Alcatraz Prisoners Revolt; Warden Slugged Europe Expects Joint Plea for Peace From German Rendezvous

Kansas Convict Attacks Head of Island Fortress

Johnson Slugged From Behind After Talking To Strikers

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24, (AP)—A convict attack on Warden James A. Johnston today disclosed a new rebellion in Alcatraz prison, island fortress where the government keeps America's most hardened criminals.

Burton Phillips, Kansas kidnaper and bank robber, slugged Johnston from behind as the warden passed through the prison dining room after interviewing 100 convicts confined to their cells because of a strike.

Not Serious
Phillips' swinging fists injured Johnston before guards could intervene. The warden was taken to the prison hospital, where Dr. George Hess reported no signs of skull fracture.

Johnston telephoned the justice department in Washington that he was not seriously hurt. A subordinate was named acting warden pending Johnston's return to full duty.

The prison did not disclose what disciplinary measures, if any, had been instituted against Phillips, who is serving a life sentence.

Justice department officials expressed belief that the newest Alcatraz explosion had been touched off by receipt of "grapevine" reports of last Sunday's uprising in Folsom prison and the resultant death today of Warden Clarence Larkin.

No "Violence"
Warden Johnston told the justice department the situation had been brought under control without violence and without the use of firearms or tear gas. Alcatraz is heavily planted with remote control tear gas devices and other modern instruments for quelling riot.

The prison announcement of the assault said 100 of the 300 convicts had struck earlier in the week, refusing to work. They were quickly confined to their cells.

Paving Planned For Highway

No. 216 to Be Surfaced From Iowa City To County Line

Highway 216 will be paved with concrete from Iowa City to the county line, approximately 25 miles north of here, when the project is completed in 1938, C. L. McKinnon, chairman of the state highway commission, said yesterday.

Surveying and changing the right-of-way for the highway will start immediately, McKinnon said. He spoke at a luncheon meeting of the board of directors of the Iowa City Chamber of Commerce, State Rep. Leroy S. Mercer, County Engineer R. H. Justen, and representatives from Solon and Mt. Vernon also attended.

The chamber of commerce is making efforts to extend the paving through Solon to Mt. Vernon and connect with the paved section of highway 261 south of Martelle.

Plans to lay an eight-inch concrete base for the highway and cover it with blacktop were abandoned. A poll of members showed that everyone present favored concrete paving over any other type of hard-surfacing.

The state historical society is planning a centennial celebration for the highway. It was formerly the Old Dubuque Military road.

President Roosevelt in Chicago

The famous smile of President Roosevelt beamed upon a Chicago crowd through the train window as he switched at the railroad yards for points west on the president's tour from Washington. The president will return to Chicago Oct. 5 to dedicate the new outer drive bridge.

Chinese Plead For U.S. Help

Chiang Kai-Shek Calls For Upholding Of Our Treaties

NANKING, Sept. 24 (AP)—China's premier and army chief-tain Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, today called on the United States to fulfill her treaty obligations by supporting "China's struggle against Japanese aggression."

THREE CITIES BOMBED
SHANGHAI, Sept. 24 (AP)—A Japanese air fleet penetrated the heart of China today to bomb the Wuhan cities, Hankow, Wuchang and Han-yang, where estimates of the dead ranged between 100 and 200 and of wounded between 200 and 500.

A dramatic plea for aid in upholding the sanctity of treaties was made by the khaki-clad premier as his dynamic wife, head of the embattled nation's air forces, ridiculed Japanese assertions that half of China's military planes have been destroyed by Japanese raiders.

"We have lost only a fraction of the 284 planes the Japanese claim to have shot down," declared American-educated Mme. Chiang, adding that Chinese had downed 62 Japanese aircraft in the last two weeks of August alone, most of them within Chinese lines.

Wins $25,000 Balm
CHICAGO, (AP)—A circuit court jury awarded a verdict for $25,000 yesterday to John Mayer, an interior decorator, who had accused Harold L. Kinsler, 50, a wholesale tailor, of stealing the love of his 32-year-old wife, Marion.

High Operating Expenses Force Railroads to Lay Off Employees

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24, (AP)—Major railroads disclosed today they are laying off thousands of employees. The move, they said, was necessitated by higher operating and maintenance costs.

