Threats Forced Duckworth To Testify, Says George Gorder

Trial Recessed While Hayner Travels To Capital of Iowa To Fight Court Review

DES MOINES, Nov. 20 (AP) — George Gorder, attorney for Max Duckworth, told the Iowa supreme court today that Duckworth testified before the Sioux City "graft" grand jury because of prosecution threats.

H. M. Havner, special prosecutor who rushed to Des Moines to appear before the court, denied Duckworth was threatened, "as though a gun were held at his back," as Gorder claimed.

Under advisement The court took under advisement Gorder's request for a supreme court review of Judge Earl Peters' order citing Duckworth for contempt because he refused to testify in the gambling conspiracy trial of Attorney General Edward L. O'Connor.

He refused to testify on the ground that it would incriminate him. Havner claimed Duckworth waived immunity from prosecution on his own testimony when he "told his story" before the grand jury which indicted O'Connor.

Gorder told the justices today that the lower court record shows Havner told Duckworth "unless you come before the grand jury and tell all you know about this case I believe they might indict you."

Havner contended that such a statement was not a threat of violence. He declared Duckworth's testimony before the grand jury, which charged a slot machine protection ring was operating in the state with O'Connor's knowledge, was given voluntarily.

Same as "Life Sentence" "For this court to say the witness has not waived his immunity by voluntarily testifying before the grand jury would be prostituting law and assisting the guilty to escape the effect of their own acts," Havner declared.

Gorder previously had said the form of Judge Peters' order, which committed Duckworth to jail until he testifies, "is the same as a life sentence."

Havner indicated he believed Duckworth could be forced to testify and added: "If this court upholds the contempt ruling and judgment I don't think Max Duckworth will stay in jail more than five hours."

Craft Trial Continues SIOUX CITY, Ia., Nov. 20 (AP)—Testimony and exhibits regarding alleged payments to a state bureau of investigation agent for protection of slot machines went today into the records of the gambling conspiracy trial of Attorney General Edward L. O'Connor.

Clyde E. Mayer, third witness for the state in the O'Connor trial, testified he had made several payments to state Agent C. W. McNaughton. The agent told him, Mayer testified, that he was "handling things" in Plymouth county, where Mayer had machines.

Unseats MacDonald

E. Shinwell

Following his victory over Ramsay MacDonald, former minister in the Seaham district election in London, E. Shinwell, above, labor candidate, declared that the election meant that the miners would have no further use for "men betraying the principles of the labor party."

Pohlman To Head Hospital

Resigns as Assistant Head of University Hospital Staff Here

Erwin C. Pohlman, assistant administrator of University hospital, has resigned his position to accept the administration of Macon County hospital, Decatur, Ill. He will assume his new duties Monday.

Mr. Pohlman's duties here will be handled by a series of promotions in the present administrative staff, Robert E. Neff, administrator of University hospitals, said last night. The present assistant administrator came here in 1930 from the Kohler hospital of the Mayo clinic, Rochester, Minn.

Active in Iowa hospital affairs, Mr. Pohlman is treasurer of the Iowa Hospital association, and a former secretary of the organization.

Prosperity Note

SANTA MARIA, Cal. (AP)—Prosperity note: Work on four federal relief projects had to be held up yesterday. Manager I. M. Burloa said, because there weren't enough unemployed men available to fill the jobs.

Corn-Hog Officials Complete Proposed '36-'37 Contract Plan

Will Submit Draft To Farm Sections For Approval

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20 (AP)—Corn-hog officials completed today their draft of the proposed 1936-'37 corn-hog contract including recommendations of a farmers' committee. Claude Wickard, corn-hog chief, said the tentative draft would be submitted tomorrow to finance, legal, and audit sections of the farm administration.

Mayors Group In New Relief Cash Demands

Ask Congress to Meet Relief Program, Aid Unemployment Fight

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20 (AP)—New federal relief appropriations and "adequate" state contributions were demanded today by the nation's organized mayors.

Capping President Roosevelt's enunciation of a "no starvation" relief policy, the United States conference of mayors voted to ask congress for enough cash "to meet a planned and comprehensive program for relief work and direct aid to meet the unemployment situation" through the fiscal year 1936-'37.

Extend Relief Activities Such a program would extend federal relief activities, including the hole, at least to June 30, 1937. The present relief program, as projected by latest White House statements, embraces a virtual end to direct relief by Dec. 1, and expenditure of all but $900,000,000 of the $4,000,000,000 works appropriation by next June 30.

Mayor Fiorello M. LaGuardia of New York, newly elected president of the conference and member of the resolutions committee, declined to elaborate on the meaning of the resolution other than to say: "The resolution says direct aid as well as relief work. That means we still want direct relief."

The group emphasized the necessity of appropriating funds for the 1936-'37 fiscal year, as soon as possible, stating "we have learned from experience that greater efficiency can be obtained and economy effected by a longer range program for relief work instead of month to month allocations."

Now, a spokesman for the association said, it has accumulated sufficient funds to ship a cargo of the bodies. Some of the corpses have been buried as long as 17 years.

Each casket, as it is exhumed, is opened and the remains transferred to a metal receptacle. With it is included the funeral scroll containing the name and life history of the deceased.

When the last of the 400 bodies have been transferred, they will be sent to a Pacific coast port for the trip across the Pacific. At Honk Kong the bodies will be received by representatives of the benevolent association.

They will reshuffle them to villages all over the Chinese republic for final ceremonial burial. The funeral train will leave here in about two weeks, the association's office said.

Wells Outlines 10 Year AAA Plan For Wheat, Corn, Cotton

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20 (AP)—Tentative recommendations for a 10 year agricultural program calling for substantial reductions in cotton, corn and wheat acreages from the 1929 levels were disclosed today by Orvis Wells, acting chief of the AAA production planning section.

The recommendations were a result of six months' research by the AAA and 48 state experimental stations. Continued research was indicated for the coming winter.

Hawk Fans to Stage Rally At Shoe Burning Ceremony

A spirited pep meeting, starting at the fieldhouse and ending at the varsity football practice field, will be staged this afternoon, Vernon Carstenson, head cheerleader, announced yesterday.

Iowa fans will assemble at the fieldhouse at 5 p.m. where yell leaders will conduct a rousing pep session. The Iowa band will then lead the enthusiasts to the practice field to cheer the Iowa football squad in its final workout of the year.

Both the teams and the crowd in participate in the annual "burning of the shoe" ceremony. This rite, instituted by Coach Ossie Sotem when he came here from Drake, calls for Capt. Dick Crayne tossing a burning football shoe over his left shoulder toward a pile of straw. If the shoe lands in the straw and ignites it, tradition says, the Hawkeyes will defeat Northwestern.

The players then dance about the blaze, indulging in antics unbecoming to a griddler. The team will leave tomorrow morning at 9:30, with more than 2,000 Iowa fans and the Iowa band following during the day and Saturday morning.

A parade from the LaSalle street station in Chicago through the loop will begin at 10 p.m. tomorrow, immediately after arrival of the special train.

Contract With Dead Fulfilled, Bodies to China CHICAGO, Nov. 20 (AP)—A contract with the dead—assuring their peaceful rest by the side of their honorable ancestors in far away China—was on its way to fulfillment today.

In Mt. Auburn cemetery of suburban Stickney diggers were exhuming the bodies of 400 Orientals under direction of the Chinese Consolidated Benevolent association.

During their lifetime it had pledged on condition of payment of a stipulated fee it would insure their final interment in the land of their fathers and in the sepulchres of their families.

Now, a spokesman for the association said, it has accumulated sufficient funds to ship a cargo of the bodies. Some of the corpses have been buried as long as 17 years.

Each casket, as it is exhumed, is opened and the remains transferred to a metal receptacle. With it is included the funeral scroll containing the name and life history of the deceased.

When the last of the 400 bodies have been transferred, they will be sent to a Pacific coast port for the trip across the Pacific. At Honk Kong the bodies will be received by representatives of the benevolent association.

They will reshuffle them to villages all over the Chinese republic for final ceremonial burial. The funeral train will leave here in about two weeks, the association's office said.

Norris Hailed By Nebraska Democrats

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 20 (AP)—Republican and democratic leaders of Nebraska hailed with smiles today the assurance of national democratic organization support for Senator George W. Norris, veteran republican independent, if he decides "Norris is a democrat, should be supported by the democrats and should not be called a republican."

S. R. McKelvie, a republican leader and former member of the Hoover farm board, asserted, as he made plans for a campaign to defeat Norris.

Should Insist Nebraska's democratic governor, R. L. Cochran, greeted the announcement jubilantly and said he would "be glad to join in any movement to keep Norris in the senate as long as he lives."

Only last week, President Roosevelt said Nebraskaans should insist that Norris remain in the senate.

Democrats are ready to welcome Norris to their party. J. J. Quigley of Valentine, chairman of the state democratic committee, said he would welcome Norris as "a powerful addition," but asserted he was "only a hired hand of the state committee" when asked if he would lend his support to the Nebraska senator next year should he file as a republican.

On G.O.P. Ticket However, C. A. Sorensen, Lincoln attorney general who directed Norris' campaign in 1930, said he thought the senator should seek office as an independent next year without alliances with either the democratic or republican party.

Sorensen termed Guffey's announcement a tribute to the 74-year old lawmaker.

Hospital Beds WASHINGTON (AP)—Frank T. Hines, veterans administrator, announced yesterday President Roosevelt had approved an appropriation of $750,000 for the construction of facilities for 300 new beds at the Veterans' hospital in Knoxville, Ia.

Autonomy Plan Of Government Meets Setback

Japan Military Heads 'Highly Displeased' At Political Turn

SHANGHAI, Nov. 21 (Thursday) (AP)—Major Rensuke Isogai, Japanese military attache in Shanghai, said today there was a "strong possibility" that autonomy agitation would subside in north China, with the Nanking government taking independent action to "improve conditions."

