Diplomatic Shakeup For 6 Foreign Posts Announced by F.D.R.

J. P. Kennedy Appointed For British Envoy

Assistant Secretary Of State and Moscow Positions Open

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 (AP)—President Roosevelt announced today the most sweeping diplomatic shakeup since he took office, involving the important posts of London, Berlin, Moscow, Brussels, Ottawa and Santiago, Chile.

The president sent to the senate the nominations of:

Joseph P. Kennedy, chairman of the maritime commission, to be ambassador to Great Britain.

Hugh R. Wilson, assistant secretary of state, to be ambassador to Germany.

Joseph E. Davies, ambassador to Soviet Russia, to be ambassador to Belgium.

Norman Armour, minister to Canada, to be ambassador to Chile.

Three of the new appointees, Kennedy, Wilson and Armour, will leave for their posts after the customary month's "period of instruction," during which they will read up on state department archives relating to their respective countries of assignment.

Davies will not go to Brussels until spring. He will remain in this country until that time. His millionaire wife, the former Marjorie Post, has been in ill health.

Today's shake leaves open:

The post of ambassador to Moscow.

The position of assistant secretary of state.

The post of minister to Ottawa.

U. S. Demands Russia Explain Missing Citizen

MOSCOW, Jan. 7 (AP)—The United States today demanded Russia tell whether Ruthe Marie Rubens, of New York — the mysteriously missing "Mrs. Donald L. Robinson" — has been arrested and, if so, on what charges.

The formal note was presented to the foreign office on instructions from Washington after previous requests for information were unanswered.

The United States asked full details of Mrs. Rubens' disappearance from a Moscow hotel Dec. 9. A week earlier her traveling companion, known only as "Donald L. Robinson," had vanished from the hotel next door to the American embassy.

The formal demand for information on the case which has created an international sensation "was based on Washington findings that Mrs. Rubens was an American citizen with Robinson, traveling on passports later shown to have been obtained fraudulently.

Mrs. Rubens, however, had a legal passport issued in her own name and Americans here considered it possible that, if she had been arrested, she had been released and deported for lack of charges.

Grounding of Liner To Be Investigated By Special Board

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7 (AP)—A special marine investigating board of the department of commerce met here today to inquire into the grounding of the palatial liner President Hoover on a coral reef off Hoisshoto island Dec. 10.

Capt. William Fisher, chairman of the board, said it would seek to determine the cause of the Hoover's grounding and consider possible charges against the licensed personnel of the ship's crew.

Borah Opposes Lynching Bill

G. O. P. Senator Joins Southerners Fighting Present Bill

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 (AP)—Southern senators opposing the anti-lynching bill drew eloquent support today from Senator Borah, who denounced the measure as a "blow at the very heart of local self government."

The Idaho republican told the senate the bill "rests on the theory the people in our southern states are either unwilling, or unfit, to maintain the ordinary principles of self government."

Borah, oldest senator in point of service, took the floor when the senate convened and spoke an hour.

His colleagues turned their chairs toward him, listening with rapt attention. Borah paced back and forth behind his desk, his voice rising and falling to accent his address. He paused frequently to wipe his forehead.

Southern senators began using dilatory tactics against the anti-lynching bill yesterday, and Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the democratic leader, threatened to call for "longer sessions" if their speech making went on too long.

Foes of the legislation expressed hope they could keep talking long enough to force an agreement to shelve the bill. They said such an agreement might be possible when pressure for consideration of other legislation, dammed up behind the anti-lynching bill, became strong.

The anti-lynching measure would permit federal prosecution and fining of sheriffs and other officers who failed to protect prisoners from lynching, and would make communities in which lynching occurred liable for payments to families of victims.

25,000 To Quit Relief Employ

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 (AP)—Between 25,000 and 30,000 persons will have to leave work relief jobs this month because they are eligible for unemployment insurance checks, the works progress administration ruled today.

Aubrey Williams, the acting WPA administrator, announced the policy that workers entitled to the insurance benefits could not retain work relief jobs.

However, he said those dismissed would be reemployed, if sufficient funds were available, as soon as they ceased receiving unemployment compensation.

State laws provide for payment of benefits to the insured unemployed for periods of from 14 to 16 weeks. Payments already are being made in Wisconsin and are scheduled to begin this month in 21 other states and the District of Columbia.

The new WPA policy requires relief workers to file claims with state unemployment compensation agencies for the insurance benefits they accumulated during periods of private employment.

Huge Search Continues For Missing Plane

Hope Fades as Ships Fail to Find Lost Navy Bomber

SAN PEDRO, Cal., Jan. 7 (AP)—Thirty-five fighting ships scanned the sea today while 284 planes hunted from the air in an area of 60,000 square miles off the coast here for eight naval fliers lost at sea.

There was no hope for the eighth flier, Cadet Scott P. Hawkins, 29, of Jefferson City, Mo. He fell to death yesterday 100 miles offshore from a catapulted plane attached to the cruiser Chicago searching for the other seven missing navy aviators.

Hope waned for the seven men unreported since Wednesday evening on one of the navy's newest cruisers of the air, a 25-ton patrol bomber.

They were Lieut. Truman E. Carpenter, 28, pilot, of Passumpsic, Vt.; Aviation Cadet Philip Bowring, 28, co-pilot Lee Summit, Edgar Anglin, aviation chief machinist mate, 37, Norfolk, Va.; G. A. Mills, 22, radioman, third class, Prescott, Mich.; C. C. Creech, 23, aviation machinist mate, third class, Richland, N. Y.; L. Peace, machinist mate, National City, Cal., and J. J. Adair, 21, radioman, third class, Caruthersville, Mo.

Staff officers of the commander of aircraft squadrons, scouting force, to which the missing plane was attached, said the big sky cruiser could remain aloft for several days. However in May, 1935, off Midway island in the mid-Pacific a sky cruiser plummeted to the bottom during fleet maneuvers, carrying six men to death.

Federal Court To Test Fight Of Hague, Ohio

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 7 (AP)—The CIO and the American Civil Liberties union took to federal court today their fight against Mayor Frank Hague, who said "Jersey City will stand firm" against their "red invasion."

Rebuffed in efforts to hold mass meetings in Jersey City or attempt publicly organization of industrial workers there, the complainants charged Jersey City officials with entering into "an unlawful plan and conspiracy" to forbid discussion of CIO workers.

The suit, filed by Spaulding Frazer, dean of Newark law school and CIO counsel, asked for an injunction restraining Jersey City officials from interfering with the plaintiffs "free access upon and through the public streets, highways and thoroughfares of Jersey City" or with their holding of "peaceful meetings."

The complaint also charged a city ordinance prohibiting distribution of literature, under which seven CIO organizers and sympathizers were jailed recently for five days, was unconstitutional. An injunction was asked against its enforcement.

True Tomb Of First Pharaoh Believed Found

CAIRO, Jan. 7 (AP)—An English Egyptologist, W. B. Emery, today cited evidence supporting a theory he had discovered the true tomb of Menes, the first Pharaoh whose almost legendary reign is set by Egyptologists at from 5,000 to 6,000 years ago.

Emery said he had uncovered at Sakkara five subterranean chambers containing clay sealings marked with the name Aha, who Egyptologists believe probably was one of the historical originals of Menes.

There was also a cartouche (oval or oblong figure) of a thus far unidentified king.

F. D. R.'s Choice For Court?

Judge Sam G. Bratton

Stanley Reed

Will President Roosevelt name one of these two men for the vacancy on the U. S. supreme court bench after Jan. 16 when Justice George Sutherland retires? They are U. S. Solicitor General Stanley Reed and Federal Judge Sam G. Bratton, now sitting on the Tenth circuit court of appeals. According to observers, at the time of Justice Black's appointment the president's choice had narrowed down to three men — Black, Reed and Bratton. Both Reed and Bratton, a former representative, are liberals.

Mussolini Reveals Huge Naval Program in Surprise Move

Construction to Begin On 2 Battleships, 12 Destroyers

ROME, Jan. 7 (AP)—Premier Benito Mussolini announced a surprise naval building program today to give Italy absolute Mediterranean supremacy over normal British and French strength.

He announced construction would begin immediately on two 35,000-ton battleships, 12 destroyers and an undisclosed number of submarines. The sudden move was considered the fascist answer to what has been described as "the naval race of democratic countries."

Completion of the program by 1941 would give Italy her largest fighting navy—more than 600,000 tons, and place her second in rank only to Russia in submarines.

There was a hint in some authoritative comment Italy intended to assert her position outside the Mediterranean.

Mussolini's step was presented chiefly as necessary to protect the new Italian empire, provide sure communication with North Africa and defend Italy against "attempts at strangulation and intimidation by anyone who abrogates to himself the prerogative of sole custodian of European order."

American naval building and reports the United States planned to create a special Atlantic fleet were mentioned in the press along with the French and British programs as the reason for the Italian plans.

(The Italian announcement caused French officials to declare France must meet it. The naval committee of the chamber of deputies prepared for an immediate conference with the naval minister on building two 35,000-ton battleships.)