The disclosure was made when railroad executives gathered here to attend the monthly meeting of directors of the Association of American Railroads. At about the same time the A. A. R. made public weekly statistics which showed carloadings from January 1 through September 18 totalled 28,198,399 cars or almost 3,000,000, over the 25,366,300 loaded in the comparable period in 1936. Nevertheless, rail officials in-

Holds 'Crime' Clinic

A "crime" clinic to eliminate sex offenses in Milwaukee has been set up by Herbert J. Steffes, above, youthful district attorney, following the slaying of an 11-year-old girl, still unsolved. The clinic planned to set up a commission with the purpose of making punishment fit the criminal, not the crime. Before its work is over, the commission hopes to eliminate, by segregation, imprisonment or treatment, all sex deviates and pervers in Milwaukee and make the city an example for the nation.

ELLIOTT, Sept. 24, (AP)—Jack Weaver, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Weaver, died here today from infantile paralysis. He was a sophomore in Elliott high school and had been ill since Saturday. Schools were closed here Wednesday because of the outbreak of the disease.

F.R. Defends Administration

Tells Wyoming Crowd His Present Policy Will Continue

ABOARD ROOSEVELT TRAIN EN ROUTE TO SEATTLE, Sept. 24 (AP)—President Roosevelt told a Casper, Wyo., audience late today the people of the United States had little patience with objectives of government but stood in the way of methods of attaining those goals.

"That type of person has less influence in government today than ever before," he told a shivering throng about his car platform.

In an earlier talk at Cheyenne, capital of Wyoming, the president asserted "the United States government is not going broke" and that he will "continue during these four years the practice of the last four."

Doctor Instantly Killed in Crash

MILFORD, Sept. 24 (AP)—Dr. Q. C. Fuller, 70, who practiced medicine here since 1898, was killed today when his car crashed into the rear of a moving highway work truck eight miles south of Sioux Rapids.

Dr. Fuller built and operated the Milford hospital. Relatives said he was on his way to Storm Lake to call for two daughters who are students at Buena Vista college.

A doctor who examined Dr. Fuller after the accident said the impact drove the steering wheel against his body. A broken rib punctured his heart, causing his death.

Half an Inch of Rain Causes Mercury To Fall Into Low 50's

Rain falling intermittently between 6 and 9:30 a.m. yesterday caused Iowa City temperatures to remain in the 60's during the day and fall into the low 50's at night. More than one-half inch of rainfall was recorded by observers at the hydraulics laboratory. The temperature, 68 degrees at 6 a.m., fell slowly and was at 61 between noon and 2 p.m.

The highest after-rain reading was 69 degrees at 5 p.m., but it had been 75 at 1 a.m., the observers said. The temperature at 10 p.m. yesterday was 52 degrees.

Maude Adams in New Role

Actress Who Immortalized "Peter Pan" Begins Career as Teacher

COLUMBIA, Mo., Sept. 24 (AP)—Maude Adams brushed aside the years from 64 back to girlhood today.

A love for the stage which she could not down prompted the actress who immortalized "Peter Pan" to give up the privacy she has prized since retirement in 1918 and begin a new career among gaily shouting college girls. She will teach them the arts of the drama with which Maude Adams has thrilled thousands.

Contrast
Her home on the campus of Stephens college—only a stone's throw from the business district of this college town—contrasts sharply with her quiet life at Tannersville, N. Y., in the Catskill mountains. When Maude Adams was as young as the girls she will coach here she already was an actress of great promise and just had met Charles Frohman, the man who managed her career until he went down on the Lusitania.

Resignation of Farley Hinges Upon SEC Registration of New Issue of Pierce-Arrow Stock

Unsettled Condition of Stock Market Has Delayed Filing

NEW YORK, Sept. 24, (AP)—Announcement of a decision by Postmaster General James A. Farley to resign from the cabinet and accept the presidency of the Pierce-Arrow motor corporation is expected to be made as soon as arrangements have been completed for SEC registration of a new issue of Pierce-Arrow stock.

While he plans to retain his chairmanships of the democratic state and national committees, Farley's return to private business would nullify to a large degree the frequently heard rumors he was planning to seek the governorship.

Market Unsettled
The present unsettled condition of the securities market was understood to be delaying the filing of an SEC registration statement for a new $10,700,000 issue of Pierce-Arrow stock.

The issue, approved by the stockholders after Farley agreed, several weeks ago, to become head of the reorganized company, will be used principally to produce a new Pierce-Arrow in the medium price field, in competition with Packard, Lincoln and Cadillac. Production of the higher-priced Pierce-Arrows will be continued.

