Says F. R. Looking To Democratic Party Realignment in 1940

Call to Liberals Marks Advance Toward Change

President's Outspoken Manner in Speech Came as Surprise
By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
WASHINGTON, June 25 (AP)—President Roosevelt's rallying cry to "liberals" over the country, regardless of party lines, heralded another advance toward some form of party realignment by 1940.

While the fighting character of the Friday night presidential chat with the "real rulers of this country—the voters" was fully expected, the outspoken manner in which Mr. Roosevelt declared his purpose as party leader to intervene in democratic primary contests wherever liberalism by new deal standards was at stake came as a surprise.

"Coupled with Warning"
It was coupled with the plain warning by the president that election of "liberals" of any other party faith would be more welcome in new deal eyes than return to power of democrats openly hostile to or rendering only lip service to new deal objectives. This made the declaration a challenge more significant than its relation to any particular primary contest.

In the light of that Roosevelt speech, and of the probable nature of the many others he has arranged to deliver within the next three weeks, the fighting for control of the democratic party in 1940 has no more than started. Mr. Roosevelt himself predicts although he deprecates the delivery of vicious blows. And the obvious stake at issue, even if the president did not mention it, is his hope of re-fashioning the democratic party into an outright liberal party shaped to enforce new deal political, social and economic philosophy.

"Sweep Out Opponents"
In effect, Mr. Roosevelt has sought to read out of the democratic party at one sweep all opponents to liberalism as he defines that term. Again as in his acceptance speech at Chicago in 1932, he has reached out to gather into the new deal fold liberal supporters in other party ranks, republican, progressive, farmer-labor or any other.

For that purpose he struck sharply, though not by name, at free speech suppression under Mayor Hague's rule in Jersey City. By contrast, he hit out also at John L. Lewis and CIO-A.F. of L. tactics in labor's jurisdictional warfare, although again naming no names.

No less bluntly the president disclosed and waved aside harmony and go-slow councils among his own "associates." Whether that refers to the practical political advice of such aides as Postmaster General Farley, or to the reputed insistence by Vice President Garner on a halt in the onward march of new deal reforms is not clear.

100 More Men Join Strikers

NEWTON, Ia., June 25 (AP)—An additional 100 CIO workers joined the sit-down force in the Maytag Sewing Machine company plant here late today, bringing the total number of strikers holding the plant to 450.

The men sent out word that they intend to hold the plant until the company agrees to arbitrate wages, although union headquarters issued no statement on the strike.

The sit-downers faced a week end in the plant as both sides in the labor controversy marked time waiting for the opposition to make the first move.

The strikers approached their 60th hour inside the entrance barricades with a "back to work movement" effigy hanging from an upper story window and the letters "CIO" painted on the water tank.

The strikers flew a large American flag over the plant during the day.

Pay for Propaganda
WASHINGTON (AP)—William E. Dodd, former ambassador to Germany, said last night he had been informed confidentially the German government had allocated $30,000,000 for propaganda dissemination in the United States.

Knox Claims F. R. Distorted Total Income

Statement Calls Talk Weak Demonstration Of Statesmanship

WASHINGTON, June 25 (AP)—Frank Knox, republican candidate for vice president in 1936, accused President Roosevelt tonight of "distorting" national income figures in his fire-side chat last night.

In a statement issued by the republican national committee, the Chicago publisher said the address was "as weak a demonstration of statesmanship as this country has ever seen."

Knox disputed the president's assertion that the income of all persons in the United States was $38,000,000,000 in 1932. Department of commerce records, Knox said, showed the total to be $48,362,000,000.

Scion Missing

Missing on a hiking trip with a companion in the Sandia mountains of New Mexico, Medill McCormick, scion of the Chicago publishing family, is the object of a wide search in the southwest.

Young McCormick, who began the hiking trip at Albuquerque, is the son of the late U. S. Senator and Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick Simms.

State Board of Education Seeks $400,000 From PWA to Build Dormitory Facilities at Iowa

Ask Additions For Women's Dormitory, Men's Quadrangle

DES MOINES, Ia., June 25 (AP)—The state board of education is seeking $400,000 from the PWA with which to add to dormitory facilities at Iowa State college and the State University of Iowa, Secretary M. R. Pierson said tonight.

To aid in financing replacement of Margaret Hall, Iowa State college dormitory for women destroyed by fire last winter, the board has asked for a grant of $120,000.

Labor Court F. R.'s Board to Find It in Sweden

WASHINGTON, June 25 (AP)—The commission of industrial, legal and labor experts President Roosevelt sent abroad to study British and Swedish employer-employee relations will find a labor court functioning in Sweden to interpret the validity and meaning of collective agreements.

The court is a tribunal of final authority over employer-employee contracts, and it operates in conjunction with a system of conciliation and arbitration for non-contractual disputes.

PWA Officials Point to Orders After Stocks Gain

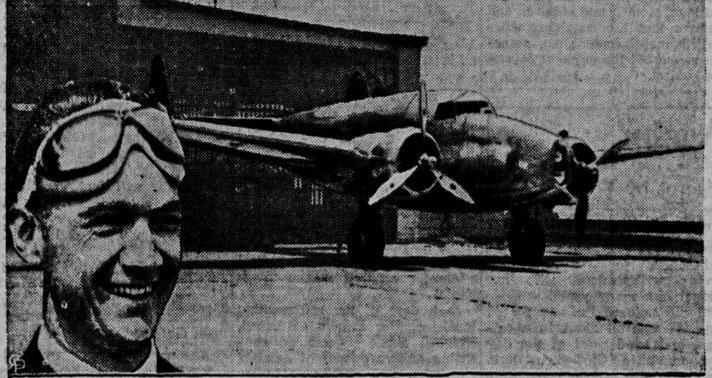

WASHINGTON, June 25 (AP)—Public works officials smiled broadly today at the week's gain in stock market quotations and pointed without comment to $322,000,000 of PWA orders moving into heavy industries.

