Winter Weather Hits State; Temperature Near Freezing Here

First Snow Falls in Iowa

Storm Hits North Part; Sweeps Down Central

After the latest, latest Indian summer in recent years, winter suddenly descended on Iowa City yesterday for the lowest mercury reading in this season.

At 10 p.m. yesterday the weather station at 216 Degree Street, the 15th highest in the state, recorded 30 degrees below zero.

Roads and streets were slippery and slick, and during the evening of the 1st, weathermen forecast similar weather today.

The weather man foresees a snowstorm tomorrow, with possible even snowfall.

Snow Sweeps Into Central Davenport, Oct. 23 (AP) - A snowstorm will cover central Iowa today, and will knock down many telephone lines. In the late afternoon the snow will reach southwest Iowa.

The snow will be scattered and small, and not much is expected to accumulate.

The day will be cold, with the temperature dropping to 30 degrees below zero.

Let’s Give Him His Due
FIGHTING school teachers face a long hard battle to "demobilize" the young men who have been conscripted to the service of their homeland. But in the battle for the minds of the young, they have not a man to lose.

The battle for the minds of the young will be fought on many fronts. It will be necessary to look to the schools to see that the boys and girls are equipped to meet the demands of the new situation.

We are fighting for the future of our country. The schools are the place to begin the battle.

The schools must be equipped to meet the new situation. The teachers must be equipped to meet the new situation.

Michigan Steals Yale Thunder

Wines Game After Beautiful Comeback in 2nd Half, 15-13; Harmon Stars

BY PAUL MICKELSON

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Michigan's highly talented team of tailbacks stole the thunder from the Harvard defense with a thrilling 15-13 victory Saturday. The Wolverines scored 13 points in the final 12 minutes of the game.

The Wolverines bolted to a 7-0 lead on a 12-yard pass from end to tailback Henry Schmoldt in the first period. Harvard then scored 10 points in the second period to take a 10-7 lead, but Michigan scored 13 in the last 12 minutes to capture the game.

The Wolverines had 13 first downs to the Harvard's 10. Michigan had 171 yards rushing and 106 yards passing, while Harvard had 196 yards rushing and 101 yards passing.

Freshmen Play Horse In Clean-Up Campaign

In a commendable effort to spruce up the campus last week, students on the Northwestern University campus filled with enthusiasm for a clean-up drive. The effort was spearheaded by the freshman class, which organized a brigade of volunteers to tackle the task of cleaning up the campus grounds. The drive was led by the freshman class president, who called upon his fellow students to join in the effort to make the campus look its best.

This student takes the proper step to determine whether she can do delicate manipulations with her fingers.

Kitchen Chores for Grid Star

Bill Dehavent, a star freshman at Northwestern University, has taken it upon himself to keep his dormitory tidy. He spends his free time cleaning and doing chores, making his dormitory the envy of all his classmates. He believes that keeping his dormitory clean not only helps him to feel more relaxed, but also makes it more enjoyable for his roommates.

Cocker Spaniel

The cocker spaniel is a small breed of dog that is known for its friendly and affectionate nature. It is one of the most popular dog breeds in the world, and is known for its intelligence, loyalty, and devotion to its owner. Cocker spaniels are great companions for anyone who enjoys spending time with a dog, and are known for their gentle and playful nature.

Rushing Business

Fall business for college is rushing — but a rush business plan is essential for success. The rush period is one of the most exciting and stressful times for college students, as they are required to complete large assignments and present oral reports. The rush period is also a time for networking and establishing valuable connections for future opportunities.

Pictures Tell the Story

"Pictures tell the story — thousands of pictures for hundreds of stories — when the staffs of college and university yearbooks set out to permanently record the work of their faculty and student colleagues for the year. From the latest editions of outstanding yearbooks, Collegiate Digest here features outstanding photos of national interest because of their excellence of story or technique."

Swing and Sway

The swingy slide of the trombone and the swinging movements of the dancers provide this introduction to the social life section of the Metron College yearbook. Photo by Victor.

College Man Glarified

Something new in the line of student weekly was pioneered by the Western College at its weekly, "Our Man" and his humorous copy.

Between Classes — On Any Campus

From Ohio University's Athens, top-notch picture yearbooks, come this scene so typical of so many U.S. college campuses.
