Mooney Marches Past Historic Bomb Site

Thomas J. Mooney Sunday returned to the scene of the 1916 Preparedness day bombing which sent him to San Quentin prison for more than 22 years after his hanging sentence was commuted to a life sentence by the late President Woodrow Wilson. Above is shown Mooney leading his own Molder's union past intersection Steuart, Market streets, spot where bomb killed 10, injured 40 others. Second from his right marches Harry Bridges, fiery west coast labor leader. Mooney graciously bowed to crowds that jammed sidewalks and windows. He may be seen leading the marchers.

'America's Dreyfus' Addresses Thousands

Graphic photo depicts Tom Mooney hailed by many as "America's Dreyfus" delivering an address in the solemn commemoration of his attain- ment of freedom through gubernatorial pardon. Tom's wife, Rena, and sister Anna, are on the platform. Mooney told the cheering crowd of his gladness to be free and of his determination to fight for the freedom of Warren K. Billings, his companion in conviction more than 22 years ago.

Money Compensation For 22 Years In Prison, Says Mooney

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9 (AP)—Tom Mooney, whose long fight for freedom was financed by organized labor, reciprocated today by donating to strikers in Chicago and San Francisco the $10 he received "as compensation for 22 years in prison."

Mooney appeared briefly in a (Kress) five-and-ten cent store picket line and donated to striking clerks $5 of the $10 that is given to every convict when he leaves San Quentin prison. Mooney received the $10 when he was pardoned Saturday and absolved of guilt in the 1916 Preparedness day bombing which killed 10 persons.

OSAGE, Jan. 9 (AP)—Seven damage suits for amounts totaling $59,000 were filed against Mrs. Helen Rogers Golberg in district court here today as a result of an automobile collision near St. Ansgar, Nov. 14 in which four persons were killed.

'Eagle Eye' Machine Turns Out More Cotton

Hopes to Aid Labor Groups

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE Associated Press Science Editor SCHEENECTADY, N. Y., Jan. 9—An "eagle eye" machine, which speeds up nearly four-fold the finishing process in cotton manufacturing, was announced here today.

The finishing step in cotton fabric is to straighten the cross-threads, or weft, so that they lie at right angles to the lengthwise, or woof threads. If this is not done, gingham skirts sag on one side, curtains hang crookedly and there are skews in the fit of men's shirts.

In the straightening machine the cotton goods is run from a roll, like the paper fed into a newspaper printing press. The process is high speed. While the fabric is flattened out like paper and running forward, the lengthwise threads are held straight by the pull of the machine. Clips at the edges pull the cross threads.

New Justice and Wife

Felix Frankfurter, noted liberal and constitutional authority, named to supreme court bench, and his wife at their Cambridge, Mass., home, shortly after he received news of his appointment to the high court. He succeeds Associate Justice Cardozo.

25 Racing Horses Die In Hurricana Stables Fire at $200,000 Loss

Court Justice Applauded In Harvard Class

'But It Won't Make Course Any Easier' Says Frankfurter

By ARTHUR F. WOLF CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 9 (AP)—While the likeness of supreme court justices of the past looked down from classroom walls, Felix Frankfurter, newest appointee to the nation's highest tribunal, perched himself comfortably on the back of a chair today to conduct his Harvard law class in "public utilities."

A burst of student applause greeted the stocky Frankfurter as he strode down the aisle for his first class since his nomination to the supreme court last week. As he reached the platform, he turned with a grin and remarked: "Thank you—but it won't make the course any easier."

Apparently surprised when he glanced at the back of the room and noted it was packed with standees, he grinned again and called: "Remember, gentlemen, there are still fire laws and other regulations to be observed."

Guests hastily snuffed out cigarettes as Frankfurter's high pitched voice resumed: "At the end of the hour we were discussing—" To illustrate, the 56-year-old professor's discourse and the discussion by students was a little too erudite—consisting of close scrutiny of supreme court opinions dealing with government regulation of warehouses in Illinois and grain elevators in North Dakota.

Continually Frankfurter digressed to intersperse bits of philosophy and humor. At one point, discussing the meaning of an opinion, he commented: "I don't mean to say that the argument that this has been so for 50 or 100 years and therefore is right is not a valid argument; unless the conditions have changed. Then we have what we call un-constitutionality."

Again, he related a story about Justice Holmes, to whose seat, previously occupied by the late Justice Cardozo, Frankfurter was nominated. The question, he explained, was over the use of a word. Other justices wished to look it up in the dictionary. "No," Frankfurter quoted Holmes as saying, "let's don't quote the dictionary; let's let the dictionary quote us."

WON'T PREDICT But Records Show Mild Feb. Possible

DES MOINES, Jan. 9 (AP)—Federal Meteorologist Charles D. Reed won't make a prediction on it, but weather records in his office speak for a February of above-normal temperatures if January continues its springlike antics.

