Racial Theory Challenged By Pope Pius XI

Replies to Fascistic Anti-Jewish Theory Of Purity of Race

ROME, July 29 (AP) — A reply by Pope Pius XI to the new doctrine of Italian fascism which holds that Jews "do not belong to the Italian race" was published yesterday by the Vatican newspaper L'Observatore Romano.

The Pope did not mention Jews by name but he listed charity toward others as an article of the Catholic faith and said: "We do not want to separate anything in the human family."

His Holiness linked the new Italian doctrine with German racial policy when he said it might be asked: "Why in the world has Italy unfortunately felt the need to imitate Germany?"

The Pope said these things yesterday when he addressed missionary students of 37 nationalities who visited him at his summer residence, Castel Gandolfo.

Stresses "Universality"

Not since his encyclical of June 29, 1931, on fascist education of youth had the Pope so directly taken issue with Premier Mussolini.

His remarks, as embodied in L'Observatore Romano's resume, stressed the difference between the church's conception of mankind as "one single, great, universal human family" and conceptions which "mean barriers erected between men and other men, between folk and other folk."

Fascism's new racial doctrine, promulgated July 14 by a group of professors under the auspices of Mussolini's ministry of popular culture proclaimed the "Aryanism" of the Italian people.

In asserting that Jews could not be fused with Aryan Italians without altering the character of Italians, the pronouncement caused considerable disquiet among Italy's 47,000 Jews.

The Pontiff, at the same time, raised his voice against attacks on Catholic action, a lay organization which in the past has been a center of friction between fascism and the church and which had been attacked by a section of the fascist press since announcement of the new racialism.

Break Fears
Who injures Catholic action, injures the Pope and who injures the Pope, dies," the Pontiff was quoted in concluding his remarks. The word "dies" was interpreted to mean "dies spiritually."

Catholics, who regard conciliation between the church and the Italian state—the Lateran treaties of Feb. 11, 1929—as one of fascism's greatest achievements, were greatly concerned lest present trends might lead to a new break.

The Concordat of 1929 provided that activities of Italian Catholic action were to be "outside any political party and under direct control of the hierarchy of the church" and that Catholic action should confine itself to religious activities.

The Concordat also provided that, in case of any difference between the church and state in interpreting its terms, an effort should be made to reach agreement by friendly means.

Cedillo Rebels Blow up Train

MEXICO CITY, July 29 (AP) — Two persons were killed today in a San Luis Potosi State train explosion railway officials blamed on Cedillo rebels.

A number of persons suffered slight injuries in the blast, which wrecked a second class coach of a Mexican National Railways train on the San Luis Potosi-Tampico division.

The explosion occurred within a mile of the spot where followers of Gen. Saturnino Cedillo, who launched an unsuccessful revolt May 20, had dynamited another train two months ago. Government forces thus far have failed to capture the rebel chieftain.

Raul Nevez, chief clerk of the railways, said "Cedillista rebels were responsible beyond doubt." The train was between El Gato and La Borreguita, approximately 210 miles west of Tampico.

BOISTEROUS Chicagoans Welcome Hughes, Crew

CHICAGO, July 29 (AP) — Chicago's welcome to Howard Hughes and his round-the-world flying crew was so boisterous today that the crowd got out of control at the Municipal airport and kept the fliers in their plane for 15 minutes.

The ship in which the young millionaire flier and his four companions encircled the globe landed at the airport at 11:56 a.m. (CST), 4 hours and seven minutes after it had taken off from Floyd Bennett field in New York.

Propellers were still spinning when several hundred men, women and children broke from an estimated crowd of 11,000 and, finding a weak place in the police lines, surged up around the plane. The fliers could not open the doors.

Chinese Troops Struggle to End Jap Advances

SHANGHAI, July 29 (AP) — A fierce struggle between Chinese troops and an overland Japanese force, at Sungshu, was reported tonight as Hankow's defenders strove desperately to check the right wing of the Yangtze valley offensive.

