A Blow To Democratic Camp

MRS. RUTH BRYAN Rohde broke her leg Monday night, and now she will make no speech in Iowa City this fall. Iowa Citizens will not be the only ones disappointed, however, for her whole tour of campaign addresses has been cancelled.

Another Tall Hearst Story

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, we observe, has denounced as false—and they undoubtedly are—reports that he had invited or would accept the support of "alien organizations" in this country, acting under orders from foreign sources.

We have very little faith in the accuracy and credibility of the Hearst report, but we can see that if even a part of the things Earl Browder, communist presidential nominee, has been reported to have said actually were stated, it looks damaging for Mr. Roosevelt.

Autumn Driving Has Its Rules

AUTUMN DRIVING has a special set of rules all its own, which should be followed for maximum enjoyment of motoring during the next few weeks.

Our Readers' VIEWPOINT

Letters must be signed and should not exceed 250 words. Opinions expressed by our readers do not necessarily reflect our views.

EDITOR, THE DAILY IOWAN:

ON TUESDAY'S editorial page you point out that highway 161 between Iowa City and Cedar Rapids is a dangerous road, one to be traveled upon only with extreme care.

But for our purposes let's get at the real reason why students travel this road frequently, and usually travel homeward at a high rate of speed.

There are beer parlors, dance halls and restaurants, but the present city ordinances forbid dancing and beer altogether. Students being what they are, and probably always will be, want to dance.

A New Yorker At Large

By JACK STINNETT

NEW YORK—Not in the history either of the theater or the government has any play ever been given such a wholesale showing to the United States as is planned by the WPA federal theater project for the dramatization of Sinclair Lewis' "It Can't Happen Here."

For the first time in the annals of the theater, a stage play is being released by a method heretofore used only for motion pictures.

Dramatization of the novel by Lewis and John C. Moffitt... The same Jack Moffitt who used to grind out feature stories and movie reviews for the Kansas City Star...

Less than two weeks after Moffitt flew here from Hollywood, where he is a contract writer for a major movie studio, the play was delivered and casting started.

Labor Unanimous in Its Choice of Demo Candidate

(Provided by the Democratic National Committee)
By DANIEL J. TOBIN
Labor Division, Democratic National Committee

I have been asked why laboring men and women in this country, both organized and unorganized, are practically unanimous in their support of President Roosevelt and definitely against the election of Governor Landon.

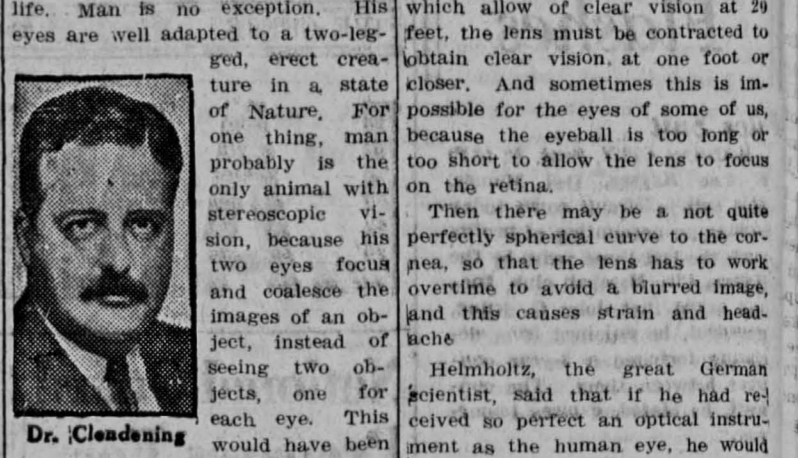

Governor Landon has failed to bring about the establishment of a minimum wage law for women and children in Kansas. He has failed to sponsor a program establishing decent, modern, labor standards in his own state.

Living conditions in the lead and zinc mining areas of Kansas are notoriously bad. The workers suffer from silicosis, a form of lead dust poisoning, and as a result the average working span of the individual is only eight or ten years.

Man Aids Nature to Make Eyes for Civilization

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D.