Although most of Iowa has had only nine days of above-normal temperature this month and prospect of a similar February is possible, Reed would make no "long distance" forecast.

G. O. P.'s Start To Reorganize

Peisen Named to Head Committee of Seven; House Seats Members

DES MOINES, Jan. 9 (AP)—The 48th Iowa general assembly was less than an hour old today before the new republican administration's drive for state governmental reorganization was under way.

The Iowa house membership had scarcely settled back after electing John R. Irwin as speaker before the presiding officer named a committee of seven, headed by Dean W. Peisen (R) of Eldora, to work on "consolidation and coordination."

The house spent the remaining hours of its first session with minor organization details, the seating of members and the placing of employed personnel. The senate later in the day followed suit with the appointment of a similar body, headed by Sen. L. B. Forsling (R) of Sioux City. Plans for the committee selections were discussed last night in a conference between Governor-elect George A. Wilson and legislative leaders.

Supply House, Pharsalia, Sun Port Destroyed

Hurricana Founded In 1880's by Father Of Owner, J. Sanford

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., Jan. 9 (AP)—Twenty five thoroughbred horses owned by John Sanford, millionaire sportsman, were destroyed tonight in a fire that razed the main stable of the Hurricana breeding farm with a total loss estimated at $200,000.

Among the horses which were hopelessly trapped in the flaming barn and were burned to death were Supply House, one of the best steeple chase horses in the country; Pharsalia and Sun Port, which was purchased last year at a reported sum of $15,000.

Hollie Hughes, trainer of the Sanford stable, who estimated the loss, said the fire apparently started in the upper section of the main racing stable, and believed the cause was defective wiring. None of the horses could be liberated when the blaze was first discovered.

The blaze had gained too great headway before the Amsterdam fire department, which brought all available equipment, arrived on the scene. The barn, approximately 150 feet long, contained 28 stalls. The farm is located north of the Amsterdam city line and for many years has quartered some of the best race horses in the nation.

Sun Port, six-year-old son of Sun Briar, was purchased from Willis Sharpe Kilmer of Binghams, N. Y., last fall. He won four of five stakes in the fall meeting at Narragansett park. Both Pharsalia and Supply House raced at Saratoga Springs, Narragansett and other eastern tracks.

Trainer Hughes said Golden Meadow, considered one of the best steeplechasers in America, was housed in another barn and escaped death. He explained he was unable to determine the names of the other horses destroyed until tomorrow morning. John Sanford was reported to be in Florida. His stable, which races in the name of the Sanford stud farm, was founded in the 1880's by his father, the late John Sanford, carpet manufacturer of Amsterdam, who was first to prove that good thoroughbred race horses could be bred in New York state's climate.

One of the most famous horse cemeteries in the world is located on Hurricana farm, the graves of Chuctanunda, Mohawk, Kenyetta, Molly Brand, and many other noted horses of the past being marked by monuments. The Sanford stakes, run as a memorial to the late John Sanford, has been one of the leading two-year-old events at Saratoga since 1913.

Chamberlain, Mussolini To Discuss Policy

By The Associated Press LONDON, Jan. 9—Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain turned toward Rome tonight to continue his appeasement program west of the Rhine.

In conferences with Premier Benito Mussolini, the British statesman will discuss differences between the dictatorships and democracies west of the famous river as he did in Munich when he and Hitler came to an understanding on affairs beyond its eastern bank.

Those differences encompass a wider range of problems, including: 1. The Italo-French dispute raised by fascist clamor for concessions in France's colonial empire. 2. The Spanish civil war. 3. Removal of Jews from Germany. 4. Economic advantages for Italy in the near east.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9 (AP)—Cordell Hull, secretary of state, returned today from his third Pan American conference with a call to the world to embrace the principles adopted at Lima.

Jury Convicts A. Chaperau Of Smuggling

NEW YORK, Jan. 9 (AP)—Albert N. Chaperau, suave diplomat in pose, was convicted of smuggling late today while Comedian Jack Benny flew here to follow other theatrical personages before a federal grand jury looking into customs violations.

Two other cases are impending against Chaperau, who excused his importations on the claim of diplomatic immunity, which was disallowed. The precise background of Benny's trip from Hollywood was not disclosed by the government, nor would the U. S. attorney's office confirm published that it concerned the purchase of $1,200 worth of jewelry for the comedian's wife, Mary Livingston. Benny said merely: "I'm going back to find out what it's all about."

Chaperau, a man of an international and somewhat mysterious background, waived a jury trial, claiming immunity as a commercial attaché of the Nicaraguan republic.

