Supreme Court Sets Date For Rhodes Appeal

May 5 Will Decide Fate Of Convicted Man, Attorney Says

The state supreme court has set May 5 as the day to hear the appeal of Walter H. "Dusty" Rhodes from the death sentence imposed April 14, 1937, in Johnson county district court, County Attorney Harold W. Vestermark said yesterday.

Rhodes, convicted dynamite-slayer of his wife, had been sentenced to hang April 29, 1938, but the execution was automatically stayed when Defense Attorney Will J. Hayek appealed the case.

The full supreme court will hear oral arguments by Rhodes' attorney and Attorney Vestermark on the writ of errors. The defense claims the selection of jurors was irregular.

Should the supreme court deny the appeal, it is probable Rhodes would be hanged in the Ft. Madison state penitentiary one month after the decision is rendered. Gov. Nelson G. Kraschel has the power of commuting the sentence.

NO FLAT FEET

Policemen Will Wear $14 Shoes

ARDMORE, Pa., April 20 (AP)—Lower Merion police soon may find themselves in the shoes of London's famous Scotland Yard.

Police Superintendent Samuel Gearhart announced some time ago he would buy special shoes for his men at about $14 a pair to keep them from getting flat feet.

This letter came today from a London shoe firm:

"We are sending you a sample of our policeman's shoe. They must be just the thing you are looking for—because we supply these shoes to London's bobbies and Scotland Yard."

The price was quoted at 22 shillings 6 pence—about $5.60.

Daladier Plans To Bolster Up National Spirit

PARIS, April 20 (AP)—Premier Edouard Daladier intends to build up France's national morale before going ahead with plans to borrow money from the people.

He is convinced that adjustment of the nation's foreign relations and internal economic problems will bolster public confidence to a point where there will be plenty of money available for treasury and national defense needs.

It has been the routine practice for new French governments, during the past few years, to come out with schemes for loans the minute they took office.

Premier Daladier's cabinet and President Albert Lebrun, however, have given their attention to a plan calculated to loosen the Frenchman's purse strings by boosting public morale.

Daladier previously had estimated the national defense program and the treasury would need 35,000,000,000 ($1,106,000,000) francs to carry them through 1938.

The mere knowledge that the government can borrow 10,000,000,000 ($316,000,000) francs more from the bank of France, combined with the growing confidence in Daladier's cabinet and Minister of Finance Paul Marchandeau, reportedly eased the treasury's immediate strain.

Commission Calls 3 More Witnesses

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP)—The securities commission decided today to call three more partners of J. P. Morgan and company as witnesses in its inquiry into the failure of Richard Whitney and company.

An SEC attache disclosed that Thomas W. Lamont, Arthur M. Anderson and Charles D. Dickey, will be summoned to testify next week either in New York or Washington.

George Whitney, a member of the Morgan firm testified yesterday that he obtained a loan of $1,022,000 from Lamont to help his brother restore securities and cash to the New York stock exchange gratuity fund. The loan was repaid, Whitney said.

Japan Stunned by China's Blows

China's blows at the Japanese invaders have stunned the Japanese both in the field and at home. This map indicates how severely the Japanese have suffered. According to the latest reports, China is rushing 1,000,000 fresh troops into southern Shantung province to engage a concentration of 500,000 Japanese north and south of Szechow. Such a battle would be the largest in the history of the Far East.

Stalin Forbids More Purges

Foreign Circles Predict Production Program For Assuring Bumper Crop

MOSCOW, April 20 (AP)—Joseph Stalin today forbade further purging of collective farmers in what some foreign circles regarded as a move to assure production of a bumper grain crop.

The order, one of the sharpest ever to issue from the Kremlin, bluntly prohibited "any purges in collective farms under any pretext whatsoever."

How widely expulsion of peasants from farms had affected agriculture was not disclosed, but the order indicated many had been turned out by the farms' administrative officials for unsatisfactory work or merely at the command of the farms chairman.

Such drastic punishment of recalcitrant peasants was forbidden in the future except in extraordinary cases of "incorrigibles." Hereafter, public reprimands, fines and transfers to other jobs will be the penalties.

Stalin's order declared much harm had been done by mass expulsions of peasants from farms for trivial reasons on the pretext of purging them as hostile elements.

Mrs. E. L. Nelson of Newton Selected Presidential Nominee

Women's Group Names Six Other Iowans As Candidates

Mrs. E. L. Nelson of Newton has been selected as candidate to succeed herself as state president of the Iowa League of Women Voters, according to an announcement by the state convention's nominating committee yesterday.

Other candidates nominated were Mrs. E. D. Strong of Grinnell, first vice-president; Mrs. William Mengert of Iowa City, second vice-president; Mrs. F. B. Paddock of Ames, third vice-president; Mrs. C. R. Smith of Onslow, fourth vice-president; Mrs. J. P. Clark of Newton, secretary, and Lela Jones of Baxter, treasurer.

Other nominations may be made from the floor. The voting will take place at the convention session in Iowa Union between 8:30 and 11 o'clock this morning and the results will be announced this afternoon.

Describing the difficulties involved in working for legislation of public interest, Mrs. Harris T. Baldwin of Washington, D. C., first vice-president of the national league, used the proposed food and drug bill as an example in her address at a dinner of the league last night in the river room of the Union.

