Speech Arouses Protest

NEW YORK, March 5 (AP)—A radio speech tonight by Earl Browder, secretary of the communist party of America, urging farmers, laborers and the "middle class" to unite in a third political party aroused protests from many sources. Twenty-five members of the National Americanization league picked the Columbia Broadcasting company's offices from 8 p.m. until Browder's 15-minute speech ended at 11 p.m.

Hunger Strikers 'Licked'

ST. CLOUD, Minn., March 5 (AP)—Supt. H. B. Whittier announced late today hunger striking inmates of the state reformatory were "definitely licked" as another official disclosed ring-leaders would be prosecuted on charges of inciting a riot if sufficient evidence can be obtained. "We're telling them what and when they can eat," said Whittier, adding that 25 believed to have been ring-leaders in the rebellion which started Tuesday had been placed in solitary confinement.

Name Withheld

LINCOLN, Neb., March 5 (AP)—Sponsors of the "Landon for president" movement today called off an eighth hour plan to file the name of Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas in the Nebraska republican presidential preference primary. B. P. Weekes of Marysville, Kan., told the Associated Press Landon's name would not be entered after he consulted Landon leaders in Kansas City, Mo. He had in his pocket at the time a petition sufficient to qualify Landon in the Nebraska primary and had declared an hour earlier there was a possibility he would file them. If filed, the petitions would have entered Landon for the first time in any state election as a candidate for the republican presidential nomination.

Hoover En Route

CHANDLER, Ariz., March 5 (AP)—Former President Herbert Hoover, en route to Colorado Springs, Colo., to address a republican meeting, stopped here for a rest today. He plans to resume his trip tomorrow. Former Gov. Frank Lowden of Illinois is spending the winter at the Resort hotel where Mr. Hoover stopped. A. W. Shaw, Chicago business man and host to Mr. Hoover, said the visit of the former chief executive had no political significance.

German-Jews Arrive

NEW YORK, March 5 (AP)—Nearly 200 German-Jews arrived today aboard the United States liner Washington to make their homes in this country. Business men, lawyers, doctors, dentists and other professional men comprised the group of expatriates, the largest to arrive on a single ship since the exodus of Jews from Germany as a result of Nazi anti-Semitic policies began.

Powell Loses Voice

HOLLYWOOD, March 5 (AP)—Dick Powell, film singer and actor, lost his voice today. Powell rushed from the studio set to a physician, fearful his vocal power had vanished for good. The trouble, however, was diagnosed as laryngitis and he was advised proper treatment will restore his voice in a few days.

Recover Frozen Body

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., March 5 (AP)—The body of Ed Wheelodon, 23, WPA worker who disappeared during a blizzard on Feb. 8, was found frozen late today on the M. C. Erickson farm, 5 1/2 miles southeast of here. He was the fourteenth victim of the recent prolonged cold wave in South Dakota. He is survived by his widow and two daughters.

Mae West in Trouble

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., March 5 (AP)—Mae West and Paramount studio jointly accused each other of voiding her movie contract today. Out of a welter of conflicting statements, only one fact seemed clear—that she would make her next picture under another banner. A studio statement said she was guilty of an "anticipatory breach of contract," and an executive who would not be quoted said "the studio does not waive any of its rights to her services." But her attorney, Lloyd Wright, said the studio had breached her contention of breach of contract, and that she would make a picture elsewhere.

AFRICAN WAR MAY END SOON

High Water Engulfs Western Iowa

Hamburg Men, CCC Workers Protect Levees

Flood Waters Surge Near Top of Walls Along Nishnabota

HAMBURG, Ia., March 5 (AP)—Hamburg residents, reinforced by CCC workers from Sidney and Rockport, Mo., fought back the surging lower Nishnabota river tonight as it threatened to sweep out the levees which protect the city.

The flood lapped within inches of the tops of the dikes and in places seepage warned of imminent breaks unless the workers succeeded in reinforcing the protecting walls of earth.

Mayor Ed Gowdy estimated that 1,000 of the city's 2,500 residents would be driven from their homes if the levees should give way.

A break in a levee near Riverton, it was reported, already had let the flood through to inundate an increasing area of slough and lowlands north and northwest of here.

Flood workers saw little hope of a fall in the river immediately for reports from upstream on the east and west forks of the Nishnabota stated the water still was rising.

At Riverton, 10 miles to the north, the flood welled out a mile and more wide where the forks join. At Shenandoah, the east fork was washing over more and more lowland. Burlington railroad service was cut off near Riverton and near Coburg, between Red Oak and Shenandoah.

Missouri Valley residents breathed easier tonight as the Boyer river flood, which yesterday drove 600 persons from their homes in 50 blocks of residential section there, slowly receded. Engineers, however, said the lowering resulted from a spreading out of the flood through broken dikes over more farm lowland territory.

They declared it might be several days before the flooded area drained out sufficiently so refugees could return to their homes.

"The ice must go out of the Missouri," they said, "before this 20-mile long lake the Boyer's formed will drain away."

Iowa Women Win Decision

Iowa Affirmative Team Defeats Minnesota In League Debate

University of Iowa women debaters defeated a Minnesota team in a Western conference debate in the senate chamber of Old Capitol last night.

Betty Busselle, AI of Council Bluffs, and Betty Holt, AI of Iowa City, upheld the affirmative side of the question: Resolved, that the United States should support the League of Nations in the application of sanctions provided for in the covenant of the league.

The main argument of the Minnesota team, comprised of Paula Myers and Clara Vivian, was that the enforcement of sanctions would not prevent war. The Iowa team argued for cooperation with the League of Nations to enforce sanctions.

Prof. Floyd Riley of the University of Oklahoma served as critic judge and Prof. W. Ross Livingston of the history department was chairman.

The judge, in giving Iowa the decision, said the Hawkeyes gave a practical interpretation of the proposition in addition to adjustment to their opponents' speeches.

WPA Chief Makes Protest of Hagood's 'Slighting' Remarks

WASHINGTON, March 5 (AP)—A formal protest to the war department against Maj. Gen. Johnson Hagood's "slighting remarks about the work relief program" was made public today by Harry L. Hopkins. The letter, sent on Feb. 11, immediately after Hagood's "stage money testimony" before a house subcommittee was made public, demanded that the general make "a public retraction." Shortly afterward, Hagood was removed from his command by Gen. Malin Craig, chief of staff.

Works Relief Rolls May Be Cut by 500,000

Hopkins Orders New Drive to Place Men in Private Positions

WASHINGTON, March 5 (AP)—A new drive to force relief workers to take private jobs was ordered by Harry L. Hopkins today as the administration's high command gathered with President Roosevelt to see how much additional money must be appropriated to continue the program.

A few hours before going to the White House, Hopkins disclosed that work relief employment rolls would be slashed from the present 3,804,886 total to 3,300,000 during the next four months.

Jobs Open Although he insisted in most cases jobs in private industry would be available to the 500,000 dismissed WPA workers, he acknowledged that some would be forced back in direct relief.

Each state, Hopkins said, will make a gradual reduction in its work relief employment and WPA will be cut from its present 3,037,440 jobs to 2,300,000 by July 1. This big cut, however, will be offset by some additional employment by other relief agencies.

Discuss Appropriation Clothed at the White House with Hopkins to discuss the relief appropriation were Secretary Morgenthau, Daniel Bell, acting director of the budget, and Corrington Gill, assistant WPA administrator.

None would comment beforehand on whether the president would ask congress in his relief message—scheduled for next week—for enough money to continue the work relief program for an entire year or only from July 1 to Jan. 1 when congress meets again.

Chief Difficulties Two chief difficulties were seen in the ways of Hopkins' determination to slash work relief rolls:

1. Already many states and communities have asserted they are not able to provide for their unemployed and other needy who although able to work have not been given jobs.

