Hoover Starts Anti-New Deal Election Battle

Urges Concerted Action In Address Before Party Meeting

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)— Advocates of a 1940 coalition between republicans and anti-new deal democrats got distinct encouragement from former President Hoover, speaking before a party audience in Oklahoma.

Mr. Hoover did not use the word coalition. He did not give any definite indication of the role he might hope to play in such a development by 1940, except his pledge that "a lot more fighting free speech" would be heard before the nation went farther down
"the dangerous road for democracy." But he did say that the fundamentals involved go "far deeper than party labels" and he pleaded for "unity among all right-thinking men and women in this time of national difficulty."

Own Plans Indefinite
As to his own political plans,
aside from his indicated intentions to continue an active fight against the new deal right down to the 1940 election, the former president had only this to say:
"At my position in life, my sole concern over political parties is that they stand up and face these fundamentals with courage and intellectual honesty."

Observers do not read that as removing Mr. Hoover from the field of speculation over 1940 republican presidential possibilities
any more definitely than his previous declarations that he was not seeking any office. The 11-point program of action he outlined "to change the national direction and get off the dangerous road" impressed political onlookers as essentially a declaration of principles for 1940, in advance of whatever may be the product of the Hoover-sponsored republican program committee.

As Music Reigns Supreme on the Iowa Campus

Music is in the air and on the streets—in fact it's everywhere
these days. Festival contestants from all over Iowa swarm the campus grounds as well as every available building with instruments, not only at hand, but at attention and operating. Dorothy Ziegler of Muscatine, an outstanding candidate for versatility
among high school musicians, in the upper left hand corner, is seen blasting melody from her trombone, one of the three instruments with which she wins superior for her high school. This year she has also put Muscatine on the map with a superior in the baritoneeuphonium solo group. Last year Dorothy won a superior at the festival, too—but it was in the piano solo group, another of her many talents. In the upper right hand corner the festival's more informal and impromptu note is exemplified. Lois Parsons and Dorothy Brown are lending bits of instrumental and vocal music while Pauline Johnson and Ruth Larsen express their disapproval of this unprepared music—all representing Fairfield high school in the festival. In the left hand corner are two Iowa City superior winners—Edward Sybil, son of Mr.
and Mrs. Edward W. Sybil, 1310
Cedar street, and Warren Burger,
son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Bur-

Festival to Close With Impressive Pageantry

Duce Parades 'Sample' of Italy's Army Before Admiring Hitler in 2 Hour Show

ROME, May 6 (AP)—Premier Mussolini today showed Adolf Hitler a sample of the 9,000,000 men which he recently asserted he could mobilize in the event of war.
The tiny part he exhibited—
some 30,000 soldiers or one-third of one per cent of his total manpower—was itself a war machine bristling with means of mass destruction.
Artillery, tanks, armored cars,
poison gas dispensers and flame spreading units passed before the eyes of the fascist and nazi leaders for more than two hours with Hitler proudly pointing to the armed force he created and the fuehrer showing his admiration.
Men ready for combat, women prepared for work behind the lines and little boys bearing toy rifles as the start of their military training—all a part of Italy's vast war organization—marched in the parade.
Yesterday Mussolini showed Hitler his navy in action. Tomorrow he will show him his air force.

Marching Band Competition To Climax Meet

Iowa City's Musicians Score 6 Superiors, 7 Excellents

Impressive pageantry, to the accompaniment of 21 marching bands composed of snappily attired high school music makers, will officially close the 13th annual high school music festival this afternoon in Iowa stadium.

The program, which will begin at 1 o'clock, will end the three-day
musical invasion of 7,500 Iowa high school students.

The beat of more than a hundred drums will begin to throb soon after the noon hour when contest-ing bands arrive and take their places for the grand entry. Iowa City will be a moving mass of color as hundreds of bandmen
march with rhythmic step in parallel and diagonal lines about the practice field before entering the stadium.

The melodic extravaganza will climax a display of young Iowa's musical ability, setting a new all-time record in number of participants. Three judges, Gerald R.
Prescott, Ernest Glover and Victor Grabel, will direct 1,500 musicians
in the massed concert following.
Latest returns show four Iowa high schools holding prominent places in their respective classes in the festival. Davenport, Iowa City, Mt. Airy and Orange City high schools were leading class AA, A, B and C divisions respectively, in number of superior awards.

At the conclusion of yesterday's events Iowa City high school had a record of six superior and seven excellent ratings for an unofficial lead over all other schools. Davenport, with four superiors and six excellents, led class A; Mt.
Airy with five superiors was first in class B, and Orange City, with two superiors and two excellents,
stood high in class C.
Iowa City high school musicians garnered six superiors. Jean Taylor won a superior rating in the harp solo division; Warren Burger,
oboe solo division; Edward Sybil, string bass division, and Marjorie Stridwell clarinet solo division, while the mixed chorus won a superior rating. The Iowa City or-

Britain, France Seek to Ease Czechoslovakia's Minority Peril

Henderson to Approach Goering on Behalf Of 2 Nations

LONDON, May 6 (AP)—Great Britain and France decided today
to make a quick effort to ease Czechoslovakia's minority trouble and get Europe away from the brink of possible war.

Informed sources said that,
without waiting for Adolf Hitler's return from his state visit to Italy, Sir Neville Henderson, British
ambassador to Germany, would see Field Marshal Hermann Wilhelm Goering, acting chancellor, tomorrow in Berlin on behalf of the democratic allies.

Stripped of diplomatic niceties,
the Anglo-French approach would include:
1. A request for German aid in getting Konrad Henlein, nazi leader in Czechoslovakia, to moderate his demands for that nation's minority of 3,500,000 Germans.
2. An Anglo-French offer to "advise" the Czechoslovak government to make liberal concessions.
3. A warning that "rough handling" of the minority issue by Germans most certainly would precipitate a war.

It was planned at the same time that British Minister Basil Newton and French Minister Victor Leopold de Lacroix in Praha would press the Czechoslovak government to go as far as possible toward meeting Henlein's demands.

(Henlein April 24 submitted an eight-point program in which he called for revision of Czechoslovakia's foreign policy, self-government with nazi principles for the German minority and other concessions.)

Informed sources said Britain would sound out the feeling in Warsaw. (There are some 80-000 Poles in Czechoslovakia.) Sir Neville also would see Hitler on his return from Italy.