"It is not easy sledding when we work for legislation and it generally becomes a clear case of public versus private interests," asserted Mrs. Baldwin as she told of the numerous bills introduced and the opposition and favor which each has aroused. Mrs. Baldwin especially stressed the responsibility of the local leagues toward desired legislation.

The convention opened yesterday at 9:30 a.m. with registration and a pre-convention board meeting. Towns represented by the 67 women registered include Grinnell, Newton, Monticello, Des Moines, Ames, Cedar Rapids, An-

Iowa Bankers Sent to Prison

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., April 20 (AP)—William A. Kaliban, 37, former assistant cashier of the National bank of Toledo, Ia., was sentenced to a two-year term, and Clarence H. Welle, 25, former teller in the same bank, to 18 months, both in a federal penitentiary, by Judge George C. Scott in federal court this afternoon, on charges of violating the national banking law.

Judge Scott said the attorney general will specify in which penitentiary the sentences are to be served.

Welle earlier in the afternoon had pled not guilty but later decided to change his plea.

Both Kaliban and Welle were indicted by the federal grand jury. Kaliban was accused on five counts, one of embezzling $7,000 from the bank, and four that he was responsible for false entries by transferring individual ledgers in the savings department of the Toledo bank.

Welle was accused in one charge of embezzling $4,500 from the bank.

General Pershing Rests After Trip

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP)—General John J. Pershing rested in a secluded hotel room high above Park avenue tonight after a three-day train trip from Tucson, Ariz., where less than two months ago he lay near death.

Pronounced by his physician as well on the road to recovery, the 77-year-old warrior looked forward to attending the wedding of his only son, Warren, on Friday, and planned to make his annual trip to France this June.

The general was genial when he arrived in a private railroad car, which was shunted off to a siding directly under the Waldorf Astoria hotel.

He smiled and waved briskly for photographers, said, "Well, well, hurry up, please," and then walked unaided to an elevator. A wheel chair had been provided, but he turned his back to it.

Dean G. D. Stoddard Named As Psychology Department Head By Pres. Eugene A. Gilmore

Succeeds Prof. Travis; Takes Over Post On July 1

Dean George D. Stoddard yesterday was named head of the psychology department succeeding Prof. Lee E. Travis, who resigned last January. Announcement of the appointment was made by President Eugene A. Gilmore.

The new department head is dean of the University of Iowa graduate college, director of the child welfare research station and a research professor of child psychology. The appointment will become effective July 1.

President Gilmore also announced the appointment of Dr. Carl Iver Hovland of Yale university as assistant professor of psychology. His appointment will become effective at the opening of school next September.

Dr. Hovland, who is in his middle twenties, is an instructor at Yale and a specialist in the fields of physiological psychology and the psychology of learning.

Dean Stoddard received a Ph.D. degree from the University of Iowa in 1925. In 1929 he was appointed director of the child welfare research station, becoming one of the youngest department heads in the university's history. He is 40 years old.

In 1936 he was appointed dean of the graduate college succeeding Carl E. Seashore, who retired after 29 years of service and is now dean-emeritus of the college and a professor of psychology.

He was appointed instructor in psychology and education in 1928, was made assistant professor in 1929 and a professor in 1932.

Hitler Receives Birthday Gifts

Germans Laud Leader On Anniversary, Nation Exalts

BERLIN, April 20 (AP)—Germans of all walks of life showered Adolf Hitler with gifts today as the reichsfuehrer and the nation celebrated his 49th birthday.

A lion cub, phonograph records all official speeches made in connection with the union with Austria, a complete set of all editions in all languages of his book, "Mein Kampf," were among the presents.

The populations of Germany and Austria, in a state of exaltation since the Austrian crisis began six weeks ago, avidly embraced the occasion to work off their emotions again. Throughout the enlarged German realm the fuhrer's name was on all lips. Millions of "heils" acclaimed him.

Berlin, Vienna and Munich witnessed spectacular, enthusiastic celebrations.

In schools, labor camps, army barracks, churches, halls of the storm troopers and elite guards and government buildings, orators paid tribute to the fuhrer.

He was hailed as the greatest architect of all time, the master military genius of the age, friend of the poor and oppressed, champion of world peace with honor, comrade of the young people, liberator of Austria, first worker of his people, guardian of German culture—to mention only a few of the epithets applied.

At midday Hitler stood for an hour beaming with pride on a platform in front of Berlin university to review a parade of the best divisions of his armed forces amid the plaudits of a multitude.

After the infantry and cavalry came an impressive display of the deadliest motorized weapons, for an apparent purpose of the demonstration was to show Germans and foreign military attaches that Germany's weapons are formidable.

New Obstacles For Profits Tax Seen in Senate

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP)—Powerful new pressure for complete abolition of the undistributed profits tax came today from an unexpected source—the senate unemployment committee—but Roosevelt lieutenants in the house still insisted that the levy be retained.

There was no sign that the new development would break the deadlock between the senate, which has voted repeal of the tax, and the house, which has decided to retain it in modified form.

Nevertheless, critics of the tax were heartened by the report of the unemployment committee headed by Senator Byrnes (D-SC), usually a strong supporter of the administration. The committee, which has been studying the cause and cure of joblessness, declared that enactment of revenue legislation along lines approved by the senate "will be exceedingly helpful" in reducing unemployment.

The senate bill, besides providing repeal of the surplus tax, calls for a flat 15 per cent rate on capital gains, in lieu of a house-approved graduated scale. Business men have contended that the senate bill would encourage business and release capital.