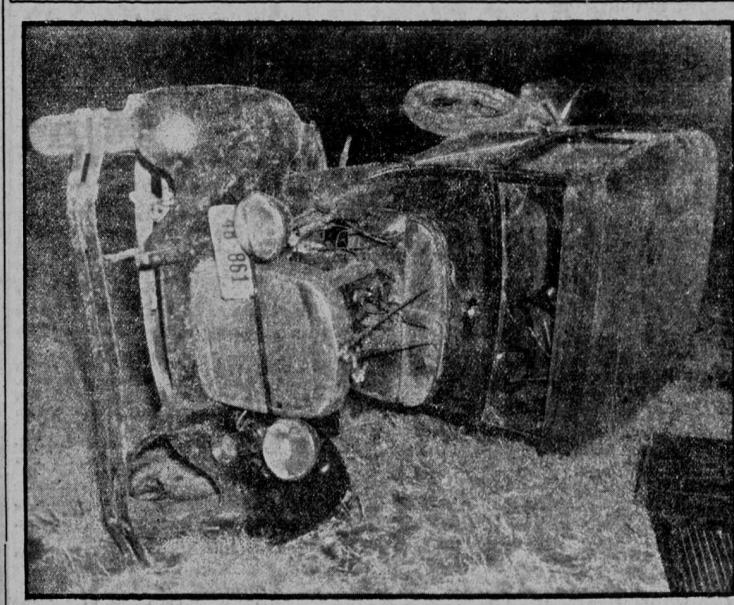

2. Secretary Ickes said today the public works administration, on which Hopkins relies chiefly to provide additional employment, would not reach its peak until late in the summer.

Mine Workers Broaden Strike

HARRISBURG, Ill., March 5 (AP)—Three thousand members of the Progressive Miners' union, seeking to broaden their protest "holiday," determined tonight to picket Peabody mine No. 43, scene of two and a half years ago of rioting in which 20 persons were injured.

The mine cropped up again as a focal point of prolonged mine union strife in Illinois when it was reported open Monday for the first time since Oct. 5, 1933, under a contract with the United Mine Workers of America. Protesting the reopening under a rival union contract, the progressives failed to report for work at 10 Saline county mines today and succeeded in making about 25 per cent effective their call for a general "sympathetic" business shutdown.

CAR OVERTURNS IN COLLISION

Five persons escaped with minor injuries Wednesday night when their automobiles collided on U. S. highway 6 east of Tiffin. The automobile shown above, driven by Paul Gegenheimer of Oxford, turned over on its side after crashing head on with an auto driven by Glen Colony, 616 E. Bloomington street. Richard Dennison of Homestead was riding with Gegenheimer. Mr. and Mrs. George Slade of Tiffin were passengers in the Colony car.

Young Communist, Cause of Prestes' Arrest, Takes Life

RIO DE JANEIRO, March 5 (AP)—A young American communist chose death today when he learned that information he had given police resulted in the arrest of Luiz Carlos Prestes, famous Brazilian revolutionary and long a fugitive.

Leaps Three Stories Victor Allan Barron, 26, listed as the son of Harrison George, said by authorities to be an international communist of the United States, leaped to his death from the third floor of the central police station. He fell to the blue-tiled patio, and died an agonizing death.

Shortly before, 53 government agents had surrounded the pajama clad Prestes in a home here and arrested him, their guns leveled.

"Don't Shoot Me!" "Don't shoot me," they said Prestes cried, "I am not a dynamiter; I'll give up!"

When told that Prestes, so-called "bearded knight of hope" of the Sao Paulo revolt of 1924, had been seized, Barron killed himself.

F.D.R. Enters Primaries In Three States

WASHINGTON, March 5 (AP)—President Roosevelt tonight took his first formal step for re-election, signing petitions entering his name in the Maryland, Massachusetts and Ohio presidential preference primaries.

The White House made the announcement with an additional statement the president would speak at Baltimore April 13 at a meeting to be attended by young democrats from Maryland and neighboring states.

The announcement followed close after one by Carl G. Bachman, chairman of the Borah campaign committee, that Senator Borah of Idaho had decided to enter the Nebraska primaries April 14 in his race for the republican presidential nomination. Borah already has decided to file in Ohio, whose primary is on May 12, and in Illinois. He also is expected by his friends to have slates of delegate candidates in certain New York districts, in Oregon, Montana, Idaho, Wisconsin, Minnesota and North and South Dakota.

Hirota Forms New Cabinet

New Premier Quickly Fills Posts; Popular With Military Blocs

TOKYO, March 5 (AP)—Koki Hirota, veteran foreign minister, made marked progress tonight toward forming a new cabinet to succeed the one shattered last week by bullets of army revolt.

Several hours after he had been summoned to the imperial palace by Emperor Hirohito and entrusted with the formidable task, Hirota announced at 10 p.m., he had filled more than half the posts, assured of support from many quarters.

His selections were: Premier, Koki Hirota; Foreign affairs, Shigeru Yoshida; navy, Osami Nagano; war, Count Juichi Teruchi; finance, Eiichi Baba, president of the Hypothec bank; home, Takukichi Kawasaki; justice, Naoshi Obara.

Kurahai Hsuasa was appointed to succeed Viscount Admiral Makoto Saito, assassinated last Wednesday, as lord keeper of the Privy Seal, and Tsuneo Matsuura was named minister of the imperial household to succeed Yusa.

Hirota, a surprise selection, has been popular with a majority of the army and navy blocs, although occasionally he has opposed expansionist plans. He was more acceptable to rightists, too, because of a strong statement of foreign policy to the diet Jan. 21.

Puerto Rico Troops Mobilize as Seven Plotters Are Freed

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico, March 5 (AP)—National guard units, mobilized in barracks after discovery of an alleged nationalist plot to overthrow the insular government, awaited further orders tonight as seven nationalists were released under $10,000 bond each. Police continued their investigation which led to the arrest of Pedro Albizu Campos, asserted leader of the conspiracy, and six of his followers.

Fear Crisis As Strikers Increase Area

Union Leaders Move To Take in Entire Metropolitan Section

NEW YORK, March 5 (AP)—A labor crisis of major proportions gripped this city of skyscrapers tonight as striking building service workers extended their walkout to two new sectors and moved to take in virtually the entire metropolitan area.

Appeals for national guard and extra police protection went out from harrassed apartment dwellers as union leaders ordered a paralyzing tie-up of elevator and heating service in 4,800 buildings in the Washington Heights and Harlem areas.

Full Strength

"The union is hurling its full strength into the battle," declared James J. Bambrick, leader of the walkout that already has affected 1,536 buildings in other sections of Manhattan and the Bronx.

"The union accepts the challenge to carry this battle on. We feel we have right on our side." He indicated he would move tomorrow against the great mid-Manhattan area known as the Grand Central zone, where tower the world's tallest buildings.

Brooklyn and Queens

Brooklyn and Queens also have been slated for strike calls tomorrow, he said, carrying the battle to four of the five boroughs.

Tonight's orders called for a walk-out of 6,000 workers in Harlem and 4,800 in the uptown business-residential area of Washington Heights. Negotiations for a settlement with the realty advisory board, representing most of the building owners affected, collapsed after a 14-hour conference at city hall.

Real Estate Men

The real estate men, calling the strike a "wanton assault on the public" refused to arbitrate as long as the union demanded the right to organize.

Moving swiftly to guard against renewed outbreaks of violence, police headquarters mobilized 5,504 men on the department's eligible list as a reserve force. Only once before—during the World war—have the police eligibles been lined up for emergency duty.