Mrs. Edgar J. Lauer, his accused co-defendant in this case, has pleaded guilty. Specifically, Chaperau was accused of smuggling French finery into this country in behalf of Mrs. Lauer. His sentence was deferred pending disposition of other indictments against him. In one case his co-defendant is George Burns of the comedy team of Burns and Gracie Allen, and in another he is charged along with Paula Gheyskens, now in Paris. Burns has pleaded guilty. In that case the articles the government claims were smuggled consisted of jewelry.

Relief Balked

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (AP)—The Roosevelt administration faced an incipient revolt in a house appropriations subcommittee tonight against the size of the $875,000,000 fund asked by the president to operate the WPA until June 30.

Whizzer White Is Just a Nobody In 'Merrie England'

By SCOTTY RESTON SOUTHAMPTON, England, Jan. 9 (AP) — Whizzer White arrived today in England where they don't like the word "Whizzer" and they don't like American football. For the first time since he became a football hero nobody recognized nor paid any attention to Whizzer. "What's your name, sir?" asked a police customs officer. "White," answered Whizzer and then he had to spell it. They made him open every bag he had. They asked him where he was from and where Colorado was. They made him declare his last carton of American cigarettes and in general they treated him like a freshman reporting for his first practice.

NEW YORK (AP) — They couldn't very well take some of the rabbit out of the ball and put it in the players, but U. S. G. A. officials, fretting about the speed of the one and the slow of the other, have done the best they could. At the next national amateur the fast ball will go just as far as ever, but the slow players won't. About 40 of them will go only as far as the second qualifying round.

Nead Wins In Heavy Match

Kingsbury, Sherman, Millen Also Win; Vergamini Defeated

By OSCAR HARGRAVE Daily Iowan Sports Writer

With a clean sweep in the three lighter divisions and Wilbur Nead's victory in the heavy-weight, Mike Howard's Hawkeye wrestlers last night opened their 1939 season with an even break, 14 to 14, against the strong Kansas State outfit.

Kenneth Kingsbury, 136, Phil Millen, 128, and little Billy Sherman in the 121 division came through with the three decisions for Iowa, while Clarence Kemp, Merrill Johnson and Capt. Carl Vergamini dropped their matches by points.

The lone Hawkeye, to have his shoulders plastered to the canvas was Louis George, in the 145. George, a sophomore, barely failed to last the distance, the fall coming after 3:35. Glenn Duncan, the victor in this match, used a half-nelson and body press to bring about George's downfall.

With Kansas State leading by 14 points to Iowa's nine, Wilbur Nead, Mike Howard's heavy star, had to produce in the final bout of the evening. However, it was only through the most desperate of offensive maneuvers that Nead finally came through with the fall. Keith Collins, substitute heavy for the visitors, proved to be a wiry 170 pounder, who, while never able to endanger the powerful Iowan, did bring about some doubts as to whether Nead would be able to score a fall and thus tie up the meet.

Collins succumbed at last, after considerable mauling, to a bar arm and head chancery that Nead clamped on for the win. The fall came after 6:58 of the nine minutes allotted.

The jinx of Leon Reynard—a wiry red-headed jinx—continued to round Iowa's Capt. Carl Vergamini, Reynard, grabbing a small lead early in the match, hung to his margin and the Iowa captain, recently recovered from a slight illness, could never manage to break into the lead.

Brightest spot for Mike Howard, and his matmen, was the surprising performance of Phil Millen who climbed all over the heavier Horace Watson. Millen, who improved last season as a sophomore, had Watson on the verge of a fall throughout, but could never quite put on the finishing touches.

Surprising also, was the work of Merrill Johnson, making his first start as a Hawkeye. Johnson can make the 155 pound weight, but was placed in the 165 while Kemp held forth in the lighter division. Wrestling against the Kansas State captain, Ed Keller, Johnson fought an uphill battle against both weight and experience. He dropped a decision, but it is to Johnson's credit that he staved off a fall against the odds that he backed.

Summary of Matches:
121 pound class: Billy Sherman (I) decisioned Farland Tassher (KS).
128 pound class: Phil Millen (I) decisioned Horace Watson (KS).
136 pound class: Kenneth Kingsbury (I) decisioned Kenneth Yous (KS).
145 pound class: Glenn Deane (KS) threw Louis George (I) in 8:35, with a half-nelson and body press.

155 pound class: Porter (KS) decisioned Clarence Kemp (I).
165 pound class: Capt. Ed Keller (KS) decisioned Merrill Johnson (I).
175 pound class: Leon Reynard (KS) decisioned Capt. Carl Vergamini (I).
Heavyweight: Wilbur Nead (I) threw Keith Collins (KS) in 6:58 with bar arm and head chancery.

Mungo a Holdout
PAGELAND, S. C. (AP) — Van Lingle Mungo, the Brooklyn Dodgers' speedball pitcher, said here last night he was a holdout for the 1939 season. Mungo said he had returned his contract a few days ago. The contract, he said, offered him less than he received last season.

