

Spending-Lending Bill Defended by Maverick

Assails Violent Attack Against Relief Measure

Texan Urges Creation Of Public Welfare Department

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP)—Republican denunciations of the Roosevelt spending-lending program drew from Representative Maverick (D-Tex.) the reply today that "violent criticism of the president" does nothing to solve economic problems.

Defending the measure as "much better" than previous relief bills, the Texan said the most vehement critics had no proper program of their own to offer.

The chamber of commerce and other business associations "view with alarm," but make no suggestions except to "repeal the Wagner labor relations act and throw labor to the wolves."

Republican suggestions that relief be turned back to the communities, he added, would result in a "saturnalia or mismanagement and corruption throughout the country."

He spoke after republicans, continuing an attack begun yesterday, warned colleagues that there were serious dangers in the spending bill, which would appropriate some $3,000,000,000, major part of the $4,500,000,000 program of loans and direct expenditures to combat the depression.

A republican minority report, prepared by Representatives Taber and Bacon of New York, and Wigglesworth of Massachusetts, members of the appropriation committee, presented a counter-program of 12 points. Among them was:

"Administration of relief by a federal bi-partisan board aided by local bi-partisan boards, federal grants to be limited to 80 per cent of each state's relief needs."

They also demanded: an inquiry into charges that WPA money has been used politically; outright repeal of the undistributed profits tax, an end to "harrasing restrictions and assaults on business"; revision of the Wagner labor act to promote capital-labor "harmony" and other steps.

There were many dead. Pistol in hand, Vargas helped fight off green-shirts attempting to invade his presidential palace. A few hours later he started military and police court action to smash completely the outlawed integralist green-shirt organization.

The revolt, which apparently was wholly Brazilian in character, was smashed by a combination of police and army thrusts. An undetermined number of rebels were killed and wounded in abortive assaults against government buildings and residences of principal army generals. Hundreds were arrested.

He declared martial law, which took effect at noon. Plans were said to have been started to have the national security court, the nation's highest, hear charges against those implicated within the revolt within 24 hours. The maximum penalty is death.

Presidential palace spokesmen predicted a "purge" in the navy would result from the rebellion. Belmiro Valdeverde, field commander of the rising by fascist integralists whose organization was outlawed by President Vargas after he grasped authoritarian control of Brazil last Nov. 10, was lodged in jail.

Ford-NLRB Fight

Frederick H. Wood, top, and Philip H. Phillips

Through its chief counsel, Frederick H. Wood, top, the Ford Motor Co. blocked the effort of the National Labor Relations board to withdraw from federal circuit court of appeals at Covington, Ky., the record of its case against the firm. Philip H. Phillips, NLRB regional director, argued the case for the board. Question also arose whether the Ford company had halted the NLRB's promised vacating of an order charging Wagner Act violations. Amending its previous ruling—allowing the board to withdraw the documents—the courts directed that the papers be made a part of the Ford company's suit to set aside the contested order of last December. Wood described the ruling as a "Ford victory" and declared it would prevent the NLRB from rescinding the order for reinstatement of 29 workers in Michigan plants, who were discharged for asserted union activity.

Socialists Ask LaFollette To Explain Policy

Query Progressives In An Open Letter To Party Leader

CHICAGO, May 11 (AP)—A socialist party spokesman asked Gov. Philip LaFollette today to explain how his new national progressive party will be controlled and how its policies will be shaped and its candidates selected.

In an open letter to the Wisconsin executive who launched the new political unit last month, Roy E. Burt, national executive secretary of the socialist party, posed these questions:

"1. Are you willing to take in organized farm and labor groups and make the new party a national farmer-labor party?"

"2. How soon and by what steps do you expect to institute democratic control of the party by the rank and file in place of the centralized control now vested in you as its 'chief officer'?"

"3. Will national and state conventions of elected delegates be called to write national and state platforms for the party and to choose the candidates which it will support?"

"4. You imply that the United States is to police the western hemisphere. Do you propose that the United States shall protect its markets in the western hemisphere by force of arms?"

"5. You have proposed that the railroads be refinanced by government initiative but left in the hands of private owners. Are you not willing to take a position as progressive as that taken by your father, who advocated government ownership and operation of railroads?"

"6. You say that ownership and control of money and credit must be under public control. Does this mean public ownership of the entire banking system, or merely public regulation of a banking system which will continue to be privately owned and operated for profit?"

"7. You flatly oppose 'coddling or spoon feeding' of those on relief. How much do you propose that relief should be cut?"

Burt said it was "difficult to see how you expect to build a progressive party that will stay progressive and launch it with an attack on socialism."

Anti-Hague Pamphlets Distributed By Princeton Students in Jersey City 'War'

JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 11 (AP)—Princeton university students "invaded" Journal square tonight to distribute anti-Hague leaflets as an opponent of Mayor Frank Hague announced a court test would be started to review the constitutionality of this city's ban on street meetings without a permit.

Twelve youths who did not give their names handed out circulars advertising tomorrow night's Princeton rally against Hague, at which Norman Thomas, socialist leader, will speak, and carried placards proclaiming "Is he the law? Fight Hague!"

Morris Shapiro, counsel for the Workers Defense league, said Thomas would seek to review not only the Jersey City ordinance banning meetings without permits but also the manner in which it has been enforced.

