

Wooderson Finishes Last as Fenske Wins Princeton Mile

By GAYLE TALBOT PRINCETON, N. J., June 17 (AP)—Sydney Wooderson's long-heralded invasion of our running fields ended on a sour note today when the little Briton was the bumped and half-tripped in the final lap of the Princeton invitation mile, and far from setting a new world record, finished last in a slow field of five.

Wisconsin ace, came through with a rush to win in the comparatively poor time of 4:11. Glenn Cunningham, also profiting by Wooderson's misfortune, came up to finish second, about five yards behind Fenske. Archie San Romani came in third, while Rideout just edged out Wooderson for fourth place. Wooderson was clocked in 4:13, as compared to his world record of 4:06.4.

At that, the red shirted winner did put on a terrific kick in the last 150 yards, and the timing reveals he did the closing quarter in 57 seconds, which is fast. But the fact remains that much of Wooderson's reputation and his several world records have been built around his famous closing sprint. There was no reason to believe he had left it home in England this time. Certainly he had not set a fast enough pace to tire him before the accident. He and Fenske might have had a thrilling tussle in the stretch.

supplied most of the excitement of the preliminary program by beating Archie Williams, Olympic 400-meter champion, in the quarter mile. The dusky Williams apparently had the race well in hand 100 yards from home when he came Quigley to race him neck-and-neck down the stretch and nip him at the finish. Another Olympic star, Bill Fritz of Canada, finished third behind the flying youngster. Quigley's time was 47.6. The half mile went for the second straight year to Charles Beetham, former Ohio state track captain. He let young Edward Burrows, Jr., of Princeton set the pace until they hit the last 100 yards, then he turned on the steam and won easily in 1:52. John Borican ran second.

Yankees Get Run in Ninth To Snap Detroit's Victory March

NEW YORK, June 17 (AP)—Like many another winning streak, the nine-game march of the Detroit Tigers splintered against the rugged defenders of Yankee stadium today as the world champions bunched three hits for a run in the ninth inning to win 1 to 0.

Red Ruffing and Buck Newsom, the only pitchers in the American league to win 20 games last year, squared off in a scoreless pitching duel with the big Yankee veteran getting stronger as the game wore along and the loquacious Newsom weakening under the strain.

Then in the ninth inning the Yankees broke out with their inevitable run. Ruffing himself started it with a single, but was forced by Frank Crosetti. Red Rolfe punched a liner into right field for a double and Tom Henrich nearly blasted Newsom's gloved hand loose with a single which brought in the winning run.

Newsom allowed only four hits for eight innings but was in frequent trouble from six passes he gave and four errors committed by two jittery teammates, Pinky Higgins and George Tebbetts. He squeezed out with the bases loaded in the second and third innings.

Johnstown Avenges Former Loss

Beats Volitant, Challenged At The Aqueduct. Adds $9,250 to Total Winnings for Year; Stablemate Also Wins. By MAX HILL. NEW YORK, June 17 (AP)—Johnstown ran his principal three-year-old rivals dizzy again today, leaving Challenged and Volitant far down the stretch, as he won the Dwyer stakes at Aqueduct to bring his total earnings to $165,315.

William Woodward's champion three-year-old and leading money winner of 1939 won handily by a length and a half from Sun Lover of the Chicago owned Millsdale stable. He went to the front quickly and Challenged, owned by W. L. Brann of Frederick, Md., attempted to run with him for a brief period before reaching the turn. That was a mistake and after the field of five straightened in the stretch, Challenged weakened but still held third safely, five lengths in front of the unruly Volitant, which broke from outside the stalls.

"Big John" added $9,250 to his earnings through today's purse. His winnings for the year are $133,895. He paid Brann's color-bearer and Volitant back in full for the decisive racing they gave him in the Preakness mud last May. That was the only 1939 start he has lost, and then he was a bad fifth, sprawling far back in the mud.

Just before the Dwyer, another other of Woodward's horses, Fighting Fox, easily won the Carter handicap by four lengths, with Can't Wait second and Rough Time third. Fighting Fox paid eight to one.

The bookmakers didn't take any chances with Johnstown and held him at the prohibitive odds of one to five. Sun Lover paid four to one to place and even to show, while Challenged was out to show. Time Sheet, which carried the colors of William Ziegler, didn't cut much figure in the running after breaking on top. He dropped back almost immediately.

"Big John" equalled the mark for the stake, 1:48 and 2-5 seconds, set last year by the Chief, but failed by one-fifth of a second to tie Discovery's track record. More than 15,000 persons crowded the course.

