Roosevelt Submits Reorganization Plan

Would Form 3 Agencies In New Grouping

Federal Loan, Aid, Social Security Will Be Main Bureaus

WASHINGTON, April 25 (AP)—Asserting that at a time of "ruthless" attacks on democracy it is necessary to keep democracy's tools up to date, President Roosevelt submitted to congress today a plan for a major reorganization of powerful federal agencies.

The plan calls for the establishment of three new agencies, with present relief activities to be consolidated under one, lending activities under another and social security functions under the third. In addition, the budget bureau and some other agencies are to be transferred to the White House.

Mr. Roosevelt informed congress that the aim of this "reorganization plan No. 1" was to "improve the administrative management of the republic" and to save some $15,000,000 to $20,000,000.

Two Plans Forthcoming

At a press conference later in the day, he announced that two more plans would be forthcoming at this session of congress—one dealing with inter-departmental transfers and mergers, and the other with changes within departments. The latter will combine all law enforcement agencies of the treasury.

F. D. R. Plans Agencies

In the senate, there were reports that no major fight would be made against it, by either democratic or republican blocs. Senator McNary (R-Ore) the republican floor leader said the proposals would be carefully studied and "warmly embraced" if they pointed to "economy and simplification" in government.

A "Federal Security Agency"

into which would go the social security board, the civilian conservation corps, the U. S. employment service, the office of education, the public health service, and the national youth administration. Some of the agencies affected are now independent, and the others are scattered through three departments.

"Federal Works Agency"

under which would be consolidated the works progress administration (under the new title of "work projects administration") the public works administration, the U. S. housing authority, the bureau of public roads, the public buildings branch of the treasury's procurement division, and the branch of buildings management of the national park service.

Federal Loan Agency

A "federal loan agency" to include the reconstruction finance corporation, the RFC mortgage association, the electric home and farm authority, the disaster loan corporation, the federal national mortgage association, the federal home loan bank board, the home owners loan corporation, the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, the federal housing administration, and the export-import bank of Washington.

Lending agencies having to do with agriculture—the farm credit administration, the federal farm mortgage corporation and the commodity credit corporation—would be made part of the agriculture department.

Budget Bureau To President

To the direct supervision of the president would go the budget bureau, and under it the central statistical board, and the functions of the national resources committee and federal employment stabilization office, the last two consolidated under a new national resources planning board.

For each of the three new general agencies, a $12,000-a-year administrator appointed by the president subject to the approval of the senate, would be provided, together with an assistant administrator at $9,000 annually.

KIDNAP THREAT

Guard Bing Crosby's Lake Home

LOS ANGELES, April 25 (AP)—The Toluca lake home of Bing Crosby, film and radio singing star, was under guard tonight, his studio disclosed, because of a kidnap threat against one of his four children. Crosby refused to discuss the matter and said he had been pledged to secrecy by agents of the federal bureau of investigation. Federal agents, the studio source said, talked with him on a motion picture set there late last week.

Mrs. F.D.R. Silenced

Secret Service Stops Her From Telling About Royal Suites

WASHINGTON, April 25 (AP)—Britain's Scotland Yard and the United States secret service silenced Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt today when she started to tell reporters about living quarters that would be provided for King George VI and Queen Elizabeth during their June visit to the White House.

When her secretaries reminded her that there were restrictions, the first lady cut off a review of tentative plans she formerly had announced. She said she would be unable to carry out a previous agreement to show newspaper women the royal suites.

She explained that Scotland Yard and the secret service had rules on the care of visiting dignitaries, adding that she would have to find out what they considered dangerous to give out before further describing plans for White House entertainment.

Arms Swell British Taxes

Government Plans Compulsory Military Training for Youth

LONDON, April 25 (AP)—The British government announced heavy new taxes today to meet its gun-swollen budget of 1,320,000,000 pounds ($6,177,600,000) and was said to have decided upon compulsory military training to increase further its defense preparations.

Approximately half — nearly $2,948,400,000 — of the expenditures for the fiscal year which started April 1 are to be for the armed forces and civilian defense and even more may be needed, Sir John Simon, chancellor of the exchequer, told parliament.

Military conscription at first likely will be applied as physical training and elementary military instruction for a limited number of young men, but a government bill is expected to authorize full conscription if war comes.

Prime Minister Chamberlain went to Buckingham palace to see King George VI after a two-hour meeting of the cabinet. It was believed he placed before the sovereign his reasons for deciding to put the nation in arms.

The cabinet was reported to have decided tonight on conscription for men between 18 and 21, affecting more than 1,000,000 men.

Report Attacks Upon Germans; Acid Thrown

PRAGUE, April 25 (AP)—Official news agency dispatches from Pilsen today reported 30 attacks on German soldiers in which acid was thrown on them by unidentified persons.

The attacks were said to have occurred Saturday and Sunday, mostly on streets well crowded with pedestrians. German authorities in the region, which formerly was part of Czechoslovakia, arrested 50 "Marxists" of Czech nationality and 50 Jews in retaliation.

Aircraft Union?

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—The executive board of the CIO United Automobile Workers voted here yesterday to launch a drive to unionize the nation's aircraft workers.

Secretary Hull Declares 'No Room on Earth' For Nations With Desire To Enslave Others

WASHINGTON, April 25 (AP)—Secretary Hull, speaking three days before Adolf Hitler's scheduled reply to President Roosevelt's appeal for peace, declared tonight there was "not room on this earth" for a nation or group of nations that would enslave all the others.

The secretary of state addressed the 75th anniversary dinner of the American Red Cross. Some observers interpreted his remarks as both a warning and an appeal to Chancellor Hitler. The state department sent the major parts of his speech to all American diplomats in Europe and South America.

"There is ample room on this earth for the two billion human beings who inhabit it," Hull said. "There are ample known resources of materials and skill to enable all nations to enjoy a high level of economic prosperity and to face a future of continued plenty.

"But there has never been, and there is not today, room on this earth for a political organization of mankind under which a single nation or a group of nations will enslave and dominate all the others."

A moment before, Hull had said that there was no controversy between nations that could not be settled "with far greater benefits to all concerned, by the peaceful processes of friendly adjustment than by resort to armed force."

"Terrible as are the realities and consequences of war," he added, "sooner or later conditions arise in which peaceful and peace-loving nations prefer armed defense to subjection and slavery."

Earlier in the day, President Roosevelt praised the work of the Red Cross, of which he is president.

Speaking to delegates from the south portico of the White House Mr. Roosevelt said:

"The spirit of the Red Cross does not wane. In a world disturbed by war and fear of war the unselfish devotion of the Red Cross to the welfare of others stands out in striking contrast to inhuman acts which have shocked our conscience in so many instances."

"The task before us is enormous," Mr. Roosevelt declared. "Our work, by reason of its very nature, is never done. Our work never can be done while human misery exists."

Announce Press Laws

Daladier Says Propaganda To Be Censored

PARIS, April 25 (AP)—Premier Daladier announced rigid press control laws today as the beginning of a battle to crush foreign propaganda inside France.

