Civil Service Board to Take Case to District Court

Case to Test Legal Powers of Police Chief

Bender Appoints Two Without Approval of Board

A stinging challenge to Chief of Police W. H. Bender's appointive power — allegedly surpassed — and an announcement of a district court case to decide the controversy was made following a meeting late last night of the Iowa City Civil Service commission.

A case to test whether Chief Bender acted legally yesterday in appointing two police sergeants who were, according to the members of the civil service board, unqualified will be brought into court immediately.

Patrolmen Ben Hauber and Herb Beranek are the two men in question.

Cyril J. Katzenmeyer, chairman of the three-man board, claims neither Hauber nor Beranek passed the examination the board gave for the advancement. Two other patrolmen were certified by the commission.

Mayor Myron J. Walker at a recent city council meeting scored the board's action in qualifying only two men for the two appointments and said he believed the board had acted arbitrarily in setting too high a grading standard in the test.

In a ruling yesterday City Attorney Robert Larson upheld Mayor Walker, declaring both Beranek and Hauber were eligible for the appointments because of tests taken a year ago from the board for the position of assistant chief of police.

Katzenmeyer said the two tests were not similar and that since the chief exceeded his power in ignoring the board's certifications, it is mandatory that the case be brought into court, under the state law.

"Otherwise," he said, "board members can be found guilty of a misdemeanor."

Katzenmeyer, who met last night with Frank Belger and Delmer Sample, produced a letter from the secretary-treasurer of the Iowa State Police association backing him in his contention that the board's certifications must be considered by

Jersey Mayor
Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City, defending himself in federal court at Newark against an injunction sought by the CIO and the American Civil Liberties union to restrain him from interfering with civil rights, urges deportation of aliens and a "camp in Alaska" to retain native-born dissenters. Spaulding Frazier, dean of the Newark Law school and attorney for the CIO, asked Hague whether he would be the judge of who were "good Americans" and who were to be deported.

Denies Charge of Inaccuracy

Lawyer Said Hague's Records Rejected By Government

NEWARK, N. J., June 16 (AP) — Mayor Frank Hague — whose Jersey City campaign slogan is "no vice, no crime, no racketeering" — denied in federal court today a CIO lawyer's charge that the city's records on crime and police protection were "so dishonest and inaccurate" the federal bureau of investigation rejected them.

The city, said Hague, "withdrew and shut its records to the FBI because the federal agency insisted on listing Jersey City auto deaths as murders in its annual reports."

Hague, questioned by Morris L. Ernst, counsel for the CIO and American Civil Liberties union in their "free speech" injunction against him, said he knew the FBI "treats every city alike."

But the mayor said it was unfair — because he had no official knowledge — to ask him if he knew the bailiwick he has ruled for 25 years was the only city in the United States whose crime record was not incorporated in FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover's "periodic reports to the American people."

Hoover, commenting on Hague's testimony, said in Washington that the FBI didn't use Jersey City crime reports "because they are so obviously incomplete."

After a turbulent session in which the vice chairman of the democratic national committee and Ernst engaged in repeated arguments over Hague's manner of answering questions, the mayor's direct examination came to a close.

As his parting shot, Ernst, a Jew, pointed out to Hague, a Catholic, that they were "both members of a great minority religious groups in the United States."

Congress O.K.'s Top Peacetime Fiscal Program

$12,000,000,000 High Due to Recession, World Affairs

WASHINGTON, June 16 (AP) — The 75th congress approved a $12,000,000,000 spending program — the biggest in America's peacetime history — for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Appropriations experts at the capitol said tonight it would take a week to figure out exactly how much the money bills totaled, but that the figure probably was about $12,300,000,000. That compares with the $9,356,174,982 appropriated in 1937 and $10,560,833,165 in 1936, the previous peacetime record.

Another business depression, disturbing international developments, and the steady expansion of the social security program were among the factors responsible for the new high in appropriations.

President Roosevelt estimated in January that $1,000,000,000 would be enough for relief of the unemployed. Later he tripled the figure.

Appropriations for defense went over the billion dollar mark for the first time since the World war years.

The social security program required the addition of another billion to the regular appropriations which must be made every year.

Billions for Defense

The records of the session will show that in addition to a billion for defense—$459,401,254 in the military and $546,868,494 in the navy appropriation bills — three other measures carried more than a billion:

Independent agencies $1,423,098,240; treasury-post office departments $1,403,883,526; relief and public works $2,915,405,000. These totals are exclusive of reappropriations.

The relief money is expected to last only until March 1. Additional funds will have to be appropriated by the new congress for the remainder of the fiscal year.

The agriculture department appropriation bill, moreover, carried the largest sum ever appropriated for activities designed to help farmers, $745,740,279.

Can Build Bridge

WASHINGTON (AP) — The senate passed and sent to the White House yesterday a bill authorizing the Iowa highway commission to construct a free bridge across the Des Moines river at or near Keosauqua, Ia.

Medics Hire Press Agents?

Absolutely Not, Says A. M. A. Not Even To Combat Socialized Medicine

By RENNIE TAYLOR

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16 (AP) — The American Medical association tonight asked its public spokesmen to show more "gentleness" toward the press.

It flatly refused, however, to hire press agents and legal counsel to vocalize its opposition to the growing cries for "socialized medicine."

It also forged a weapon designed to restrict group hospital insurance, one of the spreading practices in the search for a new deal in medicine.

It chose a psychiatrist, Dr. Rock Sleyster of Wauwatosa, Wis., as president-elect. St. Louis was named as the convention city for 1939, New York City for 1940, and Cleveland for 1941.

The rebuke to its spokesmen, foremost of whom is Dr. Morris Fishbein editor of the association's journal, was cloaked in an

Seek Robbers of North English Bank Near South Amana After Bandit's Car Seen on Highway

The search for the two shabbily dressed robbers, who held up the Farmers Savings bank of North English yesterday noon and took between $400 and $1,000, centered around South Amana last night after the bandits were reported seen near there at 8:35 p.m.

A Cedar Rapids electrical contractor, Aiden Sheriff, told Cedar Rapids police that he saw a car directly ahead of him on U. S. highway 6 traveling eastward which corresponded to the description broadcast of the bandit car. The car, a black 1937 Dodge sedan, bearing Iowa license 48-3976, the same as that reported for the robber's car, had two men in it, he said.

Immediately after the police broadcast of the sighting of the bandits, the Iowa City police squad car was sent to the west city limits to patrol U. S. highway 6. Cedar Rapids police blocked all highways into that city.

Roosevelts First Family Gathers For Wedding

WASHINGTON, June 16 (AP) — Because of a congress dilly dallying about adjournment, the Roosevelt family left in relays tonight for the wedding of John Roosevelt and Anne Lindsay Clark in Nahant, Mass., Saturday noon.

The president was waiting for congress to quit. Mrs. Roosevelt was waiting to go with the president.

But when congress talked on into the night, the first lady gave up and caught an 8 o'clock train with her son, Elliott, and his wife, Ruth, of Ft. Worth, Tex.

A little over an hour later and a couple of minutes after the last gavel fell in congress, the president's special train pulled out. He was accompanied by his uncle, Frederic A. Delano, and Harry Hopkins, the Works Progress administrator.

The president intends to board the government yacht, Potomac, at a New England port, probably Salem, Mass., tomorrow morning.

