England Moves Toward Peace

Two Countries Are Considered In Early Move

Prime Minister Tells Of Armament Plans For English

LONDON, March 5 (AP) — Great Britain, having proclaimed to the world the vastness of her armed might, tonight sent her terms for friendship to Italy and prepared her demands to Germany as the price of a general European appeasement.

The Earl of Perth, British ambassador to Italy, left for Rome with full instructions from Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain and Viscount Halifax, foreign secretary.

The groundwork also was laid for parallel talks with Germany through a conference yesterday of Sir Neville Henderson, British ambassador to Germany, with Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler and German Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop in Berlin.

These were expected to get under way actively when von Ribbentrop, former German ambassador to London, comes here next Wednesday to take leave of his post and also to see Chamberlain and Lord Halifax.

At the same time the prime minister has set into motion his new "realistic" diplomacy, he has disclosed how far Britain has pushed her mammoth rearmament program in a year and what still is to come.

In this, Chamberlain has shown the government may spend even more than the originally planned 1,500,000,000 pounds ($7,500,000,000) for the five-year defense plan instead of trimming rearmament sails in anticipation of the success of his foreign policy.

The new defense estimates, however, took into consideration the possibility of slowing down rearmament if Chamberlain's approach to the fascist and nazi rulers should succeed.

How much confidence parliament places in this possibility probably will be shown in debate Monday in the house of commons on the defense estimates for the 1938-39 fiscal year starting April 1.

Meanwhile, the need for haste was emphasized to peace-seeking diplomats by rumblings in central Europe's powder keg because of post-war frontier revisions.

Czechoslovakia, regaining her confidence after French assurance continued protection, has warned Hitler she will not submit like Austria to nazi interference in her internal affairs.

Yale Professor Seen for Post

WASHINGTON, March 5 (AP) — Professor Thurman W. Arnold of the Yale law school is Attorney General Cummings' choice to succeed Robert H. Jackson as the government's chief anti-trust prosecutor.

Jackson was sworn in today as solicitor general, whose duty is to represent the government before the supreme court.

The attorney general immediately announced he had asked his old and good friend, Professor Arnold, to become assistant attorney general in charge of the anti-trust division. Cummings said he would recommend the appointment to President Roosevelt as soon as he received word that Arnold would accept.

At New Haven, Arnold said, "I shall probably accept subject to consultation with university authorities."

The law professor was Cummings' special assistant in 1936 and later served in the tax and anti-trust divisions of the justice department.

A native of Wyoming and once mayor of Laramie, he is 46 years old. He represented the government in the first suits to test the constitutionality of the agricultural adjustment act.

He also has been a trial examiner for the securities exchange commission, legal advisor to the governor general of the Philippines, and a member of the advisory committee to the Wickersham commission in 1930-31.

Big Road! Would Cross State East and West

WASHINGTON, March 5 (AP) — A super-highway with 300-foot right-of-way and no speed limits would cross Iowa on a bee-line from a point south of Clinton to Council Bluffs if pending legislation should be approved by congress.

A proposal by Representative Snyder (D-Pa.), goes into great detail, designating key cities on suggested routes.

In Iowa, Council Bluffs is the only city designated. However, under the straight line system he advocated, the highway, enroute from Chicago on a Boston-Salem, Ore., route, would enter the state a few miles south of Clinton.

A bee-line across the map to Council Bluffs would put the highway south of DeWitt and north of Iowa City; south of Marengo, Grinnell, Des Moines and Atlantic, into Council Bluffs.

Police Search for Peter Levine's Body

NEW ROCHELE, N. Y., March 5 (AP) — Uncertain whether hoax or terrible truth confronted them, New York police turned to a Bronx lake today in search for the body of 12 year old Peter Levine, missing since Feb. 24 and believed to have been kidnapped.

Distracted by the possibility their son was dead, Murray Levine, New York attorney, and his wife waited at home, praying the search would be fruitless and Peter would be returned for $30,000 ransom.

Search of the lake followed police receipt of three anonymous telephone calls from widely separated parts of New York City even as Levine sought anew to make a contact with the supposed abductors.

Acting Captain William J. Sullivan said the messages which sent the police to Indian lake in Crotona park might be the work of a hoaxer, but they would be investigated nevertheless.

On the lake bank, drawn in the snow, was a message: "Find Levine boy in middle of lake."

A crudely made arrow pointed towards the lake which is 600 feet long and 300 feet wide. Two emergency crews were called and began grappling, but after three hours, the work stopped. It was suggested that the lake be drained. This would require two days.

Meanwhile there was inactivity at the Levine home, where ransom of $30,000 was ready. Levine refused to say whether Rabbi Abraham Nowak, to whom the last ransom note was addressed, was serving as intermediary.

Willkie, whose company has large interests in the TVA area, made public a letter to the federal power official in which he said: "If your proposal involves the purchase of these properties as going concerns—that is, the purchase of a complete unit and not merely parts of one—it is an acceptance of what I have long advocated and offers a genuine basis for settlement."

The commonwealth and southern officials asked that, while negotiations are in progress, the public works administration refrain from making gifts to finance proposed municipal power plants, and that no utility properties be duplicated during a similar period.

Willkie also proposed creation of "an independent" committee to consider the entire question of the sale of commonwealth and southern properties in the TVA region.

He warned he and his ministers were ready to quit unless parliament were prepared for "voluntary discipline" to aid the government toward greater freedom of action to deal with the foreign situation.

He asked the nation quickly to over-subscribe the first 3,200,000-franc ($104,000,000) loan to be floated "within a few days" to show the people's readiness to support military force.

An army spokesman said 20,000 Chinese soldiers were captured in northwest Honan province above the Yellow river at a point behind Japan's advance column.

Further west in Shansi province Japanese declared 1,800 Chinese were wiped out in the rugged territory between Fengyang and Tsingyuan.

The Japanese front line captured Wensi in southern Shansi where Japan's advance toward Sianfu, the Chinese red stronghold, has been hampered by Chinese attempts to outflank the invading army.

While the central armies fought to keep the Japanese above the Yellow river, Japan's forces along the Yangtze were reinforced apparently for a long-range drive against Hankow, temporary seat of the Chinese government.

At least a full division, completely mechanized, was added to the Japanese force west of Wuhu leading military observers to believe a drive would start on this sector as soon as heavy rains abate.

The Japanese warships were reported by Chinese to be shelling shore defenses in preparation for the attack about 175 miles east of Hankow.

Death Roster Climbs to 158 In Southern California Deluge

Artists Dine Turkey Lures Painters From Murals

KANSAS CITY, March 5 (AP) — It was the realistic artistry of the kitchen that occupied Painters Thomas H. Benton, Grant Wood and John Steuart Curry here today at their first visit together in five years.

Into the picture was woven a roasted turkey, a baked Missouri ham and spaghetti.

The three artists who paint their midwestern environs as they see them, by their own admission spent their non-eating moments in panning—not planning—murals.

Paintings of Frankie and Johnny, among others in the Missouri capitol murals, brought fame and letters of indignation to Benton. Curry has been commissioned to do the murals for the Kansas statehouse. Wood's "American Gothic" and "The Threshers" are explained by his Iowa background.

Private Power Concerns, TVA May Negotiate

WASHINGTON, March 5 (AP) — The Tennessee valley authority waded a well-filled purse at private power companies in southeastern states today and told them to "come and get it" if they were willing to sell out on the basis of what President Roosevelt calls "prudent investment."

David E. Lilienthal, young director at odds with Chairman Arthur E. Morgan of the TVA, announced the proposed purchases and invited interested utility officials to meet him and Vice Chairman Harcourt A. Morgan at a conference at Chattanooga, Tenn., on March 11.

He said the proposed purchases virtually would put private power enterprise out of business in northern Alabama, northeastern Mississippi and about all of Tennessee. He added that, in event cities were unable financially to float bond issues to buy local facilities, the TVA would stake them from a $50,000,000 fund made available by congress in the amended TVA act.

Wendell L. Willkie, president of the commonwealth and southern corporation, wrote Lilienthal immediately that he would be delighted to resume negotiations concerning certain properties in the Tennessee valley.

Willkie, whose company has large interests in the TVA area, made public a letter to the federal power official in which he said: "If your proposal involves the purchase of these properties as going concerns—that is, the purchase of a complete unit and not merely parts of one—it is an acceptance of what I have long advocated and offers a genuine basis for settlement."

Federal Agency Ready To Buy Firms; Meet Soon

Coroner Seeks To Solve Mystery Of Mummified Corpse

DES MOINES, Ia., March 5 (AP)—Coroner A. E. Shaw took the headless body of a young girl, found in the basement of a residence here last Thursday, to a medical laboratory late today in an effort to find some clue to her identity or how she met death.

The body, almost mummified by age, was found in a sealed basement room in the home of William E. Robb, not far from Drake university here.

The coroner said the girl, whom he identified as about 16 years old, had been dead from 25 to 35 years.

He scouted theories that the body might be a cadaver stolen from the now defunct school of medicine of the university, abandoned 25 years ago.

Nazis Ready For Colonies

Academy Drafts Laws For Non-Existent Possessions

BERLIN, March 5 (AP)—Nazi jurists, confident that colonies for Germany are just around the corner, already have begun to draft laws to govern life in overseas possessions.

Restoration of Germany's war-torn empire—seven times the size of the fatherland—is an integral part of nazi foreign policy which now is looking toward conversations with Great Britain.

The civil service committee of the academy for German law is at work on a code regulating working conditions, rights, privileges, duties and pensions of government employees assigned to Germany's as yet non-existent colonies.

The annual spring fair which opens at Leipzig tomorrow heavily emphasizes colonies. Special tropical equipment, including everything from tropical agricultural machinery to typewriters specially designed to resist hot, damp climates, will be exhibited.

In view of Germany's fat shortage, special attention has been given to new appliances for extracting edible oils from tropical plants.

Weather Disheartening To the thousands who are so engaged, and to hundreds of thousands of others who suffered losses and discomfort, today's weather forecast was disheartening.

A new storm area is forming off the coast, the weather bureau said. Officially the forecast was for "increasing cloudiness tonight, becoming unsettled Sunday."

"A secondary low pressure area from the main storm area in the Aleutian islands has swung as far south as the California coast," Meteorologist L. H. Daingerfield said.

Business in Los Angeles was proceeding normally little by little. Roads, communication lines and railroads were being repaired.

Other sections, however, still were isolated. The Santa Ana river, which raged over its banks at Santa Ana and Riverside, was falling today and no further damage was expected.

Ex-Editor Confesses Treason; Plotted Overthrow of Soviet

MOSCOW, March 5 (AP) — Nikolai Bucharin, second only to Leon Trotsky as the Soviet-designated arch-devil of the Bolshevik revolution, tonight made a sweeping confession of all crimes charged against him in Russia's greatest treason trial.

With outspread arms, Bucharin pleaded guilty to all the charges, "even those I did not know about because I was the leader and not the switchman."

The one-time chronicler of the red revolution said he was guilty of "belonging to a Rightist-Trotskyist bloc, having been leader of a rightist organization illegal since 1928, and all crimes committed by that organization."

The purpose of all the confessed conspiracy, was the restoration of capitalism to Russia, he declared.

"Germany, Japan and partially England," were the foreign powers he said the plotters sought to enlist with promises of Soviet territory in return for aiding in the dismemberment of Russia.

Though admitting full responsibility for the entire conspiracy, Bucharin denied numerous details saying he had not given approval to spying, wrecking or sabotage but was "occupied with the general supervision of the ideological side."

Both Bucharin and Alexis Rykoff, former premier and a fellow defendant, said they had nothing to do with the assassination of Sergei Kiroff, Joseph Stalin's right-hand man, in 1934.

"Bucharin and Rykoff lie," retorted another defendant, Genrikh G. Yagoda, one-time head of the dread secret political police. "We did not want to do it, but we yielded to Trotsky's insistence."