Foreign alliances and sweeping increases in armed forces are not enough, he told his cabinet colleagues. The press laws were signed by President Lebrun last Friday, but were published for the first time in the official journal today.

France, Daladier said, must be purged of all internal and foreign-inspired efforts to divide national opinion either by direct propaganda or by efforts to stir up racial or religious prejudice.

The laws are designed to curb both pamphleteering and press activities of foreign origin. Offenders are liable to from six months to five years in prison, heavy fines and even loss of civil rights.

Foreign propaganda was not defined, but the decree declared "it can not be permitted for foreign agents in all liberty to retain in France itself the means of influencing opinion by campaigns appropriate to their ends."

Leftist newspapers have accused rightist newspapers of being financed by German and Italian sources, and rightists have charged that the leftist press was subsidized by Soviet Russia.

Under the new decrees, a recipient of funds from abroad for publicity campaigns of any sort must report the matter to police within eight days.

HITLER'S REPLY

Networks To Broadcast Entire Speech

NEW YORK, April 25 (AP)—All American networks are making plans to broadcast Adolf Hitler's reply to President Roosevelt on Friday. To do so NBC, CBS, and the inter-city chains will open early enough to start the pick-up from Berlin at the scheduled time of 5 a. m. (CST).

The speech will be carried in its entirety with English interpolations and summaries.

3 Stockholders File Charges Against Hearst

WILMINGTON, Del., April 25 (AP)—United States district court was asked today to appoint a receiver for Hearst Consolidated Publications, Inc., the holding-operating company for many of the Hearst newspapers in the United States.

The suit was filed by three stockholders who charged neglect, mismanagement and waste. The plaintiffs were Mary S. Lankford and Iola J. Harter of Washington, and Everett L. Mier of Chicago. The complaint asked that a receiver "take possession of all the monies, assets and properties" and conserve them pending final settlement. The bill asked also an accounting by company officers.

Named as defendants were Hearst Consolidated Publications, American Newspapers, Inc., Hearst Enterprises, W. R. Hearst, members of his family and company officials.

Delegates of Branches of Methodism Will Initiate Month-Long Conference For Uniting as One Methodist Church

KANSAS CITY, April 25 (AP)—More than 900 delegates and bishops of the three branches of Methodism will kneel in communion service tomorrow morning launching a month-long conference from which the three long-divided groups hope to emerge as one Methodist church.

The theory of union to end divisions created by a first schism in 1828 and a second in 1844 has been approved by conferences of the three churches — the Methodist Episcopal, the Methodist Episcopal, the Methodist Protestant.

The work of the Kansas City uniting conference will be to perfect a discipline under which

SAVE PENNIES

WPA Man Pays Bill With Coppers

AKRON, Ohio, April 25 (AP)—For a year David George Sabol, WPA worker, has saved pennies. This week a son was born to his wife. Sabol paid his hospital bill with a three-quarter jar of 3,500 copper coins.

"It was hard saving the money out of my WPA pay," Sabol said.

Defense Asks State's Rights

Federal Indictments Called Infringement In Newspaper Case

MOBILE, Ala., April 25 (AP)—Whether the individual states of the federal government are responsible for upholding freedom of speech and freedom of press was argued in federal court here today in a case involving a newspaper's campaign against a local lottery racket.

Judge John McDuffie interrupted attorneys' arguments at one point to ask: "If the state refuses to act (when freedom of speech and press are involved) just where can this man look for protection?"

Defense lawyers for six persons accused of conspiracy to interfere with freedom of the press attacked the federal indictments on the ground of infringement of state rights.

War Deserters To Be Exiled?

Former Army Officer Testifies on Bill Concerning Draft Evaders

WASHINGTON, April 25 (AP)—A former army intelligence officer who tried unsuccessfully to induce Grover Cleveland Bergdoll to surrender to American army officials in Germany told the house military committee today that the draft evader should not be permitted to return to the United States.

"If a native-born American does not think enough of his country to fight for it, he should not be allowed any of the rights

German Govt. Not 'Dissuaded'

Press Says British Conscription Will Not Affect Hitler's Reply

BERLIN, April 25 (AP)—The German press tonight declared that Britain's reported decision to initiate military conscription would make "no impression" on Adolf Hitler's reply Friday to President Roosevelt's peace proposals.

Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung said "It would be silly to believe that the German government could be surprised by it (conscription) or be dissuaded from its course by warnings of threats. That much should have been grasped of the policy of Adolf Hitler even over there."

The Hamburger Gremdenblatt, after reviewing British labor opposition to conscription in England, said "Chamberlain, however, must supply the propaganda weapons."

"That is the meaning of the so-called English threat of introducing conscription and of the entire diplomatic play around the declaration of the fuhrer."

"Obviously such threats, owing to their internal political limitation, could make no impression in Berlin."

The Nazi government, however, ignored predictions of British conscription as Chancellor Hitler ordered all Germany to listen Friday when he broadcasts.

BURY VICTIMS

Have Rites for Father, Six Children

OTTUMWA, April 25 (AP)—Five hearses and two automobiles in solemn procession carried the bodies of a 41-year-old father and six of his 10 children to their graves today in the largest mass funeral in the city's history.

The dead were victims of a tragic blaze at the Charles Helmick home here Saturday.

Hundreds of persons jammed the streets in front of the Open Bible church this afternoon while five ministers performed last rites.

Dewey Given Honor Medal For 'Service'

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., April 25 (AP)—Thomas E. Dewey, racketeering district attorney of New York county, was selected today to receive the Cardinal Newman award for 1938 for his "distinguished services" in the war on crime.

The nomination was announced by Dr. John A. O'Brien, director of the Newman foundation at the University of Illinois, which each year confers the honor on "an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to the enrichment of American life in the fields of science, literature, art or statesmanship."

Dewey, whose name has been mentioned frequently in discussions of republican presidential possibilities, will be given the gold medal struck in the memory of the late John Henry Cardinal Newman on May 2.

Wilson Orders Removal Of State Control Board Group

House Nears Close of 48th Annual Session

Takes Motor Vehicle Registration Dept. From Sec. Miller

DES MOINES, April 25 (AP)—In a frenzied, last-minute dash toward adjournment, the Iowa house of representatives quit work at 6 o'clock tonight within striking distance of the end of the 48th general assembly. Before halting for the day it had:

1. Removed the motor vehicle registration department from Secretary of State Earl G. Miller and placed it in department of public safety.

2. Concurred with the senate in increasing old age pension funds by $1,500,000 a year.

House Adjourns

In a tangle with Rep. Claus Randall (R) of Manly over allocations for emergency relief for the next two years and with many seats emptied for the day, the house adjourned until 8:30 tomorrow morning. Then it will first resume work on the IERA act and Randall's amendment to reduce the annual appropriation for aid to the counties from $2,000,000 as fixed by the senate, to $1,000,000.

Adjournment was hastily taken when supporters of the senate appropriation visioned possible defeat through lack of numbers.

In passing the motor vehicle transfer bill sending it on to Governor George A. Wilson for action, the house completed action on a series of consolidation measures affecting Secretary of State Miller's department and reducing the functions of that office to control of the real estate commission, corporation registration and custody of the legislative acts of the state.