Guests lists issued during the afternoon showed that seven republican Roosevelt's—not included in the 20 Roosevelt's otherwise listed—apparently had been invited but would not be present.

Attorneys Close Wagner Act Case For Government

LONDON, Ky., June 16 (AP) — The government closed its anti-union conspiracy case against Harlan county individuals and corporations late today with testimony that attempts had been made to obtain perjured statements for the defense and a motion dismissing charges against one operator-defendant.

A jury was excused for the week end, but tomorrow lawyers plan to argue defense motions for direct verdict of acquittal.

The government mill pressed the charge against Armstrong R. Matthews, young executive of the Clover Splint Coal company, which previously had pleaded nolo contendere.

Today's dismissal left 21 operators, 22 former deputy sheriffs employed as mine guards and 18 corporations as defendants.

Argument on the directed-verdict motion tomorrow will bring to a close the fifth week of the trial.

Reich Denies She Should Pay Austria's Debts

BREMEN, Germany, June 16 (AP) — Minister of Economics Walther Funk disclaimed today Germany's responsibility for $160,000,000 in Austrian state loans, but indicated the nation's readiness to make a compromise arrangement.

A t the same time, asserting that national socialist prestige "cannot tolerate the present state of affairs with reference to German state loans," he declared.

"An arrangement must be reached (on the Dawes and Young loans) whereby the interest rates of seven and five and one half per cent, which no longer have any justification whatever, will be reduced to a normal level."

Funk spoke at a celebration of the 400th anniversary of Schuetting House, headquarters of Bremen's chamber of commerce.

He extolled nazi economic achievement and portrayed Germany as at the opposite pole from the United States in economic stability.

"Recent international economic discussions," he said, "are characterized by an identical tendency, namely, fear of a new, serious crisis in world economy."

"Two economic areas become manifest in this connection as marked antipodes, on the one hand the United States of America, which is described as virtually the center of disturbances, and on the other hand Germany, whose economy thus far has offered unbroken resistance to the new depression."

Funk denounced political debts and disclaimed German legal, economic and moral responsibility for the Austrian state loans preceding Germany's annexation of Austria March 13.

50,000 Lives Lost as Rivers Extend Death and Destruction

SHANGHAI, June 17 (Friday) (AP) — The weather of the next 48 hours was looked upon by Japanese army engineers today as holding the fate of vast territories of north and central China yet undamaged by floods.

The Japanese and hundreds of thousands of Chinese peasants in flooded and threatened areas anxiously scanned the skies, aware that more rainfall now would raise the waters of the Yellow and Yangtze rivers and sweep away weakened dikes.

The mighty silt-laden Yellow river — "the unmanageable," as Chinese have known it through the centuries—spread death and destruction over a 500 square mile area, reaching southeastward through Honan province villages and farms to surge against the walls of Chowkiakow, nearly 100 miles from its normal banks.

The floodstream was between 10 and 20 miles wide. An estimated 50,000 lives already have been lost. Approximately 300,000 Chinese have been driven from farms and homes in 2,000 villages.

Seeking the most natural course to the sea, the waters apparently were about to sweep into the Tasha river,

Discussions On Sudeten Demands Will Continue

PRAHA, Czechoslovakia, June 16 (AP)—An official announcement tonight said discussion of Sudeten German demands as well as those of all other minorities would be continued throughout the week.

The announcement added that next week Premier Milan Hodza would confer with leaders of government coalition parties on the proposed nationalities statute in preparation for some time.

"Not only Germans, Hungarians and Poles are to be consulted — even the Czechs are to be asked what they think about it," one government official ironically expressed it.

"Even Czechs are to have certain rights under the new nationalities statute."

Most government and business activity was halted today.

Senators Applaud Idea for New World Conference to Stop Armaments Race

WASHINGTON, June 16 (AP) — Several prominent senators applauded today the idea of a new world conference to stop the "mad armaments race."

Legislators of varying political views—Borah (R-Idaho), Walsh (D-Mass) and Vandenberg (R-Mich) — said they would heartily approve such an attempt.

Their remarks were touched off by cable dispatches from London, where Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain told the house of commons today that the United States had intimated it was preparing to make definite proposals to bring about a world reduction of armaments.

However, Secretary of State Hull informed reporters here that the United States government had not approached any other nation on the subject.

Hull, commenting on Chamberlain's remarks, said he could only emphasize that this government observed, with keen interest, all important international developments.

Other state department officials suggested that Chamberlain merely was referring to Hull's recent address at Nashville, Tenn.

The state department disclaimed at that time any intention to imply that this government might call an arms conference.

Shifts Question Of New Deal To City, Farm

WASHINGTON, June 16 (AP) — Congress adjourned tonight. The house quit at 8:08 o'clock (CST), 46 minutes after the senate, thus closing the third session of the 75th congress.

The senate action, delayed temporarily by speechmaking, came after a filibuster threat had collapsed and a compromise third deficiency appropriation bill, already approved by the house, had been accepted and sent to the White House.

The adjournment tonight shifted to the cross-road hamlets and crowded cities of the nation a

WASHINGTON, June 16 (AP) — The third session of the 75th congress in brief:

Convened Jan. 3, adjourned June 16. In session 165 days.

Appropriated record peacetime total of some $12,000,000,000.

Enacted peacetime record defense program.

Passed: Wage-hour, naval expansion, relief, tax revision, food and drug, rivers and harbors, civil aviation control, flood control, and federal aid for road bills.

Shelved government reorganization bill; eliminated all but a shadow of undistributed profits tax; overrode presidential veto of bill to continue low interest rates for federal land bank farm loans.

battle between the Roosevelt administration and the conservatives of the nation for control of the direction of government.

All the seats in the house and a third of those in the senate will be at stake in next fall's elections, campaigns which find administration officials opposing many senators and house members, including democrats who have opposed administration policies.

The final day of the session served, among other things, to emphasize again the strength of farm influence in Washington. Congress enacted, over the president's veto, a bill to continue cut-rate interest on loans to farmers by the federal land banks.

One of the last barriers to adjournment was cleared a little later in the day by the negotiation of a compromise on a $289,000,000 deficiency appropriation bill.

The nearness of the adjournment hour, which had evaded the leadership like a will-o-the-wisp for three days, brought virtually the entire senate membership to the floor and crowded the galleries. For the most part the chamber was a hubbub of whispered voices, through which business was transacted with difficulty.

McCall Given Death Sentence

MIAMI, Fla., June 16 (AP) — Franklin Pierce McCall was sentenced to death today for the kidnaping of Jimmy Cash, a crime the presiding judge called "the most cold-blooded thing I ever heard of."

Cold-blooded too was the 21-year-old prisoner's mien as he stood erect with clenched fists resting on a desk and heard his doom without a word or change of expression.

Jack Kehoe, defense attorney followed by the court, said he had followed McCall's wishes and there would be no appeal, but late today C. A. Avriett, a Jasper, Fla., attorney, said he had been retained by the family to seek clemency before the state pardon board.

There was no sound in the crowded courtroom when white-haired Circuit Judge H. F. Atkinson rose to his feet, recited that McCall had pleaded guilty to kidnaping for ransom and asked:

"What have you to say why judgment should not now be rendered and sentence imposed upon you?"

McCall, a farm laborer and minister's son with no previous criminal record, only shook his head.