The amount of basic construction materials, they said, would be required by the $440,585,029 of non-federal projects allotted during the last three days and the $150,000,000 of federal works now in the mill. The two items are a part of the lending spending program.

Union Will Appeal Vagrancy Sentence Given Staff Member

OMAHA, Neb., June 25 (AP)—General Drivers union officials announced tonight an appeal will be taken to the district court from a 90-day suspended sentence for vagrancy assessed today against Alfred Russell, 26, salaried member of the union's staff, here to aid contract negotiations.

Armies Fight For Control Of Yangtze Valley

Provisional Capital Near Scene of Battle For Important Point

SHANGHAI, June 25 (Sunday) (AP)—Chinese and Japanese forces fought desperately today for mastery of the Yangtze river valley about 200 miles downstream from Hankow, the provisional capital.

Bloody battles were reported on the south bank at Shiangkwo-chang, 20 miles below the Chinese-defended boom at Matowchen.

This barrier of sunken boats, timbers, rocks and concrete was the first barrier to Japanese gunboats pointing the river offensive against Hankow.

Japanese infantrymen thrust overlaid through the hills of Anhwei province to assist in the river offensive being conducted primarily by landing parties before borne upriver under protection of the attacking gunboats.

Offensive Halted
The Chinese declared the Yangtze offensive had been halted. Shore batteries aided by fast Chinese bombing planes were said to have driven the attacking gunboats downriver after they managed once to get within shelling range of the Matowchen boom.

The Chinese asserted two Japanese gunboats were sunk in an air raid there yesterday.

(The Chinese army headquarters at Hankow announced more than half of a Japanese landing force of 5,000 men were killed or wounded when it was counter-attacked near Matowchen yesterday.)

Cholera Spreading

In Shanghai, authorities, using literally gallons of serum, have inoculated more than a million persons against cholera in Shanghai's International Settlement and French concession within the past two months.

Cholera now has attained full epidemic proportions in Shanghai, and is reported sweeping wide stretches of the China coast, with 200 dead in Swatow, south China treaty port.

Rebels Fail To Make Hole In Loyalist Lines

HENDAYE, France (at the Spanish frontier), June 25 (AP)—Spanish insurgents vainly tried today to smash a hole in government defenses in eastern Spain where an estimated 250,000 men were locked in conflict on a 45-mile front.

Infantrymen, tanks, armored cars and warplanes clashed in one of the greatest battles of the Civil war under a dazzling sun with temperatures reaching 110 degrees Fahrenheit.

Rebels Thrown Back

The battle line extended from the vicinity of Lucena del Cid, near the Mediterranean coast 16 miles northwest of Castellon de la Plana, inland to the vicinity of Valbona, 18 miles southeast of Teruel, insurgent-held capital of the province of Teruel.

Generalissimo Francisco Franco's forces swept forward in waves against the government defenses, only to be thrown back to their own trenches with heavy losses.

Along a 15-mile section at the western end of the front alone, more than 100,000 troops were engaged.

The insurgents sought to drive into Sarrion, about seven miles south of Valbona, but government troops held their ground and kept the attackers about one and one-fourth miles from the town.

Connects to Objective
Sarrion is on the strategic highway connecting Teruel with Sagunto where a coastal road runs south of Valencia, key objective of the insurgent offensive. The government met the insurgents plane for plane and heavy gun for heavy gun.

Time and again the insurgent infantrymen went over the top, only to be mowed down by the government's machine-guns sheltered in steel and concrete pillboxes.

Reports on Russia
WASHINGTON (AP)—Ambassador Joseph E. Davies gave to President Roosevelt yesterday what the envoy said afterward was "a report to the boss" on Soviet Russia.

Spain's Bombing Threat Incites New War Scare

When Circus Workers Struck

When 1,600 employes of Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey circus walked out at Scranton, Pa., refusing to accept a 25 per cent wage cut, the "greatest show on earth" had to call off its performances and scores rushed to the ticket windows for their money back. Police were called to preserve order, for many patrons with general admission tickets were without stubs and were unable to get a refund. Photo shows patrons milling around the ticket windows.

Circus Head, Union President Sign Agreement for Return Of Show to Winter Quarters

NEWARK, N. J., June 25 (AP)—Norman Thomas, the country's No. 1 socialist and victim of a rotten egg bombardment when he visited Newark three weeks ago, spoke for an hour late today at a peaceful, police-guarded rally in a park dedicated to George Washington.

Thomas devoted most of his time to an attack on Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City. When he had finished, spectators turned the demonstration into an open air forum by firing a score of questions at him. Many cheered when he arrived, applauded his speech, and cheered when he left.

Carroll Trial Date Extended

SOUTH PARIE, Me., June 25 (AP)—Defense counsel won an extended date today for Francis M. Carroll, stoical, 43-year-old World war veteran, accused of a brutal murder for which schoolboy Paul N. Dwyer, 18, now serves life imprisonment.

Clyde H. Chapman, former attorney general and one of Carroll's counsel, was granted until July 25 to prepare the defense to a grand jury indictment charging that Carroll slew Dr. James G. Littlefield, 67, of South Paris.

Chapman asked for no change of venue as Superior Court Judge William H. Fisher moved the trial date from July 12. The lawyer said Carroll was "willing to go before the citizens of Oxford county to be tried."

He requested the time extension because, he said, when he entered the case Carroll, a church deacon and father of five children, was under $20,000 bail on a morals charge involving his oldest daughter, Barbara, 18, once an intimate friend of Dwyer. But with return of the murder indictment more time would be needed, he said, to prepare an adequate defense.

Youth Dies In Train Wreck

INGOMAR, Mont., June 25 (AP)—A head-on collision between the "Olympian," of the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific railroad, and a CCC train killed a CCC youth and injured 13 other persons a mile west of Ingomar today.

Last Sunday, when the Olympian crashed through a bridge into a flooded creek approximately 85 miles east of here, an estimated 47 persons lost their lives.