Yagoda admitted he knew of the plot against Kiroff but ordered the chief of the Leningrad secret police to do nothing about it.

Rakovsky said he worked for overthrow of Stalin's regime in coordination with Japanese and British intelligence services, adding that Trotsky too was in service of the British organization.

Serve Warrant Upon Bridges, C. I. O. Leader

WASHINGTON, March 5 (AP) — Federal immigration authorities served a deportation warrant today upon Harry Bridges, CIO maritime union leader, who promptly declared the charges against him were made by "convicted felons, stool pigeons and perjured witnesses."

The warrant, served upon Bridges in Baltimore, was issued under a law requiring deportation of aliens who are members of or affiliated with groups advocating overthrow of the government by force.

Foes of the Australian-born union leader contend he is a communist.

A hearing to determine whether he should be deported was scheduled for April 25 in San Francisco.

"I welcome this hearing," Bridges declared in a statement issued through CIO headquarters here. "It will end once and for all the campaign of witch-hunting and red-baiting which has been directed against me as president of the CIO longshoremen."

Bridges charged that "ship owners and their allies have tried every device in their vicious attempt to break the organization of the workers in the maritime industry," and predicted that "this final attempt will be completely exposed at the forthcoming hearings in San Francisco."

FLIP-FLOP Car Somersaults On Icy Pavement

PERU, Ind., March 5 (AP)—Ira Watts' automobile skidded on icy pavement, overturned, and righted itself near here.

He examined the car and found only a crushed top and broken glass. He started again, thinking he was headed for Peru, but he arrived shortly at Kokomo. The car had righted itself in the opposite direction.

Watts, owner and manager of the Parker and Watts circus, Emporia, Kan., was unhurt.

Newswomen Burlesque F.D.R. Mrs. Roosevelt Attends Annual Stunt Party; Sees Self Impersonated

WASHINGTON, March 5 (AP) — Capital newspaperwomen burlesqued the administration's recent conferences with business tonight in a stage battle between Franklin De Layno, "everybody's hero," and Miss Lotta Business, his alleged sweetheart.

While Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt and prominent women from over the country looked on, the stage "lovers" knocked each other out with brass knuckles.

Mrs. Roosevelt, a new member of the National Women's Press club and honor guest at its annual stunt party, also saw herself depicted as a complainant against the president, who was called Mrs. Roosevelt's husband, in a case before a mythical marital relations board.

The skit showed the first lady protesting that her husband hadn't paid her wages under a "Caraway wives wage act." The stage president retorted that she had "had more money out of this job than I have—where's it gone?" To her reply that she gave it all away, "Mrs. Roosevelt's husband" wailed that his wife knew "what a jam" he and Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau were in.

The first lady's recent semibobbing of her hair and occasional use of rouge and lipstick were also targets of the news writers' humor. A beauty operator called the White House to tell the first lady that false eyelashes she had ordered had arrived.

"They're lovely—an inch and a half long and bright red," said the actress.

The writers based another skit on the movie "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," and Senator Norris' statement Friday that he would like to see Robert H. Jackson, new solicitor-general, become president.

"Snow White Bob Jackson," appeared when the "wicked Queen Monopoly" implored her magic mirror to name "the fair-haired boy of all."

"My friends," began "Snow White Jackson" into a microphone. "Cut," yelled a director. "Your sponsor's still using that line."

Rivkin Leads Debate Tourney

William Rivkin, Al of Davenport, representative of the University of Iowa in the debate contest of the invitational speech tournament, ranked the highest of all individual speakers in the tournament. The Iowa debate affirmative and negative teams lead by winning nine out of 10 debates.

The results of the debate division of the tourney are announced as the affirmative and negative teams in the upper 25 per cent and the upper 25 per cent of the individual speakers.

In the men's tournament the schools in the upper section were University of Iowa, University of Texas, University of Alabama, and Iowa State Teachers college.

The high group of negative teams in the men's section were, University of Iowa, Carleton college and the University of Texas. The high-ranking individual speakers, regardless of the side of the question or the number of victories, are Rivkin, Iowa; Joe Neal, Texas; Addison Kistler, Iowa; Thomas Mulligan, Notre Dame;

Getting a Degree To Get a Job

TRULY THE pot of gold at the foot of every undergraduate's rainbow is a good job. It is a little pot, small and far away to the underclassman, but as the final year rolls around, it approaches, swelling in size until it blots out lesser concerns.

Critics who brush aside the value of college as training for the business world have not been wanting. Others with more sympathy, but with little more optimism, have pointed out that business reversed the "Welcome" side of the door-mat down in 1929.

In spite of this, every now and then an encouraging fact or opinion will shine out of the gloom. Such a light is the unemployment survey made by an insurance company only last month.

Briefly, investigators found that of 4,000 jobless listed with middle western employment agencies, only 40 were college graduates.

Obviously an investigation based only on the records of employment agencies cannot be 100 per cent accurate. It should be sufficiently exact, however, to illustrate the more recent employment trends in this section of the country.

Figures like these speak more convincingly than the oracles of unemployment. They make no attempt to show how many graduates were temporarily successful in wedging a foot in some employer's door.

Rather, they reflect the measure of permanent adjustment; they show that few college graduates have been forced into the open labor market. Surely this fact is not without significance.

In a sense the number of unemployed graduates represents the score for college training. It is the most tangible measure of how the average graduate rates with the economic and professional worlds.

The score is always changing. Each graduate adds to or detracts from the estimated value of every other graduate who is to come after him. Thus employment opportunities are not altogether the result of dips and peaks in the price of stocks and steel.

In the long run they are equally dependent upon the estimated value of the college graduate as a class.

Recently published statistics reveal that India has at least 2,500,000 different kinds of insects. This only increases our puzzlement as to why Great Britain continues to hang on to it.

Hastening To the Grave

FEB. 19 the four Russian scientists—Papanin, Federoff, Shirshoff and Krenkel—were rescued from an ice floe after wandering aimlessly through the Arctic seas for almost nine months.

all denounced the prisoners as "beasts" and "spies" and said that nothing could save them.

These "beasts" and "spies" were once heroes, too. Among them is Nikolai Bucharin, former editor of Izvestia and known as the official chronicler of the red revolution. There is Alexis I. Rykoff, former president of the council of commissioners—the Russian equivalent of prime minister—who succeeded Nikolai Lenin.

There is Fayulla Khodjiaeff, former president of the Uzbek republic, and even Genrikh Yagoda, one-time chief of the secret police. Among the others are five former cabinet members.

What could such prominent men have done to incur this disgrace and vituperation?

"Trotsky and Bucharin gathered forces for decades to overthrow the Soviet power," Izvestia said, adding that "nothing and nobody will save the prisoners." Thus the government-controlled press condemns them.

Red Star charged that Bucharin and the other alleged conspirators stole secret army plans which they sold to fascist powers. Thus speaks the official organ of the Soviet army.

Pravda said that the accused would go dearly for the lives of Maxim Gorky, the famous writer, Vyacheslav Menzhinsky, once head of the secret police, and Valerian V. Kuisbissheff, chief of the first five year plan.

The deaths of these three, previously laid to natural causes, were part of the murder-treason charges on which the accused are being tried. Thus the communist publication makes its accusations.

If these papers are to be believed, and if tradition is followed, 21 Russian leaders will die before the muzzles of their comrades' rifles.

Twenty-one men will die because they had ambition—ambition to rise above the mob, ambition which brought them the enmity of other men in power.

Papanin, Federoff, Shirshoff and Krenkel had ambitions, too.

As loud volleys of rifle fire sound the death knell for this current batch of Russian "traitors," perhaps the new heroes may be reminded of a passage from the English poet, Thomas Gray: "The boasts of heraldry, the pomp of power. And all that beauty, all that wealth e'er made, Awaits alike the inevitable hour. The paths of glory lead but to the grave."

Zadok Dumbkopf says he has a cousin who has made a success of his profession by always threatening his fellow workers with a beating. He's a lion tamer.

The human ear cannot hear many of the notes sounded by song birds. When we're trying to sleep late, it's just as well.

EVOLUTION OF AMERICA

TWO LEAFLETS, alighting by chance on the same desk, have a story to tell of America's evolution from pioneer times to these latter days. One is "Connecticut Woodlands," a publication of the Connecticut forest and park association. The other deals with the "Death Valley National Monument" and is gotten out by the national park service.

The early European inhabitants of Connecticut wouldn't have been thrilled by the snow scene, their houses were too cold, the question of the food supply too close. They would have been longing for April. For the western pioneers Death valley was a land of thirst and intolerable heat, a lunar region, weird and unearthly, into which transcontinental travelers or prospectors ventured at their peril.

The memories of early dangers and hardships lasted well down into our own time. Not until recently have we known what to do with such perpetual deserts as Death valley or such temporary ones as the winter-bound New England uplands.

Now we have discovered both their beauty and their thrills. Skiing enthusiasts make pilgrimages to the Berkshires or plunge down the appalling slopes of Tuckerman's ravine or Mt. Mansfield. A generation ago New Englanders put away their skates when they reached years of disreputation. Now many a gray-haired father and even grandfather may be seen cutting figure eights. The desert is still ready to shite the unwary. In summer, the traveler fond of his ease will not willingly venture there. In winter, following the proper routes, he may safely do so, and he will be rewarded. In desert dawns, as in sunsets over snow-buried mountains, he will see a flaming exuberant world that seems still in the making.

Methods of Giving Children Training in Correct Posture

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

The general methods of improving posture in children we mentioned yesterday. These include proper springs and mattresses on the bed, plenty of fresh air, general outdoor exercise, sunshine and proper nourishment.

Special methods are exercises designed to improve the muscles of the shoulders and spine, throw the shoulders back and develop the natural spinal curves. Attention to footwear is most important, because a considerable proportion of bad posture is due to faulty development of the feet.

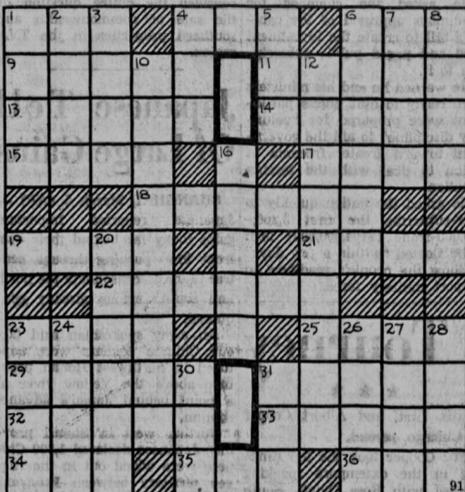

Other special methods are: Relaxation: A child with bad posture should be taught to relax and, as a matter of fact, the adult with bad posture can learn the same lesson. The way to do it is to loosen up both physically and mentally, banish active thought except that of letting go all tension in the muscles of the body. Your dog or your cat will teach you how to stretch and then how to let the muscles go.

Avoid Bad Habits Avoid bad habits and incorrect sitting postures! Not only during school, but in the pre-school period, the child's furniture should be conducive to erect instead of slouching posture, and a position which opens up the chest and abdomen for adequate breathing. I think a great deal too much is made of this, and I am by no means convinced that a curled-up child or a child in a slouching position is necessarily laying the foundations for bad posture unless he naturally has a bad posture anyway and the slouching position is a result of that.

Correcting errors of vision and nasal obstruction: These may be possible and very important factors in bad posture, and all the exercise in the world will not compensate for a bad astigmatism or a pair of large adenoids.

Tuning In with Betty Harpel

Did you know that Little Jack Little wrote "It Was Only A Shanty in Old Shantytown" which he played Friday night? And another thing—Did you notice that Little Jack Little was one of the few band leaders to play for an audience in the afternoon in the main lounge of Iowa Union before playing for a dance at night. A hundred or so gathered to hear him practice.

