Schmitt Hits Proponents of U.S. Isolation

Chicago Professor Gives Address At History Conference TODAY'S PROGRAM Morning Senate Chamber, Old Capitol 10—Address: "Present Conditions in Europe" by Harvey Ingham. Address: "Modern Dictatorships" by Prof. Preston W. Sloan.

National isolation was condemned last night by Prof. Bernadotte E. Schmitt of the University of Chicago, in a public lecture in Macbride auditorium, concluding the first day's sessions of the fifteenth annual history conference.

"To pretend we can isolate ourselves between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans is an ostrich policy which will end in dire circumstances. Our economic life depends upon the rest of the world; nationalism causes us to sacrifice economic prosperity for political aloofness. We are then faced with two alternatives: Arming ourselves to the teeth, insuring complete isolation, or admitting that we are a part of the world, taking our share in the management, and not mistaking this management."

"Failed Miserably" Professor Schmitt believes that if America had joined the League of Nations in 1929, the nation would not have been faced with its present difficulties. So far, the United States has failed miserably in world affairs. The Kellogg pact is powerless, nothing is left of credit in the problem of armaments, America has been left far behind in the matter of war debts.

The United States has maintained a dictatorial attitude toward Latin America, a "hands off" policy toward Europe, and has tried to cooperate with Asia, he asserted.

"We are not greatly concerned with Latin American problems," he said, "as those countries never have been very powerful. Europe, though, has shown much resentment towards us. This is caused by our refusal to recognize that a new Europe, politically and geographically, has resulted from our entrance into the war. In all probability, the allies would never have won, if we hadn't entered."

"In regard to the situation in the East, we have been faced by three possible policies, all of which have been precipitated by the recent Japanese action in Manchuria. We can try to maintain the Stimson doctrine, build our armaments, or just wait. We seem to have chosen the latter, meanwhile keeping our mouths shut and our powder dry."

Addressing the morning session, Howard E. Wilson of the graduate

Long Resumes 'Murder' Trial

Launches Attacks On Foes; Arrests Square Deal Head

BATON ROUGE, La., Feb. 1 (AP)—Senator Huey P. Long, clustering bodyguards and militiamen around him, tonight launched a series of militant counter attacks against his political foes in Louisiana whom he charges with a "murder plot" designed to kill him.

The Louisiana senator stepped from a Washington train this morning in New Orleans, sped here by motor car, and by mid-afternoon had arrested one of his bitterest foes and resumed the "murder plot" inquiry where he heard a witness testify he believed the president of the Anti-Long Square Deal association fired the shot which wounded a citizen in a clash here last Saturday.

Ernest Bourgeois, head of the Square Dealers, was arrested shortly before today's session of the inquiry began, but was released later. He denied any part in Saturday's shooting.

The wounded man—George Alessi—was shot as armed citizens and national guardsmen met at the local airport following the first session of the hearing at which the "kingfish" charged that several of his political opponents had conspired to waylay and kill him.

Hawks to Meet Minnesota Here Tonight

Large Crowd Expected to See Contest

Iowa's Conference Lead at Stake As Pessimism Prevails

PROBABLE STARTING LINEUPS
IOWA: Rosenthal, LF; Barke, RF; Blackmer, C; Grim, LG; Bobby, RG; Minnesota: Roscoe, RF; Kupperberg, C; Norman, LG; Baker, RF; Svendsen, G.

Officials: John Getchell (St. Thomas) referee; George Lewis (Wisconsin) umpire.
Time and place: Today, 7:35 p.m., Iowa fieldhouse.
Tickets: 350 reserved and 6,000 general admission on sale today.
Broadcast: Station WSUL, Carl Menzer and Eric Wilson.

By JACK GURWELL (Daily Iowan Sports Editor)

It is banded about the campus our Hawkeyes are due for a terrific battle tonight, something like that overtime tilt of some weeks ago at Minneapolis. The Iowans tangled with a Minnesota quintet seeking revenge in the fieldhouse. Not only is their conference lead at stake, but the outcome of the fray is, indeed, dubious.

An air of downright pessimism prevails concerning this contest, and a probable throng of around 12,000 fans is expected to hold its collective breath until the final whistle has blown, and either the Hawks or the Gophers trip to the dressing room winners. The recent debacle at Drake is cause for all pessimistic breath depriving circumstances.

Purdue Should Win From the Big Ten leadership angle, Iowa has only to lose the game to skid down to third place, because Purdue, in the only other loop engagement tonight, should certainly take Chicago into camp. Indiana doesn't play until next Saturday, but with three wins to one loss will have a higher percentage standing. If the Hawks and Purdue win tonight, and the Boilermakers again Monday over Ohio State, the two teams will be in a tie with five victories and a loss each.

Of course, if Iowa loses and Purdue is victorious in both starts, the Boilermakers will take undisputed leadership of the league. With this in mind, Coach Rollie Williams has attempted to rally the Hawks with drills this past week, but a double job of drill and semester exams has put a damper on attempts for uninterrupted workouts. They have been sort of spasmodic affairs, with a regular or two missing at most drills. Johnny Grim, however, has been working off the effects of a bad cold this week with daily tuncups and should be in tiptop shape.

Examination Week The rest of the lads, physically okay, have been experiencing the mental fog prevalent with all students this time of year. All will be on hand—examinations favorable of course—to try to pull the wool over the Gopher's eyes and emerge from the contest triumphant. If the locals can maintain their scoring punch through the entire game, it seems logical to expect a victory. The Indiana affair brought reminiscences

Dean Phillips Warns Against Nationalization of U.S. Banking

Describes Beginning Of National Banking System in Lecture

Nationalization of the United States banking system would be a detriment to the stabilization of credit in the country, declared Dean Chester A. Phillips of the college of commerce in a Baconian lecture last evening before an audience of more than 200 in chemistry auditorium.

Dean Phillips explained that successful foreign banks, such as the Bank of England, operated independent of government ownership and independent of dominant government control.

Wegman Hits Wording Of Bill Authorizing Refunding Warrants

DES MOINES, Feb. 1 (AP)—The statehouse controversy over the sale of anticipatory warrants against the state sinking fund continued tonight after introduction in the general assembly of a measure to authorize the issuance of refunding warrants.

State Treasurer Leo J. Wegman declared after reading the bill that it "might as well state in so many words that it intends to make the governor the supreme authority on issuance of refunding warrants."

Council Votes Bond Issue To Finance Plant

Work Will Begin When PWA Accepts Issue of $165,000

The way was cleared last night for an early beginning on construction of Iowa City's proposed $516,000 sewage disposal plant when the city council authorized the issuance of an initial $165,000 worth of bonds to the federal government.

Although the question of the University of Iowa's share in the plant's expense has not yet been definitely settled, the council has decided to proceed with the work, which is to be financed by the PWA.

Contracts Let Of the total cost, $403,000 will be in the form of a loan, with the remainder granted outright by the government. Construction will begin as soon as the bonds authorized by the council last night are accepted and city receives payment on its first block of bonds.

Contracts for the work already have been let and contractors will be notified to begin work as soon as the city's bonds are accepted.

Sewer Rentals The ordinance providing for issuance of the bonds stipulates that the principal and interest will not be a general obligation against the city and cannot be paid out of taxes, but from the net revenue of the disposal plant. A sewer rental will be charged to provide this revenue.

The bonds will mature from 1936 through 1960. The first issue to be paid in 1936 will total $5,000 and the last block to be retired in 1960 will amount to $23,000, the largest block of the issue. The bonds will be dated Jan. 1, 1935, and will bear interest of four per cent.

Auto Manufacturers See Steadier Work Under Revised Code

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1 (AP)—A forecast by the Automobile Manufacturers association of steadier work in that industry under the revised code, today followed an assertion by the American Federation of Labor refusing to accept it.

The new arrangement, contemplating introduction of some new models in the fall, the association said, "would throw any unavoidable slack periods into the summer months when the effect of the employees will be less burdensome than in winter months as at present."

He clung to his assertions Hauptmann's handwriting and that of the ransom notes were not the same and asserted the ace of the state's eight experts, Albert S. Osborn, had based his conclusion on only one word, "is."

Hauptmann Defense Seeks To Place Blame for Kidnaping On Violet Sharpe and Isador Fisch

New Yorker Tells Story, But Refuses Positive Answers

FLEMINGTON, N. J., Feb. 1 (AP)—The Lindbergh baby kidnaping mystery was thrust tonight on the trail of Violet Sharpe, servant in the Dwight W. Morrow household who committed suicide after the kidnaping, and Isador Fisch, dead furrier friend of Bruno Richard Hauptmann, fighting the electric chair as the kidnaper.

Peter H. Sommer, a New York finger print expert, testified that March 1, 1932, the night of the kidnaping, he traveled on a ferry from New Jersey to New York city with two men whom he saw assist a nervous woman with a blond baby board a street car on the New York side.

Recognizes Pictures Edward J. Reilly, chief of the defense counsel, showed him two pictures, one of a man and one of a woman, which Sommer said he recognized.

Reilly, in asides, announced the man as Fisch and the woman Miss Sharpe.

After court adjourned Reilly said he would have three witnesses from Montreal who would testify Fisch had been seen in that city after the kidnaping with the Lindbergh baby.

Reilly Complains The baby's body was found near the Lindbergh estate in New Jersey May 12, 1932, Reilly said the Montreal witnesses would not challenge the identification of the body, but complained the witnesses did not show up today and renewed charges of "intimidation."

