Il Duce Tells Italy to Get Set for War

"Must Become Military Nation," Dictator Says to Army

BOLOGNA, Aug. 24 (AP)—Benito Mussolini today told Fascist Italy to get ready for war. Speaking, appropriately enough, from the turret of an assault tank to 5,000 cheering officers and military attaches at the conclusion of Italian maneuvers, the square-jawed premier said "War can break out from one moment to the other."

LEAD ORGANIZATION FOR "RIGHTS"

Here are the leaders of the new American Liberty league which has been launched with the announced objective of combating radicalism, protecting property rights and defending the Constitution—left to right, top, John J. Raskob and Alfred E. Smith; below, Jonett Shouse, Representative James W. Wadsworth, and John W. Davis, Raskob, Smith, Shouse and Davis, all prominent Democrats, joined with Wadsworth and Irene DuPont, outstanding Republicans, in the formation of the league. All of the backers have been critics of Roosevelt's new deal.

Verice Gilje, 1934 Iowa Graduate, Weds Iowa State Alumna

Verice Gilje, a 1934 graduate of the university and Frank Loufek, who graduated from Iowa State college in 1933, were married Thursday in the Little Brown church in Nauvau. The Rev. William performance of the single ring ceremony.

Attendees for the couple were Lorraine Lenth, a sorority sister of the bride, and Joseph Loufek of Cedar Rapids, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Loufek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Gilje of Elkader, is a member of Chi Omega sorority. While in school she was a member of the university debate team, University Players, and Delta Sigma Eho, national honorary forensic society.

Mr. Loufek, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Loufek of Cedar Rapids, is supervising landscape architect at the state park now under construction at Eldora. The couple will be at home in Eldora after Sept. 15, following a trip to Chicago.

SEEN from Old Capitol

By TOM YOSELOFF

Prof. Bruce E. Mahan, who runs things in the extension division, again raised the question of the trees on Old Capitol campus.

The whole thing started several weeks ago, when a storm of major proportions blew down one tree and about half of another one, both on the northeast side of the building. Which, of course, threw the whole scenic balance of the thing way off. For a fraction of one tree remains on the north side of the building, two whole and complete trees remain on the south side.

The possibilities are several, Professor Mahan suggested. The half a tree still standing might be removed, and two new trees put in. Or the half a tree might be left and one put in, thus balancing the trees on the south side might be removed, thus leaving one tree on each side. Or all the trees might be removed, and the whole campus scheme again be started from scratch.

Of course, there's another possibility. And that is to do nothing at all about it, but leave nature to take its course. But, while the discussion on which is the front and which the back door of Old Capitol languishes, here's something to talk about.

The grounds and buildings department might go in for musical comedies, which thought was engendered by the fact that as I passed the campus where several men were installing a new lawn blower, I heard one of the men singing at his work "Shine on, Harvest Moon."

Card in yesterday's mail: "Seen From Old Capitol: I see by your column this morning that you attended a social function yesterday where you ate anchovies. Being a lover of anchovies myself, I have tried my best to buy them in Iowa City and have never succeeded. Of course I could get anchovy paste, but I want the real anchovies. Will you please tell me where, and oblige, Yours very truly, R. M. H."

Answer in today's: Dear R.M.H.: Anchovies, like anchovy lovers, are one of the rarer delicacies of life. We anchovy eaters, kindred souls that we are, must stick together. So I am very happy to furnish you with the name of a genuine anchovy dealer, true and tried, which I enclose herewith. Anchovies are, however, only half the story. Hoping you are well equipped with the other half, I remain at your service.

Today's word for the campus dictionary: Dog days—that time of the year when academic activities finally cease and academicians have their vacation. Every dog has his day.

University Club To Play Bridge Tonight

Katherine Chrysler to Wed Burke Carson at Davenport

Marriage of Students Here Set for This Afternoon

Two University of Iowa students, Katherine Chrysler and Burke Carson, will be married in Davenport this afternoon at the First Presbyterian church, where the bride's parents were married 24 years ago.

The Rev. Leroy M. Coffman, who officiated at Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Chrysler's wedding, will read the service. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. George Carson, 906 E. College street.

Janet McNeil of Monticello, sorority sister of the bride, and George Mumma of Chicago will be the couple's attendants. The ceremony will take place in the presence of only the immediate families of the couple.

The bride will wear a white crepe

One of a few of its kind in the United States, the mural hangs on the wall opposite the office of Dean C. C. Williams on the first floor of the building.

The work of installing the mural, a gift of Mrs. F. C. Young of Iowa City in memory of her husband, a former member of the college of engineering staff, began early last spring. The completed work consists of seven photographs making up a long mural about four feet high and 15 feet long.

