.

Dr. C. F. Messer, who was a member of the college of dentistry staff here for the last two years, announced the opening of his dental office in Mason City. Dr. Messer, whose home is in Dysart, received a degree from the college of dentistry in 1931.

Dr. H. P. Turner of Kansas City, Mo., has taken over the practice of Dr. F. J. Bries of Sumner. Dr. Turner was awarded his M.D. degree here, and was associated with the Copper Range hospital at Trimontains, Mich., in the capacity of assistant to the chief surgeon.

Dr. E. D. Russell of McGregor, a specialist in eye, ear, nose, and throat diseases, has opened an office in Waukon. Dr. Russell is a graduate of the Royal Irish university, Dublin, Ireland, and the University of Iowa. He was a member of the faculty of the college of medicine several years ago.

Dr. R. Basil Weir has been opened by Dr. R. Basil Weir of Griswold. Dr. Weir received his dental degree at the University of Iowa, and served as dental surgeon at the General hospital of Cincinnati, Ohio, for a year.

Dr. R. F. Herriek, who graduated from the college of dentistry last June, has established an office at Pomeroy for dental practice.

Dr. E. A. Idema of Iowa City has opened a new dental office in Colfax. Dr. Idema is a graduate of the University of Iowa college of dentistry.

Dr. O. D. Houser of Cedar Rapids has succeeded to the dental practice of Dr. P. K. Jones of Maxwell. Following Dr. Houser's graduation from the college of dentistry here, he went to Cedar Rapids, where he has practiced the last three years. The position of dietary supervisor in the Clarinda state hospital will be assumed by Lucille Feuling of New Hampton. Miss Feuling studied dietetics at Iowa, and has had experience in the New Orleans hospital.

To refute this curious opinion, Professor Schreiber, a famous calligrapher, addressed an unusual missive to Franz Joseph I, emperor of Austria and king of Hungary, on the emperor's birthday, Aug. 18, 1883. ## University to Guard Health of Students

Dr. Milford Barnes Has Charge of Department

Vigilance in guarding the health of University of Iowa students will be resumed next week, with the health department operating in three divisions under direction of Dr. Milford E. Barnes.

All students who enter the university will be subjected to health examination and food-handlers will be required to pass rigid physical tests before they assume their duties at university dining establishments or fraternity and sorority houses.

Inspections Important
The inspection division, which last year made 6,000 investigations, will check the water and milk supplies, swimming pools, and general sanitary conditions in all university buildings.

Prevention of spread of communicable diseases will fall under the duties of the second division. Contagious diseases affecting students either directly or indirectly will be probed. The record of last year shows that 81 cases of 11 types of disease were investigated.

All Students Treated
Students who need medical attention will be cared for either at the University hospital or in their rooms, and injuries received in physical education or athletics, either by men or women, will be treated at the field house or women's gymnasium.

More than 22,000 items of services were given by the department in 1932-33, about 15,000 of which were office calls and consultations, room calls, and health examinations.

Dr. Jeans to Give Talk at Convention

Dr. P. C. Jeans, head of the pediatrics department at the University of Iowa college of medicine, will be among the speakers at the sixteenth annual convention of the American Dietetic association, to be held at Palmer House, in Chicago, Oct. 9 to 13.

Dr. Jeans' subject will be "A clinical test for vitamin A deficiency." Another of the principal speakers will be Dr. Mand Slye, who will review her "Studies in genetics and cancer." This work, developed in the pathology department at the University of Chicago, has aroused considerable interest in medical circles.

Dr. Kate Daum, assistant professor of dietetics and director of nutrition at University hospital, is retiring president of the dietetics group, and will preside at the meeting.

Dr. O. D. Houser of Cedar Rapids has succeeded to the dental practice of Dr. P. K. Jones of Maxwell. Following Dr. Houser's graduation from the college of dentistry here, he went to Cedar Rapids, where he has practiced the last three years.

The position of dietary supervisor in the Clarinda state hospital will be assumed by Lucille Feuling of New Hampton. Miss Feuling studied dietetics at Iowa, and has had experience in the New Orleans hospital.