Federal Relief Heads Disagree

WASHINGTON, March 5 (AP)—Three hour conference between President Roosevelt and his fiscal and relief aides ended tonight without final determination on the amount to be requested for relief during the coming fiscal year.

Ethiopia Takes League's Offer To Aid Nations In Ending War

Protest Bomb Attack On Red Cross Unit By Italian Airplanes On North African Front

ADDIS ABABA, March 5 (AP)—Ethiopia accepted without reservations today the appeal of the League of Nations for immediate negotiations to end the African war.

Emperor Haile Selassie's acceptance was called by Geneva two days after the plea for peace had been dispatched to Rome and Addis Ababa by a council conciliation committee.

Protests to League

At the same time, the government protested to the league against the bombing of a British Red Cross unit yesterday on the northern front near Quoram in which it said three wounded native soldiers and one from Kenya were killed.

Indicate Italy Accepts League Peace Appeal

ROME, March 5 (AP)—A qualified Italian acceptance of the League of Nations appeal for peace in Africa was indicated tonight by informed sources.

An official said, however, Ethiopia's agreement to conciliate would not "stampede" this country into an early reply.

May Reply Late

It is considered unlikely Premier Mussolini will reply prior to Saturday's cabinet session. Should Italy agree to discussions, it will be only on a basis of her "conquest and sacrifices," an informed source said.

Will Retain Territory

Italy's principal contention will be, it is understood, that territory already occupied by her in Ethiopia must be considered her property and not subject to the peace talks.

May Denounce Peace Treaty

Germany, Italy Draw Together in Current European Crisis

BERLIN, March 5 (AP)—Germany and Italy, drawing together in the current European crisis, may jointly denounce the Locarno treaty guaranteeing peace in western Europe, a high government official said today.

International developments during the next week, this official added, will determine whether Reichsfuehrer Hitler and Premier Mussolini will break away from the pact, contending it has been violated by France and Great Britain.

(The Locarno treaty was signed in 1925 by Great Britain, France, Germany, Italy and Belgium, and provides for mutual assistance against aggression.)

Secret Negotiations

This official disclosed for the first time this was a principal subject of secret negotiations between Germany and Italy.

Italy and Germany, this source asserted, disagreed on many things but both believe France and Great Britain have violated the spirit, if not the letter, of the Locarno pact.

Germany contends the Franco-Soviet mutual assistance pact is a violation, while Italy resents the mutual Mediterranean defensive agreement against Italy reached by Britain, France and several other powers.

Italian Contention The Italian contention is that conferences between the French and British general staffs violate the pact.

The official refused to intimate what steps Italy would take if the pact is denounced but frankly said Germany would feel free to act in the demilitarized Rhineland when she felt the time to be ripe.

Marriage of Fullerton-Spence Announced at Party Last Night

Bride's Mother Reveals Marriage Performed In Missouri Aug. 25

At an informal party for 50 guests last night at Munn's grill, Mrs. Mabel Fullerton, 130 E. Jefferson street, announced the marriage of her daughter, Elma, to Paul A. Spence, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Spence, 521 Park road.

Honor First Paper's Birth

Palimpsest to Honor Dubuque Paper By Special Publication

The school of journalism and the state historical society will celebrate the centennial of the birth of the first Iowa newspaper, the DuBuque Visitor, issued May 11, 1836, by special May issues of the Iowa Publisher and the Palimpsest, State Historical society publication.

Articles about the DuBuque Visitor and other daily papers will be included in the Palimpsest. The State Historical society and the school of journalism plan to send out clip sheets to papers throughout the state containing historical material for publication as part of the celebration. They will also send out mats of the picture of the first issue of the DuBuque Visitor and of John King who issued it.

Names Being Entered For Honor Group

Names of students are now being considered for membership in A.F.I., senior honorary men's organization, Tom Miller, A4 of Iowa City, president, announced last night.

Twelve students will be named by the middle of May. Letters have been sent to men's organizations as well as mixed groups on the campus. Any student not affiliated with an organization, whose name might otherwise not be entered and who is interested in becoming a member, may enter his name at Iowa Union desk.

The activities directed by A.F.I. are financed by the I-Blanket Hop. This year the honorary organization presented 24 I-blankets to varsity football players.

Prof. Frank L. Mott Attends Press Meet

How to Become A Good Loafer; W. Crowder Classifies Types

Are you a fancy loafer, of the garden variety, or of the little flower type?

Describing the different types of loafing, Walter Crowder of the college of commerce frankly and scientifically treated this subject in an address at an Order of Artus meeting yesterday.

Classifies Loafers
In classifying loafers into three distinct and definite groups, he declared, "I have devoted myself to the subject of loafing with a great deal of diligence and assiduity."

"I believe that I can speak with greater authority on this subject than any other living man," he claimed.

"Fancy loafing is the highest of the three types," Mr. Crowder explained, "and it is divided into interior and exterior classes. The interior variety is found in pool halls, the exterior group is again subdivided into loafers in the sun and loafers who prefer to remain in the shade."

Really Pikers
The garden variety are really pikers, Mr. Crowder said, since they do their loafing only between 7 p.m. and 12 p.m. "Loafing in this class is our most impure form," he scoffed.

In the little flower type, loafing is done by those that "to say the least, we call queer," according to the speaker. "These individuals are really pathological cases."

Mr. Crowder traced the history of loafing from the fall of man in Eden, after which loafing was secured only at a cost and was viewed as a prize.

Greater Loafers
Naming some of the great loafers of the past, Mr. Crowder said, "The Greek and Roman gods are most frequently thought of and remembered

Movies Instill Book Reading

Dorothy Spencer Lists Books Popular On S.U.I. Campus Now

"Was the movie like the book?"

This question is one of considerable concern to University of Iowa students, Dorothy Spencer, Iowa Union librarian said yesterday. She has found the popularity of a book adapted to the screen, regardless of its former standing, increases greatly just before the picture comes here, while it is playing and for a short time after it leaves.

At present the most popular book of the group is Lloyd C. Douglas' "Magnificent Obsession," with "Vein of Iron," by Ellen Glasgow second, and Hall and Nordhoff's "Mutiny on the Bounty," third.

Other books on display are: "State Fair," by Phil Stong; "Thank You, Jeeves," by P. G. Wodehouse; "Captains Courageous," by Rudyard Kipling; "Vanity Fair," by Thackeray; "So Red the Rose," by Stark optimism. "Through the generosity of the government we have been able to observe many instances of fine loafing," he declared.

Spring Outbursts

LAST WEEK the serenity of our campus was disturbed by the "tennis" in a teapot explosions of a few members of our newly organized Student Union.

Each year, along about this time when the frost begins to go out of the ground and the robins return from the south, universities and colleges have their little communistic outbursts.

These so-called liberals and erstwhile communists and socialists are perfectly harmless and should be congratulated for their seeming interest in the affairs of the nation.

We bemoan the fact that more students on the campus don't organize for the purpose of discussing the great problems confronting the United States today.

However, judging from happenings of past years and the outbursts of certain members of the Student Union last Sunday, we wonder if the sole qualification of a communist is his ability to rate space in newspapers throughout the state.

Red baiting is a good old American sport. There is nothing more pleasing to "red baiters" in all parts of the state than to have one or two publicity seeking students stand up and wave the red flag.

Of course a man has the right to his own convictions, politically and otherwise, in this country. We certainly have gone far down the road toward fascism if he hasn't, but we do object to having one unthinking student have us all labeled communists and socialists.

It is a known fact that students as a whole are more conservative than their elders.

The five-point platform of the Student Union may be an ambitious one. It should not become, however, merely the mouthpiece of a few publicity seeking communists.

Whether we agree or not with the Student Union's platform is another matter.

Perhaps that good old-fashioned treatment of sulphur and molasses would be best for these spring outbursts of communism.

