Tempest Lulls

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—The political tempest arising from the removal of Maj. Gen. Johnson Hagood from his command lulled at least temporarily tonight as the senate military affairs committee rejected a proposed investigation and President Roosevelt said he contemplated no further action.
The committee voted 12 to 2 to accept a subcommittee's unanimous report that there was no justification for investigation of Hagood's removal from command of the eighth corps area, as proposed in a resolution introduced by Senator Metcalfe.

"Illinois Plan"

CHICAGO, March 6 (AP)—An important step toward implementing the new soils conservation-subsidy farm program in the corn belt was taken today with committee approval for the "Illinois plan" of benefit payments.
The benefit payment committee of the regional conference of farmers from 12 midwestern states voted 12 to 4 for the "Illinois" plan, although the "Ohio" plan won support from Kansas, Indiana, and Missouri delegations.

Getting Ready

CHICAGO, March 6 (AP)—Enlistment of what was proposed as the biggest campaign army in republican history—two men for every 20 voters—was started tonight by party generals in the midwest to take the field against President Roosevelt in November.
Every opponent of the new deal, republican or democrat, was offered a place in the vast organization, named the "republican volunteers."

Floods Threaten

SIoux CITY, March 6 (AP)—Sioux City mobilized for its flood fight tonight as the Floyd and Sioux rivers and Perry creek bore mounting torrents down to the still ice-locked Missouri river.

ENGLAND PROTESTS BOMBING

Four Locarno Pact Signers to Visit Hitler

Premier Calls Special Meet Of Reichstag

Members of German Parliament to Meet At Noon Today

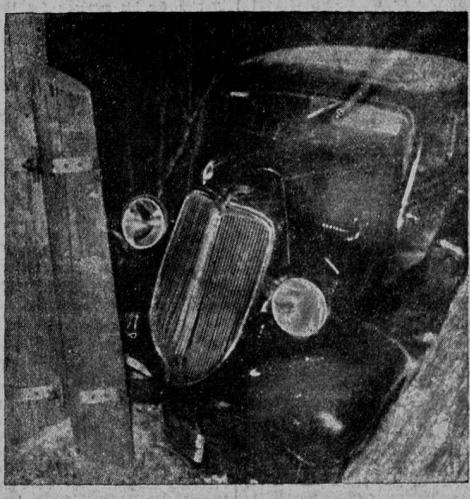

BERLIN, March 6 (AP)—Adolf Hitler tonight called a special session of the German reichstag for tomorrow and invited ambassadors of the four nations which signed the Locarno treaty to visit him before the national assembly convenes.
With a terse announcement the reichsfuehrer summoned the members of the German parliament to meet at noon tomorrow. Shortly afterward he invited the British, French, Italian and Belgian ambassadors to call on him successively, beginning at 10 a.m.
Well informed sources said Hitler, speaking personally before the reichstag, will make a last appeal to the Locarno signatories to observe the spirit and the letter of the treaty guaranteeing mutual security in western Europe.
Only if this appeal fails, these informed sources declared, will Germany move to the final consequence of denouncing the five power pact.
General Staff Meets
It was further learned that the army general staff met today to consider a subject the nature of which was not disclosed. This meeting was considered to have unusual significance in the light of the forthcoming reichstag session, officially announced to consider "administrative explanations" which were expected to deal with the Locarno treaty and the future German course in the Rhineland.
Many members of the Prussian state council and the reichstag attended the "get-together" session at the new air ministry tonight, leading to the belief that they had been given an advance indication of the background of tomorrow's session.
Tomorrow's session of the reichstag will be the first since its meeting last September at Nurnberg when the anti-Jewish laws were formulated.
Silence Prevails
Officials preserved absolute silence concerning plans for the meeting, even refusing to answer questions regarding the location of the assembly.
Diplomatic quarters expressed firm belief that the reichsfuehrer may announce a moderate course, neither completely withdrawing from the Locarno pact nor immediately reoccupying the demilitarized Rhineland.
May Return to League
Some diplomats declared Hitler might even offer to return to the League of Nations if the demilitarized zone were to be abolished and under certain other conditions.

25 Persons Ask Revision Of Appraisal

More than 25 persons, describing themselves as "disgruntled taxpayers," appealed to the city council last night for a revision of the tax appraisal books for 1937. Led by Della Grizel, director of the Fifth Ward Tax Equalization league, and Florence Churchill, president of the league, the committee presented a tax equalization petition to the council, complete with 20 pictures.
The petition, which said "The entire appraisal is careless, haphazard and so discriminatory between classes of property that it can never receive public acceptance," was signed by 115 taxpayers.
Copies of the petition have been sent to the state board of assessment and review, Miss Grizel said, and to the Johnson county board of supervisors. The council referred the petition to a committee of the whole, to meet at a date yet to be set.
The pictures included in the petition were said to illustrate some of the inequalities in the appraisal as it now stands.

Council Accepts Substitute Offer From Government to Aid Erection of Municipal Light Plant, Distribution System

DOUBLE POLE STOPS CAR

This sedan, driven by John W. Smith, 15 S. Johnson street, missed a curve one-half mile west of Iowa City near Coralville at midnight last night, plunged through a shallow ditch, and was halted abruptly by the double telephone pole shown in the foreground. Smith's injuries were not regarded as serious.

Disclose Committee Subpenaed Long Distance Phone Records

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—The senate lobby committee was disclosed tonight to have followed up its mass seizure of private telegrams by a widespread subpoenaing of records of long distance telephone calls.
Authoritative word of this action preceded briefly a radio speech by Jonett Shouse, president of the American Liberty league, in which he charged the committee's seizures furnished an "example of governmental terrorism."
A day long session of the lobby committee earlier had brought out testimony that Henry L. Doherty, dominant figure in Cities Service corporation, sold out much of his interest several months before the financial collapse in 1929 and a few weeks later bought himself back into control at a profit of $17,700,000.
The first few of the seized records of telephone conversations actually played a part in today's questioning of utility company witnesses about the drive they conducted last summer against enactment of the Wheeler-Rayburn utility holding company control bill.
A source close to the committee disclosed they had been requisitioned wherever they could be used to direct questioning or to disclose new evidence of lobbying.

Smith Injured As Car Crashes Pole

John W. Smith, 27, 15 S. Johnson street, was slightly injured shortly after midnight when the car he was driving left the road and crashed into a telephone pole while rounding a corner about a half mile west of Iowa City. The front end of the car was crushed, and the steering wheel was pushed back into the seat.
Mr. Smith was taken to the University hospital where officials reported he suffered slight scalp lacerations and shock as a result of the accident. Officials stated that Smith would probably be released sometime today.

Five Persons Die In Spanish Riots

MADRID, March 6 (AP)—Five persons were killed and 33 wounded today in new political disturbances in Spain as the cabinet was reliably reported to be considering political repercussions from the prospective resignation of President Niceto Alcalá Zamora.
Arturo Hernandez, fascist leader in Toledo province, was killed by a group of extremists in Puebla de Almoradiel.

Mayor Claims Assurance Of No Opposition

New Agreement Almost Same as Former Aid Contract

A substitute offer by the United States to the city of Iowa City offering aid in the erection of a municipal light plant and distribution system was formally accepted by the city council last night in lieu of an agreement signed Oct. 7, 1935.
Mayor Thomas E. Martin told the council he has received assurance from Attorney Harley Stipp of Des Moines that, although the injunction now in effect restraining the city from taking any action on such a plant also covers this move, opposing council will not object. Attorney Stipp also indicated the probability that Federal District Judge Charles A. Dewey will, upon his return from vacation, alter the injunction to make the move legal.
The new offer from the government is modeled after the former contract, and is revamped only "to avoid any unauthorized delegation of power by the city."
The $412,000 grant and all other monetary phases of the new agreement remain identical with the old contract, Mayor Martin said.
At the same meeting, the first for several weeks, the council received petitions from Mrs. Frances Wagner, 1129 Hotz avenue; Mrs. Rosa Paul, 22 W. Bloomington; and J. Glenn Colony, 616 E. Bloomington, asking for suspension of taxes. The petitions were referred to the claims committee.
The council granted permission to the Hawkeye Taxicab company for the transfer of three taxi licenses. Numerous bills and the city payroll for February were read and approved.
A resolution to transfer $3,012.04 from the city bridge fund to the bond and interest fund was passed and approved by the council. The move left $2,194.56 in the bridge fund.
Due to abnormally cold weather which caused some of the outdoor work at the new sewage disposal plant to be temporarily halted, the council set the date of June 1 for completion of these parts of the plant. The sewage plant contract called for completion March 25.
A resolution to pay Jacob L. Crane $100 for consultation services in city planning was passed and approved.
George J. Dohrer, business manager of the sewage disposal office, was granted permission to purchase 4,000 one-cent postcards at a cost not to exceed $47.
The council granted a license to sell cigars to Iowa Union.
A proposed ordinance for the pay.