Heard tell that Hal Kemp was in town the other day. He was royally wine and dined at the Elks and in return played the piano for his hosts the major part of the evening. They are putting positively everything on the air these days. For those with sporting blood, WABC put on a race between toy trains. At the switches were Errol Flynn and Walter Connolly.

Among the new raves is the song, "Under the Shade of a New Apple Tree." Heard it? Sidney Ellstrom, of the "It Can Be Done" cast, really was a hard working man in his first commercial radio job. He did all voices including the dogs in a local Chicago show entitled "Captain Jimmy and his Dog, Scottie."

A phenomenal record has been set by the "Dick Tracy" Secret Service Patrol Club. It had more than a quarter of a million members in the first month of its existence. As this goes to press, the membership nears the half-million mark.

Cooking Course for Boys MUSCATINE (AP) — Twenty-two Muscatine high school boys are learning how to cook. The school established a domestic science course for boys at their request. They said they believed the course would help them if they went to college and stayed at a cooperative dormitory or roomed out and did their own cooking. Some of the boys said they helped with the cooking at home. Others described it as a hobby.

Humanist Society The Humanist society meeting originally scheduled for March 7 will be held March 14. SECRETARY

To Students in the graduate college expecting to receive higher degrees at the university convocation June 6, 1938: Each student in the graduate college who expects to receive the master's degree, or the doctorate, at the forthcoming June Convocation, is requested, so far as he or she may not have done so heretofore, to procure for us, immediately the official transcript of whatever graduate work he may have accomplished in another graduate school; so that this may be taken into the account in determining whether he or she fulfills the requirements for the higher degree sought.

This should be done immediately since, otherwise, it is possible that we shall be unable to certify for graduation next June a student who may have accomplished satisfactory graduate work elsewhere, just because we shall not have received the requisite official statement of it early enough.

Respectfully, H. C. DORCAS Registrar

Elman Concert The final program of the university concert course will be presented by Mischa Elman, violinist, Monday, March 7, at 8 p.m. in Iowa Union. Tickets may be obtained at the Union desk or room 15, music studio building, Extension 8179. Address mail orders to C. B. Righter, music department. C. B. RIGHTER, Concert Manager

University Vespers Rabbi Leo Jung of the Jewish center, New York, brother of Prof. Moses Jung, will speak at a university vespers Sunday, March 6, at 8 p.m., in Iowa Union. His subject will be "Sinai and Washington." Professor Jung will serve as chaplain. Music will be furnished by the university musical organizations. The public is invited. SENATE BOARD ON VESPERS

A Man ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Alexander Woolcott's debut as a full-fledged dramatic actor in "Wine of Choice" was an interesting first night event.

There was something intriguing in the idea of this ex-critic appearing before his former colleagues in actor's clothing. It suggested the parallel of that nose Mexican general who elected to face his own firing squad. And not one in that audience of famous names, ermine wraps, and raised eyebrows could tell how it would turn out.

Happily, Mr. Woolcott is a man whose talents are not limited to a single field. As a critic he was esteemed; as an author, honored. But this donning great-paint was a clinical experiment which the probers of the drama watched with rapt attention.

Actor Woolcott Mr. Woolcott, I think, carried the greater share of audience interest at last night's showing; comments one reviewer. "He has gained both in stature and self-possession and he speaks with conviction... and that nice sense for rhetorical values that is his gift. It may be because of personal interest, but I find Actor Woolcott a fascinating study. I can not for the life of me understand why, being rich and independent, he wants to act."

Meanwhile another of Mr. Woolcott's ex-conferees was happy to find him "detached from that twin sofa on which he languished so eloquently" eight years ago in another comedy in which he appeared briefly. "He plays a gossip busybody... and though he is more acted against than acting, he recovered from his first act jitters to finish with complete aplomb, suggesting, indeed, by his impetuous humors, the stabbing comedy of his idol, the lamented Mrs. Fiske, under full sail."

Poor Play But if Mr. Woolcott was accorded a red posey, Mr. S. N. Behrman, as author, escaped less fortunately. "There is little to praise," suggested a third reviewer, "beyond a taut and sparkling performance by a band of first-rate professional actors with the portly Alexander Woolcott tossed in for gormongly full measure."

Washington World By CHARLES P. STEWART WASHINGTON, D. C. — When the Roosevelt administration came into power it adopted a policy tending to increase prices, evidently on the theory that the depression was due, at least in part, to the fact that they were too low for the common good at that juncture.

Much more recently the White House announced that prices were too high again, resulting in the recession from the previous business recovery.

This news scarcely was cold before another announcement was forthcoming from the executive mansion to the effect that some prices, anyway, once more were too low, thus retarding recovery.

Now word leaks out that about April 1 the Federal Trade Commission, which, at President Roosevelt's request, has been investigating food and clothing prices, will report that "monopolistic practices" have unduly boosted living costs in many lines, and that is what's the matter with our economics. A presidential message on the subject is expected before congress adjourns.

Our Trouble? Colonel Frank Knox, in a recent broadcast, pointed to one of the most obvious and perchance the most essential of the dislocations in our system. The colonel's talk was to the purport that we suffer from the subsidizing of a certain class of our producers at the expense of others. What he plainly meant to say was that our urban industry has been subsidized indirectly, by tariff protection, at the expense of agriculture.

Our manufacturers do not over-produce. Our big ones are only a small group. They get together easily, in a roomful. They produce, among them, enough for our home market, and protection prevents foreign manufacturers from competing with them domestically. They may compete in foreign markets, but not here. We may prohibit them, by law, from combining on American prices, but we cannot compel them to over-produce; so they keep domestic prices up automatically.

Farmers are not so easy to restrain. There are too many of them, and they are too individualistic.

Mischa Elman, Violin Virtuoso, To Conclude Concert Season

Program for Tomorrow To Include Period Compositions

Concluding this season's series of university concert course programs, Mischa Elman, violin virtuoso, will appear in concert tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the main lounge of Iowa Union.

In some of the most intricate of violin technicalities, Mr. Elman will display that tone quality which sets him apart from all other violinists.

Arranging his program to include compositions from different periods, Mr. Elman has chosen selections of Handel, Brahms, Bach, Chausson and Kreisler for his program.

In similar manner he has selected compositions that emphasize technique and those in which broad and flowing tone is uppermost so as to satisfy the various preferences of violin music lovers.

Vladimir Padwa, pianist, will accompany Mr. Elman.

The program follows:

- Sonata No. 5 in A major ..... Handel
  - Adagio ..... Brahms
  - Allegro ..... Brahms
  - Largo ..... Brahms
  - Allegro ..... Brahms
  - Sonata in G major, opus 78 ..... Brahms
  - Vivace ma non troppo ..... Brahms
  - Adagio ..... Brahms
  - Allegro molto moderato ..... Brahms
  - Andante and Allegro from Sonata in A minor ..... Bach
- INTERMISSION
- Poeme ..... Chausson
  - Slavonic Dance in G major ..... Dvorak - Kreisler
  - Murciana ..... Joaquin Nin
  - Nocturne ..... Chopin-Sarasate
  - Polonaise in D major ..... Wieniawski

Rabbi L. Jung Will Speak At Vesper Service

'Sinai and Washington' Topic of Eastern Visitor

Rabbi Leo Jung of the Jewish center, New York, brother of Prof. Moses Jung of the school of religion, will speak on "Sinai and Washington" at a university vesper service tonight at 8 o'clock in the main lounge of Iowa Union.

Professor Jung will act as chaplain for the service, and music will be furnished by the university musical organizations. Prof. Hans Muenzer of the music department will play a violin solo, and Prof. Herald I. Stark of the same department will sing a vocal solo.

This will be Rabbi Jung's second visit to the university. The first was three years ago when he spoke at a round table forum. The Jewish center where he is rabbi carries on a large program of educational and social work as well as the duties of a synagogue. Working with him in the center is Maurice Farbridge, a former member of the staff of the school of religion.

In addition to his work at the synagogue, Rabbi Jung is a teacher of ethics in the Yeshiva theological seminary in New York. He will also speak to groups in Chicago and Des Moines.

Following the vesper service, Philo club will hold a reception in honor of Rabbi Jung in the women's lounge of Iowa Union. Ruth Subotnik, A2 of Cedar Rapids, is in charge of arrangements. The executive committee of Philo club will form the reception committee. Mrs. Jung and Mrs. M. Willard Lampe will pour.

Prof. Wettstein Leads Forum

'Origin of Species in Plants' Topic Of Biologist

Prof. Fritz von Wettstein, director of the Kaiser-Wilhelm Institute for Biology at Berlin-Dahlem, will conduct a public round table discussion on the "Origin of Species in Plants" tomorrow at 4 p.m. in the senate chamber of Old Capitol.

Before going to the institute in 1934, Professor Wettstein served on the biological staffs of the Universities of Berlin, Munich and Göttingen. He has specialized in the field of plant physiology, especially as related to phytochemistry and genetics. With his father, he has completed the fourth edition of the "Handbook of German Systematic Botany."

He has made notable contributions to the knowledge of sex and flower pattern in plants, having worked with lower plants such as mosses and more recently with seed plants. His viewpoint has been generally biological rather than botanical, and his treatment of the topic to be discussed tomorrow afternoon will be of a broad biological and general scientific interest.

Professor Wettstein will review recent developments in Europe and along these same lines he will indicate probable future advances. Recent progress has profoundly re-orientated biological philosophy and on the basis of the contributions of current research it appears that prevailing physicochemical concepts may also be influenced. Some of these trends will also be reviewed by Professor Wettstein.

Wirtz to Give Piano Concert

Warren J. Wirtz, A4 of Keokuk, pianist, will present a concert in the exhibition lounge of the fine arts building Wednesday at 8:15 p.m.

The concert will be given under the auspices of the Delta chapter of Phi Sigma Iota, honorary Romance languages fraternity. This is the first of a series of concerts planned by the fraternity to present the music of the different nations speaking Romance languages.

President Gilmore Speaks to 800 At De Pauw University

President Eugene A. Gilmore was the principal speaker at a banquet attended by more than 800 De Pauw university alumni Friday night in Greencastle, Ind., which initiated a drive to add $1,000,000 to De Pauw university's endowment fund.

President Gilmore told the alumni the primary task of the American school is to produce young men and women of higher character with well-trained and disciplined minds. "A new social order," President Gilmore said, "will not be built according to the blue-prints and specifications contained in the curricula and procedure of educators. A social order comes from the play of a great variety of forces which, in total, make up what we call our civilization."

Fourth Student Exhibit of Art Opens in April

Contest Aims to Create Greater Interest in Painting

The fourth annual exhibition of the student salon of art, conducted by Union board, will be held April 24 to May 8. Harriet Ludens, A3 of Morrison, Ill., is in charge of the project.

The deadline for the contest, intended to stimulate the production of original works of art and a greater interest in art among all university students, is April 20. All works entered must be delivered to the Union desk by that time.

Any student, whether graduate or undergraduate, may enter the competition provided that his work is completed entirely outside of the classroom.

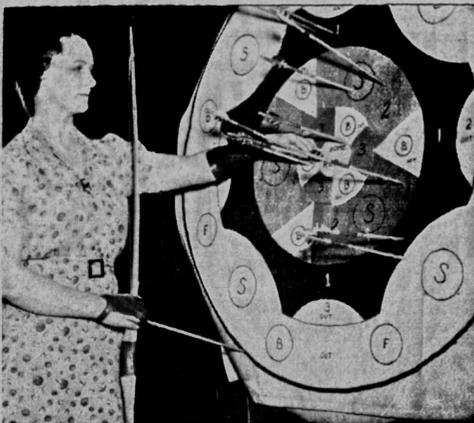

The formal opening of the exhibition will be April 24. At this time awards will be made.

Two kinds of recognition will be provided by Union board. They are quality awards and popularity awards. Both types will be in the form of prize ribbons.

Quality awards will be based on standards of excellence and will not be ranked competitively. The judges will pass on each work of art on its own merit, making awards to those which in their judgment meet the level of achievement desired.