Susun is in Anhwei province, about 25 miles northeast of Kiukiang, the river port which fell to Japanese marine assault on Tuesday. It lies near the border of Hupeh province.

The Japanese force threaded its way through mountain passes to reach the town which must be taken if the invaders are to execute a flanking movement for a rear-guard attack on the northern extreme of the Chinese Yangtze valley line.

Flood Fails To Halt Spaniards

Rebels Destroy Dam In Attempt to Stop Government Troops

HENDAYE, France (At the Spanish Frontier), July 29 (AP) — The Spanish government "people's army" clung close to Gaudesa to-night despite counterattacks by land and air and a man-made flood in the Ebro river valley designed to sever supply lines and cut off retreat.

Government forces withheld severe counter-thrusts and the pounding of bombs to consolidate earlier gains in their five-day offensive in South Catalonia.

Barcelona dispatches belittled the strategy of the insurgents in opening all dams on the Noguera Pallaresa and Segre rivers, northern tributaries of the Ebro, insisting that the flood hurt Generalissimo Francisco Franco's forces more than the government's.

These reports said the Ebro rose from three to five feet but that pontoon bridges carrying reinforcements merely rose with the river.

On the other hand, government aerial scouts reported the flood had washed out many of the insurgents' own wooden bridges for miles south of the dams in the Pyrenees foothills.

Four divisions of government troops under a former stonemason, Col. Enrique Lister, were reported to have turned Gaudesa, Franco's south Catalonia divisional headquarters, into a sort of no-man's land.

Charles Doerres Jr., 27-year-old farmer living near Lone Tree, was released from the county jail at 3:30 p.m. yesterday "pending further investigation."

There is, according to Sheriff McComas, "insufficient evidence" to connect Doerres with the kidnap note sent June 21 to Charles Gaeta threatening to kidnap Gaeta's son Jimmy.

Before his release yesterday afternoon Doerres was questioned for several hours by Sheriff McComas, and Harold Gessell, hand-

Barbara Hutton, Count, Separate In Friendship

LONDON, July 29 (AP) — The bitter marital troubles of Count and Countess Haugwitz-Reventlow have been ended "amicably" with a deed of separation as a prelude to a Danish divorce.

The countess, the former Barbara Hutton, American-born heiress of $40,000,000 of the Woolworth dime store fortune, settled an undivided sum upon their two-year-old son Lance, solicitors for the couple said in a statement to sever supply lines and cut off retreat.

Government forces withheld severe counter-thrusts and the pounding of bombs to consolidate earlier gains in their five-day offensive in South Catalonia.

The leaders of the uprising were reported arrested, while government forces were pressing measures designed to prevent a further outbreak.

"All matters in dispute between them have been amicably settled," the statement said. "The count and countess have decided to live apart and separate."

"The count and countess have parted on terms of complete mutual understanding."

"The count has waived any rights which he may have under Danish law to one-half of the common property of the parties to the marriage."

The count is given "parental right" which "secures to him the ultimate decision with regard to education, religion, and professional career of his son."

For Lance's "tender years" his mother "shall have the care of the child for the greater part of the year," but "when he becomes of school age he will spend one half of his school holidays with the count, and the other half with the countess."

The liberal Venizelos lost—and before long Greece recalled her king, switching from a republic to a monarchy. Now she is a combination monarchy dictatorship, with King George apparently taking little part in the actual directing of the parliamentless government.

In a statement denouncing a board order issued yesterday, invalidating an A. F. L. closed shop contract for a small group of skilled craft unionists in an Indiana auto parts plant, Joseph Padway, A. F. L. general counsel, declared:

"One should not be amazed to find that in such a situation the order of the board will not be respected by employees whose guaranteed rights are trampled upon through biased decrees, thus encouraging war between the board and free American workers."

"There are some rights which workers legally possess," he added, "and these rights are paramount to the edicts of the National Labor Relations board."