Farley's acceptance of the motor car job, out of numerous other offers, was understood to have been based on his desire to build up and direct a sales organization.

$50,000 Salary
Although neither he nor officials of the company would comment, the postmaster general was reported to have been offered a contract providing for an annual salary in excess of $50,000 plus 10,000 shares of the new stock during the first year. His cabinet job pays $15,000 a year.

21 Indicted

DES MOINES (AP)—The Polk county grand jury returned indictments against 21 persons yesterday.

Hears Broadcast

Wheaton today heard about the decision of the court as he listened from his cell to the prison radio. The crime for which Wheaton must die occurred in Council Bluffs on the night of June 12, 1936. Plummer was robbed and forced into a car and driven into the country where his body, shot several times, was found the next day. The South Dakotan was arrested in Omaha when police spotted his car.

MUNICH, Germany, Sept. 24 (AP)—The duce of fascism and the fuhrer of nazism will meet tomorrow for the second time in their historic careers to toast the common ideals of their political creeds and perhaps to address to the world a joint appeal for peace.

Adolf Hitler, chancellor of Germany and leader of his nation, already is here to be host in the dramatic meeting in this birthplace of national socialism, now in gala dress with flowers, flags and colors and under the vigilant eyes of thousands of crack German guardsmen.

Benito Mussolini, duce of fascist Italy, sped across Austria by special train for the rendezvous and for a five-day triumphal tour of Germany.

Met in '34
The two had met once before, briefly, at Venice in 1934.

What they will do at the second meeting and of what they will talk were the great questions in the minds of European statesmen tonight.

Diplomats in many capitals expressed belief the deepest game in years was in progress on the diplomatic chessboard of Europe. Spain, Ethiopia and even larger problems of peace and world power were pieces on the board.

Informed sources declared the two heads of state had agreed to make a joint world appeal for peace when they address a huge demonstration in Berlin's olympic stadium on Tuesday.

Seek Agreement
Diplomats gathering here said Hitler and Mussolini hope to arrange some sort of peace agreement with Great Britain and France.

These plans, however, do not include Soviet Russia; Germany and Italy already are allied in a stand against communism. Some sort of new Locarno treaty appeared to be the idea in mind—but with Belgium excluded because of her recently reaffirmed neutrality and her desire to keep out of foreign alignments.

One danger point of the whole situation continues, however, political observers here believed, and that is the continuing Spanish civil war, with Germany and Italy favoring insurgent Spain, Britain seeking to maintain a neutral attitude and France favoring the Madrid-Valencia government.

Lavish Occasion
It was assured tonight Mussolini's visit would be lavish, spectacular and dazzling.

The German press used its strongest superlatives to describe the conferences, terming it Duce's visit "history's most important meeting of heads of state."

Strictest precautions for safety have been taken.

Suspicious characters are understood to be under "protective custody" for the duration of the five-day visit. Every person coming in contact with Hitler or Mussolini will be inspected rigidly, newspapersmen must submit 15 photographs of themselves, and no foreign correspondent, except Italians, will be permitted to go along to the army maneuvers which are part of the entertainment program.

To Investigate Jury Report on Hospital For Feeble Minded

DES MOINES, Sept. 24, (AP)—The attorney general's office tonight planned an investigation of a Boone county grand jury's report which demanded the resignation of A. R. Schier, superintendent of the state hospital for the feeble-minded at Woodward.

The grand jury asked for the immediate resignation of Dr. Schier and also demanded that Dr. W. B. Brown, assistant to Dr. Schier, and H. L. Burns, a special policeman, resign.

"It was most unusual action for a grand jury to take," Assistant Attorney Charles Wilson said. The grand jury made its report after hearing testimony concerning a dispute following the discharge of A. D. Ramsey, an attendant at the institution, July 6. Ramsey charged he was severely beaten when he was evicted from the hospital grounds, allegedly by Dr. Brown and Burns.

Kraschel's Clemency Remains Only Hope for Allen Wheaton

FT. MADISON, Sept. 24 (AP)—Faced with death on the gallows unless Iowa's Governor Kraschel intervenes, 20-year-old Allen Wheaton tonight held grimly to hope gubernatorial clemency would spare him from the supreme penalty.

From his dark cell on Ft. Madison's death row, the former South Dakotan who says "I never had a chance," talked of his surprise that the court had acted so quickly.