He indicated that Thomas would not appear next Tuesday night at a scheduled rally in defiance of the administration, but would meet a challenge issued by Director of Public Safety Daniel Casey for a local court test of the legality of the debated regulation.

Annual Election of Members To Student Board of Publications And Union Board Held Today

University students will go to the polls today in Iowa Union for the annual election of members to the board of trustees of Student Publications, Inc., and liberal arts representatives on Union Board. The polls in the women's lounge will be open from 8 to 12 this morning and 1 to 5 this afternoon.

Two students will be elected to serve for two-year terms and one for a one-year term on the publications board.

Six students—three men and three women—will be elected to Union Board.

Present members of the publications board and of Union Board will preside as judges at the election and will count the ballots.

The publications board candidates are Frank Baker, A2 of Bancroft; George Dunn, L1 of Glenwood; Nona Seberg, A2 of Mt. Pleasant; and Roy Wagner, L1 of LaPorte City, all candidates for the two-year term, and Dean Holman, A3 of Marshalltown, and Wirt Hoxie, L2 of Waterloo, for the one-year term. Helen Ries, A2 of Iowa City, whose name will appear on the ballot, has withdrawn her candidacy.

The Union Board women candidates are Genevieve McCulloch, A2 of Cedar Rapids; Betty Holt, A3 of Iowa City; Ruth House, A2 of Iowa City; Isabel Greenberg, A3 of Algona; Beth Browning, A2 of Iowa City; Dolores Hubly, A3 of Mason, Ill.; Betty Lee Roesser, A2 of Ft. Corporation To Use 80 Million

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP)—Expenditure of $80,000,000 for plant expansion and modernization is contemplated by the United States Steel corporation this year, the company announced today in registering a $100,000,000 bond issue with the securities commission.

Of the total issue, the largest ever registered with the SEC by an industrial corporation, $50,000,000 is to be used to repay money borrowed from banks in February and $50,000,000 will be added to the corporation's cash fund for expansion.

Spain Prolongs Fight Against League Council

'Lost Division' Raids General Franco's Lines

Sallies From Mountain Hideout to Annoy Rebel Troops

HENDAYE, France (At the Spanish Frontier), May 11 (AP)—The Spanish government's "lost division" sallied forth from its hidden Pyrenees mountain stronghold today in new raids on the insurgents' northern lines.

Military dispatches said the division, which has become a symbol of heroism to the Barcelona government and a thorn to the insurgents, was hampering Generalissimo Francisco Franco's preparations for a drive near the French frontier.

Insurgent and government reports conflicted. Insurgents said the division's attacks were repulsed with heavy losses and it remained isolated and surrounded. Government advices declared Franco's artillery was ineffective against the "lost division's" threat in Spain's mountainous far north.

Hull Stands Pat

Secretary Cordell Hull

No change in the present neutrality laws regarding the United States position in the Spanish and Chinese-Japanese wars is seen at this session of congress. Such is the indication following Secretary of State Cordell Hull's conference with the president in Washington following the latter's return from a Caribbean fishing trip.

No announcement of president's views of neutrality and efforts to lift the embargo against shipment of arms and munitions to Spain was made after the conference. Hull, shown returning to his office in the state department, declined comment except to say his report on operation of the neutrality law had not been completed.

Great Britain, France Fail To Kill War Issue

Selassie's Legal Claim On Ethiopia Crushed Under Influence

GENEVA, May 11 (AP)—Government Spain, upsetting a majority of the league of nations council, tonight prolonged its bitter battle to remove control of intervention in the Spanish civil war from the hands of the non-intervention committee.

Supported by Soviet Russia and New Zealand, Julio Del Vayo, the Barcelona delegate, won further consideration of the Spanish issue which Great Britain and France sought to dispose of tonight.

Haile Selassie's fight to save the last, legal trace of claim to his toppled Ethiopian throne, however, appeared crushed under the weight of British and French influence.

Two of his backers, China and Soviet Russia, decided not to oppose Anglo-French efforts to win the league's permission to recognize Italy's conquest of Ethiopia—a necessary preliminary to French and British friendship pacts with Italy.

Besides the bitter Spanish and Ethiopian questions, two other sharp issues were raised at the council meeting. They were:

1. The threat of Dr. Augustin Edwards, Chilean delegates, that Chile would withdraw from the league, taking other nations with her, unless her demands for reform of the league covenant were acted on.

2. Switzerland's insistence on complete neutrality—freedom from all obligations as a league member—by a "special, exceptional statute."

Alvarez Del Vayo warned that he was placing "a matter of greatest gravity before the council and it is the council's responsibility if it is treated lightly." Although his demand for more time before making a final statement obviously upset a council majority, it was granted with the agreement of Viscount Halifax, the British foreign minister.

$375,000,000 Flood Measure Meets Approval of Committee; Reduces Local Financial Help

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP)—A $375,000,000 flood control program cutting present requirements for local financial participation by 70 per cent received approval of the house flood control committee today.

The amount is $75,000,000 more than suggested by President Roosevelt. However, the bill appropriates no money, merely authorizing projects. Selection of most projects would be left to the army engineers.

Construction would begin upon appropriation of funds by congress and assurances that interested communities could meet required local contributions for lands, easements and rights of way for dam and reservoirs.