The judge then directed that McCall be electrocuted at Raiford state prison at a time to be set by the governor and concluded, "May God have mercy on your soul."

Chamberlain Answers U.S., Says England Ready to Cooperate

LONDON, June 16 (AP) — Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain told the house of commons today the British government was "always ready to cooperate with other nations" on the subject of disarmament.

He spoke in answer to a question by Arthur Henderson, laborite, who sought the government's reaction to the recent speech by United States Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

(Secretary Hull in an address June 3 in Nashville, Tenn., laid down a four point program of American cooperation toward a "world order based on law."

(On disarmament, he said: "With the world groaning under the burden of mounting armaments, we are prepared to join with other nations in moving resolutely toward bringing about an effective agreement on limitation and progressive reduction of armaments.")

Chamberlain declared the government was "in full agreement with the sentiments expressed by Mr. Cordell Hull and they are always ready to cooperate with other nations" in attaining these objects.

Seek Custody of Barnes

CRESTON, Ia. (AP)—Sheriff John R. Ewing left yesterday for Livingston, Mont., to seek the custody of Rex Barnes of Hot Springs, S. D., who, County Attorney O. C. Anderson said, is wanted here on five separate charges of forgery and auto theft.

Not Necessarily Doing It As The Romans Did

THE NATIONAL house of representatives, tired and a little angry because certain rebellious ones wouldn't let the session end, had a good laugh on Wednesday afternoon.

During a lull in the house activities, Representative Short, a republican of Missouri, arose to put on a tap dancing exhibition, tell some very funny stories, defeat a resolution to establish a federal bureau of fine arts—and put forth what seems to us some quite unlogical logic.

"Many times," Representative Short said, "I've listened to a Chopin waltz, a Wagnerian opera or a Beethoven symphony, but God knows I couldn't enjoy even Puccini on an empty stomach. I can't see how anybody can enjoy Mendelssohn with the seat of his pants out."

Now that part is true. Life, in spite of its brevity, is still more important to most of us than art. But—and here is where we think Representative Short erred—life alone is not enough, and we in the United States so far are in little danger of starving.

Art is also necessary. Besides artists themselves must eat, and if they can produce art while they're doing it, their efforts will be more valuable than if they merely dig ditches.

Probably Representative Short hasn't forgotten that now long-gone civilization once established in Rome. The Romans were a brilliant people, forward looking and brave, but they had no time for the beauty in the temples, the paintings, the music, the poetry of their immediate predecessors the Greeks. And look at the Romans now. Their contributions to our civilizations have been few, the Greek many.

Anyway, you get our point, Representative Short. Besides where did you learn how to tap dance?

Now that the government's gold is buried in Kentucky and West Point is to hold the nation's silver, Zaddock Dumbkopf thinks this town should put in a bid for Uncle Sam's surplus pennies.

Historians Might Note Oddities in the News For Posterity

IN THE hustle and bustle of our changing world with its history-making political, economic and religious changes, historians writing for future students may overlook a little incident of today which may have a deep educational value for future students.

For instance, Finland paid her $161,935.50 war debt indemnity installment to the United States the other day.

Contrast the few thousand dollars involved in this transaction with the millions and billions of dollars which change hands regularly and the incident is trifling indeed.

On the other hand, Finland is one of the few countries which has kept up its war debt payments. It is one of the few countries to make good its promises.

France, England, Italy, Germany—all have either defaulted, postponed or flatly refused to consider the payments of their debts.

Of all the countries involved in the last war, only little Finland—a country which has never been known either for its wealth or armed might—has paid its bills.

Wednesday, Risto Ryti, governor of the Finnish State bank, told why Finland paid her debt this year. He said, "Finland paid her debt because she agreed to pay, is able to pay, and therefore fulfills an obligation." That is why Finland paid.

Students of the future may be interested to read of this little country which had an obligation and fulfilled it. Even today such a sense of responsibility is a rarity in international affairs.

A genuine celebrity is a person who can get his pictures in the papers simply by telling reporters he "has nothing to say."

Japan not only greatly increases her army but added 10,000 civil government employees last year. If the mikado does not watch out he's liable to run out of taxpayers.

Our Readers' VIEWPOINT

Letters must be signed and should not exceed 250 words. Opinions expressed by our readers do not necessarily reflect our views.

Editor, The Daily Iowan This letter is written in protest against the program of the United Council for Civilian Relief in China which was entitled "The Far East Today" and was broadcast over WSUI Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock.

It is neither uncommon nor unforgivable for young men, swayed by the enthusiasm of youth for a righteous cause, to exceed the bounds of good taste and good judgment in their efforts to further that cause. Viewed in this light, Wednesday's performance of "The Far East Today," broadcast over station WSUI, might be overlooked. But for experienced network officials to sponsor such performances is quite another thing. The Columbia Broadcasting System could hardly be ignorant of the unreasoning passions that would be aroused by such a broadcast.

"The Far East Today" was clearly propaganda of the most unfair and dishonest kind. Supplied with a dramatic background, colored with distorted facts, playing upon the ignorance and prejudice of the average American, the production was admirably designed to arouse an active hatred for the Japanese emperor, and their ruling party. It was just this kind of propaganda that prepared us for the senseless war with Germany in 1917.

Surely there is no more worthy cause than the relief of civilian victims of modern warfare. But there is a very great difference between helping Chinese civilians and hating Japan, and until the United Council for Civilian Relief to China can realize this, it should be denied the facilities of station WSUI.

CLIPPED from other COLUMNS

DEMOCRACY AS AN INVENTION Governor Lehman reminded his commencement audience at Syracuse university that democracy, as we have it and hope to have it, in America was not "an abstract political philosophy" but "the fruit of vital and stirring experiences which had burned deeply into the souls of men."

Communism, fascism and Hitlerism are every one of them systems which were invented by one man or a small group and imposed upon the masses of men. Democracy was not invented. It grew. The first American colonists came here to secure liberty for themselves. They were not scrupulous about liberty for those who did not agree with them. Gradually they discovered that the "inalienable rights" of the majority were not secure unless such rights were possessed by all men.

The principles set down in the Bill of Rights were adopted for reasons just as practical as those which led to the invention of the steamboat, the steam engine, the telegraph, and so on. We needed them in our daily lives. Time was, as Governor Lehman indicated, when it seemed about as probable that the peoples of the civilized world would give up their labor-saving, space-spanning inventions as that they should give up their political invention of democracy.

We have had, as he said, a "rude awakening." But this does not prove democracy impractical any more than the riots against the introduction of weaving machinery, a century ago proved machinery impracticable. The dictatorships are going back to a political horse-and-buggy era. They are dangerous because they are unscrupulous. But they are not practical. If the democracies can stand firm against their violence, they can laugh at their clumsy and antiquated thinking.

'Don't Release My Obituary Yet,' Gandhi Jests, Still Expecting to See His India Become Free

Eight years ago, Jim Mills of the AP marched with Gandhi, who was then stirring all India with his non-resistance campaign. Mills went with Gandhi to the London round table conference in 1931, saw him off to the Poona jail in 1932, and was the first to greet him upon his release in 1933. This year, reports that the Mahatma was dangerously ill sent Mills to his bedside. Here he tells about the Mahatma as he is today, and about the dreams he has for India.