The increase in the strength of the Italian fleet was expected to make it more difficult for France and Britain to withdraw units from the Mediterranean for use elsewhere.

Loyalists Seize 2,000 Rebels

MADRID, Jan. 7 (AP)—The Spanish government said tonight 2,000 exhausted and starving insurgents who had been barricaded in the hospital of Asuncion in Teruel had surrendered under arrangements initiated by the international Red Cross.

With the fall of this base, the government said, only small straggling groups of insurgents remained in the city, which has been the scene of bitter fighting for 17 days, and that these were expected to surrender soon.

The captured forces were headed by Lieutenant Colonel Rey D'Harcourt, commander of the insurgent forces of Teruel.

The government communique also said two companies of crack Navarrese troops, about 230 men, surrendered in a body during a fierce attack upon insurgent positions in the Muela de Teruel sector outside Teruel.

The collapse of the hospital defenders came a little more than two weeks after they had barricaded themselves in the old quarters of the city after it had been occupied by government forces.

HELLO GIRLS Shaw Rates Operators Above Actors

LONDON, Jan. 7 (AP)—George Bernard Shaw rated telephone operators above actors and actresses today in diction and enunciation.

"There are dramatic schools all over the place; and yet today all professions speak better English for public purposes than the dramatic profession," the playwright said in a message to the annual meeting of the association of teachers of speech.

In addition to the "wonderful telephone girls," Shaw listed the clergy, politicians and lawyers as being superior.

"The only technically perfect speaker" of Victorian days was Queen Victoria herself, whom, he said, "some of our worst stage gabblers would probably describe as a ham elocutionist."

F.D.R. Appoints McLaughlin To Assist Perkins

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 7 (AP)—President Roosevelt's appointment today of Charles V. McLaughlin of Omaha as assistant secretary of labor won quick commendation from Union Pacific President William M. Jeffers, who frequently has faced McLaughlin across the labor conference table.

"I have been intimately associated with him in labor relations for a quarter of a century," Jeffers wired Secretary Perkins from Green River, Wyo. The telegram was released here.

"Capable and trustworthy and given an opportunity to determine the facts, his judgment will be accurately reflected. This appointment is a move in the right direction," Jeffers added.

McLaughlin, no relation to Representative Charles F. McLaughlin, (D, Neb.) has been vice-president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen since 1911.

Trucks Forbidden To Unload During Daylight Hours, 9-6

Trucks, tractors, road tractors and semi-trailers more than 25-feet overall will be forbidden to load or unload merchandise within the city limits between 9 a. m. and 6 p. m., according to an ordinance approved by the city council last night.

The ordinance which was given its first and second readings last month and its third last night aims to relieve traffic congestion on Iowa City streets and alleys.

A proposed ordinance which would place city inspectors and secretaries under civil service was given its first reading by the council last night. No vote on its passage was taken.

Six positions would be effected by the ordinance.

Japanese Ambassador Declares Negotiations For Peace Impossible

Plan Automatic Flood Control Pennsylvania Will Build Model System To Prevent Disasters of Past

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 7 (AP)—A "model" flood forecasting system, with a "radio finger" on the "pulse" of the rivers to warn of danger, soon will be tested by flood-conscious Pennsylvania.

Dr. James Boardus, secretary of forests and waters, said today it might be months before the setup is completed, but that experiments could be made within a short time.

"We have something here by which we hope to make impossible repetition of the disastrous flood of 1936," he added. "We call it a 'model' because we worked it out with federal authorities to get a pattern which other states could follow."

One hundred stations have been established along the main waterways. These have been designed to register the amount of rainfall.

Specially made gauges are being installed. They will show the rainfall, from which trained observers will determine whether streams are going to swirl out of control.

A radio system linking all the rivers, will automatically tap out messages, constantly telling of conditions of streams, the most minute fall or rise. This information will flow into a headquarters station and thus, warnings will be broadcast to the state at large.

The model is only a part of Pennsylvania's long range flood prevention program, which will cost nearly $100,000,000 and take probably 20 years to complete.

British Protest Fresh Incident In Peace Zone

Japanese Struggle For Strategic Railroad In North China

By The Associated Press
SHANGHAI, Jan. 8 (Saturday)—While a Japanese army maneuvered for a strangle hold on China's lifeline railway the Japanese ambassador to China declared today that peace negotiations were "out of the question for the present."

The envoy, Shigeru Kawagoe, told Japanese newspapermen that "Japan should repudiate the national government as China's central administration."

"A new regime is needed," he said—"one absolutely relying upon the technical and economic support and guidance of Japan."

The principal theater of the war was more than 400 miles northwest of Shanghai, on both sides of the east-west Lunghai railway—known as China's "last line of defense"—but there were fresh international complications in Shanghai.

The commander of British troops at Shanghai, Maj. Gen. A. P. D. Telfer-Smollett, protested against the slugging of two British officers of the Shanghai municipal police by Japanese soldiers. He charged that Japanese armed forces had invaded the British defense zone of the international settlement.

The British charged several Japanese soldiers rushed into the British zone to attack the officers when they remonstrated against what they considered unnecessary and rough treatment of Chinese peddlers.

Japanese reported their advance southward through Shantung province, aimed at control of the Lung-hai line and complete occupation of the intersecting north-south Tientsin-Pukow line, had captured Tsowhsien.

Eight Unhurt As Plane Falls Near Newark

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 7 (AP)—Stranded for four hours in the middle of a swamp, five passengers of a transport air liner cheered and whistled today as their pilot guided rescuers to their partly sunken ship.

While flares glowed eerily against the pre-dawn night, Pilot Usher Roush of Chicago, cut over the eye when his head struck the instrument panel as he undershot storm-swept Newark airport, plunged more than two miles through mud and water to pick up a rescue party.

The rescuers found passengers of the (American Airlines) plane unhurt and their spirits buoyed by Co-pilot Stanley Gerding of Chicago and a pretty blonde stewardess, Veronica Lalley, a graduate nurse of Mercy hospital, Janesville, Wis.

"All the raves go to Veronica Lalley," commented Jack Ryan of Evanston, Ill., as passenger. "She's aces. She kidded us all into thinking we were coming into the airport, got our coats ready and everything."

"She got us out in nothing flat," said A. R. Watkins of Chicago, making his first flight.

The other passengers were William Oglvie of Chicago, Michael Londer of Boston and Herbert Shapiro of Newton, Mass., all of whom trudged through knee-deep mud to the roadway.

Press Subsidization By Government May Be Withdrawn Soon

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 (AP)—Publishers of newspapers and magazines received an invitation from President Roosevelt today to take the initiative in reducing postal subsidies which he said they now enjoy.

In response to a question at his press conference, he said he believed the time had long since passed when the government should continue mail subsidies to newspapers and magazines.

10 Fires Make $54,000 Loss

Property Owners Survey Ice-Coated Ruins Of Buildings

DES MOINES, Jan. 7 (AP)—Property owners tonight surveyed ice coated ruins of buildings damaged to the extent of $54,000 as firemen "hewed out" after battling 10 fires in sub-zero temperatures here during the day.

Damage in the two major fires, both three story commercial buildings, was estimated at $50,000. Damage to one residence was estimated at $4,000. The other fires caused minor damage to houses and business buildings.

The flames broke out in rapid succession, beginning at 4:15 a. m., and firemen were unable to get their equipment cleaned up after one blaze before being called out to another.

With the mercury hovering near the zero mark, hose streams froze on the buildings and shot back a spray that coated fire fighters with ice from head to foot. Their helmets were masses of ice and icicles dangled from the brims.

Eyebrows and lashes were coated with ice and the clothing worn by the firemen froze stiff, resembling hanging sheets of ice.

One ladder truck was frozen, several firemen suffered frozen hands and all firemen and police suffered from the cold and exposure.

Major fires were at a three story building housing an insulation firm, on Walnut street near the Ft. Des Moines hotel, and at a garage in an old carriage company building on East Locust street near the federal building.

Loss at the former was placed at $20,000 and the latter, $30,000. Walls of the building housing the garage fell in after the upper two floors crashed to the basement.

Hull Foresees English Treaty

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 (AP)—The United States and Great Britain took a seven league step toward economic cooperation today by announcing formal "intention to negotiate" a trade agreement.

Secretary of State Hull's announcement disclosed the British Colonial Empire and Newfoundland are to be included in the accord. Excluded are the Dominions, Ireland and India.

March 14 was set for the beginning of the public hearings on imports and exports suggested for inclusion. Hull published a 47-page list of over 1,000 imports on which tariff concessions may be granted.

February 19 was fixed as the closing date for the submission of briefs by importers, exporters, producers or manufacturers, and for applications to be heard at the public meetings.

Du Ponts File Action Against Author, Press

NEW YORK, Jan. 7 (AP)—One of "America's 60 families" — the 60 categorized in a book by Ferdinand Lundberg as the owners of America—went into federal court today to refute charges against itself.

E. I. du Pont de Nemours and company—the du Ponts of Delaware—filed a complaint in its $150,000 libel suit against Lundberg and the Vanguard Press, publisher of his book.

A statement from the company noted the "book has been used as the text for public discussions attacking American industry" but did not mention specifically the use of its thesis by Secretary of the Interior Harold I. Ickes in a speech last week.