The dead CCC enrollee was identified as Robert Eckert of Portageville, N. Y., a worker in the CCC mess car. Another CCC boy, Edward Kohlbrener, Buffalo, N. Y., was injured seriously.

Railroad officials said the collision occurred when the west-bound Olympian ran through orders to meet the east-bound CCC train at Ingomar.

The Olympian's coaches were derailed and the CCC train went down an embankment.

The injured included four trainmen and nine passengers, none of whom, besides Kohlbrener, was reported seriously hurt.

Spain Menaces Italian Towns Off East Coast
Italy Counters With Threats to Destroy Government Spain
PARIS, June 25 (AP)—Europe was plunged into a new war scare tonight by Spanish government threats of bombing reprisals against Italy and a quick warning from Rome that Italy would meet such reprisals by wiping Spanish government cities off the map.

The scare started by disclosure that Spanish government at Barcelona had threatened to bomb "Italian-dominated" towns in the Balearic islands, just off Spain's east coast.

It was heightened by reports from sources close to the French foreign office that the Barcelona government also had threatened to bomb cities of "those foreign countries" sharing responsibility of bombing of Spanish civilian centers.

Then tonight, creating fear among French and British diplomats that a general European conflict might break out, Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy notified France that his warplanes would destroy government Spain if Spanish planes should bomb Italian cities.

Il Duce's declaration came after the Spanish ambassadors in London and Paris had said their government was planning reprisals against foreign nations whose planes they accused of "massacres" among civilians in government Spain.

Barcelona authorities have insisted that both Italian and German fliers have taken part in bombings of civilians behind their lines.

Premier Mussolini's warning was given to the French foreign office by the Italian charge d'affaires, Renato Prunas, who said the first Spanish government bombs dropped on Italy would open war.

He said the Italian army and navy quickly would follow the fascist airplanes and utterly destroy government Spain.

The crisis brought French and British diplomats into feverish action. Their respective foreign offices were in permanent telephone communication.

Although French Foreign Minister Georges Bonnet told both the Spanish ambassador and the Italian charge d'affaires that France disapproved of the Barcelona cabinet's threats, diplomats expressed fear open warfare between government Spain and the totalitarian states would bring a general European conflict.

Some diplomats said they believed the Spanish threat was an "act of desperation." They said the action of France in closing the frontier to Spain to transshipment of war supplies to the Spanish government made the war materials situation critical for Barcelona.

They pointed out that 17 merchant ships, mostly British, had been sunk in the government's Mediterranean ports in the last few weeks by insurgent aviators without a protest from the British government.

This fact, coupled with a rise (See SPAIN, page 8)

One Accident May be One Too many It might be your last NATIONAL SAFETY COUNCIL

Never Had an Accident? That's Fine, But Don't Get Conceited NEVER HAD an accident?

If you haven't, motorist, don't get cocky. There are thousands driving every day who have never had an accident, but there are thousands of accidents happening daily, too.

There is an old saying about familiarity breeding contempt which may be applied to the driving game. Daily driving a high-powered car may dull your sense of caution. You may drive thousands of miles, average over 50 miles an hour for the distance and never have an accident. When the trip is over and you have admitted to yourself that you are a good driver, you may have a blow-out in a front tire while you're driving 35 miles an hour, crash into a tree and in general suffer serious consequences.

Never had an accident? That's fine, but remember, it only takes one strike and you may be out of the driving game.

Little Switzerland Gives The United States A Lesson in Diplomacy

LITTLE Switzerland has been formally assured by Italy and Germany that they would respect her neutrality as long as she maintained her traditional aloofness from international squabbles.

In this little item lies a truth which all the nations of the world, and especially the United States, could well note. Switzerland has been guaranteed her freedom from invasion by two of the great nations of Europe today.

Why have Italy and Germany declined to grant these concessions to Switzerland? Is it because the Swiss army is one of the best equipped units in the world today? No, it scarcely seems possible that the Swiss army, however well equipped and drilled it may be, would force the powerful armies of Germany and Italy to recognize it.

The reason that Hitler and Mussolini have placed a "hands off" policy on Switzerland is not because they fear the power of the Swiss but because they respect the attitude taken by that government in regard to squabbles which are not of interest to it.

Switzerland is not particularly interested in keeping the peace of the world. The Swiss are interested in keeping the peace in Switzerland.

The United States annually appropriates millions of dollars for national defense, claiming that it is necessary to protect our country from invasion. Every time these measures come up for vote, certain parties fight against this large expenditure of money, basing their arguments on the facts that this country could stay out of a conflict if it wanted to.

The backers of these appropriation bills have contended quite successfully that we could not stay out of a war, that we must have this preparation to keep our peace.

Little more need be said, except that if Switzerland, situated in the very center of troubled Europe, can keep out of a war by minding its business, the United States, practically isolated from Europe and Asia, should be able to keep a clean slate by the same measure.

In Which We Say Thanks

WE'LL HAVE to admit we don't think about the Iowa City Chamber of Commerce often. In our search for headlines, we find few in its offices. It's work, important as it is to local business men, just isn't exciting news.

But we have just been remembering the chamber, thinking of what was big local news during the last week. We refer to the DeMolay state convention, the meeting of the Iowa Numismatic association and Dan Doherty day. Several thousand persons attended the three meetings, and it's just occurred to us that the chamber had a big part in all three.

Just in passing, too, we were reminded that three conventions for the remainder of 1938 have already been arranged, and several have been planned for next year.

Now these conventions, unimportant individually perhaps, bring a great amount of good will, publicity and business to Iowa City. Off hand we can't think of anything of which Iowa City could use more.

What This Country Needs—Is More Disney

ALONG WITH a few bearded supreme court justices, a congressman or so, one or two governors and some scientists, we were happy to find the name of Walt Disney of the Hollywood Mickey Mouse Disneys as the recipient of an honorary degree, two as a matter of fact.

