F. D. R.'s Ship Rushes to Aid Of Hurt Sailor

Answers Call for Help From Norwegian Freight Boat

CHARLESTON, S. C., May 7 (AP)—The cruiser Philadelphia bearing President Roosevelt back here from a vacation turned "mercy ship" in the south Atlantic tonight, sending a surgeon over the side to attend an injured sailor aboard the Norwegian steamer Marathon.

A radio received at the navy yard from the Philadelphia said the Marathon, Montreal to New Orleans, sent out a call for help, the message being intercepted by the escort destroyer Fanning at 5:20 p.m. (CST).

The ships immediately changed course southward and at 7:15 p.m. the Marathon was sighted. Half an hour later the cruiser put over a whaleboat in a choppy sea with Commander Oscar Davis, the ship's surgeon.

The president and his party were attending the movies when the message reporting an injured seaman was received. They went forward to the bow of the cruiser and watched the whaleboat go to the Marathon. No further details were given. It was not known whether the change in course would delay the arrival of the president here tomorrow evening, scheduled for around 4 p.m.

Secretary McIntyre reported to the navy yard, "At 7:15 p.m. Marathon was sighted and 30 minutes later cruiser stopped with Marathon just off her port bow. Whaleboat was lowered in a choppy sea with Commander Oscar Davis, ship's surgeon, on board.

"Message received aboard Philadelphia just as movies started and an hour later when the Norwegian ship was sighted there was a general exodus. The president and his party went forward to the bow of the ship on the main deck and watched with interest the whaleboat's passage."

The Marathon, McIntyre reported, was only the third vessel sighted by the president's ship on the entire cruise to the West Indies and back, the Philadelphia having followed a course "clear of the beaten lanes."

The president said earlier tonight he was satisfied the Philadelphia had passed all tests and is a "happy ship."

Head-on Crash Near Atalissa Injures Three

Mrs. O. C. Brickel, Fairbury, Neb., was seriously injured, and her husband and Ward W. James, West Liberty, were injured in a head-on auto collision four miles east of Atalissa at 6:10 p.m. yesterday.

Mrs. Brickel suffered a fractured pelvis, severe lacerations and bruises. Her husband's right leg was broken in five places, and his left ankle was fractured. James suffered a deep scalp wound, face cuts and from shock.

The Brickel car and the James machine collided on a straight, level stretch of U. S. highway 6. Sgt. Edgar Faber of the state highway patrol, who answered the accident patrol, said the visibility at the scene of the accident was two miles in each direction, and no immediate cause of the accident had been found.

Both cars, which were nearly new, were badly damaged. The front end of each was demolished. Mr. and Mrs. Brickel were taken to a local hospital. The attending physician said both would recover. James was taken home after he was given first aid treatment for his wounds.

GALA NIGHT

S.R.O. Signs Out For Conkle's Play

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7 (AP)—For the first time in its history here, the Federal Theater was sold out today more than a week in advance for opening nights of the play, "Prologue to Glory."

The play, written by Prof. Ellsworth P. Conkle of the University of Iowa, is the newest version of the Lincoln-Ann Rutledge romance, and its significance in the life of the great emancipator.

Iowa's Star Bandsmen at High School Music Festival

"Let's swing it"—so said three members of the Winterset marching band, at left, before they entered the fieldhouse to take part in the marching bands contest. Left to right is the leader, Lorraine Goetsch, as she looks at the three swing artists—Bernice Kelley, Ralph Cline and Virginia Lee Saum. Below the little leader of the Audubon band, Donald Miller, aged 11, is being given a boost so he can see what is going on. His "boosters" are Beulah Mae Liston and Arnold Munksgaard, leader. The Audubon band won an excellent rating in the marching bands contest for class B schools—the event which ended the music festival.

13,000 Chinese Guerrillas Move In Apparent Coordination On Japanese-Held North China City

Heavy Rains on Main Front Cripple Jap Movements

BY ELMER W. PETERSON
SHANGHAI, May 8 (Sunday) (AP)—Chinese guerrilla armies struck today in apparent coordination to break Japan's hold in north China.

Chinese sources asserted fully 13,000 irregulars were concentrated at Peiping, Japanese-held north China city, and had the moral support of the population. Savage fighting continued at Nantunghow, on the north shore of the Yangtze river 60 miles north of Shanghai, an important supply base for a Japanese army of 10,000 striking north through Kiangsu province toward the Lungai railroad.

Drenching weather is strengthening the ponderous obstacles Chinese forces have raised against Japan's conquest of China. Heavy rains on the main front in southern Shantung province and in other sectors have softened roads and flooded trenches, crippling the mechanized forces on which Japan's army relies.

The real rainy season has not yet started and foreign military observers foresee increasing difficulty for the Japanese if roads become impassable. (In Tokyo, Foreign Minister Koki Hirota warned Japan's people "no optimistic view of the future is warranted" and called on them to prepare for "possible extreme personal financial sacrifices to achieve victory.")

Chinese customs employees, in protest against the announcement of the Japanese-sponsored Nanking government that it would take charge of customs, ceased clearing ships at Shanghai. A temporary paralysis of Shanghai's port traffic was relieved when Commissioner L. H. Lawford declared he was taking orders from the inspectate general, not from the new Nanking governor.

Seaplane Crash Kills 2 Women

SEATTLE, May 7 (AP)—Two women were killed late today when a seaplane piloted by Bradford Washburn Jr., Harvard geographer and explorer, fell into Lake Union. Washburn escaped. The victims were Mrs. Ome Daiber and Dorothy Mathews of Seattle. James Borrows, another passenger, also escaped. The plane was attempting to alight on the lake.

The women's bodies were recovered from the submerged cabin of the plane. Borrows and Washburn fought free of the plane as it sank, and were picked up by passing craft. Washburn was visiting here en route to Valdez, Alaska, where he planned an attempt to climb 13,250-foot Mt. St. Agnes. Last summer he and Robert Bates, Philadelphia, were the first persons to scale 17,150-foot Mt. Luján.

PNOM PENH, Cambodia, French Indo-China (correspondence of The Associated Press)—King Sisowath Monivong, ruler of the ancient kingdom of Cambodia, who is reputed to have 200 "dancing-girl" wives, finds that even a golden-crowned potentate in these lean times cannot afford so many consorts.

H. L. Hopkins Predicts Budget Increase

X-Ray Offers Hope for Stricken Baby Treatment Will Be Started in Attempt to Save Life and Sight of Infant

CHICAGO, May 7 (AP)—X-rays offered a hope today for baby Helaine Colan whose death some physicians said was inevitable unless she underwent an operation for the removal of her eyes.

Dr. Herbert E. Schmitz, head of the Mercy Hospital Institute for Radiation Therapy said X-ray treatments would be started Monday in the hope of saving the life and the sight of the five-weeks old infant who is suffering from glioma, a cancerous growth which spreads along the optic nerves to the brain, resulting in death. Arrangements for the X-ray treatments were made, Dr. Schmitz said, by the baby's maternal grandfather, Dr. Morris Nersman. He added that two similar cases—both men—had been treated at the hospital within 18 months but that the success of the method could not be determined for five years. Dr. Cassius C. Rogers, brain specialist at the Garfield Park Community hospital where Helaine is a patient, favored the X-ray treatment. "As far as this case is concerned, I do not think there is any possibility of cure by surgery," Dr. Rogers said, "but there might be with the X-ray."

"It is still a chance even though the results are problematical."

Police Rescue German Director From Mauling

TROY, N. Y., May 7 (AP)—G. Wilhelm Kunze, national director of public relations for the German-American bond, and an unidentified companion, were mauled tonight by a group of men after police blocked attempts of the bond to hold a meeting here.

Both were rescued by police and escorted safely from Troy. The beating, in which neither was injured, occurred a block from Germania hall where the bond meeting was scheduled to take place. Earlier Police Chief John B. Conroy refused to allow the meeting to go on, demanding a permit which the bond leaders failed to obtain.