The Lea Amendment

THERE HAS been a growing discontent, especially since the Tilden-Hay election, with the part of the electoral college in electing the president of the United States.

Any system which can keep a candidate receiving the highest number of popular votes from becoming president is not in accord with the spirit of democratic government.

An amendment is now pending in congress which would prevent the recurrence of such an event. The Lea amendment provides that the electoral vote of each state shall be in proportion to the popular vote of the state.

This amendment, if passed, would provide America with the nearest possible approach to a popularly elected president with the retention of the electoral college.

ton production; Muscatine, with its clam shells, is a world button center. Iowa's washing machine industry has banished much drudgery from millions of American and foreign homes, producing as it does about one-half the nation's output.

The name of Newton is known in all corners of the earth. Recent statistics show Iowa first in output of wooden sashes and fourth in doors and portable houses.

Meat packing is Iowa's paramount industry, recent figures ranking her fourth in the United States. She rates second in output of pork products. The Hawkeyes are only surpassed by Illinois in preparation of corn commodities.

In corn canning, Iowa is consistently one of the three foremost states, in some years ranking first. She dresses more poultry than any other state, at times furnishing more than one-third of the nation's fowls.

In 1926 butter production, she mounted above Wisconsin, the queen of dairy states. Recent ratings show her second only to Minnesota.

This is but a glimpse at Iowa's industrial life which will continue to advance steadily because of the state's central location for markets, accessibility to raw materials, possession of fuel and power, and favorable labor and transportation facilities.

A Wise Gesture

ADOPTION OF a new Pan-American Monroe doctrine has been the aim of Latin American republics for a long time.

The question will assuredly be raised again at the coming conference of American nations called by President Roosevelt. Such a movement on our part might be a wise gesture.

South American countries feel that the old Monroe doctrine is an unnecessary usurpation of a duty which should be shouldered by all which should be their pride to have the United States act as "protector."

They are grown up now, and feel that their development should be recognized.

It would be a pretty gesture, entirely in harmony with the "good neighbor" policy, to draw up an agreement including all the nations in equal partnership and responsibility.

Of course the brunt of any real defense of the continent would still actually fall on our country. Our commercial interests are the most widespread.

The United States would relinquish no powers in approving a mutual Monroe doctrine for the Americas, and it would certainly be a step forward in winning the friendship of those South American nations who have always viewed the "Colossus of the North" with suspicion.

Embarrassed Clergymen

WE WONDER if the Iowa liquor commission considered dignity of the clergymen when it recently equipped the liquor stores throughout the state with a supply of sacramental altar wines as a service to the clergymen of Iowa.

We can imagine the embarrassment of a city minister emerging from a liquor store with a package under his arm only to run into some of the women of the congregation that love to chat about such oddities over the bridge tables.

Previously the clergy had to go through the more troublesome, but less embarrassing, formality of getting permits for purchases of sacramental wines from judges of the district courts.

Three E's Of Safety

ADOPTION OF the Milwaukee traffic plan by the national accident committee for dissemination to the entire country should promote safety in every city.

The Milwaukee plan, based on the three "E's"—Engineering, Enforcement and Education—has reduced that city's automobile death rate in the last year to 11.1 per 100,000 persons.

The death rate of the entire country was 28.5 per 100,000 persons. Milwaukee's drive began with reform in traffic lights, traffic islands, and street layouts.

Next, a campaign of public education was begun. And finally, the police did their share, achieving a record of 90 per cent convictions in traffic violation cases.

So now the country is turning to Milwaukee for help in its traffic problem. Much will be written about the plan. The public can do no better than read every word, and cooperate.

Another Problem

DR. DONALD A. LAIRD, eminent psychologist, has made a lot of helpful suggestions on methods of inducing sleep. However, he has not materially aided students on the biggest problem concerning that blissful state of semi-consciousness.

Just when are we going to get in our 40 winks? And how does one manage to keep awake when his eyes feel as if he had rock tied to his eyelids?

Despite hard, uncomfortable chairs, general confusion, the scratching of many fountain pens and the drone of a professor's voice a shocking percentage of students snooze comfortably through several hours of classes a week.

If you listened to Dr. Laird's outline of the do's and don'ts which induce slumber you would infer that getting to sleep is one of the bigger problems. If you observed the average student for a week you'd infer that keeping awake was a bigger one.

A Washington Bystander

WASHINGTON — Representative Robertson of Virginia managed one of those adroit little coups in declaring his support for the stop-gap farm bill as constitutional.

Digging into files musty with the dust of nearly 20 years, he dragged out an opinion by Lawyer Charles Evans Hughes, written in 1917, to sustain him.

The opinion, written at the request of clients who asked as to constitutional validity of the federal farm loan act of 1917, is quite remarkable in the closeness with which the argument followed that in which Mr. Hughes was to participate nearly 20 years later as chief justice in the AAA case.

It is a 34-page affair, written with that same lucidity of presentation which has marked Hughes' opinions on the bench. And there is hardly a point involved in the AAA constitutional argument, Lawyer Hughes did not then cover, hardly a constitutional authority cited in the AAA debate.

Lawyer Hughes did not then cite, Congressional delegation of power, the welfare clause, the question of federal authority in relation to agriculture—and those of "the actual conduct of agricultural activities within the states."

It comes to a test might be a better way to put it. It is quite conceivable that the two-year emergency period of direct federal guidance of the "soil conservation" program will have ended, the question become "moot," before the act reaches that test.

The state cooperation phase to follow is a wholly different constitutional question.

General Notices

To All Students Who Expect To Graduate At The Close Of The Second Semester, June 1, 1936. Every student who expects to receive a degree or certificate at the University Convocation to be held Monday, June 1, 1936, should make his formal application on a card provided for the purpose at the Registrar's Office on or before Saturday, April 4, 1936.

It is of utmost importance that each student concerned comply with this request immediately, for otherwise it is very likely that a student who may be in other respects qualified will not be recommended for graduation at the close of the present semester.

MAKING APPLICATION for the degree or certificate, involves the payment of the graduation fee ($15.00) and also the cap and gown fee ($1.00) at the time the application is made—the payment of these fees being a necessary part of the application. Call at the Registrar's office for the card.

The petition of the Association of Senior Class Presidents that a fee of $1 be assessed to cover the cost of caps and gowns for Commencement has been granted. Therefore, hereafter this additional fee of $1 is to be paid by each candidate for a degree at the time he pays his graduation fee.

Heretofore the normal rental fee for bachelors' caps and gowns has been $2 and for doctors' caps and gowns $4.55. The service for handling the taking of orders, and the distribution of the academic apparel, will be explained to students when information about commencement is sent out from the Alumni office.

H. C. DORCAS. Co-op Dance: The Co-op dance will be held March 6 at Iowa Union. Music will be furnished by the Avalon orchestra. Tickets are 50c per couple and are available at the Iowa Union desk.

Community Panel Forum: Frederick J. Libby of Washington, D. C., secretary of the National Council for the Prevention of War, will conduct a community panel forum on the subject: "Can We Do Anything to Prevent War?" at Macbride auditorium Sunday evening, March 8, at 8 o'clock.

Zoology Seminar: There will be a joint seminar meeting of the Department of Hygiene and Zoology.

A New Yorker

At Large

By JAMES B. RESTON. NEW YORK—It was really very embarrassing for Eduard Habich, right out before all those people like that. And there wasn't anything he could do.

He was singing his role of Al-berich in a matinee performance of "Rheingold" at the Metropolitan opera house, and at one point he was screaming, as on Mr. Wagner can make a singer scream.

He was shaking his fist, railing at the character Wotan, and at the highest note, he made a very fright-ening flourish and fell his pants. But the nodding gray-haired ladies were very discreet. There was a good deal of head-swiveling for an instant and here and there a little burst of laughter, but on the whole Eduard got away with it pretty well.