Barbers Reach Agreement In Price Battle

After warring over prices for haircuts more than a month, 25 local barbers last night went back to prices charged before the price cutting began, setting charges for haircuts at 40 cents with shaves at 25 cents.
To bring two hold out shops into line, officers of the newly organized Iowa City Barbers' association last night threatened to ask a predatory price cutting injunction in district court.
Mayor Thomas E. Martin yesterday requested that the barbers not bring their quarrel before the city council meeting last night. He pointed out that ordinances fixing barbers' prices in other Iowa cities were to be tested by the state supreme court in May. The barbers reached their agreement by telephone.
Digging into city records, representatives of the association unearthed an old city ordinance limiting working hours and providing sanitation regulations for the profession. The ordinance limits the hours of barber shops from 7:30 a.m. until 9:30 p.m. on week days. Hours on Saturdays and days before holidays are restricted to from 7:30 a.m. until 9 p.m.
Association officials said Mayor Martin will "crack down" on violations of the state "blue sky" law regarding Sunday closing.
"We have reached an agreement now which should be agreeable to everyone," stated William Peterson, president of the association, last night. "Every attempt will be made to see that this agreement remains effective."

Hears Impeachment

Federal Judge Halsted L. Ritter of Florida is pictured, above, leaving the capitol in Washington, after the house of representatives ordered his impeachment trial in the senate on charges of "high crimes and misdemeanors." Debate in the lower legislative body took nearly five hours as the judge sat in the gallery hearing himself both denounced and defended.

May Change Revenue Plan

Hint at Compromise On Corporation Tax In House Committee

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—A compromise method of clapping a broad tax on undistributed corporation earnings, key proposal in the Roosevelt tax program, was hinted today by members of the house ways and means subcommittee on taxes.
Their suggestion, roughly was: That if a corporation diverts a high percentage of its profits into reserves instead of distributing them to its stockholders as dividends a stiff tax should be levied on the amount so withheld.
That if a corporation turns most of its earnings into dividends and diverts only a small percentage into reserves the tax rate on the sum diverted should be proportionately lighter.
That the schedules be so arranged that a corporation falling in the latter group would pay a total of federal taxes no greater than is exacted by the law now in effect.
To illustrate, one committee member said a 15 per cent tax might be applied when a corporation converts 10 per cent of its profits into reserves, and scaled upward to a point at which a corporation withholding 40 per cent of its earnings would pay at a rate of 45 per cent.
Such a plan, it was argued, would meet the insistence of treasury spokesmen that there be no exemption from the new corporation levy and at the same time satisfy general objections by permitting accumulation of reasonable working reserves without unduly heavy taxation.

Law Waived, Doug to Wed Today at Noon

PARIS, March 6 (AP)—Their request for suspension of French marriage laws officially approved, Douglas Fairbanks Sr. and Lady Ashley set tomorrow noon for their wedding.

The last legal obstacle to the marriage was removed late today when the state's attorney delivered the papers which the actor has sought from numerous French officials since his arrival here several days ago from the United States.
The suspension, however, came too late for a wedding today and the couple found the doors of city hall closed when Fairbanks' attorney delivered the final notification.
Mlle. Susanne Blum, attorney for the actor and secretary to Joseph Paul-Boncour, minister of state without portfolio, obtained the permission which waived the 30-day residence period and the 11-day publication of banns required by French law.
Before the permission was granted, however, Lady Ashley sent to London for her birth certificate and the statement of her divorce from Lord Ashley in 1934.

Receive Testimony Against Liquor Tax

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—Testimony—immediately challenged by the treasury—that the government and states were losing hundreds of millions of dollars in taxes and the people forced to pay exorbitant prices through the present method of collecting liquor taxes was received today by a senate finance subcommittee.
There was great confusion in the chamber, although no more shots were fired. Stoyadinovich, his morning coat dusty and rumpled, arose from behind the desk and tried to quiet the disorder.

Italian Army's Alleged Attack On Red Cross Draws Protest

Ambassador Instructed To Ask Duce For Investigation Of The Ethiopian Affair

LONDON, March 6 (AP)—Great Britain ordered its ambassador to Rome today to protest strongly against the alleged bombing of a British Red Cross unit in Ethiopia by Italian planes.
Sir Eric Drummond, the British ambassador, was instructed to urge Premier Mussolini's government to press an investigation of the attack and to order his military leaders on the war front to make certain such an incident did not occur again.
Government officials asserted they had no official word of Addis Ababa reports that Maj. G. A. Burgoyne, attached to the British Red Cross unit near Quorom, Ethiopia, had been killed.
Information from Dr. Melley of the Red Cross group, relayed through Sir Sidney Barton, British minister to Ethiopia, stated reports in Addis Ababa that three Kenya subjects of Great Britain had been killed were not true.
Dr. Melley reported, however, that a bomb struck a Red Cross flag spread on the ground. He asserted about 40 bombs were dropped by the airplane which flew low over the ambulance unit, situated about two miles from the nearest troops in an open spot.
The bombing occurred Wednesday.
Three patients in the hospital tents were killed and several were wounded, but there were no casualties on the staff of the unit, Dr. Melley reported. He said three hospital ward tents, the operating and sterilization tents and one truck were destroyed.
Anthony Eden, foreign secretary, and Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin decided on the protest by the British government—which has been a leader in opposing Italy's war in Ethiopia—after a long conference.
There was plain indignation in official quarters. An authoritative source near the government asserted: "It is most obvious that the Italians knew what the unit was."
This person said the British embassy in Rome had been instructed late in January to tell the Italian government that Melley's unit was moving in the sector where it was bombed.
Dr. Melley said Red Cross flags were flying on all the tents and from a flagstaff, and that there was another such flag, 40 feet square, on the ground in the center of the camp.

Angry Deputy Tries to Kill Stoyadinovich

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, March 6 (AP)—An enraged deputy fired four pistol shots in the crowded Yugoslav chamber of deputies today and Premier Milan Stoyadinovich narrowly escaped death.
One bullet struck the railing of the diplomatic gallery where Charles S. Wilson, United States minister to Yugoslavia, sat with other foreign representatives. Wilson, whose home is in Bangor, Me., remained in his seat while some other diplomats scurried for cover.
Premier Stoyadinovich ducked under the desk of the speaker's rostrum but the three other shots buried themselves in the floor.
Other deputies brandished pistols and a dozen of them pounced on the assassin, Damian Arantovich, crushing him to the floor. Gendarmes who led out the 40-year-old Arantovich, a Macedonian school teacher and deputy from a southern district, said he had been drunk.
Authorities said Arantovich, greatly agitated, could make no coherent statement.
There was great confusion in the chamber, although no more shots were fired. Stoyadinovich, his morning coat dusty and rumpled, arose from behind the desk and tried to quiet the disorder.

Restful Living Room Interiors Offer Atmosphere of Companionship

Living rooms have a particular significance, for they are, to some extent, representative of the family and the home. They furnish an atmosphere of repose and quiet. The major spot for entertainment and recreation, living rooms should present a dignified atmosphere and, most of all, a livable, companionable aspect.

The wide expanse of walls which living rooms usually offer should be decorated with a marked degree of conservatism. The trim should harmonize with the walls, and of course with the carpet, furniture and hangings to create a pleasing color picture.

Buff and Ivory
A color combination of buff and ivory will suit the furnishings of the average American family. With this particular color scheme the ceiling is painted in buff and the walls in ivory. Individuality may be achieved by applying to the walls a coat of glazing liquid tinted with raw umber in oil and patting this with a large wad of cheesecloth to create a pebble effect.

By dragging the cheesecloth occasionally in a curved motion a swirl effect is made. For variation the heavier color at the bottom. Walls done in ivory will go well with woodwork found in the average living room, whether stained or varnished, painted or enameled in ivory or buff.

Wide Variety
In a room furnished in raspberry, gold, turquoise blue and black the ceiling may be painted in cream, and the walls in ivory with Tiffany finish made with glazing liquid and colors in oil, using raw sienna, drop black and rose lake. The woodwork may be a dull finish, oil stained with walnut, or enameled in deep ivory.

These are but two of many pleasing combinations which may be used to enhance the living room. There is such a wide variety of color schemes that each home owner is afforded the opportunity of decorating his living room to suit his own taste and personality. Take advantage of this fact and dress up your living room for spring.

Declares Iowa Business Drop Isn't Serious

Optimism of Leaders Not Undermined By Frigid Weather

Winter's sub-zero blizzards followed by a business decline have not undermined the optimistic outlook of business leaders, according to Prof. George R. Davies of the college of commerce, writing in the February issue of the Iowa Business Digest, to be released today.

This publication of the college of commerce indicates that the losses were not too serious, but Iowa and the nation as a whole showed a decline. For the nation the decline was about 4 per cent, allowing for the usual seasonal factor, while unusually severe weather is responsible, at least in part, for the drop.