TOKYO, Nov. 21 (Thursday) (AP)—Japanese military authorities are "highly displeased" at the definite setback to the north China autonomy movement, the Rengo (Japanese) news agency reported today from China.

The setback was attributed to the unwillingness of important Chinese military leaders to join in the scheme. Japanese sources said the "machinations" of the Nanking government were responsible for the attitude of the Chinese generals.

Unable to Attend Gov. Han Fu-Chu of Shantung, whose adherence to the plan of autonomy is necessary if Shantung is to be included in the "independent area," was reported to have informed General Sung Cheh-Yuan, one of the leading autonomists, that he would be unable to go to Peiping for a conference "because of the pressure of official business."

General Shang Chen, governor of Hopei province, was said to be still aloof, and was reported ready to accept the purported offer by the Chinese government of the governorship of Anhwei province.

"Anxious" Japanese military officials in Tientsin, Rengo dispatches said, are "anxious lest the autonomy movement degenerate into personal bickering between the Chinese leaders."

"Should such intrigues disturb the peace of north China," the Rengo agency continued, "the Japanese army may be compelled to take definite action."

A like sentiment was expressed yesterday by Japan's minister of war that if the Nanking government sends troops to north China to attempt to suppress the autonomy movement there, this country "must take action."

Such a move by Nanking, the minister, General Yoshiyuki Kawashima, explained, "would inevitably produce a serious situation."

Rosenthal Stakes Life on Soda - Took Pill to Get Well SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20 (AP)—Joseph Rosenthal staked his life on the purity of the baking soda his store was selling, and won—probably through luck.

He told today how he swallowed some of the soda to assure customers who had complained after the death of one person had been charged to poison in the product.

"I mixed some soda in a glass of water and drank it," said Rosenthal. "After lunch I happened to take a magnesium tablet. When I got home I became ill and called a doctor. He told me the tablet probably had saved my life."

The young woman confessed to breaking into the home of her former suitor, Joseph Jenney, 45-year-old contractor.

Mussolini Will Get No Peace

Ethiopian Note Says She Will Fight To Death

GENEVA, Nov. 20 (AP)—Ethiopia served notice on the League of Nations today she will make no peace that would permit Italy "to reap the reward of its crime."

Answering Italy's Nov. 11 note to the powers, an Ethiopian note refused to entertain any proposal for settlement of the war that might be based on territorial gains by the fascist armies, and added:

With the help of Almighty God, the Ethiopian government and people will fight to the death, no matter what may be the cost and however long the war may last, to escape this savage domination.

The protest accused Italy of "unjustified aggression perpetrated under the most unfair conditions"; military barbarity and oppression and attempts to buy traitors for cash, and charged the invading armies have bombarded defenseless towns, killing women and children.

Other Methods It further contended the Italians were attempting to prevent loss of Italian lives and establish Italian domination in Ethiopia "by launching against the Ethiopian people those who are its brothers by race and color."

At least one man was slain and 46 persons were wounded seriously in a pitched fight between fascist "gold shirts" and leftists before the national palace today during Mexico's celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the revolution.

Communist leaders claimed tonight that two others had been killed, one of them Carlos Santos Cardenas, prominent radical orator. Police and hospitals, however, reported only the one death.

WITH THE ITALIAN ARMY ON THE NORTHERN ETHIOPIAN FRONT, Nov. 20 (Exchange Telegraph agency) The Italian headquarters staff admitted today an Ethiopian force made a successful night attack on a column of Italian troops encamped near Fuzien, inflicting heavy Italian losses.

Among the casualties, it was stated, was Captain G. Rinaldi, commanding a cavalry detachment.

ADDIS ABABA, Nov. 20 (AP)—Slashing Ethiopian victories at the cost of hundreds of casualties were reported tonight from the southern battle front while Emperor Haile Selassie personally urged on the defenders of his ancient empire.

The successful ambuscade of a train of 72 Italian trucks, carrying Somali warriors and munitions, was described in unofficial reports from Harar.

More than 150 Somalis were killed or wounded while Ethiopian casualties were estimated in excess of 300. The battle, south of Sasa Banah of the left bank of the River Bafan, was waged without quarter.

Several Italian officers were wounded, but escaped, and 53 of the trucks were believed captured, the Harar dispatches stated.

At the same time it was reliably reported 1,000 of the empire's crack marksmen, under Fitaurari (Commander) Bakala Ayela, had halted an Italian push in an important pass in the Radowa hills, inflicting heavy losses.

One Killed, 46 Injured in Riot In Mexico City

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 20 (AP)—At least one man was slain and 46 persons were wounded seriously in a pitched fight between fascist "gold shirts" and leftists before the national palace today during Mexico's celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the revolution.

Communist leaders claimed tonight that two others had been killed, one of them Carlos Santos Cardenas, prominent radical orator. Police and hospitals, however, reported only the one death.

Several others were expected to die from bullet wounds.

The fighting, which recalled scenes of the revolution a quarter of a century ago, began when 5,000 workers and peasants demonstrating in front of the palace refused to give way for a parade of 2,000 "gold shirts."

The leftists advanced on the "gold shirts" and the front rank of the fascists, consisting of 200 mounted men, charged into the communist ranks.

A general fight ensued, with both sides using pistols and clubs.

"Sure Fooled You That Time, Judge"

CHICAGO, Nov. 20 (AP)—Harry Brower, 22, chuckled. "You'll have to give up driving your car for five months," Magistrate Pavlek of suburban Berwyn told him when he was arraigned as a traffic violator.

"That," said Brower, "is easy." I figured this would happen. So I sold the car."

Occupancy Must Follow Italian Victories for Usefulness--Bailey

"The Italians will have to occupy every bit of ground they take in Ethiopia or it will do them no good to take it," declared Alfred M. Bailey, world traveler, explorer and naturalist, in an illustrated Times club lecture, "Through the Land of the Kings of Kings," last night in chemistry auditorium.

The first decisive action in the Italo-Ethiopian conflict may be expected in the region of the Arussi mountains in southeastern Ethiopia, the speaker said. He believes the climax of the war will occur in the southeastern part of the country because of large water supplies and railroad facilities.

"The Ethiopians do not need elaborate equipment. Their armies can live off the country," said Mr. Bailey. He described the precipitous and desolate regions of the Simyen

Your editor absolutely refuses to take any more dirty looks as to hits of information appearing in this space. He is only the editor. Get the reporter, and then hand him the dirty look. But, on the level, these boys, X-9 and Y-3, and Sadie have a nose for news. Haven't they?

It's a funny thing, friends. Hood Gibson didn't really create much of a rumpus in his old clothes. Of course he is so ultra-smooth that people can't even notice his attire; his personality is too dominating—Who said that?

Did Ron Fallows really remove the words "Passion Flower" from the dashboard of the "Sig's Shiniest." Come, come, Ron, replace it soon with something equally clever. (Sonny, did we say CLEVER?)

Katie Kraft, someone on this campus believes he "only has eyes for you." No foolin' about that. He will be most satisfied when you surrender that flirtatious air and come back to earth (his very words). How terribly unbecoming to be a Kappa and string all of them along in the Hawkeye drive (he asserts). We hope you sell lots of Hawkeyes, and he hopes you settle down and sell yourself to one, or, at least, no more than a few, of the eligible men on the campus. But we like the "only eyes for you" angle. Gosh, what eyes.

Explorer Wires Fuel Line Of Plane Broken

NEW YORK, Nov. 20 (AP)—Eight hours after taking off on his projected flight over the "great unknown" portion of Antarctica, Lincoln Ellsworth wirelessly the New York Times and the North American Newspaper alliance today that the fuel flow gauge on his plane had broken.

In the absence of further details it was assumed here that if the gauge could not be repaired Ellsworth and his pilot, Herbert Hollick-Kenyon, would be forced to turn back.

Planned Pictures They took off from Dundee Island at 1:50 a.m., central standard time, and headed toward Admiral Byrd's former base at "Little America." The plane carried an aerial camera, with which Ellsworth hoped to map the region he describes as "the great unknown."

Better Weather In Argentina Slows Prices

CHICAGO, Nov. 20 (AP)—Confronted by better weather both in Argentina's wheat belt and the United States corn belt, grain prices here underwent moderate setbacks today.

The wheat market declined in response to late reports that Argentine rains beneficial to crops had become general, spreading from the south to the north. Corn values reflected advent of clearing skies and falling temperatures likely to lead to enlarged receipts.

Corn reacted from the abrupt advance which yesterday lifted the market to the highest point in five weeks. Speculative demand waned in the face of more favorable weather

He will demonstrate orchestra methods with a group of high school musicians of Champaign and Urbana.

"Ecstasy" Reviewed

Appeals Court Judges Will Decide as To Immorality

NEW YORK, Nov. 20 (AP)—The screen gambols of actress Hedy Kiesler in the nude were viewed privately today by three judges of the United States circuit court of appeals, charged with deciding their alleged "obscenity and immorality" in the Czechoslovakian motion picture "Ecstasy."

Obscene

The showing was given in federal court chambers before Judges Martin T. Manton, Learned Hand and Thomas W. Swan, who tomorrow will hear the appeal of Eureka Productions, Inc., for reversal of a lower court jury verdict barring the film from the United States as "obscene, indecent, immoral and impure."

Spent Millions

"Ecstasy" stars the wife of Fritz Mandell, Austrian manufacturer, who, according to Samuel Cummins of Eureka productions, spent millions buying destroying negatives of the film so that the public could not see the lovely actress in what the government charges are nude and indecent scenes.

OTTUMWA (AP)—Sheriff C. E. Harding said last night he had obtained evidence which indicates the unidentified youth found slain here Monday may be Homer Keene, 20, of Portland, Ore.