Personnel Reduced

Previously taken from Miller's control were the securities department, the motor vehicle department and highway patrol. Persons connected with the secretary's office said it would reduce of 270 to 10. A total of 28 were transferred in house action this afternoon.

Passage of the bill by a vote of 84 to 11 was without a torrid exchange of views.

Rep. Gustave Alesch (D) of Marcus, discussing the act, referred to Governor Wilson as "George the first, king of Des Moines, emperor of Iowa."

Cedar Rapids Man Says High Officials Not in Cooperation

CEDAR RAPIDS, April 25 (AP)—Removal of the executives of the Iowa State Teachers association was advocated today by Harold M. Templeman, new president of the Cedar Rapids classroom teachers association, in his inaugural address before the local group.

Templeman, the first man ever to head the local organization, called on the teachers to "throw off the yoke we are carrying and refuse to simply smile and say 'yes' to everything. The association, he said, is dominated by superintendents and administrators who are the 'root of the evil that has befallen the teachers.'"

Referring to the local group, he said that school administrators had refused to aid the Cedar Rapids teachers in their fight for a pension.

Templeman is an instructor in Franklin junior high school here.

Sheriff Probes Shooting Report Of Farmhand

FAYETTE, April 25 (AP)—Sheriff A. J. Kutschat said today he was investigating a report that Richard Buck, 20-year-old farmhand, was fired at four times early Sunday as he approached his residence, a tenant house on the George Metcalf farm.

The sheriff said Buck exhibited a jacket and a shirt pierced by bullets, although the youth was not wounded.

Board Asks For Justice

Ousted Iowa Board Of Control Writes Letter to Governor

DES MOINES, April 25 (AP)—Members of the ousted Iowa board of control tonight made public a letter they had written to Gov. George A. Wilson objecting to purported methods used by the senate institutions investigating committee.

The letter, dated April 17, in part said:

1. "Practically all the testimony was taken in secret with only two members of the committee present, one of whom has been an active candidate for a position on the board should a vacancy occur."

2. The board was not allowed to present witnesses in its own behalf.

3. The board never has had a chance to examine the transcript of the investigation.

4. The members were given no opportunity to be represented by counsel.

The letter, which preceded the removal action by eight days, asked the governor as "chief executive of the state and a former judge" to handle the issue "in accordance with long established and revered methods of democratic procedure."

"Only by such procedure can justice be done to us as individuals and other servants of the state be assured that they may always depend upon fair treatment and be certain that their tenure of office is not dependent upon the continuance in power of any administration," the communication concluded.

Storms Delay Soviet Flyer's Trip to Fair

MOSCOW, April 26 (Wednesday) (AP)—A magnetic storm over Finland and unfavorable weather conditions farther west caused postponement early today of a Soviet Moscow-to-the-worlds-fair flight.

Vladimir Kokkinaki, hero of last year's flight non-stop from Moscow to Vladivostok, had planned to take off at 4 a. m. (9 p. m. EST Tuesday) but the attempt was postponed when unfavorable weather reports came in.

Alexander Kirk, charge d'affaires of the United States embassy, was at the airport near Moscow. Scores of high Soviet officials, who had motored out from Moscow through a dense fog, also were there.

Others who were eager to see the take-off were delayed by heavy concentrations of motorized troops in Moscow. Tanks, anti-aircraft batteries and armored cars were using the early morning hours for streets maneuvers in preparation for a giant May day military parade.

Let's Give Ourselves A Chance

EDUCATION and culture are very nearly synonymous in the mind of the average college student. Because we come to the university for four years, because we take the prescribed courses, because we pass the examinations and because we receive our degrees, we think of ourselves as being educated and hence cultured.

But this thing which we call culture is not to be obtained solely from textbooks nor yet from university parties. It comes only when we as individuals can appreciate the good and beautiful in the arts and the sciences, when we can enjoy a good play, a good book, a beautiful painting or good music.

It is in this latter category that many of us fall short of even a beginning of culture. We say that we are not able to appreciate good music or that we do not like classical music and yet we never expose ourselves to it. We avoid concerts and recitals and never really know whether or not we have the capacity for enjoying it.

Tomorrow night the final university concert will be given in Iowa Union. On the program will be truly good music presented by university artists. It will be an opportunity which those of us who are seniors will never be able to duplicate.

For once let's give ourselves a chance, let's break down and attend the concert and let's see if we don't appreciate it.

Speaking Out In Washington

THERE can be little doubt, judging from the results of the George Gallup poll, that Americans are swinging away from isolationist neutrality to a policy of assisting the victims of aggression. Fifty-seven per cent of the voters believe we should sell war materials to victims. Forty-three per cent do not.

During the last week, nine women's organizations, five trade unions and two youth groups have taken a stand for drastic revision of the Neutrality act.

Meantime investigations continue in Washington. It's true, of course, that when the voters speak, action cannot be far behind.

Truth Is Stranger . . .

STRANGE are the ways of press reports.

A recent Gallup poll, and one which received comparatively little publicity, showed that three out of four voters never read or heard about the LaFollette civil liberties committee, while two out of three knew about the Dies committee.

Yet the LaFollette group had been functioning two years longer than the Dies investigating group.

On Higher Education

WE'VE COME a long way, away from the F. Scott Fitzgerald days we mean.

For example, Yale's President Charles F. Johnson has announced: "There is less hard drinking at Yale than perhaps any time in the past. Every Sunday night I order a large quantity of beer for the boys who come to visit us in our home. What happens? Why, they always drink more milk; we always have beer left over."

Well?

MONKEYSHINES

(At the Brookfield Zoo, this spring, the monkeys have squeaked wildly and grabbed boldly at feminine onlookers — because the deceived simians supposed the ladies' new hats, with floral and vegetable decorations, are good to eat.)

What a furor choreal afflicts all folk arboreal when ladies of all ages stand outside monkey cages, and wonder what's the fuss for, or perhaps it's just a fuss for the human beings to come and stare and gape. It's really much more subtle, for the monkeys want to scuttle that strange affair upon the hair of ladies here, and ladies there, and really what a jape!

Monkeys scatter, clatter, chatter at the hat and at the hatter. Their particularly rapid patter tells the essence of the matter. It surely must be lettuce; you can bet us that we get just a bite for appetite; it's a turnip! It's a radish! When you met us, not to pet us, but to tease us, and dispense us, what a horrid task you set us just because you look so gaddish.