These contributions must be 100 per cent under existing law. The committee bill provides that local governments be reimbursed 70 per cent of actual expenditures made by them.

Waymack Asks Investigation Of Tariff Industry

KANSAS CITY, May 11 (AP)—An investigation of the nation's high tariff industries was urged today by W. W. Waymack, Pulitzer prize editorial winner, who said such industries employ only one seventh of the wage earners.

"Of the 49,000,000 or 50,000,000 earners normally gainfully employed," the Des Moines, Ia., writer told the General Federation of Women's Clubs, "perhaps 7,000,000 are in manufactures enjoying stiff protection. It would seem somewhat absurd to assume that our general wage conditions could be determined by tariff benefits to this minority."

U. S. Gunboat Stands Ready to Protect Americans

ST. LOUIS, May 11 (AP)—The Confederate veterans' commander-in-chief—92-year-old John Milton Claypool—changed his mind today and decided to attend the final reunion of "the blue and the gray" at Gettysburg, asserting he believed he could "put up with the Yankees" for a few days.

A retired Christian minister here, Claypool will lead the diminishing ranks of about 500 veterans of the south to the famous Civil war battle scene, June 29 to July 6.

"Since the Lord has put up with the Yankees all this time," declared Claypool, "I guess I can also put up with them for a few days."

Some dispatches referred to fighting on Kulangsu island, Amoy's foreign settlement. Foreign sources, however, had no reports of conflict on the island, which is located a half mile off Amoy island itself.

The United States gunboat Asheville and the British destroyer Diana were ready to evacuate Americans and Britons if necessary, and the United States destroyer Edsall and cruiser Marblehead were reported on their way to the island, where 26 Americans, including 15 missionaries, make their homes.

Chinese dispatches asserted that one Japanese detachment broke through Chinese defenses and attacked Amoy's suburbs, but was driven back by a counter thrust.

Along with the drive on Amoy, the first Japanese invasion of south China, Japanese announced they had renewed their general offensive on the central front. There Japanese have been trying since December to conquer the Lunghai railway area separating their north China and Yangtze river valley conquests.

Splendor First Royal Court Of 1938 Season Held

LONDON, May 11 (AP)—The first royal court of the 1938 season— notable for Americans because it was the first in many years to which Americans were not invited from home for presentation to the king and queen—was held tonight in Buckingham palace.

A glittering crowd of some 700 debutantes, ambassadors, high government officials, and top ranking society attended.

Among them were seven Americans who were presented by Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy, wife of the American ambassador, to King George VI and Queen Elizabeth.

Two of the seven were the ambassador's own daughters, Rosemary, 19, and Kathleen, 17, each thoroughly thrilled and voluble about it.

The king was in scarlet and gold and the queen resplendent in diamonds as they sat in the great red, white and gold ball room.

Grouped about them, in a semi-circle were members of the royal family and brilliantly garbed court functionaries. Many priceless jewels, hoarded in family safes, were on display.

Other Americans presented were Mrs. Douglas Jenkins of Charleston, S. C., wife of the United States consul general in London; Mrs. Warren Sewell Lockwood of Washington, D. C., wife of the assistant trade commissioner at the London embassy; Mrs. Leslie Amerton Davis of Port Jefferson, Long Island, New York, wife of the American consul general in Glasgow, and Virginia Lee Howard of Washington, D. C., and Rosamond Harris Seidel of Providence, R. I.

Learning About Our Hospitals

ONE OUT of every 14 persons in the United States entered some hospital last year, according to an American Medical association report. Obviously this means that the hospital is occupying an increasingly important place in modern American life.

Certainly this is a good thing, for there is still too much suspicion, too much unwarranted criticism of the modern hospital. No doubt this is partly due to lack of lay knowledge about surgical care and all that host of life processes which is the concern of medicine.

Suspicion is also a shadowy remnant of the days of charms and potions. We are not too far removed in point of time from the witchcraft of colonial days. It was less than a century and a half ago that the good citizens of Philadelphia were rioting because a young physician was rumored to have dissected a human body.

National hospital day, which is being observed all over the nation today, offers an opportunity to visit and become acquainted with the work of local hospitals and sanitariums. Busy doctors, nurses and attendants will take time off this afternoon to show guests through wards and clinic rooms and to explain something of the personal service which is their profession.

Iowa City is fortunate in its hospitals and Iowa Citizens are fortunate because they may view at first hand these outstanding institutions in the nation's medical system. Those who have seen University or Mercy hospitals as patients will need no further introduction. But those for whom these institutions remain tinged with shadows of fear and pain should take this opportunity to get a new view of all that hospitalization involves.

Hospital finance, personnel, administration—these are also the concern of the public. Visit Iowa City's hospitals today. Once you have done so, you will become a life member of that great but unorganized group, "Friends of the Nation's Hospitals."

'King of Kings' Out in the Cold

LITTLE Haile Selassie, Ethiopian emperor and "king of kings," is learning a great deal these days about the ethics of nations which really are civilized—a condition never attained by his own sandy little country. Two years ago he watched the League of Nations stand by and say "naughty, naughty," while Italy swiped his nation and his people. Now he is seeing the league, prodded by Great Britain, prepare to recognize the steal on the condition that Mussolini promise to behave himself in the future.