Identify Knife In Murder Case

CHICAGO, April 20 (AP)—Teddy Danielsen, a shy and slender boy of 16, placed his head in his hands today when a nine inch knife was produced in his trial on charges of murdering his crippled mother.

Policeman Barney Komie identified it as the weapon he found imbedded in the throat of the victim shortly after she had been stabbed to death in the kitchen of her comfortable home last March 3.

The youth waived a jury and submitted his case to Chief Justice Cornelius J. Harrington.

Assistant State's Attorney Morris Meyers, outlining the prosecution's record of the matricide, said young Danielsen grabbed a knife off a kitchen table and plunged it into his mother's neck when she took hold of him and scratched him after he told her he had played truant from high school.

The prosecutor made no mention of a death penalty.

About the time Danielsen went to trial, a jury in the same building returned a manslaughter verdict against Charles "Sonny" Schmidt, 19, charged with a one-punch attack that resulted in the death of his father's business partner, Edward C. Richard, 59.

Program Will Include Loans to Public Utilities

France, Italy Ready to Begin Work On Cooperative Relations Agreement

ROME, April 20 (AP)—French and Italian diplomats were ready tonight to begin thrashing out details of a contemplated agreement whereby relations between the two countries would be re-established on a friendly, cooperative basis.

There were indications the Italian government intends to make various demands of France but just what these might entail was kept secret.

The controlled press, with the exception of the newspaper Il Tevere, maintained discreet silence. Il Tevere intimated that the question of treatment of Italian nationals in French Tunisia—which was thought to have been settled in the Laval-Mussolini agreement of January, 1935, might come up again.

Il Tevere said Consul General Silimbani of Tunis had protested to French authorities over "shameful violence inflicted by a patrol of soldiers on Vice-Consul Manfredi, notwithstanding the fact he had shown identifying documents."

Recession? LaFollette Discusses Business Slump

MADISON, Wis., April 20 (AP)—Gov. Philip F. LaFollette declared in a radio address tonight that the national administration, through a carefully worked out program, could have prevented the current business slump.

"Are we going to get down to business and really master our difficulties or are we going to go on tinkering and patching?" he asked.

"At the end of nine years of depression we have nearly half our people back where they were in 1931."

"If present conditions continue much longer, the whole country will be back where it was in 1933. Some people call this a recession, but you and I know it is the same old depression right back on our doorstep."

Senate Delays Naval Passage

Bill for Expansion Held Up by Opposition From Critics

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP)—Hopes of administration leaders for quick senate action on the $1,156,546,000 naval expansion bill faded tonight because of attacks by critics, but the leaders said there was not the slightest doubt of ultimate passage by an overwhelming margin.

Beginning a fight against the measure today, Senator Nye (R-N.D.) contended it was unnecessary because there was no "group of foes" that could "even threaten an encroachment on our territory."

To this, Chairman Walsh (D-Mass.) of the naval affairs committee replied that a combination of German and Japanese sea power of the navies of Russia and Japan together could attack and destroy the present United States navy.

Walsh's assertion was termed "absurd" by Senator Lundeen (R-I-Minn.).

If a combination of foes hoped to beat the United States, he said, they would have to train soldiers to swim oceans with their equipment.

Shantung Area Bombarded By Japanese Guns

SHANTUNG, April 21 (Thursday) (AP)—China's defenders of Shantung province stood fast under heavy pounding of Japanese heavy guns today, hoping to force their outnumbered attackers into hand-to-hand combat.

Japan's second central China offensive against the Chinese legions that thwarted the first opened with an artillery and air bombardment of the Lini sector which continued without pause.

Chinese admitted their situation there was critical and that defense positions were shattered under the impact of tons of high explosives, but denied Japanese assertions that Lini itself had fallen.

Japanese attacking Lini were striving to relieve pressure on the Japanese garrison besieged at Yihsein, 40 miles to the southwest. Their offensive also was pointed at Suchow, 90 miles to the southwest, main eastern junction city on the Lunghai railroad which runs through the unconquered heart of central China.

Lini itself, Chinese insisted, remained in their hands. They said that thus far Japanese had achieved nothing more than a brief entry through a breach in the city walls near the north gate.

HEADS OR TAILS

Judges Select Design For New Nickel

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP)—Art judges flipped 390 plaster models today and picked a design for a new nickel showing Thomas Jefferson on the "heads" sign and his Monticello home on the "tails."

Just which design won, however, may not be announced for a day or two. There is a $1,000 prize for the winning artist.

Move Creates Bright Outlook In Utility Field

Roosevelt Approves 5 Slum Clearance Projects

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP)—The Roosevelt administration included loans to public utilities in the new spend-and-learn recovery program today.

It was not known immediately just which companies would receive loans. However, the disclosure that loans were in the offing created unusual interest because of the long and bitter controversy between the Roosevelt administration and a number of concerns in the utility field.

A White House conference discussed a plan for advances to power companies by the Reconstruction Finance corporation to enable them to catch up on many millions of dollars worth of job-spreading construction left undone during the depression years.

President Roosevelt, endeavoring to get the recovery program started quickly, approved five slum clearance projects involving a federal expenditure of $40,728,825.