Five Branches Represented

Five branches of engineering work—electrical, civil, mechanical, industrial, and architectural—are represented. The scenes were photographed at the Quaker Oats plant in Cedar Rapids, the Frank foundry in Davenport, the Electric Power company in Waterloo, and in other industrial plants.

Huge steel girders and taut power lines, workmen intent upon their machines, a spinning flywheel, a laborer enveloped in a shower of sparks from a machine, the high walls of the Quaker Oats plant—all of these tell the story of a glorified era of man-made power.

The photographs for the mural were taken by Gerald Young of Iowa City, a son of the donor, and were executed by Carroll Phelps, a graduate of the college of engineering in 1933. Mr. Young is also an engineering graduate, having received a degree in mechanical engineering in 1932.

The mural was hung by Burt Dodson of Iowa City. It is believed to be one of only three large ones in the entire country, the other two hanging in the new Roxy theater in New York city, and in the NBC broadcasting studio in Rockefeller center.

Mr. Young has combined his engi-

Frances Seidel Of Wellman, Johnson Of Des Moines Wed

At the home of the bride's parents in Marengo, two graduates of the University of Iowa, Frances Seidel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Seidel, and Kenneth Johnson of Des Moines, were married Wednesday.

Elizabeth Foster of Cedar Rapids, a cousin of the bride, attended her, while Russell Bergson of Ellsworth, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom, attended Mr. Johnson. Officiating at the marriage was the Rev. W. T. Martin.

After graduating from Marengo high school, Mrs. Johnson attended the university, graduating in 1932. She became a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Since her graduation she has taught in Clarion high school.

Mr. Johnson, the son of Mrs. Etta Johnson of Ellsworth, became a member of Delta Sigma Pi fraternity while attending university.

Graduate of College Of Medicine to Wed

Vera Langley of Keokuk and Dr. John Rankin, a graduate of the college of medicine, will be married Sept. 8 in Keokuk, the bride's mother has announced.

Dr. Rankin, who graduated in 1930, is a member of Phi Beta Pi medical fraternity. He is now practicing in Keokuk.

cover illustrations for the magazine Mechanical Engineering. He is a member of the Young-Phelps firm of Chicago.

The new photo-mural has been dedicated as a memorial to the late Frederick Charles Young, who was an instructor in the college of engineering for five years.

Furs Dyed to Match Fabric New Note for Winter Wear

By BARBARA BEAUFORT (Associated Press Fashion Editor)

PARIS—The furs and fur trims which appear in this winter's mode just displayed by Parisian dress-makers show the widest variety of cut and the most contradictory designs exhibited in many years.

There are large collars and small, lavish trims and sparing use of pelts, costly furs and very inexpensive ones.

Furs dyed to match the fabric which they trim are another note this season. Navy blue, Titian red and aubergine dyed foxes appear on coats of these hues, and one sports coat is lined with fur dyed a light green.

Bolero Effects, Too

Silver fox and astrakhan collars in luxurious cape or stole designs contrast with small astrakhan and nutria collars which hug close to the throat. There are also bolero effects lined with Hudson seal or carried out in black astrakhan.

Some coats are trimmed with great applications of fur used in new ways, often carried out in comparatively inexpensive pelts such as unplucked or Hudson seal, sometimes worked out in rather costly furs.

There are wide bands of fur such as astrakhan paws down the front of a coat, wide insets of nutria on the back skirt from waist to hem, back bolero plastrons of astrakhan extending from a small collar, and entire sleeves of unplucked seal or gray, galyak. Most of these coats with fur applications are finished with fairly small collars.

Fur Trim Capes

Black astrakhan and silver foxes are great favorites as trimmings for formal coats. Alaskan seal dyed a warm dark brown, Hudson seal, gray astrakhan, leopard, panther, galyak and nutria are also used. Fur toques, muffs and capes appear in many houses. Astrakhan is the favorite fur for these, though other pelts appear. The toques are generally fairly small, the muffs rather large, while the capes swing to a point a little below the waist or are three-quarter length. Cloth capes lined or trimmed with fur are an outstanding note of the season.

ABOUT SPORTS

Voice From the Stands . . . Ozzie Collects a Homer . . . Should Have Girls Team . . . Barney Ross Will Retire

BY JACK GURWELL

OZZIE SIMMONS as the central character in this little act, staged at Bayertown several days ago. Ozzie, a hitter on the local colored team, stepped up to the plate, smashed a low traveling line drive out past first, and started for the base. He had almost reached the base when a voice yelled, "foul ball." Ozzie stopped, turned and retraced his steps to home plate. The umpire asked him what he was doing there.