Fred Hutchinson, leading minor league pitcher with Seattle last year, will be given the once over by Detroit at their spring training camp. Detroit paid Seattle $50,000 and four players for his contract. Fred needs to click in the majors, it is a faster hard one. If there is anything Fred needs to click in the majors, it is a faster hard one.

Irish Engage C. Rapids Five In Tilt Tonight

Rated as the underdogs, St. Patrick's travels to Cedar Rapids tonight to meet the St. Wendeslaus quintet in a game that may give the latter team a severe headache before it is over. The Cedar Rapids squad defeated the locals by a score of 37 to 24 in their Iowa City meeting last month, and have to be listed as favorites in tonight's tilt, but there may be a surprise in store for them.

The Pat's have improved steadily during the past few weeks since the two teams' previous meeting, and they may upset the dope bucket tonight. Another point in the Irish's favor is the fact that they played the other Wendeslaus tilt without the services of Love, their high scoring forward, and Bradley, who was a regular last year.

W. Liberty Is Potent Foe For U-High

Working on the assumption that a basketball team is no better than its ball handling ability, Coach Paul Brechler yesterday sent his U-High cagers through the first of a series of hard workouts in preparation for the invasion of West Liberty, Friday night.

Neither West Liberty nor U-High have lost a conference game to date, and both teams will be determined to add another victory to their string. Monticello and Anamosa, two of the locals' opponents, during the month of January also boast of unblemished records.

In beginning preparation for the tussle with the veteran West Liberty quintet, Coach Brechler drilled his men once again on fundamentals of the game, stressing especially passing and ball handling. In addition to this, the youthful U-High mentor will attempt into inject more scoring punch to his varsity cagers. According to statistics of the Williamsburg game, the Blue and White lads counted only 6 field goals in 62 attempts.

West Liberty boasts one of the fastest teams in the conference, and has its offensive attack built around their star athlete, Lupe Lane, who caused the locals no end of trouble on the gridiron last fall.

EVANSTON, Ill., Jan. 9 (AP) — James Rae, lanky center, who scored 14 points on six field goals and two free throws, paced Michigan to a 37-28 basketball victory over Northwestern in a rough, loosely played game tonight. Twenty-seven fouls were called, 14 on the Wolverines and 13 on the Wildcats.

The Wolverines took a 10-1 lead in the early minutes of the game and were never threatened. They held a 20-12 advantage at the half.

Northwestern made its only serious threat to overtake the Wolverines by scoring seven consecutive points near the close of the first half. The victory was the Wolverines' first in two Big Ten games. The defeat was Northwestern's second straight in conference competition.

Due to the wrestling match, which was staged between Iowa and Kansas State last evening, there were no intramural basketball games.

There will again be a full schedule tonight, however, when at 7 o'clock, Phi Kappa Psi meets Sigma Phi Epsilon, Madison plays College, and Northeastern will tangle with East Central. At 8:15 p.m. Pi Kappa Alpha plays Sigma Chi, Washington encounters with the Capital Cadets while Harris hall will try its strength against Court.

Ed Baird Bemoans Loss Of Vic

With Thursday night, the time for the annual all-university carnival, drawing near, relay teams from dormitories, fraternities and those representing a number of feminine organizations are getting ready for the big night.

From the one mishap so far, some complications have arisen in regard to the sorority relays. Vic Sabatini, of Ed Baird's Phi Mu team, has suffered an injured ankle. Replacement of Sabatini will not be so easy, and the Phi Mu team, one of the early favorites, may suffer.

Although there is not, as yet, any official entry list for the dormitory and fraternity races, entries are expected to be large for these races. Already there have been boasts of strong contenders from different groups, who want themselves known in advance.

State Indoor Track Meet To Occur April 1

The state indoor interscholastic track and field championships, biggest single high school athletic event in Iowa, will occur for the eighteenth time in the University of Iowa's fieldhouse April 1.

Fifteen championships will be decided and 300 points divided among more than 500 young athletes from about 50 schools compete in the afternoon and evening program.

East Des Moines, champion of the past two years, is expected to defend its honors with another strong team. In the past eight meets, it has taken an average of about 37 points to win the title.

Ten individual events and four relays will appear upon the program and within a period of about seven hours some 80 races will be run.

The 1938 meet was the largest in history, with 514 athletes entered from 53 schools. Two meet records were broken and one was equaled.

Lee Wins CHICAGO (AP) — Billy Lee, Milwaukee welterweight, scored a technical knockout in the sixth round over Verge Patterson of Chicago at Marigold Gardens arena last night. Lee dropped his opponent for an eight count early in the stanza and then had him helpless against the ropes when Frank McAdams stopped the contest. Each fighter weighed 144 pounds.

Chicago Repels Wisconsin, 28-18

Table with 4 columns: Team, fg, ft, pf, tp. Rows include Chicago (28) and Wisconsin (18).

