City School Board Approves Budget Of $955,314 for Year

Millage Will Rise Probably Only 2 Points

Estimate Includes Allotment for New High School Building The estimated school budget for the coming year, it was announced last night, amounts to $955,314.86 as compared to 1937-1938 expenditures of $239,580.77. This means that $218,313 will have to be raised by taxes — $191,900 for the general fund and $26,413 for the school house fund. Despite the rise of more than three times the current budget, the millage will probably only

$450 To Fly To London

Planes Will Resume Survey Flights Over Atlantic to England

By DEVON FRANCIS Associated Press Aviation Editor NEW YORK, July 15 (AP)—Commercial airplanes will resume "survey" flights across the north Atlantic next week, and prospects are good that the common citizen with enough cash for a ticket can reach Europe by air this autumn.

The trip from New York to London will require about 24 hours. The fare probably will be $450. A first class ticket in the liner Queen Mary costs $316, tips extra. European rearmament and highly involved political considerations have delayed the establishment of regular airliner service between Europe and America for at least four years.

Seaplane Ready To Fly Atlantic

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., July 15 (AP)—Britain's unique pick-a-back seaplane Mercury was pronounced ready today, after a successful 2,040-mile endurance test, for its first Trans-Atlantic flight next Wednesday.

The pick-a-back is an experimental "composite" magazine comprising two complete planes, a large "parent ship," named Maia, and the small, speedy Mercury, joined to the Maia's back by secret devices.

The long-range Mercury has enough power for a 210-mile an hour speed in the air, but is unable to take-off from water level alone with sufficient fuel for a long trip. It is built to "take-off" in the air, from the Maia's back, at about 3,000 feet. Thus handled, it has a flying range of more than 4,000 miles.

Newton Waits For Decision Of Arbiters

NEWTON, Ia., July 15 (AP)—Strike developments at the Maytag Washing Machine plant here awaited tonight the decision of Gov. Nelson G. Kraschel's three-man arbitration board which is preparing its report for submission to him.

B. F. Kauffman of Des Moines, chairman of the board of the governor set up in a "last attempt" to find a peaceful settlement of the strike, said no decision was expected at least until after midnight tonight. Judge Homer A. Fuller of Mt. Ayr, left here today to attend the republican state convention in Des Moines, and said he would return here tomorrow.

'Time' Obtains Guild Contract Concerning Editorial Employees

British Prevent New Rioting

JERUSALEM, July 15 (AP)—Trucks of British troops manning machine guns streamed through the twisting streets of ancient Jerusalem tonight to forestall possible new disorders arising from explosion of a bomb in a crowded bazaar.

Twelve Arabs were killed and at least 29 were wounded when the bomb burst among throngs of Arab peasants in David street market place. The incident was one of the most serious in the 11 days of Jewish-Arab disorders in the Holy Land.

Casualties since July 5 have totaled at least 372. Of these, 29 Jews and 66 Arabs were killed, and 176 Arabs and 101 Jews were wounded. Police closed all gates of the old city after the market place explosion. Soldiers with fixed bayonets forestalled a threatened riot among Arabs who had come to the city for Friday morning prayers in a nearby mosque.

At Peace Officers' Annual Dinner

Over a hundred peace officers from all parts of Iowa attended the annual banquet, one of the concluding features of the short course, in the River Room of Iowa Union last night. Joseph B. Keenan, assistant attorney general of the United States, standing, spoke to the gathering before officers adjourned to hear him speak on the west front of Old Capitol. Fred Kraschel, extreme left, spoke briefly at the dinner, extending the greetings and regrets of his father. Official business caused Governor Kraschel to cancel his anticipated trip to Iowa City to speak at the dinner. Seated between Kraschel and Keenan is Thomas W. Keenan, a member of the state board of education, while Prof. Rollin M. Perkins of the college of law, administrative director of the Iowa short course, is seated at the right. Lieut. Edward F. Burke of the Eastman Kodak company in Rochester, N. Y., sang at the dinner.

FARLEY SPEAKS TO YOUNG DEMOCRATS AT SEATTLE CONVENTION

SEATTLE, July 15 (AP)—Postmaster General Farley called upon young democrats tonight to "give us a Roosevelt congress" this fall to insure continuance of the new deal's program. In a prepared speech to the national convention of the Young Democrats of America Farley said: "The political complexion of the next congress will determine whether the president shall carry out the mandate you yourselves have given him. If the opposition is successful all it can do will be to paralyze and the administration of government in one of the most critical periods in the nation's history. The real symbolic leader of the moribund party, Mr. Hoover, has made his weak appeal; Mr. Landon has reiterated the arguments that fell like clods on the casket in campaign of 1936. But amid all the tumult... we have yet to hear one definite pronouncement of the program they would substitute for that of Franklin D. Roosevelt."

Senate to Probe Misuse of Funds In Three States

WASHINGTON, July 15 (AP)—A double-barreled federal investigation was in prospect tonight into charges that federal and state funds have been misused in the Kentucky primary battle between new deal-favored Senator Barkley and Governor Chandler.

The senate campaign funds committee voted late today to investigate campaigns in Kentucky and Pennsylvania, and disclosed that it already had sent an investigator into Tennessee. Previously, the social security board had ordered an investigation in Kentucky after Senator Barkley had accused state social security agents of playing politics with pension checks. Officials said the security board would look immediately into reports forwarded by its regional agents that checks for the needy were being distributed personally by agents of the state social security department, instead of by mail as usual. Federal officials said there was no federal law or regulation against state employees distributing pension checks, but that the board preferred their delivery by mail.

Keenan Speaks At Old Capitol

ATTORNEY REPLACES GOVERNOR KRASCHEL AS BANQUET SPEAKER

Accusing American lawyers of being largely responsible for the failure of the United States to recognize and meet the labor problem of the nation until the past few years, Joseph B. Keenan, assistant attorney general of the United States, spoke last night on the west front to Old Capitol to University of Iowa summer students and Iowa peace officers of the second annual short course. The assistant attorney general gave his address after he had taken the place of Gov. Nelson G. Kraschel, formerly scheduled to speak at the annual dinner of the peace officers in Iowa Union, but unable to attend the dinner because of official business. Keenan asserted that agricultural sections of Iowa and the middle west cannot bring about complete prosperity until the labor disputes of the industrial areas are settled. He vigorously criticized that part of the American legal profession which has sought the Roosevelt administration and its drive to secure recognition of the right to collective bargaining. "No peace time shift of economic rights has caused so much furious emotion and furious battling as has occurred in the last four years," he said, "while the enlightened conscience of a people has been cramping down the throat of the law as effective a production for the interests of the laboring class as government has without opposition been permitted to give to the farmer. "Why all this now? Simply because we have tried to do in four (See KEENAN, page 6)

Prof. Stuit Will Begin Faculty Duties Aug. 1

PRESIDENT GILMORE CONFIRMS APPOINTMENT OF NEBRASKA MAN

As the third addition to the University of Iowa's psychology department faculty since April, Prof. Dewey B. Stuit will come from the University of Nebraska Aug. 1 to begin his duties as associate professor. Appointment of Professor Stuit was confirmed by President Eugene A. Gilmore yesterday after his resignation from the Nebraska faculty had been announced from Lincoln.