It's A Home Run!

It's a new way to play baseball, and Mrs. Eloise Dysart, 409 E. Jefferson street, shown above, was satisfied with her hitting average yesterday when she made four home runs. The game was presented as a novelty shoot at the archery club meeting in the mirror room of the women's gymnasium from 4 to 5 p.m. yesterday. Mrs. Dysart was a guest of the club.

Honor Housemother

Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity will entertain at a reception and tea in honor of its new housemother, Mrs. Milo Whipple, this afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock at the chapter house. Spring flowers and decorations in a St. Patrick's day theme will be used.

Mrs. V. I. Capen and Mrs. L. W. Kimberly will preside at the tea table.

Archery-Ball Newest Sport Makes Debut Here

"We're playing baseball, but you'd never know it," Prof. Claude J. Lapp of the physics department said to an observer yesterday when archery club of the Women's Athletic association had its first try at archery baseball.

The members of the club who attended yesterday's meeting were divided into two teams, each shooting one arrow until the team had three outs. The target was divided into sections, each section designating different possibilities in baseball such as foul ball, ball, strike, out, home run, 3-base hit, 2-base hit and 1-base hit.

Mrs. Eloise Dysart, 409 E. Jefferson street, Maxine Reams, A3 of Cedar Rapids, and LaRue Firman, G of Pasadena, Cal., comprised one team. Katherine Pesek, A3 of Cedar Rapids, Nancy Riegel, A3 of Davenport, and Kathryn Stanley, A3 of Oskaloosa, formed the other. Mrs. Dysart's team defeated Miss Pesek's by a score of 21 to 19.

Daykin Accepts Iowa Position

Prof. Walter L. Daykin of the college of commerce has been appointed supervisor of merit examinations by the Iowa unemployment compensation commission of which Peter J. Kies is the chairman.

Will Give Talk On Violin Use

Prof. Muenzer to Tell Of Distinctions In Instruments

Prof. Hans Muenzer of the music department will explain the function of the various parts of the violin in a Baconian lecture on "The Violin" Friday at 7:30 in the senate chamber of Old Capitol.

Different characteristics of the great Italian violin makers and how to distinguish the different makes of violins will be discussed by Professor Muenzer. He will give a short outline of the history of the instrument. The lecture will be illustrated by slides.

Professor Muenzer was born and educated in Germany. He attended the State Conservatory of Music in Leipzig, Germany, from 1913-1920 where he won the Mendelssohn-Bartholdy prize in 1919. Following his studies in Germany he taught five years in the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago.

While in Leipzig he was a member of the Gewandhaus orchestra and later concert master of the Philharmonic orchestra. He was founder of the well-known Muenzer trio and for 11 years was concert leader of the Chicago theater symphony orchestra. He became a member of the American Federation of Musicians in 1925.

New Haven and Hartford were joint capitals of Connecticut from 1701 to 1874.

Will Continue Fireside Chats

Fraternities, Sororities, Centers Will Act As Hosts

The second week of the informal fireside chats will begin tomorrow when faculty members and townspeople will meet in various sororities, fraternities and residence centers in Iowa City. The series is planned by the fireside chat committee under the auspices of the religious activities board.

The Rev. Evans A. Worthley, pastor of the Unitarian church, will preside in Currier hall tomorrow night, and Prof. W. Leigh Sowers of the English department will meet at the Alpha Xi Delta house. Tuesday's discussion at the Gamma Phi Beta house will be led by Prof. John C. McGalliard of the English department, and Dr. William J. Petersen of the state historical society will lead the discussion at the Sigma Delta Tau forum.

"The Importance of Values" will be discussed at the Chi Omega house with F. L. Fehling of the German department as discussion leader; Prof. M. Willard Lampe, director of the school of religion, will discuss the Oxford movement with Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and Prof. Edwin Kurtz of the college of engineering will meet with the Sigma Phi Epsilon group.

Wednesday night Dean George F. Kay of the college of liberal arts will be at the Alpha Delta Pi house; Prof. Paul L. Sayre of the college of law, Jefferson house; Dr. Sudhindra Bose, Phi Epsilon Pi house, and Prof. Bartholow V. Crawford of the English department, Phi Kappa Psi.

On the same night Phi Delta Theta will hear Prof. Stephen H. Bush, head of the Romance languages department, and the Delta Gammas have arranged to have Prof. Sam B. Sloan of the English department. Mr. and Mrs. Fayao Bang will be at the Phi Mu house.

Zeta Tau Alpha will hold its discussion with the Rev. R. H. Hamill, student pastor at the First Methodist church, and Russell house will meet with the Rev. Llewelyn Owen, pastor of the Congregational church. The Theta Xi's will hear the Rev. E. E. Voigt, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church as guest speaker; Eastlawn will meet with Prof. Clara Daley of the history department, and the Alpha Chi Omegas will welcome Prof. Norman Meier of the psychology department.

A schedule is also being arranged for Pi Beta Phi and the Kappa Kappa Gamma houses.

Records Fall Before Assaults Of Gallant Band of Hawkeyes As Iowa Beats Wildcat Mermen

By J. DENNIS SULLIVAN
Daily Iowan Sports Writer

National, pool and University records tottered and crumbled before the assaults of a gallant band of Hawkeye swimmers as the Iowans smashed their way to a 56 to 28 win over a stunned group of Wildcat mermen last night in the field house pool. A total of six new University records were chalked up during the evening.

The crowd of approximately 2500 was given a taste of what was in store for them when Heydt, Allen and Reed swimming the 300-yard medley relay, the first event on the program, brought it to its feet by slicing five seconds off the national intercollegiate record of 3:13, established by Michigan in 1934, by doing the course in 3:08 flat.

The Hawks continued their drive in the 220-yard free-style event when Capt. Bob Christians and Tesla finished in one - two order, adding to the lead that they never relinquished.

Zehr Wins Thriller

Captain Dan Zehr of the Wildcats and Heydt of the Hawkeyes put on a thrilling duel in the 150-yard back-stroke event. It was stroke for stroke as they battled down the stretch, finishing in what appeared to be a dead heat. The judges' nod, however, went to the Northwestern leader.

In the low board diving event, Arnie Christen retained his undefeated status by piling up 120 1/2 points to cop first place. Johnny Stark continued to flash improvement as he finished second to Christen, adding to the humiliation of Northwestern's Ray North, who entered the meet sporting an unblemished record.

Fitting Climax

It was a fitting climax to the careers of the seniors on the Hawkeye squad, eight of whom will be lost through graduation. They, along with Coach Dave Armbruster, were as enthusiastic over the win as if it were their first instead of one of the impressive totals they have rolled up in their three years of competition. By their performance last night, they served notice on the other Big Ten teams that they will have to be reckoned with when the Big Ten championships are run off next week in Chicago.

The summaries

300-yard medley relay— Won by Iowa (Heydt, Allen and Reed); second, Northwestern (Grya, Smithson, Zehr). Time 3:08. (New national record; old record of 3:13 by Michigan, 1934).

220-yard free-style— Christians (I) first; Tesla (I) second; Dash (N) third. Time 2:23.7. (New Iowa record; old record of 2:27.6, A. Jacobsmeyer, 1934; R. Christians, 1938).

50-yard free-style— Wolfson (N) first; Kershaw (I) second; Ryan (I) third. Time :24.8.

Low board fancy diving— Christen (I) first; Stark (I) second; North (N) third.

440-yard free-style— Tesla (I) first; Dash (N) second; Ogilby (N) third. Time 5:30. (New Iowa record; old record of 5:32.3 by A. Jacobsmeyer, 1934).

400-yard free-style relay— Won by Iowa (Kershaw, Sweitzer, Reed and Christians); second, Northwestern (Gray, Faner, Stemridge and Wolfson). Time 3:45.7. (New Iowa record; old record of 3:48.3, Reed, Kershaw, Sweitzer, Christians, 1938).

Johnny Revolva Wins St. Petersburg Open

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 5 (AP)—Johnny Revolva, former P. G. A. champion of Evanston, Ill., won the St. Petersburg Open championship today by defeating Chandler Harper, 23-year-old Portsmouth, Va., professional, two strokes in an 18-hole playoff. Revolva had a 75-four over par.

Revolva had intended to leave the golf caravan at Thomasville, Ga., but changed his mind at the last minute when he learned that the tournament would be played at the Lakewood country club where he got his start as a course patrolman 11 years ago.

Stagehand 1st At Santa Anita

Colt Captures Fourth Running of Rich Handicap

By ROBERT MYERS
SANTA ANITA PARK, Los Angeles, March 5 (AP)—Stagehand, a mere colt but a mighty one, captured the fourth running of the richest horse race in the world today—the $100,000 Santa Anita handicap.

More than 50,000 saw the rollicking 3-year-old drop the curtain on the race favorite, Seabiscuit, in a head to head battle down the stretch and in a camera finish by a nose.

Pompoon, who shared the pre-race favoritism with the great Seabiscuit, ran third.

Victory to Stagehand, owned by Maxwell Howard and trained by the ex-jockey king, Earl Sande, brought $91,450 net to the stable and marked the second major triumph of the black and white silks of Howard at the Santa Anita meeting. Stagehand won the $50,000 Santa Anita derby Feb. 22.

Jockey Nick Wall, flown here from Florida to take Stagehand into the race, booted the 3-year-old son of Sickle and Stagecraft over the mile and one-quarter in track record time of two minutes, one and three-fifths seconds—a mark that has held here since Azucar won the first Santa Anita handicap in 1935 in two minutes, two and one-fifths seconds.

Wins Again! Cunningham First In Baltimore

BALTIMORE, March 5 (AP)—Glenn Cunningham, hailed as "the world's fastest miler," came from behind tonight to win the governor's mile before 5,000 spectators at the University of Maryland fifth regiment indoor games and remain unbeaten this season.

The Kansas Express finished ahead of his New York curb exchange teammate, Archie San Romani, Mason chronister, of Maryland, and Gene Venzke, of the New York A. C., in that order.

Cunningham's time of 4 minutes, 15 seconds was a far cry from his recent record-smashing 4:04.4 mile at Dartmouth, but his coach, Charlie Vernon, said it set a new record for a flat indoor track, with unbanked turns. He said the old mark was Cunningham's own 4:15.2, set in New York's seventh regiment army February 12.

Don Mc Neill Takes Indoor Tennis Crown

NEW YORK, March 5 (AP)—Don Mc Neill, 19-year-old junior at Kenyon college in Gambier, Ohio, today flashed all of the brilliant form that makes him one of the nation's most promising young tennis players as he defeated Frank Bowden of New York, 9-7, 3-6, 6-4, 7-5, to win the men's national indoor tennis championship.

Elevated from the junior ranks to the first 10 last season, Mc Neill gave the strongest sort of proof of his all-around ability by his decisive victory over a man who had far greater experience on board courts.

Bowden, beaten in a five-set final last year by Frankie Parker, fought stubbornly but there never was any doubt as to who would win. Mc Neill rarely was troubled by Bowden's hard, twisting service, was steady as a rock from the back court and, when he went to the net, passed the New Yorker frequently with smartly angled backhands.

Boilermakers Win Big 10 Title By Beating Wildcats, 42 to 39

Purdue Leads 25-17, at Half

Young Chalks up New Big Ten Scoring Record

EVANSTON, Ill., March 5 (AP)—Purdue won sole possession of the Western conference 1938 basketball championship tonight, defeating Northwestern 42 to 39 to wind up the season with a record of 10 victories and two losses.

The high scoring Boilermakers, who led Northwestern 25 to 17 at the half, scored 511 points in 12 Big Ten contests while holding opponents to 414. It was Purdue's fifth undisputed Big Ten court title. The Boilermakers have shared seven other crowns.

The defeat was Northwestern's fourth in 11 games. The Wildcats close their season against Michigan Monday night.

