Senate Subcommittee Favors Rutledge Appointment

Predict Early Approval By Entire Group

Members Question Candidate's Views In Brief Interview

WASHINGTON, March 28 (AP)—Wiley B. Rutledge, Jr., dean of the University of Iowa law school, tonight had the approval of a senate judiciary subcommittee for associate justice of the District of Columbia court of appeals.

Committee members predicted favorable action by the full judiciary committee Monday and early confirmation by the senate.

The members approved his nomination by President Roosevelt after a brief session in which he was questioned about his experience and to some extent his political views.

Senator King (D) Utah, reserved the right to oppose Rutledge's nomination, but said he might vote for senate confirmation.

Members Support

Three other members supported Rutledge. They were Chairman Hughes (D) Del., Senator Connally, (D) Texas, and Senator Norris (Ind.), Nebraska.

Senator Austin (R) Vermont, the only other committee member, did not attend the meeting.

The committee members quoted Rutledge as saying he favored in the main President Roosevelt's 1937 proposal to expand the size of the supreme court, but objected to some features of it and had taken no active part in the controversy.

Against Court Plan

Senator King said he did not believe from Rutledge's reply that Rutledge had been "very much in favor" of the court plan, but that "he wrote articles for it."

Although the senator declined to disclose why he withheld approval of Rutledge, his colleagues said he expressed the feeling a District of Columbia resident should have been given the appointment.

Both Senators Hughes and Norris said they had some sympathy with King's point of view but felt that it should not be a primary consideration because of the "national" nature of the position.

Most Important Court

Norris termed the court the "most important court in the United States below the supreme court."

The court of appeals handles many government cases involving constitutionality.

The post of associate justice pays $12,500 yearly and is a lifetime appointment.

Editors, Business Managers Of The Daily Iowan, Frivol, Hawkeye To Be Elected Soon

All Applications For Offices To Be Filed With Loie Randall

The Board of Trustees of Student Publications, Incorporated, has announced the dates of the election of editors and business managers of the three campus publications as follows: Hawkeye, April 12; The Daily Iowan and Frivol, May 24.

Applications for Hawkeye editor and business manager must be filed by April 5; for editor of The Daily Iowan, and editor and business manager of Frivol, by May 17. All applications are to be turned in to Loie M. Randall, secretary of the Board of Trustees of Student Publications, Incorporated, Room 101 Journalism building. The applications, which must be made in writing, will be followed by an interview with the board.

The editor of the Hawkeye assumes complete charge of the editorial work, appointing committees and supervising the contents of the year book. The business manager has charge of advertising, circulation and general business policies.

The Daily Iowan editor holds office from June 1 of this year to June 1 next year. He is responsible for each daily issue of the paper, appointing his staff and determining the paper's editorial policy.

The editor of Frivol will be responsible for nine issues. He will be judge of all copy submitted to the magazine, and will handle the art work as well as the written matter. The duties of the business manager of Frivol are the same as those on the Hawkeye.

Hawkeye requirements for editor and business manager are a junior classification for the year in which they are to serve and good scholastic standing. For Frivol, the requirements are previous experience on Frivol and good scholastic standing.

For The Daily Iowan the applicant must present proof in application of the following qualifications—experience on The Daily Iowan, demonstrated executive ability and good scholastic standing in the university.

32-Months-Old War Ends As Capitol Falls

Nationalist Army Cheered by Populace; Republicans Retreat

By The Associated Press

Madrid, the shell-pitted capital of republican Spain, surrendered yesterday (Tuesday) to Generalissimo Francisco Franco's nationalist army, thereby bringing to a virtual end the 32-months-old bloody Civil war.

The republican army, whose dramatic defense of the capital through nearly 29 months of relentless siege had been one of the outstanding features of the war, hoisted white flags in the morning and then withdrew. The republican leaders, including Generals Jose Mija and Segismundo Casado, already were gone.

Hungry Populace Cheers

The nationalists marched in the afternoon without firing a shot. The weary, hungry populace cheered. The nationalists announced over the radio that "the red forces on all fronts are surrendering."

Burgos, the nationalist capital, resembled New York on Armistice night in 1918 as the victors celebrated the end of a war they said had been the bloodiest civil conflict of modern Europe.

They estimated at least 1,000,000 had been killed and wounded, in addition to "500,000 assassinations."

Hitler Congratulates Franco

Chancellor Hitler of Germany sent his congratulations to Generalissimo Franco and his press called Madrid the "grave of communism."

Premier Mussolini of Italy made a speech from the balcony of the Palazzo Venezia in Rome and declared the Spanish war "is finished with the defeat of bolshevism."

He smiled when the crowd answered with cries of "Tunisia!"

For many weeks it has been the opinion in Rome, that Mussolini was only waiting for the slate to be wiped clean in Spain before he launched a full campaign for adjustment of colonial claims on France, who rules Tunisia under a protectorate.

Franco May Prove Strong Man Ruler

By The Associated Press

The "new Spain" that emerges from the Civil war will place Generalissimo Francisco Franco along with Adolf Hitler, Benito Mussolini and Joseph Stalin as a strong man ruler if it follows the present nationalist pattern.

Franco already had made nationalist Spain into an authoritarian state and on January 31, 1938, reorganized his regime and made himself president with the powers of a dictator. His government, patterned after the Italian grand council of the fascist party, has a cabinet of 11 ministers.

Franco is known as "el caudillo"—Spanish for "the chief," just as Mussolini is "il duce," "the leader"—and Hitler is "der fuhrer"—also "the leader."

Before he set up his present government, Franco issued a decree on April 19, 1937, that converted the part of Spain then under his rule into an authoritarian state with himself as virtual dictator.

President Roosevelt Approves 45,000 Ton Battleship Building

WASHINGTON, March 28 (AP)—President Roosevelt has approved the construction of battleships of 45,000 tons, expected to be the world's mightiest, to assure continued American naval supremacy of Japan.

The White House announced today the chief executive had given the navy authority to proceed with its plans, in accordance with provisions of last year's billion-dollar fleet expansion act.

Two of the floating fortresses, faster and more heavily armed than the six capital craft of 35,000 tons each already being built, are to be started this year, under navy plans.

Ask Initial Funds

A request for initial funds was included in the navy's $758,000,000 budget for the forthcoming fiscal year, on which a house appropriations subcommittee started hearings yesterday.

It is expected that funds for the third 45,000-ton vessel authorized in the expansion act, and others of the same magnitude, will be sought at the next and subsequent sessions of congress, in the absence of a new treaty curb on the world arms and naval race.

The navy already has authority to replace battleships as they pass the age of maximum military usefulness. Nine thus will become "over age" by the end of 1946. Inasmuch as the former London treaty limit of 35,000 tons was increased 10,000 tons last year by joint action of the United States, Great Britain and France, some officials believe the replacements may be of the new maximum size without further legislation.