"That was a fair ball," said the umpire. The surprised Mr. Simmons whirled and sprinted for first base. His final leap for second was the longest step seen around Bayertown in years, fans say. Ozzie kept right on stepping, breezed past third, and crossed home plate almost before the ball was found. Speed? That Simmons boy has it. If he has a chance to get loose this fall he will be flitting past the yard line markers in a like manner.

Darkness is arriving at an earlier hour these nights, and with it comes the coolness indicative of the fast approaching fall. Diamondball fans find it advisable to wear heavier coats and sweaters to City park to watch the few remaining diamondball contests. The final games will conclude a most successful diamondball season, perhaps the best Iowa City has had. This summer's league has been the best of the lot, its compactness, yet flexibility making for fine play.

DIZZY DEAN celebrated his return to good graces with the Cards by knocking off the New York Giants with a shutout victory, 5 to 0, this placing the St. Louis club in second place over the Cubs. You can say one thing for the Dean boys, whenever they assign themselves to do a job they "give the works" in trying. This has been a tough season for the two strange and colorful twirlers and one which will be remembered by the fans. The management will also have something to remember when it starts offering salaries for next year to the two.

At Quasqueton, Ia., 1,800 addicts of the diamondball game packed the high school athletic field to watch the local girls team take on the Manly Eagles, a colored team, winning 7 to 4. Iowa City has no girls outfit, although Coralville puts out a mighty fine one. Brooklyn has an aggressive, fast outfit also, their girls outfit playing the best teams around. Iowa City ought to have a girls club. They play an interesting game and with athletic facilities as they are the contests should be interesting to watch.

Barney Ross, holder of the world's welterweight and lightweight boxing titles, will quit the ring in two years. He says he wants to retire at his peak and before he gets "bumped off." If the Chicagoan is as smart as this statement suggests, he will carry out this plan. The diminutive fighter had plenty of money, and will pile up a lot more through his stage tours and future fights. The trouble with most of the boys who were once on top, is that they try a come-back after retirement and get knocked cold and stay that way.

Yankees Win 3rd Race In Yacht Trials

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 24 (AP)—Yankee, skippered by Charles Francis Adams, today continued her triumphal cruise of America's cup waters by defeating Frederick Prince's Westmore in the third race of the final trials to determine a defender against the British challenger, Tom Sopwith's Endeavour.

Rothrock, Collins Get Homers in 6th To Break Duel

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 24 (AP)—Jerome Herman "Dizzy" Dean, making his first pitching appearance since he missed the train for Detroit Aug. 13, resumed the hero role today as he shut out the league-leading Giants, 5 to 0.

The victory moved the Cardinals into second place, ahead of the Chicago Cubs, who lost to Brooklyn again, and six games behind the Giants.

Dean, reinstated by the Cardinals this week after a prolonged and noisy row following his failure to accompany the club to Detroit for an exhibition game, let the league-leaders down with five singles, fanned six and issued only two bases on balls. He topped off his well-pitched game by striking out Johnny Vergez, the last batter to face him.

Until the sixth it was a spirited hurling duel between Dizzy and Joe Bowman, making his first start for Bill Terry's forces in several weeks, but in that inning Jack Rothrock and Jimmy Collins hit home runs to the rightfield pavilion, Collins' homer, his thirtieth of the season brought Joe Medwick in ahead of him. In the earlier innings Bowman was in trouble several times, due to wildness, but air-tight support pulled him through undamaged each time.

It was Dizzy's fifth straight victory of the season over the Giants and his second shut out. He now has 22 wins against five defeats.

Gus Mancuso got three of the Giants' hits before being taken out in the seventh for a pinch-runner.

Cards Fear Tax

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 24 (AP)—Officials of the St. Louis Cardinals baseball club today told aldermen the club might be driven from the city if a proposed 10 per cent municipal sports admissions tax should be adopted.

Sam Breadon, club president, asserted at a hearing that the Cardinals had lost more than $100,000 last year and the same amount in 1932.

Breadon added that the proposed tax, like the 10 per cent federal tax, would have to be passed on to patrons, making the total cost of a grand stand seat $1.20 and of a bleacher seat 60 cents.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 24 (AP)—Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, disclosed today that he will accompany a group of big league baseball stars to the orient this fall and that the manager of the team will be George Herman "Babe" Ruth.

He said it will be his first trip abroad since his honeymoon to Europe in 1910. He plans to return for the annual major league meetings in mid-December.

German Ready For Title Bout

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 24 (AP)—Max Schmeling, completing his training grind for his bout with Walter Neusel for the German heavyweight championship Sunday at Hamburg today said he was in fine condition for what he hopes will be the first step back toward the fistie heights he once held.

