Rural Residents Of Iowa Depend on Radio For National News

News of national importance enters the homes of small Iowa towns and farm residents via radio — the spoken word, rather than the printed word.

An Iowa rural radio listener survey for 1938, conducted by H. B. Summers of Kansas State college, with the cooperation of University of Iowa field workers, has definitely determined this fact.

Using printed questionnaires and the personal interview technique, 42 field workers from the university and from Iowa State college visited 5,000 homes, 65 per cent on the farm and 35 per cent in small towns.

They found that 71.4 per cent of the farm women, 74.5 per cent of the farm men, 58.9 per cent of the small town men and 67 per cent of the small town women depend upon broadcasts for national news.

The study showed that city daily newspapers are depended upon for national news in this order for four groups: 20.7 per cent, 39 per cent, 19.5 per cent and 23.3 per cent.

Summer Dessert Favorite

By Marian Van

ANY time of the year finds the chocolate log roll cake dessert popular, but it is particularly welcome in summer when jaded appetites need extra stimulation. A chocolate roll becomes a real attraction with its rich chocolate color circled with a white filling of whipped cream or white icing. Sometimes the family or guests prefer it a la mode with ice cream on top of the slices instead of whipped cream, especially if the day is very warm. Another variation is to put a spoonful of spiced apple sauce on top of a slice and top that with a bit of whipped cream. One can find many interesting ways to use chocolate roll as a favorite summertime dessert. Here is the recipe for making this grand log roll:

- Chocolate Log Roll
- 1/2 cup flour
- 6 tablespoons cocoa
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 4 eggs, separated
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Sift flour and add cocoa, salt and baking powder. Sift together. Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon colored. Beat egg whites, adding sugar gradually. Add vanilla to yolks. Fold in whites. Fold in flour mixture gradually. Mix carefully into smooth batter. Pour into greased paper-lined pan 12 inches by 15 inches. Bake in moderately hot oven (400° F.) 15 minutes. Remove from oven and trim crusts from edges. Turn from pan on cloth covered with powdered sugar. Remove paper and roll quickly. Allow to cool in towel. Unroll and fill with whipped cream or seven minute frosting. Reroll and wrap in wax paper until ready to serve. Place in refrigerator.

The history of the proposition, which is: Resolved, that the United States should ally with Great Britain, will also be considered on the program.

Prof. Orville Hitchcock, a visiting instructor in the speech department from the University of Akron, is in charge of the group.

Americans Seek Laughs

NEW YORK, June 27 (AP)—The vast amount of energy Americans are willing to spend to get a good, hearty laugh is "pathetic but promising," Leon Mones told the nation's English teachers today.

He said the fact that America was so "energetically in search of the comic," proved that the country was creative and basically sound.

"Never before," said Mones, at a session of the National Education association convention, "has human ingenuity been more lavishly or scientifically devoted to the business of manufacturing food for laughter."

"The vast energy we expend in our search for the comic is a very pathetic yet promising portent. Democracy in America is safe as long as Americans laugh at pictures of beetle-browed mustached dictators agitating crowds."

Mones, principal of the Cleveland junior high school, Newark, N. J., suggested schools might be "missing an opportunity in the enterprise of creative education by failing to emphasize education for laughter."

Nearly 20,000 teachers and school officials are attending the convention, which has scheduled scores of group meetings and 750 addresses.

The convention theme is "the responsibility of education in promoting world citizenship."

Dr. Caroline S. Woodruff, president of the association, said it was "the mightiest privilege of the schools" to educate their children for peace through understanding.

Archeologist Former Wrestler Digs For Relics

By The AP Feature Service
AUSTIN, Tex.—Erich Frederick Pohl thinks he's unique. He's the only man in the world, says he, who makes his living exclusively by unearthing and selling remains of North American aborigines.

Pohl once was Olympic wrestling champion. He also has been a newspaperman. He went into excavating for archeological relics in an amateurish way. Now, as a professional, he estimates he has dug up more than 3,000,000 articles, many of them exhibits in museums.

Crews of Diggers

Nothing amateurish about his work these days. He employs large crews to do his digging. His wife is his assistant in the field.

Pohl locates likely sites. Indians, he remarks, invariably camped near a fresh water supply, out of reach of floods and usually in a sheltered spot. Bluffs are likely locations. This helps him decide where he'll hunt.

After picking his spot, he clears and surveys it, then stakes it out in five-foot squares. He sinks a ditch to the lowest level of possible discoveries — for sometimes he finds remains of tribes of one age in layers over those of another. He keeps a vertical bank on the ditch and from this his crews dig under, breaking the strata carefully.

The soil they turn over is sifted in a machine of Pohl's designing. Mrs. Pohl keeps track of the exact location of all finds, classifies them, and helps in marketing them.

Difference of Opinion

Anthropological authorities of some universities and museums don't think much of Pohl's activities. On the other hand, there are museums and collectors who rely on him.

Pohl has worked in Illinois, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Tennessee, Mississippi and Kentucky. But his favorite hunting grounds are in Texas.

"The Texas artifacts," he has found, "are the finest in the nation."

