NAVY FLYERS REACH HAWAII SAFELY

Grant Wood, Iowa Artist, Directs CWA Art as S.U.I. Faculty Member

Named to Graphic, Plastic Arts Faculty Yesterday To Serve Until First of June

Entire State Program Will Be Executed At Iowa City

Grant Wood, Cedar Rapids artist, will direct the Iowa Civil Works art projects as a member of the University of Iowa graphic and plastic arts department.

Begin Work Already

His appointment to the Iowa faculty as a lecturer was announced yesterday by President Walter A. Jessup and Rufus H. Fitzgerald, director of the school of fine arts. He has already begun his work here and will serve until the end of the academic year next June.

Simultaneously with the announcement of his appointment came the announcement that the entire program of Civil Works art projects for Iowa will be executed in Iowa City. The work will be done in the northwest room at library annex, which has been prepared for the new project.

CWA Official

Mr. Wood was named chairman for Iowa, to serve under Louis LeBeaume of St. Louis, regional director for the CWA art work in Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska, and Kansas.

Artists are already at work upon the first of the Iowa projects, a group of eight murals for the entrance to the main library of Iowa State college at Ames. The murals will depict the work of many of the departments of the college which are engaged in practical pursuits. A second project, now tentatively planned, will include a group of similar murals dealing with the fine arts.

First Job Begun Monday

The first project was started here Monday morning. About 15 artists have already been selected by Mr. Wood, out of some 250 applicants. The quota for Iowa will be a maximum of 30 artists, who will work a minimum of 30 hours per week. They will be paid a weekly salary.

In Selecting Artists for This Work

Mr. Wood has named only those artists who have exhibited their work at the Iowa State fair in Des Moines, using this as a criterion of ability and distinction.

Artists Already Here

Among the artists who are already at work in Iowa City are: John Bloom of DeWitt, who has studied and taught at the Art Institute of Chicago; Arnold Pyle, whose work has been exhibited at the Increase Robinson galleries in Chicago; G. E. Giles, who has assisted on the work of the Pennsylvania state capital, and Francis McCray, who has exhibited at the state fair and has been known for his church decoration and portrait work.

Two University of Iowa Students

Also have been selected for this work. They are Edwin Allen, A3 of Des Moines, and Holland Foster, A2 of Mt. Airy.

S. U. I. Plans for Future

Under the provisions of the Civil Works art plan all tax supported institutions may submit proposals for art projects. Several tentative projects are already being planned. The University of Iowa is considering several ideas.

One of the proposals now under

Carnegie Head In Visit Here

Frederick P. Koeppl, head of the Carnegie corporation of New York city, who is making an annual tour of Iowa in the interests of the corporation, visited President Walter A. Jessup and Prof. Norman C. Meier of the psychology department yesterday.

Mr. Koeppl inspected the plans for the fine arts colony now under construction. The Carnegie corporation granted $100,000 to this project. The psychology of art enterprise, which is in charge of Professor Meier, received $18,000 from the corporation. Mr. Koeppl was shown the materials which have been collected for the work.

During his tour of Iowa Mr. Koeppl examined the forum at Des Moines.

Grant Wood Found Own Art in Iowa

Grant Wood discovered his own art when he re-discovered Iowa.

A native Iowan, he spent several years in France and Germany, painting pictures after the style of various French artists. Then he returned to Iowa and found art that he could understand and present in a new way.

Original Viewpoint

He viewed Iowa through the eye of an artist who sees details, who has a fresh and original point of view. He presented Iowa farmers and scenes in an unconventional manner.

Two characteristics mark Mr. Wood's paintings: careful attention to the tiniest detail of color and subject, and sharp, angular contrast of dark and light. His is not the style marked by broad expanses of soft color, but one of photographic clearness, often bizarre, seldom conventional in its conceptions.

Color Contrast

In "The Midnight Ride of Paul Revere" Wood's typical style is clearly illustrated. The contrast in color, accentuating the angularity of the buildings, the tall ghostliness of the church steeple rising in the center of the canvas, the curved ribbon of road, and the tiny figure on horseback go to make up a presentation which Marquis W. Childs, writing in Creative Art, calls "cinematic."

A familiar Iowa scene is shown in

"The Birthplace of Herbert Hoover." The same contrast and detail are present in the picture of a small town street, the fields, the lawns, the trees, and in the midst of the broad landscape the home of the former president.

Architectural Study

"American Gothic" is a study in human and architectural angles. The stern faced farmer and his wife somehow resemble the prongs of the pitchfork in the foreground and the Gothic arches of the house in the background.

Few have forgotten the stir occasioned by the showing of his canvases, "The Daughters of the American Revolution." The raised eyebrows, the sour faces, the stern set of the mouths, loggins, and tea were frank enough to delight his admirers, to alarm his critics.

Local Mercury Drops Down to 24 Degrees

The local temperature dropped to 24 degrees early yesterday morning and registered 29 degrees at 7 a. m. Yesterday's high was 34 degrees and by 7 p. m. the thermometer had dropped back to 29 degrees. Slight precipitation was recorded.

French Royalists Clash With Police as Cabinet Totters

PARIS, Jan. 11 (AP)—The ghost of the alleged swindler, Serge Stavisky, shook official France tonight as the chamber of deputies heatedly debated his $40,000,000 pawnshop bond scandal and Premier Chautemps defended the cabinet's life against charges of widespread corruption.

"Down With Thieves"

Hundreds of Royalist youths, shouting "down with thieves and assassins" clashed with a police "autobus army" in the nearby place de la Concorde as popular indignation rose to a high pitch.

Police buses blocked the streets about the chamber building while inside the legislators fulminated on political and financial scandals and were told the cabinet frankly admitted its "faults and negligence."

Demonstrators Held

Scores of demonstrators were held for questioning. A number were bruised by police clubs and the Royalists freely swung canes.

A dozen interpellations about the alleged "protection" enjoyed by the late Bayonne pawnshop founder in his financial schemes were listed by all political groups for hearing be-

'Human Mole' Tells Police of Elaborate System for Robbery

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 11 (AP)—A "human mole," Herbert Wright, who told police he lived nearly two years in an elaborate system of caves and tunnels under seven stores, confessed today, detectives said, he had robbed at least four business places connected by his borrows.

Wright was shot last night by detectives Gaines and Smith, who for 14 days stood guard over the mouths of tunnels, waiting for the builder to emerge. Wright is held in a hospital prison ward. A suspicion of robbery charges has been placed against him.

Murray Would Sue U. S. For 100 Millions

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 11 (AP)—Gov. W. H. (Alfalfa) Bill Murray today authorized two attorneys to sue the United States government for $100,000,000, allegedly due the state from taxes on Indian lands which were declared tax-exempt in the congressional act admitting Oklahoma to statehood.

Could Not Legally Barter

The governor's executive order declared Oklahoma could not legally barter its sovereignty in accepting the terms of the enabling act which made it a state.

"That exemption to the Indians was just," his order stated, "but the same should be borne by the federal government, and not by the state of Oklahoma."

Cost of Exemption

The exemption, Murray said, had cost the state "the estimated sum of $100,000,000."

"Under the decisions of the supreme court," he said, "the first and major incident of the sovereignty is the power of the state to tax the property, and particularly the land, within the borders of the state."

Mdivanis Start 'Honeymoon'

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11 (AP)—Beginning their divided honeymoon voyage across the Pacific, Prince Alexis and Princess Barbara Mdivanis boarded ocean liners in widely separated ports today, bound for a reunion in Yokohama.

Prince Alexis boarded the steamship Hikawa Maru in Vancouver, B. C., at 11:30 a. m. for the noon sailing. His baggage consisted of just one paper parcel, his personal belongings having been put aboard the ship by his valet earlier in Seattle.

The princess meanwhile, went aboard the Tatsuta Maru here at 2 p. m.