"The American worker is not yet prepared to submit to enslavement by bureaucratic decree."

Shortly after that several suspects were questioned, but Doerres was not one of them. He had not been formally charged with any crime.

Soviet Troops Repulse Japs Along Border

Both Sides Suffer Losses; Attempted Invasion Charged

MOSCOW, July 29 (AP) — Japanese-Manchukuo detachments were repulsed by Soviet troops today in a new Siberian border incident which prompted a Russian protest to Tokyo.

A communiqué describing the incident said that there were dead and wounded on both sides, but did not give the extent of casualties.

The skirmish was said to have taken place when Japanese-Manchukuo forces attempted to occupy a hill near the junction of Siberia, Manchukuo and Korea.

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

"Immediately after the news was received in Moscow," the communiqué said, "the (Soviet) charge d'affaires at Tokyo was instructed to lodge a vigorous protest with the Japanese government against these new provocations by Japanese-Manchurian militarists, to demand exemplary punishment of the guilty, and to warn the Japanese government that the Soviet government is placing the entire responsibility for consequences of these actions on organs of the Japanese government in Manchuria."

"At 4:00 p.m., July 29, two Japanese-Manchurian detachments crossed the Soviet frontier north of a hill near Lake Khasan regarding which the Japanese government recently presented unfounded claims, and attempted to seize a hill situated two kilometers (1½ miles) north of the hill in question near Lake Khasan.

"As a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchurians were thrown back from Soviet territory. There were killed and wounded on both sides."

CONFLICT?

A. F. of L. Hints War With NLRB

WASHINGTON, July 29 (AP) — A spokesman for the American Federation of Labor hinted today at open warfare with the National Labor Relations board and possible refusal to respect board orders.

In a statement denouncing a board order issued yesterday, invalidating an A. F. L. closed shop contract for a small group of skilled craft unionists in an Indiana auto parts plant, Joseph Padway, A. F. L. general counsel, declared:

"One should not be amazed to find that in such a situation the order of the board will not be respected by employees whose guaranteed rights are trampled upon through biased decrees, thus encouraging war between the board and free American workers."

"There are some rights which workers legally possess," he added, "and these rights are paramount to the edicts of the National Labor Relations board."

"Of the increase authorized herein not to exceed 2,320 serviceable airplanes, including equipment and accessories, are authorized to be obtained."

A decade later, guided by the recommendations of a board headed by the late Secretary Newton D. Baker, Congress voted for an increase in general terms, and added this proviso:

"Goodbyes and don't take the wrong turn," Lord Mayor Alfie Byrne sang out to the young American aviator who landed here July 18 after a surprise flight from New York.

Against 3rd Term for F. R.

Senators Get Move Under Way to Place Opposition on Record

WASHINGTON, July 29 (AP) — A movement to place the Senate record next year against a third term for the president got under way today.

Senator Holt (D-WV) frequent critic of the administration, started it, and Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) predicted that republicans would join in.

Holt said he would introduce a resolution similar to the one the Senate adopted, 56 to 26, when Calvin Coolidge was president.

The 1928 resolution said that the retirement of presidents after their second terms had become a part of the United States' republican form of government "by universal concurrence."

Holt said he would introduce a resolution similar to the one the Senate adopted, 56 to 26, when Calvin Coolidge was president.

"How could they feel it bad for a president to accept a third term nomination in 1940? At least they will have an opportunity to express themselves."

Fifteen Aboard As Clipper Disappears East of Philippines

MANILA, July 30 (Saturday) (AP) — Air and surface craft scanned the sea in vain today for traces of the 26-ton Hawaii clipper, which vanished yesterday with 15 persons in the ocean stretches approximately 565 miles east of here.

Army and navy searching forces coursed back and forth over the water where the huge flying boat mysteriously disappeared, paused briefly to report non-success, and then doggedly resumed the hunt.