Tapestry Shakespeare Scene In Iowa Union

A piece of needle-point tapestry worked by Mrs. Maria Claussen of Hoboken, N. J., depicting a scene in Shakespeare's "King Henry VIII" is now on display in the Iowa Union lounge.

The materials for the work were all imported from Germany. During one phase of the construction, Mrs. Claussen herself made a special trip to Germany in order to secure the exact shades and colors of the thread needed.

The faces and hands of the characters are all done in petit point; the jewels and lace are of silk thread, and the queen's hair alone contains 32 shades of grey.

The work was started by Mrs. Claussen in 1880 and finished in 1883, at which time she was almost blind. She herself chose the frame and the gold leaf scroll work within the frame.

The piece was loaned to the university by the children of Mrs. Bertha Rasch of Big Rock, Ia., a niece of Mrs. Claussen.

Prof. Savage Will Give Talk At 7:30 Tonight

Illustrated Lecture Will Discuss Greek Art and Mythology

Charles Albert Savage, professor-emeritus in the Classical languages department of the University of Minnesota, will present an illustrated lecture at 7:30 tonight in the senate chamber of Old Capitol, under the auspices of the Classical languages department of the University of Iowa.

Professor Savage will discuss "Mythology and Greek Art." Lantern slides will illustrate his topic.

A round table discussion on "Values in Foreign Language Study" is scheduled under the direction of Professor Savage at 4:30 p.m. tomorrow in the senate chamber.

The speaker was born in Stockbridge, Mass., in 1866. He received his B.A. degree from Johns Hopkins university in Baltimore, Md., in 1895, and his Ph.D. from the same institution in 1903.

He was instructor of Latin from 1899 to 1903 at the University of Minnesota, and professor of Greek beginning in 1909. He was also chairman of the department beginning in 1917.

A member of the American Association of University Professors, Professor Savage is the author of "The Athenian Family," which was published in 1907. His home is in Minneapolis.

Prof. Loehwing Will Give Lecture Tonight On Plant Science

Prof. Walter F. Loehwing of the botany department will present a lecture tonight on recent developments in plant science at the University of South Dakota in Vermillion.

Professor Loehwing has been invited to speak before the summer session graduate students of the university.

The University of Iowa botanist left last night for Vermillion.

Bose to Give Third Lecture To Discuss Chinese Literature, Language Today at 3:10 P.M.

A birds-eye view of Chinese literature, and of the language itself, will be presented by Dr. Sudhindra Bose, lecturer in the political science department, at 3:10 this afternoon in the house chamber of Old Capitol.

The lecture is the third in the summer series on Oriental contributions to civilization.

Samples of Chinese literature, which dates from the 11th century B. C., will be read, both in Chinese and in English.

Yu-Lai Chan, graduate student in the political science department, will sing the Chinese national anthem, and will recite some of the outstanding Chinese lyrics in his native tongue.

Rodney Ericson of the speech department will read the material in English.

Dr. Bose will explain how the Chinese language developed from picture writing, with a demonstration of writing technique on the blackboard. From its earliest beginnings, a great abundance of the literature has accumulated. The Chinese language has no alphabet.

This afternoon's lecture will augment those which have gone before — considerations of the eastern religious and philosophical point of view as compared to that of the west, and a discussion of the gradual meeting of the two civilizations through past centuries.

Among China's distinctive fishes is the Yangtze beaked sturgeon, found only in the Yangtze and its tributaries. Its nearest relation is the spoonbill sturgeon of the Mississippi.

Browns Lose 9-4 Game To Chicago Sox

Veteran Teddy Lyons Hurls for Pale Hose; Steinbacher Homers

ST. LOUIS, June 27 (AP)—The St. Louis Browns slipped further into the American league cellar today, bowing to the seventh-place Chicago White Sox, 9 to 4, in the first of a four-game series.

The Browns continued to be impotent at the plate. Veteran Ted Lyons allowed them only six hits until the eighth inning and then eased up as his mates had built up a comfortable lead.

Harland Cliff lifted his eighth home run of the season into the stands in the first inning. Hank Steinbacher got a four-bagger in the park in the seventh.

Jonathan Stone Lost to Nats For Season

WASHINGTON, June 27 (AP)—Jonathan T. Stone, one of baseball's best outfielders, is out of the game for the season.

Clark C. Griffith, president of the Washington Senators, said Stone had a troublesome bronchial ailment. Stone has been a Senator for four years.

Johnny hit 230 last year and his speed and strong throwing arm made him one of the best defensive outfielders in the American league.

This year he couldn't get started. When he was benched last week because of poor health, his batting average was a weak .235.

Physicians at Georgetown hospital, where Stone has been confined since Manager Bucky Harris sent him here from Chicago, said he showed "great courage" to have played at all.

They had prescribed a long rest for the quiet, unassuming outfielder. He may take it at his home at Tullahoma, Tenn.

Stone's absence from the Senator lineup will be sorely felt. As a regular with Washington he has never hit below .315. Harris has used him in the clean-up spot against right-handed pitchers, shifting him to fifth position against left-handers.

With Johnny out of the line-up, the veteran Al Simmons has been playing left field. If Al continues his terrific batting spree, Harris will use him in Stone's position for the rest of the season. If he should slump, Harris has Goose Goslin and Rookie Taft Wright.