1936 Social Register Shows Roosevelts In-tact, B. Hutton Out

NEW YORK, Nov. 20 (AP)—Gotham's 1936 social register—the goal of the upper strata—has "dropped" the former Barbara Hutton, now Countess Von Haugwitz-Rev-entlow of Denmark.

The name of the Woolworth heiress, who early this year divorced the late Prince Alexis Mdivani, appeared in the 1935 edition.

She has been abroad since shortly after her last marriage—a possible explanation for her omission.

The new register, sent to subscribers today, indicates that the Roosevelt family is once more "in-tact."

Chicago Alumni Will Entertain at Annual Supper Dance, Fri.

The annual supper dance for University of Iowa alumni in Chicago will be held in the terrace room of the Hotel Morrison tomorrow evening, according to word received by Prof. Bruce E. Mahan, secretary of the university alumni association, who plans to attend the party. Entertainment will be provided by Eric Madriguer, his NBC orchestra, and a new floor show, George L. Grimm, 24, president of the Chicago alumni, announced.

We just can't get over De-fores' philosophy. Since the last report, the wires have buzzed and a new gentleman appeared upon the scene. Tall, dark and . . . well . . . ask her. "How'dja make it do that, Charlie?"

Charlie Chase and Joyce Compton, stars of Charlie Chase Comedies, had good reason to be surprised when his faithful Model T started like a jackrabbit. It had never happened before—so it's a safe bet that they had Standard's new double-quick-starting gasoline in the tank.

Don't think for a minute that this new gasoline is so fast that your car is liable to take off before you're ready. It's not that lively. But it is remarkably fast-starting gasoline. And by that we don't mean a gasoline that simply gives a flash of action and then sputters and chokes when you try to drive away. We mean a gasoline that, even in bitter winter weather, responds to the first kick of the starter, catches hold at once, and gives you full steam ahead in regular mid-summer form.

That's promising a lot. But this gasoline has fully 85% greater warm-up speed, in zero temperatures. So get some of this new Standard Red Crown . . . and SEE WHAT HAPPENS next time you step on the starter!

Sold by Standard Oil Stations and Dealers everywhere, at the price of "regular" gasoline.

Putting Politics
 In Amateur Sports

A VIOLENT campaign is in process in the country at this time to have the United States withdraw from Olympic competition in Germany. The basis for this attack is the charge that Germany is discriminating against Jewish athletes in the Olympics. The campaign is most actively conducted by communist groups, and other groups opposed to the Nazi party.
 Many of the persons who are involved in this campaign are sincere,
 and have no motives other than a desire for fair play, but on the other hand a great many of the groups
 such as the above are using it merely as a basis for attack on nazism,
 and have no real interest in the sports end of it. Politics has invaded almost every field except that of amateur sports, and even that has had a difficult battle to keep fairly clear of politics.

As long as Germany does not bar
 Jewish athletes from other countries
 it is no concern of the other nations
 whom Germany chooses to represent them in the Olympics. We would not accept dictation from any other country as to whom we could send and whom we could not. If we chose to bar any certain race or sect
 from our Olympic team, we would greatly resent opposition from other nations, and we have no more right
 to dictate to any other nation what they should do as concerns their own team.

If Germany should bar all Jewish athletes from all nations, which there is very little likelihood will happen, then there would be due cause for objection and refusal on our part to send a team to the Olympics if held in Germany. However, as long as they make no such attempt, it is not our place to offer
 any objections what so ever. If Germany should choose to enter none
 but Aryans, or if they should choose to enter none but Prussians, or any her choice that they should make, it is entirely their loss and does not affect us in any way.

As the situation is at present it is a wonderful opportunity for radical groups and trouble makers to fit a few good blows, and unless we guard against such tactics we will find ourselves embroiled in an embarrassing, to say the least, situation.

The Columbia Spectator, which has had more difficulty through radical moves and tendencies than any other student newspaper in the country, is a staunch advocate of the anti-German Olympics move, and bids well to cause another uproar
 such as that which resulted in the ousting of the editor of their paper
 some months ago. A campaign such as this serves no purpose other than that of agitation and causes only unfriendly relations, and surely
 there are enough of those at present.

The policy for the United States
 to follow is "hands-off" until some move is made that directly concerns us. As yet that move has not been made, and in all probability
 will never be made.

A Sacrifice
 To Ignorance

TUESDAY NIGHT a jury of 12
 Cumberland mountaineers convicted Edith Maxwell of first degree murder, in the death of her father. We believe China to be a backward country
 because of the prevalence of the family rule in that country, with the oldest male member of the family
 as absolute dictator of his family,
 and worshipped by the others as almost a deity. Yet we find in our own supposedly progressive country

back to that ancient custom,
 the mountain territories of the United States an identical situation exists. The oldest male member of each family is king in his home, and may do as he pleases without restraint, and woe to any female who dares to cross his will. The facts of the Maxwell case brought out in the testimony
 beyond doubt that the girl
 acting in self defense, yet a few of these hard-bitten mountain
 men convicted the girl of first degree murder, sentenced her to 25 years in the state penitentiary in Iowa, and were out only
 the evidence we see

that testimony given by members
 of the family and others proved,
 without conflict from any other testimony, that the father, Trigg Maxwell, was drinking throughout the afternoon and evening, that he was drunk when he came home and that he threatened the mother and Miss Maxwell.

Miss Maxwell had been out with a cousin and arrived home after 9
 p.m., which aroused the wrath of her father although she was 21 years of age, and was aiding in the support of the family, if not entirely supporting it, by teaching school.
 When her father attempted to whip her she fled to a bedroom,
 where he followed her and continued to beat her. In self defense she seized a slipper which lay nearby and struck at him blindly in the dark.
 The heel of the slipper struck Maxwell in the head several times, and he received injuries from which his death is alleged to have resulted.
 Men and women throughout the country have been freed with less of a defense than was presented for this girl. Yet, because she was a woman and dared to raise her hand
 in self defense against a male member of the family she was given a sentence of 25 years in the state penitentiary by a mountain jury;
 members of which were far from well educated.

She was convicted, not because
 the law of the land demanded it,
 but because of the ignorance and tyranny of the people of a section of these United States. When a situation such as exists in the mountain country of this nation can be allowed to continue, with results
 such as this case have shown, it is high time for emphasis on effective education. If some of the "hoondogging" and other such things would be used for education
 in these backwoods territories examples such as the Maxwell case would not arise to encourage some other nations in their impression
 that we are still barbarians.
 The "forgotten man" of whom we have heard so much is to be found in the mountains of the country
 along with the even more forgotten women.

What Others Think

A brief study of the Canadian tariff agreement, which is all that is possible at this writing, encourages the impression that it embodies a fair exchange of concessions. Specific items, no doubt, will raise howls
 from the interests affected. No agreement of the kind has ever yet been free from the imposition of hardships which need correction.
 But if one approaches the document
 in full sympathy with its broad objectives—the strengthening of our traditional ties of friendship with Canada and the restoration of the very large trade which flourished
 between the two countries before
 the depression—one must concede that it puts the burden of proof on those who would quarrel with its provisions.

Very likely the main controversy
 to be expected on this side of the border will center about our reduction of the duties on cattle, calves,
 dairy cows, cream and seed potatoes in the agricultural list, and on Douglas fir and western hemlock
 among forest products. But in each case the new lower rate applies only to specified quantities, any larger imports continuing to pay the old duties. This relatively new device
 in tariff making reflects the anxiety
 of the administration, while promoting international trade, to preserve
 its politically precious agrarian price levels. It remains to be seen how well it works.

Other rate reductions on our part concern mostly articles of which we produce an insufficiency and which in any event we must import. In addition we bind ourselves to continue on the free list that very large proportion of our imports from Canada, which do not now pay a duty,
 notably newsprint, pulp and pulpwood. Whisky (aged not less than four years in the wood) is to be admitted with a duty of $2.50 instead of $5 a gallon, a concession which may cause American distillers to violent protest but not the great mass of the public.

And for these modifications Canada has agreed to reduce her rates
 on 80-odd items to a point lower than those heretofore paid by any non-British country. These items include such important American exports as fresh vegetables, oranges
 and grapefruit, a broad range of machinery, both agricultural and industrial, tractors, electrical equipment and miscellaneous manufactures. In addition, she will charge against most other items the rates
 paid by the most favored non-British country, which in most cases are materially lower than the general rates which we have been paying.
 Perhaps most important of all is her promise to simplify her tariff procedure.

Imports from Canada into the United States dropped from $508,
 000,000 in 1929, to $282,000,000 in 1934, or by 54 per cent. Exports from the United States to Canada dropped from $899,000,000 in 1929, to $302,000,000 in 1934, a decrease of 66
 per cent. Without a doubt the depression had most to do with this appalling shrinkage, but equally
 without a doubt an important factor has been the spite fence which the two countries have maintained one against the other since 1930. The removal of the latter without damage
 to either—the contrary, with great advantage to both—is a consummation worth any one's prayer.

A Washington Bystander

WASHINGTON — Over republican party preliminaries in the 1935
 campaign hung a great question
 mark. What did President Coolidge mean by that "I-do-not-choose-to-run" crossword puzzle?

Thus far in the preliminaries of the '35 campaign, two similar enigmas becloud efforts to unravel the mystery. One is a skilled and experienced user of the press conference method of publicizing his views. His return to Washington, full of comments, at a time when the "breathing spell" was in full operation at the White House news center as well
 as elsewhere, was a boon to a news hungry corps of writers. The senator made the most of it.

It would be difficult to read accounts of what he had to say and not get the impression that he had set himself down as a definite candidate for the nomination. The Idahoan seems to have no doubt himself that Mr. Hoover is a candidate. But is the potential Borah candidate merely intended to checkmate a supposed Hoover-eastern leadership combination for untried
 delegations, actually in Hoover interests; or does he entertain real hopes of the nomination himself?
 For all the Borah loquacity his interviewers did not get much light
 on that.