EVERY ANIMAL has his vision adapted to the needs of his way of life. Man is no exception. His eyes are well adapted to a two-legged, erect creature in a state of Nature.

Rev. Richard E. McEvoy will serve as chaplain and the university medical organizations will furnish the music. The public is cordially invited. SENATE BOARD ON VESPERS.

Maine Election Reveals Feeling Against Spending

(Provided by the Republican National Committee)
In the city of Washington, where the business of government is supposed to be transacted, there are thousands of individuals on the public payroll busy manufacturing and distributing new deal propaganda.

Through the WPA, the president has decided that people on the public payroll—HELD THEIRS BY HIS FAILURE TO PROVIDE REAL JOBS IN PRIVATE INDUSTRY—have built enough birdhouses and lily ponds for the present.

Plans to Make for Civilization

OPINION, M.D. The eyes Nature made for us. In a head of relaxed ciliary muscles which allow of clear vision at 20 feet, the lens must be contracted to obtain clear vision at one foot or closer. And sometimes this is impossible for the eyes of some of us, because the eyeball is too long or too short to allow the lens to focus on the retina.

Ridiculous? Endowment Funny At One Time; Not So At Present When a dam was presented to the University of Iowa more than 50 years ago, the endowment was ridiculed. The dam, a part of the Terrill mill, built in 1840, was given to the university college of applied science. This was one of many mills which figured in the history of Iowa. J. A. Ewisher of the State Historical society writes in the September issue of the Palimpsest. The Palimpsest, a monthly publication put out by the State Historical society, also contains an article by Thomas C. Geary on "John McGraw in Iowa Baseball," and comments by the editor, Prof. John E. Briggs of the political science department.

New Sections In East Hall

Sections of the psychology laboratory on clinical psychology, psychology of music and speech are all integrated in East hall after reorganization of the laboratory during the summer. The section on clinical psychology, devoted largely to brain physiology and researches in the problems of speech, under Prof. Lee E. Travis, was formerly in psychopathic hospital. All three laboratories now are in the basement on the east side of East hall.

Prof. Tyler Ends Research

Prof. Ina Tyler, state emergency relief director, has just completed research on cooperatives in Europe, and will return to Iowa soon to file reports on her research. She will report to Grace Ferguson, director of the division of social administration, and to Prof. Bruce Mahan, director of the extension division. Professor Tyler is a member of the extension division staff. Parts of her studies, obtained from conferences in several of Russia's larger cities, will be used at the University of Iowa as reference material in classes for social workers. The survey has dealt with both the consumer and producer types of cooperatives which are operated under the Soviet and Scandinavian cooperatives. She also made a study of social service administration in England.

Cheering Tryouts To Continue Today

Cheer-leading tryouts will continue this afternoon at 4:30 for five new Hawkeye yell-leaders. Successful applicants will be announced Friday by Ronald Carlson, A3 of Clinton, who is in charge of try-outs. Information may be obtained at Iowa Union desk.

Saved From Starvation Death Dramatic Circumstances Surround Operation On Five-Year-Old Julian Tafel Jr.

By the Associated Press CHICAGO, Sept. 22—An operation surrounded by dramatic circumstances saved five-year-old Julian Tafel Jr. from death from starvation today and gave him a "good chance" to live. Breaking down the father's insistence that "nature take its course" the infant was placed on the operating table. Five surgeons opened in the baby's side about an inch above the hip. A "bottomless inch"—the malformation that had doomed the blue-eyed child—was brought out through this opening. It will be left in that position to drain, said Dr. Lewis K. Eastman, head of the Danish-American hospital, until it is returned to its proper place in a second operation. "He might live or he might die," the doctor announced. "But the chances are good now."

Carried to Room The tiny patient was carried to the room where his mother, Mrs. Eva Tafel, 22, and his father, Julian Sr., 24, waited. The mother shook hands with the five men in white who had responded to her supplications to attempt to save the baby.