Professor Stuit won recognition in his field for his work in tests and measurements, student personnel, vocational guidance and remedial reading and has had the results of his research widely published in scientific journals. In addition to his teaching experience as associate professor of educational psychology at Nebraska, the 30-year-old professor taught for two years at Carleton college in Northfield, Minn. He was trained at the University of Illinois, receiving bachelor of science, master of science, and doctor of philosophy degrees there. He is of Dutch ancestry and is married.

On Sept. 1, Carl I. Hovland of Yale will become associate professor in the psychology department, while on July 1 Dean George D. Stoddard of the graduate college assumed his new duties as head of the department.

Save Homes At Auction

MINERS PIT MEAGER SAVINGS AGAINST PURSES OF OUTSIDERS

SOUDAN, Pa., July 15 (AP)—Grim-faced miners, pitting their meager savings against the fat purses of outside buyers today saved most of their homes as this southwestern Pennsylvania mining village went on the auction block. The mine which had furnished jobs for the 130 families worked out, the Valley Camp Coal company was abandoning the pit and selling the property at auction. Double houses brought as high as $650 and single frame structures as low as $85. At the end of the six hour sale Auctioneer F. S. Moran estimated tonight the properties all sold in individual units, brought approximately $30,000. This includes a store and office building, a blacksmith shop and some lumber.

"Fathers purchased homes, either the ones they lived in or others," reported R. K. Leickliter, a house maintenance boss here for 12 years. "Now married sons will move in with them." The spirits of the men were greatly raised by the sale. Auctioneer Moran commented: "Such a sale is a god send to American people."

New York Man Gets Post In Surprise Move

PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES SELECTION AFTER ALL DAY YOSEMITE TRIP

EL PORTAL, Cal., July 15 (AP)—President Roosevelt today appointed Elmer Andrews, New York state industrial commissioner, to administer the new wage-hour law. The announcement of Andrews' appointment came late in the day at El Portal, after Mr. Roosevelt had made a daylong tour of Yosemite national park.

Press Secretary Stephen Early said that Andrews had "extensive experience" with wages and hours in his job as New York labor commissioner. Andrews was assistant New York labor commissioner while Mr. Roosevelt was governor of New York. He was named commissioner by Governor Lehman. The appointment came as a surprise to many persons. Andrews had been among those least-mentioned for the job. The appointment of an easterner was a disappointment to many southerners who had hoped that a resident of their region would be named. Under the wage-hour law, a differential between sections of the country may be made. Eastern legislators had urged that no differentials were necessary but southerners had contended that some considerations should be given their section of the country. Weeks-long speculation had brought the names of scores of persons into the discussion as to whom would be appointed the wage-hour administrator.

Andrews Accepts With Optimism

NEW YORK, July 15 (AP)—Elmer F. Andrews, who has been a crusading industrial commissioner for New York state and a supporter of new deal labor legislation, accepted with optimism tonight his appointment by President Roosevelt as administrator of the new wage-hour law.

Despite his many battles with industry in New York state, Andrews predicted he would enforce the federal act "by cooperating rather than police power, at least in the initial stages." Andrews believes the wage-hour act is "the most important piece of legislation of the Roosevelt administration," and said he felt that all industry would cooperate with its administration. He will start his new job just as soon as he can leave his present office—in a month or so. As administrative head of the state labor department, he campaigned for the wage-hour law, wanting it passed without the north-south differentials that ultimately were woven into the legislation.

Refugees U. S. Sends Observer Into Germany

EVIAN-LES-BAINES, France, July 15 (AP)—The United States sent an official observer into Germany today, at the end of the 32-nation refugee conference, to gather information for a report on the situation of potential refugees in greater Germany. George Brandt, who holds the rank of consul in the American foreign service and who was attached to the American delegation at the conference, left under instructions from the state department for visits in Berlin, Vienna, Stuttgart and Hamburg. A spokesman for the American delegation said Brandt's mission would be "to gather information from American sources concerning the number and type of persons who desire to leave Germany under the sponsoring of the permanent refugee organization established by the Evian conference in London." He is to report to that body after its members assemble Aug. 3 in the British capital. The conference, which President Roosevelt called, ended 10 days of discussions.

Lieutenant Governor Vacancy Filled By Convention Delegates

DES MOINES, July 15 (AP)—Iowa republicans settled their state convention contests quickly today by nominating candidates for two state ticket offices on first ballots after naming B. B. Hickenlooper of Cedar Rapids for the lieutenant-governor vacancy without bothering with a roll call. The convention made the November race for state superintendent of public instruction an all-woman proposition by nominating Miss Jessie Parker of Lake Mills. The other ticket vacancy, that of state commerce commissioner, went to Barr Keshlar of Shenandoah. The democrats nominated Miss Lucy E. Hall of Newton for state superintendent in the June 6 primaries. The convention's resolutions, passed after most of the delegates had left the hall, included the following labor statement: "We are unalterably opposed to the sit-down strike and we wish to commend President Green of the American federation of labor for his condemnation of that practice." Miss Parker, formerly a rural schools official under Miss Agnes Samuelson, present state superintendent, received 1,879 of the 3,282 delegate votes on the first ballot. A total of 1,642 were necessary to nominate. Cornelia C. Hodges of Keosauqua polled 814 votes for the post and Charles F. Martin of Maquoketa, the third candidate, received 588. Keshlar, who exhibited unexpected strength in northern Iowa counties, went over with a bang by piling up 2,102 votes on the first ballot.

Wallace Asks Cut in Wheat

WASHINGTON, July 15 (AP)—Secretary Wallace asked American wheat farmers today to cut their 1939 plantings about 32 percent to prevent greater surpluses from complicating the problems raised by this year's bumper crop. As an inducement for reducing their seeds acreage from 80,000,000 for 1938 to 55,000,000 for next year, the agriculture department will offer growers benefit payments which may total $125,000,000. The national, 55,000,000-acre allotment—the minimum allowed under the new crop control law—will be divided later among wheat producing states and counties and then distributed among individual farmers under formulas set up in the farm act. Growers are not required to comply with allotments, but only those who do so are eligible for maximum benefit payments and government loans authorized by the legislation.

Inquest Into Death Of Heiress Ordered After Conference

TORONTO, July 15 (Canadian Press)—Attorney General Gordon Conant tonight ordered an inquest into the death last Wednesday of Mrs. Maybelle Horlick Sidley, 61-year-old heiress to the Horlick Malted Milk fortune. The action followed upon a conference between Conant and police officials. No reason was given for ordering the inquest, which was set for July 26. Mrs. Sidley died at the home of W. Perkins Bull, Toronto lawyer.

The Romance of News . . .