On cross-examination Attorney-General David T. Wilentz showed the gold-toothed witness a picture of Violet Sharpe, the Morrow maid who committed suicide during the kidnap investigation, and asked if that was the woman he saw with the baby.

"She bears a very strong resemblance," Sommer said.

Q. Would you say it was she?
A. I wouldn't say yes, I wouldn't say no. I wouldn't swear it has her.

Witness Indefinite Wilentz again showed Sommer the photo of a man and asked if it was the man on the boat.

"I wouldn't say 'yes' and I wouldn't say 'no.' In a way he resembles him and in a way he doesn't," was Sommer's uncertain reply.

The testimony paved the way for that of Mrs. Anna Bonesteel, a Yonkers, N. Y., luncheon proprietor, who has declared she saw Miss Sharpe at Yonkers Ferry the night of the kidnaping, with two men.

Sommer, cross-examined by Attorney-General Wilentz, clung to his assertions he had seen the men but protested Wilentz was attempting to "mix him up."

"Expert" Testifies Most of the day was given over to the examination of John M. Trendly, of East St. Louis, Ill., a volunteer witness who said he was an expert copyright and student of handwritings.

He clung to his assertions Hauptmann's handwriting and that of the ransom notes were not the same and asserted the ace of the state's eight experts, Albert S. Osborn, had based his conclusion on only one word, "is."

In a whip-lash cross-examination by Joseph Lanigan, Trendly admitted

Directory Supplement To Correct Omissions Of First Semester

Names of students omitted in the first semester directory will be included in the second semester supplement if the necessary information is left at the publications department, 117 university hall, on or before Tuesday.

Corrections or changes will not be made in the supplement, which is designed for new students whose listings will be furnished by the registrar.

Parents Find Clue in Lad's Disappearance

Map Left Behind By Missing Boy Bears Traced Route South

Possible clues were unearthed last night by parents in a desperate attempt to solve the mystery surrounding the disappearance of 12-year-old Arthur Stevens, son of Mrs. C. Huffman, 15 E. Harrison street. A marked road map was found which may link up with the lad's absence.

The map bore a traced route from Iowa City to Laredo, Texas. His parents expressed the belief that he may have set out for an air school located there. The boy was an ardent follower of aeronautics and had spoken of a flying school and a desire to go to "the border."

Reports of a gypsy band seen in Iowa City last Wednesday, the day the lad disappeared, were checked to discover whether there was a possible connection. Nothing had been learned last night.

Arthur left home for school Wednesday morning and did not return. He was absent from school, according to a check-up with his teachers.

Communication with friends and relatives in other cities failed to disclose any news. Stations WHO of Des Moines, WOC of Davenport, and WMT of Waterloo have broadcast a description of the boy three times daily over the regular air channels and the short wave.

Police have notified St. Louis and Kansas City officials in an effort to locate him on the route marked on the map. Any information may be phoned to 2135, the local police station.

Arthur was five feet, five inches, weighed 120 pounds, had light brown hair and blue eyes. He was wearing a white cap, brown zipper jacket, black sweater, and blue corduroy trousers.

Gold Rush Members of Pi Kappa A Fraternity Get Ready for Mining

Gold! Gold! Again yesterday the name of that golden metal brought audible gasps and tense silence in a local fraternity house, as a handful of dirt and shiny particles were displayed.

Bernard Effenberger, A2 of Omaha, Neb., was the owner of the hand that held the gold. The metal had been found by a farmer six miles north of Solon. The farm belonged to Mr. Effenberger.

Enthusiasm grew and a group of "Forty-Niners" was organized at the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity house, where Mr. Effenberger is a pledge. As the prospectors were equipping themselves with pans and other odd utensils to pan the gold from the farm creek, someone thought of an archy.

Members of the university geology department analyzed the ore and reported it to contain iron pyrite and some gold. Further tests will be made of the gold this week, but the would-be miners have decided to remain in school.

Should the creek contain gold it will be panned over a period of a month, the owner said.

THE GROUNDHOG HAS HIS DAY

Prognosticator of the seasons for a long time, Mr. Ground Hog nevertheless is keeping up with the times. Here you see him about ready to broadcast his findings on weather conditions on Groundhog day, today. Speak up, Mr. Hog, will you, or won't you see your shadow?

Groundhog Lodge Members To Conduct Annual Rites Today

QUARRYVILLE, Pa., Feb. 1 (AP)—Through mountain snowdrifts, a band of solemn men, wearing high silk hats and carrying canes, will trudge at dawn tomorrow to pay homage to the lowly groundhog and to report his weather forecast.

Tradition that goes back almost to the days of the Indians has it that on Feb. 2, just at sunup, the woodchuck emerges from his winter sleep.

If he sniffs the air and scampers back to his lair, six weeks of winter weather are in store; if he sniffs and turns tail on his slumbering place—spring is nigh!

The Slumbering Groundhog lodge at Quarryville, whose devotion to the lowly woodchuck has attracted national attention, will march into the woodlands.

The same secrecy which veils the rites and rituals of the night—when those who commune with the groundhog return to town with their findings—will obtain in the trek to the groundhog hole.

Monday night, there will be parading and music and red fire. The wisdom imparted in the woodland will be carried to the patriarchs of the Groundhog lodge. Then there will be feasting.

May Close Stock Market Commission May Make Move During Gold Case Ruling

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1 (AP)—To safeguard investors billions from possible dangers in violent market fluctuation, the Securities Exchange Commission tonight considered invoking one of its absolutely automatic powers when the supreme court rules on the gold cases.

Its members studied the desirability of an order closing all exchanges during the period—possibly next Monday—in which the court may announce its decision. Forty-seven exchanges from New York to San Francisco would be involved.

The cases at issue, while directly affecting some $100,000,000,000 in public and private bonds, are expected to exert a profound influence upon stock quotations, foreign exchange and commodity prices.

The court will say whether congress had constitutional authority to declare invalid all contractual promises to pay in gold or its equivalent in the present devalued currency. The redemption value of the $100,000,000,000 in bonds would be increased to $169,000,000,000 by an adverse ruling.

While the link between the decision and the stock market was under consideration today the treasury announced that stock trading in 1934 was almost exactly half its 1933 level, although corporate financing revealed a slight gain.

Predicts End For Present Educational Setup Soon

Says 'Departmental System' 'All Right For Merchandising, But Not Education'

Elimination of departmentalism in university education in the near future was predicted by President Eugene A. Gilmore, in an address before history teachers attending the fifteenth annual conference here last night.

Talking at a dinner meeting in Iowa Union, the president charged that a system in which learning is "fitted into narrow compartments" is detrimental to the purpose of education.

"We have stressed specialization, and we have lost sight of the fact that the whole body of human knowledge is integrated," he pointed out.

"All Right for Merchandising" "Students are handed courses, neatly numbered and wrapped up in little parcels. Then when their college years are over, we do not judge them by the cultural experiences they have had; we ask if they have 120 credits.

"Such methods may be all right for merchandising, but they are not suited to education. Courses narrowly restricted, parcelled out, mean nothing to students; our problem is to show them whole segments of human knowledge."

President Gilmore distinguished between administrative and teaching functions. Although departmental organization is necessary for administration, it is unnecessary for pure teaching functions, he declared.

Makes Comparison Comparing the American educational scene today with tribal warfare in the Philippine Islands, the Iowa head asserted that educators must look beyond the narrow bounds of their own departments.

"In the Philippines, we were faced with the problem of bringing together the mountain tribes," he said. "Head-hunting was prevalent, and members of one tribe did not dare cross the trails which marked the boundaries of its area. We brought them together by establishing a Garden day, when the men could talk over their mutual farming problems. By moving the Garden day meetings from one area to another, we were able to accustom them to crossing the boundary trails."

"On a Mountain Slope" "In education, we are on a mountain slope. I would like to see the day when a teacher can cross the trails which bound his department without the risk, figuratively, of losing his head."

Movements to integrate educational fields are already underway.

23 Freight Cars Derailed

CLINTON, Feb. 1 (AP)—A broken bolt on the front trucks of a freight car was believed tonight to have sent 23 Milwaukee freight cars tumbling off the tracks at the end of a bridge over the Maquoketa river about 25 miles northwest of here late today, barely escaping a plunge into the river's icy waters.

From 10 to 12 of the cars, loaded with mixed merchandise, crashed down a steep embankment near the end of the bridge, the others piling on top.

A trainman, Jake Beeson of Marion, who was riding in the caboose, suffered a neck injury when the caboose, following the leading cars, smashed into the wreck. His condition was not considered serious.

5 Counties Added to Benefit WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Murphy of Iowa announced yesterday that feed loans will be made available to five more Iowa counties on the same basis as in primary drought counties. The new counties which will benefit are Sac, Ida, Monona, Polk and Jasper.

Students Will Dance at Annual Pica Ball at Iowa Union Tonight

Party Will Present Campus Personalities; Gordon to Play

Symbolic of typewriters and telephones, linotypes and lithographs, pica sticks, press wires, and all other journalistic insignia will be the Pica Ball, all-university informal dance which the Associated Students of Journalism will give tonight in the main lounge of Iowa Union.

From 9 to 12 o'clock, couples will dance to tunes played by Gray Gordon and his 14-piece Columbia broadcasting orchestra of Chicago. Featuring two women vocalists, Connie Hill and Gretchen Lee, Gordon's orchestra broadcasts over WBBM in Chicago. Last summer the orchestra played at the Canadian club at the Century of Progress exposition and has played at the Merry Garden night club in Chicago.