New Record

Jewell Young of Purdue set a new modern Big Ten scoring record for one season by scoring 10 points to bring his total to 184.

At the half Purdue led 25 to 17, and was in front once in the second half by 14 points.

Lenox Beaten By West Bend

Girls' Sextet Registers 44-41 Victory For State Crown

DES MOINES, March 5 (AP)—Staging another of its typical rallies, West Bend tonight won the girls' state high school basketball championship by defeating Lenox, 44 to 41, before 3,700 excited persons.

West Bend was behind exactly 10 points at the end of the third quarter, trailing the sure-shooting Lenox team, 25 to 35. Swinging into the fourth quarter, Esther Noeding and her mates started another characteristic rally that cut the West Bend deficit to four points with about four minutes to play.

Olin won the consolation game by defeating Centerville, 16 to 15.

Maki Stars as Badgers Drop Decision To Minnesota

MINNEAPOLIS, March 5 (AP)—Opening with long range shooting after trailing midway in the first half, Minnesota defeated Wisconsin, 35 to 28, tonight to cinch second place in the western conference basketball race. It was the last game for the Gophers.

Led by Paul Maki, guard, who contributed 14 points, and three long distance buckets by Gordon Spear, center, the Gophers overcame a five-point disadvantage.

Buckeyes Down Chicago, 41-29, In Final Game

McLaren Acquired his Laurels in a Full Afternoon's Work on the Seven Events

COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 5 (AP)—Ohio State defeated Chicago 41 to 29 tonight in the final Big Ten basketball game of the season for both teams. Forward Jimmy Hull of the Buckeyes set a new Ohio State individual record.

Hull scored 12 points, giving him a season total of 134, one more than the individual Buckeye record set by Johnny Miner in 1925. Hull nipped the old mark with two field goals with less than three minutes to play.

Rossin Scores 15
Guard Morris Rossin, who kept Hull handcuffed most of the second half, took individual scoring honors for the evening with 15 points, followed by Dick Baker who chalked up 14 for Ohio State.

The victory was Ohio State's seventh in 12 conference games, the Bucks' 12th in 20 for the year, and it was Chicago's 10th defeat in 12 contests. A crowd of 3,501 witnessed the encounter.

Chicago Maroons Trample Iowa Gymnastics Team in Dual Meet, 538-389.5; Brown Wins Rings

Records Fall In Revival Of Illinois Relays

By WILLIAM WEEKES
CHAMPAIGN, Ill., March 5 (AP)—Indiana's famed hustling Hoosiers and the Irish of Notre Dame furnished the record-breaking thrills, and Bill McLane of Southeastern Missouri Teachers, came up with the big individual job tonight as the Illinois relay carnival, dormant these past seven years, was revived.

The Hoosiers displaced two of the fancier marks in the carnival book. Notre Dame won three titles, one of them with record decorations.

Indiana started with the two mile relay, and with one change in personnel, came back less than an hour later to do an even more handsome job of record-busting in the university medley relay. In the two-mile event, Jimmy Smith, Charles Cunkle, Sam Miller and Mel Trutt whirled over the distance in 7 minutes, 49.5 seconds, breaking the meet mark of 7:53.5 set by an Ohio State quartet in 1931.

Hoosiers Use Deckard
Moving Tommy Deckard into action in place of Cunkle, the Hoosiers lowered Chicago's 1929 medley mark from 10 minutes, 31.2 seconds, to 10:14.

John Francis of Notre Dame lowered the carnival 1,000 yards record from 2 minutes, 16.4 seconds to 2:16, replacing a mark made in 1930 by Orval Martin of Purdue. Lynn Schlotterbeck of Grinnell college was third. Greg Rice, another Notre Dame ace, scored an easy triumph in the 1,500 meter run over Rosy Southworth of Butler university, in 4 minutes, 15 seconds, and Bill Clifford, Irish sprinter, nipped John Davenport of Chicago, in the 75-yard dash with a 7.7 seconds performance.

Team Improved
Coach Baumgartner was pleased with the improved performance of his squad which showed up much better than in the Illinois contest. The Hawks, hampered by the absence of Vogel, were able to enter only two men on the side-horse and on the flying rings. Chicago entered three star men in every event and was led by Irwin Beyer, who participated in every department.

Horizontal-bar—Wetherell (C) first; Beyer (C) second; Guy (C) third.

Side-horse—Beyer (C) first; Wetherell (C) second; Dodge (I) third.

Flying-rings—Brown (I) first; Wetherell (C) second; Beyer (C) third.

Parallel-bars—Beyer (C) first; Wetherell (C) second; Hays (C) third.

Tumbling—Beyer (C) first; Baird (C) second; Reitz (I) third.

Cunningham's Mark In Mile Run Falls As Nebraska Wins

COLUMBIA, Mo., March 5 (AP)—One record—the mile mark set by Glenn Cunningham of Kansas in 1934—toppled as the Nebraska Cornhuskers won their third straight Big Six indoor track title tonight with a total of 38 points.

Missouri and Kansas State tied for second with 23 points each, Kansas scored 20, Oklahoma 19 and Iowa State 9.

John Munksi, Missouri sophomore, ran the mile in 4:19.2, clipping one second from Cunningham's old mark, a time the Kansas has beaten numerous times since leaving college.

The Cornhuskers failed to equal their phenomenal record of last year, when they scored in every event in turning in a record total of 50 points.

They registered in seven of the 12 events, however, and took first places in six of them. Missouri won two events, Kansas State one, Oklahoma two, and Kansas and Iowa State tied in the pole vault.

Sac City Indians Tomahawked; State Champ Melrose Quintet Cops District Tournament Win

Waterloo, Bronson And Oskaloosa Lose; Rolfe Wins

Championship Pairings:

Burlington vs Cedar Falls
Cedar Rapids (Franklin) vs Council Bluffs (Abraham Lincoln)
Diagonal vs Dike
Everly vs Ida Grove
Melrose vs Mitchellville
Rolfe vs Stratford
Ute vs Webster City

By L. E. SKELLEY
DES MOINES, March 5 (AP)—Sixteen successful boys' high school basketball teams, including the fighting Irish of little Melrose, the 1937 champion, tonight shot into qualifying positions for the final tournament here next week when the 1938 championship will be decided.

Melrose, which many declared would not get out of its sectional tournament, came through with an 18 to 8 victory over Barnes City in the first district class B final at Ottumwa to take its place along with 15 other district champions.

Only two other 1937 finalist teams came along with Melrose into the championship round next week. The other survivors of the devastating firing along the eight district fronts this week were Rolfe and Mitchellville.

Upsets Continue
The upsets which have stalked the favorites throughout the district meets continued tonight. Sac City's mighty Indians, one of the crack teams of the state, were themselves tomahawked. They lost their scalps to Ida Grove, 20 to 18, in a bristling game on their own reservation at Sac City.

West Waterloo, figured as the probable class A winner in the sixth district, was stunned by Cedar Falls, 18 to 14, at Cedar Falls. Bronson, a class B favorite in the eighth district and a competitor in the final tournament last year, couldn't hold its pace and went down, 23 to 18, before Ute.

Here are the 16 teams which swept through the starting field of 872 teams two weeks ago to reach the final tournament:
Class A — Ames, Burlington, Cedar Falls, Cedar Rapids (Franklin), Council Bluffs (Abraham Lincoln), Ida Grove, Rolfe, and Webster City.

Class B — Bennett, Diagonal, Dike, Everly, Melrose, Mitchellville, Stratford and Ute.
The teams will lose their class identification in the final meet to participate in the jamboree for the championship.

Franklin Wins
Franklin of Cedar Rapids turned in one of the most remarkable performances of the final district round. The eastern Iowa team drubbed Dubuque, conqueror of Davenport, 52 to 28, in the third district at Davenport.

Ames, the 1936 title winner, also convinced critics it again will be a serious championship contender by rubbing out the hopes of Marshalltown, 1937 runner-up, 40 to 21, in the fourth district at Marshalltown.

Rolfe, the terrors of the north-west, needed all of its skill to get by Laurens in the eighth district. The speedboys, handicapped by Al Budolfson's unexpected inability to hit from the field, nipped Laurens, 21 to 20.

Lynx Beat Villisca
Abraham Lincoln of Council Bluffs, with Warren Radtke furnishing 13 points, took the class A honors in the second district at Shenandoah with a 32 to 22 victory over Villisca.

Webster City, which ousted favored Mason City last night, was pushed into an overtime before winning from Algona, 30 to 28, in the seventh district class A final at Mason City.

Burlington got by Oskaloosa, 25 to 24, for the class A title in the seventh district.

One of the best performances in the class B division was Bennett's 44 to 17 decision over Keystone in the third district.

Diagonal Repeats
Diagonal, a southwest representative in the 1935 and 1936 final tournaments, earned another trip by defeating Prescott, 36 to 26, in the third district.

With Posekany scoring 12 points, Dike wiped out Tripoli, 35 to 20, in the sixth district; Stratford eliminated Goldfield, 36 to 28, in the seventh district and Mitchellville defeated Geneseo, a 1937 finalist, 40 to 23, in the fourth district.

Cornell College Wins
APPLETON, Wis. (AP)—Cornell college of Mt. Vernon, Ia., won the first All-Midwest college conference wrestling meet here yesterday by two points with a total of 30, winning four of eight championships.

War Admiral Wins Widener Challenge Cup

MIAMI, Fla., March 5 (AP)—War Admiral sailed into this tropical port with his tenth straight victory today in the Widener challenge cup race—and sail he did.

The mighty mite of the horse world, running over the treacherous strip of beautiful Hialeah where favorites have been biting the dust of defeat for 46 days, simply made his field of a dozen rivals look like selling platters. From flagfall to finish, it was all the Admiral. His margin as he crossed the wire was a length and a half over Mrs. E. H. Bartlett's Zevson, with War Minstrel third.

It was a perfect performance of great horseflesh and jockey that the crowd of 23,000 saw on this balmy day. When it was all over, the crowd gave the little brown son of mighty Man O' War a tremendous ovation. The Miami jockey club gave the proud owner, Samuel D. Riddle of Philadelphia, $49,550 and the faithful received the short price of $2.70 for each two-dollar ticket backing the champ to win in the mutuels.

Kingsbury And Smith Win For Luckless Iowa

Meet Ends Dual Season; Big Ten Meet Next Week

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., March 5 (Special to the Daily Iowan)—The University of Iowa wrestling team closed a disastrous season here tonight as it lost its third Big Ten match of the season to a powerful Illinois wrestling squad, 24 to 6.

Illinois, last year's conference champions, scored falls in the first two matches of the dual in the 118 and 126 pound divisions and tallied a third in the heavyweight struggle. The Hawkeyes scored all six of their points in the 155 and 135 pound classes when George Smith and Kenneth Kingsbury succeeded in winning referee's decisions.

The Iowans entered a team consisting of six sophomores, one junior and one senior in the Illinois struggle and found the going too tough against such veterans as the Illinois 126 pound conference champion, Sapora and Battaglia and Hellman, heavyweight and 118-pound performers respectively.

Smith Wins
George Smith, lone senior on the Hawkeye team, closed his dual meet competition in fine fashion by winning one of the two bouts the Iowans won in the 155 pound class.

Kenneth Kingsbury, one of the few men on the Hawkeye team to wrestle in every meet this season, won a decision in the 135 pound clash to complete the scoring for the invaders. Kingsbury has two remaining years of competition on the Old Gold squad as he is one of the many sophomores on the Iowa team.

The Summaries:
118 Pounds — Hellman, (Ill), threw McDowell, 2:14.
126 Pounds — Sapora, (Ill), threw Millen, 7:14.
135 Pounds — Kingsbury, (I), defeated Emmons.
145 Pounds — Deuschmann, (Ill), defeated Krouse.
155 Pounds — Smith, (I), defeated Lynch.
165 Pounds — Ginay, (Ill), defeated Kemp.
175 Pounds — Mutter, (Ill), defeated Vergamini.
Heavyweight — Battaglia, (Ill), threw Williams, 6:10.