He made a frantic but ineffectual grab for the truant suspenders but missed; then he finished the high note, pulled the trousers half way up and scrambled for the nearest exit.

At the Yale club in this town the boys just won't break with tradition. No sir, the old conventions must be kept. For example, when a member gets married it has been customary for the bridegroom to be taken to a room in the club where the boys drink to his health.

On this toast, custom also dictates that the gentlemen break the glasses in the fireplace when the wine is quaffed. All of which is very well, but in the Yale club the rooms upstairs don't have fireplaces.

But even this doesn't daunt the young gallants. Two servants wheeled in a special fireplace, shoved it against the wall, wait outside until they hear the crash, then slip in and solemnly roll it down the hall.

Trivia: A woman from Texas has written in to say she thinks I'm "an old puddin'" and before I answer her I wish somebody out there would tell me what she means. "The Great White Way" is right these days. George S. Kaufman and Edna Ferber are writing another play. When Ed Wyna got reckless and decided to produce a show on Broadway the other day, he offered one of the parts to Keenan Wynn, his son. Mr. Wynn Jr. studied the part and the play and told Mr. Wynn Sr. that he thought he'd rather have nothing to do with it, which proves that Mr. Wynn Jr. is a pretty smart young man and somewhat shrewder than the old man, for the show closed within a week.

Sinclair Lewis lost nothing through the banning of his latest book by the films. The publicity caused by the ban sent the sale of the book soaring.

Screen Life

By HUBBARD KEAVY. HOLLYWOOD — Watching the wheels go round:

"Parts of 'one rainy afternoon' are laid in an ice skating rink. Ordinary ice wouldn't do because ordinary ice is noisy when skated on. So some silent ice was poured for the occasion.

It is the invention of Benager Nù Dyke, a Los Angeles ice skater and chemist, who has been trying to mix a skatable, silent ice ever since talkies came along. There are about 20 kinds of chemical ice, Nu Dyke says, but he believes his is the cheapest and most practical.

"One Rainy Afternoon" is the Pickford-Lasky company's initial venture. Its principals are Ida Lupino and Francis Lederer.

"Moonlight Murder" is a mystery laid in the Hollywood bowl—the place where they have the "symphonies under the stars." But the weather has been so bad—rain or fog or something—that none of the picture is being shot "on location."

Because he turned out to be the murderer in "The Garden Myster Mystery," H. B. Warner has been cast in the new film. But he's just a suspect. The person last suspected is always the one who does the dirty work.

There is more 'ice stuff' on an earlier stage, where "Petticoat Fever" is being filmed. The ice here also is manufactured—from canvas and corn flakes and cement.

Myrna Loy is marooned on an ice-locked boat. Robert Montgomery, a radio operator in Labrador who hasn't seen a woman in two years, meets Myrna when he hops on top of a collection of small icebergs that surround Myrna's boat.

The ice rocks and rolls when Montgomery jumps and one almost tips over when he climbs to its peak. In rushing to meet Myrna, he dislocates the cornflake knee.

After each rehearsal, a man with a long handled broom follows Montgomery around to straighten up the corn flakes.

ETTA KETT—

By Paul Robinson

Seen From Old Capitol

By JESS GORKIN

Today's column is devoted to an open forum of student comment. This procedure will be followed each Friday, if student interest warrants. Address letters to this department, in care of The Daily Iowan.

Dear Sir:

I'm here in school for the purpose of gaining an education. Unlike a good many others, I know generally what fields are most suited to my capabilities or, conversely, to what fields my capabilities are suited. I find, after a lengthy sojourn in what has been termed as "the World," that the training I want is contained in my major, the social sciences and a smattering of the fine arts.

Now, the question arises, since I know in which fields I prefer to specialize, why cannot I choose my program with that end in view? Why must I be subject to the theories of some board of regents which plans my education? Why am I required to study certain subjects which I have no desire to learn and which I know from experience will be but a waste of time when I have left college and take my place in the outside world.

In brief, why cannot I be educated without 12 hours of science? Personally I hate mathematics, chemistry, physics and the other sciences. I have no aptitude for those subjects and cannot see the point in forcing myself to learn them. The argument that they may come in handy some day leaves me cold, for I know by previous experience that they can play no part in my chosen field. There are specialists in those fields who could handle, much better than a layman, any questions dealing with those subjects which may arise.

I hope I've made clear my point. I want an education, but I want a practical education. I want those subjects and those teachings which will be most beneficial to me, not a conglomeration of facts easily forgotten and perhaps never applied.

Perhaps I'm wrong. I have been before. But there may be others who view the educational system, so far as this particular point is concerned, in the same light as I. If there are, perhaps they will join me in my sentiments which are, in few words, specialization for the specialists, education for the practical.

—Just a Reader

Dear Mr. Gorkin:

We would appreciate very much if you would place in your column something in regard to the committees of university parties. We have talked to many students who attend these parties, and they all agree that there is absolutely no excuse for the negligence in giving party programs. When programs are given at parties of much lesser importance, it seems that at least an inexpensive program could be given.

We appreciate the fact that the orchestras have been excellent, but at the end of a year or two the persons who attended the party will probably have entirely forgotten it. If the committees consider it an unnecessary expense, we feel confident that students attending these parties would contribute a small additional amount to obtain programs.

Dear Mr. Gorkin:

Way off here in Finis, we always read your column first when the paper comes, only it doesn't come until a couple days after the date says. Well, me and a fellow down here, we're thinking of getting hitched, I mean married, and we want my aunt in Iowa City to know. The only thing us two branches of the family haven't been speaking for some time now. So I was wondering if you could just say something cute about us in your column. If you do, we can send you a photograph of us both when we were 10. We're using it for our wedding picture, since neither of us has changed much since. If you do say anything please send me 50 copies of the paper as I want to give one to everybody in Finis. Yours truly,
 Samantha Bride-to-be

Plan Big Ten Art Exhibition

Jury to Select Works Before March 15 For Week's Exhibit

A list of the works to be submitted for the first Big Ten art exhibit at Iowa Union April 27 through May 4 must be entered by members of the jury of selection for the exhibit before March 15.

Prof. Rufus H. Fitzgerald, director of the school of fine arts, will represent the University of Iowa on the jury, which will include members from each of the Big Ten schools.

To Choose Works

Art exhibited in the Big Ten contest will be chosen from works submitted in the student salon of art at Iowa Union March 22 through April 15. The closing date for entries in the student salon will be March 18. Each work displayed in the Big Ten exhibit will be awarded an official seal. Jonas Lie, president of the National Academy of Design, will soon announce the winning entry, chosen from the 125 designs submitted in the seals contest by students of Big Ten institutions.

May Enter 10

Each school may enter 10 original works done in any of the following fields: oil and tempera painting; watercolor and pastels, graphics, sculpture, mural and architectural designs and architectural sculpture, ceramics and applied design.

After the close of the display, works shown will go on a tour of Big Ten schools beginning May 7.

Hawkeye Trackmen Meet Minnesota Tonight

Capt. Wayne Slocum to Lead Strong Gopher Team Against Iowa Runners Here Tonight

Undefeated Old Gold Will Have Tough Tilt With Gophers

Minnesota's invading Gophers, led by Capt. Wayne Slocum and Bill Freimuth, will meet the undefeated Hawkeye trackmen tonight in what promises to be one of the tightest duals of the season.

Coach Bresnahan's proteges, conquerors of Grinnell and Chicago by 79 to 25 and 69 to 35 scores, are in tip-top shape for the contest, while Minnesota, smarting from a 49 to 37 beating at the hands of a title-bound Wisconsin powerhouse, should be tough enough to push the Hawks to their limits.