The lead was short lived, however, as the Gopher five got under way and ran the score into a comfortable lead moments later.

From this point the game settled down into a rough and tumble battle with Minnesota having the better of the battle, scoring a will into later stages of the tilt.

With a record of two losses and no wins the Hawkeyes resume conference play against Purdue's Boiler-makers, Saturday. The Purdue lads, after a rather half-hearted start, have hit stride and promise a great deal of trouble for future foes.

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 9 (AP) — Chicago held Wisconsin to only four field goals tonight and defeated the Badgers, 28-18 in a rough basketball game.

A crowd of 7,200 watched the futile attempts of Wisconsin's forwards to break through the Maroons' zone defense. The half-time score was Chicago 11, Wisconsin 10.

Dick Lounsbury, center, paced Chicago to its first conference triumph of the season. He had five field goals for 10 points and was ably assisted by Joe Stampf, forward, who scored five free throws and two field goals for a total of nine.

Coach Harold Foster shifted players throughout in search of a combination to match Chicago's height and smoother ball handling.

British Publish Barnes' Paper

The current issue of the British Management Review, published in London, contains a paper by Prof. Ralph M. Barnes of the mechanical engineering department on the subject, "Improving Labor Effectiveness in Industry."

Professor Barnes outlines techniques used by manufacturers in the United States which increase output from 25 to 40 per cent. The university's time and motion study laboratory is described, and a statement of the research work underway is given.

Professor Barnes also describes courses in industrial engineering offered by American universities and points out the fact that young engineers in increasing numbers are entering production phases of industry.

Dogs Can't Bear It

SYLVIA, N. C. (AP)—Usually, at this time of year, bears hereabouts are fat and clumsy and a hunter's dog has no trouble in handling one. But there's been a shortage of forage this season and as a result bears are quick and vicious. Several good hunting dogs already have been killed by hungry bruins.

Engineers Advertise Seniors to Continue Personnel Service To Aid Employers

A personnel service for forthcoming employers of senior engineering students at the University of Iowa, in the form of a loose leaf notebook containing a picture and personal information concerning each senior, has just been published.

The plan was inaugurated last year to acquaint employers with the senior students in the college and the plan was so successful that it is being continued this year.

Copies of the book have already been sent to several hundred prospective employers in the state and throughout the middlewest. In addition, each senior received 25 copies of his own personal record sheet to be attached to letters of application which he writes.

Also given to members of the faculty to be used in connection with letters of recommendation which they write.

This plan of printing personal record sheets for seniors was so well received by employers and by the students last year that it will probably be continued in future years.

Prof. Ralph M. Barnes, who is director of personnel for the college of engineering and who is in charge of placement work, pointed out that the members of the faculty in the college of engineering traditionally are interested in the students and become very well acquainted with the men by the time they are seniors.

Because of this knowledge of the student's abilities and interests the faculty is able to make intelligent recommendations in connection with placing the student.

Union Board Will Be Host at Inauguration Of Its New Service

Iowa Union will inaugurate its newest service to the University of Iowa Sunday at an informal tea from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m., when the 35 reproductions of famous works of art, which will make up the Union's beginning circulating collection, are put on display in the main lounge.

Members of Union Board will be hosts and hostesses at the affair, and members of the faculty of the fine arts department will be present to answer questions about the paintings and their authors.

Wives of the heads of the departments of the school of fine arts have been invited to pour at the tea. There will be incidental music for the informal gathering.

This newest service of Iowa Union to students and faculty will begin Feb. 1, when the first of the artistic reproductions, including two by the University of Iowa's Grant Wood, will be placed in the homes of student groups of the campus.

Once each month during the school year, the individual paintings will be taken down and new ones put up, forming a circulating chain of arts, works of fine art through the office of Prof. Earl E. Harper, director of the school of fine arts, in Iowa Union.

A fee of only $1 a semester will be charged for the series of nine paintings. According to Professor Harper, Iowa Union's long-range plan involves gradually adding to the original group of 35 paintings, and eventually loaning pictures to individual students for their rooms.

HOLLYWOOD SIGHTS & SOUNDS

By ROBBIN COONS HOLLYWOOD—They jumped the budget on "The Little Princess" the other day.

They added another $300,000 to the million dollars already invested in a picture "carried" by a nine-year-old child named Shirley Temple.

Nobody in Hollywood raised an eyebrow at the news. It's likely that nobody gave it a second thought. If a steel corporation or a railroad or an automobile factory should give a big position to a young man twice Shirley's age, it would be big news and the stockholders would raise more than eyebrows.

Gambling that much on a curly-top kid? In Hollywood's mind that isn't gambling. That's money in the bank—with interest. True, it's more than they've ever spent on a strictly starring vehicle for a child. But this child is Temple. For the fourth consecutive year Temple leads the Motion Picture Herald's exhibitor poll as the nation's top box-office favorite.