Hassett May Go To Outfield

CLEARWATER, Fla., March 5 (AP)—Burleigh Grimes, manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, said today he hopes to convert Buddy Hassett, regular first baseman, into an outfielder.

Badly in need of outfield strength, Grimes hopes Rookie Bert Haas will make the grade at first base so Hassett can move into the flycatching department.

Oscar Vitt In Doubt

NEW ORLEANS, March 5 (AP)—With a free-for-all fight developing between the rookies and regulars, Manager Oscar Vitt admitted today he hasn't the slightest idea who will play second base, third base or right field for the Indians this year.

Vitt now believes that Rollie Hemsley will catch and Earl Averill will play center field, but he said this is only tentative.

Dykes Places Thompson at First

JASADENA, Cal., March 5 (AP)—Manager Jimmy Dykes of the Chicago White Sox, arriving today after being stranded at an inland resort by the recent rains, said he plans to place Rupert Thompson on first base—and leave Zeke Bonura try and take the job away from him.

New York Giants Beat Athletics

LAKE CHARLES, La., March 5 (AP)—The New York Giants lifted the lid off the Grapefruit league exhibition baseball season today by noosing out the Philadelphia Athletics 11 to 10 in a free-swinging clash.

Seven homers were hit off the offerings of five flingers. Blondy Ryan, Jim Ripple and Hank Leiber drove out four-baggers for the Giants. Bill Werber hit one with two on, and Gene Hasson and Earle Brucker each clouted one for the A's in a six-run sixth inning. Bob Johnson belted one for the circuit in the third.

Oklahoma Takes Wrestling Crown From Cyclones

AMES, Ia., March 5 (AP)—The University of Oklahoma wrestling team won the final consolation bout in the Big Six wrestling tournament here today to oust Iowa State as conference champion. The Sooners scored 25 points in the two-day meet while Kansas State and the Cyclones tied for second with 24.

Nebraska was a poor third with five points.
The defending champions were tied with Kansas State at 24 points apiece and Oklahoma trailed with 23 when the 155-pound consolation for third place came up. Oklahoma's Robertson tossed Clare of Nebraska to give the Sooners two points and the title.

The only other fall was gained by Cox of Iowa State, who also pinned Clare in the same event to give Iowa State second place.

Cyclone Swimmers Win Big Six Meet

NORMAN, Okla., March 5 (AP)—Iowa State's powerful stokers piled up 76 points to finish far ahead of the field today in the finals of the tenth annual Big Six conference swimming meet.

The Cyclones captured first place in seven out of nine events, yielding only once to Nebraska and once to Oklahoma.
Nebraska, defending champion, finished second with 34 points, Oklahoma third with 28, Kansas fourth with 23, and Kansas State fifth with 11.

Iowa State wrote the second new Big Six record of the meet when its 400-yard free style relay team stroked the distance in 3 minutes, 57.6 seconds. The old record of 4:00.5, also held by Iowa State, was set in 1936.

Members of the teams were Don Allen, Harry Harris, Bob Wempe and George Haldeman.

The birthplace of Sir James Barrie at Kirriemuir, Scotland, is to be renovated and preserved as a literary shrine.

Frankie Masters and Orchestra to Entertain Club Cabaret

Formal Dinner - Dance Gayest Of the Season's Social Events

Cabaret-Style Banquet Will Include Five-Course Dinner, Band's Own Entertainers At Union March 25

Frankie Masters and his orchestra have been engaged for the Club Cabaret, most expensive and exclusive event of the university's social season, Herman Schmidt, A4 of Davenport, party chairman and president of Union Board, has announced.

Union Board will entertain at the formal dinner-dance from 7:30 to 12 p.m., March 25 in the main lounge of Iowa Union. A five-course turkey dinner will be served cabaret style during the evening.

Frankie Masters is one of the few orchestra leaders who has his own floor show. His entertainers will come with him to spotlight Iowa's cabaret. Frankie himself, a University of Indiana Delta Upsilon, is a guitar and vocal soloist.

The Masters orchestra—sometimes known as the College Inn orchestra—is the only one to have played four times at the famous night spot in Chicago. The band broadcasts Tuesdays from 7:30 to 8 p.m. on the Household Finance corporation's program with Edgar Guest.

The versatile musicians and entertainers have also made 12 stage appearances in leading cities across the country.

Tables seating from one to five couples will be placed in cabaret style around the dance floor at the party. Tickets will go on sale Wednesday at 8 a.m. at the Union desk, and tables may be reserved at the time tickets are purchased.

One person may buy tickets for his table or party up to eight.

Club Cabaret committee members are Mr. Schmidt; Ruth Walker, A4 of DeWitt; Addison Kistler, A4 of Council Bluffs; Deana Krantman, A3 of Marshalltown; Robert Brooks, C4 of Dubuque; Staten Browning, G of Iowa City; Marjorie Moberg, P3 of Geneseo, Ill.; Parker Hughes, M4 of Des Moines; Cletus Schneberger, D4 of Ossian; William Mauker, G of Iowa City; Harriet Ludens, A3 of Morrison, Ill.; Ernest Mohr, E4 of Waterloo; Donald Rosenfeld, L1 of Council Bluffs; Betty Lou Voigt, C4 of Iowa City, and Robert Beebe, L3 of Ottumwa.

Betty Robinson, Olympic Sprinter, Visits Here

Betty Robinson of Chicago, Olympic sprinter, is pictured on the sunporch at the Kappa Alpha Theta house chatting with Barbara Dodsworth, A1 of Macomb, Ill., Miss Dodsworth's sister, Joan, and Winifred Johnson, U of Blue Island, Ill. Miss Robinson has been persuaded to tell some of her interesting experiences at the Olympics in Amsterdam when she became the holder of three world records at the age of 16. When she returned from the Olympics, she was injured in an airplane accident and doctors predicted she would be a cripple for life. However, she recovered and entered the next Olympics, in which she competed with a winning relay team. At present Miss Robinson is touring Iowa and surrounding states giving talks to high school groups.

Will Distribute Third Wesley News Sheet

The third edition of "Wesley Scoops," the Wesley foundation news sheet, will be distributed to those attending the Wesley league meeting at 6:30 this evening in the Methodist church.

Velva Davis, A3 of Clarksville, and Eugenie T. Richter, A2 of West Newbury, Mass., are the editors.

To Entertain Auxiliary Mrs. Odin S. Blexrud, 324 N. Dubuque street, will entertain the Letter Carriers auxiliary Tuesday at 2:15 p.m. The business meeting will be followed by a social hour and a white elephant exchange.

Delta Gamma Has Initiation

Alumnae and Actives Present at Dinner Afterwards

Delta Gamma sorority initiated 18 women in a ceremony yesterday, following which Founder's day was celebrated with a formal banquet in the University club-rooms at Iowa Union. About 60 alumnae and active members of the sorority were present at the banquet.

The new members of the sorority are Catherine Clark of Ottumwa, Jayne McGovern of Iowa City, Marlyn Meyer of Davenport, Virginia Morris of Des Moines and Judy Weidner of Iowa City, all A1.

Roberta Miller of Waterloo, Bette Keeney of Chicago and Jeanne Parsons of Estherville, all A2; Jane Clement of Ames, Dorothy Furtick of Salina, Kan., Virginia Leigh Harris of Grinnell, Era Hauptert of Marshalltown, Jane Kistner of Waterloo, Betty Merron of Estherville and Jane White of Burlington, all A3; Janet Hyde of Elkader, Margaret Joiner of Maquoketa and Loraine Killingsworth of Iowa City, all C3.

Emily Russell of Iowa City served as toastmistress at the banquet. Speeches were given by Miss Meyer, Miss Parsons, Mildred Fitzgerald, A3 of Iowa City, Betty Francis, A4 of New Lenox, Ill., and Mrs. B. G. Bradley of Iowa City.

A talk was given by Marion Whinnery, A3 of Iowa City, in which she presented the new Delta Gamma national project, aiding the blind.

The color scheme in table decorations was bronze, pink and blue, the sorority colors. The committee in charge of the banquet included Margaret Anderson, Mrs. Otis Wolfe and Maureen Munger, A4 of Cedar Rapids.

Women Enter Fifth Round in Badminton, Table Tennis Events

The women's intramural table tennis and badminton tournaments will enter the fifth round tomorrow. Of the eight matches which were to be played during last week, one table tennis and two badminton games were incomplete yesterday.

Seven of the eight women who will play for places in the sixth round of the table tennis tourney are Marion Jacoby, A1 of Park Ridge, Ill.; Marian Shostrom, A1 of Des Moines; Marjorie Smith, A2 of Hills; Isabelle Armstrong, A2 of Hutchinson; Mary Louise Stowe, C3 of Ft. Dodge; Lillian Locher, A2 of Monticello, and Marian Smalley, A4 of Muscatine. The winner of the eighth match had not yet been determined yesterday.

INDISPENSABLE to a coed's spring shoes are several pairs of campus shoes from the DOMBY BOOT SHOP. She must have one in white and a contrasting color, one in brown gray or blue in the handsome COLLEGE-BRED styles, and a thick crepe sole on which to bounce down to eight o'clocks and wear right on through the picnic at the quarries. DOMBYS have the very shoes that will complement your spring wardrobe.

We're not the snoops we thought we were — we didn't know about Joan Steffen, K K G, and Don Short, Sig Chi — It seems they went and did it a long time ago.

Say, doesn't weather like this feel like a good game of golf? WILLIAMS IOWA SUPPLY is just the place to find a new spoon, a new putter, or a new wood that would really start you off right at the beginning of the season. The way you start out has a great deal to do with the kind of game you play throughout the season. Run down to WILLIAMS tomorrow and arm yourself for golf.

SUITS are in the lead for spring and YETTERS have them in top style and in amazing values. They range from strictly mantel-tailored cuts, through the dress-maker styles to jigger and costume modes. Colors that are outstanding include the new oatmeal tweed, all kinds of blues and the brilliant shades of brown. It is fun, too, to match an odd plaid jacket with a plain tweed skirt from YETTERS, and then with the skirt you can also wear a jacket of contrasting color. A few odd skirts and coats from this grand line will make your campus wardrobe seem luxuriously extensive.

Proth-like lace in tiers of ruffles.

Get all prettied up for the big week-end. Let STAR BEAUTY SALON do your hair up brown with a fashionable new coiffure that will do wonders for your face. The STAR is the place to go 'cause they have the lowest rates and the fastest driers in town. If you are a busy woman, you can make an appointment for after supper on Thursdays and Saturdays, too.

Men—your spring top-coat is raglan.

WHAT with spring in the air, you will be wanting to redecorate and touch up a few spots in your house. STILLWELL'S PAINT STORE has the smart new wallpaper that will make it look like a different place. Stop in tomorrow and have a look. It's fun to pick out smart wallpaper.

SPRING breezes brought Bob Venn, D U alum, all the way from Wisconsin this week end to see Jane Louise Leary, Pi Phi.

For a snack after a show, after school or at noon drop in at the DINETTE and be served quickly at the soda fountain. Their sandwiches are wonderful and you've never tasted the equal of the home-style malted milks served at the DINETTE.

THERE is still controversy over the height of the waistline.

Spring is spring, and the eager housewife is looking forward to dusting the winter from her house. McNAMARA'S FURNITURE STORE is the place to go for the furniture and fresh new drapes that will spruce up the house for a spring opening. Incidentally, a new mattress will make the spring air sleep sweeter.

Have you looked at the March calendar of parties? It's a wonderful line-up, which means numerous trips to LORRAINE'S BEAUTY SHOP to keep the top-knot in top-notch condition. Spring without a love-life is dreadful waste, and a good way to eliminate waste is to be beautifully coiffed for each of these big week-ends with Beau Brummel.