Worries "My worry," he said before the operation, "is whether the baby has any colon at all." He reported young Julian was in "very bad shape" before he was taken to the operating room. His temperature had dropped from 100 to 98 degrees.

Normal! "You're going to make him normal!" Mrs. Tafel inquired. Dr. Eastman opined the baby would not be bed-ridden. He pointed to "hundreds of similar cases" wherein the subjects recovered and led near normal lives. Reassured, the mother powdered her nose, fluffed her hair and prepared for photographers.

Similar Case Tafel changed his mind after he hurried to the hospital this afternoon. There he was confronted by four-year-old Richard Laffer, who

A Rare Entertainment Treat Comes Today!

FILM DOM'S NEW SCREEN SEASON is at hand. The new motion pictures which will make your entertainment year at this theatre a most memorable one are beginning to come in.

FIRST AND FOREMOST of the new season's great achievements is "MY MAN GODFREY" starring WILLIAM POWELL and CAROLE LOMBARD, and produced by Universal, whose outstanding contributions in the past have been "Show Boat," "Magnificent Obsession," and "Imitation of Life."

THIS THEATRE has seldom, if ever, guaranteed a motion picture, because entertainment tastes are so varied — but with "MY MAN GODFREY" it goes the absolute limit in endorsements.

HERE, INDEED, is a screen triumph so ingeniously written, so brilliantly acted by its great stars, so expertly played by its fine cast, so marvelously directed, produced and dressed — that it is the happiest, most delightful success that any woman or man, girl or boy has ever enjoyed. Briefly, it is the utmost in exhilarating entertainment.

SO START the New Screen Season gloriously, today. For no matter what great pictures the future brings, you will always be eternally grateful for having seen "MY MAN GODFREY," the very first of the new season's outstanding pictures!

Dawn Barger Will Become The Bride of Kenneth Wintenburg At 8 O'clock Ceremony Tonight

Stromsten Home Will Be Scene of Wedding; Expect 60 Guests

In an 8 o'clock ceremony tonight Dawn Barger, daughter of Mrs. W. H. Barger of Cedar Rapids, will become the bride of Kenneth Wintenburg, of Dubuque, son of Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Wintenburg of Delhi. The groom of Prof. and Mrs. S. A. Stromsten, 121 Richards street, will be the scene of the wedding, at which 60 guests will be present.

The Rev. N. C. Dryer of the First Congregational church of Cedar Rapids will read the single ring ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Di Tolla of Dubuque will play during the wedding and reception following.

Brother-in-Law
Miss Barger, unattended, will be given in marriage by her brother-in-law, John E. Thompson of Iowa City. She will be gowned in light blue velvet fashioned in a floor-length tunic style. Cream colored Hollywood roses will make up her bouquet.

The bride's mother will wear a gown of blue figured silk.

Pall flowers will decorate the Stromsten home, where the persons attending the wedding will be guests at a reception immediately after the ceremony.

For her travelling costume Miss Barger has selected a grey light weight wool dress, to be worn with navy blue accessories.

Miss Barger attended the University of Iowa for one year, and Mr. Wintenburg is a graduate of Coe college in Cedar Rapids. The bride has been employed as residential lighting adviser in Cedar Rapids.

The couple will live in Dubuque, where Mr. Wintenburg is associated with an insurance agency. Their address will be 290 Bradley street.

Guests
Among out of town guests at the wedding tonight will be Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dunkerton of Marshalltown, Mrs. W. B. Swaney of Ft. Dodge, Mrs. D. L. Swaney of Spirit Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Newell Williams of Alton, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. John Naeck of Dubuque, Ella Burrell of Epworth.

Gene Vanhus of Dubuque, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Head and Helen Head of Dubuque, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hare of Delhi, and Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Swaney, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Jones, Isabel Kehrer, Mary Jane McGrath, Betty Kehne, Theda Myers, Kenneth Kent, Dean Stausscher, Marvin Bailey, Harry Teeter, Tom Pirney, and Miss Barger's brothers, Bill and Bob, all of Cedar Rapids.