By JAMES A. MILLS BOMBAY (AP)—From a small room in the house of a friend on the Bombay seashore, India's bizarre political leader, Mahatma Gandhi, clad only in a sheet and resting on a cot, assured me in a low, solemn voice that was still able to fight for freedom.

Declared the irrepressible rebel: "I am ready to die when my Maker calls me, but I hope he will spare me until I finish my life-work, which is to make India free."

Friends predict that the wiry little belligerent, opponent of the British empire for nearly half a century, will live at least five years more. If he does, they say, he probably will see his dream come true. He dominates the lives, thoughts and destinies of 360,000,000 Indians and his influence has grown so enormously since India's new Constitution was introduced a year ago that he is spoken of as the next general of India.

Jokes at Frailty "As you see," Gandhi told me, "I am still able to spin, to receive visitors, to grant interviews, to work for the emancipation of the 'Untouchables' (social outcasts), to keep up my correspondence, to toil for village improvement, and to carry out my usual duties, the same as ever."

"But if I were called upon, at my 69 years, to climb Mt. Everest, I probably would fail." The little Hindu mystic chuckled. "I can still walk 10 miles a day," he went on. "I sleep well and eat well. In spite of all my hard work, I have gained several pounds in weight. I now weigh 106, but would like to weigh about 115. I still cling to my diet of goat's milk, ground nuts, honey, dates and figs. I find this suits me better than meat or eggs or vegetables. It is true I tire more easily than before, but then isn't that usual in a man on the threshold of three-score-and-ten?"

Illness Report 'Premature' When I explained to the Indian leader that while reporting the war in China I had heard reports that he was dangerously ill, and that I had therefore speeded up my arrival in India, he roared with laughter and said, "So you wanted to get here in time to be a pall-bearer! Ha, ha, ha! Well, you are slightly premature. It is too early for us to meet at the gates of heaven, as I once promised you. Don't release my obituary just yet. Hold your presses until I give the signal!"

(Mills was the last person to whom Gandhi spoke before entering Poona jail January, 1932, and the first to greet him on his release 17 months later. "Why, Mr. Mills," exclaimed the Mahatma on that occasion, "If I should die and start to enter heaven I should expect to see you waiting to interview me at the gates!")

British Disciple Weeps As India's toothless, half-naked

wisp of a man lisped the words, "I hope to live to see India independent," Miss Madeleine Slade, his British disciple, who has been a devoted servant to the Mahatma for 10 years, looked up at her idol with tear-suffused, reverent eyes, and exclaimed, "But you will live to see that day, Bapuji (father). God will see to that!"

I ventured to interject, "When do you expect India's freedom will come, Mahatma?" "Within the next few years," replied the little brown figure, his eyes dancing with optimism. "Nothing can stop it now."

Gandhi can still work 12 or 14 hours a day. He rises at four o'clock, spends an hour in meditation and prayer, and then takes a bath in an old tin tub, which Miss Slade prepares. He then takes a long walk with Miss Slade and other disciples.

Looks Like Prophet Gandhi's pure white, flowing robes, which resemble the old Roman toga, and his sandal-clad feet, bare head, and the staff which he carries, give him the appearance of a prophet or an apostle. Toward the end of the walk, when he tires, he leans on the shoulder of one of his disciples.

After his walk, which usually takes an hour, the Mahatma rests for a time and then has a light repast of goat's milk, almond paste and dates. He is then ready for his day's work. His only physical impairment at the moment, I noticed, is a slight paralysis of the right hand, which forces him to "scribble" with the left.

The Indian "sage" also tires more quickly than before, which

DIARY OF A DILETTANTE NOTES — That Dr. A. W. Bennett is as quick a slight-of-hand artist as most professionals... that Edward Bartow's international reputation in chemistry ranks as Einstein's in physics... That Iowa City used to be headlined as the "summer resort of the nation's educators"...

And Jack Walters back this week after a two-year west coast navy stay, says San Francisco harbor sees 130 planes sent weekly to Japan — and not for general cruising purposes...

Incident A quite pleasant young lady stopped at one of the "Bowl of Rice" stands downtown yesterday and asked for two tickets, giving a $5 bill... When the clerk fumbled for her change, the young lady said, "Never mind, it's from Japan"... On which she walked away... They're still puzzling, the "Bowl of Rice" being for the stricken Chinese and all...

YOU CATCH strange, pungent phrases if you listen... For example, what meant the earnest young man who was protesting on a street corner at midnight, "But I tell you she's not my mother; she's my sister?"

THRILLING — Yesterday's Walt Winchell column... The new-wage hour law (And why's no one headlined it's child-labor abandonment?)... My trip to Grinnell, from which this column's remarks will be dated after today... Granville Hicks' "I Like America" — required reading for everyone who agrees with the title...

PREDICTION — Watch LaFollette "liberals" fold, swing to the Roosevelt banner in 1940... For that matter, why shouldn't he run for a third term?...

YOU MAY NOT CARE, BUT — Iowa's annual $50,000,000 expenditure for education is within a dollar or so of her also yearly $50,000,000 expenditure for tobacco...

Now I see by the papers the new deal has hired 600 beavers at $8 each to build dams for Mr. Ickes in Idaho... Sounds like a grand idea... Why worry about our own 15,000,000 unemployed as long as the beavers are happy, I mean...

Why not an old-age pension for canine, relief rolls for cats? ... It's simpler than humanity.

Politicians Who wants to bet whether the "new" demos — I mean the F. D. Rites — will lose 10 seats or a dozen in the coming election? ... Who'll wager there won't be a three-party alignment spelling Vandenberg defeat in '40? ... Who'll bet Switch-Around Bertie Wheeler won't head an alleged "Jeffersonian" democratic party? ... Who'd be more socialist if both had been president, Norman Thomas or Frank Roosevelt? ... What difference does it make?

I like to remember A. Lincoln's "We all declare ourselves to be for liberty, but we do not all mean the same thing... Some men mean that a man can do as he pleases with himself and his property... With others it means that some men can do as they please with other men and other men's labor."

It's simple, Bob Hutchins' — An educated man knows what he is doing and why...

The Mae West naughty broadcast still worries NBC... But I'll bet no one dares protest the double-entendre which slipped through one of last night's Vaile scripts... (Not that I mind.)

General Questions — Which side of the engineering building has ivy? ... What's the difference between the Physics building and University hall? ... Which is the tallest building on the campus? ... Which is the only campus building painted brown? ... What says the cornerstone of Macbride hall? ...

Avid among the campus gardeners are Professors J. Van der Zee, Frank L. Mott and, amusingly, Dean Lonzo Jones...

At Oxford and Cambridge you never study, seldom go to classes — do all your cramming in alleged "vacations"... There are fewer degrees offered yearly in all Europe than in Illinois and Iowa schools. (Drop in, and I'll prove it.)

Fungus Infection May Cause Itching of Ear and Ear Canal

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D. It is one of those things that looks like nothing except to the fellow that has it. To him it is a serious disease. I refer to itching of the ear and the ear canal. In spite of advice, which is good, that you should put nothing smaller than the elbow in the ear, it is nearly impossible for him to keep from scratching it with matches or toothpicks. Which, of course, as he knows as well as anyone, only makes it worse.

Curiously enough, it has been found that it is due to a fungus infection. There may be several of these small vegetable organisms — yeasts or thread-like growths. They grow rapidly in warm, moist environment, and the neglect of getting the ears perfectly dry after a bath is one of the causative factors.