Convict Ex-broker Joins Prison Faculty As Visual Educator

OSHINGING, N.Y., May 7 (AP)—Richard Whitney, convicted ex-president of the New York Stock Exchange, took his place on the Sing Sing prison faculty today as an instructor in visual education. The 49-year-old former broker, head of the bankrupt Wall street firm of Richard Whitney and Company, will lecture on three subjects—history, geography and technical topics—with the aid of moving pictures, stereoscopic slides and still pictures. He is serving a term for grand larceny growing out of the failure of his firm.

Marcantonio Cancels Speakers' Presence at Anti-Hague Rally

I.L.D. Head Forestalls 'Violence, Death' From Mob

JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 7 (AP)—Vito Marcantonio, president of the International labor defense, announced Representatives Jerry J. O'Connell (D-Mont.) and John T. Bernard (F.L.-Minn.) would not come to Journal square tonight where massed thousands gathered to witness their threat to defy a city ordinance prohibiting public speechmaking without a permit.

Marcantonio, after conferring with the representatives in New York for several hours, said they insisted on speaking. But, as president of the I.L.D., he said "I cannot permit innocent people to face certain bloodshed, violence and perhaps death at the hands of a mob incited to do violence by Mayor Frank Hague through his various henchmen."

"I have now advised and urged them not to attend that meeting, and I take full responsibility for so doing," said Marcantonio who explained O'Connell and Bernard were "guests" of the I.L.D. to speak at the anti-Hague rally.

Britain, France Urge Peace Settlement Of Czechoslovakian Minority Problem

By The Associated Press
LONDON, May 7—Britain and France edged into Adolf Hitler's "family affair" with Czechoslovakia today in the shadow of the feast of the bargaining dictators in Rome.

Diplomats of the two nations urged peaceful means on Germany and concessions up to the limit on Czechoslovakia to solve the latter republic's minority problem.

In Praha, the British and French ministers informed Dr. Kamil Krofta, Czechoslovak foreign minister, of the points of view of their respective governments.

In Berlin, British Ambassador Sir Neville Henderson called on Dr. Ernst Woermann, undersecretary of state, to inform him of the action the diplomats took in Praha.

But Britain and France were not in a warning mood today.

They were not surprised at reports from Rome that Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy had promised the German Fuehrer a free hand in the campaign for the 3,500,000 Germans in Czechoslovakia.

Mussolini was portrayed in Rome dispatches as pledging at the same time to bring diplomatic pressure to bear upon the Czechoslovak government to be reasonable in meeting German demands.

But Britain and France felt that just now Il Duce may help to peaceful the attempts to settle Czechoslovak—German differences and they did not want to arouse the Fuehrer to an angry decision to strike with force.

Hitler Guarantees Alp Border 'For All Time' in Fidelity Toast Climaxing Visit With Mussolini

HUEY LONG SHRINE

Louisiana Legislature Considers Bill

BATON ROUGE, La., May 7 (AP)—The Louisiana legislature, scene of turbulence during the political control of the late Huey P. Long, convenes Monday to consider a board administration program of Gov. Richard W. Leche which includes a plan to enshrine the New Orleans home of the slain senator.

Both Dictators Reaffirm Friendship Of Rome-Berlin

ROME, May 7 (AP)—Benito Mussolini and Adolf Hitler "completed and sealed" their alliance tonight in an exchange of fidelity toasts at a formal state dinner in Palazzo Venezia.

The Fuehrer guaranteed "for all time" the Alpine border between Germany and Italy. "It is my unshakable will and also my political testament to the German people," he declared, "to consider inviolable for all time the frontiers of the Alps erected between us by nature."

"I am certain that for Rome as well as Germany there will result a future that will be glorious as well as prosperous." The dinner brought to a climax a week's visit filled with military demonstrations, pageantry, and political discussions whose import the world probably will not know until time discloses them. The short speeches of the two dictators lacked concrete details of what they intend to do about Czechoslovakia, where a Nazi German minority is clamoring for autonomy, and other problems which were said to have been discussed.

But their blanket reaffirmations of the solidity of the Berlin-Rome working agreement was interpreted as an indication that they had struck a bargain with respect to each others' interests, whoever they meet, and would give each other mutual aid in the remaking of Europe.

Equally straight-forward was fascism's duce, who told nazism's Fuehrer: "Your visit to Rome completes and seals the understanding between our two countries."

Austrian Nazis Get High Jobs

VIENNA, May 7 (AP)—Austrian Germans who imagined sweeping changes in their official and private lives were almost completed were told today that real nazification was still to come. Joseph Buerckel, federal commissioner for union of Austria with Germany, announced that Austrian pioneer nazis, especially those who were imprisoned or fled the country during the previous regime, now were privileged to hold the highest positions in the state and party.

Buerckel's statement came as he dismissed the president of the Austrian supreme court, Felix Schubert, and eight other high judges and replaced them with nazis. It was estimated at party headquarters here that some 80,000 Nazi heroes were awaiting suitable jobs. Many important posts were expected to be filled next week when Austrian Germany is divided into seven party districts.

Six Bands Get Superior Rank In Fieldhouse

Eldora Training School Gives Exceptional Demonstration

By LOREN HICKERSON
The last notes of the "U. S. Field Artillery" march died away, and the walls of the fieldhouse and army ceased to vibrate with the massed impact of the musical notes of more than 1,200 Iowa high school musicians.

As the results of the final contest in marching band were read to the massed band and to an audience of almost 10,000, bedlam—created by the six bands who had won superior ratings in the competition—broke loose and simultaneously the 13th annual Iowa high school music festival became history.

Rain and chilly winds, which forced the final spectacular event of the festival to be held in the fieldhouse, did not detract from the colorful extravaganza nor from the enthusiasm of the competing bands. In myriads of geometrical patterns, with squares, rectangles and circles, in parallel and oblique lines the 21 bands gave varied outstanding exhibitions of skill in marching.

But some were considered better than others, and Lost Nation and Hubbard in class C, Eagle Grove and Washington, Ia., in class A, West Waterloo in class AA, and the technically-perfect marching band from the Eldora training school in class B, received ratings of superior from the three judges.

Training School Scores Hit
After a two-year lapse in the competition, the Eldora training school band gave a demonstration which was widely regarded as the finest ever given at the Iowa festival. So exceptional was their skill in making precise and speedy movements, with or without drum beats, that a red and white clad, fast-stepping band from Audubon, with a tiny mascot which won the hearty applause of the audience, was forced to take a back seat with an excellent rating.

Snow Blankets Western Iowa, Mercury Falls

DES MOINES, Ia., May 7 (AP)—A thin, white blanket of snow covered parts of northwestern and western Iowa tonight, while sleet, rain and hail fell in other sections of the state.

The mercury dipped close to the freezing point in some areas. Spirit Lake, Cherokee, Storm Lake and Denison were among the points where snow fell during the day and was continuing to fall tonight.

The state police radio reported a three-inch layer of snow and slush covered the pavement in the vicinity of Denison tonight, making driving hazardous.

Rain and sleet, turning to snow in some areas, fell most of the day and early tonight in the western part of the state.

Tonight the mercury had dipped to 34 degrees at Sioux City and Spirit Lake, 35 degrees at Storm Lake and 36 degrees at Council Bluffs.

Southwest of Cherokee a white blanket covered the ground as a result of an all-day light snow. An inch and a half of snow was reported on the ground at Alton. At Storm Lake it rained, sleeted and snowed during the day. In Des Moines a heavy hail early this evening fell a blanket of white hailstones on the ground for a short time, but they melted quickly in the wake of a heavy shower.

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP)—Problems encountered by the administration's new crop control law have revived demands among some farmers and members of congress for substitute legislation to improve and stabilize farm prices and at the same time permit greater freedom of production.

Pink Carnations And Apple Pies

PINK PAPER carnations glued on candy boxes. Lace-trimmed commercials dripping on theater screens. Gaudy cardboard and satin sentiment in rows on book store and drug store and dime store counters.

We of an era which scorns sentiment turn it into sentimentality and make a profit on it. We of a nation which brags of its business sense sell each other paper carnations in the name of affection.