S. CAL WINS 5th NCAA TRACK TITLE

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 17 (AP)—Rolling up the amazing total of 86 points, University of Southern California, colossus of the track and field world, completed a clean sweep of its 1939 competition today by winning the National Collegiate A. A. team championship for the fifth successive time.

Five Straight While Coach Dean Cromwell's Trojans were rounding up group honors by the second highest score in the history of the conference-wide athletic carnival, some 30,000 fans cheered individual features which included the establishing of two meet records, successful defense of five titles and a three-way tie for high-point laurels.

Clyde Jeffrey of Stanford captured the 100- and 220-yard dashes, Fred Wolcott of Rice Institute defended his championship in the high and low hurdles and Bill Watson, Negro all-around star from Michigan took seconds in the discus and shot-put.

and fourth in the broad jump to each score 20 points. New Records Elmer Hackney of Kansas State college set a new meet and American shot-put record of 55 feet, 10 3-8 inches, in a heave made in yesterday's preliminaries, while Gregory Rice of Notre Dame set a sizzling pace of 9:02.6 to win the two-mile run in meet mark smashing time.

Other successfully defending their titles were Pete Zagar of Stanford in the discus, John Woodruff of Pittsburgh in the 880-yard run and Louis Zamperini of Southern California in the mile race.

Stanford finished second in the team competition with 46 points while Michigan, largely through the efforts of Watson, accounted for 31 tallies. Hurder Wolcott scored all of Rice's points. Other counters were distributed as follows: Washington State 23; Wisconsin 22; Rice 20; Oregon 16; Texas 13; Pittsburgh 12; Notre Dame 12.

Senators Nose Out Brownies In 11 Innings. WASHINGTON, June 17 (AP)—The Senators beat the St. Louis Browns 4-3 today in 11 innings. George Case began the 11th for Washington by drawing a walk off Jack Kramer who had hurled brilliantly in relief. Cecil Travis sacrificed Case to second and Buddy Lewis was walked intentionally.

33 Qualify For S.E. Golf Play. OTTUMWA, June 17 (AP)—Thirty-three golfers who shot 81 or better in the 18-hole qualifying round play will battle through 36 holes tomorrow on the Ottumwa Municipal course for the 1939 southeastern Iowa amateur medal play championship.

Qualifying round play ended today with 259 out of a field of 303 entries having played the test round. Although Johnny Stolt, young Ottumwan, fired the low qualifying score of 71, one under par, the general favorite to win the title this year was Arthur M. Bartlett, Ottumwa veteran, who shot a 74 in his test round, Harry Richey of Newton, turned in a 72 today.

Giants Extend Win Streak To Nine Straight

ST. LOUIS, June 17 (AP)—The New York Giants battered four pitchers for 16 hits today to extend their winning streak to nine games with a 7 to 5 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals.

The victory brought the soaring New Yorkers within half a game of the second place Cardinals. All of the St. Louis runs came from homers—Terry Moore getting on with a mate aboard in the first, Johnny Mize hitting his first of the season with one on in the second and Don Padgett getting another in the eighth, forcing Harry Gumbert's removal.

13th Child Welfare Conference Opens Tuesday Morning

E. A. Gilmore Opens Session In Old Capitol

Prof. J. B. Nash, Caroline B. Zachry To Open Addresses

With an address of welcome by President Eugene A. Gilmore, the 13th annual Iowa conference on child development and parent education will begin a three-day session here Tuesday at 10 a. m. in the senate chamber of Old Capitol.

Introducing the theme of the conference, "Youth in the World Today," will be Prof. Jay B. Nash of the college of education and the physical education and health departments at New York university, who will lecture on "Youth Looks to Recreation."

Professor Nash is a member of the committee appointed by President Roosevelt to study leisure problems. He is the author of several books and articles on physical education and recreation, including a five-volume work, "Interpretations of Physical Education."

Evening's Lecture
Tuesday evening Professor Nash will lecture in the chemistry auditorium. "Recreation as a National Enterprise" is his topic, and WSUI will broadcast the address at 8 p. m.

Dr. Caroline B. Zachry of the Progressive Education association, New York, will also appear on the Tuesday morning program. She will introduce her topic, "Understanding Your Child," which she will carry through the conference.

Dr. Zachry, who did her undergraduate work and graduate work at Columbia university, is the former head of the psychology department at New Jersey State Teachers college. She is the author of the book, "Personality Adjustments of School Children."

Afternoon Program
Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 will begin the first in a series of round table discussions. Round table I in the senate chamber will be for young people. The subject, "Youth Looks to Recreation," will be led by Professor Nash. Dr. Zachry will lead round table II in the house chamber. "Understanding Your Child" will be her subject.