But he can take out insurance. Having Temple under contract is one excellent form of insurance, presently not available. The next best bet, generally, is to sink the dough into an outdoor spectacle—a "western." A picture like this has to be pretty bad to avoid clicking. Even when the actors chew the scenery, there's so much of it left that the public eats it up.

Action and scenery together make a good insurance policy—a big "western" is rarely a gamble.

A big musical is a 50-50 deal. The whole project, like the music, can go in "sweet" and come out "sour." It's probably hind-sight

WASHINGTON WORLD

By CHARLES P. STEWART Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Congress does not take to the idea of a governmentally established and managed lottery of finance, in part, the District of Columbia—that is to say, Washington, the national capital.

The scheme was proposed by Lewis R. Perkins, attorney for an outfit known as the Society for Liquidation of the Public Debt. Perkins outlined it in a letter to Chairman Robert L. Doughton of the house of representatives' ways and means committee.

Insofar as Attorney Perkins plan applies only to the District of Columbia it is of no more than local interest. However, the lottery method of raising cash for public purposes evidently appeals to a great many folk on a far larger than a merely local scale—perhaps on a national one.

Government lotteries pay like sixty. I have lived in several countries where they have them and there is not any doubt that they are enormously profitable to the government; not to the suckers who play them.

Where a government sets itself up as a gambling house proprietor, it is as hostile to any clandestine gambling as our treasury department is to tariff smuggling.

I have seen the system worked intensively in the Argentine republic, where there is a government lottery. There also is another gambling concession farmed out privately to the Jockey Club—racing. Between these two set-ups (governmental and governmental-ly authorized) Argentina is policed to a bee's knee.

Years ago, a certain Nicholas Mihanovich, won at Buenos Aires on a single grand ticket. He got a huge bunch of dough at that shot, invested it judiciously and now the Mihanovich Line controls shipping up and down the Plate, Parana and Paraguay rivers from Buenos Aires to Asuncion.

But socially speaking? Lottery winners do not make much, anyway. The grand prizes are substantial, but the tickets usually are split up among a multiplicity of holders; no individual winner gets more than enough for one good "bust."

'Telephone Ear' Is Causing Deafness

CHICAGO (AP)—Constant use of the telephone receiver on one ear is a factor in occupational deafness, the Journal of the American Medical Association reports.

In an article pointing out that noises transmitted as vibrations through the bones produce deafness faster and more often than sounds heard only by the ears, it is said that a 52.1 per cent incidence of occupational deafness was found in the "telephone ear."

EXAMINATION SCHEDULE

First Semester 1938-1939

Saturday, January 21, 8 a.m., to Saturday, January 28, 4 p.m., 1939

The regular program of class work will be suspended, and the following semester-examination program substituted for it. Classes will meet for examination in the rooms in which they have been regularly meeting (except in SPECIAL GROUPS A, B, C, D, E, F, and G, as shown in the form below; and Speech (1), (2) and (3) as shown at the second N.B. below).

The Program Committee directs the attention of both students, and instructors and professors, to the regulation that there is to be no deviation from this schedule, in the case of any examination—except as authorized by the Committee on Admission and Classification on the student's written petition, filed in ample time and supported by the recommendation of the department concerned,—to provide relief from an excessive number of examinations within a single day. Deviation for the purpose of completing examinations earlier will not be permitted.

Each student who is absent from the final meeting of his class as indicated in the Examination Schedule should be reported, on the official grade sheet at the end of the semester, as "Abs." Before this grade mark can be removed he must file with the Committee on Admission and Classification a written petition, with adequate vouchers attached, setting forth in full the necessity of his absence. This petition must include a departmentally signed statement indicating whether, in case the Committee finds the absence excusable, the student has the department's and instructor's permission to take the final examination. If the Committee finds the reason for the absence adequate it will issue to the student a partially prepared special report card (signed by the Secretary, lower left corner) with a form letter explaining to him that he has the Committee's permission, with the departmental consent and at the convenience of the instructor, to take his final examination within one month (or other designated period of time) from the date indicated.

If the student takes the examination thus authorized the outcome is to be reported on this card and not on any other card.

In the case of conflicts (within the SPECIAL GROUPS A, B, C, D, E, F, and G) the Schedule itself, as presented below, provides a general method of making adjustments.

All classes whose first weekly meetings have occurred as indicated in the rectangles below, meet for examinations during the periods noted at the tops of these three columns, and on the days noted in the rectangles directly opposite at the left of the double vertical line. N.B. Unless students are reasonably sure that their semester's work, including final examinations, is successful they are requested to call (within the 24-hour period following the conclusion of each of their final examinations) at the offices of the deans of men and women, respectively, in order to learn whether any of their instructors have reported Fd. for them; and if any student has reason to suspect that Fd. will be his record for one or more courses, he is requested not to register until he learns that he has passed.