It is as if we were to permit all horse thieves or bank robbers to keep their ill-gotten gains on the promise that they would never, never offend again. It is a hopeful principle and may work for awhile. And as long as it works there will probably be peace in Europe. But it offers no safeguards that Italy, or some other country inspired by the Italian example, will not again start grabbing off territory.

As statesmanship, the league's move to recognize the Italian conquest of Ethiopia is, at the most, questionable. As a lesson in ethics it's terrible.

Putting Superstitions Out of Date

DR. AUGUST A. THOMEN of New York, N. Y., has recently exploded several beliefs and superstitions that have been cherished by many since childhood days.

Scratching yourself with a rusty pin, for instance, was once thought sure to result in a serious infection. But Dr. Thomen says that the rust is only harmless iron oxide, that the danger comes from germs which are apt to be present with the rust.

Drinking medicinal waters at health springs is not nearly the cure it is said to be. Most of the benefits of such a treatment come from the change in habits, diet and rest.

Aeronautical experiments and parachute jumpers support Dr. Thomen's refutation of the once-popular theory that people falling from great heights are dead before they strike the ground. Another discredited story is that drowning people always rise to the surface three times. Often they sink once only, depending on the amount of water they have taken into their lungs.

The doctor also denies that an electric fan can lower room temperatures, for outside the area of the current the room temperature remains the same. Cooling occurs only because of the evaporation of moisture from the surface of the body.

He tells us too that the human eye has no power to daunt animals and that toads are incapable of giving people warts. But all this is nothing—what will we do for snake bites now that whiskey cannot cure them?

SWASTIKA

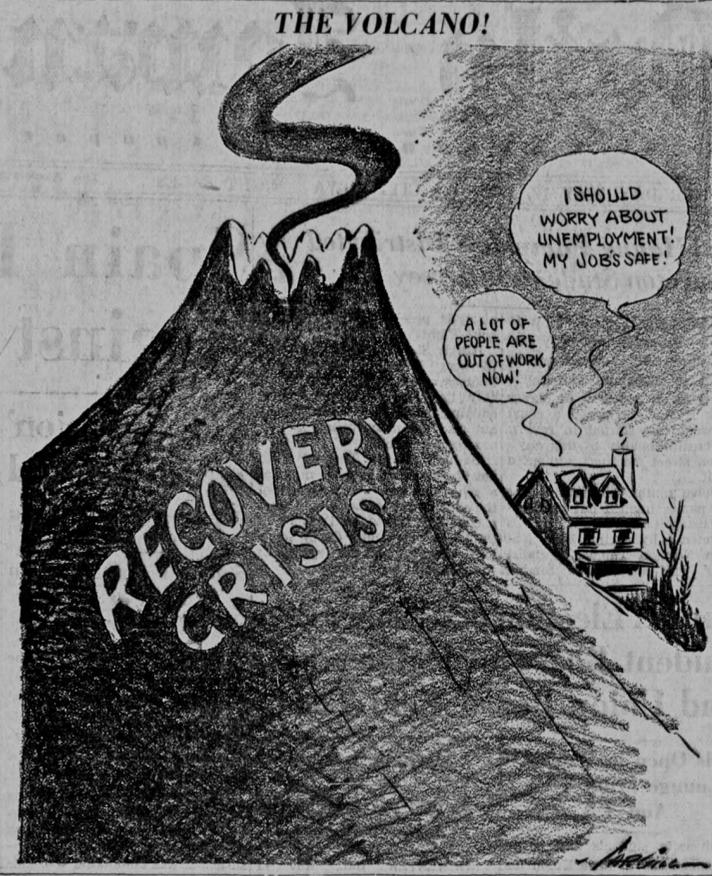

FROM BEFORE the dawn of history until quite recent time the symbol known generally as the "swastika" (accent on the first syllable) had a benign significance. The name is derived from Sanskrit terms meaning "well being," and prior to the adoption of the design as their particular emblem by the German national socialists subsequent to the World War, the type of cross invariably was associated with the idea of good fortune.

Technically the swastika is a form of Greek cross, the four parts of equal length, and each with a foot turned out of a right angle, all in the same direction, clockwise. The design has been found in drawings on the walls of caves in France, Spain and North America, believed to predate the glacial era. It has been discovered in remains from the bronze age in various parts of Europe, was known in very early times in Greece, Persia, India, China and Japan. It occurs in the arts and decorations of the aborigines of North, Central and South America, in civilizations without record of intercourse with European and Asiatic peoples. It does not seem to have been known in Oceania.

Clearly, the so-called Aryans of Germany have no prior claim to this symbol, thought to have been intended to represent the sun, so widely distributed are its occurrences. The early Anglo-Saxons called it "fyfot," four-footed. The Greeks termed it "gammadion," an arrangement of four gammas. Modern Germans refer to it as "hakenkreuz."

For countless years the "odd little symbol that spins gaily around the world," as H. G. Wells said in his "Outline of History," has been a happy token to untold thousands. It is a sorry thing to see it being made into an emblem of religious and racial intolerance and persecution. But it does not seem the world needs to abandon the symbol to any such fate. Think of all the obsessions it already has outlived.

Homeopathic Physicians Treat Goiter by Building up Heart

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D.