May Be Harmless Slowness in the rise in volume of consumption may be harmless, if temporary, but if it remains too great Professor Davies predicts several business changes.

"We may theoretically expect a run-away stock market, lowered earnings on new capital investment, cut-throat and wasteful competition, exaggerated installment selling, and eventually another breakdown when the risk of investment seems to be greater than the prospective returns," Professor Davies declares.

That it is less dangerous to go ahead than to hold back and risk a retreat into depression is, according to the university professor, the attitude of business men. Thus far, he says, their ventures are justified by the record of improved earnings in established corporate businesses.

Recession Not Great The January business recession in Iowa was not great data indicate. Bank check transactions declined but were 16 per cent above last year, while the seasonal drop in department store sales left them six per cent above the corresponding period in 1935.

Employment declined one per cent in the state, but was nine per cent above January, 1935. Payrolls showed an increase of 15 per cent over last year.

From these and other figures Professor Davies concludes: "Figures for the state are still relatively incomplete and not very decisive. Bank debts, for example, dropped below what could seasonably be expected, yet remained well above a year ago. Carloadings declined, but prices of farm products either have remained at their former level or gained."

Downward Trend The nation's business also showed a slight downward trend, some of the losses, as were those in Iowa, being caused by the severity of the winter, says Professor Davies.

In considering what might be done concerning the business situation, Professor Davies discussed the theory of the investment banker, J. P. Morgan, who, in effect, asked the well-to-do to spend more and to invest less.

Professor Davies says, "If the theory is right, and if further disturbing complications were avoided, the adoption of the great banker's prescription would bring the following consequences: Goods would be bought, labor would be in demand, factories would be busy overtime, commerce would move, the raw materials of farm and mine would be at a premium, science would be advanced—with a corresponding advance in the productivity of business—and life would move more sanely and wholesomely. Moreover, competition would lose its exacting and wasteful features and relax to a mild and friendly rivalry in service. Perhaps, too, foreign nations would lose their fear of outside capital, and would open their doors to trade. And as a by-product, the individual opportunity and freedom of other days would return."

Professor Davies says we have no national system of reporting business conditions sufficient to test the theory, but he ventures to conclude: "On a strict economic basis it is safe to say that if a liberal and socially minded culture were really put first, other things that make for enduring prosperity would tend to follow."

Plaintiff Wins Practice Trial

A $10,000 verdict in favor of the plaintiff was the decision in a slander suit tried in the senior practice court of the college of law, yesterday and Thursday.

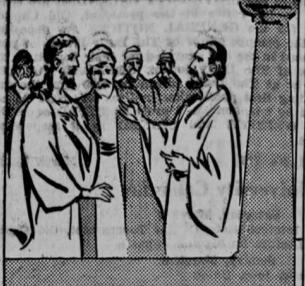

Jack Cherny of Independence, and Chauncey Carl of Des Moines, were attorneys for the plaintiff, and John Browne of Ft. Dodge, and Charles Schneider of Iowa City, represented the defendant.

The defense attorneys moved for a new trial on the grounds that the verdict was excessive and certain instructions were claimed not to state the law correctly.

Jesus Teaches Neighborliness

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By the Rev. Alvin E. Bell And Alfred J. Buescher

Copyright, 1935, by Central Press Association, Inc.

A lawyer once asked Jesus, "Who is my neighbor?" Jesus answered by telling the story we call "The Good Samaritan." It was of a man who needed a neighbor. Thieves had robbed and wounded him and left him to die.

A priest and a Levite, returning from Jerusalem, saw the man but felt no compassion for him, and did nothing to relieve his misery. They both "passed by on the other side." Why should they bother? Who was he, anyway?

But a Samaritan, of different race and religion, had compassion on the man, and gave him first aid, and then took him to an inn and cared for him, paying the innkeeper to care for him until entirely well.

The Samaritan was a real neighbor to the wounded man. So were Mary and Martha kind to Jesus in their home. Mary was even a better one than Martha, for she both served and learned. (GOLDEN TEXT—Luke 10:27)

Repairing
The Court House

Redecorating and remodeling of Johnson county's court house, now hearing completion, will make the building once more a fit place in which to conduct business. The board of supervisors is to be congratulated upon this move, especially because it picked an opportune time and obtained 45 per cent of the money from the PWA fund.

No one will question the statement that the building was in dire need of repair. Repainting has improved lighting conditions, which had become a serious problem, both from an economic and a health standpoint. The new court library will be a convenience to barristers who will be able to refer to the books handily and will be afforded a proper place to conduct conferences privately.

The new floor in the basement will simplify drainage and sanitary problems, and the new partition between the auditor's and treasurer's offices is a decided improvement.

Six thousand dollars in repairs and paint has transformed the building into a bright, cheerful place where citizens may conduct their business with the county.

Public Attitude Toward Railroads

PUBLIC OPINION toward the railroads has for many years been somewhat antagonistic. Gross abuse of powers in the past still is remembered by most people. It appears that the sentiment is beginning to change, and for very definite reasons.

Better service and modern equipment is placing train transportation in a better light. But more than this is the eagerness of the railroads to cooperate on matters of public welfare. Here in our own state we have a striking example in their work during the snowbound period and the coal shortage. Much can be said in praise of the valiant work of the railroads during the crisis. Special crews were sent out to clear away the snowbanks and every effort was made to continue transportation on the regular schedule. This was done, partially of course, from the profit angle. But when coal, a low grade freight commodity, is given preference over high grade commodities, it displays an unselfish attitude.

This state can follow the lead of the governor in remembering the network they did during this period. It may do a great deal toward swinging public sentiment back to the point enjoyed by railroads in their early years.

Movies On The Upgrade

THE QUESTION, "Was the movie like the book?" has inspired better reading habits among University of Iowa students, according to Dorothy Spencer, Iowa Union librarian. The filming of the world's classic literature has increased its popularity twofold, in the eyes of many who otherwise would never have read it.

Not only in university centers, but in every town large enough to have a theater, has this effect been noticeable. Books once regarded by the general public as dry and "dated" have been given new, vibrant being as they come to life on the moving picture screen throughout the world.

When decency leagues a few months ago made demands that Hollywood "clean up," producers believed they were doomed. Had the average film magnate been told that such shows as "Tale of Two Cities" would draw larger crowds than "Flames of Desire" or some such rot, he would have had a hearty laugh. Yet present movie statistics prove that the magnates were wrong.

The sum and substance of the situation was that the public taste and intellect had been underestimated in the first place. An appeal to the morbid side of society's lower stratum was thought to be the only sure-fire profit making method. The public attended this type of production either because it could afford nothing better or because there was nothing better to be seen. Gradually its tastes and opinions were shaped to fit Hollywood's mercenary ends and the theater declined.

But now it is definitely on the upgrade. Even though the stories have suffered some in the process of production, they have not failed in their effect upon the public mind. They have interpreted and enforced some of the best principles of civilization, and thus have a good start toward the fundamental purpose of all great art.

What Price War?

ITALY HAS now conquered the last complete Ethiopian army on the northern front. The Italians have been reaping numerous victories which they believe will result in completion of the conquest for them. This would mean added territory, power and authority for the boot-shaped country. If Ethiopia is gained the Italians as a reward for this bloody struggle it will no doubt render them some monetary benefits.

Quite in contrast to this news concerning the Italian victory the world learned yesterday that all big banks in Italy became public credit institutions. This emergency war measure is seemingly a very drastic one. At any rate it indicates that Italy is already beginning to pay her price.

As time goes on she will be forced to feel that expense of war more intensely, not only in the money world but in the loss of fathers, sons and sweethearts. What a meager compensation Ethiopia will be for all these heartaches!

Man's Curiosity
Advances Science

MAN, IT seems, is not content merely to live upon this planet without knowing what is going on elsewhere. Always he probes into the unknown portions of the universe, seeking for that which is hidden.

Those wizards of science, who peer into the quiet of the night speculating as to the unknowns which as yet lie beyond the knowledge of man, have made another discovery. They have found that a star exists whose magnitude is so great in comparison to that of the earth that it makes this planet seem as a little ball of mud.

This discovery would not be so astounding were it not for the fact that this discovery was made by the aid of a telescope which in the future will be looked upon as a miniature one. When the new 200 inch telescope which we have obtained through the aid of the present ones will seem as elementary as a course in primary reading would appear to a college graduate.

What we find with the aid of scientific inventions and calculations will probably far exceed our wildest speculations.

ATHLETIC SCHOLARSHIP
Withering editorial fire from collegiate and national press has been directed against the resolution of the Southeastern athletic conference favoring the issuance of athletic scholarships.

The Southeastern conference brought into the open the subsidy of athletes by colleges within its ranks. It legitimized a practice that has been regarded as dishonorable, although everyone did it.

