Jobs for Graduates More Plentiful

WANTED: college graduates, intelligent, personable, and popular. Once again this "want-ad" is being renewed. According to figures just released by the Investors Syndicate, employment prospects of this year's college graduating classes are the most favorable since 1929.

The heaviest demands will center on engineering, business administration, teaching and general business classifications. Law, journalism and investment banking are near the foot of the list.

Mr. Ridgway bases his conclusions on data collected through questionnaires returned by 218 leading colleges and universities. One hundred fourteen institutions expect employment this year to exceed the 1936 total.

The Inconsistency Of Some Men

THE INCONSISTENCY of man, some poet has said, is sometimes quite unfathomable. The poet's observation applies to the reaction of some persons to the Spanish civil war.

there is a "great moral issue" at stake? What possible satisfaction could a group of Americans find in a loyalist victory? What possible glory could come to the American "pacifist" who took up arms against the insurgents?

These remarks are not intended to defend the insurgent cause. The sting is aimed at those persons who let their prejudices lead them into acts which will penalize all men.

Radical Labor Policy

CAPITAL and labor will both be interested in the economic views of Father Divine as expounded by one of his assistants. It seems that the Negro leader has plans for a self-contained community up-State.

Anticipations of this competitive principle are not unknown. There are municipal subways, for instance, which can compete with other subways because the city that built them does not seek interest on its investment.

Washington World

By CHARLES P. STEWART Central Press Columnist WASHINGTON, D.C.—The outlook for satisfactory legislation to keep the United States neutral in the next major war is not very good.

Students of the situation generally are pessimistic. They practically are in agreement that all plans thus far suggested promise to involve Uncle Sam in such a struggle rather than to keep him clear of it.

On the opposite hand, "shall a certain discretion be allowed to the managers of our affairs?" That discretion cannot be sufficient to permit our government to decide that the time has come when neutrality is no longer a possibility.

A New Yorker At Large

By JACK STINNETT NEW YORK—Notes from a lit'ry scrapbook—Just where the borders of knowledge overlap the boundaries of ignorance is difficult to say. . . .

Recently, the New York Times carried an item that the Columbia University Press soon would issue a reprint of the first American novel, published originally in 1789.

The power of sympathy, or, The Triumph of Nature, by William Hill Brown. The next day the Press received a letter addressed to Mr. Brown. It was from a clipping agency and read: "Will you please send me a copy of your book. . . ."

And a gentleman of New York address writes Senator Philip De Novarre, relative to his book, "The Wars of Frederick II Against the Infidels in Syria and Cyprus." The letter began: "Dear Senor; I want to sincerely thank you for writing and to heartily congratulate you on the excellent results you have so admirably achieved in your splendid, 'The Wars of Frederick II, etc.' as it certainly is the most educationally enlightening chronicle of this historic series of events I ever has been my good fortune to study. . . ."

Then after two paragraphs, the gentleman asks the author for a copy of the book. The bibliographers are not right certain about it, but it is now fairly well established that Senor Philip lived, wrote and died in the 18th century.

Recommended (but only for those with a hearty taste for the bawdiest of Balzac; "The Scandals of Clochemerle," by Gabriel Chevallier. It is rare satire that has to do with the wine-bibbling folk of a little wine-growing community in France. But remember, it is not for debutantes. . . . and not for any one else who has not been immunized to shock by generous injections of sense-of-humor.

Local Women To Entertain

Mrs. R. S. Mushrush And Ada Van Toll Hostesses Tuesday

Mrs. R. S. Mushrush and her aunt, Ada Van Toll, 910 S. Summit street, will entertain at a dessert-bridge and kenington Tuesday at 2:15 p.m. in the Iowa Union foyer. Flowers and decorations in a May theme will be used.

The party will be a courtesy to Mrs. A. H. Holt, 422 S. Summit street, who will leave Iowa City this summer for Worcester, Mass., where her husband, Professor Holt, has accepted a new position.

Guests will be the honoree, Mrs. H. L. Johnson, Mrs. A. W. Bennett, Mrs. Charles Maruth, Mrs. Louise Maruth, Mrs. Jessie E. Saunders, Mrs. Elton L. Titus, Mrs. J. Hubert Scott, Mrs. J. V. Blackman, Mrs. Arthur F. Koch, Mrs. Robert W. Houston, Mrs. G. F. Gardner, Mrs. Harold H. McCarty, Mrs. W. J. Weeber, Mrs. R. D. McKnight, Mrs. E. P. Paynter, Mrs. A. B. Sidwell, Mrs. Arthur V. O'Brien and Mrs. Alice Harris of Portland, Ore., who is Mrs. Holt's houseguest.

Junior Odd Fellows Will Give Initiations

Initiation will take place at the meeting of the Junior Odd Fellows Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the Odd Fellows hall.

Herb Williams, chief ruler, will preside.

MRS. CONKLIN TO GIVE REPORT OF CONVENTION

Mrs. Clarence Conklin will make a report on the southeastern convention of Parent-Teacher associations which she attended April 2 at Burlington during the meeting of the Roosevelt P.T.A. this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the school building. A new nominating committee will be appointed at this time.

Musical selections by the harmonica band and a play, "The Elves and The Shoemaker," presented by 2A and 3B pupils will comprise the program.

Included in the play cast are Gwendolyn Stitzel, Donna Altender, Bruce Noel, Junior Hall, Clarence Spratt and Gladys Brown.

Woman's Club In Presentation Of Historic Drama

"Black Hawk and the Treaty of 1832," a play presented by members of the drama department of the Iowa City Woman's club, appeared in Davenport yesterday afternoon in the Light and Power auditorium.