"I am determined to win the fight against Neusel by a clean decision, or even a knockout," the one-time champion declared. "Then I will go to America and win back the world title."

Local Clubs Represented in Donkeyball

Rules Vary Little From Regular Ball

Admission Fee to Be Turned Over To Charity

Two teams, representing the Lions and Kiwanis clubs, will play the donkeyball game Monday night at City park. Play will start at 8 o'clock. Team personnel will be chosen today or Monday.

Mounts, small burros, will be provided for contestants, with play scheduled for five innings. In case of a tie game at the end of the regulation period, the game will continue until one team is ahead at the end of a regulation inning.

The Rules Some comment on the rules employed have been made, mostly to the fact that they have not been clearly explained. Here they are: Donkeys will be provided for the three outfielders and for base runners. The fielder, in case a hit ball falls in his territory, must ride his mount to within one step of the ball, dismount, retrieve the ball, remount, and throw the ball.

Base runners must, if they hit the ball, run to the burros, to be located in the vicinity of third base, mount a burro, and ride behind home plate to first. Square bases will be provided and the rider must have some portion of his burro within the square to be legally safe.

Regular Rules With the exception of the above regulations, the game will be played according to the regular rules of baseball.

Sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the contest will be held without charge of admission. Contributions of 10 and 25 cents will be asked at the gate, the money to be used in charity work.

Dodgers Again Trample Cubs; Take 6-4 Win

Rules Vary Little From Regular Ball

CHICAGO, Aug. 24 (AP)—The Dodgers pounded out their second straight victory over the Cubs today, 6 to 4, with the aid of some excellent relief pitching by Van Lingle Mungo.

When Ray Benge weakened after getting a long lead, Mungo came in and pitched one-hit ball for the last 3 2-3 innings, striking out five. Pat Malone was the victim of the early Brooklyn attack, which included homers by Linus Frey and Sam Leslie, and brought all six runs in the first five innings.

Babe Herman again took care of the Chicago scoring, clouting a homer with two aboard in the fifth and scoring the other run on a walk, an infield out and Gabby Hartnett's single.

The game was marked by frequent Chicago protests against the decisions of Umpires Magerkurth and Quigley and as the result of one of them Manager Charley Grimm was banished from the field in the fifth.

Boston Takes Twin Victory From Cincy

Nips Reds, 2-1, in 1st; Repeat, 10-9, in Nightcap

CINCINNATI, Aug. 24 (AP)—A home run and a triple already to his credit, Ernest Lombardi, Cincinnati catcher, grounded out with the tying and winning runs on the paths in the ninth today, and Boston took the second game of a doubleheader, 10 to 9, after winning the first 2 to 1.

Sluggers of both teams opened up in the closing contest, but Boston got started first. A three run burst in the sixth, marked by triples by Lombardi and Schulerich, was not enough to overcome a Boston four-run margin.

Johnson and Brandt granted only seven hits apiece in the first game, and not a Boston runner was left on base from the second inning to the ninth. But in the ninth McManus singled and Hogan tripled to drive in the winning run.

Kelly Bros. Forfeit To Varsity Cab; Mahr Walked 4 Times

By JACK MAHR Sidwell's came from behind to beat the Iowa Supply Jrs. 6 to 2, yesterday afternoon at the City park. The other game was won by Varsity Cab by a forfeit over the Kelly Bros.

Iowa Supply started off right by sending a counter over in the opening frame on Clarence Hull's single, and again in the second on a hit. Sidwell's then came to life, scoring three runs in the third stanza.

Tiffany, first man up was safe on Bill Hull's error, Parizek walked, King fanned, and Johnson singled bringing home Tiffany. Ward hit a high fly in deep short, with Parizek and Johnson scoring. The rally ended when L. Burger fanned. Sidwell's scored two more in the fourth.

Mahr walked, Prizer singled advanced Mahr to second, and both scored on a pop-up to the second baseman.

Sidwell's last marker was made in the sixth. Parizek hit a triple and Stanley King brought him in on a single. Parizek worked for the Dairy boys. He fanned one and allowed four hits. Bill Hull and Bill Buckley hurried for the losing side. Hull walked six in five innings, allowed four hits and whiffed seven. Buckley pitched the last two frames. Stanley King got two blows in three official trips to the platter. Mahr was up four times for the winners and walked four times. Iowa Supply's four hits were scattered with no boy getting more than one.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Sidwell's, 003 201 0-6 7 0; Iowa Supply, 110 000 0-2 4 4. Batteries—Parizek and Johnson; Bill Hull, Bill Buckley and Clarence Hull, Eugene Hogan. Varsity Cab defeated Kelly Bros., 1 to 0, on a forfeit.