CONFLICTS: In case of conflicting examinations the student should report to the instructor in charge of the first of the two conflicting subjects as listed within the particular SPECIAL GROUP rectangle above which is involved. (Read downward first in left column and then in right column.) This instructor will arrange for you a special examination. Report to him or her, not later than the regular class hour, January 16 or 17, if possible, January 9 or 10.

The first meeting of the class means the first lecture or recitation period in courses having both lectures and recitations, and laboratory periods; or in the case of courses involving only laboratory periods, the first clock-hour of the first weekly meeting. For example, chemistry 21 meets for lectures 7 Th 8 at 8. The first meeting is, consequently, Tuesday at 8—and the class will meet for examination Monday, January 23, 2-4, according to the tabular form above. Again, physics (125) meets twice each week, T, F, for a three-hour laboratory exercise, 1-4. The period for the examination is, therefore, Friday, January 27, 2-4.

N.B. All sections of freshman Speech (1), (2) and (3) will meet during the examination week on the days and at the periods designated below. Rooms are assigned by the instructors.

Saturday, January 21—Section D, 8-10; Speech 2, 8-10.
Monday, January 23—Section A, 1-3; Section E, 3-5.
Thursday, January 26—Section I, 8-10; Section C, 1-3; Speech 3A, 1-3; Section G, 3-5.
Friday, January 27—Section J, 8-10; Section H, 10-12; Section B, 1-3; Speech 3B, 1-3; Section F, 3-5.

"ODD" classes, namely those whose first or only weekly meetings occur on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday or Saturday, or which meet "as arranged," will be assigned for examination as announced to each such class by the instructor in charge of the class, at one or another of the following periods:

1. From 4 to 6 on any day from January 21 to January 27, inclusive.

2. Any one of the examination periods assigned, as indicated above, for the examinations in SPECIAL GROUPS A, B, C, D, E, F and G, since for such "odd" classes these five examination periods will be found quite available.

In connection with any such announcement it would doubtless be well for the instructor making the announcement to ascertain whether any member of his class is already under appointment for examination in some other class for the proposed period. To be sure, if it is possible to have examinations in more than one class at any of these times,—if no student is a member of more than one of these classes.

According to one clause in the formal action providing for a special semester-examination program, "the instructor may use the examination period as he sees fit provided he holds the class for the full period. He may have an oral or a written examination, or both, or neither. He may continue regular work or he may use the time for review, or for any phase of his work which may seem to him desirable at this time."

Accordingly, regulation, which is on record as adopted by the faculty, a student absent from the final examination should be reported "Abs.," unless the instructor recognizes that his work up to this examination has been a failure, in which case the final report should be "F."—even though the student may have been absent from the final examination. No examination should be given, subsequently, to such a student until after the absence has been excused by the Committee on Admission and Classification, as shown by a partially filled special report card signed by the Secretary of the Committee, indicating that the absence has been excused and that the student is authorized, subject to the consent and at the convenience of the instructor concerned, to take the final examination.

H. C. DORCAS, Secretary Program Committee.

Social Service League Announces Assisting 1,000 Persons

Organizations Contribute Food And Cash to Needy Families

Barry Commends Response Given By University Groups

Three hundred families were brightened on Christmas day by the efforts of the Social Service League in conjunction with various organizations throughout the city, it was announced yesterday by John S. Barry, official of the league.

"That means approximately 1,000 persons were made happy on Christmas day," he said.

Food and clothing, toys and donations were the most prominent gifts.

University Responded

University groups responded in greater numbers this year than last, Barry affirmed. Food was donated by Chi Omega and Kappa Alpha Theta sororities and Sigma Nu fraternity, Pi Beta Phi, Delta Gamma and Sigma Delta Tau sororities each gave cash.

Currier hall residents sponsored a party for 25 children on Dec. 15. Eastlawn presented a basket of toys, and the Home Economics club, a box of clothing and toys.

Elks lodge prepared and delivered 49 baskets to poor families throughout the city and outlying districts. White Shrine, Past Matron's club of the Eastern Star, Federated Women's club, Iowa City Business and Professional Women's club, Federated Business and Professional Women's club, Parent Teachers association of Oxford, Coralville heights, Sub Deb club at Iowa City high school and E.O.S. club each donated a basket of food.

Veterans' groups prepared nine baskets of food as presents. The Fourteen club contributed milk, the Monday club, two baskets of food.

Cash was given by both Rotary and Kiwanis club. These donations, Barry said, were handed directly to the needy in order that they might purchase their particular necessities. Thirty-one families were cared for in this way, he added.

The social service league with anonymous aid, prepared 83 baskets. The balance from Thanksgiving funds was used for much of this, Barry said.