Of course, both Yale and Harvard had different reasons for awarding Walter Disney a degree. President Conant found he "created a modern dwelling for the masses," and at Yale they thought he "has given animals souls."

Maybe so. But if nobody minds, we'll keep on approving such honors for Walt Disney just because he made us laugh. He gave us Mickey Mouse, Donald Duck, Horace Horse and Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs. Can anyone think of a better reason for honor?

We really owe those giant baby pandas a vote of gratitude. They certainly have been a welcome front page relief from the news of Europe and Asia.

Ancient Romans grew flowers and vegetables in the same garden. Junior, reading about that, wants the system revived. He thinks it would be wonderful to lunch on rose petals while one, through a closed window, admired the beauties of spinach.

Man's remote ancestor, say biologists, was a fish. Hmummm! We've lost the fins but historians certainly point out a family resemblance!

ADDRESS TO YOUTH

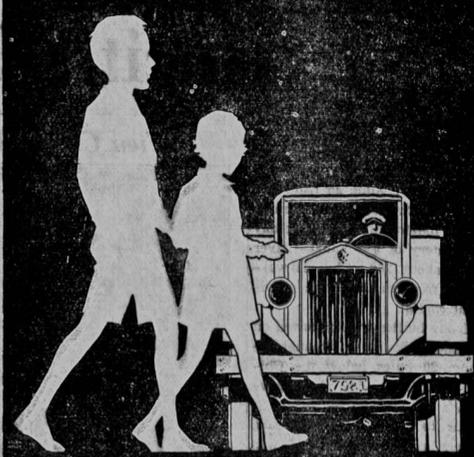

Some of the young people coming out of college today are apt to complain that they have no cause in which to enlist, no crusade on which to embark. That is not true. There are causes aplenty in which youth may enlist and crusades awaiting volunteers. One of the most interesting comments we have seen in this respect is to be found in the address of a business man, delivered during the baccalaureate season at Olivet college in Michigan. The speaker was Harlow H. Curtice, president of the Buick Motor corporation. And in his address to the youth of Olivet he said:

I think you have the oldest cause in the world, and one of the noblest. Your battle is against the most insidious and tireless of foes. Let me name them. They are these: the easy way, the wishful thought, the tempting short cut, the shallow assumption, the clever expedient, the evasion of responsibility, the specious solution, the self-saving ingenuity, the surrender of independence and integrity of mind. You may not think these foes are formidable. Do not be misled. They are at the bottom of most of our troubles. They are the betrayers of men and nations. They are at their zenith of power today and have half the world in thrall.

This is an accurate and challenging statement, defining a cause and outlining an opportunity for the youth of the nation who are about to make the future.

How the Weather May Affect Us When We are not Well

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D.

We have all heard—indeed, we are probably all hearing right now—about how the weather affects our feelings, and perhaps it does, but nobody has ever been able to prove it.

If you ever have rheumatism you will sympathize somewhat with Uncle Henry's long complaints, because there is no question that damp, cloudy weather makes the sore bones throb, and that warm, high weather makes them feel pretty spry. Most of us feel better in the summer, and this is not entirely due to the fact that we lead a more outdoor life then, but to temperature and barometric changes.

Still doctors are unable to explain exactly why these changes occur. An American physician, Dr. William F. Peterson, has done more than anyone else to elucidate them. His explanation is that the weather causes fluctuations in the capillary bed of the blood stream. The capillary bed contains more blood than all the rest of the body put together, and this blood is enclosed in thin-walled little vessels the size of which could easily be influenced by changes in barometric pressure and by temperature fluctuation. A great many of our general sensations are due to capillary supply—we may feel faint or elated, sleepy or full of ginger, depending on them.

It is easy to understand how heart disease is affected by weather. The startling and little-known story of Buffalo Bill's first wild west show will vie for top honors with the most amazing fisherman's yarn of them all on the "Strange as it Seems" program over WHO at 1:30 this afternoon. The "fisherman" used gold nuggets for sinkers.

Good Way to Conclude... A letter addressed to George Olsen, N.B.C., New York, from a fellow New Yorker, contained the following: "I am on relief. My dotter is gone to be married next Toosday to a feller with a swell job, Hes a plumer and makes $28 a week and we need that guy in our family. Their are six other kids. Can you let me have a loan of your tuxedo and high hat for the wedding. I saw you onct at your broadcast and were both the same. I promise I won't get it dirty." George gave the guy his last year's model!

Japanese Conquests in China Are Merely A Drop in the Bucket According to Observers

By ELMER W. PETERSON

SHANGHAI (Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Japan's armies have made only a beginning at the gigantic task they have set themselves of pacifying the expanding areas from which they have driven organized Chinese armies.

This conviction has been strengthened by this correspondent's 600-mile journey above and through Japanese-occupied territory by plane, railway and motor-truck.

The Japanese have captured cities and railways, have marched through 10 provinces and nominally occupy nearly half a million square miles of territory, but they gain a really effective hold over the areas they have penetrated?

Japanese military leaders at the front are confident of success at the end, but they admit they have made only a start.

On the positive side is the fact that Japan's armies in China are steadily improving.

On the other side is the vast extent of the areas the Japanese must try to control. To fly over Japanese-occupied territory is to be impressed with the smallness of

Want to Become Young Again? Vice-Chancellor of Indian University Tells 'Secret of Youth'

By JAMES A. MILLS

Pandit Malaviya, who is 77 and who was Indian nationalist delegate to the Indian round table conference in London, declares that 40 days of the rejuvenation treatment increased his weight by nine pounds, improved his eyesight, darkened his hair, restored his old voice, improved his complexion, enabled him to walk erect, and restored his memory.

"It was a hard ordeal," said the venerable Hindu sage and philosopher to the Associated Press correspondent, who has known him many years. "I did not see the sun for 40 days. I was all alone in a cottage, and lived most of the day and night in the pitch dark. Bath, exercise and massage were forbidden, nor was I permitted even to have a shave. Throughout the period of my treatment I was allowed to drink hot water.