By TOM YOSELLOFF

Just in time for the opening of a new year's work for women's study clubs, and just in time to greet the opening of a new theater season, comes Mrs. Pearl Bennett Broxam's "Glimpses of stage folk," a new outline on the lives of well known actors and actresses, issued by the extension division as an aid to study clubs.

The booklet, an attractive 48 page, blue bound pamphlet, contains a brief review of the lives of George Arliss, John Barrymore, Mrs. Patrick Campbell, Eddie Cantor, Marie Dressler, John Drew, Joseph Jefferson, Otis Skinner, Edward H. Southwick, Ellen Terry, Jules Turnour, and Francis Wilson.

The sketches are based on the autobiographies of these famous stage personalities. In order to aid study clubs wishing to use the material, Mrs. Broxam has included a list of additional references, suggestions for study, a publishers' directory, and a magazine directory. A list of other autobiographies of stage folk is also included.

In addition to its value as a study aid, it is well worth the short time it takes to read the 12 sketches. For it presents the highlights in the lives of these interesting persons in a kernel. It contains brief snatches of the history and tradition of the American theater, from the days when Marie Dressler sang "Heaven Will Protect the Working Girl" to the present day of talkies and radio.

The booklet is a reflection of Mrs. Broxam's interest in the amateur and professional stage, and adds another tally to the long list of services she has rendered to the cause of drama in Iowa.

This interest is expressed in her foreword: "The lives of theater people are usually rich in experience and rich in friends. Their experiences are the records of stage history, and their friendships are the record of stage personalities; they have something to write about and they know how to write it. Each autobiography is an interesting story of the writer but more than that it is an interesting story of the development of the theater. The year's study

Plan Concert at Spillville

The Capital City symphony orchestra of St. Paul, Minn., will play a program of Dvorak music, at a fortieth anniversary festival honoring the Iowa composer, at Spillville, Sunday at 2 p.m.

It was at his home in Spillville that Dvorak was inspired to write his New World symphony, and it was here that he composed one of his best known works, "Humoresque."

The orchestra will be conducted by F. J. Kovarik, who was formerly a resident of Spillville. The program will be devoted entirely to the works of Dvorak.

Spillville is about 150 miles north of Iowa City, and it may be reached on state highway 11, north from Cedar Rapids. The festival will be held at Riverside park there.

Two University of Iowa graduates have accepted positions on school instructional staffs, according to word received here yesterday.

The post of head of the mathematics department of Blake school for boys at Minneapolis, Minn., will be held by Harold T. Lunholm, who has been in the mathematics department here for the last four years. Mr. Lunholm, who was formerly of Gowrie, received his master's degree at Iowa.

Iowa Opens Hard Football Season Today With Brighter Outlook

Solem Starts Second Season 'Confident Road Has Turned;' 47 Men Draw Grid Equipment

Hardest Season in Years Looms Before Hawkeyes as Drills Start Again; Face Northwestern in First Game, Sept. 30

Looking forward to a season better than that of last year, Coach Ossie Solem starts his second year as the leader of Iowa football hopes "definitely optimistic and confident that the road has turned."

With 47 men securing equipment yesterday, Solem expects to start right in with the first of a long series of tough practice sessions as the hardest season in years looms up before the Hawkeyes.

Although he lost some of his best men, Solem says, "we will present a new group of boys who are physically molded and mentally poised to play reasonably good football."

Despite the loss of 10 lettermen from last year's team, the Iowa mentor will have a stronger bunch of reserves than the 1932 eleven boasted, thus eliminating one of his big problems.

Eighteen lettermen, four reserves and about 30 promising sophomores besides a host of other candidates will be available when the building process begins.

Three of the major I men, however, may not report for football, two of them expressing little hope of returning to school. The two colored players, Veris Dickerson, end, and Wilbur Wallace probably will not return to school. Howard Moffitt intends to forego football to concentrate on basketball.

Good Shape With his men in good shape, Solem indicated he would probably hold scrimmages early next week. Blocking practice will be started at once.

Only two weeks of drill will be possible before the opening game with Northwestern at Chicago, Sept. 30, forcing the Iowans to hit the "ball" hard and often in early practice.