Little more than 100 years ago, people had a difficult time finding out what was happening elsewhere in the world—even in other parts of their own state. This unbelievable condition existed because there was no means of transmitting information. There were few daily newspapers. The word "Reporter" had not come into usage. If you want to know how and why you now can read of events only a few minutes after they happen anywhere in the world, then turn to page 8 for the story on the 90th anniversary of news gathering. This newspaper is a member of The Associated Press, world-wide news association, which is mentioned in that full-page illustrated feature.

Flyers Travel 'Celebrity Trail' Amid Cheers

Hughes and Four Globe-Circling Companions Are Modest as New York Gives Boisterous Greeting

By SCOTT HERSHEY NEW YORK, July 15 (AP)—From the battery — jammed with sweltering humanity — through the canyons of the financial district, up lower Broadway through delirious, wildly-cheering crowds, Howard Hughes and his four world-girdling companions rode today to the acclaim New York reserves for heroes it has taken to its heart. It snowed as the triumphant procession snailed through packed streets — snowed ticker tape and torn telephone directories and note paper and pamphlets — as they traveled the "celebrity trail" to the city hall. Modest men were these scoffers at time and distance whose ears still rang with the bedlam that greeted them yesterday when they landed at Floyd Bennett field after they had flown around the world in three days and 19 hours. He asked, with quiet fervency, that the flight not be regarded as a stunt. He reviewed the careful preparations and said 200,000 engineering hours had gone into the record-breaking plane. "I have been asked what the purpose of the flight was," he said, "and my answer is that if it succeeds in bringing the fliers of the world together in closer cooperation, then it has accomplished something worth while. "There is a kinship among fliers of the world over," he said. Mayor La Guardia told Hughes and his crew that "we can hail your splendid record without detracting one bit from previous ones established by other fliers." Then through the pressing crowds the Hughes party left city hall after their ride up from the battery, through the canyons of the financial district and up lower Broadway. Financial giants waved from skyscraper windows side-by-side with book-keepers and stenographers. Businessmen and bums, shoppers and idlers were all in the 75,000 who jammed Broadway and the 35,000 or 40,000 around city hall. Behind screaming police sirens, the procession swung north from city hall, across to lower Fifth avenue and up Fifth avenue which has seen longer parades but never one received like this one since the days when Jimmy Walker was mayor, when Lindbergh first flew the Atlantic, when Gertrude Ederle conquered the English channel or Byrd flew across the north pole.

Indicate China's Army May 'Bear' Watching

IN THEIR discussions of the Sino-Japanese war, many Americans have shown a tendency to marvel at the stubborn resistance offered by the poorly armed Chinese army to the highly-mechanized Japanese machine.

The resistance has seemed all the more remarkable because strict Japanese blockades of the Chinese ports which have made it all but impossible for war materials to enter China.

Some, professing to be experts in this field of military strategy, have called this feat the greatest example of defensive warfare the world has ever known.

Recent news items have seeped out of the Orient, however, which have tended to take a little credit from the embattled Chinese troops.

These dispatches have revealed the secret of China's long stand; they have bared the inner workings of the Chinese war machine.

Among other things, these dispatches indicate that the Chinese military forces were about to receive 200 long range super-bombers in a single consignment from Russia.

That Russia has created a great military establishment in Siberia is known to all the world. These vast preparations have been placed in Siberia in readiness for the great Russo-Japanese war.

Such a conflict now appears out of the question. Japan, already deep in debt in the war with China, does not dare attack Russia and thus heap more coals of fire on her own head.

Russia, it seems is not quite ready for the Japanese, and, therefore, it is taking the easier path and letting China bear the brunt of the Nipponese peril.

While no one would attempt to take any glory away from the heroic Chinese, still it is significant to note that the roaring attributed to the Chinese dragon is in reality coming from the Russian bear hiding behind the dragon.

Common Fallacies About Hair Corrected by Dr. Clendening

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D.

That men who have a great deal of hair on the body are possessed of great physical strength.

There is no correlation between the growth of hair and vigorous bodily health. Some of the great strong men, such as Sandow, had almost hairless skin on the body.

That hair grows after death. Erasmus Wilson, one of the great dermatologists, wrote as follows: "The lengthening of the hairs of the beard observed in a dead person is merely the result of the contraction of the skin toward the roots, and not a vital process continuing after the death of the individual; indeed, it is identical with a similar pushing of the hair which is known to take place in posthumous plaster casts; a mere result of contraction of the plaster, and occurring where growth from nutrition could never be suspected."

There is an old idea, widely prevalent, especially in Canada that if a man shaves his upper lip his eyesight will weaken. In fact, our Canadian neighbors are quite convinced that the reason why so many Americans wear glasses is that moustaches are not so commonly worn here as in Canada. The officers and soldiers of the British army were ordered not to shave the upper lip until during the World War.

Why men wear beards and moustaches will always remain a mystery, although it is probably equally a mystery why they shave them off. The vogue of the moustache, beard and whiskers has had its ups and downs in historical times. In Egypt, where shaving was practically universal, artificial beards were worn on solemn occasions.

We know from the Bible that in patriarchal times to pull or strike the beard was a grave insult. When Peter the Great, among his many reforms, ordered his officers to shave their beards and moustaches, he encountered tremendous opposition because the masses and the pious of all ranks thought this was a sinful defacing of the image of God.

When David Livingstone returned to London and was feted at the Mansion House, he wore a moustache, about which one of the daily papers remarked: "He came braving the prejudices of his countrymen and thus evincing a courage only inferior to that exhibited by him amongst the savages of Central Africa."

WASHINGTON WORLD

By CHARLES P. STEWART Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON—A scheme of Representative Hamilton Fish Jr., to have Al Smith run for the United States senate in New York state as an independent democrat, but with a republican endorsement, doubtless is highly unlikely to be realized as a concrete political development.

However, it certainly is a fascinating suggestion. Suppose Al actually were to make such a run and that the republicans did endorse him. Would that not run up the Empire commonwealth's campaign in unprecedented fashion? In fact, it would have national repercussions. Major ones, too. Indeed, major-issimo.

Some More "Its" And if Al were to be elected? If he declared his candidacy and had G.O.P. backing he MIGHT win. From what I hear from New York, the G.O.P. there stands no chance with anybody except him. To be sure, Republican Chairman John D. M. Hamilton is on record in opposition to letting any democrats into the G.O.P. fold except AS republicans. On that basis he welcomes them enthusiastically. Still, perhaps he would make an exception in Al Smith's favor. "Ham" Fish, who has considerable influence, says it would pay him to do so.

Republicans who linger in Washington thus far (quite a few of them remain here, as at a strategic point) simply yell for Al, if they can get him, on almost any terms.

An Anti-F. D. R. Thorn They show some sense.

At Harvard they've perfected a mechanism which exerts a pressure of 750,000 pounds to a square inch. This would interest Max Baer, who says he really wishes to fight Joe Louis.