Only Even Chance Given Wet Proposal For Favorable Action

DES MOINES, March 28 (AP)—The future of the liquor-by-the-drink legislation tonight rested squarely in the hands of the Iowa house "sifting" committee, and not even the most optimistic would give the wet proposal more than an even chance of favorable action by that group.

The over-the-bar liquor bill made an unexpected and sudden appearance in the Iowa house this afternoon on the heels of concentrated pressure from hotel men and others favoring revision in the present monopoly set-up to meet local conditions.

The bill approved by Rep. Phil F. Roan (R) of Ft. Madison, and his house liquor committee, would grant limited local option for liquor-by-the-drink to clubs, hotels and buffets. The bill would repeal counties which voted dry on repeal by limiting option elections to regular elections. It would limit licenses to two for towns of less than 1,000, with one for each added 1,000.

Dancing and food would be distinctly divorced from grog, and licensing would range from $150 to $800.

Say Britain 'Actively Continues' Anti-Aggression Front Plans

LONDON, March 28 (AP)—The house of commons cheered today government announcements that Britain was "actively continuing" negotiations for an anti-aggression front and that "political developments made further progress impossible" in trade talks with Germany.

British diplomats, meanwhile, were reported to be seeking definite military alliances designed to halt the expansion of Nazi Germany; the government planned loans and subsidies to fit the merchant marine for possible use in wartime; an increase in the British territorial army was being considered, and General Viscount Gort, chief of the army general staff, went to France for military inspections.

Further Progress Impossible

Oliver Stanley, president of the board of trade, told the commons, gravely worried over the government's delay in rallying European democracies in a united front, that:

"I have informed the federation (of British industries) that while there can be no doubt regarding the value of the preliminary work which they have accomplished (in trade discussions with German industrialists), recent political developments have created a situation which while it lasts has made further progress impossible."

Prime Minister Chamberlain refused to end the secrecy surrounding British diplomacy, but said his plans to form a bloc against aggression went "a good deal further" than mere consultation among the interested powers.

HUGE PLANE To Initiate Transpacific Air Service

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28 (AP)—The greatest number of persons ever carried on a long range transoceanic plane trip—22 passengers and 12 crew members—will be aboard the 42-ton California Clipper when it departs tomorrow for Honolulu, (7 p.m. C.S.T.) en route to China.

This flight will inaugurate regular trans-Pacific passenger service by the world's largest commercial planes.

Nazi Diplomat Discusses With Minister Beck

WARSAW, March 28 (AP)—The German ambassador, Hans von Moltke, called on Foreign Minister Joseph Beck tonight and amid Polish anxiety over German expansion on the Baltic, held a conversation later described as "conciliatory."

Chancellor Hitler's envoy was reliably said to have assured Col. Beck that reports that Germany had demands to make on Poland were "absurd."

The visit marked Col. Beck's first conversation with von Moltke since March 15, the day Germany established a protectorate over Bohemia and Moravia, although the envoy had been received four times by one of the foreign minister's assistants since then.

GETS WARNING Putnam Will Publish Hitler Story

LOS ANGELES, March 28 (AP)—George Palmer Putnam, publisher and husband of the late Amelia Earhart, said in a civic club address today he had received an anonymous telephone warning not to publish a fiction book, "The Man Who Killed Hitler."

"The German bund forbids you to publish that book," Putnam said the voice warned, but he announced it would be published.

May Demand Withdrawal Of Italian Troops

PARIS, March 28 (AP)—Informed diplomats expressed belief tonight that France would press demands for the early withdrawal of Italian forces from Spain as a sequel to the capitulation of Madrid to Generalissimo Franco's nationalist armies.

Both France and Britain prepared measures to cope with the new situation presented by the nationalist triumph.

In London it appeared that Britain's chief objective was to reassert her influence over Spain and keep the Rome-Berlin axis from dominating Franco. Britain's first ambassador to the nationalist regime, Sir Maurice Peterson, was expected to leave London for Burgos tomorrow.

Premier Edouard Daladier called his cabinet to meet at 11:00 a.m. tomorrow at the war ministry for a review of the Spanish war, the prospect of negotiations with Italy over Rome's claims against France and the state of French national defense.

Mayor Fires Wives On City Hall Staff; Sees Birth Rate Fall

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., March 28 (AP)—Declaring that married women worked to "escape from boredom" Mayor William H. Felker, demanded today the resignation of eight city hall "working wives" by June 15.

"Babies," he said, "interfere with jobs and freedom. Therefore, the birth rate falls and earnest citizens who can subtract two from two see our finish as a nation."

'Heartiest Congratulations'

BERLIN, (AP) Chancellor Adolf Hitler sent his "heartiest congratulations" to the Spanish Generalissimo, Francisco Franco, last night for his "final victory" while German newspapers greeted the fall of Madrid with big headlines.

FDR Farms Many Plan Welcome For Roosevelt

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., March 28 (AP)—West Georgia farm and village folk prepared to welcome Franklin Delano Roosevelt back to the neighborhood as just another farmer home for a visit.

Many planned to watch his arrival as the president of the United States with all his official entourage, while others awaited a casual chat with him as a neighbor, out to see the freshly turned acres, the blossoming peach trees and the brightening grassland of this section of the state.

No formal welcome ceremony was arranged. Personal friends planned to be on hand, but as far as the president's neighbors—many of whom he knows by their first names—can make it so, the visit will be quiet and restful.

William Rivkin Wins Gilmore Oration Award

William Rivkin, A2 of Davenport, received first place in the final round of the local competition of the Northern Oratorical League last night.

He will be awarded the Gilmore prize of $25 for his oration, titled "Symbol of Despotism," and will represent the University of Iowa in the Northern Oratorical league contest in Iowa City the first week in May.

Rivkin, who traced the history of Jewish persecution, won over four other contestants, Clair Henderdier, Nona Seberg, Anthony Pacioti and Merle Miller.

"When the Jews suffer, Christians suffer, too," Rivkin said. "The Jew is always the scapegoat in the hands of a demagogue."

The speaker declared that anti-Semitism is rising in the United States.

Judges of the contest were Prof. Harry G. Barnes, Prof. H. Clay Harshbarger, Eugene Chenoweth and Orvin P. Larson. The chairman was Prof. A. Craig Baird.

The $25 prize was offered first by President Walter A. Jessup and the custom has been continued by President Eugene A. Gilmore.

'Dream Bandit' Sentenced After Pleading Guilty

DES MOINES, March 28 (AP)—Willard Dahl, 19, dubbed by police as the "dream bandit" pleaded guilty to a robbery charge here today and was sentenced by District Judge Loy Ladd to an indeterminate term of not more than 10 years in the state reformatory.