Five campus personalities, selected for their prominence in outstanding fields, will be announced and presented, just before intermission, by Master of Ceremonies William Merritt, A4 of Ft. Dodge, Associated Students of Journalism president.

As the presentation is made from the orchestra platform at the north end of the lounge, a white banner headline will be removed from a huge replica of a Daily Iowan front page, revealing the names of five outstanding students. The large Daily Iowan front page placed against a black drapery, will form a background for the orchestra. Pictures of the five students will be silhouetted on the front page reproduction.

Following the journalistic motif and color scheme of black and white will be the ivory heavy lacquer paper programs, of which the entire covers will be formed by a newspaper halftone photograph of a linotype printer operating his machine. White silk cord will tie the programs, which will contain blanks in which names of the five campus personalities may be entered.

Bill Bartley, A2 of Letts, heads the committee in charge. He is assisted by John Greene, A4 of Fremont, Ohio, Everett Perry, A3 of Tiana, and Emmers Horning, A3 of Audubon, decorations; Detlef Peterson A4 of Miles, and Mr. Greene, music; and Zane Irwin, A4 of Ft. Worth, Tex., and Everett Blomgren, A4 of Ft. Dodge, programs.

Jack Gurdwell, A4 of Chariton, Harry Tennant, A4 of Seymour, and Mr. Merritt, tickets; Jesse Gorkin, A3 of Rochester, N.Y., chaplains; and Mary Breyer, A2 of Washington, Ia., and Betty Reed, A3 of Council Bluffs, publicity.

Chaperoning the party will be members Prof. and Mrs. Frank L. Mott, Prof. and Mrs. Edward L. Mason, Prof. Fred J. Lazell, Charles

Dorothy Elliott Of Fairfield, Maurice McGuire Marry Here

Dorothy Elliott of Fairfield was married to Maurice McGuire, G of Delta, yesterday at 11 a.m. in the Christian church parsonage. The Rev. Casper Garrigues officiated.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McGuire were graduated from the University of Iowa in 1934. Before entering the university, the bride attended Parsons college for two years, and has been taking dramatic work at Eldora since her graduation. While here, she was a member of Kappa Beta, Christian sorority.

Mr. McGuire, who majored in commerce, is a member of Beta Gamma Sigma, honorary commercial fraternity.

The bride and bridegroom intend to make their home in Chicago.

Margaret McConville, Robert Valentine Wed at Centerville

Margaret McConville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McConville of Centerville, and Robert Valentine, L3 of Centerville, were married yesterday at 5 p.m. at the rectory of St. Patrick's church. The Rev. P. J. O'Reilly officiated at the wedding.

Mr. Valentine, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Valentine of Centerville, is a member of Phi Delta Phi law fraternity. He attended the University of Wisconsin and graduated from the University of Southern California before entering the college of law here.

The couple will live at the Burlington apartments. Mr. Valentine will continue his studies.

Chaperons Club Will Meet for Luncheon

Chaperons club will meet for its monthly luncheon Tuesday noon on the sunporch of Iowa Union. Contract bridge will be played during the afternoon.

Hostesses will be Mrs. John Osgood, Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity housemother; Mrs. R. O. Webster, Alpha Chi Omega sorority chaperon; Mrs. Bess Hoyt, Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity housemother; and Mrs. A. W. Guernsey, Theta Xi fraternity housemother.

Bridge Party to Honor Two Recent Brides

Honoring Mrs. Wendell Smith, a bride of Jan. 1, and Mrs. Burke Carson, an early fall bride, Nellie Marie Fordyce will entertain at a contract bridge party at her home, 525 Oakland avenue, this afternoon at 2:30.

Both Mrs. Smith, the former Ruth Frudenfeld of Minneapolis, and Mrs. Carson, formerly Katherine Chrysler of Iowa City, are Pi Beta Phi sorority sisters of Miss Fordyce.

from HOUSE to HOUSE

Harriet Mahnke Robert Milroy To Marry Tomorrow

The marriage of Harriet Mahnke of Chicago to Robert R. Milroy, night foreman of The Daily Iowan, will take place tomorrow at 3 p.m. at the St. Paul's Lutheran chapel. The Rev. Julius J. Friedrich will read the service in the presence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Mahnke of Sioux City, and the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Milroy of Hopkinton; and W. H. and R. E. Mahnke, brothers of Miss Mahnke, students at the university.

Following the wedding the couple will leave for Des Moines, and will be at home later this month at the Iowa apartments.

Miss Mahnke was graduated from the University of Iowa in 1930. She is a member of Theta Sigma Phi, journalism sorority. After serving as proofreader of The Daily Iowan for four years following her graduation, she took a position with the Dramatic Publishing company of Chicago.

Mr. Milroy received his B.A. degree from the University of Iowa in 1931 and his master's degree in economics in 1933. He was a member of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity.

Woman's Club Hears Talk By Mrs. Martin

Explains Structure Of League of Nations at Luncheon

Explaining the general structure of the League of Nations, the connection of the United States with the organization, and weaknesses and strength of the present set-up, Mrs. George Martin told members of the social sciences department of the Iowa City Woman's club yesterday at "International Peace Machinery." The club met for luncheon at Youde's inn.

Two purposes of the League which are not generally included in knowledge of its functions are the promotion of cooperation, and insuring of security, Mrs. Martin said. There are three divisions in the League: the council, the assembly, and the secretariate. Fourteen members compose the council, with five permanent places held by the five great powers. Each nation has three delegates in the assembly, but only one vote. More powerful than it was formerly, the assembly now passes on the budget and is powerful in swinging public opinion, Mrs. Martin declared.

More than 700 persons compose the secretariate. Committees and commissions of this branch act as a world civil service commission investigating all manner of international affairs, Mrs. Martin stated.

Although not a member of the League, the United States now has unofficial delegates on 36 of the committees. Japan will probably do the same thing when she withdraws from the League in March, Mrs. Martin predicted.

There are four outstanding weaknesses of the League, Mrs. Martin said. It is new, it has been used mainly to carry out treaties, it is not universal, and it can not actually make the nation agree to its verdicts. Its strength lies in that it meets regularly, it carries on preventive work, it is ready to function when necessary, and nations are coming to the point when they feel it a point of honor to take up their disputes with the League, she added.

-BOYS-

America's leaders of the future will not spring into being overnight! They are being MADE now in the homes, schools, newspaper routes, and colleges of the country. A host of men now prominent in this city, and state, were former newspaper carrier boys. Many of the leaders of tomorrow are acquiring character and business training while serving routes for THE DAILY IOWAN.

Recipes For February Menus

Rice! The mere mention of it does arouse an exclamation of some sort from most of us. It immediately brings before us the invalid with his tea and toast. But there are many delectable rice dishes that wouldn't be offered to an invalid! Even if they were, they are tasty enough for any of us to relish and enjoy!

Spanish Rice
1 cup rice 2 tsp. butter
1 medium can 3 onions, cut up of tomatoes 1 green pepper, (strain out chopped
the juice) 1 tsp. salt

Wash and pour rice into boiling salt water. Boil briskly for about 25 minutes, stirring once in a while to keep from sticking. Drain water off rice and run cold water over it in a strainer. This keeps the rice grains separate and from sticking. Cook onions and green pepper in butter for about 10 minutes and then add tomatoes. Cook all together for about five minutes and add to rice, mixing thoroughly over slow fire. Add pepper and paprika if desired.

Curried Rice
1 cup rice 3 cups chicken
2 small onions soup
2 tsp. curry 2 tsp. butter
powder 1 tsp. salt

Boil rice as above for about 10 minutes. Then drain and rinse rice and add soup. Cook onion in butter with curry powder for about five minutes; then add to rice. Mix thoroughly and cook in oven for 15 minutes.

Rice Pudding
2 1/2 cups cook- Pinch salt
ed rice 1 egg
1 1/2 cups milk 1 tsp. butter
1-3 cup sugar 1 tsp. vanilla

Mix all together and bake for 25 minutes in a buttered baking dish. A custard sauce can be used with it.

or chocolate sauce if desired. Good, hot or cold.

Round Steak Patties
1 lb. round steak 2 tsp. butter
(grind twice) 3-4 cup unsweet-
1-2 tsp. salt ened con-
1-4 tsp. pepper densed milk

Mix meat with milk, salt and pepper. Make thin patties, if possible, before placing in frying pan but if meat is too wet to handle, just put meat in with a spoon or spatula and form patties as best as possible in the pan. Have the butter sizzling hot and cook two minutes on each side. Serve immediately after cooking—do not leave standing in the pan. This will serve six.

Round Steak With Onions
1 1/2 lbs. round 1 large onion
steak, about 2 tsp. fat
3-4 in. thick

Dip steak into flour, salt and pepper, brown well on both sides with onions. Add enough boiling water to just cover and let simmer slowly for two or three hours. Towards end add 1-2 can tomatoes if desired. Serve on platter with gravy.

Green Peppers Stuffed With Round Steak
1 lb. round 1-2 cup strained round steak tomatoes
1 onion
1-2 cup cooked 1 tsp. butter
rice 6 green peppers

Chop onion and brown in butter. Add tomatoes and rice. Mix with meat and cook in pan with butter for 10 minutes. Cut off top of peppers and scoop seeds out. Stuff with the meat mixture and place in pan and cook in oven for 20 minutes with buttered bread crumbs over tops of peppers. Serve around mound of French fried potatoes and garnish with radishes and parsley. This will serve 6.