The senate committee on the cause and extent of unemployment reported that the state and federal governments had spent $19,300,000,000 for recovery and relief since 1933, $14,200,000,000 of that sum coming from the federal government. It said fully 12,000,000 were out of work and asserted that conditions were too uncertain for planning a long range relief program at this time.

Officials of the treasury and federal reserve board met and discussed the question of how rapidly $1,400,000,000 of potential bank credit resulting from last week's devaluation of gold should be made available for lending to the banks.

Added Possessions Give Franco 12 Passes Into France

PERPIGNAN, France, April 20 (AP)—Red and gold banners of the Spanish insurgents were hoisted over two more frontier posts on the French border today, giving Generalissimo Francisco Franco possession of nine out of the 12 main passes between France and Spain.

These posts were at Portillon hill, at the western edge of the Aran valley, and Pont du Roi, the main frontier pass in the valley.

Portillon hill was occupied without ceremony by Navarrese soldiers. Pont du Roi was taken by a dozen youths, who rode into town in a truck.

Their leader, a falangist (fascist) youth dressed in a dark blue shirt and wearing the star of a second lieutenant in his hat, leaped out of the truck in the middle of the bridge. He seized the banner off the truck's radiator cap and told the open-mouthed French mobile guards at the other end of the bridge:

"In the name of the government of Francisco Franco, leader of the real Spain, we take possession of the Spanish frontier post of the Aran valley."

His followers cheered "Ariba Espana" (up Spain!) and "Viva Franco" three times, then climbed into the truck and drove off, ignoring the smiles of the French guards.

Whitfields Had Family Quarrel

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP)—Inspector Harold R. King of the Nassau county police threw new light on the strange disappearance of Andrew Carnegie Whitfield tonight with an announcement that the society aviator had quarreled with his wife shortly before he left home.

King, after a conference with the wife, said she told him Whitfield threatened to "disappear." The officer said this statement was attributed to Whitfield by the wife:

"I am going away and I won't tell you where or why. I can't tell you when I will be back. I am just going to disappear."

Earlier, members of the family had said they knew of no reason why Whitfield, nephew of Andrew Carnegie, should leave home.

King said he learned the couple had quarreled Thursday night. Whitfield was last seen Friday when he left Roosevelt field in his light sport monoplane.

Connecticut state police and volunteers searched wooded areas near Newton, Conn., tonight upon reports that a plane similar to Whitfield's had been seen in the vicinity.

4-YEAR-OLD DIES

Dose of Pills Proves Fatal to Child

CRESTON, Ia., April 20 (AP)—An overdose of pills taken last Saturday proved fatal today for Donald Wainwright, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Wainwright.

The parents said the child took several of the pills without their knowledge. He became ill several hours after eating the medicine.

Welcome To the Debaters

THROUGHOUT the year the university is host to many visitors who come here to take part in conferences, contests, music and play festivals, and meetings of various kinds.

Each time we realize the importance of the university in the many fields represented. Today is another of these occasions as the high school forensic tournament opens.

More than 150 students from nearly 50 Iowa high schools will take part; for them the competition and the contact with university activities will be a new experience. It will also represent the culmination of months of hard work.

All during the debate season they have been arguing the question, "Resolved, that the several states should enact a system of unicameral legislatures." Now the final test has come.

Whether they win or lose is immaterial; the very fact that they achieved the opportunity to participate in the contest is reward enough for their efforts. For as every debater knows, debate is one of the most beneficial of intellectual pursuits, and one possessing innate values of self-satisfaction.

The Fascists in Rumania

THE SET-BACK which the Nazis received in Rumania with the imprisonment of Zelea Codreanu and hundreds of his followers possesses far greater importance than its mere relation to Rumanian political affairs.

It means that Hitler's drive toward a nazified central Europe has been stopped in Rumania as it seems to have been stopped in Czechoslovakia. And this idea of a unified central Europe, despite Hitler's frequent babbling about the necessity of regaining colonies, is without doubt, the principal goal toward which he is working.

To have gained control of Rumania as Codreanu was plotting would have meant much to Hitler. It would have given him increased political prestige as well as access to the important Rumanian economic resources. In addition, it would have placed his forces on the Russian border in a strategic position for the war which he regards as inevitable.

Can Easter Bonnets Be Explained?

PROF. GEORGE W. CRANE, noted psychologist of Northwestern university, returned from a stroll along Michigan avenue, and propounded the theory that women wear the kind of hats they do because mentally they never grow up. These latest fads, everything from chicken coops and recorders to upside-down ice cream cones, do very little to attract or increase womanly wiles. Although the vagaries of their hats are the result of their being half child and half adult, Dr. Crane admits this is not all to the bad. Because of this peculiar trait they are better teachers than men, and as parents they are more sympathetic. As for intelligence, women are on a par with men.

One point, however, has been overlooked by Professor Crane. That is woman's unconquerable sense of humor in fashions. Without that, woman would be unable to carry out these vagaries with such finesse. Perhaps they don't grow up mentally, but they know how to make use of their wit. And what would the men do without a good laugh now and then at the expense of female fashions?

France, long the leader in women's fashion changes, now seems to have taken the lead in producing new style premiers.

French cabinet ministers must be equipped with special type rubber heels. No sooner does a cabinet fall than it bounces right back again.

However, there is no truth to the rumor that Leon Blum has agreed to be premier on alternate Tuesdays and Fridays.