NEW YORK dictates pumps, and leading among pumps are patent leathers such as STRUBS are showing. With them clever little detachable gros-grain bows to vary their role.

WOULDN'T it be just the thing about now, to barrel into Chicago for a couple of big stage shows and a grand time? UNITED AIRLINES make it possible for you to make the most of a short week end and an ordinary purse. Call up immediately and make your reservations for a flying week end.

THE new season has already brought forth a great many surprises in beautiful modes in blue—one of the more pleasantly surprising of these is a shoe fashion at EWERS. It uses to great advantage several shades of blue in a tie and a strap. It would be lovely with your new print, your pastel crepe or your tweed if it has even a fleck of blue in it.

Mammoth poppies printed on a white background.

For the first time the GILBERT AND SULLIVAN OPERA COMPANY can be seen on the screen. "The Girl Said No" which will begin at the STRAND Tuesday, includes selections from "H. M. S. Pinafore," "Mikado" and others. Also on this big double feature program, is Faith Baldwin's "Portia on Trial" with Walter Abel, Frieda Inescort, Neil Hamilton and Heather Angel. It's a show you can't afford to miss.

Three cheers for spring and for RUBY-THE-ROADSTER! It's about time for her to be running around to JONES' STANDARD SERVICE for a spring check-up and shine-up and a change to heavier spring oil.

Rug cleaning difficulties have been rendered almost negligible by the HILD RUG CLEANING SYSTEM of which KELLEY CLEANERS are licensed operators. The process guarantees against shrinkage, protects rugs against moths, and the cleaning can be done either on your floors or in the KELLEY plant. You can't afford to be old-fashioned now about your spring cleaning.

Stripes—

WELL bet you haven't out-grown that after school appetite any more than we have. The thing that will just fix you up until meal time is a taffy apple from the KARMEI-KORN SHOP or a sack of hot buttered pop-corn. A malted milk (they come thick at the KARMEI-KORN SHOP) or a sack of candy and nuts might be a good idea, too.

And the Bill Merritts are in town.

Wouldn't it be fun to redecorate that front bed-room, the living-room or the dining room or all of them for spring? It is no trick at all even for the pocketbook if you only trot down to the MODERN PAINT STORE and choose the paper from innumerable handsome modern designs, select the paint, and make arrangements for the work. It will take surprisingly little time and the results will please you no end.

Spring straws in clever little bonnets, gauchos and sailors are more exciting than ever before. ESTELLA ZIMMERMAN has them in gorgeous bakus, dyed leghorns and fancy straws with which you will be proud to top your spring prints, reefer coats and suits. The new STERSON felts at ESTELLA ZIMMERMAN'S are tops in smartness and wit, too, for the new season.

HOW would you like a luscious Porter-House steak for dinner? If you order it from POLEHNA BROS. MARKET, you can be certain that it will be thick, juicy and tasty. POLEHNA'S sausage with waffles, fritters or eggs would be grand for breakfast or lunch. It's home-made and gorgeous—Try it tomorrow.

Looking Glass Reflections

Smartly clad women this spring will be swinging their bags, not holding them! Handles of every shape, size and variety adorn spring purses which may resemble anything from a large envelope to a miniature suitcase.

And better news still — you don't have to be among the well-to-do to afford a good bag this spring. Of course, you may pay as much as you like, but remarkably stunning ones can be obtained for a nominal sum. Best-dressed women will have several of them.

Black, as usual, is shown in abundance, but there are several very new colors — shrieking pink, saddle tan and a variety of greys. Navy blue is also good. Gabardine is probably the chosen material with patent leather also frequently appearing on display counters. Calfskin is especially good in the new smoked finish. Leather and patent combinations in simple design are smart with many costumes.

Interesting among the bags of the season is one of navy blue calfskin with a twisted leather handle and shirring under the covered frame. Another is a box-like bag which will stand alone. It will hold all of your trinkets without taking on a bulging look. Another of gabardine has a very wide handle which extends from one corner on one side to the opposite on the other.

A new note is struck in a patent leather bag which opens to reveal an attractive lining of shiny red alligator calf. And there is the money-bag style which is surprisingly roomy and, besides a concealed zipper, has a bright gold band around it for a clasp.

Made to go with the tailored suit is a sturdy purse of purple-blue alligator leather. It is a shape which can be carried under your arm. Among the very different ones is the race-track bag with a long strap which can be swung over the shoulder or looped around one's arm.

The bag which best typifies the season's trend toward style simplicity is the one noticeably plain except for soft gathers caught into a base bound by two narrow gold bands. It is shown in calf, patent leather and grain calf in all the new colors. Another is a pyramid-shaped bag made of pigskin in a splay, gingery shade. It also has two handles.

Characteristic of all new handbags this year is their simplicity in detail and smartness of lines and handles. Don't despair, however, if your choice is still the under-the-arm variety. There are brand new ones for you, too.

Perhaps the most comfortable hat to wear with suits is the breton style. To be safe from the wiles of March winds, wear one that ties under the chin. Have one or two with fabric trim in your costume colors.

If you are going out to dinner and have no time to change, wear a straight sailor, perhaps one with a veil. Carry a stitched suede bag with gloves to match and wear oxfords. You may select the latter from a variety of patterns and materials, including bucko, diamond-punched calf, gabardine and calf, or those very convenient suedes with slide fastenings.

New members of the fraternity will be Christy Armstrong of Des Moines, Richard Feddersen of Iowa City, Richard Grest of Milford, Robert Leedom of Cedar Rapids, William Saunders of Council Bluffs, Charles Thompson of West Branch and John Walker of Keokuk, all A1; William Hills of Iowa City and John Kellogg of Chicago, both E1; Robert Ivie of Iowa City, Charles Rasmussen of Maquoketa and Richard Schalk of Iowa Falls, all A2; Jack Chase, A3 of Ames, and Richard Kautz, C3 of Muscatine.

Representative speakers at the banquet will be Dean of Men Robert E. Rienow, for the university; Dr. W. C. Goenne of Davenport, for the alumni; Russell Easton of Chicago, grand questioner, for the grand chapter; William Goenne, A3 of Davenport, consul of the local chapter, for the actives, and Mr. Kautz, for the new initiates. Bob Roberts, A2 of Des Moines, will be toastmaster. C. W. Cleveland of Chicago, editor of the fraternity magazine, "Magazine of Sigma Chi," and Oscar MacNabb of Chicago, province praetor, will be the guests of honor.

Mrs. Bradley Will Entertain Alumnae
The Delta Gamma alumnae chapter will have a potluck supper Tuesday at 6:15 p.m. in the home of Mrs. B. G. Bradley, 305 S. Summit street.

Following the business meeting Mrs. A. S. Gillette will speak on the Russian state.

HOSTESS HINTS

Many a joke has been hurled at the modern homemaker's inability to cook without a can opener. But the things she can do with the aid of a can opener push the joke book into the background in favor of the cookbook. Here are two new recipes in which cans play leading roles.

Apricot Charlotte Russe
1 can apricot nectar (1 1/2 cups)
1/4 tsp. gelatin
2 eggs
1-2 cup sugar
1-8 tsp. salt
2-3 cup irradiated evaporated milk
1 cup irradiated evaporated milk

1 tsp. vanilla
About 1 dozen lady fingers
Soak gelatin in one-half cup apricot nectar. Beat egg yolks. Add sugar, salt, the two-thirds cup milk, one cup apricot nectar and the gelatin mixture. Cook over boiling water until thickened, about 15 minutes. Chill.

Chill milk thoroughly and whip until stiff. Add whipped milk, vanilla and egg whites, which have been beaten stiff, to the first mixture. Pour into a mold that has been lined with lady fingers, and set in a cold place to chill. Yield—eight servings.

Cherry Roll
2 cups pastry flour
4 tps. baking powder
1-2 tsp. salt
2 tps. sugar
5 tps. fat
1-3 cup irradiated evaporated milk and
1-3 cup cold water, mixed
1 cup sugar
1 No. 2 can cherries, drained
Sift flour, then measure. Resist with baking powder, salt and two tablespoons of sugar. Rub fat into flour until appearance is like coarse corn meal. Add diluted milk and mix quickly with a fork. Stir four or five times to smooth and slightly stiffen the dough. Turn on to a floured board and knead one minute. Roll out to one-fourth inch thickness, keeping the dough in a rectangular shape.

Drain cherries well. Save juice for sauce. Mix with one cup sugar. Spread cherries over dough and roll up like a jelly roll. Place in a greased tin. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) until brown, about 45 minutes. Serve with cherry sauce. Yield—six servings.

Cherry Sauce
1 tsp. cornstarch
1-4 cup sugar
Cherry juice plus water to make one cup
Mix cornstarch and sugar. Add cherry juice and boil until thickened.

Martin to Talk On Navy Bill

Prof. George Willard Martin of the botany department will be the speaker at the bi-weekly meeting of the Roosevelt non-partisan league at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the court house.

Professor Martin will discuss the navy appropriations bill. A discussion will follow his address. The meeting, originally scheduled for tomorrow night, has been postponed because of the violin concert by Mischa Elman at Iowa Union.

Dr. W. L. Bywater, league president, will conduct the meeting. Anyone interested is invited.

To Hold Cozine Funeral Service This Afternoon

Funeral service for Mrs. Lina Cozine, 82, 730 S. Summit street, will be in the Oathout chapel at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Burial will be in Oakland cemetery.

Mrs. Cozine died in New Orleans, La., Thursday night. The body arrived in Iowa City yesterday afternoon.

EASY WASHERS IRONERS

Francis L. Love, M. D. Says: "Gentlemen: We now have our second Easy Washer in our home. The first one was 12 years old when we purchased the second one a few months ago."

"Its work is very satisfactory and with the centrifugal dryer there are no wheels or rollers for children or operators to get caught and injured. We like it."

University Hi's Debaters Win

The University high school debate team won the class B district debate tournament yesterday at Parsons college, Fairfield, by defeating teams from Moulton and Cincinnati. By winning the district meet, the team is eligible to enter the state meet here April 22.

John Mattill and Bruce Blackstone, affirmative, and Murray Dawson, Paul Bordwell and Cyrus Beye, negative, won all the debates in which they participated. The debaters are coached by Eugene C. Chenoweth of the speech department.

No Jack-Pot For Mailman

The postman has a complaint! "I've been in the service 25 years and have never found a lost five or ten dollar bill in a mail box," he said.

It seems that a good many of Uncle Sam's postal customers do get careless or become absent-minded when mailing. One of their most common mistakes, according to local letter carriers, is to drop mail that has already been received and opened by themselves. But, this is pardonable as a case of confusion.

Type number two is the person who forgets to address the letter—despite the warning sign above every box. The carriers will always find them standing at the box—line forms to the left. The addressing must be done in the mailman's presence and returned to him immediately.

Perhaps the most common of all is the person who forgets or is not able to stamp his letters. Way back in the dark corner of the box the mailman may find the three cents. Or maybe the mailer has used the approved method of placing the pennies in a small envelope with a note explaining the situation.

The absentminded type often drops a meal book in and occasionally his keys. He must go to the postoffice and present sufficient identification before he can claim the lost article. The variety of articles in this group is too numerous to mention.

Then, of course, there is always the prankster. The children are the common offenders here, dropping in everything from buttons to gum wrappers. If such a prankster is caught the mailmen vow that they will teach him that crime does not pay. It's like opening a surprise package when the carrier unlocks the mail box. But it certainly isn't a paying proposition; 25 years of service and he hasn't hit a jack-pot yet!

AROUND THE TOWN

With TOM JOHNSON

Three Point Two
There's a fairly laughable story going around now-a-days, so I'm passing it on to you—for what it's worth.

It concerns the bar-tender whose paunch is the dangling-place for the coveted Phi Beta Kappa key.

Many of his collegiate customers see it on him, and wonder if he was once a brilliant university student.

They see no traces of intellectualism on his face, and eventually speak to him about the key.