Girl Scouts to Get Instructions For Badge Work During Week

Instruction for first aid, child nurse, dancer, and junior citizens proficiency badges will be included in the programs of the Iowa City Girl Scouts troops next week when the second semester of school opens. Mrs. G. A. Brown is instructing girls of troop 1 at Iowa City high school in the dancers badge at their meetings Wednesday.

and six girls will compete second class requirements Thursday. Mothers and teachers were entertained at tea by Girl Scouts of troop 5 at Horace Mann school Wednesday. Mrs. John Briggs presided at the tea table, which was decorated in red and white in Valentine theme. Mrs. F. B. Olsen and Mrs. V. W. Bales of the local council were guests.

Cleaning the art room, rest room, and other corners of Longfellow school, members of troop 2 did service work last week. The girls will make valentines at their meeting Monday, under the direction of Mrs. James Jones, troop lieutenant.

Scholarship badges were presented to Phyllis Fry, Beatrice Elieher, Arlene Fryauf by the troop lieutenant, Marjorie Bryan, A4 of Iowa City.

Plans will be made for a Valentine party at the meeting of troop 7 at Iowa City junior high school Thursday. The girls will make shepherd pipes of bamboo, instructed by their lieutenant, Isabelle Smith, A3 of Iowa City.

Work on the junior citizens badge will be started at the meeting of troop 8 at Henry Sabin school Monday. Songs and games were taught to members of troop 6 at St. Patrick's school yesterday afternoon by Margaree Olsen, A3 of Iowa City.

Proceeds of Dramatic Production Feb. 18, 19, Will Go to Milk Fund

Iowa Citizens will have an opportunity to help finance the milk fund by buying tickets for a play, "What Happened to Jones," to be given by the Iowa City Community Players Feb. 18 and 19 in the Iowa City high school auditorium.

Dr. Seeger to Talk Before Student Group

Dr. Walter Seeger will discuss "Tithing" at the regular meeting of the Lutheran Student association of the Zion Lutheran church tomorrow evening. Edgar Boell, G. of Iowa City, will sing several selections.

Helen Davis Will Read To Children at Library

Helen Davis, children's librarian, will read "Bertram and the Fire-Breathing Dragon," "Stuart's Valentine," and "The Tea Party," from the book "The Poppy Seed Cakes," for the story hour this afternoon at 2:30 at the public library.

Miss Davis Will also read a chapter from the continued story, "Robin on the Mountain."

Miss Davis will also read a chapter from the continued story, "Robin on the Mountain."

Short Short Stories

NARROW ESCAPE

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (INS)—Timely intervention of police is believed to have saved the lives of a mother and her three children. In answer to a frantic telephone call, officers rushed to the home of Oscar Peterson, a cement worker, who, in a sudden mania had lined the members of his family against a wall and was brandishing a shotgun, police said. They added he had three shotguns and two rifles in his possession.

HIS WAR MEMENTOS

SYDNEY, N.S.W. (INS)—One hundred and two separate pieces of shrapnel have been removed from the body of an ex-soldier who appeared before a War Pensions Board. Until recently the "Aussie" kept them all in a little bag. Greatly to his distress he lost the bag. But he still has plenty to remind him of his war experiences on the Western Front. "There are still quite a few pieces of shell knocking around inside me," he told the board.

PARTICULAR PPRISON

FT. MADISON (INS)—Officials at the Iowa state penitentiary here finally gave in to the courts and accepted Frank Ramberger as a prisoner. Convicted of a charge of robbery with aggravation, prison authorities once refused to accept Ramberger because of a technicality under which they judged he would have to serve a second term. He was re-arrested on a new charge of larceny, again sentenced to five years, and given commitment papers acceptable to the prison.

WATERWORKS BURNS

CONNELT, O. (INS)—The citizens of Conneaut are very much put out—to the tune of $10,000—over the injustice wreaked upon them by fate, or perhaps coincidence. When the $10,000 fire insurance policy on the waterworks building here expired, the city council failed to renew it. Less than a month later the building was destroyed by fire.

DOOM OF DERVISHES

ALEXANDRIA (INS)—The famous

Whirling Dervishes have appealed to the government to save them from extinction. The Ministry of Wakfs decided that the Dervishes had ceased to bring in enough revenue to justify their maintenance at government expense, and turned the Tekye Monastery, the Dervishes' age-old stronghold, into an arts and crafts school for the poorer classes. The Zikr, the traditional chant and dance of the Dervishes, has been one of the most exotic spectacles of the East, and a great tourist attraction.

COSTLY FIRE ALARMS

DENVER (INS)—False fire alarms will be stopped—or made profitable to Denver. Every person who turns in a false alarm will be fined $100 and costs. This is the recommendation of the fire department. The city spends from $35 to $50 every time the fire apparatus is called out in the residential district, and from $10 to $75 if the fake call is turned in downtown.

"PIGGY-BACK" RADIOS

BOZEMAN, Mont. (INS)—Portable radio outfits weighing 15 pounds each now are part of the equipment of rangers in the Deer Lodge National forest. The sets have a range of 50 miles and enable the ranger to make a survey and report fires promptly, instead of returning to the nearest station to telephone. Much timber was destroyed before fire fighters could be summoned in previous years.

LADIES FIRST CHOICE

QUINCY, Mass. (INS)—Gentlemen may prefer blondes but members of the Quincy Junior Women's club voted preference for brunette men.

MOTORIST SHOTS CAR

PARIS (INS)—Peasants rushed to the help of a motorist who crashed near Montfaucon, north of Paris. He, however, curtly refused their aid, drew a revolver from his pocket and solemnly put a bullet into each tire of his car. He then walked to Montfaucon, hired a room in a hotel, and shot himself shortly afterwards.

WHY COURT LAUGHED

CAIRO (INS)—The jury filed into court and the foreman stood up to deliver the verdict in a case in which two Egyptians were accused of incendiarism. A gale of laughter blew through the court when the jurymen announced that the two accused were "not guilty" but that the two witnesses were responsible for the crime, and should be sentenced to one year's imprisonment each.

HENS DO THEIR PART

MT. VERNON, Mo. (INS)—"Go lay an egg" was considered a smart quip some 20 years ago. George Ol-sen's flock of 234 white leghorns not only considered it smart, but practical, resulting in the unusual record of 20 eggs a bird for a 30 day period.

HIS ONLY WORRY

COLUMBUS, O. (INS)—Aged 79, Frank "Bill" Donely, convicted 26 years ago as a wife-killer, was pleased upon hearing he had been granted a commutation of sentence, but "if I go," he asked Warden P. E. Thomas, "who's going to keep me in tobacco?"

REPAIRS HIS DAMAGES

NEWBURYPORT, Mass. (INS)—A precedent that may make other automobile drivers in the state more careful was established here when Judge Nathaniel N. Jones ordered Richard Goodhue, 23, to repair 20 feet of a stone wall he is alleged to have moved down with an automobile. Goodhue, repaired the wall during a pouring rainstorm.

CHICAGO (AP)—An indictment charging violation of the internal revenue law and naming 11 defendants, including the Clinton company of Clinton, Ia., and Louis Eisenstein, one of its officials, was returned yesterday by the federal grand jury as the result of the seizure of a $100,000 still in May, 1934.

Max Sturdevant, A2 of Webster, will leave for his home tonight. He will return Monday.
Charles McFadden, A3 of Ottumwa, will leave for home today.
Frederick Zimmerli, A1 of Des Moines, will not be in school the coming semester. He plans to return next year.
Paul Ahlers, L2 of Lamotte, is spending the recess visiting home.
Robert Peterson, A1 of Council Bluffs, returned home yesterday. He will visit his parents until classes are resumed.
Joe VanEsseleydyke, A1 of Muscatine, is visiting between semesters at his home.
Floyd DeHeer, A1 of Oskaloosa, is visiting at home. He will return in time for classes Tuesday.
Robert Kendrick, A3 of Wapello, is visiting with his parents. He will return Monday.
Leonard Sharp, C3 of Newton, will leave today for his home. He intends to visit his parents during the recess.

Issues Warning
MANCHESTER, Ky. (AP)—Warning that any violence against the national guardsmen and state police would result in enough troops being sent in to "clean out the county from end to end," was given yesterday by Adj. Gen. Henry H. Denhardt as state forces continued to search for automobiles allegedly stolen by a gang and hidden in the foothills around here.

SEEN from OLD CAPITOL by TOM YOSELOFF
We had decided to let our quarrel with Frivol drop, fortified by the sense of having rendered the university body a duty of righteousness. But a couple of days ago John Pryor, editor of Frivol, wrote us a letter in which we were informed that the "humor" magazine will carry an article next month, entitled "Proper Clothing for Infants" and directed against this department.

This was no revelation, as far as we were concerned. Frivol is now embarked upon a campaign of purity, and the addition of an infant's clothing department should be right in line with its policy. And as regards the implications against us, we just maintained our usual dignity and aloofness, and disregarded the matter. But yesterday we received a letter which contains the perfect answer to Mr. Pryor:

The letter, from "W. C., one of the 5,823.5 students in the G.O.S.U. I.," laments the "redeemed" Frivol, and speaks its piece in poetry: "St. Peter said there was a chance that I might enter in and dwell; But I remembered Frivol's change, And said that I would go to hell."
And this, Mr. Pryor, is absolutely my last word on the underserving subject of your magazine, with its fashion articles for men and babies...