Athletes have no bed of roses without thorns. There are those aplenty for each and every man who participates in athletic competition. An athlete must train while others are playing. An athlete, especially in football, must run the chance of injury while others sit on the sidelines and cheer. An athlete must endure hours of grilling practice to learn plays or form. Any man who participates in collegiate athletic competition earns the small sums which usually come his way in the form of salary for some soft job.

Scholarships are given for other special abilities, so why not for athletic prowess plus scholastic ability? The Southeastern conference officials based the scholarships upon the ability of an athlete both in the classroom and on the athletic field. The plan was adopted for the purpose of abolishing the evils of subsidization as they now exist and to give the high school athlete who is financially unable to go to college, an opportunity to get an education.

Charges have been made that the action of the conference is nothing more than professionalizing collegiate athletics. It is nothing more than bringing into the open a situation that has been existing for some time. It is giving a legal status to a custom that has been frowned upon.

The giving of scholarships based upon athletic ability is a step forward. It is recognizing the value of athletics and placing them on a firm open foundation. It is righting a wrong.

Other conferences will be wise if they follow Southeastern's lead.—The Daily O'Collegian.

A Washington Bystander

WASHINGTON—Republican leadership in Ohio has added its own little touch, intensifying the notion Senator Borah is so urgently trying to impress on republican voters that all the party noise and turmoil over its 1935 presidential candidate is an echo of 1912 and 1920.

Borah sees today "just as much demand for the republican party of Theodore Roosevelt as there was when he was its leader." Party management in Ohio counters by naming Robert A. Taft, son of the late President and chief justice, as the state's republican favorite son.

So in Ohio, anyhow, there is to be a primary struggle in which not only the party issues but even the names of rivals are those of 1912. Borah carries the Theodore Roosevelt banner and Taft's son that his father bore.

Prepared To Jump
But that is not the whole story. To Ohio political onlookers, the slate of republican delegates selected to be pledged, very lightly it is inferred, to Taft looks like a nice compromise between Knox and Landon sentiment. If they are right about it, Ohio will be prepared at Cleveland unless Borah's plunge into the Ohio primaries upsets calculations, to jump from the Taft to the Knox or Landon or some other following should it take on a band wagon complexion.

That view of the republican organization doings in Ohio represents an answer to Borah's demand for a real showing in the state as to voter preferences. It was the course selected after not only Landon and Knox had decided to keep out of the state; but also Senators Vandenberg and Dickinson. It leaves Borah fighting a straw man there so far as his effort to upset the "old system of uninstructed delegates, favorite sons and bartering and trading for candidates at the convention" is concerned.

The Ohio strategy to meet Borah's raid, of course, risks a good deal. The Idahoan might win in the primaries. Where would that leave the titular heads of the party in Ohio who set up the Taft slate?

Borah Still Formidable
A poll of Ohio republican voter sentiment is said to have shown Landon a strong favorite, with Borah second. The distribution of votes among the other candidates named does not on its face show where Borah could expect to rally the support to defeat a favorite son ticket that had supposed leanings, say, toward Landon.

Senator Borah is still among the most formidable campaigners in national political life, however. He has announced he will make a series of personal appearances in the state. The action taken to checkmate his move to force other nomination seekers into the open is apt to intensify rather than abate his determination. He could hardly ignore the counter challenge.

General Notices

To All Students Who Expect To Graduate At The Close Of The Second Semester, June 1, 1936

Every student who expects to receive a degree or a certificate at the University Convocation to be held Monday, June 1, 1936, should make his formal application on a card provided for the purpose at the Registrar's Office on or before Saturday, April 4, 1936.

It is of utmost importance that each student concerned comply with this request immediately, for otherwise it is very likely that a student who may be in other respects qualified will not be recommended for graduation at the close of the present semester.

MAKING APPLICATION for the degree or certificate, involves the payment of the graduation fee ($15.00) and also the cap and gown fee ($1.00) at the time the application is made—the payment of these fees being a necessary part of the application. Call at the Registrar's office for the card.

The petition of the Association of Senior Class Presidents that a fee of $1 be assessed to cover the cost of caps and gowns for Commencement has been granted. Therefore, hereafter this additional fee of $1 is to be paid by each candidate for a degree at the time he pays his graduation fee.

Heretofore the normal rental fee for bachelors' caps and gowns has been $2 and for doctors' caps and gowns and hoods $4-55.

The service for handling the taking of orders, and the distribution of the academic apparel, will be explained to students when information about commencement is sent out from the Alumni office.

A New Yorker

At Large

By JAMES B. RESTON
NEW YORK—You may have to edit this piece a little because I've always been partial to Sam Behrman. There, I've always said, is a playwright who gives a sentence time to breathe. None of your staccato barking with him. His sentences roll out over the footlights like music from a great orchestra.

Even a dreaming columnist can take heart from Behrman's record. His consistent success after 11 years of hopeless failure should be written up in the textbooks and taught to our young gentlemen in the fifth and sixth grades.

His latest hit is "End of Summer," which Ima Claire and Ogrod Perkins are speaking these rights at the Guild theater. This one keeps his hitting mark at 1,000. Since 1927, when his first play was produced, he has never had a show close under 100 performances—and when you pass that mark in this town, your play is considered a "hit."

But those 11 years were not so good. He wrote short stories and plays in the evening and he worked around the theaters as a press agent during the day. He had taken George Pierce Baker's famous "47" workshop course in playwrighting at Harvard but the producers evidently did not take this fact as seriously as you would suppose.

George Jean Nathan really started Sam to success. Behrman had written a short story called "The Second Man" for Smart Set and Nathan, editor of the magazine accepted it and wrote Behrman a note saying he thought the story had dramatic possibilities.

Or, this suggestion Behrman dramatized it and sold it to the Theater Guild. Then in rapid succession came "Serena Blandish," "Meteor," "Brief Moment," "Biography," "Rain From Heaven" and "End of Summer."

Screen Life

By HUBBARD KEAVY
HOLLYWOOD—Hereafter, when Ken Maynard makes a personal appearance tour he will take along a menagerie and about 750 people.

The movie cowboy, who began his career of entertaining with a circus many years ago, is back to his first love—a circus.

Maynard has just bought a 15-car circus which he will transform into a wild west show. He acquired his animals and tents and cars to take to go on the road this year, but next year he will start early to play overnight stands the length and breadth of the country.

"I've always wanted to own a circus," says Maynard, who is as proud of his elephants and zebras and lions and tigers as a small boy would be of a new pony. "I heard that this circus was for sale down in Oklahoma and I went down there and got it."

The circus is said to have cost Maynard $100,000. He will spend that much more in building winter headquarters, on a ranch he just bought for that purpose, near here in reconditioning his wagons, his railroad cars and other equipment. The tents that went along with the circus were pretty good tents, but they weren't "brand new," so Maynard bought an entire new set. He says they'll be clean and white and water proof when he starts out, anyway.

"I know that this will mean a whole lot of responsibility," Maynard says, "but it seems to me that the most fun I ever had in my life was when I was in a circus. Perhaps I enjoyed those days so much because I was young and looking for adventure. I didn't seem to mind the hardships and the bad weather and the sometimes bad food."

Hollywood, says this ex-circus performer who has become one of the wealthiest of the horse opera stars, hasn't made him "soft." Maynard has a big yacht and uses it frequently. He flies his own airplane. He has all the comforts that quick wealth usually brings. But he insists he isn't too "soft" to live again with a circus.

Prof. Riley Talks On Parasite Infestation At Science Meeting

It is only within the last 150 years that science has begun to solve the problem of parasite infestation in the human body, according to Prof. William Riley of the University of Minnesota, who spoke yesterday at a joint meeting of the zoology, hygiene and public health seminars.

For it is within that time that scientists have realized parasites such as tapeworm and trichinosis which often infect the human body have an external origin, being transmitted to man by eggs in infected food or by insect bites.

Previously all scientists had believed the parasites originated spontaneously in the human flesh, perhaps as the result of an excess of food or drink.

By JESS GORKIN

Perhaps it was the morning after the night before. A student wandered into an English class, sat down, and promptly fell asleep. Ten minutes before the hour was up, he awoke and asked the girl sitting next to him what class it was. "English," she answered.

"I knew darn well I didn't belong in this class," he remarked and fell asleep again.

Prof. Merle Ford Addresses Women Concerning Dress

"Dress to fit your personality," Prof. Merle Ford of the home economics department told women majoring in physical education at an assembly in the women's gymnasium yesterday.

Discussing the selection of clothes, Professor Ford pointed out that the woman who is tall, stately and reserved, is one extreme in individuality; and the other extreme is the small, dainty, vivacious type. Features and complexion must be considered in the selection of the color and fabric of clothing, the speaker said.

Even when minimum cost must be considered, clothes should be selected and planned with care. For the wearer to be unconscious of her clothing is of great importance, because this is one indication that she is wearing the apparel suited to her particular type.