Contrary also to popular belief, the presence of wax in the ears does not tend to cause this condition. In fact, wax is likely to stop the growth of the fungi. Ordinarily the symptoms are simply itching. What makes it annoying is that it is an itch where you can't get at it. So enters the match and the attempt to scratch it. This often results in abrasion and infection of the skin, with a widespread inflammation that may involve the whole external ear. Sometimes this is quite serious as it may spread over the skin of the neck.

Treatment is quite effective with simple mycotic drugs. The best of these is cresatin in olive oil. Naturally it should be applied by a physician. It should be put on with a cotton plug and left in not longer than 12 hours. Prevention of reinfection is important, and if swimming is indulged in the ears should be thoroughly dried afterwards and a plug of cotton lightly impregnated with a weak solution of ethyl alcohol should be applied for a few minutes. The fungi are easy to kill when they are on the surface, but are not so simple to destroy when they have penetrated the upper layers of the skin.

Tuning In with Loren Hickerson

Now I know what happens to college cheer leaders after they graduate. They get jobs holding up "applause" signs in radio studios.

They wouldn't have to raise "applause" signs if they raised comedy standards.

Allen Prescott's "Wifesaver" programs have always been among radio's biggest drawers for mail, it seems. Prescott is probably asked more questions by women than any other man on earth.

Here's one of the prize questions: "Can you give me a diet in which I can eat everything I like and still lose weight?" Or this: "Please tell me how I can easily get rid of bugs, roaches and my husband's friends who come around and play cards with him."

"Where can I buy a Used washing machine? I'd like to buy one that is used to an Italian lady because that is what I am." "My husband makes me jealous by always talking about Ginger Rogers. Who would it make him jealous if I talked about, Robert Taylor or Clark Gable?"

About 10 years ago, pianists Al and Lee Reiser were working in a Brooklyn movie house, playing the piano accompaniments for silent pictures. One of the pictures, Rudolph Valentino's "The Sheik" was held over for twice the average run, and by the time it had its final showing, the Reisers were pretty tired of its musical score.

A few weeks ago, Paramount decided to re-issue "The Sheik," with music and sound dubbed in. Last week the sound track was recorded — by pianists Al and Lee Reiser.

Vic Night, producer for the Eddie Cantor broadcast, is one of the few men on record who ever lassoed a fish.

Cantor was host to members of his radio cast at a deep sea fishing party this week, and everybody chipped in 25 cents to make a prize for the largest fish of the day.

In the last half-hour, Knight felt a terrific tug at his line and yanked on his pole. Pulling in his catch, Vick discovered he had lassoed a sea bass around the tail — and it was the largest fish of the day, weighing seven pounds.

The hit song, "Goldmine in the Sky," written by the New York Mirror's radio editor, Nick Kenny, and his brother Charles, has been the inspiration for a movie of the same name in which Gene Autry of Republic pictures will star. Autry fans may like it; I'll stay away.

To Speak at 8 On West Front Of Old Capitol

Philosopher-Author To Lecture on 'World Conflict'

The 1938 summer series of university lectures will be opened at 8 o'clock tonight by Will Durant, one of America's most popular philosopher-authors.

Durant's lecture, "The World Conflict," will be presented on the west front of Old Capitol. Should unfavorable weather conditions prevail, the lecture will be in Macbride auditorium.

The lecture tonight opens a series which will bring five other religious and educational leaders to the campus. At 9 a.m. tomorrow, Durant will open the series of round table discussions, one of which will follow each university lecture, by conducting a discussion of "The Problems of Philosophy" in the house chamber of Old Capitol.

Noted author and traveler, Durant is constantly in demand as a lecturer. Outstanding among his literary works is "The Story of Philosophy," "Transition," the story of his life, "Mansions of Philosophy," "Studies in Genius" and many others.

The first volume of "The Story of Civilization," which appeared in 1935, was written after two trips around the world. The second volume, which will appear in 1940, will deal with Greece, Rome and the rise of Christianity.

Carr Tells Of 'Helen of Troy'

Prof. W. L. Carr of Teachers college, Columbia university, presented a lecture on "Helen of Troy" in the senate chamber of Old Capitol yesterday under the auspices of the classical languages department.

Professor Carr, who is a native Iowan, read excerpts and quotations from various authors who have presented varying versions of the Greek story. He dealt with the presentations of Virgil, Euripides and Homer and of the more recent authors, Lander and Andrew Lang of England and America's Longfellow and Erskine.

Professor Carr recently was awarded an honorary LL.D. degree from Drake university, his alma mater. He is the editor of several Latin texts and of several works in the field of philology.

Prof. Roy C. Flickinger, head of the classical languages department, introduced Professor Carr.

Prof. D. S. White of the Iowa classical languages department will speak next Thursday on the topic, "The Present Status of Latin."

Buccaneers Slap Down Terrymen Second Day in Row

NEW YORK, June 16 (AP)—The Giants' National league lead was shaved to a game and a half today, and King Carl Hubbell's bid for his 200th major league pitching victory again met with failure as the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the loop champions 10 to 2.

It was the Pirates' second win in a row over the league leaders, and the fifth win against one defeat for Rookie Bob Klinger, who held Bill Terry's troupe to five hits, fanned eight and walked only two.

Hubbell, whose first attempt at the 200th win of his career was balked by the St. Louis Cardinals last Sunday, was tagged for four runs in the fourth inning today and another in the seventh, before he was lifted for a pinch hitter. Big Walter Brown, who finished the game, gave up five more tallies in a big ninth inning.

Two homers featured the Bucs' 13-hit attack. Lloyd Waner connected for one off Hubbell with a mate aboard in the fourth, and Lee Handley topped off the ninth inning splurge with a round tripper with two on deck.

Hubbell also had a pair of singles and drove in a total of four runs, while Al Todd connected for a double and two singles.

With the second place Chicago Cubs idle, the defeat sliced half a game off the Giants' lead.

Maxie Objects To Glove Rule

SPECULATOR, N. Y., June 16 (AP)—Max Schmeling today vigorously rejected use of the so-called "Chicago glove" as preferred by Joe Louis for their heavyweight championship match at Yankee stadium June 22.

Tom Farley, deputy of the New York State Athletic commission, brought the preferred Louis glove to Max's camp today for approval, but the German challenger said it would be an injustice to him if he were compelled to use it. Max demands the New York glove be used.

TRACK GREATS Best in Nation Gather This Week End

MINNEAPOLIS, June 16 (AP)—A collection of track and field stars regarded as strong enough to carry Olympic colors will fight it out for individual and team honors in the national intercollegiate meet tomorrow and Saturday at the University of Minnesota.

Authority for a statement that a team picked from the field "would have better than an even chance" of winning an Olympic meet is Lawson Robertson, Pennsylvania track and field technician who coached the United States Olympic team in 1928 and 1932.

The meet has the greatest number of individuals entered in the history of the event, more than 300 athletes from some 80 colleges and universities.

"In the 100 and 220-yard dashes," Robertson said, "Ben Johnson of Columbia, Adrian Talley of Southern California, and Wilbur Greer of Michigan State would be about the fastest any nation could produce."

"America's high jumpers definitely are superior," Robertson said. "And among the newcomers in other events are Charles Fenske of Wisconsin in the distance runs and Fred Wolcott of Rice Institute, who apparently is the fastest in high hurdles."