But commercialize it as we may, Mother's day survives even the reams of pink paper. For to every person who has ever had a mother it has a special and personal meaning far removed from carnations and cardboard.

It involves apple pies and stubbed toes and all the other bromides well-worn by the movies and story books, but always fresh in the hearts of men.

So if you send Mother a box of candy today it may carry a paper carnation, but it will also carry a meaning too true for any human blunder to mar.

Now the nation is reverberating to a single air, "Strike, Strike, Strike, the Boys Are Picketing."

It has been said that fast, throbbing jazz was generated in the disturbed era following the great war. When things began to tone down just a little, swing took its place.

But since then we've had a new disturbance: the great depression. The tune that grew out of this hectic period is not music.

It is the beating of restless hearts, the shuffling of weary feet and the snapping of fighting words. It has no rhythm, no harmony, no melody—nothing but noise, noise and strife, strife and blood-shed.

This has not kept the song from being a catchy one. It is as fascinating to humans as was the Pied Piper's flute to the mice of Hamelin. It has attracted factory workers, clerks, school children, taxi drivers, motormen—people from nearly every walk of life.

We as a nation are blindly in step with the discord of this song, but where is it leading us? Are we to follow this strange air to destruction as the mice of Hamelin were destroyed by following the piper?

Or is the song only a passing fancy, a national fad that has found its beginning in dark depression and will cease when the nation is once again on the way to prosperity?

There is room for hope, and reason to believe, that the strike fever is but a transitory, contagious disease. Labor and capital have been fighting it out on every front, but the time may come, and soon, when conferences rather than strikes will settle all issues.

Joseph Pulitzer, whose annual awards are sought by men of letters the land over, once said: "Arbitration is civilization's substitute for the brutality of war. Justice is all that any civilized nation really wants in any dispute, and justice is much more likely to be the outcome of arbitration than of armed conflict."

May we not follow this same philosophy in settling strikes? It seems the civilized thing to do, and no matter what everybody else may think, we still regard ourselves as civilized people.

JOY FROM THE JUNGLE: Monkeyland is gratified by the present centering of scientific interest on the capture of two of the tarsius species in the Philippine jungle.

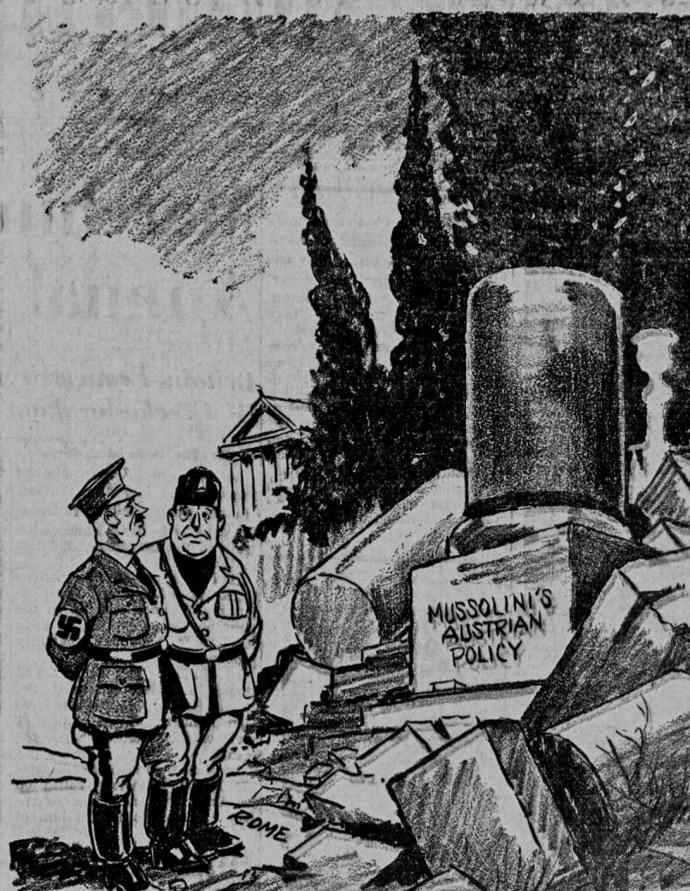

For the tarsiers are furthest removed from men in theory of evolution. Leading monkeys believe that if scientific interest is diverted to unmanlike species it will take human minds off the claim of relationship with the simians, a claim extremely annoying to some of the more class-conscious monkeys.

These long have resented the search for the missing link and have insisted that the nearest approach to it would be found in the genus homo and not among the tree dwellers. It is only in the lower orders of monkeys, they argue, that any resemblance to man is found, while any number of human beings act like monkeys.

It is on this argument that they base their demand for bigger and better cages in the zoos, not to keep the monkeys in but to keep the people from getting mixed up with them.

'SOME NICE RUINS YOU HAVE HERE, DUCE?'

MONUMENT TO AUSTRIAN POLICY

No Need for Expensive Glasses for the Middle Aged

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

A woman writes me to ask but there is no reason why these glasses need cost a great deal of money and, in fact, I am quite convinced that any glasses which allow a person in this condition to read and do close work, will do no harm. An indication of this is the fact that old people who have mislaid their glasses, often borrow those of others of about the same age and even after using them for an hour or two, do not have a headache or evidence of eye strain.

Expensive Frames Unnecessary: There is certainly no reason why expensive frames need be used for these glasses because they usually have to be discarded within a year or more, until the eyes finally get set at about the age of 55.

In view of the economic problem involved here, I really believe in every community some charitable person or organization should offer to collect the old spectacle frames and the old lenses that people from the age of 45 on are discarding, so that they may be used by others who are not fortunate enough in this world's goods to procure proper ones.

Presbyopia, or hardening of the lens in middle age, results in inability to do close reading or close work of any kind. It is simply due to the fact that the lens of the eye no longer is elastic and cannot be made to focus on near objects. As time goes on, stronger and stronger glasses are needed.

What's your favorite hymn? Joe Emerson, director of the "Favorite Hymns of Famous People" series on the Hymns of All Churches program believes that hymns are the great common denominator of music as every person has his favorite. Mary Pickford's favorite is "Shepherd Show Me How To Go" while Helen Keller, for what she says are obvious reasons, prefers, "Lead, Kindly Light."

Eddie Cantor's faith in human nature is proved correct again. He loaned a little boy some money when he caught him short-changing him. The little boy explained that he had thought that any one as wealthy as Mr. Cantor wouldn't need the money.

When Eddie was ill recently, he received a letter from this young fellow enclosing the five dollars. "I thought that as you were ill and had to pay doctor's bills you might need the money. I have a paper route now and am making good money."

Lawrin Scores Smashing Upset Victory in Kentucky Derby

Dauber Comes In Second As Favorites Fail

Winner Gallops From Behind to Win In Stretch

By ALAN GOULD
CHURCHILL Downs, Louisville, Ky., May 7 (AP)—Lawrin, biggest horse in the smallest Kentucky Derby field since 1922, came from behind with a spectacular stretch rush today to win the 64th running of the $50,000 thoroughbred battle of the bluegrass and top off one of the most smashing reversals in the colorful history of the race.

LAWRIN—THE DERBY WINNER

Carrying the colors of Herbert M. Woolf, Kansas City, Mo., merchant, to their first triumph in the derby, Lawrin stood off a great challenge by William Du Pont Jr.'s stout hearted Dauber to win by a length.

Myron Selznick's Can't Wait finished third, five lengths further back, nosing out Hal Price Headley's Menow and Maxwell Fourth's The Chief, which ran fourth and fifth.

Fighting Fox, the 6-5 favorite and full brother of the renowned Gallant Fox, the derby winner in 1930, struggled home a badly whipped sixth while the second choice, Warren Wright's Bull Lea, likewise disappointed his many backers and wound up eighth in a field of 10 starters.

A crowd of 65,000 spectators, sprawled over the picturesque downs and packing the stands to capacity, was stunned by one of the biggest upset finishes ever to climax the historic event.