Conquer Menzel, Kirby Combination; Rally For Victory

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 24 (AP)—Burlly Wilmer Allison and the flashy John Van Ryn, whose crushing combination tennis prowess has written pages in the records of net history, turned back the surviving foreign threat in the national doubles tennis championships today and strode into the title rivalry.

(By the Associated Press)

Four active members of the Big Six manufactured only three hits yesterday and as a result there was a general downward trend in the averages. Charley Gehring, who made two of the blows on five trips to the plate, held his mark at .364 for fourth place. Bill Terry hit once in four tries, dropping one point to .369. Heinie Manush dropped into a tie with idle Paul Waner for second place, losing two points while Mel Ott dropped three points. Each had three times at bat without a hit.

Collegians To Do or Die For Chance at Job

About Half of Squad Members Under Contract

By WILLIAM WEEKES (Associated Press Sports Writer) CHICAGO (AP)—Although their collegiate football careers are almost a year behind them, 35 members of last year's team will play one more game for dear old college, against the Chicago Bears, National professional champions, Aug. 31.

to professional teams. Several others will coach. The Bears will be looking over the rest as prospective talent.

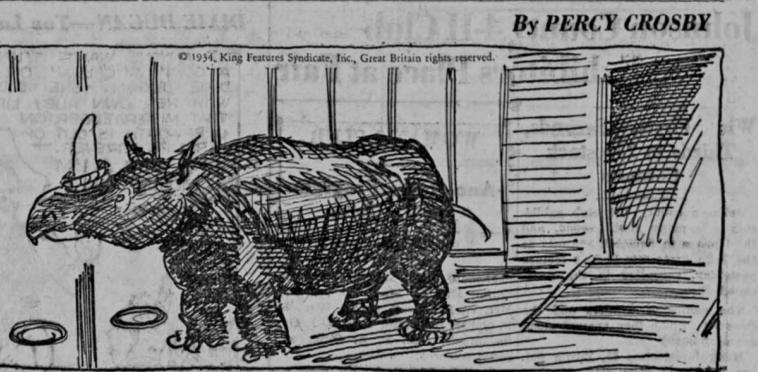

Three collegians are under contract to the Bears, while no less than six have signed up with the Bears' home rivals, the Chicago Cardinals. The young Bears are Ted Rosequist of Ohio State, Butch Kreuger of Marquette, and Beattie Feathers, Tennessee's brilliant half-back.

The future Cardinals who will enter professional football for the first time are Fred Carrinus of St. Mary's, Bill Smith of Washington, Ted Meringer of Kansas, Paul Gardner of Purdue, Mike Sebastian of Pittsburgh, and Mike Mikulak of Oregon.

With Noble Kizer, Purdue's head coach, in top charge of the college squad, the Notre Dame system probably will be used. One of his assistants, Jimmy Crowley of Fordham, was a teammate of Kizer at Notre Dame in 1924, galloping as one of the "Four Horsemen."

Any System You Want! Dick Hanley, another assistant, teaches the Warner style, but has had enough experience watching his teams play Notre Dame to be familiar with the Irish system. Bob Zuppke of Illinois uses his own system.

The Bears, at work under Coaches George Halas, Laurie Walquist and Paddy Driscoll, probably will have the advantage in everything but man power. They have played together, and are fortified by experience. The collegians, however, will have as much practice as the pros, and stack up favorably in bulk and speed.

Explanation Of "Strange As It Seems"

Sidney S. Palfie's tee shot on the 410-yard, par-4, number 9 hole at Greensboro, landed him in the rough off to the left of the fairway. His second crossed completely over and into the rough on the opposite side. Another shot put him in the trap in front of the green, but he held his shot from there to make the hole in par without touching the fairway or the green.

Gotham, as applied to New York City, more commonly to Manhattan Island, came into usage after Washington Irving, in his "Salmagundi," used the name Gothamite for a resident of New York.

The deviation of this term probably goes back to Gotham, a parish in Nottinghamshire, England, and a tradition concerning the people there in the time of King John. According to this legend, which has also been applied to other localities, the king proposed a trip to the parish with the view of buying a castle there. The residents of Gotham, however, feared that they would be obliged to entertain the king at great expense, so they engaged in idle pursuits and successfully discouraged the king by their foolishness.

Gotham is referred to in the nursery rhyme "The Merry Tales of the Mad Men of Gotham" as a village whose inhabitants were famous for their follies.