MORE BREAD Madrid Gets Increase Of Supplies

MADRID, May 6 (AP)—Madrid
"celebrated" the first 18 months
of siege today with a 25-gram (.88-ounce) increase in bread rations.

The arrival of new supplies of flour enabled authorities to announce the per capita ration would be 175 grams (6.17 ounces) a day
hereafter.
The city, although it still is suffering midwinter cold under the lash of rain and winds, is better off for food now than it has been since last summer.

Frank Attacks Senate Inquiry

Calls It 'Intimidation' Of Nation's Press By Terrorism

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—
Dr. Glenn Frank charged tonight that the senate lobby committee's investigation of the magazine "Rural Progress" was part of a campaign of "terror and intimidation" against newspapers and magazines which criticize the new deal.

Dr. Frank is editor of "Rural Progress," a Chicago farm publication, and also is chairman of the republican program committee.

He made his charge in a statement to the press shortly after the lobby committee had refused
him an opportunity to answer
charges that the farm magazine
was a propaganda medium financed by "great capitalists."

Dr. Frank said he was disturbed by accumulating evidence of "a determination to intimidate the free press of the country by such terroristic methods."

An important link in the chain of evidence, he declared, was an order by President Roosevelt authorizing the lobby committee to examine the income tax returns of virtually any individual or corporation it desires. The order was issued under the power of a senate resolution passed almost three years ago for an entirely different purpose, he said.

Decision Parents Decide Child Should Die

CHICAGO, May 6 (AP)—The parents of five-weeks-old Helaine Colan today decided they would not attempt to save the baby's life by submitting her to an operation.

Gliona, a tumor which creeps along the optic nerves to the brain, has dimmed both of the infant's eyes.
Surgeons advised they might halt the deadly growth by removing her eyes. Such a course would leave her blind for life.
Failure to operate, they held,
would mean death within two months.

Throughout the day the parents,
Dr. Herman Colan, 30, a dentist, and his wife, Estelle, 23, sought to reach a decision. It was made known late this afternoon by the maternal grandfather, Dr. Morris
L. Hershman.

War Veterans Scare Speaker In Jersey City

JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 6 (AP)—A congressman, headed here with a colleague to speak in defiance of Mayor Frank Hague, today sought federal agents to protect him against a threatened mobilization of war veterans
wielding rubber hoses.

Public Safety Director Daniel J.
Casey, however, said the threat was "merely made by an over-enthusiastic veteran who was imbued with an ardent desire to prevent the congressmen from speaking."

Casey reiterated that police would not permit Representatives Jerry O'Connell (D-Mont) and John T. Bernard (FL-Minn) to speak in Journal Square tomorrow night.

Road Bill Passes By Wide Margin

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—
The biennial bill authorizing the appropriation of millions of dollars for roads, always popular with republicans and democrats alike, passed the house today without a dissenting vote.
Sponsors of the legislation,
which carries authority for a $484,000,000 allocation to states during the 1940 and 1941 fiscal years, predicted it would encounter no more difficulty in the senate than it did in the house.

Petition Rescues Wage-Hour Legislation

218 Signatures Quickly Made To Snatch Bill

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—
Backers of the wage-hour bill, mustered a majority of the house
in a quick maneuver snatched the legislation away from the hostile rules committee today and thus made possible a showdown vote on the hot issue before congress goes home to face the voters in primary campaigns.

Amid tumultuous scenes, 218
legislators lined up in a fast-stepping queue and affixed their signatures to a petition forcing the committee to take the bill out of a pigeonhole and sent it to the floor for consideration beginning May 23.

Jubilant advocates of the legislation—and some opponents as well—said this spelled victory for the measure on the final vote.

"The bill's going through as it is; we shall resist all amendments," said Representative Mary Norton (D-N.J.), chairman of the house labor committee sponsoring the legislation.

The bill calls for a flat 25 cents an hour minimum wage, to be increased by annual five-cent jumps to 40 cents. It also provides for maximum hours, graduated downward from 44 in the first year to 40 after the second.

The action today was in sharp contrast to the 216 to 198 vote by which the house sent a different wage-hour bill back to the labor committee last Dec. 17, a vote which shelved the subject until this session.

The speed with which the signatures went on the petition today
almost took the leaders' breath away. One hundred names were attached in a bare half hour, and the whole thing was over in slightly more than two hours. When the petition was laid on the speaker's desk there was a scramble to be the first to sign.

Wage-Hour Interpretive

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—
Here are the major provisions of the house wage-hour bill:
A graduated minimum wage,
starting at 25 cents an hour and increasing to 40 cents at the end of three years.
A maximum work week starting at 44 hours and decreasing to 40
hours at the end of two years.
A prohibition of interstate shipment of child-labor products.
The measure would apply only to industries engaged in or affecting interstate commerce. The secretary of labor would designate what industries fall within these categories.

It would not apply to employes engaged in any administrative or executive capacity or agriculture
nor would it affect local retailers, seamen, fishermen, railroad, or air-
transport employes.

Employes of federal, state and municipal governments and labor organizations also would be exempt.

Insurgents Advance On Southern Front

HANDAYE, France (At the Spanish Frontier), May 6 (AP)— Spanish insurgents advanced on eastern Spain's southern front today while government forces gained high in the Pyrenees mountains
on the north.
A government offensive broke through the insurgent left flank
in the central Pyrenees, just west of the Andorran frontier, to counter-balance partly the loss of several lines on trenches to General Miguel Aranda's insurgents in the Alcala de Chivert sector on the south.

Bitter Deadlock Ushers in 11th Month of War

SHANGHAI, May 7 (Saturday)
(AP)—A bitter deadlock today ushered in the 11th month of undeclared war between China and Japan.
On the main front in southern Shantung province, Japan's modern army was halted in its tracks
for the second time in six weeks.
It had been forced back from its furthest advance in other provinces.

Chinese asserted they still were gaining slightly in their counteroffensive against the Japanese north of Pihsein, in the center of the Japanese lines.
They acknowledged, however,
that Japanese artillery again was butressing the enemy positions.
At Tancheng, on their left wing, Japanese said they had advanced through a heavy rain and had captured several villages to the south.

Tancheng, southernmost advance of the Japanese toward the Lunghai railroad, 15 miles distant,
until the Chinese counteroffensive,
previously had been reported surrounded by Chinese.