Dahl was charged with robbing Kathleen Vaughn of $11 several weeks ago under circumstances she described as "like a dream." She told police she was summoned from bed to the door of her apartment by a youth who said he had a message from her boy friend. Instead of getting a message, she was robbed.

Judge Wants Actress There Court Refuses To Grant Joan Crawford 'Mail Order Divorce'

LOS ANGELES, March 28 (AP)—For fear, he said, that California might get the name of granting "mail order divorces," a superior judge today refused to take Joan Crawford's word—via a deposition—that she should be divorced from Franchot Toner.

Judge Benjamin Schienman continued the case until April 18, with the proviso that if anything happened to keep the movie star from coming to court then, her attorney should notify him and arrange for a later date.

And so Joan, in New York, announced through a spokesman that she would comply with the court's wishes and return home Sunday—"ready to testify personally when the case is called."

"I want to see the plaintiff as well as hear her testimony," the judge said after Joan's attorney explained it was necessary at the moment for her to be in New York—where the reporters find her much in the company of Franchot. Hollywood recalled that Miss Crawford was very friendly with her first husband, Douglas Fairbanks Jr., after their divorce.

The men, James Crawford, Gail Manley, Harlan Kiltz, Francis Hawk and Ray Barnes, all were charged with burglary.

'Tarzan' Did Not Fire Shot That Killed Gawthrop

POWELL, Wyo., March 28—A coroner's jury decided today that Earl Durand, 26-year-old Wyoming Tarzan slayer, did not fire the bullet that killed a 20-year-old teller in the bank holdup that ended Durand's nine-day crime career Friday.

Witnesses testified that in the confusion it was impossible to tell who shot John Gawthrop, the teller. Dr. F. A. Mills said a bullet removed from Gawthrop's chest was not of the same calibre as the gun Durand used.

and assembly which allows it to attempt to undermine our existing form of government. This organization is presenting a serious challenge to our democratic form of government, for if we suppress the movement as is suggested, we ourselves would be violating the very principles which we are striving to maintain.

A national organization called "Friends of Democracy" has formed a committee of outstanding educators and business and professional men to promote its work of combating fascism in the United States. This committee is composed of such great men as Thomas Mann, Will Durant and Dr. Robert A. Millikan. But instead of asking that organizations like the German-American Bund be suppressed and their members deported, the Friends of Democracy are attempting to disseminate counter propaganda in favor of our existing order, and at the same time insist that we concentrate on making democracy really work.

If we can make democracy work, both politically and economically, we will never have to worry about a minority group undermining our system of government. It is only when our present order is proving unsatisfactory and is failing to give our citizens the equal opportunities which it promises, that we need to worry about anti-democratic propaganda.

Music

Hath

Charm!

SEMI-FINALS in the sing fest for the campus men's groups will be tonight in Macbride auditorium. Four campus women's groups have already been selected to appear in the final contest April 30.

We can think of few other activities of campus groups that do as much by promoting friendly rivalry among the groups, a situation that develops "school spirit" in a student body.

The psychologists have probed into the attractions of music. They've found that music's appeal to our emotions is very great. These university groups work together in an attempt to bring honor to their organization. That, we believe, is healthy for both the individual organizations and the university as a whole.

If you missed the women's semi-finals, you'll be interested in the men's contest tonight and the final of the University Sing Fest next month.

Letters To The Editor

The opinions expressed in this column do not necessarily represent the opinions of the editor or The Daily Iowan and should not be construed as such.

To the Editor, More and more thoughtful American citizens are centering attention on the problem of preserving democracy. These people realize that foreign propaganda and internal conditions are serious threats to democracy and that the answers to these attacks must be immediately forthcoming.

Also many of these people express the conviction that the maintenance of democracy is bound up with the invigoration of religious faith,—with its emphasis on the sovereignty of God and the inherent worth of the individual. Vital religion can and will do much to preserve democracy principles.

The struggle which we face is essentially one of religion and democracy against propagandas of hatred and strife; it is one of "all religion against irreligion." As such, there is an ever increasing need for Americans who love liberty and do not want to see this country disfigured by religious and racial hatreds, which have torn other countries,—to mobilize with their fellows who are attempting to defend our historic freedoms.

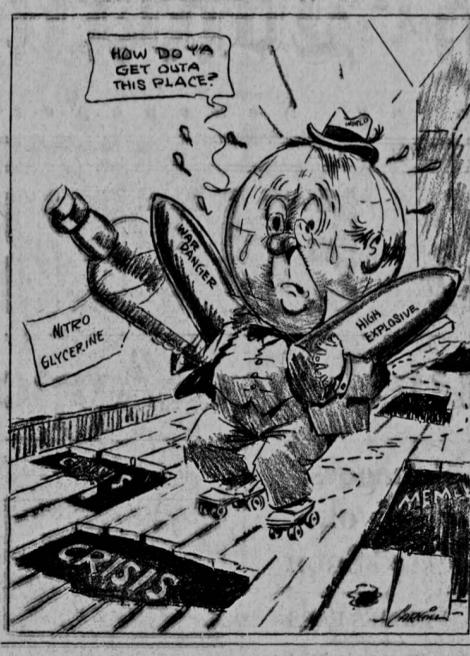

The National Conference of Christians and Jews, founded in 1928 by Newton D. Baker, Charles Evans Hughes and Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, is earnestly striving through a national educational program to see that this contagion does not spread here. Through round tables of Protestants, Catholics and Jews and through all sorts of educational activity, it is endeavoring to promote respect and trust, which are absolutely essential in a democracy, and to organize cooperation on matters of common interest and concern.

The National Conference Co-chairmen are Nobel prize winner physicist, Dr. Arthur H. Compton, Columbia university's historian, Dr. Carleton J. H. Hayes and businessman, Roger Williams Straus. The national director is Dr. Everett R. Clinchy.

The National Conference solicits the membership and financial support of all citizens, Protestants, Catholics and Jews, who believe that demagogic appeals to hatred must be met by an ever increasing campaign for Good Will. No greater task confronts this nation and the National Conference is carrying an important part of the burden.

Willard Johnson, Regional Secretary.

It's a little difficult to forgive the political scientist theorists, three that I know, who didn't vote in Monday's election. . . . Especially the one who has gall enough to go around making speeches about "Making Democracy Work."

I haven't much defense for folks who like the democratic way but can't find time to get down to the polls two or three times a year. . . .

I'll bet if a survey were made, more Iowa Citizens than university voters voted Monday. . . . Someone could write a nice denunciation about that. . . . I wish somebody would. . . .

The purpose of education in a democracy, in my mind, at least, is to train citizens. . . . Are some profs too busy, then, to be citizens themselves? . . .

There's a sorry commentary on university life. . . . Put down a big, black mark, somebody. . . .

Would that have anything to do with Americanism? . . . Oh, no, that's tonight at 7:30. . . .

I've heard that University Heights'll be a part of the good town of Iowa City before you can blink an eye. . . .

