The ban is part of a wider policy of restricting trade with nations that are considered enemies or potential enemies.

The United States, England, and France have imposed similar bans on trade with Japan.

Judge Evans Will Try Final St. Wenceslaus Case Here Monday

Donald L. Hunt, D. of Cade B. and Helen Beltz, defendants in a $10,000 damage suit, were heard by Judge Harold Evens Monday morning in the courthouse in connection with the St. Wenceslaus case involving the issue of a will. The records of the court were taken off the record until cases are resolved. He said he believed the case would be tried to a jury at 10 a.m. Monday, but that the time was subject to change.

Mr. Hunt is on trial for the murder of his wife, Helen Beltz, who was found in the family home in St. Wenceslaus on Dec. 7, 1942. He is charged with causing her death, and a jury will decide whether he is guilty or not.

He is represented by D. of Cade B., of the law firm of D. of Cade B. and T. A. Brogan. The state is represented by the attorney general.

Two trials were scheduled for Monday, one at 10 a.m. and the other at 1:30 p.m. The testimony of the prosecution was not heard Monday.

Mr. Hunt, who was given a trial by jury on Dec. 7, 1942, was found guilty of the murder of his wife, Helen Beltz, and sentenced to death. He is appealing the decision.

The trial of Mr. Hunt is the final case in the St. Wenceslaus case, which began in 1941. The case involved the issue of a will, and Mr. Hunt was charged with causing the death of his wife.