Receive Initial Contributions In Alumni Endowment Drive

Several initial contributions to a University of Iowa endowment fund created last month by the alumni association, have been received in response to a drive headed by President Eugene A. Gilmore and Prof. Bruce E. Mahan of the extension division, alumni director.

In connection with the university's eighty-ninth anniversary, celebrated last month, President Gilmore and Professor Mahan addressed alumni groups in several midwestern cities, including Omaha, Sioux City, Ft. Dodge and Chicago. President Gilmore also urged the support of the association in a radio broadcast over WHO and WSUI, in commemoration of National Iowa night, Feb. 25.

The fund for needy students is being accumulated through payment of $25 life memberships in the association. The money may be paid in $5 installments over a five-year period, and is being administered through the regular loan committee of the university, headed by Robert G. Rienow, dean of men.

Officials hope to obtain 10,000 life members for the association, thus providing a loan fund of $250,000. According to Rush C. Butler of Chicago, president of the alumni association, it is the first call ever made by the organization for any kind of support for the university. Announcement was made in the current issue of the "News Bulletin," sent to all alumni, and at the February foundation dinners.

First Members
The first new life members to augment a former enrollment of 209, are: Frank W. Crockett, '03, Iowa Falls; Dr. Myrta M. Knowles, '06, Chicago; Homer D. Long, '11, Gelf, Ill.; Edward R. BITS ABOUT SPORTS

AN all-opponents team, composed of players met on opposing Big Ten quintets during the last season, has been chosen by the Hawkeye team.

The men are unanimous in the selection of Bob Kessler of Purdue and Bill Haarlow of Chicago at the forward positions, both men receiving first team votes by each of the 10 Hawkeye players in the poll.

Although listed as a forward in the lineup, John Townsend played the pivot position constantly and was voted the outstanding passer in the conference by the Iowa men, being placed at center.

Little "Pippy" Dye of Ohio State and Wib Henry, the husky speedster from Illinois, were awarded the back court positions.

Following are the men selected for the first two teams:
First
F—Kessler (Purdue).
F—Haarlow (Chicago).
C—J. Townsend (Michigan).
G—Dye (Ohio State).
G—Henry (Illinois).

Second
F—Young (Purdue).
F—Cumbles (Illinois).
C—Riegel (Illinois).
G—Malaska (Purdue).
G—Tamagno (Michigan).

The code of a "Good Sport" was outlined on the basketball programs issued by Chicago at its home basketball games this season. It follows:

A Good Sport treats his opponents with the courtesy due guests and friends.

A Good Sport accepts the decisions of officials without question.

A Good Sport applauds his opponents when they make good plays or show good sportsmanship.

A Good Sport does not hiss, boo or abuse the players, coaches or officials.

A Good Sport does not "crab" his coach or players in defeat.

A Good Sport wins without boasting—loses without excuse.

A Good Sport loves the game for its own sake.

A Good Sport lets his neighbors who are poor sports know that he thinks they lack self-control and good manners.

A golden opportunity is at hand for Bill Haarlow of Chicago to surpass the three-year Big Ten scoring mark now held by "Stretch" Murphy of Purdue.

To accomplish the feat, the wiry Maroon forward must score only four points against Northwestern tonight to better Murphy's total of 466.

In three seasons, Haarlow to date has 402 points despite the fact that he missed one game and all but 30 seconds of another because of an injury.

Joe Reiff of Northwestern holds the conference record for one year with 169 points made in 1935.

There are whispers to the effect that Max Baer, the forgotten man of the ring, may return to the squared arena. But in the meantime, the Livermore playboy is enjoying himself in the hills of Sacramento valley, basking himself in the idea that he might be the "white hope" if Louis erases Jim Braddock.

Chunky little Manager Hoffman, still the boss and "Pop" to Maxie, says nothing doing unless Baer trains for a solid year.

"I'm only 26, but I've sure lived a lot," he muses as the pages of the scrap-book he keeps stir the depths of his memory. "And I'm going to live a lot more." A comeback—perhaps the movies, radio, master of ceremonies, wrestling perhaps—somehow Max expects to climb back into the midst of things.

At the present he is content to let the world roll by as he chalks up his 70's on the golf course.

Buddy Baer is his pride now. "He's only 20 but watch him develop," Max says. "He's twice as regular about living as I. They say he's easy because he was beaten on the Louis card, too."

Latham, Skinner Lead Team Scoring With 8 Points Each As Hawks Take Six First Places

An inspired Hawkeye track team unleashed a powerful point-getting attack on a highly touted Minnesota squad to maintain its unblemished record and turn in its second Big Ten triumph, this time by a 54 to 32 score.

Although Capt. Francis Cretzmeyer was handicapped by the absence of the low hurdles and the broad jump in the program of events, his mates responded nobly to more than fill the breach.

Lanky Eugene Skinner and Ray Latham were the high scorers with eight points each. Skinner placed second to Andy Dooley in the 60 yard dash and ran away from the field to cop the 440, while Latham broke the tape behind Cretzmeyer in the mile relay after Iowa had been disqualified for dropping the baton.

Minnesota captured firsts in the two mile run, the shot put, the 880 yard run and was awarded first place in the mile relay after Iowa had been disqualified for dropping the baton.

Freimuth Wins Shot
Bill Freimuth, twice winner of the Big Ten shot putting title, easily topped this event and his teammate, Krezowski, was second.

DeHeer tossed the ball out the farthest he has ever thrown in his career, more than 47 feet, but it was still behind the mark set by the powerful Gopher.

As was expected, Capt. Wayne Slocum and Ulysses Deters had things about their own way in the two mile, but Ed Hass turned in his best race of the season to remain in the running all the way.

Lone Slam
The lone slam of the meet came as a surprise as Iowa's McElhinney, J. Lindenmeyer and Meyers upset the dope bucket as they took the first three places in the pole vault.

One of the feature races of the evening was the mile run as Jimmy Lyle and P. Nelson matched strides down the home stretch with Lyle winning in 4:26.9.

In this race the speedy Des Moines athlete again broke the fieldhouse record that he established two weeks ago against Chicago.

In another close race, Bobby Nelson staged a brilliant sprint in an attempt to catch the fast-tiring Palmquist in the 880, but he was inches behind as the Gopher broke the tape.

Dooley Takes Dash
Andy Dooley, running his first races since last June when he pulled a muscle, easily outdistanced the field to win the 60 yard dash.

The closing event on the program, the mile relay, was given to Minnesota after the Hawks had dropped the baton in an exchange and had come from behind to win.

Waples, running lead-off, piled up a small lead, but in the baton pass between Waples and Matteson, Waples fell.

"Matty" turned around, picked up the stick and started after the Minnesota runner. Matteson passed to Skinner and the lanky Negro quickly made up the separating five yards and passed to Dooley with a comfortable lead.

The swift-running Dooley quickly widened the gap to win going away in the remarkable time of 3:32.4.

Bettors World Record
In a featured attraction, the Iowa shuttle relay team, running against a picked freshman quartet, topped the sticks in 4:03 which is .2 of a second below the world record for this event, but no recognition will be filed because the race was run as an exhibition event.

Much satisfaction was expressed over the new seating facilities of the fieldhouse, and the crowd, which out- (See Page SEVEN, No. 11)

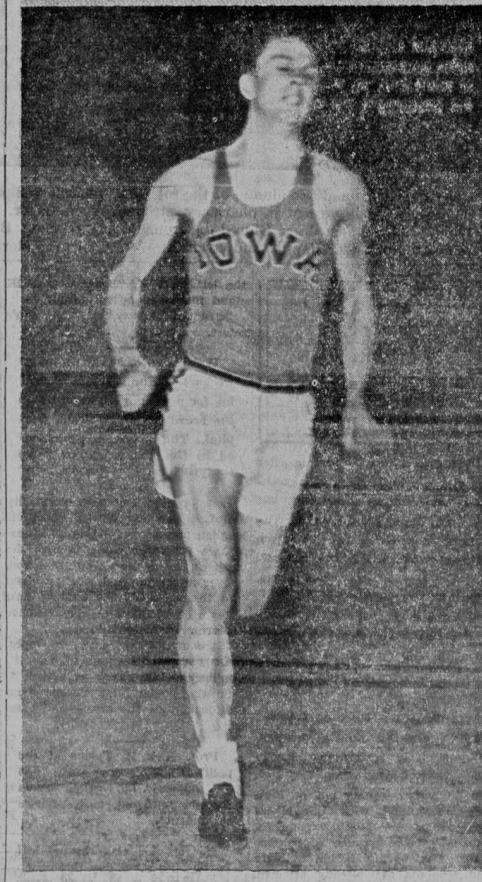

Blackburn, Parnell Acquired by Courts Of Assault Charges

CHICAGO, March 6 (AP)—Jack Blackburn, Negro trainer of Joe Louis, heavyweight prize fighter, and William Parnell, his co-defendant, were acquitted by a criminal court jury today of charges of assault to kill.