Tuning In with Loren Hickerson

Shep Field has reportedly invented an alarm clock without a bell for people who like to sleep late.

Tony Martin, who made his best picture when he made "You Can't Have Everything," will tour the country with an orchestra (his own) just as soon as the George Burns-Gracie Allen show reaches for the summer. My guess is that any orchestra will sound swell with Tony doing the vocals.

Paul Ash, who directs his orchestra in the Roxy theater in New York, gives discouraged radio aspirants a card on which is printed: "Giuseppe Verdi was refused admission to the Milan Conservatory of Music because they believed he didn't possess sufficient talent. Don't be discouraged. Verdi wrote 'Rigoletto,' 'Il Traviata,' 'Aida' and 'La Traviata' among others.

According to George Olson, it isn't the fan mail you get that counts. It's what the people who don't write are thinking.

Shep Fields has a son 25 years old—and Shep's just in the early thirties. The boy is Shep's stepson.

The "cooperation" big business has been talking about, well exemplified, in United States Steel's announcement it PROBABLY will cut wages following price reductions...

WHIMS—Prof. Zella White Stewart prefers her own name, though she's not a Lucy Stoner... Pearl Bennett Broxam won't let anyone else light her cigarettes... Dean Brienow has afternoon tea daily...

Rib If you're in the ribbing mood, ask your friends how many times the figure (1) and the word "one" appear on a dollar bill, exclusive of the serial number... (It's 25.)

MY idea of a liberal education—Reading all the books in campus course library...

I don't know why, but there's a certain joy in my reading 400 copies of "How to Win Friends and Influence People" which is distributed at Leavenworth, Atlanta... Hundreds more friends launched in an unfriendly world.

What's happened to KEN?... Remember the good old issues of liberal, anti-fascism?... Now it's checking up on hat-check girls, and the advertising checks go up and up and up...

He began with a wealth of thought and now has thoughts of wealth...

SLOGAN FOR NEWSPAPER PUBLISHERS—"What the good Lord lets happen I am not ashamed to print..." Dick Dana.

Have you noticed the Hearst sheets these days... They're changing A.P. and U.P. "loyalist" words to "reds"...

POLITICANA FOR LIBERALS—If you haven't time for a leisurely investigation, just observe which side Bishop Manning, the Liberty League, William Randolph Hearst, Charles Coughlin take on the issue... Then choose the opposite way...

A scout suggests his own word for the anti-semantics... "Hot-Aryans," he calls them...

And since Iowa Union's in the swing, why wouldn't it be smart for Earl Harper to start a magazine room, all the latest, all the best in a congenial atmosphere?... No one's tempted to afternoon at reserve keeping up on what's being written...

McGill confessed American television is a decade off... Seems RCA has a few new radio flourishes to touch off first...

CHECK ME IF I'M WRONG—By October WHO will start the first of its newspaper casts... They've spent about $100,000, and with a reasonably cheap facsimile attachment to your set, you'll have a complete newspaper printed in your home...

One linear inch printed a minute... News, pictures, columns can be sent through the air... Which will, of course, be one protection against H. R. Gross...

Stephen Bush has crossed the Atlantic every year since he was in his 20's... He started in his undergraduate days, working his way across...

SUGGESTION—A law requiring every citizen to attend at least one execution every year... There'd be no more capital punishment...

Nobody asked me to deliver a commencement address this year, but I've one thought out... I think I'd be truthful... The world is not waiting with open arms... The arms may hold defiance... Three out of four won't get jobs...

But I'm not so alarmed about that... It might be a good idea if none of us hit economic independence until we're 30... Quick success is likely to convince this is the best of all possible worlds, which it isn't...

I'd change the stock phrase... I'd say, "Don't take the world as it is..."

William Seabrook Examines 'These Foreigners'

Author Tells About the Groups Which Have Gone Into the American Melting Pot

"THESE FOREIGNERS" By William Seabrook. (Harcourt, Brace and company, New York, 1938, $2.50) Reading the German-Czechoslovakian headlines these days, the average American is very likely to throw down his newspaper completely baffled. "Why," he will ask himself, "should the 3,500,000 Germans in Czechoslovakia refuse assimilation with the Czechs? Why should they refuse to give up their language, their national traits?"

Marquis James, who is just now considered our foremost biographer, likes to quote Oscar Wilde, "Any fool can make history. It takes a genius to write it." ... But James prefers to remember Carlyle's observation that "a well-written life is almost as rare as a well-spent one." ... Radio book reviews are the rage in the east as well as radio play reviews. ... What the radio critic says of a new book or play these days has more influence on its success than the newspaper critic.

Taylor's thesis-novel, two other Iowa men are about to publish their theses. ... Mystery Among the mysteries being favorably reviewed are Marco Page's "Fast Company"—awarded a $1,000 prize for general excellence. ... Erle Stanley Gardner's "The Case of the Substitute Face"—Laid on an ocean liner and in San Francisco—Perry Mason again. ... "The Dead Don't Care" by Jonathan Latimer—who writes more like Hemingway than Hemingway. ... "Death Wears a White Garment" by Zella Popkin—death in a department store. ... Someone has found 300 newspaper men have published semi-autobiographies in the last decade. ... Among the first, and still the best, of course, is Vincent Sheehan's "Personal History."

Banning Novel Pictures Four Women's Lives

"YOU HAVEN'T CHANGED" By Margaret Culkin Banning. (Harper and Brothers, New York, 1938, $1.75.) No one has—or is likely to—ever accused Mrs. Banning of probing her subject too deeply, of presenting a well-documented or meticulous study of the life she portrays. Also no one has ever accused her of dullness. "You Haven't Changed," then, has both the faults and the virtues of her dozen and more other novels. It is not likely to appeal to as wide or sensation-seeking an audience as did her "A Case for Chastity," but to the many millions of women whose lives are wrapped up in the school of fiction of the "Ladies Home Journal," "Good Housekeeping" variety "You Haven't Changed" will find its readers.