Holding Influence
 This column has pointed out before that if Mr. Borah was intent
 only on driving his anti-monopoly
 issue into the republican platform,
 his strategy probably would be the same. Backed by a showing of Borah-for-president delegates strong enough with the aid of various favorite son groups to block if not to make a nomination, the senator
 could expect respectful consideration
 for his plank.

The moment either he or Mr.
 Hoover eliminated himself from the nomination race, his influence upon either the platform or the naming of a standard bearer would fade utterly.

Cornelius Roosevelt
 Arrested, Charged
 With Shooting Man

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 20
 (AP) — Cornelius Roosevelt, grandson of the late President Theodore Roosevelt was arrested tonight
 with a companion, after police reported, they shot a motorist with a weapon described as "an imported air rifle."

Roosevelt and the companion,
 Peter DeForey, were booked on charges of assault with a dangerous weapon.

They were arrested by Patrolmen
 Hugh J. O'Neil and William P.
 Crough of the metropolitan district
 police almost at the minute John Barry, Boston newspaperman, was reporting he had been struck on the neck by a small leaden slug as he passed a Massachusetts Institute of Technology fraternity house on Memorial drive. The two officers reported their car had been struck by pellets at the same spot. They took the two men, students at Tech, into custody before they knew of Barry's complaint.

The art of knitting was invented,
 it is supposed, in Scotland, about
 the beginning of the sixteenth century.

Pre-Medic Students
 This applies to all students now registered in the University of Iowa who expect to enter either our own college of medicine, or any other medical school in the United States or Canada, for the freshman year's work in the autumn of 1936:

Two years ago, sponsored by the Association of American Medical colleges, the medical aptitude test was taken by 10,569 students of 317 colleges applying for admission to approximately 90 per cent of the approved medical schools of the United States. This test is required of all applicants for admission to the college of medicine of the University of Iowa, by virtue of its constitutional membership in the association (see the university catalog for the current year, at the top of page 74).
 The medical aptitude test for S.U.I. applicants for admission to any medical school belonging to the American Medical association, for the year 1936-37 will be promptly at 3 p.m., Friday, Dec. 6, 1935, in the main auditorium of the chemistry building.

Each such prospective applicant is notified to call at the office of the university treasurer within ample time preceding the day of this test, in order to pay the prescribed fee of one dollar which goes to the Association of American Medical Colleges to meet expenses of giving the examination, reading the manuscripts, tabulating the results, and making these outcomes available to the respective medical schools.

The treasurer's office will issue to each student who pays this fee a card certifying that the fee has been paid; and this card is to be presented by each student as he enters the main auditorium of the chemistry building just before 3 p.m., Friday, Dec. 6, 1935. An attendant will take up these cards as presented. H. C. DORCAS

 7:45 p.m. in the cafeteria of Iowa Union. He will discuss the "Analysis of Personality." COMMITTEE

A New Yorker
 At Large

By JAMES B. RESTON
 NEW YORK—When you look at the bare facts, the burlesque busness has something to offer after
 all. After talking to Gypsy Rose Lee, the town's headliner at the moment, I refuse to believe that all the little girls lose their money
 for nothing.

I will not argue about the modesty, but I will about the reward.
 For Gypsy tells me she gets $500 a week, and though her statement may need a little editing, you can edit $500 a week quite a bit before it looks like a columnist's salary.

Columnists and burlesque stars,
 incidentally, have this in common:
 the majority of intelligent people think they should be abolished. Naturally I am prejudiced about part of this at least, and at the moment I am inclined to be prejudiced in favor of both, for if the burlesque star
 hasn't something to offer, the poets
 and painters have been fooling with us for the past few centuries.

According to the law of supply and demand, this young woman's merchandise is valuable, and as she points out, she probably could do
 my job far better than I could do hers.

But to go on about Gypsy Rose
 Lee:
 She is by no means ostracized because of her profession. She lives in a spacious apartment just off Gramercy park, which is one of the few exclusive and conservative sections of Manhattan. On the evening
 I happened in, she was entertaining
 John Farrar, who owns a publishing
 business; Philip and E. K. (Ted) Wylie, the writers, and Sile Bryn-gan, the artist, who is putting Gypsy Rose Lee into oil so that the people won't forget when her value
 changes.

In this apartment is a huge circular bar filled with portraits of her friends, and as nearly as I could make out, everyone of distinction
 on Broadway is there.

The only thing I think of that might be said against the young woman is that she collects autographs, a pretentious custom which should be listed as a felony in the courts of New York. She recently bought a small unpainted piano for this purpose on which the celebrities are asked to sign their names.

With the collapse of vaudeville,
 burlesque is the last stand of the comedian. Although I must admit I have not made a careful study of conditions, I'm willing to wager that the comedians on Forty-second street and Irving place are better than on Broadway, where you may pay $3.50 for a seat and listen to the worst collection of bad humor on record.

Screen
 Life

By HERBERT KEAVY
 HOLLYWOOD—Fame, it seems, is not the only thing thrust on some men. Money, in a few rare instances, is too.

Wallace Ford, who knew Bing Crosby "when"—the when being back in the old days of vaudeville—
 is authority for this story about Crosby:

Ford and Crosby met at a party,
 soon after both arrived in Hollywood, and began discussing old times. Crosby confided to Wally that he "didn't" want a million dollars.
 "That so much money would mean too much responsibility. Armed guards for his children, and a flock
 of other worries.

Months later, Ford and Crosby met again. Meanwhile, Bing's income had increased in proportion to his popularity. Crosby again told Ford that getting terribly rich still was worrying him. He said he was spending his money as fast as he could, but he still couldn't get rid of it. Ford quotes Bing as saying:

Ford's Solution
 "I had an idea. I went to the studio people and told them I would make only three pictures a year. I told the phonograph people I would make only two records a year. And what do you suppose happened? The studio said, 'Well, with fewer pictures, there will be a bigger demand for them. We'll pay you twice as much as you're getting.' The phonograph company said practically the same thing. It looks like I'll have to be a millionaire whether I want to or not. Mind you, I'd like sufficient money, but too much is too much trouble."

Ford suggested a way out. "Bing,"
 he said, "just make one bad picture."

The Cat's Fault
 Serious, important dramatic scenes
 had occupied an entire day of the company filming "The Petrified Forest." Leslie Howard and Bette Davis and the others were fully satisfied with their work. And happy, too, to get these "heavy" scenes out of the way.

The following morning, the
 "rushes" of the previous day were run for the company. They all looked and sounded fine. There was a supposedly practical wood-burning stove in the background of each scene. That was as it should have been.

But the black cat, contentedly
 sleeping on the supposed-to-be-hot stove, was not.

The day's work had to be done
 over.

Will Observe Poet's Birthday

Program Planned By School of Letters For Annual Meet

A special program commemorating the two thousandth anniversary of the birthday of Horace is planned for the annual conference of the school of letters, which will meet Dec. 6-7 this year as part of the nationwide celebration in honor of the Roman poet, instead of in February, when it usually convenes.

Prof. Roy C. Flickinger, head of the classical languages department and national chairman of the celebration, will be in charge of arrangements for the program here.

In addition to lectures in each evening session, there will be both general and departmental meetings. The departments meet annually, while the Romance languages and German groups alternate, this year's emphasis being on German.

It is expected that plans for the program will be completed this week.

Libraries Director Announces Varied List of New Books

A selected list of books of general interest recently added to the university libraries was announced yesterday by Grace Van Wormer, acting director of university libraries.

Books included are: "Spring Came On Forever," Bess Streeter Aldrich; "Book of Opportunities," Ruthford Hayes Platt; "Byron: Romantic Paradox," William Jonathon Calvert; "Vachel Lindsay," Edgar Lee Masters; "Mark Twain's Notebook," Samuel Langhorne Clemens; "Heritage," Jess Montefiore Joseph; "The Living of Charlotte Perkins Gilman," Charlotte Perkins Stetson Gilman; "The War of the Copper Kings," Carl Burgess Glascock.

Engineers Will See Movie This Evening

The student branch of the American Society of Civil Engineers will present a motion picture, "The Span Supreme," at a meeting of the Associated Students of Engineering at 7:30 tonight in Iowa Union.

The picture illustrates fabrication and construction of supporting cables for the George Washington bridge over the Hudson river at New York.

Service Group To Entertain Patients

The social service committee of the commission on religious activities will entertain patients in children's hospital tonight, Margaret Woods, A4 of Kansas City, Mo., chairman of the committee, has charge of the entertainment.

Trade Advantages Against Smaller Town by Survey

The small town is fighting a losing battle against the growing accessibility and greater trading advantages of larger communities in eight Iowa counties recently surveyed by the Iowa State Planning board, according to reports on retail and trading areas in these counties.

The general shift of both trading and banking requirements from the smaller to the larger centers is evidenced in the board's reports. No pronounced shift was noted in the centers for grocery purchases but in clothing there was a sharp trend toward larger towns.

Mail order purchases, providing people interviewed did not conceal such purchases, are of negligible importance, it was revealed.

The eight counties in which the survey has been conducted are Cerro Gordo, Hancock, Winnebago, Worth, Calhoun, Humboldt, Pocahontas and Webster.

2 University of Iowa Students Will Attend Wildcat Game Free

At least two University of Iowa students are sure of attending the Northwestern-Iowa football game Saturday—free of charge.

Bernice Christiansen, A4 of Sioux City, and Leo Siegel, A4 of New York City, have been selected to represent the class in educational psychology under the direction of Prof. Frederick B. Knight of the college of education.

2 University of Iowa Students Will Attend Wildcat Game Free

It is a class tradition to select two students from the class to witness each out-of-town game. The group raises the necessary funds to pay the expenses of its representatives.

occupied the entire morning session Mayer first told of meeting with Joe Gagen, Des Moines bondsman, who, Mayer said, explained that he was "going to handle the slot machine business in the state" and outlined a plan for $1 a week per machine collection for protection.