Action Nears On Calling In Reserve Gold

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP)—President Roosevelt talked over the question of commandeering the gold held by the federal reserve system with advisers late today and thereupon gave rise to immediate reports that some new move in his monetary program was impending.

The presence of Attorney General Cummings at the gathering contributed to the impression that the administration's study of this step, which has been in progress for several weeks, had reached a point at which its legality was under examination.

Meanwhile, awaiting house and senate action on the bill to prolong the life of the reconstruction corporation for another year and give it $50,000,000 of new capital, in congressional quarters several influential Democrats expressed the opinion that the time was at hand for the corporation to place increasing emphasis upon withdrawal from direct participation in the affairs of the banks.

Mounting indications were that when the measure, now approved by both house and senate banking committees, comes up for consideration on the floor, this subject will be thoroughly discussed and complaints of undue interference in the affairs of banks voiced by conservative Republicans and some members of the president's own party.

No one doubted, however, that the measure would be passed as it stands.

The day also saw a renewed appeal from Senator King (D., Utah) for reauthorization of silver.

Hull Makes Peace Plea Urges Old World To Use Friendliness, Not Force

LIMA, Peru, Jan. 11 (AP)—Secretary of State Hull called upon the old world tonight to forget its ancient hatreds and make sure future disputes will be settled only by friendly means.

He pointed to agreements and resolutions of the Pan-American conference as an ideal example for Europe to follow and said the Montevideo gathering "generated a fierce sentiment for peace—reflecting the deep yearning of every home in the Americas."

The American statesman is returning from the Pan-American party, in which discussions on peace and economics he took an outstanding part. Tonight he gave the final important address of his subsequent Latin American good will tour at a state banquet in his honor.

He hailed the result of the Pan-American discussions as "the greatest actual and potential gain that has come to us since the days of independence" and stressed the need for a peaceful settlement of European problems.

Michigan to Probe Sterilization Of Mental Defectives

DETROIT, Jan. 11 (AP)—Charges that a number of patients at the Wayne county home for mental defectives had been sterilized over their objections resulted today in an order for an investigation and brought out the fact that hundreds of sterilization operations have been performed in Michigan institutions under a state law enacted four years ago.

University Graduate Dies at Independence

A. N. Todd of Independence, graduate of the University of Iowa, died recently. Mr. Todd was "dean of the Independence bar."

He was graduated from the college of law in 1876. Mr. Todd at one time served as mayor of Independence. He formerly practiced law in Kansas and Missouri.

Congress Votes Continuance of U. S. Wage Cut

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP)—House and senate turned down the road pointed out for them by the White House today in votes that bound the house to a continuance of pay cuts for federal workers and took out of the liquor tax bill in the senate a penalty for foreign debt defaulters.

Impatient with the senate's delay, the house, which yesterday disposed of its share of the liquor control question, decided today to plunge into consideration of the troublesome tax problem.

The action, a rebuke to the upper branch for its delay, was supported alike by both Democrats and Republicans, who combined to defeat attempts to delay house consideration until the senate had acted or at least until Monday.

Crowd Riots As Wynkoop Trial Begins

CHICAGO, Jan. 11 (AP)—Dr. Alice L. Wynkoop went on trial for murder today while a mob of 2,000 rioted in the corridors for entrance to the courtroom.

Dr. Wynkoop Carried In

Weak from illness and appearing broken by the accusation against her, the 52 year old woman physician was carried in a chair to the door of Judge Joseph B. David's court room. She then walked to a seat at her counsel's table and sat impassive while prosecutors demanded that she pay with her life for the death of her talented young daughter-in-law, Rheta Gardner Wynkoop.

Husband Absent

Absent from the court room was the slain girl's husband, Earle Wynkoop, favorite son of the frail physician. Another son, Walker, shook his head and said "I don't know," when asked of Earle's whereabouts.

It was understood, however, that the young widower still was in seclusion, the blinds drawn, in the gloomy old Wynkoop mansion, where Rheta's body was found face downward on a surgical operating table in the basement last Nov. 21. Earle has not been subpoenaed as a witness, although he was questioned for hours after Rheta's death.

Byrd Moving Southward ABOARD ADMIRAL BYRD'S FLAGSHIP IN THE ANTARCTIC (Via MacKay Radio) (AP)—Spurred by the hope that an unknown back passage into Little America had been found, the Byrd expedition drove its flagship steadily southward today in an open sea.

Iowa Legislators In Struggle Over Revision of Taxes

DES MOINES, Jan. 11 (AP)—A struggle to be the first to pass a tax revision bill has been started by the two houses of Iowa's general assembly.

Impatient with the senate's delay, the house, which yesterday disposed of its share of the liquor control question, decided today to plunge into consideration of the troublesome tax problem.

The action, a rebuke to the upper branch for its delay, was supported alike by both Democrats and Republicans, who combined to defeat attempts to delay house consideration until the senate had acted or at least until Monday.

Bailiffs Escort Mob Of 2,000 From Corridors

CRIMINAL COURTS BUILDING, CHICAGO, Jan. 11 (AP)—Dr. Alice L. Wynkoop went on trial for murder today while a mob of 2,000 rioted in the corridors for entrance to the courtroom.

Dr. Wynkoop Carried In

Weak from illness and appearing broken by the accusation against her, the 52 year old woman physician was carried in a chair to the door of Judge Joseph B. David's court room. She then walked to a seat at her counsel's table and sat impassive while prosecutors demanded that she pay with her life for the death of her talented young daughter-in-law, Rheta Gardner Wynkoop.

Earle has not been subpoenaed as a witness, although he was questioned for hours after Rheta's death.

Nila Cram Cook Finds Peace As Vagrant in Charity House

CALCUTTA, India, Jan. 11 (AP)—An Iowa girl, who sought peace when she entered the Mahatma Gandhi's seminary and thrills when she left it, found contentment today as a vagrant in a charity house.

Homeless, Alone Nila Cram Cook told a magistrate that she was homeless and alone and that she had no other place to go, so under the vagrancy act, he sent her to the home for women and girls situated in the Indian quarter of Calcutta.

She settled down to the routine of the place, apparently quite happy in her new surroundings, whose view of the East Bengal railway terminus contrasts sharply with the peaceful ashram of the Mahatma, or the bustle of Indian cities.

European Clothes Dressed modestly in European clothes—different too, from the simple garb she wore as a follower of Gandhi—and looking cheerful, she answered the questions put to

Greatest Overseas Mass Flight Ends With Clocklike Precision As Planes Land in 1-2-3 Order

Led Ocean Flight

Rear Admiral Alfred W. Johnson, commander of Navy aircraft, base force, who was in the cockpit of one of the Navy seaplanes making the flight from San Diego, Cal., to Pearl Island, Hawaii. He acted as observer during the flight, which was under command of Lieut. Comm. Knefler McGinnis.

Ohio Students Are Suspended

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 11 (AP)—In the face of protests from ministerial groups throughout the state, President George W. Rightmire today suspended seven Ohio State university students for their refusal to participate in military training.

Leaves Loophole

He left a loophole through which they may return to their classes, promising the boys "would be automatically reinstated without prejudice whenever they are willing to comply with the university rule."

His action was taken after trustees had left the decision in the latest of numerous controversies over compulsory military training in his hands. It won acclaim from the American Legion post at Marion, Ohio. Other organizations of war veterans previously had endorsed his stand.

Students Stiek to Word

The immediate reaction of the suspended students was to stick to their determination not to do the blue of the R.O.T.C. Their spokesman, Charles Hart, who two years ago won an excuse from drill on "conscientious objection" grounds, asserted "we cannot return because we cannot conscientiously take military training."

Reveal Alterations Of Memorandum On Air Mail Contract

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP)—Sharp questions by Chairman Black of the senate committee investigating air mail contracts today drew from D. M. Sheaffer, air line official, testimony that a memorandum on air mail contracts had been altered before it was copied for the committee.