The U. Heights council, incidentally, might be a model for a good many larger towns I could mention but won't. . . .

This was the exchange of notes I managed with a senior in one of yesterday's classes. . . .

He wrote, "If I were a freshman now, I would get a group of students together and do just what we thought would benefit us most, drop courses, cut exams, tell the

The eye needs no treatment to keep it healthy if it is already healthy. I mean that a daily eye wash is unnecessary. The eye washes itself, with a constant flow of a neutral lubricating fluid secreted by the lacrimal, or tear glands. The fluid is slightly antiseptic and prevents the growth of germs under ordinary circumstances. It washes out or dissolves all sorts of dust and foreign matter which naturally gets into the eyes on account of their constant exposure to the air.

To put drops in the eyes at night or in the morning, or to use an eye cup to wash them when there is nothing the matter, is not only unnecessary but positively likely to bring on trouble as the eye wash probably weakens the defenses.

The eye, however, as we say, is constantly exposed to irritation and infections, and sooner or later, in all of us, the defenses break down and it succumbs. There is hardly any human being who has not once had a case of pinkeye, or at least irritation of the lids with some little gummy secretion in the morning.

When these minor irritations occur, it is then time to use the ANDREA LEEDS . . . will be the principal guest star on the Texaco Star Theater program at 8 o'clock tonight over the Columbia network.

FRED ALLEN . . . will present tonight, as his "person you didn't expect to meet," a 15-year-old boy who is president, general manager, majority stockholder and sole employee of a thriving New York corporation. The program airs over NBC's Red network at 8 o'clock.

The young tycoon is Erwin Firschein, founder of the Brooklyn Bee and Honey Co., Inc. His plant of 78 bee hives is located in a crowded area behind his apartment house, much to the dismay of his neighbors.

In addition to the person you didn't expect to meet, Fred will present his famous satire on the news of the day, drama by the Mighty Allen Art Players, chit-chat with Portland Hoffa, and the final bit of evidence to prove that Jack Benny is an imposter, none other than one Maxwell Stroud.

And whether you care to place any faith in this bit of gossip, it's said that to further unmask Mr. Benny, Fred will broadcast his own version on Town Hall Tonight, with some half-dozen nondescript individuals who have hobbies not recognized as hobbies on the Elman show—among them a man whose hobby is shaking hands with people who have shaken hands with John L. Sullivan.

The queen, who has buzzed around a lot in her day, will testify that as a young girl many years ago she stung a young boy in Waukegan called Maxwell Stroud—an injection manifested many years later when the supposed Jack Benny got a violent phobia for playing a violin known as "The Bee."

The rest—Peter Van Steeden, the Merry Macs, Helen Carroll and the Town Hall Singers—will be on hand.

HOLLYWOOD—Abe Lincoln's in town, in Springfield, Lincoln to the life. The young Lincoln, unburied, but tall and gangling, and hawk-eyed, heavy-browed, already a shade gaunt.

He's 23—this "Young Mr. Lincoln." And although he's Henry Fonda, he doesn't look like Fonda any more.

Fonda spends two hours each morning turning into Lincoln in make-up, and it's a remarkable resemblance he attains. It's the addition of the brows and the white mole on his right cheek, but most of all it's the nose. Thin layer on thin layer of plastic material, this nose is applied and rounded to natural smoothness. The nose has its own nostrils, far below Hank Fonda's own, but it looks as if it grew on his face.

"I'd be in a heck of a mess if I caught cold," says Hank. "I'd blow my nose off."

"Young Mr. Lincoln" is an original story promoted by Darryl Zanuck while other producers were bidding fantastic sums for "Abe Lincoln in Illinois," the New York stage hit. Story and screenplay were written by Lamar Trotti—who hails from Atlanta, Ga., and for all that has been studying Lincoln admiringly for years.

The story (contradict the studio if you know differently) represents the first time the earlier phases of the Lincoln career have been considered on stage or screen. Its climax is a murder trial in which the young lawyer presents his first case—and wins, dramatically, to inaugurate his career.

Directed by John Ford—that pipe-smoking chap over there in the blue beret—the picture reproduces the tragic love of Ann Rutledge (Pauline Moore) and the later romance with Mary

General Notices

Graduate Students Each student in the graduate college who expects to receive the master's degree or the doctorate at the forthcoming convocation June 5, is requested, so far as he or she may not have done so heretofore, to procure for us immediately the official transcript of whatever graduate work he may have accomplished in another graduate school; so that this may be taken into account in determining whether he or she fulfills the requirements for the higher degree sought.

This should be done immediately; otherwise, it is possible that we shall be unable to certify for graduation next June a student who may have accomplished satisfactory graduate work elsewhere, because we shall not have received the requisite official statement of it early enough.

H. C. DORCAS, Registrar

June Graduates Every student who expects to receive a degree or a certificate at the university convocation Monday, June 5, 1939, should make his formal application on a card provided for the purpose at the registrar's office on or before Thursday, March 30.

It is of the utmost importance that each student concerned comply with this request immediately for otherwise it is very likely that, although he may be qualified in other respects, he will not be recommended for graduation at the close of the present semester. Making application for the degree or certificate involves the payment of the graduation fee ($16.00). Call at the registrar's office for the card.

Law Scholarships The college of law is prepared to award a number of scholarships to qualifying students from the college of liberal arts and the college of commerce for the academic year 1939-1940.

Applicants must have completed all required work for the baccalaureate degree. Beyond this, appointments will be determined on a basis of sound scholarship, effective personality, high character, and a sincere intention to continue the study of law at this university.

Eligibility in the light of these requirements should be disclosed to the committee in a letter of application and supporting recommendations addressed to the undersigned. The applicant's letter should be a thoughtful and well written document. Candidates for the scholarships should also be prepared to meet with the committee (composed of Prof. George F. NEW YORK—Not long ago there is no reason to think Glenn Miller won't be a ranking organization by September.

At first glance (for me) he was as good as anybody. He plays any style music well. There was a crowd of about 900 dancers when we were there and they were eating him up. They made the floor rock. Meadowbrook is used to good bands, and when Miller first arrived the crowd—mostly youngsters and jitterbugs—stood around looking askance at him. They weren't sure whether they were going to like him or not. They are a critical lot, those jitterbugs. They know what they want and are satisfied with nothing less.

But they went for Glenn Miller. If they did, so will you. They know him now. You will too before long.

Miller is a tall, very pleasant fellow with a fine presence, always a saleable asset in a leader. He has a good looking band—maybe 14 pieces and 40 vocalists. It is a band equal at home in swing or with ballads. It is the only band I know that swings "Happy Birthday to You," and the effect was so unusual, so different from the straight refrain, that people all over the room were laughing and commenting on it. That's a little thing, to be sure. But it is those little tricks and surprises that frequently spell the difference between just a good band and another good band which can arrange—which is ample

Whitney Martin's SPORTS TRAIL

- Sluggers Wanted
- League Tougher
- Cooney A Problem

BRADENTON, Fla., March 28 (AP) — Casey Stengel was speaking, and I glanced apprehensively at his weather-lined face and eased toward the door. The next thing he might be suggesting he would make me taller by tapping me on the head with a mallet.