Hainlines To Meet in Men's Singles Finals

Final Rounds in Meet Are Dominated by Illinois Players

By SCOTTY FISHER Daily Iowan Sports Editor Playing a consistently steadier game than her rival, Blonde Peggy Kerr of Hollywood, Cal., yesterday afternoon won the women's singles title of the Mississippi Valley tennis tournament by defeating Carol Mundhenke of Dubuque in the final round, 6-3, 6-2. Miss Kerr had little trouble in winning the first set but encountered stubborn resistance in the second set when her brunette opponent refused to admit defeat though the set stood at match point several times. The Dubuque girl played erratically, often driving the ball out of bounds several times while attempting to put away a point. Semifinal matches in the men's singles went along as expected with Top-seeded Dick Hainline of Rock Island, Ill., experiencing little difficulty in ousting Ken Johnson of Moline, 6-1, 6-2, to enter the finals. Hainline last week defeated Harris Coggeshall of Des Moines to win the Iowa singles crown.

'LET ME OUT' Grove Is Angered By Doctor's Orders

BOSTON, July 15 (AP)—The famous fiery temper of Bob (Lefty) Grove flared as of old tonight as feeling and pulse returned to his numbed pitching arm. Grove, improving steadily as the blood vessel spasms quieted in his aging but effective salary wing, became wrathful when Dr. Edward J. O'Brien, the Boston Red Sox physician, advised him to remain in St. Elizabeth's hospital for a second night. "You'll be out of here in the morning," the physician promised his famous patient. "You bet I will," Grove replied, "and I'll be back in uniform in the afternoon and I'm going to work out, too." Dr. O'Brien has authorized Grove's return to duty but he instructed Manager Joe Cronin to force Grove to go easy with his flipper until he is certain it has regained its normal strength.

Athletics Trip Indians, 5 to 4 Behind Ross

PHILADELPHIA, July 15 (AP)—Buck Ross won his fourth game of the season for the Athletics today, gaining a 5-4 victory over Cleveland when his teammates staged a three-run rally in the eighth. The Indians broke a 2-2 tie in their half of the eighth when Hal Trosky doubled to score Heath and Averill, only to see the A's rally with two out in the last half of the inning to win.

The Giants announced he will serve in that capacity for the unexpired 18-month portion of his three-year contract. He was ousted as Jersey City manager last night, and Hank Deberry was named as his successor.

Thornton Lee Paces Chisox To 11-3 Victory

CINCINNATI, July 15 (AP)—Johnny Vander Meer's jinx over the New York Giants ended today. After three straight setbacks at the hands of the double-no-hit sensation, the National league champions beat him and the Reds, 3-2, to climb within two percentage points of the loop lead. BITS about Sports

By SCOTTY FISHER

According to Backfield Coach Ernie Nevers, who has just returned from the Pacific coast, the 1938 U. C. L. A. football team will be much stronger than their summer information bulletin indicated and it certainly didn't paint a dark picture. With U. C. L. A. first in line for the Hawkeyes this fall, followed by Wisconsin, Chicago, Colgate, Purdue, Minnesota, Indiana and Nebraska in that order, the Old Gold card next year is a perfect "suicide schedule."

Big Ed Davis of Peoria, Ill., injected a bit of color into the Mississippi Valley net tourney yesterday with his hard-driving style of play. Davis and his partner, Ken Black, won the doubles event in 1935 and were runners-up in 1936. Ed has also won the individual title, in 1933 and 1935, beating out Dick Rugg the latter year. Today's doubles match between Davis and Black and the Hainline brothers should be plenty interesting to watch.

Well, it seems that the time-honored question about the condition of Dizzy Dean's ailing soupbone will be answered tomorrow when The Great One takes the field against the Boston Bees. The doctors say his arm is still sore but Diz says he's ready to go. Tomorrow night will be a better time for arguing the point.

After leading the field since the opening day, it looks as though Cleveland is on the downgrade at last. The hitting is still there but the Indians can be very much of a contender all the way in but the pitching seems to be the weakness of the club right now. With Feller and Harder out one day and cold the next and with four or five hurlers on the staff that do little but relief work, Johnny Allen is about the only twirler that Manager Oscar Vitt can really count on.

Johnny Vander Meer, the Dutch Master, took one on the chin from Bill Terry's indefatigable Giants yesterday to prove that even the best of 'em can't win every day... Those "colorless" Giants seem to have a habit of bobbing up with pennants while the other teams get the headlines.

There are nine days left in which to cast your ballot to help land an Iowa player on the All-Star football team to oppose the Washington Redskins Aug. 31. Ballots are pouring in but they can't come too fast. University of Chicago football fans expect John Davenport of Cedar Rapids to be one of the Maroons' most effective ball-carriers this year. Davenport is the Big Ten indoor and outdoor sprint champion.

Wood Tries Comeback FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (AP)—Sidney Wood, one of the best only a few years ago, is making a tennis comeback and hopes to be named on the U. S. Davis Cup team for the international matches this year.

Larry French Twirls Bruins to 3rd Straight Win over Philadelphia

CHICAGO, July 15 (AP)—Chicago's Cubs continued their effective pitching of Larry French defeating the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-1, before a ladies day crowd of 21,968. The victory gave them a sweep of the three-game series. French permitted 10 hits in scoring his sixth win of the season.

Sammy Snead, Paul Runyan In P.G.A. Final

SHAWNEE-ON-DELAWARE, Pa., July 15 (AP)—Little Paul Runyan and Slugging Sam Snead today reached the title round of the National P. G. A. championship, and tomorrow will match accuracy and keen putting against power and length in the 36-hole final over the Shawnee Country Club course. They won by widely divergent routes. Runyan, the 1934 champion, beat Henry Picard of Hershey, Pa., 4 and 3, and Snead turned back Jimmy Hines of Great Neck, N. Y., 1 up. Runyan won the first hole of the morning round and stayed out front for the rest of the match. Snead, taking a 6 on the par 5 17th in the morning, went to lunch one down, came back in the afternoon to wipe out Hines' lead on the 19th, go 2 up at 27 holes, and win the match with an eagle on that same hole that had been so costly four hours earlier. That eagle, scored on two fine shots to the green, hole high and 15 feet away, put Sam, playing in the P. G. A. for the second time, one up with one hole to play. Hines might have squared matters on the 36th, a 234 yard one shotter, but lost the opportunity when his tee shot, although on the green, stopped 30 feet from the pin. With Snead only 10 feet away,

Mrs. Staats to Play Ottumwa Southpaw for State Golf Title

MASON CITY, July 15 (AP)—Ruth Smith, 17-year-old Ottumwa southpaw, and Mrs. Nelle Staats, Davenport veteran, today fired their way into the 36-hole championship match in the Iowa Women's golf tournament tomorrow. It will be the first appearance for a left hander in a final match in the Iowa tournament history. Miss Smith, a junior in high school, did the expected by eliminating Mrs. Joe Furnas of Des Moines, 5 and 4, but Ann Casey of Mason City, another 17-year-old youngster, was upset by Mrs. Staats, 2 and 1. Miss Casey entered the match the favorite because of her victory over Indy Morton, tournament medalist, yesterday. The Ottumwa girl had easy going most of the route as she built a 5-hole lead on the first nine and maintained her place on the second nine. Mrs. Furnas had to wait until the 10th hole to win her first hole of the match, but Miss Smith came right back to halve the 11th and win the 12th. The Casey-Staats match was bitterly fought, although the Davenport player held the lead from the fourth hole to the end. Ann won the first hole, but Mrs. Staats took the second and went ahead on the fourth never to be overtaken.