A smart French minister is one who never loses sleep over even the most serious problems. He knows that by tomorrow noon it probably will be someone else's headache, anyway.

The whole trouble is the franc—a piece of French money which is more nervous than a jitney in a two-bit crap game.

You can always spot a French premier. He's the fellow whose newspaper is always folded back to the "Help Wanted" ad page.

TRIUMPH OF THE LOTUS

In the Field museum a few hard, shiny, nutlike seeds germinate in a pan of water—and the hands of time are turned back hundreds of years. From a carefully watched flowerpot, one seed sends up a slender stalk of green—and writes a commentary on humankind.

These seeds are from red lotus plants that bloomed along the marshy shores of a Manchurian lake some 500 years ago. A few fell from their pods, sank into the muck at the bottom of the lake, and remained dormant. Centuries ago the lake was drained, and its bed, in time, became a peat bog. The hard shells of the seeds and the protective envelope of peat preserved the germs—to come to life 500 years after, in Chicago.

Five hundred years ago the lotus would have been born into a turbulent and unhappy world. The Mongol empire, of which Manchuria was a part, was disintegrating. Tamerlane, the great-great-grandson of Genghis Khan, had died in 1405. In Europe the Hundred Years' war was still in progress.

Not into this drab world of 1400 were the red lotus flowers born to cast their sweetness and beauty before barbaric Mongols. By a miracle, they are coming to life in a world that has had the benefits of five centuries of what we term "modern civilization."

"Look how much better the world is today," we boast. "Today no Tamerlane gallops to conquest; instead little brown men penetrate Manchuria, bent on pacification and dissemination of the fruits of culture. No Hundred Years' war devastates Europe; they're just resumming the same old war, started 24 years ago. There are no new wars in the making; those millions of men you see at rifle practice are merely training for peace. Ignorance? Poverty? Oppression? They have all been abolished by governmental decree. Why, it is practically treason to be poor in central Europe, where benevolent dictators provide an abundance for all; and it's a capital offense to belong to a group that's oppressed. You simply can't get away with it."

The triumph of the lotus seeds over time and the elements recalls that many ancient civilizations held the lotus in reverence. Among other peoples it came to symbolize soporific contentment with things as they are. He who ate of the lotus, it was said, forgot yesterday and tomorrow, and lived in a blissful, unchanging present—immutable.

Perhaps the world that the Field museum lotus flowers will glimpse when they bloom in a vastly superior universe. But, in some essentials, it is not much different from the world they have glimpsed half a millennium ago from the marshy shores of the little Manchurian lake where they first fell.

Mankind marches forward through the centuries, struggling ahead three steps, slipping back two—pausing to marvel at its progress, and to nibble from the lotus.

Personality of Child May Play Large Part in Car Sickness

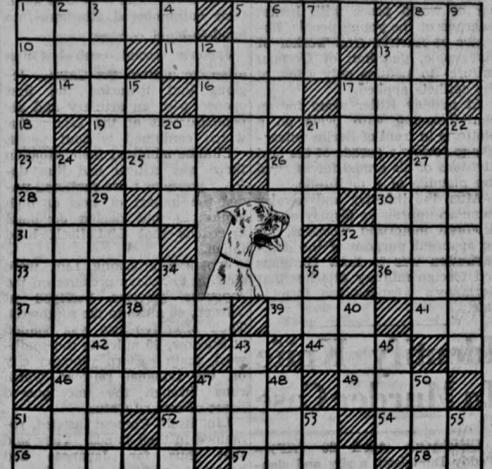

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

Car sickness is ascribed to lots of causes, such as bad ventilation, bad odors and other factors of that sort. In trying to explain it, one naturally thinks of rapid and continuous changes in position and sudden jarrings of the body, which are liable to lead to alterations in blood pressure and changes in the circulation of the brain. So these have been implicated as causes of car sickness.

In children it has been shown by psychological studies at the Johns Hopkins hospital that personality plays a great part in car sickness.

Some children become nauseated while riding in an automobile but not in a taxi cab; others can ride on the train but not on the street car; some are nauseated in the summer time but perfectly all right in the winter, and vice versa. In a study of a number of these children it was found that they were all emotionally unstable, cried easily and had temper outbursts.

Tuning In with Betty Harpel

Bob Burns is proudly displaying an offer already received for his new baby daughter to appear on the stage. It came from the Orpheum theater in Los Angeles the day after the newcomer arrived and reached Bob at the hospital, addressed to "Miss Burns, co. Diapers department."

John Conte is just a little bit busier than the proverbial cranberry merchant! Burns and Allen are contemplating a trip east which puts a monkey wrench into the works as far as his other programs are concerned. He will have to provide substitutes for his other shows.

HELEN WARD

Helen Ward, above, who was Benny Goodman's first vocalist, came out of retirement to do a guest appearance on the Steine Boys' Swing Club program a few Thursdays ago and was so successful that she's been invited back to do it again.

ADD DISCORDANT NOTE—Bill Hargrave, famed as an opera singer, who is now a member of the "Swing Fourteen" chorus heard on the Johnny Presents shows, sang the part of "Dopey" in the "Silly Song" from Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs as his first solo with the group.

Jack Fulton says that the songs most often requested by his fans are "Sylvia," "Harbor Lights," and "Bei Mir Bist Du Schoen," each of which he has sung more than 50 times.

