Europe Hails Attack Upon Aggressors As 'Significant' Action

By The Associated Press

President Roosevelt addressed a crowd in Paris indicating aggressor nations was hailed in foreign countries last night as important contribution to world peace.

British officials termed it "very significant" and in London it was regarded as a mark that nations were in a higher moral spirit. Moscow hailed it as an encouragement for those who are fighting in the common cause.

TheIEnumerable to the British government and the American State Department were sent to Washington by Foreign Secretary C. E. E. Axtell. They congratulated the new adminis- ation on the move to declare war on aggression.

Tongue No Longer Used As Barometer of General Health

By LOGAN CLINEHEED, M.D.

The tongue is used to be indicative of some things as we are getting a good deal of time lately. But it is not the most important organ of the body. Most of our physicians recommend that we should not use the tongue for all purposes. The tongue is an important organ that should be used to indicate the health of the body. From House To House

Students and Faculty Members Present Brief Talks

A humorous debate on "The Trouble With Men," presented by students Lessinger and Johnson, was held in Schaeffer Hall last night. The audience was divided into two groups, one favoring the motion, "Men are trouble," and the other opposing it. After a lively discussion, the motion was defeated, with the majority of the audience believing that men are not the source of all problems. The debate was well received by the audience, who enjoyed the light-hearted tone and the insightful points made by both sides.

Radio Forums Series To Open

Discussion of: Chinese Crisis; Scheduled For Friday

The question, "What is the United States doing about the Chinese-Japanese conflict?" was chosen for the first of the radio forums series. The discussion was held in Schaeffer Hall last Friday. The forum was well attended, with many students expressing interest in the topic. After a brief introduction by the professor, the discussion was opened to the audience for questions and comments. The professor provided a detailed analysis of the situation, and the students' questions were answered with thoughtful and informed responses. The forum was a success, with many students indicating that they had learned a lot from the discussion and looking forward to future forums.

Freshmen To Produce at Least Three Plays in New Drawing Room Theater

At least two groups of freshmen, the Group A and Group B, will be produced for freshmen drama classes in the new drawing room theater here this year. It was decided at the introductory meeting held in the library last night to divide the group into "stress" and "no-stress" sections. Professor C. R. Bell, director of the theater, will handle the divisions. The "stress" section will be open to all students who wish to participate, while the "no-stress" section will be limited to those who wish to observe. The group A will be produced for the fall semester, with the group B for the spring semester. The theater is well equipped, with a stage, lighting, and sound equipment. The productions will be open to the public, and tickets will be sold at the door. The group A will present "The Importance of Being Earnest," and the group B will present "The Cherry Orchard." The productions are under the direction of Mr. Brown and Mr. Davis, respectively.

Hounds Follows In Father's Footsteps As Jeweler Head

Mr. C. M. Hounds, whose legs were severed when he was wounded in World War II, has been appointed to the position of jeweler at Carbony Jewelers. The appointment was announced by Carbony Jewelers, a well-known jewelry store in the downtown area. Mr. Hounds has been associated with the store for many years, and his appointment is seen as a significant step in the store's expansion. The store is well known for its high-quality jewelry, and the appointment of Mr. Hounds is expected to further enhance the store's reputation.

State Report Shows $35,938 Of Cost Contributed by County

1936 Total Less Than Half Sum Received During 1935

Johnson county contributed $35,938 of its $63,094 for relief in 1936, according to the annual report of the Iowa Emergency Aid administration, issued yesterday in the Waverly office.

This sum was $27,156 less than the $63,094 contributed to the county in 1935. In 1934 the county contributed $62,097 and $63,573 in 1929, the report shows.

In 1936 the county contributed $35,464 between 1935 and 1938, and the county's share of the payment was $157,938. These totals had been provided.

In December, 1936, the report states, 779 relief cases, totaling 6,1 per cent of the county's population, received aid from the Iowa Emergency Aid administration.

A report on employment was made, the report states. The report contains 1936 employment and 1936 unemployment figures in various classes.

The report states that the employment in Johnson county was the same as the state until the end of last year. The report also states that the employment in Johnson county was the same as the state until the end of last year.