Men who received equipment yesterday include:

Autumn intercollegiate golf competition, with at least two dual meets, is planned for University of Iowa varsity teams. Coach Charles Kennett said that St. Ambrose and Iowa State will probably be met sometime in October. In spring meets the same teams were met with an even split result. Ames won and the Saints lost.

SIDELINE experts won't have their chance to inspect the process of developing Iowa's football team until at least after the Northwestern game. Coach Ossie Solem has decreed that all practices will be closed to the public as he rushed the men through intensive drills for the first Big Ten game. Perhaps the edict may be lifted later to allow fans one day a week but not until the Wildcats have been met.

Shields Beats Aussie Captain, Jack Crawford

LAKE FOREST, Ill., Sept. 14 (AP)—America and Australia ended all square in the Davis cup exhibition matches here today.

The doubles combination of Adrian Quist and Don Turnbull swept the United States national champions, George M. Lott, Jr., and Lester Stoeft, to defeat in three sets 1-6, 11-9, 6-3, after Frank X. Shields had routed Jack Crawford, Aussie captain, to give the United States a 3-2 lead.

After a shaky start, the Aussie pair settled down in the second set and pulled out a victory by dint of superlative net play. Lott and Stoeft wilted badly in the final set and the Australians had comparatively easy sailing.

In the opening singles match, Wilmer Allison, hard driving Texan and American captain, took the measure of Turnbull, 6-3, 6-3, and Shields outmaneuvered Crawford, 5-7, 6-3, 6-2.

Little Hawks Tangle With Lone Tree in Season's Opener Beers, Timm Win Matches in Local Pro Wrestling Show

Wells Picks Starters for First Contest

Lone Tree Known as Tough Early Game Opponent

Tonight at 8 o'clock the lid to Iowa City's 1933 football season will be blown far and wide as Coach George Wells' Little Hawks from City high tangle with a highly touted eleven from Lone Tree at Shrader field.

Coach Wells is sending a faster, heavier lineup into the opening fray than Iowa Citizens have seen at City high for several years. Combine that with the results of two weeks tough scrimmage and you have the personnel of this year's Little Hawks. Cool weather for the last week has given the local mentor ample opportunity to send his proteges through long, tough drills and has aided him in finding a combination, that, though hampered by inexperience, has been clicking like a machine in early workouts.

Heavier Team

From end to end the City high line will average considerably more beef than last year, while the backfield will include a fast, but heavy quartet. The starting lineup will see A. Miller and Steinmetz holding down the wing positions, Roberts and Nelson at the tackles, Muteher and Williams at the guard posts, and McGreevey at center. The backfield will call for action from Jamison and Ferguson at halves, Marshall at quarterback, and Eakes at full.

Jamison, likely backfield starter, is a newcomer to Little Hawk ranks, having moved here from California. He has shown impressive work during the practice sessions. Both he and Marshall are hampered slightly by leg injuries sustained in practice.

Strong Foe

E. E. Axthelm, superintendent-coach from Lone Tree, will import a squad of rangy men who will be paced by a group of veterans from last year's successful eleven. Line weaknesses have been bolstered by a number of husky freshman recruits, who though they lack experience, make up for it in weight. The Lone Tree outfit traditionally puts up a fierce battle in the season's opener and reports now current predict one for tonight.

Little Hawk officials in an endeavor to push season ticket sales, have offered to admit a member of the opposite sex free of charge with each holder of a season ticket.

Pigeon Races Still Thrive in Midwest

MOLINE, Sept. 14 (AP)—The ancient sport of pigeon racing, which dates back to the days of Roman Octavianus in 43 B.C., still thrives along the banks of the Mississippi.

The sport was first introduced here by Belgian immigrants about 1890. Now Moline has more than 100 devotees. Adjacent East Moline has 60 enthusiasts, there are 30 in Rock Island and 50 in Kewanee. Galesburg has a club of 20 members. On the Iowa side of the river, Davenport boasts a half dozen owners of pigeon lofts.