It was a field day for the long shot players as well as a remarkable triumph for winter horses, which ran 1-23 and knocked most of the pre-race calculations into a cocked hat. Lawrin became the first star of the winter tracks to win the derby since Black Gold was victorious in 1924.

Lawrin, in addition to collecting $47,050, the winner's net share of the total purse of $57,575, paid off at $19.20 to win $8.80 to place and $4.80 to show, for each $2 ticket in the mutual machines.

Blue Thinclads Finish Second In Loop Meet

By CHARLES McGRANAHAN
MT. VERNON, May 7 (Special to The Daily Iowan)—On a cold, misty field, Tipton high this afternoon captured the ninth annual Little Eight conference track meet by garnering 84 points. University high finished second with 49 1-2 points and Anamosa was third with 40.

In winning the meet, Tipton captured first in the 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, broad jump and pole vault. In addition to this their 880-yard relay team composed of Miller, Banks, Howe and Schaffer ran this event in 1:36.6 for a new record.

Tipton also garnered two seconds and tied for another, and took two third places and three fourths.

Although the Blues turned in a good performance, the showing of the two-mile relay team which placed second was a disappointment. Blackstone set a new record of 24.4 in winning the 220-yard low hurdles and placed second in the 120-yard low hurdles besides running a 53.5 quarter as anchor man for the mile relay team which finished second.

The Blues' other points were scored by Spencer and Krogh, who finished first and second, respectively, in the half mile run; Robbing, who was third in the mile run; Ries, who finished third in both the high and low hurdles; Highshoe, who was second in the 220 yard dash; Alderman, who tied for second in the pole vault; Miller, who tied with Switzer of Monticello in the high jump; Spencer, third in this event; and a third in the half mile relay.

Hawkeye Athletic Teams Get Even Break Yesterday

With two of the four events on yesterday's Hawkeye athletic card called off because of inclement weather, the golfers and thinclads carried on to gain an even break in the sports activity for the day.

While the track team was dropping a thriller to Wisconsin by a 66 3-5 to 64 2-5 count, the golfers took the measure of Chicago and Wisconsin, the former by an overwhelming score of 22 1-2 to 1 1-2, and the latter by an 18-6 count.

There is a possibility the baseball game, rained out in Minneapolis, may be played off in a doubleheader when Minnesota invades Iowa, May 30 and 31.

Fred Teufel Ties Fenske For Scoring Honors With 13 Points

Badgers' Distance Star Shares 2 Firsts With Mehl

By G. K. HODENFIELD
Daily Iowan Sports Editor
Master-Miler Charles Fenske and a team of 34 University of Wisconsin trackmen invaded Iowa City yesterday for a dual meet with Iowa's Hawkeyes and after nearly 90 minutes of bitter competition retired from the field with a 66 3-5 to 64 2-5 victory.

The bitterly cold wind sweeping across the track made any low marks impossible but despite that fact the meet was a thriller from start to finish. With all the running events completed and only the results of the discus and javelin to be heard from, it looked as though Iowa had an outside chance of winning the meet. This outlook became even brighter when Harkness and Roberts of Iowa took the first two places in the discus but a second place in the javelin by Siefert of Wisconsin cinched the contest for the Badgers.

Fenske Supplies Thrills
Fenske, the world's greatest collegiate miler, supplied most of the thrills of the afternoon as he entered three events and wound up with a first in the half mile and a tie for first with his teammate, Walter Mehl, in the mile and two mile runs.

Fred Teufel of Iowa tied Fenske for high point honors of the meet. Teufel took first place in the 200-yard dash, the javelin throw—won by Lamb, Iowa, 175 feet 2 1-4 inches; second, Siefert, Wisconsin; third, Alexander, Iowa.

Shot put—won by Malisch, Wisconsin, 45 feet 6 3-8 inches; second, Leuz, Iowa; third, Nead, Iowa.

Discus throw—won by Harkness, Iowa, 127 feet 5 inches; second, Roberts, Iowa; third, Malisch, Wisconsin.

Broad jump—won by Best, Wisconsin, 22 feet 9 inches; second, Lamb, Iowa; third, Geib, Wisconsin.

One mile run—won by Fenske and Mehl, Wisconsin; third, Graves, Iowa. Time 4:27.1.

440-yard dash—won by Billig, Iowa; second, Petrie, Wisconsin; third, Ruiz, Wisconsin. Time 1:52.

100-yard dash—won by Kauffman, Wisconsin; second, F. Teufel, Iowa; third, Moeller, Wisconsin. Time 1:10.

120-yard high hurdles—won by Collinge, Iowa; second, Smith, Wisconsin; third, Lamb, Iowa. Time 1:52.

Half mile run—won by Fenske, Wisconsin; second, Lyle, Iowa; third, Schmidt, Iowa. Time 1:58.6.

200-yard dash—won by F. Teufel, Iowa; second, Kauffman, Wisconsin; third, Moeller, Wisconsin. Time 1:20.

Two mile run—won by Fenske and Mehl, Wisconsin; third, Campbell, Iowa. Time 10:06.2.

County Will Receive $36,594 From WPA for Road Project

Work Will Commence May 28 on Road Improvement

Johnson county will be allotted $36,594 in WPA funds for an $89,708 county-wide road project which will start May 28, according to information received by Ben J. Peters, chairman of the county board of supervisors.

The county will match the WPA allotment with $53,114 which will cover expenses outside of labor.

The new project will include clearing and grubbing work, surfacing, fencing and grading on 26 miles of county roads. In addition, installation of drainage facilities and the operation of the county's quarries at Solon to furnish stone for surfacing the roads, are included.

Two existing projects, one at the Solon and the other for clearing and grubbing on several county roads will be combined into the new project. These projects expire in June.

Under the terms of the new project the funds can be used to pay men working on any phase of the road improvement work. This will eliminate the necessity for having separate projects to cover each stretch of road or type of work being done.

The 26 miles of county roads to be improved consists mostly of short stretches of highway in various parts of the county. WPA workers finished clearing and grubbing operations under the old project on two and three-fourths miles of highway between Solon and Lake McBride a week ago.

The new project is not expected to add many to the present WPA rolls, since it combines present individual projects.

The new project will continue until the present funds are exhausted. R. S. Truitt, district WPA engineer estimated the funds for the new project are sufficient to continue the work eight or nine months.

AROUND THE TOWN With TOM JOHNSON

Festival Jottings

Hundreds of cars and busses left Iowa City yesterday afternoon and evening . . . carrying the weary contestants—and their inevitable whistles—back home . . . which in some instances is 300 miles or more. It was probably the longest trip many of them have had.

For many music instructors with the groups, coming to Iowa City was "Homecoming." Many are university graduates or summer school students. I renewed several summer school acquaintanceships.

As one girl in a band uniform said yesterday, "Gee, I'm tired."

Marching Bands

Thousands of music festival visitors were disappointed yesterday because inclement weather forced the colorful marching band contest to be held in the fieldhouse—instead of the stadium.

I, for one, missed the bright sun shining off the polished instruments, the green floor of the amphitheater, and the sharp sound of music resonating from the stands.

Yet, more than 10,000 persons—eager to witness the weather-dulled pageant—were in the fieldhouse when the first band marched across the dirt floor. They wouldn't miss it for the world.

Captain Fourt Will Address Regiment

Following the talk, physical exercises will be led by Staff Sergt. Robert S. Schell.

Funeral Service for Emma Watkins Held at First Presbyterian Church

Funeral service for Emma Watkins, 71, of Iowa City, was held yesterday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church. Miss Watkins, who had taught Iowa City school pupils for 51 years, died of a heart attack Thursday morning.

The Rev. Iton T. Jones, pastor, delivered the sermon at the church, which was crowded with many friends and former pupils of the former school teacher. The instructional staff of the University elementary school, where Miss Watkins was the first grade teacher since 1918, paid tribute to their former colleague by attending in a body.

