Ten-Year Military Alliance Announced by Axis Powers For 'Preservation of Peace'

SETS FIRE
Then Rescues Wife And Baby Daughter
NEWARK, N. J., May 22 (AP)—Rocco Lovero, 23, assisted in rescuing his estranged 19-year old wife and their 8-months old daughter from a blazing building early today, then was arrested on a charge of setting the fire.
Arson squad detectives accused Lovero, a Jersey City WPA workman of igniting a pile of newspapers in a second-floor hallway after his wife, Matilda, had refused to see him.

Mine Workers Agree Partly

Coal Co. Agrees To Recognize Union's Mine Committees
GILLESPIE, Ill., May 22 (AP)—John Battuello, board member of local No. 1 of the Progressive Mine Workers of America, announced tonight a partial settlement had been reached in the strike of 2,100 miners in this area.
He said the Superior Coal company of Chicago had agreed to "recognize the union's mine committees," and that miners would return to their jobs tomorrow in two of the company's four pits—at Eagerville and Sawyerville.
Battuello said Dwight Wilcox, general superintendent of the company's four mines, planned to open the other two pits—at Wilsonville and Mt. Clare—later in the week.
The strike was called after a disagreement as to division of work in one of the pits.
Wilcox, who was the company's spokesman during the negotiations, could not be reached for a statement.

Pendergast Receives Sentence

Political Boss Guilty of Tax Evasion Count
Judge Otis Orders 15-Month Term At Leavenworth, Kansas
KANSAS CITY, May 22 (AP)—Tom Pendergast, exposed by the government as a political boss who sold his influence for a promised $750,000, pleaded guilty today to evading federal taxes and was ordered to federal prison for 15 months.
Attorneys for the head of Kansas City's besieged democratic machine pleaded that any term would be a "death sentence" because of the 66-year old defendant's weak heart.
"The responsibility for his situation is not upon the judge who imposed the sentence," replied Judge Merrill E. Otis, "but upon him who knowingly committed the offense, knowing it was punishable by imprisonment."
$2,000,000 On Horses
A trail of dollars which led government agents to the startling discovery that Pendergast plunged $2,000,000 in one year on his self-admitted "mania," horse racing, was traced by U.S. District Attorney Maurice Milligan before sentence was passed.
Pendergast, a behind-the-scenes maker of governors and senators ever a 28-year period, was typically silent in the crowded courtroom. Once a tear trickled down his cheek but he said not a word. Extremely nervous, his face paled and he rubbed his thumbs together as sentence was pronounced.
No 'Bossism Penalty'
Judge Otis, who had it within his power to give the defendant 10 years, emphasized the penalty was for tax evasion solely.
"Not a job or title should be added to the punishment," he said, "because it is judicially noticed that the defendant has been a political boss nor because it is judicially noticed that the city and county which he has dominated has been governed with indescribable corruption and dishonesty."
Pendergast's attorneys even said "guilty" for him. That was to government charges he failed to report income for 1935 and 1936 on $315,000 received in a state insurance deal—the only part he got of the $750,000—and on $128,500 paid him through "straw men" in his business firms.
Fined $10,000
But that $443,500 was only a drop in the bucket, Milligan said, contrasted with the $1,240,746.56 on which Pendergast allegedly had failed to pay taxes since 1927.
Judge Otis' 15-months' sentence was on a single count. He also fined him $10,000. On a second count, he placed Pendergast on probation for five years, provided he pays taxes, penalties and interest on the $443,500. But Milligan assured that civil action would be pressed by the government to get all that is due the government.
Mumbles, 'No Comment'
Pendergast, mumbling "no comment," left the courtroom with a week allotted him by Judge Otis before leaving for federal prison at Leavenworth, Kas.—only a short distance from his birthplace in St. Joseph, Mo.
Milligan charged that Pendergast sold his political influence in 1935 when the state was in a quarry over how to distribute an impounded $9,500,000 after a fire insurance rate increase was disallowed.
The eventual settlement, engineered by Pendergast-backed R. Emmet O'Malley as state superintendent of insurance, gave 20 per cent to the policy holders and the rest to the insurance companies and agents.

Supreme Court Rules Its Members Subject to The Federal Income Tax

The supreme court yesterday ruled that the salaries of federal judges are subject to federal income taxes.
Decided that the "gold clause" resolution passed by congress in 1933 voided contracts calling for payment of bonds in foreign currency equivalent of gold dollars.
Declared that an Oklahoma election registration law was unconstitutional because it discriminated against Negroes.

Quints Curtsy to King, Queen

TORONTO, May 22 (AP)—The Dionne quintuplets, dressed in their prettiest clothes and wide-eyed in amazement at seeing the outside world for the first time, came to Toronto today and met the king and queen.
The five sheltered little girls, who never before had been away from their nursery home in northern Ontario, made during the day a surprise appearance before 700 of the province's notables in the legislative chamber and scored a terrific hit in this, their first real public showing.
The quintuplets had come aboard their special seven-car train "Quintland" primarily to meet King George and Queen Elizabeth, and this they did with grace and charm in a private audience in the legislative chambers.
The quintlets curtsied to the queen. Each took her turn without a trace of nervousness, and they all came off without toppling over. Queen Elizabeth stood in admiring wonder.
They hugged and kissed both the king and queen, gave them their autographs and pictures, called the queen beautiful and presented her with bouquets of flowers. And then the king and queen talked to them at length—the meeting lasted a full 19 minutes, a long time for one event in the swift-moving royal tour.