As we have said previously this week in looking over recent literature of homeopathy, we do not find that the treatment which they use is very much different from that used by the regular medical profession. I was interested in noting the management which they recommend for goiter.

There are a good many different kinds of goiter. Goiter, of course, means an enlargement or over-activity of the thyroid gland. When the gland is over-active, it pours its secretion into the blood and this causes toxic symptoms of more or less severity. While operation may be used in many cases it is possible to carry mild cases along on medical management with every expectation of a good result.

Treatment is directed toward improving the condition of the heart and alleviating the existing nervous symptoms. The homeopaths give ordinary remedies of iodine and quinine for the heart condition. They recommend the use of iodine and they have two remedies which are not familiar to their brothers, the allopaths.

Spongia tosta is one, which is reported to have long been used in the treatment of enlarged thyroids. Perhaps its efficiency is due to the fact that it contains iodine. Calcareo carbonica is the second, and it is said that this has been used quite successfully in these cases.

The homeopaths wisely counsel that the physician who is treating these cases should consult with the surgeon and the X-ray man frequently and ask them to note the progress of the case. As has been said, a great many of these cases can be treated quite successfully by these medical means. But many cases are treated by surgery when a good result might be obtained with patience and careful application of medical measures.

A method of treatment which was not emphasized by the homeopathic author whom I have quoted, which seems to me is very important, is bed rest, as much of the twenty-four hours as possible. Even with patients who are at work, it is possible to enforce rest for a good many hours of the day and night.

Daily Cross Word Puzzle

What would today's radio stars do if they were to take it into their heads to retire? With really busy people, retirement when it comes is rarely complete. Chances are that Eddie Cantor would go into the technical side of radio and motion pictures. Benny Goodman would realize a life-long ambition and accept the offers he has had from the conductors of symphonic orchestras, who contend that Goodman is the country's best clarinetist. Goodman is now booked up until 1940.

Phil Baker has already sunk thousands into the legitimate stage and he would like to spend his full time with it. Fibber McGee has a soft-drink factory in Kansas City that he would probably operate and Uncle Ezra would retire to his farm near Hebron, Illinois. Even the best of them have given the matter some thought for a star can't go on forever.

Did you know that the same fellow who plays the title role in the "Dick Tracy" series, Ned Weaver, wrote the popular songs, "Sweet Stranger," "Trust in Me," and "Trouble in Paradise?"

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—This correspondent knows a man who has stolen thousands of pounds of sugar in recent years. He takes it from restaurants, scooping up handfuls of the little paper-covered squares and cramming them into his pockets.

Once he is safely at home, he removes the wrappers and packs the sugar carefully in little white boxes. Each box holds a pound. Then he sells it to waterfront cafes and hamburger stands for the cheaper variety. Averages $18 to $25 a week, he says, which is all gravy. Sugar gravy.

Probably the weirdest trial on record was that of the chef who was being sued, along with a hotel, by a grieving customer who ate chicken a la king and got a bone in his throat. It caused him extreme anguish and cost him a sizable doctor's fee, he declared. "You must describe to his honor how the dish was served," pointed out a lawyer. Whereupon the man told of having been served by a beautiful blond waitress. However, five minutes later the case was thrown out of court because it was proved that the hotel in question used waiters—that is, males, there being no waitresses, or females (as the records state), employed in that hostelry's dining room.

The chef was grateful. As he prepared to depart, the judge beckoned to him. "Listen," confessed the judge, "I became so hungry listening to that description of that chicken a la king that I'm going home and ask my wife to prepare some, and I would be grateful if you will tell me the recipe."

Speaking of New York vignettes, I was in a cafe the other morning about 2, having some milk toast. At the tables were perhaps a dozen men and women, talking, having a little refreshment. Suddenly I discovered a lady reclining on the table. As I gazed at her she raised her head and moaned: "Oh, me, I ought to go home, but I can't go home. . . I simply can't let the doorman at our apartment building see me in this condition. . . And she lowered her head on the table again and dropped off to sleep. She may be there yet for all I know. BOB LOWRY.

HOLLYWOOD—The irony of it all: Errol Flynn, off yachting, pleads illness and gets an extended vacation after smash preview success of "Robin Hood." Bette Davis, at home, pleading illness and disapproval of proffered script, gets suspension after smash box-office success of "Jezebel." Philatelists—stamp-collectors to me—in the various studios are going to be organized to turn the vast stamp riches from star fan mail over to the movie relief fund. . . Committee includes rabid personal collectors Adolphe Menjou, F. Herrick Herrick, the directors, Sherman Lowe, the writer, and Jack Cooper, the publicity man. . . Collectors like Menjou, Shirley Temple, Jane Withers and Noel Madison are to be asked to turn their duplicates into the fund. . . Hoped to realize about $15,000 a year from stamps, with fans being urged to help out by posting their letters with fancy ones.

Snappy Ending Overheard on a "quickie" sound stage: Prop-man (to visitor walking tiptoe on sidelines during rehearsal)—"Don't bother, mister—if a herd of elephants tropped through during recording, it couldn't hurt THIS picture!" Then catching sight of supervisor nearby, adding hastily: "It's that good!" Rarely: Gene Raymond, the screen's only violently blond leading man. (Leslie Howard's just off-planet.) Saw Pat O'Brien looking very silly in a silken turban and dress-suit for "Garden of the Moon," after which I didn't wonder that his pet immediate film interest is a screen-biography of J. P. Murphy, the "stormy petrel of American surgery." . . . But maybe there's no connection. Casting Problem Columbia—just as if you and I hadn't enough to do—wants help in casting a "Golden Boy" from the Clifford Odets play. . . Character described as "a rugged young man who is both a prize fighter and a violinist with fragile dreams of artistic fame." . . . Might be Joel McCrea, or what do you think?