Both Negroes were arrested after a gun fight on a south side street Oct. 20, in which Enoch Houser, 69, Negro, was killed by a stray bullet and Lucy Cannon, 9, Negro, was wounded.

The charges against them were based on the girl's injuries. She was caught in the crossfire of men shooting from opposite sidewalks. The prosecution charged that Blackburn and Parnell engaged in a fight with John Bowman, Negro, after a dispute over a realty deal.

32 Teams In I.C.A.A.A. Female Coach Shows Male Rivals How To Win Basketball Tilts

PHILADELPHIA, March 6 (AP)—Gene Venzke, the University of Pennsylvania's middle-distance picture runner, was stricken ill tonight and forced to forfeit his entry in the intercollegiate A.A.A.A. track championships in New York tomorrow.

NEW YORK, March 6 (AP)—Despite the presence of the two main sensations of the board track season, Gene Venzke and Eddie O'Brien, the emphasis again will be on the team as track and field stars of 32 colleges battle it out in the fifteenth annual indoor championships of the Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America in Madison Square Garden tomorrow.

In the second game her boys had to travel three extra periods to beat Riverton high, 19 to 18. The packed gymnasium was in an uproar—all except Miss Clark, whose poker face never changed expression.

Her quintet emerged today as the first round sensation of the Southern Oregon Normal school's annual invitational tournament.

It ran up the highest score, 42 points, and played the best defensive game in holding one team to two points.

Carnera Gets Technical K.O. Over Spaniard

NEW YORK, March 6 (AP)—Ponderous Primo Carnera, Italy's fistic foghorn, blasted out a five-round victory tonight over Izzy Gastanaga, wild swinging Spaniard in Madison Square Garden.

The huge Italian, scaling 268 1-4, was awarded a technical knockout when Referee Arthur Donovan stopped the fight because of the condition of Gastanaga's damaged left eye.

The Spaniard sealed 208 1-4. After vainly trying to break down Carnera's cumbersome defense with looping body blows, Gastanaga suffered a jagged cut over the eye in the fourth round. It bled profusely and the Spaniard weathered a heavy storm of blows for the rest of the round before getting hasty treatment in his corner.

Apparently discouraged by this turn of events, Gastanaga made only a few defensive gestures in the fifth round before it became apparent his eye was badly affected.

Donovan stepped in to halt the proceedings after 46 seconds had elapsed. The referee said afterward that the Spaniard's eye was damaged as much by the emergency use of adrenaline as it was by the cut.

Carnera, although obviously rattled by his opponent's unorthodox style, had a decisive margin on points throughout. There were no knockdowns, however, and the crowd of 9,000 onlookers, including 8,834 cash customers who paid $18,330.00, continually jeered the ponderous Primo's tactics.

CHICAGO, March 6 (AP)—Purdue goes to Michigan tomorrow night aiming to stake a claim to Big Ten basketball honors for the fifth time since 1930.

The Boilermakers can do no better than share the 1936 championship with Indiana, but a tie for top honors will add adornment to their all-time impressive record.

Purdue won undisputed titles in 1930, 1932 and 1934, and tied with Illinois and Wisconsin last season.

Tie With Iowa in 1926
Previous to the current decade, Purdue tied with Minnesota in 1911, shared the 1912 championship with Wisconsin, was involved in a three way deadlock with Michigan and Wisconsin in 1921, and won its first undisputed championship in 1922.

The Boilermakers came back after a comparatively lean period to tie with Michigan, Indiana and Iowa in 1926, and divide the 1928 title with Indiana.

Indications are that the sharp-shooting Boilermakers will conquer Michigan to again tie Indiana. The Hoosiers finished their season Monday by outpointing Ohio State, for their eleventh victory in 12 games.

The Wolverines, involved in a struggle with Illinois and Northwestern over third place, figure to give the Boilermakers a strenuous evening, and playing at their best, might crown the season with an upset.

Wildcats vs. Maroons
Northwestern and Chicago will meet in the other game of the season's final program. The Wildcats appear much too strong for Chicago, which probably will finish without a conference victory.

Michigan could take undisputed possession of third place by defeating Purdue, but a beating, combined with a Northwestern victory over Chicago, would leave the Wolverines and Wildcats tied with Illinois at seven victories and five defeats.

Missouri, Kansas Lead
COLUMBIA, Mo., (AP)—Missouri and Kansas, favored for last honors in the big six indoor track championship here, grabbed three spots each in the 12 qualifying places for the 60-yard dash in the preliminaries here last night as Waters and Hoffman of Missouri led two of the heats to the tape.

Jens Norgaard Leads City Hi With 9 Points

Iowa City's crimson Little Hawks wrote a brilliant swan song to a colorful season last night at City high gym when they turned back a vaunted Burlington quintet, champion of the Little Six loop, 31 to 21, after trailing at intermission, 11 to 12.

It was big Jens Norgaard, usually just a reliably steady backcourt man, who found the path to the hoop from far out on the floor four times to account for well-timed markers for the local club.

Norgaard, by virtue of his sensational shooting, paced the Hawkeye scorers with nine points.

White Tops Scorers
But it was Burlington's big gun, Ralph White, who walked away with the evening's scoring honors, tallying four field baskets and a like number of charity tosses for a dozen points.

Most of White's points, in proportion to the Burlington scoring, came in the first two periods.

Coach Francis Merten's pupils started out a bit spottily, seemingly worrying about the invaders' scoring potentialities. However, they picked up the scoring early when Norgaard converted a gift shot to score the first point of the game.

At one stage the Mertenmen were leading 7 to 2, but the Greyhounds lashed their baskets for eight points before Iowa City could find the basket again.

Coach Thomason's purple-clad sharpers went downsize at the half with a one-point margin, 12 to 11.

The classy Red and White aggression, apparently settled down by a halftime skull session with Merten, came out to run its total up to 16 before Burlington scored again.

Then it was White who tallied to make it 16 to 14, the closest Burlington ever came to overtaking the Little Hawks since the latter started rolling them in at the start of the second half.

An capacity crowd filled the Iowa City arena for the final game of the season at home, and the partisan fans became terribly upset when two Iowa City aces, Jerry Poole and Dick Amerine, were each called three times for personals, while the game was still in the first half.

Merten pulled the offenders out of the game, inserting Keith Hora and Woody Mather in their places, and the latter two performed nobly in their roles, each playing his first game of the year.

Burlington Loses Touch
Burlington in the last half just its touch and ease which it exhibited in the earlier contest. Iowa City held possession of the ball most of the second half, managing to break up some of the intricate offensive maneuvers with which the Greyhounds had them stymied in the opening frames.

The victory was the fifth in a row for the Little Hawks, and the fourteenth of 18 this season. The next competition for Iowa City comes next week end when the Hawkeyes travel to Wellman for the sectional tournament, preliminary qualifying for the state tournament the latter part of the month at Des Moines.

City high freshmen whipped the sophomores, 19 to 18, in a routine overtime session between the two class teams.

St. Pat's Plays Marshalltown 5 In First Round

St. Mary's, Dubuque Class B Champs, Meet Irish Monday

St. Mary's of Marshalltown, a class B entry, will attempt to halt the victory march of St. Pat's cagers Monday at 3:40 p.m. when the two schools meet in the first round of the Catholic state cage tournament at Ft. Dodge.

The Marians of Marshalltown gained the finals of the state tournament by taking the class B title at Dubuque two days ago. Drawing one of the few class B schools entered in the tournament, the local Irish's chances of surviving the first round are good.

If the Shamrocks come through with a first round win, they will take on the winner of the St. Matthew's (Clare)-St. Francis (Council Bluffs) tussle in the semi-finals Tuesday at 4:30 p.m.

Losers in the first round will be the contestants in the consolation bracket, whose finals are at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The finals for the state Parochial title will be at 8:40 o'clock Tuesday night.

The south-siders will leave Iowa City at 7:30 a.m. Monday for Ft. Dodge with a squad of eight or nine men. The reserves to make the final trip as yet unannounced.

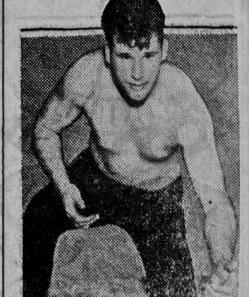

Last night, Coach Harry Ryan had his reserves and varsity alternating on the offensive and defensive. All the reserves showed plenty of pep, for they have been waging a bitter battle the past week for the three open places on the squad to make the trip to Ft. Dodge.

Bill Leuz showed unusual offensive power last night when his dribble in shots from the side dropped through the net with consistency. After showing a reluctance to shoot during the season, the big guard has been utilizing his accurate eye to best advantage of late.