One of the better stories coming out of the session of undergraduate reckoning which ends today deals with an examination in Spanish. The instructor had suggested that students who wanted to learn their grades could call her at her home. One man called her last night. "Hello," he helloed, "did I pass?" She told him that he had passed, and he released a whoop of joy. "Listen," he asked, "what can I get you—some flowers or candy or something?"

"Well, if you want to get me something, the only thing I'd really like right now would be a big, juicy dill pickle,"—and that from a Spanish teacher.
The young man called us late last night. He was going around town, in an effort to locate a dill pickle. And he was serious about the matter.
Flowers are beyond our means And sweets we can't afford. But we can bring our teachers gifts When a pickle's their reward.

Universities, far from being hotbeds of radicalism, as Mr. Hearst so humorously has it, are hotbeds of conventionality. This is no mere paradox; it takes a student of character to be different. For example, yesterday we overheard two men on the campus.
"Say," said one, "if you want a snap, that's the course to take. You'll never have to study."
The other issued a high note of protest: "But," he said indignantly, "I want to study."

This department, always on the alert for independence in the student body, salutes this free soul...

Journalism students are astute souls. Here the best minds of the country have been bickering in Flemington, N. J., over the question of whether the ladder is really the ladder. Yesterday we wandered up on the second floor of journalism

Announce Five Play Entries

Festival Board To Use New Method Of Rating Entrants
Five entrants in the tenth annual play production festival here March 28, 29, and 30 were announced yesterday by the extension division.

Muscatine is the first to register in the junior college class, while Britt and Sigourney are the first in the high school class B division. In the high school class C group, the early entrants are Buffalo and North English.

There will be seven divisions of the contest, entries for which must be filed by March 1. This year an innovation has been made, for instead of determining a champion, plays will be ranked as superior, excellent, good, and average or below, thus allowing two plays to receive an equally high rating. This method of rating achievement was inaugurated last year in the state high school music festival and art competition.

Film Will Present "Good Badminton" At Chemistry Auditorium

"Good Badminton," a film showing one of the favorite English and Canadian games will be shown this morning in chemistry auditorium at 9:30 and again at 10 o'clock. It will first be run through at regular speed and then the technique of the strokes will be shown in slow motion. Badminton originated in England. It received its present name 50 years ago from the home of the Duke of Gloucester, one of its chief advocates. In 1848 it was taken up by the elite of New York, where it became the sport of the day. The club then formed in New York is still in existence. Tickets may be obtained at the door.

building, and there against the wall was a ladder clearly labeled "Hauptmann ladder." Which should settle the thing, once and for all...

Clubs Plan To Observe Iowa History Week

"Iowa in 1835" Is Theme of Celebration in April
"Iowa in 1835," commemorating the expedition of the dragoons through the territory 100 years ago, is the theme of the tenth annual Iowa history week April 15 to 19.

This was announced yesterday by Benjamin F. Shambaugh, superintendent of the State Historical society which is jointly in charge of the celebration with the Iowa Federation of Women's Clubs. The program is designed to stimulate greater interest in Iowa.

Schools, women's clubs, and civic organizations will participate in observance of the march of three companies of United States dragoons, led by Lieut.-Col. Stephen Kearny, through the wilderness between June 7 and Aug. 19, 1835. Their objectives on this 1,100 mile march were to examine the Racoon park of Des Moines as a suitable military post and to make a treaty with the Wabasha's band of Sioux.

Albert Miller Lea, a young lieutenant of the party, kept complete notes and in 1836 wrote a book on the itinerary, "Notes on Wisconsin Territory, Particularly with Reference to the Iowa District, or Blackhawk Purchase." This small book gave the name Iowa to the territory included in the present state.

Lieutenant Lea explained that the name Iowa was taken from the Iowa river which on account of its "extent and beauty" seemed to give "character" to most of the country through which it flowed.

BITS ABOUT SPORTS

By JOHN ROGERS

At least two men who should know something about it have picked the world's champion St. Louis Cardinals to come out on top of the 1935 fight for the pennant in the senior loop. These are eccentric "Casey" Stengel, manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, and old Charlie Dressen who performs the same hopeless duty for the usually hapless Reds of Cincinnati. The two prophets also agree in their choice of runner-up, picking Bill Terry's Giants.

THE PERSONAL element comes in when the pilots attempt to guess where their own teams will place in the coming flag battle. Optimistic Stengel sees a fourth place berth for his club, whereas, Dressen, probably with the amused tolerance with which most National leaguers regard the Brooklyn "daffiness boys," can think of them as no better than seventh. Charlie fondly says that his Reds will finish in sixth position, but Casey resigns the Cincinnati "cave dwellers" to their old accustomed spot at the bottom of the list.

EVERY WINTER golf campaign finds some unknown blazing to the front as a finished competitor. This year it's a former Kansas City caddy named Harold "Jug" McSpaden who now plays out of Pasadena, Cal. The 26 year old handsome professional trimmed Harry Cooper, one of the games most brilliant fighters, the other day in the finals of the National Match "Play open at the Presidio club near San Francisco. Right now he's the leading money winner of the current circuit of tournaments.

GOOD LUCK to "Jug" McSpaden, but if he's superstitious he will be wondering what effect this winter sport will have on his future career. It has been the peculiar fate of others who have developed during the cold months, that they have never lived up to expectations in the pursuit of the most prized title, the National open, played in the summer time. Horton Smith, Densmore Shute, and Paul Runyan are examples of this seemingly inevitable destiny.

Win Average Is 10 Points
Hawk's Average In Cage Games for 10 Years Determined

When the University of Iowa wins a home basketball game, it is by an average margin of 10 points, when it loses, eight points is the average edge of opponents.

But, strangely enough, the margins of victory and defeat are increased by one point in contests on opponents' courts. At least, those are the figures for the Hawkeyes' games of the last 10 seasons.

From 1924-25 through 1933-34 season, Iowa teams won 59 per cent of their home games—57 victories and 39 defeats. Away from familiar environs, they could win only 34 per cent—27 wins and 51 losses.

In winning 57 times, Iowa teams rolled up 1,825 points in the home games to opponents' 1,308. Total scores of the home losses are 961 to 1,268. The average score of the home triumphs was 32 to 22, and of the losses, 32 to 24.

On the road, Hawkeyes scored 873 points to rivals' 587 in the victories, for an average of 32 to 21, but the total scores of the defeats were 1,220 to 1,684—which figures are an average of 23 to 32.

Only once in the last 10 seasons has an Iowa team won all of its home games. That was in 1925-26 when all eight were taken. Ten of 11 were won in 1933-34 and nine of 11 in 1932-33.

HAWKEYE SWIMMERS SET NEW MARKS

Have Lead In A.A.U. Meet Held at Ames

Seig, Jacobsmeyer, Wehmeyer Set New Marks for Meet

Old Gold swimmers competing in the annual Midwest meet at Ames completely dominated the first evening's program of events, according to an Associated Press report last night. The Hawkeyes held a lead of 31 to 7 over Iowa State, the only other full team entered, as they took four of the five events so far staged.

Jack Seig, veteran Iowa star, turned in the best time for any event of the evening when he clipped nearly 10 seconds from his own mark in the 300 yard medley swim as he made the distance in 3:44.6 to establish a new meet record. Dick Westerfield, also of Iowa, pushed Seig all the way during the race.

Hawk swimmers enjoyed victories in the 220 yard free style when Adolph Jacobsmeyer came in with another new record of 2:18 in the 220 yard breast stroke as Wilbur Wehmeyer won with a time of 2:55.6 also a new meet record, and in the 440 yard relay when the Iowa team of McClintock, Seig, Anderson, and Ernst hung up a time of 3:47.6 for the fourth record established by the Iowans.

Summaries:
300-yard medley—Won by Seig, Iowa; second, Westerfield, Iowa, third, McIntire, unattached, Iowa City. Time—3:44.6. (New meet record—old mark 3:54.5.)
220-yard free style—Won by Jacobsmeyer Iowa; second, Anderson, Iowa; third, Grant, Iowa State. Time—2:18. (New meet record—old mark 2:42.2.)
220-yard breast stroke—Won by Wehmeyer, Iowa; second, Allan, unattached, Iowa City; third, Towne, Des Moines Y. Time—2:55.6. (New meet record—old mark 2:57.)
440-yard relay—Won by Iowa (McClintock Seig, Anderson, Ernst); second, Iowa State. Time—3:47.6. (New meet record—old mark 3:47.7.)
Junior low board diving—Won by Christen, unattached, Iowa City; second, Zimmerman, Iowa State, third, Daley, Newton Y.

Draw Pairings For Cup Tilts

U. S. To Play China In First Round Of 1935 Competition

LONDON, Feb. 1 (AP)—With diplomatic representatives from the competing nations looking on, Sir Samuel Hoare, president of the British Lawn Tennis association, today drew the pairings for the 1935 international tennis team competition which sends the United States against China in its first match.

It is the first time China has entered for the cup since it was defeated five matches to none in 1928 by the United States in a second round encounter.

St. Ambrose Defeats Iowa Wesleyan 37-23 To Retain Loop Lead

DAVENPORT, Feb. 1 (AP)—St. Ambrose continued its unbeaten march toward the Iowa conference basketball championship tonight by defeating Iowa Wesleyan, 1934 champion, 37 to 23, as the Saints held Gene Patterson, premier scorer of the circuit, without a point.