Gaining Practical Experience For Teaching

When Margaret Eversmeyer, A4 of Muscatine, begins teaching next fall she will be better prepared for her work because of her experience in the laboratory practice course for prospective teachers. Miss Eversmeyer and other members of her laboratory group observe the teaching practices of their supervisor, William R. Wood of the English department, receiving his help and criticism on their own teaching activities.

'Learn to Teach From the Bottom Up' College of Education's Motto Carries Through to Actual Practice

"Learn to teach from the bottom up"—this is the motto of the college of education at the University of Iowa in training the teachers of tomorrow. It is the motto which carries through the successively higher steps from the first "education" course to the final laboratory practice course with actual participation in teaching activities at the university high school.

First of all, explains Prof. Harry K. Newburn of the college of education and principal of University high school, students are acquainted with theory in principles and methodology of teaching through their classroom work. Thus they gain the foundation and background necessary for every teacher to possess before attempting to fill a teaching position.

Further than this, as a part of the work in some courses, they observe the practices of university high school teachers. Then, as a culminating unit in the entire teacher-training program, the laboratory practice course provides opportunity for each student to apply and test education theories in the actual classroom situation.

The Finest Compliment a Check Can Pay You!

YOU'VE EARNED THIS BY SAFE DRIVING

Is there any higher compliment than to be told that you've contributed to saving human life and property? Certainly not. But along with that, shouldn't there go some definite recognition of the fact that you, and others who drive your car, have made a perfect record as safe drivers?

A new and modern plan for rewarding SAFE DRIVING on America's highways

To promote safety on America's highways, 31 leading stock casualty insurance companies and 90,000 agents and brokers have launched a Safe Driver Reward Plan, to give a definite money reward to careful drivers. This is the largest united effort of its kind ever undertaken . . . involving a greater expenditure of money than any other drive for highway safety.

A GUARANTEED REWARD . . . The Plan, recently approved in Iowa, provides for a return of 15 per cent of the annual premium, provided no loss occurs under a policy during the 12 months it is in force.

This reward is available to all private passenger car owners who insure under the Plan for both bodily injury and property damage liability with any one of the companies listed herewith.* It is a guaranteed reward—included in the contract.

See your local insurance adviser for details . . . The companies listed at the right have already won the confidence of motorists by together writing more bodily injury and property damage liability insurance than any other group of companies. Their agents and brokers are in every city and town in the country.

Any of these representatives can give you full particulars of the Safe Driver Reward Plan.

*It does not apply to automobiles subject to the automobile fleet plans, experience rating plan or other rating plans, or to owners of whom certificates of financial responsibility are required.

Summer Vacation Employment

Men students interested in the board accumulation project should report immediately to the university employment bureau, Old Dental building.

By working not more than nine hours daily, board for the entire period of employment and meal credit for practically the entire school year 1938-39, can be earned. This board is charged off at the rate of three meals per day.

The plan is especially desirable to students whose class schedules are unusually heavy, as in the college of engineering, medicine or dentistry, and to those whose schedules are not adaptable to the employment hours of the usual board job.

The audit of the secretary and treasurer's records for the last year were accepted by the board and placed on file as read by Charles S. Galhier, secretary.

The financial report for the month of April was submitted to the board by Galhier and approved. Receipts for April in the general fund totaled $86,725.54, and disbursements during the month amounted to $16,384.60. There was a balance April 30, of $152,774.56.

Receipts in the schoolhouse fund totaled $382.70. There were no disbursements from the fund, which left a balance April 30, of $38,149.65. There were no receipts in the construction fund during the month. Disbursements totaled $3,026.40, leaving a balance April 30, of $378,642.60.

The board extended the contracts of John Howell, superintendent of buildings and grounds, and 11 building janitors for the coming year.

The janitors are John Holdt, high school and administration buildings; L. A. Huffman, night fireman at the high school; C. R. Carson, junior high building; A. S. Pillars, gymnasium; L. A. Powers, Longfellow building; Delvin H. Phend, assistant at Longfellow; W. J. Liebe, Horace Mann; D. W. Hughes, Henry Sabin; John Palmer, Lincoln; B. O. Matthes, Roosevelt and Thomas Fitzpatrick, Kirkwood.

John W. Conrad, representative for the Bros Boiler and Manufacturing company of Minneapolis, Minn., spoke concerning a stoker for the new school. His product will be discussed by the board along with other stoker equipments before any definite action is taken or bids let.

It was decided by the board to grant Joe Watkins, engineer, authority to designate where dirt taken from the evacuation for the new building will be placed in connection with drainage work about the site.

A letter from the Edward Edinger company of Bedford, Ind., cut stone contractors, was read. The Indiana company wishes to be considered as a sub-contractor to the Paul Steenberg company of St. Paul, Minn., general contractors for the new $725,000 high school. No action was taken regarding the cut stone contract at last night's meeting.