The play was written by Mrs. T. R. Retse of Iowa City in 1932, when it was first produced. A second performance was given Tuesday evening at St. Mary's auditorium under the auspices of St. Mary's Parent Teacher association.

Mrs. Retse directed the production, Mrs. Alexander Ellett was in charge of the music, and Mrs. W. F. Smith was accompanist.

Mothers, Fathers, Daughters And Sons Gather Tonight For May Frolic With Ted Weems

Girls Will Entertain Men at Annual Party At Iowa Union

Mothers and fathers, sons and daughters—all will mingle this evening in the main lounge of Iowa Union to dance to the strains of Ted Weems' music at the May Frolic. The party will extend from 9 to 12 p.m.

This affair is the opening event of the Mother's day week end, and parents are invited to attend the dance on their son's or daughter's ticket.

Men Are Guests

Since the men are the clinging vines of the evening—the poor souls who have waited breathlessly for a girl to invite them to come—it is only fitting that their wearing apparel should come under observation. Leo Brownlee, C4 of Mallard, will be conservative in a dark blue suit with a white shirt and a blue tie. Esther Harding, N2 of Iowa City, has invited him to the party. Clifford Losch, A4 of Des Moines, has defied convention, and is bringing his own date from out of town. Mary Jo Cocoran, Mr. Losch will be wearing a light grey suit, his white shirt off by a grey tie. Juanita Shearer, A3 of Moberly, Mo., has selected John Bice, A3 of Ft. Dodge, as her escort of the evening. John will appear in a white coat with tux trousers and the conventional black tie.

A light grey suit will be worn with a white shirt and a full colored tan tie by Phillip Goodenough, A3 of Des Moines. His partner is Bettie Jayne Reed, C3 of Marshalltown. Weems' orchestra appeared on the campus for the Spinners Spree, the first women's party, early in the fall. It has been brought back by popular request, and all the tickets for the Frolic sold out the first morning, emphasizing his popularity in Iowa City.

Popular Vocalist

With him will come his vocalists, Perry Como, Parker Gibbs and Elmo Tanner. Also he will use his "Weems-a-phone," a peculiar instrument he devised to obtain a tonal effect needed for one of his unique arrangements.

Chaperons for the party will be: Dean Adelaide Burge, Prof. and Mrs. Richard Whipple, Prof. and Mrs. R. M. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Rehder, Prof. and Mrs. Bartholow Crawford and Prof. and Mrs. Wilbur L. Schramm.

Ruth L. Belsky, A4 of Dubuque.

is chairman of the committee of Mortar Board girls. They are Kathleen Litten of Fargo, N.D., Mary-Lou McQuillen of Charles City, Amanda McCloy, Betty Lampe, Helen Fitzgerald and Margaret Miller, all of Iowa City, Ruth Crow of Burlington and Louise Wolfinger of Des Moines, all A4; Harriet Orr, L1 of North English, and Ruth Dee Lewis, C4 of Danville.

CAMP 'Y'

Engineers to Stage Large Exhibition During May Month

High School Students Expected to Visit Many Magic Feats

The largest exhibition ever to be staged by the college of engineering will be held May 6 and 7 in the chemistry, electrical and main engineering buildings and in the mechanical and hydraulics laboratories.

This great show of modern trends in engineering is expected to draw a large crowd from the high school musicians attending the music festival on the same days. These visitors will have the opportunity of learning the secret of many magical feats of applied science. They will enjoy the feeling of knowing and being fooled by the many small setups and models that they formerly regarded as "scientific mysteries."

Departments of civil, mechanical, chemical and electrical engineering have each prepared elaborate and educational displays in their own field. Visitors will be afforded the opportunity of seeing how steel is tested and treated before use; how combustion engines are studied in regard to best treatment and fuel expense, and they will have explained to them the latest and most modern concepts of lighting and light equipment.

At the hydraulics laboratory, the exhibit will vary from the show viewpoint and chiefly concern itself with explaining and operating the equipment that is used every day in studies and research of this department. This equipment consists of model river channels with a flowing stream. These models are used to enable a determination of the problems in silt study, flood control and the carrying power of rivers.

Among the extra special features of the demonstration will be a solid steel ball suspended in mid-air. This is accomplished by a jet of compressed air being in focus with the ball.

Of particular interest to all visitors will be the television display showing both the actual transmission and reception. Each visitor will have the privilege of having his image broadcast over television station W9KK. Shown in connection with this department will be pictures of the transmission of speech. A contrast will be shown by machinery in operation of the old telephone system and the new dial system.

The military department, in connection with the exhibit, will display a collection of machine guns, rifles and aerial photographs. Members of the advanced class in military will act as guides and explain this particular exhibit.

3 Beethoven Sonatas Will Be Presented

The second of three concerts presenting the 10 sonatas of Beethoven will be given tonight at 8 o'clock in north music hall by Prof. Philip G. Clapp, head of the music department and Arnold Small, concertmaster of the university chamber symphony orchestra.

Offered under the auspices of the German club, the recital will include three of the 10 sonatas. Seldom heard in their entirety in America, they are being given in chronological order in these three recitals. Four of the 10 works of the German composer were heard at the first recital.

The sonata in F major, Opus 24 will open tonight's concert. Published in 1801, it was named the "Spring" sonata for its gay and lighthearted character.

In 1802, when Beethoven's deafness was becoming more acute, the three sonatas in Opus 30, two of which will be heard tonight, were written. With these works the depth of inspiration and eloquence found in this series of sonatas is probably first realized.