"The key," they inquire, "where did you get it?"
"Oh, that?" is his bored reply, "I got it from an Iowa grad in a poker game."

Hero of Fiume
The death last week of Gabriele d'Annunzio brought more to mind of his war experiences, than the fact he had been one of Europe's prolific writers.

Why his works are scarcely available today may best be answered, I think, by the late Gerald Goulet's criticism.

"His writings consist chiefly of Gabriele blowing his own horn and constantly uttering his fiery D'Annunzio of the world."

Self-Conscious!
This glassy weather is the bunk. You feel so silly standing up!

Eight Ball
The devastating floods in southern California are proving to be everything but favorable publicity for that popular resort area. Many people won't go there next year.

Just as Florida suffered in the past because of seasonal hurricanes, California will now have to dispel the floods, and if I remember correctly—earthquakes, too.

Red Cross Will Elect Officers

Officers will be elected and 1937 reports given at a meeting of the Johnson County chapter of the American Red Cross society in the grand jury room in the courthouse at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday.

All contributors to the last Red Cross drive are members of the county chapter and are eligible to vote at the election.

Nominations of officers will be made at the meeting, instead of by a committee as in the past, Mrs. Martin Pederson, director announced.

The retiring officers will be Arthur Boss, chairman; Don A. Davis, vice - chairman; Mrs. Blanche Foffel, secretary, and Harold Schuppert, treasurer.

55 Petit Jurors To Report at 10

9 Bases Remain From First Assignment By Gaffney

The 55 petit jurors will report at 10 a.m. tomorrow with 10 civil and four criminal cases assigned for hearing by Judge James P. Gaffney.

Nine cases remain from the first law assignment by Judge Gaffney. These are Kolberg against Kent, et al.; Scanlon against Smith, et al.; Snell against Moss, et al.; O'Brien against Iowa City, et al.; Strinsky against Strickler, et al.

Andrew, receiver of the Farmers State bank of Solon, against Smykil, et al.; Abbott and Walker against Oathout; Sweeting against the Iowa City School board; Adams against Kasperek, et al, and Adams and Son against Bontrager.

Judge Gaffney has assigned the $17,926 damage suit of E. M. Russell, administrator of the estate of Mary A. Russell, against Helen M. Beltz, administratrix of the estate of F. M. Beltz, for hearing Wednesday morning.

The petit jury will hear four criminal cases upon completion of the Russell suit. The persons who will be tried are Millio Millitti, for illegal transportation of liquor; Stella Coan, illegal possession of liquor; George Coan, illegal possession of liquor, and Sidney Cross Jr., operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated.

Griffiths Given Anniversary Surprise Party

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Griffith, 401 Brown street, were surprised last night with a party at their home in celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary. Their daughters, Beatrice and Berta, and Helen Plough were hostesses.

Decorations at the silver wedding party and a three - tiered wedding cake were done in a color scheme of silver and white.

Guests at the party were Lucella Danner, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Eggenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weeber, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Griffith, Mrs. Cornelia Fisher, Anna Jones, Mrs. John Plough, Mrs. Elizabeth Knoedel, Mrs. B. G. Shellady, Mr. and Mrs. David Thomas, Jack Walters, Dorothy Soucek and Norma Griffith.

Rural Teachers Hear Talk On School Survey

Approximately 125 rural teachers of Johnson county heard H. C. Moeller of Iowa State Teachers college discuss his recent survey of county schools at a meeting yesterday morning in the courthouse.

Moeller inspected rural schools in Johnson county Thursday and Friday.

Details of the proposed county health unit were explained by Mrs. W. L. Bywater. Frank J. Snider, county superintendent, presided at the meeting.

Colfax Resident Forfeits $5 Bond

C. L. Aikins, Colfax, forfeited a $5 bond Friday when he failed to appear before Justice of the Peace J. M. Kadlec to answer charges of passing in a 700-foot zone.

Dealers Open Car Campaign

Cooperate With 46,000 To Aid Business In Recovery

Ten Iowa City car dealers yesterday opened National Used Car week observance in Iowa City, cooperating with 46,000 other dealers throughout the nation in a campaign to stimulate general business recovery.

E. M. Lied, president of the National Automobile Dealers association, said, "Statistics show that one out of seven gainfully employed persons in this country depend for a living upon the automobile industry or the thousands of business enterprises directly connected with it."

"Any movement which serves to stimulate the auto industry directly affects the employment and earnings of a large mass of our population."

"The high degree of engineering skill, the almost incredible improvements in design and in the life of the component parts of automobiles built during the last five years have resulted in developing motor vehicles which offer the used car buyer the utmost value for his money," Lied continued.

Mayor Myron J. Walker has endorsed the used car sales. He said he favored any activity which will result in the removal of dangerous cars from the highways. He declared that anyone who purchased a new used car which had been guaranteed safe by the dealer was making the highways safer both for himself and the other motorists.

The Iowa City dealers participating in the used car campaign are the Beck Motor company, Burkett-Updegraff Motor company, Freswick Motor company, Gartner Motor company, Graham garage, Gene Light Pontiac garage, Hogan Brothers, Nall Chevrolet, Cook-Nash sales, and Wilenbrook Motor company.

3 Students Get High Rankings

Lewis Ward Rated As 'Excellent' in Both Prose, Poetry

The three University high school students participating in the interpretive reading festival at Mt. Pleasant yesterday each were awarded high ratings for their selections.

Lewis Ward was rated "excellent" on both his prose and poetry readings. He was one of six contestants who received the highest rating in both sections.

Mary Ann Kurtz was given "good" on each of her readings. Helen Pollock received a rating of "excellent" for her poetry reading.

Forty schools participated in the festival. The readings were judged by the faculty representatives of the participating schools. The students were accompanied by Loretta Wagner, speech instructor, and Prof. and Mrs. Lewis E. Ward.

Local Church To Inaugurate New Program

The First Methodist Episcopal church of Iowa City will launch a new program of fellowship and study for its adult congregation Tuesday, the Rev. Edwin E. Voigt, pastor, announced yesterday.

The church night program will be on each Tuesday during Lent, offering a period of informal acquaintance and an hour for group interests, he said.

Consisting of five group classes, the educational program will cover a wide range of popular interest. Each person will enroll in his choice of the groups, and the group will continue its work during the church night series.

A person trained in that subject will lead each group, his guidance assuring a high standard of discussion.

Leaders of the discussion groups will be Prof. W. H. Morgan of the school of religion, and Mrs. Morgan; Prof. W. L. Daykin of the college of commerce; Prof. C. J. Lapp of the physics department; the Rev. Robert H. Hamill, assistant minister of the church, and the Rev. Edwin E. Voigt.

Inauguration of church night will be celebrated by a church dinner served by the women of the first division at 6:30 p.m.

Meeting of the groups will be at 7:30, followed by a short program of music or readings, and other entertainment.

Defends Iowa Pulchritude

Over the air to Hawaii goes an accurate description of Maxine Samuelson, C3 of Burlington, (right) as Victor Soens, Iowa City radio amateur, (left) replies to a Hawaiian amateur's claim that "one bronzed maiden from Waikiki is more glamorous than a carload of Iowa's corn-fed beauties."

Chewing the Rag by Air

Amateur Radio Operator W9KCO Recounts Adventures in the Ether

When radio amateurs "chew the rag" over the medium of ether waves, they often get into heated arguments — as Victor Soens, operator of Iowa City's W9KCO, 418 Fifth avenue, can tell you.

Soens was talking to an amateur in Hawaii recently when the subject of glamorous women was brought up. But it was when the fellow from the paradise in the Pacific said he thought "One bronzed maiden from Waikiki is more glamorous than a carload of Iowa's corn-fed girls" that an argument began.

"I finally silenced him by saying I'd stay in Iowa just the same," Soens told.

Worked All Continents
But Hawaii is not the only distant spot that Soens has reached — arguments or no arguments — for he is a "WAC" operator, meaning that he has "worked" or contacted all continents.

Amateurs in South America, Europe, Asia, Australia and Africa, besides North America, have sent him a total of 700 "QSL" or acknowledgment cards to authenticate his conversations with them.

Thus far he is acquainted with amateurs in 47 states in the United States and 23 foreign countries.

"Why only 47 states?" Soens said. "Well, I can't seem to 'work' a Nevada operator." Nevada is sparsely settled.

Among the conversations he has carried on by means of the keyed dots and dashes of the International Morse code, Soens remembers one experience vividly.

Wrong Letters
It was while he was exchanging a few words with a fellow amateur in the east, using the letters of familiar address "om,"

Suspends $100 Fine Against Transient If He Leaves City
For intoxication, a fine of $100 was levied against Valentine Kalaba by Police Judge Burke N. Carson yesterday. The fine was suspended on condition he leave the city.

Frank Cooney was fined $5 on a charge of intoxication. Charles Brown and Ed Carter each paid $1 fines for street storage.

113th Cavalry To Meet Tomorrow

The weekly meeting of the 113th cavalry regiment of the national guard will be at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Following the roll call, cavalrymen will participate in mounted drill and other activities. Lieut. Elmer Hay will be in charge.

Clerk Issues License

County Clerk R. Neilson Miller yesterday issued a marriage license to Ed Livingston, 50, and Mrs. Thelma Freeman, 30, both of Williamsburg.

Lower Tariff Fought
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A campaign against lowering the tariff on dried Chinese eggs has been started by the Poultry Producers Association of Central California. Declaring that imports of Chinese eggs in the dried state last year were equivalent to 961,000 cases of shell eggs, John Lawler, general manager, asserted that proposed cuts under a reciprocal trade treaty would prove ruinous to the American poultry industry.

Eight City High Musicians Win

Soloists Advance to The Sub-District Meet At Kalona

Eight Iowa City high school instrumental soloists advanced to the sub-district round of the annual music contest after try-outs yesterday afternoon in the high school auditorium, Lloyd F. Swartley, head of the instrumental music department, announced last night.

The winners are Marjorie Sidwell, clarinet; Katherine Ruppert, flute; Jean Opstad, violin; Patricia Traschel, viola; Jean McKnight, cello; Bill Simpson, trombone, and Ruby Alley, French horn, and Ed Sybil.

Other soloists who will continue automatically to the sub-district meet are Warren Burger, oboe; James Reeds, snare drum, and Ann Serup.

Three instrumental groups which merely played for addition and will continue on to the next round were the cello quartet, woodwind quartet and the brass ensemble.

In the cello quartet are Jean McKnight, Mary-Helen Taylor, Gladys Knight, and Bill Simpson. Those in the woodwind quartet are Katherine Ruppert, Bob Caywood, Warren Burger, Ann Serup and Donald Key. The brass ensemble includes Bill Raymond, Ruby Alley, Bill Voelckers, and Cleo Thomas.

Judges were Paul Anthony of McKinley high school, Cedar Rapids; Allen Richardson of Wilson high school, Cedar Rapids; and Prof. Anne E. Pierce of University elementary school.

The sub-district contest will be at Kalona March 18.

Vocal Dept. At City High Will Give Program

The vocal department of Iowa City high school will give a concert Tuesday evening, including numbers by the chorus, both glee clubs, and the small vocal groups.

Fourteen soloists will compete in the home elimination solo contests Tuesday evening. Leo Greather, supervisor of music in the Keokuk public schools, will act as critic and judge, naming the highest ranking soloist in each of the five voice divisions to represent Iowa City in the sub-district music contest at Kalona March 18 and 19.

Those competing will be Joan Joehnk, soprano; Carolyn Colony, Lorraine Hobbs and Claudine Yoder, mezzo-sopranos; Doris Christiansen, Dorothy Gartzke and Evelyn Rouner, contraltos; Joe DeBryne, Leon Kleopfer and Charles Putnam, tenors; and Robert Caywood, Earl Crain, James Guthrie, Lester Taylor and Donald Pierce, baritones.

Admission will be 25 and 15 cents.