Sub-Committee Would Limit Roosevelt's Spending Power

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—
The president's power to choose his own means of spending in the attack on the depression would be sharply restricted by a bill approved by a house appropriations
sub-committee today.
The measure contains the administration's new multi-billion dollar program of spending and lending. But for the first time, should the bill become law in its present form, relief money would not go to the president to be ap-

Social Worker Admits Alias Of 'Black Hornet'

BOSTON, May 6 (AP)—A social worker in the Boston welfare department was quoted tonight by John F. Stokes, captain of the state police detectives, as admitting sending a crudely-printed letter to Gov. Charles F.
Hurler, threatening the executive's daughter.

Captain Stokes said the man,
whom he named as Edmund E.
Farrell, 41, was taken in custody by officers today after he had signed his name to a postal card
on which he had written an apology to the governor for causing him "so much trouble."

The scrawled letter, received by Governor Hurler last Tuesday, warned that "your daughter will be missing one week from today."
Governor Hurler has three daughters but no name was mentioned in the note, which was signed
"The Black Hornet."

TOO HEAVY Heart Disease Claims 'Fat Lady'

MIAMI, Fla., May 6 (AP)— Dr. J. P. Turk reported today an autopsy showed heart disease
caused the death of Doris Bleau, circus "fat lady" whose relatives had expressed the opinion she might have been poisoned.

Dr. Turk scouted the poison theory and said Miss Bleau, who was 38, had a life expectancy of only 40 years because of the strain on her heart from her excess weight. She weighed 575 pounds at her death, but before her last illness had weighed 714 pounds.

'About 60 Fish,' Believe It or Not

CHARLESTON S.C., May 6
(AP)—President Roosevelt paused for nearly six hours off West Caicos island in the Bahamas today, made a record haul of "about 60 fish" with members of his party, and resumed his return voyage here aboard the U.S.S.
Philadelphia.
As off Sombroero island, east of the Virginia group, on Wednesday, the president topped his five fishing companions for the largest prize, a vicious 20-pound bar-cade, a radiogram received at the navy yard here, said. Wednesday
he snagged a 20-pound pompano
for high honors.

The Franc Retreats Again

TO FOREIGN observers Premier Daladier's evaluation of the franc this week did not come as a surprise. Devaluation was seen as inevitable when the premier took over the French government a short time back.

It was only a few weeks ago that Daladier gathered the reins of a disunited, industrially paralyzed and financially weak France into his hands. His first difficulty was with labor and its numberless strikes, boycotts and walkouts which had kept the French industrial world in an up-roar.

Until September of 1936 the franc was maintained at 6.63 cents. Since its abandonment at that time the franc has also been cut loose from a definite gold content, and prices in France have risen 55 per cent.

We hope that the move will be a turning point in France's discouraging post-war history. But there is serious evidence against the effectiveness of devaluation as used in the past.

New Grounds For Divorce

THE DAY when a man had a right to read what he chose is past if we are to judge from the experience of Milton Hagen, 23-year-old Chicago janitor who is being sued for divorce because of his passion for low grade fiction.

Ever since the two were married in February, 1937, Mrs. Hagen has, it seems, been striving to improve her mate's mind—without success.

According to her story, Milton struck her at the conclusion of one of their arguments last November. The insult supreme, however, came a month and a half later when he struck her again—this time without even looking up from the book he was reading! At any rate, Mrs. Hagen is to be granted a divorce on grounds of cruelty, and Mr. Hagen has not contested the suit.

Glenn Frank And the Senate

FARM READERS of Rural Progress know it as an attractive little magazine which comes once a month free to their mail boxes. They also know that it is supposedly supported solely by advertising, that its editor is Glenn Frank, chairman of the republican program committee, and that it occasionally takes a healthy swat at the Roosevelt administration.

Yesterday a senate lobby committee refused to let Frank answer charges that his magazine was a propaganda medium financed by "great capitalists."

Now the question of the magazine being controlled by any group with a personal axe to grind is one of importance. If such is the case its readers should know it, that they might be influenced or not influenced accordingly.

Such a farce may very well serve the purposes of the dictatorial governments of Europe, but over here we like other methods much, much better.

The art of fencing is reported enjoying a revival of popularity among American men. Maybe it's just a gesture of self-defense, now that the women have again taken to wearing hat pins.

THE DECLINE OF GOLF

THE GRAND old game of golf originated as a kind of solitaire-shinny. It was invented by dour and thrifty Scotch shepherds knocking pebbles around with their crooks to employ idle moments while tending their flocks.

Before long there was a well-defined tradition that no big business deal could be conceived or closed save across the luncheon table or between the first and 19th holes.

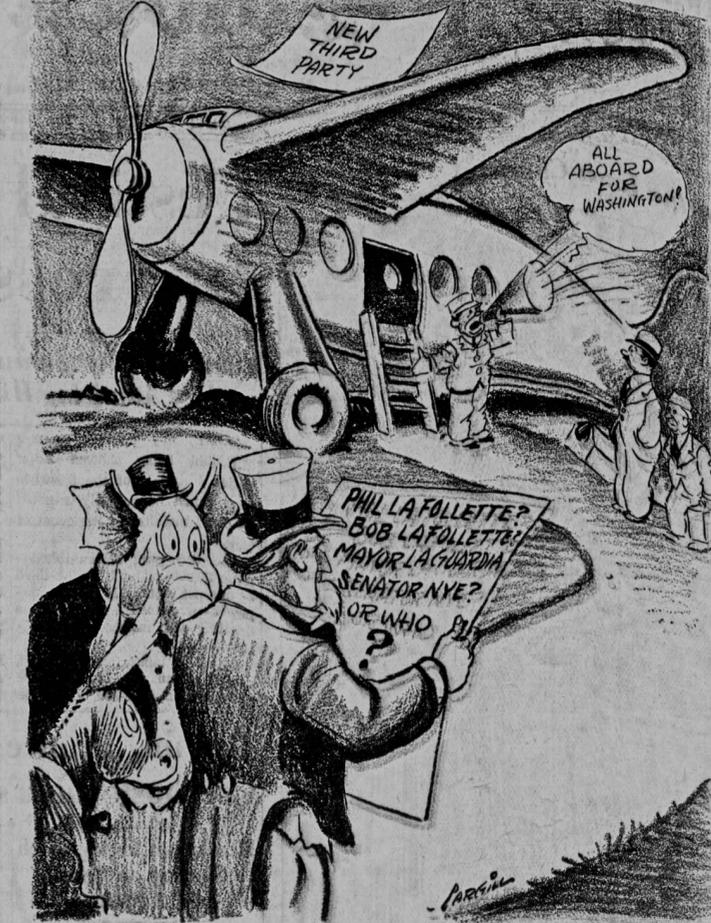

It should have been clear then that golf was done for; but the final degradation was yet to come. It remained for the Wisconsin Industrial commission to place golf legally in the category of big business—along with General Motors, Standard Oil, Big Steel, and the movies—and thereby seal its doom.