The army transport Meigs, which was but 87 miles from the clipper's last reported position, spent all night zig-zagging across the plane's course, splitting the night blackness with searchlights and sending up signal flares. She continued the search by daylight.

Six heavy army bombers soared out over the area in excellent weather conditions, but after hours of flying they message:

"Found nothing."

Reported Thursday
The Pan American trans-Pacific plane last reported at 8:00 p.m. Thursday (Pacific standard time), saying she was 565 miles east of Manila on a regular flight here from Guam. (Manila time is 16 hours ahead of Pacific standard time.)

The army bombers expected to cover an area extending 160 miles north and south and 600 miles east and west in the region where the clipper last reported her position.

With six passengers and nine crew members the clipper left Guam at 11:39 a.m. (PST) yesterday for a 1,580-mile jump to Manila, terminus of her regular 8,200 miles route from California.

Radio listeners spread the alarm when four hours passed without a routine report from the plane, which usually gave its position and flying conditions every 30 minutes.

Warships Search
Fourteen warships sped out of Manila bay to join the hunt. Planes made ready to leave the Philippine east coast to search the shore line on the possibility the big aircraft reached insular waters.

The plane's radio silence carried forebodings to the searchers. She was equipped to send and receive messages from the ocean surface, and, barring the possibility of a high dive into the Pacific, was considered as seaworthy as any small yacht.

From her log as made public by Pan American airways, operators of the trans-Pacific airline, there was an inkling that the big clipper was heading into unfavorable weather. The last message mentioned rain. For several hundred miles she had been speeding through a moderately rough wind.

Reaching the vicinity of the plane's last reported position, the Meigs began sweeping the sea with her searchlights, while zig-zagging along the course. At 12:45 a.m. today (Manila time) she reported sighting nothing.

Dewey's in New York—
But What About
The Rest of Us?

WE'VE MENTIONED politics before; we no doubt shall again. We've mentioned graft before; that, too, will come in for further discussion. But a case has risen now, in the largest city in America, which has combined the two in such an amazing manner we feel it calls for special discussion.

We mean New York's graft uncovered under District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey. Have you been following it?

When Dewey first was elected, a year ago, racketeers laughed. So did the press; he was, both said, an inexperienced "Boy Scout." Perhaps, but they're not laughing now.

First to be attacked was the loan-shark evil, which, if you remember, resulted in the conviction of 28 users. Then came "Lucky" Luciano, ending in Luciano's sentence to 30 years imprisonment. In quick succession were the crippling of all manner of rackets, restaurant, banking, electrical contacting, others.

Then came activity on a greater scale. Dewey decided to "get" Tammany hall, political institution that has held New York City and, occasionally, state, for generations. It was "good politics" for Dewey to attack it, and also it was good ethics.

"Dutch" Schultz was first, Schulz and his pipe-lines to high Tammany officials. Then came Richard (Dixie) Davis, Schultz's attorney and successor as a racketeer.

In May of this year came the big break. James J. Hines, leader of the 11th assembly district and a new dealer, was named as a briber of district judges. Hines and Davis were booked for joint trial starting Aug. 15.

And last week came more sensations. Julius Berg, a World War hero, a state senator of New York, killed himself in his office. The Dewey net was approaching.

Berg was quoted as having said if he were called before the Dewey investigators he would have to name even higher quarters. So he died.

Dewey, however, is on his way up—for more graft.

We mention these revelations made by Dewey because we think it one of the most amazing records in modern political history. No one knows, we suppose, just how long this corruption has been going on. Probably, though, it's not very new.

New York is our largest city, but it is not our most wicked. There are the Pendergasts of Kansas City, the Nash-Kellys of Chicago, the Frank Hagues of Jersey City. These are only a few.

It's a rather important problem, really; it's a problem most people read about and then forget. It seems to us the time has come to spend a little time and quite a little money to do more than just thinking about it.

It seems to us it's about time to search out and elect more prosecutors like Thomas Dewey. They're about if we look for them.