"We could add power to our club," the Boston Bee skipper was saying, "and yet not win as many games as we did last year."

He shook a puzzled head.

Sluggers Wanted

"Our fans want to see hitting. The attendance probably would be better with a power club. But the only way we can add power would be to weaken the defense, and the increased hitting wouldn't offset the loss in defensive strength."

Despite this morose musing, the fact remains some power has been added without harming the defense. Al Simmons, late of Washington, can take care of left field nicely, and he hits them a mile. And Eddie Miller, a Kansas City star last year, has class written all over him at shortstop, and also swings a mean stick.

League Tougher

Stengel admits the club is better, but he doesn't know just how much good it will do.

"Suppose we are five per cent better. What good will it do us if the Giants, say, are 15 per cent better, or the Reds are 20 per cent better? We've got a chance at the first division, depending on how the other clubs have improved. The addition of Simmons, Miller and Al Todd (catcher with Pittsburgh last year), will help, and we will have more utility strength, one of our weaknesses last year."

Center and right field offer two problems. The Bee park is a whopper and outfielders who can rove are essential. Stengel has them, but until Simmons appeared the Rover boys were on the pallid side at the plate. Jim Outlaw, who had a good year with Syracuse, might help, but he's got to beat out John Cooney.

Cooney A Problem

"I've been trying to make a utility man of Cooney for two years, but can't do it," Stengel said as he watched the slight, 37-year-old athlete take his turn at batting practice.

"I'll show you why. Watch him now. I'll bet when he finishes batting he'll grab his glove and go out to snag flies." Sure enough, Cooney dropped his bat, picked up his glove and started for the outfield at a brisk trot.

The Bee's catching staff is fine, with Todd and the cagey Al Lopez. The pitching staff also is adequate, to put it mildly. Danny MacFadden, Jim Turner, Lou Fette, Milburn Shoffner and Dick Erickson had probably the lowest earned run average of any mound staff in the league. With the addition of Flashy Miller, as well as First Baseman Buddy Hassett, with Brooklyn last year, the infield has just one weakness—third base.

Aid To Arm

WINTER HAVEN, Fla., (AP) — The Columbus Red Birds of the American association received aid from their parent St. Louis Cardinals yesterday as the birds took options on Harold Epps, outfielder, and Herb Bremer, catcher.

East High Enters 20 Cindermen In State Meet to Defend Crown

Third Straight Victory Sought By Champions

East high school of Des Moines, state high school indoor track champions in 1937 and 1938, nominated 20 men yesterday to defend their championship and to attempt to make it three wins in a row. The meet is scheduled for Saturday in the Iowa field-house.

The defending champions led a list of 23 schools entered yesterday. Coach George Bresnahan, director of the meet, announced yesterday that, to date, 47 schools had entered a total of 345 individuals in the competition.

It seems likely that the meet record for the number of schools entered will be broken this year. Last year, the record year, 53 schools were entered with a total of 514 competitors. The team average this year is lower, however, and it is probable that there will be more teams with less athletes this year than last.

East high's neighbor, North of Des Moines, has entered the largest squad, 21 boys, followed by East's 20, and the 16 of Roosevelt of Cedar Rapids.

Two strangers to the state indoor meet, East and Central high schools of Sioux City have entered the competition this year. Each team nominated nine athletes.

Teams entered yesterday and the number of athletes from each are: Thornburg, 8; Sigourney, 10; East Sioux City, 9; Fairfield, 9; Burlington, 13; Keota, 8; Traer, 4; Mechanicsville, 6; Vinton (City), 10; Martinsburg, 5; Roosevelt of Cedar Rapids, 16; Anamosa, 4; Belle Plaine, 6; Central of Sioux City, 9; Perry, 2; Grinnell, 14; North Des Moines, 21; Ames, 11; Marshalltown, 9; West Branch, 7; Albia, 10; Valley of West Des Moines, 14, and East Des Moines 20.

Upper C Scores 29 Points To Annex Quad Swimming Title

Upper C captured the Quadrangle swimming meet last night by scoring a total of 29 points in seven events to nose out Lower D by two points.

Upper C and Lower D scored heavily in every event and dominated the entire meet. Lower A and Upper B were only able to collect thirteen points between them.

The meet was held simultaneously with Hillcrest, which entered only two teams—Second North and Third-North. Second North had little trouble in coping the Hillcrest title, scoring an impressive 49-6 victory over its rivals.

Individual scoring of the meet went to Carl Blandin as he won both the 100-yard free style and the 60-yard free style races for Lower D.

Kerstein did his bit for Upper C by winning the 60-yard back stroke, taking third in the 60-yard free style, and swimming on both the 160-yard and the medley relay teams.

Zwiefel (Upper B) won the 60-yard breast stroke and Lebeda (Lower D) won the low board diving, to complete the individual scoring. Upper C won

Cold Weather Hampers Hawk Diamond Drill

Cold weather yesterday limited the Iowa baseball team to hitting and fielding drill. An exhibition game between the regulars and the yannigans had to be called off.

A stiff east wind severely hampered the fielding, especially that of the outer gardeners. The bats, brittle because of the brisk weather, left many of the batsmen with stinging hands.

Coach Otto Vogel took it rather easy on his men in an effort to ward off stiff muscles. However, he plans to have a practice game on the docket every day this week, weather permitting.

The injuries which took a heavy toll last week are beginning to heal. Co-captain Art Manush, who injured his foot last week, has been taken to University hospital in order to insure his quick return to the squad. However, it is problematical if he will be able to accompany the team on its southern trip, as the Hawks are leaving Saturday.

Frank Kocur, out last week with a split thumb, has been able to work out with the squad this week, but the injury has not entirely healed yet. Kocur, a sophomore from Slater, had been getting the call at third base before his injury, but Vogel has not yet definitely decided on his starting lineup.

With a veteran at every position except third base, newcomers on the squad are having a hard time breaking into the lineup. Harry Bulow, sophomore infielder from Clinton, is one of the few rookies who has shown up well in recent practices. Frank Balazs, football star in his first year out for the diamond sport, also has looked good at times, but has offset this in other drills with ragged play.

Jeanne Cline's Rally Captures Golf Tourney

PINEHURST, N. C., March 28 (AP)—Fifteen-year-old Jeanne Cline of Bloomington, Ill., who played her first tournament golf last June, stole the show in the women's north and south event today with a 19-hole victory over Mrs. Myron Davy of Washington, D. C.