Chicago Cards Sign Two New Grid Men

CHICAGO (AP)—Ed Lesnick of Berlin, Wis., football center at Illinois State Normal, and Jonathan Bilbo, guard at the University of Mississippi have signed with the Chicago Cardinal professional football team, Coach Milan Creighton announced yesterday.

BITS ABOUT SPORTS

By SCOTTY FISHER

It's too bad that Bush Lamb couldn't have been on hand yesterday to help the Big Ten track team in its one-sided meet with the Pacific Coast stars. Lamb has on several occasions thrown the javelin farther than yesterday's winning toss of 204 feet 6 inches. And with the poor third place mark of 174 feet, 7 5/8 inches, he would have been a cinch to place.

South Dakota papers are doing everything they can to help two native sons, Dick Anderson of Yankton and Bob Lannon of Winner, to get on the squad for the annual All-Star football game.

When the University of Wisconsin crew crossed the finish line in fifth position yesterday afternoon at Poughkeepsie in the college championship regatta, the Badgers completed their most successful year in athletics in more than a decade, not only from the standpoint of victories but in general accomplishment.

Under the tutelage of Harry Stuhldreher, the football team last year drew gate receipts 25 per cent larger than those of the previous year. The Badgers lost but three games and lost by more than one touchdown to only the powerful Pittsburgh eleven.

Under Stuhldreher's direction, the concrete stands on the west side of the stadium were completed, including a modern press box and radio booths. The fieldhouse was completed by the installation of a second balcony, marking the first major improvements on the structure since it was built in 1929-30. The latter move proved to be more than justified when 13,003 spectators, a record crowd in Wisconsin basketball history, saw the Wisconsin-Purdue game at Madison and 14,300—the largest crowd ever to attend a college boxing match—jammed the fieldhouse to see Wisconsin's final boxing match against Washington State.

Boxing, incidentally, is one of the main sports at the Badger institution. Attendance for the six home matches averaged over 10,000 with three matches attracting over 11,000. The Wisconsin team came through a tough seven-match schedule against some of the best teams in the country undefeated and untied to put forth a good claim for the unofficial national collegiate championship.

The 1939 championship boxing tournament of the National Collegiate Athletic association, the high point of the year in intercollegiate boxing, has been awarded to Wisconsin, the event to be held next March 30, 31 and April 1. Originally held only in Olympic years, the N. C. A. A. tournament has been an annual affair since 1936. The meet annually draws about 60 contestants who are the outstanding stars of college boxing from every section of the country.

Wisconsin will have more than usual interest in the tourney in that only two of the eight members of last year's crackerjack team will be lost by graduation and the Badgers will be gunning for fresh laurels and the unofficial team title.

Anything that even hinted of professionalism in college boxing was removed last week when the boxing rules committee of the N. C. A. A. revised the boxing code to eliminate every possible danger or objection to boxing as a college sport.

It's hard to see why Ken Keltner, Cleveland's sensational rookie third baseman, was overlooked in the All-Star selections. Oscar Vitt, the Indians' manager, gives him another year or two to become one of the ranking stars in baseball and credits him with furnishing most of the spark that is keeping the Tribe at the top in the American league. Add to that recommendation his batting and fielding record and you have a real ballplayer.

Fans Wonder About Lineups For All-Star Spectacle July 6th

NEW YORK, June 27 (AP)—Now that the American and National league squads have been selected for the sixth all-star game to be played at Redland field, Cincinnati, July 6, fans have turned their attention to speculating on the players Manager Joe McCarthy and Bill Terry will name for their starting line-ups.

Except that he intends to use Johnny Vander Meer, the double no-hit game star, and Ernie Lombardi, both of the Reds as his opening battery, Terry has given no indication of how the National leaguers will line up at the start and neither has McCarthy ventured an opinion as to the American league team.

While the Americans will rely largely on the same heavy hitters who have helped win four of the five previous clashes, the older circuit will feature newcomers. Only 10 of its 23 players have participated in all-star games before.

For the first time since the game has been an annual feature, the National league has chosen freshmen. Besides Vander Meer, Frank McCormick, Cincinnati first sacker, is a first year man. The American league set a precedent by naming Joe DiMaggio two years ago while he was in his second season with the Yankees.

Four Seeded Players Advance In Clay Court Tennis Tournery

CHICAGO, June 27 (AP)—Four seeded players, including Bobby Riggs of Chicago, the defending champion, and Joe Hunt of Los Angeles, 1937 runner up, advanced to the semi-finals of the national clay courts tennis tournament today after the event had been held up three successive days because of rain.

Riggs disposed of Harold Surface of Kansas City in straight sets 6-3, 6-4, 9-7, and tomorrow will meet Bryan "Bitsy" Grant of Atlanta, three-time winner of the event. Grant was extended five sets today before winning over Wilbur Coen of Kansas City, 6-3, 7-5, 2-6, 1-6, 7-5.

In the other bracket, Gardner Mulloy of Miami, Fla., upset Don McNeill of Oklahoma City, the Kenyon college star who is ranked ninth nationally, 6-2, 3-6, 6-3, 6-1. Mulloy's next test will come against Hunt, who turned back Elwood Cooke of Portland, Ore., today, 6-2, 8-6, 6-4.