The Tuesday evening session will be in the chemistry auditorium. Following the address by Professor Nash, Prof. Ralph H. Ojemann will show sound films relative to the general theme.

The Wednesday session will begin in the chemistry auditorium at 9 a. m. with a talk by Prof. Kenneth W. Spence of the psychology department of the University of Iowa. His illustrated lecture is entitled "Family Life Among the Primates."

Wednesday Round Tables
The round table discussions Wednesday morning will be in two groups as on Tuesday. The youth group will study problems of marriage with Prof. Moses Jung of the school of religion of the university as chairman.

A panel group composed of Professor Ojemann, Prof. Paul Sayre of the college of law, president of the National Council on Family Relations, and Prof. Grace Chaffee of the Iowa sociology department will assist in the discussion.

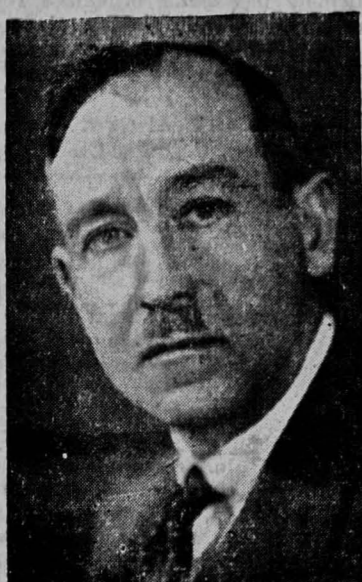

Dr. Zachry will continue with the adult round table in learning to better understand the child. Child welfare needs of Iowa will be discussed at a luncheon in Iowa Union Wednesday noon, when the Iowa State Council for Child Study and Parent Education meets.

Youth's Problems
Youth will discuss its own problems in round table I Wednesday afternoon. Loren Hickerson, university student from Iowa City and managing editor of The Daily Iowan, will be in charge of the session.

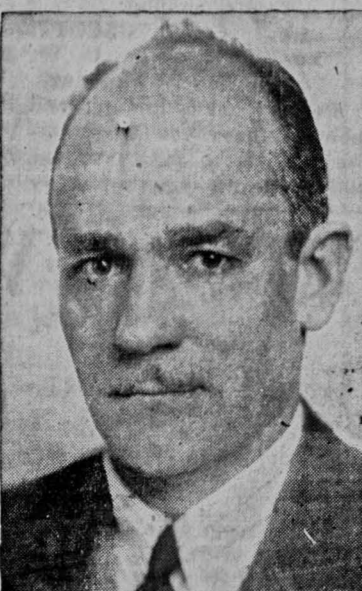

Leaders in this group include Howard H. Nelson, junior chamber of commerce, Council Bluffs, who will introduce the problem of employment; Roy Swanson, senior councillor of the Order of DeMolay, Cherokee, whose particular topic is education and self-improvement; Mrs. Vernon Luck of the Iowa City Junior league, who will lead the discussion on marriage and social life; Harold Hudachek, Iowa City Boy Scout, who will present the recreation and leisure time problem, and Merle Miller, university student from Marshalltown, whose problem will be youth as a citizen and community leader.

The Adult Group
Round table II, the adult group, will study the same problems. Chairman of the group will be Prof. Thomas F. Vance of the psychology and child development departments at Iowa State college. Discussion leaders will include Paul Young, boys' adviser, Davenport high school, Ray F. Myers, principal, Thomas Jefferson high school, Council

Conference Speakers

PROF. JAY B. NASH

HOWARD M. BELL

CHARLOTTE CARR

These three persons are among the eight who will deliver lectures and round table talks during the 13th Iowa conference on child development and parent education to begin Tuesday and continue through Wednesday and Thursday. Prof. Jay B. Nash of the college of education and the physical education and health department of New York university in New York City, will present the first lecture of the conference at 10:15 o'clock Tuesday morning. Following the address of welcome by President Eugene A. Gilmore, Professor Nash will speak on "Youth Looks to Recreation." In the afternoon, beginning at 2:30, Professor Nash will lead a round table on the topic of his morning speech. Again in the evening he will present a lecture, this time on "Recreation as a National Enterprise."

Howard M. Bell, associate director of the American Youth commission of the American Council on Education in Washington, D. C., will present a lecture at 9:45 Thursday morning on the topic "The Needs of Youth." This will be followed by a discussion of Bell's topic and another lecture presented at the morning session. Bell will speak again at a noon luncheon, here on "Youth Takes Hold." Charlotte Carr, director of Hull house in Chicago, Ill., will present her only lecture of the conference at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening. She will speak after the conference dinner in Iowa Union on the topic "Problem Communities."