The Saints, who ran their conference victories to five, were behind 10 to 3 after the first few minutes of play, but staged a hot rally that sent them charging into the lead never to be headed.

U. High Junior Five Wins 22 to 7 Victory Over Kalona Quint

The University high Juniors won their third victory in four starts this season by romping over the Kalona Juniors 22 to 7 there last night. Leading 11 to 7 at the half, the local team held Kalona scoreless the last two quarters while adding 11 more points to its total.

CROWNED KING AND QUEEN OF AMERICA SKATERS

Marvin Swanson, above, of Minneapolis, and Kitty Klein, right, of Buffalo, were crowned king and queen of ice skaters at the national speed competition at Oconomowoc, Wis. The Buffalo girl set a new world record of 3:08.2 for the mile. Swanson finished first in the 880-yard, two and five-mile events.

St. Pat's Licks Parnell, 26-22

Win Comes In 2nd Overtime; Ward Shines

Score Tied 22-22 At End of Regular, 1st Extra Period
PARNELL—An invading St. Pat's of Iowa City basketball quintet checked the local Parnell team through two overtime periods here tonight to hang up a 26 to 22 triumph. It was the second victory for the Irish over the Parnellians this season.

Despite the efforts of Ward, crack Parnell forward who tossed in six field goals and a brace of free throws for high point honors and the greater part of his team's total, the Shamrocks took the lead at the start and never headed.

Ward led the rally that tied up the score, as the game ended, and sent the teams into the first overtime. Neither outfit could flutter the net in this period, but Leuz and Healy connected in the second overtime to put the game away.

Healy opened the game with a basket, and the Irish led at the half, 13 to 11. They were still leading, 22 to 17, when a free throw and Ward's two baskets brought the teams even at the final gun.

Coen's defensive playing featured for the Shamrocks, with Toomey ably helping in this department. Healy's four baskets gave him high honors for the Irish, but the scoring, with the exception of Toomey, was well divided; Leuz connected for a trio of fieldgoals and a free throw for seven points.

The University high Juniors won their third victory in four starts this season by romping over the Kalona Juniors 22 to 7 there last night. Leading 11 to 7 at the half, the local team held Kalona scoreless the last two quarters while adding 11 more points to its total.

Canzoneri Signed For Fight With Ross For Lightweight Crown

CHICAGO, Feb. 1 (AP)—Tony Canzoneri was signed today for another chance at the world lightweight title, and the holder of the crown, Barney Ross, is willing, however, it will take some maneuvering to get them together.

Canzoneri signed up with promoters Nate Lewis and Jim Mullen for a 15 round title bout in the Chicago stadium April 12 or 26. Lewis and Mullen, however, have possession of only half the project, in spite of Ross' willingness, for the champion is committed to fight his next defense for Promoter Joe Foley.

Cunningham to Meet Bonthron in Feature One Mile Battle

NEW YORK, Feb. 1 (AP)—A dazzling array of track and field stars, including nearly two dozen national champions, will perform in the twenty-eighth annual Millrose A. A. carnival at Madison Square Garden tomorrow night but the sell-out crowd of 15,000 fans will be on hand with one main interest in mind—the first duel of the year between America's foremost milers, Bill Bonthron and Glenn Cunningham.

These two record-smashers will meet in the classic Wanamaker mile, scheduled at 10 p.m. so it can be broadcast over a nation-wide hook-up (CBS). The entry list for the feature race also includes the persistent pursuer, Gene Venzke of Pennsylvania, as well as Erik Ny of Sweden and Bill Ray of Manhattan college, but it will be a terrific shock to the onlookers if the bell lap doesn't find the barrel-chested Kansas runner

Cornell Takes 36-30 Victory Over Coe Five

Fights Off 2nd Half Rally to Strengthen Mid-West Standing

CEDAR RAPIDS, Feb. 1 (AP)—Cornell strengthened its lead in the Mid-West conference basketball race here tonight, fighting off a second half Coe rally to down Coe 36 to 30. The Purple led 23 to 6 at the half, but were barely able to stay ahead of the Kobawks after the intermission. Coffman, giant Cornell center, scored 18 points to ruin Kohawk hopes.

The Crimson started to chop down the Cornell lead shortly after the second half opened. Led by Schneider, who hooped four baskets for the cause, the Kohawks managed to throw a scare into the lanky Cornell five. With two minutes remaining to play, the Coe outfit drew up to set the count at 33 to 30 in favor of Cornell, but weakened to allow Coffman to push in a set-up and Birkhahn a free throw to end the scoring.

The victory was Cornell's fifth successive Mid-West win.

BULLETIN

With Ralph Grange splitting the hoop for 10 points the fast traveling West Waterloo five nosed out City high's invading Little Hawks at Waterloo last night 29 to 25.

Kenny Jones, with 11 points, paced the Wellsmen, who trailed at the half 16 to 15.

In the preliminary game the Hawket sophomore quintet won their fourth victory in conference circles 24 to 18.

DES MOINES, Feb. 1 (AP)—Bill Tilden and Ellsworth Vines, master tennis performers, again demonstrated their superiority over Lester Stoeftin and George Lott, members of the 1934 American Davis cup team, by defeating them in singles and doubles matches here tonight in another of their professional net series.

Wily Bill, still a tennis marvel at 42, teamed with Vines to whip Stoeftin and Lott in the doubles, 3-6, 7-5, 14-12, in the feature performance. After losing the first set, Tilden and his partner rallied to take two fiercely fought sets, winning the last by breaking Stoeftin's service in the twenty-sixth game.

In the singles, Tilden ousted Lott to win 9-7, 6-1 while Stoeftin fell an easy victim to Vines' power, 6-3, 6-3.

Tigers, Cards

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 1 (AP)—Tom Kearney, St. Louis betting commissioner, picks the St. Louis Cardinals and the Detroit Tigers to repeat their league championships.

Posting his first odds of the year today, Kearney made the Cards even money choices to win in the National league with New York and Chicago. Each rated at 3 to 1. Other quotations were Pittsburgh, 4 to 1, Brooklyn and Boston 15 to 1, Philadelphia 20 to 1 and Cincinnati 100 to 1.

The Tigers were made the American league favorites at 3 to 2, with New York at 2 1/2 to 1 and Cleveland at 3 to 1. Other odds were Boston 4 to 1, Washington 8 to 1, Philadelphia 20 to 1 and St. Louis and Chicago 40 to 1.

Grapplers Lose

AMES, Feb. 1 (AP)—Oklahoma university, 1934 Big Six wrestling champion, tonight invaded Iowa State college, traditional center of winning grappling teams, and whipped the Cyclones severely, 28 1/2 to 1 1/2.

The Sooners came through with three falls, four decisions and a draw against Iowa State.

Victors Stage Great Defense In Second Half

Wyjack Puts Game On Ice With Eight Points in Last Frame

MECHANICSVILLE, Feb. 1 (Special)—University high's determination to start the second semester off with a victory met with success here tonight as the Kistlermen staged a second half uprising to come from behind and win, 35 to 28, in a Little Eight league tilt.

It was the diminutive Wyjack, substitute Blue and White forward, who pulled the game from the fire injected early in the final quarter with the score 26 to 25 against his team, he dumped four rapid field goals to assure victory. His marksmanship accounted for all but two of the winner's points in the final period.

Playing its first game under a new zone defense, the Kistlermen started slowly and played raggedly the first half. They led 9 to 7 for the first quarter but faded as Mechanicsville put on a second quarter drive, and were behind 23 to 11 at halftime.

However, the final half found the defense airtight, and with Egger, star Mechanicsville center who scored 12 points, most of them in the first half, well bottled up, University high held its lone opponents to 5 points during the entire second half, while piling up 18 itself.

In addition to Wyjack, Thomas and Horn looked especially good for the victors. Thomas led his team's scoring with 10 points, while Horn, acting as the spearhead for the rivermen's floor game at guard, accounted for five points. Gohmeyer with eight points and Jackson with four, were other offensive threats for Mechanicsville.

Central Victorious Over Dubawks 39-35 With Late Rally

PELLA, Feb. 1 (AP)—Showing the necessary scoring punch late in the game, Central pulled away to a 39 to 35 victory over Dubaque U. tonight in an Iowa conference basketball game.

With the score tied 33-all late in the game, the Dutch marksmen found the range for sufficient points to give the Spartans their sixth straight conference defeat.

2nd Annual Golden Gloves Entry List Passes 60 Mark

By PERCY CROSBY

All Entrants Report For Examination

Held Monday Night, 7:30, Daily Iowan Building

With only four days remaining before the opening flurry of blows in the second annual Golden Gloves boxing tournament sponsored by The Daily Iowan, the entry list last evening passed the 60 mark. This means that fans are assured of at least 15 bouts on each of the two evenings set aside for preliminaries.

Next Tuesday and Wednesday nights in the American Legion building the parade of fights begins that will narrow the field to the 13 finalists who will battle a week later on Feb. 14 for the championships in the eight divisions and the right to represent The Daily Iowan in the tournament of champions held in Chicago later in the month.

Report Monday

All men entered in the tournament are requested to report to The Daily Iowan building at 7:30 Monday night for a physical examination. It is important that all entrants comply with this rule.