NEW YORK—One day last week, as previously reported, this correspondent had dinner with Dr. Roy Akagi, scholarly Japanese author and lecturer who is counsel in this country to the South Manchuria railway. We talked for hours and most of it dealt with Far East problems, with Japanese expansion, with Russia, China, and world affairs in general.

If our conversation hadn't taken place over the dinner plates I am sure this story would never have suggested itself to my companion. But dinner it was, and presently we were admiring the design on the dishes, and that was the way it came about.

Plates: For it concerns the difference between the western and the Oriental manner of serving a meal. "These are charming plates," said Dr. Akagi. "But have you ever noticed that dinners in America are served on dishes that have the same pattern? I mean the plates, the saucers, the cups, the gravy bowl, the vegetable dishes, all are of a uniform pattern. And that is very nice, especially if the pattern is pleasing, as this one assuredly is.

"But in the East, in the Japanese homes, we like to think that a blanket pattern does not always make for the utmost in harmony. So we do it this way: "We permit the food itself to determine the color and the contours of the dishes.

Japanese Room: "And here is another thing. If you were to walk suddenly into the living room of a Japanese home you would think: 'What a bare, uninteresting room.' And you would be correct, for there would be no decorations, no tapestries, no flowers. But there is a satisfactory reason for this. This room is really a stage. When a Japanese invites you to his home he studies you carefully, he tries to imagine the things you like, the sort of surroundings you prefer to be in. Then he hurries home and dresses the room accordingly.

HOLLYWOOD—Donald Crisp, the character actor, was shaking his head sadly the other day.

"I heard them swinging 'Annie Laurie' last night," he shuddered. "It was terrible. "But it set some of us talking about music and songs," he went on, "and we hit on a counter-suggestion for the swingers. Those songs George M. Cohan was writing 25 years ago. . . . Yes, they're right in the modern tempo. . . . Remember 'H-A-R-I-G-A-N' and 'I Am the Man Who Owns Broadway' and 'Little Johnny Jones'?"

Knitkin' Gets 'Em: On the set of "Little Miss Broadway" little Miss Patricia (Honey Chile) Wilder was swinging an industrious pair of needles. Knitting needles. And with the yarn she wove in a bit of advice:

"Take up knitkin' if you want yourself a fella, girls—that's what Ah say. There's somethin' about knitkin' that gets 'em every time. Most young fells can't get past the old-fashioned idea that a woman's place is home—and there's somethin' awful home-lookin' about knitkin'."

Honey Chile never wants for dates, knitkin' or no knitkin'. But on the set of "The Amazing Dr. Clitterhouse," where the next knitter was encountered, Gale Page didn't know about that. "I'm knitting this sweater for my sister—the first I've done—and I'm doing it to keep from smoking—something to do with my hands," she said.

Fritz Feld is getting more and more of the character comedy assignments that have boosted his popularity ever since "I Met Him in Paris." . . . It may be just a coincidence, but between pictures Fritz doesn't run off to Palm Springs or Malibu.

Hollywood's a lonesome place, says Jeffrey Lynn ("Cowboy from Brooklyn" and "When Were You Born" via the stage) . . . And he lists all the friends he has made in this supposedly palsy-walsy town in the first three months on four fingers and two thumbs; a script girl; Carl Millikan, ex-governor's son who was a Bates college (Maine) classmate; Jean Benedict, actress, and Frank Beckwith, dialogue director; a swimming companion at Hollywood Athletic club whose name he doesn't know; a publicity man who sometimes sends items back to the home town paper in Worcester, Mass. . . .

Joe DiMaggio Signs for $25,000

Yankee Outfielder Agrees To Terms in Ending Long Holdout Siege; Reports Next Saturday

Young Italian Must Get Into Condition At Own Expense

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP)—Back to the New York Yankees when they need him most, comes Jolting Joe DiMaggio, the San Francisco outfielder who accepted today the club's salary offer of $25,000 after a holdout siege that would have lasted three months tomorrow.

DiMaggio ended his holdout with a terse telegram to Business Manager Edward G. Barrow and tonight was speeding to join the club he sparked to American league pennants and world championships in 1936 and 1937. The staggering Yankees need him. They have won only one of three games and their hitting has been puny.

No Promises
DiMaggio capitulated at the terms offered by the Yankees with no promises of a bonus for a good season. Both Barrow and Colonel Jacob Ruppert, owner of the club, were insistent on this point.

"His salary is $25,000, no more, no less," said Ruppert, who added he was "very glad that the young man has signed."

DiMaggio, traveling by train, will arrive in New York Saturday morning and will be in uniform for the Yankees' game with the Washington Senators. No one knows whether he is in shape to play and Manager Joe McCarthy will be "the sole judge of that" according to Ruppert. The club will dock him about $162 a day until he is in shape to play.

"Rarin' to Go"
According to reports from the coast, DiMaggio has worked out sporadically with the San Francisco Seals. He told reporters before leaving his home he was "rarin' to go" and excited about "getting back there and rapping that ball again."

The move which ended the holdout was entirely DiMaggio's. The wire to Barrow read: "Your terms accepted. Leaving here 3:40 p.m. (Pacific coast time). Will arrive at New York 7:30 a.m., Saturday." It ended a holdout that had lasted since January 21.

18 Men Named For Four-Game Baseball Jaunt

A traveling squad of 18 men who will oppose "Northwestern's Wildcats in Iowa's Big Ten baseball opener at Evanston, Ill., scheduled for Friday, was selected yesterday by Coach Otto Vogel.