As a school teacher and a woman, the Rev. Mr. Jones said that Miss Watkins tried to pattern her life after that of the Master. "He saw a simple and direct approach to the human heart and Miss Watkins tried to find better ways for teaching little children." Almost literally Miss Watkins gave her entire life to the teaching of children and there is no way to measure the result of her life's work," declared the minister.

He said that if Miss Watkins could speak now, the only monument she would want would be to keep on giving more opportunities to children "to become their best selves."

"She sought help," said the minister of Miss Watkins' dependence on the Great Teacher, "in her teaching in religion, and her life has two kinds of immortality, influence and personal. She died in the midst of her work and we well can say, 'well done, great and faithful servant!'"

Pallbearers, former students of Miss Watkins, were Attorneys Dan C. Dutcher and R. C. Davis, State Representative LeRoy S. Mercer, Irving B. Weber, Wilbur D. Cannon and Perry J. Oakes. Burial was at Oakland cemetery.

You are certain to feel well-groomed and cool in any of these gorgeous Cotton Frocks in plain colors, hand-blocked prints, lace and tiny pearl buttons, trims, in sun-back and jacket combinations, two-piece styles, and dirndls.

They are the sort of thing that will look well for all informal occasions all summer long. You will want several, too, of the crisp batistes and cotton laces for really hot days. When you've chosen your dresses from these, let STRUB'S millinery department complement them with a big picture hat in natural straw.

Dark toes peeping from cut-out shoes.

YOU know, trite tho' the saying is, it's really wonderful what a little paint will do for furniture. You can go into the MODERN PAINT STORE and buy a small quantity of DEVOE-MIRROLAC ENAMEL with a brush and other color fast fixins, put on your old clothes, and express your soul while converting that old furniture into attractive, new-looking pieces. Your bedroom will give you greater joy to dress and sleep in when properly painted!

Here comes the June bride, just a few weeks away! ESTELLA ZIMMERMAN is all prepared with lovely gown-slip-and-panties sets of white satin trimmed with alencon lace. In the variety of styles shown is one particular darling, the top of which is tucked chiffon, plus lace, plus ivory or white satin skirt. Tea rose and blue are other color possibilities, or you can get her printed satin (floral or dotted) in tailored styles.

For very special spring and summer afternoons you'll want to be wearing something in a dark sheer—marquise, embroidered chiffon or print, in black, navy, sand, brown or spring wine—from YETTER'S. If it's something a little on the formal side, you will feel absolutely right in a white or pastel organza, chiffon, marquise or organza that YETTER'S are showing. Your purse will feel right about it, too.

If you are entertaining your mother here today, a fine place to take her is to the CAPITOL CAFE for their special fried spring chicken dinner. The CAPITOL is newly re-decorated and will please her esthetic sense, as well as her palate. You can phone for reservations for almost any sized party and be assured of expert service.

WITH quarry season on its come in for a little extra consideration. You won't want to be worrying about the way it holds its wave when you are in and out of the water, so make your appointment at LORRAINE'S BEAUTY SHOP by dialing 9345 and end your worries for the season. LORRAINE'S BEAUTY SHOP gives beautiful waves in all the newest styles, too. Incidentally, LORRAINE'S has a new water softener that makes the water as soft as rain.

And we hear that there has been a music festival in town!

Barring last week's cold snap, we are entering upon the era of summer shoes, and what an era! One look at the collection in STEWART'S SHOE STORE is sufficient. The SORORITY HOUSE STYLES include brown, blue and white perforated, open toes, open shanks, open heels with back straps. The less shoe the better seems to be the idea. There are smart handbags to match these new shoes. For instance, sandstone linen shoes trimmed with luggage tan kid and a bag of the same materials; or white kid shoes with a three-way bag, one compartment zippered. Shop in comfort, for STEWART'S is completely air-conditioned.

You will be smart and comfortable in white or bright-colored "wedgies," too.

If you are longing to see a worthy successor to the Awful Truth, try "There's Always a Woman" coming to the STRAND THEATRE starting Tuesday. It's an hilarious comedy with fast action. Imagine the joy of sneaking along in low-heeled rubber-soled shoes that cost as little as genuine KEDETTES, purchased at LORENZ SHOE STORE! The college heel pattern is a favorite—all peach skin in blue and brown or linen with peach skin in white combined with green, blue and red. The saddle pattern is also popular—it comes in flat heel with thick crepe sole, in white and black, brown or blue.

Those last parties of the year, when you are bidding college chums adieu before summer vacation, can be wows in the party room of the D-L GRILL. The room is big enough to hold a hundred chums and the service is surpassed only by the food, which is saying something! Don't forget the D-L GRILL when you are looking for the place to have it.

Take this linen shirtwaist dress to your heart. It looks like a million dollars not only on an elegantly formed mannequin, but on every woman who tries it on. ## Homesteaders' Petition Is Due

Must Be Filed Before June First; 2,164 Already In

Iowa City and Johnson county homestead owners must file their applications for homestead credit in 1938 before June 1 with City Assessor William J. White or County Auditor Ed Sulek.

Residents of the county living outside of Iowa City must file their applications with the county auditor because the assessors have turned in their books to the auditor.

At noon yesterday, 2,164 Iowa City residents had filed applications with the city assessor for the homestead credit. Nearly 4,400 residents of the county filed applications last year for homestead credit on their 1937 tax bill.

The homestead credit which was allowed on the 1937 tax bills was based on a 25-mill rate was the first $2,500. The full tax rate must be paid on amounts over $2,500.

The credit rate is established by the state board of review, it is possible that a different rate may be set for determining next year's credits.

It's Mailed

Mother's Gift Travels Long Distance

When the college student mails a package to his mother for Mother's day, he merely pays the clerk at the parcel post window for a few stamps and thinks nothing more about it unless the package isn't delivered.

However, to the postal employee the postage of the package at the postoffice is merely the impetus to start the wheels rolling.

As soon as the clerk at the window affixes the stamps, he throws the package into a "tub" where the package stays until the tub is filled with other packages. An aproned individual pushes the tub to the cancelling table which is surrounded by rack on rack of pouches hung on stands.

The postal employee cancels the stamps on the package with a small machine held in his right hand as he takes each parcel from the tub, and then the package is skillfully tossed into one of the pouches.

If the student's mother lives in Des Moines, Sioux City or another large city, the package goes into a pouch exclusively for that city. Other pouches are marked for districts, states or sections of the country.

Should the package be going to Both precincts of the second and fourth wards and the third ward will meet in the city hall. All the other county precincts will hold their caucuses in their regular voting places, he said.

Examination Schedule

Second Semester, 1937-1938

Monday, May 23, 8 a.m., to Tuesday, May 31, 4 p.m.

The regular program of class work will be suspended and the following semester-examination program substituted for it. Classes will meet for examination in the rooms in which they have been regularly meeting (except classes in SPECIAL GROUPS, A, B, C, D, E, F, and G, as shown in the form below; and Speech (2), (1), and (4) as shown at "N.B." below.

The Program Committee directs the attention of both students, and instructors and professors, to the regulation that there is to be no deviation in the case of any examination, from this Schedule, except as authorized by the Committee on Admission and Classification, on the student's written petition, filed in ample time, supported by the recommendation of the department concerned,—to provide relief from an excessive number of examinations within a single day. Deviation for the purpose of getting through earlier will not be permitted. Students should prepare and deposit such petitions in the offices of the Deans of Men (men) and Women (women).

Each student who is absent from the final meeting of his class as indicated in the Examination Schedule should be reported on the official grade sheet at the end of the semester, as "Abs." Before this grade mark can be removed he must file with the Committee on Admission and Classification a written petition, with adequate vouchers attached, setting forth in full the necessity of his absence. This petition must include a departmentally signed statement indicating whether, in case the Committee finds the absence excusable, the student has the department's and instructor's permission to take the final examination. If the Committee finds the reason for the absence adequate it will issue to the student a partially prepared special report card (signed by the Secretary, lower left corner) with a form letter explaining to him that he has the Committee's permission, with the departmental consent and at the convenience of the instructor, to take his final examination within one month (or other designated period of time) from the date indicated.