Local fans who remember the colorful battles of last year when the tournament was held for the first time, are looking forward to an even more rousing series of fights this year. Defending titlists are entered in every class excepting the heavyweight division. Corney Walker, Hawkeye football player who flattened Dwight Hoover in the finals of that section a year ago, will not be able to enter the tournament because of risk of injury to a football ailment. With the heavyweight field thus wide open, the big boys are expected to put on one of the best shows of the affair in the battle for Walker's crown.

Titles Threatened

The 135 pound class with 10 entries, and the 147 pound class with 14, are heading the list of weight classifications in number of contestants. Carl Brady of Muscatine will have his hands full in keeping his lightweight title, while Don Throckmold's right to the name of king of the welterweights will be threatened by a formidable group of challengers headed by Joe Magrini, New York, who holds the all-university title in that division.

It is the same story in the other classes, the champion standing against a lively pack of glove throwers eager to stretch him out and relieve him of the crown.

Extra Seats

In order to accommodate the expected overflow crowd that last year caused late arriving fans to stand in the rear of the seats, extra bleachers have been arranged for and will be in readiness when the big show starts next Tuesday. Because of the two nights devoted to running off the preliminaries, the evening's program of bouts will be concluded in a reasonable time, and too, an extra night of fighting is able to be presented.

Little Hawk Juniors Trim Wellman Five

Iowa City junior high won its fifth game of the season at the expense of the Wellman Juniors last night at the city high court before an estimated crowd of about 125 persons. The final score was Iowa City 24; Wellman 13.

Bad Breaks Dog Garden's Boxing Plans

NEW YORK, Feb. 1 (AP)—Art Lasky, Minneapolis heavyweight contender, and Jimmy Braddock of Jersey City aren't fighting tonight in Madison Square Garden after all, and if you know an A-1 guaranteed head hunter with a record please communicate with James Johnson. Johnson is the matchmaker at the Garden, and while he isn't a man to be first off a sinking ship, it wouldn't be wise to bet that he wouldn't place or at least show.

Spooks!

"The place is haunted," he muttered. "Pay me up to May 31 and I'll march out of here right now."

Lasky, one of the four ranking contenders for Max Baer's heavyweight title, came down with influenza and a fever of 102 degrees just as the Garden, harassed by battles with the New York State Athletic commission, a previous cancellation of the same kind within three weeks, bad decisions and steadily diminishing boxing gates for the last two years, looked happily toward a temporary revival.

Local Promising

Tonight's advance sale indicated a $30,000 gate, the fight promised to be a pleasing punching duel, and the combination might easily have swayed the Garden board of directors, headed by Col. John S. Hammond, who meet Tuesday to decide whether the Garden shall continue promoting boxing or lease the privilege to outsiders, even the thought of which must be disturbing the deep sleep of the late Tex Rickard, who built the $5,000,000 corporation on boxing.

Unfit

Lasky, examined by William Walker, commission physician, is not in serious condition, but there was no way of telling when he would be able to go through with the match.

Braddock, who recently whipped John Henry Lewis to splice a sturdy comeback campaign, visited Lasky in his hotel suite and it was difficult to tell which was the sicker. Braddock, though a 13 to 5 underdog, was certain he could knock Lasky out.

At least four syndicates are ready to bid for the Garden boxing privilege. One offer is said to be a guarantee, in addition to a rental of $3,500 a night for 20 indoor shows.

Smith Paces Oakmont Field

Veteran Scores 67 For Total of 135 At Halfway Post

OAKMONT CLUB, Glendale, Calif., Feb. 1. (AP)—The country's leading golfer, paced by that old carnivorous veteran, McDonald Smith, took this golf course apart today as they paraded through the second round at the Oakmont $6500 tournament.

Smith matched a 67 with his 68 of yesterday for 135 strokes, five under par. This gave the 45-year-old master shotmaker a five stroke lead on the field at the half way mark.

66 for Revolta

Even at that, Smith's was not the best card of the day. John Revolta, of Milwaukee, breezed in with a 66, four under perfect figures.

Thirteen players took advantage of the warm day and perfect playing conditions to earn a decision over par, but even at this, there were some including Olin Dutra, national open champion, who had their troubles.

Second Place

Trailing Smith in second place were four players: Ray Mansrum, Los Angeles; Lex Rosson, Toronto; Jimmy Hines, Long Island, and Harry Cooper, Chicago, with totals of 140.

In a six way tie for sixth place were Revolta, Les Madison of Hollywood, Al Immerman, Portland, Ore., Horton Smith, Oak Park, Ill.; KY Laffoon, Chicago, and Jack Gaines, Glendale amateur.

You will receive instructions by mail immediately concerning your division of the Golden Gloves tournament and the TIME and PLACE to report for your physical examination.

DO NOT DELAY!
Mail entry to the Golden Gloves Division, Sports Department, The Daily Iowan, Iowa City.

SKIPPY—

Hawks Risk League Lead With Gophers

of the old days—woe unto those who think such thoughts—when the Hawks piled up a large lead to falter in the closing minutes.

JOHN BARKO
—High Scoring Forward

Gophers have been climbing, and now rest with two wins and two losses. If Dave MacMillan's men win tonight they rest in the upper division, and that is something for which to fight. Gordie Norman, George Roscoe of the funny one hand sided shot, and the speedy sophomore Kupperburg should be in belligerent mood.

Our Hawkeyes

As for the Hawkeyes, you all know them. Barko recently lost the Big Ten scoring lead to Harlow of Chicago. The lanky forward was the main cog in the win at Minneapolis with 16 points on seven baskets and a brace of free throws. If in form displayed in the Northwestern, Minnesota and Indiana games, Barko should garner quite a few points.

To Run Bonthron Tonight

(Story in Column 6)

CUNNINGHAM

and the black-haired former Princeton captain fighting it out in another of their breath-taking speed duels.

Owens to Run

Jesse Owens, Ohio State's sensational Negro sophomore, tops the entry list for the 60-yard dash and Cornelius Johnson, of Los Angeles, co-holder of the National A. A. U. high jump title, heads that event.

Buss and Freddie Schwartz are capable reserves, as is Fred Kunkel at guard. Kunkel worked the better part of the Northwestern contest in fine style.

What will probably hurt the Hawkeyes

is lack of drill due to examinations the last week. Minnesota has had the usual workouts, and has been pointing towards victory. A loss would be a severe blow to Gopher hopes of rising in loop standings. At the same time, a Minnesota victory would place the Hawkeye in a precarious position in the title race. It will be one of those battles where both teams are out fighting for blood, and fans can expect a bitter fight all the way. But don't be despondent, Iowa isn't lost yet.

Tilden Troupe Draws Interest

Travis, Swenson, Fink to Officiate At Cedar Rapids

CEDAR RAPIDS—With ticket reservations already received from 23 eastern Iowa cities and towns, Hanford post of the American Legion expects the appearance in the Memorial coliseum here Sunday night of the professional tennis troupe of Tilden, Lott, Vines and Stoecken to be one of the outstanding sports events of the season in this section of the state.

Public response indicated that more than just tennis players and fans are interested in the matches between the four world champions—Tilden and Vines in the singles and the peerless amateur doubles combination of 1934, Lott and Stoecken.

Tilden vs. Lott

Coupled with that are the singles matches, in the first of which Tilden and Lott are slated to play. Expert observers have credited Tilden with playing the finest tennis of his career and his record against Lott substantiates it. Yet Lott is generally regarded as the player capable of bringing Tilden's illustrious career to a close.

Play in the doubles on the tour to date has shown that the two combinations are evenly matched. It is a case of the best doubles team in professional tennis playing the best amateur tennis offered in 1934 and the standing is so close that each night's match changes the lead.

Vines Effective

Vines, called the best tennis player in the world today by Tilden, consistently has been too effective for Stoecken in the other singles match in the schedule but Vines has been forced to use everything in his bag of tricks to win so consistently.

Strange as it seems, authorities of early day Missouri wanted Out-law Jesse James, dead or alive—but they did not approve much of the treachery of two of his gang in delivering him. Thus when the Ford brothers shot their leader in the back for the $10,000 reward that was posted by the governor of Missouri, authorities decided that it was plain murder.

Automobile Show Will Take Place Here Feb. 18, 19, and 20

Pusateri Announces Days for Event At Merchants' Meeting

Feb. 18, 19 and 20 were announced by Chairman Gus Pusateri as the dates for Iowa City's automobile and home appliance show, under the auspices of the Lions club, at a meeting of the retail merchants bureau last night in the American Legion building.

The show will consist of afternoon and evening performances at the Legion building with special entertainment features. The Lions are planning it as part of their benefit program for child health.

Automobile dealers have already unanimously agreed to enter the show, and much enthusiasm was in evidence from the local appliance dealers, Mr. Pusateri reported.

Committees appointed Thursday were: Entertainment: Earl Kurtz, chairman; Prof. Frank Peterson, H. J. McGovern, Dr. Irving Borts, Paul Olson, Graham Bradley and Harlan Amen.

House and decorations: George Ball, chairman; F. B. Olsen and District Judges Harold D. Evans and James P. Gaffney.

Tickets and finance: M. B. Guthrie, chairman; Robert Lorenz, Delmar M. Sample, Ean C. A. Phillips, L. C. W. Clearman, George H. Frohwein and Dr. George Marech.

Publicity: Irving E. Weber, chairman; Perry Rawland, Edward F. Rate, Willis W. Mercer, Herbert J. Ries and James E. Stronks.