Confirmed Cyclist MARINETTE, Wis. (AP)—Joseph Duxbury began riding bicycles in 1895 and has kept it up ever since. He estimates he has covered about 200,000 miles in the four decades. Jimmy knew he had to putt boldly, and did. But his ball went four feet over the hole and Sam, playing it safe, got down in the regulation two putts for a half, the match and a crack at his first national title.

Loses in Semifinals

Picture here is Peggy Kerr of Hollywood, Cal., seeded No. 1 in the women's division of the 'Sippi tennis tourney who came through as expected by upsetting Carol Mundhenke of Dubuque in the finals, 6-3, 6-2.

Finals of the men's singles will be at 2 o'clock this afternoon with the men's doubles finals scheduled for 4 o'clock. W. T. Swenson, manager of the tournament, announced yesterday that a small admission fee would be charged for today's final matches.

Hemlock Bowl NEW YORK (AP)—There is talk of leaving the Long Island City boxing bowl the Hemlock Bowl. For since it was built in 1932 no champion has successfully defended his crown there. Seven new titleholders have been crowned.

Three Colts Favored GOSHEN, N. Y. (AP)—Three colts are favored in the fluctuating odds on the Hambletonian stake of Aug. 10 at 3 to 1. Those best liked to win the $40,000 purse are Mr. Will, Blair and Dale Hanover, champion juvenile of 1937.

Pittsburgh's Loop Lead Over New York Cut To Two Percentage Points

PITTSBURGH, July 15 (AP)—Luke (Hot Potato) Hamlin cooled off the Pirates today and pitched the Brooklyn Dodgers to a 9 to 4 victory over the National league leaders.

The defeat, coupled with the New York Giants' victory in Cincinnati, shaved the Bucs' lead to a slim margin of two percentage points over the New Yorkers. The win gave the Dodgers the series, two games to one.

Between 1912 and 1914, Leo Dick won letters in football, basketball, and track. Now he is a dentist in Oakland, Ia. Donald Hines of Cedar Rapids was a football guard and tackle between 1924 and 1926 and served several seasons as an assistant Iowa coach under Bert Ingwersen. He's an attorney now.

A survey of "I" club members in Iowa shows that there are 135 in 56 Iowa towns. Des Moines has the greatest representation with 21, while there are 13 in Cedar Rapids. Davenport, Iowa City and Mason City each have eight.

Down The Sports Trail

By PAUL MICKELSON

NEW YORK, July 15 (AP)—Now that there's some doubt as to the locale of the 1940 Olympic games, it is next to astonishing that not a word has been received yet from America's perennial bidders, who'll bid for anything, anywhere, anytime. These gay promoters, in the past, have set all records for promotional ventures and it's high time we heard something from: Floy Fitzsimmons... This maestro of promoters never misses a bet ordinarily. Floyd, operating from his Benton Harbor, Mich., precincts has promoted about everything from heavyweight championship fights to flea circuses. And if he needs a partner, "City Slicker" Murphy, who owns one of the House of David teams, would be a willing ally in the venture, especially if our world athletes would go in for whiskers.

Mayor of Johnstown, Pa... Nothing has been heard from him but reports are he's lapsed into a shy silence since he invited the bonus army to visit Johnstown a few years ago. Though everyone considered it was just an idle invitation, the bonus army fooled everyone by actually accepting the invitation and crowding into Johnstown.

Japan's Athletic Tragedy

Nippon Sport Leaders Worked for Years To Secure Olympic Games

NEW YORK, July 15 (AP)—Japan's war with China made abandonment of the Olympics inevitable, but there's a tragic side to picture. Within the last 10 years no other country in the world has so enthusiastically developed sports interest and talent. Award of games to Tokyo fulfilled long-cherished dream of Japanese athletic leaders, who had to overcome seemingly insurmountable obstacles to get the prize, only to have it crumble in their hands. Dr. Jigoro Kano, who fathered Japan's first Olympic appearance (1912) as well as the national sport of "Judo"—post-graduate jiu-jitsu—died on his way home from the last I.O.C. congress at Cairo. The Japanese have adopted American baseball, taken up tennis with sufficient skill to reach the Davis Cup challenge round (1922), and shown remarkable progress in golf. Their Olympic plunge first attracted real attention in 1928, at Amsterdam, and has been marked by extraordinary development in both track and field sports and swimming. ## Doerr's Homer Gives Red Sox 5-3 Triumph

BOSTON, July 15 (AP)—Bobby Doerr's four-run homer in the sixth inning today provided the Red Sox with the wherewithal to defeat the St. Louis Browns, 5-3, in the series' opener.

The Browns, beaten in nine of their 10 starts against Boston this season, had a 3-1 lead until Doerr blasted his third circuit drive of the year. Bewildering confusion surrounds the future of the Chicago Cubs' pilot, whose team has skidded from near the top of the National league standings down to fourth place. "Manager for a day" apparently was his latest title, despite the two victories scored yesterday over Philadelphia which snapped a six game losing streak. "Charlie will manage the team at least until tomorrow," said Owner P. K. Wrigley with a smile as he emerged from his latest conference with Grimm. Later, he said he "wouldn't fire Charlie unless I found a better manager, and I haven't found a better one yet." He emphasized, however, that he was not going to "back Charlie up" by offering to renew his contract at this time. "I did that in other years when things went wrong but I'm not going to do that now," Wrigley said. "The other system didn't work and perhaps this one will. Naturally, when a team which figured to win the pennant continues to lose, there is room for investigation. I'm not satisfied with the Cub's showing and I intend to find out what's wrong and remedy the difficulty." If Grimm, manager of the team since 1932, was worried about losing his job he wasn't showing it. "Quit?" he chuckled when asked if he was disheartened. "Say, I've never quit on anything in my life and I'm not starting now. Maybe this is a losing battle but I'll stand up there and take it until it's over and it won't be over until the boss says I'm through."