The complaint termed as maliciously false charges of fraudulent actions by the du Pont company during the World War. The charges quoted in the complaint are, in part:

"The government charged that E. I. du Pont de Nemours and company had, by various devices, defrauded the government on war contracts. The du Ponts, according to investigators, had stooped so low as to bill the government for $75 for the burial of every worker who died during an influenza epidemic at the Old Hickory power plant, and had sold the bodies for $11 each as well."

Father Blesses Eloping Heiress

TAMPA, Fla., Jan. 7 (AP)—Gertrude Bennett, 17-year-old daughter of Harry Bennett, Ford Motor company official, received by telephone from Detroit today a parental blessing for herself, and Russell Hughes, her 21-year-old trap drummer husband.

The couple, who eloped Monday night at Auburn, Ind., where they were married by a justice of the peace, talked with the girl's father, and arrangements were made for them to spend a month in Florida.

"Oh, Daddy!" the young Mrs. Hughes cried exultantly as she talked with the elder Bennett from the private office of Chief of Police C. J. Woodruff here. Woodruff had been asked by Bennett to get the couple to a telephone.

Then, slightly befuddled and bewildered, they indicated they wanted to be alone. Young Hughes was the spokesman.

HURRAH! HURRAH! New Doughnut Solves The Problem

CHICAGO, Jan. 7 (AP)—A move to release doughnut dunkers from social exile was reported today by the national inventors' congress.

It was embodied in the invention of Arthur Bashman of Indianapolis, Ia., who has developed a doughnut especially designed for dunking. While the congress did not describe the new pastry in detail, it said it would provide relief for the timid dunker.

King Carol And The Iron Guard

KING CAROL of Rumania, contrary to many reports, is not just a vain, self-willed wastrel. He is also a clever, competent politician and one of the few kings to really rule a country.

Right now this ruling Rumania is no easy job, but King Carol gets by just the same. Handled roughly in the recent national election when his premier, George Tatarescu, was beaten, the king has recovered very nicely.

Carol, of course, has no leanings toward fascism and he sympathizes with France rather than Germany. His feelings on the Jewish question can well be imagined by remembering that Miss Lupescu is a Jewess.

The most powerful party is Julius Mianu's national peasant party, against which Carol has an old grudge in spite of the fact that it was originally responsible for his restoration to the throne.

However threatening the iron guard may loom in the background, it is King Carol and Octavian Goga who are in power. Both are smart men, both want to stay in power, and smart men who are in power usually stay there, especially after getting there as these men did.

Great Britain is busily engaged in trying to restore world peace by prevailing upon France to give up a few colonial possessions to Germany.

Roosevelt Makes A Wise Choice

PRESENT business conditions, the animosity between the C.I.O. and the A.F. of L., and the constant breaking out of new difficulties between labor and industry all tend to accentuate the important position of the labor department in the national scheme of things.

in many cases, made wise decisions; in at least an equal number of cases she has not. As President Roosevelt's labor secretary she has come in for almost constant criticism from both big business and labor.

It was important, therefore, that Roosevelt give serious consideration to the appointment of her assistant—the man who probably will do most of the work. In giving the post to Charles V. McLaughlin, the president has made a wise choice.

McLaughlin will be a worthy successor to Francis Grady, who resigned recently to enter private business. He is a man high in the regard of labor. He started his career as a railroad switchman at North Platte, Neb., and then changed his job to that of an engine man and joined the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen.

Throughout his long career, McLaughlin has been known as a liberal, a labor sympathizer and a fair and smart bargainer. Labor union heads yesterday sent dozens of congratulatory telegrams to the capital regarding McLaughlin's appointment.

This combined with the fact that he is also held in high esteem as a man who will represent industry fairly makes McLaughlin a man second to none in the Roosevelt "little cabinet."

The new deal needs more men like him. Any administration does. Courage sometimes wins an ill reward. The reason some men can't appreciate their wives' good cooking is because they ruined their stomachs when the little ladies were learning how.

The man at the next desk says a lot of girls do not care what a man's past is if his Christmas present was nice enough.

COLLEGE ENGLISH

About 25 years ago a college graduate, who aspired to be superintendent of schools in a Kentucky county, sent a chuckle through the country by defining "jeopardy" in a written test, as "a state of danger caused by being pursued by a jeopard."

Whether the colleges today are more competent to teach English than they were a quarter century ago is open to question. Recently college graduates, many of them proud possessors of master's degrees, took an examination to qualify as instructors in English in the high schools of New York city.

The boners occurred on a test of vocabulary and of capacity for its intelligence use. The test produced amazing results. "Indigent matter cannot be eaten without serious consequences," wrote one, linking poverty with digestion, perhaps not without reason, but in a manner that may surprise both the social worker and the physiologist.

"The dead man had wished to be cremated, and the increment scattered to the winds." The word "indigenous" was clearly a synonym for industrious in the mind of the candidate who declared, "He was known as an indigenous or hard worker."

At the age of 60 many people become redolent." What was in the mind of the candidate who advised "the way to cure a redolent young boy is to compel him to play football," is not so obvious, but even the young boy might know that soap and hot water would prove more efficacious. Saved for the last is a gem of the collection—"She was freed by the gangster because she was a capitious blonde." The wonder is he did not bump her off!

Pneumonia, Infections Blamed On Colds, Says Dr. Clendening

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D.

We are warned about neglecting colds. About all that means is to emphasize the advice given here a few days ago—to stay in bed the first day or so of a cold. That is all that can be done to safeguard against complications and serious sequelae.

Chronic sinus infection may finally lead to chronic bronchitis. And this really makes the victim miserable in the winter time. These people are unfortunately and undeservedly likely to be jokes.

Tuning In with Margie Fastenow

Edward D'Anna and his Carborundum band will furnish music for the half-hour Carborundum program tonight at 7:30. The program, which will also feature Indian legends by Francis D. Bowman, reaches us over CBS.

It's fairly rare for the production man to leave the control booth during a program, but Hubbell Robinson, producer of "We, the People," had cause to recently, when little Mary Malo, six year old Shanghai refugee, appeared on the show. Mary became so attached to Mr. Robinson during the rehearsal that she refused to go on the air unless he came out and held her on his lap while she spoke.

The other day on the Paramount lot, Florence George backed her car into Gary Cooper's machine. The little crowd that gathered hoping to see a verbal tiff was disappointed. Miss George and the star promptly settled for an exchange of autographs.

When Al Jolson visits other radio broadcasts, he stands in line with the rest of the folks, waiting his turn to get in. Yet every radio door is open to him and he could just walk in without any trouble!

Is Bob Burns thinking of replacing his trusty bazooka? Reports have it that he is busily engaged in taking violin lessons at the present time.

Anne Jamison is dickering with network officials to make two short wave broadcasts during 1938—one to Ireland, her birthplace, and the other to India where she spent most of her childhood.

Phil Baker has an offer to do a musical comedy when he returns to New York. The comic plans to leave Hollywood and return east early next month.

ROMANCE LANGUAGES DEPARTMENT F. Lieu of the Chinese embassy, talking with me the other day: "The Japanese are penetrating up the Yangtze river, but they are doing it with infinite difficulty and at enormous expense. The Chinese close in behind them, as they penetrate, too. Their line of communications is a fearful anxiety to them."

"Besides, they are not effectively established in North China. They do not mention it, but they are crippled by a state of guerilla warfare there."

All of which costs money — which Tokyo hasn't got. Guerilla warfare, on the opposite hand, more or less pays for itself as it goes.

Committing Hari-Kari? I chatted recently with an American, for years a resident in Japan and long the Tokyo Government's publicity agent in Washington (I can't name him). "Nippon," he said, "is committing hari-kari (suicide)."

Well, maybe it was noticed that news dispatches recorded a batch of Tokyo arrests (running into hundreds) of revolutionaries against the mikado's government. It was much like one of Russia's "purgés."

When Russia has a "purge" it generally is concluded that the soviet government is threatened by an uprising against itself. Ditto to Japan.

A lot of Japan's arrests, too, were of very prominent men. "Oh, yes," agreed Secretary Y.

A Man ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Dining at a major hotel on the Park the other night, I was attracted by an atmosphere of excitement that seemed to pervade the restaurant and the lobby, a part of which could be glimpsed from my table against a wall not far from the entrance. The waiters wore an amused smile, and certain of the guests left their tables and hurried to the door, where they glimpsed a vignette that caused them such merriment that they giggled happily and came back with much excited talk.

This was to much for my tortured curiosity and so I arose and strolled out into the lobby. It was far better than I had hoped. There sat John Barrymore, legs crossed, staring pleasantly across the lobby, wearing a Tyrolean hat. After a minute or two he strolled over to a newsstand, bought a magazine, and disappeared into an elevator.

Exciting Meal I returned then to what turned out to be an exciting meal. The orchestra was playing a medley of Viennese waltzes. Suddenly one became aware that all the dancers had left the floor except one young man who had just entered by a side door. He wore an overcoat and a felt hat. He was swirling and dancing all by himself, quite drunk.