WEATHER SONG by JOAN CLAYTON AND MALCOLM LOGAN

SYNOPSIS Seifert Vail, the most unpopular patient at exclusive Sherwood Forest Sanatorium, is murdered. Two wounds are found on the body; one apparently from a sharp weapon, and the other, from a dull, rusty instrument. Dr. John Calvert and Mark Hillier, playwright and patient, agree the wounds could have been caused by a pair of scissors. Felipa, the maid, discovered the body when she went into Vail's room to turn off the phonograph. Vail, a former opera singer, broken-hearted over the death of his wife, had a habit of repeatedly playing the record "Waiting For You," sung by himself. Dr. Calvert claims Vail had been dead an hour before the phonograph started playing. Vail shared a cottage with Willis Clendening, Milton Cross and James Ruxton. Ruxton's nephew, Loren and Dr. Calvert are rivals for the affections of Sue Faraday, Mark's nurse. Ruxton had changed rooms with Vail the day before the crime because the former's room had a private entrance and Vail expected a visitor he wanted to receive secretly. A letter the victim received from New York is missing. Sheriff Finn asks Felipa how she knew Vail had been murdered when he had been covered and the wounds were not visible. She appears to be hiding something and, next morning, disappears. Clendening claims he saw a piece of paper under the clock on Felipa's table, but he cannot find it. Mark's theory is that Dr. Calvert having gone there alone, may have found the note but denied seeing it. Loren Ruxton claims he was out with Sue at the time of the tragedy and took a snapshot of Lakeside Cottage a little after two o'clock, yet Sue had not left the hospital until five minutes to three. Mark fears Felipa was also murdered and suggests that Finn drag the lake. A pair of hedge shears, wrapped in overalls and believed to be the murder weapon, are found in the water. The gardeners are questioned, but Mark believes it was someone else disguised in overalls. Loren and Sue bring a Waiting For You record to Mark with the news that the music store sent another copy to Clendening that day.

Bandit Victim Improves

HAMBURG, Aug. 24 (AP)—Physicians at the Hamburg hospital tonight described the condition of Joe Bennett, 50, inn keeper near Sydney, as considerably better. Bennett was shot by one of four masked bandits last night in attempting to prevent the robbers from escaping after they had held up a crap game in a field near here.

AROUND THE TOWN with John Pryor

Dictator

When Alderman Edward Sybil wanted to draft a resolution making Carleton Beh legal adviser to the city on PWA contracts at the council meeting last night, he had Mr. Beh dictate the motion. "I feel sort of silly," said Mr. Beh.

An Error

The motion mentioned above, when originally offered, stated that the Beh company was to get not more than one-half of one per cent for its services. After being copied twice, it read "to get one-half of one per cent." Which is a different matter, and which the councilmen did not notice.

Crowd

The biggest crowd in months, incidentally, attended the council meeting. Visitors probably expected something exciting on the light plant question, but were disappointed. The issue hardly bubbled.

Official Bath

When Frank Miles, editor of the Iowa Legionnaire, comes to Iowa City for the American Legion auxiliary convention next year he will get bathed whether he wants to or not. Several years ago, at a similar convention here, Mr. Miles got a hotel room without bath and complained about it in the columns of his magazine. So the auxiliary has asked D. W. Crum, Chamber of Commerce secretary, to see to it that Mr. Miles has at least one bath next year. While he is here, that is.

Lickers

The county treasurer's office is just a bad taste in the mouth these days. Employees are busy licking 5,000 stamps and putting them on letters containing tax statements. They don't mind the taste much after the first 500, they insist.

Pal

Alderman Sybil, when he introduced Mr. Beh, referred to him as a friend of his. But later, when he was writing his resolution, the alderman had to ask "Do you spell your name B-A-Y?"

Special committees are membership, revision, and investments. Mrs. S. L. Updegraff is chairman of membership. Assisting committee members are Mrs. H. H. McCarty, Mrs. F. A. Danner, Mrs. A. C. Howell, Mrs. F. L. Allen, Mrs. F. P. Schone, Mrs. J. E. Briggs, and Mrs. E. G. Hoopes.

Mrs. Clarence VanEpps, Mrs. R. B. Wylie, and Nora Donohoe comprise the revision committee.

Mrs. J. E. Switzer will take charge of investments. Meetings in the yearbook, are scheduled from September to September, although most divisions conduct their actual work in May or June.

The general club will meet the third Friday of each month at the Trinity Episcopal parish house at 3 p.m. Executive board meetings at 2 p.m. precede the general group gathering. An annual meeting is scheduled for the third Friday in May.

Departmental divisions will meet as scheduled: crafts, first and third Tuesdays of each month; drama, first and third Thursdays; literature, second and fourth Tuesdays; music, first Tuesday; public welfare, fourth Friday, and social sciences, luncheon meeting on the first Friday of each month. The chorus will rehearse each Monday at 2:30 p.m. at the Episcopal parish house.