Along with this went a series of statements by independent air line operators that the awarding of air mail contracts in 1930 was virtually prearranged even before the bids were opened. Walter F. Brown was postmaster general at the time.

Eight Known Dead In Heavy Rainstorm

RIO DE JANEIRO, Jan. 11 (AP)—Eight persons were known to have drowned in one of the heaviest rainstorms in years.

Disrupted communications made a check of further deaths and damage in flooded areas difficult, but authorities estimated damages would amount to several million pesos.

Honolulu Roars With Din of Welcome For Squadron

HONOLULU, Jan. 11 (AP)—The greatest overseas mass flight in aviation history was completed with clocklike precision here today as six American navy planes carrying 30 men on a swift 2,400 mile "routine" transfer from California to Hawaii alighted at Pearl Harbor in 1-2-3 order.

Alight in Pearl Harbor

All Honolulu roared and screamed with the din of welcome as the big planes loomed out of the northeast, thundered past sinister Koko Head, then over picturesque Diamond Head and the glittering sands of Waikiki and on to the gentle waters of Pearl Harbor.

The over-all elapsed time of the planes in the air was 28 hours and 11 minutes, but the flying time in formation from the Golden Gate across the perilous stretch of the Pacific to Pearl Harbor was 24 hours and 45 minutes, official time.

Commander Lands First

The first plane, carrying Lieut. Com. Knefler McGinnis, in charge of the flight, knifed the glassy waters of Pearl Harbor at 4:59 p. m. central standard time, and came to rest one minute later. At 5:01 p. m. plane number 2 landed. Thus they came down with the military rhythm of a squad of Annapolis midshipmen on parade.

They had their troubles with fog, dead weight and darkness, but they came through with certainty.

And it was not their first swift victory over distance. A few months ago they flew in formation from Norfolk, Va., to Coco Solo, Panama, and thence to San Diego, Cal.

A quick move to San Francisco preceded their epochal flight to Hawaii, where they will be stationed permanently.

In many respects this aerial Odyssey differed from the overseas flights of the past. Outstanding was the virtual absence of fear for the safety of the 30 men participating.

Success Taken for Granted The success of the adventure seemed to have been taken for granted from the instant the last plane left the waters of Paradise Cove in San Francisco bay.

There were no expressions of anxiety from relatives; no speculation on whether the gasoline supplies would hold out; no fear that the navigators would shoot wide of their goal.

The tone of the farwells and the matter-of-fact orders pertaining to the flight reflected the certainty felt by the officers in charge.

Pats Each on Back Just before boarding his plane, Lieutenant Commander McGinnis gave each of his colleagues a pat on the back and vowed they would eat pineapples in Hawaii today. Admiral David F. Sellers, commander-in-chief of the U. S. fleet, wireless McGinnis a message of confidence and the flight became what senior officers called a "routine" affair.

The troubles of the squadron, however, were more numerous than had been expected.

Lack of wind delayed the takeoff and four of the planes battled for two hours before they got into the air with their heavy loads. Each plane, loaded, weighed about 20,000 pounds.

WANTS SCHOOL FOR WIVES

What this country needs is a school for wives, Mary Pickford (above) said so when she arrived in Chicago Thursday for a stage appearance. "America's Sweetheart" said there ought to be a school where women are taught how to be reasonably selfish, and that it is the unselfish ones that ruin themselves and every one depending upon them. This is the first time Miss Pickford has appeared on the stage since 1913.

Former "First Lady" Of Philippines Addresses Club

Mrs. E. A. Gilmore Gives Detailed Description Of Islands at University Club Tea; Varied Exhibits Shown

A former "first lady" of the land of the Philippines, Mrs. E. A. Gilmore, told her life there and showed souvenirs from that country at the University club tea held yesterday in the clubrooms at Iowa Union from 3 to 5 p.m.

A resume of a trip to the Orient opened Mrs. Gilmore's address, and was followed by her detailed description of the islands and reminiscences of eight years spent there. She painted a word picture of the Philippines with their white shadows, rainbows, and various beaches.

Spring a Hot Season

Spring, the audience was told, is the hot season and summer, the rainy one. In that country mineral deposits may be found, valuable timber is growing there, typical tropical flowers are abundant, and there is a heavy jungle.

Orchids are used lavishly for decorations, as are the hibiscus plants. In the wealthier homes, Filipino mahogany is used for floors and woodwork, but in the poorer homes, bamboo wood is in evidence.

Favorite Foods

Sugar and coconuts, two of the main products, are also two of the natives' favorite foods. Other favorites include rice, fish, vegetables, bananas, and tangerines. Also growing on the islands are: a melon resembling the honey dew melon, a fruit that is a cross between a peach and a pear, and the Philippine grapefruit, similar to the California species.

In giving a brief history of the Philippines, from the time Magellan sailed to the "spice islands" to the country's present status, Mrs. Gilmore related the beginning of education in the islands. Answering the request of the secretary of the interior, President Taft sent over 800 teachers at one time. These teachers, scattered all over the land, quickly overcame the native prejudice against schools.

Speaker Lived in Islands

Mrs. Gilmore's talk was gleaned from her life and travels in the Philippine islands from 1922 to 1930 when she and Professor Gilmore lived there. Professor Gilmore was vice governor of the country, and had charge of the education and public health departments.

Featuring the exhibition of souvenirs were these typical costumes worn by the Filipino women. One, a lavender mulle dress, was in keeping with the styles of the day with its long train and net bodice. The flower design in the dress material was painted on the puff sleeves of the bodice. Ties extending from the soft roll collar formed a bow in front.

A traditional peasant gown of voile with an abundance of smocking and embroidery was shown. Completing the group was a wrap-around skirt, extending from the waist to the ankles, of American Beauty red with reddish brown stripes. The skirt was a gift from the sister of the Sultan of Sulu to Mrs. Gilmore.

Handwoven and handworked articles were also shown.

W. O. Payne Gives Talk

Discussing Prospects of Forming Giant Nation

A giant nation composed of the United States and the entire British Empire will be formed sometime in the future, according to W. O. Payne, editor of the Iowa Forum, at a round table lecture held at 4:10 p.m. yesterday in the house chamber of Old Capitol.

Mr. Payne said that if there had been plans of an Anglo-American union in 1914 the World War would have been averted. He said this is not idle talk, because he is certain the idea has occurred to President Roosevelt and to Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald.

There was introduced into law and government, with the advent of the American constitution, "a principle that had never been recognized before—federalism." Mr. Payne bases his plans for this future "merger" on the democratic form of government which acts directly on the individual.

The new states would be made up as follows: for England, exclusive of Monmouthshire, 10 states; Wales and Monmouthshire, one; Scotland, one or two; Ireland, two; maritime provinces of Canada, Newfoundland, and Labrador, one; remaining provinces of Canada, six; Australia and Tasmania, four; New Zealand, one.

This vast nation would be a single economic unit with one tariff wall and one monetary system.

Volcano's Story Told In Picture

A "volcanic" story of Krakatoa was presented audiences that attended two presentations of a film program under the auspices of the geology department yesterday afternoon and evening in chemistry auditorium. The three real sound film showed examples of the volcanic action of Vesuvius, Etna, and some Hawaiian types, as well as the film's "hero," Krakatoa.

Krakatoa, on a small island between Java and Sumatra in the Straits of Sunda, erupted for the first time since 1883 about two years ago. Pictures made at that time of this "submarine inferno" were shown.

A second film, one reel in length, took the film program audiences "over the Yukon trail."

All Quiet on the Art Front?

THE appointment of Grant Wood to the faculty of the University of Iowa may settle a question which has caused some friction in the past. It may mean the uniting of forces—of those who consider Grant Wood a bit radical with the followers of the Cedar Rapids artist.

There is no question in the minds of the admirers of Wood—and they are many—of the artist's right to depict things as he sees them, even though that view may be somewhat unconventional, even though it makes the daughters of a great American war drink fragile cups of tea with raised eyebrows and sour expressions.