"Wished Out" of Business
Mayer told of other meetings he said he had with Gagen. He said he subsequently was "wished out" of the slot machine business in Sioux City and that Gagen then told him to see McNaughton about operating in Plymouth county.

He first met McNaughton after receiving a letter from his brother, John Mayer, in November, 1932. Mayer said, the state agent when they met handed him the card which was introduced as evidence, he testified.

"Did you ever pay McNaughton any money?" Havner asked.
"Yes."
"What was the amount of your first payment?"
"One hundred dollars."
Mayer said that McNaughton came to see him in a hospital where he was recovering from auto accident injuries in June, 1934, and at that time figured up on a piece of hospital paper the amount Mayer owed for four months' operation of machines in Plymouth county.

Says Brennan Paid
The state agent, Mayer testified, deducted from the total $66 because Mayer had "tough luck" and because some of his machines were not operating. And Mayer then paid him $120 in currency.

Before he was forced out of the Sioux City territory, Mayer said, Gagen told him that "Red" Brennan was "going to handle the local situation."

"Did you make any payments to 'Red' Brennan?" Havner asked, and Mayer said that he did.

Mayer, in answer to another question said he paid Brennan $300 at one time and identified a check for that amount, dated July 22, 1933, as "the one I gave Brennan."

Havner observed that the check was made out to cash, and asked why.

"I didn't have that much cash on me and its the custom to make that kind of payments that way," Mayer replied.

Mayer at first objected to answer questions, contending that replies might incriminate him. Judge Peters asked if he had testified before the grand jury and when Mayer said he had, directed that he answer the prosecutor's questions.

Clapp to Lead 300 in 'Messiah'

Combined Orchestra, Chorus Prepare For Christmas Vespers

Prof. Philip G. Clapp, head of the music department, will direct more than 300 musicians when the university chorus and the university symphony orchestra combine in presenting Handel's "Messiah" at the Christmas vespers Dec. 18.

Soloists for the performance were named yesterday by Herald Stark of the music department, conductor of the chorus. They are: Soprano, Florence Vanderwieken and Gertrude Kieg, both graduate assistants in the music department; Alto, Alice Mikulasek, A3 of Newton, and Hazel Chapman of Iowa City, a graduate of the University of Iowa.

Tenor, Herald Stark of the music department.

Basses, Don R. Mallett, research assistant in personnel psychology, and Joe Hughes, G of Lamar, Colo. Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah," is traditionally a Christmas presentation in several countries. It is the composer's most popular work.

Rehearsals of orchestra, chorus, and soloists are in progress under the direction of Professor Clapp.

Professor Sloan To Talk on Novelists

Prof. Sam E. Sloan of the English department will speak on women as novelists at the first book talk of the semester at 7:30 this evening in Iowa Union library. This is the fourth year that he has led discussions on the modern novel.

Dorothy Spencer, librarian of Iowa Union library, Louise Wolfinger, A3 of Des Moines, and Kenneth Graham, A4 of Coffeyville, Kan., members of the Union Board library committee are in charge of the program.

Graduates Accept Engineering Jobs

Two electrical engineering graduates of the class of 1931 have recently received new positions.

R. S. Blough has accepted a position with the engineering and design department of the Dexter Washington Machine company of Fairfield and O. E. Hathaway has been appointed an inspector on Missouri river improvement work.

Civil Engineers Hear J. E. Jessup Speak

J. E. Jessup, national field secretary of the American Society of Civil Engineers, spoke yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the student branch of the society in the engineering building.

Mr. Jessup told of the work of the national organization and the 111 student branches in the United States.

Student Engineers Hear Olin Sogge

Olin Sogge, E4 of Sioux City, spoke on "Steel for Automobile Use" at a meeting of the student branch of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers yesterday afternoon in the engineering building.

Fay Bickel, E3 of Anamosa, discussed "Metalizing" and Karl Hansen, E3 of Lytton, spoke on "Mechanics Applied to Sailing."

Hurt in Accident

George E. MacLean, 85, above, president of the University of Iowa from 1899 to 1911, is recuperating at his home in Washington, D.C., from injuries received in a recent automobile accident. The former president suffered a leg fracture near the hip, rebreaking an old fracture. Because of his advanced age his progress was reported slow, according to an Associated Press dispatch last night, but he is now seeing occasional visitors for short periods.

Average Proportion Of S. U. I. Women Is 34.6 Per Cent

The average proportion of women at the University of Iowa for a 10-year period, 1925-35, is 34.6 per cent, it was found in a survey of men and women enrolled as freshmen directly from high schools during that time.

Only slight fluctuations were shown, the great percentage of women being in 1925, 33.8, and the smallest in 1934, 30.4. The current proportion is 32.6.

These figures include those of liberal arts, pharmacy, engineering, and nursing, the only units that admit freshmen directly from high school.

Kappa Alpha Theta Leads Sales Drive for Hawkeye Yearbook

Kappa Alpha Theta is leading the sorority Hawkeye sales contest with Phi Beta Phi second and Currier Hall third, according to Edward Miller, Hawkeye business manager.

Several teams are running a close race for first position with only a few points between them, he said. The contest will close Dec. 14.

Teams in Order
Gamma Phi Beta, Sigma Delta Tau, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Delta Gamma, Alpha Chi Omega, Eastlawn, Delta Delta Delta, Delta Zeta, Theta Phi Alpha, and Chi Omega rank next in the contest in the order named.

Members of the Kappa Alpha Theta team which had turned in the greatest number of Hawkeye subscriptions up to last night are Mary Spaulding, C4 of Westfield, captain;

Frances Burns, A3 of Lubbock, Tex.; Edith Hersh, A3 of Cedar Rapids; and Theda Meyers, A1 of Cedar Rapids.

Photographs of competing teams are displayed in the windows of Williams' Iowa Supply store. Changes in contest standing will be announced periodically.

Beauty Deadline
The deadline for Hawkeye beauty queen nominations and pictures will be Saturday morning, Nov. 23, Miller announced. Photographs will be displayed in a downtown store window, and two or more ballot boxes will be available for voting at convenient places on the campus.

All members of the senior dental and law classes will have individual pictures in the annual this year, instead of the juniors, as has been the custom.

Stock Market Irregularity Brings Losses

NEW YORK, Nov. 20 (AP)—A last hour burst of selling following irregularity brought losses of one to around three points on the stock exchange today.

Some observers attributed the drop to increased unrest over French fiscal troubles and economic hostilities aimed at Italy.

Others said equally important deterrents to the rise were the opinion that the market had gone too long without a reaction. The remarks of J. P. Morgan, returning from Europe, that he did not think bull markets made for prosperity were also noted.

The market got away to a good start, but as uncertainties impressed themselves on financial circles, shares turned irregular.

Measured by the Associated Press average of 60 stocks the market was down .7 of a point to 55.4. Rails, utilities and industrials all declined. Transactions totaled 3,852,377 shares against 2,910,580 Tuesday.

In spite of the decline, a few specialties bucked the trend, Collins and Aikman rising 3 7-8 to 43 1-2 and Houdaille-Hershey "B" up 1 to 27 7-8.

The shakeout, most said, failed to alter their opinion that the general business and earnings outlook is bright.

Losses of one to three points were suffered by United States Steel at 49, Westinghouse Electric at 95 1-2, Chrysler at 86 1-8, Continental Can at 95 1-2, General Electric at 39 3-4, General Motors at 57 5-8, Case at 107, Santa Fe at 52, Union Pacific at 101 1-4 and International Harvester at 63 3-8.

China last decade, Hawkeye teams have dropped eight of their season's finales, tied one, and won but one.

Southern California drubbed the Old Gold eleven under a boiling sun on the west coast in 1925, 18 to 0. Capt. Harold Griffin of Iowa called for time out 16 times during the game, so intense was the heat.

Came the close of the 1926 season and the Northwestern Wildcats, with Capt. Ralph Baker, "Tiny" Lewis and Vic Gustafson leading the way on a snow-covered field, took a 13 to 6 triumph back to Evanston.

The following season, Northwestern maintained her invincibility and captured that game, 12 to 0.

Three straight conference victories were registered in 1928 and Hawkeye fans visioned the first championship since 1922. But that inevitable disastrous finish followed and the Iowans dropped the two final loop contests to shatter their aspirations. Wisconsin took a 13 to 0 victory in a quagmire of mud and Michigan won 10 to 7 at Ann Arbor when Yost dusted "Old 83" to enable Dahlsen to score and nullify Bill Glassow's brilliant 55 yard touchdown run in the second quarter.

Purdue triumphed 7 to 0 in 1929 and Michigan eked out a 0 to 0 tie to offset all the savory triumphs of that season.

Iowa captured her only finale of the 10 year period in 1930 when the Hawkeyes rolled over Northwestern, 12 to 7, but the Wildcats required in '31 with a 13 to 0 win.

Hawkeyes received one of their worst drubbings in history at Ann Arbor in the last game of the season the following year. "Pug" Rentner left a sick bed to make a fight day of it for the Wildcats, 44 to 6.

Iowa's heart-breaking loss to Nebraska came in 1933. Before 35,000 people, the Cornhuskers accomplished a 7 to 6 victory by means of a fake place kick, which was afterward disputed by Iowa partisans as being an action of the rules.

This year, Purvis passed to Loeb Hass for one touchdown while Crayne of Iowa could only once and the Boiler-annexed a 12 to 6 win. The week, the Old Gold eleven to Columbus, Ohio, and offered a severe 40 to 7 beat-down's only marker came as a result of Ozzie Simmons' interception of a pass and his subsequent twisting run across the line.

Bill the 1935 Hawkeye team has even chance to smash this succession of last game defeats against Northwestern Saturday. There is so much talent and spirit on the squad to permit it to bog down as teams have in past campaigns.