During the summer months races of from 10 to 1,000 miles are held weekly. The birds can reach home from a distance of 500 miles within one day if weather conditions are satisfactory.

Nira, owned by L. C. Swanson of Moline, holds the record of 49 miles an hour from Lincoln, Neb., to Moline, a pigeon distance of 323 miles. Nira also holds the distinction of having carried the first NRA stamp from the town of Nira. The stamp was presented to President Roosevelt.

Lawson Little Defeats Ross Somerville in Amateur Meet

KENWOOD COUNTRY CLUB, CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept. 14 (AP)—The forward surge of American golfing youth brought the national amateur golf championship back home today as William Lawson Little, Jr., of San Francisco, dethroned C. Ross (Sandy) Somerville of Canada.

As the climax to a day of astounding golf, punctuated by a cloudburst that nearly washed the competitors of Kenwood course, the 23 year old western star eliminated the defending champion 2 and 1 in his 36 hole quarter-final match.

Little's victory furnished the crowning upset as three American youths, averaging less than 22 years of age, fought their way into the semi-final round along with a sole survivor of the "old guard."

Max R. Marston, 41 year old champion from Philadelphia, who held the title back in 1923, alone withstood the youthful onslaught over the rain-soaked course as he conquered Sidney W. Noyes, Jr., of New York, former Yale star, one up, in a spectacular match that went to the 38th hole for a decision.

Marston's comeback, after being nearly counted "out" as a championship contender, will carry him into the semi-finals tomorrow against 18 year old Jack Munger, of Dallas, Tex., schoolboy star and son of a wealthy oil man. Munger sprang the day's second major surprise by taking the measure of the seasoned Jack Westland of Chicago, 1931 runner-up, 3 and 1. Little's semi-final opponent will be George T. Dunlap, Jr., of New York, the slim Walker cup star who registered the day's only one-sided triumph by ousting Eddie Held of New York, 6 and 5, with a par-shooting exhibition. Dunlap thus achieved distinction of reaching the semi-finals of both the British and American amateur championships within the same season.

Iowa Horses Win South Dakota Fair

HURON, S. D., Sept. 14 (AP)—Entries from Iowa and the Dakotas romped in with first money in wind-up events on the state fair horse racing program today.

After placing second in the first heat of the 2:30 pace for three year olds, Lady Rushmore, bay mare from the H. N. Johnson stables, Rapid City, took the second and third heats to grab first money. The final heat was the fastest, stepped in 2:12.

Tusox, bay stallion owned by Ben Morgan of Toledo, Ia., and driven by Parker, won the first and third heats of the 2:18 pace, stepping the fastest in 2:10.

Iowa Citizens Down Foes in Straight Falls

Grappling Card Shows to House of 200

Rising to the plaudits of a crowd of better than 200 local supporters, which included a whole ringside row of university faculty members, two local wrestlers stole the limelight of Iowa City's fall opening professional wrestling show, last night, when Red Beers former Iowa varsity ace and Olympic wrestler, downed "Primo" Gariboldi of St. Louis in two straight falls in the main go, and Harold "Foxy" Timm outgeneraled and completely surprised Mr. O'Connor of Kansas City to take the semi-windup by a fall in 15 minutes flat.

The wrestling card, the first of a regular Thursday night series, was held in the American Legion Community building and was promoted by Bill Craddock, who plans to promote the professional game throughout southeastern Iowa, with Iowa City as his headquarters.

Joy Missing

The main go between Beers and Gariboldi was a patched up affair due to the non-appearance of Indiana Jesse Joy who was booked to meet Gariboldi, with Beers wrestling in the semi-windup. Joy was unable to make connections however, but will make his appearance in Iowa City Monday and appear on a local program soon.

Beers made it apparent to fans why Purdue has been famed for its wrestling talent, the former Boiler-maker mentor, who was supposedly asked to go out of his class to meet Gariboldi, tied the big Italian up and completely bewildered him with a show of speed and wrestling knowledge that enabled him to win the first fall in 13 and a half minutes with a body scissors and then came right back to take the second and deciding fall in nine minutes by use of a double arm scissors. Gariboldi was aggressive but was unable to solve Beers' puzzling attack.