The sturdy, black-haired youngster won with a par four at the 19th in the first round of match play. She qualified yesterday for the top flight of 32 with an 83.

To get within striking distance, she rallied coming in, won the 15th and 16th with pars, and squared the match on the 457-yard 17th with a birdie four.

Joe Louis In Training For Jack Roper Go

LOS ANGELES, March 28 (AP)—Flooring one sparring partner and punishing two others badly, heavyweight champion Joe Louis got down to serious training today for his coming title bout with Los Angeles' Jack Roper.

While the veteran Roper remained at his mountain camp, Louis limbered up shadow boxing and then faced Hank Hankinson, elongated trial horse from Lancaster, O.

Hank soon was felled by a right to the head. The next sparring mate doubled up midway in the second from a blow to the stomach, and the third, Dynamite Jackson, Los Angeles Negro, was going great until pushed back on the ropes in the second frame and belted in the stomach.

Yanks Class

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Admitting the Yankees are the class of the American league, Manager Bucky Harris of Washington yesterday warned skeptics not to count the Senators out of the first division. He said Washington may beat out Boston, Detroit and Cleveland if his young pitchers come through.

Best of Luck, Ken

After Kenneth Kingsbury, left, had been elected by his mates yesterday to captain next year's wrestling team, one of the first to congratulate him was Carl Vergamini, right, leader of the matmen during the past season. Kingsbury, a

New Leader Will Succeed Carl Vergamini

136-Pound Star Had Good Record During Season Just Ended

Kenny Kingsbury, junior from Cherokee, was elected yesterday to the captaincy of next year's University of Iowa wrestling team. He will succeed Carl Vergamini of Council Bluffs as leader of the matmen.

Wrestling as a regular on Mike Howard's team during the last season, Kingsbury won three, lost one, and tied one match during the regular season and later went to the semi-finals in the Big Ten meet.

Included in his record during the winter were decisions over Kenneth Yoos of Kansas State and Hughes of Illinois, and a fall victory over Wright of Wisconsin. His one loss was to Culbertson of Minnesota, runnerup in the national meet, and he drew with Luke of Nebraska. During the meet with Northwestern and Iowa State Teachers, Kingsbury was laid up with the flu, which fact considerably weakened the Iowa lineup.

For the Big Ten meet, Kingsbury brought his weight down from the 135-pound class, where he had been wrestling, to the 128-pound division. After winning his way to the semi-finals, he was eliminated by Hanson, the Minnesota star who went on to win the title and later added the national title to his collection. Hanson was voted the outstanding wrestler in the national meet.

Although Vergamini, the captain of the season just past, is a senior, he still has one semester of competition left and will be available for the opening matches of next year. He will also be eligible for football next fall, and intends to report for spring football this week. Vergamini had thought his college competition over, but it was discovered that he did not compete during the first semester of his sophomore year and is, therefore, eligible until next February.

Only members of the mat squad to be lost this June will be Wilbur Need, heavyweight star who won the Big Ten title, and Merrill Johnson, regular 165-pounder during the past season.

Besides Vergamini and Kingsbury, there will be several experienced men on hand at the start of next season for Howard's mat team. Billy Sherman, third place winner in the 121-pound division of the conference meet, Clarence Kemp, 155-pounder, Wayne Hardin, 145-pounder, and Louis George, who wrestled in both the 135 and 145-pound classes, will all be back to form the nucleus of the squad.

Matches Held in Second Annual All-University Fencing Meet

LOS ANGELES, March 28 (AP)—Bill Lee, the National league's leading pitcher last season, was just another guy today to the Chicago White Sox as the American leaguers defeated the Chicago Cubs, 10 to 8.

The Sox hopped on Lee for six hits and six runs, including Eric McNair's home run, in the first inning and added two more runs in the third inning, last frame Lee worked.

Despite their victory on 15 hits, the Sox were out-hit, the Cubs solving two pitchers for 17 hits but many of them were wasted.

Yesterday's matches saw five fencers vie for honors in the round robin tourney. Of the five, two were chosen, on the merit of their competitive performances, to enter the final round against opponents similarly chosen from the two remaining groups of fencers.

In the initial round Marsh Smith and William Patterson were the victorious fencers, each defeating three of the four opponents to face him. While dueling Smith showed a decided knowledge of the elementary techniques, as did Morehouse, who although unorthodox in style managed to display enough mastery to enter the final matches.

The other fencers to compete in the qualifying round are: Dan Isaacson, George Fieselman, Louis Barlund, James Ryan, Jack Somny and Lowell Goddard. From this group, which will fence Thursday afternoon, two will be chosen to enter the final round.

The results: Larry Morehouse defeated Marsh Smith 5-3, Avery Peterson defeated Russell Moore 5-4, Bill Patterson defeated Peterson 6-3, Smith defeated Moore 5-2, Smith defeated Moore 5-3, Patterson defeated Peterson 5-0, Morehouse defeated Peterson 5-4, Smith defeated Morehouse 5-4.

Bosox Rookie Pitches Mates To 3-2 Victory

SEBRING, Fla., March 28 (AP)—Woodrow Wilson Rich, prize right-handed rookie of the Boston Red Sox, led his team to a 3-2 six-inning victory over the Yankee-owned Newark Bears today, with rain forcing a halt early in the seventh inning.

Rich worked five innings, holding the Bears to three hits. The three Sox runs were bunched in the fifth, when Jimmy Fox opened with a single. A pass to Bobby Doer and three scratchy singles by Johnny Peacock, Rich and Doc Cramer accounted for the scoring.

The Sox management announced today they would return to Sarasota for training next spring.

Pirates Flay San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 28 (AP)—Rookies Maurice Van Robays and Bill Clemensen played feature roles today as the Pittsburgh Pirates beat San Francisco 12 to 2.

Van Robays' towering fly sent Heinie Manush home with the second of three runs scored in the first frame. # Rock Island Woman Elected President of Hadassah Group

Delegates From Nine Cities Gathered For Annual Conference

Mrs. Max R. Smith of Rock Island was elected the president of the mid-west region of Hadassah during the fourth annual meeting of the chapters of the organization in Iowa Union yesterday. Mrs. M. J. Frankel of Cedar Rapids was elected vice-president, and Mrs. Seymour Krantz of Waterloo was elected secretary.

One hundred and thirty-five delegates from Cedar Rapids, Waterloo, Dubuque, Muscatine, Marshalltown, Iowa City and the Tri-cities attended the all-day session.

Mrs. Jack Lubin of Iowa City served as general chairman of the affair and she was assisted by Mrs. Sam Whitebook, local chapter president.

Mrs. Harry Strom of Waterloo discussed the hospital in Palestine; the Zionist Congress was discussed by Mrs. Jerome Zessen of Rock Island; Irene Slizzin discussed the Youth Aliyah, and "The Political Situation in Palestine" was discussed by Mrs. Frankel of Cedar Rapids.

