1935 The Story Of A Year 6.-Agriculturalist Sees Increase In Production, Profit

This is the sixth in a series of 10 daily articles reviewing major developments of 1935. By WILLIAM S. WHITE WASHINGTON (AP) — To the story of the American farmer in 1935 the official figures write a happy ending in terms of dollars and cents.

More profits for the agriculturalist were claimed by the government which predicted a still fuller life for 1936. Expressed in figures, the AAA estimates total cash farm income for 1935 at $6,800,000,000— or a matter of $533,000,000 more than was taken in during 1934.

Production Trend Up Rental and benefit payments in the various adjustment programs are estimated as accounting for $697,280,000 of the 1935 total, whereas in 1934 they totaled $396,425,000—this exclusive of some $111,000,000 in government money which in that year went to farmers in the purchase of drought-doomed livestock.

3,180,000 Sign Contracts Meanwhile, the man on the farm — that historical individual — turned more and more toward collective action. During the year some 3,180,000 contracts agreeing to crop adjustment were signed with Uncle Sam. The farmers' end of the accompanying administrative setup numbered more than 4,800 county or sectional committees comprising some 97,000 members.

A Rose Is a Rose Last year along about this time Iowa City was all in a dither about Gertrude Stein, that woman who popped from obscurity in Paris to fame in New York because she talked and wrote in a highbrow sort of gibberish not too unlike a stuck needle on a phonograph.

Defense From Dust Storms AAA took definitely one other important step and leaned favorably — although not with formal approval — toward still another. The first was the adoption of a rule that farmers who get paid for taking land out of commercial cultivation must (not as previously) put that land into soil-saving and erosion-preventing crops. The objective: To set up a great defensive area of millions of acres against the recurrence of past destructive dust storms.

Perhaps never since the close of the World war will the prayer, "Peace on earth and goodwill toward men," be murmured so fervently by people all over the world as it will this Christmas with war clouds gathering over Europe.

A Washington Bystander

WASHINGTON — If Herbert Hoover happens to be sensitive to small political omens, the selection of Cleveland as the next G.O.P. congressional city might cause him uneasiness. To the republicans, Cleveland is hallowed by the Coolidge tradition. The other two major contenders for the honor this year, Chicago and Kansas City, were Hoover nomination sites.

Hoover does not regard himself as an actual candidate. They argue that if he was actually aiming toward a nomination; that he would pattern his efforts after the Landon or Vandenberg strategy. Instead, Mr. Hoover grows more biting, speech by speech, in his attack on the new deal—and more colorful.

of opinion in Washington as to his objectives. To some, he no less than Hoover looms as a crusader, Borah intent upon liberalization of the republican ticket and platform next year regardless of his own chances. To others he seems impelled first of all by a desire to be the party standard-bearer himself.

Famed Star Of Bethlehem Did Not Light Sky

University of Chicago Scientist Declares Legend Unfounded CHICAGO, Dec. 21 (AP)—Dr. W. D. MacMillan, mathematical astronomer at the University of Chicago for 30 years, asserted today that science had no record of the Star of Bethlehem.

"It is the theme for a beautiful religious legend," he said, "but astronomy agrees the star never existed." He said there was no data to support a recently advanced hypothesis that the Star of Bethlehem might have been a nova or "new star," exploding like the famous "Nova Hercules" of 1934.

Marratto Charged With First Degree Murder in Dakota

FARGO, N. D., Dec. 21 (AP)—Charles Marratto, 29, of Hamilton, Ont., today was charged with first degree murder in an information filed by State Attorney A. R. Bergesen, in connection with the death of Peter E. Stewart, 71, Fargo grocer, slain in a holdup Friday night.

A New Yorker At Large

By JAMES B. RESTON NEW YORK—The cry rings along Fortieth street at the tip of Times square: "Libretto! Libretto! for tonight's opera!" The Met is in a whirl again. There is gaiety here this season. Subscriptions are better than in nine years. A lower box for opening night brings $600.