University Will Award Near Record Number of Degrees

HOPE AND PRAY
Young John Roosevelt Says That's Business
WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—John Roosevelt, youngest son of the president, defined business today as "a hope and a prayer that you can sell something for more than you pay for it."
John, who works in a Boston department store, gave his definition while chatting with reporters during a session of the American Retail federation.
Applications Made For 1,135 Degrees At June 5 Convocation
A commencement ceremony at which the awards of degrees and certificates probably will closely approach the record total of last June was forecast yesterday by University of Iowa officials.
Applications for awards total 1,226 which includes 1,135 degrees and 91 certificates, it was announced by Prof. F. G. Higbee, director of convocations. The 70th commencement exercises occur June 5.
A year ago 1,242 applications were made and 1,199 awards actually presented at the commencement exercises. Somewhat less than the usual shrinkage between applications and awards possibly would bring a new record this year.
The preliminary list, it was explained, always is subject to considerable revision, due to the failure of some candidates to complete all requirements. Last year 43 failed to make the grade.
Bachelor of arts degrees are sought by 452 persons while bachelor of science in commerce, 170, has the next greatest number of applicants. There are 195 applicants for advanced degrees, an increase over the total of 1938, headed by 106 master of arts.
Some of the units in which the degree-applicants are more numerous than a year ago include engineering, 60; dentistry, 47, and medicine, 86. Other figures include juris doctor, 58; doctor of philosophy, 38, and master of science, 50.
On the certificate list are applications for journalism, 26, and nursing, 63. New degrees never before granted at Iowa which have seekers are master of fine arts, 1, and bachelor of fine arts, 2.

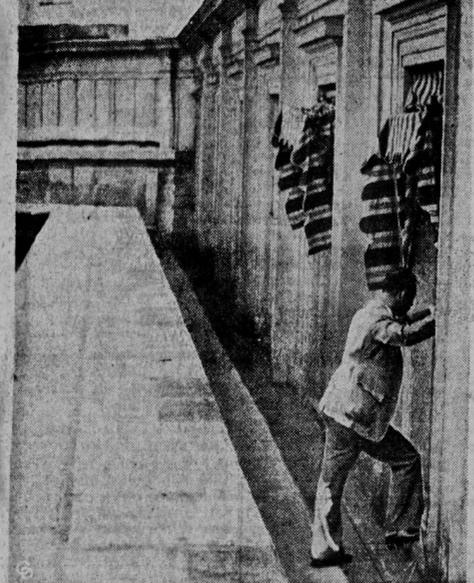

Low Slayer Called Moron

DES MOINES, May 22 (AP)—As defense attorneys called two mental experts to testify that Glen Kidwell, 18, charged with first degree murder, has an 11- or 12-year mentality, County Attorney Francis Kuble told the court Kidwell has been found sane by three Des Moines physicians.
Kuble said he received the preliminary report on the youth's condition this noon.
Kidwell is charged with the "hitch hike slaying" of L. W. Lowe March 25 after Lowe befriended him with a ride a short distance north of here.

Ky. Mine Signs Union Pact With C.I.O. Workers

HARLAN, Ky., May 22 (AP)—The first of the Harlan county coal mines operating within the shadow of national guardsmen signed a "union shop" contract with the United Mine Workers (C.I.O.) today.
R. H. Cornett, secretary and treasurer of the Harlan-Wallins Coal corporation at Verda, scene of disturbances during the past week, said:
"The contract is satisfactory to the company, to the men who are not working and to the men who are working."

Keeping Dies Witnesses Apart

To prevent witnesses who appeared before secret Washington session of "Isms" investigating committee from seeing one another, Rep. Martin Dies had them pass from one room to another along outside ledge—five stories above ground level. A reporter is shown on the house office building ledge, looking into one of the committee rooms.

Dies Accuses Gilbert As An Anti-Semitic

Appears For Investigation Before House
WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—Dudley P. Gilbert, financial "angel" of a group alleged to have disseminated anti-Semitic propaganda, was accused by Chairman Dies (D-Tex) of the house committee on un-American activities today of attempting to start a "whispering campaign" in the south against President and Mrs. Roosevelt.
On the committee's witness stand, Gilbert identified a letter he wrote to his associate, James E. Campbell, at Owensboro, Ky., listing six questions "to ask our Dixie friends." Dies, pointedly prohibiting their being made a part of the record, asserted they were "too vile for publication." Doggedly, Gilbert insisted that they "should be looked into."
Hamilton Takes Stand
John D. M. Hamilton, chairman of the republican national committee, took the witness stand to deny emphatically that he had any knowledge of Campbell or his activities when, in response to a request, he furnished him with a list of the members of the national committee.
"You know, of course, that this list is public property," he said. "There was nothing in Mr. Campbell's letters to me which indicated in any way that he was engaged in any un-American activities. If there had been, I certainly would not have engaged in any correspondence whatsoever with him."
Campbell, who also testified today, conceded that his attacks were "directed at the people of a certain race." He maintained a mailing list of some 200 names, to 40 of whom he sent reports on the alleged progress of a "left revolutionist" group in New York. The reports were supplied to him by Gilbert.