Another small country quits the League of Nations. Pretty soon there will be enough of them to organize a thriving League of Nations Alumni association.

The vacationing American of the future will have his problems, too. He won't know whether to spend his week-end in Irkutsk, Siberia, or French Indo-China.

IF SHE'D ONLY HOLD THAT POSE!

NOTATIONS

... about the stars you know, and radio in general.

Col. Lemuel Q. Stoopnagle made such a hit in his recent guest appearance on the Town Hall summer show that he has been engaged as permanent wizard on the series beginning this week.

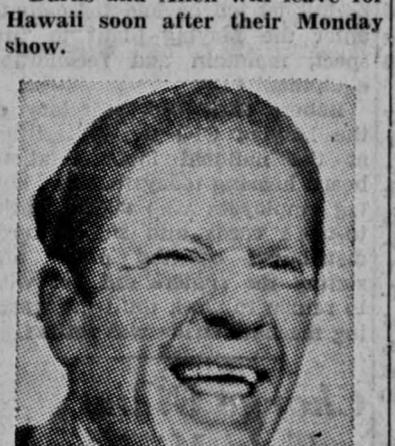

You may have heard him last Wednesday. He's on at 7 p.m. every Wednesday, from now on.

Other artists on the program make it one of the best on the summer air. Harry von Zell announces, Peter Van Steeden, and his orchestra provide the music.

Remember when Peter Van Steeden did the music for the Baron Munchausen show? That used to be the very top on my list of favorites.

Then came Eddie Cantor with his Chase and Sanborn show, replacing the Baron's popularity. Now they've got a guy named Charlie McC. who does very well by himself.

Burns and Allen will leave for Hawaii soon after their Monday show.

DAYS WITHOUT END . . .

Without false sentiment, then, I'll report that Milton Felsen is in New York again these days.

You remember him here, thick-browed, intelligent-eyed, energetically defending his beliefs. . . . He went to Spain about a year and one-half ago.

He believed in fighting for what he thought was right, for liberty, for democracy. . . . He talked about what he thought, but he went the one step further. . . . The fathers back there in the 18th century also did that.

Well, now Mill's back in New York without legs and without eyes. . . . It's simple to say that, less simple to understand. . . . It means a lifetime now—Mill's in his 20's of darkness and inaction. . . . And no government to help, financially or with bands and cheering. . . .

Yesterday's obituary caused more pros-cons than any in recent days. . . . I'm neutral. . . .

Piffle. No Doubt. . . . Three mags I read every week—and enjoy the feeling of being in the swim—Time, New Yorker and Nation. . . . And Prof. Albert Abel of the summer college of law Iowan columned a few years back. He too was threatened with extinction, is now an upping law teacher in Washington university at St. Louis. . . .

I think Walt Disney should know that only 20 years back a Chinese "Hi-Lo" was awarded an Iowa B.A. . . .

Another fine summer program is the Kraft music hall, where Bob Burns, above, is taking the place of Bing Crosby until October. The famous Van Buren personage seems to improve as time wanes.

His appearance in "Tropic Holiday" was better than usual. Incidentally, Martha Raye was kept sufficiently under control in that flicker so that she was really, for a change, funny.

When I have a few spare days, I like to dine at Iowa Union sun porch. . . . That Archie Carter question in Dubuque is going to produce a rather wide-spread smell one of these days in unusual quarters.

That H. R. Gross of the networks—I mean Boske Carter—is quite a pessimist is a republican who thinks Roosevelt will run for a third term and be elected.

The president, according to The New York Times, pronounces his name "Rose-uh-veil." But there has been a lot of republicans who, for the last six years, have insisted on pronouncing his name "Rose-(Huh-uh)-veil."

Ken Dunlop and B. Hart are as diametrically opposite in baseball terms as in politics. . . . But still good friends—and office sharers. . . .

A Cleveland pastor forbids the throwing of rice at newly-wed couples leaving his church. What is this? a new Japanese boycott?