The Hawks will play two games with Northwestern and then move down to South Bend, Ind., where they clash with Notre Dame in a two-game series.

Wendell Winters, hard-hitting catcher who has been on the sick list, was named, along with Charles McClanahan, to take over the catching duties, replacing Dave West and Marvin Kaplan, who handled the receiving chores on the late lamented southern jaunt.

The complete squad will be made up of pitchers Ken Reid, Harold Haub, Keith Wymore, Fred Hohenhorst, Howard Miller, Matt Faber and Wendell Dellzell; catchers Wendell Winters and Charles McClanahan; infielders Elmer Bratten, Erwin Frasse, Capt. Eddie Kadell, Andy Kantor and Vic Belger, and outfielders Art Manush, William Vogt, John Vogt and Jim George.

Feller Holds St. Louis To One Hit in Hurling 9 to 0 Shutout Victory

Cleveland Ace Opens Season In Great Form

CLEVELAND, April 20 (AP)—Robert W. "Bob" Feller back in the form that made him the American league's strikeout champion, shut out the St. Louis Browns with a single hit today while Cleveland's artillery swung into action to win 9 to 0.

The only hit off Feller came in the sixth, when catcher Billy Sullivan beat out a tap to the box on a close decision. The Indians meanwhile clubbed big Jim Weaver and his successor, Russ Van Atta, and received 10 walks, nine of them from Weaver.

Feller has not displayed his dazzling speed of last year, when he won nine and lost seven, but has been pitching smarter baseball and holding runners close to their bases. Not a man stole on him today.

Diz Dean Wins First Game As Chicago Hurler

Bruins Get Nine Runs In Second Inning To Beat Reds

CINCINNATI, April 20 (AP)—Jerome Herman (Dizzy) Dean's debut as a Chicago Cub was just a six inning arm-loosening chore for the former St. Louis Cardinal loudspeaker today, the "Great One" coasting to a 10 to 4 victory over the Cincinnati Reds on the impetus of a nine run spurge in the second frame.

A crowd of 6,552 turned out, most of them to watch Dean's performance, but the second inning barrage of the Bruin batsmen stole the show.

Middle Ages Prof. de Kiewiet Calls Period Cultural

"The Middle Ages should not be regarded as a period of stagnation and thralldom for it was a period of reformation and development—a period preparatory of the renaissance," Prof. Cornelis W. de Kiewiet of the history department said last night in his lecture on "The Medieval and the Renaissance Spirit."

Professor de Kiewiet showed the relationship between the middle ages and the renaissance period. The cultural age of the Renaissance would not have been possible without the gradual change and development of the Middle Ages, he said.

"The attainment of life everlasting," was the aim of the medieval man and therefore he was indifferent to life about him—the high infant mortality, disease, pestilence and wretched living conditions.

According to the university man the root of democracy can be traced to the church for it taught that everyone from the overlord to the lowly peasant had the right to save his soul. The break in the Middle Ages came when faith was no longer sufficient and men wanted other things in life.

Examination Schedule

Second Semester, 1937-1938

Monday, May 23, 8 a.m., to Tuesday, May 31, 4 p.m.

The regular program of class work will be suspended and the following semester-examination program substituted for it. Classes will meet for examination in the rooms in which they have been regularly meeting (except classes in SPECIAL GROUPS, A, B, C, D, E, F, and G, as shown in the form below; and Speech (2), (1), and (4) as shown at "N.B." below.

The Program Committee directs the attention of both students, and instructors and professors, to the regulation that there is to be no deviation in the case of any examination, from this Schedule, except as authorized by the Committee on Admission and Classification, on the student's written petition, filed in ample time, supported by the recommendation of the department concerned, to provide relief from an excessive number of examinations within a single day. Deviation for the purpose of getting through earlier will not be permitted. Students should prepare and deposit such petitions in the offices of the Deans of Men (men) and Women (women).

Each student who is absent from the final meeting of his class as indicated in the Examination Schedule should be reported, on the official grade sheet at the end of the semester, as "Abs." Before this grade mark can be removed he must file with the Committee on Admission and Classification a written petition, with adequate vouchers attached, setting forth in full the necessity of his absence. This petition must include a departmentally signed statement indicating whether, in case the Committee finds the absence excusable, the student has the department's and instructor's permission to take the final examination. If the Committee finds the reason for the absence adequate it will issue to the student a partially prepared special report card (signed by the Secretary, lower left corner) with a form letter explaining to him that he has the Committee's permission, with the departmental consent and at the convenience of the instructor, to take his final examination within one month (or other designated period of time) from the date dictated.

If the student takes the examination thus authorized the outcome is to be reported on this card and not on any other card.

In the case of conflicts (within the SPECIAL GROUPS A, B, C, D, E, F, and G) the schedule itself, as presented below, provides a general method of making adjustments.

All classes whose first weekly meetings have occurred as indicated in the rectangles below meet for examination during the periods noted at the tops of these three columns and on the days noted in the rectangles directly opposite at the left of the double vertical line.

CONFLICTS: In case of conflicting examinations the student should report to the instructor in charge of the first of the two conflicting subjects as listed within the particular SPECIAL GROUP rectangle above which is involved. (Read downward first in left column and then in right column.) The instructor will arrange for you a special examination. Report to him, or her, not later than the regular class hour May 19 or 20; if possible, May 12 or 13.