Brothers, sisters, we must eat it, even if it raises blisters. We'll defeat it; can you beat it? Really, truly, cruelly, newly, it's a hat, think of that; tall or flat, it's a hat! Never mind! We'll eat a rind. —Chicago Daily News

Washington World

By CHARLES P. STEWART

If war breaks out in Europe, economic experts are of the opinion that its immediate effects upon American business will by no means be as disorganizing as was the case in 1914. An inter-departmental conference of cabinet members was held on the subject a few days ago and that was the consensus of judgments. Maybe such secretaries as Harry Woodring and Claude A. Swanson of the war and navy set-ups, Attorney General Frank Murphy and Post-office Chief James A. Farley are no particular authorities relative to markets and trade. However, they're the vital specialties of Secretaries of State and the Treasury Cordell Hull and Henry Morgenthau and they ought to be a commerce department specialty too, whether or not Secretary Harry Hopkins knows much about them. Anyway "Harry the Hop" has competent advisers, who spoke for him. Likewise Chairman Mariner S. Eccles and Jesse Jones of the Federal Reserve Board and R. F. C. respectively and Jerome Frank of S.E.C. were present at the confab. They certainly should understand their jobs.

The conferees went into a great many technicalities, but the nub of the thing is obvious. In 1914 we Americans didn't realize that a war was coming. Consequently we were caught completely off base. This time we anticipate it and have taken plenty of precautions in advance.

Everybody Surprised The World war took Europe, itself, by surprise.

Still, European statesmen were aware that they were gravitating in that direction. They're such near (and quarrelsome) neighbors that they're suspicious of one another all the time. They weren't taken completely off guard.

The rumour broke, so far as Yankee-land was concerned, out of what had looked to us like a virtually cloudless sky.

Naturally it shot our markets all full of holes. We'd been having some trouble with Mexico. We thought that that was pretty bad. Oh! if we'd known what was coming!

Let me quote from an utterance from one of our eminent American publicists — Editor William Allen White of the Emporia (Kan.) Gazette. Horrified, Editor White reminded his countrymen, in favor of neutrality, that "the sacred ark of civilization is committed to American hands." A few months later the Emporia Gazette (with a lot of influence) was as belligerent as you please.

I don't criticize this. I only mention it as suggestive of the fashion in which we've readjusted our viewpoint since the early end of the last 35 years.

One way or the other, we know more things.

European War Natural Sen. Henry F. Ashurst of Arizona summed it up in a speech in congress the other day.

"War," he said, "is Europe's natural state."

Sen. Arthur Capper's "Weekly" recently summarized in a recent issue's headline— "Life in Europe has just been one crisis after another for 20 centuries."

Senator Ashurst is opposed to having the U.S. break into any such "natural state." Senator Capper is opposed to American participation in 20 centuries of European crises.

The inter-departmental conference of cabinet members hopes we can keep out of 'em.

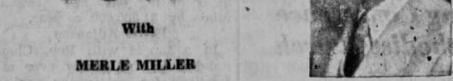

It certainly is to be hoped so.

Health Hints

By Logan Clendening, M. D.

The teeth of the American people are more healthy than most Europeans, but there is still great room for the prevention of dental ill-health in the young adult and middle-aged, largely by attention to the beginnings of disease in the young.

Perhaps the most serious significance placed on the condition of our teeth comes from an anthropologist, E. A. Hooton, of Harvard. He says:

"You must know the history of teeth in order to appreciate them, and because this history epitomizes human evolution, the control of

Hollywood Sights and Sounds

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD — To Violinist Jascha Heifetz, somewhere on tour, word can be sent that it is safe for him to return home to Goldwyn.

The picture he starred in, without a story, now has a story. Not only that, it has had two new titles. When Heifetz, without a story, collected on his contract by fiddling the cameras, the Heifetz picture was "The Restless Age."

Then it became "Angels Making Music"—but that was after they found the story. The title came so much from the current popularity of "angels" and "heaven" in movie titles as from the story, which brings us to Peter Meremblum and his junior symphony orchestra.

The picture is now called "Music School," which detours us to Mrs. Rose Roy and her fellow clubwomen who cleaned up an abandoned residence on Boyle avenue in Los Angeles and started something: the neighborhood music school, which is reproduced in the current film story.

At this school, now boasting 21 first-rate teachers and 210 pupils who pay anything they can (usually very little), children who ordinarily wouldn't meet music are trained as musicians. Mrs. Roy and her fellows, like all philanthropic clubwomen, have become experts in raising funds to support the project. They also are adept at retrieving abandoned instruments, staging shows, and putting the bee on potential contributors.

Peter Meremblum, a teacher of violin (now at the University of Southern California), who had an idea and a talented trio which he built into the California Junior Symphony association, enlisted Mrs. Roy as executive secretary of his organization.

And to them, hearing of the orchestra's conquests in the concert field, came the story-hunters of Goldwynland—Robert Riskin and Irmgard von Cube. And so . . .

You won't believe it when you see the picture, but the musicians made the music you'll be hearing from them. I wouldn't have believed it, either, if I hadn't seen and heard them doing it.

There are 45 of them, from nine to 14 years old. They play, under Alfred Newman's conducting, like the accomplished musicians they are. This is no feeble, uncertain, squeaky and childish interpretation of the masters such as the usual children's orchestra inflicts. It is the real thing—music that happens to be made by children.

You'll notice, surely, the little girl cellist with a big grin and little pigtails. Mary Louise Zeyen is nine, and one of the nine children of a postman's family. The youngsters in the group come from all walks of life, and only two had musical parents. They play because they like it.

And you won't miss nine-year-old Jacqueline Nash, who sings. Jacqueline wasn't in the Meremblum group. She was down here with her mother from Toronto, Canada, and they were living in an auto camp, pretty much up against it, when the movies found them. Jacqueline, trained by her mother since infancy, has a Galli Curci-like voice. . . .

When the age of 50 is reached, 60 per cent of teeth are removed for this cause.

Ninety per cent of school children show some condition of the gums which may lead to pyorrhea later.

Brushing the teeth, and especially the gum margin, with a small, tough toothbrush, rolling the brush rather than shoving it back and forth across the teeth, will do most to toughen gums and prevent recession. Brush with a rolling motion of the hand, moving the bristles over the teeth in the direction of the spaces between the teeth. The gums should be made so tough that no amount of brushing will cause them to bleed.

A New Yorker at Large

By George Tucker

NEW YORK—If you are coming from some distant point to visit the New York fair, may I recommend a few things you should do while here? They are experiences I have had and the memory of them remains very pleasant, and I imagine you would enjoy them too, especially if you live at any great distance and get to New York only infrequently.

I think you ought to have dinner at least once in a Swedish restaurant while you are in New York. The genuine Swedish restaurants are an adventure you can ill afford to miss, and I say this because, of all the things this department has recommended from time to time to visitors and friends from other sections of the country, this seems to have made the most lasting impression. They write me letters emphasizing over and over how delighted they were and what a gratifying experience the dinner was. As for the choice of a restaurant, that is up to you. My favorite happens to be the Stockholm, but there are others probably just as good, and if you make your way into any Swedish restaurant you aren't likely to go wrong.

Then I would, on another evening, give myself the pleasures of a Shore dinner. That is what they are called—Shore dinners—and they are to be found in any number of small but fine restaurants in the thirties and forties between Sixth avenue and Broadway.

A real Shore dinner may only be described by gourmands and poets, for they are a succession of sea-food courses, each complementary to the other, of steamed clams, oysters, lobster, crab meat, various sea fishes, and fried breast of chicken, all aswin in mouth-watering sauces, and dripping with melted butter.