The Iowa supreme court today denied Wheaton's petition for a rehearing on his conviction in Council Bluffs for the robbery-slaying of Henry Plummer, 38, a filling station attendant.

No Error
The court could find no error in the record of the death penalty which it once affirmed. Wheaton had been doomed to take the last long walk Aug. 20 but as the supreme court had not acted then on his appeal, the execution was stayed. It now remains for the governor to set a new date for

Seven S.U.I. Professors Have Served For at Least Half of University's Life
When university classes resume Monday at 8 a.m. for the 82nd academic year, six professors will meet their classes after serving for at least half of the University of Iowa's existence.
Senior professor will be Prof. Charles Bundy Wilson of the German department, who will begin his 50th year of service as soon as he recovers from an appendectomy.
Of the six who will begin teaching Monday, Prof. Gilbert Houser of the zoology department has served the longest, 45 years.
Second in number of years' service will be Dr. E. A. Rogers of the college of dentistry, 45 years; Prof. Harry G. Plum of the history department, 43 years, and Prof. Franklin H. Potter of the classical languages department, Dean-Emeritus Wilber J. Teeters of the college of pharmacy and Prof. Benj. F. Shambaugh, head of the political science department, each 41 years.

Former University Student, Youngest Director, Film Editor Will Visit Here
A former Iowan, now the youngest film editor and assistant director in a major Hollywood studio, will return to the university next month after a seven-year absence.
He is Ernest Nims, who was a student in the university in 1929-30. Nims plans to visit University theater while en route east to work on a film production for the Republic studio.
Once a star freshman pole vaulter, Nims injured a shoulder to end his athletic career. He went to Hollywood and in a few years rose from a minor position as a film cutter to his present position.
The 27-year-old ex-Iowan figured in the production of such pictures as "The Hit Parade" and "Manhattan Merry-Go-Round," finishing work on the latter film this week.

Josephine is popular in Iowa City, and she's not a University of Iowa coed.
"Josephine" is only the name of a song. But for weeks station WSUI has received more requests for "Josephine" than for any other song.
Just to be different, Bob Graham, announcer of the 12 o'clock Rhythm Rumbles program, said before yesterday's program that the song would not be played unless someone requested it during the broadcast.
No sooner had he made the announcement, than the telephone rang with a request for "Josephine." During the next three minutes, seven more persons asked for the song. And "Josephine" was played once again.

City high and Dubuque, two of the better known exponents of wide open, slam bang football had it out for four quarters here Friday night and after pulling some of the most spectacular football ever seen on Shrader field, the two teams had to be satisfied with a 6 to 6 tie.

Gantenbein, veteran Dubuque end, saved the day for the Key City team in more ways than one. He caught a pass for the only Dubuque touchdown in the second quarter and in the fourth period he tackled Bill Buckley for a prone position to stop the Little Hawk quarterback from a sure touchdown after a 50-yard run.

Parizek Scores Eldon Parizek, City high speed merchant, scored the only City high touchdown in the third quarter on an end run. Starting from his own 13-yard line, the Red and White speedster broke loose around his own left end at top speed and cut for the sidelines.

With very little interference, Parizek wiggled through the Dubuque secondary and then outran the remaining defenders. His interference came up and bowled over the last two Dubuque men on the scene. Herman Miller was inserted to try the kick for the extra point but several Key City linemen filtered through to block the attempt.

This tie with Dubuque left the Little Hawks undefeated in the last two seasons. Last season the City high boys went through the season with victories in all games except with Clinton, which they tied 0 to 0.

Thrills Aplenty There were thrills aplenty when the Dubuque team went to work offensively. The river team tried a number of short passes to Gantenbein, who would then lateral to a teammate for large gains.

Vollenweider, husky Dubuque boy, hit the Iowa City line for good gains at frequent intervals and Schiers also caused trouble with his shifty running.

The Dubuque team was composed entirely of seniors while most of the City high men used last night were inexperienced underclassmen.

Dubuque had a barrel of horse-shoes in getting their first touchdown. Iowa City fumbled on its own 27-yard line and Dubuque recovered. Schiers then broke through to the 20-yard line where he was hit hard and fumbled. His interference, running ahead of him, fell on the fumbled ball on the 12-yard line. Vollenweider then picked up five yards on a line smash. He then faded back and shot a pass to Gantenbein in the end zone for the Dubuque touchdown. Vollenweider's kick for the extra point was wide of the uprights.