Opening nights at the Met have become routine for Jules Judels, who sits in a grim little room in this vast dreary house. Forty-five years ago, he was on the sidewalk opening night. His cry was the same: "Libretto! Libretto! for tonight's opera!"

Judels is 61 then. He is 61 now, a sparkling, happy man whose hair has turned gray and has vanished here and there during his service to the Met.

The holiday madness is on. You can scarcely get through Times square between 8 and 9 at night. The movie houses, which usually close at about 1 o'clock, are grinding away as long as the crowds keep coming, and some of the picture houses in the fifties are not closing until 5 a.m.

Screen Life

By HUBBARD KEAVY HOLLYWOOD—Real and unreal: The movietown is the surest place in the world to spoil a gal for marriage. . . Says Wendy Barrie from England who speaks like a girl who is going in seriously for art. . . Of who has been disappointed in love. . . Wendy was more or less engaged, once, to Woolworth Donahue, heir to part of the five-and-ten millions. . . Wendy believes a lass acquires independence in Hollywood and that independence is too hard to give up. . . And moreover, says she, the list of eligibles in these parts is mighty, mighty slim. . . "Wouldn't marry an actor," Wendy says, "because you can't bank too strongly on their dependability as husbands."

Words like these might have suggested the title of Wendy's current film: "Don't Bet on Love." . . At Jolson's new house, in the middle of 10 acres of assorted fruit and nuts, has more gadgets than an accessory salesman's car. . . Says he stayed up half the first night turning on lights. . . And the other half, turning them off. . . The label on the package strictly admonished Harriet Hilliard not to inspect the contents before Christmas. . . But she did. . . And found a record, of which was a holiday greeting from her husband, Ozzie Nelson, and his orchestra. . . Frank McHugh refused to buy his six-year-old foster son, Peter, a dog. . . Explained Frank: "I saved some mutt from a tall pulling, a continuous tall pulling. When Peter is old enough to know how to take care of a dog, I'll get him one." . . We who think all boys should have a dog may take pen in hand. . . McHugh's address is 4200 Naval street, North Hollywood. . . Come on, now, all together: Let's get Peter McHugh a dog. . . For six days and seven evenings Joan Blondell's time is Dick Powell's. . . If he wants it, and he usually does. . . But the Sunday belongs to Joan's ex-husband, Calamity George Barnes. George says he spends every Sunday with Joan and their 13-month-old son. . .

MORE than 100 University of Michigan students are training this year for the profession of radio broadcasting. The class shown above is gaining practical experience in radio dramatization in the campus studio of a Detroit station.

THORNTON WILDER, famed University of Chicago author, returned from Europe recently with the report that Gertrude Stein is "one of the most distinguished of our living thinkers, but there are many things in her writing I do not understand myself."

L AURA WINSLOW led the grand march at the University of Georgia's Pan-hellenic Ball, outstanding social event at the southern university.

STUDENTS in Stanford University's non-credit classes for training in reading skills average an increase of 53 per cent in speed and a substantial gain in comprehension, with top-ranking scholars sharing improvement along with average and slow readers. A meeting of the class is shown above, with Prof. W. M. Danner, Jr., operating his unique timing and pacing device for improving reading, while the eye-movement camera is shown in the inset.

THE annual inter-club touchball contests are the chief intramural athletic events at the St. Petersburg (Fla.) Junior College, with the games being played on nearby beaches.

THE Spotlighter

Most Cussed Son

WHEN brother Delta Tau Deltas from the University of Florida visit Sam Byrd in New York they still find him playing Dude Lester in Tobacco Road—now going on about the 900th performance—one of the most cussed sons in all the world—a tough, blasphemous kid full of sex and Georgia Cracker adolescent orneriness. Offstage Dude is a slender ex-collegian who studied journalism and wrote a few one-act plays before getting on Broadway. Now he has to battle to keep from sounding like the half-witted, nasty Dude when he's not being Dude, and that's hard, because it looks as though he's going to keep on being Dude until Tobacco Road runs as long as Abie's Irish Rose.