If the student takes the examination thus authorized the outcome is to be reported on this card and not on any other card.

In the case of conflicts (within the SPECIAL GROUPS A, B, C, D, E, F, and G) the schedule itself, as presented below, provides a general method of making adjustments.

All classes whose first weekly meetings have occurred as indicated in the rectangles below meet for examination during the periods noted at the tops of these three columns and on the days noted in the rectangles directly opposite at the left of the double, vertical line.

CONFLICTS: In case of conflicting examinations the student should report to the instructor in charge of the first of the two conflicting subjects as listed within the particular SPECIAL GROUP rectangle above which is involved. (Read downward first in left column and then in right column.) The instructor will arrange for you a special examination. Report to him, or her, not later than the regular class hour May 19 or 20; if possible, May 12 or 13.

The first meeting of the class means the first lecture or recitation period in courses having both lectures and recitations, and laboratory periods; or in the case of courses involving only laboratory periods, the first clock-hour of the first weekly meeting. For example, Chemistry 21 meets for lectures T Th S at 8. The first regular meeting is consequently Tuesday at 8,—and the class will meet for examination Tuesday, May 24, 2 p.m., according to the tabular form above. Again, physics (128) meets twice each week, T F, for a three-hour laboratory exercise, 1-4. The period for the examination, is, therefore, Saturday, May 28, 2 p.m.

N. B. All sections of "Principles of Speech" (1), (2) and (4) (Except Section J*) will meet during Examination Week on the days and at the periods designated below. Consult the bulletin board, Room 13 S. H. for room assignments.

Fri., May 27—Section I, 8-10

Section G, 3-5
Speech (4), 3-5

Tues., May 24—Section A, 1-3
Section E, 3-5

Sat., May 28—Section D, 10-12
Section B, 1-3
Section F, 3-5

*Section J will meet as announced by the instructors.

"ODD" classes, namely those whose first or only weekly meetings occur on Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays, or Saturdays, or which meet "as arranged," will be assigned for examination, as announced to each such class, by the instructor in charge of the class, at one or another of the following periods:

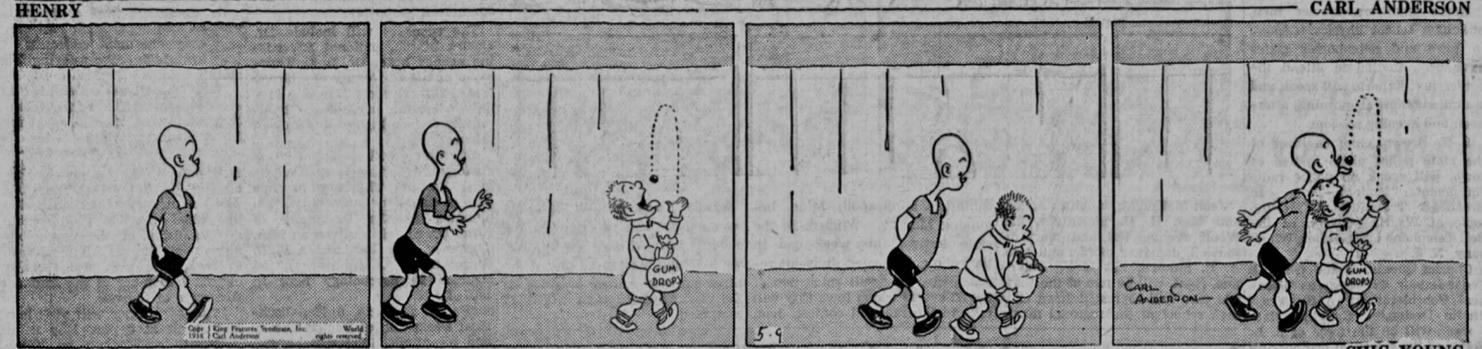

- From 4 to 6 on any day from May 23 to May 31 inclusive,—Sunday and Memorial Day excepted.
- Any one of the examination periods assigned, as indicated above, for the examinations in the SPECIAL GROUPS, A, B, C, D, E, F and G, since for such "odd" classes these seven examination periods will be found quite available.

In connection with any such announcement it would doubtless be well for the instructor making the announcement to ascertain whether any member of his class is already under appointment for examination in some other class for the proposed period. To be sure it is possible to have examinations in more than one class at any of these times,—if no student is a member of more than one of these classes.

According to one clause in the formal faculty action providing for a special semester-examination program, "the instructor may use the examination period as he sees fit provided he holds the class for the full period. He may have an oral or a written examination, or both, or neither. He may continue regular work or he may use the time for review, or for any phase of his work which may seem to him desirable at this time.

According to another faculty regulation, which is on record as adopted by the faculty, a student absent from the final examination should be reported "Abs.," unless the instructor recognizes that his work up to this examination has been a failure, in which case the final report should be "Fd."—even though the student may have been absent from the final examination. No examination should be given, subsequently, to such a student until after the absence has been excused by the Committee on Admission and Classification, as shown by a partially filled special report card, signed by the Secretary of the Committee, as indicating that the absence has been excused and that the student is authorized, subject to the consent and at the convenience of the instructor concerned, to take the final examination.

Ranking Tests Will Be Given

High School Students To Compete Here Two Days

The "every-pupil" contest will have its 10th anniversary under the auspices of the University of Iowa's supervision when pupils in 336 high schools participate in the testing program tomorrow and Tuesday.

Twelve 60-minute tests will be given by the largest number of schools since 1931, and every pupil enrolled in the subjects is required to undergo the tests.

Reports will be turned into the university by May 14 by the schools, and May 25 a summary report of results including the names of qualifiers for the scholarship contests will be released to the schools.

From the tests will emerge approximately 1,100 qualifiers who will come to the university June 6 and 7 to compete in two-hour tests with honors being awarded to the high-ranking scholars.

Subjects in which the pupils will be tested this week will include ninth year algebra, plane geometry, general science, biology, physics, world history, United States history, American government, first and second year Latin, English correctness, reading comprehension in literature and contemporary affairs.

Festival--

Eagle Grove gave striking performances to win their superior ratings, while the excellence of each aggregation kept an audience which filled the fieldhouse and armory to overflowing spellbound and bursting with applause during more than three hours of eight-minute demonstrations.

With a flag-raising ceremony as impressive as any single event of the afternoon, the university marching band, the Pontoniers, the Pershing Rifles and the Scottish Highlanders began the exhibition. Before the actual competition began, the Highlanders gave a unique and impressive performance of marching, piping and picturesque Scottish dances.

Victor Grabel, Gerald R. Prescott and Ernest Glover, the three judges of the final event, directed the festival massed band in the three marches which ended the festival. With all the drummers and cymbalists of the competing bands and the university band massed immediately in front of the director's stand, and the remaining players in the bands grouped in colorful patches of red, gold and blue, the fieldhouse rang with mass music. Prof. Charles B. Righter of the music department, director of the University of Iowa band, presided at the contest.

Iowa City First With a total of seven superiors garnered from the last three days of festival competition, which, augmented by seven excellent ratings, gave Iowa City an unofficial first place over all other schools in the meet, Iowa City musicians were ready to begin matching their musical skill with high schools from all over the middle west in a three-day regional contest to open May 19 in Minneapolis, Minn.

Iowa City will enter 22 events in the regional meet. Besides the seven superior ratings of the festival, the eight soloists and groups which won a top rating in the regional last year will return to this year's competition, as well as seven winners of superior ratings in the national auditions at the district contest.

Iowa City's mixed chorus, orchestra and five soloists will go to the regional as a result of their superior ratings at the state contest. The soloists will be Warren Burger, oboe; Jean Taylor, harp; Jean McKnight, cello; Marjorie Sidwell, clarinet, and Edward Sybil, string bass.