Freshmen Get Scrimmage In Last Practice

Coach Otto Vogel sent his freshman footballers through the second secret scrimmage of the week against the varsity squad yesterday at the stadium field. This marks the last real scrimmage the freshmen will have against the lawkeys as the season closes tonight.

The fresh found much difficulty in enacting the threatening Wildcat offense against the varsity forward line as they were stopped at the line of scrimmage on most attempts. However, they were more successful in running the ends. Several times during the scrimmage men slipped through the Old Gold line to be stopped only after long gains. Lynn Waldor's forward passing attack proved advantageous to the freshmen as they were quite successful in penetrating the varsity defense. Lateral passes also worked well for the yearlings, serving as a good medium for gaining ground.

Standouts for the freshmen in the skirmish were Balasz and Elich, backs, with Decker and Narut on the line.

Remaining members of the squad practiced at the home field to practice fundamentals of play. They practiced in a light scrimmage with information and plays.

HAWKEYES END SEASON'S DRILLS TODAY

Burning Shoe Ceremony To Close Year

Old Gold Gridders Work With Vigor; Leave Tomorrow Morning

University of Iowa gridders, greeted by sunny skies and pleasant weather, snapped through a spirited workout yesterday, the last rigid one of the week. Tomorrow, the Hawkeyes will engage in their final session of the year, topping it off with the annual "burning of the shoe" ceremony.

More cheer than at any time this week was exhibited by the men as they successfully throttled efforts of freshmen, equipped with Northwestern plays, from gaining either by the air lanes or over the ground route.

Lamb at Quarterback Ozzie Simmons, still limping from an injured foot, moved up to the first team after performing with the reserves Monday and Tuesday. He joined Bush Lamb, a possible starter, Dick Crayne and Paul Akin in the backfield.

One significant change was made in the line by Coach Ozzie Solem. Don "Red" Nelson replaced Gene Liggett at left guard, teaming with Jarring Jim Kelley. Other Hawk first stringers appeared certain of their posts.

Depend on Crayne, Simmons Iowa coaches will again base hopes for a victory over the Wildcats upon the performances of Crayne and Simmons. In 1933, Crayne, in his first Big Ten football game, rambled over the field at Evanston for 181 yards in 29 trials, enabling the Hawkeyes to down the highly favored Purple eleven, 7 to 0.

The following year, another sophomore, Ozzie Simmons, romped up and down Dyche stadium for 166 yards, traveling 47 yards on one occasion for a touchdown. The Hawkeyes that year trounced Northwestern, 20 to 7.

Team Leaves Tomorrow The two face the Wildcats again in an effort to beat them a third time. Crayne, playing his last game, has been hampered by injuries but is expected to turn in his best performance of the season.

Iowa's squad of 33 men will leave tomorrow morning at 9:06, arriving in Chicago at 2:30 p.m. in time for a final workout. Headquarters will be in the Sovereign hotel on the north side of Chicago.

Adrian Shines As Marians Scamper Through Fast Drill

Skip Adrian ran wild last night as the St. Mary's eagles subdued a pick up team composed of alumni and outsiders. Constant scrimmage and work have improved the team greatly since the start of the season. Coach Francis Suplee's boys play the first game of the season next Monday night at Victor.

The lineup remained intact last night with Adrian and Alberhasky, forwards; Keller, center; and Schlenck and Grim, guards. Although the play was ragged at times, the aggregation scored at will. Fay and Henderson played a good portion of the time.

HAWKEYE CAGERS REST AFTER STIFF WORKOUT TUES.

The University of Iowa basketball team was given a day of comparative leisure after its long scrimmage against Racine's Lunch team Tuesday.

The boys occupied their time with sharpening up their shooting eyes. Most of the drill was spent in taking pot shots at the basket from all the different angles on the court.

They also received pointers on how to work the ball in past the defense by Capt. John Barko, who acted as coach in the absence of both Rollie Williams and Pops Harrison.

Barko had the forwards and guards pair up and run through all of the plays that they have received so far. The daily workouts are taking effect rapidly and the boys are beginning to show mid-season form.

Their first game is only one week from this coming Saturday against John Millikin at Iowa City.

Starting next Monday the personnel of the squad will be swelled as several of the Hawk footballers will remove their cleats for the softer basketball shoes. Among these will be Floyd De Heer, center, Bush Lamb, forward, and Ted Osmajski, guard.

California In Real Danger With Stanford

Texas Christian Team Has Winning Streak Endangered by Rice

NEW YORK, Nov. 20 (AP)—Six of the seven remaining winning streaks in major intercollegiate football ranks will be at stake this Saturday on widely scattered gridirons.

The possessor of the seventh, New York university, prudently takes the day off in preparation for a final stand against Fordham on Thanksgiving.

Bears Record at Stake Latest reports indicate California's Golden Bears and Texas Christian's Horned Frogs are being exposed to greater risk than any other inhabitants of the gridiron zoo. The Bears play at Stanford in the west coast's annual "big game." T.C.U. entertains the Rice Owls, champions of the southwest in 1934 and beaten only by Southern Methodist this season. Both games involve superheated rivalries.

California is a 7 to 5 choice in the betting, but the selection in this corner is Stanford.

Rice in Good Spot Rice, like Stanford, is in a superb spot to knock off one of the nation's unbeaten pace setters, Texas Christian, like California, has an advantage in the line that may prove decisive. The choice here is T.C.U., but it looks like a five, down affair.

There's at least the outside chance of an explosion elsewhere in Texas. Southern Methodist comes back home, crippled by the loss of Fullback Harry Shuford, to play Baylor's Bears. The "Pony Express" probably has sufficient resources to meet the emergency but Baylor sprang an upset last year and won't be likely to act sympathetic this time.

Dartmouth Tough Princeton's right to high ranking on the national list will be put to severe test by another unbeaten and untied aggregation, Dartmouth, in the east's outstanding game. The Tiger powerhouse figures to win this one by at least two touchdowns.

West of the Alleghenies, football followers at large remain skeptical of Princeton's right to be classed with the country's foremost teams, especially those in the Big Ten or southwest. This is based (1) on the generally misguided notion that eastern football still is decadent and (2) the specific point, well taken.

Another Triathlon To Start as Weight Men Begin Drill

Iowa's field event men will receive special training in the annual weight triathlon Nov. 25 in the fieldhouse.

Jumpers have already competed in a jump triathlon, and the sprinters are now engaged in a sprint quadrathlon. These events are planned to give the Iowa track team the necessary balance to have a successful indoor and outdoor season.

With the opening of the indoor season in February, Iowa should have a well-balanced aggregation to put on the track against its foes.

Mark Panther and Francis Cretz-meyer, two consistent point-getters, will handle the javelin, broad jump, high jump and discus. Big Floyd De-Heer, sophomore giant, should easily place high in the discus and shot-put.

Iowa has been rather weak in the past in the field events, but with the added talent received from last year's freshman squad, Iowa should have a team that will be better balanced than in recent years.

New Features Set for Iowa's Basket Clinic

Types of play to meet the rules changes will be demonstrated as a feature of the University of Iowa's third annual basketball clinic in the fieldhouse Nov. 30. Coach Rollie Williams announced yesterday.

He said that any high school coach and player, from Iowa or other states, would be welcome at the clinic Saturday afternoon. There will be no registration fee and the visitors may attend the Iowa-James Millikin game that evening without charge.

Hawkeye reserves and freshman players will execute various types of offense zone play, as well as the man to man and zone defense. Principal fundamentals of individual play also will be covered.

An added attraction will be Wilfred Hetzel of Sauk Center, Minn., crack free thrower, who will appear in the afternoon and between halves of the Millikin game. Hetzel specializes on freak feats, one of his achievements being 95 out of 100 with right eye shut, 91 out of 100 one-handed while standing on his right foot, and 74 straight from the orthodox position.

Willie Hoppe Wins 2nd In Tournament

CHICAGO, Nov. 20 (AP)—Willie Hoppe, veteran New York star, won second place in the world three cushion billiards tournament tonight by defeating Arthur Thurnblad of Chicago, 50 to 31, in a playoff match. The contest went 34 innings with Hoppe turning in a high run of seven, to four for Thurnblad. Welker Cochran of San Francisco won the title by defeating Hoppe last night.

Northwestern Stops Freshmen Eleven Using Iowa Plays

Lynn Waldorf Puts Squad On Fundamentals

Cats Conclude Heavy Workouts for Hawk Game Saturday

EVANSTON, Ill., Nov. 20 (AP)—Coach Lynn Waldorf put the Northwestern squad back on a diet of fundamentals today in winding up the vigorous portion of preparation for Saturday's final with Iowa.

After a session on blocking and tackling the Wildcats went out and stopped the freshmen, who used Iowa formations, with few gains. Bernard Jefferson, Negro halfback from Grand Rapids, Mich., was called "Ozzie Simmons" during the drill, and was stopped as cold as the Wildcats hope to halt the Hawkeye star.

The Wildcats devoted a big share of the scrimmage session to ironing out a defense against Simmons' running and passing. Jefferson, a good running back and the best passer on the freshman squad, was closely watched as he tried the same maneuvers over and over.

Northwestern will be in top shape for the game, with the return of Bob Swisher, who alternated with Don Heap at left half earlier in the season. Swisher has been troubled by a weak ankle, but with nearly two weeks of rest and treatment, will be ready.

The line was given special attention in an effort to add enough speed to offset the Hawkeyes' advantage in weight. Waldorf made frequent changes in the forward wall to give everyone who might get into the game Saturday a chance to brush up on assignments.

Bucks Look Good
COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 20 (AP)—Ohio State's Scarlet Scourge made things plenty tough today on a freshman team equipped with Michigan plays. Coach Francis A. Schmidt, who had started his boys to work quickly on punts and passes told them their running, kicking, pass attack and blocking were "pretty good."