Bill Floerchinger, senior reserve, and Howard Demery saw action yesterday with the first five. Demery, 5 feet 6 inches of fighting Irish, has been No. 1 reserve all year, for he is a dead long shot. The Shamrock midjet is the only scrub who seems to have a berth reserved for the Ft. Dodge trip.

Michigan Looms as "Darkhorse" In Big Ten Mat Meet

Wolverines to Bring Five Star Contenders for Honors to Fieldhouse Next Week End

WRIGHT Michigan - Heavy

(Editor's note: This is the second of a series of articles concerning the Big Ten teams that will compete in the conference meet here March 13 and 14.

Backed by a record of yearly achievement in wrestling, Michigan looms as the "darkhorse" in the Big Ten mat meet here next week end.

The Wolverines almost invariably rank among the first four in the loop. Last year, however, they sank

Six Victories
One of the heaviest schedules in the conference has fallen to the Michigan squad this season. But in spite of its difficulty, the Wolves captured six of nine meets and are scheduled to face Indiana today in the final dual.

Early in the campaign, the Maize and Blue made an eastern swing, defeating New York A.C., Franklin and Marshall, and losing to Penn State and Washington and Lee. The Wolves also defeated Michigan State twice, Northwestern, Chicago and lost to Ohio State.

Iowa Boy Outstanding
Outstanding on the squad is a sophomore from Iowa, Earl Thomas, who won the National A.A.U. 118 pound title while a member of the Cresco high school team. He has lost only one bout this season.

Other luminaries are Capt. Walter Heavenrich, senior 145 pounder who has won five of nine dual meets;

HEAVENRICH Michigan - 145 Pounds

Harry Wright, a 250 pound heavyweight, who has won six bouts by falls, one by a decision and dropped only one; John Speicher, a 118 pounder who has captured eight of nine bouts; and William Lowell, 165 pounder.

The Wolverines are coached by Clifford Keen, former star at Michigan.

In the last 10 years, Wolverine wrestlers have won 13 Big Ten individual titles, ranking just behind Illinois and Indiana in number of championships.

Old Gold After Third Big Ten Win of Season

Reserves to See Action Against Wisconsin Swimmers in Dual

Iowa's highly touted swimming team will seek its third Big Ten victory this afternoon against Wisconsin at Madison in the final dual meet of the season.

The Hawkeyes, still smarting from the 41 to 43 setback they received at the hands of Michigan's national champions last week, hope to return to the win column today against the weak Badgers, who have yet to win a meet this year.

Twelve Old Gold mermen left by automobile this morning for the Wisconsin fair and expect to arrive there in time to rest up before the match this afternoon.

Coach Dave Amburster is relying on his reserves to outspeed the Badgers today, but took along enough veterans so they may be used to pick up points should the substitutes fail to take the lead.

In previous meets, the northerners have shown strength in only two events, the back stroke and diving. The local mentor will not use all-American Dick Westerfield in the former race today but will rely on a pair of sophomores, Bob Christians and Harold Sears, to upset Wisconsin's star, Grudznia. This will be Christians' first attempt at the back stroke this year, as he has been competing in the distance events in previous meets.

Veteran Fred Haskins and Allen Dinton, a reserve, will be the Old Gold entrants in the breast stroke. Bob Allen, regular performer, did not make the trip but will begin strenuous training for the conference championships, which are scheduled for March 13 and 14 in Minneapolis. Liebner and Van Vleet will compete for the Badgers in this event.

Arn Christen, junior all-American, and John Stark, rapidly developing sophomore, are expected to have trouble with Captain Simonsen of Wisconsin in the diving event. Wortley of the Badgers may also cause trouble.

It is probable that Capt. Adolf Jacobsmeyer and sophomore Bob Dille will be used in the distance events, since Christians will be switched to the back stroke. Dille should be the chief Wisconsin threat in the 220 and 440 races.

Ray Walters, Jack Sieg, Homer Bradshaw and Bob Switzer are the sprinters making the trip, and Amburster will probably split them up among the various dashes and relays. The Badgers are especially weak in the sprints this season, having failed to win a short race in any of their meets. Kohli is their fastest performer.

Purdue, Indiana, Minnesota and Carleton have taken Wisconsin's measure already this season, while Iowa has won over Chicago and Illinois and lost to Michigan.

Reeve Takes Quad League Scoring Title

Melvin Reeve, Upper B offensive star, is scoring champ of the Quad-league basketball league for 1935. The diminutive star scored 52 points in six league games to nose out Bob Knapp, Lower C star who garnered 51.

Lamine Long, who competed in only five games, was third with 45 points for an average of nearly 10 points per game. This was the best average of any player in the league.

Travis Brasfield, tall Upper D center, was fourth with 45 points. Brasfield also holds the record for the highest individual scoring in a single game with 22 points.

Approximately 75 players participated in the competition, which was under the direction of Martin Perli. Ken Fuller was the official referee. Gold and silver medals were awarded to the winner and the runner-up in the tournament. Ten Upper B players received gold medals while 10 Lower A players were presented silver medals.

Those who received gold medals are: Gaylor, Penton, Reeve, Van Dyke, Murdy, Grant, Brooks, Quire, Watland and Ferguson.

Members of the Lower A team who received silver medals are: Bliese, Craig, Costello, Pollack, Briggs, Sulter, Faust, Schwarte, Schieber, Bergstrom.

HEADED FOR FAME

JAMES DESHONG WASHINGTON PITCHER OBTAINED FROM THE NEW YORK YANKEES IN THE BELIEF THAT HE IS RIFE FOR A BIG YEAR.

Sharon Five Uncorks Brilliant Shooting Game to Conquer University High Quintet, 37-17

Snider Turns in Star Game as Sharon Leads Throughout

In a barrage of accurate shooting and spectacular floor play, Sharon completely bewildered University High's Blues last night in the River team's hard court, winning by the top-heavy count of 37 to 17.

Led by the flashy dashes of Dale Reesler and Glenn Snider, the Sharon aggregation gave definite proof it is worthy of its championship rating. There was never a moment of delay when either of the two stars got hold of the ball, with most of their sallies being followed by a two-point addition to the Sharon score.

Off Night for Blue Five Throughout the entire contest it was an off night for Coach Joy Kistler's team. The ball just wouldn't go through the hoop for the Blueclad hoopers. It would hesitate on the rim sometimes, but always dropped dishearteningly in the wrong direction. Although the Kistlerites took almost as many shots in the first half as their opponents, not a single field goal was scored in that period.

Had it not been for two free throws Dave Foerster coaxed into the elusive basket, the Rivermen would have been entirely scoreless for the first half. The University high co-captain broke the scoreless period with only a few seconds yet remaining in the period.

More Even Footing In the second half the Blues played on a more even footing with the invaders, holding them to 17 points while University high chalked up 15. With luck and a hot spell in their shooting, the score might have been much closer, but with the locals missing their shots, there was only slight doubt about the game's final outcome.

High point man for the game was Reesler with 15 points, and closely following him was Snider with 13. Flecker of Sharon came next with four field goals, and following him came Dave Foerster with six points. Tom Horn, usually a consistent threat for the Blues, failed to click last night, as did Donald Anclaus and Ted Hinman. Charlie Smith, the other captain, also failed to hit his stride.

Preceding the regular game, Sharon's sophomores defeated the University high sophomores by the count of 27 to 17.

Freshmen Run Off Events in Meet With Badger Aggregation

Final events in the freshman indoor postal meet with the Wisconsin first year eldersmen were run off as an added attraction to the Iowa-Minnesota varsity meet last night.

Capt. Johnny Graves and Milton Billig fought it out for first honors in the half mile with Graves inches ahead of his teammate. Blood followed for a third place.

Ed Wiegins, Omaha, Neb., Negro flash, successfully defended his winning honors by placing first in the 600 yard dash, followed closely by Carl and Fred Teufel.

Bob Waples skinned over the 80 yard hurdles to nose out C. Teufel and Fowler in a close race.

MIAMI, Fla., March 6 (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds opened their grapefruit league season today, pounding four pitchers to defeat the Philadelphia Athletics 10 to 7.

Only 793 cash customers saw last season's sixth placers pole out 15 fatalities. All but one of the runs was earned.

Minnesota To Flaunt Strong Team in Meet

Hold One Victory Over Hawks; Expected To Triumph Today

Iowa's seven man gym squad is proud to give the Minnesota Gophers the battle of their lives at the enemies' stronghold this afternoon in the final dual meet for the Old Gold.

The Hawkeyes have come along rapidly in the last few weeks and are working better now than at any previous time this year. Keil, especially, has improved rapidly recently until, right now, he is regarded as the Hawk's best bet on the flying rings.

Gophers Triumph One episode of this rivalry was run off earlier in the season at the Iowa fieldhouse when the Swedes took the honors of the day. The Hawkeye's mainstay and captain, Eugene Wettstein, was severely handicapped by an injured hand at that time. He has completely recovered, however, and is expected to display the form that has won three events for him in meets since that time.