On the other hand there are the lovers of convention. Among them may be classed the righteous individuals who took exception to Wood's painting of the D.A.R. ladies and other of his canvases. In the last few years they have had much to say about Grant Wood's art.

The University of Iowa, as a true art center, could not afford to ignore the work of this leading Iowa artist, inasmuch as that work has been recognized in many of the leading galleries of the United States. The authorities are to be commended on his appointment.

Whether the forces of convention and Wood will be united remains to be seen. It will probably mean compromise on both sides. At least the appointment bodes well for union.

Hail the New Noodle!

CONSIDER the lowly noodle, so long absent from the modern kitchen. It now bids fair to desert the cellophane package which it has come to know as home, and to find its way back into a good old fashioned kitchen, all done over with electricity.

In Chicago, at the national house furnishers' show being held this week, the latest kitchen machines are shown. One which should warm the heart of the "good old fashioned" noodle lover makes provision for a "machine to soup" process of making the real noodles.

Unlike the cook of grandmother's day, the new housewife need not mix and roll the dough, cut the noodles, and dry them. The little machine does all the work. All one must do is hold it over the kettle and let the ready-made and cut noodles fall in.

So steady onward goes the march of science! Of course, for the benighted, undiscriminating type of person it really makes no difference whether noodles come in cellophane or from the kitchen.

But the real connoisseur of noodles will hail this as a triumph. He will condone the march of science, just so long as it leaves him real noodles!

Congress Views the War Debts

IT WAS to be expected that the seventy-third congress would not go through a session without considering the question of the war debts owed by Europe to America. Thus it was not surprising that the senate undertook yesterday afternoon the consideration of a proposal to prohibit public or private financial relations with any country which defaults on its debts.

Of course, one can sympathize with the senators. After all, it's no small thing to be faced with the problem of appropriating $10,000,000,000, only to find that $22,000,000,000 supposed to be coming from across the seas hasn't made much of an effort to come.

But the fact remains that this is not the solution to the problem. President Roosevelt has not allowed his emotion to so far run away with his common sense as to fall into the pitfall which seems to have swallowed the American congress.

President Roosevelt has recognized that the United States, for its own good and that of the world, must find some method of establishing wholesome economic arrangements with other nations, even though it is necessary to forget the war debts for the moment to do so. Thus, when he made out his plans for the budget he left out the possibility of collecting this year's installments.

Instead, he has asked the congress to give him broad powers to exchange tariff concessions with other countries, meantime holding the question of war debt collection in abeyance.

Those senators who oppose this plan have argued that the United States should use the war debts to bargain with—a cut in the war debt in exchange for a hole in a particular tariff wall.

The president has seen the great fallacy, however. He has recognized that if these nations can not make payment on the war debts, it would be futile to open the way for the United States to pour more goods into Europe without still providing for a means of payment.

Rather, what is necessary now is to move toward a sound basis whereby the United States can re-open the foreign markets which are so vital to domestic financial success. President Roosevelt has seen a way to do this through reciprocal agreements with the various nations on the tariff problem.

His idea is a sound one from a purely business point of view. It is unfortunate that the congress is beginning to see red so soon!

It Just Isn't Done in England

It turns out that Sir Stafford Crisp, one of the important leaders of the British Labor (Socialist) party, was entirely misunderstood, when his critical references to "Buckingham palace" and its interference in affairs of state were taken generally to refer to King George V. It seems now that it was not the king, but the king's naughty advisers, to whom Sir Stafford referred in his recent Nottingham speech. This explanation is a little disappointing, in view of Sir Stafford's reputation as a militant Socialist.

After all, when Sir Stafford said that the British Labor party must expect opposition from the palace if it ever seeks to put its socialistic program into practice, he was only expressing publicly (in a very mild form) what many British Socialists have long believed in private about their king. King George, for example, is generally supposed to have urged upon Ramsay MacDonald, then Labor prime minister, the need for handing in the resignation of his government in 1931 and replacing it with a coalition ministry, now dominated by the Conservatives. Since the king is not supposed to intervene in domestic politics, the Laborites naturally did not regard his reported action as friendly, and seem inclined to expect further opposition in the future.

So strong is the tradition of deference to the crown in Great Britain, however, that even yet the Socialists hesitate publicly to criticize the king. The bold Sir Stafford, having come as close as Buckingham palace, has retired hastily to the respectful distance of merely criticizing his majesty's advisers, amid a storm of hisses at his ungentlemanly attack upon a helpless monarch. Social revolution may yet come in Great Britain, but it must mind its manners.

GOOD MORNING

If one were to look with sufficient diligence it would be possible to find some one somewhere who believed in anything imaginable. There is no theory or religion or fanciful fairyland so implausible that its protagonist does not exist.

But there is something worthwhile about such men. They serve as a sort of disconcerting balance wheel to upset our fond illusions of stability. Jules Verne, for instance, and H. G. Wells. Verne spun tales of unimaginable happenings and Wells still provokes us with his troublesome prophecies.

But these men do not always believe. They merely point to remote possibilities which they conjure up out of their fertile imaginations and say, "What if?" Iowa has a man who actually believes, and who would have us steal almost 100 years from Mr. Wells.

William O. Payne, who spoke yesterday in the senate chamber at Old Capitol, attended the University of Iowa 50 years ago, along with Harvey Ingham, editor of The Des Moines Register, and other notable personages. It is enough to quote his thesis thus, as embodied in a pamphlet entitled, "An Initiatory Proposal for Anglo-American Union":

JOINT RESOLUTION PROPOSING THE AMALGAMATION OF THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH OF NATIONS WITH THE REPUBLIC OF THE UNITED STATES, AND FOR OTHER AND FURTHER PURPOSES.

Be it resolved by the Senate and the House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled:

1. That the President be and is hereby authorized and requested, if to him it shall seem advisable, to propose to the governments of Great Britain and the British Commonwealth of Nations, that they all and severally become amalgamated with this Republic in one Federal Union under the Constitution of the United States.

There is more to the scheme than this, but the kernel is enough. The important aspect of it all is that Mr. Payne not only believes in the theory, but actually is convinced that such a union is possible today. Well.

All of which leads one to the conclusion that a highly entertaining—and perhaps profitable—enterprise for some ambitious author would be the compilation in readable form of an Omnibus of Naivete. It would include the following:

- "WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (AP)—When the House reading clerk was reading details of the District of Columbia liquor bill today he followed the custom of jumping some portions of long sections.
  - "Representative McFarlane, a new, red headed Texas Democrat, was having a hard time keeping up with the fast reading clerk.
  - "A point of order, Mr. Speaker," shouted McFarlane.
  - "The clerk skipped the bigger part of a page."
  - "Point of order overruled," said Representative Johnson (D-Okla.) in the chair.
  - "Well," said McFarlane, "he shore skipped it."
  - "The skipping continued."

BEHIND THE SCENES - IN HOLLYWOOD -

HOLLYWOOD—Dolores Del Rio and Cedric Gibbons are flying to New York, and the Mexican actress is in a huff because R-K-O wants her to go back to long hair for her next picture.

Dolores went bobbed for "Flying Down to Rio" and is keen about the new coiffure—says it gives her versatility and allows her to play modern, dressed-up roles.

The studio, on the other hand, wants her to return to the old distinctive Del Rio hairdress for "Dance of Desire." They don't ask her to let her bobbed locks grow long. She can wear a wig or they can add length to her own hair.

The matter has been argued back and forth for a week or more and, however it may sound like a publicity story, is an on-the-level argument.

The Mexican star and Cedric Gibbons plan to stay two weeks in New York. They'll see the plays and Dolores will lay in a wardrobe. It's her first trip east in four years and she admits being excited.

As Norman Taurog tells it, Eddie Lambert, the Jewish comedian, bought a $75 coat and sent it back east to his father for Christmas.