A waiter hurried to him, a persuasive look in his eye, and touched him lightly on the sleeve. "Such conduct was not permitted. . . would the gentleman be good enough to leave?"

The gentleman was good enough to slug the waiter in the jaw. The waiter retaliated with much aplomb. A confere seized his other arm. There was a terrific struggle. The orchestra maintained a steady two-four time. A third waiter organized a surprise flank attack in the rear and caught the young man around the middle lifting him off the floor. The young man's face was livid. All the waiters continued to smile, but it didn't take too critical a gaze to see that they really weren't very much pleased. By this time the young man had been hustled off the scene. The orchestra continued to sob out the romantic strains of old Vienna.

HOLLYWOOD SIGHTS & SOUNDS

By ROBBIN COONS HOLLYWOOD—They are filming three endings to "The Baroness and the Butler," the William Powell-Anabella film.

They aren't concerned with how the story ends—whether the heroine shall marry the hero or shall kill herself or take vanilla. That's all settled. What bothers them is whether Annabella should spill coffee on Powell, and if so, just how much coffee shall she spill. It's the "tag" that counts—the final scene.

The fade-out invariably leaves a strong impression on the fans. If it's a good impression, they're supposed to be more prone to tell their friends about the picture. Often—now think back—a good "tag" will give you a happy impression of a picture that wasn't nearly as good as you left the theater thinking it was.

Without going into exhaustive research on the matter, the "tag" that strikes me as most nearly perfect for the film it concluded was that on "It Happened One Night"—a scene in which neither Claudette Colbert nor Clark Gable appeared.

The practice of filming two story endings to a picture is still common. The idea behind it is that a city audience can "take" an unhappy ending, whereas the small town and rural fan wants his screen life sugared. In "The Wedding Night" Anna Sten died for the classes, but lived and loved for the masses. Showing how much difference it sometimes makes, the picture itself died for both.

Lucky Dog Belated success story: A year ago he was an extra, working around the lots and eager for any bone of encouragement. The bones were few, and he went back home—to a ranch near Faith, S. D.—determined to forget about Hollywood and the disillusion it brought.

Not long ago, his pastoral life was interrupted by a telegram. From Columbia Pictures. The studio needed him for a major role in "Land Rush." He came back—to the dignity of success and adulation, his faith restored. Turfy, as well-trained a cow-dog as you're likely to meet, is a success. His owner, Gerhard Orvendahl, is content.

Washington World

By CHARLES P. STEWART Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Just what the Chinese predicted seems to be coming to pass. The argument of their diplomatic representatives in Washington has been, all along, that their home forces did not have to defeat the island invaders outright — that, meeting reasonably prolonged resistance, they presently would defeat themselves.

Not since pre-World war days have I been in Nippon, but even then the economic strain on the Japanese masses was terrible. My acquaintance was mainly with native Tokyo newspapermen — pretty intelligent and outspoken folk. Their story (sotto voce, for speech there never has been overly free) was that the taxation burden was almost intolerable. Meanwhile it has been getting heavier and heavier. Now it is estimated that the mikado's mainland venture is costing his people an additional $1,000,000 daily.

A country like Japan obviously cannot continue that long. It hasn't the cash, resources or credit. It has a good initial equipment, but it cannot maintain it. China has "fat." Wearing it off is a gradual process. "Oh, yes," agreed Secretary Y.

Indiana's free-wheeling basketball juggernaut, picking up momentum with each game, will invade the Iowa fieldhouse tonight in an effort to win its second straight Big Ten cage tilt at the expense of the Golden Hawkeyes of Iowa.

The game, first conference clash of the 1938 season for the Iowans, will see three sophomores in the starting Hawkeye lineup. Coach Rollie Williams, seeking to dispel the lethargy that has enveloped the Hawks in their last three games, which they have lost by wide margins, has spent the last week drilling his men in offensive and defensive formations with little regard to any set starting five.

He indicated last night that he will start Tommy Lind and Benny Stephens at forwards, Dick Evans at center and Nile Kinnick and Kenny Suesens in the backcourt.

Kinnick, Stephens Tied
A checkup of the official score book shows that Kinnick and Stephens are tied for high-scoring honors, each with 43 points. Kinnick, however, has played in three more games than the flashy junior forward who has averaged nearly 12 points per game.

Evans, Chicago, sophomore, is far down on the point list with only three points registered in the six games in which he has participated. His floor work is improving with each game, however, and this alone will make the second year man a valuable asset to the team.

Hoosiers Improving
The Hoosiers, paced by such deadly scorers as Ernie Andres and Bill Johnson, started the season in a mediocre style but since then have turned back such teams as Nebraska, Southern California and U.C.L.A. Last Monday they handed Illinois, last year's champions of the Big Ten, a 51-46 defeat at Bloomington, Ind.
If good weather prevails today, officials expect the largest crowd that has seen a Hawkeye basketball open its conference season in some years to file into the fieldhouse. The game will be the 300th tilt that an Iowa team has played since they began intercollegiate basketball in 1900.

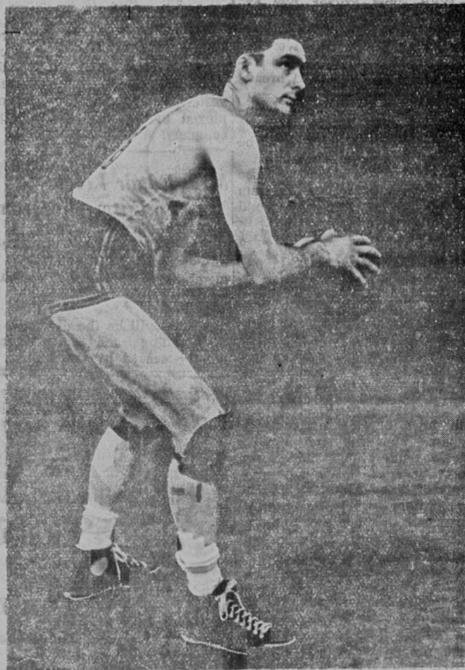

Swimmers Will Invade Omaha

With the reputation of being one of the powers in swimming year after year in the middlewest, Coach Dave Armbruster's Iowa Hawkeyes will invade Omaha, Neb., for the Midwestern A.A.U. swimming and diving championships Jan. 14 and 15 with a team of eight or 10 men.
Ed Gerber and Capt. Robert Christians, two middle distance men, have been named for the 220 and 500-yard free styles; Robert Allen and Robert Lowry in the 220 yard breast stroke; Charles Bremer, 150 yard back stroke; Al Armbruster, back stroke and 500-yard free style; Robert Reed, 100-yard sprint and Arney Christen, diving.

Iowa, in opening its swimming season, will attempt to capture the team title it held for some years previous to 1937, when they lost it because of not having sufficient men to compete as a team.
Strong opposition is expected from the three states in the central A.A.U. district, composed of Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota.
The remainder of the team for the Omaha invasion will be chosen following possible time trials next week.

BROOKLYN, N. Y. (AP) — Baseball circles understood yesterday that L. S. (Larry) MacPhail, former general manager of the Cincinnati Reds, had definitely been selected to fill a similar position with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

High-Scoring Iowa Forward

Benny Stephens, shown above, will be in the Iowa starting lineup tonight when the University of Iowa Hawkeyes open their 1938 Big Ten season against the University of Indiana on the fieldhouse floor. Stephens was on the sidelines for several weeks after an injury in the Butler game but has been declared ready to go for tonight's tilt.

Rallying around little Horace Cook, substitute forward, the Williamsburg high school basketball team defeated the University high quintet 28-26, here last night after they had trailed during most of the game by a small margin.

Going into the fourth quarter trailing 22-21, the Williamsburg five scored six points before the Blue and White team had even got a shot at their basket. U-high followed with two field goals and Cook made his fourth point of the period on a free throw to complete the scoring.

The game was exceptionally fast, both teams employing a man to man defense and a speedy offense. The Blue and White team led by a small margin during the greater part of the play, but could not cope with the Red Raiders' last quarter scoring spree. The halftime score was knotted at 13-13.

Joel Hinnicks started out the scoring in the first quarter when he sunk a long one from the center. George Miller quickly evened it up for U-high, when he made a follow in. Duane Carson made a free throw to give the Bluehaws a one point lead, which was quickly lost when Hinnicks sunk a beautiful one-handed push shot.

Duane Carson, then, broke through the Raider defense to score a set which gave U-high a 5-4 lead. Ed Burns followed with a tip in to boost the U-high lead to three points. The field goals by Bob Sinn and Jim O'Neil gave Williamsburg an 8-7 edge, which was lost when Burns dropped in a pretty one hander from the side to give U-high a 9-8 lead as the quarter ended.

The rest of the game was nearly repetition of the first quarter with the lead changing hands often, but never did either team have a margin of more than three points until the last quarter.

'Bitsy' Grant Wins Way to Finals Of Miami Tennis Meet

CORAL GABLES, Fla., Jan. 7 (AP)—Bryan M. (Bitsy) Grant, Atlanta's mighty tennis mite, stroked his way into the Miami Biltmore tournament, finals today with a four set marathon victory over Elwood Cooke of Portland, Ore.
Grant's 9-7, 9-7, 3-6, 7-5 triumph placed him in Sunday's final against the winner of a semifinal match tomorrow between top seeded Bobby Riggs of Chicago and young Frank Kovacs of Oakland, Cal.