Under recently promulgated orders of the commission, all caddies must be registered with its offices. They cannot be under 14 years of age; and, if under 16, cannot work more than 24 hours a week.

Since golf is now classed as business, it must of course be regulated. Before long we may expect to have the NLRB fixing hours of play, and the Federal Trade commission limiting production to 18 holes per day.

Golf has only itself to blame. It should have read the handwriting on the wall, decades ago.

TEST PILOT—WHO?

Industrial Surgeon Advances High Blood Pressure Theory

By LOGAN GLENDENING, M. D. An industrial surgeon has suggested a new angle to the old subject of high blood pressure. He has noted that high blood pressure is particularly likely to occur among railroad engineers and, in fact, all members of the train crew. He ascribes this to the fact that these people are under such terrible nervous tension.

The doctor seems to depend upon time rather than upon mileage. In other words, driving an engine at a leisurely rate over a given stretch of road does not influence blood pressure, but driving the engine over the same ground at a high rate of speed does.

Tuning In with Betty Harpel

Meredith Willson is having his troubles. He is to play the most beloved American melody of all time on the "Good News of 1938" broadcast May 19 and is already receiving suggestions. So far, he has received over 100 letters from fans who nominate their favorite tunes.

Crack of the Week: After waiting a long time for his turn on the dedication program of the new CBS studios in Hollywood, George McCall quipped to Frances Langford: "Gee, I hope they put me on before my suit goes out of style."

Did you know that Bob Burns received one dollar for his first appearance as a musician. He was supposed to receive two, but the manager of the movie house he played in said he only deserved half pay, if that, and went on to explain to Burns what he thought of his talent.

No less than three museums are dickering for Mr. Frank Black's collection of 200-year-old Mendelssohn oratorios.

Russ Morgan was an honorary fire chief when he played in his hometown, Scranton, Pa., last week. The laugh is that Russ once tried to get on the municipal payroll as a fireman but flunked the exam.

The stylists say that Benny Goodman's influence is being felt in the realm of fashion. They credit the tendency to mix colors with abandon to the popularity of "swing." There is the same element of escaping from the confines of tradition in each, surely.

A Man ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Every year at the beginning of the baseball season a new fund of stories dealing with the intellectual shortcomings of rookies makes the rounds. There is the one about the rookie with the Cincinnati Reds who accompanied the team to the big town, and it was his first glimpse of New York.

His room happened to be on the 17th floor of a hotel, and after two days his legs had charlie-horses and he was so weary he would fall into an exhausted slumber every time he sat down. "What in the world is the matter with you?" inquired his manager, eyeing the youngsters in distress.

"Well, chief," the rookie replied, "I ain't used to walking up 17 flights of stairs everytime I want to go up to my room." "Seventeen flights of stairs! Why, you numbskull, ride the elevator."

"Can't afford it, chief," explained the youngster seriously. "By this time the manager began to see the light. 'You can't afford it, eh?'" he said. "No, sir," went on the rookie. "One of the boys told me it cost 50 cents a ride, and at that rate I wouldn't have anything left. I'll be glad when we get out of this town."

Another story, which I can verify, concerns young Bob Feller, of the Cleveland Indians. But there was nothing wrong with Bob's thinking apparatus in this. It isn't that sort of story. It happens that Bob arrived for his baseball chores with three young rookies in tow. He registered in a hotel and then sought out the manager.

"I've got several kids with me," he said, "who can't afford to pay these rates. Of course, they could go to a cheaper hotel, but they are young and green, and I want them here with me. Now, what I want you to do is charge them $1.50 a day and put the balance on my bill. I don't want them to know I am paying the difference."

And that is what actually took place. The rookies remained several weeks at a swank hotel for the sum of $1.50 a day, never dreaming that several times that sum daily was added to Feller's account.

The man who told me this story was the manager himself. He thinks, and so does this reporter, that it was a fine, generous act on the part of Bob Feller.

Washington World

By CHARLES P. STEWART WASHINGTON, D.C.—Independent political party movements are multiplying at a rate which is becoming downright difficult to keep track of.

To begin with, each of the two old-line parties is split at least two ways. A democrat like Senator Harry F. Byrd has little in common with a democrat like President Franklin D. Roosevelt. A republican such as Senator Gerald P. Nye is the antithesis of such a republican as Senator Frederick Hale.

However, Senators Byrd and Nye are not a bit similar, nor is Senator Hale in the slightest sympathy with President Roosevelt. So there are at least four groups. But that does not tell the whole story by any means.

Progressives: Gov. Philip F. LaFollette of Wisconsin, as we know, seems to be launching a new national organization, an expansion of his own state's progressive line-up—a repetition of what his father attempted 14 years ago, and failed at. But it may have better luck this time.

Possibly La Follette and La Guardia activities will merge presently, but as yet they look like separate efforts. It is imaginable that there is a clash between La Follette and La Guardia personal ambitions.

Farmer-Labor: Now labor's non-partisan league has formed a "Joint Farmer-Labor Committee on Co-operative Enterprise"—still another party looming in the offing. To be sure, there already exists a farmer-labor party, dominate thus far only in Minnesota.

One might surmise that a "Joint Farmer-Labor Committee on Co-operative Enterprise" and a Farmer-Labor party could affiliate with one another. Nevertheless, urban labor prevails in labor's non-partisan league, which sponsors the "joint committee," whereas farmers outweigh urban labor in the farmer-labor party.

The Looking Glass Reflects—

Among the many Iowa City mothers to be honored in the national observance of Mother's day tomorrow is Mrs. E. L. McRoberts, 229 S. Linn street, pictured above, who is about to leave for a drive with her family. She is the mother of two children, a son, Patrick, C4, and a daughter, Shirley, who is a

It was in 1911 that a lonely woman, on the date of her mother's death, decided that a day should be set aside to pay tribute to all mothers. It was through her efforts that Mother's day was proclaimed a national holiday a few years later.

Tomorrow will be a day for the remembrance of mothers, living and dead, in all of the United States and in many other parts of the world.