The program for tonight's concert follows:

Sonata in F major, Opus 24
Allegro
Adagio molto espressivo
Scherzo: Allegro molto
Rondo: Allegro ma non tanto

Sonata in A major, Opus 30, No. 1
Allegro
Adagio molto espressivo
Allegretto con variazioni
Allegro, ma non tanto

Sonata in C minor, Opus 30, No. 2
Allegro con brio
Adagio cantabile
Scherzo: Allegro
Finale: Allegro

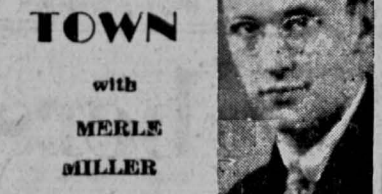

The final concert will be given May 14, at 8 p. m. in north music hall.

Members of Kappa Phi to Give Open House for Mothers

The mothers of active members of Kappa Phi, Methodist Episcopal girls' sorority, will be guests at an open house party in the Methodist student center today from 4 to 6 p. m.

Punch and cookies will be served at the close of the afternoon. Those on the refreshment committee include June E. Herring, A2, and Arlene L. Finch, A3, both of Iowa City, and Anna May Taylor, A1 of Van Meter.

AROUND THE TOWN

An ex-soldier I know has been wondering lately. . . He declares he went to France and fought to help make the "world safe for democracy" and what actually happened was that the war made it easier for Hitler and Mussolini to come along.

What ever became of that "perennial youth" chap I remember reading about a few years back? . . . And why hasn't the supreme court heard of him?

An interesting bit in this month's Scribner's about my particular favorite, Dorothy Thompson. . . She makes $35,000 a year. It's reported. . . She's the only female member of the Harvard Club, and she once predicted Hitler would never be dictator of Germany.

When Marquis Child, whose reveal-all political book, "Washington Calling" is out early next month, was a student here, he broke all records for his lazy ingenuity, a prof who remembers declares.

Most exasperating trick was when he answered question "What do you know about the year 1066?" with the single word, "Nothing." . . . His grade was "FD," but he always declared it was the correct answer, the prof reports.

Incidentally, "The Nine Old Men" is to have a sequel, "The Nine Old Men at the Crossroads." . . . It's to be about all that's happened—or been threatening to—since last fall. . . In pamphlet form, it'll be a 25-cent best seller.

Starting today, the state legislature has decreed, we can go trout fishing in Iowa. . . The only thing, of course, there are no trout in Iowa waters—at least so far's I've ever been able to find.

Now they've put a bust of Eugene O'Neill in the Princeton hall of fame. . . They're not mentioning the fact that he was forcibly asked to leave in his undergraduate days there.

The only part they mention is that he's just received the Nobel prize for literature.

Yes, the last bulwark of stability in government may be going; a general European war may be pending; the English are having a coronation, but the baseball season is underway. . . Right now nothing else matters.

Nebraska has a one-house legislature and finds it only half as foolish.

So many have called to my attention the little, old Iowa City woman who so frequently is walking downtown. . . She paces at a speed that makes most of the younger of us take a back seat; looks straight ahead, seldom speaks to anyone.

She's all alone now, they tell me

SPRING SEASON MOVE

No telling when one will make the next move in a chess game and so these students get nourishment between moves and moods as they play chess at a local restaurant in the early morning. The above scene is a daily occurrence these days, what with a student chess tournament in progress. Left to right are Charles Fair, A2 of Fremont, Neb.; Ludwig E. Armerding, A3 of Fanwood, N. J., and Paul Edmiston.

ART GUILD OUTLINES PLANS FOR FUTURE, TAKES 14 NEW MEMBERS

Outlining plans to make Art Guild a more constructive organization with open forum criticisms at the weekly meetings, the group initiated 14 new members last night at a banquet in the private dining room of Iowa Union.

Margaret Miller, A4 of Iowa City, president of Art Guild, presided. William Brantton, A3 of Aberdeen, S. D., gave the prospectus for the future, noting especially the plans for an exhibition next December with cash prizes offered to both graduates and undergraduates. The prizes are open only to members of Art Guild, but the exhibit is open to all students.

Ernest Freed, G of Rockville, Ind., gave a speech of acceptance for the initiative.

Sounds Keynote
Prof. Lester D. Longman, head of the graphic and plastic arts department, then sounded the keynote of the Art Guild: to promote a non-credit interest in art, the post-college attitude, with a mutual exchange of ideas and criticisms to the betterment of the work in general.

Following Professor Longman's address, a round table discussion took place, and plans for the next meeting, Thursday night at 7:15 in the figure drawing room of the fine arts building, were made.

New Members
The new Art Guild members are Ruth Adair, A3 of Indianapolis; Richard Gates, A3 of Cedar Rapids; Helen Miller, G of Iowa City; Omaha Strain, G of Crawfordville; Raymond Hotka, A3 of Iowa City; Miriam Hutchins, A3 of Des Moines; Rosamond Kearney, A3 of Cedar Rapids; Margaret Kerfoot, G of St. Paul, Minn.; Frances Senska, G of Iowa City; Faye Williams, A3 of Des Moines; William Bunn, G of Muscatine; Ernest Freed, William Stipe, A3 of Clarinda; and Theatrus Alberts, G of Radcliffe.

Esther Kraushaar Quits as Head Of Recreation Center

Esther Kraushaar, director of the Iowa City Recreational Center since September, has resigned her position effective tomorrow, it was announced yesterday.

"I want to go to the university full time and then teach," declared Miss Kraushaar last night. "This part time schedule is not at all successful."

Activities will continue as scheduled, directed from the office in the Schneider building with Gerald Wood, A4 of Prescott, in charge of the kittenball tournament.