Coach Mike Howard said last night that all of his eight starters, except the 118 pound man were decided on. Phillip Millen, sophomore 118 pounder, is the outstanding man in the division but it is doubtful if he will be able to get his weight down for the match.

Hod Shots

By G. K. HODENFIELD

One thing about the Iowa basketball team that has attracted comment from the fans this year is the scoring performance of Kenny Suesens, defensive star on the Hawk quintet and captain of last year's team. Before being declared ineligible at the end of the first semester last year, Suesens totaled only 22 points. This year, with four games remaining in the first semester, he has tallied 19 markers and even led the Iowa team in scoring in one game of their eastern invasion.

It seems that this would be a good time to suggest a New Year's resolution to Iowa cage fans, although perhaps a little late. Each year the same trouble comes up—What to do about fans leaving their seats and edging toward the door as the game goes into the last few minutes? Not only does this sort of thing show poor sportsmanship, but it also interferes with the view of those who came to the game to see all of it and don't like to be cheated.

A word might be dropped here, too, about booing at the games. High school principals start preaching to students when they start the higher stages of their education to refrain from any unsportsmanlike conduct at any sort of athletic contest but it never seems to quite soak in. Many schools in the western conference have terrible reputations along this line and it is one thing that should be avoided at the Hawkeye institution.

Wonder why it is that every time the public address system blares forth with the announcement of substitutions the "candy butchers" reach their highest pitch in selling their wares?

Chitter-chatter... Ted Panish, halfback on the Bradley Tech football team that threw a scare into Hawkeye fans last fall in Iowa stadium, is a good example of a coach's "dream". He has been named on two all-Illinois intercollegiate football teams, guard on the basketball team and second baseman on the baseball honor nine... George McDonald, totally blind, took up bowling three months ago and already has the experts talking about his feats... McDonald seems to "feel" where the pins are, way up the alley.

Proving the advantages of a five-man team, City high outscored tiny Jack Walker of Clinton on the local floor last night, 30-11.

Doing every bit of the offensive work for Coach Harper's five, the diminutive Red and Black guard was unable to keep pace with the well-balanced attack of the home team. Walker, a junior, made good on only one field goal attempt in the last half.

With a 9-4 advantage at the end of the first quarter, the Little Hawks stretched their margin with each succeeding period, leading 18-9 at the half and 22-9 going into the final stanza. The point-making for the Mertenens was well-distributed, as McLaughlin finished the game with nine points to lead the Hawklet attack.

Putnam Stars
George Devine, with eight markers, and Capt. Wayne Putnam with seven points also figured heavily in the Iowa City attack. In addition to his scoring, Captain Putnam turned in a beautiful floor game and added another to his long list of near-perfect defensive games. McLaughlin and Devine also gave good accounts of themselves.

Putting the game on ice in the opening periods, the Red and White freshman-sophomore quintet staved off a last half rally to down Clinton's yearlings, 33-29 in the curtain-raiser. Last night's win made it four league games in a row for the local frosh-soph five.

Laughlin Leads Sophs
Don Laughlin led the Cormackmen with 10 points, while Virgil Parker followed closely with eight points.

Brundage Announces Appointment From New York City

Prof. E. G. "Dad" Schroeder, director of athletics of the University of Iowa and a member of the Hawkeye department for more than 30 years, was last night appointed a member of the wrestling committee for the 1940 Olympics by Avery Brundage, president of the American Olympic committee.

Schroeder served in the same capacity for the 1936 Olympics, which were held in Berlin. The duties of the members are to arrange the tournaments, arrange the financing and select the team that will compete in Japan two years from now.

During the Christmas vacation period "Dad" was named to the national wrestling rules committee at the N. C. A. meeting in New Orleans. He has held this position for the last five years.

Clapp Also Named
Also named to the Olympic wrestling committee was Dr. R. G. Clapp of Nebraska university. Clapp and Schroeder together helped stage the first intercollegiate wrestling meet west of the Mississippi in 1911 when the grapplers from Iowa and the Cornhusker school met in a dual meet at Lincoln.

The Hawkeyes at that meet were represented by a three-man squad and the matches were for the two falls out of three. Nebraska won the meet, which was halted at midnight when only about half over.

Clapp is chairman of the national wrestling rules committee of which Schroeder is a member.

Making Plans To Raise Funds For Olympics

NEW YORK, Jan. 7 (AP) — Plans to speed up fund raising for America's participation in the 1940 Olympic games at Tokyo, with $400,000 as the probable goal to cover all costs, will be discussed tomorrow by the executive committee of the American Olympic association. This figure is $50,000 in excess of U. S. expenses for the 1936 games.

"Financial groundwork already has been laid by the Amateur Athletic union, as well as the colleges, looking toward 1940," said Avery Brundage, president of the group, "but we still have a long way to go before erecting the structure necessary to make our Olympic participation independent of 11th hour drives for funds."

The United States already has decided not to avail itself of transportation subsidies offered by the Japanese Olympic organization. It is understood Great Britain has acted similarly. Japan's government appropriated 1,500,000 yen toward expenses of visiting Olympic teams, designed mainly to make up for the differences in travel costs for European nations.

Beats Champ Fred Apostoli Wins From Steele

NEW YORK, Jan. 7 (AP) — Fred Apostoli, former San Francisco bell hop, proved his right to be called the No. 1 challenger for Freddie Steele's middleweight crown tonight by stopping the champion in the ninth round of their 12-round non-title bout in Madison Square Garden. Referee Arthur Donovan stopped the fight to save a bleeding, battered and dazed Steele from further punishment. Weights were 158-3-4 for Steele and 161-1-2 for Apostoli.

Steele was badly whipped and virtually out on his feet when Donovan called a halt 54 seconds after the start of the ninth. The champion's finish came as the climax of a dramatic and extraordinary series of developments in the seventh round. Steele was bowled off his feet at the outset of this round by Apostoli's rush, then given the benefit of approximately a 10-second rest, after claiming foul from a terrific low hook to the groin.

Upper B Takes Lead In Quad Playoff Series

Upper B made a decided bid for the Quadrangle basketball championship last night by soundly thrashing Lower D, 24 to 18, in the opening game of the three-game playoff. Lower D, playing minus the services of two of their outstanding players, Matt and Bill Miletich, offered little opposition for the Upper league champions.

Upper B played a consistent floor game and capitalized on getting rebounds under the basket. Zeke Bailey, who has been the winner's offensive star all season, again led the Upper B attack, scoring 10 points. Bill Vogt and John Vogt, the guards for the winners, were outstanding on defense.

Mike Enich carried the load for Lower D making three baskets for scoring honors for the losers and playing a whale of a game on defense.

The second game of the series will be played Tuesday and the final game Thursday, if three games are needed to determine the winner. Winner of the playoff will be the Quad representative in the all-university tourney later in the year.

Martin Peril, Quad sports director, announced yesterday that the winners of the championship will receive gold medals and the runners-up silver medals. He also said that after the basketball season, the next event on the Quad athletic program would be the dormitory relays.

Referee, Lannholm—Coc. Timekeeper, Coen — Iowa. Scorekeeper, Loria — Iowa.
The fighting Shamrocks from Parnell invaded the St. Patrick's basketball court last night and proved beyond doubt that their first victory over the Southsiders was no fluke as they rolled over the Irish for a well-earned 41-21 win. This game was probably the roughest that has ever been seen on the Irish court with 29 fouls being called and four men being ushered to the showers through the miscue route.

Jim Gallagher, a tall blond forward with an uncanny basket eye, proved himself a hard man to stop as he looped in 14 tallies the first half. He was ably supported by his running mate Sheridan who dropped from his role as high scorer to feed his team mate the ball. The score at the end of the first half was 21 to 13 with the visitors on top.

With the bell sounding the start of the second half the Iowa county Shamrocks tossed the oval through the hoop from all parts of the floor in a scoring spree that did not end until O'Meara dropped in a free throw bringing the Parnell total to 41 points. The St. Patrick's cagers were practically helpless in their attempts to stem this fast breaking scoring attack and managed to make only eight points themselves during the hectic second period.

Less Pretty, But Warmer Dr. Dentons Favored By Coeds as Looks Lose Importance

"Not so much beauty and more warmth" is the slogan of Iowa coeds. The brisk breezes blowing in through open windows turn the comfortable dormitories and sleeping rooms into what the girls call ice bergs.

Contrarily, these sophisticated college women are wearing as the latest fad the favorite of babyhood, Dr. Dentons. For those with short memories a Dr. Denton is a pair of flannel pajamas with attached hood and booties.

Betty Styer, Beverly Hunter and Joanna Huttenlocher, all Pi Phi's, Mary Winslow, Kappa president, and Lucille Anderson, Gamma Phi, all favor the new fad. Miss Huttenlocher doesn't find the booties sufficient to keep her feet warm, so she wears bed socks, too.