Don't limit your remembrance of your mother to a mere gift, card or bouquet of flowers, and then discard your duties as completed to dash off for a game of golf. Rather, remember that this is a day for mothers—the one day in the year that is especially your chance to show your mother what she means to you.

Begin the day by rising a half hour earlier and surprising her with a piping hot breakfast. Be sure the water is hot so that she may enjoy the luxury of a warm bath before she dresses. Please her with a bouquet or two of flowers, one perhaps to decorate the breakfast table, another to be delivered later at the door.

She may protest, but she will really love to read the Sunday papers or poke about in her garden, knowing that lunch will be prepared and served without her supervision. It will flatter her to see that her sons and daughters are capable of taking over the household—and to know they are considerate enough to realize that maids also like to spend Mother's day in their own homes.

And then there is the problem of dishes. Any mother will be glad to relinquish her hand in this task if you will promise faithfully neither to break nor chip the chinaware.

Don't leave with the family car as soon as the dishes are done. Please your mother by showing her that you are glad to spend the day with the family. Let the rest of the day be hers. She will undoubtedly like you to spend it with her. Whether you visit friends, go for a drive or just spend the afternoon at home, let mothers be the star of the activity.

And if she wants to wait until early evening to take a ride, don't protest because you have a date, but make it a family affair. Let mother ride in the front seat this time if that is her choice.

If you haven't a mother of your own, choose one who is lonely to share tomorrow with you. When the day is over, remember the appreciative glint in your mother's eyes when you were attentive to her. She'd appreciate some of this consideration every day in the year.

AROUND THE TOWN

Festival Jottings
The incessant sound of those flutes... The contestants sample several before buying one... That red, white and blue model T scooting around with a load of flute-blowing boys and girls... The forlorn youngster who philosophically remarked, "I worked three months and saved to come down here... and now it's gone in two days."

But, the festival, directed by Prof. Charles B. Righter and Prof. Bruce Mahan, and their 250 assistants, moves ahead on schedule. Excellent system.

Iowa Union—crowded.

Carnival
The Dee Lang carnival closes a one-week stand tonight on the Kirkwood avenue lot. Tonight's proceeds will go to the fund for the Veterans of Foreign Wars' junior drum and bugle corps.

Cannonball Missing
Almost any day now, someone will notice that at least one of the cannonballs stacked in front of the Johnson county courthouse has disappeared.

One of them has been placed in an unsuspecting Iowa Citizen's traveling bag. He'll discover a grip containing a 100-pound missile is hard to lift.

"Free" Speech
War veterans have threatened to beat up a Montana congressman if he speaks tomorrow night in Joisey City... Just why anyone would want to go to Joisey City—let alone speak there—is beyond me.

Joisey City is across the Hudson river from New York City—which is probably the main reason New Yorkers don't follow Horace Greeley's advice.

Why war veterans who fought "to save the world for democracy" are now willing to fight one of democracy's elementary principles—free speech—puzzles me.

The regime of Hizzoner Frank Hague, the Mayor of Joisey City must be very weak, if they're afraid one speech will smash it.

Mrs. Ida Elliott Dies of Illness

Mrs. Ida M. Elliott, an Iowa City resident for 50 years, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Della Marble, 230 Linn street, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Miss Elliott had been sick about six months.

Surviving are her sister Mrs. Marble and a brother, Stanely Elliott of Sacramento, Cal.

Pending funeral arrangements the body is at Beckman's funeral home.

Recommendation Of Evans Appointment Approved by Council

Mayor Myron J. Walker's recommendation to appoint Mrs. Harold D. Evans as a member of the public library board was approved by the city council last night.

Mrs. Evans succeeds Emma Watkins who died Thursday. She will serve out the term which does not expire until June 26, 1941.

Junior C. of C. Will Hold Meeting Tuesday Night in Pine Room

The Iowa City Junior Chamber of Commerce will meet for its regular monthly dinner-discussion at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday in Reich's Pine room, Dale Welt, president, announced yesterday.

Plans for the central radio system at the children's hospital from reports made by Verne Pangborn of University hospitals will be considered at the meeting.

Library Club Seeks Books

Faith Cabin Group Appeals to Iowa Citizens To Aid Bettis School in South

The Iowa City Faith Cabin Library club will discuss its third drive for books to supplement those sent to the Bettis Academy library, near Trenton, S. C., in March, 1937, at a meeting May 19 at 4 p.m. in the Christian church parlors.

In response to a definite need in the Bettis school for more books for the grammar school folks and particularly the primary department, the Iowa City club is making an appeal to the people in Iowa City and vicinity to meet this need. It is expected that the shipment of books will be made June 1.

It is especially desired that fiction suitable for children, fairy tales, animal stories and other natural history books, science volumes for children, books on our natural resources such as iron and coal, Bible stories and volumes of poetry be contributed.

Parents and teachers, children, members and friends of the churches, clubs and other organizations are asked to cooperate through the members of the Iowa City Faith Library club in getting these books.

Representatives of the clubs are Mrs. Allyn Lemme, Bethel-African M. E. church; Sylvia Noffsinger, Baptist church; Mrs. Arthur V. O'Brien, St. Mary's church; Mrs. Thomas Farrell, St. Patrick's church; Mrs. R. E. Adams, Christian church; Mrs. I. H. Pierce, Congregational church; Mrs. Joseph Braverman, Jewish synagogue.

Mrs. Ralph B. Freyder, English Lutheran church; Mrs. Clara Barrett, Mennonite church; E. Loraine Lawyer, Methodist church; Mrs. Hazel Miller, Presbyterian church; Grace Meyers, Unitarian church; Mrs. William H. Morgan, school of religion; Mrs. J. B. Gordon, Iowa City public library; Elizabeth Hunter, Altrusa club; Mabel Gould, Business and Professional Women's club; Mrs. Myron J. Walker, Iowa City Women's club; Mrs. C. A. Bowman, Manville Heights club; Mrs. C. K. Bartlett, representative at large.

Of the 6,000 books and 1,400 magazines sent to the Bettis academy in March, 1937, by the Iowa City Faith Library club, Willie L. Buffington, founder and director of the Faith Cabin Library movement, writes the Rev. Mr. Garrigues:

"I can assure you that the thing you and the Iowa City friends have done is a real credit to you. You have added untold interest and pleasure to hundreds of students at Bettis. Dr. Nicholson and his faculty are delighted and the students really make use of the library. You have made an investment that will pay great dividends in improved minds, strong Christian characters and useful citizens in every sphere of life."