Police Department Finds Stolen Car

A black Chevrolet coupe belonging to Paul Williams was found in an alley of the 200 block between Market and Bloomington streets by police at 5:20 a.m. yesterday.

The car, reported stolen from North Van Buren street west of Mercy hospital, Wednesday at 8:30 p.m., was undamaged, according to the report.

Car Thieves Sent To Iowa City Jail

Stanley Nemece and Douglas Klesch, both of Cicero, Ill., were returned to the Johnson county jail by Sheriff Don McComas yesterday after they had been arrested in Montezuma.

The men stole an automobile in Cicero Wednesday, according to McComas, and drove to Johnson county where they wrecked the car near Tiffin.

After stealing another car, the two proceeded to Montezuma where they were arrested yesterday morning, McComas said.

Rev. E. Voigt Lauds Councils

Peaceful Settlement Of City Election Cited In Forum Discussion

The election contest between Iowa City's two councils was cited by the Rev. Edwin E. Voigt as an example of settlement of a dispute by pacific means in the first of a series of peace forums under the auspices of Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A. in Iowa Union last night.

The Rev. Mr. Voigt, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, Ethan Allen of the political science department and Howard Bowen of the college of commerce were the speakers in a panel discussion of "Facilism and Patriotism."

Both Facitions
"Both factions in the council dispute have resorted to the courts and will without doubt accept the final judgment of the judiciary," the Rev. Mr. Voigt said. If such ordered settlement could be used in international problems, much could be done toward attaining a lasting world peace, he pointed out.

Three measures necessary to achieving peace, according to the Rev. Mr. Voigt, are the United States' entrance into the World Court, the creation of international mindedness and world friendship.

Emotional Appeal
"I have great misgivings about the whole peace movement," Mr. Bowen declared, "because too much emphasis is placed on emotional appeal. It is too easy to transfer emotions formerly allied with peace to the other side when war breaks out."

A solution to the problem, Mr. Bowen declared, would be the building of "tough-minded people, who can see both sides of a problem and not be swayed by propaganda."

Public Forums
"The way to organize public opinion is to start the public forum idea and by doing so educate the public. It is the only hope we have of keeping out of war and maintaining democracy," Mr. Bowen pointed out.

In a discussion of patriotism Mr. Allen declared that "patriotism can solve problems without recourse to an emotional solution, which nearly always results in war." He cited the World War as an example of extreme emotionalism, calling it the result of "mid-Victorian romanticism."

Discuss Sea Scouts' Plans

Congregational Church Troop to Organize New Unit for Area

Nine boys of the Congregational church troop 5 met at Boy Scout headquarters last night and started plans to form a Sea Scout unit in the Iowa City area.

This unit, which will be the first of its kind in Iowa City, will have W. C. Ederby as skipper and Joe Whiting as mate. The group will probably be called ship 5 of the Congregational church.

The boys who will compose the group must be at least 15 years of age. They expect to complete the organization within two weeks.

Boys who are forming the unit include Laurance Goodwin, Merl Arnbruster, John Dawson, Ted Sullivan, Robert Voigt, David Arnbruster, Murray Dawson, Robert Lee and Bill Hills, who was officer of the deck at last night's meeting. Scout Executive Owen B. Thiel was also present at the meeting.

Hermanns Honored At Farewell Dinner Party Last Evening

Dr. and Mrs. Walter W. Herrmann were entertained last night at a farewell dinner party given at the Amana colonies by faculty members of the bacteriology department of the college of medicine.

The honorees were presented with an illuminated picture of the University hospital tower.

Guests at the dinner included: Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Weed, Dr. and Mrs. George Parker, Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Rolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Trussell, William Moore, Dr. Eloise Larson, Roberta Fenlon, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Heabner, Mr. and Mrs. William Brecht and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Gifford.

Guy Bush

Guy Bush, the old "Mississippi Mudcat" of Chicago Cubs days, continued his comeback with the Boston Bees yesterday by winning his second victory of the season in the role of a relief pitcher. Bush was regarded as "through" by the Cubs and Pirates just two years ago.

In Old Spot

George Davis

George "Kiddo" Davis, fleet outfielder of the New York Giants, received a new chance to regain his center field berth on the National league champions yesterday when Manager Bill Terry inserted him in center field in place of Hank Leiber. Davis, a regular on the 1932 world's champions, has been warming the bench during recent seasons, watching new men roam center field at the Polo Grounds.

Tony Cuccinello

Tony Cuccinello, veteran second baseman of the Boston Bees, filled the hero role for the Hubtown Nationals yesterday by smashing out a two-run homer in the 11th inning to defeat the Phillies. The hit was Cuccinello's fifth of the day.

Plan Welcome For New Athletic Staff Members June 1

700 Guests Invited To Big Dinner

Revival of "I" Club On Day's Program; Banquet in Evening

The University of Iowa will officially welcome its new athletic staff members at an introductory dinner here June 1, under the auspices of the board in control of athletics and the athletic staff.

More than 700 persons, including Big Ten officials, alumni, "I" men, faculty members, sports writers and high school coaches, will be on hand to greet the six guests of honor.

Six Honored

Those who will be feted include Ernest G. Schroeder, new director of the division of physical education; Irv Tubbs, head football coach; Glenn Devine, assistant to the director; Pat Boland, line coach; Ernie Nevers, coach of backs and ends; and William Frey, assistant trainer.

Among the speakers at the dinner will be President Eugene A. Gilmore, Major John L. Griffith, Western conference athletic commissioner; Prof. Clarence M. Updegraff, chairman of the athletic board; Director Schroeder, Assistant Director Devine, Coaches Tubbs, Boland and Nevers, and Gov. Nelson G. Kraschel, if he is able to be present.