The Unique Thing Elinor Rodgers, Kappa, does the unique thing and puts her bed pillow under her feet instead of her head — for warmth, of course!

Beth Jane Richards, Gamma Phi, has the courage of her convictions and takes a heating pad to bed with her. Betty Braunlich, another Gamma Phi, dons both pajamas and a nightgown. The rumor is that she prefers the trousers of the pajamas and "nice, big, warm nightgowns are so comfortable!"

Catherine Cobb and Virginia Leigh Harris, both Delta Gammas, Bernice Jacobson, Sigma Delta Tau, and Hilda Haubrick, Tri Delt, maintain a staunch old-fashioned attitude and wear these "dainty" pink and blue flannel nightgowns several sizes too big. "For downright warmth and comfort, you can't beat the old-fashioned nightgown," they say.

Flu' Nightie Barbara Dodsworth, Theta, came back from her vacation with what she claims is her "flu" nightie. Whether that's just her excuse because she likes to wear it, nobody knows, but that little knitted nightgown that ties at the neck does cost its wearer a lot of kidding.

Mary Stoelting, Tri Delt, is either concerned about keeping her hair just so or else those yards and yards of tulle which she wraps around her head each night and fetchingly ties in a bow really keep the cold out.

Before vacation Marion Jacoby annoyed her sister Thetas by wearing a sweater over her pajamas. Now they approve of her in dainty powder blue pajamas with white angora on the sleeves. She says that her new "evening wear" is much more comfortable, and she needs comfort to offset the purple scarf coquettishly tied under her chin.

In the Cause of Cold Feet—

—Daily Iowan Photo, Engraving around chilly ears, striped pajamas and a warm blue sweater, the undaunted Theta prepares to climb into her half of the double-decker bed. Miss Jacoby is one of the Iowa coeds who believes that sweet dreams are warm ones these winter nights.

Ordinary nights Marion Jacoby, A1 of Park Ridge, Ill., dresses for dreamland in a rainbow, costume of pastel pajamas and a neat purple hairnet tied under her chin. But it's been a bit brisk lately. So snugly dressed in green mittens, plaid scarf, red bed slippers, and a handkerchief

World Problems Discussed By Prof. C. Daley

Prof. Clara M. Daley of the history department discussed present-day problems within and among the world's nations at the meeting of chapter E of P.E.O. yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Paul Sayre, 336 Magowan avenue.

Professor Daley pointed out the difference between the economic problems of the several dictator-ship countries. The fascist and nazi governments, she explained, attempt to freeze the status quo and keep the same groups in control. The communists in Russia, she said, have turned the classes upside down and put the former lower groups on top.

In democratic countries such as the United States, England and France, the speaker continued, an attempt is made to achieve a middle course without internal strife. Professor Daley also discussed the problem of agreement between the nations without war.

Assistant hostesses at the meeting were Mrs. C. O. Ingersoll, Mrs. Charles Berry and Mrs. George Nagle.

Sewing machines and cloth for the work were donated by local stores.

The committee in charge of the meeting included Mrs. W. A. Gay, Mrs. G. R. Davies, Mrs. Thomas Wagner, Mrs. R. V. McColum, Mrs. John Yoder and Harriette Davis.

HOSTESS HINTS

This is a good orange year, market experts say. It seems that the weather gods grinned on Florida, and the groves responded with plenty of golden oranges. So why not let that orange flavor sparkle up your menu by using the juice in some of your dishes? Just as it contributes vitamins to Junior's health, so it donates flavor and improved texture to the foods you make.

In buying oranges for juice remember those with thin skins; weigh the fruit in your hands, too, for the heaviest ones are the juiciest. Tell your grocer you want them for juice and he'll help you.

Orange Coconut Pie
3-4 cup orange juice
Juice of 1-2 lemons
1 1-2 cups water
1 cup sugar
3 tsp. flour
3 tsp. cornstarch
1-4 tsp. salt
Grated rind of 1 orange
3-4 cup coconut
3 eggs, separated
Baked pie shell

Heat fruit juices and water in double boiler. Add mixed dry ingredients, cook 10 minutes, stirring constantly. Add beaten egg yolks; cook one minute longer. Add grated rind and one-half cup coconut. Cool. Pour into baked pastry shell. Top with meringue made by adding six tablespoons granulated sugar to stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 15 minutes. Sprinkle top with one-fourth cup coconut. Bake two minutes longer.

Orange Mousse
1-2 cup sugar
1 1-2 cups orange juice
1 tsp. grated orange rind
1 1-2 tsp. granulated gelatin
2 tsp. water
1 cup heavy cream
4 tsp. powdered sugar
Dissolve sugar in orange juice. Add grated rind. Soften gelatin in water and dissolve over hot water. Mix well with orange juice. Whip cream till it is of custard consistency and fold in powdered sugar. Fold in orange juice. Freeze in refrigerator at lowest temperature, stirring once while freezing. The recipe serves six. If desired, one-half cup chopped almonds or walnuts may be folded in before freezing.

More Juice Tips
Use fresh orange juice in the following ways: To make a relish, dice cooked left-over beets and serve cold with a dressing of one tablespoon sugar combined

STRICTLY Personal

THE advertisements in this paper are published for you. They are as truly personal as if they had your name and address at the head of the text.

Great industrialists and local merchants alike use advertising as a means of telling you things you ought to know. They talk about their products . . . articles that will be your own property. It pays well to listen!

Many necessities, things you need, are described in these pages every day. While you sit and read the advertisements the parade of American industry passes before you . . . offering its wares . . . giving you a wealth of valuable information about everything from automobiles to razor blades.

Everybody has to buy some of the things advertised in this paper. Knowing about all of them will save you money.

Develop Print Your Own Snapshots

Especially the new Kodak ABC Darkroom Outfit at $2.25. It includes everything necessary for developing and printing 3 1/4 x 5 1/4-inch or smaller pictures plus a helpful instruction booklet that tells how it's done. Children's Art Will Show In F. A. Building

An exhibition of "Children's Art From Five Continents" will be shown in the exhibition lounge of the fine arts building for a week beginning tomorrow.

The exhibition which is being circulated by the Progressive Education association had its premiere in St. Louis at the national conference. The association assembled some two thousand paintings, designs, and pieces of sculpture and from these, 70 were reserved for use in the "Five Continents" exhibit.

In this display, teachers were asked to waive technical standards when necessary to submit work that bore the imprint of genuine self-directed response of the child to his environment.

In the exhibit is included art from Russia, China, Columbia, Italy, South Africa, Japan, Mexico, Poland, Palestine, Austria, France, Finland, Panama, England and the United States.

The paintings and designs are social documents of children's thoughts. African children show by their work that foreign culture has had no influence upon the native art, and American Indians show the same trait as the African children do, that of portraying their own life.

Looking Glass Reflections

By VERA SHELDON

To start the new in the height of fashion, smart style leaders are following the tendency toward shorter hair, built high on the head, which promises to hold first place in coiffures for 1938.

The secret of a successful hairdress in this new trend is a light permanent wave all over the head, especially at the crown where puffs and curls are worn. Don't satisfy yourself with an end curl because of the slight difference in price, for the beauty of soft curls will be ruined by straight, straggly locks above them.

Hair for these new styles should be shaped so that it fits closely to the head and should be no longer than three inches at the sides and four inches at the back of the head. Hair at the nape of the neck should be long enough to sweep upward.

The intricate details of these styles doesn't allow careless grooming. The basis of each is a series of parts and divisions to keep the hair in perfect order and to enable the wearer to comb it herself. Constant recomb and brushing will train the hair to lie smoothly. Choose a simple basic coiffure with possibilities for variations.

A good way to keep hair on the up and up and to save your temper as well is to wear a ribbon bandeau. It's appropriate at almost any time of the day, and if you would be especially perky, tie a tiny bow in front. For the problem of short, stubby ends, try a lot of brushing; then apply a bit of brilliantine and lacquer.

For adventurous occasions, try a ruffia hairdo. It's a feather-like accessory and is worn in the manner of the popular diadem. The smart trick for formal wear is something tucked in the hair — a flower, clip or comb.

Don't be afraid of anything daring in hairstyles, for this year they are built for ornamentation. Let a splurge of imagination make you a leader in spring fashion.

Prof. Ethan P. Allen of the political science department will speak at the Waukegan, Ill., public forum tomorrow night on the topic, "Government by Pressure Groups."

One million copies have been distributed, in six or seven different languages in the United States, Canada and Europe. Does this movement indicate that a new revival of religion may be in the offing, stimulated by the chaotic condition of modern life? The Rev. Did You Get Up at 3 This Morning?

If not, Read About Those Who Do—The Saturday Class Students

Did you creep out from under your warm blankets into the cold, black world at 3 o'clock this morning to get to a class on time? There are those who can answer "Yes" very emphatically. They are the Saturday class students.

This morning, before you picked up your paper, more than 600 students were on the highways leading to Iowa City, from every corner of the state and from North Dakota, Missouri, Wisconsin and Illinois. Some of them had to start last night, after working in an office all day, or after closing the door when the last little Johnnie or Mary had left the schoolroom.