Bluffs; Mrs. Gladys Denny Shultz, editorial department of Successful Farming, Des Moines; Katherine Krieg, superintendent of recreation in Des Moines, and the Rev. Edwin E. Voigt of Iowa City's Methodist Episcopal church.

The conference dinner will take place Wednesday evening at 7 p. m. in Iowa Union. Reservations must be made before Wednesday noon. Tickets are 75 cents each.

Dinner Speaker
The dinner speaker will be Charlotte Carr, director of Hull House, Chicago. A graduate of Vassar college, Miss Carr is a former policewoman of New York City.

She later served as personnel manager for the Knox Hat company, New York, before becoming assistant director of the bureau of women and children of the New York labor department.

She served as secretary of labor in Pennsylvania, and before com-

All Aboard for New York and The Fair

Forty members of the University of Iowa Scottish Highlanders under the direction of Pipe-Major William L. Adamson and Col. George F. N. Dailey, are shown here climbing aboard the Rocket train yesterday on which they had a reserved car to Chicago. Making the trip are 22 pipers including Pipe-Major Adamson, four dancing lassies, two bass drummers, three tenor drummers, eight snare drummers and Drum-Major Joseph Beleh-rad. The Highlanders will return to Iowa City Tuesday night, June 27. They are scheduled for 10 major appearances in New York and at the fair. More than 100 parents and townspeople were at the depot to see the band off and many more saw their farewell appearance in Iowa City as they marched through the business district yesterday morning singing old Scotch songs on their way to the depot.

These Are Iowa's Dancing Lassies

Shown here, left to right, are Ruth House of Iowa City, Frances Adamson of Iowa City, Luella Brodie of Sioux City and LaVonne Karel of Riverside. These are the four lassies who are accompanying the Scottish Highlanders to New York and will perform with the band at many of the events for which they are scheduled to appear in New York and at the world's fair. These girls dance the Highland fling, the Scottish sword dance and the Reel of Tulloch to the music of the bagpipes of the band. Highlights of the trip for the Highlanders will be the concert on the front steps of the national capitol in Washington, guests of Guy Lombardo and the Columbia Broadcasting company in New York, featured performers at the convention of the Order of Scottish Clans and a concert at West Point military academy.

ing to Hull House she was executive director of relief in New York City with a budget of $9,000,000 a month and a staff of over 10,000. In October, 1937, Miss Carr became director of Hull House, the famous shrine of Jane Addams.

The Final Day

Thursday, the final day of the session, the child welfare group will meet jointly with the fourth annual conference on secondary education. These meetings will be held in Macbride auditorium.

The morning program will begin with a lecture by Edward R. Herbert, director of the Iowa State Employment service, Des Moines. Mr. Herbert will bring the attention of youth to the system, only recently put into effect, of counselling young people who are taking their first jobs.

At 9:45 Thursday morning Howard M. Bell, associate director of the American Youth commission, Washington, D. C., will lecture on the needs of youth. In his study, "Youth Tell Their Story," featured in Life magazine last year, Mr. Bell concluded that the three greatest needs of young people today are adequate programs for occupational adjustment, education and recreation. Mr. Bell will also speak at the noon luncheon for young people. His talk then is entitled "Youth Takes Hold."

In the afternoon session in Macbride auditorium the results of the previous round table discussions will be brought together in a joint session. Summarizing the youth side of the questions will be Mrs. Luck and Miller, and for the adults, Mr. Myers and the Rev. Mr. Voigt. This will be followed by a general discussion.

At 3:30, in the chemistry auditorium, there will be demonstrations of nursery school education.

Prof. Ruth Updegraff of the child welfare department is in charge. Advanced registration is necessary for admission to this session.

During the three days of the

Good-Bye and Good Luck!

President and Mrs. Eugene A. Gilmore bid a final good-bye to Pipe-Major William L. Adamson and his 19-month-old son, Billy, just before the Scottish Highlanders boarded the Rocket train for the first leg of their trip to New York City and the world's fair. Forty members of the nationally famous bagpipe band left Iowa City at 9:16 yesterday morning proceeding first to Washington, D. C., where they will spend today sightseeing and will probably present a concert tonight. President Gilmore will leave Iowa City this morning for New York to be on hand Friday, June 23, for Iowa day at the fair. It is on this day that the Hawkeye sports flag will be hoisted in the Court of Sports, this event to be followed by an Iowa alumni banquet.