Rolfe's hit, which accounted for four runs, since Jimmy Foxx's error on the relay allowed the Yankee third baseman to score also, broke up a right rookie pitching duel and gave young Joe Vance the decision over Archie McKain.

Giant Lefty Out For Revenge

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (AP)—Back at Baltimore, General Manager Jack Ogden called Melton into his office.

Needs Spunk "Listen, kid," said Ogden, "you're never going to get anywhere as long as you put your tail between your legs and run when someone razzes you. Where's your spunk? Now listen. Next time anyone calls you a dirty name I'll give you $50 if you crack him on the jaw."

Ogden was amazed a few days later to see Melton smack another player on the jaw. He paid Melton the $50. A few days later, the boy from Dixie squared off with another player and Ogden begged for peace.

And from that time on, "Slim" Melton became a fighter who loved to fight. He became a great pitcher, too, winning 20 games.

The Giants bought him, Catcher Gus Mancuso taught him control, and he became a star. He's won 18, holding the Giants up when the great Carl Hubbell wavered.

Mention the Yanks and Melton sizzles with bitterness. To Harry Forbes of the New York Daily News, only yesterday he said:

"When I was with the Yanks they never had a pre-game meeting. They don't use their brains—just get up and swing. If they connect—okay, they win. If they don't they're licked. What kind of a sport is that? In that Chattanooga game against the Cubs, Dickey called for one waist-high Demaree missed it a mile. Dickey missed it the same ball again. Give him the same ball again, kid. He's just another bum. I didn't want to. But I pitched as ordered and Demaree homered."

"With the Giants, it's different. We mix up every batter. We pitch with our brains. Before each game Terry goes over every hitter. We all chime in. Infielders holler advice during the game. We hold meetings between innings. It's like a game of chess. It's an intelligent type of baseball. I think quite will be drawn, if we get into the world series. We can't all be big and powerful, but we can make up for it in other ways."

And how the Cubs poured it on him! Not only did they beat his ears off but they made the big, green rookie sob with their wise-cracks and taunts, the worst of which was calling Cliff "sweet Mickey Mouse." Cliff couldn't take it, so the Yanks couldn't take him. As they shipped him back to Baltimore, Manager Joe McCarthy summed the mountaineer up as:

"A boy with a million dollar arm and ten cent control."

Big 6th Inning Nets Bucs Win Over Redlegs

CINCINNATI, Sept. 24 (AP)—Four successive errors gave Pittsburgh six runs on five hits in the sixth inning today and sent them on to an 8 to 2 victory in a series opener with the Cincinnati Reds.

It was the Bucs' 14th win of the year over the eighth place Rhinelanders and gave them a three and a half game lead over Boston, idle in fifth place.

University high school's new football regime got off to a successful start last night when Coach Jack Sterrett's Blue eleven, inexperienced and entering the game as the underdogs, outplayed their favored opponents to walk off with a 6 to 0 victory.

The lone touchdown of the game came in the second quarter when Morgan smashed over from the two-yard line after a blocked punt had been recovered on the Kalona fifteen-yard line.

University High did practically all the ground-gaining in the first period, smothering Kalona completely. In the middle of the second quarter, Campion, Blue guard, broke through to block a punt, Bridenstine recovering on the enemy 15 and going to the 10-yard line on the next play. Morgan drove to the two-yard line and then hammered over for the only score of the contest. The kick for the extra point was low.

In the fourth frame, Kalona made their only scoring threat. A lateral pass, followed by a forward, took the ball to the two-yard line. The U-high forwards braced however, and in two plays set the home team back to the 15-yard line. On the next play the ball was carried over the goal line but called back, the referee ruling that the man was downed before crossing the pay-stripe. After the game ended, three plays later, the official was almost mobbed by the Kalona players who objected to a "quick whistle" on the play in which they scored.

The new U-high coach and system looked good in their first game. The only two veterans in the lineup, Carson and Ham Ries, all-city center last year, who has been shifted to quarterback, played good ball as well as Morgan, D. Carson, Campion and McCallister among the new players. C. Yoder and Drollinger in the backfield and Captain Welt and Southwick in the line were outstanding for Kalona.

Irish Gridders Beaten At West Chester, 25-0

WEST CHESTER, Sept. 24 (Special to The Daily Iowan)—St. Patrick's high school of Iowa City suffered their second straight set-back of the young football season yesterday when a strong West Chester 11 blanked them, 25-0.