Pleases Crowd

In the semi-windup, "Foxy" Timm proved a real crowd pleaser, not only for his wrestling technique which was only surpassed by that of Beers, but for his gameness, ring showmanship, and clowning. Timm attended the show as a spectator and was persuaded to wrestle only shortly before time to enter the ring, when it became known that Joy could not possibly arrive. The local boy entered the ring against O'Connor an odds on favorite to get thrown in five minutes. He stayed to throw Mr. O'Connor with a double crab hold in exactly 15 minutes. Timm seemed to enjoy the reception that the crowd gave him and made it worthwhile with his sideline chatter and antics. When the going became fast, however, Mike Howard's protege "took it and liked it" and then came back for more, so much

Big Ten Football Drills Start Today

CHICAGO, Sept. 14 (AP)—Big Ten football candidates haul the mole-skins out of their lockers tomorrow and open the training grind for what promises to be one of the closest fought championship races in years. Close to 500 hopefuls were expected to turn out for the final fall practice sessions and championship dreams settled over almost every campus of the 10 teams, Michigan and Purdue ranked as the heaviest favorites with Ohio State, Minnesota, Northwestern and Chicago outside threats.

Chicago was especially excited about the "new deal" because of the coming of a new coach in Clark Shaughnessy, successor to the veteran Amos Alonzo Stagg. Coach Shaughnessy said he didn't expect a title for the Maroons.

National League Park to be Scene of Opening World Series Game on October 3

CHICAGO, Sept. 14 (AP)—Baseball's big show, the 1933 world series, will open Tuesday, Oct. 3, at the park of the National League champions, presumably the New York Giants, with sellouts expected for every game at the old price scale.

The opening date, six days later than the start of last year's autumnal classic, was agreed upon today at a meeting of interested officials before Baseball Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis, Figuring the Giants and Washington Senators were as good as "in," 23 eligible players and two coaches were named for each of the clubs.

Details of the schedule were approved as follows on the assumption that the Giants and Senators would meet:

First and second games at Polo Grounds Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 3 and 4.

Third, fourth and fifth games at Washington, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 5 to 7.

Sixth and seventh games, if necessary, at Polo Grounds Sunday and Monday, Oct. 8 and 9.

All games will start at 1:30 p.m., standard time except if a Sunday game is necessary at New York, because of the Sunday church law, no game can be started in New York before 2 p.m., on the Sabbath. In case of a postponement, the schedule will proceed a day later. Because of the short journey between the two cities, no days off will be given players for traveling.

Only three clubs—the Giants, Senators and Chicago Cubs—were represented at today's meeting in addition to the two league presidents, John Heydler of the National and Will Harridge of the American. William S. Veeck, president of the Cubs, represented the 1932 champions. The New York Yankees were not considered in the American league pennant race but the Cubs and Pittsburgh Pirates both retaining a mathematical chance for the National league flag were listed in another probable world series schedule.

The only surprise player named among the eligibles was the veteran Alex B. McColl of the Senators. McColl, a 39 year old right hander with experience limited almost strictly to minor league warfare, joined the Senators late in August, pitching his first game as a relief hurler, Aug. 27.

Each team was allowed two coaches—Nick Altrock and Al Schacht of Washington and Thomas Clarke and Frank Snyder for the Giants.

Coach George Venker advised him to turn in his suit for fear the knee, injured two years ago and aggravated in light scrimmage yesterday, might be permanently hurt.

Coach Staeg has introduced a new shift and huddle. Indications are Pacific will play a wide open game, featuring right handed forward passing by Tom Wilson, and southpaw tossing by Elton Hamilton, both regulars on last year's team.

Full speed ahead, was Coach D. X. Bible's chief word to his University of Nebraska football squad today as the Huskers got out of doors for their first workout on the practice field.

With indications already pointing to excellent first string material and ample reserve strength, a heavy fight was on today among Drake grid candidates for varsity posts.

One of the outstanding battles is for the tackle positions, with sophomores holding an apparent advantage. Of the five leading tacklers, Leonard Cole, 6 feet 8 inch giant from Austin, Minn., and Maurice McClure of Valley Junction, now appear to have first call.