After this I would go by subway to the foot of the Island and take the ferry to the Statue of Liberty. It would be a shame to come this far and then return without setting foot on that block of land which has been ennobled by the lady with the torch. Also the view of Manhattan obtained from the ferry at this point is both magnificent and important. It is important because it teaches the geographic lesson that the Metropolitan area has to offer. It gives you Brooklyn and Queens, and the New York bay, and Manhattan, and finally Jersey—all in one sweeping glance—thus bringing order and cohesion into jumbled impressions and clarifying their relationship to one another.

And it is magnificent because across the stretch of blue water you get the full onslaught of the Island—the spearhead of Manhattan in sky-high architectural splendor, gleaming in the sun.

And, finally, I would indulge in a good musical comedy—say Hellzapoppin, for here is the Alpha and Omega of unrestrained farce. Only madmen or geniuses or just nuts is something you must determine for yourself.

Of course you may not want to do any of these things. But to me they represent worthwhile experiences and the impressions they create will be lasting.

HAWKEYES, LUTHER TANGLE TODAY

SPORTS TRAIL

NEW YORK, April 25 (AP)—The two clubs were made up of a lot of guys named Joe before the season started.

The major league races are only a week old, and even their best friends won't tell you the Philadelphia entries are going anywhere in particular.

Take the A's, for instance. Man for man they don't belong in the same park with the Yankees without paying admission.

A big youngster ambles up to the plate. He's listed in the lineup as Etten, first base.

Who's Etten? The fans ask. It finally is learned Nick Etten came up from Jacksonville last year and played 22 games for Mr. Mack.

Yet these Athletics with their Etten and their Gantenbeins and their Lodigians were good enough to hold the Yankees to a 2-1 victory in their series opener.

Then take the Phillies who were figured to be in a class by themselves in the National League.

So what happens? The Phillies make the daffy Dodgers look very daffy indeed, and yesterday they showed absolutely no respect for the Giants.

The answer to both the Athletic and Phillie success can be summed up briefly. It is hustle, pitching, and a refusal to believe all that has been written about them.

Neither Mr. Mack nor Doc Prothro have any illusions about their respective teams. In fact, the good doctor had just about given up hope before the season started.

It was the Cubs' third straight success and their second in a row over the Pirates. More than 9,000 fans saw the game.

The Cubs piled on Truett Sewell and Bill Swift for 10 hits while Lee limited the Bucs to but eight.

Billy Herman drove in three of the Chicago runs with a walk, a single and a double. But it remained for Stanley Hack to again pace the Cub attack with a triple, a double and a single.

Lee was untouchable except in the first and eighth innings. In the first the Bucs counted a run on singles by Paul Waner and Johnny Rizzo, Arky Vaughan's walk and Gus Suhr's sacrifice fly.

The Cubs started their attack in the third when Hack doubled and Herman singled to give them their first run. In the fourth they added two more runs on Gus Mancuso's double, singles by Dick Bartell, Hack and Jim Gleason, and Herman's walk.

Second string players of the winning squad saw action most of the game.

Kellogg Wallops Manse, 11-7; Sigma Nu's Suffer 20-9 Setback

Delta Upsilon Downs S.A.E.'s

Phi Epsilon Pi and Phi Kappa Sigma In 5-5, Six-Inning Tie

Several intramural softball contests were postponed yesterday as the result of the heavy rain that struck here late yesterday afternoon.

Teams from the Inter-Fraternity and Coop Dorm leagues, however, were able to finish their contests before the storm hit.

Kellogg House, a Coop Dorm entry, turned in an impressive 11-7 win over Manse, one of its rivals in this league.

Kellogg relied on a fourth inning batting spree to enable them to turn in their victory. In this inning the winners collected a total of seven runs, with the hitting centered around Bill McClure and Oliver Lee, each hitting a home run.

The winning battery consisted of Eddie Elman on the mound and Oliver Lee behind the plate. For the losers Allen Lang and Don Kladrup were the pitchers and Danny Bryan was at the catching position.

In section I of the Interfraternity league, Delta Upsilon turned in a surprise victory over Sigma Alpha Epsilon to the tune of 14-2, knocking the S. A. E.'s from the ranks of the undefeated.

Johnnie Maul was the winning pitcher with Larry Foster behind the plate. S. A. E.'s battery was W. T. Barnes and Bob Allen, pitchers, and Chuck Hanna, catcher.

The game between Phi Epsilon Pi and Phi Kappa Sigma, members of this same section, was called in the sixth inning because of rain. The score was knotted at 5-5 at this period.

In section II of the Interfraternity league, Sigma Nu took a 20-9 beating at the hands of Delta Chi.

Sigma Nu, in an effort to stop Delta Chi's batsmen, called upon the services of three pitchers—Avery Arent, Bill Seiler and Jim Bristol. Joe Early was behind the plate for the losers.

The winning battery was composed of James Barron at pitch and Jim Atkinson at the catcher's position.

The schedule for this afternoon's games is as follows: Interfraternity league—section III Nu Sigma Nu vs. Alpha Sigma Phi—field 1.

Triangle vs. Alpha Tau Omega—field 2.

Gerber To Head Dolphins

Swimming Organization Elects Five Officers For Coming School Year

Ed Gerber, member of University of Iowa swimming teams and of the Dolphin fraternity for the last two years, was elected president of the Dolphins last night.

Other officers named last night were Banford Cochrane, vice-president; George Brown, secretary; Tony Bremer, treasurer; and Tom Saluri, sergeant at arms.

The group also discussed plans for the annual Dolphins' picnic next month, and mentioned tentative plans for the next year's Dolphin show.

Definite arrangements have been made, it was announced at the meeting, for the swimmers' spring "Ice Cream Eat," which has been set for May 6 this year at the Sidwell Dairy plant.

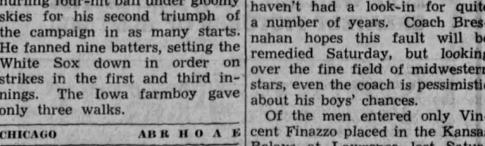

The tankmen are shooting at the mark of Bob Reed, who downed three and one-half quarts of ice cream, in last year's eating event to eclipse all previously existing records.

A regular part of the Dolphins' program, the ice cream event was first given to the swimmers by Irving Weber, an employee at Sidwell's, who was the first University of Iowa swimmer to ever be named on an all-American swimming team.

The Dolphin picnic, which will be at the quarries May 14, will finish up the year for the organization. At the picnic, a swimming captain for next year's Iowa team will be elected to fill the place vacated by Ray Walters, leader of the Hawkeyes during the season just past.

Besides Walters, as captain of the swimming team, and Lowry, graduating president of the Dolphins, two other important Dolphins are leaving Iowa in June. Bill Decker, secretary of the Dolphins, and Jack Ryan, last year's sergeant at arms, will not be back next fall.