The first meeting of the class means the first lecture or recitation period in courses having both lectures and recitations, and laboratory periods; or in the case of courses involving only laboratory periods, the first clock-hour of the first weekly meeting. For example, chemistry 21 meets for lectures T Th S at 8. The first regular meeting is, consequently Tuesday at 8,—and the class will meet for examination Tuesday, May 24, 2 p.m., according to the tabular form above. Again, physics (126) meets twice each week, T, F, for a three-hour laboratory exercise, 1-4. The period for the examination is, therefore, Saturday, May 28, 2 p.m.

N. B. All sections of "Principles of Speech" (1), (2) and (4) (Except Section J) will meet during Examination Week on the days and at the periods designated below. Consult the bulletin board, Room 13 S. H. for room assignments.

Mon., May 24—Section H, 8-10 Speech (1), 8-10	Fri., May 27—Section I, 8-10 Section C, 1-3 Section G, 3-5 Speech (4), 3-5
Tues., May 24—Section A, 1-3 Section E, 3-5	Sat., May 28—Section D, 10-12 Section B, 1-3 Section F, 3-5

*Section J will meet as announced by the instructors.

"ODD" classes, namely those whose first or only weekly meetings occur on Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays, or Saturdays, or which meet "as arranged," will be assigned for examination, as announced to each such class, by the instructor in charge of the class, at one or another of the following periods:

1. From 4 to 6 on any day from May 23 to May 31 inclusive,—Sunday and Memorial Day excepted.

2. Any one of the examination periods assigned, as indicated above, for the examinations in the SPECIAL GROUPS, A, B, C, D, E, F and G, since for such "odd" classes these seven examination periods will be found quite available.

In connection with any such announcement it would doubtless be well for the instructor making the announcement to ascertain whether any member of his class is already under appointment for examination in some other class for the proposed period. To be sure it is possible to have examinations in more than one class at any of these times,—if no student is a member of more than one of these classes.

According to one clause in the formal faculty action providing for a special semester-examination program, "the instructor may use the examination period as he sees fit provided he holds the class for the full period. He may have an oral or a written examination, or both, or neither. He may continue regular work or he may use the time for review, or for any phase of his work which may seem to him desirable at this time.

According to another faculty regulation, which is on record as adopted by the faculty, a student absent from the final examination should be reported "Abs.," unless the instructor recognizes that his work up to this examination has been a failure, in which case the final report should be "Fd.,"—even though the student may have been absent from the final examination. No examination should be given, subsequently, to such a student until after the absence has been excused by the Committee on Admission and Classification, as shown by a partially filled special report card, signed by the Secretary of the Committee, as indicating that the absence has been excused and that the student is authorized, subject to the consent and at the convenience of the instructor concerned, to take the final examination.

H. C. DORCAS, Secretary, Program Committee.

Members of Commission Visit Iowa City for River Project

Will Submit Plans For Dredging Channel To Governor

Iowa City's river improvement program was given impetus yesterday when State Senator Leo Elthon of Fertile, Charles House of the state conservation commission, and L. W. Murray, field engineer of the state planning board, all members of Gov. Nelson G. Kraschel's emergency conservation commission, visited the WPA project that has been in progress the last two years.

The immediate purpose of the visit was to plan for the installation of dredging equipment that would deepen the channel of the river and provide dirt for filling in the area around the dramatic arts building.

The dredging program has been a part of the project since its start, but no provision has been made for the installation of equipment. During the last two years flood walls have been erected on both sides of the river and work is progressing on the lagoons near the university buildings on the west bank.

The dredging of the river would extend from the city park bridge to the Burlington street dam, and from wall to wall.

Funds for installation of equipment may be made available by the emergency conservation commission if the project is approved by the governor.

W. Arnold Sues City Companies In Damage Suit

Arnold claims he was injured Dec. 18, 1937, when he fell into the opening covered by the sidewalk door in front of the shoe store.

He alleges that Maher, an employee of the water company, suddenly jerked the door open in front of Arnold without warning. Maher had entered the basement of the store to read the water meter.

Civil Service Exam to Start

The civil service examination for applicants for the recently created position on the Iowa City police force will be in the Iowa City high school auditorium April 28, at 7:30 p. m., according to the Iowa City Civil Service committee.

Runaway Girl Returns Home

Roberta Fleming, 14, missing from the Johnson county juvenile home since 9 a. m. Tuesday, was found hiding in a barn on the Burt Rahret farm near Cosgrove by Edward C. Orr, juvenile home steward, at 10 a. m. yesterday.

Last night Roberta, her mother, and Mrs. Mabel Evans, Johnson county probation officer, were conferring with juvenile authorities as to the advisability of sending her to the Good Shepherd home in Dubuque if she is dissatisfied at the juvenile home.

Orr drove out to the farm when he was informed the girl might be found in the vicinity. According to Orr, she ran and hid in the barn when she saw him, refusing to drive back to the juvenile home with him.

Orr said Roberta refused to talk with him or with some of her friends from the home who drove out with him to persuade the girl to return.

Orr returned to Iowa City to get permission to bring the girl back by force if necessary, but in the meantime Rahret had taken the girl to the Johnson county courthouse. Mrs. Evans returned the girl to the juvenile home.

There was no explanation for the girl's presence on the Rahret farm, Orr said.