Seven champions, and two co-title holders in the individual events are again entered in the big meet in which a powerful delegation from Southern California will be bidding for a fourth straight team championship.

JOHN VANDER MEER CINCINNATI PITCHER, LATEST ENTRY INTO BASEBALL'S HALL OF FAME

Giles Happy About Vandy Cincinnati Boss Lauds Bill McKechnie For Fine Showing of Reds

NEW YORK, June 16 (AP)—A June day report on the surprising Cincinnati Reds and their astonishing double no-hit freshman—Johnny Vander Meer.

The queer story behind the "Dunking Dutchman" is that he was forgotten by the Brooklynies and then came back to string the Flatbushers up with his second successive no-hit, no-run ball game.

In 1934, Brooklyn farmed Johnny to Dayton, Ohio, which club sent him to Scranton, Pa., and Judge Landis investigated the transfer. The result was Johnny got away to ultimately become Cincinnati property.

Blinding speed is the Dutchman's powder. Last year, he didn't have control and almost beamed opposing batsmen. Some of them are scared of him yet though his control is great in the clutch.

Perhaps the happiest official in baseball these June days was the unhappy a year ago. It is Giles. "What's happened to the Reds, who made a sucker out of me a year ago by finishing last instead of first?" Giles asks.

"McKechnie and two or three players have made all the difference in the world. I used to be an excitable fellow myself as were some of our players but old 'middle of the road Bill,' as I always call him, has given us all a million dollars worth of common sense. I believe he wouldn't get excited if he was about to be hit by the Twentieth Century Limited. He's a genius with the pitchers and every one figures if he can't succeed under Bill, why, he can't make good anywhere."

Pearson and Hadley Do Hurling Duties In 5-1 Contest

CHICAGO, June 16 (AP) — Monte Pearson and Bump Hadley combined in a one-hit pitching job to give the New York Yankees a 5 to 1 victory over the Chicago White Sox, stretching their winning streak to six straight.

Pearson gave up one hit for 3 1-3 innings, and then, after he walked four batters in a row, forcing in the Sox only run, he was taken out. Hadley pitched hitless ball through the last 5 2-3 innings.

The win left the Yanks still half a game back of the Cleveland Indians in the American league race.

Monte Stratton, who went the route for the Sox, gave up only four hits, but one of them was Lou Gehrig's ninth homer, and two others were bunched with a walk and hit batsmen for three runs in the second frame.

Propose Statue In Memory Of No-Hit Games

CINCINNATI, June 16 (AP)—Cincinnati baseball fans exulted today over Johnny Vander Meer's two successive no-hit, no-run games.

A sports columnist capped the emotional strain by suggesting that a statue to the young pitcher replace a memorial to ex-President James A. Garfield in a downtown park.

"And then a thousand years from now the citizens will know that John pitched two no-hitters, and pitched them in a row," he rhymed.

Frank Lane, assistant general manager of the Cincinnati Reds, watched ticket orders pile in and exclaimed: "Nothing like it in the history of the club!"

Ohio's senate took time out at Columbus today to pass a resolution in "tribute to the newly crowned king of the baseball world, Johnny Vander Meer," and ordered copies sent to the Reds' pitcher and to his father and mother.

Ralph Puts On Great Finish To Post 279 Score

Hemsley Back In Lineup As Nats Lose, 4-1

ST. LOUIS, June 16 (AP)—The greatest finisher in golf painted his masterpiece today as big Ralph Guldahl left a birdie and eagle trail along the final 18 holes for a six-under-par 65, a 4-round total of 279 and his third straight Western Open championship.

Par, tradition and the spirit of his rivals were shattered as the big Madison, N. J., pro, well rounded from his shoulders to his golf game, methodically tore to shreds a course which for the first two rounds of the tournament had successfully withstood every assault.

It is the first time in the 38-year history of the Western Open a player won three years in a row.

Guldahl's 279, five strokes under par, is a fitting companion to his 284 registered in winning his second consecutive National Open crown last week, when he stroked out a 69 on his final round.

And as he chipped in an 18-foot shot from off the green for a birdie on the final hole and his 65, the big gallery roared acclaim for champions' champion.

Pressed from the start by a choice assortment of sharpshooters, Guldahl would shake free from one threat, only to have another storm into sight. He held a slim one stroke lead at the end of the first 18 Tuesday by virtue of his par 71.

Lanky Ray Mangrum of Dayton, Ohio, crept unobtrusively into a tie at the 36-hole mark by registering his second straight 72 as Guldahl slipped to a 73.

Mangrum couldn't stand the pace today but Sam Sneed, the sturdy West Virginian, blasted out a 69 to replace Mangrum in a tie with the champion at the three quarter mark with 214. Guldahl had a 70 for the third round.

Then came the payoff round, with Sneed whiling under the pressure as Guldahl shot his bewildering scores.

He was out in 34, one under par. On the home nine birdies and eagles fairly dripped from his clubs. On the twelfth he sank a 12-foot putt for a birdie. On the 13th he sank a 40-footer for an eagle, on the 14th he dropped a four footer for a birdie, and he climaxed the performance with his chip on the last hole. On only the eighth hole did he go over perfect figures.

Sneed's Temper Flares

The pressure manifested itself in Sneed's putter. Time after time he muffed chances for birdies by blowing long or short putts. On the 14th his temper flared as a putt stopped a foot from the cup. Disgustedly he walked up to the ball, swung at it with one hand. He missed. He finished with a 72 and a 286 total, in second place.

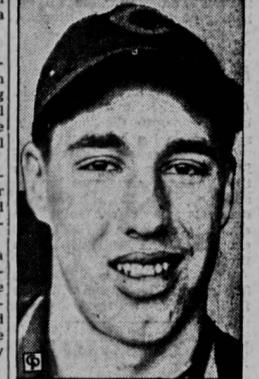

Par, a bear for two days, was a lamb as the field turned in a choice assortment of sizzling rounds, but they came too late. Even Jimmy Thomson's ace this afternoon was just another fine shot, although it helped him to a 292 and a tie for fourth with Leonard Dodson of Springfield, Mo. Tony Penna of Dayton, Ohio, came in with a 67 for the last round which brought his total to 289, good for third place.

East Iowa Golf Meet To Be Held Here Next Monday

Some 80 boys and at least two girls, one of whom won a 1937 championship, probably will enroll for the eastern Iowa junior golf tournament at the University of Iowa next Monday, Coach Charles Kennett said Thursday.

The annual affair will consist of 36 holes of medal play. There are two age divisions, the junior with an age limit of 13 years and the senior in which the limit is 17 years. The champion four-player team also will be decided.

Phyllis Otto of Atlantic, the 13-year-old girl who won the junior title last year, will be back again, this time in the senior division. In 1937, she became the first girl ever to enter the tournament.

Bob Feller

plete game since May 30. Feller, who prefers Hemsley's receiving, has lost only two games this year. The Senators' only run came in the sixth inning when Wassell and Rick Ferrell punched out consecutive singles with two out. Feller was threatened a couple of times but subdued the Nats with seven strikeouts, walking four.

The decisive blow of Cleveland's 11-hit total was rookie Ken Keltner's 11th home run of the season in the fourth inning with Hal Trosky on base. Cleveland picked up a run in the third on successive doubles by Lary and Campbell, and added another in the eighth on Trosky's double and Hemsley's single.