Levinsky declares he will chase Sharkey right out of the ring. "I'll knock him out," declared the boisterous Levinsky. "You know me, the King can punch. Besides, Sharkey is an old man anyway."

Levinsky, in the best physical condition he has ever attained, figures to be dangerous as long as he remains on his feet, while Sharkey, a superlative boxer, says he will have no trouble in blocking or ducking Levinsky's wild blows.

Trading activity expanded substantially, sales totaling $12,538,000 par value against $10,042,000 in the previous full day's session last Tuesday. The average for 60 domestic corporate loans edged up one-tenth of a point.

Secondary Issues Secondary issues partly reflected the inflationary sentiment which spurred stocks to an early advance. Many maturities, however, lost sizeable portions of their morning gains.

Better Industrials Bonds of Western Union and International Telephone moved up 1 to more than 2 points. ## Program Creates New Employment in 18 Counties

AMES, Sept. 14 (AP)—A million-dollar highway improvement program, offering employment possibilities in 18 counties, was placed under contract by the Iowa highway commission today.

After sitting for three days studying the bids submitted on the numerous paving, graveling, grading and bridge and culvert construction projects, the commission announced that the total of bids for the week amounted to $926,800.18.

Call for New Bids

At the same time the commission called for bids on work to be done in 33 counties. These bids will be submitted at the next regular meeting Sept. 26.

Special Auto Draws Crowd During Visit

A specially built $34,000 automobile parked in front of the B. Graham Bradley home, 365 S. Summit street, attracted the attention of numerous spectators Wednesday. The car is owned by Russell Sabor of Minneapolis, who was a guest at the Bradley home Tuesday night. Ingalls Bradley accompanied Mr. Sabor here from Denver, Colo.

Mr. Sabor is one of the designers and owners of the patents on the machine, every part of which was specially made for it.

The motor, designed by Dusenber, was built by the Stutz Motor company, and the body was designed by LeBaron. The car weighs 6,400 pounds and has traveled 132 miles an hour. It is a five passenger model.

Only four such cars have been built, according to Mr. Sabor. One is owned by a Rajah of India and one is on display at the "Home of the Future," at a Century of Progress exposition in Chicago.

Mr. Sabor left Iowa City Wednesday night.

National Miners' Union Frowns on Meeting of Locals

BULLETIN

ALBIA, Sept. 14 (AP)—Iowa coal union officials, who today had warned union miners that they would not recognize a meeting in Des Moines tomorrow, tonight rescinded their action.

ALBIA, Sept. 14 (AP)—The executive board of the Iowa district, United Mine Workers of America, today advised officials of each local union in Iowa that the meeting in Des Moines Friday will not be recognized.

The meeting was called by leaders of the coal strike, who asked that each union be represented by two delegates.

The executive board warned the locals that delegates attending will be liable to expulsion from the organization. The Iowa Federation Labor also wired the local groups that the convention is unauthorized.

Officials of the miners union have opposed the strike.

"No Strike Needed"

DES MOINES (AP)—Milo Reno, president of the National Farm Holiday association, said that the necessity for an immediate farm strike did not seem to be present in the light of recent developments.

Dismissed
Police Judge Harold W. Vestermark held that parents cannot be made to answer in court for their children's actions yesterday when he dismissed a case filed against Mrs. Delphine Colbert, 219 N. Van Buren street, by G. M. Griffith, 215 N. Van Buren street, charging her with contributing to the delinquency of her children by encouraging them to disturb the peace. The dismissal was on the grounds that both a state and a federal charge were included in the information.

Here Comes the Sun
With a promise from the weather man that Iowa City will get some sunshine today, chilly citizens took heart yesterday and sent their overcoats to the cleaners to get them ready for long winter service.

On Duty
Walter F. Merriam, 1527 Muscatine avenue, was recently appointed to active duty at Ft. Des Moines. He has been a member of the officer's reserve corps for many years. His office of the Sun Life Insurance company of Canada will remain open, in charge of a Cedar Rapids representative.