Parties Differ In Plans For Higher Income

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—New deal and republican leaders mapped divergent paths to higher national income in speeches to the American Retail federation today.
Secretary of Commerce Harry L. Hopkins, the former WPA administrator, said the proper road was continuing the administration's social and economic program.
Representative Martin (R-Mass), the house minority leader, called for revision of new deal laws and accused the democrats of trying to "run away" from this "responsibility" by early adjournment of congress.
The delegates applauded both heartily. They expected to hear more on the subject from President Roosevelt at an evening banquet.
Martin said his party rejected "the new deal defeatism which proclaims there are no more frontiers to be conquered."

Tension Over Danzig Shooting Seems Relaxed

WARSAW, May 22 (AP)—Tension over a Polish-German shooting in Danzig relaxed somewhat today and informed sources said protests over the incident had proved "fruitful" of progress toward a satisfactory settlement.
These sources said the Danzig senate in the nazi-dominated city had given assurances that three Polish customs inspectors, who have returned to their post at Kalthof where the station was attacked by a partly uniformed crowd on Sunday, would be properly protected against further incidents.

President Calls Foes 'Radicals'

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—President Roosevelt denounced critics of his economic program tonight as "radicals" eager "to gamble" with the safety of the nation, and bluntly gave notice he would sanction no abandonment of administration "principles and objectives."
Can't Balance Budget
Addressing the retailers national forum, the chief executive asserted that if "so-called" business "deterrent taxes," such as the undistributed profits tax, are repealed, other taxes on business must be increased to replace the revenues thus lost.
Said that while "the conservative attitude of this administration" hardly contemplates a permanent excess of government expenditures over receipts, "balancing the budget today, or even next year, is a pretty difficult if not impossible job."
Defends Spending
Vigorously defended the administration policy of government spending and lending for the purpose of maintaining consumer purchasing power at a high level, with a statement that it "is the milk in the cocoon of all business."
And said:
"Today, with no danger of surplus of goods overhauling the market — just because we have tried to keep consumer purchasing power up to production — the nation is in an excellent position to move forward into a period of greater production and greater employment."
Repeatedly, the president referred to himself and his associates as the nation's conservatives, and to certain of his foes as the "radicals."

Police Arrest Escaped Negro In Sioux City

SIoux CITY, May 22 (AP)—Victor McGill, 38, a Negro, who police said escaped from the Nebraska state penitentiary at Lincoln, was arrested here this evening.
McGill was caught by Detectives Bert Prink and Art Mummert near one of the packing plants. The officers said he had been hiding in a cave in a high bank along Half Moon lake which is nearby.
The officers said they surprised McGill and he offered no resistance. They said they believed he was trying to communicate with his wife who lives here.
Pending word from Nebraska authorities, McGill was being held in jail without charge.

MANTON ON TRIAL

Co-Defendants May Turn Against Him
NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—Martin T. Manton, a former senior U. S. circuit court judge accused of having sold his judicial integrity, went on trial today amid strong indications that three of his co-defendants might turn upon him and testify for the government.
Just after a federal jury made up of 10 men and two housewives had been selected, two of the co-defendants — William J. Fallon, Manton's business agent, and Forrest W. Davis, an accountant — entered pleas of guilty.

Beach Hostesses!

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—A "sunburn patrol" will start ranging Clearwater's beach June 1, warning too ardent sunbather seekers when blushing shoulders indicate too much of a good thing. To lower human resistance to unsolicited good advice, the "patrol" will be made up of a dozen pretty beach hostesses.

More For The World's Museums

DID YOU ever visit a museum? Remember peering cautiously into the cases housing the relics of past generations. Perhaps you wondered why some of these items had outlived their usefulness. They were curious to you and to a world too far distant for memory.

A discussion of curios reminds us that several representatives of European nobility have stepped onto American shores during the past few months. Crowds of thousands flocked to see them. Kings and queens, princes and princesses are few in this competitive system under which we labor.

Perhaps it is not truly consistent to say that nobility has become merely more material for the museum. Nobility's recent visitors to this country have proven beyond a doubt that there is more to "the man born" than meets the eye. But it seems that this nobility of birth has become outmoded somehow. In its place is found the aristocracy of self will expressed in the rising force of clever political connivance. But relics of political rule and misuse have been shelved before. We are just wondering which body politic will next be relegated to some dusty museum corner and labeled "The World, 1939."

Sure, Air-Conditioned Circuses!

IT MAY BE impossible to define "Americanism." But circuses, the kind you remember from childhood, are a part of the Americanism we visualize. We know too little about the history of the circus to know where it originated, but the loss of the circus to Americana would be regrettable. That's why we are happy to be reading these days about the rejuvenated circuses that are hitting the road this summer. That most famous of shows won't be the same, of course, this summer—the tents will be air conditioned!