How do Saturday class students get here? What hazards do they have to meet? Why did they decide to enroll for Saturday classes? Here is what they have to say about it themselves.

"I drive about 150 miles, sometimes over ice and snow, to come to the university," Dorothy Owen of Centerville replied. "Why? Well, for the pleasure of it and for contacting persons and professors. I like to hear ideas other than my own, too."

She is one of the 55 enrolled in a course under Prof. Louis Pelzer of the history department. Of this group, 22 have to leave home before 5 a.m. to arrive in Iowa City in time for the 8:10 class. They like it though, as evidenced by their remarks.

"For a change, and to break the monotony, those are my reasons for registering in Saturday class work," Clara Lynn, Columbus Junction, stated.

"I have registered for Saturday classes since 1934. In 1936, I received an M.A. degree, but for the last two years I have attended merely to broaden my knowledge and to meet a good class of people," A. F. Winters, Coal Valley, Ill., declared.

T. A. Baker, Wyoming, Ill., said that he enrolls for the professional growth and for advanced credits.

The number of students who are taking the course for advanced credit are in the majority, but here is what one of the minority has to say about it.

"Although doing office work, I am not employed on Saturday. Therefore it seemed a splendid opportunity to do a bit of work which I hope will broaden my outlook on various subjects," Harriet Struve of Cedar Rapids stated.

E. Dale Jones of Woolstock, 190 miles from here, took a unique trail the Saturday of the ice and snow. For if one had followed his tracks, one would have had to take to the ditch twice. But in the winter, this is a common hazard the students have to plan on if they would travel over 250 miles for an education.

Saturday classes meet approximately three weeks apart from Oct. 2 to March 26. The students prepare assignments at home adequate to occupy the time for the intervening periods. Courses such as music, history, graphic and plastic arts, chemistry, English and many others are offered. They give resident credit to those who desire to pursue regular vocations while studying toward a degree.

EXAMINATION SCHEDULE

First Semester 1937-1938

Saturday, Jan. 22, 8 a.m., to Saturday, Jan. 29, 12 m., 1938

The regular program of class work will be suspended, and the following semester-examination program substituted for it. Classes will meet for examination in the room in which they have been regularly meeting (except classes in SPECIAL GROUPS, A, B, C, D, E, F, and G, as shown in the form below; and Speech (1), (2), and (3) as shown at N. B. below).

The program Committee directs the attention of both students, and instructors and professors, to the regulation that there is to be no deviation from this schedule, in the case of any examination—except as authorized by the Committee on Admission and Classification on the student's written petition, filed in ample time and supported by the recommendation of the department concerned,—to provide relief from an excessive number of examinations within a single day. Deviation for the purpose of completing examinations earlier will not be permitted.

Each student who is absent from the final meeting of his class as indicated in the Examination Schedule should be reported, on the official grade sheet at the end of the semester, as "Abs." Before this grade mark can be removed he must file with the Committee on Admission and Classification a written petition, with adequate vouchers attached, setting forth in full the necessity of his absence. This petition must include a departmentally signed statement indicating whether, in case the Committee finds the absence excusable, the student has the department's and instructor's permission to take the final examination. If the Committee finds the reason for the absence adequate it will issue to the student a partially prepared special report card (signed by the Secretary, lower left corner) with a form letter explaining to him that he has the Committee's permission, with the departmental consent and at the convenience of the instructor, to take his final examination within one month (or other designated period of time) from the date indicated.

If the student takes the examination thus authorized the outcome is to be reported on this card and not on any other card.

In the cases of conflicts (within the SPECIAL GROUPS, A, B, C, D, E, F, and G) the Schedule itself, as presented below, provides a general method of making adjustments.

All classes whose first weekly meetings have occurred as indicated in the rectangles below, meet for examinations during the periods noted at the tops of these columns and on the days noted in the rectangles directly opposite at the left of the double vertical line.

Unless students are reasonably sure that their semester's work, including final examinations, is successful they are requested to call (within the 24-hour period following the conclusion of their final examinations) at the offices of the deans of men and women, appropriately, in order to learn whether any of their instructors have reported "Pd." for them; and if any student has reason to suspect that "Pd." will be his record for one or more courses, he is requested not to register until he learns that he has passed.

Sat. Jan. 22	SPECIAL GROUP A All sections of: Acct. (7), Math. (5), Bot. (1), Physics (1), Chem. (1), Physics (1) *except pre-medicals (For rooms see Department Bulletin Boards)

Tue. Jan. 25	SPECIAL GROUP C All sections of: Chem. (1) (Pre-medicals) Econ. (1) Home econ. (1) Econ. (3) Pol. sci. (1) A, B, C, D, E, F, and G (For rooms see Department Bulletin Boards)

Thu. Jan. 27	SPECIAL GROUP E All sections of: German (1) Spanish (51), (53) (For rooms see Department Bulletin Boards)
Fri. Jan. 28	SPECIAL GROUP F All sections of: Engl. (3), (4) (For rooms see Department Bulletin Boards)
Sat. Jan. 29	SPECIAL GROUP G All sections of: Psych. (1) (For rooms see Department Bulletin Board)

CONFLICTS: In case of conflicting examinations the student should report to the instructor in charge of the first of the two conflicting subjects as listed within the particular SPECIAL GROUP rectangle above which is involved. (Read downward first in left column and then in right column.) This instructor will arrange for you a special examination. Report to him, or her, not later than the regular class hour Jan. 17 or 18; if possible, Jan. 10 or 11.

The first meeting of the class means the first lecture or recitation period in courses having both lectures and recitations, and laboratory periods; or in the case of courses involving only laboratory periods, the first clock-hour of the first weekly meeting. For example, chemistry 21 meets for lectures T Th S at 8. The first meeting is, consequently, Tuesday at 8—and the class will meet for examination Monday, Jan. 24, 2-4, according to the tabular form above. Again, physics (125) meets twice each week, T F, for a three-hour laboratory exercise, 1-4. The period for the examination is, therefore, Friday, Jan. 28, 2-4.

N. B. All sections of freshman Speech (1), (2), and (3) will meet during the examination week on the days and at the periods designated below. Consult the bulletin board in room 13, Schaeffer Hall, for room assignments.

Saturday, January 22—Section H, 8-10; Speech (2), 8-10.
Monday, January 24—Section A, 1-3; Section E, 3-5.
Thursday, January 27—Section I, 8-10; Section C, 1-3; Section G, 3-5; Speech (3), 3-5.
Friday, January 28—Section D, 10-12; Section B, 1-3; Section F, 3-5.
Saturday, January 29—Section J, 10-12.

"ODD" classes, namely those whose first or only weekly meetings occur on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday or Saturday, or which meet "as arranged," will be assigned for examination as announced to each class by the instructor in charge of the class, at one or another of the following periods:

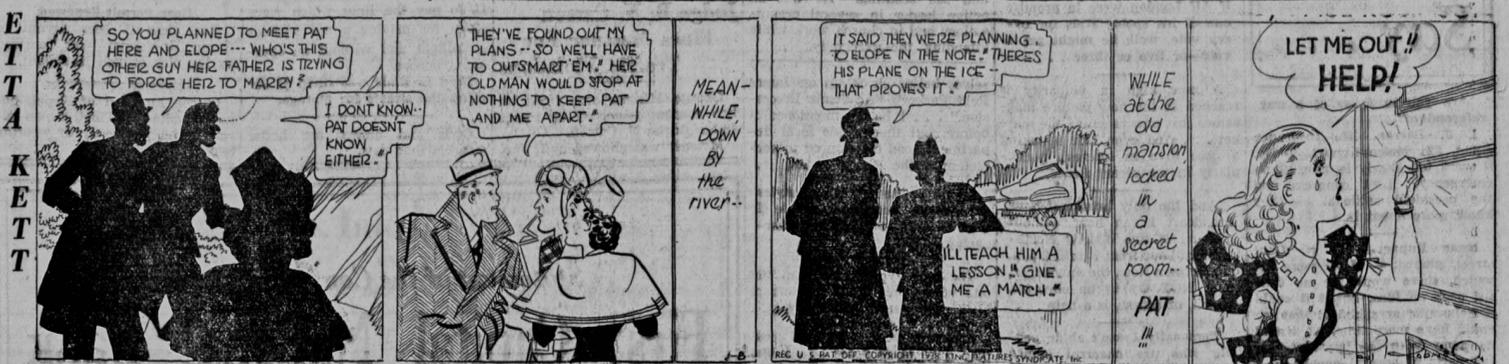

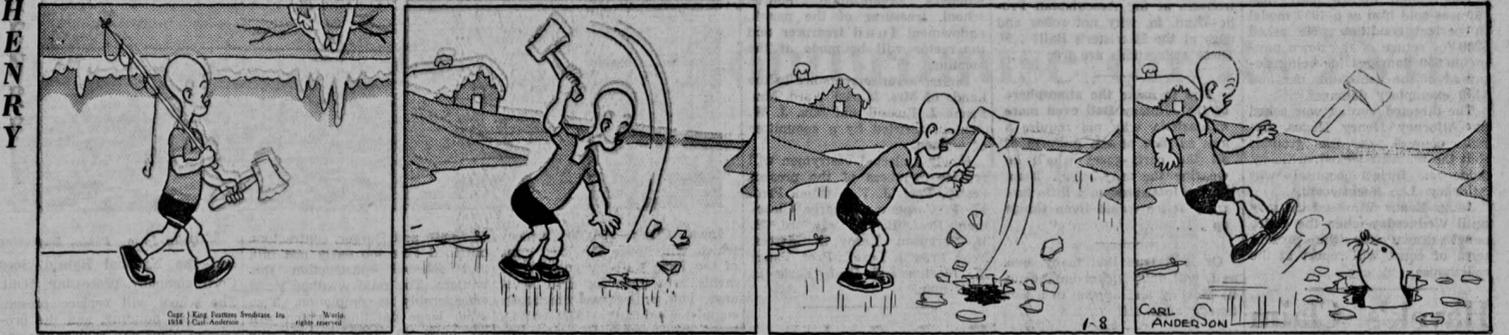

1. From 4 to 6 on any day from January 22 to January 28 inclusive.
2. Any one of the examination periods assigned, as indicated above, for the examinations in SPECIAL GROUPS, A, B, C, D, E, F, and G, since for such "odd" classes these five examination periods will be found quite available.