'Uncle Bill' Rohlf Tells Of An Iowa Country Doctor's Life

Narrates Evolution Of Table Top Surgery To Modern Practices

"GOOD MORNING, DOCTOR" by W. A. Rohlf, M. D. (Torh Press, Cedar Rapids, 1938, $2) The country doctor, driving the slippery roads in sub-zero temperatures to save the life of his penniless patient, has been glorified by the cinema, the printed page and the radio for many years. So many thrilling, heroic deeds have been credited to him that many of the modern generation have come to associate the name "country doctor" with Kleig lights and kilocycles. If you are of this cynical flock, don't read "Good Morning, Doctor"—it will only be a repetition for you, but if you like to read of Iowa when medical history was being made, if you like your emotions stirred, if you like plain wholesome humor—then above all, read this little book.

A University of Iowa graduate from the college of medicine and a former president of the Iowa State Medical Society, Doctor Rohlf has captured in this book certain rare qualities of his own inimitable humor which have made him loved by his patients and respected and admired by his colleagues. Far from a technical dissertation on early medical practices in northeastern Iowa, this book relates the life story of this typical general practitioner in a collection of short experiences. Some of the tales are tragic, some thrilling and almost all of them have a spark of dry humor instilled in them which makes reading this book a pleasant diversion.

Captures Drama of Age To read this book is to learn how "Uncle Bill" Rohlf as thousands of us already know him— that time, chemical research at the University of Iowa and elsewhere has now progressed to the stage where the body may be provided artificially with pure amino acids, with almost identical results as if the proteins required by the body had been provided in the diet. Growth of the body progresses in both instances. Prof. Jacob Cornog began the series of summer chemistry lectures last Monday with a discussion of methods of qualitative analysis which do not make use of objectionable hydrogen sulfide gas as an analytical basis.

Sound Body, Sound Mind Hooton Puts Stress On Requisites For Efficient Intellect

With Friday night's lecture thesis, the fact that only when Americans are organically sound can their intellect be efficient, continually stressed in his discussions, Prof. Ernest A. Hooton, noted anthropologist from Harvard University, conducted a round table yesterday morning in Old Capitol.

Professor Hooton spoke primarily of the biological prospect of the survival of liberty. Defining liberty as a satisfactory economic situation, with an organically sound population, the famous author of "Up From the Ape" asserted that "the maintenance of liberty is dependent upon a high level of intelligence within the population."

Joe Gordon Hurt As Red Ruffing Hurls Eight-Hit Victory

DETROIT, June 25 (AP)—The New York Yankees finally clicked in both pitching and hitting at the same time today and trampled the Tigers 9 to 3.

Big Red Ruffing snapped the Tigers' four-game winning streak with an eight-hit performance, while his mates crashed 14 hits off Roxie Lawson and three other Detroit flingers. Included in the assault were Bill Dickey's 11th number of the season and Joe DiMaggio's 10th.

The win enabled the Yanks to boost their hold on second-place in the American league to half-a-game over the idle Boston Red Sox, and raised them to within four games of the pace-setting Cleveland-Indians, who were also idle.

Although they won the ball game, the Yanks lost the services of second baseman, Joe Gordon, who was struck on the head by a ball thrown by Catcher York York in the eighth inning. York tried to pick him off first, and Gordon, in diving back to the bag was hit on the back of the head. He was taken to a hospital for an X-ray examination.

From a Detroit point of view, the only nice feature of the game was Charley Gehring's ninth home run of the year. This came in the fourth inning and gave the Tigers a record of having hit one or more four-baggers in their last 14 games, tying a major league record for consecutive game slugging set by the New York Giants three years ago.

Dodgers Beaten By Curt Davis In 3 to 1 Tilt

BROOKLYN, June 25 (AP)—Curt Davis, who was tossed into the Dizzy Dean deal more or less as an afterthought, won his seventh victory of the season today, pitching an eight-hitter as the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Dodgers 3 to 1. Davis has been beaten only twice.

Don Guttridge's bat backed up his effective pitching to take the decision. His single in the sixth drove in Don Padgett, who had tripled, and his double during a two-run rally in the eighth sent Pepper Martin across, after Ducky Medwick's double and Martin's single had accounted for the first tally.

Henry Picard Still Leads in Golf Meet

CINCINNATI, June 25 (AP)—Henry Picard eased up a little today from the hot pace he set earlier in the $5,000 Goodall invitational tourney on the Kenwood course but maintained a five-point lead over Lawson Little, his nearest threat at the end of 90 of the 126 scheduled holes of play.

The Hershey Hurricane went over par in the morning round for the first time, shooting a 74, but came back for a par 71 in the nightcap. After his standing in the plus-minus scoring of the round-robin had dropped from last night's plus 15 to 12, he shot in back up to 16 in the afternoon.

Pittsburgh Ace Is Victor Again In Relief Role

BOSTON, June 25 (AP)—Mace Brown, ace relief pitcher of the Pittsburgh Pirates, received credit for his 10th victory today, although he pitched only two and two-thirds innings, as the Bucs continued their victorious tour of the east by clubbing the Boston Bees 8 to 7 in the series opener.

With the score tied in the sixth, Pitcher Brown doubled to deep right center, driving in the two runs that provided the eventual margin of victory.

The Pirates made five runs off Johnny Lanning in the first, Ira Hutchinson relieving, but the Bees pecked away at Jim Tobin's offerings until they finally took over a short-lived lead in the fifth, 6 to 5.

Lowly Browns Blast Senators By 12-9 Score

ST. LOUIS, June 25 (AP)—The lowly Browns slam-banged five pitchers for 13 hits including five doubles, a triple and a pair of homers in defeating the Washington Senators 12 to 9 today.