Garden Club Flower Show Planned

The general club program will open with the garden club's autumn flower show and tea, Sept. 21, Mrs. Ellett will sing, and Prof. George W. Martin of the botany department will illustrate with slides his speech on "Native fall flowers of Iowa. The committee in charge includes Mrs. Goodwin, Mrs. Schone, Mrs. C. H. Weller, Mrs. F. H. Battey, Mrs. L. O. Bender, Mrs. J. D. Boyd, and Mrs. E. A. Gilmore.

The public welfare department will direct a silver tea Oct. 19. Mrs. Hattie Whetstone will tell "Interesting facts about the home." Donation day for the Mary O. Coldren home, is the title of the meeting's theme. Food stuffs will be accepted from club members. Mrs. Bywater and Mrs. Frank Titzell will be hostesses.

At the annual luncheon Nov. 16 at Iowa Union, the drama division will present a program of dramatics. The crafts department will take charge of December's meeting, and the social science department of January's, when Mrs. Stromsten will speak on "Reorganization of state public welfare work. A tea will follow her speech.

Mrs. Frank Mott will tell of "Modern poetry," at the February meeting, directed by the literature group, and in March, the music division will take charge.

A second social gathering will occur in April at the spring luncheon at Iowa Union, with the general club program committee in charge of the day's entertainment. Annual reports, election of officers, and miscellaneous business at the meeting May 17 will conclude the season's work of the general club.

Lemon speak on the "Influence of Religion on Drama," Nov. 1.

Mrs. McCarty will select and read a play for the Nov. 15 meeting. Following drama news told by Mrs. Hines, a Christmas program will include a reading by Mrs. Benson of Christmas poetry and Lady Gregory's one act miracle play, "The Travelling Man."

In January, Mrs. E. T. Hubbard will direct a walking rehearsal of a one-act play, and Mrs. King will tell drama news. Prof. M. F. Carpenter of the English department will direct a play, presented by University high school pupils at the next meeting, when the club will characterize actors and actresses.

Mrs. VanEpps will select and review a play and Mrs. Ingersoll tell drama news Feb. 7. Mrs. Barron will read poems on Lincoln and Mrs. Crawford, direct a folk play, "Child of the Frontier," at the second February meeting.

Lola Hughes will present a lecture and demonstration of the art of make up, a story in pantomime will be told by the club, and drama news told by Mrs. J. W. Howe in March. On March 21 Mrs. Schone will read a paper entitled "Irish theater and Irish players," and Mrs.

Forrest Allen will direct a walking rehearsal of a one act play.

Mrs. David Braverman and Mrs. Crayne will read at a dramatic recital, featuring a guest artist in the lounge at Iowa Union in April. Mrs. Maud Whedon Smith will report drama news. Mrs. Johnston will direct a one-act play at the next meeting, and Mrs. A. V. O'Brien will direct a play, "Mothers of Men," at the May meeting, when a guest speaker will tell of "Costuming the play." Mrs. Roy Busby will tell drama news. The year will conclude with a spring tea and play, presented by a visiting drama club, May 16.

Garden Division Plans Activities

The garden division will commence this year's work with the autumn flower show and tea for the general club. In October, the meeting will be devoted to the highway beautification project of which the garden department is co-director. At the meeting in the Cedar Rapids Woman's clubhouse, prizes will be awarded for most progress in beautifying land and farms adjoining highway 161. Lee Cochran will illustrate "Beautiful gardens of Iowa" with films at the November meeting.

December's work will be devoted to distributing Christmas flowers and plants to hospitals. Prof. Bohumil Shimek of the botany department will speak of "Native trees and shrubs that may be used around our city homes" at the January meeting.

Mrs. C. E. Seashore will take charge of the annual garden short course in February, when "Interesting scouts and native flowers," "Planting for winter effects," "What is new in annuals and perennials," and contributions to a "Question box" will be discussed.

"The joy of an iris garden" will be the subject of Mrs. Homer Johnson's talk at the March meeting. In April a perennial plant sale and exchange will take place, and in May the group will visit Iowa City gardens. An annual community flower show in June will end the garden club's scheduled meetings.

Literature Section Plans for Reviews

Mrs. Sadie Seagrave will read original poems, and books will be reviewed and discussed by the group at the opening meeting of the literature department Sept. 25. Grace Meyers will review, "The Vanished Poms of Yesterday" at the first October meeting. "Long Remember" will be reviewed at the next meeting, and in November, Mrs. Allen will review Susan Ertz's "The Proselete."