In the doubles, Hunt and Lewis Wetherell of Santa Ana, Cal., defeated Chicago's Chet and Bill Murphy brother combination, 6-2, 5-7, 8-6, 7-5 in the quarter finals and wound up in the finals as a result of two defaults. Frank Kovacs of Oakland, Cal., and Frank Parker of Los Angeles, defaulted to John McDiarmid, Princeton, N. J., and Ernie Sutter, New Orleans, so they could leave for the tri-state meet at Brown hit five for five and Lanier, Cardinal pitcher, held the home town club to two hits in 8 innings. Pepper Martin went to the box in the ninth and allowed one hit.

Pace-Setting Indians Batter Red Sox, 7-3

Bob Feller Gains Decision Over Boston At Last; Beats Grove

CLEVELAND, June 27 (AP)—The Indians backed up Bobby Feller's classy seven-hit pitching today with a 15-hit attack of their own to trounce the Boston Red Sox 7 to 3 and boost their American league lead to four full games.

Feller, gaining his ninth victory against two defeats for the year, bested the veteran Lefty Grove, who was handed his third setback of the season.

Young Bobby got himself into several tight spots, but pulled out of all of them. He was particularly cool in the third, when the Sox loaded the bases on two singles and a walk, with none out, and then Feller fanned Pinky Higgins and forced Ben Chapman to ground into a double play to end the threat.

Fox's Homers
Again in the fifth, it looked bad, when Jimmy Foxx clouted his 21st homer of the year and Joe Cronin followed with a two-bagger, but again Bobby struck out Higgins to pull through. Altogether, he fanned ten Boston batters.

His mates, meantime, didn't leave the issue long in doubt. After the Sox got away to a one-run lead in the first inning, the Tribe landed on Lefty for two runs in the third, and they were never behind after that.

Hemslie, Campbell Hit
His chief aids in downing the Sox were rollicking Rolie Hemslie, who treated himself to three singles and a double; Bruce Campbell, who had a double and a pair of singles, and Hal Trosky, whose tenth homer of the year brought in two runs in the seventh.

The defeat dropped the Sox a game and a half behind the second place New York Yankees, and left them holding third by a similar margin over the Washington Senators.

Coach Armbruster And Swimmers To Help Dedicate Pool

An exhibition during the dedication of a new outdoor pool at Atlantic Thursday will be put on by Coach David A. Armbruster and two of his University of Iowa swimmers.

The coach will illustrate the evolution of swimming and the swimmers will demonstrate various strokes. Francis Heydt, star backstroke who is training here for the National A. A. U. outdoor championships, and Bob Lowry, breast stroke swimmer, will assist Armbruster.

Allen Hurley, former Hawkeye swimmer; who received an advanced degree in June for swimming research, is in charge of the new Atlantic pool.

Western Stars Win by Huge 101-35 Margin

Big Ten Cinderella Take But Four Of Sixteen Events

By CHARLES DUNKLEY
EVANSTON, Ill., June 27 (AP)—In shadowy twilight descending on Northwestern university's stadium, track and field stars from the Pacific Coast conference overwhelmingly demonstrated their superiority over a picked Western conference squad tonight by winning their second annual dual meet, 101 to 35, before 10,000 spectators.

The westerners won 12 of the 16 events, scoring clean sweeps in the 100-yard dash, and 120-yard high hurdles, the 220-yard dash, the javelin and the broad jump, in addition to capturing, but relays. In their triumph the invaders established four of five new meet records hung up.

The Big Ten team, paced by Wisconsin's remarkable runner, black haired Chuck Fenske, scored only four victories, with Fenske accounting for two of them. The long striding Badger star, rated among the six fastest milers in the world, won the "revenge mile" from Louis Zamperini, rambling Italian from Southern California, by a decisive 12 yards to wipe out the Southern California's victory scored in the National Collegiate meet two weeks ago.

Fenske Wins Twice
Fenske came back to win the 580-yard run in another impressive victory, this time by a margin of three yards. He shared double triumphs honors with Arnold Nutting of California. Nutting won the 100 yard dash in 9.7 seconds, a new meet record, and the broad jump with a leap of 25 feet, 2 inches, wiping out the old mark of 24 feet, six inches made in the first meet between the conferences last year.

The only other Big Ten winners were Dave Albritton the Ohio State Negro star, who won the high jump with a leap of 6 feet 6 5/8 inches, and Walter Mehl of Wisconsin, who won the two mile run in 9:13.5, a new meet mark.

The west coast team got away to a fast start by winning the first three events and from then on the Western conference entrants were looking at the backs of their running rivals or marveling at their skill in the field events.

Jim Humphries of Southern California set a new meet record of 14.3 seconds in the 120 yard high hurdles, and Southern California's red headed speedster, Earl Vickery, eclipsed his meet record in capturing the 220-yard low hurdles in 22.9 seconds.