Sarah Churchill

The supposed romance between Sarah Churchill, 21-year-old daughter of Winston Churchill, British statesman, and Vic Oliver, American actor, remained in doubt following the arrival of the girl in New York, above. Miss Churchill went into seclusion and couldn't be reached for comment, although Oliver denied reports of marriage.

Miss Churchill made the trip alone but was pursued by her brother, Randolph, with the intention of taking her back home.

Success In Cattle Shipments Due to "Beef From Contented Steers"

By ARTHUR F. WOLF

MITCHELL, Neb. (AP)—Fred M. Attebery, Mitchell stockman who has topped the markets in cattle shipments for a number of years including one of the worst drought periods on record, claims his success is due to shipping "beef from contented steers."

In 1934, a bad drought year, Attebery shipped 16 loads of cattle; 15 led the market. They call him a "beef feeder" but he deprecates the title.

"I think most any farmer with just good practical feeding experience can accomplish all that my cattle have," Attebery says. "Energy, efficiency and economy in operation along with good common business sense will move most anything in the right direction."

Has Triple-E Philosophy
The triple-E philosophy has moved Attebery's cattle in "the right direction" and along a high road.

Before 1932, Attebery recalls, he topped the markets several times. In 1932 he made 11 shipments, every one topping the Chicago market. In 1933 all but three of his choice Herefords topped. In 1934 it was 15 out of 16 at the top. In 1935 he topped the market with 15 of 19 shipments. By midseason this year he held the top 10 consecutive times.

On May 1, 1935, the Scotts Bluff county feeder sold a load for $16.25, a five year top for all markets that has not been surpassed.

Beef Widely Known
And the beef from those cattle is known widely. Prof. Howard J. Granich, meat expert of the Nebraska agricultural college, has a habit of asking the origin of any meat he eats. Dining in a New York hotel a year or two ago he inquired about the beef he ordered.

He was told it was "Attebery beef, from Nebraska."

Stockmen from all parts of the world, asking Attebery how he does it, hear of a method that boils down to "beef from contented steers."

I saw an old man yesterday on college street within an inch—or two or three—of being run down by a bicycle driven by a high school kid who never turned around...

During the last three weeks I have seen a dozen or more such instances, sometimes nearly a serious accident, sometimes just a forewarning of what may come...

Because it will come. Sooner or later, I shudder to predict, some Iowa citizen will be killed or injured for life by a bungling high schoolie who doesn't know or doesn't care about the rights of others...

Music Group To Have Sale

To raise funds for a trip to the national contest in the spring, the Iowa City high school music auxiliary, composed of parents of children who participate in the high school band and orchestra, will sponsor a rummage sale this fall. The double sale will take place Oct. 3 at 14 and 224 S. Dubuque street.

Boys and girls of the band and orchestra will collect rummage Saturday, not in answer to calls which may be made by anyone interested in contributing to the sale. Calls concerning material may be placed with either Mrs. W. H. Simpson, 2562, or Mrs. C. W. Koyser, 2963.

Coat hangers and paper egg containers, later to be sold, will also be collected by the students.

The high school orchestra, which attended national contest two years ago, will have its turn again this year. Since band and orchestra national contests are held on alternate years, the band went last year, winning a national rating.

World's Champion Marrier

Tying Knots in a Hurry, Slowing Up on "Do You Take" Phrase

By WILLIAM McGAFFIN

NEW YORK (AP)—Philip A. Hines, New York's chief deputy clerk, is probably the world's champion "marrier"—he has spliced about 45,000 couples in the last three years.

He works fast, sometimes making as many as 20 knots an hour, but he has learned from experience to slow down when he reaches the "do you take" phrase.

"I'm always very careful in asking this question," says Hines, a gray-haired little Irishman, "for you may not believe it but I have actually received 'No' several times in reply."

Once a man said "No" because just before the ceremony he learned that his bride-to-be had decided to give him only $500 instead of the $5,000 she promised if he would marry her.

The Girl Said 'No'
At another time a girl replied in the negative because she felt that "the man has held me under a sort of hypnotic spell." She knew her own mind again, she insisted, when she refused to go on.