Bigger than ever the show slips from town to town. We're wishing them success this season—we still get a kick out of sitting under "the big top."

Has Chairman Dies Been Reading Books?

MARTIN DIES is back in the news these days, beginning a new series of investigations into "un-American" activities. Congressman Dies, you will remember, is the same who last summer made his congressional committee one of the most blatantly red-baiting groups in American history, who proved just before the election last November that it could also be used as a propaganda machine. May Americans were pretty disgusted with Congressman Dies when he called it a session late last fall. Since that time Congressman Dies received a congressional appropriation of $100,000 to continue his work this year. Also Congressman Dies has been sick, and during his illness, he reported, he read some books, and they changed a lot of my ideas.

That was encouraging news, although skeptics discounted it. Last week, Martin Dies had issued a list of subpoenas which appear to have some significance. Among those who have been called to appear are George Deatherage of St. Albans, W. Va., head of the Knights of the White Camella, one of the most blatantly active fascist organizations in America; another James Erwin Campbell, an alleged member and promoter of the German-American Bund, still another Maj. Gen. Van Horn Moseley, whose plea for a "general uprising against the communistic new deal" caused him last year to be dismissed from the United States army.

Yesterday Dudley P. Gilbert, New York socialist, was brought before the committee to explain why he had for months been organizing "real Americans" into a private army to be ready for a "red revolution."

All of this might be the beginning of important testimony; Chairman Dies could uncover what seem to be extensive anti-semitic workings in America, actual drillings of private armies, open registrations for German-American Bund activities, all constituting real "un-American" activities.

By "un-American," of course, we mean bestirring prejudice, ignoring justice, fostering insurrections. Chairman Dies may just possibly be on the right track this time. There is a place for an honest, justice-seeking committee such as Dies' and operating under democratic principles. May it continue the good work now begun.

Prospect of war is not so acute now, observes European observer. What's this? Has someone actually caught Mussolini smiling?

We're glad their majesties' ship passed through ice floes. Our welcome will seem all the warmer.

So far no New York world's fair visitor has gone to the Aquarium looking for the subway sardines.

Whenever a statesman's political pals boom him as presidential timber he ought to first find out whether they really consider just a potential plum tree.

CLIPPED from other COLUMNS

'BEEFING' ABOUT BEEF

AMERICAN Ferdinands, if there be such, may go back and lie down under their favorite mesquite trees. Although President Roosevelt had given assurance that he intended no reflection on the American bovine when he approved purchase of Argentine canned beef for the United States navy, a senate committee has supported a provision to prevent such importations in future.

One interesting upshot of the debate is to illustrate that American agriculture, like Caesar's Gaul, is divided into three parts.

One part consists of the cotton and grain farmers—producers of export surpluses—who have traditionally been low-tariff advocates since they had to pay tariff-protected prices on the things they bought but found tariffs did them no good on the prices of the things they sold.

Another part now very visibly consists of livestock growers—producers of range cattle, sheep and hogs—who fume at any importation of South American corned beef, Australian wool or Polish hams and flock to the slogan, "The American market for the American farmer."

In between is a group exemplified by the dairying industry, which sometimes is on an export surplus basis but more often profits by protection, and so inclines to the side of import restrictions—certainly for the benefit of butter, cheese and milk.

But while protectionism has thus been moving west with the same exclusionist arguments and slogans once used by eastern industry, it is interesting to see a resurgence of freer trade sentiment in the east. Representative Edith Nourse Rogers of Massachusetts reminded the house that the United States "cannot expect to sell American goods to foreign nations unless we buy goods from them."

The following day's news brought a report from Buenos Aires that Argentina is raising its quota to permit sale of thousands more American automobiles in that country.

One reason canned beef is expensive in the United States, it is explained, is that North American packers have found it more profitable to make up these cheap cuts of beef into hamburger and hot dogs. With a few good export orders for motorcars, the increased consumption of hamburgers and steaks in Detroit may mean more money to the cattleman than several consignments of "corned Willie" to the navy.

THE KING BUSINESS

AROUND THE TOWN

With MERLE MILLEP

A LESSON IN FREE ENTERPRISE

I've never quite understood the laws of economics myself, but I have lots of company—especially among economists. For example, I've never understood the law of supply and demand or why they passed it—since it hasn't yet worked out that way.

But I'm not alone; even among business men.

Sunday I argued far into the night with a home town business man whose daily forerunner ruin for himself, his business and the United States in general if "we don't get that mad man out of the White House"

This last despite the fact that his monthly income averages about $350 per.

First place we argued about "federal spending." As my business friend put it, "if all the money Roosevelt has spent were laid end to end, we'd all commit suicide."

Anyway, he reminded me, what about the tax burden. Well, replied I, what about it? Taxes in America are going up, quite a way up. And that, in my mind, is as it should be.

My own view is that those with the incomes are going to be taxed and taxed while the government spends and spends on those without income. And that that is entirely as it should be.

We're slowly working ourselves into a socialized kind of government, and if we don't do it by democratic means, it'll be done anyway. And I prefer the ballot to the lance and rifle.