Thirteen churches were responsible for 98 baskets of the food distributed on Christmas. They included St. Mary's, St. Patrick's, St. Wenceslaus, Baptist, Christian, Congregational, Episcopal, Lutheran, Menonite, Methodist, Presbyterian, Unitarian and English Lutheran churches.

Both Frances Wilson, director of the league, and Mrs. Grace M. Kendall, chairman of the committee on Christmas planning of the social service board, expressed their gratitude to all who cooperated in this charitable work.

The distribution of baskets was handled largely through a central delivery system. Lambert and Packman-Wagner lumber yards and W. A. Lee donated trucks.

Although much of the food from these Christmas baskets may be already consumed, clothes somewhat worn and some toys placed in the corner, the Social Service league continues its work the year round.

In cases where needy persons are able to work, the social service league certifies as to a person's physical qualifications before he is eligible for work on WPA.

Direct relief in the form of cash derived from both state and county funds are administered to families which are physically unable to work. If a person is excluded from WPA work through some technicality other than a physical requirement, he also is entitled to direct relief. Aid is often given to families who cannot survive on the income from a WPA job.

Plan for Membership Campaign

Pictured above are William Warren, Iowa City; Emil Meyer, Lone Tree, and Robert Spencer, leaders and officers in the Johnson County Farm Bureau, as they met with members of the bureau to discuss plans for a second reorganization of the bureau and for a membership campaign. The meeting was held at Youde's inn Wednesday evening. Representatives from Iowa City and all the townships in the county attended the meeting.

Farm Bureau Will Reorganize

Sectional Officers, Leaders Plan Second Reorganization Since 1929

The second reorganization in the history of the Johnson county farm bureau sectional officers and leaders of the farm bureau, according to Emmett C. Gardner, county agent. Plans are yet indefinite, he said.

Since its first reorganization in 1929, it has branched into several units. These subdivisions have for their purpose the education of their members in farming, nutrition, homemaking and several other practical subjects. These groups include the boys' and girls' 4-H clubs as well as the adult women's home project organization.

The 4-H clubs, which include members between the ages of 10 and 21, receive their outside education by preparing records and carrying out instructions under their leaders. Frequent meetings and parties occupy the members much of the time.

The home project organization is primarily an adult group of farm women. Each section has its township and publicity chairmen. There are eight leaders and eight cooperators for each township. Plans are made for the future at membership campaign meetings similar to one held at Youde's inn Wednesday night.

Home project groups have made plans for an educational program. Four meetings each month for four months of the year, or 16 a year, are scheduled for the organization. At present the subject of study is nutrition. A specialist from Iowa State college lectures and demonstrates to the leaders of the groups so that these leaders may carry their learning into their respective townships.

The present subject of nutrition has been broken up into several parts. "Cost of an Adequate Meal" was studied in October. "Methods of Cookery for Tender Cuts of Meats," for November. "Feeding the Sick," for December, and "Modern Trends in Breadmaking" for January.

Prior to the opening of these training schools in September, open house meetings and afternoon teas were held at which the project was explained.

F. Ross Files Damage Case In Local Court

$5,500 Suit Results From Condemnation For Iowa Highway

Claiming that the condemnation of a part of his farm by the Iowa State Highway commission will deprive him of the possession and development of his property, Frank Ross yesterday afternoon filed suit against the highway commission in the district court asking for $5,500 damages.

Ross, whose farm is on highway 261 north of Iowa City, said in his petition that the value of the premises, at present capable of use as a much larger dairy, and fruit farm, rooming house, sanitarium, and for development along various other similar lines of business, would be reduced.

The property was condemned Nov. 18, 1938, and was appraised and assessed at $1,950.

Attorney Robert L. Larson filed the petition for Ross.

'Heat Wave' Touches Top

Mercury Records Warmest Jan. Day Since Year 1909

Iowa City's "heat wave" reached a climax yesterday as the mercury scaled up to the 61-degree mark and recorded the warmest January day here since Jan. 24, 1909.

The previous record, established 30 years ago, was 64 degrees.

According to the official tabulations, yesterday's 61-degree reading shattered by 10 degrees the previous Jan. 9 record of 51 degrees set in 1902.

During this month the extremely mild temperatures have tied the record for Jan. 4 and tied the Jan. 8 record with Sunday's official 53-degree reading.

Early yesterday morning official rain gauges measured the precipitation at .13 of an inch.

Hotel Fire

Overcoat and Bedding Lost in Blaze

Falling asleep while smoking in bed cost Earl Eslinger, Ottumwa, a guest at the Dunkel hotel, an overcoat and a disturbed night's sleep last night, and the hotel lost a mattress and bed clothes.

Eslinger, according to firemen, had fallen asleep and his cigarette set fire to the mattress and the flames spread to his overcoat lying on the bed.

The firemen used a gas mask to enter the smoke filled room and threw the smoldering bed clothes out of a window to the ground where the fire was extinguished.