Minnesota's outstanding captain, Ed Mattison, will compete in all five events. The other two important cogs in the Gopher gym machinery are Nelson and Shawbold.

Favorites for Big Ten The Gophers, as a result of their victories thus far this season, are rated outstanding favorites to take the Big Ten crown. The Hawks will atone for a bad season if they are able to take the measure of the Minnesota outfit. This will be the last dual meet for Ed Kringle, the all-around Hawkeye star who will compete in all five events.

The Iowa men who are making the trip are: Wettstein, Nielsen, Kringle, Keil, Goldsmith, Adams, Panther and Griswold.

Detroit Negro Wins Golden Gloves 160-Pound Crown

CHICAGO, March 6 (AP)—A 21-year-old Negro from Detroit, from whom Joe Louis took many lickings in a gymnasium, emerged with knockout honors in the ninth annual Golden Gloves amateur boxing tournament in the Chicago stadium tonight.

The new sensation is Milton Shivers, a cotton packer, who scored his fifth straight knockout to win the 160 pound championship. He achieved two knockouts tonight, first defeating Hiner Thomas, Chicago, Negro, on a technical knockout in the third round of the semi-finals and flattened Al Wardlow, Dayton, Ohio, Negro, in the second round of the championship encounter with a short right to the chin.

Louis was a ringside spectator in the crowd which numbered 21,392 paid admissions. Cleveland and Omaha tied for the team championship point honors, but the tie was decided by the toss of a coin, with Cleveland winning. The Catholic youth organization of Chicago won the club point championship.

Hawk Rifle Teams Shoot Here Today

Varsity Favored Over Badgers; R.O.T.C. Meets Creighton

Iowa's high-ranking varsity rifle team will meet University of Wisconsin shooters in Big Ten competition at 1:30 this afternoon in the fieldhouse.

At the same time, a Creighton university aggregation will match scores with the Hawkeye R.O.T.C. riflemen. Favored in both encounters, the Hawks are primed for victory after the varsity accepted its only conference defeat of the season from Minnesota last week.

Ten men who will constitute the varsity for this encounter are Warren Fox, Robert Elliot, Carl Cone, Elroy Maule, Zedford Burdick, Kenneth Blommons, John Carran, Paul Niemann, Everett Waters and Robert Neff.

The R.O.T.C. team will have Harold Hemmingson, Alex Eyanoff, Marvin Rusley and Arlo Gill replacing Cone, Maule and Neff who are not members of the military group.

Creighton's team, weakened by loss of several ranking members who were unable to make the trip, is not expected to offer serious competition, while the Hawk varsity should take the Badgers into camp.

Representing the Nebraska school are Johnson, Clark, O'Neill, Griffin and Beeson.

R.O.T.C. shooters defeated teams of four universities in postal competition, while losing one match, returns at the military department showed yesterday. The University of Oregon turned in a total of 3,720 to better Iowa's 3,612. Other scores were: University of Alabama, 3,584; Ohio State university, 3,572; University of Kansas, 3,374, and Colorado School of Mines, 3,278.

Postal Scores Scores have been completed this week in postal competition with eight institutions. Varsity competition was furnished by the University of West Virginia, Georgetown university and the University of Hawaii. The R.O.T.C. riflemen are exchanging scores with the University of North Dakota, Virginia Military Institute and Culver Military academy. Freshmen competed against the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and the University of Missouri.

Results in the postal matches will be announced as soon as scores have been received from the competing schools.

Iowa Billiard Team Gains Sixth Place

A University of Iowa billiard team won sixth place in an intercollegiate telegraphic billiard tournament, played here Thursday night under the auspices of Union Board. Leo Karron, A2 of Brooklyn, N. Y., was high score man for Iowa.

Of the 18 institutions participating, Purdue university placed first, Wisconsin university, second, and Cornell university, third.

Sid Brody, Ottumwa; Pat Nemerowsky, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Joe Richards, Denison, and Neil Delat, Ft. Madison, with Karron, comprised the Iowa team. The game began in Iowa Union, but later was forced to move to Racine's because of the large crowd.

There will be a three-cushion telegraphic billiard tournament here Thursday night.

Martin Speaks To Local Club

S.U.I. Professor Tells Of Experiences On Botany Expeditions

Almost insurmountable difficulties are faced by botanists attempting to conduct botanical investigations in under-developed territories, Prof. George W. Martin of the botany department told the Masonic Service club at the Masonic temple yesterday noon.

Professor Martin told of his experiences on various botanical expeditions in Central and South America.

Torrential Rains

"Torrential rains come almost every afternoon," he said, "and transportation facilities are extremely meager. A good day's travel is about 25 miles in a truck over the rough trails; and in the higher, more rugged regions, travel is usually accomplished by mule or by foot. The people are not to blame for such conditions as the geographic nature of the region requires a constant fight, and development is slow," he asserted.

Professor Martin spent the summer of 1935 in the Canal Zone region and particularly the territory west of Panama and in Colombia. He lauded the work of public health authorities in Panama, who have practically rid of disease the region once known as the "pest-hole."

Vast Materials
"My studies indicate there are vast quantities of biological material there, and although I can't return this summer I would like to go back again," he concluded.

Roy F. Warner, G of Iowa City, who received his third degree Thursday night, was introduced as a new member by Clinton H. Smoke, worshipful master, Ray Short, program chairman, announced the program for coming meetings.

Edgecombe Gives Demonstration Of Orchard Pruning

An orchard pruning demonstration by S. W. Edgecombe, extension division horticulturist at Iowa State college, was given before 50 members and farmers of Johnson county farm bureau yesterday afternoon at the farm of L. P. Keester near Iowa City.

Mr. Edgecombe, assisted by the Johnson county farm bureau, gave a demonstration of fruit tree and grape vine pruning. He stressed the importance of setting fruit trees 35 to 40 feet apart so that the trees will not interfere with each other during later growth.

The importance of pruning trees when first set out and during the first few years was mentioned as well as the cultivation of the ground between the trees during growth.

Heck! Killers - Not Nimrods, Badminton Players - Stumped by 'Birds'

By VIRGINIA BLANK
"I certainly missed that shot."
"The birds are tricky. I nearly missed that last kill myself."

This conversation may sound appropriate to leather clad hunters in fall rubber boots wading quietly up a river in the gray chill of early morning. Such is far from being the case.

Popular Sport

The speaker might be any university student who is a badminton enthusiast, follower of the game which is coming into its own on the University of Iowa campus after three years of comparative indifference on the part of students.

This sport has become so popular that it entices scores of men and women students to the women's gymnasium every Monday, Thursday and Friday from 4 to 6 o'clock. There they are supplied with equipment, and instructors are available for novices.

Cork and Quills

The gymnasium floor is laid out in courts 44 by 20 feet. A white net divides the court in the center, and it is over this net that the bird, a half sphere of cork surrounded by goose quills, is tossed back and forth on small banjo-shaped rackets.

When the receiving players fail to return the shuttlecock to the serving side, the servers are said to have made a kill, and a point is added to their score. In a singles game, the winning score is 11; in a game of doubles, 15 or 21 points are required to gain a victory.

Popular on Coast

Badminton was started early in the nineteenth century by a group of army officers in India. Twelve years ago it was introduced into the United States. The eastern cities have taken up the sport with enthusiasm, and it has become almost as popular on the west coast. Badminton has been played in the women's gymnasium for the last three years, but it is only recently that both men and women have become interested enough to ask for six hours of badminton open house during the week.

Second Ward Democrats To Support F.R.

Second ward delegates meeting in the city hall last night drew up a resolution supporting the present national administration. A similar resolution will probably be passed by the democratic county convention here March 14. Dr. W. L. Bywater, chairman of the second ward caucus, declared.

The resolution follows: "We, the Democrats of the second ward of Iowa City, Johnson county, Iowa, in caucus assembled this sixth day of March, 1936, hereby declare our unqualified adherence to the principles of Democracy as exemplified by our great humanitarian president, Franklin D. Roosevelt."

"We endorse and approve his fearless and splendid administration which has restored hope to the American people prostrated by years of support of a privileged few at the expense of the masses and we, therefore, instruct the delegates to the Johnson county convention, elected at this caucus, to vote as a unit for election of delegates to the state convention in Des Moines, pledged to support Franklin D. Roosevelt for renomination and re-election and we further instruct our delegates, elected at this caucus to introduce and labor for adoption by the Johnson county convention of resolutions instructing the delegates from Johnson county to the state convention and binding them as a unit to vote only for such candidates for district delegates and delegates at large to the Democratic national convention as are pledged to the support of Franklin D. Roosevelt for renomination and re-election and the adoption of a national platform endorsing and carrying out the principles of the Roosevelt administration."

"There is a hope that because this administration maintains amounts to be held 300 miles away."

"In the south, administration wanted west, and that is there."

"And I suppose they carry the same money will go there."

"It's just so much."