Reorganize "I" Men

At the same time the Hawk-I club, organization of letter men, will undergo a change and revival. Letter men from many Iowa counties will meet in the afternoon to elect officers, adopt a constitution and by-laws, and lay general plans for the club's work.

While the "I" men are in session, coaches, sports writers and other guests will attend an open house session in the fieldhouse to see demonstrations in various sports. Both groups will then attend the Minnesota-Iowa baseball game.

Hinrichs To Hurl Opener With Gophers

MINNEAPOLIS, April 29 (Special to The Daily Iowan)—The University of Iowa baseball team arrived here tonight from Northfield, Minn., where their scheduled game with Carleton was rained out. The Hawks tangle with Minnesota's Gophers here Friday and Saturday in two conference tilts.

Gene Hinrichs is expected to take the mound against the Gophers tomorrow in the first game. Hinrichs has won two Big Ten games this year, beating Chicago and Michigan, giving each team only four hits.

Weak at Plate

It may be a bad day for the Hawkeys if Minnesota shows up with any speed ball hurlers. The Hawks have been weak all year at the plate, and especially against fast ball hurlers. Wednesday the Iowans were able to garner only three hits from the slants of Harris, the Luther pitcher, as they went down to a 4-1 defeat.

The rest of the Hawkeye lineup is expected to be much the same as the one that has seen most of the action so far this year. Emil Sulek and Eddie Kadell have been performing very well since they changed places for the first Michigan game when Kadell took over Sulek's spot at shortstop and Sulek moved over to third base. Benny Stephens, still in a batting slump that has lasted since the southern trip, will hold down the second base spot, and Elmer Bratten or Emil Klumpar will play at first base.

Art Manush, hard hitting sophomore leftfielder, is the only sure starter in the outfield. If Skeets Halton's knee is in shape, the Iowa senior will play in centerfield. If he is unable to play, Bill Vogt will take over his post. Eddie Bisenius, Vic Belger, or Emil Klumpar will be in right field.

Coach Otto Vogel is expected to start Dick Bowlin behind the plate, with the relief coming from David West and Charles McClellan.

The Minnesota team is expected to send a team of sluggers to the field in an attempt to win their first conference game. The Gophers have not yet played a conference tilt, but they are consistently hard hitters and will be out seeking to avenge Iowa's three victories over them last year.

Chick Haley Rejoins Reds

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds' hopes of landing in the National league first division received a boost yesterday with Vice-President Warren C. Giles' announcement at St. Louis that Chick Haley, 1931 National league batting champion, would rejoin the team May 8 at Philadelphia.

Canzoneri May Quit

Iowa Netsters Meet Illini Today In 2nd Conference Encounter

Iowa's tennis team tangles with the vaunted "fighting Illini" today in their second conference meet, and their first away from home, meeting Illinois on the Champaign courts.

Travelling all day yesterday, the Hawks arrived early last night, to have a good night's rest before the first match of a strenuous week end.

According to their mighty mite, Capt. Chuck Fleming, Iowa should mark up one in the win column when this day is over. Fleming believes the Old Gold four to be generally superior to the Illini, and is confident of a victory.

The Hawkeys are determined to put an end to the Illinois jinx, which has followed Iowa teams in