Copeland Named Group President

Virgil S. Copeland, Iowa City, was elected president of the men's organization of the Mid-Eastern Iowa Baptist association when the group met in Muscatine Friday as guests of the men's organization of the First Baptist church.

The group of 120 men present represented 18 eastern Iowa Baptist churches.

The story of "Juarez," is three stories in one—the intrigue of Napoleon III; the tragic romance of his puppet emperor and empress, Maximilian and Carlota; and the incredible life story of Benito Pablo Juarez, who liberated his land from monarchy, and became the "Abraham Lincoln of Mexico."

THE STORY THUS FAR: Benito Juarez, a poor Indian, fights his way to the heights in his native Mexico and in 1861 is elected President. His sympathy with the poor embroils his country in war with France. Napoleon III promises Maximilian and Carlota his support if they consent to become Emperor and Empress of Mexico. Juarez pursues ruthless warfare against monarchy. Maximilian, who also sympathizes with the poor, tries in vain to win the support of Juarez. When the Civil War ends in victory for the North, the United States orders Napoleon to remove his armies from Mexico. This leaves Maximilian at the mercy of Juarez. Carlota goes abroad to plead with Napoleon, and when he shows no further interest, she goes mad. While Maximilian, grief-stricken at her plight, considers abdication, Juarez, now in complete power, orders him to leave Mexico or die. Followers of Maximilian urge him to refuse to abdicate. Believing he owes a debt to Mexico he decides to stay—and retreats to Queretaro, using the convent of La Cruz as his headquarters—while his men continue the hopeless task of conquering Juarez.

CHAPTER XII

MAXIMILIAN was called from the small chamber in the Convent of La Cruz where he had been writing—by a bugle call. Now he stood before the shattered remnant of his army. Bleeding and haggard, the few who returned had tried pathetically to salute the Emperor.

"I beg to report to Your Majesty," began General Miramon, "that my command was engaged by Porfirio Diaz... and that these are its sole survivors... Diaz surprised us at San Lorenzo... and was on us... slaughtering us... before we even knew who he was... His advance guard is on our heels... a few hours behind..."

"A few hours..." exclaimed General Mejia, then our line of retreat is cut... We are trapped..."

At the moment a messenger arrived. "Excellencia, General Mariano Escobada demands the surrender

A court martial condemned him to death. Pleas for clemency came from the people of Mexico—from the great world beyond the borders of Mexico. Diaz himself pled with Juarez to spare the life of this brave man. "Don of yourself and your forces." "Upon what conditions?" "My General demands that you surrender unconditionally... You are surrounded, and to resist further is useless... It is my General's desire that he shall not be compelled to destroy the town."

"Inform General Escobada," replied Maximilian calmly, "that I ask no conditions for myself; but that I shall never surrender unless immunity is guaranteed to my officers and men..."

"My General demands that you surrender unconditionally." "We shall not surrender." "Some of the officers advised attempted escape—others argued for a fight to the death. 'You will make arrangements for an attack at midnight!' Maximilian said at last, 'and it is my express command that the men be told that there is no dishonor if they choose to remain behind. Take only those who volunteer!'"

"Concentrate every available man," directed General Mejia, "on the Hill of the Bells as soon as darkness falls, leaving only a line of sentry posts in the other sectors..."

"And let us dine together this evening, Senores," said Maximilian with the ingratiating smile that they were never to forget. "There are a few bottles left. Some wine I brought with me from Chapultepec; we shall take this occasion to open them." The Juaristas surrounded the convent as Maximilian and his officers were taking their last meal together. Suddenly the cannonading stopped.

Maximilian was imprisoned and placed under guard.

Motorists Are Warned Against All-Night Parking

Iowa City motorists yesterday were warned by Frank Burns, police chief, that street storage or parking on the streets of the city all night is prohibited. The city ordinance against street storage will be enforced through the summer months, Police Chief Burns said. Sections of the Iowa City code covering the violations read: "It shall be unlawful to use any street or alley for storing or repairing vehicles except for a short time in case of an emergency." "It shall be unlawful to park any vehicle on any street for a period of time longer than 30

Pageant To Be Rehearsed First Time Tuesday

"Old Stone Capitol Remembers," the centennial pageant, will be rehearsed for the first time at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Masonic temple. Episode directors, the property and costume chairman and stage manager of each sponsoring organization is asked to be present. A short walking rehearsal of the entire pageant will be part of the rehearsal. Mrs. Claudine H. Rolf, director of the state fair pageant at Des Moines last summer, will direct the centennial pageant.