But then, he countered, this business acquaintance, we're developing a nation of loafers. Gimme, gimme, gimme. Where is the spirit of free enterprise?

I grinned sardonically.

A New Yorker at Large

By George Tucker

NEW YORK—The man who is recognized as the King of Froglies in New York, and also in America, is a fellow known to everyone here as Riley. Ben Riley is a famous restaurateur, owner of the Arrowhead Inn, and he it was who first introduced froglegs as a super-delectable back in 1897.

Since that time he has personally purchased more than six million pairs of frogs. On May 1 each year they replace oysters on the menus, although you may still have oysters if you ask for them.

It was Riley who lobbied for a closed season on frogs, making it illegal to serve them between September and May. Now, if anyone is observed ignoring the off-season, a fine of $10 for each pair of froglegs is imposed.

Billy Rose suffers from calistophobia. He can't stand close and confining places. The walls seem to be closing in on him and that makes him jittery. Perhaps that is why his name is identified with

Health Hints

By Logan Clendening, M. D.

I went to one of those small, intelligent movie houses, particularly to see Sacha Guitry's "Story of a Cheat," which I recommend to all as extremely intelligent movie fare, especially to any Hollywood producers who might desire to aim at something above the grasp of their public, and in the shorts one attempted to show that we translate music into visual symbols.

The theme was that when we listen to music it appeals not only to our auditory sense and the emotions which that sense evokes but also, even though we be not aware of it, to our visual sense, and we evolve imaginary images to go with the sounds.

They played first the Overture from "Aida," and threw on the screen a set of white shapes that moved and counter-moved against a black background in rhythm to the music. They elongated themselves and whirled and met and merged and separated, looking very much like a hanging drop culture of typhoid bacilli, or a dark field preparation.

Next Phase "The Merry Wives of Windsor," and to the stately introductory passage there appeared on the screen an iridescent blue room, across which moved a succession of bright, crimson cubes, coming out of one wall and disappearing into another.

As far as I am concerned, the experiment was, distinctly, not a success. I do not believe I associate any visual images with my music, and I doubt if any other entirely sane person does.

HOLLYWOOD — Cutting-room right vehicle," said the ham. "It's that the way you feel about it. Jed put in, 'the right vehicle for you is a streamliner — heading east.'"

Futility note: For his role in "Golden Boy" Young Bill Holden was given a chest razing—because he plays a young pugilist for almost any role Bob Taylor is made to bare his chest and show the fur thereon—to emphasize his pugnicious qualities.

Another futility note: Lee Cobb, 27, who played ailing Mr. Karp in New York's "Golden Boy," is playing the aged father in Hollywood's "Golden Boy."

Most ticklish dialogue in "Stanley and Livingstone" wasn't of the censorable kind. It was Spencer Tracy's line, "Dr. Livingstone, I presume?" They shot it nine times and inflections in an effort to forestall audience laughter.

Jane Withers has won her Girl Scout "Hostess Badge"—to her own joy and mother's relief. Jane had been practicing all the social stunts—tea-serving, sandwich-making, conversation-steering, etc.—on the Withers' grown-up friends.

Add nominal crimes: Ellen Chancy, who looks like Ellen Chancy, still bearing her movie-given moniker of Janet Shaw.

Apple Pie Queen Gives Her Recipe

WENATCHE, Wash. (AP)—The queen of apple pie-makers in Chelan county, Wash., Mrs. S. V. Nordwall, says apple pies "are born, not made."

"You have to get the 'feel' of cooking pies before you can excel; following recipes won't always work," she says.

Here's her lowdown on how to make a champion apple pie: Crust: 2 cups of flour, 1/2 cup lard; 1/2 teaspoon of salt, and 6 tablespoons of cold water.

Filling: 3 1/2 cups of thinly sliced Spitzenberg apples; 1 tablespoon of butter, and 1/2 cup of sugar and a "little bit" of cinnamon. Bake 45 minutes.

Mrs. Nordwall gets her crusts flaky by using plain lard and mixing with her fingertips until it forms tiny granules, then blending the rest with a fork.

Guests in New York who suddenly discover themselves to be broke should remember this: It is perfectly okay to sleep on park benches in the city but you have to be up by 6:30 a.m. More than 20 park sleepers were brought into court the other morning because they were discovered still snoozing after 7 o'clock.

Browns Clout Homers To Drop Philadelphia Athletics, 6 to 3

Check Athletics' Win Streak at Four As Vern Kennedy Hurls

PHILADELPHIA, May 22 (AP)—The Athletics' four-game winning streak was cracked today by the home run bats of Mel Mazera and Harland Clift which gave the St. Louis Browns a 6-3 victory.

Mazera's clout over the right field wall in the fourth inning shattered a 2-2 tie. With two down in the fifth and one on, Clift for the second time in as many days blasted a round-tripper into the left-field stands to score the winning runs.

Vern Kennedy, big right-hander recently acquired from Detroit, got off to a bad start when Bob Johnson tripled home two runs in the first inning, but thereafter, with the exception of Bill Nagel's homer in the eighth, Kennedy was master of the situation.