Suspended
Mrs. Clara Chadek, 1111 E. Jefferson street, was fined $25 and costs for disturbing the peace yesterday by Police Judge H. W. Vestermark. The fine was suspended, however, during good behavior.

NRA Rules on Holidays of Employees

Employees working under the NRA cannot be required to make up time lost on account of legal holidays, according to a ruling received yesterday by D. W. Crum, local NRA chairman, from C. S. Long, chief of the interpretations section of the recovery administration at Washington, D. C.

Mr. Crum had asked for the ruling on behalf of the local complaints committee, of which he is chairman. Mr. Long's reply follows:

"It is not in accord with the intent of the president's agreement and approved substitutions thereto to require employees to make up time lost on account of legal holidays. However, there is nothing in the president's agreement prohibiting such employees as are paid on an hourly or piece work basis to work extra hours in order to make up for pay lost on holidays, providing, of course, that they do not exceed the maximum hours permitted for either the week or day."

Plan School for Loan Officials
DES MOINES (AP)—Geis Botsford, state manager of the Home Owners Loan corporation, said that a school for the appraisers and attorneys of the Davenport district would be held Saturday, probably at Washington.

DIXIE DUGAN—Euphy's Influence

Tell Ways to Speed Relief

State Recovery Heads Hear Suggestions of Congressmen

DES MOINES, Sept. 14 (AP)—Hastening of bank credit, liberalizing of farm mortgage refinancing and a raising of farm commodity prices would do much to speed the recovery program in Iowa, the state recovery board was told today by Iowa congressmen.

At the same time, Lieut. Gov. Neils Kraschel cited comparative figures as indicating an increase in farm prices in the last six months and declared he believed the farmers "can consider themselves the ultimate beneficiary from the NRA."

The congressmen and lieutenant governor addressed a meeting of the recovery board with members of the regional board for Iowa and Missouri and members of the Des Moines interpretations and complaints committees.

Thomas Gaukel of St. Louis, secretary of the regional recovery board, reported that about 84 per cent of the Iowa employers have signed the president's re-employment agreement and that the remaining 16 per cent can be expected to do so when they have been furnished proper information.

New List of NRA Signers Boosts Total

Bringing the total of Iowa City employers now on the NRA honor roll to 436, another list was posted on the bulletin board at the post office yesterday by Postmaster Charles A. Bowman. The list was sent out by the Chicago department of commerce office.

The total number of employers who have received NRA insignia is 458, and the names of the remaining 22 will be added to the honor list as soon as they are received from Chicago.

The new list posted yesterday is: C. W. Sherman, barber, Coralville; K. Mandel, Weller Brothers garage; Paul's Midway Service, Red Ball inn, Smith's cafe, John T. Andriik, locksmith, West Side Gardens, American Optical company, Iowa City Rendering works, Johnson County Savings bank, the Casino, F. H. Hohmann, TMC Engineering service, and the Iowa City Moose lodge.

All steam railways in New Zealand except one small line are government operated.

Police Begin Fall Campaign on Using Street for Storage

The fall campaign against persons who think the streets look like garages has begun.

Police Wednesday night left tags on 46 automobiles left in front of residences all night. The motorists appeared before Police Judge H. W. Vestermark yesterday and were warned that second offenses would carry heavy penalties.

The tagging was done by Officers Art Schnoebelen and Frank Burns. Chief of Police William H. Bender said yesterday that the campaign would continue. Motorists arrested

Chiefs of Police Elect Officials

WATERLOO, Sept. 14 (AP)—The Iowa Association of Chiefs of Police, for the offense are charged with using the streets for storage.

in including the annual three-day convention here, elected Col. Gordon C. Hollar, chief of police at Sioux City, president of the association and selected Sioux City as the site of the 1934 convention.

Chief H. A. Alber of Des Moines was named first vice president, Chief W. C. Benesh of Cedar Rapids, second vice president; Chief Harry

Ward of Davenport, third vice president; and Chief J. W. Giellis of Dubuque, fourth vice president. Otto Karbusicky of Council Bluffs was re-elected secretary-treasury.