Purdue Works in Sunshine
LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 20 (AP)—Dumpty practice occupied the Purdue Boilermakers today as they drilled in sunshine for the first time in two weeks. Coach Noble Kizer said he would start against Indiana essentially the same team that opened the attack on Iowa last week.

Hoosiers Work on Defense
BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Nov. 20 (AP)—Coach Bo McMillin worked his Indiana squad today on a defense formation designed to protect Capt. Reed Kelso in possible place kicking attempts against Purdue Saturday. Dal Sasse's return to the tackle post bolstered the Hoosier line in the last hard drill before the game.

Seidel in Uniform
MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 20 (AP)—Capt. Glenn Seidel of Minnesota ran signals with the first team today for the first time since he was injured five weeks ago in the Tulane game. He shared the signal calling job with Vernal LeVoit.

Badgers Appear Helpless
MADISON, Wis., Nov. 20 (AP)—The University of Wisconsin varsity appeared helpless to-night as freshmen ran for touchdowns at will, using Minnesota plays in scrimmage. After dusk, Coach C. W. Spears took the squad into the fieldhouse for a defensive scrimmage.

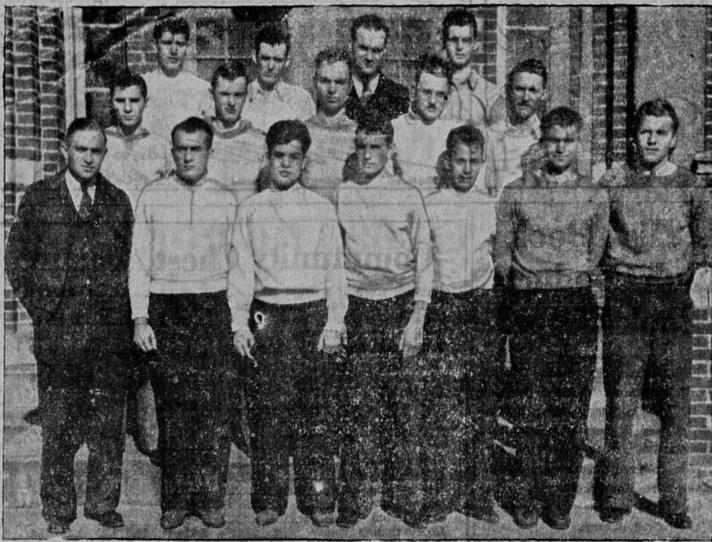

Wolves Work on Passes
ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 20 (AP)—University of Michigan's football squad worked under sunny skies today for the first time in a week, and devoted the practice to aerial combinations Coach Harry Kipke has prepared for Ohio State Saturday. It was the first time in several days the Wolverines had handled a dry ball.

Illini Stop Fresh
CHICAGO, Nov. 20 (AP)—Illinois' formations as exemplified by the freshmen, made little impression on the University of Chicago varsity in a stiff dummy scrimmage today. The regular lineup, at full strength for the first time since the Ohio State game two weeks ago, operated efficiently.

D. U., Beta To Swim Off Tie

First Intramural Dual Swim Meet Tonight At Fieldhouse Pool

Delta Upsilon and Beta Theta Pi, the fraternities that tied for first place in the annual Interfraternity swim meet last Tuesday night, will compete this evening at five o'clock in a dual swimming meet to decide the championship.

Each team scored 17 points in the most hotly contested intramural event so far this year. The D.U.'s scored their points by virtue of Cossen's tie for first in the breast-stroke, Schmidt's third in diving, and second place in both of the relays.

The Betas scored eight points by winning the medley relay, five more on Richards' victory in the 100 yard freestyle, and the rest of the 17 points by a third in the 80 yard relay.

This is the first time that a tie has resulted in an Interfraternity swim meet, and a fraternity swimming dual meet is also a new thing on the intramural program.

Letters Given Fourteen St. Pat's Gridders

There will be 14 new St. Pat's numerals about town next week when Coach Ryan presents his Shamrock gridders with letters won during the last season. Of the men to receive awards, Captain Carrizx is the only one who can brag of having won two letters in this sport. Last year's aggregation didn't receive letters as the Irish were forced to drop football after four games.

There will be no official presentation of the monograms this year as the south-siders are planning on a basketball banquet instead of the customary football feast.

The 14 footballers to receive rewards are: Captain Carrizx, Jim Carmody, Dick Healy, Bob Coen, Gene Fitzpatrick, "Motsy" Aaron, Ed Gatens, Eddie Delaney, "Poopy" Neubauser, Russ Elbert, Cyril Winters, Joe O'Neil, Gregory Dumphy and Ed Connors.

Captain Carrizx, Bob Coen, Gene Fitzpatrick, Eddie Delaney, Russ Elbert, Joe O'Neil and Ed Connors are the letter winners who will be lost by graduation in June. Jack Hogan, all city quarterback in '34 and two letter man, also gets his diploma in June. Hogan was unable to compete this year due to a knee operation.

No basketball captain will be elected this year as it is the shamrock mentor's custom to appoint a captain at the beginning of each season.

North Carolina Denounces Duke Scouting Tactics

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Nov. 20 (AP)—Disclosure that Duke scouted North Carolina with movie cameras for their game last Saturday today brought a denunciation of the tactics as "ungentlemanly and unethical" from the North Carolina campus and the rejoinder from Coach Wallace Wade of Duke that there was no rule against it.

Latest developments in the post mortem on a game which saw North Carolina's previously unbeaten team wrecked 25 to 0, worked this section up to a new high in football fervor and fanaticism. Reports of Duke's movie scouting were brought into the open by The Daily Tar Heel, North Carolina student publication.

Phil Hammer, student editor, made the charge in a front page editorial, and denounced the use of movie cameras by Duke scouts as "ungentlemanly and universally regarded as illicit."

Wade at Durham admitted his scouts had used cameras, but said it was done openly.

"Aren't the others doing the same thing?" he asked. "What agreement is there against it?"

Kistler Drives Five Through Paces On Hunt for Material

Dave Roebster and Tom Horn seem to have clinched berths on the University high basketball five as Coach Joy Kistler continues to drive his men hard in their limited practice sessions, preparing for the opening engagement with St. Pat's Dec. 13.

Races for the other three positions are wide open and at least two men are making strong bids for each. The pivot job where three men, Anclaux, Himman and Lackender, are centering their efforts, is witnessing the hottest fight.

Bob Miller, Charles Smith and Jim Barron are seeking the other two open notches in the lineup, with none showing much more than any other.

The squad is working out every day except Friday, which is devoted to intramural contests, games which provide the coaches opportunities to see the potentialities of their men in actual competition.

Coach Herb Canine's sophomore hopefuls are following the same schedule of practices as their elders, with the Friday games climaxed each week's work.

Until the second semester Merten does not intend to designate a first string five, keeping a dozen men ready to start at any time he sees fit. Three of his key men, Ed Breesse, Jimmy Jones, and Ken Jones, will leave at the change of terms.

Only the newly-elected Capt. Alvin Miller is virtually assured of a starting berth until the change takes place. Miller, a veteran letter-man, is a versatile player who fills all positions well, but he will probably be used at the pivot-post, a station he occupied as Snyder's understudy last year.

Graves, Lyle Likely Winners 440 Yard Dash of Sprint Quadrathlon Will Be Run Off Today

With half the events completed in the Sprint Quadrathlon, the contestants will have to run as never before if they are to overtake John Graves, freshman leader, and Jim Lyle, varsity pace-setter, and capture one of the medals.

Graves and Milton Billig, who have run neck and neck so far, should hook up in another thriller this afternoon in the 440 yard dash. These men have never met in competition in the 440, but Billig placed second to Ernie Grosser in the all-university track championship quarter-mile, and Graves is a middle distance man of national repute.

While Graves and Billig apparently have the freshman 440 all sewed up, the varsity run is a wide open affair. Eugene Skinner and Van Phillips, "I" winners in the middle-distances last year, will be hard pressed by such sophomores as Ernie Grosser, James Lyle, Bud Saunders and Dick Beebe.

Several men from the cross country squad who have been handicapped in the shorter distances, should come into their own today. The final event in the quadrathlon, the 660 yard dash, will be run off Tuesday in the fieldhouse.

Hawklets Get Merten's Style In Cage Drill

With the opening contest only nine days away, Coaches Francis Merten and Herb Cormack are still running the Red and White cagers of City high through their preliminary paces.

The Hawklets are gradually absorbing Merten's style of a fast-breaking offense and a zone defense, and Lone Tree will encounter formidable opposition when it invades Iowa City for the first game, Nov. 29.

Merten is retaining 15 men on his senior squad, but Cormack may whittle the yearlings to a smaller number than the present total.

Until the second semester Merten does not intend to designate a first string five, keeping a dozen men ready to start at any time he sees fit. Three of his key men, Ed Breesse, Jimmy Jones, and Ken Jones, will leave at the change of terms.

Only the newly-elected Capt. Alvin Miller is virtually assured of a starting berth until the change takes place. Miller, a veteran letter-man, is a versatile player who fills all positions well, but he will probably be used at the pivot-post, a station he occupied as Snyder's understudy last year.

All-Quad Eleven To Be Picked From 35 Possible Choices

Each team which participated in the two quad touch football leagues, will have a hand in picking an all-quad team according to a plan announced by Martin Perli, athletic proctor.

Five men will be nominated by each team. Three men from their own team and two men from opposing teams played against during season.

Approximately 35 men will thus be nominated by the eight teams. From this number a squad of about 18 will be picked by Quad athletic officials. Proctor Perli expects to announce the members of the squad within a few days.

The "Blue Danube" waltz of Johann Strauss was first played at the Dianasalle, Vienna, on Feb. 13, 1867.

ERA Factory Makes Report

Has 6,552 Cans of Corn Canned for Relief Clients This Winter

As part of the Johnson county canning project of the ERA program during the last summer and this fall, the county factory has canned 6,552 cans of corn. Joe O'Leary, subsistence garden supervisor, has directed the work.