Mrs. Goodwin will review "Along This Way," Mrs. G. R. Davies, "The Unfinished Cathedral," Mrs. Minerva S. Knight, "Tic Barbara," Kate Donovan, "River Supreme," Mrs. C. E. Beck, "Superstition Corner," Mrs. David Braverman, "Mary of Scotland," Mrs. Jacobsen, "James's Shore's Daughter," and Mrs. I. A. Opstad, "I Went to Pit College," at subsequent meetings until April 9, when Mrs. M. A. H. Jones will review a book of her own selection.

Mrs. Eleanor S. Biggs and Mrs. E. D. Plass will select books to review at the next two meetings. Tea and a book talk by Mrs. Gordon will finish the literature department's program.

Group Will Study Italian, Spanish Music

The music of Italy and Spain is the subject for the year's study by the music division, of which the program committee includes Mrs. Giblin, Mrs. Jacobsen, and Mrs. R. B. Wylie, and the social committee are Mrs. Walter Hauer and Mrs. C. C. Wylie.

Selections from composers to be studied during the year will be played by Mrs. Maud Whedon Smith at an orran recital Sept. 13. Herald Stark of the music department will present a song recital at the guest day program and tea Oct. 2. Mrs. Crayne will read a paper on early Italian music at the November meeting, when Mrs. McMahan will be program chairman.

Miss Mullin will read a paper on Italian opera entitled, "Selections from operas of Rossini, Bellini, Donizetti, and Verdi," at December's meeting, when Mrs. George Suplek will be hostess and program chairman. The club will not meet in January, but in February will discuss later Italian music. Mrs. Shimlek will read a paper on the later artists, and Mrs. Hawley will serve as program chairman.

Guest artists from among teachers in Iowa City public schools will present a program, for which Mrs. Ellett is chairman, March 5, and on March 15 will present the general club's program. Modern Italian music will be the subject of a paper read by Mrs. Avery Lambert at the April meeting, for which Mrs. Roberson is chairman.

Mrs. J. W. Howe will tell of Spanish music at the concluding meeting, May 7, for which Mrs. George Frohwein is chairman.

Welfare Department Plans Dinner Meeting

Dinner at the Town and Gown residence hotel will precede the opening meeting of the public welfare group, when Mrs. Roberson will speak on "Contribution of public welfare department toward the recreation center," and Luella Reckmeyer will tell of "Activities of the recreational center." Mrs. S. Whitebook will speak of "Zoning the town," and Mrs. Wright, "A need—short stories for the hospital."

In October the department will direct the general club program, entitled "Donation day for the Mary O. Coldren home." Beginning at 9:30 a.m. the group will spend the entire day, Nov. 23, sewing for the city nurse, at the American Legion Community building. Picnic luncheon will be served at noon. December's meeting will be gift day for the Johnson county home, and January's another all day sewing for social service.

Another all day meeting in February will be devoted to binding stories for University hospital library. Reports of work accomplished will be submitted, and officers elected at the concluding meeting in March.

The public welfare group's standing committee for the clothes center includes Mrs. S. Whitebook, Mrs. William Leeper, Mrs. Joe Glassman, and Mrs. Titzell.

Social Science Program Set

The program for the social sciences department is as follows: Oct. 5, "State board of control," Mrs. William Larrabee, Jr.

Nov. 2, "Institutions for children," Harold Skeels of the Iowa Child Welfare Research station.

Dec. 7, "Mental hospitals," Agnes McCreery of the psychopathic hospital staff.

Jan. 4, "Reformatories," Prof. F. E. Haynes of the sociology department.

Electrol Heat

IS LOW COST AUTOMATIC OIL COST

Selling both coal and oil, we are in an unusually fortunate position to compare heating costs with both fuels. Then, also, we sell oil for many different makes of oil burners, and so have an unusual opportunity to find out which oil burners are economical and which expensive to use.

Here are the results of coal heat and ELECTROL oil heat in seven average Iowa City homes:—

	With Coal	With ELECTROL
Home No. 1—6 years	$157.12	$158.97
Home No. 2—4 years	194.93	204.24
Home No. 3—5 years	204.60	176.75
Home No. 4—4 years	165.10	102.95
Home No. 5—5 years	135.92	106.62
Home No. 6—8 years	153.41	140.90
Home No. 7—8 years	197.31	163.46

IN ADDITION—NO smoke; no ash; no furnace attention needed. Automatic heat at an average of $150.76, compared with hand fired coal cost of $172.61. Times are getting better—give the family a real treat by having us install automatic heat in your home. It MAY cost a few dollars per year more; but if it does, it is well worth it.