A. W. Nicholson, who has served Bettis academy as president for 50 years, writes: "I am very grateful for the books you sent us. I want to extend to all the friends who have helped you to help me, my most hearty thanks through you. I thank God and pray for you, for you have certainly helped the colored people of South Carolina."

Parent-Teacher Group Meets To Elect Officers
Mrs. Gordon Marsh was elected president of the Longfellow Parent-Teacher association at a meeting yesterday afternoon in the schoolhouse. Other officers elected included Mrs. Claude Reed, vice-president; Mrs. W. R. Horrabin, secretary, and Marione Ross, treasurer.

During the meeting plans for a school picnic this month were discussed.

Objections to Proposed Sewer Plan Will Be Heard May 27

Public Hearing For Sunnyside Site Is Decided

Objections to Proposal May Be Either Oral Or Written

Objections to the proposed $11,037 Sunnyside sewer project will be heard at a public hearing at 8 p.m. May 27 in the city council chambers, the council decided last night. Objections may be either written or oral, but must be written to constitute a legal basis of appeal.

The hearing will be on the resolution of necessity, the plans, specifications and proposed form of contract, the cost, and schedule of assessments necessary to issue sewer bonds, all approved by the city council last night.

The schedule of estimated assessments presented by City Engineer Fred Gartzke was, for the Cook, Sargent and Downey, and Sunnyside additions, $9,763.79; for Second avenue, $519.96; for Fifth avenue, $546, and for Harrison street, $207.39.

Plans for the project are now awaiting WPA approval in Washington, D. C. Status of the project is expected to be received before the public hearing.

Schedule of assessments is to cover cost of issuing five per cent sewer bonds in $100 amounts. Bonds will pay for materials, supervision and inspection. WPA aid would supply the labor.

'Reserve Fund' Given Reading

Sewer Rental Payments Would Draw $4,500 Annually

A reserve fund which will draw $4,500 annually from sewer rental payments "to meet possible future deficiencies," was given its first reading by the city council last night.

When the amount of the fund equals 10 per cent of $251,000, no further payment shall be made to the fund, after all bonds have been retired, the ordinance proposes.

The fund shall not be available for city expenses, except those of the sewage treatment plant, "but in view of the fact the university has paid its share of the capital cost of the plant, and cannot legally pay anymore, therefore, if any of the reserve fund is drawn upon, either directly or indirectly, to pay any interest or principal of the outstanding bonds of the plant, then the university will receive in the year such payment is made corresponding reduction on the university's share of the annual operation and maintenance costs in an amount computed by multiplying the sum of interest and principal so paid by the percentage of the university's contribution to the reserve fund," the ordinance proposes.

Council Approves Health Reports

Reports of two health inspectors in the newly organized city health department for the month of April, were approved by the city council last night.

Frank Pettibone, steeplejack, was paid $55 for installing a $27.50 flagpole on the city hall yesterday.

Ordinance Transferring Eight Lots Given Its First Reading

Council Refers Measure To City Planning Committee

An ordinance transferring eight east Iowa City lots from the business to the class A residential district was given its first reading last night by the city council. The ordinance was referred to the planning committee.

The proposed change in the classification of the real estate would prevent the construction of a $3,500 super-service station at Muscatine and Second avenues by Della Grizel.

She obtained a writ of certiorari Thursday from Judge Harold D. Evans commanding the members of the city board of adjustment, who refused to grant her a building permit for the station, to bring their records into court May 16 to test the legality of the denial of the permit.

This ordinance is similar to one which failed to obtain the necessary three-fourths majority by one vote April 15. At that council meeting, property owners whose holdings adjoin the Grizel property voiced their approval of the ordinance while two attorneys representing the Sinclair Oil company spoke against the ordinance.

The lots affected by the ordinance are lot 8 in block 15, lots 1, 2, 3 and 4 in block 7, lot 1 in block 14, and lots 5 and 6 in block 6, all in east Iowa City.

A public hearing on the proposed ordinance will be held at 8:30 p.m. May 27.

Whoopie Carnival to End With Kids Fun-Day

Shouts of joy and gales of laughter fill the air round about the Kirkwood avenue carnival lot as Iowa Citizens succumb to the lure of games and rides.

Stately ferris wheels, whirling airplanes and the perennial merry-go-round vie with the cane stands, and hot dogs and lemonade for the attention of the youthful participants, aged from 6 to 60.

The cries of the "barkers" and the tinnny tunes of the merrygoround combine to create an atmosphere that makes the carnival an event in the life of every "youngster."

Today the Dee Lang shows will end a gala week with a children's open house.

Junior drum and bugle corps members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and children from the juvenile home will be treated to ice cream, popcorn and lemonade. Added to these joys will be the thrills of free rides on the ferris, wheel, whip and other devices.

All school children are invited to view the show at special matinee prices in effect from 1 to 2 p.m.

The carnival is playing on the Kirkwood avenue lot and is brought here by the Veterans of Foreign Wars to raise funds for the junior drum and bugle corps.

Iowa City's excellents were in the girls' and boys' glee club events, in woodwind chamber group, and in saxophone, viola and violin solos.

Centerville, with five superiors and four excellents, Eagle Grove with five superiors and two excellents, and Oskaloosa with three superiors and eight excellents were also high in class A.

To Centerville went the honor of having more instrumental superiors than any other school. Last night, Centerville held superior ratings in clarinet, trumpet-cornet, tuba, viola and violin solos.

Mt. Airy's girls' small vocal group won a superior in yesterday afternoon's competition to bring its total number of superiors to five. The school's one entry in today's contest will be in the piano solo event.

Nevada, with three superiors and six excellents; Spirit Lake with three superiors; Sibley with two superiors and three excellents, and Sac City with two superiors and one excellent, were also outstanding class B schools.

In the class A A group, led by Davenport, Muscatine had two superiors and three excellents, Waterloo (East) had two super-

Dr. Stern Finds Red Pigment in Liver

NEW YORK, May 6 (AP) — Dr. Kurt G. Stern of the Yale university school of medicine, said tonight he had found a new red pigment of enormous molecular weight in liver which provided an important step toward disclosing the secret of enzyme action in the processes of life.

Speaking before the New York section of the American Chemical society, he said the pigment was noted during experiments made with Dr. W. G. Wyckoff on the purification of enzymes, substances which accelerate chemical reactions simply by being present.

