A.F.L. Declares Economic War Upon Japanese
Convention Shouts In Approval of Trade Boycott

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7 (AP) — The American Federation of Labor called a meeting of all its affiliated congresses today to protest Japan's economic policies.

"The world has been shocked and angry by Japan's economic aggression against China," said Charles L. Haughey, secretary of the A.F.L. "We must now make our own protests." The A.F.L. is calling for a boycott of all Japanese goods and services.

"The Japanese have declared war on China," said Haughey. "We must show them that we are united in their struggle." The A.F.L. is calling for a national meeting of all AFL unions next month.