"Those occasions are always very embarrassing," Hines explained. "You have to be very diplomatic." In such instances, the bridegroom can always walk across the hall to the license bureau and get his money back. It saves him a total

Joe Louis Drops Al Ettore in Fifth Round

BITS about SPORTS

By ROBERT HOGAN

Leo Fischer and his photographer, Al Struck, both of the Chicago American sports staff, were in town yesterday afternoon...

"Many is the all-American player we have taken a picture of as a sophomore," declared Fischer...

As regards probable strength of other teams he thinks that Bob Zupke at Illinois is going to have the team to beat...

And now that Joe Louis has carved another notch on his belt with his fifth round knockout of Al Ettore...

Continues Comeback Drive

Floors Ettore Twice Before Kayo Punch

60,000 Turn Out as Joe Continues Comeback Campaign in East

By EDDIE BRIETZ PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22 (AP)—Detroit's Brown Bomber Joe Louis carved another notch in his knock-out run tonight by stopping young Al Ettore...

A huge turnout estimated at 60,000 roared as the 22-year-old Negro floored a game but over-matched Ettore twice before knocking him off with a pair of short but paralyzing left hooks after 1:25 of a one-sided milling in the fifth.

Gene Tunney Won There It was in this same huge stadium almost 10 years ago to the day that the fighting mariner, Gene Tunney, took the world's heavyweight championship away from Jack Dempsey...

Scaling 203 1-4 to Ettore's 189 3-4, Louis had the Italian on the canvas once in the first, once in the fourth and once in the fifth when he landed his haymaker.

Making his second start since his smashing defeat by Max Baer in New York last June, Louis chalked up his second straight victory. Four weeks ago he stopped Jack Sharkey in four rounds in New York. It was the Negro's 25th knockout in his 30 professional fights.

Has Slight Trouble Louis had trouble getting set for his Sunday punch in the early rounds tonight, but once he solved Ettore's swarming and somewhat puzzling attack and found the range with his steel fists, there never was any doubt of the outcome.

Joe threw rights for two heats, then switched to his left. This weapon accounted for the last two knockdowns.

With Ettore dazed and foggy in the fifth from a savage barrage of rights and lefts to the head and body, Louis crowded him into the ropes and cut loose two short but vicious lefts to the head. Ettore hit the canvas for the third time.

After taking a count of nine, he tried to drag himself to his feet, but he was too far gone. Just as the time-keeper tolled 10, Ettore pitched forward on the ropes and it was all over.

Goes Down in 4th In the fourth after battering Ettore all over the ring, Louis landed rights and lefts to the head and a left laden with TNT thud on the Italian's jaw. This thud he took a count of nine, but it was apparent he could have returned to the slaughter earlier.

The first knockdown came soon after the opening bell. Ettore fell out from his corner, after making Joe miss a blow or two, ran smack into a right to the jaw. He hit the deck but got up at the count of three.

At times, prior to the fourth when he really went to work, it seemed Louis was feeling his way along, looking for a spot to slip in a sleep producer. At other times the Negro appeared puzzled by Ettore's unorthodox style.

golf team are expected to be on hand. Duke Slater, one of Iowa's greatest tackles and an all-American on the Hawkeye eleven of 1921, will break into the limelight again as a radio talker and sports commentator. Tonight he will be interviewed on the sports program originating at the WSUI studios and Slater's booth to give his views of the opening game of the season for Iowa's Hawkeyes against Carleton.

Increased parking facilities will be available for Iowa football patrons this fall, it was announced by the athletic board of control yesterday.

Cars will be arranged on Finkbine field, the university golf course, just a three minute walk from Iowa stadium, scene of four 1936 contests, including two big Western conference battles.

Because of the unavoidable damage that will be done the links west of the University hospital a small change will be made to defray repair charges.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22 (AP)—The New York Giants will have to wait at least another day before they clinch the National league pennant.