EXAMINATION SCHEDULE

Second Semester 1938-1939
Tuesday, May 23, 8 a.m. to Wednesday, May 31, 4 p.m.

The regular program of class work will be suspended and the following semester-examination program substituted for it. Classes will meet for examination in the rooms in which they have been regularly meeting (except classes in SPECIAL GROUPS A, B, C, D, E, F and G, as shown in the form below; and Speech (2), (1), and (4) as shown at "N.B." below).

The Program Committee directs the attention of both students, and instructors and professors, to the regulation that there is to be no deviation from this Schedule, in the case of any examination,—except as authorized by the Committee on Admission and Classification, on the student's written petition, filed in ample time and supported by the recommendation of the department concerned,—to provide relief from an excessive number of examinations within a single day. Deviation for the purpose of completing examinations earlier will not be permitted. Students should prepare and deposit such petitions in the offices of the Deans of Men (men) and Women (women).

In case a student has as many as three examinations in a single day, one of them being a "SPECIAL GROUP" examination, the Committee will authorize only the "SPECIAL GROUP" examination for another time, within examination week, than that specified in the Schedule below. Each petition must specify the exact title and course number of each one of the three courses involved, and the day, and the period, for each of these examinations as indicated in the Schedule.

If such a student's three examinations on a single day include two examinations (either at 8-10 or at 2-4) in one or both of which are found more than one section, at different times, he should, in his petition, clearly set out the facts; and ask the instructor to indicate on the petition whether he is willing to allow him to take his examination in the different section at the different time, as indicated.

Each such petition, before it is filed, should have the approval-statement of the instructor who is able and willing to give the examination at another time (within "examination week") than that provided for in the Schedule.

(Because the "SPECIAL GROUP" examinations are arranged for the special accommodation of the departments and instructors involved, it is expected that in such a case the instructors in charge of the "SPECIAL GROUP" examination should give the examination at another time.)

Each student who is absent from the final meeting of his class as indicated in the Examination Schedule should be reported, on the official grade-sheet at the end of the semester, as "Abs." Before this grade-mark can be removed he must file with the Committee on Admission and Classification a written petition, with adequate vouchers attached, setting forth in full the necessity of his absence. This petition must include a departmentally signed statement indicating whether, in case the Committee finds the absence excusable, the student has the department's and the instructor's permission to take the final examination. If the Committee finds the reason for the absence adequate it will issue to the student a partially prepared special report card (signed by the Secretary, lower left corner) with a form letter explaining to him that he has the Committee's permission, with the departmental consent and at the convenience of the instructor, to take his final examination within one month (or other designated period of time) from the date indicated.

Upon the student's taking the examination thus authorized the outcome is to be reported on this card, and not on any other card.

In the cases of conflicts (within the SPECIAL GROUPS A, B, C, D, E, F and G) the Schedule itself, as presented below, provides general method of making adjustments.

All classes whose first weekly meetings have occurred as indicated in the rectangles below, meet for examination during the periods noted at the tops of these three columns, and on the days noted in the rectangles directly opposite at the left of the double verticle line.

CONFLICTS: In case of conflicting examinations the student should report to the instructor in charge of the first of the two conflicting subjects as listed within the particular SPECIAL GROUP rectangle above which is involved. (Read downward first in left column and then in right column.) This instructor will arrange for you a special examination. Report to him, or her, not later than the regular class hour May 18 or 19; if possible, May 11 or 12.

The first meeting of the class means the first lecture or recitation period in courses having both lectures and recitations, and laboratory periods; or, in the case of courses involving only laboratory periods, the first class-hour of the first weekly meeting. For example, chemistry 21 meets for lectures T Th S at 8. The first regular meeting is consequently, Tuesday at 8, and the class will meet for examination Wednesday, May 24, 2 p.m., according to the tabular form above. Again, physics (126) meets twice each week, T F, for a three-hour laboratory exercise, 1-4. The period for the examination is, therefore, Monday, May 29, 2 p.m.

N.B. All students enrolled in Principles of Speech (1), and sections A and C of Principles of Speech (4) and all freshmen enrolled in sections A, C, D, E, G, H, and I of Principles of Speech (2), meet during the final examination week in rooms announced by the instructors as follows:

Tuesday, May 23—Speech (1), 8-10 a.m.; Section D, 8-10 a.m.; Section H, 8-10 a.m.

Wednesday, May 24—Section 4C, 10-12 a.m.; Section A, 1-3 p.m.; Section E, 1-3 p.m.

Saturday, May 27—Section I, 8-10 a.m.; Section C, 1-3 p.m.; Section 4A, 1-7 p.m.; Section G, 3-5 p.m.

All sophomores, juniors and seniors in Speech (2) meet Wednesday, May 24, from 10-12 in rooms announced by their respective instructors.

All freshmen in sections B, F and J of Speech (2) and all students in section B of Speech (4) meet on the days and at the hours, and in the rooms, announced by their respective instructors.

"ODD" classes—namely, those whose first or only weekly meetings occur on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday or Saturday, or which meet "as arranged," will be assigned for examination as announced to each such class by the instructor in charge of the class, at one or another of the following periods:

1. From 4 to 6 on any day from May 23 to May 31 inclusive,—Sunday and Memorial Day excepted.

2. Any one of the examination periods assigned, as indicated above, for the examinations in SPECIAL GROUPS A, B, C, D, E, F and G, since for such "odd" classes these five examination periods will be found quite available.