Action of enzymes might be compared to that of a lump of sugar which could sweeten coffee without dissolving or being changed in any way. One enzyme, pepsin, "bosses" the digestion of food in humans, but is not consumed in the operation.

Mrs. Opstad To Read Before Art Circle Meeting

"Mary Cassatt and Cecilia Beaux" is the title of the paper to be read by Mrs. Iver A. Opstad before the Art circle Wednesday. This meeting, which will take place in the public library at 10 a.m., will be the last program meeting of the year.

May 18 a picnic will be given at the home of Mrs. G. L. Houser, 430 Iowa avenue.

Thiel, Downing Will Speak

Scout Executive Owen B. Thiel and Fred Downing, district commissioner of Washington county, will talk before an American Legion post group in Brighton at 8 p.m. Tuesday in regard to sponsorship of a troop, composed of 20 boys under the leadership of Jerry Johnston.

Examination Schedule

Second Semester, 1937-1938

Monday, May 23, 8 a.m., to Tuesday, May 31, 4 p.m.

The regular program of class work will be suspended and the following semester-examination program substituted for it. Classes will meet for examination in the rooms in which they have been regularly meeting (except classes in SPECIAL GROUPS, A, B, C, D, E, F, and G, as shown in the form below; and Speech (2), (1), and (4), as shown at "N.B." below).

The Program Committee directs the attention of both students, and instructors and professors, to the regulation that there is to be no deviation in the case of any examination, from this Schedule, except as authorized by the Committee on Admission and Classification, on the student's written petition, filed in ample time, supported by the recommendation of the department concerned,—to provide relief from an excessive number of examinations within a single day. Deviation for the purpose of getting through earlier will not be permitted. Students should prepare and deposit such petitions in the offices of the Deans of Men (men) and Women (women).

Each student who is absent from the final meeting of his class as indicated in the Examination Schedule should be reported, on the official grade sheet at the end of the semester, as "Abs." Before this grade mark can be removed he must file with the Committee on Admission and Classification a written petition, with adequate vouchers attached, setting forth in full the necessity of his absence. This petition must include a departmentally signed statement indicating whether, in case the Committee finds the absence excusable, the student has the department's and instructor's permission to take the final examination. If the Committee finds the reason for the absence adequate it will issue to the student a partially prepared special report card (signed by the Secretary, lower left corner) with a form letter explaining to him that he has the Committee's permission, with the departmental consent and at the convenience of the instructor, to take his final examination within one month (or other designated period of time) from the date indicated.

If the student takes the examination thus authorized the outcome is to be reported on this card and not on any other card.

In the case of conflicts (within the SPECIAL GROUPS A, B, C, D, E, F, and G) the schedule itself, as presented below, provides a general method of making adjustments.

All classes whose first weekly meetings have occurred as indicated in the rectangles below meet for examination during the periods noted at the tops of these three columns and on the days noted in the rectangles directly opposite at the left of the double, vertical line.

CONFLICTS: In case of conflicting examinations the student should report to the instructor in charge of the first of the two conflicting subjects as listed within the particular SPECIAL GROUP rectangle above which is involved. (Read downward first in left column and then in right column.) The instructor will arrange for you a special examination. Report to him, or her, not later than the regular class hour May 19 or 20; if possible, May 12 or 13.

The first meeting of the class means the first lecture or recitation period in courses having both lectures and recitations, and laboratory periods; or in the case of courses involving only laboratory periods, the first clock-hour of the first weekly meeting. For example, chemistry 21 meets for lectures T Th S at 8. The first regular meeting is, consequently Tuesday at 8,—and the class will meet for examination Tuesday, May 24, 2 p.m., according to the tabular form above. Again, physics (126) meets twice each week, T F, for a three-hour laboratory exercise, 1-4. The period for the examination, is, therefore, Saturday, May 28, 2 p.m.

N. B. All sections of "Principles of Speech" (1), (2) and (4) (Except Section J*) will meet during Examination Week on the days and at the periods designated below. Consult the bulletin board, Room 13 S. H. for room assignments.

Mon., May 23—Section H, 8-10
Speech (1), 8-10
Fri., May 27—Section I, 8-10
Section C, 1-3
Section G, 3-5
Speech (4), 3-5

Tues., May 24—Section A, 1-3
Section E, 3-5
Sat., May 28—Section D, 10-12
Section B, 1-3
Section F, 3-5

*Section J will meet as announced by the instructors.

"ODD" classes, namely those whose first or only weekly meetings occur on Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays, or Saturdays, or which meet "as arranged," will be assigned for examination, as announced to each class, by the instructor in charge of the class, at one or another of the following periods:

1. From 4 to 6 on any day from May 23 to May 31 inclusive,—Sunday and Memorial Day excepted.

2. Any one of the examination periods assigned, as indicated above, for the examinations in the SPECIAL GROUPS, A, B, C, D, E, F and G, since for such "odd" classes these seven examination periods will be found quite available.

In connection with any such announcement it would doubtless be well for the instructor making the announcement to ascertain whether any member of his class is already under appointment for examination in some other class for the proposed period. To be sure it is possible to have examinations in more than one class at any of these times,—if no student is a member of more than one of these classes.

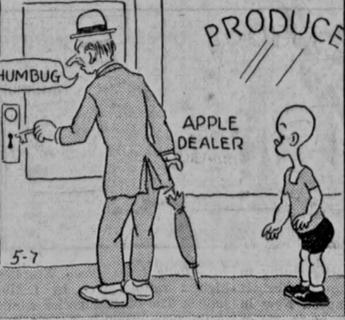

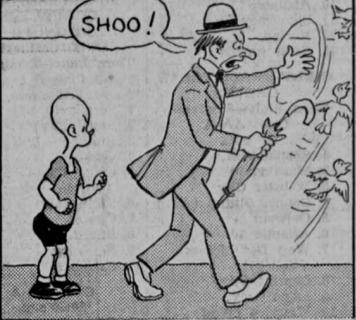

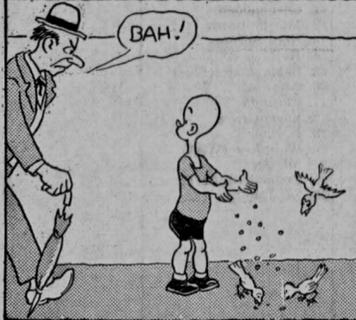

According to one clause in the formal faculty action providing for a special semester-examination program, "the instructor may use the examination period as he sees fit provided he holds the class for the full period. He may have an oral or a written examination, or both, or neither. He may continue regular work or he may use the time for review, or for any phase of his work which may seem to him desirable at this time.