A pessimist is a republican who thinks Roosevelt will run for a third term and be elected.

That young Irish-American, Douglas Corrigan, certainly started something when he flew to Ireland in his $300 air jalopy. This morning Junior was trying to fit wings onto his roller skates.

Chicago Drops Tough Contest

Jurges' Error in 12th Enables Tail-Enders To Cop Long Tilt

PHILADELPHIA, July 29 (AP) — Uncorking a three-run rally in the ninth to tie the score, the Phillies went on to win, 5 to 4, over the Chicago, Cubs in 12 innings, here today.

An error by Shortstop Jurges gave the Phillies the winning run. With two out Jurges missed

Cooper, three time winner of the event.

Among those who carded 70's under the blazing sun were Lawson Little of San Francisco, Gene Sarazen, Brookfield Center, Conn., Ray Mangrum, Oakmont, Pa., and Tony Penna, Dayton, Ohio.

The 71 roster included Webb Gilbert, Topeka, Kan., Charley Sheppard, San Francisco, Herman Keiser, Springfield, Mo., Bill Heinein of Indianapolis, Big Ed Dudley of Philadelphia, and Al Kruger of Belmont, Wis.

Snead, defending champion and the season's leading money winner, was in the par 72 division still very much in the running for the top prize of $1,600. Big name stars who matched "Slamming Sam's" total included Horton Smith and Ky Laffoon of Chicago.

Only 14 players broke par in the 1937 event's opening round.

Heading the parade of shotmakers were Art Doering of Chicago, low amateur, Clarence Yockey, Kansas City, Joe Coria, St. Paul, Henry Ransom of Bryan, Tex., Tony Manero, Peabody, Mass., Lloyd Mangrum, Los Angeles, Pat Sawyer, Birmingham, Mich., Johny Revolta of Evanston, Ill., and Chicago.

A stroke off the fast pace which had many players predicting the 72-hole total would crack Harry Cooper's record of 271 for the event—were Harry Bassler of Long Beach, Cal., Bill Kaiser of Louisville, and the "Silver Scot," Tommy Armour of Chicago.

Sub-Par Scoring Marks First Round of Play

In Annual $7,500 St. Paul Open Golf Tourney

By EARL HILLIGAN

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 29 (AP) — The nation's fairway aces, with "dark horses" matching the marksmanship of favorites, gave par a merciless, first round bombing in the $7,500 St. Paul open golf tournament today.

Thirty players clipped strokes off the 36-36—72 par of the rolling Keller course for a new, first round record of sub-par scoring in the tourney's nine year history.

Fifteen more played par golf to bolster their chances of continuing in the title fight through another 18-holes tomorrow and Sunday's 36-hole final grind.

Only 14 players broke par in the 1937 event's opening round.

67s with the diminutive, 23-year-old Stuhler carding the finest nine of the day—32. He came home in 35. One under regulation figures, Harrison whose opening round 67 in the Chicago open was "washed out" by a storm, and Goggin, runner-up to Sam Snead last year made the two trips in 34-33.

Waner Feels Confident Pirates Are 'In'

Buccaneers Radiating With Confidence, Disdain for Opposition

By PAUL MICKELSON

NEW YORK, July 29 (AP) — It must be coming to pass, because Paul Glee Waner says so.

Paul says the Pittsburgh Pirates are going to win the National league pennant with a comfortable margin so they can get an old fashioned American league rest for the world series. And when Paul rears himself to such a forecast it must be the real McCoy because he's one of the best informed and most cautious men in the game when it comes to predictions.

"I figure we'll win," said Paul as he and his roaring Pirate mates came to town for the Brooklyn series. "This team is smoother than our last pennant winner back in '27. We'll look terrible some days but we've got the power, steadiness, and class to come back the next two or three. We should have a big enough margin to get a few days rest before meeting those leaguers."