Round table discussions of these reports and problems of the current chapter work were also presented. Reports on the credentials committee, the resolutions committee and the nominating committee were then received. The slate of officers recommended by the nominating committee were unanimously elected at this time.

The Cedar Rapids chapter extended an invitation for the next conference to meet there and this was accepted.

The delegates met for luncheon in the river room. Mrs. Whitebook extended greetings to the assemblage on behalf of the local chapter after Dr. Moses Jung of the university school of religion had given the invocation.

Decorations on the luncheon tables were in the organization colors of blue and white with the American and Palestinian flags back of the speakers' table. Flowers centering the tables were white stock, carnations and blue cornflowers. The favors were made in the form of printed programs of the convention in the shape of the traditional Hebrew scroll representing the Parchment of Torah on which is inscribed the Hebrew laws and the Bible.

The main speaker of the occasion was Prof. Stephen Bush of the Romance language department who discussed "The Jewish Scene in the World Today." Professor Bush drew his observations from his recent travels in the countries of Europe where he reviewed current conditions.

Berta Zimmerman, a student in the university, sang two numbers. Mrs. Gerald Buxton provided the piano accompaniment. Mrs. M. J. Pearlman of Chicago, formerly past president of the region and now chairman of education for the whole region, addressed the group on education problems and offered constructive aids for the chapters.

Also along educational lines was the technicolor film presented by Mrs. Leon Sager of Chicago, who recently traveled in Palestine. The new hospital which will be dedicated on May 9, was one of the projects Mrs. Sager showed and commented upon in her short explanatory lecture.

Local chapter committees who worked on convention plans included the following members: Registration—Mrs. Lou Shulman, Mrs. Ira Glassman; hospitality—Mrs. A. Braverman; Mrs. Harry Shulman, Mrs. J. Goldberg and Mrs. Joe Glassman; luncheon—Mrs. Eli Braverman and Mrs. Dave Braverman.

The wedding will take place in late spring. Miss Schulzke attended Lindenwood college in St. Charles, Mo., and the University of Arizona in Tucson, Ariz., where she was a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

Attorney Gehlbach was graduated from the college of commerce of the University of Iowa and later received his law degree from the university. He is a member of Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity. At the present he is a member of the law firm of Wood, McNeal and Gehlbach in Ogden.

Roof-Top Sparks Destroy 70 Houses

ALEXANDRIA (AP)—A spark from a fire by which a native woman was cooking on the roof of her house set her own dwelling ablaze and spread over Sannanoud, in Lower Egypt, to destroy 70 houses.

It took fire brigades from six provincial towns seven hours to quell the outbreak.

School for The Blind Play Entry

Blind Pupils Amaze Audience

Vinton Play Group Presents 'Sod' Tragedy In Skillful, Realistic Fashion

Four high school students who have never seen a moving picture or a play amazed a University theater audience yesterday morning with their skill.

Participants in the Iowa Play Production festival, these students, from the Iowa school for the blind at Vinton, presented a short tragedy, "Sod," by Stuart Hunter.

So well done was the Vinton production that the audience would not have been aware the actors were blind had it not been indicated by the program.

Depending on the senses of touch and hearing, the Vinton students learn to act, sit and walk normally, forgetting in their short hours on the stage that they cannot see.

The sightless actors were Mary Vuper, Alvin Claassen, Ruth Lerdal and Paul VanderWaal. They are all high school students, the first three being seniors, and VanderWaal, a junior.

Competing with 67 casts from as many schools, 20 of which are in Class C with Vinton, they have "a better than average" chance to gain a superior rating when results of the judging are announced Sunday.

Donald Winbigger, in charge of the event, said that this is the first year the school for the blind has entered a play in the 14-year-old event.

Play production is an extracurricular activity at the school for the blind, growing out of work done in the creative English class taught by Mrs. Irma VanderVeer McAtee.

Approximately 30 plays are produced each year by the blind students. They are staged with complete props and scenery, and make-up is used, although the actors can hardly know the meaning of it.

The students apply their own make-up, except in character roles when their director, Mrs. McAtee, assists them.

All of the actors except Claassen are totally blind. Claassen has less than five per cent vision.

"Our folks learn their parts after writing their lines from dictation on a Braille reader," Mrs. McAtee said. "Lack of money makes it impossible for us to buy copies of a play in Braille editions."

Never having seen, the blind students have no knowledge of facial expressions. In order to learn how to get the correct expressions, the students feel the face of their director while she demonstrates. Mrs. McAtee believes teaching them these expressions with which they are unfamiliar is the most difficult phase of directing.

Judges and the audience were amazed by the accuracy with which the actors moved about the stage in their presentation. Never once did they falter, moving from one property to another with perfect naturalness and entering doors without the least misjudgment.

"It was absolutely amazing and astounding," Mr. Winbigger commented. Acting is valuable, Mrs. McAtee pointed out, in teaching the students real-life situations. "They learn sighted situations," she said, "and acting helps them to overcome mannerisms they might acquire by being blind."

"They forget they are blind," she said, "and increase their self-confidence by stage work."

Mrs. McAtee believes her blind students are much easier to work with than students with sight. The Vinton pupils memorize their lines easily and are anxious to rehearse as frequently as possible, no work being too hard.

The Vinton school gives many of its students a college entrance course; others learn trades. Both Miss Vuper and Miss Lerdal plan to enter the University of Iowa next fall; the former is interested in both speech and journalism; Miss Lerdal plans to study journalism. Both have had creative writing accepted by periodicals.

Prof. Earl C. Seigfried, critic-judge from Washburn college, compared the Vinton cast's work with that of two other schools and pointed out that characterization and stage movements were of the finest in "Sod."

It will be the 59th annual Governor's day, the event ranking second to commencement among old university ceremonies. The affair is the climax of the year's work in the military department.

Some 500 guests will gather for the reception and luncheon, the guest list including the governor's staff, Iowa executive officers, United States senators and representatives from Iowa, members of the state supreme court, state senators, members of the board of education and university executives.

Manry Tells Indian Beliefs Describes Many Phases of Hindu Life In Illustrated Lecture

By IRENE SUTTON

"India is a fascinating part of the world, inhabited by a very lovely people," stated Dr. James C. Manry of Allahabad Christian College, India, in his illustrated lecture on his "Work and Surroundings" presented last night at Old Capitol.

Dr. Manry described many phases of life in India as discovered while he took part in a pilgrimage with the Hindu people through the Himalayas.

As a part of their religious belief, hundreds of thousands of Hindus go on pilgrimages along the Ganges during three months of the year, stopping at each junction of the river to wash away their sins in the sacred river. Their four principal sources for worship occur at Deo Prayag, Gangotri, Haridwar and Juma. Dr. Manry pointed out.