Quad Volleyball Is Won by Lower B

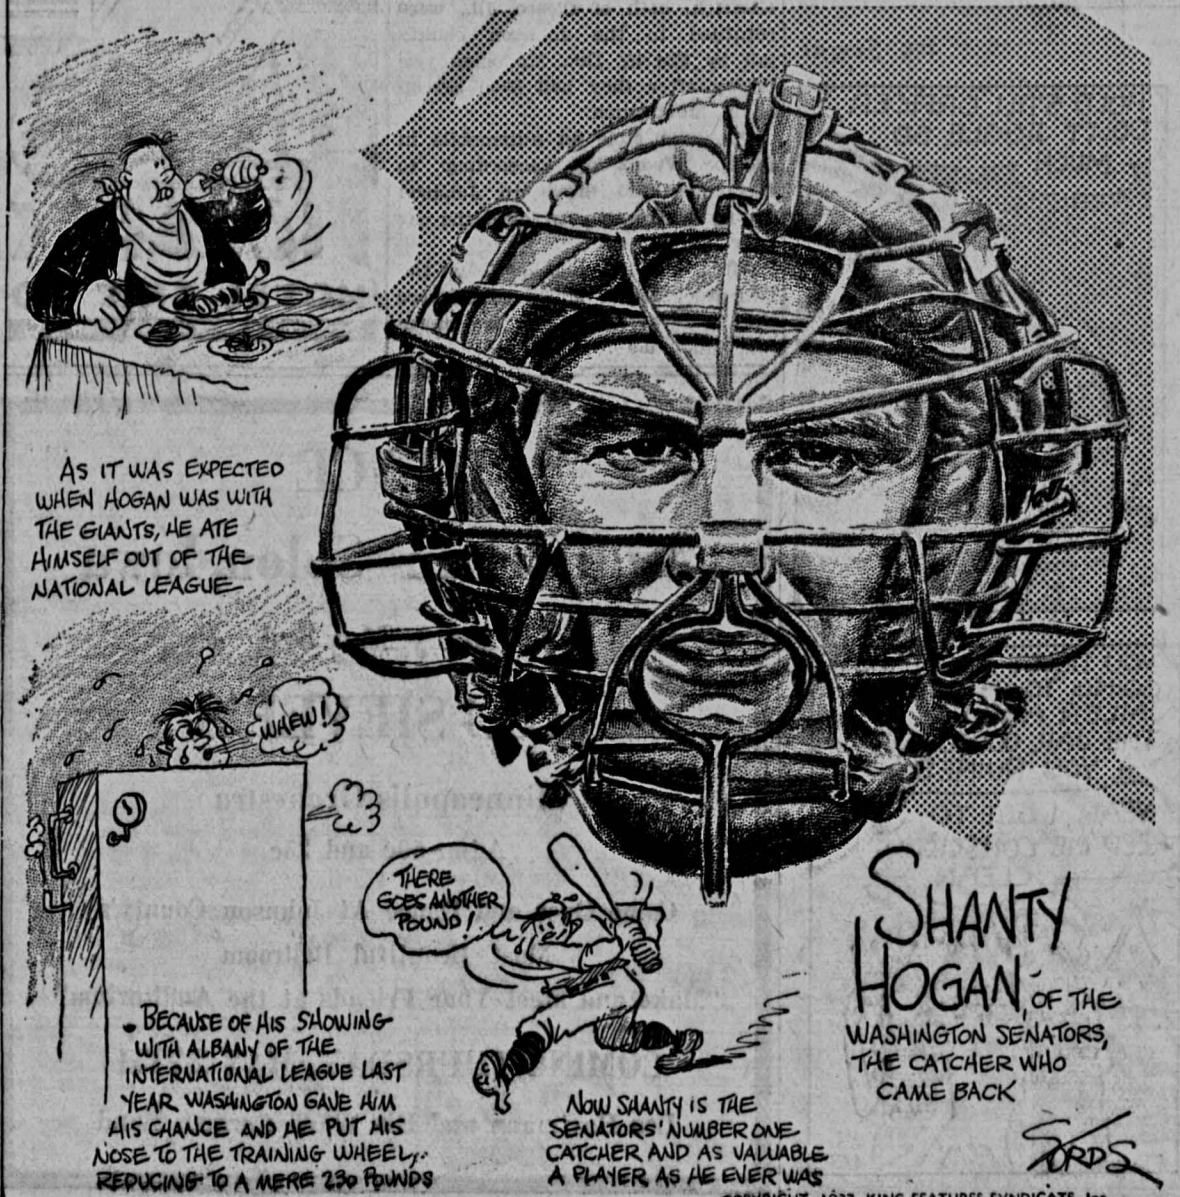

Lower B won the Quadrangle volleyball championship Wednesday night by defeating upper A in three games out of four.

Upper A won the first game, 15 to 2, but lost the next three 15 to 6, 15 to 6, and 15 to 2. Upper A gained the finals of the meet by three forfeits in the upper league. Lower B played all of its regular season games and went on to win the Quadrangle title.

The lineups: For lower B. Joseph Tomke, Russell Decker, Banford Cochran, Fred Roach, James DeVoss, Robert Herman, Robert Born, and John Seaton. For upper A: Robert Hanson, Jim Stapel, Owen Overholt, Richard Inghram, Carl Minear, Milton Epstein, Jack Chase, and Phil Norman.

WHAT A RELIEF—FELLER'S FINE

There were smiles in the Indian wigwam when it was discovered the good right arm of Bob Feller, 18-year-old strikeout king, was okay, and that the injury in a recent game was only a muscle strain.

Here the Tribe's trainer, Lefty Weisman, puts his stamp of approval on the wing, while Manager Steve O'Neill looks on and registers great joy over the good news.

Hawk Cinder Team To Meet Minnesotans Tomorrow Afternoon

Trackmen In Season's First Big Ten Meet

Fifty-one athletes, 32 of them Hawkeys, will compete in the Iowa-Minnesota Big Ten track meet here tomorrow, according to entry lists filed by George Bresnahan, Iowa coach, and Jim Kelly, new Gopher mentor.

The meet shapes up as a contest of Iowa speed against Minnesota field event strength. The Hawks have a well balanced club on the track, but apparently lack strength in the infield contests, while the Gophers are powerful in field competition, but have no all-around ability on the cinder paths.

Rubber Meet

Tomorrow's clash will be the 24th annual dual meet between the two schools and the rubber meet of the long series, as each has won 11 meets with one tie. The last eight of the annual affairs have fallen to the Hawks.

Fourteen events, including eight running contests and six field trials, will compose the card. The meet will open with the pole vault, high jump, javelin and shot put at 1:30 p. m., although it is probable that the contests will not get into the final stages much before the opening race, the one mile run, at 2 o'clock. Other races following at 10 minute intervals will be the 440 yard dash, 120 yard high hurdles, 880 yard run, 220 yard dash, two mile run and 220 yard low hurdles in the order named. The discus throw and broad jump will get underway at 2:10.

Hawks Strong

Iowa will be strongly represented in both the 440 yard dash and the half mile. Capt. Andy Dooley is the favorite to capture the quarter, as he should be able to run the distance in less than 49 seconds with favorable weather prevailing. The track has been rounded into good shape by hard work on the part of Coach Bresnahan, Assistant Coach Ted Swenson and members of the track squad. Other fast Hawks who have been entered in the 440 are Fred Teufel, Carl Teufel, Elliot Watkins, Milton Billig, Orval Matteson and Gene Skinner. It is probable that not all of the men will start, however.

BITS about SPORTS

By JOHN MOONEY

That long-awaited banquet for the new members of the Iowa coaching staff became a certainty last night with the announcement that the board in control of athletics and the athletic staff will sponsor such a dinner and meeting. Some time ago this column came out in support of such an affair, to be informed that plans for a banquet were even then being formulated. Later, the board in control of athletics decided that Coach Tubbs and his aides were much too busy to take the time for a banquet at the time. With the whole jamboree scheduled for June 1, it is thought that nothing will interfere with the coaches having a nice informal get-together with the "I" men, the newspaper men, and the people of Iowa City. This will be the first time that many of the townsmen have ever come in contact with Tubbs and his assistants, and the meeting is bound to bring the whole group into a compact mass; something that is so vitally necessary for the slogan—ON IOWA!