Cretzmeier in Three Events
Francis Cretzmeier, leading Old Gold scorer, will compete in three events.

BETTER SEATS
So that they may see all events well, spectators at the Minnesota track meet will be seated in bleachers outside of the west curve of the track. Only officials will be permitted in the balconies.

The spectators' entrances are the doors on the south side of the fieldhouse. The east doors, admitting to the lobby, will be locked.

events. "Cretz" is a favorite in the high hurdles, and also should be up among them at the completion of the high jump. In entering the shot put, it appears that the Hawkeye captain has gone out of his class when he competes against Bill Freimuth, twice winner of the Big Ten crown in this event, and Dominic Krezowski, another weight man who is capable of tossing the sphere more than 45 feet.

Slocum, who is the Texas relay's 3,000 meter champion and who placed second in the Big Ten indoor two mile last year, appears to be a sure winner in the two mile event, and it is possible that he will also compete in the mile run. Ulysses Deters usually shadows Slocum in the longer race and will probably place second.

Tight Races
In point of actual competition, the 440, 880 and the mile run will probably steal the show. Iowa's Jimmy Lyle, Paul Nelson, Bob Nelson, Wilson Briggs, Eugene Skinner and Van Phillips will meet stiff competition from such Gophers as Blotcky, Watson, Brown, Captain Slocum and Palmquist, and the slightest break could give victory either outfit.

Andy Dooley, ace sprinter, will team with lanky Eugene Skinner and Wilson Briggs in the sprints and in the mile relay. With these men competing, it seems that Iowa should cop the sprints, the 440 and the relay.

With Long entered in the pole vault, the Gophers should garner a first, along with victories in the two mile and the shot put.

Cedar Rapids Boxers Beat Iowa City Aggregation, 5-3

By SEYMOUR ZUBALSKY

The Cedar Rapids boxing team last night defeated an Iowa City outfit, five bouts to three, at the American Legion arena in a card packed with hard and fast fighting that included three knockouts.

There were two Golden Gloves champs fighting for the invaders and two for the local team. The Iowa City boys gave a good account of themselves even though they were defeated. Going into the last two bouts, they were tied with the out-of-town boys three bouts to three, but the next two bouts went to the Rapids boxers.

John Malecek, Cedar Rapids, and Leo Cain, Iowa City, put on one of the best bouts of the evening in the 175 pound class. The snarling Cain punched his opponent all over the ring in the first round and a half as he sunk lefts to the stomach and overhand rights to the head.

Cain became over-anxious midway in the second and left himself wide open for a short right hand jolt that put him on his back. His head hit the canvas with a sickening sound and Alex Fidler, the referee, didn't even go through the formality of counting as he immediately went to

BITS ABOUT SPORTS

By ART SNIDER

HUMOR in an eventful basketball season:

It was in the heated moments of the Illinois-Iowa basketball game at Champaign. The Illinois were driving through for basket after basket in monotonous manner.

The Iowa bench was frantic. Jumping up and down, shaking clenched fists, Coach Rollie Williams cried, "For goodness sakes, why don't they cover their men?"

"But they are covered, Rollie," called the equally-excited "Pops" Harrison, sitting next to the head coach.

"Well, who in the world is making the baskets then, the referee?"

At Michigan: Sam Johnson to Bush Lamb—Er, don't look now, but there goes Tom-magno under for another basket.

At Lafayette: Capt. Bob Kessler takes the ball from the bankboard and comes roaring down the floor. "I've got him," shouts Freddy Schwartz. "I hope."

At Chicago: One of the largest crowds of the season was on hand to see the Hawks and Maroons perform, and especially, to see Sid Rosenthal, local boy, scintillate.

Rosenthal's former high school mates, his friends and parents were in the stands. For two years, Rosenthal had been unable to turn in a creditable game on the Midway. In fact, he had not scored a point in the two preceding games in the Chicago fieldhouse. He had always been over-anxious.

The first half of the Hawkeye-Maroon game was over and the statistics still showed no points for the Iowa captain.

But in the second period, "Rosy" cut loose with a display of basket shooting for which he is known. There was no happier man in Chicago than Rosenthal after that game. He had conquered his "jinx."

TUD BITES... "Zud" Schammel is blossoming out into a competent basketball official. He will work with Shain in the Iowa City-Burlington game tonight. Previously, he saw service in the St. Pat's gym. There is little chance for Gene Ford to stay up with the Cubs this season. He is suffering from a re-occurrence of an arm injury. The former star Hawkeye pitcher first received the sore flipper in the first two weeks at Peoria where the manager worked him almost every day without consideration. He will probably never be an effective pitcher again unless he is given a long rest. Glenn Cunningham boards an airplane this afternoon to resume track competition in the east.

Phi Kappa Psi submitted its bid for the all-university basketball championship last night by scoring a victory over Bloomington house, cooperative dormitory champions, 27 to 22. It was the first defeat of the season for the Co-op champions, who had gone through an eight-game schedule without a setback.

Last night's fracas was featured by the alternate hot streaks of the two quintets, first one then the other scoring from all angles of the court. Both teams succeeded in penetrating their opponents' defense, but could not register points in close range of the basket.

Johann Opens Scoring
Phi Psi tallied early in the game when Johann drove in under the basket for a short shot and repeated his performance a few seconds later to chalk up four points for the fraternity class B champions. Bloomington broke into the scoring column with a field goal and a free throw, but Douthett added a charity toss to the Phi Psi's total to give the Greek letter boys a two point lead.

Then Bloomington showed into the lead when Blake tossed in a long shot and Mudge scored from the foul line. Hoak evened the score for Phi

Minnesota's Mat Squad Has Several Powerful Contenders For Western Conference Titles

Editor's note: This is the first of a series of articles concerning Big Ten wrestling teams who will compete in the conference championships here March 13 and 14.

With a season's record of six wins and one 21 to 11 defeat at the hands of Iowa, the University of Minnesota wrestling team will prove a powerful entry in the Big Ten conference meet here March 13 and 14.

Minnesota has by far the best team it has had in many years. In the 1935 season, the Gopher matmen have won 41 bouts, lost 17 and tied two. With the exception of a defeat from Iowa, they have been undefeated, whipping Carlton twice; Iowa State Teachers college 18 to 12; Chicago, 22 to 10; Wisconsin, 25 to 10; Nebraska, 24 to 0.

Johnson Outstanding
Capt. Calfson Johnson, stellar 175 pound artist, will be one of the outstanding Gopher representatives in the coming event. He has won six out of seven bouts this year, being defeated only by Earle Kiehnorn. Among Johnson's outstanding performances this season is his defeat of the 232 pound Grinde of Wisconsin.

Don Dailey, who is unbeaten in seven bouts of the 155 pound class, will figure strongly in Minnesota's chances to win. Most of his bouts have been featured by falls, winning four out of seven events. Last year, he placed second in the conference in the 145 pound class.

John Whitaker, 165 pound grappler, has been victorious in six out of seven matches, losing only to Bryan Guernsey of Iowa. Whitaker, although a sophomore, has won four of his victories by falls.

Among the 118 pound standouts will be Ross McCorquodale who has won six out of seven bouts in the last season. He defeated Captain Haase of Wisconsin, second in the Big Ten last year.

James Colwell, 125 pound Gopher, will enter the event with a victory record of five out of seven bouts. Ervin Upton, 135 pound junior, has dropped two bouts throughout the season.

Because of injuries sustained earlier in the season, it is not definitely decided whether Stan Hanson will be in shape for the heavy-weight division of the conference meet. Although he has only wrestled in three events of his 1935 season, he has won all by a decisive margin.

Riegel Elected
CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Bob Riegel, regular center for the last two years, last night was elected captain of the 1937 University of Illinois ball team.