In connection with any such announcement it would doubtless be well for the instructor making the announcement to ascertain whether any member of his class is already under appointment for examination in some other class for the proposed period. To be sure, it is possible to have examinations for more than one class at any of these times,—if no student is a member of more than one of these classes. According to one clause in the formal faculty action providing for a special semester-examination program, the instructor may use the examination period as he sees fit provided he holds the class for the full period. He may have an oral or a written examination, or both, or neither, or he may continue regular work or he may use the time for review, or for any phase of his work which may seem to him desirable at this time.

According to another regulation which is on record as adopted by the faculty, a student absent from the final examination should be reported "Abs." unless the instructor recognizes that his work up to this examination has been a failure, in which case the final report should be "Pd."—even though the student may have been absent from the final examination. No examination should be given, subsequently, to such a student until after the absence has been excused by the Committee on Admission and Classification, as shown by a partially filled special report card signed by the Secretary of the Committee, indicating that the absence has been excused and that the student is authorized, subject to the consent and at the convenience of the instructor, to take the final examination.

Soviet Russia Stands Firm In Demands for Closer Form Of Alliance With France, England

League Evasive On Questions of Albania And Czech Partition

GENEVA, May 22 (AP) — Soviet Russia was understood tonight to be standing firm in demands for a closer form of agreement or alliance than had been proposed by Britain to bring her into the British-French front.

Faced with Russian insistence on a closer understanding, British Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax was said to be planning to submit a three-point plan Wednesday to the cabinet in London.

Terms of the plan were said to have been evolved during conferences among Lord Halifax, Ivan Oaisky, Soviet ambassador to London, and French Foreign Minister Georges Bonnet which have taken Geneva's limelight from the 105th council of the League of Nations.

Rejected by Russia

Manisius smilingly rejected all suggestions, it was said, that his country should be content with less than the form of pact which he asked, despite the last-minute efforts of Bonnet.

(Russia originally proposed an outright alliance, but Britain made counterproposals which were described in Moscow as "one-sided.")

(Prime Minister Chamberlain, who has avoided using the word "alliance" throughout the two months of negotiations, replied Friday in the house of commons that there was "reciprocity" in the proposals but that in the negotiations "there is a misunderstanding" and "there is a sort of veil or wall which is extremely difficult to penetrate.")

These were said to be the three points:

1. That the three powers come to each other's aid automatically if any one of the three is attacked directly.
2. That if any state guaranteed by the signatory powers is attacked and asks help the three signatories give immediate aid.
3. That if any signatory considers an act of aggression against a state not guaranteed as affecting its own interests there shall be tri-power consultations to decide if aid should be given and what form it should take.

League Sidesteps Issues

The league council, meanwhile, successfully sidestepped two thorny questions but at a public session this afternoon China's Dr. V. K. Wellington Koo brought up a third: as usual, he asked for league action against Japan and as usual seemed to have little chance of getting it.

The issue of whether exiled Zog or Vittorio Emanuele of Italy was king of Albania was sidestepped by passing it on to the assembly.

It was raised by Zog's insistence that little Balkan kingdom's crown belonged to him and by Italy's notification that Albania, now united with Italy since Vittorio Emanuele accepted the crown, was resigning her league membership.

Quintuplets Back After Visit To King and Queen

CALLANDER, Ont., May 22 (Canadian Press) — Happy and not at all sleepy, the Dionne quintuplets arrived at Callander station at 7:27 p.m. (CST), tonight still thrilled from their meeting of King George and Queen Elizabeth.

The five little girls, chattering about their first train trip, were whisked away in automobiles to be put to bed in their nursery.

"It was all wonderful," chorused the quint's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliva Dionne, and the six other members of the family, as they bustled through the crowd of 800 persons at the station.

"They were very gracious," Dionne said of the king and queen. "From the time they entered the room until their departure we were at home."

Cooler? Weather Man Assures Relief Today

Cooler temperatures for today, with possible thundershowers, have been promised by the weather man to Iowa Citizens who yesterday sweltered in the hottest reading recorded, this year. The mercury soared to a high of 85 degrees, 10 degrees above normal, from a low of 62. The normal is 52.

In 1925 an all time high of 95 degrees for the city was read at the hydraulics laboratory. The high and low temperatures a year ago yesterday were both below normal, standing at 72 and 47 degrees respectively.

Weather observers said extreme humidity added to the discomfort of local citizens yesterday. While no precipitation was measured yesterday the .75 inches of rain Saturday afternoon and early Sunday had a direct bearing on the humidity.

dent of Czecho-Slovakia for league intercession against partition of his vanished state. The appeal, addressed to Joseph A. C. Avenol, secretary-general of the league, March 18, was referred to a committee with the possibility that it may never emerge.

Koo's appeal that all airplane-manufacturing and oil-producing nations ban the export of planes and fuel to Japan was backed by Maisky and Jordan but Halifax and Bonnet opposed it.