CHICAGO, July 15 (AP)—The $185,000 right arm of Dizzy Dean, inactive for more than two months, except for physicians' diagnosis, will undergo a new test Sunday—against the Boston Bee batters in the first game of a double header. Manager Charlie Grimm of the Chicago Cubs said "We have to find out something how his arm is. He used to go good against Boston. So it will be Boston." Last Monday Owner P. K. Wrigley had ordered Dean to be ready to pitch within a week. Grimm made his announcement after watching Dean warm up today. Dizzy accepted readily although conceding there still was some soreness in his right shoulder. SCENES FROM LAST SATURDAY'S PLAY NIGHT REPRESENT TONIGHT'S ACTIVITIES AT THE WOMEN'S ATHLETIC FIELD AND GYMNASIUM

Tonight is play night again, and we present a series of pictures taken at last Saturday night's session at the field house. Similar activities will spotlight tonight's session on the women's athletic field and at the women's gymnasium. About 400 are expected tonight, and there's room enough for all. The picture at the extreme left was taken in the midst of a heated volleyball game, while the next in line is a closeup of a number of players (count the hands) awaiting the drop of that big pushball just a few more inches. Aha, what do we have here! Are we dreaming or is that a basketball! It can't be, if those are normal size children, and they seem to be. "I'll bet if we had just a couple more kids we could lift this thing." Ping pong is another sport that has been a favorite with play night enthusiasts, and the picture on the right shows a game in action. Details of tonight's activities are in the hands of members of the class in community recreation, under the direction of Florence Owens, a visiting lecturer in the women's physical education department. For those who don't care to dance tonight, half a

250 Officers Will Return to Stations After Week's Study

To Close Iowa Peace Officers' Short Course

Surpasses Session Of Last Summer In Every Department

Back to their home police stations, sheriffs' offices and patrolmen's beats will go more than 250 officers this afternoon, their knowledge about combatting criminals with scientific methods greatly augmented by the University of Iowa short course.

With an increased enrollment and a complete lineup of topics and laboratory sessions, the 1938 short course has surpassed the initial one of last summer in practically every department, according to officials.

The enrollment up to noon yesterday was 252 men. At the final session of the short course this morning, each officer will be awarded a certificate of attendance.

Harold Gessell of the Polk county sheriff's office in Des Moines will open this morning's activities with a discussion of handwriting and typewriting identification.

The round table discussion, led by Assistant Attorney General Joseph Keenan, at 9 o'clock this morning in the house chamber of Old Capitol, is the second session of the peace officers morning program.

At 10 o'clock, Prof. Mason Ladd of the college of law will speak on the topic, "On the Witness Stand," and certificates will be awarded at 11 o'clock to officially close the short course.

Mitchell Advocates Securing Cooperation

Advising assembled peace officers to take the public into their confidence, making them aware of what they are trying to accomplish in order to secure their cooperation, Iowa's Attorney General John Mitchell appeared on yesterday's short course program.

The attorney general pointed to a general growth of interest on the part of Iowa peace officers during the past year as evidence of the importance and worth while quality of the Iowa short course.

He expressed the view that future law officers will be specially trained for their individual duties, and that their efficiency would be increased by freedom from administrative pressure.

J. P. Wall of Minneapolis, assistant district supervisor of the bureau of narcotics spoke on phases of that field yesterday morning. Exhibiting samples of narcotics, the expert explained the ways in which addicts use narcotics and spoke of the history of narcotics.

He named environment and association with other drug addicts as the principal causes of addiction of drugs, but he pointed out that one may become addicted through continued use of narcotics in the "treatment" of diseases or ailments. The speaker revealed that addiction to drugs is not evident from outward appearances — only when the drug has been denied the victim for some 24 hours.

He spoke of the harmful effects of the widely regarded marijuana, and of its commercial importance in the manufacture of hemp and bird seed.

Dr. Fred Jarvis of the surgery department of the college of medicine concluded his discussions of first aid yesterday morning with a talk on the treatment of fractures. He advised officers not to move patients until splints have been applied to fractures, pointing out methods of locating fractures and of treating them.

Prof. Rollin M. Perkins of the college of law, administrative director of the short course, dealt with the common misinterpretations of legal expressions and discussed improvements in Iowa statutes on summons and in executing warrants and arrests by peace officers in his talk on "Arrest, Search and Seizure" yesterday.

Prof. Mason Ladd of the college of law illustrated differences between direct and circumstantial evidence, pointing out that circumstantial evidence is often more forceful than direct, and is often more reliable.

E. Harkness of the automobile protective and information bureau concluded the afternoon's activities with an address on "Auto Theft."

Singers To Appear Monday

Here is the male quartet which will form a part of the Heidelberg singers group, scheduled to present a concert in the main lounge of Iowa Union at 8 p.m. Monday. Under the direction of Frank Bennett, famous Chicago choral director, the singers will present a concert of the finest of choral music, with specialties taken from the popular musical comedies of the day. During the past four seasons, the Heidelberg singers have made some 1,000 public appearances. Two soprano, one mezzo-soprano, and two contralto voices blend with those of the regular male quartet to form the octette.

The Music Study club will present Florizel von Reuter, internationally famous violinist, in a concert at 8:15 tonight in the auditorium of the Methodist Episcopal church. The concert is being given for the benefit of the club's newly-created scholarship fund.

Since he began his public appearances he has played over 3,000 concerts in all countries of Europe, South America, the Orient and has appeared before as many as 10 of the ruling monarchs, being repeatedly decorated. A special distinction conferred upon him by the Queen of Roumania was the permission to use the baronial title, Queen Carmen Sylva was a great patroness of his, as were also King Ferdinand of Bulgaria and Queen Alexandria of England.

He also played as a boy before Sultan Abdul Hamid of Turkey. During the war he was director of the Zurich Music academy in Switzerland. Twice he returned to the United States during this period, once when 10 years of age, at which time he played for President Theodore Roosevelt and also with the Boston Symphony orchestra; the second time in 1926, when he played in New York, Boston and Chicago. In 1930 he was appointed leading teacher at the Vienna State Academy of Music, where the title of professor, in Europe a government title, was conferred upon him by the Austrian government. He remained in Vienna until 1933 when he resigned his position.

Syphilis Tests Increase Here During '37-38

DES MOINES, July 15 (AP) — More syphilis blood tests were made at the state hygienic laboratories in Iowa City during the year ended June 30 than during any other year since the service was inaugurated in 1918, Dr. Walter L. Biering, state health commissioner, announced today.

A total of 78,098 blood tests were performed during the year, exceeding by more than 27,000 the previous high mark of 50,501 set in the 1926-27 fiscal year. Forty thousand one hundred sixty tests were made in 1936-37.

Figured on the basis of an eight-hour day, the figures show that the laboratories made a syphilis blood test every two minutes during the last year.

Dr. Biering said the increase in blood testing offers encouraging proof that the enlightened national spirit of combating this disease has caught hold in Iowa, but that the state has far to go before syphilis will ultimately be tracked down.

"The increase in testing seems to indicate a first spurge of response to the syphilis campaign. Educational efforts must be continued and expanded. Especially in Iowa, the campaign must reach into outlying areas. Incidence of syphilis in suburban areas presents a serious problem. Cases are fewer but difficult to trace."

HOSTESS HINTS

Summer is the season when tasty sandwiches are in demand. Fillings delicate in flavor, texture and color make sandwiches a popular part of the menu of either light lunches at home or of picnics. Since the filling is the important item for consideration, here are four delicious spreads for sandwiches. Each of these recipes will make 24 sandwiches.