Trosky, who occupied the bench yesterday because of recurrence of a knee injury, also returned to Cleveland's lineup although he had expected to be out longer. He said a quick trip to a muscle specialist achieved replacement of a loose cartilage.

Louis Opens Up On His Sparring Mates

Large Crowd Sees Workout

Dempsey Asserts Negro Is in Good Shape For Battle

POMPTON LAKES, N. J., June 16 (AP)—Joe Louis hit sharply in four rounds of sparring with two of his big shock absorbers, George Nicholson and Jim Howell, today. A crowd of 3,000, that included Jack Dempsey and Jim Braddock, watched the workout.

Dempsey, asked for his guess on the outcome of next Wednesday's fight was cagey, contenting himself with the assertion that the Negro heavyweight champion was in "mighty good shape" and that it would be a whale of a fight.

"If he expects to beat Schmeling, though, he'll have to go in and fight harder than he did today," added the mauler. "Also, he had better keep his chin down a little better."

Braddock has already picked Louis to win by a knockout and Dempsey will make his "official" guess later in the week, he probably will pick Schmeling.

Louis continued to do much of his fighting in close, throwing short hooks and uppercuts, and there's no doubt he intends to pursue these tactics against the German.

The champion will lay off tomorrow and then wind up his boxing on Saturday and Sunday.

Maxie Drills In Seclusion

[SPECIALATOR; N. Y., June 16 (AP)—Max Schmeling spent a busy day despite the "no boxing" sign outside his headquarters.

The former heavyweight champion who meets Joe Louis for the title Wednesday night at Yankee stadium, made three broadcasts, one to Germany, one to Great Britain and one for the U. S. His only exercise was a 10-mile road jaunt this morning.

The German will box Saturday, Sunday and Monday and will leave for New York Tuesday.

Mrs. Opal Hill Conquers Patty Berg in Meet

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., June 16 (AP)—A great "clinch" putt 20 feet along a sidehill on Broadmoor's deceptive first green, earned Mrs. Opal Hill, calm Kansas City veteran, a 1 up, 19-hole victory over freckled Patty Berg in the women's western open golf tournament this afternoon.

The gracious Missourian's stirring triumph was the headline in a day of beautifully fought quarter-final round skirmishes against the spectacular mountain background.

Pretty Beatrice Barrett of Minneapolis, 22-year-old Helen Hofmann and Texas Babe Didrikson, professional from Beaumont, followed Mrs. Hill into the semifinals after overcoming opposition almost as stubborn as Patty Berg threw up with wood and iron.

Miss Barrett, runner up for this title last year, shot one under par golf—best of the day—to defeat Shirley Ann Johnson, striking young blonde from Chicago, 1 up. Miss Hofmann, long-driving former Utah champion, finished strongly for a 2 and 1 win over Bernice Wall, slender Chicago blonde.

Miss Didrikson outshot Colorado's lone contender, trim Phyllis Buchanan, state champion from Denver, 3 and 1. Three of the matches were deadlocked at the end of nine holes. Miss Hofmann was two up on Miss Wall at the turn, but blew it on the second nine before rallying at the last two holes.

Jimmy Foxx's Six Bases On Balls Ties Big League Record

Pitchers Walk Sluggers As Boston Sweeps Series, 12-8

ST. LOUIS, June 16 (AP)—A new modern major league record was established and another tied today in a hectic game which gave the Boston Red Sox a sweep of their current series with the St. Louis Browns.

Jimmy Foxx, the Red Sox first sacker, drew six straight walks for the new major league mark. The previous record was five, held by Mel Ott of the Giants and Max Bishop of the Athletics. The pre-1919 record was six, set by Walter Wilmont of the Cubs in 1891.

The Boston first baseman tied the major league record for most times a batter has faced pitchers in a game without being credited with an official time at bat. Miller Huggins, with the Cardinals in 1910, and Bill Urbanski of the Boston Braves, now the Bees, established the mark. Both drew four walks and sacrificed twice.

Foxx' record today of facing opposing pitchers six times without being credited with a time at bat is a new American league record.

Tommy Bridges Stops Mackmen In 12-3 Contest

DETROIT, June 16 (AP)—Tommy Bridges limited the Philadelphia Athletics to six hits and struck out eight today as the Detroit Tigers pounded out a 12 to 3 decision for their only victory of the three game series here. Bridges batted in three runs to help win his fourth game of the season.

Rudy York, Tiger catcher, drove in three runs with his 16th home run of the year and a double. Charley Gehring duplicated the feat with a double and his seventh circuit blow. Both homers came off Luther Thomas, A's starting pitcher, in the first inning. David Smith, a recruit from Duke university held Detroit scoreless the last four innings.

Claude Passeau Is 3 to 2 Victor Over Cardinals

PHILADELPHIA, June 16 (AP)—Claude Passeau pitched a six-hitter today and the Phillies defeated the St. Louis Cardinals, 3 to 2.

Relief Pitcher Max Macon's wildness in the eighth inning, after starter Bill McGee had been lifted in the seventh for a pinch hitter, resulted in the Phil's winning run. Macon walked three batters and the run scored on Don Gutteridge's error.

McGee, Macon and Ray Harrell gave up only five hits, but the Phils bunched three of them in the fourth for a pair of runs.

Crowd Sees Boy Scouts, Cubs Perform at Annual Round-up

225 Boys Take Part in Activities To Win Troop Streamer Awards

Prizes To Be Presented At Longfellow School Monday Night

More than 450 persons, largest crowd ever to witness a local scout gathering, saw 225 Boy Scouts and cubs from Iowa City and vicinity perform in their annual round-up at City park last night.

Colorfully attired, some in uniforms and some not, 225 scouts and cubs participated in the events—model airplane flying, flag signaling, fire building, a water boiling contest and flag and chariot relay races.

Awards in all these activities were given on a basis of qualification. Troops who qualified in from four to six events will receive red streamers. Troops who qualified in seven or eight events will get gold streamers.

The prizes will be presented Monday night at Longfellow school. Scout rankings will also be awarded.

The results in the various activities follow:

Qualifiers for visitors attendance were troops 15, 22 and 24; qualifiers in flag signaling were troops 12, 15, 17, 22 and 24; qualifiers in the water boiling contest were troops 16 and 24.

Troops 7, 12, 14, 15, 22 and 24 qualified in the equipment relays. Troops 15, 17 and 22 qualified in the fire making contest. Flag relay awards were won by troops 2, 7, 12, 15, 17, 24, 26 and 29. Chariot relay race qualifiers were troops 2, 7, 11, 15, 22, 24 and 26. The groups that qualified in the troop demonstrations were troops 2, 7, 12, 14, 15, 16, 22, 24, 26 and 29.

New Air Line Flight Schedule Is Announced

Iowa City passengers bound for the west coast will benefit by the new flight schedule from Chicago to Los Angeles, air line officials announced here.

United air lines yesterday inaugurated a three-stop daylight from Chicago to Los Angeles. In the past passengers were not always sure of obtaining a berth on the sleeper at Omaha. With the new schedule, however, passengers can make reservations at the local airport and be assured of getting a berth at Omaha.