Collegiate Tennis Tournament Opens
CHICAGO, June 27 (AP)—The fourth intercollegiate distance tennis tournament to qualify 12 singles players and six doubles teams for the national meet July 4-6 opened today on the University of Chicago courts with Bill Murphy of Chicago, seeded third, the first upset victim.

Murphy fell before Milton Reuhl of Western State Teachers at Kalama, Mich., 2-6, 8-6, 9-7 in the second round after being within one point of match victory in the second set.

Helen Jacobs Fools Critics by Downing Peggy Scriven, 7-5, 6-4

By SCOTTY RESTON

WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 27 (AP)—Don Budge marched majestically into the semi-finals of the all-England tennis championships today as Helen Jacobs, Alice Marble and Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fry joined Helen Wills Moody to battle for the United States in the quarter finals of the women's competition.

Utterly irresistible, Budge thrashed the Czechoslovakian, F. Cejnar, 6-3, 6-0, 7-5. Although Cejnar looked like a really good and well equipped player, he was in danger of his life most of the time as the California red head sent his cannonball service booming over the net and dusted the baselines with his powerful drives.

Budge started by breaking Cejnar's racquet with his first service and then went to the net to win the first set after the Czech had showed signs of putting up a fight. It took the American only nine minutes to run out the second set and he took the third after the first 10 games had gone with service.

Austin Wins

Ferenc Puncer of Yugoslavia also gained the round of four by defeating Don MacPhail of England, 6-2, 6-1, 6-1, but all he earned for his efforts was a chance to meet Budge—a none too pleasant task the way Don is going now.

England's H. W. (Bunny) Austin and Henner Henkel of Germany filled the other brackets. Austin whipped Max Ellmer of Switzerland, 6-2, 6-1, 6-2 and Henkel turned back Ladislaus Hecht of Czechoslovakia, 7-5, 6-1, 6-2.

However, it remained for Miss Jacobs to rebuke in public the opinion of the Lawn Tennis association officials, who decided before the tournament started that the 1936 champion was not good enough to be seeded. She has been in the finals here five out of the last nine times yet they seeded Peggy Scriven of England eight.

Helen personally took care of Peggy on the center court to the tune of 7-5, 6-4.

Completely recovered from the recent collapse and using her new forehand with devastating effect, Helen outguffed Peggy in the first set and outclassed her in the second to gain a position as the real dark horse of the tournament.

Just as Miss Jacobs furnished the day's excitement in the women's singles, Mrs. Fabyan and Dorothy May Bundy of Santa Monica, Cal., furnished the fun. From the start to the finish it was a squealing match with Dorothy piping good naturedly and tossing her racquet in the air when long hard hitting rallies ended. Mrs. Fabyan finally won, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4.

For a time it looked like the second upset of the day for in the first set, Miss Bundy had the hardest drives and best angles to her shots. She trailed 1-3 and then won five in a row to take the first set. The daughter of Sutton Bundy insisted, however, on getting in the same hole at the start of the next two sets and this time agile little Mrs. Fabyan didn't let her get away with it.

Alice Marble Wins
Miss Marble had trouble with her service at the start but she finally got used to the sticky turf and eliminated Ruth Mary Hardwick of England, 7-5, 6-4. The former American champion reverted to drop shots to come from behind in the first set and then poured over her service in the second after again getting away to a slow start.

The quarter-final round tomorrow will send Miss Marble against Mme. Rene Mathieu of France. Miss Jacobs will meet Jadwiga Jendrzejowska, Poland's defending champion while Mrs. Fabyan will tangle with Hilda Krahwinkel Pserling of Denmark. Mrs. Moody, who was a round ahead of the field and did not play today, will match strokes with the English southpaw, Kay Stammers.

Rajah Back Hornsby Wants To Produce Winner

By PAUL MICKELSON

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., June 27 (AP)—Rogers Hornsby, the old "Rajah" of the National league, has a new boss who doesn't care whether he plays the "ponies, dominos or checkers as long as he produces a winning ball club."

Hornsby came here today from Baltimore, where he had been coaching the Orioles, to become manager of the Chattanooga Lookouts for Joe Engel, showman extraordinary of the Southern association.

He saw his team whip Knoxville Smokies 4 and 2 and announced he was well pleased with his new job, with his team and especially with his boss.

The Rajah's penchant for betting on the horses kept him in trouble as manager of the St. Louis Browns and during his playing career.

Engel said what Hornsby did off the playing field was the former star's private affair.

Hornsby donned a Chattanooga uniform for the benefit of photographers, but returned to the stands in civilian clothes to discuss individual players with Engel.

He succeeded youthful Walter Millies as manager after the Lookouts skidded deep into the second division.

Engel said the decision rested solely with Millies whether he would remain with the club as first-string catcher.

Frank Bonura, 195, of Milwaukee, Wis., beat Fred Reize, 200, Wichita, Kan., in five rounds and Bill Sal, 149, of Milwaukee, outpointed Wild Bill Hendrix, 144, of Oskaloosa, in another five round bout.

Other results were:
Al Globe, 180 (Los Angeles, Cal.) outpointed Mike Klomp, 178, (Lime Springs) eight rounds and Chester Rudy, 149 (Hollywood, Cal.) outpointed Jimmy Legrone, 144, (Des Moines, eight rounds).