Yankees Stretch Victory Streak to Five Straight With 4-2 Win

New Yorkers Beat Weaver For Revenge

Monte Pearson's 6-Hit Twirling Too Much For Washington

WASHINGTON, April 29 (AP)—Although still off their extra-base slugging form, the New York Yankees stretched their winning streak to five straight today with a 4 to 2 victory over the Senators. Gaining revenge for their opening day defeat at the hands of Monte Weaver, they connected with nine hits off the Nats' right hander, while their own Monte Pearson hurled steady six hit ball to stay out of danger.

Weaver's wildness and Roy Johnson's batting gave the Yanks three runs in the seventh to set up the game. The Washington braker walked Myril Hoag and Frank Crosetti, after which Red Rolfe singled to send one run in, and Johnson clouted a two bagger to the right field corner to send two more across.

Lewis scored both Washington runs. In addition to his homer, he bunted safely in the sixth and scored on Joe Kuhel's two bagger inside the third base line.

Crosetti Doubles The Yanks' only other scoring came in the third, when Pearson singled, reached third on Crosetti's double to center and scored on Rolfe's slow bounder to second.

Leading hitter in the Yankee attack was twinkleton George Selkirk with two singles and a double. Rolfe had two singles.

In going the route for the champions, Pearson fanned seven Senator batters, winding up the ninth by whiffing Ossie Bluege and Shanty Hogan with a man on base.

Schmidt is also entered for the Iowa team.

Bush Lamb Bush Lamb will prove to be considerable of an asset before the day is over, if he lives up to present expectations. He is entered in five events, nearly all of which he should place in. The javelin throw is almost a certain first place for him, as he now holds the Big Ten championship in that event. Although he probably will not get a first in the broad jump with Minnesota's star, Hubbard, competing, Lamb should get a second or third place. He has already bettered 23 feet, which is usually good for points in a dual affair. Another potential first for Lamb is the 120 yard high hurdles, although the Minnesota team may have a harder job than can be seen.

Orville Schmoebelen, University high's versatile field star, proved to be the outstanding competitor of the meet. The Blue's athlete collected a total of 14 points for high point honors by winning the shot put and broad jump and taking second and third in the discus and javelin, respectively.

Miller and Schone

The few outstanding marks of the meet were all made in the field events. In the high jump, both George Miller of University high and Schone of Monticello cleared 5 feet, 6 inches, but the Blues' athlete was awarded first place in accordance with the new rules of competition due to the fact that he took one less trial.

Board To Set Date Tomorrow for Proposed School Election

Petitions Show Possibility Of New Building

Board Will Make Plans For Immediate Vote On City High School

The Iowa City school board will meet in Reich's pine room tomorrow noon to make plans and set a date for a $95,000 school bond election in the immediate future, Dr. George Maresh, board president, announced yesterday.

The special meeting is the result of petitions signed by more than 500 Iowa City citizens asking an election to authorize bonds with which to finance the building of a new senior high school.

Only 167 names, 25 per cent of the total vote in the school election March 8, are required to demand such an election, board members said yesterday. The total vote in the March election was 669.

The movement favoring construction of a new high school began about a week ago. It has the backing of no particular group but originated with individual school patrons, according to board members.

Centrally Located
No definite location for the new school building is mentioned in petitions which have been circulated. Petitions ask only that the new building be centrally located in the district.

Members of the board said yesterday that they would be guided entirely by the evident wishes of the voters both in the calling of the election and in the location of the proposed new school should bonds for its construction be authorized.

Possible Sites
Possible sites mentioned are the present senior high school location and an adjacent block.

It was emphasized by board members yesterday that the entire $95,000 may not be necessary for the proposed construction. The cost will depend partially on selection of a building site, it was said.

Although application for federal funds to help finance the project is considered possible, such application will not be made until the bond issue has been approved, an authoritative source said yesterday.

Petitions presented to the board state that the issuance of bonds is necessary because the proposed school cannot be built and equipped within the limit of one and one-quarter per cent of the actual value of taxable property in the school district.

Twice Defeated
Approval of similar bond issues has been defeated by narrow margins in two previous elections. In August, 1935, authorization of $600,000 in bonds was defeated by 134 votes. The proposed school building was again defeated May 26, 1936, by a vote of 1,875 to 1,623.

Both previous elections showed morningside addition in east Iowa City as the preferred location for the new school.

Announce Field Meet for June

Scout Executive Owen B. Thiel announced last night that the first Boy Scout field meet of the Iowa City area will be June 22 at the city park at 7:30 p.m.

Frank Swisher is chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for the meet.

City May Continue Cleanup Campaign For Another Week

Iowa City's cleanup campaign may continue next week if weather conditions are favorable, City Engineer Allen Wallen announced yesterday.

Because of the rain and cold many local residents have been delaying final cleanup until they stop using their coal furnaces, City Engineer Wallen said.

Nearly 80 loads of debris have been hauled.

Academy Receives First Shipment Of Faith Cabin Books

The first shipment of books sent to Bettis academy in Edgfield, N. C., by the Faith Cabin Library club has reached its destination, Mrs. I. H. Pierce, president, announced after a meeting in Iowa Union yesterday.

According to word received here the books are now temporarily located in a school building until the library is finished.

Plans for a second shipment of books were begun at yesterday's meeting. The next collection will include more books for children and university textbooks for reference work.