The old gentleman doesn't believe in wasting money, so Eddie told him it cost only $20.

On the day before New Year's, he received the following wire:
"Send six more coats. Just sold the one you gave me for $30."

Now it comes out why Mrs. Pat Campbell was so anxious to have her famous white Pekingese "Moonbeam," play a part in "Rip Tide." English quarantine laws are very strict about bringing dogs into the country.

But the wily Mrs. Campbell discovered that the restrictions are off for trained or professional animals.

Even if "Moonbeam" appears in only one scene, he will qualify, so the actress can take him right in when she makes her next trip to London.

QUICK GLIMPSSES
 Maybe Hollywood will take Francis Lederer's hobby of "world peace" more seriously now. The Czech matinee idol has been invited to deliver a lecture on the subject at Stanford university... Since that heavy rain storm, both Joan Crawford and Jackie Cooper's mother have had automatic pumps installed in their basements... Maureen O'Sullivan has gained 10 pounds and will report back to M-G-M soon... To retaliate for that article Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., wrote about him, Leslie Howard is pounding out a story on young Doug. Both will appear in a fan magazine... The husky Leroy Prinz has given a second blood transfusion to his pal Eddie Sutherland. Eddie continues to improve. He is out of the glass oxygen cage now... All roads lead to Hollywood. Latest cinema candidate is Mrs. Virginia Lehman, wife of the Chicago department store owner. Under the name of Virginia Pine, she is working as a chorine in Eddy De Sylva's picture, "Bottoms Up." She lives at the fashionable Garden of Allah with her baby and a secretary... Muriel Evans and Monroe Owsley are going places together again... The football helmet Norman McLeod got all the Stanford players to autograph was for a little deaf and dumb boy... There are plenty of squawks about the driving tactics of an eastern producer now making a movie in Hollywood. Several days ago he worked a group of chorus girls from 8 a.m. until 3 p.m. without time off for lunch, or anything...

EXAMINATION SCHEDULE
 First Semester 1933-1934
 Saturday, Jan. 20, 8 a.m., to Saturday, Jan. 27, 12 m., 1934

The regular program of class work will be suspended, and the following semester-examination program substituted for it. Classes will meet for examination in the room in which they have regularly meeting (except classes in SPECIAL GROUPS, A, B, C, D, E, and F, as shown in the form below; and Speech 1, 01, and 3 as shown at N.B. below).

The Program Committee directs the attention of both students and instructors and professors, to the regulation that there is to be no deviation in the case of any examination, from this schedule—except as authorized by the Committee, on the student's written petition, filed in ample time, supported by the recommendation of the department concerned—to provide relief from an excessive number of examinations within a single day. Deviation for the purpose of getting through earlier will not be permitted.

In the cases of conflicts (within the SPECIAL GROUPS, A, B, C, D, E and F) the schedule itself, as presented below, provides a general method of making adjustments.

All classes whose first weekly meetings have occurred as indicated in the rectangles below, meet for examination during the periods noted at the tops of these three columns, and on the days noted in the rectangles directly opposite at the left of the double vertical line.

Examination Period	8-10 A.M.	10-12 A.M.	2-4 P.M.
Sat. Jan. 20	MONDAY AT 8 (Except those in Special Groups A, B, C, D, E, and F)	SPECIAL GROUP A All sections of: Acct. 7 Soc. 1 Bot. 1 *Chem. 1 (*except pre-medicals (For rooms see Department Bulletin Boards)	TUESDAY AT 1 (Except those in Special Groups A, B, C, D, E, and F)
Mon. Jan. 22	MONDAY AT 9 (Except those in Special Groups A, B, C, D, E, and F)	SPECIAL GROUP B All sections of: English 1, 01 (For rooms see Department Bulletin Boards)	TUESDAY AT 1 (Except those in Special Groups A, B, C, D, E, and F)
Tue. Jan. 23	MONDAY AT 10 (Except those in Special Groups A, B, C, D, E, and F)	SPECIAL GROUP C All sections of: Chem. 1 (Pre-medicals) Econ. 1 Econ. 3 (For rooms see Department Bulletin Boards)	TUESDAY AT 11 (Except those in Special Groups A, B, C, D, E, and F)
Wed. Jan. 24	MONDAY AT 11 (Except those in Special Groups A, B, C, D, E, and F)	SPECIAL GROUP D All sections of: French 1, 01 French 3, 03 (For rooms see Department Bulletin Boards)	TUESDAY AT 11 (Except those in Special Groups A, B, C, D, E, and F)
Thu. Jan. 25	MONDAY AT 1 (Except those in Special Groups A, B, C, D, E, and F)	SPECIAL GROUP E All sections of: German 1 Spanish 61, 63 (For rooms see Department Bulletin Boards)	TUESDAY AT 1 (Except those in Special Groups A, B, C, D, E, and F)
Fri. Jan. 26	MONDAY AT 2 (Except those in Special Groups A, B, C, D, E, and F)	TUESDAY AT 3 (Except those in Special Groups A, B, C, D, E, and F)	TUESDAY AT 1 (Except those in Special Groups A, B, C, D, E, and F)
Sat. Jan. 27	MONDAY AT 3 (Except those in Special Groups A, B, C, D, E, and F)	TUESDAY AT 4 (Except those in Special Groups A, B, C, D, E, and F)	Special Group F All sections of: Eng. 3, 03. (For rooms see departmental bulletin board.)

CONFLICTS: In case of conflicting examinations the student should report to the instructor in charge of the first of the two conflicting subjects as listed within the particular SPECIAL GROUP rectangle above which is involved. (Read downward first in left column and then in right column.) This instructor will arrange for you a special examination. Report to him, or her, not later than the regular class hour Jan. 15 or 16, if possible, Jan. 11 or 12.

The first meeting of the class means the first lecture or recitation period in courses having both lectures and recitations, and laboratory periods; or in the case of courses involving only laboratory periods, the first class hour of the first weekly meeting. For example, chemistry 21 meets for lectures T T S at 8. The first meeting is, consequently, Tuesday at 8—and the class will meet for examination Monday, Jan. 22, 2-4, according to the tabular form above. Again, physics 125 meets twice each week, T F, for a three-hour laboratory exercise, 1-4. The period for the examination is, therefore, Friday, Jan. 26, 2-4.

N.B. All sections of freshmen Speech 1, 01, and 3 will meet on the days and at the periods designated below. Consult the bulletin board in room 13, hall of liberal arts, for room assignments.

- Saturday, Jan. 20, 8:10; Section F
- Monday, Jan. 22; 8:10; Section C; 2-4; Sections A and D
- Thursday, Jan. 25, 2-4; Sections H and I
- Friday, Jan. 26; 8:10; Section G; 10-12; Section E; 2-4; Section B.

"ODD" classes, namely those whose first or only weekly meetings occur on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, or Saturday, or which meet "as arranged," will be assigned for examination as announced to each class by the instructor in charge of the class, at one or another of the following periods:

- From 4 to 6 on any day from January 20 to January 26, inclusive.
- Any one of the examination periods assigned, as indicated above, for the examinations in the SPECIAL GROUPS, A, B, C, D, E, and F, since for such "odd" classes, these five examination periods will be found quite available.

In connection with any such announcement it would doubtless be well for the instructor making the announcement to ascertain whether any member of his class is already under appointment for examination in some other class for the proposed period. To be sure, it is possible to have examinations in more than one class at any of these times,—if no student is a member of more than one of these classes.

According to one clause in the formal faculty action providing for a special semester-examination program, "the instructor may use the examination period as he sees fit provided he holds the class for the full period. He may have an oral or a written examination, or both, or neither. He may continue regular work or he may use the time for review, or for any phase of his work which may seem to him desirable at this time."