An investigation of the Pirates, as they lolled about the hotel lobby, disclosed the team is in just the right mood to win a pennant. Every man is dead serious and a bit crabby. They have a champion's disdain for the other contenders though most of them figure the New York Giants still are the ones to beat. "With a guy like Hubbell," they said, "those guys never can fall into a horrible slump." A few think the Chicago Cubs still have a great chance.

and has been hitting between .375 and .380 ever since.

Handley and Young are running in such miraculous plays around second and third that old Honus Wagner thinks they are fast becoming one of the great infiel pairs in history. They even have Arky Vaughan hustling. "I gotta hustle," said Arky with a chuckle, "or those two guys would knock my head off with their terrific throws."

The turn in the Pirate fortune came on the opening day of their second eastern trip. Inasmuch as the Giants always treated them like minor leaguers in New York, Manager Pie Traynor decided to give his young pitchers a chance. They rewarded him by winning the series. Since then, the Buccaneers have been riding strong. They've won 35 of their last 46 games, excluding tie with Hubbell. In their last 18 series, they've won 15. The only club to take 'em was Brooklyn, which won two series and tied one. June 7 was the day the drive started.

Manager Traynor still is a soft guy with his players but his treatment is bringing dividends at last. The keymen have been Johnny Rizzo, Lee Handley and Pep Young. Also the young pitchers have been coming through aided by Mace (Fireman) Brown's superb relief pitching. Rizzo's comeback has been amazing. After a great start, he went hitless 30 times in succession. On his 31st try, he hit a Homer with the bases loaded.

Cincinnati, they figure, can't do it with its present infield.

Ray Mallott Smashes World Record 500 Meters in International Track Meet

GOTHENBURG, Sweden, July 29 (AP)—Ray Mallott of Stanford university and the San Francisco Olympic club, chief record-breaker on the American track and field team touring Sweden, smashed a world record that had stood for four years when he ran 500 meters in one minute 1 1-2 seconds on the second day of a two-day international meet here.

His time bettered Ben Eastman's performance at Oslo in 1934 by a half second.

Outside of Mallott's feat, the Americans got only an even break in their four events today after winning five out of six yesterday.

Fred Wolcott of Rice institute won the 110-meter high hurdles in 14.2 seconds and George Vatoff of Oregon took the pole vault at 4 meters (13 feet 1 5-32 inches). On an extra trial he cleared at 4 meters (13 feet 1 9-16 inches).

Sorlie of Norway won the discus throw with 47.38 meters (15 feet, 5 25-64 inches). Pete Zagar, Stanford teammate of Mallott, placed fourth with 46.22 meters (15 feet 7 23-32 inches).

Big Hank Greenberg Poles Out Two More Homers; Tigers Win

DETROIT, July 29 (AP)—Hammering Hank Greenberg, Detroit's first baseman, kept ahead of Babe Ruth's record home run pace with two circuit blows, driving in four runs, as the Tigers beat the Philadelphia Athletics 9 to 2 in the series opener here today.

It was the Tigers' sixth consecutive victory, as they extended their longest winning streak of the season. Eldon Auker, Detroit off Almon Williams with none on base to tie the score at 2-all in the fourth inning. His 35th came in the eighth off the delivery of relief pitcher Nelson Potter, with two mates aboard. Charley Gehring hit his 12th homer for Detroit in the first inning.

Bucs Maintain 5 Game Lead In Loop Race

Young's Hitting Aids Pittsburgh; Lavagetto Stars for Dodgers

BROOKLYN, July 29 (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates scored five runs in one inning today, kicked that lead away, and then nipped the Dodgers 7 to 6 for their third win in a row to remain five games in front in the National pennant chase.

The victory evened the season series between the two clubs with seven wins apiece. Previously, the Dodgers had been the only outfit in the loop boasting an edge over the blazing Bucs.

Except for Pep Young, who clouted three-for-three for the Pirates, and Cookie Lavagetto, whose three-run homer featured the Dodgers' attack, the heat gave pitchers of both sides more trouble than the batters. The Bucs used four flingers, with Joe Bowman getting credit for the win.