Harold Clift and Beau Bell started the fireworks with homers in the first, Clift's driving a pair of runs ahead of him, The Browns added two more in the fifth and three runs in both the sixth and seventh innings, Mel Almada's triple in the seventh sent Clift across the plate after Clift had singled Tom Heath across, Almada scored on a fielder's choice.

Phillies to Move?

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Negotiations were in progress yesterday for Philadelphia's major league baseball clubs to share the same playing field to cut down expenses.

Davis' Homer In 12th Inning Beats Reds, 7-6

Cincinnati Misses A Great Chance to Gain On Terrymen

PHILADELPHIA, June 25 (AP)—A home run by Virgil "Spud" Davis off Joe Cascarella into the left field bleachers gave the Phillies a 7-6 triumph over Cincinnati in 12 innings here today.

Trailing by 6-3 in the ninth the Reds tied the score after two were out on an error by Buck Jordan and four successive hits.

Bucky Walters who started against his old mates was hit hard in the early innings and finally retired in favor of a pinch hitter in the ninth. Cascarella, who relieved him, was charged with the defeat.

Hugh Mulcahy, who was the first Philly hurler, relieved by Claude Passeau in the ninth. Passeau did not stop the rally and Al Hollingsworth was called in.

Hollingsworth received credit for the victory, his first for the Phils. McCormick and Phil Weintraub led the hitters with three safeties each.

Roommates In Finals

Two Salt Lake City Golfers to Play For Trans Championship

By WHITNEY MARTIN
LINCOLN, Neb., June 25 (AP)—They sat together, room together, and travel together, so it is only natural that Ven Savage and Ed Kingsley of Salt Lake City should play together in the 36-hole finals of the Trans-Mississippi golf tournament here tomorrow.

Kingsley the medalist, eliminated the home town hope, Harry Kaufman of Lincoln, today, 3 and 2, and Savage defeated the tenacious John Kraft of Denver, 2 up, to make the finals a transplanted Salt Lake City championship.

The 36-hole semifinals today offered all kinds of golf, but only one kind of competition—tough. Savage had to wait until the 36th hole before closing out his match, and Kingsley rode through the afternoon on a three-hole lead he registered in the morning round. The surprising Kaufman matched the medalist shot for shot through the afternoon play.

Kingsley, not quite as steady as usual, piled up his lead this morning as the nervous Kaufman was taking a 78, six over par. Kingsley had a 74.

Alternate

Each was out in par 36 this afternoon, virtually alternating in winning holes. On the 287-yard second, Kaufman won with an eagle against Kingsley's birdie three. Their cards matched down the home stretch also, with Kaufman never able to cut in on that morning lead. Savage as usual, came from behind to win his match. The deliberate Kraft was out in 34 this morning to take a two-up lead as Savage carded a par 36. The Utahian came in with another par 36 as Kraft soared to a 40 on the in nine, and they went to lunch with Savage one up.

Kraft's tee shot on the short 32nd which missed the green was the turning point. Savage won with a par, and went two up on the 33rd by sinking a 20-foot putt for a birdie. Savage missed a chance to close out the match on the 35th by missing a two-foot putt, but he won the last hole as Kraft put his second out-of-bounds and his fourth in a trap. Savage had a 75 for his afternoon round, and Kraft a 77.

Jacobs Seeking Baer for Match

NEW YORK, June 24 (AP)—Discarding for the time being at least the recuperating claims of Max Schmeling for a return "rubber" match with Joe Louis, Negro heavyweight champion, Promoter Mike Jacobs today took definite steps to rebuild Max Baer as the next title challenger.

Shifting the base of his operations from the hippodrome to his New Jersey estate, Jacobs came to terms with Baer and the Californian's manager, Ancil Hoffman, on a contract giving the promoter a three-year exclusive right to control Baer's fistie services. A public signing of papers was arranged for 7 p.m. (EST).

at the West End Casino, Long Branch, N. J., where Baer has trained for many of his past fights. Jacobs plans to put Louis and Baer into the ring this September. As usual, however, the date and place will be left open for bids and ballyhoo.

Terrymen Get Three Singles Off Cub Hurler

Phil Cavarretta Hits Homer to Help Chicago Gain in League Race

NEW YORK, June 25 (AP)—Clay Bryant, big right hander of the Chicago Cubs, set down the New York Giants with three singles today and blanked them 5 to 0 before a crowd of 18,914 at the Polo Grounds.

The fireball flinger from Zanesville, Ohio, throttled the champions so effectively that only five batters reached first base, and none got as far as second. It was the sixth whitewashing of 1938 for the Giants.

The victory was only the fourth for Chicago in 11 games this season with the National league champions, but it evicted the current series at one-all and served further to tighten the sizzling pennant race. Only one and one half games now separate the top three clubs, including the second place Cincinnati Reds, whose loss to Philadelphia today enabled the Cubs to climb within five percentage points of the runner-up spot.

Hubbell Today
Carl Hubbell's thrice frustrated bid for his 200th major league conquest was put off until tomorrow as Manager Bill Terry sent Harry Gumbert to the firing line. But Gumbert was routed in the fifth as the Cubs staged the second of two uprisings.

Phil Cavarretta's second inning homer into the right field stands, with Frank Demaree on base, gave Bryant all the margin he needed for victory.

If Your Food Bill Is $3, It's Average

WASHINGTON (AP)—It costs U. S. middle-class families an average of $2 to $3 per person each week for food. That's leaving out the wealthiest one-fourth, and the poorest, says the Bureau of Home Economics, which has just completed a nation-wide study. Only about one-seventh of the families in the $2 per person class are getting first-rate diets, while a third, if they continue present buying habits, will undermine their health, the bureau reports. About nine-tenths of those in the $3 class are getting fairly nourishing meals. The Yangtze river in China rises during the high water season, to almost unbelievable heights. Between Shanghai and Chungking there is an annual difference of from 90 to 100 feet between average minimum level and average maximum flood level.

Balance Budget From Bottom

States To Be Better Off Financially At End of Fiscal Year

NEW YORK, June 25 (AP)—The United States is balancing the budget—from the bottom up.

