U.S. Sends Delegate To League Hearing On Sino-Jap Conflict

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (AP)—The United States agreed today to send a representative to the League of Nations advisory committee convening tomorrow to consider the Sino-Jap conflict.

At the same time, the United States informed the league it would not say to what extent it would be able to cooperate with the countries invited to the conference and that a decision would be made at the appropriate time.

Britain Ready To 'Take Lead' In Arms Race

Eden Warns France Of Breach In League

CHEVRY, Sept. 20 (AP)—Britain, tempering its severity with the hope of preserving French help, said to-day it was prepared to take the lead in the Anglo-French arms race.

It was a more formal statement of the policy of the French Foreign Office and of the French political situation. Eden, the British foreign secretary, said to-day in a speech in Le Havre that London was determined to remain in the league and to support the United States in its efforts to preserve peace.

This was the first notice of an impending French military mobilization.

Americans Take Refuge As Nanking Ultimatum Expires

In new Zealand. Harrison was designated to represent the United States in the league meeting. He is a member of the advisory committee convening tomorrow night.

Harold Oliver, a noted aviator who has been adviser to the American League of Nations, was designated to speak on behalf of the United States.

Eden declared the American President's statement that the United States would not cooperate with the countries invited to the conference was a purely technical statement and did not imply the United States was to be kept out of the conference.

The American President's statement about the Sino-Jap war was made by the French Foreign Office in a statement issued today.

But the French Foreign Office said that the United States had made no statement to the effect that the United States would not cooperate in the conference.

High-Speed War!

Army's New Tanks Deal Death at 50 Miles on Hour

By RICH YANER

September 29, 1936

CAMP GRANT, Ill. (AP) — Under the gun, the Army's new tanks, designed for swift penetration of the enemy lines and for dealing death at 50 miles on the hour, are now being tested out in the early stages of their experimental trial. The same speed is being achieved by the tanks of the German Army, which are also in the early stages of their experimental trial.

The tanks are being specially designed for swift penetration of the enemy lines and for dealing death at 50 miles on the hour. They are being tested out in the early stages of their experimental trial. The same speed is being achieved by the tanks of the German Army, which are also in the early stages of their experimental trial.

The army is trying to figure out the most effective defense against these high-speed tanks, which are moving at an incredible rate, but no man is prepared. A couple of tanks went for their first trip in a week today. One tank is a first-rate tank and the other is a second-rate tank.

Hawkeyes Foil Huskies' Plays in Scrimmage

Deceptive Washington Plays Fail To 'Click' Against Old Gold

11 in Yesterday's Workouts

By JOHN MONROE

Baltimore Star-Bulletin

Washington College, often a menace to the University of Iowa eleven due to its deceptive tactics, usually employing a mixture of speed and guile, was once again nullified yesterday afternoon.

The play of the day was a special way the Huskies wasted two chances to score a touchdown when the ball was lost on the one-yard line.

But the Hawkeyes, under the direction of Training Camp Coach Bob Bush Lamb, handled the lines of Iowa eleven.

CLARKSON, Wis., Sept. 16

On the eve of his team's first game of the season, Coach Lynn Waldorf expressed preparation for the opening game as the toughest of the regular seasons.

The Illinois Fighting Illini will travel to Milwaukee for the annual meeting with Milwaukee."I have my list. J. A. Loughran, theatrical manager, will be in charge of the selection of the Illini players. He will be assisted by Jack Sharkey, a former Illinois player, who has been assigned to the role of manager."

Waldorf said that this year's team is stronger than his previous teams and that he is confident of victory.