According to another faculty regulation, which is on record as adopted by the faculty, a student absent from the final examination should be reported "Abs.", unless the instructor recognizes that his work up to this examination has been a failure, in which case the final report should be "Fd."—even though the student may have been absent from the final examination. No examination should be given, subsequently, to such a student until after the absence has been excused by the Committee on Admission and Classification, as shown by a partially filled special report card, signed by the Secretary of the Committee, as indicating that the absence has been excused and that the student is authorized, subject to the consent and at the convenience of the instructor concerned, to take the final examination.

From Other Fields

All students at Pennsylvania State college are now permitted to kill skunks without the necessity of getting hunting licenses. It appears that the skunks are an increasing nuisance, and the state game commissioner took things into his own hands recently and made this ruling. Things have not yet reached that stage on the Iowa campus.

Students under 16 1/2 years of age make the best grades in college according to the school of education at the University of California. Each year 180 to 280 students below that age enroll at the western university. Of this number 20 are usually only 15 years of age or younger.

How would it seem to be a person who tries, innocently enough, to check out of a library a volume worth $20,000? Such a thing happened recently at the Baylor university library. An unsuspecting fledgling walked up to the desk and asked if he could take "Book of Letters" from Robert Browning to Isa Blagden. It is valued at that amount.

Bennington college, in Vermont, has a most original way of flunking out students. The particular person who flunks is told that he may stay in school if he so desires, but that he will not get a diploma when he has finished his college course. Luckily, most of the students take the hint. Those who are actually not discouraged, and do not get to work are then flunked out.

The president of Washington and Jefferson college recently said that a person's motive in entering college was not a desire to seek culture, but rather a desire for a social and financial profit.

Traveler to Give Illustrated Lecture On Foreign Lands

Matilda Paul, 22 W. Bloomington street, will give an illustrated travel talk on some of her experiences in foreign lands as the feature of the community schools program at women's gymnasium at 7:45 this evening.

Having a request for information on Egypt, she will center her talk on that country.

Miss Paul took an extended trip around the world, visiting many countries and also spent some time abroad in civil service work. She is a graduate of the University of Iowa.

The recreational program will be held afterwards as usual.

Women to Discuss Legislative Action Over WSUI Tonight

"What the Iowa state legislature has accomplished in the present session" will be the topic for discussion between Mrs. Evans A. Worthley and Jessie B. Gordon over WSUI tonight from 8 to 8:20.

The principal finished and pending legislation in the fields of banking, tax revision, and liquor control will be summarized. Among the questions to be discussed will be: "What bank deposits are guaranteed," "How do the tax bills propose to give relief?" "What are the outstanding features of the liquor control bill?"

S. U. I. Graduate Is Appointed Attorney

E. F. Kennedy of Sibley, graduate of the University of Iowa, has been appointed county attorney of Osceola county. Mr. Kennedy fills the vacancy created by the resignation of W. C. Garberson of Sibley.

Prof. Davies Will Lecture

"From Adam Smith To Pareto" Named As Topic

A native Britisher, Prof. George R. Davies of the college of commerce, who came to America at the age of 9 and received all his education in American institutions, will appear tonight on the Baecian lecture series at 7 o'clock in chemistry auditorium.

Professor Davies received his A.B. and M.A. degrees from Des Moines college and did graduate work at the University of North Dakota, at the State Normal school of Valley City, N. D., and at the University of Wisconsin. He received his Ph.D. degree from the University of North Dakota.

For his subject on tonight's program he has chosen "From Adam Smith to Pareto," a discussion of two economists he believes merit the title "great."

Before coming to the University of Iowa in 1928, Professor Davies was principal of high schools in Iowa and North Dakota. He also taught in North Dakota State Normal school, the University of North Dakota, and Princeton university.

Professor Davies is the author of three books and many articles. The books he has written are "Social Environment" in 1917; "National Evolution" in 1919; and "Introduction to Economic Statistics" in 1922.

Tonight's Baecian lecture, the last one to be given this semester, is open to the public and will be broadcast over WSUI.

St. Mary's Cagers Meet University High in Intra-City Battle

Tired Quintet Seeks Ninth Straight Win

River School After First Win With Fresh Crew
By IRV KAHAN
Unbeaten in the eight games they have played this season and evidently feeling the strain of thwarting bid after bid by inspired opponents, a weary Rambler five treks over to University high gym tonight to oppose the well-rested dribblers of that institution in the first of a two-game intra-city series.

On the form shown to date by each team, it is a simple problem which the would-be prognosticator has to solve in attempting to pick the winner of tonight's tilt. A glance at the respective records reveals that St. Mary's holds victories over some of the leading quintets in this part of the state and has remained undefeated, while the Kistlermen have yet to win a game this season.

But the records do not disclose the fact that though the Mariani have yet to taste defeat, they have taken on a peaked appearance of late, being barely able to win their last two frays against inferior opposition, and doing so not through the brilliance of their own play, but rather through the tendency of their opponents to commit costly mistakes in the closing moments of their games.

As a result, University high is accorded an excellent chance to stop the Suplemen tonight. They are well-rested and have everything to win in facing the Light Blue. No reputation to uphold and no responsibility shackling them will make the Kistlermen formidable enough without the further advantage of playing on their own court.

Coach Supleel realizes the precariousness of his team's position and accordingly, sent his boys through a stiff two-hour drill yesterday, intended to perk up both the spirit and play of his cagers.

The University high lineup is somewhat uncertain, but Coach Kistler will probably pick his starters from the ranks of Myers, Fuhrmeister, Fountain, Jessup, Thomas, and Barron.

University high will meet one of its strongest rivals tonight when it plays the crack St. Mary's quintet as the main event of a double header in the river school gym.

Prof. D. T. Jitters Predicts Hawkeyes to Defeat Gophers

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 11.—Walking directly into the den of the Gopher, Prof. D. T. Jitters, Iowa's world renowned basketball prognosticator, fearlessly selected the invading Hawkeyes to add the bounty of the Gopher scalp to their undefeated string.

Steaming along undefeated, as in keeping with the clear record of his team, the Prof. has yet to drop a decision, picking Iowa correctly in all non-conference games and naming the winner of the 10 conference games. His total now stands at 15 winners to no losers.

For tomorrow he picks: IOWA 34; Minnesota 26. Ohio State 38; Northwestern 28. Wisconsin 38; Michigan 23. Illinois 31; Chicago 30. Indiana 37; Purdue 31.

Bob O'Farrell Signs to Lead Cincy Reds
Player-Manager Role Given; Johnson in Trade
CINCINNATI, Jan. 11 (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds tonight announced the signing of Bob O'Farrell of the Cardinals as a player-manager for the coming season.

With O'Farrell, the Reds acquired Sylvester Johnson, once called "the unluckiest pitcher in the National League." For the two they sent to St. Louis some cash and young Glenn Spencer, a pitcher obtained from the Giants a few weeks ago.

On top of it all came seemingly well grounded reports that Dazzy Vance, the old mound veteran, also will exchange a Cardinal uniform for that of the Reds before the season opens.

O'Farrell, President Larry MacPhail announced, had signed a two year contract to tackle the job of tugging the Reds from the league bottom. The terms were not revealed, but the quick moving general manager of the Reds conceded that "not more" than $15,000 a year would be a fair guess at the figure.

Little Hawks Seek Second Loop Victory

Marshall, Williams To Lead City High Basketeers
Iowa City high again enters Mississippi Valley conference play tonight, when it meets the Clinton high team in the first meeting of these two teams this year.

The Iowa City sophomores will clash with the Clinton sophomores in the junior loop game. This contest will start at 7 o'clock with the varsity play beginning at 8 o'clock.

Although sporting no shining record in conference play, the Little Hawks have shown signs of pulling together since their lop-sided defeat by the Davenport quintet and developing into an improved team.

Two other members of the squad able to enter the game and give good accounts of themselves are Snyder and Al Miller.

Probable Starters
Indications point to Coach George Wells starting Ayers and Marshall at the forward position, Ballard at center, and Steinmetz and Williams at the guard position.