The fact was disclosed tonight in a compilation of statistics from the capitals of the 48 states.

Most of the states, the survey shows, will be in better financial condition at the end of the 1937-38 fiscal year on June 30 than they were a year ago.

Only a half dozen will report budget deficits for the 12-month, and half of those will be smaller than the deficits of last year.

Two states — Michigan and Oklahoma — alone will go further into the red.

Many of the rest not only will balance income and expenditure for the year but will pare down debt piled up during the 1929-33 depression. Some will be free of that debt altogether.

The improved situation prevails despite two opposing trends:

1. Declining revenues due to this year's business slump.

2. Assumption by the states of an increasing share of the cost of unemployment relief. The federal government estimated recently that the states' share generally had grown from 20 per cent in 1934 to 37 per cent during the first half of 1938; the remainder comes from Uncle Sam.

Because of the relief load and otherwise expanded social welfare programs — covering such things as old age pensions and aid to the blind—and greater expenditures for public schools, the average state budget shows an enormous increase over recent years.

But drastic operating economies and broad-based taxes have been combined to balance income and outgo.

Taxes on income, retail sales and liquor have been the most fruitful sources of revenue in the balancing process. Levies on real estate are being relied on less and less.

Highway Patrol On List of Steady Employment Jobs

DES MOINES, June 25 (AP)—Add the Iowa highway patrol to the list of steady employment professions.

Patrol Chief John R. Hattery today reported 16 patrolmen out of an enlistment total of 131 have left the force since it was organized in 1935.

Included in the "turnover" figures are Patrolmen Oran Pape, fatally wounded in 1936 in a highway gun battle in which he killed a robber, and George Weeks, who died of natural causes.

The rate of change averages 4 per cent a year, the chief said. Nearly all of the departed men resigned to take better jobs, he added.

The chief, citing injuries suffered by several patrolmen in enforcement accidents, said the profession is "a difficult and dangerous job."

The patrol now maintains a force of 115 men. They start at $100 a month and are raised to $125 a month the second year.

Supervisors Of Music To Have Second Dinner

A second music supervisor's dinner will be held at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow in the River room in Iowa Union.

Included on the program will be motion pictures of the 1938 music contests and of the University of Iowa band in action. Sound pictures of instruments of the orchestra and a film on acoustics will also be shown.

Those who cannot attend the dinner are invited to come to see the motion pictures. The meeting is open to all music teachers, supervisors, administrators and others interested.

Reservations for the dinner may be made at Prof. Charles B. Righter's office, room 15 in the music studio building, before 2 p.m. tomorrow.

'Suckers' Will Get No Break From G-Men

WASHINGTON, June 25 (AP)—Confidence men whose motto is "never give a sucker a break" are about to have that same philosophy practiced against themselves.

J. Edgar Hoover, the No. 1 G-man, has a new filing system which will give confidence men as little chance of avoiding recognition as a movie glamour girl would have crossing a college campus.

The confidence game file was started in 1936, two years after congress passed the National Stolen Property act. Already it has more names than a congressman's election-year mailing list.

In addition to listing hundreds of known swindlers, the file contains their photographs and play-by-play descriptions of their special rackets.

Diplomats said they feared the Barcelona government might seek to provoke a general European war in case the situation of its armies became hopeless before the insurgent armies.

Germany, as well as Italy, was reported to have informed both the British and French foreign offices that it would consider Barcelona's threatened air raids an act of war, and would feel free to send armies to "clean up" government Spain.

The Spanish embassy in Paris said the threatened bombings would be considered unless the insurgents ceased bombing civilian centers behind government Spain's battlelines.

Both France and Britain exerted urgent pressure on the Barcelona government, counselling it to be "calm," but in the face of this appeal the Spanish authorities insist-

Denman Dies Aboard Train

Utility Executive Was Leading Layman In Church Before 1935

CHICAGO, June 25 (AP)—Burt J. Denman, 62, utility executive and formerly a leading layman of the Methodist church, died today, apparently of a heart disease, in his compartment aboard a train. He was returning from a directors' meeting in New York.

Denman, vice-president and general manager of the United Light and Power company, a position that made him operating chief of gas, electric, railway and bus properties in 13 states, resigned from his church duties in 1935 because of an editorial in a church publication.

He became indignant when the paper charged utility companies with using "diabolical methods" to thwart adverse legislation.

A native of Toledo, Denman made his home in suburban Wilmette. He joined the united system after a term with the Detroit Edison Co., and in 1937 moved his headquarters here from Davenport, Ia.

Surviving were his widow, who was visiting in Minneapolis when informed of his death, and nine children.

Feeders Group To Hold Meeting

There will be a meeting of the recently formed Iowa cattle and lamb feeders cooperative organization next Wednesday night at the Montrose hotel in Cedar Rapids, County Agent Emmett C. Gardner announced yesterday.

Details of the organization will be explained by Herman C. Asberg, Iowa representative of the Chicago producers for this district.

They could not keep public indignation in check much longer.

Swift Rebel Raid Leaves 100 Dead

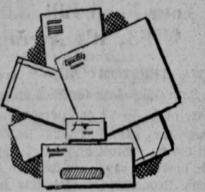

MADRID, June 25 (AP)—A swift 15-minute raid by insurgent bombers today caused an estimated 100 deaths, injuries to 230 persons, and the destruction of 70 buildings in the Spanish government port of Alicante.

Raiders dropped 50 explosive and incendiary bombs before government aircraft could chase them away. The casualties included many women and children who were standing in food lines when the sudden bombardment started.

The master of Alicante harbor declared the raid was not directed against the harbor. The civil governor personally started inspecting the ruins where more bodies were expected to be found.

The outlying workers' quarters were subjected to especially heavy attack by the raiders in five German-type machines.

(Barcelona dispatches said insurgents again bombed Valencia, destroying several buildings including the Finnish consulate.)