Lee, of Price, Utah, scored the only knockdown of the fight when he dropped Ullmer with a right to the head in the third round.

Chicago, June 27 (AP) — Mower, a five-year-old son of Sickle, made the first dent in spacious Arlington Park's $400,000 worth of purses today by galloping to victory in the $5,000 added inaugural handicap, the huge northside plant's opening feature.

The victor, racing for the Millsdale stable of Chicago, found a heavy and holding track to his liking and under an energetic ride by Jockey Bobby Finerty led all the way to whip Grey Gold, a 25 to 1 shot, by two lengths. The Le Mar stock farm's Marmara was third.

Down The Sports Trail

By PAUL MICKELSON

NEW YORK, June 27 (AP)—Putting two and two together—and getting four — on a rainy Monday:

All stars. . . A check of the opposing lineups fails to offer much more than slight optimism over the chances of a National league victory over the Americans in the all-star baseball classic at Cincinnati, July 6. The Nationals have recruited younger stars who will take the game seriously but you can't give them much of a chance when they have to bat against such pitchers as Bobby Feller, Vernon Kennedy, Lefty Grove and Lefty Gomez, who always seems to reach his peak all-star day.

Manager Joe McCarthy of the sliding New York Yankees can't wait for the game. Last year, the game was dominated by the Yankees, who went right on from there to again win the American league race. After the game, Coach Arthur "Yuh Sed It" Fletcher of the champs said: "We didn't know we were that good!"

Six Yankees have been named on the 1938 American league squad and if the Americans win again with the Yanks, you can look for another Yankee stampede. An all-star conquest is just what the doctor orders for the sluggish Yankee gang.

Rajah. . . Baseballs most restless man, Roger Hornsby, who has played every diamond role from star to villain to forgotten man, gets another chance as manager of Joe Engel's Chattanooga Lookouts. What he will do or how long he'll last is anybody's guess. The rajah's trouble is he knows baseball but not human nature — or the old railroad theme song: "You can beat a horse race but you can't beat the horses."

Strangely, Branch Rickey, once the rajah's most hated enemy in baseball, is his true benefactor. Rickey has worked and talked harder to get Hornsby a job than any 50 men in baseball. Now a man of 42, everyone in baseball, including Judge Kenesaw M. Landis who adopted a tolerant attitude for a change hopes the rajah comes through at Chattanooga and gets back with all his glory as a major league manager. He's too smart a man to keep stumbling all the time.

Par foolishness. . . The palm for the most reckless hero in sport should go to Ralph Guldahl, the twice-in-a-row national open golf champion. After winning the open in Denver, the first Western Open for the third time in succession against the advice of his pro pals. And now, he challenges Denny Shute of Boston, P.G.A. champ, for the undisputed golf championship of the United States. Shute has accepted and the matches are to be played this week.

Guldahl has all to lose and not much to win and chances are he'll get trimmed because Shute happens to be on top of his game today. If Shute wins, he can take Guldahl's thunder and make as much or more out of a dual match as Guldahl can out of his open triumph.

What Guldahl needs is Mike Jacobs as his manager-promoter. Yussel Downtrodden
Fites. . . Right now, the saddest figure in the boxing world is one of its grandest little guys — Joe (Yussel the Muscle) Jacobs, part time pilot of the stricken Max Schmeling. Even Jewish people, sore because Yussel said all was well in Germany, won't talk to him unless it's to borrow some money or to collect bills. And Yussel is taking it hard.

Yet, this corner is convinced he holds the contract with the only fighter in the world who has an outside chance with Joe Louis. That fighter is Two-Ton Tony Galento. Tony, the beer guzzling baron, is a funny man but he can hit and he can take it. But he won't get a match against Louis for a year or two — if then. Louis handlers are smart. They'll wait for all the beer to do it's stuff with Tony's stomach and then offer him a match with the champion.

Max Baer? They're still laying even money around Broadway that Max won't even get into the ring with Louis — and don't waste your dough. If Max fights him, crossing the wise guys up, it'll be in San Francisco.

Nip California By Half Length For 1st Place

Winning Crew Breaks Four-Mile Record At Poughkeepsie

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 27 (AP) — The United States naval academy's courageous varsity crew simultaneously broke the far west's grip on college rowing supremacy and smashed all four-mile records today in a dramatic drive to victory that climaxed the college championship regatta on the Hudson river.

While their injured coach, Charles (Buck) Walsh, watched the finish from a hospital window overlooking the rain-swept course, the midshipmen withstood the pressure of California's closing challenge to win the big race by barely one-third length, a margin of only one and one-half seconds of the official stop-watch.

Washington's famous Huskies, champions for the past two years and heroes of two successive sweeps of the Poughkeepsie regatta, trailed the victorious sailors by fully two lengths.

Columbia Close
The Huskies were hard-pressed to whip Columbia's surprise boatload for third place in a race that saw four of the seven varsity crews surpass the former four-mile record.

Navy signaled its return to triumph, achieving the east's first varsity victory since the Middies themselves led the fleet home in 1931, by lowering the record to the amazing time of 18 minutes, 19 seconds, with the aid of a brisk following wind and a strong ebb-tide.