Booths: Dr. W. B. Keil, chairman; W. H. Wagner, C. E. Beck, Carl Strub, Robert Leinbaugh, F. C. Wilson, A. A. Welt, Ray Baschnagel and J. K. Duncan.

Committee to contract automobile dealers: C. E. Beck and J. G. Gartner.

AROUND THE TOWN with Bill Merritt

Stranded Cat

"Tom," pet cat of Frank A. Mezlik, 1120 N. Dodge street, was rescued yesterday from his "flagpole perch" on telephone pole. Wire Chief Sam Harris and Lineman Otto Strasser of the Northwestern Bell Telephone company were the Samaritans who brought him down. He seemed none the worse for his two day fast.

No Communism

The local Carpenters and Joiners union, 1260, endorsed completely the stand of the American Federation of Labor against communism. John Jenks, secretary, announced yesterday. Pres. William Green of the A. F. of L. sent out the message urging all member organizations to weed communists from the ranks.

Building Permit

Only one building permit was issued here during January, City Inspector C. A. Kutcher said last night. The permit was issued to the Iowa City Poultry and Egg company for a $1,500 building extension. Two permits were issued in January 1934, Inspector Kutcher said.

Royal Neighbors

Officers of the Royal Neighbors will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 in the K. P. hall for drill team practice, it was announced last night.

TEACHERS

Of History Hear Talks At Meeting Here

school of education, Harvard university, sought to offer a practical solution to the problem of how much real truth any social studies teacher should teach his students.

"Teachers should not be cowards, but should use tact," he said. It is of primary importance that each teacher understand the community in which he is teaching and know how that community feels about current political and social problems. From that he will know whether he should attack certain obvious evils or let them alone. It would not be wise to arouse the distrust of the community in which he teaches by openly combatting its firmly implanted beliefs.

Should Decide

From the very beginning each teacher should have decided what his ideas are in regard to current controversial problems. Then he should continue his teaching with regard to 'loyalty to his ideal of scholarship and loyalty to his educational philosophy.'" Mr. Wilson pointed out.

Teachers can neither be the prophets of a coming millennium nor can they seek to bridge a gap between society and the school. The middle course of combining living with studying and society with the school is the solution, he believes.

A description of a new social studies curriculum in Des Moines was presented by J. E. Stonecipher, principal of Roosevelt high school, Des Moines, in the morning session.

New Curriculum

The new curriculum is designed to "serve not only as a guide in helping children to study about social living of others, emphasizing the geographic, historical, economic, and political aspects of living, but also as a guide in helping them to form desirable habits and attitudes through the way in which they live their own lives," he said.

In describing "What the Post War Years Have Brought" to the world, Prof. Lester B. Shippee of the University of Minnesota, emphasized the fact that the study of history brings a nearer solution to the problems which face the chaotic world than almost any other cure that has been devised; not that history definitely solves any troubles, but it brings a clearer and more optimistic outlook on world problems.

Affords Clues

"The present is just an ungraspable link between the past and the future. If history teaches no specific lessons, for history never repeats itself exactly, at least history affords some clue as to the 'why' of any particular event or moment, and can perhaps point out wherein one situation differs from another. History may be a fair diagnostician even if she is a broken reed in prog-

Set Date for Funeral Of Mrs. Ida Gosnell, Native of Frytown

Funeral services for Mrs. Ida Gosnell, 71, who died at her home in Frytown Thursday night will be at 2 o'clock tomorrow at the Christian church in Frytown, with burial in the cemetery there. The Osborn funeral home will be in charge.

Mrs. Gosnell was born March 9, 1863, on a farm near Frytown. She was married to Ransom C. Gosnell of Frytown and they farmed near there until three years ago, when they moved to Frytown. She was a member of the Christian church and the Ladies' Aid society.

She is survived by her husband; two sisters, Mrs. LeRoy Mooney of Iowa City and Mrs. J. J. Strickler of Centerville; a half-sister; and seven half-brothers. Two children died in infancy.

Auto License Issue 200 Over Last Year

Licenses for 7,701 motor vehicles had been issued in Johnson county for 1935 by Jan. 31, the last day new licenses could be purchased without penalty.

Of the total number of licenses issued, 6,356 were for automobiles and 715 for trucks.

The increase in the number of automobiles registered this year as compared to last is more than 200. There was little variance in the truck license total.

GILMORE Predicts Changes In Education Methods

President Gilmore said. He cited such combinations as bio-chemistry, geo-physics, and bio-physics to indicate the "boundary crossing."

The teacher of the future may teach in several departments, the speaker predicted, thus reverting back to a pre-specialization era.

"I should like to see the establishment of professorships with a roving commission," he declared. "It is rank heresy to suggest that a lawyer go out of his field to teach economics, or that a sociologist wander into the field of history. A 'professor of belles-lettres' is unheard of."

Teachers who have specialized in ever narrowing fields say that a man can not teach several subjects well. Maybe the professor of belles-lettres will be all wrong; maybe what he tells the students will be wrong; but he will inspire them, he will give them cultural thrills.

"We are already experimenting with something of this sort here on the campus," President Gilmore pointed out.

Destruction of departmental lines will not be detrimental to research efforts, the president believes.

"I realize that research is necessary, that we must add to the store of human knowledge. But it won't hurt a research worker to know things outside his own field. In fact, it will enrich research by making clear the relationships of the various fields."

Welcoming the history teachers to the conference, President Gilmore declared that the meeting is symptomatic of a growing tendency to look at knowledge as integrated.

"This is the 'Garden day' for social scientists and historians, when you can cross your boundary trails into the other man's territory," he told them.

Prof. Winfred T. Root, head of the history department, presided. About 100 persons attended.

Britain, France In Agree to Work Jointly for Peace

LONDON, Feb. 1 (AP)—Britain and France today agreed to work jointly in an effort to settle simultaneously all outstanding issues causing tension in Europe, official circles said tonight.

The agreement, it was stated, was reached in today's seven hour conference of the leading statesmen of the two countries—Prime Minister Pierre-Etienne Flandin and Foreign Minister Pierre Laval of France, and Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald and Foreign Secretary Sir John Simon of Great Britain.

Gummen Get $2,000 SMITH CENTER, Kan. (AP)—Three gunmen armed with a sub-machine gun and pistols robbed the First National bank of approximately $2,000 late yesterday and abducted six officials and employees to shield their motor car in flight toward Nebraska.

Brands Ban as "Silly" BERLIN (AP)—Pola Negri, freed from an international tangle that took Adolf Hitler and the Polish ambassador to unravel, last night branded the Nazi ban against her acting as "silly."

Local Elks Get Petitions For Signing

Petitions for local signing of the Elks Club National Memorial to congress for the eradication of communism and subversive influences in the United States were received here yesterday, according to Delmer Sample, head of the local Elks club.

The memorial will ask congress for legislation on this, Mr. Sample announced. The petition will be at his office for signatures of any citizens who care to sign, he said.

The petitions from all communities will be assembled at the Elks National Memorial building in Chicago Feb. 22, and after grouping according to congressional districts, will be taken to Washington for formal presentation to the senate and house of representatives.

The petitions distributed to the 1,400 Elk lodges in the United States cover several points of legislation including:

Investigation of all subversive activities by the department of justice with ample funds provided to furnish personnel and cover expenses, with discretionary authority to publish facts concerning individuals or organizations seeking to overthrow the government by force or violence.

Outlawing organizations who propose the overthrow by force of the American constitutional government. Making it a felony to advocate, promote or encourage such overthrow. Denying use of the mails to publications advocating such overthrow or affiliated with outlaw organizations.

Making certain deportation of aliens seeking the overthrow of the United States government. Denying entry into the United States of aliens known to be out of harmony with American form of government.

Providing for revocation of naturalization of naturalized citizens advocating overthrow or change of government through force or violence.

HAUPTMANN Defense Witness Tells Of Couple, Baby

ted his study of the kidnap case writings was short and "highly cursory."

Reilly said during a recess earlier in the day that the defense would not attempt to prove the handwriting in the ransom notes was that of Fisch, from whom Hauptmann said he received the ransom money and who died in Germany.

"We are not here to say who wrote the ransom notes but we are here to say Hauptmann did not," Reilly said.

Court was recessed tonight until Monday morning on Reilly's plea he must bring witnesses to Flemington, despite Wilentz's objections.

Reilly said he would have some 35 more witnesses and counsel on both sides agreed that the latter part of next week should see the end of the trial.

Sommer said he was employed in the public welfare department of the city of New York and had been in Fairview, N. J., giving fingerprint instruction the night of the kidnaping. He was still on the stand when court adjourned.

Reilly questioned him. Q. Did you notice any people on the ferry boat? A. Yes.

Q. Describe them? A. There were two men, one five foot nine and the other five foot four. They were smoking cigarettes. Q. Did you get a good look at them?

A. Fairly good look at them. Q. Do you think you would be able to identify a photograph of one of them. Is that the man? A. No, but I saw this man on the ferryboat.

Sommers said he sat opposite the man for eight or 10 minutes during the river crossing.

The witness said the ferryboat reached the New York side about 12:40 a.m. and he went to the cross-town 42nd street trolley car. The man he noticed also left the ferry.

Q. What did you see this man do? A. Him and the other man assisted a woman holding a baby on to the trolley car.

He described the woman as very nervous, as though "ready to jump out." She was dressed in a brown coat with brown fur cuffs and wore a pearl necklace.

"The baby was blond about 2 years old," he added.

Q. When you went home that