Galhier was authorized to correspond with Russell Paul of Davenport concerning a proposed PWA project for cleaning and rejuvenating the Iowa City public schools during the summer vacation. The plans as it is understood calls for hiring men and women from Iowa City's unemployed to carry on the work under the direction of the janitors of the various buildings.

Examination Schedule

Second Semester, 1937-1938

Monday, May 23, 8 a.m., to Tuesday, May 31, 4 p.m.

The regular program of class work will be suspended and the following semester-examination program substituted for it. Classes will meet for examination in the rooms in which they have been regularly meeting (except classes in SPECIAL GROUPS, A, B, C, D, E, F, and G, as shown in the form below; and Speech (2), (1), and (4) as shown at "N.B." below.

The Program Committee directs the attention of both students and instructors and professors, to the regulation that there is to be no deviation in the case of any examination, from this Schedule, except as authorized by the Committee on Admission and Classification, on the student's written petition, filed in ample time, supported by the recommendation of the department concerned, to provide relief from an excessive number of examinations within a single day. Deviation for the purpose of getting through earlier will not be permitted. Students should prepare and deposit such petitions in the offices of the Deans of Men (men) and Women (women).

Each student who is absent from the final meeting of his class as indicated in the Examination Schedule should be reported, on the official grade sheet at the end of the semester, as "Abs." Before this grade mark can be removed he must file with the Committee on Admission and Classification a written petition, with adequate vouchers attached, setting forth in full the necessity of his absence. This petition must include a departmentally signed statement indicating whether, in case the Committee finds the absence excusable, the student has the department's and instructor's permission to take the final examination. If the Committee finds the reason for the absence adequate it will issue to the student a partially prepared special report card (signed by the Secretary, lower left corner), with a form letter explaining to him that he has the Committee's permission, with the departmental consent and at the convenience of the instructor, to take his final examination within one month (or other designated period of time) from the date indicated.

If the student takes the examination thus authorized the outcome is to be reported on this card and not on any other card.

In the case of conflicts (within the SPECIAL GROUPS A, B, C, D, E, F, and G) the schedule itself, as presented below, provides a general method of making adjustments.

All classes whose first weekly meetings have occurred as indicated in the rectangles below meet for examination during the periods noted at the tops of these three columns and on the days noted in the rectangles directly opposite at the left of the double, vertical line.

CONFLICTS: In case of conflicting examinations the student should report to the instructor in charge of the first of the two conflicting subjects as listed within the particular SPECIAL GROUP rectangle above which is involved. (Read downward first in left column and then in right column.) The instructor will arrange for you a special examination. Report to him, or her, not later than the regular class hour May 19 or 20; if possible, May 12 or 13.

The first meeting of the class means the first lecture or recitation period in courses having both lectures and recitations, and laboratory periods; or in the case of courses involving only laboratory periods, the first clock-hour of the first weekly meeting. For example, chemistry 21 meets for lectures T Th S at 8. The first regular meeting is, consequently Tuesday at 8,—and the class will meet for examination Tuesday, May 24, 2 p.m., according to the tabular form above. Again, physics (126) meets twice each week, T, F, for a three-hour laboratory exercise, 1-4. The period for the examination, is, therefore, Saturday, May 28, 2 p.m.

N. B. All sections of "Principles of Speech" (1), (2) and (4) (Except Section J*) will meet during Examination Week on the days and at the rooms designated below. Consult the bulletin board, Room 13 S. H. for room assignments.

Mon., May 23—Section H, 8-10 Speech (1), 8-10	Fri., May 27—Section I, 8-10 Section C, 1-3 Section G, 3-5 Speech (4), 3-5
Tues., May 24—Section A, 1-3 Section E, 3-5	Sat., May 28—Section D, 10-12 Section B, 1-3 Section F, 3-5

*Section J will meet as announced by the instructors.

"ODD" classes, namely those whose first or only weekly meetings occur on Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays, or Saturdays, or which meet "as arranged," will be assigned for examination, as announced to each such class, by the instructor in charge of the class, at one or another of the following periods:

1. From 4 to 6 on any day from May 23 to May 31 inclusive,—Sunday and Memorial Day excepted.
2. Any one of the examination periods assigned, as indicated above, for the examinations in the SPECIAL GROUPS, A, B, C, D, E, F and G, since for such "odd" classes these seven examination periods will be found quite available.

In connection with any such announcement it would doubtless be well for the instructor making the announcement to recognize that his member's class is already under appointment for examination in some other class for the proposed period. To be sure it is possible to have examinations in more than one class at any of these times,—if no student is a member of more than one of these classes.

According to one clause in the formal faculty action providing for a special semester-examination program, "the instructor may use the examination period as he sees fit provided he holds the class for the full period. He may have an oral or a written examination, or both, or neither. He may continue regular work or he may use the time for review, or for any phase of his work which may seem to him desirable at this time."

According to another faculty regulation, which is on record as adopted by the faculty, a student absent from the final examination should be reported "Abs.," unless the instructor recognizes that his work up to this examination has been a failure, in which case the final report should be "F."—even though the student may have been absent from the final examination. No examination should be given, subsequently, to such a student until after the absence has been excused by the Committee on Admission and Classification, as shown by a partially filled special report card, signed by the Secretary of the Committee, as indicating that the absence has been excused and that the student is authorized, subject to the consent and at the convenience of the instructor concerned, to take the final examination.