In the sophomore contest of the evening the fast moving junior varsity dribblers meet a foe of unknown quality in the Clinton sophomores.

The last appearance of the Panther five was against Grinnell here, with the Pioneers gaining a 30 to 22 victory to avenge an earlier defeat.

Irish Present Stronger Team; Boyd Bolsters Green Squad
By RON MILLER
The Irish basketball squad went through their final preparations last night for their battle tonight with St. Paul's academy of Burlington.

Connor sent his proteges through their team plays from the tip-off and from out of bounds. He then ended the session with practice at foul shooting from the free throw line.

The other letterman is Capt. Dennis Emanuel, center, who was shifted to that position from guard where he played last year.

Coach Williams will rely on fast breaks opened up by the clever deceptive passing of Seltzer and Grim to get his team into scoring position.

Westland Must Duck Office Pals are Golf Champions Who Promise to Hatch "Dastardly Plot" If—

CHICAGO, Jan. 11 (AP)—If Jack Westland doesn't make a good showing on America's Walker cup team during the international golf matches at St. Andrews next May, he'd better learn to duck before he comes back to work at a LaSalle street investment house.

Working in the same office with Jack, each within easy kicking and speaking distance, are Charles "Chick" Evans, Jr., and Robert A. Gardner, a pair of golf's most renowned champions and Walker cup players of the past.

Life just hasn't been the same for Jack, a young fellow who takes his golf dead serious, since he was advised that he had been chosen to play on the 1934 Walker cup team.

Greek Cagers Display Ability On Hardcourt

Fraternity cagers displayed all kinds and types of basketball ability, last night, as they battled through five games on the field house courts.

In most of the contests the playing was ragged, but what the Greek athletes lacked in skill, they made up in aggressiveness. In the hardest fought game, Phi Kappa Sigma nosed out A.T.O., 18 to 17, when DeGroot sank a field goal just as the final whistle sounded.

Beta Theta Psi lost to Alpha Sigma Phi, 24 to 21, in the most ragged encounter of the evening. Jorgensen counted 12 points for the Alpha Sig, and Walsh of the Betas rang up five field goals.

Phi Kappa Psi swamped Triangle, 35 to 15, in a listless game. Latham accounted for 12 of the Phi Psi total. Phi Beta Delta fell before Sigma Phi Epsilon, 25 to 10, in another slow contest.

Faster play and much smoother ball handling featured the defeat of Alpha Chi Sigma as they bowed to Delta Upsilon, 35 to 27. McSwain was the best for D.U. with 14 points. Rolf contributed 10 for Alpha Chi Sigma.

"I am completely satisfied," said Solem, "and have no intention of leaving Iowa."

The Hawkeye grid mentor and Athletic Director E. H. Lauer were reported to have reached a complete understanding in a conference held yesterday.

Solem, whose only definite tie with the Hawkeye position thus far is a verbal contract, is expected to sign a formal contract early next week. It will cover his next four years of service.

Roscoe Wins Medal Honors

Denver Pro Sets Pace In San Francisco Open Meet

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11 (AP)—John Rogers, Denver professional, won medal honors over the Lake Merced course in today's 18 hole qualifying round of the fourth annual San Francisco national match play open golf championship with a fine 70, two under par.

One stroke behind Rogers came Harold McSpaden of Kansas City, Kan., whose 36-36-71 also bettered par.

Tied at 72
Ten pros and one amateur tied at 72. They were Ernest Pieper, Jr., San Jose, Cal., amateur star; Archie Hambrick of Zanesville, Ohio; John Black, Sr., of San Francisco; Mark Fry of Oakland; Jimmy Thomson of Long Beach, Cal.; Al Zimmerman of Portland, Ore.; Ky Laffoon of Miami, Okla.; Rod Monday of Santa Rosa, Cal.; Bryan Nelson of Texas; and Joe Kirkwood of Chicago; and Bernie Torfin of Bremerton, Wash.

The rest of the field ranged from one stroke over par to figures in the eighties. Players with cards of 77 tied for last place in the 64 player qualifying limit. There were 13 of them, including Paul Runyan, Westchester, N. Y., leading money winner of the writer tournament season; Oliver Sleepy of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Romie Espinosa of San Francisco; and W. J. Schwartz of St. Louis.

Play-Off Today
They will play off the tie tomorrow with the nine leaders remaining in the qualifying round, thereby becoming eligible for the first 18 hole match play rounds which also start tomorrow.

Craig Wood of Deal, N. J., winner of last year's tournament automatically qualified as the defending champion. Among the stars who failed to qualify were John Revolta of Milwaukee, and P. O. Hart of Columbus, Ohio. They had 78's.

Frank X. Shields of New York, top ranking United States player, eliminated Carroll Turner of Miami, 6-3, 6-3.

Ricardo Morales, Cuba's number 1 player and a Davis cup match player, went down in defeat before Bryan Grant, Jr., of Atlanta, 6-3, 6-3.

The third Floridian who gave way to the experienced netsmen was Arthur Hendrix of Lakeland, recently crowned state champion. He was defeated 6-3, 6-4, by Cliff Sutter of New Orleans, national No. 4 player.

Grant meets Shields and Sutter plays Lott tomorrow.

Wolverine Star Signs to Lead Yale Freshmen

Naming of Williamson Seen as Fresh "Break"

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 11 (AP)—The first break in the tense football coaching situation at Yale came today with the appointment of Ivan Williamson, captain and star end of the 1932 Michigan Wolverines, as freshman end coach.

Some observers immediately seized upon the selection as a sign that Yale planned to break with tradition by calling on Harry G. Kipke, who taught Williamson his football at Michigan, to take over the head coaching held during the last season by young Reggie Root.

No Bearing
But from Malcolm Farmer, director of athletics, came the assertion that the appointment of Williamson had no bearing on what Yale planned to do about the rest of its coaching staff for the strenuous campaign it has mapped out for 1934.

Williamson's appointment was announced by Farmer on his return from New York city, where during the last few days, he has been striving to reach some sort of an agreement with coaches with an advisory graduate committee.

In addition to his football duties, Williamson will coach the yearling basketball squad. He will begin his work July 1, but the terms under which he was engaged were not disclosed.

Wavering?
The selection of Williamson, once described by Kipke as "the smartest player and student of football I ever coached," came on the heels of reports that Farmer and President Angell of the university were wavering somewhat in their insistence that Root's successor should be a Yale graduate, preferably T. A. D. Jones, one time EH coach.

The Yale Athletic association quoted Farmer as saying:
"There has been no decision on a coach to be recommended to the board of control. Until there is a decision there can be no statement. I am entirely open minded in the matter and will give the advisory committee my fullest cooperation in their work of deciding on a candidate."

Pioneer Centers Out
GRINNELL (AP)—Two Grinnell college centers will be out of the lineup Saturday night when the Pioneers play Crestview in their second Missouri Valley conference tilt. Julius Bauer, sophomore, is suffering with a sprained ankle while Dick Phelps, veteran pivot man, is out with a lymphatic infection in the knee.

Levinsky Managers Accept Fight Terms But It's Too Late
CHICAGO, Jan. 11 (AP)—Leading Lena Levy, sister-manager of King Levinsky, after remaining silent two days, accepted terms of 25 per cent today for a 15 round battle with Max Schmeling at the Chicago stadium, Feb. 16.

Cyclone Mat Coach Expects Star Team Sometime in 1950's
AMES, Jan. 11.—Hugo Otopalik, Iowa State wrestling coach, is already making plans for a wrestling team in the early 1950's that will be a world-beater.

Since New Year's day he has received notices from four of his former wrestlers, each announcing the birth of a baby boy.

