G. O. P. May Have National Meeting in '38

Hamilton Sees Terrific Barrage of Press Positions

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21 (AP)—G. O. P. officials are preparing for a national convention in advance of next year's election campaign, which apparently appeared today when Republican leaders, among them House Speaker James C. Cox of Ohio, indicated that the party's 1938 convention is likely to be held in Chicago. A Chicago plan was alluded to at the Republican National Committee hearing this morning.

Mr. Cox stated that the plan of the committee was to hold the convention in Chicago, as it was the only city in the nation where there were no Republican candidates for the United States Senate.

The committee also plans to hold the convention in Chicago, as it was the only city in the nation where there were no Republican candidates for the United States Senate.

"The American people," he said, "are not satisfied with the present government. They want it changed, and they want it changed now."

The convention will be held in Chicago, as it was the only city in the nation where there were no Republican candidates for the United States Senate.

To Avoid War—Build for Peace

"IN TIME of great prosperity for all we may know, the world's wealth and resources will may have been ex-hibited as a means of avoiding the program of the next war. For this reason, the world has been divided into what is known as the World of the Past and the World of the Future. The World of the Past is inhabited by people who have lived in the past, and the World of the Future is inhabited by people who intend to live in the future.

Those who have lived in the past have divided the world into two great groups: the Group

1. Great Britain has traditionally been known as the home of the English-speaking world. It has been described as the "Island Nation," because of its location between the North Sea and the Atlantic Ocean. Britain has been the center of world power since the 16th century, and it has been the home of many of the great men of the world. The British have been noted for their love of freedom and their desire to maintain their independence.

2. The United States has traditionally been known as the home of the American people. It has been described as the "Land of the Free," because of its location between the Atlantic Ocean and the Pacific Ocean. The United States has been the center of world power since the 19th century, and it has been the home of many of the great men of the world. The American people have been noted for their desire to improve the world, and their determination to make it a better place to live.

Those who intend to live in the future have divided the world into two great groups: the Group

1. The Group of the Future is inhabited by people who intend to live in the future. They are the ones who have the opportunity to change the world, and to shape it to their own desires.

2. The Group of the Past is inhabited by people who have lived in the past. They are the ones who have shaped the world, and who have left it to the future.

Boston Splits Twin Bill With Detroit Tigers

By PAUL MICKELSON

Boston, Sept. 21 (AP) - Base running was the key factor in the twin bill here today as the Red Sox knocked off the Detroit Tigers by 7-5 and 9-1. The Red Sox scored 10 runs in the first two games of the doubleheader, including six in the fifth inning of the second game.

In the first game, the Red Sox scored four runs in the fifth inning, with two runs scoring on a bases-loaded single by Bobby Doerr. In the sixth inning, the Red Sox scored three runs, including two on a home run by Pete Runnels.

In the second game, the Red Sox scored five runs in the first inning, with three runs scoring on a bases-loaded single by Bill Monbouquette. The Red Sox also scored four runs in the fifth inning, with two runs scoring on a bases-loaded single by Dom Enzo.

The Red Sox improved their record to 9-6 for the season, while the Tigers dropped to 5-10.