Club Will Give Dinner Sunday In Iowa Union

Students outstanding in scholarship and extra-curricular activities will be honored at a dinner given by the Philo club Sunday at 6:30 p.m. in Iowa Union.

Morris Goldenberg, M3 of Burlington, will act as master of ceremonies. Guest speaker for the evening will be Prof. Herbert Feigl of the philosophy department.

Included in the program will be a greeting to the organization by Prof. Moses Jung of the school of religion and a report on the activities of the organization by Jack Spvak, A3 of Brooklyn, N.Y.

BEAT BY BEAT

Money Counts

These days every penny counts—there isn't time to "write home." Two young misses yesterday were overheard debating whether they should spend their last nickel for a coke—to be divided, of course—or whether to buy a banana to eat in bed at night.

Busy Business

Ane of the busiest centers of festival activities is the check room in the downstairs of Iowa Union. A minimum of 1,000 instruments and uniforms have been taken care of daily, keeping 10 university students busy from six o'clock in the morning on until...

A favorite question the Union checkers have to answer is, "How do you get out of here?"—all signs mean nothing.

Another question frequently asked is "Where is the Memorial Union?"

Autograph Hunters

The Robert Taylors, Tyrone Powers and Clark Gables are not the only persons besieged by autograph hunters. For nearly all of the Union employes have had to agree to such a request. Most of them average at least four or five, although one man boasts of 50 such requests.

P. S.—Most of the "hunters" are girls.

March of Triumph

There's something about a marching band—for Marshalltown students the closing festival event this afternoon will mark the first time their new uniforms have been worn. Incidentally, their mascot will be the four-year-old daughter of E. K. Richter, band director.

The supply of 10,000 programs, printed for the music festival, became exhausted yesterday. Seven thousand of them went Thursday, and the remainder yesterday. So an additional thousand, containing only today's program, are being printed.

Paging a Scottie Owner

Lost—everything from a Scottie dog to a beautiful blonde. This is the report of the lost and found department of the festival. Although the dog is found, the owner is missing. The dog is in safe keeping with an Iowa City housewife across the street from the Union.

Festival authorities had this "want ad" come to their attention: "Lost: A blonde, 5 foot, 3."

Drum Majors—

About the drum majors—West Waterloo will make the first attempt of its kind in Iowa state contests when it parades the field this afternoon with seven drum majors, six girls and one boy. State Center will have an eight-year-old junior drum major leading the color squad.

The drum major for Lost Nation, national marching band winner every year since 1934, will be "marching" for his fourth year, "marching along" with the boys, many girls are filling the role of drum major.

Cherokee's drum major will be Anita Olsen. Girls will also parade as baton twirlers for Washington. (Only they call them "twirlers"). In the Iowa Falls organization the girls will come to the fore—two of them playing the glockenspiel, one of them as drum major.

More and More Food

During the last two days nine times as many candy bars and packages of gum have been sold at the Union soda fountain, Jack Brackney reported yesterday.

"Maybe the so-called business recession" has hit Iowa's music makers too, for this year more nickel "cokes" are sold than fancy sodas and more expensive refreshments. Regardless, Don Morris, Union soda "jerker," made at least 500 malted milks yesterday, he said.

Only—

The only orchestra rating superior yesterday was Burlington's, the only one under the direction of a woman and the only one so completely filling its time that

Star Gazers

Women Athletes Go On Camping Trip

Star gazing, corn popping and singing around the campfire will be included in the program of the 50 university women who will spend the week end on a camping trip at Palisades park under the auspices of the Women's Athletic association.

The group will meet at the women's gymnasium this afternoon at 1:30. No formal plans have been made for the afternoon, but a campfire program will be presented in the evening. Group singing will be led by Josephine McCarthy, A3 of Huntington, N. Y., and Prof. Marjorie Camp of the women's physical education department will direct the star gazing.

The group will travel to Iowa City before noon tomorrow. The trip is under the general direction of Alice Jean Bates, A3 of Iowa City, president of Outing club.

Dean-Emeritus Carl E. Seashore's 41 years of association with University of Iowa students has gone into the writing of his latest volume, "A Preview to College and Life."

The book has been published as one of the series of University of Iowa Studies and is made up of a series of open letters, each addressed to a college class and each dealing with an issue that is likely to be uppermost at that class level.

The preface to the book is written by Dean George D. Stoddard of the graduate college, newly appointed head of the psychology department. Dean-Emeritus Seashore for 28 years headed the graduate college, of which he is now dean-emeritus, and developed the psychology department into one of the finest units in an American university.

"As a series these letters embody a practical philosophy of education. They are written in terms of the problems of the day, from the point of view of applied psychology.

"Dean Seashore's observations, at once subtle and friendly, are presented with a clearness and vigor of special appeal to college youth. Everywhere the reader is struck by the felicitous word and the revealing anecdote," Dean Stoddard writes in the introduction.

The various headings of the book include "Open Letter to a Freshman: Learning and Living in College"; "To a Sophomore: Choice of a Career"; "To a Junior: The Wages of a Scholar"; "To a Senior: Whither Ahead?"; and "To a Graduate Student: The Scholar as a Person."

The book is designed, not only for college students and prospective students, but for parents, counselors, deans and personnel officers.

President Ernest J. Jaqua of Scripps college, commenting on the book, said, "The charm of the letters lies in their courageous, frank, but kindly interest in the welfare of young people."

Neff Asserts Free Education for Nurses On Way Out

CHICAGO, May 6 (AP)—Free education for nurses is probably on the way out, hospital and personnel from Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin were told today.

That was the consensus of professional opinion at the closing session of the tri-state hospital assembly.

Robert E. Neff of Iowa City, Ia., president of the American Hospital association, asserted that if the hospital assumes the costs of nursing education, the costs must be passed on to the patients.

"The patient does not care to make a contribution to nursing education through his hospital bill," he added.

Sister M. Berenice, director of nursing at St. Joseph's hospital, Milwaukee, deemed it "quite impossible" to conduct a good school of nursing without tuition fees.

Expansion of nursing service in the community was held essential to a more rapid eradication of tuberculosis by Dr. G. L. Bellis of Muldrade-Sanatorium, Wauwatosa, Wis.