Howard Braun, guard, was named honorary captain of the 1936 squad, which had deferred election of a leader.

contrasted with the River team's more deliberate, waiting game. Although the Blues have lost more games than they have won this season, they are a vastly improved club, and should the players start hitting the hoop, they have a good chance to bag a victory tonight.

Sharon's tall, experienced team will have an advantage in height, but the locals will be playing on their own court and shooting at familiar baskets.

At any rate, the game tonight should be a battle to the finish, with both aggregations determined not to lose. It is likely that the contest will go either way, depending on which quintet gets hot and starts hitting first.

The Sharon quintet is led by Glen Snider, brilliant scoring star, who has been high point man in most of the Johnson county team's wins. In the all-star game Wednesday, which Sharon turned into a complete rout, Snider was the driving power in a fine offense, scoring 20 points.

Tonight's contest will witness a battle between two differing styles of offensive play. Sharon's long passing, fast breaking team will be

With the cohesiveness of the Dubuque and Sioux City diocesan tournaments yesterday, the contestants for the coming tournament were determined. They are: St. Xavier of Dyersville and Columbia academy, Dubuque diocese representatives; Dowling high of Des Moines and St. Francis of Council Bluffs, Des Moines and St. Francis of Council Bluffs, Des Moines diocese.

Representatives from the Sioux City diocese are: St. Matthew's of Clare and St. Mary's of Storm Lake; while the local Irish and St. Mary's of Clinton will represent the Davenport diocese.

Armbruster Chooses 12 Swimmers For Trip to Wisconsin

Sickness Will Keep Three Vets at Home

Old Gold Mentor To Gamble With Reserve Men in Last Dual

Names of 12 men who will comprise the Hawkeye swimming team against Wisconsin at Madison tomorrow were announced yesterday by Coach Dave Armbruster.

Capt. Adolf Jacobsmeyer, Bob Christians, Ray Walters, Jack Sieg, Bob Reed, Bob Switzer, Homer Bradshaw, Fred Haskins, Allen Dunton, Harold Sears, Arn Christen and John Stark are the members who will leave here tomorrow morning for the Badger stronghold.

3 Vets Absent

Missing from the squad are three veterans, Dick Westerfield, Wilbur Wehmeyer and Bob Allen, who have been bothered by colds and weakness during the last week. Armbruster is taking no chances with having these men out of condition for the Big Ten championships next week, so will give them a chance to recuperate this week end.

The Old Gold mentor plans to gamble with his reserve material as much as possible tomorrow, using his regulars only when points are badly needed. The Badgers have a weak team this season, giving the Hawk substitutes a chance to pick up experience and points.

To Switch Veterans

How Coach Armbruster will distribute his men among the different events is a question which will go unanswered until the start of each race tomorrow afternoon. Several of the veteran members of the squad will be switched to different events from those they normally compete in, depending upon the score of the meet at the time.

Dunton, Reed, Bradshaw and Switzer will come in for their share of attention against the Badgers. These men have been pushing the regulars for varsity berths all season, but have not had much chance at dual competition.

Dunton in Breast Stroke

Dunton will pair with Fred Haskins to form the Old Gold breast stroke entry. He has shown exceptional form in practices this week, being clocked in 2:39.5 in the 200 yard breast stroke and should give a good account of himself tomorrow.

Bradshaw, Switzer and Reed are all used in the distance events, Bradshaw is a veteran from last year's squad, while the other two are sophomores.

Christians, Sears

Christians and Sears will get the back stroke assignment against Wisconsin. Christians, a back stroker from his high school career, has been competing in the distances this year, but will be switched back tomorrow.

The certificates, signed by F. W. Ziegen, secretary of the American Olympic committee, were awarded to the first three place-winners in each of the 10 events, including the members of the relay teams.

University of Iowa Swimmers Won 26 of the Certificates Including Four by Dick Westerfield and Three each by Adolf Jacobsmeyer and Bob Christians.

Amateur Boxing Stars To Battle Tomorrow

CHICAGO, March 5 (AP)—Midwestern amateur boxing stars will battle through semi-finals and finals tomorrow night in the Chicago stadium for Golden Gloves championships.

Championship winners in the tournament, the ninth annual sponsored by the Chicago Tribune, will qualify for the final Olympic boxing men's bouts which will be held in the stadium the week of May 24.

Iowa Gymnasts To Leave For Minneapolis

Seven members of the University of Iowa gym team leave this morning for the final dual meet of the season with Minnesota, tomorrow afternoon.

Coach Baumgartner believes that the gym team has shown a great deal of improvement the last week. He thinks it should give a very good account of itself at Minnesota. Keil has developed rapidly on the flying rings and is regarded as the Hawkeye's best performer in this event.

Gophers Hold Win

The Gophers defeated the Iowa team in a dual meet here earlier in the season. Capt. Eugene Wettstein, ace Iowa performer, was handicapped by an injured hand and failed to turn in his usual outstanding performance. He has won three events in meets with Chicago and Illinois.

Captain Mattison, Minnesota's All-around Star, Will Compete in All five events. Nelson and Shawbold are also outstanding men on the Gopher team.

Leading Title Contenders

Minnesota nosed out Iowa for second place in the Big Ten meet in 1935. As a result of their win over Illinois, 1935 conference champions, two weeks ago, the Gophers are regarded as the leading contenders for the Big Ten title this year.

A keen rivalry, strengthened last year by a dispute over the judging of the events, exists between the two gym teams. As a result, a large crowd is expected to attend the meet tomorrow.

Kringel Ends Dual Competition

This will be the last dual meet for Ed Kringel, who will compete in all five events. Hawkeyes making the trip are: Captain Wettstein, George Nissen, Ed Kringel, Philip Keil, Leon Goldsmith, Adams, and other Mark Panther or Art Griswold.

Mel Ott of the Giants, youngest 10-year man in baseball, is going strong again. Only 27. Ott is starting his eleventh season.

Rosenthal's 162 Points Top Iowa Scorers in 19 Games

Capt. Sid Rosenthal garnered 162 points, 86 more than the runner-up, Joe Van Yesselkyk, to lead the University of Iowa scorers in the 1935-36 season. It was the highest total made by any Hawkeye player since 1923.

The Hawkeyes, playing a 19-game schedule, averaged 31 points against 31.5 points for their opponents. Their highest total score, 52 points, was made against Chicago while Purdue ran up 54 points against the Old Gold quintet at Lafayette Feb. 29.

Fond Memories Of Yanks Force Mighty Swatter to Leave

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 5 (AP)—Baseball's forgotten man—the one mighty George Herman Ruth—could stand it no longer.

With two clubs of former teammates training within a miasmic shot of his bungalow here, the Babe hurriedly packed his golf clubs today and left for Miami where, he hopes, the memories will not be quite so keen.

Just a year ago, the old home run king was making his last baseball stand with the Boston Nationals at Waterfront park. Prior to that, for many distinguished seasons, he was the No. 1 drawing card of the Yankees at Miller Huggins field.

Since quitting the Braves in a huff early last season, Ruth has become a somewhat portly, puzzled and disappointed citizen who leads the quiet and simple life and dreams about his glamorous baseball days.

"It's not so bad until the teams begin coming south," he told the friend the other day. "I go to the golf links every morning. Sometimes I go driving in the afternoon. Then I come home, have my dinner, take a couple of snorts and go to bed. When I crave excitement, I go out and take a flyer or two on the greyhounds. But it's pretty tough when you can sit on your front porch and hear bats cracking all around you."

surprise of the evening when he scored a clean knockout over Le Roy Simms. Simms was the aggressor throughout and had the Washington boy staggering around the ring. McGraw, through a foggy haze, saw an opening and let drive with a beautiful right to the button that put Simms out for the evening.