Mrs. J. Gordon Urges Support

Local Librarian Asks Appropriations For Rural Work

DES MOINES, May 11 (AP)—Mrs. Jessie B. Gordon, Iowa City public librarian, urged support of proposed federal legislation which would provide money for rural library extension in an address before the central district meeting of the Iowa Library association here today.

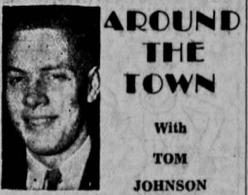

Mrs. Gordon said the federal bill, for which she asked group and individual support, would bring Iowa an appropriation of about $50,000 for rural library extension during the first year of operation.

Sarah Bibbs, Boone librarian, was named chairman of the 1938 district meeting, the place to be selected later.

Residents of Penn township will vote on the question of constructing a new $3,000 school building to replace the present No. 3 school at a special election May 27, F. J. Snider, county superintendent, said yesterday.

Penn Township To Vote on New School

At the first election April 27 the measure lacked three votes of being carried.

AROUND THE TOWN With TOM JOHNSON

Today's Thought

In Cleveland, a city of 1,200,000, there are 87,000 residents receiving direct "soup kitchen" relief today . . .

In other words, seven per cent of its population . . . one out every 15 you'd meet on the street.

Cleveland, unable to pay the $50,000,000 cost of feeding and clothing its poor and for WPA payrolls, will ask Ohio legislative aid May 16 . . .

Cleveland has never spent more than $33,000,000 for relief . . . and that was in '36—during "good times" . . .

Brass Buttons

The new uniforms senior military students are receiving look natty, but how about the caps? They look like a bandmaster's, what with the wide head-band . . .

No Joke, Either

The simile, "As common as a Johnson county injunction," is rapidly being succeeded by "As common as an attempt to amend the city zoning ordinance!"

Come On, You Jernts!

Not content with smashing through the National league like a Minnesota fullback, the New York Giants are trying to cinch the pennant by the Fourth of July . . .

So, before they get too great a lead, I'm letting fans know I'm on the Giant handwagon—for the sixth consecutive year . . .

Pity the poor Cubs—who tried to "spend their way back to prosperity" . . . and are having the same difficulty as the new deal.

Soaking Wet

Problem No. 6,735—Did a prof rescue a student from the Iowa river Tuesday? If so, why are half the senior meds who attended the picnic keeping quiet? The other half isn't . . .

Prelude to June 6

Former Senator L. J. Dickinson (Iowa '09) chatting with Attorney R. C. Davis yesterday . . . Dickinson is a candidate for the republican senatorial nomination at the primary.

Senatorial Halls

Senator Clyde L. Herring, denied approval for a postage stamp to commemorate the Iowa territorial centennial, states, "We will either obtain the stamp or know the reason why!"

Well, Senator, assuming you don't get the stamp, the "reason why" is probably that the federal government has more important things to do—and do fast—than print stamps for every senator and congressman who demands them . . .

Just a Gag

Warrants of arrest were presented to Iowa City Junior Chamber of Commerce members to insure attendance at the dinner Tuesday night . . .

Oh Me! Oh, My!

I chuckled yesterday after glancing at the Varsity theater's marquee, which proclaims boldly: Conquest and She Asked For It

Traffic School Closes Tonight With Final Test

To conclude a 10-weeks-course in the Iowa City traffic school, the enrolled group will take a written test at 7:30 tonight in the city council chambers.

Those passing the examination, covering essential points in the lectures and parts of the state driving test, will receive a certificate of violators.

Traffic violators sentenced to the school must also take a regular state driver's test at the courthouse before being given the award and having their fines become permanently suspended.

Police Chief W. H. Bender, in charge of the tests, said traffic violators would be allowed more time than originally planned to take the state tests in order to reduce work of courthouse examiners.

Chapman Gets School Honors

Will Be Valedictorian Of City High's Seniors

The largest senior class ever to be graduated from Iowa City high school will have Marvin Chapman as valedictorian, and Dorothy Soucek as salutatorian, it was announced at a regular weekly assembly yesterday morning.

Thirteen others—scholastically the upper 10 per cent of the class of 152—were named to the senior honor roll.

Chapman completed his four years work with an average of 97.1 per cent while Miss Soucek averaged 96.9 per cent.

The others, alphabetically, are Charles Beckman, William Buckley, Catherine Donovan, James Guthrie, Robert A. Jones, Dorothy Keyser, Mary Lambert, Jean Livingston, Eldon Parizek, Dorothy Reha, Frankie Sample, Betty Uterback and John Webster.

In addition to being in the upper 10 per cent of the class, each student must have completed three years' work at Iowa City high school.

Judge Evans Denies Change in Divorce Decree to R. Watts

Judge Harold D. Evans yesterday denied the application of Robert Watts for a modification of the divorce decree granted to his wife, Mrs. Doloris Watts. He asked that the custody of a son be given to him and the $32 monthly alimony payments be ended.

The judge's ruling ordered that the custody of the child be taken from the mother and be held by the court. The child is to remain in the private home where he was placed by his mother, the judge said.