New Dolphin Officers

At a meeting of the organization last night, the University of Iowa Dolphin fraternity elected officers to serve during the coming year. Left to right, above, they are: Banford Cochrane, vice-president; Ed Gerber, president;

Although Coach George Bresnahan spent most of his time yesterday with his relay squads, he took time off to release the names of the men who will compete in the special events at the Drake Relays this Friday and Saturday.

While the Hawks hold two relay records at Drake, the 880-yard and the mile, the Old Gold and Black individual performers haven't had a look-in for quite a number of years.

Boston Drops Senators; Foxx Hits Home Run

BOSTON, April 25 (AP)—After watching his first 1939 homer go to waste battering Jimmy Foxx timed No. 2 to the exact second today to give his Red Sox a 6-5 victory over the Washington Senators in 11 innings.

With one out in the second frame, Foxx whaled Joe Krakauskas' first pitch for a prodigious drive that cleared the left field wall.

Washington's pitcher, Earl Averill, was unable to contain the Sox batsmen after the home run. Averill pitched a scoreless eighth, but the Sox scored again in the ninth.

Dodgers End Losing Streak At Four; Beat Boston Bees, 3-2

BROOKLYN, April 25 (AP)—The Dodgers ended their "winless" streak at four straight today by nipping the Boston Bees 3 to 2 behind the steady seven-hit pitching of Luke (Hot Potato) Hamlin.

The Dodgers collected only five hits off Johnny Lanning and two other Boston tossers, but an error by Debs Garmis with a man on third in the seventh inning let the winning run across.

With Al Simmons still sidelined by his "beating" of yesterday, Casey Stengel had a Boston outfield today made up of Johnny Cooney, Buddy Hassett and Max West.

Coach Vogel Nominates 18 Men for Trip

Iowans Also Face Carleton, Gophers On Current Tour

Scheduled to leave at 8 o'clock, Iowa's diamond team embarked this morning on a four day tour of the northlands. The Hawks will encounter their first opponent this afternoon at Decorah, where they take the field against Luther college.

Little is known about the Luther team, but the Norsemen school has turned out better than average squads for several years, and the Hawkeyes cannot afford to take them too lightly. The same goes for Carleton, host to the Iowans tomorrow afternoon. The Northfield team is another one of the "small but mighty" clubs of the Iowa and Minnesota sector.

The Gophers, nemesis of the Hawks since the organization of the Big Ten, accounted for two of Iowa's three defeats a year ago, while the Iowa team was able to win only one tilt from Minnesota, although they tied for the best record in the conference. The Gophers are also well stocked with veterans and have two pitchers, Schultz and Sowa, who beat the Hawkeyes last year.

Iowa needs two victories to boost itself into the first division of the conference standings. An even break in the series probably will mean that Iowa will have to win all its remaining games in order to have a chance at the title, while two defeats will eliminate the Hawks from title consideration.

Coach Otto Vogel ran his squad through its regulation outdoor drills yesterday. A brief shower about 4 o'clock interrupted the practice for 10 minutes, but the field soon dried enough to continue the drills outside.

Coach Vogel emphasized the fielding of bunts yesterday, as that has been a sore spot in the Iowa defense so far this year. The hurling staff especially was drilled on this defensive move.

The remainder of the afternoon practice was given over to defensive moves while men were on the bases and to infield drills. The pitchers also worked out separately, and hitting practice was shared by the entire team.

Coach Vogel named the men that took the Illinois trip last week end to accompany him on the northern journey. Of the 18 on the list, six were pitchers, three were catchers, four occupied outfield posts, and five took care of the infield spots.

The men making the trip: PITCHERS—Harold Haub, Kenneth Reid, Fred Hohenhorst, Robert Stasny, Keith Wymore, and Ted Frese. CATCHERS—Wendell Winders, Norman Hankins, and John Vogt.

INFIELDERS—Elmer Bratten, Erwin Prasse, Andy Kantor, Frank Kocur, and Robert Knapp. OUTFIELDERS—Arthur Manush, William Vogt, James George, and Frank Balazs.

ST. LOUIS, April 25 (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds, the "people's choice" to win the National League race, clipped the St. Louis Cardinals, 5 to 1, here this afternoon. Lloyd Moore pitched the full nine innings.

He gave up 10 hits, two for extra bases, but kept them well spread out and worked like a veteran in the pinches.

Futile' Phillies Not so Futile; Beat Giants Again

PHILADELPHIA, April 25 (AP)—The astonishing Phillies stretched their undefeated string to five straight today with an easy 8 to 1 victory over Bill Terry's New York Giants.

Falling before Claude Passeau's five-hit pitching, Terry's outfit appeared to have stolen the Phils' "futile" nickname as they dropped their second decision in a row to the one-time Quaker City doormats. Passeau tired in the ninth, but Jim Henry finished the job without trouble.

Philadelphia's pitcher, Claude Passeau, pitched a scoreless eighth, but the Sox scored again in the ninth. The game ended in a 6-5 victory for the Sox.

In a very short time the motion picture audiences of the world will have an opportunity to view Miss Shirley Temple in her first Technicolor production, "THE LITTLE PRINCESS." I believe that it is the finest motion picture with which I have ever been associated. For four consecutive years, picture audiences have voted Shirley Temple the most popular star. Frequently I have been asked the reason for this popularity which is so amazingly uniform in every country where motion pictures are shown. After you have seen "THE LITTLE PRINCESS" I am confident that you not only will agree with me that the reason lies in the truly great artistry of its star, but that in this picture—little Miss Temple's finest by far—you will have seen one of the most important films turned out by the motion picture industry.

History On River Bed

Joliet Lost Precious Papers When Wreck Nearly Cost His Life

By Staff Writer Did you know that the original record of the discovery and the first map of Iowa are deposited at the bottom of the St. Lawrence river?—that Louis Joliet, the famous explorer, lost his precious documents and nearly his life in a wreck only a short distance from his destination?

In 1672 that Governor Frontenac of Canada appointed Joliet, the brilliant scholar and intrepid adventurer, to "discover the south sea by way of the Mackinac country and the great river called Mississippi, which is supposed to empty into the California sea."

In May the next year Joliet and Father Marquette, the Jesuit priest, set out on this momentous expedition, considered to be the most important project undertaken for New France to establish French supremacy over the broad interior of the North American continent.

For several months of hardships and difficulties the explorers and their three French assistants paddled on the "mysterious river," discovering unknown country, visiting its Indian inhabitants and gathering valuable material for the future exploitation of the Mississippi valley.

A few days' journey from the Gulf of Mexico, they decided to return, afraid of falling into the hands of Spaniards or unfriendly tribes, and eager to report the news of their important discovery—the way to Iowa and the whole middle west.

Not until late in the fall did they reach St. Ignace, where Joliet stayed during the winter, writing his report to the governor, preparing his journal of the voyage and drawing a map of the explored territory.

Although weakened by the strenuous journey, the idealistic Jesuit returned to the Illinois country to spread the Christian faith among the Indians of this tribe, whereas Joliet pursued his way to Quebec.

Having escaped the dangers of the wilderness and endured the almost unbearable heat with its endless mosquito plagues, it was his strange fate that he should lose everything he had, almost his life in the 43rd of the rapids he passed.