Besides corn the factory includes in its canning report 2,220 cans of sauerkraut, 580 cans of tomatoes, 450 bushels of potatoes, and 100 bushels of navy beans.

Seeds, ground rent, labor and supervision were supplied by the ERA. Individual subsistence gardens, another branch of the ERA garden project, supplied relief clients throughout the country with table vegetables during the summer, and with small amounts for canning.

Distribution of these canned goods, stored in the factory, will take place during the winter to relief clients of this county as necessity warrants.

Two garden plots, the Charles Flowers farm, two miles south of Iowa City on the river road, and part of the new schools grounds in the east part of town, supplied these goods. Some 16 acres were put under cultivation.

Lions Club Hear Prof. Loehwing Talk on Tourists

Monetary situations as affecting the tourist in several European countries were explained by Prof. Walter F. Loehwing of the botany department in a talk to the Lions club luncheon yesterday noon.

Professor Loehwing, an American delegate to an international botanical congress, visited France, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, and Italy last summer.

He related impressions of his visit and spoke of many highlights of conditions in business and governmental relations.

Jan. 27, 28, and 29 were selected as the dates for the second annual Lions club automobile show and some appliance exposition.

U. High Book Club Conducts "Book Circus"

Student members of the Book-a-Month club are conducting a "Book Circus" at University high school as part of the school's observation of National Book week. The "Book Circus" is designed to create student interest in reading good books, and is a display of various types of books in the school library.

Dorothy Parden, Cathryn McCleery, Mary Carolyn Kuever, and Alice Ralford, librarian and faculty adviser, are members of the committee in charge of the circus.

Miss Ralford is sponsoring a contest to determine the book most popular with University high school students. Gene Stratton Porter's "Girl of the Limberlost" at present heads the list.

As a special feature of the program Dorothy Pownall, freshman, and Dorothy Parden, junior, are exhibiting a display of Victor Hugo's works.

Other books on display at the exhibit include Mary Roberts Rinehart's "Tish," Clarence Day's "Life With Water," Humphrey Cobb's "Paths of Glory," and Ann Morrow Lindbergh's "North of the Orient."

"What Thanksgiving Means To Me" Theme of Annual Service

"What Thanksgiving Means to Me," as expressed by members of three different faiths, will be the theme of the annual unit Thanksgiving service at 10 a.m. Thursday in Macbride auditorium.

Prof. M. Willard Lampe of the school of religion, Joseph Braverman, and Mrs. Thomas Farrell, representing the Protestant, Jewish, and Catholic faiths, respectively, will speak, while the Rev. Herman A. Strub of St. Mary's church will pronounce the invocation and benediction.

An appeal for contributions of vegetables, fruits, and staple goods will be made by the Rev. W. S. Dyingier, pastor of the First English Lutheran church, who will also preside. The contributions will be collected at the service and given over to the Social Service league for distribution to families in need.

Frances G. Wilson, executive secretary of the Social Service league, yesterday told of the work done in 1934 in distributing Thanksgiving baskets and Christmas aid. A discretionary fund of $56.21 together with contributions received completed distribution of about 120 baskets of food and helping of families at Christmas time, she said.

In order to prevent duplication in the administering of aid, groups wishing to help families have been asked to register the names of those families by dialing 2149, or by obtaining from the league names of needy families.

It is believed that the average well-educated American knows from 60,000 to 70,000 words, and every well-read person of fair ability and education will be able to understand as used 50,000 words.

Amend Appointment Of Receivership Of Jess' Uptown Cafe

The appointment of Attorney Kenneth M. Dunlop as receiver for Jess' Uptown cafe was amended by District Judge Harold D. Evans yesterday to include the provision for the receivership to secure licenses for the sale of cigarettes and beer.

The receivership, requested in a petition filed by W. H. Wagner and Mayne Wagner against Jesse B. Taylor, that the receiver be allowed to operate under Taylor's class "B" beer permit.

According to an opinion of the assistant attorney general, state statutes do not allow receiverships to sell beer on permits of former owners.

Elleta Draheim, H. Rawlt Get Decrees In District Court

District Judge Harold D. Evans signed two divorce decrees in district court yesterday.

Elleta Draheim was granted a divorce from Louis F. Draheim on grounds of desertion. Attorney J. W. Otto represented the plaintiff.

The couple was married in Lincoln, Neb., on Dec. 2, 1926, and lived together until Sept. 5, 1931, according to the petition. The plaintiff's maiden name, Elleta Hoover, is restored.

Harry Rawlt received a divorce from Bertha I. Rawlt on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. The couple was married in 1906, according to the petition filed by Attorney B. F. Carter.

the slaughter of 2,000 Ethiopians in an aerial bombardment south of Makale, the Ethiopian government announced 10 Ethiopians had been slain and 30 wounded when a military detachment was attacked in that vicinity Monday by 15 or 20 planes.

Capture Tanks

Wolde Giorgis, commanding the Ethiopian troops which, an announcement stated, captured six Italian tanks and killed six Italian officers at Anale Nov. 12, arrived at Addis Ababa and told the Associated Press:

"We do not fear tanks. Once we are near them they are lost."

Burn Them Out

He said the six tanks were captured by cutting them off from the infantry. Then the Ethiopians poured gasoline over them and set them afire, "the heat forcing the occupants to surrender."

The capital was almost deserted of troops today, with the last big units enroute to Dessaye.

Duce Fights Sanctions On Farm Front

ROME, Nov. 20 (AP)—Premier Mussolini satisfied himself today that Italy can feed itself regardless of the economic siege laid down by 52 nations opposing his war in Ethiopia.

He approved regulations to limit certain crops whose exportation has been halted by sanctions and to grow others which formerly came from sanctionist countries. The plans affect every one of Italy's 3,646,000 farms.

Details Withheld

Details of the program were carefully withheld.

"If sanctionist countries knew everything we did, they would know where to put on the pressure," said an official.

The farm plans were made at a secret meeting in the office of the premier between Il Duce and six officials of the agricultural federation, one of the 22 bodies of the fascist corporate state which comprises all Italian farmers. A few specialists and government officials also were present.

Three big objectives were outlined: First, to maintain, and increase, where necessary, production of food-stuffs and fodder.

Second, to increase immediately production of certain things needed by Italian industry in the manufacture of substitutes for articles formerly imported.

Third, to limit certain products, some of which have been exported in the past, and devote the land thus released to crops for home consumption.

Farm-Labor Cooperate

The conclusion of the farm leaders and experts, which Mussolini accepted, was that "agricultural production can meet the country's food requirements under present regulations and those to be announced later."

It was arranged farm chiefs should cooperate with labor, industrial and merchant leaders to assure smooth operation of the plans for resistance

City's Candy King

The city's candy king of Turkeyland, a chocolate gobbler, hasn't the worries of his range brothers as he stands in a downtown store window, for he will never become a holiday dinner. The gay brown fellow with his perky orange bow, in his pre-Thanksgiving trot, struts before a group of admiring subjects from "kiddies" to university and city persons.

Street Corner Debate

A street corner debate, minus the soap box, climaxed a minor traffic accident at the Jefferson hotel corner yesterday. Following the convincing arguments of the drivers, William Eckrich, 415 S. Madison street, and Arthur Klein of Pella, two policemen and several eye witnesses, a more materially-minded person discovered that the damage was a slightly dented fender and a broken bumper.

Extension Work

Mabel Snelaker, supervisor of social studies at University elementary school, is conducting extension work in Mahaska county this week. Miss Snelaker visits schools in that county giving advice to social science instructors.

Appoints Guardian

District Judge Harold D. Evans yesterday appointed Ernest Myers personal guardian of Florence Myers and her property.

Diver Fined

Nicholas Yoder was fined $1 and costs yesterday by Justice of the Peace J. M. Kadlec on a charge of driving a truck without proper lights. The arrest was made by State Patrolman James Gildroy.

Charges Dismissed

Charges of hunting on enclosed premises with permission of the owner against Elvin Cline and Charles Reed were dismissed yesterday by Justice of the Peace T. M. Fairchild.

Pot-luck Supper

Members of Iowa City's Townsend club 1 will meet at the courthouse at 6:30 tonight for a pot-luck supper. It was announced by John I. Dehl, club president, yesterday. Each member will bring sandwiches, a covered dish, and table service.

Elks Meet

A regular meeting of the Iowa City Elks lodge was conducted last night. A social hour followed the routine business session.

Swaps Plane

Paul B. Shaw, local pilot and flying instructor, has traded his American eagle plane for a Buhl cabin plane, which he is now flying.

Frank West Fined After Conviction On Liquor Charge

Frank West was sentenced to three months in the county jail and fined $30 and attorney fees of $50 by District Judge Harold D. Evans yesterday in district court, after pleading guilty to a grand jury indictment of a liquor nuisance.

Police seized a quantity of alleged alcohol in a raid at West's home at 812 Davenport street in September.

Architect Approves Estimates of Loss In Hospital Fire

Contractors' estimates of fire loss at Mercy hospital nurses' annex Nov. 13 when flames gutted the structure were approved yesterday by Art Ebeling, Davenport architect.

The estimate was compiled by Herman Smith of the Smith and Burger Contracting company.

Ira L. Griffin and George F. Keelcey, insurance adjusters, will receive the estimates Monday.

Hospital officials have not as yet announced plans for reconstruction of the nurses' home.

Student Posts $100 Appearance Bond

Bennie D. Brown, A4 of Iowa City, posted $100 bond in Justice of the Peace T. M. Fairchild's court yesterday for appearance Nov. 27 to stand trial on a charge of failing to leave his name and address following an accident last July.

Hospital Staff Will Head Dr. A. Adey

Dr. Albert Adey of West Liberty will discuss Malta fever with members of the Mercy hospital staff at a meeting at 7 o'clock tonight.

Malta fever gets its name from the Malta isle where the disease was first discovered.