"Nocky" Johnson, Enoch L. "Nocky" Johnson, republican boss of Atlantic City, leaves U. S. court in Newark, N. J., after pleading "not guilty" to federal indictment charging him with conspiracy to evade income tax laws. He was freed on $5,000 bail.

F. D. R. Talks At Forum Wants To Enhance Purchasing Power Of Most Customers

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP) — Some salient sentences from President Roosevelt's address to the Retailers National Forum tonight follow:

Consumer purchasing power is the milk in the coconut of all business.

I want, and I think I have your help, to build up the purchasing power of the average of your customers.

How shall we produce more customers with more money?

One school of thought is that I call the school of the gamblers. . . That school is eager to gamble the safety of the nation and of our system of private enterprise on nothing more than their personal hunch that if government will just keep its hands off the economic system customers will just happen.

In the other school of thought we are conservative new dealers. . . We simply can not bring ourselves to take radical chances with other people's property and other people's lives.

If we reduce so-called deterrent taxes on business corporations, we must find substitute taxes to lay on business corporations.

National income will be greater tomorrow than it is today because government has had the courage to borrow idle capital and put it to work.

You can expect this administration to alter the principles and objectives for which we have struggled the last six years.

Neiman Says Wage-Hour Bill Doesn't Aid Small Businesses

Believes Recovery Caused by Volume, Labor-Saving Devices

Presenting an analysis of business conditions in Iowa, Attorney Don E. Neiman of Des Moines, in a talk at the Iowa City Chamber of Commerce luncheon yesterday, explained that the wage-hour bill will help the large manufacturer instead of the small businessman.

Those attending the monthly luncheon meeting for business and professional men in the Jefferson hotel, heard Neiman explain the reasons for the slight recovery in Iowa business. He attributed this situation to the fact that during good times manufacturers, retailers and jobbers built up their volumes in accordance with their overhead, and then did not change their volume with the depression.

In addition to this, he added, "the large concerns are buying labor-saving machinery which the smaller concerns cannot buy, thus making competition too keen for the small manufacturer."

Neiman, who has been secretary of the Central Iowa Unit of the National Association of Credit Men and who has had an unusual amount of experience with Iowa business conditions, said that for a businessman to be really successful he must like his business, and above all expect to put more into business than he gets out of it.

Rollo Norman Elected Pres.

Inter-Church Council Chooses President At Last Meeting

Rollo Norman, A2 of Iowa City, was elected new president of the Inter-Church council at the last meeting of the year of the group. Secretary-treasurer is Robert V. Smith, A2 of Des Moines, and the adviser is the Rev. Robert Hamill of the Methodist church.

The council, composed of representatives from student groups in the various churches, began about five years ago with only three or four churches represented. It has grown to a group of eight which works to promote cooperation among students despite varying denominational beliefs.

In the past year the group has sponsored a roller-skating party for all students, a Palm Sunday breakfast, a series of eight musical vespers, and have cooperated with the university vespers committee, Religious Emphasis week, the religious activities financial drive.

Plans have been started to permit Religious Emphasis week and the Palm Sunday breakfast to be continued as yearly events.

Present members of the council and the churches they represent are Miss Norman, Christian; Don Sellergren, A4 of Stanton, English Lutheran; La Von Ashton, A2 of Lone Tree, Methodist; Irwin Lage, P2 of Gladbrook, Evangelical.

Harold Wallace, C3 of Rembrandt, Congregational; Rudolf Koster, G of Huntington Station, N. Y., Episcopal; Jessica Johnson, G of Eagle Grove, Baptist; Glenn DeMots, C3 of Sioux Center, Presbyterian.

This year's adviser was the Rev. Llewelyn A. Owen of the Congregational church, Parke Woodworth, E3 of Ipswich, S. D., is the retiring president.

Church student groups will select their new representatives next fall.

Ernst Toller, Playwright, Poet, Kills Self

German Anti-Nazi Claimed Founding Of Fuehrer's Party

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP) — Ernst Toller, 46, well-known German author, poet and playwright, hanged himself with a bathrobe cord today, ending an impassioned 20-year struggle for his conception of "democracy."

At the end of the World War Toller was elected president of the Soviet of Bavaria. He served a five-year court martial sentence in a German fortress for directing German red guards against government troops. During the last 10 years of his life, he crusaded on both sides of the Atlantic against fascism.

Toller killed himself in his suite at the Mayflower hotel on Central Park west while his secretary was having lunch outside. He had intended to move into more reasonable quarters in Greenwich Village, friends said.

Police Report Two Breakins Last Week End

Breakins at the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority house and at Racine's No. 3 late Saturday night and Sunday morning, were reported by Iowa City police.

Between $25 and $30 in currency was taken from the sorority house and $1.48 in cash from Racine's. Entrance to the Kappa Kappa Gamma house was gained between 8:30 p.m. Saturday and 1:30 a.m. Sunday through a sun porch on the northeast side of the house. The intruder broke into Racine's No. 3 by breaking through a rest room window between 1:30 a.m. and 2:30 a.m. Sunday.

Both arrests were made by Ivan Franklin, state highway patrolman.