Each side scored five runs in the fourth frame. The Pirates got under way on Johnny Rizzo's rallying single. Arky Vaughan's double play—Auker (2-3),

Brundage (2-3), and Young (2-3) hit sent Vaughan home. Young singled and Brundage beat out a bunt to load the bases. After Tot

Pressnell relieved Luke Hamlin,

Gilly Campbell's error let another run in, a walk forced the fourth marker across and Gus

Suhr's fly counted the fifth.

Iowa City Council Area Boy Scout Camp to Open Tomorrow

More Than 100 Boy Scouts To Attend Session

Camp Wo-Pe-Na To Offer Two Weeks Of Scout Activity

More than 100 Boy Scouts are expected to attend the Iowa City Council Area Boy Scout camp which opens tomorrow for a two-week session, Scout Executive Owen B. Thiel said last night.

So far 31 boys have already registered—the largest advance registration in the camp history. Located at the Rotary club Boy Scout reservation about four miles from Iowa City, Camp Wo-Pe-Na will offer the boys two weeks of recreation and education.

Some of the boys, through the endeavours of local citizens have been given the opportunity of working part of the expense by making permanent improvements at the camp. They have built additional horse-shoe pitching courts, have made a trail to the swimming pool, put up some totem poles and have built permanent seats at the Council Ring.

Arrangements have been made, Mr. Thiel said, so that all scouts of a troop will attend at the same time under their troop leader, as far as possible. Some of the leaders will not be able to attend camp because they work, Thiel said.

A staff with Mr. Thiel as director of the camp has been selected. Edward McCloy, son of Prof. and Mrs. C. H. McCloy, 526 Park road, will be in charge of the swimming and activities program.

McCloy will act as swimming and life-saving instructor, in addition to planning games, contests and treasure hunts.

Norman Warner of North English will act as assistant to Jack Musgrave in the nature study department. He will help develop a camp museum and will also conduct nature hikes.

The direction of the handicraft program will be in the hands of Harold Hudachek, 828 Dearborn street. More than 300 articles were made last year as a result of the handicraft program. Hudachek has returned from the Boy Scout camp at Toledo, Ohio.

A Busy Man Higbee Reads Proof On New Book

He's a busy man! In addition to his duties as professor and head of engineering drawing and as director of convocations, Prof. F. G. Higbee is reading proof on a book which he is preparing for publication this fall.

Although the principles included in the book have been used in Professor Higbee's department during the past two years, they have not been incorporated as a text until recently.

John Wiley and Sons in New York will print the 131 page volume, called "Drawing Board Geometry."

The book measures eight and a half by eleven inches, and is bound with spiral binding, facilitating ease in handling it in drawing classes.

A single page is devoted to a discussion of each of the drawing principles included in the book, while that principle is illustrated on the opposite page.

Complete principles are presented in this way, making it unnecessary to turn a page while working upon an individual problem.

Another publication, "One Hundred and One Problems in Drawing Board Geometry," is also in the process of preparation, Professor Higbee said.

Kann Requests Aid of Students

Lee H. Kann, manager of the University employment bureau, yesterday issued a request to all men and women, students and non-students, regardless of whether or not they have other employment, who may be available at any time from Aug. 4 to Sept. 25, to report to the employment bureau in the old dental building.

"This period causes unusual difficulty in caring for hospital bed jobs which occur at meal times," said Kann, "since they cannot be combined into accumulation schedules."

Kann requested the cooperation of the entire student body in caring for the jobs, in order that the university may retain a maximum number of student jobs during the school year.

Two Reconsider, Pay Fines Instead Of Taking Sentence

Two brothers, U. S. and Taff Rutherford of Locust Grove, Okla., each paid fines of $25 and costs in police court yesterday for soliciting without a license.

At first they chose the jail sentence, but when they were placed behind bars they reconsidered and paid the fines. Both left town yesterday.