St. Pat's line was heavier than that of the victors but the home team unleashed a powerful running attack, built around Thropp, who made all four touchdowns and kicked the extra point. Playing a much better brand of ball than they did last week when they lost to West Branch, 51-0, the invaders were no match for the faster and more alert home team.

Beasley Stars
The bright spot of the day for the twice-beaten St. Pat's team was the work of Brice Beasley at tackle. Beasley's work was the best that has been seen on the Iowa City team since the days of Denny Emanuel.

With Thropp carrying the ball nine out of 10 times for the local gridders the home team was not long in getting under way. They scored in each of the four quarters and held possession of the ball most of the time.

Thropp made the first marker on a plunge through the center of the line but failed in his attempt to convert. In the second quarter, and again in the third, the crashing back hit the line for tallies. His second attempt at a conversion was good, the only one of the game.

In the fourth period Thropp proved himself an open field runner as well as a plunger when he took the oval for a 30 yard trip across the pay line.

In the last few minutes of play Fitzpatrick, St. Pat's end, intercepted an enemy pass but the invaders lost the ball on the next play, an attempted pass and their last scoring chance was gone.

Two Boy Scouts Will Receive Eagle Rank at Court-of-Honor

To Convene At Congregational Church, Oct. 4

Scharf Will Show Reels Of Pictures Taken At Jamboree

The October Boy Scout court-of-honor will be held Oct. 4 at 7:30 p. m. in the parlors of the Congregational church, Scout Executive Owen B. Thiel announced last night.

Scott Walker, son of Mrs. Columbia Walker, and Robert White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey F. White, will receive the highest award in Boy Scouting—the eagle rank at the ceremony. Both are of Troop 14.

Second class, first class, star, and life badges will also be awarded.

Reuben Scharf will show several reels of motion pictures he took while at the National Boy Scout jamboree in Washington, D. C., this summer.

Attorney R. G. Popham will preside. All parents and friends are invited.

AROUND THE TOWN

with MERLE MILLET

John Tunis, the man who hates everything, but colleges more than anything else, has another of his attacks on higher education in the October Scribner's. . . Tunis is pretty bitter about the whole thing. . .

He cites half a hundred examples of successful men who never went to college or defaulted—Eugene O'Neill, Jim Farley and other much-used examples. . . But I can name a hundred more who did. . .

And President Hutchins of Chicago has just observed that "the American colleges today offer fresh air, green grass, good food and exercise—exactly the same as resort hotels. . ."

But I'm still convinced it's a pretty good place to be. . . I knew a chap in high school who felt the same way as Tunis. . . Although he was graduated near the head of his class, he never went to college. . . Just recently he changed jobs. . . He was working in a hamburger shop at $8 a week, and he left his job for another of the same that pays $10 weekly. . .

There is a quiet old chap whose name I don't know who wanders into the Jefferson hotel almost every afternoon to ask the time. . . Always when he finds out he looks at his watch, replies, "That's what I thought," and walks out. . .

My personal vote for the month's poorest taste goes to the series of articles on Amelia Earhart, syndicated by her husband, George Palmer Putnam. . . Seems to me national tragedies should be left uncanceled. . .

And on a recent night for a preview of Walter Wanger's "Vogues of 1938," the best yet of the technicolor shows. . .

And a conscientious driver I know surprised a wobbly fellow motorist one recent night by blocking the road with his car, stepping out to grab the keys from the heavy one's auto and driving calmly into West Liberty to inform the highway patrol and turn over the keys. . .

The American Legion convention was a success. . . The Legionnaires all left with happy memories and their pockets full of nothing. . .

Now that Dr. Copeland didn't win the New York mayoralty job he will have to concentrate on damming Mr. Roosevelt between prescriptions for indigestion. . .

The new jackets they're wearing in the east will soon be the rage here, they tell me. . . They're in rough, belted material, cost next to nothing, and are great for class-wearing, I'm told. . .

Those girls who got "regret" slips in Thursday's mail might be interested in knowing that one of the campus' leading senior women got a similar announcement when she was a freshman. . .

*Conditional stops will be made at Iowa City and Newton to pick up and discharge Chicago passengers.

The Rockets are not excess fare trains. However, all seats, both coach and parlor lounge, are reserved, individually assigned in advance and sold by numbers. Tickets sold at regular coach fares are honored in coach seats but passengers having accommodations in parlor lounge must hold transportation good for parlor car travel.