Eight winners of the top rating in last year's regional contest will also enter the competition. Besides the concert band, Donald Key, French horn; John Whinnery, tenor saxophone; Christian Schroek, bassoon; Jean Hubbard, alto clarinet; the brass sextet; Charles Beckman, Eldon Parizek, Betty Ivie, Russell Sapp, Robert Simpson and Frances Carl; the woodwind quintet: John Webster, Dorothy Soucek, Christian Schroek, Donald Key and Warren Burger, and the string quartet: Jean Opstad, Katherine Donavon, Patricia Traschels and Jean McKnight, will try for additional honors in their respective events.

Winners of national auditions who will go to the regional are Joan Meardon, baton twirling; Gene Hubbard, alto clarinet; Virginia Simpson, piccolo; horn quartet: Ruby Alley, Betty Ivie, Robert Martin, Wilma Powers; trombone quartet: Joe Poulter, Robert Simpson, Elwood Opstad and Russell Sapp; flute quartet: Dorothy Smith, Katherine Ruppert, Dorothy Soucek and Mary Larjbert, and clarinet quartet: John Webster, Marjorie Sidwell, Gene Hubbard and Cornell Mayer.

Outstanding Schools Outstanding achievements were prominent among the schools who finished competing yesterday in the festival. Three schools each entered five large groups in the festival, and each won two excellent and three superior ratings. They were Burlington, Charles City and Davenport.

Only three schools, Davenport, Oskaloosa and East Waterloo, had small instrumental groups in all three possible divisions. Two of Oskaloosa's groups won superiors, while Davenport and East Waterloo each had one superior and two excellent.

To Eagle Grove went the distinction of winning superior in all three small vocal groups—girls', boys' and mixed. Valley high school (West Des Moines) was the only other school to have three small vocal groups, winning two superiors.

To Burlington went the honor of having the largest number of vocal soloists in the meet. Burlington had entries in four out of the five divisions, winning excellent ratings in each.

In the instrumental solo division, Iowa City carried away top honors, with five superior and four excellent ratings. Centerville had five superiors and a single excellent for second place.

Work Done Class Groups Return To Iowa City

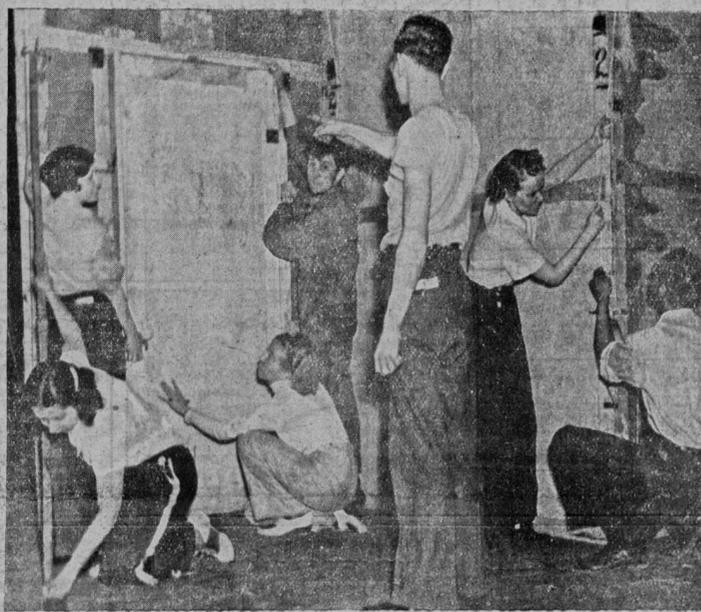

The last of the three groups from the community weekly class in the school of journalism has returned to Iowa City after obtaining first-hand experience by publishing editions of weekly newspapers in Bloomfield, Belle Plaine and Maquoketa.

With the exception of the editor, the same staff put out two papers at Bloomfield. Robert A. Jarnagin, A4 of Peterson, was editor of the Davis County Republican, which came out April 26, and Wayne E. Christianson, A4 of Tama, was the editor of the Bloomfield Democrat, which came out April 28. The staff members for both papers included Glenn Beneke, A4 of Pochonath, business manager and advertising manager, and Adele M. Anderson, A4 of Honey Creek, society editor. Four of this group of 12 students were in Bloomfield two weeks, and the others went a week later. The 12-page papers were published by Howard Wilson and Verner Lindgren.

The group at Belle Plaine put out two papers April 28 under the same editor, Darwin D. Tucker, A4 of Jefferson. They were the Belle Plaine Union, 12 pages, and the Keystone Bulletin, a four-page weekly printed for the neighboring town of Keystone. Belle Plaine staff members were Joe B. Pugh, A3 of Iowa City, business manager; Phillip J. Norman, A4 of Ames, advertising manager, and Margaret N. Coulson, A3 of Grundy Center, society editor. Backstage at a 'Call It a Day' Coordinating Rehearsal

Yesterday's "coordinating" rehearsal—designed to combine technical and dramatic elements—for University theater's production of "Call It a Day" found these students busily shifting sets between scenes. The English comedy by Dodie S. Smith is made up of nine scenes, calling for eight separate stage units. Consequently the work of the backstage workmen becomes more important than ever in this

Tribulations of Home Life Problems of Household Provide the Plot For University Play Production

Everyday English home life—everything from frying bacon and eggs to solving affairs of the heart—will be the theme of University theater's naturalistic production of "Call It a Day," opening Tuesday night.

Because the characters of Dodie S. Smith's comedy eat in six scenes, sleep in two others, run in and out of bathrooms and get entangled in romantic affairs, many technical problems had to be solved.

To keep pace with the cast's activities, eight sets had to be designed by Prof. Arnold S. Gillette and constructed by the shop workers. Since the play contains nine scenes, only one set is being used twice. Speedy shifts between scenes are made possible by the use of the revolving stage, as in the theater's production of "King Henry IV."

The property crew, headed by Mary Eloise Anderson, G of Des Moines, and made up of seven other students, is faced with providing nearly all the essentials of the modern household—everything from orange marmalade to bedroom furniture.

The characters eat breakfast, have tea frequently, an artist does some portrait painting, and three club garden department will meet tomorrow at 4 p.m. in the recreational center to work on name stakes for their garden.

of the main actors are put to bed before the curtain lowers.

Every set is a separate unit in itself, and each is mounted on a platform with rollers or a tip jack, so that the student stage hands can accomplish shifts in a minimum amount of time. A simple little push of a button by Max Riggs, A3 of Webster City, stage manager, will transport the audience from one scene to another.

The nine scenes of the play depict first the bedroom of the mother and father, then the kitchen, the dining room, an artist's studio, an apartment-hotel, the father's office, the backyard of the home, the daughter's bedroom and back again to the parents' bedroom. Without the revolving stage, a rapid presentation of the successive events would be impossible.

Director of the production is Prof. Vance M. Morton. Two casts have been working on the play, directed by Professor Morton and Peter Marroney, G of Portland, Ore., assistant to the director. ## SHE COMBS THE WORLD FOR PICTURES THAT THRILL

What Margaret Bourke-White, famous photographer, said when Ralph Martin asked if she found a difference in cigarettes

"Cigarettes seem pretty much alike to me. Do you find some difference between Camels and the others, Miss Bourke-White?"

"I've found that Camels are very, very different, Mr. Martin—not just in one way, but in a lot of ways. For example, my nerves must be just as trustworthy as a steeple jack's. Camels don't jangle my nerves. They taste extra-mild and delicate too. Camels never leave an unpleasant after-taste, and they're so gentle to the throat. In fact, Camels agree with me in every way! I think that's what counts most—how your cigarette agrees with you!"

Camels are a matchless blend of finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS — Turkish and Domestic STEEL MILLS, dams, skyscrapers, subways (as above)—appeal to Margaret Bourke-White. She's gone all over the United States. Her photographs are famous. They're different! Miss Bourke-White made that same remark about Camels to Ralph Martin at the New York World's Fair grounds (right).

"CAMELS AGREE WITH ME!"

Leading growers tell their preference in cigarettes — it's Camel!

"We smoke Camels because we know tobacco," tobacco planters say

"I'm a tobacco planter," says Vertner Hatton, who has grown tobacco for 25 years. "The Camel folks pay a sight more for our better tobaccos. Last crop they took my finest grades."