Dartmouth's Handsomest

AS handsome a man as Dartmouth ever offered to the movies, Bob Allen seemed destined to enjoy the obscurity of another Dartmouth son in Hollywood, Charles Starrett. Allen knocked about in bit parts for several years and could convince no one that his football and college stage training meant anything. Then he was cast as the young man Grace Moore gave up recently in Love Me Forever. In the opening snow sports scenes, Bob felt much at home, having been prominent in Dartmouth winter carnivals of five years ago. Now he has a Columbia contract and will be seen in Guard That Girl; the girl, Florence Rice, Bob Allen, ex-Dartmouth football man, doing the guarding.

Camels

Of course you'll give cigarettes for Christmas. They're such an acceptable gift—such an easy solution of your problem. And Camels fill the bill so perfectly. They're made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS than any other popular brand. They are the accepted cigarette of the social and athletic worlds. Their finer tobaccos give that pleasant "lift"—that sense of well-being so appropriate to the spirit of Christmas.

Another Christmas special—four boxes of Camels in "flat fifties"—wrapped in a gay Christmas package.

A full pound of mild, mellow Prince Albert—packed in the cheerful red tin and placed in an attractive Christmas gift package.

FRANK LLOYD WRIGHT, world-famed architect, has raised considerable furor with his Broadacre City plan for the ideal modern metropolis, wherein every family would have an acre of land, perfect (or near-perfect) living conditions, and dwell in an atmosphere attuned to modern science and invention. In this city is a college that teaches Broadacre's citizens how to utilize their new freedom—a college with buildings composed mostly of glass and of courses in those subjects that are nearest to nature. At the left is a photo of the college grounds, above the gigantic stadium equipped for all sports, and at the right Architect Wright and a few of his Taliesin Fellowship students—students who live, work and study with Mr. Wright on his estate near rural Spring Green, Wis.

University of the Future

FRANK LLOYD WRIGHT, world-famed architect, has raised considerable furore with his Broadacre City plan for the ideal modern metropolis, wherein every family would have an acre of land, perfect (or near-perfect) living conditions, and dwell in an atmosphere attuned to modern science and invention. In this city is a college that teaches Broadacre's citizens how to utilize their new freedom—a college with buildings composed mostly of glass and of courses in those subjects that are nearest to nature. At the left is a photo of the college grounds, above the gigantic stadium equipped for all sports, and at the right Architect Wright and a few of his Taliesin Fellowship students—students who live, work and study with Mr. Wright on his estate near rural Spring Green, Wis.

SWEEPING MONEY-BACK OFFER TO PIPE SMOKERS SETS WHOLE CAMPUS TALKING!

OUR OFFER TO PIPE SMOKERS:

Smoke 20 fragrant pipefuls of Prince Albert. If you don't find it the mellowest, tastiest pipe tobacco you ever smoked, return the tin with the rest of the tobacco in it, and we will refund full purchase price, plus postage.

(Signed) R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, N. C.

If you are a pipe smoker who would enjoy a better smoke, this remarkable you-must-be-pleased offer is right down your alley!

Get a tin of Prince Albert at your dealer's. Smoke 20 pipefuls. If you don't say P. A. is the mildest and choicest-tasting smoking tobacco you ever had, return the tin with the rest of the tobacco in it and we make good, as told above.

You Be the Judge! The risk is all on us. Prince Albert has to satisfy you. And we believe it will. For we use only choice, ripe, mild tobacco. Then it is "crimp cut" for slow burning and cool smoking. The "bite" is removed to make it absolutely certain that Prince Albert is mild and delicate in taste.

There's no skimping on quantity, either. We pack around 50 pipefuls of choice tobacco in the big 2-ounce economy tin of P. A. It's at your nearest campus dealer's!

50 pipefuls of swell tobacco in every two-ounce tin of Prince Albert