In connection with any such announcement it would doubtless be well for the instructor making the announcement to ascertain whether any member of his class is already under appointment for examination in some other class for the proposed period. To be sure, it is possible to have examinations in more than one class at any of these times.—If no student is a member of more than one of these classes.

According to one clause in the formal action providing for a special semester-examination program, "the student may use the examination period as he sees fit provided he holds the class for the full period. He may have an oral or a written examination, or both, or neither. He may continue regular work or he may stop the time for review, or for any phase of his work which may seem to him desirable at this time."

According to another faculty regulation, which is on record as adopted by the faculty, a student absent from the final examination should be reported "Abs."; unless the instructor recognizes that his work up to this examination has been a failure, in which case the final report should be "Pd."—even though the student may have been absent from the final examination. No examination should be given, subsequently, to such a student until after the absence has been excused by the Committee on Admission and Classification, as shown by a partially filled special report card signed by the secretary of the Committee, as indicating that the absence has been excused and that the student is authorized, subject to the consent and at the convenience of the instructor concerned, to take the final examination.

H. C. DORCAS, Secretary Program Committee.

Damage Suit Goes to Jury

Judge H. Evans Directs Jury in Favor Of Defendant

Sustaining a motion for a directed verdict, Judge Harold D. Evans yesterday instructed the jury to decide a $400 damage suit case—outgrowth of alleged misrepresentation in the sale of an automobile—in favor of the defendant, Durbin Downey.

Lloyd Ihrig, who brought the action, stated that a used 1936 car was sold him as a 1937 model in perfect condition. He asked $200 for return of the down payment, $50 damages for being deprived of the use of his car and $150 exemplary damages.

The directed verdict was asked by Attorney Henry Negus, defense counsel, on the grounds that the plaintiff lacked sufficient evidence. Ihrig's counsel was Attorney Lee Farnsworth.

Judge Evans dismissed the jury until Wednesday when the entire panel drawn for the present term of court will report at the courthouse.

Hayek's Claim To Committee

Asks $750 for Services In Damage Suit Assistance

A $750 claim by Atty. Will J. Hayek for services rendered during the recent $15,000 damage suit against Iowa City was referred to the claims committee by the city council last night.

Attorney Hayek assisted the defense against the Burns and McDonnell Engineering company of Kansas City, Mo., during the hearing in district court here.

City Council Refers $300 Awning Injury Claim to Committee

The claim of Evelyn Hoefle for $300 damages for injuries allegedly incurred when she was struck by a falling awning in the business district two months ago was referred to the claims committee by the city council last night.

She asks the money for hospitalization, doctor's bills and time lost from work.

So They Say . . .

Are you in favor of a war referendum?
I. J. Barron, life insurance agent, 321 Melrose court. — No, it work too slowly in case of an emergency. Let congress and the president settle it — they know more about it.

Irene Ruppert, 619 N. Linn street, pianist. — If we were invaded, there would be no time for such an idea, but if it could somehow be arranged so that we could have more time, we would do away with the "pushing" on the parts of several people.

Virginia Piester, A4 of Des Moines, 308 N. Clinton street. — Yes, if they left it up to the people there wouldn't be a war — at least people would not be in favor of it. I think it's wrong to let representatives in congress decide just what to do in every instance.

Paul Feddersen, Chicago, salesman. — Yes; in the first place I do not believe in war, and I think the general public does not believe in war — it's merely propaganda that creates it to a great extent.

Ethel Covert, 925 E. Washington street. — I don't know, but I don't think people can think for themselves — those at the heads of the various offices can settle it much better.

Maury Wiss, A1 of Davenport, 619 E. Fairchild street. — Yes, the people themselves know more about what they want to do than those few people representing them in congress.

Arthur Leff, 327 Lee street, attorney. — No, it is too cumbersome a subject, and there is so much public opinion. I'd rather leave it to the people that know about it.

Mary Ellen Coast, 106 E. Fairchild street, clerk. — Yes, the general public should have more to say about what they themselves are going to get into.

E. E. Menefee, 406 S. Dubuque street, life insurance agent. — That's a hard question to answer, but I think it would lead to more complications.

AROUND THE TOWN

with MERLE MILLER

Uniform
For the sake of uniformity at university parties, I have a few suggestions . . . Why not white caps and gowns at the Caps Caprice—medical coats and white trousers at the Aesculapian Frolic—And, lo, why not robes and wigs at the Barrister's Ball? . . . These suggestions are free . . .

And to make the atmosphere of the Military Ball even more militaristic, why not require a gun as part of the uniform of all the party-goers who'll be wearing the m. s.? . . . Then, during intermission, a little target practice would liven things up . . .

Or is it true that many, even as I, will delay ticket-buying until Monday and appear in a sane tuxedo after all?

Dubious
And yesterday's mail brought a rather dubious fan note: "I enjoy reading your column every morning," he wrote . . . "I can postpone waking up until I've finished."

Who was it who defined law as the profession where you begin with ideals and end making deals?

A hiss to the Des Moines Register editorialist who defined Justice Sutherland as a liberal . . . He was the reactionary of reactionaries and a big business sympathizer as well . . .

Island
For a desert island of solitude, I'd select Maugham's "Of Human Bondage," Lewis' "Arrow-smith," and Voltaire's "Candide." . . . If there were room for a book of poetry, I'd include Complete Works of Alexander Pope . . .

And for a private desert island, I'd suggest Mr. Carnegie—Dale—and Mr. Douglass—Lloyd . . . Both of whom should sell their works by the pound rather than the book . . .

Charles Michelson, the democratic press agent, has announced a Hoover-for-president boom is underway . . . All the new dealers are awfully glad about the whole thing . . . And if Al Landon were to promise one of his spring tries for every vote, well, he might get a vote—or two or three . . .

A new high in vulgarity is reached in the new picture magazines just now reaching the market . . . And even Life is taking a nose dive in interest, particularly in the recent issues.

And the only breakfast-hour broadcast I can hear without gagging is the WMAQ Northwestern hour from 7 until 8 a.m. . . . Norman Ross, the announcer, does NOT try to be cheerful, which, of course, is a help . . .

Personally I can't abide people who are cheerful before breakfast . . . All of them should be put in padded cells along side all those who tell questionable jokes in mixed company . . .

Pronounce
Because I've heard three faculty professors of high standing mis-say them in the last week, I'll mention that in both "status" and "data" the "a" is pronounced as in date . . .

Glimpse
Faculty people who might want to get a good glimpse of them—

New $65,000 Armory for Iowa City Guardsmen

Iowa City's $65,000 armory which will house the local units of the Iowa National guard regiments, was open for drill Monday. This project was practically completed during 1937; only some minor work is being finished inside. The Iowa City firm of Smith and Burger, contractors, obtained the job early last fall, and speeded construction this winter. The mild weather aided considerably its completion. Two other large buildings which will be built in 1938 include the $725,000 Iowa City high school

Continued Railroad Service Promised Lone Tree Citizens

Continued railroad pickup service was insured Lone Tree when the Rock Island lines amended its application to discontinue rail service between Muscatine and Iowa Junction at a hearing before an examiner for the interstate commerce commission at Muscatine.

The hearing was held and evidence taken following the appearance of all interested parties. The case was submitted to the examiner, and a decision is expected within 60 days.

The Lone Tree Business Men's association, represented by Attorney William R. Hart, withdrew its objections to the railroad's request when the application was amended.

Figures Give Damage Not Covered By Insurance

A loss of $136,308 from fires not covered by insurance was shown in the report filed yesterday with City Clerk Grover Watson by Fire Chief James J. Clark.

Chief Clark said the figures in his report for December are the estimated losses because the final figures for the fire at the National Hybrid Corn company have not been determined by the insurance companies.

The chief's report showed that a loss of $52,534 on buildings and $321,794 on contents was sustained during the month. The department answered 27 calls in that period.