The company yesterday increased its flying to 50,000 miles a day so that it could accommodate heavy summer travel. Fifty-eight twin-engine airliners, including 21-sleeper planes, are now in service.

Girl Cashier Faces Bandits in North English Bank Hold-up

NORTH ENGLISH, June 16 (AP)—State and county officers combed the area around North English tonight in search of two shabbily dressed robbers, who, they said, held up the Farmers Savings bank here shortly after noon today and escaped with between $400 and $1,000.

The armed men, working quickly, forced Opal Dennis, assistant cashier and only person in the bank when they entered, to hand over to them the currency in a counter drawer. According to Sheriff Milford Englebert, they then sped away without taking the silver on the counter or inquiring about the contents of the vault, officers said she told them.

R. S. Ferris, cashier, had just left for luncheon when the pair entered. They escaped in a sedan, heading north out of town. It was the second daylight bank robbery in the state this year.

Katzenmeyer said a writ of mandamus will be sought to bring the matter to immediate trial.

Attorney Larson, city solicitor, is also, according to state law, officially the attorney for the commission and will be asked to present the commission's case in court although his own interpretation of the matter in opposite that of the commission.

Larson will probably also be expected to defend Chief Bender in court, since Bender acted on his ruling and since he is city solicitor.

Unless the case is settled, the two men appointed as sergeants will not be carried on the commission's service lists as sergeants, board members said.

Rites Held For Mrs. F. Breene

Neighbor Found Widow Of Former Dean Dead in Home

Mrs. F. T. Breene, 55, widow of the late Dean F. T. Breene of the college of dentistry, who was found dead in bed yesterday morning, was buried last night in Oakland cemetery.

A neighbor, Mrs. Ray Carson, who became alarmed because she had not seen Mrs. Breene for several days, discovered the body. Coroner George D. Callahan said that Mrs. Breene had apparently been dead since Friday. Daily papers dating back to Saturday were found on the Breene porch, he said.

Mrs. Breene was graduated from the school of nursing in 1905. She practiced nursing here until her marriage to Dean Breene.

Dean Breene, who was head of the college of dentistry for nearly 35 years, died Oct. 15, 1931.

She is survived by a stepson, Dr. Frank E. Breene, San Jose, Cal., a brother-in-law, Harry D. Breene, San Jose, and several sisters.

Letter, Attorney's Ruling Give Both Sides of Controversy

Letter of Iowa State Police Association: For Commission

"I will answer your question but will say before doing so that I cannot see why some always want to be trying to evade what the legislature enacts. After all there is the penalty clause in that civil service bill and perhaps it will have to be enforced to the end that the law will be provided for as it is written. I am referring to 5713.

You say that the city council is creating two new positions on your police department, namely, two sergeants. Due to the fact that no such position ever existed on the department it is a certainty that they are newly created offices and therefore there must be an examination held for those positions. You have no preferred list there, neither do you have any eligible list for the position of sergeant and you certainly cannot take a man who has qualified himself for a captain, lieutenant, assistant chief or any other position on the department and allow him to be qualified as a sergeant.

"Now taking Section 5698 (in part), Names Certified, Temporary Appointment. The commission shall, within ninety (90) days after the beginning of each competitive examination for original appointment or promotion, certify to the city council a list of the names of 10 persons who qualify with the highest standing as the result of each examination for the position they seek to fill, or such number as may have qualified if less than ten, in the order of their standing, and all newly created offices or other vacancies in positions under civil service which shall occur before the beginning of the next examination shall be filled from said list. Now you had no sergeants' list, and no one has taken the examination for sergeant and specified that that was the position they sought to fill, and it is impossible for you to have a preferred list for that position; so therefore it is mandatory that an examination be held to fill that newly created position, but the person having the appointing power may temporarily fill the position until such an examination can be held. Any such temporary appointment cannot exceed ninety (90) days for any one person however.

"Now some may misinterpret the meaning of a preferred list, but it is plainly set out in Section 5712 what a preferred list is and you will find in reading this section that such a list can only be created by the diminution of employees on the department and such a diminution has not occurred on your department as I understand your letter.

"Your lists for other positions on your department certainly does not nor cannot constitute a preferred list for any position on your department, as you have not had a diminution in any position.

"I cannot agree with your mayor when he says that he can take these men from the lists of assistant chief or night captain. They took the examination for those positions and not for the newly created offices of sergeant. He could appoint one from those lists only until such a time as an examination could be held for the position of sergeant, and it is as I stated before that such an appointment could only be ninety (90) days for any one person in that position.

Trusting that this gives you the information desired I remain,
Yours respectfully,
George Kern,
Secretary-Treasurer

Attorney Robert Larson Ruling: Basis Of Bender's Action

Following is the text of the legal opinion given to Police Chief W. H. Bender yesterday by City Solicitor Robert L. Larson regarding eligibility lists certified by the civil service commission from which appointments of police sergeants were made today by the chief:

"Your communication of June 11, 1938, received asking for my opinion as to who are eligible for appointment to the newly created positions of sergeant.

"You state that a promotional examination was given May 4, 1937, and that seven men were certified with an excellent rating; that this promotional examination was given to fill the offices of assistant chief and night captain; that these positions were filled from said list and that there were still five men upon that list, at the time the new positions were created by the council.

"You also call my attention to a recent examination given by the civil service commission under the impression that an examination was necessary to provide an eligible list for the new positions of sergeant.

"It seems to me that the question to be decided is whether or not the existing list was the proper list from which the newly created officers should be filled.

"After carefully studying house file 51 which became a law April 15, 1937, I am of the opinion that the answers are found in section 5698D-1 and 5698. Section 5698D-1 provides that the commission shall hold competitive promotional examination each second year and that such examination shall be practical in character and shall relate to such matters as will fairly test the ability of the applicant to discharge the duties of the position for which he seeks promotion. These five men had passed an examination of such a character as to fairly test their ability to discharge the office of night captain, a policeman of higher rank than a patrolman. This list is good for two years unless the same is exhausted.

"Section 5698 states that when such a list for promotion is certified to the city council all newly created positions or other vacancies in position under civil service which shall occur before the beginning of the next examination for such position shall be filled from said list. This would indicate to me that when there is a list for an office closely resembling the duties of the newly created office, that such list shall be used in filling the newly created office, and that it is not necessary nor proper to conduct examinations for said office as long as there exists a qualified list eligible for promotion to that or a slightly higher office.

"I feel that the qualifications of a captain, lieutenant or sergeant are so nearly similar that those passing an examination successfully and qualifying for promotion to the office of night captain would also be qualified for promotion to that of a lieutenant or sergeant and that when such a list exists it must be exhausted before a new examination can be given within the two-year period.

"Section 5698 also contains the following: 'Persons on the certified eligible list for promotion shall hold preference for promotion until the beginning of a new examination, but in no case shall such preference continue longer than two years following the date of certification, after which said list shall be canceled and no promotions to such grade shall be made until a new list has been certified eligible for promotion.'

"It also appears to me that the legislature has specifically taken care of cases of this kind, for with an eligible list for promotion, that section of the code specifically provides that said list shall be used in 'all newly created offices.' It would be impossible to contemplate an examination or hold the same for an office not in existence.

"I therefore hold that the eligible list for promotion for night captain covers those for other offices just below it, and that in choosing your sergeants you must do so from the five certified men on the promotional list existing at the time of the creation of the new offices and no others."