The Hindus travel mostly on foot over the rocky paths of the Himalayas, crossing over wide ranges of snow without any sort of protection on their feet. Their clothing, as a rule, consists of wide strips of cotton or woolen material which they drape about themselves in Hindu fashion. Two changes of dress are all that they need on their trip, one to be worn while the other is washed out and dried.

In this manner they travel very simply, carrying their personal goods on their head during the trip. Balancing a bundle of clothes on one's head while walking along a suspension bridge (consisting of one rope to walk on and two ropes to be grasped by the hands) or walking along the edge of a one thousand foot precipice is an art acquired only by these native people.

According to Dr. Manry, the Hindus bathe at the junctions of the Ganges river as a part of their ritualistic belief. Whether the water is cold or the river dangerous with long deep pools and rapids, they submerge themselves, sometimes using long chains attached to the bank to prevent slipping on treacherous rocks.

No personal discomfort is too great to endure for the sake of their religion. Many of them die on the way, but never begrudge their life to the sacred cause. Their bodies are cremated, and the ashes thrown into a sacred stream along the way, Dr. Manry said.

Believing that they are required to return to this earth in various forms of animals, the Hindus make these pilgrimages to reduce these returns.

Observant of the custom that all forms of life are sacred, the Hindus seldom kill animals for food during the course of their journey. After bathing in the rivers, they feed the fish rather than catching and eating them. The animal most sacred to them is the cow, to which they offer gifts of all kinds. Nevertheless, the common belief that all Hindus are vegetarians is erroneous, says Dr. Manry, because they do eat mutton, goat meat and several other forms.

Other kinds of ritual participated in during the pilgrimages consist of ringing bells at the various shrines of worship, always journeying with the right shoulder towards the shrine, and various forms of praying.

Economically well-to-do classes for the most part engage in these pilgrimages, with the groups composed of more women than men. Explaining this, Dr. Manry stated that the women perhaps had more time than the men to engage in travel and that it offered them an opportunity to see the country.

The setting of these pilgrimages with the Himalayas providing magnificent backgrounds seemed more than enchanting to Dr. Manry, but he expressed the attitude of the natives toward the beauty of nature as being entirely indifferent.

For the past 25 years Dr. Manry has worked with the people of India, returning there following his year of graduate study here. During this time he has never ceased to marvel at the magnitude and beauty of the Himalayas and is content to work among the people of that territory.

Western Influence Found in Clothes

Yippee! Yi-oh! The western influence is being shown in the sport clothes smart hembres will step out in this summer. Rodeo beach pajamas are among the first—and plain wool cowboy pants with plaid inserts down the leg are startlingly amusing. Matching boleros with simulated cartridge pockets of plaid and the real honest-to-goodness of Wild West shirts are complements.

Canvass Confirms Election of Divided City Administration

Final Vote Count Gives Henry F. Willenbrock 19 Vote Lead Over Mayor Myron J. Walker

Six Citizens' Party Representatives To Control City Council

The prospect of a divided city administration faced Iowa City today after the official canvass of the ballots in Monday's city election gave Henry F. Willenbrock, democrat, a margin of 19 votes over Myron J. Walker, incumbent citizens' non-partisan candidate, for the mayor position.

Six of the seven aldermen posts were filled by the incumbent members of the citizens' party, and the seventh, the third ward representative, will be held by a democrat.

The election campaign which reached a climax at Monday's balloting was one of the most highly contested in recent years and more than 5,500 ballots, approximately five hundred less than were voted two years ago, were cast.

The official results of yesterday's canvass leaves the citizens' party in control at the city hall with the exception of the offices which the mayor fills by appointments, the police chief, fire chief and city clerk. The majority of six out of seven votes which the citizens' councilmen hold is sufficient to override the mayor's veto.

A law which was passed by the state legislature two years ago limits the mayor's appointments in the police and fire departments to the present chiefs or members of the department.

It has been a custom for many years for the fire chief to be appointed from the ranks of the department, but this will be the first selection to be made under the new statute in the police department. Should W. H. Bender, the present chief of police, be not re-appointed, he will be eliminated from the department because he is not under the civil service as are the other members.

The race for mayor was one of two close contests in the balloting, John Grady obtaining a five vote margin over Walter E. Riley for the first ward alderman post. It was reported last night that neither Mayor Walker nor Riley would contest the election of their opponents.

The six citizens' party aldermen who were re-elected are Everett R. Means and John J. Ostdiek, aldermen-at-large; John Grady, first ward; R. J. Phelps, fourth ward, and C. E. Beck, fifth ward. Sam Whiting Jr. defeated John Novotny for the third ward position.

Other candidates who were re-elected are Dr. W. M. Rohrbacher and Charles A. Beckman, park commissioners; Burke N. Carson, police judge; E. D. Raymond, city treasurer, and William J. White, city assessor. All of the officials are members of the citizens' ticket with the exception of White who is a democrat.

City Clerk Grover Watson and Justice of the Peace J. M. Kadlec completed the canvass of the ballots yesterday morning and the successful candidates received certificates of election from the city clerk's office yesterday afternoon.

The new mayor and members of the city council will be sworn into office next Monday noon.

Early Morning Blaze Causes $600 Damage

Fire gutted the home of James Wonick, 824 E. Jefferson street, at 1:30 a.m. yesterday, causing an estimated damage of $600 to the house and furnishings, Fire Chief J. J. Clark reported.

No one was in the house at the time the fire was discovered. Thick smoke rolling into the window of a neighbor gave first warning of the fire.

Flames broke out in a closet behind a doorway, firemen said. A galvanized iron roof kept the flames in check. It was this fact that probably kept the house from being a total loss, Chief Clark said. Because most of the fire was concealed in the walls, firemen donned masks to fight the fire from within the structure.

Reviews Land Bank Statistics Before Clubs

Organization Aims To Pay Off Stock Government Holds

Norman L. Landers, assistant secretary of the Federal Land bank of Omaha, Neb., reviewed the history and statistics of federal land banks before members of Iowa City service clubs at the Jefferson hotel yesterday noon.

The chief aim at the present time, Landers declared, is to pay off the stock the government holds in the bank.

On the historical side Landers said the federal land bank was established 22 years ago with charters being issued in Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota, and Wyoming.

"In 1929," he revealed, "the federal land bank had a capitalization of $170,000,000 in 27,000 loans, it owned 185 farms in four states and within the two years of 1927 and 1929 there were 502 farm loan associations formed."

The federal land bank today has assets amounting to $392,000,000 with 77,000 loans, he continued.

Considering the possibility of lower rates, Landers said the problem arises concerning the number of delinquent loans outstanding.

"It is the purpose of the federal land bank," he concluded, "to give the farmers long time loans at a lower interest rate. We want all of the farmers to be free and independent of any incumbrances. The new interest rate is four per cent and our appraisals on farms are made not on the selling price of the farm but on what the farm will produce."