At La Chine near Montreal his canoe capsized, and for four hours Joliet struggled against the current until he collapsed from exhaustion. Rescued at the last moment by fishermen, who incidentally came to this region, he finally arrived at Quebec, where he was enthusiastically welcomed by his countrymen.

Having lost his valuable documents, Joliet could only give a verbal report to the governor of his exploration, explaining the facility of establishing a maritime connection between the Great Lakes and the Gulf of Mexico, and drawing from memory a new map of the territory.

The beautiful country he had discovered, the rolling prairies of Iowa with their peculiar vegetation and animal life were so strongly imprinted upon his mind, however, that his account was truly reliable.

Cornell To Have 51st Music Festival; To Present 5 Concerts May 11 to 13

The 51st music festival of Cornell college, Mount Vernon, will be celebrated May 11 to 13 with five concerts by world known artists as well as members of the Cornell conservatory of music. One of the outstanding singers of our time, the Italian opera star, Bruna Castagna, will open the traditional festival. Famous on the great opera stages of Europe, Miss Castagna is known in this country as the leading Metropolitan contralto, whose interpretation of "Carmen" this year was enthusiastically acclaimed by the critics.

Under the direction of its eminent conductor, Dr. Frederick Stock, and its associate conductor, Hans Lange, the Chicago symphony orchestra will give its 104th and 105th concerts Saturday, May 13, interpreting compositions by the masters, Sibelius, Honegger and Stravinsky, as well as the classical works of Bach and Schumann.

The Cornell oratorio society collaborates with the orchestra in presenting for the third consecutive year Bach's B minor mass, featuring as soloists the famous soprano, Thelma von Eisenhauer, and three members of the Cornell faculty, the previous Messiah performer, William Miller, tenor; Ruth Pinkerton, contralto, and Francis German, baritone.

The blind English piano artist, Alec Templeton, recognized as one of the great musical miracles of our generation, will present his amusing improvisations, his musical impressions and imitations. The first part of his program includes compositions by Bach, Mozart, Chopin, Beethoven and

Pictures for The People

Mrs. Velma Critz Stout, above, picture editor for the Associated Press in New York City, spoke yesterday to classes in journalism at the University of Iowa on her work of choosing pictures for her press service, used by some 500 newspapers. A variety of interests of Americans have to be satisfied, she pointed out, by a wide variety of pictures, and contrast, series and continuity make the work a challenging problem.

Appealing Pictures Popular Mrs. Stout Speaks to Magazine Article Writing Class on Pictures

By Staff Writer I have to consider myself a lance photographer about the sort of guinea pig for the 500 newspapers which use my picture page service," laughingly explained Mrs. Velma Critz Stout, picture editor for the Associated Press in New York City, outlining her work yesterday before Prof. F. L. Mott's class in magazine article writing.

Pictures that people know and can recognize or ones which deal with such things as children or animals, which are familiar, are the best kind for popular appeal, she said.

In making up the page of pictures which is sent out weekly to both large and small newspapers, Mrs. Stout pointed out that she had to consider the interests of a variety of people all over the country.

"Middle westerners have an advantage over easterners in the picture field," she said, "because they have a more general slant on the entire country and they can tell better what will be of nation-wide interest."

In discussing the make up of the pictorial page, she illustrated her talk with examples of her own work, and pointed out that contrast, series and continuity must all be considered.

"The picture page should reflect the news current," she said. "National, international and sports news are all important."

Mrs. Stout also advised free

Warm days and long hours in the library make one anxious to go swimming, to play golf, and above all, to travel to summer vacationlands.

Right in the spirit of the wanderlust is a table in general library, a table different from other tables in that Mrs. Sarah Scott Edwards, in charge of the reading, has covered it with a colorful assortment of pamphlets, folders, maps, booklets and leaflets, each with a mission to tell of a particularly intriguing vacation spot for winter-weary Iowa Citizens.

With an eye toward cool climates suitable for summer, Mrs. Edwards has written to some 50 agencies—secretaries of state, foreign embassies, steamship lines, travel bureaus and railroads—to ask for material for the summer vacation table. Other countries, states and agencies sent information without being asked.

All who pass by may look over the advantages of an Alaskan sojourn or a trip to Switzerland. Or perhaps Poland or Greece are more fancy-favored.

For those who believe in seeing America first, there are the national parks, besides various states presented in all their splendor. The woods of quiet Maine, New Hampshire and Colorado or the beaches of California are waiting to be selected.

In all, it is a true array of wide-spread geography.

Hitler Taking Life Easily of Late

He Now Devotes Himself To Planning and Thinking for The Future

BERLIN (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Adolf Hitler, despite intense governmental activity, is taking life somewhat easier of late.

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER

More and more he is leaving details of his executive job to followers trained both in national socialism and in Nazi administration.

He himself is devoting his time more to planning and thinking for the future.

That does not mean that he is taking less active part in the reich's affairs. The reich has become so large and populous and complicated that as a virile man's as Hitler's energies are taxed to the full even merely to keep tab on things.

There was a time when Hitler insisted upon deciding every detail himself. That time is now passed except for one field of German endeavor: the reich's building plans.

One of the men who served in the same company with Hitler during the World war once told this Associated Press correspondent that Hitler's answer to the recruiting sergeant's question, "What's your profession?" was "I wanted to be an architect."

So devoted is Adolf Hitler to architecture that his chief hobby and recreation is that of examining, altering, and even devising building plans for the remaking of the reich from an architectural point of view. In his spacious new chancellery, the upper story of one wing is completely devoted to models and drawings of buildings under consideration or in the making.

Hitler is not a sportsman. He plays no game such as tennis or golf. He does not swim or row. He drives no car. He engages in no gymnastics or other athletic exercise. He does, however, love to walk. During these walks—on the shores of the Baltic of a warm summer's eve, up and down the Bavarian Alps on a day when he is on his beloved Berchtesgaden or above Berchtesgaden—he thinks things out.

But the thinking-place par excellence is his new hideout on the top of the Kehlstein mountain. Here, perched high above the clouds in a tea house, he has that solitude and repose that he craves from time to time after having been in the midst of hell-shouting crowds and tramping soldier's feet.

Hitler at 50 continues to be a late riser. He sleeps late because he works late. It is not uncommon for him to dictate speeches at 2 a.m. and later.

He is a more confirmed "tea-totaller" than ever, and continues to be an almost-vegetarian who occasionally, however, will partake of chicken broth. Smoking is never permitted in his presence.

There was a time two and three years ago when he would occasionally refer to the possibility that he might not be with the German people very much longer.

Such utterances have not occurred of late.

Now that he has embarked upon an imperialistic policy for Germany, he seems filled with a new conception of his mission.

Hitler's health is something for which many envy him. Though he sometimes seems tired and nervous after undergoing a prolonged heavy strain, his powers of resilience are remarkable.

Give him a few days rest and he seems in fine fettle again.

The circle of his real intimates is decreasing rather than increasing as far as an outsider can judge. That is, Hitler meets more people than ever before. His calendar of visitors is growing larger as Germany's power and influence expand.