Cheese-Chill Filling 1-2 cup white cream cheese. 1-4 teaspoon chopped parsley. 1-4 teaspoon salt. 1-8 teaspoon paprika. 4 tablespoons soft butter. 3 tablespoons chili sauce. Mix ingredients with a fork and spread on very thin white bread slices.

Cress Rolls 24 slices white bread. 1-3 cup butter. 2 tablespoons chopped cress. 1-8 teaspoon salt. 1-8 teaspoon chopped parsley. 1-8 teaspoon celery salt. 1-8 teaspoon paprika. Crisp cress. Place bread slices on a flat surface. Cut off the crusts. Mix butter, chopped cress and seasonings until soft and creamy. Spread on bread and quickly roll up. Wrap in waxed paper. Chill until serving time and then insert fresh cress in the ends of each roll.

Meat Medley 1-2 cup chopped cooked veal. 1-3 cup chopped cooked smoked ham. 1-3 cup chopped cooked beef. 1-4 teaspoon salt. 1-8 teaspoon chopped parsley. 1-8 teaspoon paprika. 1-8 teaspoon celery salt. 4 tablespoons salad dressing. Mix ingredients with a fork. Spread on buttered bread slices.

California Filling 1-2 cup chopped candied orange peel. 1-3 cup chopped candied pineapple. 1-2 cup pecans, shredded. 1-2 cup white cream cheese. 1-8 teaspoon salt. 1 teaspoon lemon juice. 4 tablespoons cream. Mix ingredients until soft. Spread on white or graham bread slices.

Caxton Works To Be Shown

A display illustrating the influence upon printing and English literature of William Caxton, first English printer, may be seen in the Roney library in Schaeffer hall from 3 to 5 p.m. every week day until the close of the summer session.

Two rare pieces are included in the display: a leaf from an imperfect copy of the first edition of Chaucer's "Canterbury Tales" printed by Caxton in 1478, and a leaf from a copy of Caxton's translation of "The Golden Legend," printed at Westminster by Wynkyn de Worde, associate and successor to Caxton.

The most extensive of the translations undertaken, "The Golden Legend," according to Caxton, was made from a Latin, a French and an English version.

Bible stories were introduced, passages required by the liturgical use of the church, the whole probably being intended for actual use in church services.

William Caxton translated some 20 works—more than 4,500 pages. Facsimiles and illustrations are shown of "The Recuyell of the Histories of Troy," "The Fables of Aesop," the moralized "Game and Plays of the Cheese," "The Mirroure of the Worlde," and Ovid's "Metamorphoses."

Dance Classes To Demonstrate Tuesday Night

A demonstration by classes in movement techniques and dance composition will be given at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the women's gymnasium under the direction of Ruth Murray, visiting faculty member from Wayne university.

The first part of the program will consist of techniques in modern dance styles performed by members of the class in technique.

The second part will be dances which have been composed by members of the class in dance composition. Among these dances will be two pre-classic court dances, a pavane and a courante, three dances in folk style, a theme and variations and several solo dances.

The demonstration is open to all university students and to the public.

Johnson County Women's Chorus Has Rehearsal

Thirty-five Johnson county farm women, composing the Johnson county farm bureau women's chorus, yesterday afternoon had their weekly rehearsal at Youde's inn.

Organized two months ago, the chorus is under the leadership of Mrs. M. M. Crayne of Iowa City and Mrs. M. F. Sullivan, chairman of the chorus.

Several public appearances are planned by the group this year. The county-wide farm bureau picnic in early August will probably hear the group for the first time.

Plans also have been made for an appearance at the annual 4-H club pageant Aug. 17.

Keenan--

(Continued from page 1) years a job which we should have done over 30 years. And why have we had to wait those 30 years? In honest truth because of the law and lawyers."

He said that lawyers owe recognition, not only to labor, but to the community. "Rear guard actions may bring fees to lawyers," he said, "but they can bring nothing but uncertainty and maladjustment to the community as a whole."

Keenan told his listeners that the supreme court would undoubtedly have held the Wagner labor act unconstitutional if President Roosevelt had not made his fight upon the court last year.

The longstanding oppression under which union labor has been held was attributed to congress' failure to amend the original Wagner act to give employers additional rights, particularly holding unions responsible for breach of contracts," the speaker insisted.

"Against such background it is easy to see the practical fears of labor unionists against the easy logic of those who want to make union funds responsible for damages for break of contracts with employers. To the advocate of labor who remembers that history of the attitude of the courts and the employers, such a legal responsibility upon unions can be made to mean the practical paralysis of unions."

Any formula for settling this most dangerous problem of our time has to take into account as a fact that largely because of the attitude of the law and lawyers we have lost costly and critical years in the long and difficult process of developing orderly and responsible industrial relationships through which alone the problem can be solved."

Judge Would Mark Bad Check Passers

BOSTON (AP)—Persons unable to establish their identity will be thumb-printed when they cashed checks, if a suggestion of Judge Paul G. Kirk, former state commissioner of public safety, becomes effective. Kirk suggests putting the thumb-prints on the back of checks so they can be compared with records of more than a thousand known passers of worthless checks, when fraud has been committed. Most passers of bad checks, Kirk asserted, had been arrested and their fingerprints are on file.

Alderman Finds He Won't Have to Stoop

BUTTE, Mont. (AP)—Joe Duffy, city alderman, who is tall and doesn't like to stoop, told his fellow members of the city council they should pass a law to make downtown business houses raise their awnings so a tall man wouldn't have to duck them. When the other councilmen failed to act, he perused the city's laws. Soon he announced: "There's been a law on the books for years that awnings must be 7 1/2 feet above the sidewalk." Scarcely an awning in town conformed to the law.

The Story Behind a 90th Anniversary

Twenty-seven Presidents ago, young Sam Topliff braved Boston's dark harbor in a rowboat to report on one of the encounters out of which grew the War of 1812. In 1828, sailing sloops replaced rowboats and raced each other to deliver news. Still later, carrier pigeons became news hawks.

Fixed bayonets sweep Nippon's flag into a shell-smashed Chinese village. . . . Lights burn at 10 Downing Street while Britain grapples with an empire crisis. . . . An heiress elopes with a hog caller. . . . The Department of Justice uncovers a new nest of international spies . . . and even as these events occur detailed accounts stream over 285,000 miles of Associated Press news wires to 1,400 member newspapers all over the nation.

Do you know the 90-year story of this AP?

On a black November night in 1811 young Samuel Topliff shoved his rowboat into Boston Harbor to learn the cause of distant cannonading. His perilous trip—guns of a British fleet were sounding the prelude to the War of 1812—was the first systematic attempt to gather news.

Out of that plucky beginning grew the first important news gathering organization, founded in 1848. It was called The Associated Press. The year 1938 marked the 90th anniversary of that name in newspaperdom.

In Topliff's time there were few daily newspapers; they printed little news because they had no way of obtaining it. There were no big cities, no telegraph, telephone, oceanic cable, wireless.