Twice As Fast

Anniversary to Bring Inauguration of New Airline Schedule

A new 10th anniversary schedule of the United Air lines more than twice as fast as original coast-to-coast times and one and a half times faster than the present time, will be inaugurated May 10.

New super deluxe Mainliner planes from Los Angeles and San Francisco will fly to New York in 15 hours and 23 minutes with stops at Salt Lake City, Utah, Cheyenne, Wyo., and Chicago, Ill. Time from New York to California will be 17 hours and 39 minutes; the prevailing winds accounting for increased time.

Faster airplane service also will be offered from Seattle, Wash., Tacoma, Wash., Portland, Ore., and Spokane, Wash., to eastern cities; from Los Angeles and San Francisco to Chicago and from Chicago to New York.

At the same time basic fares will be reduced $10 on coast-to-coast trips in certain large planes.

SO THEY SAY

Senator Ashurst of Arizona, chairman of the senate judicial committee, voicing his determination to push through the president's court reorganization plan despite an opposition majority in the committee:

"I haven't even begun to fight. I haven't even gotten unlimbered yet. A man is not fit for public life who is downcast because of any result."

Bill "Thug" Johnson, testifying at a senate inquiry that for two years he had been employed by the Harlan-Wallins coal company to break down the Kentucky Coal Miners' Union in Harlan county, Kentucky:

"I never killed nobody—not in Harlan county."

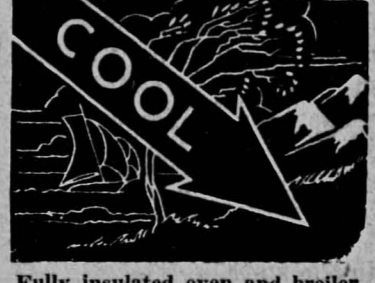

Federal Judge R. M. Gibson, granting a restraining order temporarily halting the government's anti-trust suit against the Aluminum Company of America:

"It appears that immediate and irreparable damage will be done unless the temporary restraining order be granted."

Senator Burton K. Wheeler, attacking court reorganization before the council meeting of the General Federation of Women's Clubs at Tulsa, Okla.:

"It is morally wrong. It is unliberal."

Kenneth S. Beam to Speak At Meet of Coordinating Council

Committee Members To Give Their Reports On Work of Council

Kenneth S. Beam, field director of the National Probation association, will speak at a meeting of the Iowa City Coordinating council Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. at Reich's pinneroom, the Rev. W. S. Dysinger, president of the executive committee, announced last night.

Beam, whose headquarters are in New York, was formerly director of the Los Angeles coordinating council.

Council Reports
Members of the executive, adjustment, character building and environment committees, who have been chosen during the last six weeks, will give reports on the work of the council.

Members of the executive committee include the Rev. Mr. Dysinger, president, Thomas Farrell, first vice-president, Mrs. Norman Meier, second vice-president; Mrs. J. D. Boyd, secretary and treasurer. Ex-officio members of the committee are District Judges Harold D. Evans and James P. Gaffney, Mrs. Mable Evans and Mrs. Francis Wilson.

Members elected at large include Attorney D. C. Nolan, Prof. Moses Jung of the school of religion, Attorney Arthur O. Luff and C. J. Butterfield.

Other Members
Dr. E. W. Paulus and Mrs. Jessie B. Gordon are also members of the executive committee by virtue of their appointment as chairmen of one of the other committees.

The character building committee, which will attempt to get more young people to contact character building organizations, is composed of Attorney Luff, chairman, Mr. Farrell, Luella Reckmeyer, Attorney W. J. Jackson and the Rev. E. E. Voigt.

Adjustment Group
The adjustment committee, which will handle the professional approach to problems of the community, is composed of Mrs. Gordon, chairman, Cecelia Healy, Mrs. Wilson, Paul Benner, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Meir, Policeman Ben Hauber and Margaret Cannon.

Members of the environment committee, whose work is to improve the environment among young people of the community, is composed of Dr. Paulus, chairman, Farrell, Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. C. L. Woodburn, the Rev. Donald Hayne, Edward S. Rose, Alva Oathout, Mrs. A. W.

Ten members of the Iowa City DeMolay basketball team will be guests at the weekly Masonic Service club luncheon at the Masonic temple this noon, Warren Norris, program chairman, announced last night.

Dean Floyd, master counselor, and W. E. Beck, DeMolay adviser, will speak at the luncheon. Attorney Robert L. Larson, who coached the DeMolay team, will also speak.

Members of the team include Richard Ash, Edwin Brees, Owen Blexrud, Howard Fountain, Donald Graham, Ted Hinman, James Jones, Kenneth Jones, Henry Soucek and Allen Snyder.

Guild to Meet At Moose Hall

Clarence Manion Will Speak Before Public, Guild Members

Invitation to hear Clarence Manion speak at the dinner meeting of the National Lawyers Guild at Moose hall at 8 o'clock tonight without charge and without obligation to attend the dinner itself was extended to the public by the group yesterday.

Manion, holder of a B.A. degree from St. Mary's university in Kentucky, A.M. and Ph.D. degrees from Catholic university, Washington, D.C., and a J.D. degree from Notre Dame university, is a member of the Knights of Columbus, Elks and the American Legion.

The guild has passed a resolution supporting President Roosevelt's supreme court reorganization plan as wholeheartedly as the American Bar association has condemned it.

Representatives from Muscatine, Tipton, Marengo, Williamsburg and Cedar Rapids will be among the 150 persons expected at the gathering.

The Women of the Moose will serve the dinner, to begin at 6:30 p.m. Tickets may be obtained from Attorney Frank F. Messer.