The Midshipmen wiped out the 18:33 3-5 second set last year by Washington as they came through like "the answer to a coach's prayer."

Navy Coach Injured
Buck Walsh, who cracked his spine in a fall last Saturday night hardly could have asked for any sweeter music than the blast of whistles from six navy destroyers that greeted the Annapolis triumph.

California's time was 18:20 1-5, Washington's 18:25 2-5 and Columbia's 18:27 as "old man river" took a terrific beating from the collegiate sweep-swingers.

Wisconsin's lone entry of the regatta, after battling with the leaders for two miles, finished a strong fifth, with the two upstate rivals, Cornell and Syracuse, sixth and seventh in the varsity pull.

Reward Crowd
Navy not only rewarded a small, chilled and rain-drenched crowd by bringing a large measure of rowing prestige back to the east but the Midshipmen interrupted what looked like another sweep for the brilliant oarsmen from the Pacific coast.

The west coast crews were one-two in each of the preliminary races.

Navy Coach Praises Crew
POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 27 (AP) — Broken in body but tremendously happy in spirit Buck Walsh lay in a hospital room far from the joyous navy fleet on the Hudson today and said: "You can't beat that navy spirit."

Injured in a fall early Sunday morning, the gaunt navy crew coach heard the details of his varsity's smashing regatta victory over the radio. Beside him was his wife, who sped to his side at news of his accident. They were a quietly happy couple.

"They rowed just the way we planned it," said Walsh as the rain beat against the windows. "But all that planning doesn't mean anything unless your crew has the heart to carry out our plans. Believe me it takes something to overcome the handicaps those boys have had. I'm more proud of them than I can say."

Vowed to Win
"They came down here yesterday. I tried to cheer them up, laughed and joked with them, but they had a tough time smiling. Finally they told me they had vowed to win this one for me. I guess you know how I felt when they won. They had to keep me from hiring a cab and getting down to cheer them myself."

"Planned it? Sure we planned it. For two years we've been leading in this race and then Washington would come sprinting up and take the lead away and win. I told them to keep ahead of those Washington and California crews and they did almost all the race."

Michigan State Senior Leading National Collegiate Golf Field

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 27 (AP)—An unheralded Michigan State senior, Edward J. Flowers of Grand Rapids, set the pace today for a record field in the opening qualifying round of the 41st annual National Intercollegiate golf championship.

The tall, husky Michigan Stater, like the 158 other collegians who went to the post out of an entry list of 174, failed to solve the puzzling par of the Louisville Country club, but his one-over-par 72 gave him a stroke at the half-way mark of the qualifying test.

Flowers had several opportunities to give old man par a lacing, but his four 3-putt greens and the loss of two strokes on the 14th hole dissipated his chance to widen his margin.

Five players were congregated just a stroke back of the big Michigan State athlete with 73s, well within striking distance of the medalist trophy that will go to the low scorer at the end of tomorrow's final 18 holes of the qualifying program.

Two University of Michigan entries, Robert Palmer, also of Grand Rapids, and Bill Barclay, of Flint, along with Sid Richardson of Northwestern, Robert E. Bingham of Amherst and Lew Oehmg of Virginia, were deadlocked with 73s.

Palmer and Barclay had erratic nines to blow chances of assuming the first-round leadership. Palmer took 40 blows on the par 36 outgoing side and then came home with a fine 33, the best score of the day on the par 35 incoming nine.

Barclay clipped a stroke off the card for the first nine, but 3-putted the short 15th and lost two strokes with an out-of-bounds at the 17th.

Bracketed at 74 were Jack Robinson of Southern California, Thomas Brand of Michigan State, John Burke of Georgetown, Phil Donahue of Notre Dame and James Black of Washington university, St. Louis.

Nine were grouped at 75, including Paul Leslie of Louisiana State university, president of the Intercollegiate association and runner-up for the championship for the last two years.

He had nines of 38-37 as did Bill Craig of Oklahoma, Wilson Flohr of Dartmouth, Ed Meister of Yale, Stanley Kerkow of Washington and William O'Neill of Northwestern.

Others in that division were William Smith of Georgia Tech, Robert McGlashan, University of San Francisco, and Ralph Sharpless of Texas. McGlashan made the greatest recovery of the 75-shooters, equaling par on the second nine after an outgoing 40.

A total of 57 players scored 78 or better during the day's inaugural shotmaking, with indications it would take around 152 or 153 to get into the championship division of 32 that will start match play elimination with two 18-hole rounds on Wednesday.

On and On Edward Gordon Still In Competition

Like timeless old man river, Edward Gordon, the Olympic broad jump champion of 1932 and winner of some 20 major titles as a University of Iowa athlete, just keeps rolling along to more victories on track and in field.

Now approaching 30 years of age, when most athletes in the sport would consider themselves old, the Negro list Saturday won the broad jump and high hurdles in the Metropolitan A. A. U. championships in New York city. He was third in the high jump.

Gordon will be one of the New York representatives in the National A. A. U. championships at Buffalo next Sunday. The perennial athlete, who paradoxically is competing for the Grand Street Boys' association, is the National A. A. U. indoor broad jump champion.