The proud fathers are Orlo Harsh, '27, of Fairmont, Minn.; Harold Boyvey, '26, of Seattle, Wash.; Ralph Goodale, '30, of Marshalltown, and Pete Mehlinger of Kansas, member of the 1932 Olympic team of which Otopalik was coach.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 11 (AP)—Reduction to $30,000 in the added value of the Kentucky Derby was announced tonight by Col. Matt J. Winn, president of the American Turf association and executive director of Churchill Downs.

Schmeling, Hamas Agree To 12 Round Bout in Philadelphia

35 Per Cent of Gate To German; Hamas Share Small

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 11 (AP)—The promotional firm of Taylor and Gennis today announced that managers of Max Schmeling and Steve Hamas had agreed to a 12 round bout in the Convention hall here Feb. 14 and that papers for the match will be signed Monday.

Promoter Herman Taylor said negotiations, deadlocked yesterday after a controversy over terms, were completed today.

He said that Joe Jacobs, manager of Schmeling, had agreed to 35 per cent of the gate for the former world's heavyweight champion and that Charlie Harvey, Hamas pilot, had agreed to take 20 per cent.

The controversy over terms yesterday occurred because Jacobs held out for 40 per cent and Harvey demanded 25 per cent.

40,200 Basketball Fans Have Seen Hawkeye Cagers
As this seems to be Iowa's year to make records, a new one appears in the offing—that of basketball attendance. Already 40,200 fans have watched the Hawkeyes in their six home games, a number equal to one-third of last year's total attendance, which in itself was the largest in the conference.

An average of 6,700 fans per game, which is the mark so far, would send the season total up around the 125,000 mark. The addition of the new second tier bleachers has made room for many more patrons than last year, and the fact that four out of the five remaining home contests are conference affairs, should push the average way up.

Mayor to Set Light Plant Polling Date Today or Tomorrow

March 6 Or June 4 Seem Likely Days

City Solicitor Gives Law on Privilege of Brene

Mayor Harry D. Brene will set the date for election on the municipal ownership of a light plant either today or tomorrow, it was indicated yesterday. The choice will probably be either March 6, as asked by Alderman Jacob Van der Zee, or June 4, when the primary election is held.

In answer to Mayor Brene's inquiry concerning the calling of an election after petitions are presented, City Solicitor Thomas E. Martin, yesterday wrote:

Cites Iowa Code
"In compliance with your request of Jan. 10, I submit the following opinion regarding the period of time in which the calling of a special city election must be done in compliance with the petition filed with you Friday, Jan. 5, and calling for the submission of the question of establishment and operation of a municipally owned electric light and power plant in Iowa City.

"Section 6132 of the Code of Iowa, 1931, provides that the mayor shall submit said question to such a vote upon the petition of 25 property owners of each voting precinct in the city. This provision has been construed by the supreme court of Iowa in the case of Iowa Public Service Company vs. Tourgee, 208 Iowa 35.

"Reasonable Time"
"In the case cited above the supreme court of Iowa states that the mayor is entitled to a reasonable time in which to determine the number of signers, their residence, and their ownership of property, within the meaning of Section 6132 of the code of Iowa 1931. The court goes on to state that what is reasonable depends upon the facts and circumstances of the case and then construed the period of five days in the town of Sac City, Iowa, as sufficient delay to entitle the petitioners to mandamus to compel the mayor to call the election requested by the petition.

"In the Sac City case, Sac City was a city of the second class, and had three voting precincts, and 73 residents had signed the petition, and 25 of the petitioners were from each of the said wards.

Five Day Limit
"In that case the supreme court held that the mayor had ample opportunity to make his investigation in five days time in view of the fact that he was acquainted with practically every signer and in view of the fact that no effort had been made by him to find out whether or not the signers were properly owners and qualified within the provisions of section 6132.

Reasonable Postponement
"It is therefore my opinion that you may postpone the calling of the election requested in the petition filed with you on Jan. 5, only to the extent reasonably necessary to determine that the petition contains the required number of signatures, that their residence is sufficient, and that each one of them was a property owner, and as soon as you have determined, or as soon as you have had a reasonable time in which to determine that at least 25 of the petitioners in each voting precinct were so qualified, the provisions of section 6132 make the calling of said special election mandatory upon you without further delay."

Favors June 4
Mayor Brene yesterday was investigating whether or not all the petitioners were property owners. He indicated that he was still undecided as to what date he would set for the election. However, he seemed to favor June 4, because it could be run in with the primary election thus saving the city a large part of the cost of election.

Whether or not the date will be set that far in the future depends upon Mayor Brene's interpretation of a "reasonable" time for discussion and investigation by all the voters.

Marianne Witschi Entertains Rotary Members Thursday

Marianne Witschi, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Emil Witschi, entertained members of the Rotary club at their noon luncheon yesterday at the Jefferson hotel with violin solos.

Miss Witschi, a senior at University high school, was accompanied by Harry Thatcher, Jr., instructor in the university music department. The numbers played by Miss Witschi included "On Wings of Song" by Mendelssohn, "The Bee" by Schubert, "Scherzo" by Van Goens, "Serenade" by Tosselli and "Farewell to Cuculain," an old Irish air.

Prof. Frank E. Kendrie of the university music department was in charge of the program.

Women Voters Endorse Plans For City Plant

League Shows Approval Of Municipal Owned Power Project

Municipal ownership of an electric light plant was unanimously endorsed last night by the Iowa City League of Women Voters, who adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved that the Iowa City League of Women Voters, interested as consumers in the problem of an increased use of electric power and in a lower rate schedule, hereby express approval of the municipal ownership of an electric plant for Iowa City, either by purchase of the existing plant, or the construction of a new plant, or by any combination of purchase and construction which are for the best interests of the city."

Two Hour Discussion
A two hour discussion of the local utility situation was held before vote was taken on the resolution. Approximately 40 members of the league attended the meeting, which was held at the home of Dr. Zella White Stewart, 19 Evans street.

Walter E. Schwob, consulting engineer, who made the survey on municipal ownership for the council, and Prof. C. Woody Thompson of the college of commerce, explained the proposed financial setup for the municipal plant and answered questions concerning the establishment of a municipal corporation.

Application Filed
Engineer Schwob said that he filed the application for a PWA loan and grant in Des Moines Wednesday calling for pledge warrants. He said that he did not believe the board would accept pledge warrants as they were calling for revenue bonds but explained that a change is being considered in the law so that revenue bonds can be issued for the building of municipal light plants.

Purchase of the light company's property, buying of only the distributing system and the building of only a distributing system were all discussed.

Status of Bonds
The status of bonds if the city decided to build a complete plant and distributing system was brought up by members of the league. It was pointed out that the bonds held here are not in the Iowa City Light and Power company alone, but in a corporation including numerous companies.

Most of the members seemed to favor buying the present company if an agreement could be reached. Mrs. George Martin was temporary chairman of the meeting which was conducted by the living cost committee of the league.

It was announced that a number of meetings will be held in the near future in regard to education on municipal ownership and utilities. The meetings will be open to everyone and speakers acquainted with the situation will be secured, officers said.

State Pays Berry Loss

Payment of $11,607.26 Settles Pro-Rated County Debt

The payment of $11,607.26 by C. B. Murtach, comptroller of Iowa, to County Treasurer W. E. Smith yesterday, completes the payment by the state for the loss of $20,000 which occurred two years ago when a discrepancy between the records of former County Treasurer Charles L. Berry and the records of the First National bank receivership arose.

The loss was pro-rated among the 99 counties of the state last year. The counties paid their shares to the state comptroller's office which in turn forwarded the money here after it had all been collected.

The county has already received $10,488.30 from the American Surety company, bondsmen for the former treasurer. This represented the $10,000 bond, plus interest.

The former treasurer, Mr. Berry, was ruled liable for the $20,000 discrepancy in a decision by District Judge Frank Bechly on Jan. 13, 1932, after a trial. The last payment made yesterday is approximately two years from the time the discrepancy was revealed.

In addition to the repayment of the $20,000 loss, the county has received $2,095.50 in interest.