Comment On Proposal

Solons on Whole View F. D. R.'s Bill In Favorable Light

WASHINGTON, April 25 (AP)—President Roosevelt's first government reorganization proposal got a generally favorable reception among members of congress today.

Administration supporters approved it heartily, and some republicans indicated it would be well received. However, there was some criticism, democratic and republican.

Senator Byrnes (D-SC), who wrote the reorganization bill in the senate, termed the program "a very logical grouping of agencies that should result not only in economies but increased efficiencies." He said he expected a saving of $30,000,000 a year in administrative costs.

Representative Warren (D-N.C.), author of the house bill, said the proposal "means both economy and efficiency in government" and predicted it would "meet with the overwhelming approval of the press and the people of the country."

Senator McNary of Oregon, republican leader, said the plan was comprehensive and "challenges further study," he added: "If it spells economy and simplification in government, it will be warmly embraced by the congress."

Other comment included: Senator King (D-Utah)—"I will make a thorough study of it, and if I find that it won't promote economy and efficiency I shall offer a resolution to reject it." He added that he disapproved of some parts of the proposal.

Senator Wheeler (D-Mont)—"I believe that the congress will support the president in any move directed towards the perfection of democratic government."

Representative Dirksen (R-Ill)—"Don't be too sanguine about economy. It probably will cost more rather than less before we get through."

Senator Barkley (D-Ky), majority leader—"The plan is very admirable, very constructive and very comprehensive."

Senator Mead (D-NY)—"It should result in more efficient functioning of administrative machinery."

Speaker Bankhead (D-Ala)—"I think it is an excellent regrouping and I see no serious objection to it."

Rep. Cochran (D-Mo), chairman of the house committee on reorganization—"It will carry out the mandate of congress in an efficient manner."

Rep. Case (R-ND)—"On the whole, it is constructive."

Rep. Schulte (D-Ind)—"I am fearful that congress took away so much of the power sought for the president that the reorganization will not serve the purpose intended and that there will be very little saving."

Rep. Martin (D-Colo)—"Absolutely necessary if we are going to get rid of all this overlapping and duplication."

Rep. May (D-Ky)—"The president has made a very good start."

Rep. Michener (R-Mich)—"I am opposed to making any of these agencies permanent except by the usual way by affirmative vote of both houses of congress."

Rep. Fish (R-NY)—"I object strongly to putting the RFC headed by Jesse Jones in with the relief agencies that give away the people's money, rather than lending it on sound collateral."

Rep. Gifford (R-Mass)—"I notor want the budget bureau in my bedroom." If the whole program is like that, well—I don't know."

Canadian Fishermen Serving In Navy

VICTORIA, B. C. (AP)—Nearly 200 British Columbia fishermen have joined the navy. With their sturdy little boats, they have been enlisted as an auxiliary to the Royal Canadian navy and have been undergoing training at Esquimalt naval base.

The present consignment is the first unit of the Dominion government's experiment in setting up a fishermen's reserve unit on both Pacific and Atlantic seaboard. Each morning they are out for rifle practice, and next take up signaling.

The 40 skippers who sailed their own boats to the base are getting special instruction in machine gunning, and will pass the instruction along to their crews.

Defendant Was Sick Of Seeing Judge's Face

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—"Your honor," the beggar said to Judge Charles Hatch, "I'm tired of seeing you in this court."

"What!" snapped the astonished judge.

"Yes, you can leave town if I suspend the sentence," said the poker-faced tramp, who was charged with begging.

The judge smiled. But the beggar didn't. He quickly added: "What I meant to say was this: If you are tired of seeing me in court, suspend the sentence and I'll leave town," he said. "Honest, judge, it was a conscientious slip of the tongue."

"Fifteen dollars and costs, but fine suspended if you leave town," said the sunny-natured jurist.

1939 Cowboys Try To Paint Town Red

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Whooping it up with six guns, three cowboys galloped horseback down Tulsa's Main street just like their fathers did in 1903 when Tulsa was a cowtown.

But unlike their fathers, they couldn't find a hitching post when they reached a theater where they intended to start "painting the town." They had to call a truck to cart away the horses while they enjoyed the show.

"It was all a joke," said Dan Haggard. "My father rode up Main street in 1903 on a Pinto and he dared us to do the same thing. We took him up on it."

Those who attended last year were James Bradley of St. Patrick's, Russell Hirt and William Fischer of Iowa City high, Cyril Black of St. Mary's and William Boiler of University high school.

All applicants as representatives from the high schools must be between the ages of 16 and 20, the chairman explained.

Typical April Weather Brings Rain; Temperature Reaches High of 82

Three short spring showers alternating with periods of unseasonably warm sunshine yesterday gave Iowa Citizens a taste of typical April weather.

A total of 31 of an inch of rain fell during the day. The first of the April showers shortly after sunrise and the second at 4 p.m. lasted for less than 10 minutes each, but the final shower of the day at the dinner hour amounted to nearly all of the rain which fell.

The early evening storm which was accompanied by a heavy electrical storm interrupted electric light service at 7:50 p.m. to all the homes and business establishments in the city. Only the university buildings operating from the university electric power plant remained lighted.

The superintendent of the Iowa City Light and Power company plant at Coralville reported that lightning which entered the plant on the company's highlines was the cause for the disruption of the power service.

The highest temperature recorded during the day was 82 degrees yesterday afternoon, only 2 degrees below Monday's record breaking mark. The lowest reading during the night was 55 degrees which kept the day's marks far above the normal readings for April 25, high, 63 degrees and low, 43 degrees. A year ago the readings were 71 and 45.

IN THREE PARTS Twenty-first Crossing West by ELIZABETH DUNN

Dean Kay Discusses Mineral's Role in International Situation

Speaking on a far reaching angle into the European situation, Dean George F. Kay of the college of liberal arts emphasized the role minerals play in international affairs in an address before the Kiwanis club yesterday at its noon luncheon in the Jefferson hotel.

"Unfortunately," Dean Kay declared, "iron, copper, zinc, lead and oil—all vital in the world today—were not evenly distributed in all the lands." Each year the United States and Great Britain produce 75 per cent of these resources, he explained.

The totalitarian states gave up most of their resources after the last war and it is only now that they are gradually regaining them, he reported.

Saying that the United States has enough coal deposits to last 2,500 years although 60,000,000 tons are mined annually, Dean Kay outlined the percentages of the various mineral deposits of the nations.

Germany, he revealed, supplies 50 per cent of its oil needs, and 25 per cent of its copper. Italy supplies 25 per cent of its iron, 8 per cent of its coal and 4 per cent of its oil and copper.

Japan supplies 35 per cent of its own iron and 7 per cent of its oil. Dean Kay said England, France, and Russia have most of the natural resources and that those who "have not" are determined "to get their share of the resources."

Dean Kay concluded with the statement that a war in which Germany or Italy was involved could not last long.

Guests at the meeting were J. S. Rough, Nehawha, Nev., Wilks J. Teeters, Dr. Peter P. Laude, Dr. Sherman Maxon and Dr. Paul A. Hathorn.