He is practically as good as ever in the high jump, often leaping 6-3 and 6-4, but his broad jump marks have declined to between 23-6 and 24 feet. Gordon won his Olympic title at 25 feet 3-4 inch. The ex-Iowan is the only athlete ever to win three National Collegiate titles in the broad jump.

TORONTO (AP)—Phil Zwick of Milwaukee scored a ninth round technical knockout over Orville Drouillard of Windsor, Ont., in a 10-round bout at Maple Leaf Gardens last night. Zwick weighed 129 and Drouillard 131½.

Navy Gets Money To Spend on Additions

WASHINGTON, June 27 (AP)—The navy received $42,288,750 today to spend on war vessels, a dirigible and a public works program.

The money was part of a $275,403,263 deficiency appropriation signed by President Roosevelt Saturday and announced by the White House today. The balance will go to meet deficiencies in appropriations for other federal departments.

A portion of the navy's fund—$16,050,000—will be used to begin work on the expansion program authorized by congress. The bill carries funds for two new battleships, an aircraft carrier, two light cruisers, a destroyer tender, a large seaplane tender, two small seaplane tenders, two oil tankers, a minelayer, and two fleet tugs.

Also included were $500,000 for preliminary work on a new $3,000,000 dirigible and $16,252,000 for improvement of shipbuilding and repair facilities.

The act also carries funds for experimental work with small boats as fighting craft.

The personal pronoun "I" makes up less than two per cent of common, ordinary speech, linguists say. Obviously, their survey and study could not have included political speech.

5 Testify For State in Trial Of E. Amelon

Policemen Describe 'Standing' Test For Judging Intoxication

Three Iowa City policemen and two state patrolmen testified yesterday afternoon for the state in the trial of Earl Amelon before Judge Harold D. Evans on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

After the jury had been selected, County Attorney Harold W. Vestermark questioned Patrolmen James Ryan and George Hall, who arrested Amelon the night of April 10, and Night Captain Art Schneebelen concerning the condition of the defendant at the time of the arrest.

All three policemen said he was "intoxicated."

Sergeant Edgar Faber and Ivan Franklin of the state highway patrol each told the jury the results of a "standing" test, which the patrol use to determine drunkenness, showed an intoxicated condition when applied to Amelon.

Patrolman Franklin, to explain the "standing" test, said the suspect is directed to stand erect, close his eyes and incline his head backwards. A normal person will weave a very little in this position, but one who is intoxicated will lose his balance, the patrolman maintained.

The jurors selected by the county attorney and Defense Attorney E. A. Baldwin to hear the trial are George Wray, Ida M. Hughes Luez, Frances Brown, Lou H. Kaufman, Tracey Forbes, Mary Michel, Mary Eden, Milo Riddle, William Arndt, Frank Svoboda, Frank Pudil and Libbie Carlton.

Britain, France Warn Japan 'Keep Hands off Hainan Island'

Nations Eye Eastern Interests in Spite Of Tension in Europe

LONDON, June 27 (AP)—Britain and France made known today a warning to Japan to keep hands off strategic Chinese island of Hainan, off the south China coast, and a pledge to act together to handle any "complications."

The two governments showed bluntly that they were keeping jealous eyes on their interests in the far east, despite their preoccupation with diplomatic troubles in Europe.

Richard Austen Butler, under-secretary for foreign affairs, told the house of commons of the warning, and a foreign office spokesman in Paris confirmed France's readiness to stand with Britain.

The two governments told Japan that if she persisted in a reported intention to land troops on Hainan there would result "undesirable complications" and that Britain and France would act as the circumstances demanded.

The disclosure was made in the commons as dispatches from Tokyo said the British ambassador, Sir Robert L. Craigie, spent a half-hour today, discussing Anglo-Japanese relations with the Japanese foreign minister, Gen. Kazushige Ugaki.

Hainan is directly opposite northern French Indo-China, and lies close to the route between Hong Kong and Singapore, Britain's far eastern strongholds.

Chinese reported that Japanese troops tried to land on the island Sunday but were repulsed by machine-gun fire.

Butler's disclosure to the commons answered a question from Capt. Alan Graham whether the government would assure the French they "will have the active assistance in order to restrain Japanese armed forces from endangering the security of French Indo-China by occupation of Hainan or adjacent islets?"

War in Chaco Looms Again

Arbiters Attempt To Prevent New Battles In Boundary Dispute

BUENOS AIRES, June 27 (AP)—A new threat of war between Bolivia and Paraguay over the dismal Chaco wilderness grew tonight, as representatives of six neutral countries struggled to prevent a breakdown in territorial negotiations.

The neutrals are trying to fix a definite boundary to end a century-old dispute over the Chaco area, as large as continental Italy but of doubtful economic value. Paraguay's aspirations to retain nearly all the territory gained in the three-year war from 1932 to 1935, and refusal to yield Bolivia a port on the upper Paraguay river deadlocked the conversations.

The neutral conferees here fear war any minute if the negotiations break down completely, because both Bolivia and Paraguay have been rearming to the extent of their financial power the past three years — although they were forbidden to do so under the armistice protocol of 1935, which was under-written by Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Peru, the United States and Uruguay.