I smoke Camels—I know there's no substitute for expensive tobaccos. Most planters favor Camels."

"I've been planting tobacco for twenty years," says Harry C. King. "The Camel people bought the choice lots of my last crop — paid more for my best tobacco."

So I know they use finer, more expensive tobaccos in Camels. That's one mighty good reason why my cigarette is Camel."

Student Photographers Help Scientists, Too!

Camera 'Stops' Bullets

F. B. Riggs, Jr.

Student Photos Aid Industry

When the National Board of Fire Underwriters sought to determine the accuracy and strength of fire-hose nozzles, they sponsored a series of photographic tests at California Institute of Technology. These two photos demonstrate how the tests were made. At the top the students are shown adjusting the camera that will take speeds up to one-millionth of a second. At the right is the photo they took of the water as it came out of the nozzle. The frame in front of the camera provided the light for the photograph.

Increasingly important in scientific research ... is photomicrography, the recording on film of microscopic phenomena for more intensive study at the convenience of the researcher.

This camera sniper is out for no good ... as he shoots this strictly private springtime tete-a-tete on the University of Iowa campus.

Chivalry often ... when the candid camera fan sees a chance situation for his picture album. This Hawke gets a good shot.

Working their way through college

Many an active amateur has found a ready market for his photographs in the hundreds of magazines and newspapers that are always searching for good photographic "copy." Charles Thomas, Howard Lyons and Jack Watson are three University of Iowa students who have made photography pay their college bills.

Baby Undergoes Delicate Op

CHICAGO, May 9 (AP)—Baby Helaine Colan underwent a delicate and dramatic operation today in a desperate effort to save her life.

"She is doing very well." That announcement and her quick recovery spurred the hopes of a council of 10 medical experts who had decided the five-week-old infant should be submitted to surgery at once rather than chance death within two months from growths creeping toward her brain.

But the operation was only the initial step in a grim struggle to stave off the advance of glioma, the dread disease which had blinded the child's left eye and impaired the vision of the right.

Little Helaine was borne to the operating room as her mother pleaded:

"Save her life. Whether she has one eye or no eyes, I want my baby."

Dr. Robert H. Good and his assistant, Dr. E. P. Garraghan, removed the left eyeball and about a half inch of the optic nerve.

The eye ball was enlarged. This was regarded as a favorable factor because the cancerous growth was inside the eye ball and indicated a similar, although smaller, tumor in the right eye might be checked before it could encroach upon the brain.

The tiny patient rallied quickly from the effects of the ether and lost little blood.

The eyeball was given to Dr. Edward V. L. Brown. He and a committee of eight X-ray specialists planned to subject it to microscopic study. Then, after further examination of the baby within the next 48 hours, they will decide whether the right eye can be saved by X-ray treatment or must be removed.

Japanese Seek Vital Railway

Invaders Battle Against Critical Deadlock In War

SHANGHAI, May 10 (Tuesday) (AP)—After 307 days of bitter warfare at an estimated cost of more than 1,000,000 casualties, about 1,000,000 Chinese and Japanese soldiers fought today for control of China's vast interior.

The struggle centered on the central Chinese front where domination of the Lunghai railway, running more than 600 miles west into the heart of China, and 150 unconquered miles of the intersecting Tientsin-Pukow railway were the principal Japanese objectives.

Three Japanese columns were thrusting northward against the Lunghai—two across country and the center column along the Tientsin-Pukow line—in a desperate effort to circumvent the costly deadlock along the central front from Shantung province, on the north.

The right wing force had driven within 60 miles of the eastern end of the Lunghai in northern Kiangsu province, near Fowning. It was the nearest of the three southern spearheads to the railway.

The battle on the north side of the railway "backbone" of Chinese resistance yesterday saw Japanese sirmen desperately trying to blast a hole in the defenses about 35 miles east of Suchow, junction of the Lunghai and the Tientsin-Pukow railroads.

Chinese artillery positions there, less than 10 miles from the Lunghai, were heavily bombed, indicating that was the point of the fiercest fighting—almost the same battle zone in which the previous major offensive of the Japanese was rolled back in disastrous defeat a month ago.

Suchow, nerve center of the Chinese defenses and reported by Japanese sources to be ringed with 400,000 Chinese soldiers, was the objective of one of the three northbound columns. It was reported approaching Kuchen, on the Tientsin-Pukow line, 70 miles south of Suchow.

Seeks Stamp For Centennial

DES MOINES, May 9 (AP)—United States Senator Herring (D-Iowa) today notified Gov. Nelson G. Kraschel that he is complaining to President Roosevelt and Postmaster General Farley concerning the post office department's refusal to issue an Iowa centennial stamp.

In communications to Governor Kraschel and J. R. Bahne, Iowa centennial committee chairman, Senator Herring said he had told the post office department that its reasons for refusal were "inadequate and without justification."

In his communication to President Roosevelt, a copy of which he sent to Bahne, Herring stated "I am appealing to you in the matter, feeling that a state centennial observation of its first 100 years of territorial sovereignty warrants any possible extra effort necessary to comply with its request."

To Ramsey S. Black, third assistant postmaster general, who refused the request for the commemorative stamp, Senator Herring sent the following note:

"If the department is unable to arrange a program which will permit the issuance of a commemorative stamp... then something should be done to make compliance of such request immediately possible."

Disavows Intention
TOKYO (AP)—Foreign Minister Koki Hirota disavowed yesterday any Japanese intention of adopting an aggressive policy toward the United States.

Mothers, What Would You Do?

Helaine Judith Colan, only eight weeks of life remained for the infant if no operation was performed. And, also, the only way to check the spread of the growth was by removing the eyes. There was one faint glimmer of hope, a chance that removal of one eye might disclose evidence from which a new course of procedure could be deduced, and which might render needless the removal of the other.

Sioux City Contractor Killed After His Auto Goes off Road

C. F. Lytle Meets Death While Driving Near Council Bluffs

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., May 9 (AP)—C. F. Lytle, 68, large scale Sioux City, Ia., contractor, was found dead behind the steering wheel of his automobile five miles north of here on highway No. 30-75 late this afternoon after the machine veered off the road into a ditch.

L. W. Nygaard, 47, head of a Sioux City automobile firm, riding with Lytle, suffered cuts on his forehead and a lacerated left wrist. He was brought to a hospital here.

Dr. J. P. Cogley of Council Bluffs, who examined Lytle's body said the exact cause of death could not be determined without an autopsy. He said Lytle's injuries included a crushed chest and body bruises. Coroner Tom Belford said there would be no inquest, and an autopsy would be held only if requested by the family.

Nygaard said he and Lytle left Sioux City about 11 a.m. today for Louisville, Neb., where they looked over some trucking equipment at the Ash Grove Lime and Cement company. He said they were on their way back to Sioux City, driving along a level stretch of road, when he noticed the car veer across the road to the left. A moment later it plunged in the ditch.

Akers said he would file a charge of violating the state narcotic law against Perez.

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz., May 9 (AP)—A bass viol took over the driver's seat after a suddenly opened door tumbled Charles Renshaw out of the motor car in which he was riding alone.

The car kept on going. Officers found it a mile down the road today, still on its wheels, the musical instrument behind the steering wheel. Renshaw was dragged 200 feet and injured.

Employees Refuse Jobs With Paycut

NEWTON, May 9 (AP)—Picket lines stood in front of the idle Maytag washing machine company late today after 325 union workers refused to return to their jobs at a paycut of 10 per cent.

The plant had been closed down for several days when the company this morning ordered the 325 men to report back to work.

Senate Approves Bill For Federal Farm, F

WASHINGTON, May 9 (AP)—It took the senate less than three hours today to discuss and approve the expenditure of $1,104,000,000 in federal funds for farm and highway programs.

The agricultural appropriation bill, which would provide this record sum for use in the fiscal year beginning July 1, then was sent back to the house for consideration of some $50,000,000 the senate added to it.

Criticism of the size of the measure came from Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.), who said gov-