Tommy Farrell, veteran of local ring warfare, fought a cool, heady fight to earn a one sided decision over Burdett Lackman. Farrell fought from his usual crouch, shooting rights to the midsection and lefts to the face. He had Lackman hanging on in the last round.

Bob Johnson, Cedar Rapids Negro boy, was awarded the nod over Bill Edmondson, Washington. Johnson knew too much for the local boy and gave him a boxing lesson in winning the fight.

Alex Fidler, of the famous boxing Fidleres, was given an enthusiastic reception by the local fans. He handled the bouts flawlessly and turned in an all-around good job.

Schmidts Get Jail Term, Fine

Judge Gaffney Gives 3 Months Sentences, Fine of $500 Each

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schmidt were fined $500 each and sentenced to three months in the county jail by District Court Judge James P. Gaffney yesterday after pleading guilty to County Attorney E. A. Baldwin's information charging a liquor nuisance.

The couple lives near U.S. highway 161, south of the airport. The couple, scheduled for trial next Monday, after being indicted by the grand jury last February, appeared yesterday morning.

The court ordered the pair to pay the costs of the case including $50 county attorney fees and decreed a jail sentence of 150 days each if the fines are not paid. The indictment followed a raid by state, county and city officials several weeks ago.

Mavis Speaks To Rotarians

Explains River's Rise Due to Ice Rather Than Water Supply

Explaining that the present rise in the Iowa river is caused by thick, hard ice rather than by an increase in the flow of water, Prof. F. T. Mavis, acting head of the department of mechanics and hydraulics in the college of engineering, told the Rotary club, meeting at the Jefferson hotel for its weekly luncheon, "it will be very difficult to predict just what will happen when the ice starts moving."

Explains Statistics

Professor Mavis explained how rainfall statistics are used to anticipate the amount of flood damage that can be expected and the consideration given to such factors as temperature and the amount of snowfall. He indicated a sudden flow of water plus the break up of the ice might send the river over its banks.

Bock Victim Of Gas Fumes

Man Missing 2 Days Discovered Dead In Kitchen of Home

George Bock, 48, was found dead yesterday afternoon at his home, 1184 Hotz avenue, by Sheriff Don McComas and County Coroner George Marech who were called by Irene Bock, niece of Mr. Bock, who became worried after no one had seen him since Tuesday afternoon.

The men entered the house with a skeleton key and found Mr. Bock in the tightly closed kitchen with four burners of the stove open.

On the table was a note reading: "It is now 12 o'clock, goodbye Jack and Bill." It is believed the burners had been open since midnight Tuesday. The body was completely dressed, except for house slippers.

Mr. Bock had been despondent since the death of his wife Feb. 7, relatives said.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bock, 930 E. Jefferson street; two sons, John and William, and a niece, Irene Bock, who live with Mr. Bock's parents; and two nephews, Carl Bock of 325 S. Dubuque street and Paul Bock of 930 E. Jefferson street.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

Law Students Enter Politics

County Attorney Posts Goal for 3 Seniors Beginning Careers

By ADELE ANDERSON

Three seniors in the college of law are losing no time in embarking on political careers.

The triumvirate, Carl Debaggio of Eldora, Ennis McCall of Newton and George Van Nostrand of Fairfield, all republicans, will be candidates for county attorney in their respective counties in the June primaries. Debaggio will run in Hardin county, Van Nostrand in Jefferson county and McCall in Jasper county. They plan to take the state bar examinations in June so that if nominated, they will be licensed attorneys before the November general elections.

Campus Politics

Until now, the young candidates have had experience only in campus politics, but they feel that the political race will be beneficial to them whether they win or lose. They will do most of their campaigning on week ends at home, during spring vacation and in the week between final examinations and the primary elections.

McCall and Debaggio, both members of Delta Theta Phi law fraternity, participated in the junior law club arguments, and Van Nostrand is co-chairman of the committee for Supreme Court day, April 2.

Ambitious Students

In addition to being prominent in student activities, these ambitious law students have found time to work their way through school. McCall has three positions: a board job in Iowa Union, a room job in a private home, and a janitor job in University hall. Debaggio cleans house and does the cooking for a family of eight, besides working in the law library, and Van Nostrand is head waiter at the Law Commons dormitory.

McCall, who received his B.A. degree from the University of Iowa in 1934, is a member of Delta Sigma Rho, honorary debating fraternity, and received the Lowden prize for public speaking in 1933.

Was Graduated from N.D.

Debaggio has been enrolled here since the summer of 1934, having been graduated from Notre Dame in 1929, and Van Nostrand came here after graduation from Grinnell in 1933. He was president of the student council there, won the Spaulding

Redecorate County Courthouse With Federal Gov't Grant

First Redecorating On Building In 15 Years Complete Saturday

Redecoration of the Johnson county courthouse, the first in 15 years, will be finished tomorrow with the exception of painting in the basement and on the stair railings, County Engineer Ray H. Justen said yesterday. Work was begun Jan. 2.

The total cost of the work will be approximately $6,000. Mr. Justen estimated. Johnson county will pay 55 per cent of this amount, with the federal government paying the remainder. Approximately 50 men worked on the project.

Paint All Rooms

Every room in the building was painted and redecorated, and all floors were cleaned and varnished. The west wall in the courtroom on the third floor was moved 12 1-2 feet east, and a new library was installed in the space provided.

The law library has long needed improvement, Mr. Justen said. It formerly consisted of a row of bookcases in a hall back of the court room, which made it inconvenient for the lawyers and their clients. Barristers are now able to converse in comparative privacy in the new library.

Lay New Floor

A new concrete floor was laid in the basement, and a storeroom was built on the second floor by removing a temporary partition between the offices of the county auditor and the county treasurer. A permanent partition was put in its place. Minor painting jobs on the outside of the building will be completed as soon as weather permits.

The Hunzinger-Wagner company of Iowa City has been in charge of the project, and the Stillwell Paint store was the sub-contractor for the painting and redecorating. All the work was done under FWA regulations with an outright grant from the federal government.

Construct Driveway

A new driveway south of the courthouse and a parking space on the west will be built in May or June, Mr. Justen added. This is part of the same Iowa docket 1011-R for the redecoration of the courthouse, but the contract has not been let at present. A concrete surface will replace the gravel on the drive and parking lot where melting snow has left puddles of water during the last few days.

Three Left On School Board Elections List

The field of candidates for the Iowa City Independent school board election Monday was reduced to the present three members of the board by the withdrawal of Frank E. Burger, 629 E. Brown street, yesterday.

Charles A. Gallher, secretary of the local school board, pointed out that the names of all six candidates chosen by the bi-partisan school committee will appear on the ballots. There is no provision in the state law permitting names to be removed from the ballot after the nomination deadline, Mr. Gallher said.

If one of the three candidates who have withdrawn receives enough votes to win the election, he may decline the position or may accept and then resign. In either case the school board has the authority to appoint a successor.

Grants $85 Judgment

A judgment of $85 for rent due was granted in favor of Mrs. Ida Stackman, administratrix of the John Zimmerman estate, against Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Hettrick yesterday in Justice of the Peace J. M. Kadlec's court.

City Will Have Public Hearing

A public hearing of the preliminary city zoning ordinance will be held in the city hall Thursday night at 7:30. D. W. Crum, secretary of the Iowa City Chamber of Commerce, announced last night.

Iowa City plan commission met yesterday afternoon in the offices of the chamber of commerce to form preliminary alterations in the zoning of the city. Jacob L. Crane planning expert of Chicago, acted as consultant at the meeting.

Considering the state highway commission's plan for paving highway 261 from Anamosa to Iowa City in the next few years, the business zone may be extended along N. Dodge street, Mr. Crum said.