Needing only two victories to nail the flag to the pole, they had their chance in a doubleheader with the Phillies today but failed to come through, losing both games to Jimmy Wilson's last place club, 11-7 and 6-2. The Cards' victory over the Reds left the game house gang four and a half games off the pace and the Giants still in need of two triumphs to win.

Only Carl Hubbell and Fred Fitzsimmons of Bill Terry's mound staff failed to see service as the Giants' pilot used six hurlers, four of them in the nightcap, in an effort to stop the Phils. Hubbell is slated to hurl tomorrow but the league leaders will need a couple of victories with a defeat of the Cards to complete their upward climb.

Fight for Position
BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Sept. 22 (AP)—Two Indiana university sophomores—Paul Graham of Eldorado, Kan., and Dudley Whitman of Brazil, Ind.—began a lively battle today for the fullback position, left vacant temporarily by the illness of Corby Davis.

Illini Prepare Defense
CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Sept. 22 (AP)—Illinois worked on defense today, indicating that Bob Zuppke has respect for the pile-driving attack reputedly possessed by DePaul, which comes here for the Illini opener next Saturday. After DePaul plays had been discussed, Zuppke put his first string charges through a dummy scrimmage.

Power at Chicago
CHICAGO, Sept. 22 (AP)—A hot sun caused Clark Shaughnessy to work his Chicago Maroons indoors for an hour today but late in the afternoon the Maroon mentor sent his charges through a stiff scrimmage. Sophomores Solie Sherman and Harves Lawson appeared to advantage and the varsity performance indicated that Chicago this season may depend more on a power attack than on speed or an overhead game.

Kipke Polishes Eleven
ANN ARBOR, Mich., Sept. 22 (AP)—Coach Harry Kipke tossed the names of his second and third string Michigan football players into the air today and out of the scramble sent two elevens through the roughest scrimmage of the training season in a broiling sun.

Tigers Blank St. Louis In Double Bill

DETROIT, Sept. 22 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers tightened their claim on second place in the American league race today by blanking St. Louis in both games of a twin bill. Tommy Bridges marked up his 23rd victory of the season in shutting the Browns out in the nightcap, 14 to 0, after Elton Auken had won the opener 12 to 0.

Carson's blocking and tackling was consistently good during practice.

Carson's blocking and tackling was consistently good during practice. Knebel, a large husky senior out for the first time, filled the other tackle position. Backfield posts appeared fairly well settled with Wyjack and Schnoebelen taking over the wing-back positions, and Wombacher and Shebetka receiving the call at quarter and full, respectively. In the line Ham Riese filled the center position capably. Hinman, letterman, and Harold Campton seemed at home on the ends. At left tackle Carson, another last year mono-gard winner, used his 190 pounds of bulk in veteran fashion. Although no intense scrimmage took place, lengthy aerial drill last evening, with Keith Hora doing the tossing to Al Miller, Capt. Jens Norgaard, Eldon Parizek, and other backfield and wing candidates.

Coach Herb Cormack juggled his teams in a lengthy scrimmage, experimenting with different candidates in new positions. Dave Kerr, a converted end, was used in the backfield in an effort to find a man capable of filling regular shoes in case numerous backfield replacements prove necessary in the future. The way things now stand there is an over-abundance of wing-men with a shortage of capable behind-the-line reserves.

Besides stressing aerial maneuvers, defensive formations were meted out to the teams with the idea in mind of stopping Carr. Negro McKinley halfback who ran wild against Tipton last week, Carr reeled off sprints of 81 and 23 yards for touchdowns in that game.

WATERBURY, S. D. (AP)—Arthur Henry Laemmle, whose body was found in a room of a Columbia university dormitory in New York yesterday, was a former track captain at the University of Minnesota and Big Ten conference heavy-weight wrestling champion, friends here said yesterday.

Laemmle, who left here last Friday to enter Columbia university, had been instructor in biology in Watertown high school for the last seven years, following his graduation from Minnesota. Harold Mackenzie, superintendent of schools here, said Laemmle left here in the best of health and spirits.