As the country grew, mechanical means for transmitting news developed apace with a mounting demand for public information. The years, however, showed one potential flaw in the early news gathering system. It was a proprietary commercial organization and there was the danger that private interests might prostitute the news for personal profit.

One far-sighted publisher, Victor Lawson of the Chicago Daily News, recognized this peril. A staunch believer in the need for an uncontrolled press, he led what has become known as "The Revolution of 1893." This ended the old private news monopoly. In its place, Lawson and his allies set up the new Associated Press—first and only world-wide, non-profit, cooperative news gathering organization, dedicated to ideals of accuracy and impartiality.

In 1900 AP's maximum news output was 15,000 words a day to 612 members. Today 1,400 member newspapers are linked in a 285,000 mile wire network which transmits 200,000 words every 24 hours.

Once the AP staff was a mere handful. Today 100,000 men and women, directly or indirectly, help gather and transmit each day's report. Once $10,000 covered AP's budget. Today it exceeds $10,000,000 annually, yet the organization makes no profits, declares no dividends.

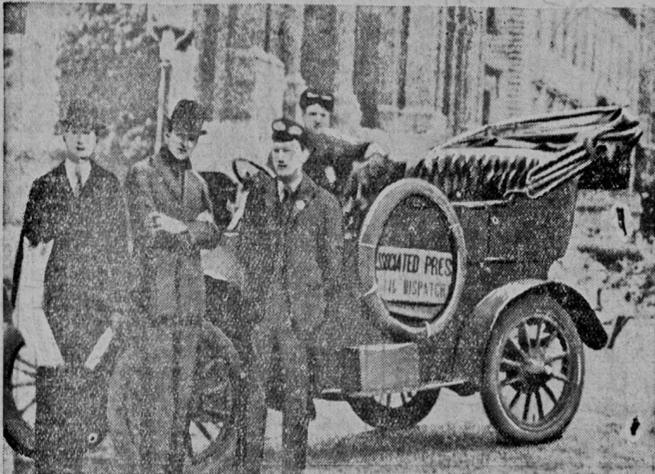

In every country, in every state, news bureaus operate. In virtually every hamlet on the globe there is a correspondent. Bureau staffs range from a single reporter to as many as 500 employees.

All this is a far cry from Topliff's primitive day. Not the least of today's wonders is Wirephoto, which transmits AP pictures from coast to coast with the speed of light.

A Board of Directors, composed of eighteen publishers, is responsible to the membership. In active charge of the world-wide organization is the General Manager. Throughout newspaperdom he is familiarly known as "The Managing Editor of The World."

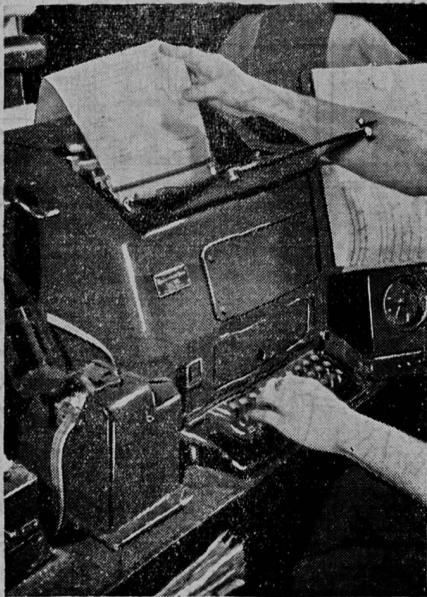

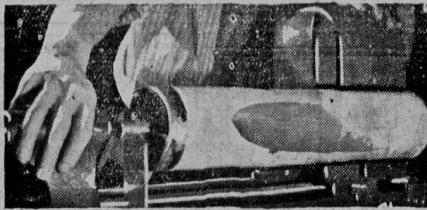

Next came pony express to connect New York and Washington, with 24 horses racing night and day. They galloped woodland trails, swam rivers. In 1844, science stepped in. Samuel F. B. Morse's first telegraph tick-ticked the famous message "W-H-A-T H-A-T-H G-O-D W-R-O-U-G-H T!"

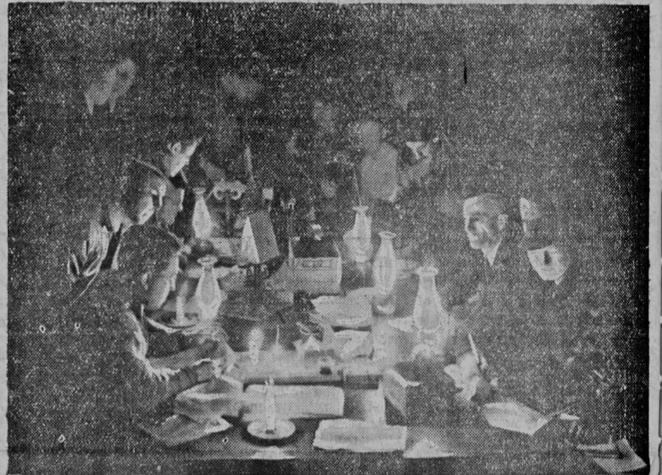

Over an ever-widening web, news hummed across the nation. The San Francisco earthquake occurred in 1906. The auto around which the AP news staff congregated is outmoded today, but it was ultra-modern then. Now even foreign correspondents use the latest method of transportation—the airplane.

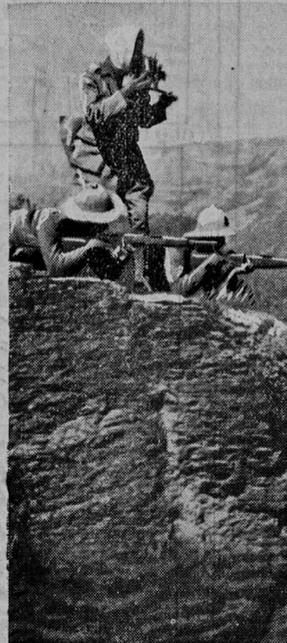

The first AP foreign correspondent entered Europe in 1866. Today, thousands of American-trained reporters cover and cable every piece of foreign news to New York for relay over the vast wire network of member papers. One correspondent penetrates the Ethiopian war zone; another turns delivery man to reach the Duke of Windsor and his bride in their guarded chateau.

Thousands of automatic machines rush all the news to waiting front pages. The machines never stop; the offices never close. Through the greatest transmission feat of modern times, WIREPHOTO machines also send pictures over parallel circuits. Thus, news and pictures now ride the wires side by side destined to reach millions of newspaper readers only minutes after any event, anywhere.

No matter where news breaks—a reporter is there to get the story. . . . Tireless reporters and editors work at candle-lighted desks in darkened flood areas. They're equally alert at political conventions. Coverage of elections is so accurate that the government accepts AP's findings weeks in advance of the official count.

Photographic history was made during the Civil War with pictures of soldiers on the march. But as late as 1890, papers considered news pictures a fad. Now, hundreds of cameramen risk their lives in perilous places, side by side with reporters. In war-torn Ethiopia, one cameraman follows the troops; another rides a steel cable for his pictures of a domestic disaster.
